

A WELLINGTON CUSTOM COMBINE CREW READY TO PULL OUT

This array of equipment, owned and operated by Johnny Crawford of Wellington, is typical of those that are needed to harvest the grainfields of the Middle West. Caravans such as this will be a familiar sight on the highways for a few weeks, then again in August as the owners bring their equipment home. Collingsworth custom combine operators have been cutting since the last of May, beginning around Seymour and Vernon. Most of them are at home now. As the wheat ripens on the north plains, they will pull out on the trip that will take some of them, Crawford included, almost to the Canadian Border.

Some Will Go Almost to Canada

Custom Combine Operators Ready For Trek Through The Wheat Belt

Custom Combine operators over the county have already tested out the wheat crop in North Texas area and in a few weeks, as the harvest moves north, they'll pull out on the trip that takes many of them almost to Canada each summer.

Elvis Crawley and Drury Lacy are making the harvest together this year, although they are here just now. They have a combine and truck each and will follow the route they made last year. They began cutting wheat about May 25 in the Seymour area and plan to go as far as northern Nebraska. They also have wheat to cut in Colorado and Kansas. Going with them are Don Lacy, Hershel Anglin and Sonny Hicks.

Johnny Crawford is beginning his 12th year in the custom combine business, taking four combines and four trucks this season. Each year, he starts cutting on the Waggoner Estate at Vernon and follows the same route northward, with stops at Sunray, Sidney, Nebraska, Eagle Butte, South Dakota, and in Montana. Last year he cut to within 13 miles of the U. S. Canadian border, and he and his crew members took time out to visit the neighboring country. He usually gets home in September.

With him are Ray Maxwell, Don Crawford, DeRay Uselton, Bob Yarrington, and four other out-of-town men.

Hardy Wright and his son, Lynn Wright, who work for Clark Chevrolet during the winter and spring, started out around May 23 and began cutting at Goree. Like the others, they will go as far north as South Dakota, and possibly into Montana.

This is the third year for Mr. Wright and Lynn to take their crew out. Going with them are Reggie Smith and Willie Brown. Their plans are to take the same route as before. They have two combines and two trucks.

Ernest Maxwell began harvesting at Quanah in late May. He has one combine and one truck. He plans to go as far north as South Dakota, and will take the

Thompson Given Ministry License

Joe Thompson, 1955 graduate of Wellington High School, was licensed to preach Wednesday evening, June 22, by members of the First Baptist Church, according to the Rev. Bill Thomas, pastor of the local church.

Thompson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thompson, former Wellington residents until they moved to Pampa recently.

Following the licensing, Thompson brought the evening message.

The young minister was presented with a certificate by the Rev. Thomas and a new Bible by the church. Thompson, 20 years old, will enroll this fall as a ministerial student at Decatur Baptist College.

120 Votes, For; 10, Against

Wheat Growers Vote to Extend Marketing Plan

Collingsworth County wheat growers, following the state and national trend, voted overwhelmingly Saturday, June 25, to continue the marketing quotas on wheat. The vote registered 130 cast and of that figure 120 voted in favor of the proposal, Millard Brown, head of the Agricultural Stabilization Conservation office, here, said.

"It was a light vote with the 130 votes cast out of a possible 464. Last year, 134 farmers voted in the referendum," Brown resulted. The national average for the proposal was 77 per cent and the state margin was approximately 87 per cent. A two-thirds majority was needed to continue the marketing quotas.

The results of the vote in the county polling place by boxes was: Dodson: 19, yes; 0, no. Wellington: 80, yes; 6, no. Dozier: 17, yes; 2, no. Samnorwood: 38, yes; 1, no. Aberdeen: 16, yes; 1, no.

Countians Invited To Lubbock Picnic

Residents of the Plains who formerly lived in Collingsworth County will meet for an old-fashioned get-together at Mackenzie Park in Lubbock Sunday, July 3, from 2 to 6 p. m. Sponsors of event are Tom Campbell, Dr. E. W. Jones and Lee O'Neil. "We would like for some of you folks to come out and be with us," they sent work back to Collingsworth County. Bronco Drive-In, Completely New, To Open July 15

July 15th is the date that has been set for the re-opening of the completely remodeled Bronco Drive-In Theatre, Emmett Passmore, manager of the local theatre, announced this week.

The drive-in theatre was one of the many business firms that met the full force of the tornado Friday evening, June 17.

The old screen was destroyed and in its place a new screen tower, large enough to show Cinemascope, is being installed. The new structure, modern in design and construction, is designed to withstand winds up to 180 m. p. h. in velocity, Passmore revealed. "The concrete foundation has been poured and the steel structure started this week."

"New, powerful Mogul lights and Cinemascope equipment are being installed in the projection booth to assure local movie-goers the latest in movie entertainment. The new equipment will give the local patrons the best in outdoor movies and it will be the best of its kind in this part of Texas," Passmore went on to say.

80 Enrolled For Swimming Lessons

Approximately 80 persons, ranging from beginners to advanced swimmers, have been enrolled in the swimming courses offered at the Marian Air Park Pool, Garvin McCaskill, pool manager and swimming instructor, announced.

The courses are taught every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9:00 to 11:30 a. m. and they are free to the public. The only charge is made for admission to the pool. It still isn't too late to enroll for the swimming classes. The only thing that you will need is the price of admission and a swimming suit," McCaskill explained.

In the beginners class, about 40 have enrolled, while 20 persons have enrolled in the intermediate class. The advanced swimmer, including the junior and senior life-saving classes, have approximately 25 enrolled.

Lifeguards assisting McCaskill are: David McCaskill, Charles Welch and Billy Morris. Miss Mary McCaskill is in charge of the pool concession stand.

From Troop 32

Boy Scouts Will Return From Camp Saturday

Ten Boy Scouts from Troop 32 left Sunday, June 26, for a week-long camp at Camp Ki-O-Wah, near Canadian, Sam Adams, Scoutmaster, announced. They will return Saturday, July 2.

Denzil Bevers, county attorney, accompanied the boys to the camp and stayed until Wednesday. Adams will spend the rest of the week with the boys until they leave on Saturday, July 1.

The local scouts, while at the camp, will work toward earning merit badges and will have opportunity to participate in canoeing, archery, rifle practice and other activities that cannot be carried on here because of inadequate facilities. While at the camp, the local scouts will work on their advancement in classes, Adams said.

Crops 90 Per Cent Planted After Two Months Battle With Elements

Farmers cast anxious eyes at the clouds and the fields as approximately an inch of gentle rain fell over the Wellington area Tuesday, June 28. After the washouts that came in certain parts on June 17 and 18, farmers had a terrific week in trying to plant over as the deadline for the last chance to plant cotton draw near. After planting over in some cases as many as four and five times, they knew that a hard dashing rain would undo all their work of last week: but the rain continued to fall gently and turned out to be a beneficial cotton shower on the whole.

Approximately 90 per cent of the tillable land in the area either had crops up or had been planted up to Monday night. Collingsworth County will have approximately 70,000 acres in cotton this year and something over 100,000 in other row crops such as maize, sorghums, etc.

This year will see the most intensive planting of Guar, the soil building cash crop, in the history of the area. Jones Singley estimates that as much as 15,000 acres or more Guar will be planted in 1955. Last year farmers who tried Guar netted more cash from the seed than they did from maize; and this spring the Guar land plowed so differently from the maize and cotton land that they are going in for it in an intensified manner.

This year will also see the introduction of the Mung bean in this area. Earl Keller estimates that there will be something over 500 acres planted with a mixture of Mung beans and maize. This is the legume which is planted in the same drill row with maize. One fourth a pound of bean seeds are planted with three-fourth a pound of maize. The maize grows taller and can be harvested early and the beans are harvested separately and also make a nice cash crop while building the soil at the same time.

Nearly all wheat acreage has been abandoned and plowed under to summer fallow or planted in row crops since the heavy rains.

Crops immediately south and east of Wellington are the most retarded to the fire area and some spots were not even planted up to Monday when the rain fell. They have been good in the Rolla, Marella, Dozier, Samnorwood, Lutie and Aberdeen sections for ten days. These escaped some of the washing rains that fell on Quail, Wellington and Fresno and Loco.

Floyd Teutsch estimates that crops in the Dodson area the 90 per cent planted and most of this is already up and to a good stand. He says that he knows of no damage from the nine-tenths of an inch of rain received Tuesday morning.

A trip over the Quail section shows most of it planted with the exception of numerous lakes where the farmers planting right up to the edge of the lakes.

North of Quail, cotton, peanuts and feed are up to a good stand. It is particularly good in the Marella community as far north as the Raymond Ross land. Nearly everything was planted in the Salt Fork and Lillie Communities, but a considerable portion of the crops were not up at the time of the Tuesday rain.

Tom Cunningham says that practically everything has been planted in the Samnorwood-Dozier area and that perhaps as much as 80 per cent of it is up.

Annual Picnic Dinner, Too

Norwood Will Stage Rodeo Sunday and Monday, July 3 - 4

Plans have already been completed for the annual Samnorwood Fourth of July Rodeo, the only observance on Independence Day, Cortez Barnett, secretary-treasurer of the association, announced this week.

The annual event will be two days in length this year and is scheduled Sunday, July 3, and Monday, July 4. An afternoon performance on Sunday will open the rodeo and will begin at 2:30 p. m., as will the Monday afternoon performance. The final show of the rodeo will be held Monday evening, July 4, at 8:00 p. m., Barnett revealed.

As part of the annual celebration, the noon basket, dinner-on-the-ground picnic will be held on July 4. All countians that are celebrating the Fourth are invited to come with their baskets and enjoy the old-fashioned dinner. "There is plenty of picnic ground for everyone," Barnett said.

The reason for the three performances is that the stock contractor, Loyd Whitledge of Sweetwater, Oklahoma, could not bring his stock unless it was for three shows, Barnett explained.

Rodeo headquarters will be located in the Cecil Brown Store in Samnorwood.

Events included in the thrill-packed rodeo are bareback bronc riding, bull riding, bulldogging, ribbon roping, calf roping, and wild horse race. A girl's sponsor contest has also been planned. A belt buckle will be awarded for the highest average in each riding event.

Wellington business firms will be closed in order to allow employees to celebrate the Fourth.

"We believe that the rodeo will be the best that it has been in the past few years. The stock are of top quality and should put the cowboys to a real test of skill. There are a number of entries. We urge all to attend the three performances," Barnett concluded.

Officers for the association, sponsors of the annual event, are: Pat Bradley, president; and Bill Knoll, vice-president. Directors are the three officers and Tom Cunningham, Keg Nix, Harry Jones, and Jim Jones.

Glasscock to Speak Sunday Evening

James Glasscock, a junior ministerial student at McMurry College, Abilene, Texas, will fill the pulpit at the First Methodist Church Sunday evening, July 3, it was announced by the Rev. J. F. Michael, pastor.

Services will begin at 8:00 p. m. and the public is invited.

Babe Ruth, Legion To Play Mobeetie, Childress Here

Two home ball games have been scheduled this Thursday, June 30, and Sunday, July 3, at Marian Air Park Stadium by the Babe Ruth and American Legion squads. In the Thursday game, called for 6 p. m., the Babe Ruth team will play host to Mobeetie, last year's league champion. The Negro Babe Ruth squad will go north to play a single game with Wheeler under the lights.

Wellington's American Legion Club will hit the road Thursday, also, for a double-header with Childress at Childress. All members of the team are asked to meet in front of Paul Spillman's office at 5:15 p. m. for the trip.

City Council Asks Citizens To Haul Own Tree Limbs

Citizens of Wellington were reminded this week that the city will continue to haul only the broken tree limbs and debris that was caused by the tornado Friday evening, June 17, the city council announced this week.

"It was the original intent and purpose of the City Council to help the citizenry by hauling the debris after the tornado. However, some have started trimming their trees on a large scale basis and it is impossible for the city to provide trucks and men to do the removal job," Bura Handley, city manager, explained. "The persons that are trimming their trees will be expected to haul the tree limbs and debris at their own expense," the city manager continued.

"We do want to emphasize that if you have trees that were broken during the storm, you should cut them to hauling size, or the size that one man can lift, and place them in the alley behind your home. The city will gladly remove them," Handley said.

THE WADING SET

Not big enough to swim in deep water, but big enough to rate a pond of their own, this group of tiny tots takes advantage of the wading pool adjoining the swimming pool at Marion Airpark. Their activities are mostly splash and spatter, but they are having a fine time, and it's just a short step from dog-paddling in a foot and a half of water to real swimming.

Not everybody who tells a good story can get Nature to co-operate with sound effects like Mrs. Mish Dukeminier. The Dukeminiers and their guests of a short time back, Mrs. Emilie Mitchell and Mrs. Clara Waegeman of San Francisco were at the James Doneghys when a cloud came up. Mrs. Dukeminier was telling how her family's home at Arlie was blown away. "My mother had taken the children to the cellar. Then my father, who was not afraid of clouds, appeared. 'Why did you come?' Mother asked. 'I thought it was time. The window panes are blowing through the house,' he said. He had no more than gotten in the cellar and closed the door when there was a terrible crash. It was our house blowing away, and as Dona Dukeminier said that, there was a blinding flash of lightning and a roar of thunder. It just put the lights out in part of town, but it was dramatic.

When Mrs. Joe Baumgardner had open house for Daughter-in-law Maralee of New Jersey and her sisters Rosanne and Linda Spear of Indiana, she used the beautiful cut-work linen table cloth Marion brought from Italy. This is the one he picked out coming home from India, via Europe. But he had figured down to the penny how he would spend his money, and it didn't include this tablecloth he wanted so badly for his mother. "Will you take a check on an American bank?" he inquired of the shopkeeper, expecting a No. "Of course," he was told. So he wrote the check on the First National Bank, Wellington, Texas, U. S. A., which in due time cashed it, and left carrying the tablecloth.

Mrs. Clyde Alexander saying she started to town after one of the rains, drove up the road to a point where she couldn't go on and couldn't turn around. She had to back nearly a mile to get to a road leading to the pavement.

One of the best known present day Texas Rangers, Capt. Alfred Allee, in town a while back, to attend the funeral of a relative, J. A. Leach. He's best known for his work exposing political conditions in Duvall County.

Buster Hughes, just after the Armory opening and display of Remiremont silver, recalled that he joined the 142nd Regiment just after it passed through the town of Remiremont, France, where the men fought from house to house and suffered heavy loss. "There were 55 of us replacements, and when we joined them, the entire regiment was sleeping in the loft of one French barn," he said.

A graduate of WHS in 1930, she wrote: "Since this is our 25th anniversary at the homecoming, are we going to do something special. I would have time to address and mail out letters or post cards or do some other work."

Rest Pastures After the Rain

College Station — Rest after a rain is the best prescription for droughty, overgrazed pastures.

Since many ranches are carrying reduced numbers of livestock, producers should be able to defer one-fourth of their grazing lands without damaging the remainder, A. H. Walker, extension range specialist, says. This way many pastures can gain full advantage of recent soaking rains.

Pastures with most native grasses and vegetative cover will make the most recovery in a shorter period of time and should be deferred first, says Walker. Poorer pastures can be rested later since they may require several years to recover.

It's better to remove all livestock from a pasture than to leave it lightly stocked, he adds.

Defer for three to six months, or until frost. But if the grazing is needed sooner, wait at least until the growing grasses mature and drop a seed crop. Deferring promotes seed and plant reproduction in addition to increasing the vigor of existing plants.

The specialists recommends moderately grazing the pasture during the winter. This method provides some forage for livestock and helps distribute plant seed.

Many ranchmen looking over their bare ranges are considering reseeding. In some instances reseeding may be warranted but job cheaper. If as much as 10 percent of the "key" grass is left, rest rather than reseed, specialist suggests.

Enjoy the long Fourth of July weekend, and . . . PLEASE DRIVE SAFELY!

Safety Associations recommend that you follow these simple rules for a safe vacation trip:

- Observe all posted speed limits; don't hurry, ever.
- Regulate the speed of your car to highway and traffic conditions.
- Don't drive too long—stop when you're tired.
- Observe all highway caution warnings—slow down for curves, when descending steep hills, etc.
- Don't drink when driving.
- Follow the golden rule of traffic courtesy: give other motorists the same consideration you'd like for them to give you.

TROPHY FOR 36th DIVISION
Governor Allen Shivers stands beside the Governor's Trophy, which he has presented to Maj. Gen. Carl L. Phinney, commander of the 36th (Texas) Infantry Division for display before it is awarded to the outstanding unit of the division at North Fort Hood in July. The presentation will be a part of colorful ceremonies at the annual review of the historic 36th Division July 16. The Governor's Trophy was established by Governor Shivers last year and has since become a traditional award to be given annually to the company or battery achieving the best record during field training periods. All units will be judged on the highest grade earned from the Fourth Army Inspection Board, highest percentage of actual strength attending camp and the highest percentage of actual strength to that authorized for the unit.

Dependents Receive Benefits

RETIRED WORKERS IN COUNTY DRAW $3,524 FOR SOCIAL SECURITY

In Collingsworth County at the end of the year 76 retired workers were receiving $3,524 in monthly social security payments, according to figures just released by John R. Sanderson, District Manager of the Social Security Office in Amarillo.

In addition to the retired workers themselves, 56 people were receiving $1,500 a month as dependents of the retired workers or as survivors of deceased workers.

Although this is a considerable increase as compared with payments a year ago, it is certain that more people will receive larger payments in years to come because of changes in the Social Security Law in 1954, Sanderson says. Among the major changes were the following:

1. Computation of payments after "dropping out" up to 5 years of lowest social security covered earnings.
2. Extension of social security coverage to more farm workers and to self-employed farmers, as well as many other kinds of work.
3. Increasing of the maximum wages creditable toward benefits from $3600 to $4200.
4. Allowing disabled workers to receive their social security wage record while disabled.
5. Increasing the amount of earnings which a retired worker can receive and still get all or a part of his retirement payments. (There is no restriction on earnings after 1954.)

Abilene, (Spl.) — Eight Wellington students have pre-registered for McMurry College's seventh annual summer vacation band school, to be held here July 17-30.

They are Elizabeth Hurst, daughter of Mrs. J. M. Hurst; Francis Drake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Drake; Jonakin Cecil, granddaughter of Mrs. W. W. Peeks; Mary McCaskill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. McCaskill; Linda Singley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jones Singley; Bette Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Elliott; Gayle Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Young and VaRue Sweat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Sweat.

More than 150 school and college bandmen and twirlers have already signed up to attend the band school according to Raymond T. Bynum, McMurry director who is in charge. Total enrollment is expected to equal last year's registration of 343 students, Bynum said.

Students will receive instruction in music theory, solo instrument work, actual practice and performance with concert bands, and techniques of baton twirling and drum majoring. They will have room and board in the McMurry dormitories and dining hall.

Bynum's instructional staff will be composed of 18 outstanding Texas band directors and experienced twirlers. Robert (Bob) Gans, Winters High School band directors, will be dean of the school.

Bill Adkins, ex-McMurry Band drum major and formerly featured twirler with the University of Texas Longhorn Band, will direct the twirling staff.

Information on registration for the band school may be obtained by writing to Raymond T. Bynum, McMurry Band School, Abilene, Texas.

New Gulf No-Nox gives you not just the highest octane but...
full working octane

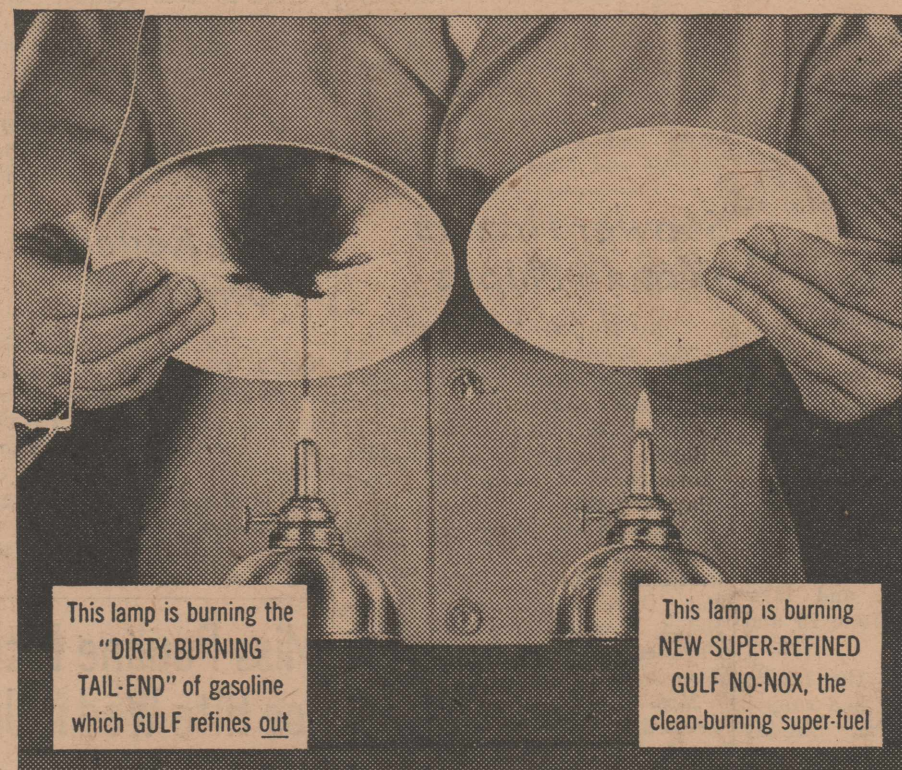

because it's super-refined to burn clean

No gasoline, no matter how high the octane, can keep on giving you full power from your engine unless it burns clean.

That's why New Gulf NO-NOX is your best gasoline buy. In making new NO-NOX, Gulf refines out the "dirty-burning tail-end" of gasoline, the No. 1 troublemaker in today's high-compression engines.

As a result, you get a clean-burning gasoline that gives you:

- More complete engine protection than you get with so-called "miracle-additive" gasolines
- Extra gasoline mileage in the kind of short-trip, stop-and-go driving motorists do most
- Freedom from vapor lock, stalling and stumbling in hot-weather driving
- No knock, no surface pre-ignition — even in today's high-compression engines

Remember this picture? This is Gulf's famous burner demonstration—proof of what a difference Gulf super-refining makes. Notice that Gulf refines out the "dirty-burning tail-end" of gasoline...

instead of fighting it, inside your engine, with so-called "miracle additives." That's why new, clean-burning Gulf NO-NOX can promise you not just highest octane, but full working octane.

Now! For the ultimate in working octane performance, always use Gulf's super-refined gas-oil team... New Gulf NoNox Gasoline and

New Gulfpride H.D. Select Motor Oil

The only motor oil in the world that's super-refined by the Alchor Process for modern high-compression engines.

- Controls carbon—cause of knock, pre-ignition, valve failure.
- Combats corrosive acids, rust and deposits on engine parts.
- Assures lower oil consumption than "all-season" oils.
- Provides the toughest protective film ever developed.

Available in 3 grades—SAE 10W, SAE 20/20W, SAE 30—for each season.

to put extra value in the low Plymouth price!

All cars have horns and wheels and headlights, but there's a lot of difference in the features of a car that add up to v-a-l-u-e. Here are just a few of Plymouth's features that will add to your comfort and your convenience. In the low-price 3, you'll find them only in Plymouth!

Cornerposts of Plymouth's glamorous new Full-View windshield are swept back, top and bottom (not bottom only), for better, safer vision.

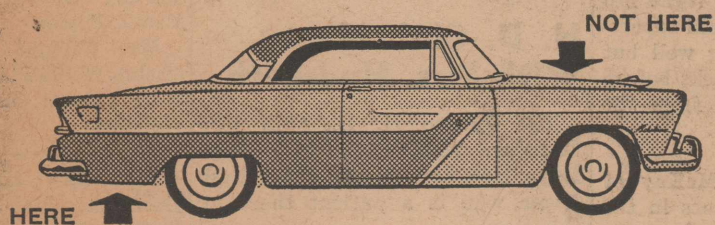

For more direct pillowing action, Plymouth mounts the longer-stroke front Oriflow shock absorbers inside the big front coil springs.

Plymouth places two hydraulic brake cylinders in each front wheel (other low-price cars use only one) for smoother stops, greater reliability.

Plymouth's brilliant Forward Look styling gives you better forward visibility by letting you see more of the road directly ahead of the car.

If you ever have a blowout, your Plymouth has Safety-Rim wheels which help hold a deflated tire on the rim while you slow to a safe stop.

Plymouth's Oilite fuel filter is located back in the fuel tank to protect the entire fuel system and engine from dirt and water. Plymouth is the BIGGEST, LONGEST, ROOMIEST car of the

Miss Ladman Weds John W. Trimble

A wedding of interest here was that of Miss Opal Fae Ladman, the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. K. H. Ladman of Ester, Missouri, and John W. Trimble of Temple, the son of Mrs. J. W. Trimble of Wellington and the late Mr. Trimble. The candlelight ceremony was performed recently in the Methodist Church at Easter, with the bride's father officiating, assisted by the Rev. Harry Nease, pastor. Altar decorations were an archway entwined with honeysuckle, from which hung a cluster of wedding bells, branched candelabra and baskets of white gladiolas, caisies and huckleberry. Wedding music was provided by Miss Oleatha Jones, pianist, and Clifford Ladman, brother of the bride vocalist.

The bride, also given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin fashioned with a strapless bodice and fitted jacket of lace, with a high neckline and rounded collar, and long fitted sleeves. The bouffant skirt with overskirts of tulle and lace was waltz-length. Her veil of tulle edged with brocade lace fell to fingertip length from a tiara encrusted with pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of carnations surrounding an orchid.

Mrs. Elise Raines of Esther, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Mrs. Perry Bell of St. Louis was bridesmaid. They wore waltz length gowns of shrimp pink and tulle and lace over taffeta, with off-the-shoulder bodices and matching stoles. They carried colonial bouquets of blue carnations.

Miss Sue Moore and Miss Vera Boyd, wearing pink net over taffeta, lighted the candles, while the bride's niece, Patty Ladman, dressed in white organza, was the flower girl. Michael Ladman, her nephew, was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ladman wore a dress of grey silk with violet print, with white accessories and a corsage of purple chrysanthemums.

A reception followed the wedding in the church dining room. Blue streamers, tied with blue flowers, decorated the bride's table, centered with the three-tiered wedding cake, surrounded by honeysuckle. Appointments were of crystal.

Mrs. Don Green served the cake and Miss Leta Webb and Euvoia McDaniel the punch. Mrs. Delmar Gillespie was at the bride's book. The bride, graduate of Easter high school, Flat River Junior College and Bethany Nazarene College, was a faculty member of the French Village School.

The groom graduated from Wellington high school and is now assistant manager of McClellan's Store in Temple, where the couple have established their home.

Attending the wedding from Wellington were Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bergvall and children, Gary, Craig and Vickie, Miss Louella Trimble and Miss Eva Bishop.

Shower Honors Wanda Phipps

By Mrs. G. T. Stephens
The Homemaking Cottage of Quail High School was the scene of a bridal shower honoring Miss Wanda Rose Phipps bride-elect of Raymond Daugherty of Amarillo, formerly of Dodson, on Thursday, June 23.

Hostesses for the occasion were: Mmes. Bill Clay, Velma Bourland, Dennis Lacy, Minnie Phipps, Pat O'Hair, Raymond Patton, Helen Howell, Mary Lois Scott, Christine Scott, Stella Yarbrough, Jimmie Ford, and Amos Fillpot.

Mrs. Howell and Mrs. Scott greeted the guests as they arrived. They also introduced the honoree Miss Phipps, her mother, Mrs. Dudley Phipps, the groom's mother, Mrs. R. L. Daugherty, and his grandmother, Mrs. Rudy Batts. The ones in the receiving line were presented with identical corsages of white carnations.

Miss Glenda Gay Phipps, sister of the bride-elect, registered the guests in the bride's book.

Miss Melba Langley read a will composed by the guests to the honoree as part of the afternoon entertainment.

Miss Phipps's favorite colors of yellow, orchid and pink were carried out in the decorations. The table was laid with a white linen cloth. The centerpiece was two wedding rings with orchid ribbon and net around the base and an arrangement of pink carnations, flanked with yellow candles in crystal holders.

Punch and individual cakes with pink, yellow and orchid frosting were served to the guests. Miss Peggy Clay served the punch from the crystal punch bowl and Miss Mary Jo Phipps served the individual cakes.

Approximately two hundred guests called or sent gifts.

Fayteen Peebles Wins State-Wide Beauty Contest and Trip to Mexico City

Glamorous Fayteen Peebles, lovelier than ever, recently was named Miss Service Station of Texas, and now she has been invited to represent Wellington in the Miss Texas contest — a big step toward the Miss America award. Her sponsor will be the Wellington Chamber of Commerce.

Her award in the Miss Service Station Contest was two dozen roses, a hundred dollar check, gift certificates, and an all-expense paid six-day trip to Mexico City.

"The contest was held in the Shamrock Hotel in Houston. Seventeen girls from all over Texas entered," Miss Peebles said in describing her latest victory. "The preliminaries were held around the swimming pool in bathing suits. They chose the top six and I felt very thankful that I was at least in the top six. Then I was one of the top three. I couldn't believe it."

"The President's Ball was held in the Emerald Room. We three girls paraded in front of the five judges for about thirty minutes. Then they announced the winner! I liked to have fainted. I'm serious. The more I enter, the more nervous and scared I become. I couldn't believe that I had been blessed with winning again."

To win the trip to Houston and chance to compete, Fayteen won the Miss Dallas contest. She is receiving fine promotion in Dallas and she is receiving national publicity as well. Her publicity pictures have gone to the head of the Taylor Photomotion Agency at Paramount Studio.

One more honor is due soon. Miss Peebles will share the guest of honor stand with Bob Hope.

"Naturally, I'm very excited about this," she said.

Now living in Dallas, she is doing television commercials and continuing her modeling.

Miss Pauline Dickey and Billy Joe Hite Wed in June Ceremony

Of interest in Wellington is the recent marriage of Miss Pauline Dickey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Dickey of Idabel, Oklahoma, and Billy Joe Hite of Shamrock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hite of Wellington.

The informal ceremony took place Thursday, June 9, at the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Montgomery of Turkey at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, with Minister Alva Johnson of the Church of Christ officiating.

The bride chose for her wedding a dress of white Florentine faille, with three-quarter sleeves, and street length. Her accessories were baby blue, and she wore a corsage of white carnations and carried a white Bible.

Mrs. Montgomery was her sister's matron of honor. She wore blue Florentine faille with a corsage of white carnations. Mr. Montgomery was best man.

Later the couple left on a wedding trip to East Texas and Eastern Oklahoma, including a visit with her parents at Idabel.

Mrs. Hite wore for the wedding a dress of navy lace with a corsage of roses. Another out of town guest was the bride's grandfather, W. M. McBee of Oklahoma.

The bride formerly was with Webb Studio in Childress.

The groom, who was graduated from Wellington high school, is widely known in this area. He is now a salesman with Perrin Wholesale Company in Shamrock, and the couple has established their home at 807 North Wall Street in that town.

Miss Joyce Hicks Becomes Bride Of Jimmy Thompson in Sunday Rites

The late June ceremony uniting two popular members of Wellington's younger set was performed at the First Methodist Church Sunday, June 26, at four o'clock, when Miss Joyce Hicks became the bride of Jimmy Thompson.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Bessie Hicks and Mr. and Mrs. Loren Thompson.

The Rev. Bill Thomas, pastor of the First Baptist Church officiated as the couple stood beneath an arch entwined with greenery, and with wrought-iron gate. Flanking this were lighted pink tapers in white wrought iron holders and arrangements of white gladiolas in pedestal baskets. White satin bows marked the pews along the aisles by which the wedding party entered.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Ray Uelton. She wore a white lace dress fashioned with a fitted bodice, high neckline, and Peter Pan collar, short sleeves, and a full gathered skirt in afternoon length. With this she wore lace mits and her veil of tulle, scalloped at the edge, fell from a tiny lace hat. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. The traditional something-old, new, borrowed and blue was carried out.

Mrs. Betty Hall of Olton was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a pink lace dress, designed similar to the bride's a matching headpiece, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations in a shade slightly darker than her dress.

Barney Glenn, uncle of the groom, was best man. Ushers, who also lighted the candles, were Mike Glenn and Harold Wayne Moore.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hicks chose a black linen dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Thompson wore a blue linen dress with brown accessories, and a white carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony, the couple left on a short wedding trip, and upon returning, they will establish their home at 1503 Amarillo Street.

The bride, who has lived here for the past year, graduated from Olton high school in 1954. She is employed by the General Telephone Company of the Southwest.

The groom, member of a pioneer Wellington family, graduated from Wellington high school in 1953, where he was an outstanding athlete. He has attended Texas

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

After battling the elements for two months, farmers heaved a great sigh of relief Tuesday afternoon when most of them realized that they would not have to plant over. If you want to mix metaphors they just did get in under the wire; but they are not out of the woods yet. The next ten days are critical. They need to work their crops once or twice in order to have any peace of mind at all. But on the whole it looks mighty good.

I am told that they are really going in for this double duty Guar this year. It is a neat cash crop and a soil builder. Farmers got more from it last year than they did from maise; but the thing that sold them was how differently the Guar land plowed this spring.

It seems that the generosity of the City in hauling off debris caused by the storm is being imposed upon. Some people are trimming all their trees and the City says Nix on that sort of thing as far as free hauling is concerned. Well, they needn't be looking at me. I did cut down two storm damaged trees and piled them out front. But I paid Mr. Wilhelm, A Seventh Day Adventist, to haul them off for me. He wouldn't haul them until after dark on Saturday. His Sabbath is from dawn to dusk on Saturday.

I went over Saturday afternoon to ask him to haul them off and found him sitting in his living room reading the Bible. I had forgotten his denomination, apologized and said that Monday would do quite as well. He said that all right, that he had just as soon haul them off when the sun goes down on Saturday as on Monday.

Mrs. J. Frank Johnson was in the office to report that the Federated Women's Club was co-operating in the campaign to urge people to drive carefully over the long July 4th holiday. It looks like that people would not have to be urged to take care of their own lives, but there is no question but what the various safety campaigns have done much to cut down the terrible loss of lives on holidays.

Wellington will be closed on the Fourth of July. So why not journey up to Samnorwood and take in their first class amateur rodeo. It is the only one in the county that day. If you like, take along a picnic lunch for noon of the fourth and see a lot of your friends.

I would like to be traveling to far places; but business necessity and absence of other employees will keep me at home. Samnorwood will be as far as I will get, if I get that far.

Personally I have a pretty good time sitting in my own back yard telling my wife which bed to hoe next while observing the birds. We have had more kind of birds this year than ever before. Two doves are nesting somewhere near. I love the sound of the mourning dove in the morning and in the evening—it reminds me of the days on the farm east of Wellington when I was full of dreams and ideals. The familiar brown trashers are back again as well as mocking birds. And the seldom seen rain crow was sounding off loudly on Monday before the rain on Tuesday. This is a large gray bird that sticks close to the limbs of a tree and you have to watch to see one at all. Before rains came and we were watering the lawn we had an assortment of strange and sometimes beautifully colored migratory birds. In the evening the bulbats and a species of large bats zoom over picking up insects out of the air. And I don't see how so much bird life could go on when the cats are so abundant.

The cats are getting familiar since my dog, Skipper, died. The other night two old toms were prowling around in the wake of a yellow female who had not made up her mind. I heard a terrific cat yowl out in the alley and then I saw one old tom running across the lawn as if pursued by a pack of hounds. That was when I caught the scent. Evidently the old tom had tried to seduce a female skunk.

Sometimes you can see more sitting than you can traveling these an hour.

L. Prescott, who works the near Rolla that was formerly owned by Ocie Scott, gave me a month watering description of some of the things he is growing. He has three acres of corn that he is going to sell as roasting ears or can for personal consumption. He has half an acre of beans about to bear. He has cabbage about half as big as your head and a lot of other things. And with all this wet weather they are doing exceptionally well.

Sam Kennedy, who was once with Ringling Bros. Circus and who has become a barbecue specialist in his latter years, was down at the park cooking meat when the tornado struck. He didn't have time to go far and ran to the nearest stone outhouse. Every time he decided on trying to get to a safer place and open the door a tree or a plank would whiz by his face. He says that he just resigned himself to the privy. When the storm abated, old Sam emerged to find his barbecue still cooking serenely although a lot of the town had blown away.

American Legion Team Stopped By Oklahomians, 22 - 6

Wellington's American Legion baseball team was dubbed 22 to 6 by a smooth-fielding Mangum Legion nine Thursday night, June 23, at Mangum. The locals, on equal footing with the Oklahomians for most of the ball game, were stymied by untimely errors and the lack of clutch hitting.

One "Indian feather" in the cap for the locals was a neat double-play that was executed in the bottom half of the fourth inning. Ray Jones, Mangum shortstop, drew a base-on-balls from right-hander, Denzil Patchell, who was the second Wellington hurler. Coffman, first sacker for the Oklahomians, got a two strike count and then laced a sharp grounder to deep in the hole. Bill Reeves, Wellington shortstop, came up with the ball and tossed it to Wesley Savage, 2nd baseman, for the out on Jones. Savage wheeled and threw to Jerry Elbert at first to nick Coffman by a half stride for the twin-play.

Wellington opened the ball game with a threat, as they did in nearly every inning, but could not score the run from third base. Finally, in the top of the third inning, Elbert laced a single to open the frame and another single by Wesley Savage, coupled by a wild pitch, allowed Elbert to score the first Wellington run. Mangum had opened with two runs in the first and one run in the second.

The roof crumbled in the bottom of the third as with two outs and error was made with the bases loaded. Before the fire in the field could be stopped, nine runners had circled the basepaths for Mangum and that was the game. The opening Wellington pitcher, Don Reeves, threw good ball but was hurt at the crucial times by an error or ball that was lost in the poor lighting at the field. In the big uprising in the third inning, he gave way to Patchell, who finished the game.

Wellington's biggest scoring spree came prior to the end of the ball game. Bill Reeves worked a base one ball as did Don Reeves. Burrie Patchell, left fielder, grounded out. Duggie Jameson, right fielder, came to bat and with a full count he slammed his first hit of the evening, a double that sent both runners into score. Jameson later scored on a wild pitch and a fielder's choice. The locals left 9 men on base to Mangum's 10 and received 6 bases on balls to the host's 8. Eleven Wellingtonites bit the dust on strike-outs, while Mangum had 8 to go down swinging.

President of El Paso College

Dr. Holcomb Begins Duties at Texas Western

Dr. Dysart E. Holcomb, native of Wellington, who has been Dean of Engineering at Texas Technological College, Lubbock, since 1950, became president of Texas Western College at El Paso Wednesday, June 15, succeeding Dr. Wilson H. Elkins, who resigned to head the University of Maryland.

Dr. Holcomb, 37, is the son of Mrs. Jennie Holcomb, city secretary, and brother of Dr. Carter Holcomb.

Upon his leaving for El Paso, Dr. E. N. Jones, president of Texas Tech, commented:

"We congratulate Texas Western on having selected such a well qualified educator as the new president. We regret the loss to Texas Tech. Dean Holcomb has given admirable leadership to the division of engineering since he returned to Texas Tech in 1950."

Dr. Holcomb was the first Tech alumnus to become a dean at the college, making the jump in the relatively short span of 13 years. There he headed the school's seven engineering degree program.

After receiving his bachelor of science degree in chemical engineering from Tech in 1937, Dr. Holcomb obtained masters and doctor's degrees from the University of Michigan school of engineering. In 1953 he was honored by Michigan for outstanding contributions to the field of engineering.

After receiving his doctorate, Dean Holcomb worked in the research and development department of Universal Oil Products Co. in Chicago. In 1946 he became associate professor of chemical engineering at Purdue University.

Immediately before returning to Tech, he was with Sinclair Refining Co., at Harvey, Illinois, as senior projects technologist in the re-

Methodist Church Board Named

Henry Sullivan, was elected as chairman of the official board of the First Methodist Church at its regular monthly meeting last week. James Sullivan was elected treasurer of the church.

Fires, David Baumgardner, John Ben Castleberry, Elvis Crawley, Mrs. Barney Glenn, Wayne Cudd, J. D. Wilson.

Church school officers are: Lynn Carter, General superintendent; Mrs. Jack Brisbin, children supt.; Raymond Ford, youth supt.; Jack Davis, adult supt.; Mrs. James Sullivan, youth recreational supt.; and Mr. and Mrs. David Baumgardner, MYF sponsor.

Nina Hankins Circle Met With Mrs. Harris

The Nina Hankins Circle of the First Baptist WMU met Monday, June 27, with Mrs. Milford Harris. Mrs. Chas. Cason, Sr., led the opening prayer. The group sang "Prayer Changes Things" and "Sweet Hour of Prayer". Mrs. Harris brought another part of the mission study book, "Prayer". The song, "I Am Praying For You" closed the program. Mrs. Rufus Sweat presided over the business meeting.

Refreshments were served to the following: Mmes. V. J. Simpson, L. C. Sweat, Doshia Dix, J. A. Dukeminier, Milburn Derryberry, Porter Loving, Chas. Cason Jr., Ben Wilhelm, Chas. Cason Sr., Rufus Sweat and the hostess.

search and development field.

At Tech his major emphasis has been on providing a well-rounded education for engineering students. He began a 5-year program in September, 1953, that includes courses in the natural, social and political sciences.

He also was instrumental in establishing co-operative programs with other institutions such as Baylor, Hardin-Simmons and Abilene Christian College whereby a student takes three years of liberal arts study at one of those, then transfers to Tech for concentrated work in a specialized field of engineering. At the end of five years, the successful student receives degrees from his original institution and from Tech.

Dr. Holcomb's wife, Margaret, is a native of Michigan. They have four children, Dysart Jr., 12, Ann 8, Carolyn 4, and John, 2.

VETERANS Questions & Answers

Q — I am working for my Master's degree under the World War II GI Bill. My school does not offer a language course, and yet I need it in order to fulfill my Master's requirements. May I take a language course in a different school?

A — Yes, so long as your school specifically designates the courses to be taken at the second school, and so long as the credits you receive will be accepted at full value.

Q — I am the widow of a World War veteran, receiving a monthly VA pension. I am receiving Survivors' Insurance benefits, based on my late husband's employment. Are those benefits considered income, for pension purposes?

A — Survivors' Insurance benefits, which you receive on the basis of your late husband's employment, are considered as income. Q — I borrowed some money on my permanent National Service Life Insurance policy. If, by chance, I can't repay the principal or interest, will my policy be cancelled?

A — Your policy will not be cancelled until your total indebtedness equals or exceeds the policy's cash value. Should that happen, your policy would cease and you no longer would be insured.

Q — I am a disabled World War II veteran taking training under Public Law 16. If I am injured while training, would I be entitled to additional VA compensation?

A — Yes, provided your injury resulted directly from your training. For any further needed information about any veterans benefits, contact Cecil F. Flynn, VA Contact Representative, second floor, Library Building Childress, Texas.

Stall Suffers Severe Lacerations

Tommy Stall, mechanic at Stevenson Implement Co., suffered severe lacerations to his right hand Saturday night, June 25, about 9 p. m. while at his home.

Stall had been up swatting flies when he suddenly found that the fan on the open air conditioner was chewing his fingers. Before he could get his hand out, the blade had cut a deep gash in one of the fingers and had left the others skinned. "Since then I have put a cover on the air conditioner", he said.

He received emergency treatment at St. Joseph's Hospital. Stall estimates that it will be from four to six weeks until he will be able to use the hand effectively.

Gun Accident Takes Life Of Former Countian

By Mrs. G. T. Stephens
Howard Fred Rankins Jr., 16, was accidentally shot and killed by a .22 caliber target in the hands of his younger brother, Darrell, 10, on Thursday, June 16, about 8 o'clock, at the family home 8 miles west of Tulia. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rankins, who formerly lived at Quail. The accident occurred in the back yard home where the boys were practicing shooting, and was witnessed by Mrs. Rankins.

Howard Jr. was rushed to the Tulia Hospital, where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

Howard Jr. would have been a junior in Tulia high school next school term. He was an outstanding member of FFA.

The funeral was held Saturday, June 18, in the Methodist Church at Tulia and burial was in the Tulia cemetery. Attending from Wellington and Quail were Mrs. Lela Maxwell, Dean Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Fires, Kenneth Maxwell, Mrs. Lawrence Brisbin, Jack Brisbin, Mrs. Travis McGuire, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Watts and Mr. and Mrs. George Shinn.

Hopper Poison Formula Given By Agent

Have you checked the grasshoppers on your farm? Better keep an eye on them. It is easier to put out a fire when it first starts, county agent J. W. Thomas declares.

Grasshoppers will be destructive to many acres of our cotton soon. Do you have a ground sprayer? Does your neighbor? You can get aerial spraying done, call at the Co-op gin to your County Agents office or to the places where you do business in town. They will be glad to help you contact one of the commercial companies. The commercial companies fly from 75 to 85 cents per acre, where you furnish the poison.

Toxaphene — 3 lbs. per acre or Aldrin — 3 ozs. per acre should be used, but you should have ample cover. Use these poisons in fence rows and pastures and this should be done before hoppers get any larger.

Bait:
9lbs. arsenic or 1 gal toxaphene.
100 lbs. bran.
200 lbs. cotton seed hulls.
1 gallon molasses.

Pasture and fence row survey taken Thursday show a medium to heavy infestation over the county except in large clean tilled areas.

Crossroads Report

Dear Editor:

I guess you noticed where this New Mexico citizen sued one of our internal revenue agents for 4 1/2 billion dollars damages the other day, on account of the tax man expropriated $83.70 from his bank account without troubling to prove in court that he owed it.

Shows the gentleman just don't believe in efficiency in government. Why, there is no telling how much time it saves, nor how much more money it brings in, for the busy revenue bureaus to do their own judging about how much we owe them and, if we don't fork it over pronto, take it anyway.

Likely it will be kind of a laugh to the government official, being sued by a mere citizen. But may be this 4 1/2 billion dollar figure is big enough to qualify this man's complaint for study by at least one of the government's Grade B sub-assistants in charge of minor matters.

Part of 5 Year Program

Collingsworth Site Of Alfalfa Insecticide Tests

N. E. Daniels, state entomologist with the Amarillo Experiment Station, has stated his third year in Collingsworth County on a five year-long experiment plan of insect control in alfalfa production, according to County Agent J. W. Thomas.

Collingsworth is the only county in the state that this type of work is being conducted Co-operating with the entomologist by making available land to be used in the series of experiment are the City of Wellington and Agent Thomas. The city has given the green light to use of the alfalfa acreage that is east of the manager's quarters at the Marion Air Park Pool, while Thomas is making available his alfalfa on Highway 83, north of the city.

"The purpose of the experiments is to find and perfect a sure-fire method of killing harmful insects on alfalfa and at the same time, the affect that the insecticides have upon the alfalfa yield," Thomas went on to say. "In the past three years, it has been found that the increase has been from 20 to 25 percent. However, the exact figures will be published at the end of the five year period," Thomas revealed. "Don Langford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Langford of Lillie, Quail 4-H Club member is assisting Daniels in the work. Langford's job is to go to the field twice a week and count the insects within a given area. Daniels comes once a week to hand-spray the plots, the county agent stated.

"The same type of set-up is used here as one would find in an experiment station. The plots are 40 x 80 feet and are spaced at intervals to test different types of insecticides. The two that are being used on the alfalfa acreage east of the swimming pool are toxophene and dieldrin. On my place, "Thomas continued," the entomologist has divided the land into 12 plots (40 x 80 feet each) and on nine lots he has used three different sprays, or three plots per individual spray. One three plot acreage has been left with nothing used on it to test the effectiveness of the other 9," Thomas said.

"We are fortunate to be able to have this type of work being conducted in our county. It could mean more money to the growers of this area," the county agent declared.

Miss Sheri Graham has been visiting in Amarillo for the past two weeks with relatives and friends. She returned Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Copeland and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Bert Weaver this week end. Mrs. Copeland and children remained in the home of her parents, and Mr. Copeland went to Wichita Falls, to look for a home. They previously lived in Pueblo, Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Robinson and family of Amarillo, spent last week in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Harrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Omer Neeley of Hale Center, Texas, visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Neeley over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmas Brewer and son, Delmas Allen of Amarillo, Texas visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Hall over the week end.

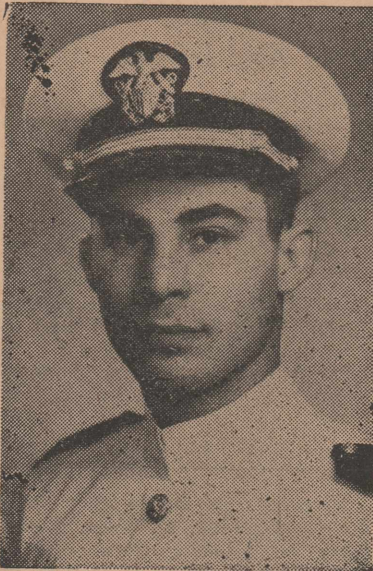

Mr. and Mrs. Gornet Willingham of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. Don Willingham also of Amarillo visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. DeBord Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat O'Hair, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. O'Hair, Mr. and Mrs. Ross O'Hair and children, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fletcher and children of Amarillo, and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Timmons and children of Perryton, Texas, were all guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Brown of White Deer, Texas, on Sunday. They were honoring Mrs. J. L. O'Hair on her birthday and Mr. O'Hair on Father's Day.

George W. Stephens of Fort Worth, Texas visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Stephens over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry DePauw went to Dallas, where Mr. DePauw had a medical check-up. They returned home Thursday.

Schaded Released From Navy

Edmond Schaded recently was released from active duty with the United States Navy after serving three years. He returned home last week from San Francisco, California, where he was stationed for the last year at the Twelfth Naval District Headquarters as assistant special services officer.

For a time there he was personal aide to Admiral John R. Redman. Prior to that he was stationed aboard ship and served two tours of duty in the Far East. He presently holds the rank of lieutenant junior grade in the Naval Reserve.

Schaded is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Enis Schaded, who moved from Wellington to Tyler. He is now visiting them and his sisters, Miss Yvette Schaded and Miss Diane Schaded, at 2241 Old Bullard Road.

ASC Warns Of Treated Wheat

The ASC County Office has been advised that a number of cars of pink or treated wheat have been seized by the Food and Drug Administration in the area served by the Chicago CSC Commodity Office. This is an extremely serious problem, since pink or treated wheat may not be disposed of for human food or for animal feed. The only authorized disposition other than for seed purposes is certain commercial outlets for non-food and on-feed use. These commercial processors, as a matter of policy, will not buy treated wheat so there is virtually no market outlet. The wheat may be held for seed under seal and bond and the Food and Drug Administration indicates that it may be necessary for one of their inspectors to follow the treated wheat into the field at seeding time to insure that proper disposition is made of the treated wheat.

Therefore, farmers should take precaution to see that no left-over seed wheat is mixed with other wheat that is to be delivered under price support programs or to be sold into commercial channels for human food or feed for livestock Mr. Odis Bradley, Chairman of the Collingsworth County ASC Committee said.

Mrs. J. O. Fisher, Former Resident, Dies at Wichita

A former Wellington resident, Mrs. J. O. Fisher of Wichita Falls, died unexpectedly at her home Tuesday, June 15. She was a sister of Mrs. Bob Glenn and Mrs. Ross Wilkerson of Wellington.

Funeral services were Wednesday, June 15, at 3:30 p. m. at the Merkle-Vaughn Funeral Home in Wichita Falls, and burial was in that city.

Mrs. Fisher was the former Miss May Eeds the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Eeds. She was born at Waxahachie 65 years ago.

She came to Collingsworth County about 1913, at the time she and Mr. Fisher were married. He formerly owned and operated the Palace Drug store. They moved from here about 20 years ago and Mr. Fisher died in 1951.

Surviving Mrs. Fisher are three daughters, Mrs. Edith Hare of Panama City, Panama, Mrs. J. O. Kinney of Wichita Falls, and Mrs. Roland Smith of Lawton. Two grandchildren also survive. In addition to her two sisters here, there is a half-brother, Dr. Homer Harpole of Maben, Mississippi.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn and Mrs. Wilkerson went from here to the funeral.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yarbrough and Miss Glenna Yarbrough at Shinnery Sunday were James Conoway of Los Angeles, Calif., Miss Vivian Scarberry of Amarillo, Reginal Lasater of Oklahoma City, and Mr. and Mrs. Mack Bush of Wellington.

Cecil and Charles Duke sons of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Duke are spending the summer in Clayton, N. M., with their sisters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Carol Depue, and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Strong. They are coming down next week end for the 4th of July holidays.

Conservation Pays Off

Does conservation of the land pay off for the farmer in dollars and cents?

A survey made in Illinois tell the story. Over a ten-year period, careful records were kept of a group of farms where approved conservation practices were used and also of a group of physically comparable nonconservation farms. The facts produced are striking.

At the beginning increase in farm income from good conservation tended to be relatively small. But later on they rose abruptly. At the end of ten years, the conservation farms returned eight dollars more net per acre than the non-conservation farms. And, of great importance the conservation farmers maintained and improved the productivity of their land. Non-conservation farmers, on the other hand, were forced to mine their land to earn a profit—to deplete it, and to progressively reduce its productivity.

Money-making practices which go on make up a complete conservation farm plan are simple. They consist of such things as proper land use; testing and treating the soil; crop rotation; good water management, including contouring, terracing and drainage; and efficient use of legumes, grasses and other livestock feeds.

Not many years ago such a program would have been far from simple. For one thing, little was known about how to conserve land. For another, the farmer's main tools were his own muscles and those of draft animals. Now science has given us the necessary farm equipment we have the efficient, knowledge—and in modern mechanical economical tools that are needed to do the job. We can conserve our irreplaceable croplands—and we must.

Highway Partol Merits High Praise

A few nights ago a citizen of Scotland Neck swallowed a bone, and it lodged in his throat. He was gasping for breath and was in a serious condition. His family called a friend and they headed for Rocky Mount and a hospital equipped to handle such an operation.

A short distance out of this town a Highway Patrolman should sounded his siren and the car pulled to the side of the road. Sixty miles was the charge, and who would not have pushed the limit a few miles when it may have been a case of life and death? The patrolman was an understanding gentleman. He might prefer a charge later but at that moment he was going to help to the limit of his ability. He cleared the road with his siren, and with his radio called ahead. At the next county line another patrolman met them and escorted them to the hospital. A bone was removed in time, a life may have been saved.

All of us do not appreciate the Highway Patrol. Some of us make silly statements concerning them. But they serve courteously and efficiently. We need them and we should appreciate what they do.

WATCH PASTURE
CONDITION FOR KEY TO PROFITS

What is a pasture? It's a place where grass is so good that a cow can fill her stomach in two hours or less, then lie down in the shade and rest. While she's resting, she's working for the farmer.

If she has to spend all day getting enough food, the cow is working for herself, not for you.

A permanent pasture should be convenient to the barn, should have a supply of clean water, and should be fertilized regularly. The better the soil, the better the pasture. Allow at least one acre per cow, if possible.

Divide pasture into several paddocks and graze in rotation. Electric fencing makes this easy. Avoid overgrazing at all times.

HEALTH
HINT

There's no profit in feeding worms. We recommend Purina

Check-R-Ton Granules because most pullets are grown on ground used every year for chickens. They almost all have some worms. It's just good practice to worm your flock, and right now is the time to do it.

Take away the usual Growing Mash or Check-Etts and feed Check-R-Ton for two days.

FEED ON PASTURE

Even when turned out in to the finest spring pasture, cows need some grain ration and hay each day. When pastures become less lush, it's a good idea to feed a gallon of Purina Bulky-Las night and morning with the regular ration to hold cow condition. Remember, it's cow condition that makes milk... and profits!

If flies are a problem at your house why not do as hundreds of folks are doing in Wellington and get some Purina Fly Bait. It really gets the job done. Some folks you might ask about it are Pete Scott Grocery, B. G. Glenn, Darrell Crooks, Zook Thomas, Ted Wheeler, Melvin Kiker.

AT THE CRY OF "FIRE"

would you know where to put your hands on a ladder, a bucket or hose? It's a good idea to set up "fire stations" at danger points in house and barn to aid fast action in case of fire.

Call us for free help in dairy culling, feeding, management and sanitation advice. We keep well posted on the latest research information. Our staff is trained in the latest methods. Jameson, Weston In Pitcher's Duel

Legion Whitewashed Sun. By Hanson Chiefs, 3 to 0

Playing their best game of the current campaign, Wellington's American Legion baseball squad, behind the red-hot offering of lefty Duggie Jameson, could not find the right combination for a win against the Hanson Chiefs of Amarillo. The visitors took a tight 3 to 0 win in a game played Sunday afternoon, June 26, in Marian Air Park Stadium.

Jameson and Jimmy Weston, all-state pitcher with Amarillo High School and hurler opposing Jameson, were locked in a tight pitcher's duel, one that lasted through-out the contest. Jameson chilled 10 Amarillo batsmen, while Weston curved the ball around the bats of 12 local hitters. Weston gave up three hits and three walks and Jameson gave up six hits and two bases-on-balls. Both hurlers went the seven innings.

Amarillo opened the scoring column in the top of the third inning with an unearned run. Then came back in the fourth and sixth innings to score single runs.

The Hanson crew, in the fourth, opened with Weston lining a sharp triple that was followed by VerPlank, first baseman and another all-state AHS player, who doubled to score Weston with run number two. However, VerPlank died at second as Jameson cut the next three men down in one-two-three order.

Wellington's best threat came in the bottom of the sixth inning with the score 3 to 0 in Amarillo's favor. James Young, 3b, laced a single to left that was followed by Darryl Morris, cf, who was hit by a pitched ball. Bill Reeves, ss, walked to load the bases with none away. Weston got Jameson on a third strike. Burril Patchell, lf, sent a easy grounder to McClain at shortstop, who threw to McKay at second for the out on Reeves going down. McKay nipped Patchell by a stride in his throw to first baseman VerPlank.

Hanson's top hitter for the day was VerPlank with two for three. Weston, McKay and Beck each collected one hit each. Wellington's Price, Young and Gano Wilson, 2b, dropped in singles for the cause.

Ingram Improving After Operation

Homer Ingram, owner of the Ingram Produce, is improving rapidly following an operation in Wichita Falls Wednesday, June 15, a member of the family, Mrs. Benny Moore, said.

Ingram had been in ill health for sometime prior to the operation. He had been suffering from a stomach ailment. "His condition is greatly improved and he should be able to return to Wellington in about two weeks. He is now able to be up and about. It will be some time before he can continue to do heavy work," Mrs. Moore stated.

from the six previous schools. This school is presented by the Range and Forestry Department and Extension Service of the Texas A. and M. College System. The purpose of the course is to give agents and teachers a more practical background in range management so that they can give better assistance to the ranchmen and farmers whom they serve.

Those attending the school this year come from as far north as Canadian, east of Athens, south of Hebronville and as far west as Colorado City. In class and field they will study plant identification, range condition classes, proper utilization, range reseeding, plant ecology, brush control and range economics.

Instructors for the school include Dr. Vernon A. Young, Head, and Dr. Omar E. Sperry, Professor, Range and Forestry Department and Garlyn O. Hoffman and A. H. Walker, Range Specialists, Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Local Golfer Helps Win Pro-Am Title

Garvin McCaskill, Marian Air Park Pool manager, was a member of the pro-am team that won the Shamrock Pro-Am title Thursday, June 23, at the Shamrock Municipal Golf Course, southwest of the city.

John Farquhar, pro at the Ross Rogers Municipal Course, Amarillo, Gene Sander and Bruce Barkley of Shamrock, completed the team. The foursome had faced teams from a wide section of North and West Texas.

Going into the final hole, the team of Farquhar, Barkley Sander and McCaskill was one down. McCaskill pulled the match out of the fire with an eagle that counted for five points and the championship.

A few years ago, McCaskill ripped a hole-in-one on the Shamrock course, the first such feat there.

Methodist Youth Attend Assembly

Miss Ada Carol Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, and Miss Molly Denley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Denley, are in Abilene this week on the campus of McMurry College attending the annual Youth Assembly of the Northwest Texas Conference of the Methodist Church.

Both young people, representing the youth of the local church, left Sunday, June 26, and are expected to return Saturday, July 1.

The annual meeting of youth includes periods of fellowship, recreation, worship, and addresses by outstanding ministers of the church.

Miss Denley is vice-president of the Childress Sub-District, while Miss Thomas is publicity chairman.

Tulsa Man Sends Ball Equipment For Local Team

Hollis Bounds, Tulsa businessman and former Wellington resident, noticed a story on page one of the Thursday, June 16, edition of The Wellington Leader, and did something about it.

In the story Judge R. L. Templeton, manager for the squad, explained that the Babe Ruth team was in need of some gloves for the players. Shortly afterward, a phone call came from Mr. Bounds stating that he had read the paper and asked Judge Templeton, "What do you need and how many? I'm going down today and buy them for you".

After the purchase, Mr. Bounds wrote Judge Templeton a letter. Here are some excerpts from it. . . "It gives me great pleasure to furnish some equipment for these little fellows. If they get half the thrill playing baseball that I did when I was a kid, it is worth all the time and effort that we can give them. I played baseball on the Wellington High School team when I was there and I still have a very deep feeling for my old

NOTICE To The People Who Are Trimming Their Trees

The city will continue to haul broken limbs of trees that was caused by the Tornado.

It was the original intent and purpose of the City Council to help the citizenry by hauling the debris after the storm.

However some have started trimming their trees on a large scale basis and it is impossible for the city to provide trucks and men to do the job.

The persons that are trimming their trees will be expected to haul the debris at their own expense. The city will still remove them if they were broken by the storm and are cut to a size one man can handle.
