WORKERS' CONFERENCE S. A. ASSOCIATION

The monthly Worker's Conference of the San Antonio Association met at Central Baptist Church on Tuesday of last week. This editor has never enjoyed a day more, nor has he heard a better program than was rendered during the day.

The theme of the days program was "Winning the Lost". Mrs. J. C. Robinson of Riverside Park together with brethren Adams, Bourroughs, Harper, Nelson, Wooten, Culpepper, White, and King, participated in the program.

The next meeting of the conference will be with the First Baptist Church of South San Antonio.

At the executive board meeting the missionary was authorized to purchase a tent to be used in revivals he holds. The tent is to be paid for by offering taken in the revivals.

The missionary report showed a fine months work. Pastor M. C. Garcia of Calvary Mexican also had a great report of work done during April.

WORK

In an office in South Wales I was talking to the manager of an important business concern. My eye rested on the overmantel where a little frame contained a printed card with the arresting question: "Who am I?" My friend, following my gaze, read the words:

"I am the foundation of all business. I am the source of all prosperity. I am the parent of genius. I am the salt that gives life its savor. I have laid the foundation of every fortune. I can do more to advance youth than his own parents, be they ever so wealthy. I must be loved before I can bestow my greatest blessings, and achieve my greatest ends. Loved, I make life sweet, purposeful and fruitful. I am represented in the humblest sayings, in the largest block of investments. All progress springs from me.

I AM WORK"
—In The Canadian Baptist.

NEWS NOTES

Evangelist R. G. Baucom has just closed a fine meeting at Odem. There were 37 additions to the church. Bob preached for pastor Hubener at Lakeview, Sunday night and there were 3 additions for baptism.

Bro. Paul C. Bell has just closed a meeting with the First Church Goodwill Center in which there were 37 conversions all coming from the Catholics. Bro. Bell is doing a wonderful work.

Through Monday night at Sardis there had been 15 professions of faith. The meeting continues this week. The editor is having a great time in this little country church in this meeting. Pray for us.

Missionary Julius King, is in the early stages of a fine meeting at Elmendorf. Six additions for baptism to date. The meeting continues through this week. The missionaries tent arrived on Tuesday and will be put up at Elmendorf and used by Bro. King from now on.

Dr. B. H. Nobles supplied both services at Calvary Church Sunday in the absence of pastor Peachey at the Southern Convention.

Bro. T. S. Baskin supplied Sunday at Highland Park. Pastor Skinner was away at the Southern Convention and enjoying the renewal of old acquaintances back in Tennessee.

Bro. Baskin is an able preacher and is too useful a man to be idle. He was ill for a year or two, but is now ready and anxious to go to work.

Bro. Walter Harbin, who came to us from the Methodists a few years ago, is now at Center Point and is open for a pastorate. Bro. Harbin is a man of unusual ability and would make a useful man for some good church.

LETTER FROM BUCKNER ORPHANS HOME

To our very helpful friends:

The lean months are upon us. There may be several of them. It is exceedingly important that our friends remember this fact. It is going to be difficult to "carry on" with our necessarily very large budget; and because of this fact, you can easily understand that we greatly appreciate the help you have already sent.

We crave the love, gifts and prayers of the people to the end that no embarrassment through debt will overtake us. Therefore please be sure to speak a good word for the Home wherever you can. Please cooperate to the end that no general meeting of our Baptist people such as Worker's meetings and district associations shall slip by without somebody talking about the interests of this large family of orphan children.

Earnestly,
(Signed) Hal F. Buckner.

While this letter was in acknowledgment of monies sent, I think that its contents should be noted by all who read this page, pastors as well as women, for it is one of our causes which if presented showing such need as now will always bring a response. I hope that the requests made therein in regard to speaking of these needs will be heeded by all in charge of meetings to be held in the near future.

An invitation has been received from the Senior Class of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary requesting your presence at their Commencement Exercises, Friday, May 24th, 10 a. m. Cowden Hall Auditorium.

(Card enclosed)—Miss Alma West.

A letter has also been received from Miss Marian Morgan, of Decatur College, Decatur, Texas, who will graduate from that College on June 3rd. Miss Morgan expects to attend summer school at Baylor this summer.

As all of you know, Miss West is using our District Scholarship this year as a "Service Scholarship", and Miss Morgan is our District Margaret Fund "daughter." I am sure that many of you who read will desire to send them some little gift for their graduations, or write them a letter of congratulation and encouragement.

Greetings have been received from Mrs. F. A. Hill, formerly Mission Study teacher for the San Antonio Association, but whose work often extended out into other parts of the District, and who has many friends throughout the District. Mrs. Hill is now in Spartanburg, S. C.

Am still awaiting replies to letters sent out a month or so ago. Are you one who has not answered? If so, please let me hear from you at once, if at all possible.

Attending the Southern Baptist Convention held at Memphis the past week, from San Antonio and surrounding places, were Mrs. W. H. Parsons, Mrs. J. E. Williamson, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. Sorell, Mrs. John Yancy, Mrs. Harris of Boerne, besides many of the Pastors from the various churches in the District, and possibly many others not seen by the writer. Notes on the convention will be given you next week.

The Minister: "The roof of our little church is leaking very badly, Mrs. McFadden."

The Wealthy Mrs. McFadden: "Ah, thank you for tellin' me, Mr. McPherson. I'll always bring my umbrella with me?"

Daughter: "Oh, papa, what is your birthstone?"

Father of Twelve: "My dear, I'm not sure, but I think it is a grindstone."

Mrs. Traddles: "When you were in Boston did you see the Great Seal of the Commonwealth?"

Mrs. Toots: "No, I didn't visit the aquarium."

RETROSPECT

One who is doing or has done a really good work in the world does not have to be concerned about publicity. The unusual, the out of the ordinary, commands attention and is widely talked about. If a man or woman, boy or girl, desires reports of himself to be scattered afar, he but needs to do works that are outstanding in their goodness. The specific works that one does may not be named, but the fame of his or her individuality goes abroad.

It is true that he who is sincerely interested in serving does not seek publicity, but there is a spiritual radiation from such a person that cannot be covered up or kept hidden. Such radiation comes from his spiritual nature, which is the source of every good work.

Suppose we all look back into our own lives, taking an account of our good works and our neglects. If we have made good and have performed our duty well, we will be happy in knowing that the above statement probably fits into our own life. If we have neglected, then from now on out let us resolve that we shall be a factor in the Kingdom work, the want to make it. With a great educational building in the making for Baptist Temple, should we not resolve that we shall become an intimate part in utilizing it for the glory of God, using this plant to its capacity for the purposes intended, program of which is as large as we
