Hopes For Monetary Inflation Crushed In Defeat

House Plan Of Submission Is To Be Adopted

Senate Committee Shows Favor By Unanimous Report Monday On Measure; Final Action Seen By Thursday

Opposition To Local Option Is Expressed But Action Is Withheld; Election Slated For August 26

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, April 17.—The senate committee on constitutional amendments today voted a unanimous favorable report on a house resolution proposing submission to the people of the question of legalization of 3.2 per cent beer. The proposed constitutional amendment would be submitted on next August 26.

A few members of the committee expressed opposition to the local option feature of the resolution but took no action after they were warned any material alteration might kill the proposal.

Adopted By Agreement

Senator W. H. Hopkins of Gonzales, senate advocate of legalized beer, pointed out the resolution was adopted by the house under an agreement by the beer and anti-beer factions. He asserted that if the proposal were materially changed, it might upset this agreement and result in the resolution not receiving the two-thirds majority necessary for submission.

The proposed constitutional amendment would provide that political sub-divisions which were dry before the adoption of statewide prohibition would not be given beer immediately even though the state should approve legalization. The voters of those sub-divisions would have to approve legalization in another election before beer could be sold within their limits.

Opinions Are Varied

Two or three committee members expressed belief the whole state should have beer until the voters of some of the sub-divisions decided otherwise. Senator Hopkins said he agreed with this idea but that he did not believe it advisable to attempt such a change.

An amendment to clarify the resolution was adopted. However, committee members expressed confidence that the house would concur in this change.

It was indicated floor action on the proposed constitutional amendment would be held up until the beer taxation and regulation bill is ready for floor consideration. The senate state affairs committee planned to meet tomorrow to consider the taxation bill. Senators expressed doubt that final action on either proposal could be taken before next Thursday.

State Bond Issue Urged For Texas

AUSTIN, April 17. (AP)—A $20,000,000 state-wide bond issue, proceeds of which would be used to supplement Reconstruction Finance corporation funds in giving relief to the unemployed, was proposed in the legislature today.

Resolutions proposing submission of a constitutional amendment to authorize issuance of the bonds were introduced. The election would be held on July 15.

Should the amendment be approved by the electorate the bonds would be issued only as needed to meet requirements of the federal government in its disbursement of the federal funds. The bonds would bear 4 1-2 per cent interest and would mature not to exceed ten years from their date.

Herriot Sails For America With Hopes For Agreement

LE HAVRE, France, April 17. (AP)—Former Premier Edouard Herriot, France's special representative for President Roosevelt's economic discussions in Washington, sailed today with the hope that he might succeed in clearing the way for a French offer to wipe out the war debt with a lump sum payment.

Although M. Herriot has been instructed to play the part of an observer, rather than a negotiator, he will lose no opportunity to prepare for later debt negotiations through Andre De Laboulaye, the new French ambassador at Washington.

Sharp Reduction In Army Strength Of U. S. Looms

Roosevelt Economy Ax Sharpened For Cut In Armed Forces; Dern Submits Sketch

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 17. — The Roosevelt economy campaign is heading for a reduction of fourteen to eighteen thousand in the strength of the army.

With orders from President Roosevelt to cut $144,000,000 from the war department for next year, Secretary Dern late today sent a tentative draft of the new program to Director Douglas of the budget.

It provides for a reduction in the enlisted personnel of the army of between 12,000 and 15,000 men and for the retirement of 2,0( ) or 3,000 officers. The army strength today is 117,000 enlisted men and 12,000 officers.

A final decision on the proposal may be made by President Roosevelt at a conference tomorrow.

Elimination of rivers and harbors improvements for the 1934 war department budget also is contemplated. However, this probably will be offset by inclusion of this work in the impending public works program to be asked by the president and paid for by a bond issue.

The president's orders are for a cut of $90,000,000 in military activities and $54,000,000 in non-military activities of the war department.

Senate Refuses Bill To Force Use Of Large Portion Of Auto License Funds For Road Bonds

Oxen Will Be Used On Farm

Meekly treading paved streets and pulling an automobile-tired wagon, P. M. Jeffcoat's oxen made their debut downtown Monday afternoon.

Jeffcoat of 1312 Twenty-sixth street said he planned to farm 30 acres of land near here with the animals this year.

"They are cheaper than mules," was his explanation.

The pair, one a Jersey steer and the other a black bull, responds to "gee" (go to the right) but do not know "haw" (go to the left). Jeffcoat, who walks at the left side of the animals, commands "comere" when he wants them to turn to the left.

The yoke was bought in Alabama. Jeffcoat said he had lived in this section 34 years. It took about three months to train the oxen.

House Engrosses A Measure To Increase Fees Of Students In State Schools; Fees In Summer Optional

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, April 17. — The Texas senate today refused to pass a bill by Senator Joe M. Moore of Greenville to force counties to use a material part of their automobile license receipts in retirement of outstanding road bonds.

The bill finally was laid on the table after four hours of argument.

The bill originally provided that counties would have to use fifty per cent of their automobile license money in the retirement of bonds. On motion of Senator Julian P. Greer of Elkhart, this figure was changed to 25 per cent. The remainder could be used for construction an maintenance of county roads.

Under existing law, the various county commissioners courts determine whether the funds are used for county road work or whether they are applied on outstanding bonds.

Afford Tax Relief

Senator Moore and others contended that the bill would afford tax relief by reducing the taxes for the retirement of bonds. Opponents countered with assertions that passage of such a proposal would hamper county road work.

The house engrossed a bill to increase the tuition fees of students attending state-supported institutions after spending the entire day debating the proposal.

Would Increase Fees

The bill would increase the fees of resident students from $30 to $50 per long term. Tuition for the

Ruth Judd Shrieks Wild Imprecations At Jurors

Clock Tolls As Depression Ends

(By The Associated Press)

DAYTON, Tenn., April 17. — Dayton merchants are convinced the depression is over. Just after a Saturday when the town had been thronged with farmers and merchants had done the most business in months, the feeling of optimism seemed to reach the town clock. The timepiece, that had been silent for two years, began striking the time again.

Force Is Needed To Take Woman From Court To Cell

(By The Associated Press)

FLORENCE, Ariz., April 17.—Struggling and shrieking imprecations, Winnie Ruth Judd was removed forcibly today to her state prison cell from the court room where a hearing was in process to determine her sanity.

After a few minutes at the prison and a short drive around country roads in custody of Warden A. G. Walker, the convicted slayer of Agnes Anne LeRoi returned to the court room meekly, sat down in a chair, placed her chin in her hands and stared at the carpet beneath her feet.

Most Violent Outburst

The outburst, the most violent of her demonstrations since the hearing began last week, came while her husband, Dr. William C. Judd, was upon the witness stand testifying to a belief that his wife was insane.

He had been preceded by the parents of the young woman, the Rev. and Mrs. H. J. McKinnell of Darlington, Ind., who readily related to the jury of 12 men the belief that their daughter was a victim of insanity which had been traced back 125 years within the family.

Mrs. Judd's wild cries and gestures broke upon the court room like a storm.

Screams Are Piercing

"Leave me alone!" she suddenly screamed. "Quit torturing me, you bullies, you cowards, you gangsters—quit torturing me!" So piercing were her screams that the shouts of a state attorney demanding her removal, could hardly be heard. The court quickly ordered that she be removed.

Warden Walker carried her away, her arms fanning the air and her hair streaming down upon her face.

On the court house lawn she prostrated herself, beating the grass with her heels. Finally she was placed in a car, and, after a short time at the prison, followed by a drive on surrounding roads, she was quieted.

Eyed By Jurors

As she re-entered the court room, the jurors eyed her keenly.

Oklahoma Black Is Taken To State Prison At McAlester For Safe-Keeping; Victim Killed With Hammer

(By The Associated Press)

MUSKOGEE, Okla., April 17. — County Attorney Phil K. Oldham announced tonight that Bill Johnson, 30-year-old negro, had confessed the hammer murder of Miss Mary Wolfenberger, a seamstress, here the night of last Dec. 27.

The negro immediately was taken to the state prison at McAlester for safe-keeping.

Arrested in connection with a recent burglary, Johnson was grilled concerning the murder of the 60-year-old seamstress when a letter written by him was found in a pocket of a coat, allegedly stolen.

Letter Is Quoted

The letter read in part: "A woman was killed here. It's getting hot for me. I've got to get out of town."

Oldham said Johnson told officers he killed the woman with a hammer when she resisted robbery. Johnson explained that he carried the hammer to knock locks off automobile tires.

The county attorney said he would file murder charges tomorrow.

Bank Robbery Suspect Held

Man Driving Yellow-Wheeled Car Is Arrested Monday At Roswell; Car Is Similar To One Used At Muleshoe

(By The Associated Press)

ROSWELL, N. M., April 17.— An armed man driving an automobile similar, police said, to that in which the robbers of the Muleshoe, Texas, bank last Thursday were reported to have escaped, was arrested here late tonight.

The man gave his name as J. C. Buck. He is about 26 years old and told officers he was from Oklahoma. He declined to answer questions or to write his name.

Woman Asks For Man

Shortly after his arrest, a woman appeared at the police station and asked if a man by the name of Clark was being detained. She likewise refused to give any information or answer any questions.

Factor Urges Kidnapers Not To Harm Youth

Father Of Victim Is Worn And Haggard By Nocturnal Tours Of Underworld; Says He Has Talked With Son

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 17.—Worn and haggard from his nocturnal tours of underworld haunts, John Factor, fighting extradition to England for fraud, today declared he would comply with any "reasonable" ransom demand for the safe return of his kidnapped son, Jerome, 19.

The speculator whom England wants for allegedly bilking investors of several million dollars, said he talked on the telephone with his son, a university student, 36 hours after he had been seized last Wednesday night.

Treatment All Right

"They are treating me all right so far," Jerome told his father, "but hurry up with the money, or it will be tough for me."

Factor expressed irritation at constant "shadowing" by police and indicated he preferred to play a "lone hand" in negotiating for his boy's return.

He had not established actual contact with the abductors, he said, nor had negotiations reached the stage of a "go between."

Doing Certain Things

"I'm doing certain things," he said, "but to talk to them now would cause it all to end disastrously."

Factor's secretary late this afternoon received a telephone call purporting to come from Jerome's kidnapers.

"This is the kidnapers," the caller said. "Tell Jack to get that money

Bryanesque Echoes Of Drive In '96 Heard In Senate As Sponsors Of Inflation Seek Approval Of Plan

Thomas Has Plan

Second Proposal By Oklahoman Would Give President Broad Powers; Debate On Measure To Open Today

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 17.—A soft-spoken word from the White House today crushed in defeat senate advocates of monetary inflation as a means of aiding the farmer.

Their proposals to add remonetization of silver to President Roosevelt's far reaching agricultural relief bill was defeated 43 to 33.

Amid Bryanesque echoes of the turbulent '96 campaign, the senate resounded all afternoon to a cry for free coinage of the white metal at 16 to 1 with gold, sponsored by Senator Wheeler (D-Mont) and urged by others.

Strength Is Great

The chief executive's opposition to making currency inflation part of the farm program was considered by many senators the decisive factor in defeating the silver amendment. Opponents were amazed by the strength shown for it and said several who favored inflation voted against it only because Mr. Roosevelt did not want it added to the agricultural bill.

A moment before the vote, Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic leader and only opponent to speak, informed Senator Borah (R-Idaho): "The president does not desire" the amendment.

Borah had said he would vote against it if the president disapproved.

Two Go Hand In Hand

The Idahoan had been insisting that only through expansion of the currency could commodity prices be lifted, the depression conquered and the farmer's income restored. He contended farm relief and inflation went hand in hand.

Undaunted by this setback, but cheered by the gain from last January, when his silver plan was defeated 56 to 18, Wheeler announced

Capitol's Supply Of Beer Exhausted In Four Hours; Congressmen Are Dry

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 17.—In the same house restaurant where real beer last was sold 30 years ago thirsty congressmen, their guests and secretaries today downed 720 bottles of the new 3.2 beverage.

But unlike the scene 30 years ago—when men lined up at the bar—the new beer was sold only at tables.

Promptly at 12 noon it went on sale. The first to be on hand were Representatives Delaney and Boyaln of New York, Berlin of Pennsylvania and Fernandez of Louisiana. And from the time they clinked glasses and cried "prosit," "skoal," and "here's how" until the stock of 30 cases finally gave out there was a stream of searchers for the foamy brew.

Many of the buyers were not congressmen, for the beer was served, as well, in the section of the restaurant that is open to the public. But whoever drank it, the beer was all gone in about four hours.

"Guest Day" Program Is Presented At First Christian Church Monday

The Woman's Angle

* * *

BY BLANCHE BEAN WILSON
Avalanche Woman's Editor

IF YOU weren't at church Sunday, you must have been almost the only one in your neighborhood who was at home. The town turned out in new clothes and old. The wind stayed away until afternoon, so, altogether, the Easter parade was something to see in this city.

* * *

Here is a thought, though. "I wonder," observed the woman next to me, "what is the point in coming to church once a year—Easter morning. We have church here every Sunday and in the middle of the week and this is just another worship service."

* * *

And I wondered, too, why only once.

* * *

YOU WILL LAUGH

PERHAPS it is just as well that fate has arranged the world's affairs to give us all a laugh, but have you ever looked at fashions of a past era without having a good time?

* * *

Easter Sunday is a day when much is made of fashions. Looking at all of the women in their finery, you probably thought that styles are prettier this spring than they have ever been. You, too, probably loved the predominance of white, the puffed sleeves, feminine bows, the tricky hats and all the rest. But, pretty as they are today, you will be laughing at them in another five years.

* * *

The turban that you perch on one ear now is going to give you a pretty laugh in a few more seasons when hats are pulled well down over both ears and rest on the rim of your spectacles.

MUSIC ALL YEAR

FROM Mrs. M. D. Ramsey, chairman of public school music in the seventh district of the Texas Federation of Music clubs, comes a request that every school in this district have a musical program during National Music week, which begins the first Sunday in May.

* * *

"This should not be difficult for schools that have a school music department and are practically prepared for this opportunity, but it may seem more difficul to those who are largely unprepared," she writes, adding, "Here are some suggestions for these: If you have any trained musicians in your school or community, present them in a program at this time; an evening given to community singing might be enjoyable at this tie; still another way is to use a few songs but spend most of the time in a literary program based on the lives of composers, orchestra and band leaders and their work; the use of hymns and familiar songs, together with the story of how each came to be written would make an interesting program."

* * *

A good idea. Between now and National Music week and then during that week we are going to be urged over and over to have more interest in music and other groups will be asked to have musical programs.

* * *

Here there will be programs during week, unless this year is much different from all of the rest. The Lubbock Music club always observes this week with public and private programs. School people participate in the observance.

* * *

For one week in the year we will know that good comes from listening to good music, to playing and singing.

* * *

But why can't we go further and have music all of the time. Not public programs, alone, but music in which everyone can participate. The singing or whistling man or woman is pretty likely to be a happy one.

* * *

Perhaps you have grown up in a household where there was never any music. If so, you have missed one of the grandest things in life. Maybe you can't sing and your whistling is off-key, but try it out for a while and see how much more sunny the world looks. It is a good thing to have National Music week with programs and emphasis on music and composers. It will be better if we have National Music year with everyone playing or singing or whistling. Troubles will disappear a lot quicker if we can meet them with a song—just any old song.

Plot On Life Of Chancellor Hitler Believed To Be Nipped In Arrest

Youth Seized In Uniform Of German Nazis

Police Are Suspicious Of A Plot On Chieftain's Life Because Of Recent Actions Of Suspect

BERCHTESGADEN, Germany, April 17 (AP)—Police today arrested Paul Orlowsky, a medical student who was wearing a Nazi uniform, as he loitered near the Platterhof a few minutes before Chancellor Adolf Hitler was scheduled to visit the neighborhood.

Police said they were suspicious a plot was being hatched on the chancellor's life because of Orlowsky's recent actions in the vicinity of Hitler's Bavarian mountain retreat.

Conference Slated

Hans Seldte, leader of the steel helmet veterans organization here to confer with the chancellor about a working agreement between the Nazis and the steel helmets, was due to appear with the chancellor at the Platterhof.

Criminal police, whose duties are like those of secret service men, said they had been watching the medical student for several days during his residence at a local pension.

Shortly before Herr Seldte and the Chancellor arrived, the police arrested the suspect and hurried him to headquarters.

Papers Are Forged

After questioning and searching him, the authorities revealed Orlowsky had a falsified certificate authorizing him to wear the uniform of Chancellor Hitler's Nazis. He also had forged identification papers, they said.

A quantity of morphine and loaded revolver shells were found in his possession. Police said they would question him further.

Two Carried To Death In Crash

EASTLAND, April 17. (AP)—Spinning to earth from a low altitude, a plane carried Bill Hussey, 26, Eastland pilot, and J. W. Penn, 30, Cisco oil company employe, to death.

The plane in which they were flying crashed yesterday in the yard of Evon Brunett, caretaker of the Eastland airport, narrowly missing the roof of his home.

Witnesses said the plane had been flying over the city and as it approached the field, it banked sharply. The motor apparently stalled and it went into a spin.

Penn's body was taken to Cisco for burial today. Hussey's was held at an Eastland mortuary pending completion of funeral arrangements.

Daniels Makes More Friends

Mexican Student Ranks Become Warmer Toward Ambassador As He Sends A Greeting On His Arrival

MEXICO CITY, April 17. (AP) — Student leaders told El Nacional today that Ambassador Josephus Daniels' first remarks here had created a magnificent impression in Mexican student ranks and had started a reversal of the opinion of the new envoy previously held by students.

The leaders were especially pleased with Mr. Daniels' viewpoint on international relations and with the respect he has shown for students, the newspaper found.

"The first acts of the distinguished journalist have created a magnificent impression in student ranks," said Guillermo Ibarra, secretary of the national student federation, which had attacked the appointment of Mr. Daniels.

Ibarra expressed satisfaction that the ambassador had sent salutations to Mexican students. Other student leaders expressed confidence that the ambassador would prove to be a warm friend.

Mr. Daniels took over his post Saturday. Because his appointment had been criticized by some Mexicans he was accorded an extraordinary guard when he arrived in the capital.

Churches Get Large Crowds

More Than 9,000 Persons Join Easter Parade Sunday Here As Church Services Are On For Full Day

Churches of Lubbock were thronged by more than 9,000 persons Sunday for Easter services which were conducted from dawn to sunset.

Sunday school attendance exceeded the record for any Sunday in the year as a total of 5,509 was reported.

Hundreds Turned Away

It was necessary to place chairs in the aisles of several churches and hundreds of persons were turned away. A small overflow at First Methodist church was seated in the chapel, where a loud speaker had been installed.

Christians of the city worshipped the risen Christ on this holiest day of the church through songs, anthems, scriptures, dramatic presentations, prayers and silence. Perfect weather in the morning made church-going the more pleasant.

The baptism of infants and reception of members into the church at several institutions were highpoints of the services.

Sunrise Services Held

Sunrise services on the courthouse lawn, sponsored by the Downtown Bible class, and at Texas Technological college, sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. organization, totaled approximately 500 persons.

Fifty-nine members were received in the First Methodist church Sunday and 23 babies were baptized.

Various church attendances for the morning services were estimated by church officials as follows: First Baptist, 1,500; First Methodist, 1,300; Broadway Church of Christ, 1,300; First Presbyterian, 550; Central Baptist, 500; First Christian, 450; Asbury Methodist, 400; Calvary Baptist, 350; Saint Paul's Episcopal, 200; Church of the Nazarene, 250; West End Baptist, 200; Cumberland Presbyterian, 130. While no definite count was available on other institutions of the city, it was estimated that over 1,800 members attended.

Only Houston among Texas league cities is reported still enthusiastic about night baseball.

Chief's Helpers Are Now Missing

Fire Chief W. E. Twitty yesterday afternoon was painting an aluminum bronze preparation on a Packard hose carrier the department has been remodeling. He was working alone.

"When we began on this car you hardly could find room around it to work in," he said as he dabbed paint on the equipment which is being built at a saving of more than $3,500. "The novelty wore off, and you see where they are now."

The chief was right, except he was wrong. Not another member of the department was in sight.

Local Schools Again At Work

Lubbock System Will Continue For Full Nine Months After Announcement That Aid Will Come From Banks

Lubbock public schools Monday resumed normal work after an announcement Sunday by the school board that the schools would be continued a full nine-month term.

Much apprehension had been shown the last week among teachers and students after the board's announcement that the schools would be closed unless sufficient delinquent taxes were collected to pay expenses. Continuance of the schools was brought about by the aid of two local banks, the receipt of $10,880 in state funds, and collection of $17,000 in delinquent taxes.

Two banks, the Lubbock National and the Citizens National agreed to carry $20,000 and $15,000 in loans respectively until later in the year.

Collections of delinquent taxes were still being received at the office of A. C. Jackson, collector, this morning. Indications were that collections would run over $20,000 by the middle of this week.

Nervous Condition Improved After Woman Took Cardui

"I found myself in a weak, rundown condition, and very nervous, so much so that at times I felt like I wanted to scream," writes Mrs. J. T. E. Thomas, of Spartanburg, S. C. "The least noise would make me tremble and feel weak and nervous. I read where Cardui had helped other weak women, and decided to try it myself. I felt better after I began taking Cardui, and decided to keep it up. I took six bottles in all. I was in a better condition after taking Cardui. My nerves were more settled."

Cardui, the purely vegetable medicine which so many women take and recommend, is sold by local druggists.

Wrestlers Tangle Here Tonight; South Plains Baseball Loop Formed

Dutch Mantell A Favorite In Semi-Final Go

Cal Farley Presents Quartet Of Rib-Crushers At Uptown Dance Palace; Is Lubbock's First "Class" Show

Professional wrestling as demonstrated by "class" athletes makes its debut in Lubbock tonight.

The Uptown Dance palace is the place, 8 o'clock is the time, forty cents the price and Cal Farley the stage manager and referee.

Farley already is known to hundreds of Lubbock and South Plains fans. He has never appeared here, but his wrestling activities at Amarillo, where he staged a valiant attempt to win the world's welterweight championship, are well known.

Tickets Going Fast

Tickets for the affair, on sale this morning at the Lubbock and Hilton hotel drug stores, are going fast, and a full arena is anticipated tonight.

A regulation ring has been erected in the middle of the Dance palace, elevated so that all may see, and seating room for nearly 2,000 persons.

"Terrible Ted" Travis, the "West coast powerhouse," as he is known in Los Angeles, his home town, all up and down the Pacific slope and in the Texas Panhandle, meets Eddie Brock, Amarillo boxing instructor and a fine athlete, in the main event tonight. It is a best two-out-of-three fall setto, no time limit, finish fight.

One of the most popular middleweight wrestlers in the country, a world-traveled exponent of the mat game and a popular guy over this section is Dutch Mantell, the Teuton krauter who tangles with Pat Garrison, the "Arkansas Razorback," in the semi-final match.

Garrison a Comer

Of Garrison, a 24-year-old middleweight, there is much that could be said and more than may be seen tonight. A "regular feller" in the ring, who can take it and dish it out with the best of them, Garrison will make another attempt to defeat the veteran Mantell in what may steal the show tonight. With Mantell in the ring against anybody, anything is likely to happen, and the Little Rock youth packs plenty of skill and strength. It's a queer combination to say the least—53-year-old Mantell against the youthful Garrison—but the one-fall, finish fight threatens to go a long time before it's over.

His press agent says of Mantell by way of introduction:

"The old Dutchman, who started his wrestling career 37 years ago at Freemantle, West Australia, has battled all over the world and thrilled a million fans. He has fought them on the banks of the Seine, in the shadows of the Pyramids, along the banks of the flowing Nile, in frozen Moscow, in India where scarlet-bellied snakes sway to the taunting flutes of sorcery, under the mid-night sun of Alaska, in the shadow of China's Great Wall, in Hokahama and from coast to coast in the good old U. S. A."

For Or Against

His associates say that there is no happpy medium for Dutch. He has a million enemies and a million friends. He is either loved dearly or hated extremely. He thrives under boos and jeers, and the throwing of pop bottles is sweet music to his twisted ears.

Although a nice, refined gentleman outside the ring, Mantell, famous for his "sock 'em and rock 'em holds," is likely to call a moratorium on anything, make for the ropes, kick his opponent in the face, pull his hair, gouge his eyes out and anything else not on the books.

Full houses greet his Amarillo appearance every time. Half of them go to see him killed, the other half to see what new stunt is going to be pulled on his unwary opponent. He wrestles with his feet and teeth as much as with his hands. One of his pet plays is to get his opponent and the referee tangled up while Mantell socks both of them.

Outside the ring, Dutch is as mild as the proverbial lamb, generous to a faulty degree, an enthusiastic civic worker, a fall guy to panhandlers and is kind to dumb animals.

A fine specimen of manly physique and brute strength is Ted Travis, who had won 117 consecutive professional matches until recently when he was pinned by George Ligosky, a ferocious Russian from Moscow. Since then Travis has been pelting 'em high and hard in his attempt to get the call for appearance in a championship bout. He's generally accepted as one of the foremost contenders for the light heavyweight championship. He has won victories over Otis Clingman, Joe Kopecky, Less Crimes, the Australian champion, Tommy Heinz, the San Diego "earthquake," and scores of other good fighters.

HOUSTON WINS TROPHY

DALLAS, April 17 (AP)—Houston won the annual Texas League attendance trophy for opening day this year with a total paid attendance of 5,398. Galveston was second with 4,891, J. Alvin Gardner, president of the league, announced today.

Here he is, "Terrible Ted" Travis, the West Coast powerhouse, who makes his debut in a Lubbock ring tonight when he meets Eddie Brock of Amarillo in the main event of Cal Farley's professional wrestling show.

Weighing 185 pounds, including the muscles of his 19-inch neck, Travis stands 5 feet, 8 inches tall and covers more than the ground he stands on. His chest expansion of 49 inches alone is enough to frighten most of his opponents. Fast, aggressive and talented, Travis is here to build up his reputation as a contender for the world's light heavyweight championship. He has a worthy opponent in Brock, Amarillo boxing and wrestling instructor.

Season Starts April 30 With 6 Clubs Ready

Skip Taylor Of Tahoka Named President Of New League; To Split Season And Play Only Sunday Games 1st Half

The South Plains Independent Baseball league was organized at a meeting here last night attended by representatives of seven teams and half a dozen interested fans.

W. S. "Skip" Taylor of Tahoka was unanimously elected president.

The season will start Sunday, April 30 and the first half will end on July 2. Only Sunday games will be played during the first half. Two games per week probably will be played during the second half.

Seven Teams Represented

Teams represented last night by delegates who said they would be ready to post the forfeit bond, assuring the playing out of the schedule, were: John Bradley and E. E. Gee of Amherst, Frank Larkin of Tahoka, Fred Rich of Wolfforth, Douglas Howell of Enochs and Ed Hambright, representing Slaton and Lubbock by proxy. Two Lubbock teams were represented, but the Alley Rats, managed by Hollis Payne, showed little inclination toward joining the league.

It is probable that two additional clubs will join between now and the final meeting next Monday night. Two schedules will be drawn up, one for a six-club league and the other for an eight-club league.

Committee Appointed

Ed Hambright, presiding at last night's meeting, appointed a committee composed of Dell Morgan, Skip Taylor, Frank Larkin and John D. Smith to draw up rules and regulations for the league. The committee will report at the general meeting Monday night.

To open the season, Tahoka will play at Lubbock, Slaton at Wolfforth and Enochs at Amherst on April 30.

Collier Parris was elected secretary-treasurer of the league.

Oklahoma City Trims Roster By Two; Four More Wil Go

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 17 (AP)—The Oklanoma City Texas League Indians staff was reduced to 20 today with the release of Leonard Holmes, southpaw, and Benny Boyles, a righthander. The Tribe has nine days to whittle off four more players. Departure of Holmes and Boyles left the Indians with seven flingers.

Rainy Days Suit Mr. Foxx Fine

Athletics' Big Slugger Laid Up After Spike Wound; Hopes Rain Will Continue Until He's Able To Meet Pitchers

BY EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, April 17.—Rain that washes out ball games may fall like the tears of anxious club owners, but that steady drumming in the window panes is sweet music to Jimmie Foxx, long distance belter from Maryland's eastern shore.

"This is just fine," he beamed today as he stretched on a hotel sofa, watched the rain pour down while the club trainer worked on his left shin. "A couple more days of this and I can start even with those pitchers."

An infected spike wound suffered in spring training has caused Jimmie a great deal of trouble. It kept him out of A's opening game. It has slowed down the big fellow who hammered out 58 home runs last season and was primed to ruin Babe Ruth's record of 60 this year.

"Anybody who can hit 58 home runs," he remarked, "should be able to hit 60. That sounds reasonable, doesn't it? Connie Mack told me last fall that if I'd thought more of hitting for distance, and less about trying to beat Dale Alexander for the batting championship, I'd have beaten the Babe's record then.

"But it isn't as simple as that. Sometimes you can't take a chance on lofting a ball for distance when a hit means runs, because a fielder may get under it."

Foxx thinks the odds are all against a right hand hitter breaking Ruth's run mark.

DALLAS, April 17 (AP)—In a slugfest today, the Dallas Steers clouted their way to a 10-8 decision over the Fort Worth Cats to sweep the three game series.

Fort Worth used Miller, Johns, Butzberger and Wolff on the mound in an unsuccessful attempt to check the rampaging Steers who mixed their eleven hits with home runs by Zeke Bondura and Tom Jenkins for scores that eventually won the game.

Lubbock Cyclists Win Motor Battle At Wichita Falls

Before an estimated Easter crowd of 1,500 Lubbock's motorcycle polo team, coached by Roy Lynch, registered a 12-4 triumph over the Wichita Falls cyclists on the latters' field to officially open the 1933 playing season Sunday for both teams. As a token of their victory, the locals were awarded a silver loving cup donated by the American Motorcycle association.

The contest was hard fought throughout and was closer than the score would indicate. The Lubbock polists forged into an early lead which they never relinqu'shed. Superior team work coupled with fast riding and a dexterity in handling their machines featured the play of the Lubbockites. Captain Wade Anthony, riding at forward, booted four field goals to carry off high scoring honors for the day.

Lubbock's lineup was composed of Wade Anthony, Stewart Champlain, and Otto Flynn, forwards; Robert Howard and Marlin Karnes, centers; Al Cobb and Pat Davis, goal guards; and J. T. Ross, rear guard. Roy Lynch, a certified AMA official, refereed the game.

Wichita Falls will probably play here in a return match in the near future, according to Lynch. Organized last spring, the Lubbock polo'sts have yet to be defeated.

WASHINGTON, April 17. (AP) — The Boston Red Sox won their first game of the season, 4-2, today although reserve pitchers were forced to rush in to quell a Washington uprising before the game ended.

The result might have been the same, however, if young Henry Johnson had been left in the box. Up until the time that he was withdrawn in the eighth, Washington had made only one run and three hits off him.

Juries In Alabama Are Flayed By Defense Attorney In Scottsboro Case

Court States A Fair Trial Is Impossible

Remaining Cases Postponed By Judge After Statement Made By Attorney; Harsh Words Used In Description

DECATUR, Ala., April 17 (AP)—The Scottsboro attack cases were postponed indefinitely today because the court held that a purported criticism of Alabama juries by Samuel L. Leibowitz of defense counsel had prejudiced the cases against his own clients.

Judge James E. Horton directed postponement of the remaining cases against seven negroes charged with assaulting two white girl hoboes and rebuked Leibowitz.

Statement Appears

A statement that appeared in the New York Herald-Tribune and credited to the New York attorney, who volunteered to defend the negroes and lost his first case down here, was responsible for the unexpected action.

Concerning the jury that convicted Haywood Patterson—first of the negroes to face retrial here—the New York paper quoted Leibowitz like this:

"If you ever saw those creatures, those bigots whose mouths are slits in their faces, whose eyes pop out at you like frogs, whose chins drip tobacco juice, bewhiskered and filthy, you would not ask how they could do it."

Effect Is Same

Judge Horton, who was praised by Leibowitz for his conduct of the Patterson trial, said he did not know "whether the leading counsel for the defense made the statement imputed to him. It could make little difference whether he actually said it or not. The effect would be the same. The published statement was uncalled for."

The judge who had charged the jury in the Patterson case to forget color and creed and state lines said today the accused negro "must be a victim of this statement."

"His leading attorney (Leibowitz) would be a millstone about his neck" said Judge Horton.

Continuance Ordered

The court then ordered a continuance of the case against Charlie Weems, second of the Scottsboro boys to face a retrial—"until such time when in its judgment a fair and impartial trial may be had."

Attorney General Knight, who defeated Leibowitz in the Patterson trial, jumped to his feet after the judge read the statement and shouted:

"I cannot stand by and hear that jury maligned. No, we aren't bigots in the south. We tried these cases fair x x ."

The judge nodded and said:

"We understand that."

The dramatic climax to the long-drawn-out Scottsboro cases came after Judge Horton had sentenced Patterson to die in the electric chair June 16 for criminal assault on Mrs. Victoria Price, a Huntsville cotton mill worker and a hobo.

Smith-Hughes Judging Contests Will Start At College Station On Monday

(Special To The Avalanche)

COLLEGE STATION, April 17.—More than 1,200 Texas high school students of vocational agriculture are expected at Texas A. and M. college Monday, April 17, for the sixteenth annual series of Smith-Hughes judging contests. Entries have been received from 134 high schools and most of the schools will enter their full quotas of ten students each in the contests.

The contests are sponsored by the schools of vocational teaching and agriculture of the college in cooperation with the state board for vocational education. Competition is held in seven different classes, including dairy judging, livestock judging, poultry and egg judging, entomology, farm shop, soil conservation and plant production. Schools are limited to entry of three teams each and a total of only ten students.

The Texas Future Farmer band, official band at the national Future Farmer convention at Kansas City, Kans., the past November, will practice Sunday afternoon and will play Monday night preceding announcement of contest winners. T. K. Morris, of Itasca, is director of the band.

As the contests will start early Monday morning and will last throughout the day, most of the contestants are expected to arrive Saturday and Sunday. Included in the number of state officials invited to attend are L. A. Woods, state superintendent of public instruction; P. G. Haines, state director of vocational education, and J. R. Rutland, assistant supervisor of vocational agriculture and state Future Farmers of America advisor.

TO ATTEND MEETING

ABERNATHY, April 17—(Special)—F. W. Struve, chairman of the Abernathy Farmers' and Home Owners' Protective league, is planning to attend the state convention of the Texas Farmers' Holiday association in Waco April 26. Hatton Lauds FD's Courage

Lions President Is Principal Speaker At Opening Of Big Club Convention At Amarillo On Monday

AMARILLO, April 17 (AP)—Lions of West Texas today heard their international president, Charles H. Hatton of Wichita, Kan., laud President Roosevelt for his "courageous leadership" and declare that "some process of inflation is necessary" if America is to avoid bankruptcy.

President Hatton in addressing the annual convention of district 2-T, a regional organization embracing 54 clubs in West Texas, said that commodity prices either must be raised on a parity with 1929 levels or money must be devalued to the present commodity scales if debts are to be paid. He appealed to Lions to inform themselves on conditions of the country in order that they may "help solve the grave problems now confronting this nation and the world."

Many Are Present

Delegations are present from as far west as El Paso, which club sent a Mexican orchestra to boost Del Harrington for the new district governor, succeeding C. H. Walker of Pampa. Midland and other South Plains cities are backing Marion F. Peters for the office. Colorado is making an active fight for the 1934 convention. Upwards of 400 delegates had registered by late Monday.

The Perryton quartet, in competition with singers from Pampa and Midland, won the right to accompany the Texas delegation to the international convention at St. Louis in July.

Decisive Turn Now Predicted

Panhandle Hardware And Implement Association In Session At Amarillo; Better Views Are Forecast

AMARILLO, April 17. (AP)—A decisive turn toward improved business conditions throughout the country was cited by speakers at the 24th annual convention of the Panhandle Hardware and Implement association which convened here today for a two-day program.

Assured measures to prevent a recurrence of nation-wide lack of confidence in banks, farm relief both as to prices for farm products and mortgage indebtedness, credit inflation, relief legislation for the unemployed and recent rises in prices for the more speculative commodities were among the factors outlined by the speakers in declaring that a turn for the better had arrived.

Record Is Broken

A 24-year attendance record was broken when more than 265 retailers, wholesalers and travelers from West Texas and New Mexico registered for the meeting. Nearly 300 persons attended the annual banquet tonight.

Speakers tomorrow will include Rivers Peterson, editor of the Hardware Retailer, Indianapolis, Ind.; Dan H. Wilmot, Roswell, N. M., and Charles F. Nelson, Oklahoma City, secretary of the Oklahoma Hardware and Implement association. Election of officers for the forthcoming year will feature the close of the convention tomorrow afternoon.

Old Fashioned Rabbit Drive Will Be Staged Near Southland Wednesday

WITH an abundance of jackrabbits threatening to overrun pastures and crops this spring and summer, residents of a community eight miles east of Southland plan an old fashioned rabbit drive Wednesday, H. L. Weems, living eight miles southeast of that place, announced here Monday. The drive will start at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Shotguns will be used and no rifles will be allowed, Mr. Weems said. Every citizen of this section is invited to attend. Lunch will be served hunters at noon.

An area comprising approximately twelve sections of grass will be covered in the hunt.

Mr. Weems reported neighbors in his community were beginning to get worried over the unusual amount of rabbits and made plans for the drive recently.

Approximately 200 hunters are expected for the drive, he said, but arrangements will be made to feed more should they arrive.

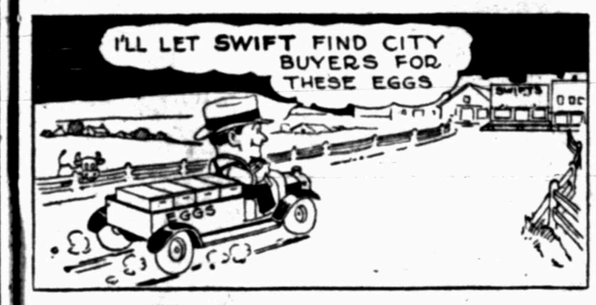
COME IN WITH YOUR EGGS—



In stage coach days an egg rarely traveled far. Markets for farm produce were limited by the distance a horse could trot in a few hours.

Now there's no limit. Eggs sold by farm patrons of Swift & Company's 100 and more produce stations have a market virtually as wide as the United States. Swift's Brookfield eggs and butter can—and do—go wherever consumer demand is good.

GO OUT WITH YOUR MONEY—

Eggs purchased from farmers by Swift & Company are paid for in cash; city money flows to the country.

Buying price quotations at the produce plants are close to what eggs bring in consuming centers over the country, less the necessary marketing costs on the way. Volume and efficiency make these costs low.

It's Not All Over Yet

THE fact that Lubbock schools will, through the grace of bank loans and state apportionment, be able to finish the full nine-months term does not solve, forever, the financial problems of the system.

Neither does it remove from the shoulders of delinquent taxpayers the responsibility which is theirs.

For the schools must open again next fall; must go through another nine-month term in the years 1933-34. There will be problems then. We may just as well realize it now and make preparations to have a bridge to cross when we get to it.

Lubbock is not the only Texas community which, of late, has experienced difficulty in keeping schools going.

Sad though it is, there are many citizens everywhere whose financial condition will not allow them to pay their taxes—school and otherwise. There are others, too, who have the funds to pay from slender purses but who fear to do so because of the uncertain future—and then, of course, there are those who can pay but won't pay because they don't have to, or expect another 'moratorium'.

All in all, it does not augur well for education and still offers a serious problem.

"THE WATCH ON THE RHINE"

Most striking is a recent front page cartoon of The Milwaukee Journal—a very fine newspaper which daily comes to the exchange table of The Morning Avalanche.

Dealing with conditions in Germany, the cartoon is titled "The Watch on the Rhine", and depicts Civilization observing the goings-on under the Hitler administration.

"The Watch on the Rhine" symbolizes the combined sorrow and disgust of civilized people who have heard and read of what has been going on under the Nazi regime.

Such policies cannot go on long for world animosity will soon assert itself.

STATE REGULATION

Fool man rushes in where angels fear to tread. The very people who are convinced that the country made a mistake when it rushed into prohibition without preparation are apt to rush just as precipitously into some unwise scheme of state control when and if the national prohibition amendment is repealed.

The battle front of prohibition is no longer at Washington, as always heretofore, but is transferred to the states, where the greatest care should be taken to see that the repeal conventions are constitutional. Every precaution should be taken to have the decision unchallengeable. No matter which side loses in this bitter controversy it will take advantage of every loophole to set aside the decision.

Should 36 states ratify the repeal resolution and thus end national control of the liquor traffic there will remain the problem of state control. Only those states which had state, prohibition prior to enactment of the eighteenth amendment, and not all of them, will return to the status quo before prohibition, but "Where do we go from here?" is a question none should be too hasty in answering.

That there should be a state control all agree, but opinions as to what form that control should take range all the way from absolute prohibition to the return of the saloon. Public opinion, expressed through the several state legislatures and the politcal organizations which control them, will decide—in most cases to the satisfaction of the majority but in no case to the satisfaction of everyone.

AMERICAN ANCIENTS

How little is known of the ancient history of the American continents is again illustrated by the discovery that Mexico's great pyramid of Cholula is built upon the remnants of a temple or monument of a Mexican civilization older than that of the Toltecs. The pyramid of Cholulu was known to Cortez but little is known of the builders of the ruins it has concealed for centuries.

The wonder is not that this ancient temple site covers relics of other civilizations, but that no one discovered the fact before. Now that it is known, further exploration may reveal facts of new archeological importance.

A pyramid of the size and importance of that of Cholula—it is three times the area of the pyramid of Cheops at the base—must have a long history, perhaps extending back through several successive civilizations. Relics and ruins of two have already been found. How many others have left their mark deeper in the earth?

Until recently American archaeologists, lured abroad by rich opportunities for excavating in Egypt, overlooked opportunities at home promising rewards nearly as alluring. Though tardy, they have at last turned their attention to the adventure of digging up proof of ancient civilizations in the Western Hemisphere. This is of far greater importance to the American people than how the ancient Egyptians buried their dead.

Tariff Reduction Talked

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Tariff reduction being the next number on the administration's program, the question arises:

How shall downward revision be effected without throwing American markets wide open to countries which then, it may be, will refuse corresponding concessions to America?

Representative David J. Lewis

On this subject perhaps Representative David J. Lewis of Maryland is the best-qualified spokesman in congress. Recognized as an outstanding economist and especially an authority on import taxation, he was an original member of the tariff commission, as organized by President Wilson 16 years ago. Senator Edward P. Costigan of Colorado was, indeed the commission's chairman, but financial legislation must originate in the house of representatives, where it always is framed by the ways and means committee, which includes the Marylander.

Incidentally, Representative Lewis is a life-long Democrat and lower tariff advocate than Senator Costigan, who formerly was a Republican and still shows occasional mildly protectionistic leanings.

Plan Is Simple

Representative Lewis' plan already is clearly mapped.

He proposes substitution for the Smoot-Hawley tariff act (passed early in President Hoover's administration, with the highest schedule of rates in the world's history) of the Underwood act (passed shortly after President Wilson's inauguration, with a very moderate Democratic schedule), applicable to any nation which, in return, will grant to the United States the rates it had in effect July 1, 1914—before the war broke out and threw world trade into the state of disorganization it never has recovered from.

"This scheme," explains the representative, "is in the nature of a general reciprocity measure. It has the advantage of laying a broad, unqualified offer before the entire family of peoples, instead of requiring a vast deal of negotiating, such as would be involved in the conclusion of a separate bargain with each one of a long list of governments.

"It does not conflict with our 'most favored nation' treaties—which it is needless to discuss in detail, since, as I say, they are unaffected.

No Hearings Needed

"For the accomplishment of the readjustment the only procedure necessary will be adoption of a congressional joint resolution, approved by the president, simply referring to the Underwood act. This will avoid long hearings and log-rolling before the representatives' ways and means committee and the senate finance committee, with protracted arguments in both houses while business remains on tenterhooks.

"A highly important desideratum also is to escape the pitfalls of individual rate-making in congress, which would bring literally hundreds of thousands of articles of trade into controversy.

"And if, in any individual instance, a rate is shown to be too low, because of changes in production costs, of course revision will be possible by a proceeding before the tariff commission. A people's counsel before the commission likewise is desirable, as is adoption of the Norris anti-monopoly plan for suspension of tariffs in cases where monopoly prices are maintained. Finally, naturally, free entry should be accorded to articles not produced in the United States in commercial quantities."

WHY RAIL HEADS DISLIKE NEW PLANS

No one need expect any sound railroad reorganization plan to meet with much approval from the vast majority of high transportation executives.

Outside their small circle, it is the consensus among all reorganizers that one of the heaviest loads the roads have to carry is the burden of these very executives—the best of them enormously overpaid; considerably more than half of them entirely superfluous. Besides, with a few exceptions, their influence is bad, or the wisest heads among reorganization planners are greatly mistaken.

However, it is fiot to be expected that these folk will welcome rehabilitation suggestions which promise to eliminate 50 or 60 per cent of their number and reduce the others' incomes by an additional 50 or 60 per cent. The reorganizers appreciate this perfectly.

• • •

BREWERS AND DRYS

Congressional wets confess to a suspicion that the brewing interests, now that beer is legalized, are working quietly to prevent any further prohibition relaxation.

• • •

TWO POINTS OF VIEW

Civilian investigation of the Akron's loss makes much of the question as to the safety of dirigible aircraft. The naval inquiry almost wholly disregards this element, raising only the issue, "Are such vessels militarily justifiable?"

• • •

DOUBTFUL UNDERSTANDING

Public men who met British Prime Minister MacDonald, on his visit here in 1929, remark on his evident belief that he fully understands American politics—of which, they say, his ignorance is abysmal.

• • •

SUNSHINE AS USUAL

The weather bureau remains unimpressed by Dr. Charles G. Abbot's forecast of two years of reduced sun temperature. The bureau's scientists insist that there still is nothing to indicate much connection between solar changes and earthly climatic conditions.

FAST WORK

The agriculture department's forestry service unquestionably is the hardest worked governmental subdivision at present. With President Roosevelt's reclamation army mobilizing, it is perfecting, in a few weeks, a program which it had scarcely expected the twentieth century would see completed.

What Other People Think

What we seek is a return to a clearer understanding of the ancient truth that those who manage banks, corporations or other agencies handling other people's money are trustees acting for the others.—President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

In two hours I saw more indications of drunkenness than at any time since the last day before prohibition.—Dr. George F. Safford, Illinois superintendent, Anti-Saloon League.

EXPLANATION OF SATURDAY'S CARTOON

BURNING ICE

Millions of cubic feet of "wet gas" flow from The Royalite No. 4 well through pipelines to the town of Turner Valley, Alberta, Canada, in a temperature of about 22 degrees below zero. The moisture in the outer air condensing upon the pipes settles in the shape of ice several inches thick. Some of it is so permeated with the gas that you may break off a piece of ice and watch it burn after a match is applied to it.

Letters To The Editor From The People

T. J. Estes, Of Lubbock, Says Thoughtlessness Causes Much Of The World's Sorrows

Editor the Avalanche: An old man and a cripple came in. I had a seat but didn't think. Mother was working in the garden, I doing nothing. I didn't think. The bucket was empty, my sister washing my clothes, mother cooking dinner for me. I didn't think. Father and mother gave me good advice but I didn't think and often disobeyed and often caused them trouble and anxiety. They worked and saved for my benefit; I did little and wasted their savings. They did many things for me that I could have done myself, but I didn't think. They did many things to please me, to help me, to make me comfortable and happy, and I could have done such things for them, but I didn't think.

They got old and gray and still did their best for me. I was young and healthy and I should have done my best for them. Of course they couldn't be with me much longer and they needed my love, kindness, help, respect and sympathy, but I didn't think. I didn't realize these facts and now they are gone and I can do none of these things to bless, comfort and cheer them. I can only regret that I didn't think.

And that is why I am writing this for the benefit of parents, sons and daughters. Not for my sake, for I have four of the best and kindest daughters living, but many are not so blessed. Yes, I really did do plenty that I shouldn't have done and failed to do much more that I should have done, but don't think I was so very bad, for I like you—just didn't think.

Now here are a few more examples of thinking to apply where they fit. In anger, I said things I shouldn't have and did regretable things. Didn't think right, got into trouble, got dear relatives into trouble, kind friends or others into trouble, just because I didn't think and act as I should have done. I wronged, misjudged, mistreated others because they didn't agree with me on my views or opinions, and I failed to concede to them equal rights of opinion. Where that is the case we are not thinking fair and as we should think. We forget the "Golden Rule."

Many bad, avoidable accidents are caused by not thinking and sometimes by not caring. Many lose their lives, cause the death of others or much suffering and distress by failing to think, reason and act as they should. But worst of all, so many lose their own souls and may cause others to lose theirs by failing to think and act as they should.

T. J. Estes,
Lubbock.

MARKET REPORTS

Stocks

WALL STREET REPORT

ST JOHN L. COOLEY
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, April 11. (AP)—Reactions were rather general in financial markets today.

Sugar forged ahead to new 1933 highs and silver futures improved but most other commodities evinced a slackening of speculative ardor and under this negative example stocks softened. Bonds also slipped.

Uncertainties as to inflation, which has become the chief topic of discussion and argument in financial circles, together with a few first quarter earnings statements, some profit-taking and, presumably, increased offerings here and there for the short account contributed to the sag of stocks.

Declining tendencies were pronounced in the early dealings and again toward the close when rails weakened. Between times there was a fair recovery from the initial letdown. Sales totaled 1,005,410 shares.

Net losses ranged up to 2 and 3 points or more.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, April 17. (AP) — Prices reacted as trading was resumed at moderate pace in cotton today after the lengthy Easter holidays and final prices showed net declines of 13 to 18 points, reflecting further May liquidation, profit-taking by longs and reactions in grains and stocks.

Liverpool was still closed today and the opening was steady, unchanged to one point up, but prices gained one to four points additional right after the start on price fixing with May at 6.74, July at 6.89 and October at 7.13. The market soon started to ease however, owing to an easier opening of stocks and later to lower wheat, coupled with some further May liquidation and selling by recent buyers. During the morning May traded down to 6.56, July to 6.75 and October at 6.97, or 14 to 18 points under the early highs and 14 to 16 points below last Thursday's close.

Near noon prices rallied with stocks and May recovered to 6.66, July to 7.03 up 7 to 8 points from the lows but still 5 to 6 points under the previous close.

The market turned easy again in mid-afternoon on a general oil liquidation. May dropped to 6.57 in the late trading, October to 6.95 and December to 7.07 down 16 to 18 points from the highs. The close was at or near the bottom, May and October showing net declines of 14 points, July 13 points net and December 15 points.

Liverpool is due on New Orleans tomorrow 6 penny points down.

Port receipts 11,132, for week 15,692, for season 3,716,407 last season 3,400,139. Exports 20,589, for week 32,397, for season 4,304,893, last season 7,112,774. Port stock 4,231,606, last year 4,220,349. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 84,144, last year 118,468. Spot sales at southern markets 21,700, last year 4,669.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, April 17. (AP)—Cotton revised its trend today, selling off about 81 a bale.

July contracts which had closed at 6.94 on Thursday the final trading day last week broke to 6.75 during today's trading and closed at that figure, with the general market closing barely steady at net declines of 17 to 21 points.

Initial prices were 2 to 4 points lower. The continent was a buyer here and there was a moderate demand from the trade, but active months began to sag early in sympathy with early declines in grain and stock markets.

The market had a fair rally from its early dip but prices turned downward again near the close on southern selling.

Prices made new lows for the day in the late trading with May declining to 6.58 and October to 6.94 closing at these figures.

Increased selling from southern sources which some local traders thought possibly might be against so-called "Red Cross cotton" was a factor on the decline, while last week's advance had evidently eased the technical position.

Talk of possible inflationary measures, was less aggressive than it was on last week's advance.

Weather reports indicated considerable rain in the south over the week-end, suggesting further delays in planting or farm work.

Livestock

KANSAS CITY REPORT

KANSAS CITY, April 17. (AP)—Trade on fed steers and yearlings was slow in getting under way for the week's initial session with value not definitely established until about noon. Most markets carried a steady to 25 lower trend with some sales on weighty steers in Chicago where the supply was liberal as much as 40 off. Strictly choice 971 lb. yearling steers in Chicago brought 7.00 and various consignments of good to choice lighter weight steers and long yearlings around the kraft scaled at 5.50@6.40 Weighty steers turned chiefly in a spread of 4.00@5.50. Stockers and feeders brought generally steady prices with several centers reporting a liberal supply on hand. A spread of 4.00@5.50 secured a large percentage of replacement steers with a few consignments of stock steer calves and choice yearling stockers around 6.00@6.15. Receipts at eleven markets totaled 51,700 as compared with 46,500 last Monday and 56,054 the same day last year.

As compared with Friday's average business, hogs turned at steady to 15 lower levels. A late top of 3.96 was paid in Chicago.

Some markets listed lambs values as steady to 25 higher while others were steady to slightly lower. Majority of desirable old crop lambs brought 5.00@5.75 with a few at 5.85. Offerings of spring lambs were relatively small and demand was narrow as compared with pre-Easter trade last week. A few sales came in at 6.00@7.00.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, April 17. (AP)—Hogs 2,700; top 3.30; packing sows 2.25@2.75.

Cattle 2,500; calves 700; all classes cattle and calves steady; light weight steers 4.00@4.50; better yearlings 4.50@5.35; butchers 3.50 down; good fat cows 2.50@2.75; butcher sorts 2.00; good stock steer yearlings 4.50@4.60; good heavy fat calves 4.50@5.00; select vealers 6.00.

Grains

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, April 17. (AP)—Demand was good as the week started on the Fort Worth cash grain market today. Estimated receipts for the two day period included:

Wheat 14 cars; corn 12; oats 2; sorghums 2 and cane seed 1.

Prices ranged as follows, basis car loads on track at Fort Worth, freight paid, delivered Texas Gulf ports, export rate, or Texas common points: Wheat No. 1 hard 70@71. Barley No. 2 nominally 40@42; No. 3 nominally 38@40. Sorghums No. 2 milo per 100 pounds 78@82; No. 3 milo 75@80. No. 2 kaffir 70@73; No. 3 kaffir 69@70.

Delivered Texas common points or group three: Corn, No. 3 mixed 31@32; No. 2 white 33@34; No. 2 yellow 31 1-2@32 1-2.

Delivered Texas common points: Oats No. 2 red 31@32; No. 3 red 30@31.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, April 17. (AP)—Lower prices for wheat and corn today accompanied an abrupt curtailment of general speculative demand.

Wheat traders in particular were wary on account of indications that purchasing of late had been overdone, and that uncertainties of foreign exchange rates might become acute with re-opening of overseas grain markets tomorrow following the Easter holidays. The British pound sterling today underwent 3 points tumble.

Wheat closed unsettled, 1-4 to 5-8 under Saturday's finish, corn 1-4 to 1-2 down, oats 1-8 off to 1-8 up, and provisions unchanged to 5 cents lower.

Father Of Ruth Judd Still Has Faith Though Daughter Is To Die April 21

Regards Hanging Of His Daughter As "Will Of God"

BY E. O. ARNOLD
Central Press Correspondent

PHOENIX, Ariz.—Now that Winnie Ruth Judd is about at the end of her battle to escape the hangman's noose, sympathy is welling high in the hearts of Arizonans, not for the "tiger woman" herself, but for her tall and venerable father, the Rev. H. J. McKinnell.

Winnie Ruth Judd is doomed to die. Unless some legal miracle intervenes, she will be hanged on April 21—for the trunk murder of two companions. Agnes Anne LeRoi and Hedvig Samuelson were shot, killed, and their bodies dismembered in a Phoenix cottage on October 16, 1931.

His Faith Unshattered

Always in the background since the day of Winnie's arrest has been her father, a practical preacher in the Free Methodist church. "The last month" finds him unbowed. His handshake is firm. His voice is strong. His great faith remains unshaken.

Faith—not, perhaps, in the innocence or ultimate freedom of his daughter—that is not the question. But faith in God, and in His allwise manipulation of the puny affairs of man. "It doesn't seem possible," said the Reverend McKinnell, simply, when the state board of pardons recently refused to recommend a commutation of the death sentence for a life term in prison. "But if that is God's will," he added, "it will have to be."

"It is the fault of the older people, of the parents, when young men and women go wrong," the minister maintained, in his only authorized interview since the murders.

Too Much Speed

"I do not refer to individuals. There are many exceptions, many circumstances under which parental control cannot apply. But in general I think God gives us the privilege of loving our children, plus the duty of training them. Without our training, a boy or a girl is apt to be snared in any of a number of traps.

"Speed is a modern trap which causes many a tear and heartache. Our world of late has been in a most insatiable hurry, to get nowhere in particular, but just to rush.

"Artificial stimuli trap our youths. Strong drink is one prime evil. Narcotics is another. Unholy sex liberties is a malicious one. In general the artificial stimuli result in the breaking of all society's conventions, an outburst of independence which must be curbed properly, but which of late has been mistakenly called Freedom.

"Crowded together as we are in life we cannot expect absolute unlimited personal freedom of thought and action. The Book says it is wrong, and if God's word say so, it is true."

His Philosophy

And that, in general, is the Rev. McKinnell's philosophy, his religion of living. He has never publicly discussed his daughter's troubles, and his and her mother's worries.

"I am sorrowed because of Winnie," he says. "And as her father I must do all that I can for her, all that is right. Her mother and I are trying to do that. What eventually ends it all will be His business; meantime we just do what is best in the most prayerful way we can."

He has made it clear all along that he has no desire to arrest the march of justice. He stood up for daughter just as you would stand up for yours, or as you would want your father to comfort and love you. That is all. He did not give up his tiny pastorate in far away Darlington, Ind., to come to Phoenix to try the case. That was the business, said he, of the judge and the jury and the lawyers and the clerks.

If Winnie eventually mounts the 13 steps—where only one other woman, Eva Dugan, convicted of murder, has walked—the Rev. H. J. McKinnell probably will be with her, a benign and courtly old man, unemotional and calm.

"Remember that God is running this universe, in His divine way," he'll tell you now. "Your business and mine, is to work honestly, to live cleanly, and to pray. Through no other source can you achieve happiness. Murders, trials, wars, revolutions, all else are of no import."

If the trap is sprung, and before his very eyes the law takes his daughter from him, other witnesses may faint or scream, but in all probability the father of the "tiger woman" merely will whisper, "Let us pray!"

Mrs. Winnie Ruth Judd and her mother and father, the Rev. H. J. McKinnell.

Beneficiaries Of Akron Victims Are To Get Salary As Result Of Tragedy

WASHINGTON, April 17 (AP)—The 67 of those aboard the airship Akron when it crashed and who are still unaccounted for were declared by the navy department today to have died as of April 4—The day the airship went down off Barnegat light.

There were four survivors of the crash, one of whom died. The bodies of five others were recovered and they will be considered to have died the same day as the 67 unaccounted for.

Under naval regulations the beneficiaries of the deceased naval personnel will receive 6 months full pay plus the regular flying pay, but less the 15 per cent pay reduction decreed by President Roosevelt.

Demo Offices Are Scattered

Guy T. Helvering To Become Internal Revenue Head And Other Important Posts Are Fast Being Filled

WASHINGTON, April 17. (AP) — The administration was said authoritatively today, to have decided upon Guy T. Helvering, a former representative from Kansas, for commissioner of internal revenue.

At the same time it was said that Vincent Dallman, of Springfield, Ill., was slated for assistant secretary of the treasury, to succeed Seymour Lowman, of New York.

Edward McGrady, legislative representative of the American federation of labor in Washington, is to be given an important post in the department of labor, possibly as assistant secretary.

Harry Mitchell, of Great Falls, Mont., was described as likely to become an assistant secretary of interior.

The name of A. C. Miller, a member of the federal Reserve board, was mentioned in speculation for governor of the board. He is a close friend of President Roosevelt.

It also was indicated that the administration's policy of permitting efficient Republican postmasters to finish out their terms would not apply in general to other federal offices such as district attorneys, Marshals and collectors.

Within a week or ten days the appointment of postmasters, district attorneys, marshals and other officials is likely to be started in a steady stream.

Ralls Schools Are Reported In Good Shape; Expenses Cut

RALLS, April 17—According to a report given by T. H. Holmes, secretary of the Ralls school board, the Ralls schools are in good shape, and will run the full nine months.

Mr. Holmes reports that 85 per cent of the taxes were collected during the 1932 collection period. He also says that the school expense for next year including teachers salaries and running expenses have been cut fifteen per cent over this year. During the past three years the general expenses have been reduced around forty-five per cent. There will be three less teachers in the Ralls school system next year.

Indications are that more tourists will visit Jamaica this year than in 1932.

Forecast On Punishment Of British Defendants In Sabotage Trial Made

LONDON, April 17 (AP)—Reuter's correspondent in Moscow understands, in connection with speculation regarding the possible verdict at the sabotage trial there, that the sentences may be as follows:

A. W. Gregory, acquitted.

William L. MacDonald and L. C. Thornton, ten years' imprisonment.

Allan Monkhouse, possibly three years.

Charles Nordwell and John Cushny, possibly released and bound over.

Vassili Gusev and A. T. Lobanov, probably sentenced to death, and the other Russians various terms of imprisonment.

"It is surmised," the correspondent said in a dispatch received here, "that the imprisonment sentences on the British accused may be commutted to exile since the Soviet is obviously anxious to hear the last of the British angle of the affair."

Tourist Trade Boosting City

Extra Business To A Total Of $378,000 Annually Brought To Lubbock By Good System Of State Roads

Lubbock county's state highways bring $378,000 a year in extra business to the county in the form of tourist trade, J. C. Watson, manager of the South Plains Good Roads association has estimated from a survey of the state's last official traffic census by the parent organization, the Texas Good Roads association.

This business, the survey points out, does not include "natural" trade from local cars or those of adjoining counties, which obviously would increase with improved roads.

Traffic Is Checked

State checkers, from four days' actual count, found the average daily traffic to be: 550 motor vehicles on Highway 7; 800 on Highway 9; 450 on Highway 24; 350 on Highway 137.

Motor traffic in Texas is divided, the experts have found, in two almost equal classes. Roughly, half are local cars or from adjoining counties. The other half are from beyond the state, or from Texas points at least two counties distant. The latter are genuine tourists.

Many Cross Country

"On this basis, some 1050 outside cars cross Lubbock county each day," the association's survey said, "scattering their good American dollars among the restaurants, hotels, tourist camps, hot dog stands, garages, filling stations and stores along the important highways.

"If they spend as little as $1 per vehicle within the borders of the county, then Lubbock county's trunk roads mean $31,500 in added business per month, or $378,000 a year, exclusive of their convenience and saving to her own 39,000 people, who operate some 9500 cars themselves," Watson says.

The survey, conducted by the association for every county in Texas, was designed to show importance of roads to each community, and thus arouse public opinion against any further diversion of gas tax money, which would cripple the highway program.

Filling Station List Grows At Abernathy; Another Added

(By Staff Correspondent)

ABERNATHY, April 17.—With another filling station now being constructed here, Abernathy has 18 places where gasoline and oil for automobiles may be purchased. As far as local business men are aware, this is the largest per capita of any town in the state.

There are 15 retail stations and three wholesale stations. The latter will sell five gallons of gas or more. Seven nationally advertised makes of gas are sold, one concern having three stations. The rest are independent stations.

Registration of cars in the trade territory shows there are 250 cars and trucks. The population is approximately 800 to 900, as shown by the 1930 census.
