

Adenauer Jeered By East Germans

By JOHN FIERN

BERLIN (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer toured the barricades between East and West Berlin on a morale-boosting visit today and was met with jeers from the Communist side.

The jeering at one point was led by Gerhard Eisler, top East German propagandist who jumped ball in the United States and fled to East Germany.

"There's only one way out, Konny," Eisler shouted at Adenauer across the barbed wire at Potsdamer Platz, once a major crossing point. "You'll have to deal with us."

The 65-year-old chancellor, impassive as an Indian chief, ignored Eisler and all the other Communist hecklers.

At other points, Communists from East Berlin jeered him from the wall they have built to divide the two parts of the city.

Communist loudspeaker trucks turned up at the Brandenburg Gate, once the chief crossing point, and blared at Adenauer.

"We acted but you did nothing," they said.

The Communists made so much noise that nothing the chancellor said could be heard except by those closest to him. He did not attempt to make any speech.

Adenauer, chief of the Christian Democratic party, was met at the airport by West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt, his Socialist opponent in West German elections next month.

His visit was his first since the Communists closed the border between East and West Berlin on Aug. 13 to stop the flow of refugees and commuters to the West.

Adenauer's opponents in West Berlin have criticized him for delaying his visit until the tension had begun to subside.

Signs displayed at the arrival last weekend of U.S. Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, emphasizing Adenauer's delay, said "Washington is closer than Bonn."

Adenauer went directly from the airport to visit the West Berlin refugee reception center at Marienfelde.

He was cheered and nearly mobbed there by several hundred recently arrived refugees from East Germany.

Police had to force a way through the throng.

Adenauer stopped briefly to assure refugees that their livelihood in East Berlin and East Germany would never be forgotten, and then left for a tour of the wall erected by the Communist regime.

Rumors circulated that a high-ranking Soviet leader would arrive soon in East Berlin, presumably in an effort to counter the effect of the hero's welcome given U.S. Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson during his weekend visit to West Berlin.

But Western allied circles said that doubted the East German Communists would make any such obvious gesture. The Red regime has proclaimed the border closing a great victory against the West.

Hours before Adenauer's arrival 3,000 British troops turned out in another display of allied military readiness. A British spokesman called it a routine alert to familiarize the men with their assignments in case of an emergency. Within four hours most of the troops had returned to their quarters.

Although the three allied garrisons stage such alerts periodically, it underscored the allied determination to remind the Communists of the West's military presence in the city 110 miles behind the Iron Curtain.

One company of the British garrison's infantry brigade already was drawn up in battle position opposite Communist forces along the border.

The company deployed with tanks, mortars and anti-tank guns Monday when the East German Reds showed up with several hundred heavily armed soldiers and armored cars to mend holes in the fences blocking off the British sector.

Today the barrier had been strengthened and the hundreds of Red reinforcements had withdrawn. The Communists resumed their usual routine of patrolling and the British tanks and infantry began to withdraw.

The British said they would repeat such shows of force every time there is similar activity by the Communists. American and French military authorities indicated they were ready to do the same.

In East Germany, the Red regime strove to make life harder for the 80,000 East Berliners who held jobs in West Berlin until the border was closed.

The workers reportedly are being lured by disloyalty to East Germany and are being punished by being forced to do tough, low-paid work. It was expected that many would be driven from their homes and scattered throughout the hinterland. U.S. determination of an element potentially dangerous to the Communists.

Golf Pro Slain At Port Arthur

PORT ARTHUR, Tex. (AP)—The golf pro at El Estero Island Golf Course died from a bullet wound in the forehead and his father was shot twice late last night in a mystery slaying in which more than $4,000 is in value.

Authorities charged an Arizona man, James Virgil Eaves, 37, with murder in the death of the golf pro and slaying with intent to murder in the shooting of the pro's father.

Officers said Eaves told them that he is a special investigator of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice.

Slain in the bedroom of his home was Homer Widener, 45. His father, Ben Widener, 70, was identified by officers as a Corsicana, Tex., rancher, collapsed on the floor of his son's home after apparently once being shot in the bedroom and staggering around the interior of the residence before going outside.

Sherriff Capt. Carl Moon said Eaves was arrested about 7 a.m. as he was leaving Port Arthur for Beaumont in a taxi.

Change Asked In Trials Of 'Riders'

By BEN MCCARTY JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Defense attorney William Kunstler withdrew his motion for a change of venue today in the first "Freedom Riders" jury trial and asked Judge Russell Moore to throw out the jury list.

Kunstler, an American Civil Liberties Union lawyer from New York, said he withdrew his motion because "I'm afraid they might move it to a segregation stronghold."

He said Henry Thomas, 19, Howard University student, is a Negro and "Negroes have been systematically excluded from jury duty or discriminated against in the organization of a jury."

In drawing a jury list, he said in the motion, county officials either excluded Negroes from the venire or kept the number included so small they could be systematically struck from the jury.

Kunstler argued that unless Judge Moore "quashes the venire, the defendant will be denied his constitutional right of equal protection under the law."

The all-male jury list drawn up for the trial included 51 whites and two Negroes.

Thomas, of St. Augustine, Fla., was the first of 190 riders set to appear before a Mississippi jury on breach of peace charges. He appealed his conviction by a city judge on May 23 after he refused an officer's order to move out of the white section of the Trailways bus terminal May 24.

Kunstler sought unsuccessfully today to obtain a court ruling declaring the Jackson Daily News and other news items in Jackson in contempt of court for publishing editorials and articles unfavorable to the riders.

Moon said a hotel envelope containing $4,000 in $100 bills was found on Eaves. He also had $700 cash in his billfold.

Moon said Eaves identified himself as a special investigator in El Paso, Ariz., for 16 years but did not further identify the agency or company for which he works.

He told Moon he is on Sunday duty, and went to the elder Widener's ranch to visit his older brother, Raymond, who works for Ben Widener.

Moon said Eaves Monday drove the golf pro's father from Corsicana to Port Arthur for a visit with Homer.

The captain estimated the shooting took place between 10:30 and 11 p.m.

Detective Marshall Jack Hunter of El Paso, a town adjacent to Port Arthur, received a telephone call at 11:30 p.m. that the shooting had taken place. He did not identify the caller.

Officers would not speculate on a motive, saying they are not certain.

Moon quoted Eaves as saying he is innocent and "I don't know anything about it."

The sheriff's captain said Eaves drove Ben Widener to Port Arthur. It was found during the night at the Pleasure Island Golf Course where Homer Widener is the golf pro.

The city-owned course, built about three years ago under Homer Widener's supervision, is just across the Sabine-Neches ship channel from Port Arthur. The Widener residence is about eight miles away.

Officers removed the distributor from the automobile so it could not be driven away.

J. W. Heasley, assistant pro who lives on the course, said Homer Widener left the course about 9:30 p.m. Monday accompanied by two men not known to Heasley.

Restore Aid Fund, Urges Secretary

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said today if a $333-million Senate cut in military aid abroad is allowed to stand it will have the most serious implications for free world defense in a time of crisis.

He told the Senate Appropriations Committee "the importance of strong, ready North Atlantic Treaty Organization forces to the preservation of a free Berlin cannot be overemphasized."

McNamara and Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, testified in support of a request for $1.8 billion in arms aid money to strengthen free world defenses. The Senate has voted only $1.5 billion in an appropriations bill setting ceilings on the amounts that can be appropriated.

The House allowed $1.8 billion, and McNamara pointed out that even that was $85 million under the amount asked by President Kennedy as a minimum figure.

The difference represents one of the issues Senate-House conferees will try to iron out in a compromise of the two versions of the bill. The biggest issue, however, is that of long-term financing for nonmilitary aid.

McNamara said the House version of the bill, which would require Treasury borrowing, accepted by the Senate but turned down by the House, would "be a disaster before it is even heard."

He also brushed off Kennedy's claim that he would take over the organized labor movement.

He said he believed Hoffa is about to move over the labor movement.

Goldberg said, "Democratic unions do not support such leaders."

The labor secretary said he had not changed his attitude toward Hoffa since 1957, when he served as counsel to the Ethical Practices Committee of the AFL-CIO, which expelled the Teamsters from the federation. Hoffa had succeeded David Beck as president after Beck was found guilty of grand larceny.

Goldberg said there were never less than 15 million members in the union under Beck. But he added, the latest Department of Labor figures show the union under Hoffa never has exceeded a membership of 1,418,000.

Hoffa makes exaggerated claims about both the membership of his union and his own intentions and capabilities as a labor leader," Goldberg said. "Figures in my own department filed under oath by the Teamsters Union show that the membership has declined under Hoffa from a high mark under his predecessor."

Nehru Appeals For Conference

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru appealed today to "responsible leaders" on both sides of the conflict over Germany to confer in search of agreement.

Nehru, opening a foreign affairs debate in Parliament, said the Western Allies and West Germany must accept East Germany's present border, which gave Poland a large slice of power.

There is not the slightest chance in the world of changing the borders except by victory in the war," Nehru said.

Four Local Teachers Attend Southwest Regional Meeting

The Southwest Regional conference of Delta Kappa Gamma Society was held Aug. 13-16 at the Westward Ho Hotel in Phoenix, Ariz.

Teachers from the 11 states in the region, and members from five other states attended. States in the region are: Ariz., Calif., Colo., Hawaii, Kansas, Missouri, New Mexico, Nevada, Oklahoma, Texas and Utah. Other states represented were Indiana, Pennsylvania, Minnesota, Alabama and Michigan.

Registration began at 9 a. m. Aug. 13 in the Kachina Lounge, and continued each day ending at 6 p. m. Aug. 16 with 479 members registering.

Miss Alda Parker of Los Angeles, Calif., Southwest Regional director, was presiding officer for the international meeting.

Miss Zora Ellis of Talladega, Ala. international president, greeted the assembly Monday at the first general session. Keynote speaker for that day was Dr. Ola Hillar of Flint, Michigan, immediate past international president. Her topic was "And in Today-Already Walks Tomorrow".

Speaker for the colorful birthday luncheon that day was Miss Madge Rudd, international executive secretary of Austin. She chose for her subject "Tomorrow's Leadership". The afternoon program included meetings in 12 sections, followed by a buffet supper and a song fest.

Tuesday morning a special event was held called "All-State Breakfast". The decor featured several dozen state flags gathered by Mrs. Horace O. Freeman of Phoenix, chairman of decoration for the special event. She also received over 40 letters and greetings from U. S. Governors for the teachers' group. Zeta Lambda, local chapter's delegates were especially pleased with the one sent from Gov. Price Daniel.

Speaker for the colorful event was Dr. J. Maria Pierce of Pasadena, Calif. Her subject was, "Let's Look At Ourselves".

"Matching Purpose with Performance" was Miss Orsula Hogan's topic at the Tuesday general session. Miss Hogan is state president from Calif. and chairman of the international committee on programs. She resides in Sacramento.

Fun night was held in the Thunderbird room with Miss Wynna Rogers of Phoenix as chairman. Arizona history was colorfully presented in story and song by Mrs. Aza Meson, a retired Navaho Indian teacher. Other performers were roping tricks Rabbits from Mesa, Ariz., a Tombstone territory night club singer and dance, and a lovely Hawaiian hula dance, "The Little Brown Girl" by Lillian Givins of Honolulu, Hawaii. Workshops were held Wednesday-morning, but the highlight of the conference was reported as the Presidents' and Founders' banquet held Wednesday evening. The traditional march of the state presidents, combined with a beautiful light tribute to each of the 12 founders of the Society charmed the audience.

Miss Zora Ellis was the keynote speaker and selected for her subject "From These Roots". This was the first time in the 32 years of the Society that a founder could not be present at the regional conference.

Members from the local chapter, Zeta Lambda attending the conference are pictured.

Spray As You Go Is Gals' Fragrance Magic

Good grooming relates to every detail of appearance, no matter how trifling. To be really well groomed, one must select accessories thoughtfully, and apply fragrance carefully and attentively.

One of the newest fashion boons to good grooming is the purse-size aerosol fragrance dispenser that so many fragrance houses are using. To create an aura of liveliness, fragrance must be carried in the purse, along with lipstick, powder, eye make up and some times rouge.

Among the new aerosol dispensers available in toiletry departments are several featuring replaceable fragrance cartridges in decorative outer cases. The replaceable aerosol cartridge works in the same way as do convertible lipstick cases. When the cartridge is used up, it is easily removed and replaced with a refill. By interchanging cartridges, one can be sure to carry along the correct fragrance at all times.

The introduction of convenient-to-carry and easy-to-use aerosol dispensers may change the cosmetic habits of the American woman. While the majority wouldn't venture to the corner supermarket without a lipstick in their hand bags, they do not make a practice of always having on hand a supply of fragrance.

Most of the new purse-size aerosols are slim, tiny and highly attractive in appearance. Like all aerosols they are air-tight, com-

Could Homer Derby Hurt Flag Chances?

DETROIT (AP) — Suppoin Roger Maris and-or Mickey Mantle should reach the 50-homer mark sometime next month in their assault on Babe Ruth's record of 60.

What'll be the effect on the American League pennant race? Can it backfire on the New York Yankees?

"I don't know, I can't be sure," said Manager Bob Scheffing, whose Detroit Tigers are chasing Maris, Mantle and the rest of the Yankees. "It's bound to bother them some. It may even hurt the Yankees but I can't say."

"Would it be something if both of them hit 60 and the Yankees finished second?"

Pressure has done funny things to players who've come close to the Babe's mark. Ask Hank Greenberg or Jimmy Foss. Each missed the magic 60th homer by two. But neither was on a team scrambling for a pennant.

"I had Steve Bilko out in the Coast League in '56 and he was trying to hit 60," Scheffing recalled. "He got to 55 and I'll bet he didn't hit another in his last 10 games. The club record was 58 and he didn't even reach that and we already had won the pennant."

"He was trying so hard the ball just was popped up or hit into the ground."

The next year Bilko did reach 60, but failed to make it to 61. "I can't predict how it will affect Maris and Mantle if they get near to Ruth, but let's face it, most of the recent home run champions haven't been on the team that's won the pennant," said Scheffing.

Cincy Bolts Into Three-Game Lead

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
A Herculean eight-game program over a six-day stretch is the next test for the Cincinnati Reds, leading the National League by three games after a hectic period of playing ring-around-a-rose for first place with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The Reds, who had fallen 2½ games back last week in their season-long battle with the Dodgers for the top rung, begin their crucial period at home tonight with a doubleheader against the third-place San Francisco Giants.

The sizzling Giants, who have won 10 of their last 12, will stay at Crosley Field for games Wednesday and Thursday, then the Dodgers will move in for a showdown four-game set in the final meeting of the year between the pennant contenders.

Meanwhile, Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle will continue their assault on Babe Ruth's home run record of 60 in 1927 as the American League leading New York Yankees invade Los Angeles for a three-game set with the Angels.

The Yankees lead the second-place Detroit Tigers by three games and the Baltimore Orioles by 11. The Orioles' game at Washington Monday — the only one scheduled in the majors — was postponed because of wet grounds.

The regular rotation recently has consisted of Joey Jay, Bob Purkey, Jim O'Toole and Ken Johnson. Purkey (14-7) and Johnson (4-1) figure to go tonight against the Giants' Mike McCormick (19-12) and either Sam Jones (7-7) or Billy O'Dell (4-4).

The Dodgers, who lost seven straight and tumbled to second while the Reds were taking six of seven, meet the St. Louis Cardinals before going on to Cincinnati, with runners beginning to circulate that Walter Alston's job is in jeopardy.

Club owner Walter O'Malley denied that Monday, however, saying: "Alston doesn't need a note of confidence. But maybe the team does. If so, here it is. A big personal vote for the Dodgers, who are tied for first place in the loss column."

The Reds, who have played and won six more games than Los Angeles, have the same number of losses as the Dodgers, 47. The Yankees, three games up on the Tigers in both columns, will send Bill Stafford (10-6) against the Angels' Ken McBride (9-10) tonight.

Despite the close pennant races most eyes will be riveted to Maris and Mantle, who have hit 49 and 46 homers, respectively. Maris is 10 games ahead of Ruth's pace and Mantle is eight games in front with the Angels' Wrigley Field presenting a friendly target.

The major league mark for most home runs at one park in a single season is within reach at tightly boxed Wrigley Field where 127 homers have been hit, and 128 more remain to be played. The record is 219 at Cincinnati in 1937.

U. S. Won't Hold Ship For Ransom

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—President Kennedy has declined to hold a Cuban merchant ship as ransom for the families of 34 defecting crewmen because it might provoke retaliation and be "harmful to innocent travelers in the future."

The President, in a telegram relayed by an advisor to Capt. Jorge Navarro of the freighter Bahia de Nipe, added that such a barter might not work and at any rate was illegal in the United States.

McGeorge Bundy, the President's special adviser on national security, told Navarro in the telegram that "the President feels a deep respect for the love of freedom which you and your companions have demonstrated" and "hopes that you and your crewmen will be reunited with your families in the near future."

Navarro announced at a news conference Sunday that he had urged the President to hold the ship in this country until the families of the 10 crewmen seeking political asylum here could safely get out of Cuba. Navarro's family is in the United States.

The Bahia de Nipe, a 3,800-ton motor ship laden with a $600,000 sugar cargo originally destined for behind the Iron Curtain, anchored in nearby Lynnhaven Roads last Thursday after Navarro and his 10 companions succeeded in imprisoning 23 other crewmen below decks.

As the defecting crew members were removed from the ship pending final clearance by immigration officials, the vessel became the center of a legal controversy.

U.S. marshals sought to seize the ship to satisfy judgments and debts which now total $2,719,778 but were repeatedly repulsed by the Coast Guard.

U.S. Dist. Judge Walter E. Hoffman initiated a hearing Saturday in which he asked the Coast Guard to show cause why it should prevent the ship from being seized.

The federal government officially has taken the position that the Bahia de Nipe should be returned to Cuba.

SAN LEANDRO, Calif. (AP)—A Navy widower with 10 children and a widow with eight of her own, who met a month ago, have set a wedding date of Sept. 9 in the Carmel Mission on the central California coast.

The couple are Francis Louis Beardsley, a Navy chief warrant officer, and Helen North, 31, of San Leandro. Beardsley and his children live in Carmel. He is stationed at the Navy postgraduate school in Monterey.

Mrs. North said a relative told her of Beardsley's loss. Her husband had died at about the same time. She began a correspondence with Beardsley which culminated in a dinner date about a month ago. He gave her a diamond ring a week later.

Mrs. North said all 18 children "think it's wonderful."

They range in age from her Teresa, 1, to his Michael, 17.

Carpenters are doubling the size of Beardsley's Carmel home, which has only five rooms and three baths.

German Students Off Base In Sending Umbrella Gift

By INEZ ROBB

I have been counted to be, next, a thousand and am well on my way to my second million at the moment. And still my seething rage at a group of university students in Bonn, Germany, is in no way assuaged.

For such a group of students to have the arrogance, the impudence and the bad taste to send a President of the United States an umbrella, with an insistent message, as a sign of spineless surrender and appeasement to the U.S.S.R. in the present deadly East-West Berlin and German situation is far more than stupid folly.

It is a deliberate insult not only to the office of the Presidency but to the American people who are pledged to die and, if necessary, suffer the destruction of their homeland for the preservation of West Berlin and West Germany. The German Chancellor owes an apology to the American President and to the American people who have suffered so cruelly in two world wars started by the apparent inherent paranoia of the German people.

This umbrella folly is of a piece with Mayor Willy Brandt's personal letter to the President demanding "not merely words" but "political action" to lift the East German barricades in the posed against flight to West Berlin and West Germany.

The West Berlin mayor "fears" another Munich. Now I have no beef for Chamberlain. But it's dollars to pennies that no modern German, descendant of the Nazi hordes, ever sits down today and permits himself to realize that there would never have been any Chamberlain or his rolled umbrella if there had not first been that German monster, Adolf Hitler.

So today the umbrella boys of Bonn and Herr Brandt are demanding, and insistently to boot, that the United States save the Germans from the consequence of their own criminal folly.

If the very survival of the Western world were not at stake, if life, liberty and the individual pursuit of happiness were not dependent upon the outcome of the German problem, there are millions in Europe and in this hemisphere who would leave the Germans to their own petard.

In these times of utmost gravity, in many ways the most drastic through which any generation has tried to steer an honorable path, it ill behooves the Germans either to insult this nation or to start issuing orders to its President.

Twice in my lifetime, Teutonic paranoia has plunged the world in agony. And the Germans should

Youngster Ready To Do His Part

VENTURA, Calif. (AP) — Harvey Lowme, not quite 10, walked into the Navy induction office last week to start a startled recruiter: "I heard the President ask for men, and I'm ready."

Chief Bootswain's Mate Guy Bennett, head recruiter, gave Harvey an armful of Navy pamphlets and promised to advise the President that Harvey was ready.

"I want to enlist for as long as you need me and I'll go anywhere," Bennett said.

"I'll be home," Harvey said. Bennett promised to keep Harvey in mind, adding, "You're never too young to be patriotic."

The story from the paper's Washington bureau said six other areas will be considered.

The four-man team has already visited Tampa, Jacksonville, Fla. and Shreveport, La. New Orleans will be visited later. The two other cities were not named.

Met Season Could Be Saved Yet

NEW YORK (AP)—The Metropolitan Opera's 1961-62 season may be saved yet.

The Metropolitan Opera Association and the union representing its orchestra have agreed to make a new try to settle their pay dispute.

Talks may be resumed here today. Anthony A. Bliss, president of the opera association, is to see in for the first time.

Hope that the canceled season could be reinstated was revived in telegrams received Monday from Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg in Denver.

Goldberg wired Alfred J. Mann, president of Local 802 of the American Federation of Musicians that Bliss had assured him that he and Met general manager Rudolf Bing "are anxious to avoid any interruption in the Metropolitan season, and that if agreement is quickly reached in the present dispute the Metropolitan will operate, providing it is able at this time to obtain the necessary singers to assure a successful season."

The opera season usually opens in October.

The American Guild of Musical Artists, which represents Metropolitan soloists, as well as dancers, chorus members and stage personnel, said Monday there is no problem on availability of artists.

The prime issue is the union's demand for a raise in basic pay from $170 to $240 a week. The union, which at first demanded $268, said recently it was willing to make concessions.

The opera offered to continue the $170 rate for the 1961-62 season and to raise the scale $3 in each of the next two years in a three-year contract.

Daily Crude Flow Rises

TULSA (AP)—Daily average production of crude oil and condensate increased 19,450 barrels to 7,064,600 barrels during the week ended Aug. 19, the Oil and Gas Journal's survey showed today.

The biggest gains were in Illinois, up 7,300 barrels to 213,600 barrels; Wyoming, up 3,850 to 309,300; Oklahoma, 3,500 to 508,300; and Kansas, 2,200 to 213,400. The eastern fields had the week's largest loss, falling 1,200 barrels to 39,800 barrels.

The Journal estimated 1961 production at 1,600,873,400 barrels compared to 1,631,157,000 a year ago. Production was unchanged in Texas, 2,507,650 barrels; and New Mexico.

Arkansas production was up 100 barrels to 78,300 and Louisiana down 100 to 1,134,650.

Mystery Of Basin Studied

HONOLULU (AP)—Scientific mysteries of the Pacific basin—45 per cent of the earth's surface—fell under scrutiny of 1,500 trained investigators today as the 10th Pacific Science Congress got down to work.

Subjects from fish to folklore were to come before the scientists representing 40 countries. Technical seminars and symposiums dug into oceanography, pest control, archaeology and origins of Polynesian languages.

The two-week meeting attracted its largest registration in history, with delegates coming from as far away as Finland. For the first time, Latin America was represented with 45 scientists.

A spokesman for 67 Soviet scientists said they were happy to be at work and free for the moment of U.S.-imposed restrictions on their movements.

Governor's Son Appears

NEW YORK (AP)—Rodman C. Rockefeller went pinch-hitting for his father and became an honorary member of the Improved Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World.

Rodman's father is Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, who had to pass up the Negro group's convention here Monday because of a special legislative session in Albany on New York City school problems.

Rodman accepted his honorary membership and one for his father in an anteroom. Then he strode onto the speakers' platform, wearing lez and sash, and delivered a brief speech which began "brothers and daughters."

He presented a bottle as a gift from his father to the Elks' grand exalted ruler, Hobson R. Reynolds, former Philadelphia magistrate.

Another Link In Story Of Universe

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer
BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—An East German astronomer apparently has found an important missing link in the story of the universe.

He detected a great cloud of seeming dust just beyond the Milky Way, the galaxy or great family of billions of stars to which our sun belongs.

This dusty veil seems to be not just gas, but a smoke of heavier atoms also, ranging in size possibly from the particles in cigarette smoke to meteors. Out of this, new stars and planets could condense and come into being.

Astronomers have proposed that such dust clouds may exist in the vast distances between galaxies. This could be the first discovery of an individual cloud. It is relatively near the earth.

Parolee To Get Part Of Savings Back

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—A 59-year-old parolee whose life savings have been drawing moisture instead of interest learned Monday that at least part of it will be replaced.

But, he's still hunting for an additional $1,500 to $2,000 buried by his father who can't remember where.

The money to be replaced was part of that contained in a peanut butter jar found by the parolee—who wants to remain anonymous because he doesn't want his yard full of money diggers—when his senile father had a lucid moment and remembered where he had buried it 11 years earlier.

Gilbert Pinkerton, state pardon and parole board officer, said the parolee was notified by the U.S. Treasury Department that $250 of the money contained in the jar will be replaced—and possibly more.

The parolee went to prison on his last conviction 18 years ago and began spending all his spare time making leather goods and selling them.

He banked some of his money in a Tulsa bank by mail but sent the remainder home to his elderly parents. He also sent some of his leather goods to his father to sell.

The parolee said they were to use as much of the money as they needed for themselves and bank the remainder—but his father didn't believe in banks, a fact the son learned after his release on parole from a life sentence three months ago.

Catch Chokes Fisherman

SOMERS POINT, N.J. (AP)—A man choked to death Monday when a fish he caught landed in his mouth as he swung it in triumph, police said.

George C. Shaffer, 30, of Gloucester City, was dead on arrival at Shore Memorial Hospital. The hospital said death was from strangulation.

Shaffer was fishing from a rowboat in Great Egg Harbor Bay with friends. They told police that Shaffer caught a small black bass and swung it around his head with joy. The fish landed in Shaffer's mouth and couldn't be dislodged.

Ornaments Unwanted

OCEAN CITY, N.J. (AP)—Mrs. Herbert M. Birch telephoned police headquarters Monday and said she had some ornaments on her lawn.

"That's nice," said the officer. "No, it isn't," she said. "They don't belong to me and I want you to come and take them away."

Police found 13 imitation ducks, 7 flamingoes, a statue of a boy eating cherries, a plastic frog, a ceramic black cat, two ornamental wheelbarrows filled with flowers and a statue of a jockey.

Police carted the ducks and flamingoes, mostly made of concrete, and the other stuff off to their warehouse. Detectives started an investigation.

Ordinarily, a peek in any direction beyond these stars shows many distant galaxies billions of miles away.

But, looking in the direction of the constellation Microscopium, in the Southern Hemisphere, he could see relatively few galaxies.

Something seemed to be obscuring the view.

Closer study supported the idea. It was a vast dust cloud.

The dust cloud has an irregular shape, and is perhaps 25,000 light years, or some 150,000 trillion miles, wide. Its distance from us cannot be determined yet, but presumably it is some two million light years away. It could contain such chemical elements as sodium, calcium and heavier atoms.

Dr. Hoffmeister first detected it in 1960 when working at the Boyden Observatory near Bloemfontein in South Africa, and has carried on analyses since then.

Salt Water Bill Okayed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House has passed and sent to the Senate a bill authorizing an extra $50 million for the salt water conversion program and extending the program for five years beyond 1963.

The bill passed without opposition by voice vote Monday.

So far five experimental conversion plants have been authorized under the program to develop an economical method of converting salt water to fresh water. One is at Freeport, Tex. The Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs said the $10 million previously authorized to carry the program through 1963 has been almost exhausted. It estimated the $50 million grant would carry the program through 1968.

High Priced Music

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP)—David Waterhouse, 18, of Stamford, Ont., paid a $35 fine in city court Monday. Police said he had been playing a flute while driving an automobile in heavy traffic. A companion in the front seat was steering the car.

The word pinto probably came from the Spanish adjective pintado, meaning painted or mottled. At least one pinto horse landed in America with the Cortes expedition.

Metric System's Hopes Are Fading

WASHINGTON (AP)—To hear its supporters talk, you'd think anybody with a gram of sense would favor adopting the metric system of weights and measures in the United States.

But Rep. George P. Miller, D-Calif., a strong metric man, admitted today he has about given up until next year hope for congressional action on a first-step bill he has introduced. He got another setback Monday.

Miller's trouble is Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, who won't touch with a three-meter pole any legislation which to his searching eye appears to call for unnecessary expenditures, or create unnecessary jobs.

Miller's proposal is for the National Bureau of Standards to conduct a program of investigation and research on the practicability of adopting the metric system for general use in this country. It would authorize $500,000 for the purpose.

Gross, who never hides his economy light under a liter measure, pounced on that $500,000 item. Miller got his bill enthusiastically endorsed by the House Committee on Science and Astronautics, and tried to have it hurried Aug. 7 by the House under bypass procedures requiring unanimous consent.

Gross blocked that. Miller then reasoned with Gross dwelling on the decimal advantages of the metric system and the fact that the vast majority of nations have made it their standard.

When Miller tried again Monday to get unanimous consent to pass the bill, it developed Gross hadn't budged a centimeter.

If 90 per cent of the people of the world have adopted the metric system and its advantages are so obvious, Gross asked the House, "What do we need with a half-million dollar survey?" I suggest the committee just bring out a bill putting it into effect—say, in five years.

Once again he blocked Miller's measure.

Miller sighed and said he supposed he'd use the regular legislative route, forgetting shortcuts.

Painting Is Stolen In Britain

LONDON (AP)—A Goya portrait of the Duke of Wellington was stolen from Britain's National Gallery today. The picture recently was bought for the nation for 140,000 pounds—$382,000—amid a great controversy.

Scotland Yard said the picture vanished overnight. The trustees of the gallery called in Yard detectives the first thing this morning.

The portrait had been on display in the gallery main entrance hall carefully guarded by rails and ropes.

The picture was bought at auction two months ago by Charles Wrightsman, New York oil magnate and connoisseur and friend of President Kennedy.

An outcry developed among British art lovers at the thought that it might go to the United States. The picture was classified as a national treasure.

Wrightsmen immediately offered to sell it to the gallery for what he paid for it. The British government put up the money to buy it.

The robbery came nine days after eight Cezanne masterpieces were snatched from a gallery in Aix-en-Provence, France.

Another big recent art robbery has drawn an offer of $100,000 reward from G. David Thompson, 62, Pittsburgh, Pa., industrialist.

Ten paintings, including six Picassos, were stolen from his Pittsburgh home after the burglar alarm was not turned on when he went out to dinner.

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Remember the story about the dog who dined on delicacies like old shoes, rope, ballpoint pens and teapots spoons?

Well, he's not alone.

Owners of other canines with crazy tastes report: a dog in Kansas City ate his bowl. One in Fern Park, Fla., eats furniture. One in Tacoma, Wash., at a baseball glove and a small grove of saplings.

A man from Truman, Mo., avers that his dog ate the roof off his house. The dog's house, that is.

This intelligence has been duly reported in the column of Malcolm Epley of the Long Beach Independent Press-Telegram, who started the story to begin with.

He wrote a column about the unlikely items eaten by his dog, Sycan, a Siberian husky-type animal known as a Samoyed. The Associated Press picked it up and the tale was retold all over the country. Result: mail from dog owners everywhere.

Epley wrote in a follow-up: "All over the U.S.A. dogs are eating things dogs aren't supposed to eat."

In Denver, Colo., a Samoyed belonging to Jeanne McClelland ate the red tail lights off a Cadillac in the garage.

In Waterloo, Iowa, my dog Sycan was proposed for membership in the Gourmet Club, a distinguished group of fancy eaters there.

"Dr. Carl McIntosh, Long Beach State College president, sent a note of protest."

"Our dog, who reads your column regularly, remembered his youth with such nostalgia that he promptly chewed up my wife's glasses. I think newspaper columnists should use their influence constructively. It is a sort of public trust."

Epley concluded: "It was nice of the press to send along the partially chewed up spectacles. I'll take them home for Sycan's evening meal."

The earliest recognized inhabitants of North America are Folsom Man and Sandia Man in the United States and Tepexpan Man in Mexico. They go back 10,000 to 20,000 years.
