Hospital buys equipment

Mitchell County Hospital board members met for a called business session on Tuesday evening and approved a major capital equipment purchase to provide for more services through the hospital for the citizens of the county.

The capital equipment purchase, approved by the hospital board members, consists of six pieces of equipment that costs approximately $71,000.

The equipment to be purchased includes a flash sterilizer to be used in surgery, $8500; a used heart monitor, $8500; three pulse Oximeters, $3000 each; Gomco pump, $1100; surgical equipment and scopes including laproscopic equipment, $40,000; and a new freezer for the dietary department, $4000.

Board members were told that the hospital would not have to borrow funds for these purchases because $486 thousand dollars of tax money had been received by the district.

The board voted unanimously in favor of supporting the upgrade of the hospital's technology.

In other action the board passed a resolution in support of the board of economic development's efforts to gain a prison and/or drug and alcohol rehabilitation center in Mitchell County.

The board authorized hospital administrator Wendell Alford to establish guidelines for a non-smoking policy for the hospital which will become effective on Jan 1, 1992.

Received a commitment from a physicians assistant to start here Feb 1, 1992, to work with the proposed rural health clinic.

These out-reach facilities hope to provide improved health care to include Loraine and Westbrook.

Sanders has served as superintendent for the Loraine school system since 1979.

As superintendent for the school system he has been involved with the federal, state, academic, and curricular programs of the Loraine school system.

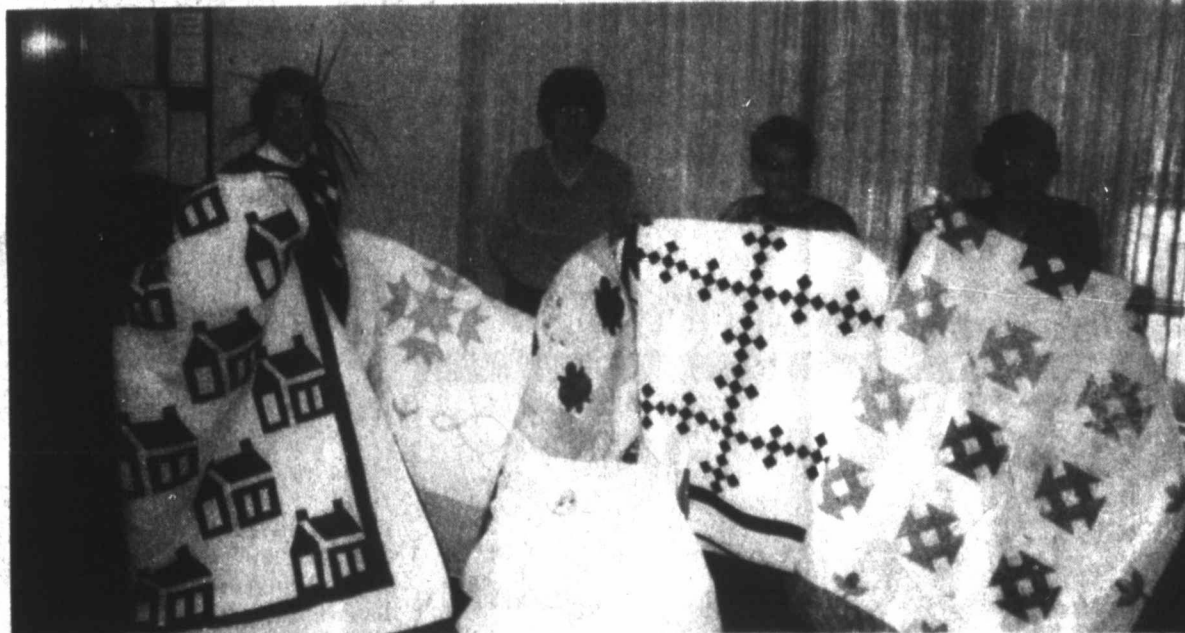

His retirement, to become effective on June 30, 1992, will mark the end of a 33-year career in the field of public school administration.

Besides the association with Loraine ISD, Sanders also served as superintendent of Patton Spring ISD for 9 years, Miami ISD for 2 years, Roaring Springs ISD for 3

Board members were also asked to support a concept which would establish the Colorado ISD as one campus for the purpose of a joint application in seeking to obtain a Partnership School Initiative (PSI) - staff development oriented - program.

"This would help in the application process and would allow all campuses in the Colorado ISD system to participate in the program if the district is selected," said superintendent Don Nimmo.

Already 60 applications have been made to the Region 14 Service Center," Nimmo said, "and indications are that only 2 of the pilot programs will be available per region."

The board approved the resolution as presented to them.

On the recommendation of Kelley Elementary School principal Juan Espinoza, trustees approved the hiring of Mrs. Stephanie Spear as a second grade teacher.

Four second grade classrooms are required this year due to the number of students. With the addition of Mrs. Spear, the classroom sizes will fall within the state required parameters.

School board members tabled action on the storage of documents and records.

He explained how records are indexed and the methods that are used to retrieve information by the company for their customers.

On a preliminary count, it was found that the school system has approximately 600 boxes of files at the present time.

Action on the matter was tabled until a future date.

The board was also informed of an investment program available to the district through the Texas Association of School Boards.

The 3 month old program is designed to allow a higher rate of interest to be earned than through the traditional process.

Business manager Geneva Findley noted that the program is currently paying 6.59 percent interest on investments in the program, compared to the 4.96 percent that is currently received for Colorado ISD investments.

After a discussion on aspects of the investment system, board members tabled the item in order to

A transportation cost of $1,073 for standard transportation and $1,516 for special type transportation was adopted by the trustees in accordance with House Bill 1142.

These figures, approved as given to the board by Findley, will reflect the rate at which transfers will be made from the departmental budgets for the use of the school districts transportation.

The criteria for placement of teachers on the career ladder was also approved at the meeting by school district trustees.

The 2240 ballots that the Colorado ISD is allowed to cast in the election of directors for the Mitchell County Appraisal District Board were divided equally between candidates Frank Brownfield, Eddie Gregory and Dickie White.

The financial report, payment of bills and a budget amendment were approved as presented by Findley.

School principals gave student enrollment figures of their respective campuses during the meeting.

Kelley Elementary principal Juan Espinoza reported current enrollment of 313; Hutchinson Elementary principal Bobby Lemons reported 306; Colorado Middle School principal Jim McLean reported 303; and Colorado High School principal James McSwain reported enrollment at the high school of 325 and a Hobbs enrollment of 19 for a total of 344.

county entering the investment program and were told that it would not jeopardize the 'good will' that exists between the bank and the county.

Representatives of the county have attended meetings in Snyder and Abilene to learn about the Tex-Pool program which is open to governmental entities.

At the court's meeting on Oct 29, commissioners' were told that their money was currently receiving interest of 5.530 percent compared to the rate of 6.064 percent being offered by the Tex-Pool investment program.

The commissioners' approved the election results of the Nov 5 constitutional amendment election with one correction.

On amendment number 2, it had been reported that 31 ballots had been cast against in the voting precinct 7 absentee box. The corrected count, discovered by the commissioners' was 21.

The approved counts for the constitutional amendments were: Prop 1, 1338-209; Prop 2, 773-705 (instead of 715); Prop 3, 888-610; Prop 4, 1444-175; Prop 5, 647-805; Prop 6, 602-897; Prop 7, 378-1109; Prop 8, 1004-436; Prop 9, 902-525; Prop 10, 631-801; Prop 11, 811-795; Prop 12, 928-545; and Prop 13, 1061-460.

Bid specifications for two 12-14 yard dump trucks were approved by the commissioners, as was the authorization to seek and advertise for the trucks.

The trucks are scheduled to be used by the county's precinct number 2 and 3.

The commissioners' also approved a contract concerning the ambulance service which will put the service under the umbrella of Mitchell County Hospital.

In the last meeting of the court, commissioners' had tentatively approved the contract contingent on the fact of the opinion of county attorney Clay Strange.

It was reported to the court that Strange had looked the contract over and was satisfied from a legal standpoint.

The court then voted to cast its 1368 votes allowed in the Mitchell County Appraisal Board director's election for commissioner Ed Roach who is the county's current representative on the board.

The commissioners' discussed but tabled action on compensation for officers of the early election ballot board.

Joan Beach, county clerk, told commissioners' that the officers who work with the absentee ballots have seen their work grow due to state regulations, to the point that the appointed members are doing 5 times the work they used.

After discussing the matter,

Congressman Charles Stenholm has sent a letter notifying the Mayor that he is investigating the possibility of the government deeding the First Western Savings and Loan building to Colorado City.

Baum said that he had been told by an Abilene Realtor that any bid 10 percent or more below appraised value would have to be approved by the government.

With that information, Baum got in touch with the congressman and raised the question of having the property deeded to the city.

A beekeeping ordinance was discussed at the meeting, but tabled after a discussion. Councilman Sammy Contreras was put in charge of a committee to investigate the needs of such an ordinance and bring more information on the issue to the council.

Also tabled at the meeting was a discussion on the closing of the East end of 18th Street to through traffic.

Buddy Foster, city manager, presented a cash analysis report to the councilmen which compared the current year's financial situation to that of prior year's.

The report showed that the city was "bringing in less and spending more."

"The trend is up," Foster said. "Capital purchases have been made and tax revenue is beginning to come in."

Revenue for this year is down $32,000 and capital expenditures on seal-coating and a dump truck have raised the level of expenditures to make the difference in the budget balances, Foster explained.

The minutes of the previous month's meeting and the payment of bills in the amount of $72,957 for the month were approved at the meeting.

Councilmen also met in executive session for the purpose of the city manager's evaluation. No action was taken in open meeting.

Mayor Jim Baum, Mayor Pro-tem Bob Reily and councilmen Duff Chesney, Sammy Contreras, Gary Redwine and Rex Thackerson were in attendance. Brian Bassham was absent.

Breckenridge, Denver City to face off here Friday

High school football play-off action begins this Friday night at Colorado City's Wolf stadium with a 8 p.m. kick-off for a game that pits Class 3A contenders Breckenridge and Denver City.

The Breckenridge Buckaroos are runner-up in District 4-3A to last year's 3A state champion, Vernon.

The Buckaroos compiled a season record of 6-3-1 (3-2) in the 1991 campaign.

Coach Jerry Taylor is in his first year at the helm of the green-and-white Buckaroo attack and is leading a team into the play-offs for the second straight year.

The Denver City Mustangs are this year's champions and the perennial powerhouse team of District 3-3A.

Coach Alan Cornelius has accumulated a record of 60-18-1 as the leader of the charging red and white Mustangs.

Denver City completed the 1991 regular season of the football campaign with a record of 6-4 (4-1). Tickets for the contest are $6.

Fowler, Ball win contest

Daphne Fowler of Loraine, claimed the first place prize of $50 in Football Bucks for the selections made in the last week of the contest.

She missed only 5 games out of the 24 to claim the top prize over a box-full of entry blanks that had been turned into the office in the popular contest.

Phil Ball of 908 Marshall, Colorado City, claimed the second place prize of $25 in Football Bucks for his predictions.

Ball missed 6 games, as did a host of other entrants, and was selected as the winner by use of the tie-breaker system.

His prediction of a final 28-20 score in the Houston/Dallas clash was the closest of predictors missing 6 games.

The contest will return next fall with another season of high school, college and professional games.

FOOD

LETTERS to the EDITOR

Dear Editor:

In reference to the Colorado City Police Force:

On November 7, 1991, a young mother went to pick up her 3 children from the Day Care Center on 10th Street. When she got out of her car, (leaving it running), she hit the lock on the door, locking the car. She called the Police Dept. for assistance in getting the car unlocked, so she and the children could go home. She was informed by the people on duty that since the children were not in the car they would not assist her. I suppose that meant they could walk home and let the car run out of gas and die. The temperature that day (in case you do not know) was 33° at that time, with a chill factor of ten degrees. One of the children was 17 months old, one was 4 years old, and the other one was 6 years old.

It is comforting to know that we are protected by such considerate officers, under the direction of the City Council and the City manager, (I suppose).

I can't help but wonder what their answer would have been, had it been one of the officers wives, or one of the City officials family.

I doubt that it would have been the same. It seems that we still have a double standard of treatment in our fair city. Thank you for letting me blow off steam. Perhaps I will get an opportunity to assist one of the officers some day.

Thanks again,
Gene B. Hanks

Dear Editor:

Recently I have received from two sources letters concerning a report that Madalyn Murray O'Hair has sponsored a petition before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), the subject of which is believed to be the removal of all religious broadcasting from television and radio. I have in my files copies of this identical letter which I have received several times a year for the last fifteen years.

In 1979, I received the following letter from Charles D. Ferris, then chairman of the Federal Communications Commission:

Dear Sir:

I am appealing to you for your help. Since 1975 (four years), the Federal Communications Commission has received more than 10 million pieces of correspondence opposing a petition to ban religious broadcasting. Thousands of cards and letters are still coming in every day. However, there is no such petition pending before the FCC today. Nor was there ever such a petition before us.

The FCC has never attempted to remove religious broadcasting from the air. In fact, the FCC is prohibited by law from censoring the content of broadcast programming-- religious or otherwise.

The petition these cards and letters refer to was filed with the FCC on December 6, 1974, by Jeremy D. Lansman and Lorenzo W. Milam. They asked the FCC to "freeze" applications by religious institutions--not for all stations--but for the TV or radio channels that are reserved for "educational use." This petition like any others we receive was routinely assigned a rulemaking number--RM2493. On August 1, 1975, the FCC unanimously denied this petition and refused to propose such a rule.

In spite of this very clear ruling, many people still have not received the word that the petition has been denied. Also, the name of Madalyn Murray O'Hair has become linked with this petition, although she has never filed any such petition with the FCC.

I need your help to spread the word among your members, parishioners and friends that there is no petition at the FCC to ban religious programming and that the FCC is not attempting to take religious broadcasting off the air. Over the past few years, more than $1 million in postage has been spent by citizens to write to the FCC about this non-existent petition. I hope you will help us.

If $1 million had been spent for postage on this issue by 1979, it stagger the imagination to think of how much has been wasted by now. It boggles the mind to think of how much all this time, energy and money might accomplish if it had been directed toward a live issue, like the elimination of hunger, homelessness, pornography, drugs, or gambling in our society. There are needs right here in Colorado City toward which we need to be directing our efforts.

Sincerely,
David A. Shaw, Pastor

CHIEF LONE WOLF

There should be a Country Doctor Hall of Fame and it ought to be in Mitchell County. We've had our share of outstanding early day physicians who put service ahead of profit.

For example, Dr. Bruce Johnson of Loraine. He not only served his patients for almost a half century, but he served his community as well. For 18 years, Dr. Johnson was also "Mayor Johnson".

He was born in Mitchell County on January 16, 1909, attended Loraine schools and, after a short stint in Abilene, (and later Baylor Medical School), he returned to Loraine to begin his practice.

"I never thought I would return to Loraine," Dr. Johnson recalled in a 1981 interview. "I drove into town in a 1932 V-8 Ford that used more oil than it did gasoline."

For the first 6 to 8 months of his practice, he lived with his uncle, L.B. Walker who was a ginner in Loraine.

Obviously Dr. Johnson wasn't in the medical profession for money. He was charging only 50¢ for office calls during the mid-1930's, "and I was furnishing the medicine!" Many times he never received payment for his services, of if he was paid, it would be with a calf or chickens.

"People didn't have any money," he recalled.

"At that time I delivered lots of babies at homes. In fact, that's about the only thing I did. Especially cotton pickers. I've delivered lots of babies on cotton pickin' sacks on dirt floors."

How many babies did he figure he'd delivered?

"Between 2000 and 2500, probably."

And his fee?

"$12.50."

Dr. Johnson remembered one Mexican family very well.

"I could always tell when the wife was gonna have a baby because he would come up to the house and ask my wife if I wanted a chicken. I knew his wife was gonna have another baby when he'd offer me that chicken."

Through the years Dr. Johnson never refused service to any patient. And he never worried about getting paid.

"If they've got it, they'll pay you," he said slowly. "If they don't have it, they can't pay you."

Then, emphatically he said, "I've never turned a person down in my life because they didn't have money."

Through the years Dr. Johnson frequently came across people who he had delivered as babies.

"We were over in Hawaii once and a boy came up to me and said, 'Aren't you Dr. Bruce Johnson of Loraine, Texas?' And I said yes. He said 'Well, don't you remember me?' When I said no, he said, 'You ought to. You brought me into the world.'"

Had Dr. Johnson ever wanted to leave Loraine, the opportunities were plentiful.

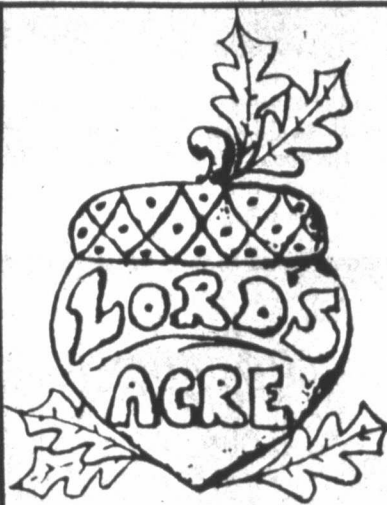

"I had chances to leave. I had a brother practicing in Midland, but he paid more in income taxes than I made. I told him his family didn't know what he looked like and mine did."

Would the doctor have gone into medicine if he could have lived his life over?

"I've done a little bit of everything and I've enjoyed it. If I had it to do over again, I don't think I'd change anything."

House calls, trade-outs, no payment for services and 50¢ office calls: the story of an early day doctor.

Dr. Johnson died January 2nd, 1983, 14 days short of his 74th birthday. He was a family man, civic leader and a very good physician. And he should be in the Country Doctor Hall of Fame.

LORAINE PERSONALS

Today is Tuesday, November 12, 1991 and we would be in the middle of ginning if the weather would act better. There seems to be some good cotton around and some won't even need a stripper. According to the weather map last night, it looked like it might be bad from now on nearly all the month.

I guess I should have given my illness report first. It seems nearly every family has someone sick. Lorene McNeil had surgery last week in Sweetwater. They removed part of her intestines and I don't know what else. It seems as of yesterday that she is doing fine. Some of her sisters are here with them. We hope she will soon be up and well again.

Ruby Nayfa of Sweetwater is supposed to have surgery today in Abilene but I don't know if she did. Mrs. Nayfa is Maz Webb's mother. We hope the best for this family.

I saw George and Brenda Martin's daughters and one son-in-law and also two grandchildren eating lunch in town last Saturday. Brenda may have been working at school also.

Dorothy Halton was spinning around Saturday afternoon. If you don't know Dorothy, you have missed a blessing. She is one fine person.

I hear that Willis Hughes is doing better and out of ICU in a Lubbock hospital. Maybe he will be home by the time you read this.

Talked to Janet Moore last Saturday at noon. She was at school for the day catching up on work she was needing to do. That's why she is a good teacher, she works at it. I don't mean to imply that she is the only teacher who goes that extra mile. There are several others who do.

Inez Webb had the flu this week along with several others.

A couple of weeks ago Borden County High School came to town to play a football game with our boys. The young man who wore #32 was Brandon Adcock. On Monday of this week, he was buried in Lamesa. He died in a car wreck on Saturday.

Some of the things said about this young man were that he was an honor student, a member of the football team, basketball team, track team, and band. He also excelled in Future Farmers of America. He attended church and was very active in the youth department. What nice things to credit to one young man. We in Loraine schools and citizens of our town send our sympathy to your school and your town in your loss of this fine young man. Especially to the young man's family.

Irene Kidd had her sister visiting over the holidays. She lives in Abilene.

I have most of the pecans have fallen and are ready to be picked up. Lots of people get their pecans shelled on the halves. If you are interested in doing this, let it be known and we will try to get you some customers.

It's near Thanksgiving and Christmas so that makes it pecan pie time, as well as other goodies with pecans in them. If you really want to shell pecans let it be known.

It is going to be mid-term before we know it, so kids you need to work on your grades so you will be up with the other kids when it is test time. We want all of you to make decent grades.

It's time for basketball and you must be passing to play but then you knew that didn't you?

...BY LOIS PHILLIPS

We were in Colorado City yesterday and was lots of people we seldom see. One of those happened to be Big John and Betty's granddaughter. She sure is cute and is a very pleasant little girl. Her mother said she likes attention but I think she is just a friendly little person.

I saw in the Abilene paper where the late Dorothy Richey's sister died this week. She was Bessie Hart and lived in Eastland County. That leaves only J.T. (Jake) Holk of Davis, Oklahoma out of a fairly large family. Most of the Hock children grew up and went to school here. Jake, we are sorry to hear about Bessie and we hope you and Laura Bell are doing fine.

I don't know what kind of basketball team we will have. You will have to go and see them play and encourage them as much as you can.

I noticed all the nice things you people are doing for Doug Chitsey family. I think it is grand. I spent my high school days as a classmate of Doug's mother. She is a very nice person.

PUBLIC NOTICE

On April 16, 1991, GTE Corporation ("GTE") and Contel Corporation ("Contel") filed a joint petition for declaratory relief with respect to the obligations or requirements of GTE or Contel and/or any of its subsidiaries relating to the merger of GTE and Contel. GTE and Contel have requested a ruling from the Public Utility Commission of Texas that neither GTE nor Contel is required to report the merger of GTE and Contel pursuant to Section 63 of the Public Utility Regulatory Act ("PURA"), TEX. REV. CIV. STAT. ANN. art. 1446c (Venom Supp. 1991), that no investigation of the merger by the Commission is required. In the alternative, GTE and Contel seek a determination that the merger is consistent with the public interest.

The Commission is investigating the merger between GTE and Contel Corporations to determine whether the merger is consistent with the public interest. In reaching its determination, the Commission shall take into consideration the reasonable value of the property, facilities or securities to be acquired, disposed of, merged or consolidated. If the Commission finds that the merger is not in the public interest, the Commission shall take the effect of the transaction into consideration in GTE Southwest Incorporated's and Contel of Texas, Inc.'s next rate-making proceeding and disallow the effect of such transaction if it will unreasonably affect rates or services.

This filing has been assigned Docket No. 10212. Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information, should be mailed by 3 p.m., December 31, 1991, to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400N, Austin, TX, 78757.
