Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning

Wash away all the stomach, liver, and bowel poisons before breakfast.

To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside; no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do, says a well-known physician.

To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before breakfast each day, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins; also to prevent their formation.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became saturated with an accumulation of body poisons, begin this treatment and above all, keep it up! As soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and purifying, so limestone phosphate and hot water before breakfast, act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

LET NOTHING MAR REJOICING

Surely This Year All Should Keep Thanksgiving With Heart Full of Praise and Gratitude.

Now once again both you and I are going to keep Thanksgiving. And shall we be discouraged by the lofty cost of living? And shall we sparely dine and sup, still H o o v e r e s q u e l y slaving—and shall we pass the Turkey up because we're used to saving?

I think I hear you answer
"Nay"! And I,
for one, won't do it; I shall cut loose, Thanksgiving day, and engerly go to it! I shall not fuss with low-priced

meat, with tripe or stringy mutton—I m going to hop right in and eat until I bust a button. With jellies made of grape and quince, no substitute to thin 'em; and pies of good, old-fashioned mince—with meat and brandy in 'em.
And if I want a suckling pig to supplement the gobbler, I'll have it—I don't care a fig! And also sherry cobbler!

For never in the memory of anybody living have people seen, it seems to me, so wondrous a Thanksgiving.
The Hun is licked, the world is free, the cruel war is ended—how can our celebration be one feature short of splendid?

Ah no, we do not need to waste the goodly gifts of heaven—but why deprive the food of taste, the wheat-en bread of leav-en? We needn't feed the garbage can nor choke
the refuse hopper; but let us treat the inner man, and do the job up proper!

Let's emulate
the Pilgrim Dads, by whom it was invented; although they did not roll in scads, their conscience
was contented.
Their crops were short, the country new, 'twas hard to make a living; November's tempests fiercely blew—and yet they kept Thanksgiving.
Upon that day they didn't think an epicure a sinner—they gathered all their meat and drink and had one glorious dinner. The Pilgrims, they were godly men, the times were most religious; they thought it sinful, even then, to found a feast prodigious. Let us rejoice, as then they did, in sweet and hard-earned freedom—let's hall each woman, man and kid and take 'em in and feed 'em!—Ted Robinson in Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Glorious Gobbler

All hail the glorious gobbler!
When autumn skies are gray
He mounts his china platter throne
And rules Thanksgiving day;
It is a noble oval
With gilded garlands fair,
Or it may be an heirloom prized
Of old blue willow ware.

Salute the glorious gobbler;
(Though sometimes it's a hen
That dawns in appetizing brown Upon our famished ken).

He wears his festal dressing Contrariwise, within,
Receiving all his subjects true
In nothing but his skin.

Here's to the glorious gobbler!
Though far afield they roam,
Yet in his honor every year
The children gather home.
His drumsticks beat assembly
From mountain top to sea,
He wears a gold celery crown,
The king of birds is he.

Long live the glorious gobbler.
With his attendant plea,
Mince, pumpkin, apple, cranberry,
And each of generous size,
Of all famous monarchs
From Ecuador to Spain,
He is the only one who boasts
An undisputed reign.

—Minna Irving, in New York Sun.

Time to Think Only of Blessings.
Let us take the right kind of interest in Thanksgiving day—a day that is and always shall be very dear to the hearts of all women. Let us put avarice and envy out of our minds, and think only of, and be grateful for,
our blessings.—New York Evening Telegram.

Let Us Pray to Be Worthy.

The gold of harvest and of mine are good; untrammelled peace and carefree prosperity are blessings which America has enjoyed in large measure through many years, and for these things we are grateful. But there are greater blessings than these. And the thoughtful will recognize that one form of riches may come to a nation out of the experiences that search deep the hearts of men. The crushing and the melting both play their part in bringing out the gold that is pure and fine.

Let us as in other years give thanks, and in the giving let us renew our courage that we may measure up to the opportunities God is offering to us in these most momentous days of the world's history.

BACK HURTS USE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

But less meat if Kidneys feel like lead or Bladder bothers you—Meat forms uric acid

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithiawater drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

THE BAPTIST MESSAGE TO THE WORLD TODAY

Here are a few of the fundamental things for which Baptists have always stood and for which they stand today:

Absolute religious liberty for all, Jew and Gentile alike.
Church membership composed only of converted and baptized persons.

Self-determination in all religious matters without any overlordship or overhead management of any kind.

The supreme sovereignty of Jesus in all matters of the soul.

The Bible the law of Christ's reign.

It is for the promotion of the salvation of lost souls everywhere and the fuller propagation of these principles that the

Braids and Fur Bands on Gowns

The question of trimmings is always an interesting one, and the present models are not lacking in valuable suggestions, though the French and American designers are not always in accord on this point as is the case on a number of others, observes a prominent fashion correspondent.

While embroidery is still one of the chief standbys of the American maker it appears to be distinctly on the wane with the French. Both are agreed that trimmings for daytime frocks shall be confined to bindings, braid and bands of fur though the French makers have a penchant for trimmings of buttons which is shared in only to a limited extent by the Americans.

Platings of all sorts are new and very much in evidence, whether used as trimmings in the shape of narrow frills, or as a feature of the frock itself. Shirring and cording in groups, narrow belts and girdles, double and cut wool fringe, ribbon and fringed silk all do their part toward lending an unwonted variety to trimmings.

For evening frocks, which have this season blossomed in such picturesque beauty, the trimmings are brilliant and luxurious to a degree which fortunately always, or nearly always, escapes the garish, and strongly suggests eighteenth century exquisite-ness.

As has been said, embroidery is still very favorably considered by the American designer. This may be because he finds his clientele loath to part with the simple straight line frock, on which embroidery is at its best. Embroidery, in fact, might more justly be called a decoration than a trimming, because it is imposed on tricerles for picking out the salient features of a model and still covers large portions of the whole surface of a garment, either in a continuous pattern or in large whorls scattered here and there.

The patterns are effective, but are produced by the least intricate stitches known to the needle woman, such as single stitch, over-and-over stitch, couching, buttonholing and French knots.

Embroidery floss, wool yarns, chenille and gold and silver threads are used to work out the patterns and, of course, beads, which, however, are used with admirable restraint when they are combined with the various threads.

An exceedingly handsome trimming is displayed on a brown velvet gown of utmost severity except for the long straight tulle of brown georgette, which is hemmed and completely covered by a bold design.

Tassels and Rosettes.

A blue serge frock has bands of fancy black braid, crossing the front horizontally and caught at intervals by tiny tassels. On another frock of black velvet there are many Pierrot rosettes of narrow black braid.

A quite new note, fringed ribbon and fringed silk, is not reserved for its obvious use as trimming on silken evening gowns and wraps, but is met with in strange company.

For instance, there is an attractive little frock of blue duvetyne with a slightly fitted bodice cut in the Spanish manner, which rounds back and front below the waist line, and a straight narrow skirt.

To give the modish width about the hips of this frock, a series of crisp taffeta flounces have been placed one above the other, extending from the bodice line to the knee.

Each flounce is fringed at the edge and a line of bright brocaded flowers runs through its center.

Charming Blue Serge Frock Trimmed With Black Braid.

the flat surface of the fabric and does not alter the outline of the garment in the least.

Needlework in Striking Designs.

Needlework, in striking but uncomplicated designs, is used in narrow

In the French Collections

In the French collections, one sees an occasional model which possesses a tunic bordered with a rather wide band of fox but on the whole the furs used for trimming either duvetyne or satin frocks are the short-haired furs such as Persian lamb, squirrel or kolinsky and these in narrow bands are used for edgings or are set on the fabrics in many lines, close together. Often, hanging tabs of the fabric at the neck or girdle terminate in small fur balls.

Narrow bands of brightly striped silk are used to relieve the neck and sleeves of a sober frock and we find again in one of the best French models the pleasing fashion of finishing a navy blue serge frock with a sash of Roman striped ribbon.

Ribbons should have a whole chapter devoted to their beauty and their many uses, which range from nose-gays to entire frocks. But there is only space to mention the enormously wide and brilliantly brocaded ribbons which are made to go very far toward the fashioning of an evening toilette.

Evening Gown Trimmings.

When one enters the realm of fabrics and trimmings which are only suitable for evening gowns the variety is so bewildering that it is hard to know where to begin and quite impossible to know when to stop.

Perhaps it is as well to only touch in passing on the sequined and beaded bandings, the jeweled passementeries and girdles, the exquisite laces threaded with gold and silver and all the other luxurious trimmings and dwell with most weight upon the charming new tricks which evening frocks take upon themselves in these days.

The fashion of cutting the fabric into deep scallops or vandykes and mounting these in gathers or fine plaits on a narrow skirt is a new and pretty one. They are intended to represent flower petals and hand-made flowers of silk are an all but indispensable adjunct to the modish evening frock.

Embarrassment of Riches.
Mrs. Faraway—I haven't seen your wife in the hotel. Did she come with you?
Mr. Newgilt—Yes, she's here, but you're not likely to see her. She brought so many new gowns with her she has to keep to her room all the time to make the necessary changes.

RHEUMATISM

"I suffered terribly from rheumatism. The pain was so severe I could hardly stand it. Someone recommended Hunt's Lightning Oil and I tried it. A few applications drove the pain entirely away, and my, what a relief it was! Hunt's Lightning Oil is certainly a wonderful pain reliever," says one of its many enthusiastic users.

Nothing is so prompt and successful in relieving pains and aches, whether they be from rheumatism, neuralgia, headache, sprains, cuts, burns or bruises.

Remember the name, Hunt's Lightning Oil, and get a 35c or 70c bottle from your drug store. You will never regret it.

HUNT'S LIGHTNING OIL

Backache only a Symptom

"It Seems as Though my Back Would Break."

This is a common expression among women, yet they toil on day after day heedless of the significance of this distressing symptom.

Backache is often a warning of some inward trouble that requires attention, and which unless relieved will sooner or later declare itself in more serious ailments.

If it is caused by female derangement Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is what you need. It quickly asserts its curative powers in all those peculiar ailments of women.

For more than thirty years this good old fashioned root and herb medicine has been restoring American women to health.

Id Recovery of Mrs. Coventry

Newark, N. J.—"The doctor said I had organic trouble and treated me for several weeks. At times I could not walk at all and I suffered with my back and legs so I often had to stay in bed. I suffered off and on for eight years. Finally I heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was a good medicine, and I tried it with splendid effect. I can now do my housework and my washing.

I have recommended your Vegetable Compound and Blood Medicine and three of my friends are taking it to their advantage. You may use my name for a testimonial." — Mrs. THERESA COVENTRY, 75 Burnett St., Newark, N. J.

Mrs. Hunt tells how it helped her Detroit, Mich.—"I was in a general run-down condition, was very nervous and tired, had backache and other troubles. I suffered for several years, was not able to work at times and tried doctor's medicine with no results. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised, and after taking it a short time I was much better. I am still taking it myself and giving it to my daughter, and am glad to recommend Vegetable Compound at any time." — Mrs. M. E. Hunt, 171 Davison Ave.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Restore Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does, it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Ribbon Sewing Sets

Above are pictured two pretty sewing or darning sets which are intended to hang somewhere conveniently on a wall or be suspended from some place of vantage on the bedroom furniture. At the right of the picture an embroidery hoop is wound with narrow satin ribbon and decorated with bows having many long loops. A thimble, spool of thread, emery bag and needle case are all tied to the hoop or suspended from it. The small titter of cloth, much dressed up with a bow of ribbon on the neck, carries shining needles in its side and large pins along its back. A little, tinkling silver bell hangs on the ribbon about its neck.

At the left two heart-shaped pieces of cardboard covered with figured satin are sewed together along the sides forming a pocket open at the top which will hold needles, pins and other things. A spool of black and a spool of white thread are fastened to the front of the pocket with a ribbon. Small scissors are suspended at the bottom, a thimble is placed at the left and a glove darning at the right. Large pins with white heads finish off the edge of the pocket and a few safety pins are suspended on a bit of ribbon at the center.

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys
If Bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

BROKERAGE, MOTOR, AND TIRE COMPANY IN TROUBLE

That the Cannonball Motor Company, the Western Tire Manufacturing Company, and the C. A. Roberson Brokerage Company of Texico, had been under federal investigation came to light when Assistant United States Attorney J. O. Seth announced that ten indictments had been returned against ten officials of the three companies, charging them with using the mails to defraud.

The indictments were found by the United States grand jury in Santa Fe, New Mexico, but announcement was withheld until all the men indicted had been taken into custody. They are now under bond. They include two Colorado bankers, and a county judge of Texas.

Those indicted are: C. A. Roberson, Texico, fiscal agent, who is said to be the chief; Judge J. D. Hamblin, Farwell, president; E. A. Randall, Pueblo, Colo., bank president; J. E. Milne, Pueblo, banker; and several residents of Western Texas, who are said not to be moving spirits in the organization.

Judge Hamblin is said to be a reputable citizen of Farwell. Roberson was required to give bond in the sum of $125,000; others were fixed at smaller amounts.

Pictures of the plant at Texico were said to have been sent out, making Texico look like Pittsburgh, according to Mr. Seth. He said the tire company erected a small building and bought some second hand machinery, and that the motor company purchased an office building but had not commenced building a plant. The brokerage company was said to have been organized primarily to sell stock in the other two concerns.

It was estimated by Mr. Seth that the companies received in cash between $350,000 and $400,000 from stock buyers in New Mexico, Southern Colorado and Texas, and that the greater part was paid out as commissions.

THE RUSH IS ON.

Everybody is getting ready for an enormous increase in business. In no other age or time have young men and women had such a splendid opportunity. The business world is crying for the proper kind of trained help. It wants competent stenographers, bookkeepers, accountants, private secretaries, auditors, telegraph operators, cotton classifiers, managers and business executives who can measure up to the requirements of modern business. Great corporations, big industries, immense wholesale houses, manufacturing plants are things of recent origin. Their business is speeding up and they need thousands upon thousands of assistants and executives to keep them moving with the spirit of the day. The average business man does more than twice as much correspondence as he did a few years ago. The amazing growth of modern business has created an unheard-of demand for thoroughly trained office help. The immediate future will witness an even more wonderful growth. Men of affairs who are qualified to judge existing conditions, say that the country is sure to witness even a greater growth in business than the past.

Wake up, and keep up with the business of today. Don't be at the tail-end of the procession. Men and women who are now occupying the big positions of today, once occupied a similar position to yourself. They are moving on with great speed and some one must take their places. Where will you be? There is no reason why you shouldn't keep your place in the procession and be one of those who will accomplish things. The master leader of today is the business man; all others are subject to his orders, working out his problems, under his direction and largely for his gain. The gateway to business success is now, at an airplane speed, is a commercial course in Tyler Commercial College. Our courses of study have been selected and outlined with the greatest care. The work is prepared so that you may enroll at any time and advance as fast as your ability will permit. New students are entering every day, while others are finishing and going to good positions. With our practical and thorough courses of bookkeeping, business training, shorthand, typewriting, business administration and finance, telegraphy, calculating and cotton classing and sampling, we can prepare you in the shortest time at the least expense; take advantage of these opportunities. Since our school is open every day in the year for enrollments, you can enroll now. Today is your day. We do not close for the Xmas holidays. Fill in and mail for our large free catalogue.

SLATON SLATONITE

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB BACKACHE AND LUMBAGO RIGHT OUT

Rub Pain and Stiffness away with a small bottle of old honest
St. Jacobs Liniment

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 30 cent bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Liniment" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the ache and pain right out of your back and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica and lame back misery so promptly!

Plainview Without a Gin.

The editor of the News saw seven wagon loads of seed cotton on the streets of Plainview this morning, going to Lokney to be ginned. Considerable cotton is being raised around Plainview this year, and it has to go elsewhere to be ginned. Local business men have determined to see that a gin is located in Plainview before next year's crop begins to come in.—Plainview News.

Gifts Made of Paper

Among inexpensive gifts that are at the same time elegant and worth while there are many little convenient articles made of prettily colored, heavy paper. Telephone and laundry lists, small portfolios, envelopes in which to place memoranda, etc., are among them. Two articles made of bright blue mottled paper are shown in the picture. The envelope for recipes is made by folding a straight strip of the paper into a pocket and flap.
The sides of the pocket are fastened down with little bows of blue ribbon and the flap is ornamented with a painted spray of flowers in pink. The lettering is done in black.

A long strip of the same paper folded over at each end carries one or more sheets of white paper on which a telephone list is to be written. Small white squares outlined with black ornament it and suggest that this is a man's list. It is tied with a bow of blue ribbon at the top.

Little Wall Pockets

Here are two pretty wall pockets to hang beside or on the dressing table, ready to hold whatever their owners choose to put in them. Disks of cardboard covered with gayly printed ribbon make the frivolous and dainty pocket at the left, and it is suspended by plain satin ribbon that ends in small bows at the sides. At the right two heart-shaped pieces of cardboard are covered smoothly with red satin and fastened together. The edges are finished with narrow puffing of ribbon, and the same ribbon serves to suspend the pocket. This smooth and matter-of-fact affair is evidently intended as a gift for a man. Two hearts with but a single pocket are quite meaningful. But one might use a diamond, a spade or even a club to make a similar pocket, and anyone of them will hold a deck of cards, score cards, pencils and such things, or pins, needles, thimble and thread for a bachelor.

Handy Bag and Case

Among the examples of convenient belongings embodying beautiful work that makes a gift precious, there are handkerchief cases and darning or knitting bags, like those shown above.
The darning bag is made of ribbon and may be carried, with its contents, over the arm. The handkerchief case employs heavy linen, with a coarse linen thread for making its decoration.

THINKS ANY MAN CAN OWN HOME ON SOUTH PLAINS

"Any man who is willing to work, can own a home on the South Plains," says John W. Lain, a farmer of Ralls.
Mr. Lain says he came to this section about a year ago with his wife, and bought 160 acres of land at $32.50 per acre. He and his wife farmed the land this year and were out only $9.00 for hired labor. He says he will gather more than a half bale of cotton per acre for which he expects to get not less than forty cents per pound.

If they have reasonable luck in gathering the crop, Mr. Lain says they will get thirty-five bales of cotton.
Besides making a living, he will pay for the land and have several hundred dollars left in the bank. This is characteristic of many farmers this year.

COTTON FIRE AT LORENZO.

Last Sunday night about 9:30 or 10 o'clock six bales of cotton were discovered to be on fire at Simmons' gin.
Five of the bales belonged to W. B.
Williams, an industrious farmer of this section, and the other to Mr. S. N.
Wright. The cotton was in Mr. Williams' wagon and when discovered the wagon had almost completely burned.
The fire is believed to have been of in-

EASY TO REPAIR WOODWORK WATCHES AND BANK VAULTS

A Little Labor, With Inexpensive Materials, Will Put It in Quite Presentable Shape.

No matter how badly in need of repair woodwork and furniture may be, you can put them in presentable shape if you have care, perseverance and a few inexpensive helps at hand.

To begin with, get the wood ready for some sort of finish. If it is badly battered up and the color of the surface is faded and spotted, get a sandpaper and cut it in two-inch squares. With this rub off the old paint or varnish. Course paper may be needed to begin with, but finish scrubbing with fine-grade paper and rub the wood smooth. This work is tedious, so do it for only a short time at a stretch.

After the old paint or varnish is removed dust the wood and then wipe it with an oily cloth. Then make little pads of cotton—tie a six-inch square of cheesecloth around a wad of cotton batting—and dip them in paraffin oil and then in shellac and then put the surface of the wood with them. Pat the wood until it has absorbed all the finish it will take. The finish will be attractive and durable, but it must be carefully put on.

Virtue is its own reward, which may explain why no one ever advertises its loss.

Why Safe Receptacles Occasionally Have a Bad Effect on the Stored Timepieces.

Overseas men who left their watches along with other valuable articles in bank vaults have in many instances found their timekeepers erratic or entirely useless on their return.

"Magnetized," the watch expert pair show

When a watch is magnetized, its hairspring contracts and does other unseemly things, and the watch runs only casually, if at all. Watch repairers say they can demagnetize a watch in a little while and it will be just as good as ever.

But why should a bank vault cause this magnetizing? That's the odd feature of it, for frequently the very factor that makes the watch's repository a safe one puts it "on the friz" as far as usefulness goes. A watch is magnetized when some electric current is near enough to have an effect. And usually the electric current that does the work is the current that operates the bank's burglar alarm.

SOUTH IS TURNING AGAINST CALOMEL

Mr. Dodson, the "Liver Tone" Man, Responsible for Change for the Better.

Every druggist in town has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it," Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle doesn't cost very much, but if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, just ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day.—Adv.

Nasty Colds

Get instant relief with "Pape's Cold Compound"

Don't stay stuffed up! Quit blowing and snuffing! A dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken usually breaks up a cold and ends all gripe misery.

The very first dose opens your clogged-up nostrils and the air passages of the head; stops nose running; the headache, dullness, fever, sneezing, soreness and stiffness. "Pape's Cold Compound" is the quickest, surest relief known and costs only a few cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance. Tastes nice. Contains no quinine. Insist on Pape's! Ad.

No Wonder.

"Why did the captain you met, just come from overseas, answer you so shortly?"

WHEN KIDNEYS ACT TOO OFTEN

If bothered with that form of kidney trouble which causes too frequent or excessive passage of urine, don't expect relief from medicines that are intended for common kidney complaint. These remedies generally are intended to increase kidney action.

Liquid Shu Make should always be used where the kidneys are over active during the day or at night. It is not a cure for all forms of kidney trouble, but is intended for over-activity of the kidneys of both children and adults alike, especially for children bothered with kidney action at night.

Ask any druggist for Liquid Shu Make or enclose sixty cents to the Shumake Remedy Company, Fort Worth, Texas, for a bottle by return mail.—Adv.

WAS ALMOST DISCOURAGED

Constant Headache and Much Soreness and Pain Nearly Got the Best of This Harrisburg Lady, But Cardui Made Her Well and Strong.

Harrisburg, Ark.—Mrs. J. M. Needham, living near here, states: "When I began working on me I suffered a great deal. I had so much soreness and pain in the lower part of my body I could hardly get up when I was down. I would have severe pains, all across my back, and my sides hurt me all the time. I would have headaches constantly, especially the back of my head and neck. I was almost discouraged with my condition when I thought of Cardui, and decided to see what it would do.

I saw an improvement at once after the first bottle. I kept it up and the result was wonderful. I took altogether four bottles. I grew stronger, better appetite, less pain until I was well. I think Cardui is a God-send to suffering women, and I certainly can praise it, and do so."

For more than 40 years Cardui has been in general use and in that time thousands have written to tell us how it helped them back to health and strength.

Offers Ground for New Theory.

The sudden virulence of ordinarily harmless saprophytes giving rise to widespread influenza epidemic, suggests to a Danish physician some influence like a peculiar electrodynamic state of the atmosphere. Rheumatic and neuralgic pains may be "electric" instead of "barometric," and it may be found possible to give some local control over the distressing conditions.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Catarrhal Deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be removed, hearing may be destroyed forever. Many cases of Deafness are caused by Catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE.

The Magnificent Ambersons

By BOOTH TARKINGTON

COPYRIGHT BY DOUBLEDAY, PAGE & COMPANY

ing Fanny looking startled and solemn when Lucy came by to drive him out to dinner at the new house Eugene had just completed.

He was loud in praise of the house after Eugene arrived, and gave them no account of his journey until they had retired from the dinner table to Eugene's library, a gray and shadowy room, where their coffee was brought. Then, equipped with a cigar, which seemed to occupy his attention, Amberson spoke in a casual tone of his sister and her son.

"I found Isabel as well as usual," he said, "only I'm afraid 'as usual' isn't particularly well. Sydney and Amelia had been up to Paris in the spring, but she hadn't seen them. Somebody told her they were there, it seems. They'd left Florence and were living in Rome; Amelia's become a Catholic and is said to give great sums of charity and to go about with the gentry in consequence, but Sydney's ailing and lives in a wheel chair most of the time. It struck me Isabel ought to be doing the same thing."

He paused, bestowing minute care upon the removal of the little band from his cigar; and as he seemed to have concluded his narrative Eugene spoke out of the shadow beyond a heavily shaded lamp: "What do you mean by that?" he asked quietly.

"Oh, she's cheerful enough," said Amberson, still not looking at either his young hostess or her father. "At least," he said, "she manages to seem so. I'm afraid she hasn't been really well for several years. Of course she makes nothing of it, but it seemed rather serious to me when I noticed she had to stop and rest twice to get up one short flight of stairs in their two-floor apartment. I told her I thought she ought to make George her home."

"Let her?" Eugene repeated in a low voice. "Does she want to?"

"She doesn't urge it. George seems to like the life there—in his grand, gloomy and peculiar way; and of course she'll never change about being proud of him and all that—he's quite a swell. But in spite of anything she said, rather than because, I know she does indeed want to come. She'd like to be with father, of course; and I think she's—well, she intimated one day that she feared it might even happen that she wouldn't get to see him again. At the time I thought she referred to his age and feebleness, but on the boat coming home I remembered the little look of wistfulness, yet of resignation, with which she said it, and it struck me all at once that I'd been mistaken: I saw she was really thinking of her own state of health."

"I see," Eugene said, his voice even lower than it had been before. "And you say he won't let her come home?"

Amberson laughed, but still continued to be interested in his cigar. "Oh, I don't think he uses force! He's very gentle with her. I doubt if the subject is mentioned between them, and yet—and yet, knowing my interesting nephew as you do, wouldn't you think that was about the way to put it?"

"Knowing him as I do—yes," said Eugene slowly. "Yes, I should think that was about the way to put it."

A murmur out of the shadows beyond him—a faint sound, musical and feminine, yet expressive of a notable intensity—seemed to indicate that Lucy was of the same opinion.

CHAPTER XIX.

"Let her" was correct; but the time came—and it came in the spring of the next year—when it was no longer a question of George's letting his mother come home. He had to bring her, and to bring her quickly if she was to see her father again; and Amberson had been right: her danger of never seeing him again lay not in the Major's feebleness of heart but in her own. As it was George telegraphed his uncle to have a wheeled chair at the station, for the journey had been disastrous, and to this hybrid vehicle, placed close to the car platform, her son carried her in his arms when she arrived. She was unable to speak, but patted her brother's and Fanny's hands and looked "very sweet," Fanny found the desperate courage to tell her. She was lifted from the chair into a carriage, and seemed a little stronger as they drove home; for once she took her hand from George's and waved it feebly toward the carriage window.

"Changed," she whispered. "So changed."

"You mean the town," Amberson said. "You mean the old place is changed, don't you, dear?"

She smiled and moved her lips: "Yes."

"It'll change to a happier place, old dear," he said, "now that you're back in it, and going to get well again."

But she only looked at him wistfully, her eyes a little fatigued.

When the carriage stopped her son carried her into the house and up the stairs to her own room, where a nurse was waiting; and he came out a moment later, as the doctor went in. At the end of the hall a stricken group was clustered: Amberson and Fanny and the Major. George, deathly pale and speechless, took his grandfather's hand, but the old gentleman did not seem to notice his action.

"When are they going to let me see my daughter?" he asked querulously. "They told me to keep out of the way while they carried her in, because it might upset her. I wish they'd let me go in and speak to my daughter. I think she wants to see me."

He was right—presently the doctor came out and beckoned to him, and the Major shuffled forward, leaning on a shaking cane; his figure, after all its years of proud soldierliness, had grown stooping at last, and his untrimmed white hair straggled over the back of his collar. He looked old—old and divested of the world—as he crept toward his daughter's room. Her voice was stronger, for the waiting group heard a low cry of tenderness and welcome as the old man reached the open doorway. Then the door was closed.

George began to pace the floor, taking care not to go near Isabel's door, and that his footsteps were muffled by the long, thick hall rug. After a while he went to where Amberson, with folded arms and bowed head, had seated himself near the front window. "Uncle George," he said hoarsely. "I didn't—"

"Well?"

"Oh, my God, I didn't think this thing the matter with her could ever be serious! I—" He gasped. "When the doctor I had meet us at the boat—" He could not go on.

Amberson only nodded his head, and did not otherwise change his attitude.

Isabel lived through the night. At eleven o'clock Fanny came timidly to George in his room. "Eugene is here," she whispered. "He's downstairs. He wants—" She gulped. "He wants to know if he can't see her. I didn't know what to say. I said I'd see. I didn't know—the doctor said—"

"The doctor said we must keep her peaceful," George said sharply. "Do you think that man's coming would be very soothing? My God! If it hadn't been for him this mightn't have happened; we could have gone on living here quietly, and—why, it would be like taking a stranger into her room! She hasn't even spoken of him more than twice in all the time we've been away. Doesn't he know how sick she is? You tell him the doctor said she had to be quiet and peaceful. That's what he did say, isn't it?"

Fanny acquiesced tearfully. "I'll tell him. I'll tell him the doctor said she was to be kept very quiet. I—I didn't know—" And she pattered out.

An hour later the nurse appeared in George's doorway; she came noiselessly, and his back was toward her; but he jumped as if he had been shot, and his jaw fell, he so feared what she was going to say.

"She wants to see you."

The terrified mouth shut with a click and he nodded and followed her, but she remained outside his mother's room while he went in.

Isabel's eyes were closed, and she did not open them or move her head, but she smiled and edged her hand toward him as he sat on a stool beside the bed. He took that slender, cold hand and put it to his cheek.

"Darling, did you—get something to eat?" She could only whisper slowly and with difficulty. It was as if Isabel herself were far away, and only able to signal what she wanted to say.

"Yes, mother."

"All you needed?"

"Yes, mother."

She did not speak again for a time; then, "Are you sure you didn't—didn't catch cold—coming home?"

"I'm all right, mother."

"That's good. It's sweet—it's sweet—"

"What is, mother darling?"

"To feel—my hand on your cheek. I—I can feel it."

But this frightened him horribly—that she seemed so glad she could feel it, like a child proud of some miraculous seeming thing accomplished. It frightened him so that he could not speak, and he feared that she would know how he trembled; but she was unaware, and again was silent. Finally she spoke again:

"I wonder if—if Eugene and Lucy know that we've come—home."

"I'm sure they do."

"Has he—asked about me?"

"Yes, he was here."

"Has he—gone?"

"Yes, mother."

She sighed faintly. "I'd like—"

"What, mother?"

"I'd like to have—seen him." It was audible, this little regretful murmur. Several minutes passed before there was another. "Just—just once," she whispered, and then was still.

She seemed to have fallen asleep, and George moved to go, but a faint pressure upon his fingers detained him, and he remained, with her hand still pressed against his cheek. After a while he made sure she was asleep, and moved again, to let the nurse come in, and this time there was no pressure of the fingers to keep him. She was not asleep, but, thinking that if he went he might get some rest, and be better prepared for what she knew was coming, she commanded those longing fingers of hers—and let him go.

He found the doctor standing with the nurse in the hall; and, telling them that his mother was drowsing now, George went back to his own room, where he was startled to find his grandfather lying on the bed, and his uncle leaning against the wall. They had gone home two hours before, and he did not know they had returned.

"The doctor thought we'd better come over," Amberson said, then was silent, and George, shaking violently, sat down on the edge of the bed. His shaking continued, and from time to time he wiped heavy sweat from his forehead.

The hours passed, and sometimes the old man upon the bed would snore a little, stop suddenly, and move as if to rise, but George Amberson would set a hand upon his shoulder, and murmur a reassuring word or two.

Once George gasped defiantly: "That doctor in New York said she might get better! Don't you know he did? Don't you know he said she might?"

Amberson made no answer.

Dawn had been morking through the smoky windows, growing stronger for half an hour, when both men started violently at a sound in the hall; and the Major sat up on the bed. It was the voice of the nurse speaking to Fanny Minafer, and the next moment Fanny appeared in the doorway making contorted efforts to speak.

Amberson said weakly: "Does she want us—to come in?"

But Fanny found her voice, and uttered a long, loud cry. She threw her arms about George, and sobbed in an agony of loss and compassion:

"She loved you!" she wailed. "She loved you! She loved you! Oh, how she did love you!"

Major Amberson remained dry-eyed through the time that followed; he knew that his separation from his daughter would be short; that the separation which had preceded it was the long one. He worked at his ledgers no more under his old gas drop-light, but would sit all evening staring into the fire in his bedroom, and not speaking unless someone asked him a question. He seemed almost unaware of what went on around him, and those who were with him thought him dazed by Isabel's death, guessing that he was lost in reminiscences and vague dreams. "Probably his mind is full of pictures of his youth, or the Civil war, and the days when he and mother were young married people and all of us children were jolly little things—and the city was a small town with one cobbled street and the others just dirt roads with board sidewalks." This was George Amberson's conjecture, and the others agreed; but they were mistaken. The Major was engaged in the profoundest thinking of his life. No business plans which had ever absorbed him could compare in momentousness with the plans that absorbed him now, for he had to plan how to enter the unknown country where he was not even sure of being recognized as an Amberson—not sure of anything, except that Isabel would help him if she could. The Major was occupied with the first really important matter that had taken his attention since he came home invalided, after the Gettysburg campaign, and went into business, and he realized that everything which had worried him or delighted him during this lifetime between then and today—all his buying and building and trading and banking—that it all was trifling and waste beside what concerned him now.

Meanwhile, the life of the little bereft group still forlornly centering upon him began to pick up again, as life will, and to emerge from its own period of dazedness. It was not Isabel's father but her son who was really dazed.

A month after her death he walked abruptly into Fanny's room, one night, and found her at her desk, eagerly adding columns of figures with which she had covered several sheets of paper.

"George! You startled me."

"I beg your pardon for not knocking," he said huskily. "I didn't think."

She turned in her chair and looked at him solicitously. "Sit down, George, won't you?"

"No. I just wanted—"

"I could hear you walking up and down in your room," said Fanny. "You were doing it ever since dinner, and it seems to me you're at it almost every evening. I don't believe it's good for you—and I know it would worry your mother terribly if she—"

"See here," George said, breathing fast, "I want to tell you once more that what I did was right. How could I have done anything else but what I did do?"

"Oh, I don't pretend to judge," Fanny said soothingly, for his voice and gesture both partook of wildness. "I know you think you did, George."

"Think I did?" he echoed violently. "My God—in heaven!" And he began to walk up and down the floor.

"What else was there to do? What choice did I have? Was there any other way of stopping the talk?" He stopped, close in front of her, gesticulating, his voice harsh and loud: "Was there any other way on earth of protecting her from the talk?"

Miss Fanny looked away. "It died down before long, I think," she said nervously.

THANKSGIVING 1919.

History tells us that the Pilgrim Fathers in the new world—grateful for a golden harvest—gathered together for a feast of rejoicing.

And they called it "Thanksgiving Day."

And year by year this all-American custom of giving thanks has grown into the hearts and minds of our people. No other holiday in any season is so typically American as our own Thanksgiving Day. Of all the world's festive occasions, this day alone is consecrated purely to our nation—to the firesides of America.

We are coming to the close of a year filled with many blessings. Have we not just cause for gratefulness? When the Beneficent Author of All Good has seen fit to shower upon our nation such blessings as this year has brought, the season takes a new meaning—sweeter, fuller than ever before—filling us with a glow of gratitude such as no other Thanksgiving has ever done.

We are thankful for twelve months of peace and contentment; for a harvest unsurpassed in our country.

May the good things that the year has brought to each and every one fill us with a new determination to work and strive with a freshness of spirit and hearts filled with the desire for the good of our people, our town, and our community.

Civic and Culture Club.

Mesdames Herbert A. Tait and W. H. Proctor were hostesses to the Civic and Culture Club at the home of Mrs. Tait Saturday afternoon. A brief business meeting was presided over by Mrs. Ed Tonn, the newly elected president. Mrs. W. H. Proctor was elected vice president. Mrs. R. A. Baldwin was made chairman of the program committee, with Mrs. W. Donald also a member.

The civic committee reported that owing to the damp weather last week the prizes would not be awarded until the town was made cleaner and to allow ample time one more week would be given to continue the Clean-Up Campaign. A special effort will be made to secure trash piles sufficient to have one hundred bonfires next Saturday, after which judges will be appointed to inspect each district and award prizes.

At the close of the business meeting the regular program on American Musicians was very ably led by Mrs. Tait, and the members and guests were favored with lovely selections by the following: Misses Ramsey, McHugh, Harris, and Mesdames Call, Brewer, and Tait.

Following this splendid program a delicious course of refreshments were served to the many members and the Missionary Society.

The first lesson from the Missionary book was very interesting and helpful to all. Our Lord needs well equipped workmen, an army trained for service, and in order that God's work make advancement the worker must prepare for the task.

First essential: Spirituality, the main source of power. The lifting power is Christ. He said: "And I, if I be lifted up will draw all men unto me." Machinery is useless without the lifting power, so the machinery of our organization is useless without Christ made known to the workers, those who know their source of power.

Telling the Story of His Life

Is There a Santa Claus?

Classic Answer of a New York Journalist Affirming a Little Girl's Belief

ONE of the finest things ever written about Christmas was the editorial printed 20 years ago by the New York Sun in answer to the earnest appeal of a little New York girl to be told whether Santa Claus really exists. Its author, Frank P. Church, was an accomplished journalist and wrote much on many subjects, but his fame will rest chiefly on this beautiful setting forth of an eternal truth. With Dr. Clement Clarke Moore's "A Visit From St. Nicholas," it is one of the great classics of the Christmas season.

The answer to the eternal question as printed in the Sun follows:

"We take pleasure in answering at once, and thus prominently, the communication below, expressing at the same time our great gratification that its faithful author is numbered among the friends of the Sun:

"Dear Editor—I am eight years old. Some of my little friends say there is no Santa Claus. Papa says: If you see it in the Sun it's so. Please tell me the truth: Is there a Santa Claus?"
"VIRGINIA O'HANLON."
"15 West Ninety-first Street."

"Virginia, your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age. They do not believe except they see. They think that nothing can be which is not comprehensible by their little minds. All minds, Virginia, whether they be men's or children's, are little. In this great universe of ours man is a mere insect, an ant, in his intellect, as compared with the boundless world about him, as measured by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole truth and knowledge.

"Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas! How dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus! It would be as dreary as if there were no Virginias. There would be no childlike faith then, no poetry, no romance, to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment except in sense and sight. The eternal light with which childhood fills the world would be extinguished.

"Not believe in Santa Claus! You might as well not believe in fairies! You might get your papa to hire men to watch in all the chimneys on Christmas eve to catch Santa Claus, but even if they did not see Santa Claus coming down, what would that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children nor men can see. Did you ever see fairies dancing on the lawn? Of course not; but that's no proof that they are not there. Nobody can conceive or imagine all the wonders that are unseen and unseeable in the world.

"You may tear apart the baby's rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there is a veil covering the unseen world which not the strongest man, nor even the united strength of all the strongest men that ever lived, could tear apart. Only faith, fancy, poetry, love, romance, can push aside that curtain and view and picture the supernal beauty and glory beyond. Is it all real? Ah, Virginia, in all this world there is nothing else real and abiding.

"No Santa Claus! Thank God, he lives and he lives forever. A thousand years from now, Virginia, may 10 times 10,000 years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood."

Changed His Mind.

Doris—I thought you and George were going skating?
Marjorie—So we were, but when I saw I had my hat trimmed with mistletoe he asked me to go for a walk.

AGAIN THAT CHRISTMAS PRESENT.

Are you sure that she is going to give you something?
Quite sure. She called on me today and wished that she had one of those wallpaper serving trays.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It

Applicants for Insurance Often Rejected.

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview on the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease. It is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

GET READY FOR "FLU"

Keep Your Liver Active, Your System Purified and Free From Colds by Taking Calotabs, the Nauseless Calomel Tablets, that are Delightful, Safe and Sure.

Physicians and Druggists are advising their friends to keep their systems purified and their organs in perfect working order as a protection against the return of influenza. They know that a clogged up system and a lazy liver favor colds, influenza and serious complications.

To cut short a cold overnight and to prevent serious complications take one Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, no griping, no sickening after effects. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified and refreshed and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please—no danger. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. Every druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not perfectly delighted with Calotabs.—(Adv.)

REV. McCauley Makes Appeal For 75 Million Campaign

Commenting on the Baptist 75 Million Campaign now in progress, J. H. McCauley, pastor of the local Baptist church, has the following to say:

"The Baptist 75 Million Campaign is drawing to a close. The last week of it—'Victory Week'—will commence on next Sunday morning. The campaign was launched at the Southern Baptist Convention in Atlanta, Georgia, in May, 1919. Seeing the crisis coming upon us, and after much prayer and deliberation, it was there determined to give seven months to enlightenment and enlistment, with the belief that Baptists and their friends would contribute the needed 75 million when they were informed of the actual need and understood the reasons for it. On next Sunday the seven months' period will end and the collections will begin. The collection will be taken in cash and in five-year pledges, subscribed on pledge cards, and will be conducted by the local church teams throughout the South from Maryland and Illinois to Texas and Florida. The collection will continue one week. That week is designated 'Victory Week'—Nov. 30 to Dec. 7.

"The 75 Million Campaign has been conducted thoroughly and its appeal has reached many hearts. We have had the hearty co-operation of the local press as a whole. The Slatonite has helped wonderfully. The big-hearted business men and the liberal-minded professional men have given it a hearty support too. Many people of spiritual minds and religious vision which enabled them to see the far-reaching consequences of such a campaign have prayed and counseled and will contribute toward its success also.

"The consequences which will come as final results reach into infinity. Nobody can possibly sum them all up. Prominent among them and fully recognized by all denominational leaders as one great consequence is the future standing in success or failure the whole Baptist denomination. This short explanation will indicate how and why. Every Baptist church is an independent democracy within itself. The question to be settled is this: Can so many independent local bodies be enlisted in a general movement for the evangelization of the world? If it cannot be done at all, then we have lost our position on the Scriptures and will soon nearly cease to function in religious matters of world-wide importance. On the other hand, if it can be done, we shall have the foremost position from which to work the task given in the Lord's final commission in Matt. 28:19-20. Our age-long belief and position in religious democracy will be defended and proved in the demonstration. Everybody can see that the Baptists as a religious denomination are in the balance and are to be weighed. Shall we prove our own selves sincere in the faith we have professed to believe? A great many people of other denominations have given already and many more will give large sums because of their respect for our churches and their good works. Practically all other denominations among Protestant people have either made or are now making a great forward movement in educational and missionary enterprises. Prominent among them are Presbyterians, who have raised their 13 million fund and went over the amount. The Methodists, North and South, went in for 140 million in five years. It was oversubscribed several millions. The Episcopalians are now in a similar campaign with every indication of a great success. The Baptists of the Northern States are making their drive for the amount of 100 million. The 75 Million Campaign represents the effort of Southern Baptist people only. In the name of every Baptist church, and every Baptist orphanage, and every Baptist college, and every Baptist sanitarium, and every Baptist missionary, and every Baptist mission field I plead for our quota of the 75 million dollars. LET US NOT FAIL.

"It is yet impossible for any one to forecast the returns. However, everything seems to indicate the greatest victory in all religious history. Hundreds of Baptist people are selling their homes for money for the campaign. Hundreds of wealthy Baptists are pledging practically the whole of their earthly possessions. Hundreds of very poor Baptists are pledging goodly sums with the hope of earning the amount during the five years covered by their pledges. All those who have been paying and helping through the years will do their very measure of faith in the Lord Jesus. Another indication of success is seen in the few who have always opposed every religious effort that cost anything. Thank God! That little bunch is against it. It seems to prevail in the usual line-up all over the South.

"A large majority of the members of the Slaton church will give in a spirit of sacrifice. Some few will win eternal glory by their self-denial and sacrifice of earthly treasures to give. We have reason to hope that our entire quota will be subscribed in addition to the sum we need for a local church building fund. Our membership has had ample time and opportunity to learn of the need and the reasons that have made it so great. Their gifts will measure in the sacrifice they make to give just exactly the amount of sincerity there is in their profession of faith in Christ and love for the church. If any are yet uninformed, they may do less. 'Victory Week'—Nov. 30-Dec. 7, will decide the future usefulness of the Baptist church, and the measure of our love for Christ and His cause. Then, we will see."

300 STILL ARE NOW BEING OPERATED IN THE STATE

San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 25.—There are between 200 and 300 whiskey stills operating in Texas, and approximately 10,000 bootleggers in the State, it is believed by local revenue officials, despite the stringent legislation recently passed. And, despite a published statement that 60,000 men are coming to America for the violations of the law, the revenue department has only one available man to raid saloons and work up liquor violation cases in the entire State of Texas, according to a statement issued by Thos. Taylor, chief revenue agent for this district. And although Commissioner Roper of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, Washington, reports practically no violations in the two weeks' time that the prohibition enforcement bill has been in effect, Mr. Taylor said that this certainly does not hold good in Texas.

"If the State would do its duty in enforcing the prohibition law," said Mr. Taylor, "there would be little left for the national government to do. But the State law is not observed, and with one man on the job it's a pretty difficult thing to enforce the law in Texas," he added.

Gifts for the Baby

Narrow ribbons and small white celluloid rings help fashion many pretty gifts for baby as may be seen in the picture above. Flowerlike bells of ribbon in which safety pins simulate stamens hang at the end of narrow ribbons, that are suspended from a small ring under a little bow. Another pincushion for baby has the hours of the day painted on it and hangs by narrow ribbons from a ring. Bows, loops and rings decorate the cushion at the bottom, making place for several sizes of safety pins. A bow and long end conceal a common pin that is thrust into one of the numbers on the clock—to indicate the hour when baby is to be fed. Below this pretty gift is a strand of very gayly colored beads and at the right a band crocheted of silk floss, edged and trimmed with ribbon, to be used on the carriage to hold the baby safely in it.

Dainty Ribbon Garters

Ribbons and laces that set off the faces of fair women, do not end their usefulness in this way. Here they appear in Christmas garters of a daintiness and beauty that will bring joy to the recipient. Ribbon, shirred over flat elastic and ornamented with tiny chiffon roses, makes the pair shown with wide flounce of lace falling from one edge of them. The garters at the right are made of wide satin ribbon shirred over flat elastic, with narrow frills of val lace set on them and finished with rosettes made of the same ribbon. Each rosette has a bow of narrower ribbon at the center and three little blossoms of the narrow ribbon, perched at the edge. The rosettes and flowers are shown separately.

CLEVER WINTER COAT

None of the new coats for winter are handsomer or more interesting than the model portrayed here. It reveals the sleeves and body cleverly cut together and set on to a small yoke. The deep cuffs are made of the cloth but a collar of sealskin lends an effective finishing touch.

TO TRADE: 83½ acres good Denton County land to trade for residence property in Slaton. This land is producing extra good revenue, and is close to good town. See W. DONALD at Slatonite office.

A Novelty in Fans

Small palm-leaf fans, all decked out with pretty furbelows are among the novelties that have been brought out for Christmas gifts. These fans are first painted any desired color and then varnished. Then the edge is bound with ribbon having a picot edge or with gold or silver braid or other fancy binding. A spray of millinery flowers is tied against the handle, on one side of the fan, and the handle wound with ribbon that is tied in a bow below the flowers. Or flowers may be painted on the fan or made with sealing wax, as in the fan pictured here. This sample is bound with silver braid and has a long tassel of silver tinsel besides a ribbon bow on the handle. It is pretty in turquoise blue, rose color, red, etc., with ribbon and flowers in colors that harmonize, and is easy to make at home.

WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER

Wash the poisons and toxins from system before putting more food into stomach.

Says inside-bathing makes anyone look and feel clean, sweet and refreshed.

Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness, while the bowel pores do.

For every ounce of food and drink taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out of the body. If this waste material is not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisons, gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which should suck only nourishment to sustain the body.

A splendid health measure is to drink, before breakfast each day, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless way to wash these poisons, gases and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs but very little at the drug store but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on inside-bathing. Men and women who are accustomed to wake up with a dull, aching head or have furred tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, sallow complexion, others who have bilious attacks, acid stomach or constipation are assured of pronounced improvement in both health and appearance shortly.

ST. CHARLES WOMAN WAS FORTUNATE

It Was a Lucky Day for Mrs. Wietheolter When She Read About Doan's

"I had such awful cutting pains in the small of my back and hips, I often had to cry out," says Mrs. Ernest Wietheolter, 550 Madison St., St. Charles, Mo. "The pain was knife-like and I couldn't turn in bed, in fact I was almost helpless. My feet and ankles swelled badly, my hands were puffed up and there were swellings under my eyes. I often got so dizzy I had to sit down to keep from falling and my health was completely broken down. The kidney secretions pained terribly in passage and in spite of all the medicine I took, I kept getting worse until I was a wreck."

Mrs. Wietheolter

"By chance I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and bought some. After I had used half a box there was a change and I continued to improve; the pains, aches and swellings left and my health returned."

Suitor to before me,
WM. F. WOLTER, Notary Public.
ALMOST TWO YEARS LATER,
Mrs. Wietheolter said: "I think as highly of Doan's as ever. Whenever I have used them, they have benefited me."

HEADACHE Often Caused by Acid-Stomach

Yes, indeed, more often than you think. Because ACID-STOMACH, starting with indigestion, heartburn, belching, food-repeating, bloating and gas, if not checked, will eventually affect every vital organ of the body. Severe, blinding, splitting headaches are, therefore, of frequent occurrence as a result of this most common condition.

Take EATONIC. It quickly banishes acid-stomach with its sour, bloating, pain and gas. It aids digestion—helps the stomach get full strength from every mouthful of food you eat. Millions of people are miserable, weak, sick and ailing because of ACID-STOMACH. Poisons, created by partly digested food charged with acid, are absorbed into the blood and distributed throughout the entire system. This often causes rheumatism, biliousness, eczema of the liver, heart trouble, ulcers and even cancer of the stomach. It robs its victims of their health, undermines the strength of the most vigorous.

If you want to get back your physical and mental strength—be full of vim and vigor—enjoy life and be happy, you must get rid of your acid-stomach. EATONIC is the only medicine that will do this. It is EATONIC you will find the very help you need and it's guaranteed. So get a big 50c box from your druggist today. If it fails to please you, return it and he will refund your money.

STOMACH O. K.

Indigestion, Acidity, Sourness and Gases ended with "Pape's Diapepsin"

Millions of people know that it is needless to be bothered with indigestion, dyspepsia or a disordered stomach. A few tablets of Pape's Diapepsin neutralize acidity and give relief at once.

When your meals don't fit and you feel uncomfortable, when you belch gases, acids or raise sour, undigested food. When you feel lumps of indigestion pain, heartburn or headache from acidity, just eat a tablet of Pape's Diapepsin and the stomach distress is gone.

The cost is so little. The benefits so great. You, too, will be a Diapepsin enthusiast afterwards.—Adv.

HAD CHRONIC BRONCHITIS FOR TWENTY-SIX YEARS NOW WELL AND HAPPY THIS IS WORTH READING

The experience of Mr. E. J. Touppalik, 1438 Rose street, LaCrosse, Wisconsin, is chiefly remarkable on account of the length of time he was afflicted.

He writes: "I have been suffering with chronic bronchitis for twenty-six years and every winter I would catch cold and become so hoarse I could not speak for six or eight weeks. I could get only temporary relief."

"This winter I was taken with Grip and was in awful shape. A fellow workman advised me to PE-RU-NA. By the time I used three-fourths of a bottle, hoarseness was gone, also that tired feeling. I am on my second bottle. Hereafter PE-RU-NA will be constantly in my house. It is the best medicine ever put up for the purpose."

For any disease due to catarrh or catarrhal conditions, PE-RU-NA is equally dependable. Coughs, colds, catarrh of the head, stomach trouble, constipation, rheumatism, pains in the back, side and loins, bloating, belching gas, indigestion, catarrh of the large and small intestines, are some of the troubles for which PE-RU-NA is especially recommended.

PE-RU-NA can be purchased anywhere in either tablet or liquid form.

Slaton's Four Big Stores Throw Up Their Hands and Call in the PRICE CUTTER!

H. G. CLARK
HIMSELF, IS HERE

These Four Big stocks have been turned over with full authority to make any prices necessary to pass them out to the people of this community in eight days.

I AM MAKING THIS STATEMENT FOR THE PURPOSE OF PREPARING YOU FOR ONE OF THE MOST UNUSUAL ANNOUNCEMENTS IN SLATON'S MERCANTILE HISTORY. I AM GOING TO TELL YOU THE PLAIN FACTS PERTAINING TO THE RETAIL BUSINESS

WITHOUT EVASION OR SUBTERFUGE, AND WITH THE CERTAIN KNOWLEDGE OF YOUR ABILITY TO CORRECTLY JUDGE THE CIRCUMSTANCES AND ANALYZE THE PECULIAR SITUATION THAT CONFRONTS US ALL TODAY—NO MATTER WHETHER LABORER, BANKER OR MERCHANT.

THE PUBLIC STOPPED BUYING AND THE MANUFACTURER STOPPED PRODUCTION! WILL THAT BRING PRICES DOWN AND PUT US ALL ON A NEIGHBORLY BASIS? I LEAVE THAT TO YOU TO ANSWER. BUT HERE'S A CERTAINTY—THE MERCHANT CAN'T STOP SELLING! HE MUST KEEP HIS STOCK TURNING, KEEP HIS CLERKS BUSY, PAY HIS RENT AND OTHER EXPENSES. THESE THINGS HE MUST DO, AND WHEN HE FAILS TO MAKE EXPENSES OVER HIS COSTS, HE MUST GET THEM UNDER COST BY USING PART OF HIS ORIGINAL CAPITAL TO MEET CURRENT EXPENSES, AND THAT IS SUICIDAL.

There's a Stopping Place

WHEN PRICES START DOWNWARD THEY ARE JUST AS HARD TO HOLD ON A REASONABLE BASIS AS THEY ARE WHEN GOING UPWARD. BUT THERE MUST BE A MIDDLE GROUND, A PRICE BASIS FAIR TO ALL CONCERNED, ELSE THE MERCHANT AND MANUFACTURER MUST GO BANKRUPT AND THE CONSUMER FIND HIMSELF OUT OF A JOB.

ALL WILL SELL OUT—Not to Quit Business But to Stay in Business

TO SELL A STOCK TODAY THERE'S NO SUCH THING AS MAKING A PROFIT. IT'S THE SHORTEST CUT TO TAKING THE MINIMUM LOSS AND START IN BUSINESS ALL OVER AGAIN ON THE NEW MARKET—TO BE ABLE TO BUY AND SELL ON TODAY'S PRICES. THESE FOUR SLATON MERCHANTS PROPOSE TO DO THAT VERY THING. AND WHEN THE PRESENT STOCKS ARE SOLD—WHEN THEY ARE IN YOUR HANDS AT PRICES PEOPLE ARE WILLING TO PAY, THE FIRMS' BANK ACCOUNTS WILL SHOW THEIR ACTUAL WORTH TO BE PROBABLY LESS THAN TWO-THIRDS THE ACTUAL CASH VALUE OF THE MERCHANDISE, THUS NOT ONLY WIPING OUT ALL THE CONTEMPLATED PROFITS BUT A GOOD PART OF THE ORIGINAL COST. NO OPPORTUNITY HAS BEEN OFFERED YOU IN YEARS TO COMPARE WITH THIS.

SALE STARTS FRIDAY AT 9 O'CLOCK

AND WILL CONTINUE UNTIL SATURDAY NIGHT, JUNE 25—JUST EIGHT DAYS. EVERY PRICE WILL BE DRASTICALLY REDUCED—REDUCED UNTIL IT MEETS THE PUBLIC IDEA OF FAIRNESS.

THIS IS NOT TO BE CLASSED WITH THE ORDINARY SALE, BUT IS HEAD AND SHOULDERS ABOVE ANYTHING THAT HAS EVER BEEN ATTEMPTED IN THE HISTORY OF LOCAL RETAILERS. WE ASK YOU IN ALL FAIRNESS TO YOURSELF, TO BE SENSIBLE, FOR NOW IS THE TIME TO EXERCISE YOUR SENSE, BECAUSE BARGAIN BRILLIANCY DOMINATES THIS ENTIRE ADVERTISEMENT.

Here is an Announcement in which action is the prime consideration, and we pay the price to get it:

Our message to you is going to be short and sweet. We have this stock. We cannot afford to have it on our hands any longer and we are out to move it and move it quickly. What is the elixir for a quick movement of stock these days? That's right—Prices. Very well. Then we are going to sell this entire stock at sub-seller prices—prices so low that were we to quote them all here it would be most natural for you, without opportunity for thorough inspection to under-rate the merchandise and discount the values represented.

All we say is this. We must have action and if you will "talk turkey" to us, we will talk business to you.

Customers who have bought Dry Goods and Clothing from us for years need no reminder that these goods are without a peer from the standpoint of intrinsic merit and full value. Those who have not, should take this opportunity to become acquainted with the wonderful class of merchandise that we handle and find out why we have set the standard in our field and maintained it for so many years. Action begets action, so do not hesitate but attend this sale at your earliest convenience, because we are not going to stop at anything, but have determined to give you values that will make you talk about this sale for years to come.

M. D. JONES

AND NOW LET'S TALK ABOUT FURNITURE.

FOR WEEKS AND MONTHS PRICES IN OTHER GOODS HAVE BEEN TUMBLING "BACK TO NORMAL" WAS THE SLOGAN, AND BACK THEY WENT. NOW FOR FURNITURE!

Today the cost of producing furniture is almost where it was two years ago. The savings are big, the values are phenomenal. We have taken advantage of every opening for our customers. Our warehouses are filled with furniture bargains which we feel almost certain will not be seen so cheap again.

On Friday next and each day thereafter we will feature certain lots of specials which will crowd our furniture floor with values and customers.

Read our furniture advertisements fully. Walk through our furniture floor Friday. Study the pieces and prices. This is one of the largest and busiest furniture departments in the country because we have the RIGHT GOODS AT REAL SAVINGS!

A. E. HOWERTON

Every statement in this circular is true. Nothing has been overdrawn—just facts. Should you be one of the few persons that fail to take advantage of this far-reaching opportunity that has been made for your benefit, you will have no one to blame but yourself.

This is the greatest merchandise offering of recent years in good, reliable merchandise. Everything is select stock throughout, and we were able to obtain great price concessions from one of the country's best manufacturers, and the punch of our cash in hand broke the high price walls.

In inaugurating this sale of sales, we feel certain that it will meet with your approval, because it will make your dollar worth more than one hundred cents. It gives every penny you spend here during the progress of this sale more power. It gives you the opportunity to pick what you want from the biggest and best stocks of merchandise in this entire community, and this campaign will go down on record as the biggest and boldest bargain event ever known in the State of Texas.

J. M. SIMMONS

We will take the entire community by storm, in the biggest, boldest and most drastic price revision ever attempted in the history of local retailing.

We have gone through every department in this store and have reserved nothing—held back nothing—everything, hundreds of new things are placed on sale.

A visit to this gigantic sale will make your old pocketbook glad, and will make your dollars have more than a hundred cents purchasing power.

Remember, this is not an every day sale, but a sale head and shoulders above anything you ever saw. Don't delay. Come Friday, and profit through this immense undertaking.

A visit will convince you how far you can stretch the purchasing power of a dollar. Every article in this big stock has been cut to the limit and it would take many pages to list the hundreds of money-saving opportunities that await you here.

Come early to this gigantic merchandise movement. Compare the prices and when you have figured the savings on your purchases, you will be glad that you came here bargain hunting for you and the good people of this community.

SANTA CLAUS WRITES TO THE SLATONITE FROM TOYLAND

The Slatonite has just received a letter from Old Santa Claus in Toyland, stating that he expects to make his usual visit to Slaton this year on Christmas Eve, and asks all the good little boys and girls to write and tell him what they want for Christmas. He has also made arrangements to have these letters printed in The Slatonite each week and asks that you address them like this:

SANTA CLAUS,
Care Slatonite,
Slaton, Texas.

Always write on one side of the paper only, be brief and write your name plainly. His letter follows:

Letter From Santa Claus.

Toyland, Nov. 25.—Editor The Slatonite:

If nothing happens I will be in Slaton on Dec. 24, Christmas Eve, on my annual visit and will call at the home of every good little boy and girl in your town. I have been unusually busy during the past year trying to get ready for this Christmas, and as you know, materials for making toys are very scarce, and the little folks need not expect so many toys this time but must be contented with something else more useful. However, I am going to see that all the little girls get a doll.

I want you to reserve space in your paper for all the letters that the little folks write me about what they would like for Christmas, and will appreciate it if you will publish them promptly after they have been received at your office. If there are any little boys and girls there who have been tardy at school or neglect their studies, I want you to give me their names. If there are any others who disobey their parents and complain about having to do the chores around the house or help mama wash the dishes and clean up the house, I want you to give me their names. Only the good little boys and girls will be remembered by me this time as toys are too scarce to waste them on the bad children. If there are any orphan children in your town who have not been remembered heretofore, you will do me a great favor by giving me their names or asking them to be sure and write to me.

Wishing each and every person in Slaton and surrounding country a merry Christmas and happy New Year, I remain as ever,

A friend to the little folks,
OLD SANTA.

Bank Deposits Good Indication Prosperity

Although the crops have just begun to move around Slaton the bank deposits are climbing rapidly, which indicates that prosperity is with us. It is estimated that less than half the cotton has been marketed and very little grain has moved on account of lack of threshers and laborers to put it in shape for the market. Despite these facts there is now about $700,000.00 on deposit in the two Slaton banks, as compared with $233,870 on Sept. 12th this year.

The First State Bank on Nov. 17th, reported total deposits of $421,457.72.

Their statement of Sept. 12 showed deposits of $155,921.81, which is a remarkable increase for so short a period, and too, when crops were hardly moving on account of so much bad weather. In conversation with J. H. Brewer, president of this bank, he stated that on last Saturday the deposits of the First State had reached the half million mark.

The Slaton State Bank on Sept. 12 reported total deposits of $77,948.11, and their statement of November 17th, published elsewhere in The Slatonite, gives them $132,887.13, nearly double that of Sept. 12. The Slaton State Bank is a growing institution and now has B. M. Holland as cashier. He is a hustler for business and will use his best efforts to keep the Slaton State Bank in the front ranks of the progressive business institutions of the town and community.

Refer to the statements of these two banks elsewhere in the paper.

Friday, June 17 Remember

A SAFEGUARD LIKE YOU WERE NEVER BEFORE OFFERED IN CLOTHING BUYING.

We Guarantee Clothing Against Further Decline

Our intensive study of markets leads us to believe that prices of fine clothing are now at their lowest. With many of the greatest clothing factories hardly sewing a stitch for reasons too many to enumerate here; with the quantity of merchandise which they can deliver quickly extremely limited; and with the likelihood of little lessening of demand there is only one direction in which prices can go if they leave the present levels—upwards. Therefore when you buy at this sale, you are actually taking a cash dividend from a situation for which there is hardly a precedent. The risk of this guarantee is ours—the profit is yours.

One Box Garden Court face powder worth 75c and 1 bar 30c toilet soap--both for 25c

To encourage early morning shopping we will sell to the first 25 people to enter our store Friday morning when the doors open at Nine o'clock 1 box Garden Court face powder and one bar 30c toilet soap, this is an unprecedented offer and only 25 will be sold at the low price of 25c for both. Total value $1.05 all for a Quarter.

FANCY STATIONERY, CUT GLASS, IVORY GOODS One Half Price

WE MUST USE COMPARATIVE PRICES IN ORDER TO IMPRESS UPON YOUR MIND THE ALMOST UNBELIEVABLE BIGNESS OF THE VALUES WE ARE ABLE TO GIVE YOU DURING THIS MONSTER SALE. HOWEVER, WHEN WE SAY "A DOLLAR'S WORTH FOR 50c" WE HONESTLY BELIEVE THAT THE COMPARATIVE PRICE OF $1.00 IS WHAT YOU ARE ACTUALLY PAYING IN THE AVERAGE STORE TODAY, AND SO ON DOWN THE LINE, EVERY ITEM QUOTED IS BASED ON WHAT WE HONESTLY BELIEVE TO BE TODAY'S VALUE IN OTHER STORES.

This Sale emphasizes the sincere, value-giving policy of this store—a policy that means clearance of incomplete lines before another season begins. Our guarantee of satisfaction is without any limitations; we want you satisfied. If you say you're not, money cheerfully refunded.

We are determined to "clean house"—to make things hum. Dependable merchandise is now placed on display at prices which will prove irresistible. At no time in our business history have we ever staged and put into action an event in such a whirl-wind fashion.

Coca Cola 5c

DURING THIS ENTIRE SALE, AND ALL OTHER COLD DRINKS IN PROPORTION. THE COOLING SPOT OF SLATON.

Hinds' Honey and Almond Cream 42c

The striking feature in this sale is the utter disregard for all Profits and Costs. These low prices will mean Record Volume.

These Price Smashes will Make This Store Hum

HERE'S THE ABSOLUTE TRUTH ABOUT THIS SALE: REMEMBER THIS IS A DRASTIC DISPOSAL IN WHICH MERCHANDISE IS BEING OFFERED REGARDLESS OF COST OR LOSS. THE SACRIFICE IS SO UNPRECEDENTED THE CUTS IN PRICES ARE BOUND TO EXHAUST EVEN SOME LARGE LINES IN LESS THAN A DAY'S TIME. SO DON'T EXPECT THE ASSORTMENTS HERE ADVERTISED TO LAST BEYOND STORE CLOSING TIME SATURDAY. WE'LL TRY TO KEEP STORE STOCKS REPLENISHED FROM STOCK ROOMS AS LONG AS THE STOCKS HOLD OUT, BUT YOU KNOW THERE'S A LIMIT TO EVEN THIS IN AN HONOR-BRIGHT SALE OF THIS SORT.

We don't fool around waiting for conditions. A nation-wide price-adjustment is on, and we're not going to be caught at this time loaded with such overstocks as every department is now groaning under. Would you give a dollar for what formerly cost two or three dollars, if you needed the article? Well, that is how deep the sacrifice is in many lines, and most of the lines on which the greatest sacrifice is being made are not being published. You must come to learn.

We've steadily worked for a good many years to make our name represent quality in merchandise. We'd rather not sell at all if we can't be sure of your satisfaction. We stand on that—100 per cent satisfaction—or money cheerfully refunded. The magnitude of today's occasion will electrify crowds of Bargain Seekers. This Sale offers unusual saving opportunities. Who would miss such a chance?

These men tell you straight from the shoulder why I am here. Now, I have rolled up my sleeves, ready to smash down all price barriers in this big store. I have also hired over fifty extra salespeople, and have them busy as bees, re-arranging their stocks and marking down goods to advertised prices.

"I AM THE BOSS," AND LET ME SAY RIGHT HERE THAT MY PRICES WILL MAKE GRATEFUL, CLAMORING, ENTHUSIASTIC MOBS STORM OUR DOORS.

I am known from coast to coast as a gleeful, sardonic price smasher. I have been given a free rein to make prices and have been informed by these men that never in the history of their business have they been compelled to resort to such drastic measures.

I promise you the greatest bargains on the best quality of merchandise that can be purchased in the markets today. Believe every word that is printed in this immense advertisement because prices throughout the stores have been mowed down like a vicious contagion, and this shall be Slaton's Greatest Sale.
H. G. CLARK.

$20.00 Violins $9.75

At this store you are sure of finding what you want, because you can select from a wonderfully complete, up-to-the-minute assortment, and every wise buyer knows prices here are not marked up and then down to look like bargain specials. Every price marked in plain figures in ink, on each article, at a true value commensurate with quality, finish and make.
