Extension Of Curbs Asked

By MORGAN REYNOLDS
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25 — The administration stuck to its insistent demands for "mandatory" anti-inflation powers as it pressed Congress today for a stop-gap extension of the GOP's voluntary controls.

Secretary of Commerce Sawyer spearheaded the new drive to win Capitol Hill approval of President Truman's broad economic program which includes his oft-repeated requests for standby authority to put clamps on such things as credit, rents, exports and scarce commodities.

Sawyer told a Senate Banking subcommittee the administration soon will ask "mandatory powers" over distribution of steel and other essential goods in short supply. Until Mr. Truman's "broader economic program" has been detailed, he said a "temporary extension becomes necessary to keep the present program on a going basis."

Sawyer Questioned

The so-called voluntary allocation agreements program is due to expire February 28. It was enacted by the Republican-controlled 80th Congress as a substitute for Mr. Truman's proposal for government-enforced rationing. Under this plan industries which agreed to set up their own rationing system were exempt from certain anti-trust laws.

Committee members questioned Sawyer at length on the operations of the steel industry's self-rationing plan. Several were critical of the proportionate distribution which they said worked hardships on small business. About one-tenth of the country's steel production is channelled to essential users by the voluntary program.

Senator Robertson (D-Va.), for example, said that some small firms "have to pay a premium price to nail bootleggers."

And Senator Sparkman (D-Ala) read letters from small business-

Payment Of '49 Poll Taxes Still Lagging

Only 3,700 voters of Lubbock county have paid 1949 poll taxes. Roman Simpson, chairman of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Americanism committee, reported late Tuesday.

The Jaycees issued some 250 tax receipts at the Jaycee luncheon Monday and the Lions club meeting Tuesday, Simpson said, but the campaign is still lagging far behind the 1949 pace. On Jan. 25 of last year, Simpson pointed out, approximately 18,000 persons had paid the poll tax.

He urged all qualified voters to pay the tax before the Jan. 31 deadline.

Plan To Swap Land For Site Proposed

Mayor Offers Park To School District

By CHARLES STONE
Avalanche Staff Writer

MAYOR W. H. RODGERS, who appeared at the regular meeting of the board of trustees of Lubbock Independent School district last night as spokesman for the City commission, told the board that the commission was ready and willing to trade McCrummen park, located between Ave. T and Ave. U on Nineteenth street, for the present site and building of George M. Hunt school.

The proposed trade, discussed at a previous school board meeting as a possible solution to long-range plans for extending present high school facilities, would eliminate the necessity of locating another high school site in another part of town.

The city, Mayor Rodgers said, would use the Hunt school site and building for a city library, with possible addition of laboratories for use of the City Health department. Present location of the health department, he added, is unsatisfactory from the standpoints of building space as well as sufficient parking facilities around City hall.

Passageway Suggested

The school board's only objection to locating additional buildings of Senior High school on the McCrummen park site was apparently the necessity of providing a safe means for students to cross nineteenth street, one of the city's main traffic arteries. An underpass, discussed previously as a solution to the problem, was thought to be impractical from the aspect of prohibitive construction costs.

Mayor Rodgers, as a solution to the cost problem, suggested that the passageway across Nineteenth might be constructed approximately four feet below and four feet above the ground surface, with a four-foot rise in the street at that point to allow traffic to pass over. This plan, he added, would eliminate considerable cost by relieving the necessity of disturbing storm sewers and other underground structures now located there.

He volunteered to have a plan drawn for the proposed under-

Reds Rap Allies At Berlin Rally

BERLIN, Jan. 25. (INS)—Russian and German Communist leaders belligerently warned the Western Allies tonight that peace and unity in Germany is possible only on Communist terms.

Elements of the so-called Russian "peace offensive" were lacking in the opening speeches at the congress of the Socialist Unity (Communist) party in Berlin.

Speculation on such a "peace offensive" was aroused by the recent declarations of Italian, French and other Communist leaders, news of which only yesterday was printed in the Russian-controlled newspapers of Berlin.

Ruhr Proposal Denounced

Otto Grotewohl, co-chairman of the German Communist group, scathingly attacked the Western Allies in opening the rally today, saying:

"The western announcement on the Rhur statute was a declaration of war on the working class. There can be no peace on this subject."

The Rhur statute is a proposal for international control of that rich industrial basin in western Germany, a control in which Russia will not participate.

Col. Serge Tulpanov, Soviet propaganda chief in Germany and representative of the central committee of the Russian Communist party, declared:

Allies Blasted

"The Allies in western Germany are stripping all Germany of basic rights and want to turn Germans into soldiers in an imperialist aggression."

Tulpanov added "the Soviet

Split Looms In Battered China Regime

By HAROLD K. MILKS

NANKING, Wednesday, Jan. 26 —There were indications today of dissension within what's left of the government at Nanking over abandonment of this capital city.

China's government appears to be changing its mind hourly.

One diplomatic source said there was serious conflict within government circles over whether to move, when and how.

At Peiping, a plane load of American medical supplies arrived today for free distribution in this Communist-controlled city.

Reds Offer Parley Terms

Sent from Shanghai by the U. S. Economic Co-operation administration, the supplies will go to hospitals and clinics. The plane, piloted by Capt. Raymond Bowes, of Buffalo, N. Y., was under ECA charter.

The Communists broadcast willingness to talk peace at Peiping—on their own tough terms.

Yesterday the foreign office said notes were being distributed to diplomatic missions announcing a decision to move the seat of government southward. Canton was the indicated spot.

Notes Are Recalled

After nine notes were distributed, someone decided the memorandum was not sufficiently filled with qualifying phrases to completely bewilder the recipients.

So the notes were recalled with some blushes and an official source said a new memorandum was being prepared. It was expected to say about the same thing in a different language.

There was no immediate indication the Communist offer to talk peace on its own terms would halt the swift abandonment of the capital. Frantic thousands of citizens jammed trains and railway stations, trying to get out.

Official Reaction Lacking

Some sources said acting President Li Tsung-Jen probably soon would join the exodus to the south.

Official reaction to the Red offer was lacking. Li previously had accepted the Red terms, however, as a basis for opening peace talks. The Communist terms call

High Grain Price Supports Urged

(Special To The Avalanche)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—With a support price for grain sorghum believed to be an assured thing, Rep. George Mahon, Colorado City, said tonight that the problem now is to get Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan to make the support price equal to that of cotton, which is 90 per cent of parity.

Mahon said this must be accomplished in order to encourage farmers to plant grain sorghums and not cotton.

Mahon conferred with Secretary Brannan this afternoon.

Fears Low Support Price

"I am alarmed that the support price which we have won may be less than 90 per cent, and to be effective in reducing the cotton crop, I think it needs to be equal to that set by law for cotton," he said.

The support price for grain sorghum, expected to be announced officially in the next day or two, is left to the discretion of the agriculture secretary.

Mahon and Rep. W. R. Poage conferred with Ralph Twigg, chief of agriculture's production and marketing administration, at a meeting of the House Agriculture committee earlier in the day. There, Twigg, under prodding from Poage, member of that committee, said a support price for grain sorghum will be announced short-

Child Is Victim Of Butane Truck Blaze

GOLDTHWAITE, Jan. 25 (AP)—A three-year-old girl was burned to death and her mother critically burned today when a butane gas transport truck caught fire as it was unloading here.

Dr. C. M. Smith said Mrs. Mildred Teague, wife of the truck driver was in critical condition in a Brownwood hospital and was not expected to live. The Teagues' small daughter was trapped in the blazing cab.

Teague said he was out of the cab while the truck's 4,000 gallons of gas were being unloaded into two storage tanks, and that a stuck cutoff valve splashed the gas on the truck's hot muffler.

INVESTIGATOR WRITES STORY

'Inside' Story On Conspiracy By Reds In U. S. To Be Told

THE "INSIDE" story of ten drama packed years tracking down the Communist infiltration in the government of the United states can be told at last! And by one of the men who possibly knows that story as well as anyone in the nation today!

Robert C. Stripling, for the past ten years chief investigator for the House Un-American Activities committee, has set down his experiences in a series of 28 articles which will appear in The Morning Avalanche, starting next Tuesday, Feb. 1.

The series, The Communist Conspiracy in The United States, edited by Bob Considine, famous author and newspaperman, reveals how some of the men who later were branded threats to the security of this nation and its most valued secrets gained easy admission to the country through the help of onetime high officials in the government.

Don't miss this timely series! Beginning next Tuesday, Feb. 1 in The Morning Avalanche!

U. S. Steel Announces Plans To Split Common Stock Shares

NEW YORK, Jan. 25 (INS)—U. S. Steel corporation directors took Wall Street by surprise today when they announced plans to split the common stock three shares for one. The stock split-up is the first in U. S. Steel's history.

At the same time, directors declared a $1 special dividend on the common stock, in addition to the usual quarterly payment of $1.25 a share.

Net profit for 1948 totaled $129,552,424, equal to $11.99 a common share. This compared with $127,098,148, or $11.70 a common share in the preceding year.

FOR FOREIGN AID

Request Is Set For $5 Billion

(By The International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25. — Foreign Aid Administrator Hoffman has advised Congressional leaders that within two weeks he will present requests for further European Recovery funds totalling 5.7 billion dollars.

Sen. Connally (D. Tex.), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, announced today that public hearings on foreign aid projects for the next 15 months are expected to begin Feb. 8.

President Truman has budgeted 4.5 billion dollars for ERP for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1950. In addition, he is asking an appropriation of 1.25 billion dollars to supplement the five billion dollars made available for the first year of the western European program.

Sen. Connally has instructed the Economic Cooperation administration to draft a single bill to include both requests so Congress can make one job out of providing stop-gap funds to carry the European Recovery program through April, May and June, as well as through the next fiscal year.

Solons Given Crucial Bills

By DAVE CHEAVENS
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, Jan. 25—The 51st Legislature was handed two of its hottest potatoes today.

Bills calling for revolutionary changes in the public school system were introduced in the Senate.

Governor Beauford H. Jester requested immediate action on measures to reorganize and modernize the prison system, labelled as one of the worst in the nation.

This brought the session in its third week face-to-face with issues that are bound to produce bitter conflict, perhaps up to its closing hours. The education and prison bills have the full endorsement of Jester.

Other Bills Planned

Along with the first three measures to put into effect sweeping changes recommended by the Gilmer-Aikin education committee, was the committee's final report as submitted to the Senate. It makes 29 proposals in all. The committee was set up by the 50th Legislature to make a full study of public school education.

Six more bills on the Gilmer-Aikin report will be introduced as soon as possible. Jester has promised to give them all emergency status. This is designed to speed action on them.

The three Gilmer-Aikin bills placed before the Senate today would in essence:

Provisions Given

1. Reorganize the state's central control of the public schools; create a central education agency mande up of an elective board of education, an appointive state commissioner of education, and a

Coast Guard Fails To Find Two Men Lost In Trawler Explosion

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 25 (AP)—Coast Guard headquarters here said tonight efforts to find two men believed to have been aboard a shrimping trawler when it exploded off Freeport, late yesterday had proved futile.

An all-day search was suspended tonight.

The craft was the Walda L, 53 feet long, of Freeport. Records here gave the family names of the commercial fishermen who were aboard as "Mr. Wright" and "Mr. Jordan." Wright was listed as owner.

The mishap occurred about six miles off Freeport.

Cold To Keep Icy Grip On South Plains

THE South Plains was still in an icy stranglehold Tuesday night as the latest cold wave continued to dump ice, snow and frozen rain over a wide section of the state, facing little hope of relief before Thursday.

Downstate points felt the full effects of the cold blast Tuesday as rain and snow moved south in the wake of the blizzard which struck the Panhandle Sunday night.

While residents could look forward to some lessening today in the bitter cold that has gripped the Plains for two days and coated streets, highways and sidewalks with a treacherous film of ice and up to two inches of sleet and powdery snow, little thaw is expected to come from the slight rise in mercury readings today.

Roads Still Hazardous

Occasional sleet or snow was expected to fall early this morning, but the Weather station reported that the fall probably would be light, and would halt before noon. Skies will continue cloudy today and early tomorrow, with a slight break in the clouds coming Thursday.

Meanwhile the second sleet and ice storm of the year brought these results.

Highways and streets were "very hazardous" for motorists. Traffic was slowed and some bus schedules were either rerouted or cancelled to avoid ice conditions. Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma Motor Coaches reported that schedules to Fort Worth via Seymour had been cancelled and passengers sent through Wichita Falls, runs to Eastland likewise had been cancelled because of ice sheathed roads.

Warn Against Traveling

The Texas Highway patrol said highways were "very slick and hazardous" to all points out of Lubbock last night and advised against all but emergency travel. No serious accidents had been reported in this area since the storm struck Monday morning, the highway patrol said.

Southwestern Bell Telephone company reported the cold had interfered to some extent with their carrier system, but that no damage had been reported to their lines. However, C. H. Cale, Lubbock manager, said the cold wave had interfered with repair work un-

Laborites Lead In Jewish Vote

TEL AVIV, Israel, Wednesday, Jan. 26 (AP)—The men and women of the new state of Israel chose the first Hebrew parliament in history yesterday in an election marked by quiet and solemnity.

A high number of voters participated. Military security prevented publication of specific figures which would include voters in uniform. However, preliminary estimates said as many as 400,000 might have cast ballots.

The first returns—admittedly inconclusive—showed two powerful labor parties, one headed by Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion, in the lead.

Many Arabs Vote

The polling places closed at midnight and the counting of votes began. Final figures may not be known for several days.

Many men and women in uniform took part in this phase of laying the groundwork for a new Democratic republic on the eastern shores of the Mediterranean. Numerous Arabs cast ballots, including Christian women as well as veiled Moslem women.

They elected a constituent assembly of 120 members to draft a constitution and form a government to replace the present pro-

Employment Shows Decline As Weather Slows Outdoor Work

By BILL CLARK
Avalanche Staff Writer

IS there an unemployment crisis in Lubbock?

The question Tuesday afternoon brought answers ranging from a "declaration of a state of emergency" by welfare agencies to a positive "No" by employers and employment agencies.

Whether or not there is a crisis, it seems apparent that Lubbock is suffering more general unemployment at present than in any recent winter season.

And this in spite of the fast that Lubbock is in a region which has been described as enjoying a "super boom" over and above the "boom" that the nation as a whole is experiencing.

The reason, of course, is weather.

For more than three weeks virtually all outdoor workers have been idle in an unusually long siege of wet, freezing weather.

Activity has been curtailed in three of the area's basic industries: Farming, oil operations and construction.

B. T. O'Connell, manager of the area office of Texas Employment commission, says that his records show 1,840 persons listed

Surging Rivers Add To Storm Damage

Freezing Rain, Sleet Leave Blanket Of Ice From Texas To Great Lakes

(By International News Service)

FLOODS from rivers fed by heavy January rains and snow thaws spread over the southern areas of four midwestern states Tuesday to add something new to winter's siege of storms and cold waves.

An estimated 1,000 persons fled their homes in southern Illinois when three rivers went on a rampage.

The rivers are the Wabash and Little Wabash in southeastern Illinois and the Big Muddy in the southwestern part of the state. Rain has been falling almost steadily in the area since Saturday, and more rain was forecast for today.

Cattle Rescue Work Pushed

(By The Associated Press)

PLANES, Army bulldozers, trucks and footparties were pressed into the battle to save snowbound western livestock Tuesday. The rescue operation was one of the most widespread of its kind ever undertaken.

Meanwhile, new cold, snow, sleet and floods hit various sections in the western half of the country.

In Washington, a Senate committee approved a $750,000 emergency fund to finance rescue work in Nevada, Utah, Wyoming, South Dakota and sections of North Dakota and Montana. The South Dakota legislature considered a $100,000 special disaster fund.

Million Sheep Trapped

Gov. Al Peterson declared a state of emergency in parts of blizzard-lashed Nebraska, where frozen drifts and ice-covered highways have isolated many areas for weeks.

Peterson asked Fifth Army headquarters in Chicago for 300 bulldozers, 25 to 30 "weasels" and all the snow removal equipment available. He said 20 per cent of the state's 93 counties are in "dire" need of help and starving cattle in a 27,000 mile area are weakening rapidly.

With winter continuing its January rampage temperatures skidded to more than 10 below zero in parts of Wyoming and Montana. Carlin, Nev., claimed an unofficial -57 as the coldest spot in the nation. Reno, Nev., had -15.

Six Persons Die

The coldest weather of the winter also gripped the northwest. The mercury dipped to -22 in Omak and Moses Lake, Wash., and -25 at Baker, Ore. Meanwhile, Nome, Alaska, had a comparatively mild 15 above. Six deaths were blamed directly or indirectly on the cold in eastern Washington during the past few days. Snow caused many rural schools to close intermittently. The 25th consecutive day of subfreezing weather in Portland tied a record set in 1893.

Other low temperatures recorded in the frigid belt: Stanley, Ida., -51; Bozeman, Mon., -43; Big Piney, Wyo., -43; Belgrade, Mont., -42; Butte, Mont., -38; Elko, Nev., -38; Salt Lake City, -7; Denver, -9.

Floods Hit Lowlands

Flood waters also surged over lowlands along the Wabash and White rivers in Indiana. Rivers in southern Ohio and Missouri and in Arkansas contributed to the flood menace.

The Ohio river at Cincinnati climbed to 42 feet, only 10 feet below flood stage.

While the floods created new dangers and problems, freezing rain and sleet left an icy coating over many areas of the midwest.

Rain, snow and sleet was reported by the weather bureau in a belt reaching from the Great lakes to northern Texas.

A sheath of ice clamped down on the St. Louis transportation system for the second time in a week. Thousands of persons were late to work.

Bus Service Cut

Only 25 per cent of St. Louis Public Service company buses were able to operate over the icy streets during the morning rush hours.

The city's public schools were closed in the afternoon as a result of the storm. Most airline flights in and out of the city were cancelled.

Nearly everyone living in East Carmi, Ill., evacuated their homes when the Little Wabash river flooded streets of the town while rising one-inch an hour throughout the night Monday.

Families there moved out household goods by lantern light and the Red Cross arranged for emergency housing. Livestock was herded onto hilly land, while poultry and hogs were lifted into barn lofts.

Another dangerous flood area was around Mr. Carmel, Ill., where the Wabash river rose 7.4 feet above flood stage during the night.

A crest of 25 feet was expected at Mr. Carmel shortly. Officials of the town warned that a 29-foot stage would put the municipal

'GAG RULE' HEARING DELAY SEEN

Solon Threatens To Pull Support From Filibuster Compromise

By DARRELL GARWOOD
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25 — Sen. Ives (R-NY) threatened today to bolt the administration's compromise arrangement to curb filibusters in the Senate.

Ives, who favors gag rule by majority vote but at present is "going along" with the more moderate administration plan, scented an attempt to delay hearings on the subject. He said:

"By golly, if there is going to be an attempt to delay this, I am not going to stay in line."

President Truman's controversial civil rights program depends on approval of some legislation to prevent southern opponents from talking the program to death in a filibuster.

Committee Rejects Demand

Ives' statement was made after a demand was rejected by Senate Rules committee Chairman Hayden (D-Ariz.) that afternoon hearings be held today and tomorrow on "gag" bills.

The New York senator was strongly supported by Sens. Knowland (R-Calif) and Morse (R-Ore) both of whom said filibusters threaten national defense and the operation of the government.

Chairman Hayden smoothed the matter over temporarily by promising to "try" to wind up anti-filibuster hearings Friday.

But Ives joined with sens. Ferguson (R-Mich) and Saltonstall (R-Mass) in a joint statement saying they favor gag rule by simple majority vote, and are supporting the compromise only "to be practical" and as a "step forward."

Would Extend 'Gag' Vote

The administration plan is to retain the two-thirds requirement for imposition of cloture, but to extend it to all types of motions. At present there are certain types of motions not subject to a "gag" vote.

Sen. Stennis (D-Miss), leader of the Dixie bloc, indicated doubt whether hearings could end Friday. He said seven more southern senators want to testify, and could not come on a few minutes notice." Knowland interjected sharply:

"The senator knows it is not a few minutes notice."

Sen. Long (D-La), son of the late Huey, also indicated he would not be hurried. He said:

"We have had this rule for 150 years now, and we're getting along all right."

Morse cited the draft filibuster started by Sen. Taylor (D-Idaho) in the last session as a possible threat to national defense.

Odessa Judge Is Hospitalized With Flu, Misses Inauguration

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25 (AP) — Judge Paul Moss of Odessa, was recovering today in Georgetown hospital and looking forward to getting out in a couple of days.

The 62-year-old judge of the 70th Texas state judicial district came to Washington for presidential inauguration ceremonies, but was stricken with flu the day before the actual swearing-in ceremony and missed it.

"This is the first time I was ever in a hospital in my life," chuckled the West Texas jurist to a reporter by telephone from his bedside.

"I didn't think I was sick, but they've kept me here about a week now and have examined me from head to foot. They say there's nothing wrong with me now, except for maybe a little anemia."

Judge Moss and his wife attended a number of pre-inaugural functions.

A Weak, Run-Down Feeling Is Often A Warning

That The Red-Blood Is Getting Low

If you do not feel like your real self, do not have the urge to be up and doing, why not check-up on your blood strength? Look at the palms of your hands, your fingernails, your lips, the lobes of your ears—are they pale and off color?

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional, anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloat and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

British Support Of Truman Plan Pledged

LONDON, Jan. 25 (INS) — Foreign Secretary Bevin declared tonight Britain will "pool all its knowledge, ability and sources" to back President Truman's plan for aiding the world's needy in the fight against the "false philosophy" of Communism.

Bevin told a Foreign Press association luncheon in London that Britain and "all colonial powers" welcomed the bold scheme outlined by the President in his inaugural speech last Wednesday.

The foreign secretary qualified Britain's pledge of support by saying that Britain would exert all possible aid "at our command."

Britain herself is among the needy nations, one of those dependent on the Marshall aid plan which Bevin again praised. In answer to the Communist threat Bevin said:

"A good standard of life and happiness in association with western civilization probably is the greatest contribution we can make."

Says Man Has Strange Powers That Work While He Sleeps

A strange man in Los Angeles, known as "The Voice of Two Worlds," reveals the story of a remarkable system that often leads to improvement in power of mind, achievement of brilliant business and professional success and new happiness. Many report improvement in health. Others tell of increased bodily strength, magnetic personality, courage and poise.

The man, a well-known explorer and geographer, tells how he found these strange methods in far-off and mysterious Tibet, often called the land of miracles by the few travelers permitted to visit it. He discloses how he learned rare wisdom and long hidden practices, closely guarded for three thousand years by the sages, which enabled many to perform amazing feats. He maintains that these immense powers are latent in all of us, and that methods for using them are now simplified so that they can be used by almost any person with ordinary intelligence.

He maintains that man, instead of being limited by a one-man-power-mind, has within him the mind-power of a thousand men or more as well as the energy-power of the universe which can be used in his daily affairs. He states that this sleeping giant of mind-power, when awakened, can make man capable of surprising accomplishments, from the prolonging of youth to success in many fields. Strangely, he says that this power works best while we sleep, when proper methods are used.

The author states the time has come for this long-hidden system to be disclosed to the Western world, and offers to send his amazing 9000-word treatise which reveals many startling results—to readers of this paper, free of cost or obligation. For your free copy, address the Institute of Mentalphysics, 213 South Hobart Blvd., Dept. 312-J, Los Angeles 4, Calif. Readers are urged to write promptly, as only a limited number of the free treatises have been printed.—Adv.

HST Forbids 'President's Daughter' Billing

Bids For Concert Bookings For Miss Truman Pour In

By MILTON KAPLAN
INS Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Jan. 25 — Margaret Truman became a "smash box office attraction today less than 48 hours after she announced she'll make a bid for fame and fortune on her coloratura soprano voice.

But—on "very explicit" orders from President Truman—the promoters who flooded her New York agent's office with telegrams and telephone calls won't be able to bill her as "The President's Daughter."

James A. Davidson, her New York agent, said that he had talked to Mr. Truman in Washington, that the President had "no hesitancy" about his daughter's plans. But Davidson added:

Mr. Truman was very explicit that he wanted Margaret in no fashion to be handled by me on the basis of her being the President's daughter."

Simple Billing Planned

Davidson said blonde, 24-year-old Margaret probably will be billed for her performances as "Miss Margaret Truman, in song recital."

Nevertheless, Davidson added smilingly, "She won't have any trouble getting bookings."

On his desk were more than a score of telegrams from all over the United States, from producers asking Davidson to "please remember" them when he starts Miss Truman's concert booking.

The telegrams were from Columbus, Cleveland and Toledo O.; Louisville, Ky., Omaha, Neb., El Paso, Tex.; Sacramento, Cal., and other points around the country.

There also was a steady stream of telephone calls through the day—from Philadelphia, Washington, Patterson, N. J., the south, midwest and Pacific coast.

Agent Handles 'Big Names'

Davidson has been business manager for Lily Pons 12 years and is concert impressario for Lauritz Melchior, Jeanette McDonald, Helen Traubel, Eleanor Steber, Leonard Warren and the Robert Shaw chorale—some of the biggest names in music.

But he had never seen a sudden rush demand for an artist to match the telephone calls and telegrams today. One of his aide's termed it "fantastic."

NOT REALLY LOUD

Roosters don't really crow extra loud, as measured by dicibels. It just sounds loud by comparison with the quiet atmosphere of a farm.

Princess Elizabeth Confined To Her Room With Measles

SANDRINGHAM, Eng., Jan. 25 (INS) — Princess Elizabeth was confined to her room with measles today and separated from her infant son, Prince Charles.

An official announcement said a royal physician diagnosed the case after the 22-year-old heiress to the British throne had been feeling unwell for two days at Saindringham house, the country estate where the royal family has been for three weeks.

It is the first such affliction for the princess and the announcement said the illness is taking "an ordinary course."

Prince Charles is being kept in his nursery and physicians do not think the baby will be affected.

NEW SHERIFF NAMED

GONZALES, Jan. 25 (AP)—Theo Long, 50, for 14 years chief deputy sheriff of Lavaca county, has been appointed sheriff to succeed the late Vernon Reaves. County Judge Paul H. Fertsch said today that the county commissioners named Long at a meeting last week.

HST, Demo Leaders Okay Plans For Reorganization Program

By FELIX COTTEN
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—President Truman and Democratic congressional leaders agreed today on plans for quick passage of a government reorganization bill exempting agencies regarded as "arms of Congress."

This was done at a White House conference. Previously, the President had asked Congress not to exempt any agencies because it would weaken the effectiveness of the reorganization program.

Meanwhile, Comptroller General Lindsay Warren urged the House Expenditures committee to draw legislation giving the President power to reshuffle government agencies to carry out "the greatest pruning job in all history."

Must Reorganize Setup

Warren declared that the existing government establishment is "a hodge-podge and crazy-quilt of duplication, overlappings, inefficiences and inconsistencies with their attendant extravagance." He added:

"It is probably an ideal system for the ax-eaters and those who wish to keep themselves perpetually attached to the public trough, but it is bad for those who have to pay the bill. That is why I say the government should put its own house in order."

Reorganization legislation was the main subject taken up at the weekly conference between the president and the "big four" democratic congressional leaders.

The White House visitors were Vice President Barkley, House Speaker Rayburn, Sen. Lucas, Ill., Senator Majority leader, and Rep. McCormack, Mass., House majority leader.

Rayburn said he understood that the President was in agreement on a reorganization bill which would exempt "arms of Congress."

Agencies which would be exempt under this plan, he added, are the Interstate Commerce commission, the Securities and Exchange commission, the Federal Reserve board and the Federal Trade commission.

In addition, he said, there are certain "fringe" agencies, but he expressed the belief that these would not be exempt.

The legislation will give the President power to reorganize nonexempt government agencies in any way he sees fit. Each reorganization plan, however, would be sent to Congress. If both Houses voted against it within 60 days it would be killed. Otherwise, it would go into effect.

Rail Officials Here On Inspection Tour

Six officials of the Burlington lines visited in Lubbock briefly Tuesday on an inspection tour of the company's properties.

Accompanying the group was Wright Armstrong of Fort Worth, vice president of the Fort Worth and Denver City Railroad, a Burlington subsidiary.

The visitors were among a party of approximately 50 officials of the company visiting properties in Texas. Besides Armstrong, others in the party are: C. E. Carlson, assistant general freight agent, Kansas City; Robt. S. Brown, commercial agent, Kansas City; A. C. Bintz, general agent, freight department, St. Louis; B. C. Milliken, commercial agent, Oklahoma City; and C. O. Warrell, general agent, Memphis.

Man Shot To Death In Fight With Police

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 25. (INS)—One hundred police officers tracked ex-convict John J. De Lacasa, 43, to a Los Angeles residential district today and shot and killed him as he screamed at them, "you'll never take me alive."

Three officers were wounded in the gun battle which occurred after residents were hastily warned away from the area.

The 100 policemen cornered De Lacasa in a shed and blazed away when he refused to surrender. Officers Felix Vera, James Story and J. Ortega were wounded in the gun fight.

Authorities said that De Lacasa was wanted for nine robberies in a one-night crime wave in Pasadena, Cal., over the weekend. He also was wanted for the shooting of two policemen at Napa, Cal., last October.

The Woman's Angle
By Margaret Turner

"THERE are two things that lead to error: a speaker with a loud voice and one with deep emotion."

IN THE MAIL

DEAR Margaret Turner:

What has happened about the Will Rogers statue that Texas Tech was supposed to erect on its campus? Has that been cancelled?

Too, I wonder if some of your readers could give me advice on how to keep my house from sweating on these winter days. We burn natural gas stoves day and night and the walls and windows sweat so much that the wallpaper is ruined. I keep a window raised but this doesn't seem to help. My clothes become soggy and unkept from this moisture. So I would greatly appreciate any help along this line.

DEAR Reader: The equestrien statue is crated and stored on the Tech campus, and has been there since summer. Because the ones responsible for erection of the statue have been unable to find satisfactory marble for the base, no date has been set for its completion.

Before the statue has been set up, it will be necessary to move the flag pole.

We hope someone will write about the "sweating" walls.

DEAR Miss Turner:

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to you for your kind help in publicizing the Salvation Army's request for discarded Christmas greetings to be forwarded to the organization's orphanages and hospitals in Korea. The success of this campaign can be accredited to you for your nice interpretation of the Army's needs. The citizens not only of Lubbock, but Clovis, N. M., Levelland, Ralls, Slaton, Lamesa and many other neighboring communities were most generous in sending us their cards. One group of cards included gretings that were dated each year from 1933 up to this past holiday season.

Our only hope is that some day we can return your kindness.

Sincerely yours,
W. Thomas Gregory,
Commanding Officer.

DEAR Capt. Gregory: It was a pleasure to do something for your fine organization. We are just as glad as you are that the response was so generous.

Sororities At Meetings

Miss Matina Zanga spoke on life in her native country, Greece, and answered questions at a dinner meeting of Kappa Gamma sorority Monday night at the Hilton hotel. She was introduced by Dorothy Dale Kennedy.

Mrs. H. B. Hawkins and Mrs. W. E. Caudle were hostesses.

The table was centered with an arrangement of red and white carnations and lighted with white tapers.

Mrs. R. C. Hitt was a guest.

Members present were Mesdames Frances Neutzler, Richard Lisman, Frank Gumm, Floyd Dunn, R. E. Greer, Lottie Hilton, Charles Brown, Rex Brown, Misses Laura Casey, Mildred Boone, Hattie and Gertrude Herm, Aileene Turley, Frances Conley, Helen Hart, Evelyn Jones and Dr. Pauline Miller.

CLOTHING TO BE SENT ABROAD BY SORORITY

Members of Texas Alpha Gamma chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha wrapped clothing to send to Greece at a called meeting Monday night at the home of Mrs. Owen McWhorter, 1503 Eighteenth.

Those present were Misses Mary Paul Long, Norma Skinner, Marguerite Harris, Velma Keller, Mary Jane Kinard, Norma White and Mesdames Allan Marcus, Charles Cathey, Sidney Keeton, Owen Gilbreath, David Weaver, Herbert Leaverton, Robert Duncan and George Wilson.

At a recent meeting, Miss Matina Zanga from Greece, who now lives in Lubbock, had told the sorority of need for clothing in Greece.

Icy Weather Causes Changes In Week's Social Calendar

Announcement was made Tuesday of changes made in club meetings because of the icy weather.

An executive committee meeting of the 14th district, Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, which was to have been conducted today in Lorenzo in the home of Mrs. E. S. Smith, will be held next Wednesday.

Tuesday night Readers postponed a program set for last night in the home of Mrs. A. H. Douglas until Tuesday, Feb. 1.

Ladies day will not be held at the Lubbock Country club today. The Ladies association will observe guest day next Wednesday.

Club Party Given At Talley Tearoom

Mrs. Irene Lee and Mrs. Pearl Sampson were hostesses at a recent party given for W and W Forty-two club at the Talley Tearoom, 1510-B Ave. M.

Attending were Mesdames Mary Hutcheson, Bessie Patterson, Hattie Davis, Lou Lillard, Elbertine Hush, Nora Granberry, and Messrs. Sam Hardwick, W. O. Mobley, T. C. Paulson, R. C. Morton, C. E. Love and C. E. Patterson. E. W. Bowen was accepted as a member.

The club will meet Feb. 3 at 7:30 p. m. at Talley Tearoom with Mesdames Davis and Hutcheson as hostesses.

Courtesies Are Given

Mrs. D. C. Kennedy complimented Mrs. John Leslie Spikes, the former Miss Alura McManus, at a seated tea given in the playroom of her home at 2604 Twenty-sixth Tuesday afternoon.

Guests wrote "notes of advice" to the bride on decorated cards which will later be placed in her bride's book. Mrs. Gradie Brownds presented two readings.

A blue satin disc, standing on silver legs and outlined with blue net centered the tea table which was laid with a white cutwork cloth. Cupid candleholders surrounded the disc which was decorated with a white china doll bride and a white heart shaped container of pink sweetpeas. Blue hearts stood behind the centerpiece. Mrs. Bill Spikes, jr., served 30 guests.

Mrs. G. R. Kennedy greeted the callers at the door.

MISS BLAYLOCK IS HONORED

To compliment Miss Wilma Blaylock, bride-elect, a gift tea was given recently in the home of Mrs. J. W. Lemon with Mesdames Vernon Lemon, Frank Cline, L. N. Damron, Hugh Newton, Manuel Stiles, J. W. Lemon and B. N. Dorman as assistant hostesses.

The tea table was decorated in a blue and white motif and laid with a lace cloth. White tapers were tied with blue and white bows and hyacinths and iris were arranged in a crystal bowl.

Mrs. Hugh Newton presided at the bride's book.

Mrs. Stiles played a number of piano selections.

Mesdames Dorman, Vernon Lemon and Cline alternated in presiding at the silver service.

L. Duncan Honored At Farewell Party

Leslie Duncan who left Tuesday for the armed services was honored at a farewell party given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Paden Monday night. After an evening of playing games, refreshments were served to 40 friends and relatives.

Mr. Duncan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Duncan of the Clayton-Carter addition. He moved to Lubbock from Mt. Pleasant, in 1945 and since that time has been employed by the Radford Grocery company.

Circle Discussion Is On "World Call"

Circle six of the Women's Missionary society, business and professional women's circle, of the First Christian church, met Monday at 7:30 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Jimmy Yates, 3012 Twenty-second.

Mrs. Elois Elliott gave a devotional assisted by Mrs. Loyd Jenkins and Miss Matty Miller. Lesson for the evening was a group discussion on the January "World Call."

Refreshments were served to those attending by the hostess.

Today's Town Talk

STEVE MATHEWS, new Lubbock City manager who is to assume his duties here Feb. 15, made the "Palaver de Pampa" column in the Sunday Pampa Daily News.

"We hate to hear that amiable Steve Mathews is leaving Pampa. It will be a big loss to the city, but from a woman's viewpoint, I'm sympathizing with Dorothy Joe—she just finished buying new furniture for their home in the Fraser addition."

Mrs. Annie Pillins of 1908 Twenty-second, is spending the week in Post with her grandaughter, Mrs. Francis Bingham. Mr. Bingham, known in the local sports world as "Bing," is coach at Post High school.

Truth Gavel club held a regular meeting Monday at 7:30 p.m. at 2419 Twenty-first with W. Guy Casey, president of the group, acting as host.

Bi-laws for the newly organized group were discussed and adopted, and appointive officers named were Early Daniel, chaplain, and Mrs. Pearl R. Metcalf, historian.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Messersmith have a new son, David Ross, born in Fort Worth on Jan. 16.

The mother and baby will return to their home in Lubbock at 3306 Jackson about March 1. "Daddy" is a student at Texas Tech and is employed by Haynes and Kirby architects.

Dan Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Davis, 1901 Twenty-ninth, was exempt from all of his final examinations at A. & M. college, because his grades were all "A" or "B".

He will be in Lubbock until Tuesday, when he will return to College Station to resume classes for next semester.

Mrs. Lee Michie, who has been a guest in the J. N. Michie home, 2110 Seventeenth, returned to Kansas Sunday.

(Columnist's note:: Anyone having February birthdays, or anniversaries or party plans connected with Valentine's Day is asked to call Oleta Stewart in the Society office of The Avalanche-Journal any afternoon Monday through Friday until Feb. 4.)

Elections Conducted By Women's Clubs

Officer elections and Federation Day programs are in the news following Tuesday afternoon meetings of women's study clubs.

MRS. W. A. CLARK IS CLUB HOSTESS

Featuring the meeting of Sorosis club held Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. W. A. Clark at 2418 Twenty-seventh, was an election of officers.

Mrs. R. S. Williams was elected president; Mrs. C. E. Maedgen, sr., vice president; Mrs. W. P. Clement, recording secretary; Mrs. R. M. Clayton, corresponding secretary; Mrs. A. T. Stewart, sr., treasurer; Mrs. L. M. Jones, parliamentarian; Mrs. J. D. Peters, Federation representative; Mrs. E. L. Price, executive board member; and Mrs. C. A. White, auditor.

Mrs. Clayton and Mrs. H. G. Bizzell presented a skit in the form of a radio broadcast on "The Federation News and Views."

Eleven members were present.

MRS. H. F. GODEKE NAMED PRESIDENT

Officers elected by Twentieth Century club Tuesday afternoon for a two year tenure are as follows:

Mrs. H. F. Godeke, president; Mrs. Fred W. Sparks, vice president; Mrs. A. G. Barsh, recording secretary; Mrs. Lee C. O'Neil, treasurer; Mrs. C. M. Trout, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ivy Savage, auditor; Mrs. A. W. McKee, City Federation representative; Mrs. J. Ben Cole, jr., alternate; Mrs. Leroy T. Patton and Mrs. M. L. Shepherd, County Federation representatives; and Mesdames William V. Stone and J. I. Kilpatrick, alternates.

Mrs. W. B. Price was hostess in her home at 1610 Ave. X. Seventeen members were present.

The program was presented by Mrs. T. R. Prideaux who spoke on "What Television Means to Us Today and Tomorrow" and Mrs. Howard Hampton who discussed "What Radar and Radio Mean to Us."

A tea hour followed the program and election.

MENTAL HEALTH IS DISCUSSION TOPIC

O. L. Caskey, president of the Mental Health Society in Lubbock, spoke on that organization when he met with Clement-Sorosis Study club Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Sam A. Henry, jr., 2117 Fifth. Co-hostess was Mrs. J. E. Harvey.

Mr. Caskey explained that the three most important objectives to be reached in the mental health program are education, legislation and treatment.

Others attending were Mesdames Lennis Baker, Herbert Bannister, Ralph Caldwell, Lawrence Glenn, Jason O. Gordon, Don King, L. D. Marshall, Belverd Needles, J. D. Sanders, Frank Todd, Glenn Woody, S. H. Assister, R. H. Canaday, Euel T. Liner and a guest, Mrs. L. M. Wartes.

REPORTS MADE ON FOREIGN LETTERS

At a September meeting of Athenaeum club, members chose names of foreign women with whom they wanted to correspond. Tuesday afternoon, the club made reports on correspondence from women in Australia, Germany, Philippine Islands, England and Greece.

Mrs. A. W. Young was hostess in her home at 2014 Twenty-fifth and Mrs. Milton Smith was program leader.

The City Federation Day tea for Thursday at 3 p. m. at Hilton hotel was announced and the planning committee for the district Federation conference to be held here in April made a report.

VEL gives you 25% more for your money than any leading product made specially for washing dishes and fine fabrics!

NEW Colgate-Palmolive-Peet product...

VEL* keeps stockings sheerer-looking...lovelier than finest soap flakes!

NO SOAP SCUM TO COARSEN STOCKINGS...NO SOAP-FADING!

See for yourself how stockings keep lovely longer, washed with Vel... the great, new soapless suds made by Colgate-Palmolive-Peet. Here's why: Vel is not a soap. Therefore Vel can leave no soap scum to coarsen stocking threads, as even finest soap flakes do.

No color-dulling scum with Vel, so fine washables are safe from "soap scum dinginess." Actual tests prove that delicate washable colors stay bright and fresh up to ten times as long with Vel as with even finest soap flakes! Keep your fine washables lovely longer, with Vel!

VEL cuts dishwashing time in half!

DISHES AND GLASSWARE GLEAM WITHOUT WIPING

Just wash dishes with Vel and rinse. No wiping! Vel leaves no soap scum or streaky film to polish away. Removes grease faster, more completely than soap. Leaves no dishpan ring to scrub out. Vel saves up to half your dishwashing time.

Actual skin tests prove Vel is milder to hands than any other leading product made for washing dishes and fine fabrics!

MarVELous for DISHES · STOCKINGS · LINGERIE · WOOLENS!

Defense Says 'Axis Sally' Was Hyptonized Into Betraying U. S.

(By The International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25 — The defense claimed today that "Axis Sally" was hypnotized by a Svengali-like German professor into broadcasting for the Nazis during the war.

The prosecution at her treason trial countered with evidence that she was the highest paid of Nazi broadcasters.

The gray-haired, 48-year-old "Axis Sally" — Mildred E. Gillars, born Mildred Sisk in Portland, Me., and adopted at an early age — sat tightlipped through opening testimony, wiping an occasional tear from her eyes.

Propagandist Testifies

A youthful former Nazi propagandist named Adelbert Houben, who said he first joined the Nazi party in Colombia, South America, was the first witness to be called.

Houben testified he was manager of the Nazis' overseas radio service during the war, and in that capacity knew that Miss Gillars was paid "between 2,000 and 3,000 marks a month" for her broadcasts.

The witness said her pay—possibly equivalent to about $600 a month — was second only to that of the director general of radio service, identified as a man named Winkemper.

The second day of the trial opened with a dramatic reminder of Miss Gillars' possible fate when one of the jurors, Mrs. Elizabeth Barker, announced that she could not serve because she opposes the death penalty.

Special Assistant Attorney General John M. Kelly, jr., presented opening arguments, declaring Miss Gillars betrayed her country by broadcasting "sugar-coated propaganda" to American troops.

Defense Attorney James J. Laughlin referred to Miss Gillars as "the product of a broken home." He said that during the war she was under the "hypnotic" influence of a German radio official whom he identified as Max O. Koischwitz.

This apparently was the man identified by prosecutor Kelly as Prof. Otto Koischwitz, who, Kelly said, traveled with here wherever she went to gather material for broadcasting.

Miss Gillars, who was smiling yesterday, wept for the first time at the mention of Prof. Koischwitz. She bowed her head and wiped copious tears from her eyes. At the mention of the death penalty, she only twisted her handkerchief.

Tribute To Be Paid MacArthur Tonight At New York Dinner

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25. (INS)—President Truman today signed a scroll praising Gen. Douglas MacArthur for his long and valiant service to his country.

The scroll, signed by scores of prominent Americans, will be sent to the Supreme Allied commander in the Far East following a testimonial birthday dinner to be held in New York tomorrow.

MacArthur, who will be 69 tomorrow, will not be at the dinner but Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright, the hero of Bataan, and Gen. George C. Kenney, MacArthur's air officer in World War II, will attend.

Houston Police Recover Pistol Used In Oklahoma City Slaying

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 25. (U.P.)—Police at Houston have recovered the .38 caliber revolver with which Oklahoma City attorney Earl Pruet was shot to death.

Roy Frank Godbey, who has confessed the murder, told police here yesterday afternoon that he hocked the pistol in Houston, a few days after Pruet's death.

Representatives of the Oklahoma City police force, the sheriff's office and the county attorney's department were awaiting better weather to begin a trip to Houston to pick up the pistol, chief item of evidence in Godbey's murder trial.

Godbey pleaded innocent to the murder charge at arraignment yesterday, despite his previous statements acknowledging that he shot to death Pruet to even the score for an alleged "frameup" in which the attorney sent him to prison for armed robbery in 1932.

PLANT CLOSED BY STRIKE

TEXAS CITY, Jan. 25. (AP) — Last operating unit of the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals corp. plant here came to a stop at midnight. The plant is now completely shut down by a strike of 1,400 workers. Workers seek a 27 cents an hour wage increase.

Smithsonian Scientist Finds 1,000-Year-Old Relic In Mound

NATRIUM, W. Va., Jan. 26 (U.P.) — Smithsonian Institution scientists today reported the "exceedingly rare" discovery of a bit of cloth woven 1,000 years ago by the ancient Adena people who once roamed the valley of the Ohio river.

The unusual relic was among 2,500 specimens found during the excavation of a pre-Indian period burial mound here by archeologist Ralph Solecki, sent to explore the mound when industrial expansion threatened its destruction.

The excavation, Solecki said, resulted in a "rich" supply of both information and specimens. Digging disclosed that the mound was the burial place for two dozen bodies of the Adennas, an ancient semi-agricultural people whose semi-permanent dwellings dotted the terraces above the river about 900 A.D.

Fort Worth Dimes Drive Nets Wedding Ring, 24 White Rats

FORT WORTH, Jan. 27 (INS)—Charity takes many forms. For instance directors of the Fort Worth March of Dimes campaign counted among donations a wedding ring and 24 white rats.

Patrolman E. L. Burch reports that the wedding ring was found in a bottle of coins. Rice Tilley, campaign chairman, says the gift may have been a mistake. Another campaign official speculates that some wife may have decided to give charitable vent to anger with her husband.

The 24 rats were donated by Mrs. Myrtle Franklin, who explained that the rats would be worth $8.40—or 35 cents each—if sold to a medical college.

Funeral For Mrs. W. D. McClain Pending Arrival Of Relatives

Funeral services for Mrs. W. D. McClain, 68, who died unexpectedly Monday night in her residence at 328 Ave. H, last night still were pending arrival of relatives, Bryan McDonald & Son Funeral home reported.

Mrs. McClain, a resident of Lubbock 26 years, died of a heart attack.

Survivors include the husband; two sons, John Thomas of Englewood, Calif., and Robert Emmett of Hermosa Beach, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. Bessie McClain of Long Beach, Calif.; and three grandchildren.

Slight Decline Reported In Nation's Crude Oil Production

TULSA, Okla., Jan. 25. (AP) — The nation's crude oil production during the week ended Jan. 22 averaged 5,248,590 barrels daily, a decline of 7,850 barrels from the previous week, the Oil & Gas Journal reported today.

Largest declines were in Indiana, down 2,000 barrels to 23,100 barrels; Illinois, off 2,800 to 180,600; Kansas, down 4,200 to 292,350; and Oklahoma, 1,900 to 440,500.

The eastern area fell off 450 barrels to 61,800, Kentucky was down 500 to 23,800, and Louisiana dropped 600 to 502,450.

The biggest gain was Mississippi's 2,900 barrels to 118,650.

Production in New Mexico gained 730 to 135,500.

Production in Nebraska, 300 barrels, and Texas, 2,333,490, was unchanged.

Houston Church Named As Seat Of Texas Episcopal Diocese

HOUSTON, Jan. 25. (AP)—Historic old Christ Episcopal church has been designated the Cathedral parish of the Episcopal diocese of Texas.

The 110-year-old church was designated official seat of the diocese at the opening business session of the 100th annual council of the diocese.

Dr. Hamilton H. Kellogg, rector of Christ Episcopal, becomes its dean and Rev. William B. L. Hutcheson and Rev. Harold O. Martin, jr., Canons.

District 1-AA Games Postponed

Loop Quints To Battle Friday

Two scheduled District 1-AA basketball clashes, pairing Amarillo at Borger and Plainview at Pampa, were postponed Tuesday night when icy roads and dangerous driving conditions made the trips by the visiting teams impossible.

The Sandie-Borger tussle was re-slated for Feb. 15, officials at Amarillo reported, but the new date for the Plainview-Harvester setto was not announced.

All of the 1-AA quints are scheduled to see action in conference games Friday night, however, if weather permits. Pampa's Harvesters, leading the title chase with an undefeated record, travel to Amarillo for an important clash, while Lubbock's runner-up Westerners invade Plainview.

Borger's Bulldogs will journey to Brownfield to round out the conference slate.

Saturday night the Westerners will play host to the Sandies at the Chapman field clubhouse, while Brownfield travels to Plainview.

The Lubbock cagers were sent through another stiff workout at the Chapman field gym Tuesday afternoon, with Coach Roy Morris stressing offensive play and strategy. The Westerners have lost five games in 20 starts this season, and every loss resulted from the failure of the Westerner offense — not from a defensive weakness. The Lubbock quint has allowed only 28 points per game in the 20 tilts, but the Westerner offense has failed to tally 30 points in six games.

The Lubbock schoolboys lost to Pampa by a 32-22 margin in conference play; were edged out by Lamesa, 22-20, in a non-district setto; and were defeated by Abilene in a non-conference game last weekend, 30-25. In each case it was the offense that was at fault—not the Westerner defense.

The Westerners showed improvement on play patterns in the Tuesday afternoon drill, although regular Forward Jimmy Sexton still could not take part in the workout. Sexton has suited up for the last two afternoons, doing a little shooting and conditioning work, but the tall junior will be unable to take his place in the lineup before this weekend.

O'Neill Company Wins Forfeit Games From Holsum Bowlers

O'Neill Drilling company won three games on forfeit from the Holsum Bakery five and the Benton Oil company outrolled the No Name quintet by the same score in action in the Ladies Classic Bowling league last night.

Artie Reed of Benton rolled the high single of 202 and high triple of 537. Aleene Hilton of O'Neill had a 162-456; Lea Williams of Holsum had 177-455; and Louise Oliver of No Name had 177-443.

Roosevelt's Varsity Cagers Defeat Idalou Five, 39-36

IDALOU, Jan. 25 (Special) — Roosevelt High school's varsity quint drubbed Idalou 39 to 36 in a 7-B conference game here tonight. Charles Dawson led Idalou with 18 points and Durham paced the winners with 14 tallies.

Roosevelt B boys swamped Idalou boys, 27 to 9 and Roosevelt girls defeated Idalou girls, 32 to 24 behind Bertha Jones' 17 points. Bonney Lawson was high scorer for Idalou, with nine baskets.

First Call For Tech Track Candidates Is Postponed

The first call for track candidates at Texas Tech has been postponed a week because of the sleet and cold weather, Coach Maxey McKnight announced yesterday.

McKnight said that the weather was much too bad to expect track men to report, even in the gym, and that another call will be issued later. He expected the first meeting of lettermen, squad members from 1948, sophomores and others, would be held next Monday.

Post Chalks Up 36-23 District 4-A Triumph Over Slaton Quint

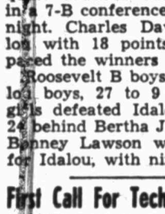

SLATON, Jan. 25 (Special)—Post's Antelopes chalked up a 36-23 south District 4-A triumph over the Slaton Tigers here tonight, as K. Kirkpatrick tallied eight points. Jerry Huckaby swished the net for seven points for Slaton.

The Post girls edged out the Slaton team, 25-20.

Rocky Graziano May Soon Resume Career

NEW YORK, Jan. 25 (INS)—From sources directly involved comes the word today that Rocky Graziano, Brooklyn's gift to national distemper, is soon to resume his remarkable career with the benediction of the NBA and the California commission.

In other words, this piebald character doubtless will be showing presently at the Oakland, Cal., auditorium, from which he became an overnight lamister some seven weeks ago. Practically on the eve, in fact of the Fred Apostoli bout.

The proposed "re-play" would be the ex-middleweight champion's first appearance—if ever—in a prize ring since that nightmarish occasion last summer when they toted Rocky out by the heels. But that's not the point.

Two days before the fight, they say Graziano was badly frightened by the prospect of finding himself once again under the scrutiny of the law—this time through no fault of his own.

It seemed the fighter had done nothing wrong; it was one of the tenants in a small apartment building he owned.

But the cops, who place no outstanding faith in coincidence, were naturally inquisitive at the time, which was an especially dubious one. On the head of everything else, any adverse publicity might have put the bowser on a $300,000 promotion.

Any further complications — even though unmerited — might have repercussions that would rule Graziano off the resin for life. At least, so the guy's connections were said to have figured it.

The result: Sleepless nights; sketchy, perfunctory meals — and a knockout by Zale.

DEMARET NOSED OUT BY NEIGHBOR

Beltin' Benny Hogan Captures Rich Long Beach Open Tourney

LONG BEACH, Cal., Jan. 25 (INS) — Beltin' Benny Hogan had to wait an extra day before claiming the championship of the $10,000 Long Beach Open Golf Tournament.

But when the little Texan's hand was raised in triumph at Lakewood country club today, it couldn't have been a sweeter victory.

He defeated his former Texas neighbor, Jimmy Demaret, of Ojai, Cal., 67-69, over the par 71 course and in doing so:

1. Won first place money of $2000, to $1400 for Demaret.
2. Jumped into the lead as 1949 top money winner.
3. Re-established himself as the nation's No. 1 golfer.

The 18-hole playoff round was a drama-packed climax to a brilliantly played tournament, and the crowd of 2500 fans who trudged the entire 18 holes cheered and groaned as their favorite either missed or made his all-important shots.

Match Was Tougher

The match was tougher than a railway commuter's schedule throughout the first 15 holes as first one golfer and then the other would slip into the lead. At no time through the first 13 holes was either ahead by more than a single stroke.

Demaret was first to forge into the lead when Bantam Ben went one over par on the second hole for his only bogey of the day.

But Hershey's pride and joy surged right back on No. 3 with a birdie, while Demaret maintained hi seven-par pace.

The colorful Jimmy had his first and Hogan his second under par hole on the first round when they both took birdies on the fifth.

Just when it appeared they would make the turn all even, Demaret missed a 2-footer on the 8th and went one down.

The score remained the same through the twelfth when Demaret gave his supporters a fleeting moment of joy by sinking a 10-footer for a birdie 2 and the match was tied again.

On the 13th, however, Hogan started to write the final chapter. He needed and sank a beautiful 20-foot putt for a 1-stroke edge which he never relinquished.

Hogan Didn't Crack

The Mighty Mite didn't stop there. He came right back to the next hole with another birdie and the handwriting was on the wall.

As if proving to the galleryites that he was unbeatable under any condition, Hogan pushed his drive on the short 17th hole into a deep trap, 30 feet from the pin.

A murmur went through the crowd: "Is Hogan cracking?"

The fiery little warrior answered emphatically as he blasted sand and the hope for a Demaret triumph by placing the pellet 6 inches from the cup. He calmly tapped it in.

Although he didn't win first place money, Demaret was richer by approximately $1000, his share of the day's gate receipts. The two golfers split 50-50 with the tournament sponsors on the day's final take.

Cage Tourney Slated At Anton

ANTON, Jan. 25 (Special)—A four-day basketball tournament for independent teams will open here tomorrow night under the sponsorship of the Anton American Legion.

The tournament, the third annual for the Legion, will attract 15 area teams to the hardwood in the Anton High school gym. And prize awards will be $75 for the first place team, $50 for second place and $25 for third place.

The tournament will be conducted under single elimination rules and the championship will be played Saturday night. A game for third place will precede the title contest.

Teams entered in the four-day meet include Anton Legion, Plains Gassers of Shallowater, Littlefield, Primm Drug of Brownfield, Spade, Blue Flame of Lubbock, Hoyt Furniture of Lubbock, Levelland Refiners, Furr Foods of Lubbock, Littrell's Service of Idalou, Thomas Tinkers, Crawford Electric, Texas Lumber Bin, Sanders Motor and Roughnecks, all of Lubbock.

Opening the tournament Wednesday night at 6 will be the Levelland Refiners vs Lumber Bin. Crawford will play the Roughnecks at 7 p. m. Littlerr's and Tinkers will meet at 8 p. m. and the final game of the night at 9 will be Sanders vs Furrs.

Dallas To Be Permanent Home Of Skeet Shooting In America

DALLAS, Jan. 25. (AP)—Dallas will become the permanent home of skeet shooting in America. The National Skeet Shooting Association, through its executive committee, has voted unanimously to move headquarters to this city.

The Dallas gun club will be the scene of the national tournament. The club will build 18 skeet fields in addition to the six it now has in use and also will deed 90 acres adjacent to the gun club to the national association.

Southern California's Calipatra county is situated 175 feet below sea level.

SPORTS FIGHT TOO—Grantland Rice, famous sports writer and author, is chairman of the sports committee that is working with the March of Dimes program to combat infantile paralysis. There is only one sports event in Lubbock that has offered to take part and tonight at Sled Allen's wrestling arena, sports fans have an opportunity to help lick infantile paralysis by enjoying a sporting event. Your attendance tonight will help the Exchange club's drive here.

Wrestle Royal Slated Tonight; Percentage To March Of Dimes

It won't matter whether Milt Olsen, Vic Weber or any of the other four wrestlers win the wrestle royal at Sled Allen's arena tonight, for the real winner will be the March of Dimes.

Allen, working in cooperation with the Exchange club, will turn over to the infantile paralysis fund 10 per cent of the gross, after state and federal taxes have been deducted. With a large crowd, the March of Dimes can be aided vastly.

In addition to helping a worthy cause, wrestling fans will see a fine show in the ring, with six grapplers and a referee starting off the night. The first two men eliminated meet outside to watch the rest of the proceedings, while the next two men return in the semi-final event. The finalists will be the headliners.

Olsen and Weber will be two of the principals in the ring, while the others will be Bill Parks, Monte LaDue, Karl Gray and George Bruckman of Washington, D. C. The first five men named are well known to Lubbock and South Plains fans, but Bruckman has been a stranger for many months.

Bruckman used to wrestle on this circuit, but had an opportunity to go elsewhere and has been wrestling on other circuits around the country. He also has been making a good showing and comes back with more finesse and polish than he had before.

Actually, Allen don't have to worry much about the success of this card. So long as he was able to secure Olsen and LaDue, he was certain of a successful ring show. These two have about as much love for each other as a pair of feuding rattlesnakes.

Olsen threw LaDue a couple of times soon after the Canadian made his appearance here, but the shoe has been on the other foot of late. To cap it all, LaDue snatched Olsen's twice-won Texas Junior Heavyweight wrestling crown away from him, leaving him as barren as a leafless tree in a storm.

Anything Can Happen

With these two battlers in the ring, anything can and will happen. They should make the wrestle royal a great show.

Parks, Weber and Gray all are on the clean side and will have their hands full remaining in the ring for a shot at the money. They are able grapplers, though, and will make it a good bout to open the night.

Tickets will be on sale from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. at Wylie's Drug store and also can be obtained at the arena. The royal is slated to start at 8 p. m.

Tech And H-SU Fish To Meet

Ducats Available For Double Bill

When the Red Raider basketball team of Texas Tech plays Hardin-Simmons in a Border Conference game here Friday night, it also will bring together freshman teams for the benefit of townspeople attending the doubleheader.

Coach Polk Robison said yesterday that the freshmen would open the court program at 6:30 p.m. and the varsity game, one of the crucial ones in the Border loop race, will start at 8:15 p.m., a little later than usual.

Tickets will be available to the public for this game, with at least 150 on sale at $1 each. Tech officially will be in recess between semesters at the time.

Tech Has Fine Quint

The Raider freshman quintet is being called one of the finest in Tech history, with several outstanding high school players in tow. The original squad of over 100 candidates for the squad has been pared down to a group of 15 and they are considered excellent replacements on next year's varsity.

Leading the group is Jack Alderson of Lubbock, former Westerner football, basketball and baseball star. Alderson didn't go out for football last fall, but could not resist the call of the court. He is a sure ball handler, a good shot and maneuvers well on the floor.

Another kingpin in the Fish attack is Irv Brown of Katonah, N. Y. The gangling freshman plays center and has shown great promise already. The Raider Fish attack is centered on his pivot work and he has been turning in a good job.

The Raider-Cowboy game is seen as a good duel between two of the better teams in the Border Conference. The Cowboys currently enjoy the high altitude of third place on four triumphs and two defeats. One of their losses came at the hands of Arizona in Tucson, but not before the Wildcats were given a stiff battle.

Martin Sparks Cowboys

Jack Martin, coach this year after completing his under-graduate work at H-SU, has put new life into the Cowboys. And Slats Stagner of Tyler has been the leading force. He is the top Cowboy scorer and has been setting a fast pace.

Assisting Stagner and always threats are such lettermen as Bill Braselton, Glen Burroughs, Pete Golson, Harry Low, Norman Pinson, Larry Wartes and Wayne Preston. New candidates this year are Mort Edelstein, John and Lou Burlo, Clifton Gardner, Jay Cox, Rives Smith and Sim Qualls.

George McAfee Joins Wake Forest's Staff

WAKE FOREST, N. C., Jan. 25 (INS) — George McAfee, Chicago Bear football great, today joined the coaching staff at Wake Forest.

Officials of the Baptist school in announcing the signing of the hard-charging halfback, said it was not yet definite what McAfee's exact coaching duties would be.

The former Blue Devil star will join the Wake Forest staff in time for spring practice which starts Feb. 7.

McAfee was a member of the great 1938 Duke university team which went to the Rose Bowl and of the 1939 squad which lost only one game.

He was signed by the Bears, then at the height of their national league power, and played with them in 1940 and 1941 before entering the navy.

He returned to pro ranks in 1945.

Tribe Manager May Get $75,000

Boudreau Expected To Draw Top Salary

CLEVELAND, Jan. 25. (AP) — The Cleveland Indians gave manager Lou Boudreau a huge salary boost today which will make him one of the year's top money men in baseball.

Just what the 21-year-old shortstop will receive under the two-year contract was speculative, however. Tribe president Bill Veeck said he would be "One of the highest paid players in baseball history" and declined to discuss it further.

Estimates from observers ranged from $65,000 to $75,000 a year. Previously, it had been reported he would get about $80,000 and make even more this year than the Indian fireballer, Bob Feller.

Feller received approximately $82,000 last year for an all-time high in baseball, but is expected to take a cut of some $10,000 this season. He will confer with Veeck tomorrow.

Boudreau's agreement is a straight salary contract with no attendance bonuses attached. Veeck said it gave him a "Very considerable increase" over his estimated earnings of $52,000 last year and was "By far the largest straight salary ever offered by the club."

Boudreau was voted the most valuable player in the American league last season by the nation's baseball writers. He hit .355, finishing second to Boston's Ted Williams in the league batting race.

Fighter Uses Ring Tactics On Spouse, Result--Divorce

HOUSTON, Jan. 25. (U.P.)—Chief Gordon House, 23-year-old welterweight boxer, didn't confine his tactics completely to the ring, his wife claimed today as she asked a divorce.

Ermalyne House thus added to the troubles of her fiery little husband, who at present is in the Harris County jail on a statutory charge.

She asked custody of their three-months-old son, Gordon, jr.

Sports Study

By Earl Scudday

The recent development in Texas schoolboy football, with Interscholastic league Director Rodney Kidd predicting a new "Triple A" league for "super high schools" within a couple or three years, is resulting in plenty of torrid discussions over the state. The attitude of most of the fans, coaches and sports writers is that the move, if carried out, would be another of the league's steps to de-emphasize football in the state. After all, as the experts point out, what great honor would there be in winning the championship of all Texas high schools with an enrollment of 500 to 750, for instance? With a new AAA division, there would be four "state champions." The next logical step would be to halt the playoffs at the bi-district stage and declare the teams the "champions of Northwest Texas," or "champion of Southwest Texas."

The general attitude of coaches, many school officials and most of the fans seems to be well-established. They think a "Triple A" league would be a good thing IF the City conference is abolished and the larger high schools in Fort Worth, Dallas, Houston and San Antonio are placed in the new AAA circuit. That would put the largest schools in the state, including those schools which have dominated district races for so many years, in a single, top-bracket league. That would leave the "middle sized" schools in Class AA and the smaller schools in A and B. But, since the AAA division would include the schools with the largest enrollments and the top athletic records, there would be enough prestige to satisfy any school in the Triple A.

As an example, such a "Triple A" league would include Amarillo, Pampa, Lubbock, Odessa and all the other schools with large enrollments—Waco, Highland Park, Port Arthur, Baytown, Austin, Thomas Jefferson of San Antonio and on down the line. Any winner of such a circuit would be able to claim the title of "state champion." But a Triple A loop as advocated by Kidd, with the City conference being retained, would leave both divisions without a real goal. As many fans remarked last fall after Arlington Heights of Fort Worth won the City championship. "Champions of what?", they scoffed.

We might also remark that we heartily agree with sports writer Harold V. Ratliff, who recently said the Interscholastic league is "about to kill the goose that lays the golden eggs," or words to that effect. The Interscholastic league officials, in an effort to keep their tight control of schoolboy athletics, are causing many fans, students and the public at large to wonder if such league supervision is really needed. There have already been rumblings of revolt sounded in various parts of the state, and we predict that when, at any date in the future, the general public realizes that the Interscholastic league has destroyed the system and organization that gave Texas the best high school football in the nation, there is going to be a lot of action—and quick.

We think that league supervision is necessary in some matters. There must be some group to see that eligibility requirements are followed and, of course, professionalism must be avoided. But when certain officials try to turn schoolboy football in the direction of the intra-mural stage—and that threat has even been heard—then the matter becomes a question for the public to decide.

Gloves Meet May Run Four Nights

It begins to look more and more as though the regional Golden Gloves tournament in Lubbock would have to run four days instead of just Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

Four novice entries and six open division entries were received yesterday to send the total number of fighters entered zooming past the 125 mark. And not all the fighters planning to enter have sent in entry blanks yet. Proof of that is the fact that defending heavyweight champion Gene James has not been heard from.

Olton Boys To Fight

Three of the novice division entries yesterday came from Olton, where Coach Melvin Simmons said that he had three light fighters who wanted to mix it up, so entered the names of Joe Hall, a 106-pounder, and Max LaDuke and Bob McClure, a pair of 118-pounders.

Those three boys are part of a group working out twice daily under Coach Simmons in the Olton High school gym. The other boys, who were entered last week by Coach Simmons, are James Adair, 117 pounds; Jack Lee, 127 pounds; Bob Gullett, 128 pounds; Billy Mayfield, 130 pounds; Hook Nichols, 143 pounds; Jim Lee, brother of Jack, 143 pounds; and Alton Cannon, 155 pounds.

Yesterday a brace of Lamesa fighters in the light heavyweight division entered the regional tourney. And strangely enough, they are brothers, one going into the open division and the other going into the novice. Aarod D. Beck is a 24-year old puncher with five years of fighting. During that time he fought 28 bouts and has appeared on the Big Spring Golden Gloves card.

His brother, Gene Beck, is an 18-year old fighter with no previous experience, but the 170-pounder has been working with his brother and believes he is ready.

Fighters Are Experienced

O. C. Foster of Foster's Gym, 2417 Main street, where all prospective Golden Gloves may workout without charge from 6:30 until 9 p. m. each night, called in the names of five boys who are entering. Entry slips have not yet been received yet, but Foster said that all of the fighters were experienced.

Reserved seat tickets, of course, have been sold out for a week, but plenty of general admission stubs remain available. They are on sale at the Tech gym and may be obtained during the hours of 9 a. m. and 4 p. m.

Doors probably will be opened an hour before the fights for general admission ticket holders, with seats going on a first come first served basis.

And boys wishing to enter the Golden Gloves here still have until 5 p. m. Monday to submit entry blanks.

O'Donnell Eagles Roll Up Easy 45-30 Triumph Over Tahoka Five

TAHOKA, Jan. 25 (Special)—O'Donnell's Eagles, paced by Buddy Brock's 18 points, rolled to an easy 45-30 south District 4-A conference cage triumph over the Tahoka quint here tonight. Duane Carter topped Tahoka with 16 points.

Tahoka "B" nosed out the O'Donnell reserves, 20-18 as Lynn Halimacek notched nine points.

Baylor To Have Split Practice

DALLAS, Jan. 25 (AP)—Baylor university is going to have a split shift in its spring football practice.

Because Baylor operates under the term instead of the semester program its mid-term examinations are not until the latter part of Feb. and the first of March. Thus Coach Bob Woodruff asked for a split session so there would be no interference with spring sports like track and baseball. The Southwest Conference rule calls for 30 consecutive days.

James H. Stewart, executive secretary of the Southwest Conference, polled the Conference and got permission for Woodruff to hold spring training like this:

Feb. 9 to Feb. 27 (19 days); Feb. 28 to March 8 for examinations and registration; resume March 9 and continue through March 19 (11 days).

Texas Declared To Be World's Golf Capital

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

DALLAS, Jan. 25. — Texans won the first four places in the Long Beach, Calif., Open Golf Tournament yesterday and today and a chubby little man from Boston nodded knowingly.

"Texas is the golf capitol of the world," Fred Corcoran, who built the game into big business, said today as he waited for a train that would take him to Florida. "You can take the Texas big four—Ben Hogan, Byron Nelson, Lloyd Mangrum and Jimmie Demaret—and they would beat any other four players in the world."

And, he said thoughtfully, if some woman golfer wanted to get into the action, you could just take Babe Didrikson Zaharias and take care of any feminine challenge, too.

Corcoran, now editor of the Official Golf Guide and manager of Mrs. Zaharias and Ted Williams, the baseball star, stopped overnight in Dallas when his plane bound for Miami was grounded because of the weather. In 1936 Corcoran became the tournament manager of the Professional Golfers Association and proceeded to build golf into the nation-wide tour it now knows. When he quit the total in purses was more than $500,000 and tournaments numbered more than 40 per year.

"You always can tell a Texan by the way he hits a golf ball," Said Corcoran. "Down here the courses are on level land, the ground is dry and hard and there is lots of wind. Texans learn early how to play under these conditions. They always drive the ball low and it carries far.

Long Island To Play Out West

NEW YORK, Jan. 25. (INS) — Athletic director Clair Bee today anounced a last-minute change in the coast to coast seven-game road junket of Long Island university's basketball team, starting at Eugene, Ore., Jan. 28.

The alteration affected only the final game of the trip, against Xavier at Cincinnati.

Originally scheduled for Feb. 8 at the new Civic auditorium, the contest will be held the previous night at Xavier's gymnasium because final construction work on the city's arena cannot be completed by that time.

The cross-country jaunt—marking the first appearance of a New York college team on the west coast—will include games with Santa Clara at San Francisco; Utah at Salt Lake City; the Oklahoma Aggies at Stillwater, Okla., and St. Louis university at St. Louis.

Cold Wave Holds Grip On Area; Rest Of State Also Hard Hit

derway in the section which suffered severe damage in the last ice storm.

Farmers and ranchers reaped new benefits from the sleet and snow. The storm had left precipitation totaling .54 inch up to midnight last night, bringing the total for January to 3.94. All of the moisture came either from slow, drizzly rains, sleet or snow and none was washed away through runoff or rapid evaporation. While livestock suffered to some extent from the snow, sleet and low temperatures, the absence of high north winds prevented other than minor losses.

Most Schools Open

Some schools in the area dismissed because of driving dangers, but most continued operation after curtailing some bus schedules, or at least limiting runs to the better highways.

The Weather bureau said a minimum of 16 degrees, only two degrees above yesterday's low, is predicted for this morning. A 30 degree reading is forecast this afternoon, five degrees above Tuesday's high.

Thursday probably will be several degrees warmer. Mercury readings probably will range from 20 degrees to 35 degrees, the weather station said.

Some Cattle Suffering

The effects of the cold wave over the South Plains were much the same everywhere, a survey by The Morning Avalanche showed.

Plainview last night reported intermittent sleet with two and one-half inches on the ground. Motor sources said that snow turned to sleet Tuesday to bring the total to 2.31 inches there during January. About one-half inch of snow was on the ground at Lamesa after intermittent flurries Tuesday night.

BUS SCHEDULES AFFECTED

Buses in the Lubbock Independent School district will run on the pavement only today, according to an announcement Tuesday night by A. C. Jackson, business manager. Mr. Jackson said that road conditions would not permit risking the buses off the pavement until conditions improved. The buses operated on the pavement only on Tuesday and prospects are that, unless the weather takes a sudden turn for the better, normal schedules will not be resumed until the latter part of the week or Monday.

Doug Meador, editor of The Matador Tribune, reported about one and one-half inches of snow and sleet on the ground there Tuesday night, contributing about one-third to one-half inch of moisture to that vicinity's total for the month. The fall was intermittent during the day. Schools were closed at Matador Tuesday and probably will remain closed today. Some cattle were reported suffering in the Matador area, especially on large ranches.

Littlefield reported about one and one-half inches of snow and sleet with the fall halting early in the night.

Most of State Hit

The Tuesday weather picture over most of Texas was dreary: Snow and sleet over West Texas as temperatures dropped as low as five degrees above zero in the Panhandle.

North Texas sheathed in ice as freezing drizzles and sleet continued over a wide area.

Flood warnings issued for parts of East Texas as the Red, Sulphur and Sabine rivers went on rises from Monday's heavy rains.

And, depending on how badly the section was hit: Slick highways, crawling traffic, disrupted plane flights, broken telephone circuits.

No Quick Relief Seen

The U. S. Weather bureau forecast called for a continuation of freezing rain in the northwest and extreme north and west central parts of Texas, and colder in the southeast and extreme south portions.

Occasional snow or freezing rain was in store for West Texas.

Temperatures over much of the state were expected to continue to range far below freezing, with the extreme southern part escaping a hard freeze.

Hardest hit in the state by winter's latest onslaught was North Texas, where an ice belt extended from the Wichita Falls-Gainesville area to south of Fort Worth and Dallas. The weatherman said the cold spell probably would hold its grip at least through Thursday.

From Austin the State highway patrol reported: Hazardous driving on all highways north of Austin. Conditions to the south of Austin good, except some bridges and underpasses might ice over Tuesday night.

Communications Disrupted

Numerous highway accidents were reported in Texas. Schools in a number of West and North Texas communities were closed Tuesday because of hazardous conditions.

New circuit trouble plauged the Southwestern Bell Telephone company in Texas. It reported 400 circuits out—160 to 170 of them circuits on which repair had not been completed from an earlier ice storm.

A freezing drizzle fell through Tuesday in the Fort Worth area. Highways and streets were covered with ice. There were hundreds of minor accidents. Six hundred telephones were out of order. City transportation service was moving, as were trains and bus schedules. Airlines were behind schedule.

Conditions were similar in Dallas, where some 260 telephones were out of order. The Trinity river, which went on a rise from Monday's downpour, reached a stage of 31 feet and was expected to start falling without doing any great damage.

The Lone Star Gas company curtailed its supply to industrial users in Dallas, Fort Worth, and Waco.

Gainesville, on the other hand, had more than two inches of ice and sleet. Broken tree limbs dangled over streets and shrubs were bent double. Schools there were closed. Muenster, 11 miles from Gainesville, was without electric and telephone services for a while.

At Wichita Falls, heavy sleet fell during the afternoon. Buses were moving but not on schedule. No livestock loss was anticipated.

Hailstones the size of marbles hit El Paso Tuesday night, giving the city a comlpete cycle of weather since Jan. 16 when a big snow fell. The snow was followed by warm, sunshiny weather, then heavy fog, then clear and warm, then by hail and rain Tuesday night.

U. S. Highway 62 from El Paso to Carlsbad had icy stretches in mountain areas. U. S. 80 from Van Horn to Pecos was iced over. U S. 90 in the Marfa, Alpine, Sanderson area, also was icy.

The State highway department said in Austin that dangerous traveling reports had been received from Uvalde, Lubbock, Big Spring, Plainview, Sweetwater, Amarillo (snow but roads open to emergency travel), Temple, Arlington, Tyler, Fredericksburg, San Angelo, and Pecos. It said the roads around El Paso were open, and that Laredo had reported highways were good into Mexico.

About half an inch of snow was on the ground at Amarillo. About 50 per cent of the telephone circuits in that area went out because of the ice. A few cattle losses were reported around Claude. Schools in Amarillo and a number of other Panhandle communities were closed.

Abilene, looking for freezing drizzles and snow, reported heavy sleet had highways icy, but, as in the Lubbock area they were still passable. Busses were two to three hours late. Bus drivers reported that Ranger had an unusually big snow and the snow was continuing. Airlines were not stopping at Abilene.

China Peace Terms

for the trial of "war criminals." And Li is on their list to be tried.

It was hoped that the Communists would spare Nanking from bombardment. Powerful Red forces were moving almost unopposed to the Yangtze.

Pukow Nearly Deserted

Latest reports said the Reds already had seized Kuachou, on the north bank opposite Chekiang, 40 miles east of Nankin,. From there they can harass shipping with artillery or small arms fire.

Pukow, across the Yangtze from Nanking, was all but deserted of government defenders. An estimated 150,000 Red troops were moving on that railway city.

With the main force only a few miles away, Red vanguards were expected to enter Pukow almost at any moment. Then Nanking will be within easy artillery range.

Peace Delegate Rejected

The Red radio, as heard in Nanking, said the Communists were willing to talk peace at a conference in Peiping as soon as "the city is completely liberated."

(Associated Press correspondent Spencer Moosa said in a dispatch from Peiping that the "new order"—meaning the Communists—still was operating in the background "but this lessens none of its strength.")

The Communists scratched from the Nationalist list of five peace delegates the name of Peng Chao-Hsien, minister of interior. They said Peng is a member of the extreme right wing of the Kuomintang (Chiang Kai-Shek's party).

List Incomplete

The Red broadcast emphasized that its "war criminal" list still is incomplete. Then it declared any negotiations must be based on Communist leader Mao Tze-Tung's eight-point program.

The first point on Mao's list is the trial of all "war criminals." Among these are President Chiang Kai-Shek, who has retired to his ancestral home of Fengwha leaving Vice President Li in charge.

Other points call for uprooting of the new constitution and the Kuomintang government, confiscation of "bureaucratic" capital and the cancellation of treaties with the U. S. and other western powers.

Meanwhile, the foreign office sent official notices to the various embassies saying the government was moving south.

Canton Likely Site

It gave no destination or timetable, but one official source said the movement would be completed about the middle of February. Canton, where many officials already are operating, was the likely site.

The notice was regarded as a new effort to persuade the diplomatic corps to follow the government. The embassies made no motions to move south when they were told Jan. 19 that a number of ministries were leaving Nanking.

Whether they would move now was a matter up to their governments. Many of them believe they should stay here to meet whatever regime arises. They also complain of lack of accommodations in Canton.

Lawyers For Red Party Chiefs Plan New Blows At Jury System

NEW YORK, Jan. 25 (INS)—Defense attorneys in the conspiracy trial of 11 top ranking Communist party officials obtained 75 more subpoenaes today to renew their attack on the New York jury system when the trial is resumed tomorrow.

The subpoenaes, bringing the total obtained thus far to 125, are to be served on prospective jurors and "possibly" on the 12 federal judges of New York's southern district.

First witness tomorrow will be Donald S. Ashbrook, president of the Decorative Fabrics company of Rhode Island, and a resident of New York City.

Officers Investigate Burglary And Holdup

Burglary of the office of Principal Floyd Honey at Senior High school was being investigated Tuesday by police, along with further investigation of a holdup and thefts and recoveries of stolen cars.

Patrolmen George Hall and Pete Hubbard of the police said two doors were pried open to Honey's office. "Looks like one solid lick knocked off the knob of the safe."

Police sought to determine identity of two men who allegedly held up Charles S. Fitch of 1406 Sixth of $285 about 1:30 a. m. Tuesday at Eighth and Ave M.

Fitch, a member of the sports staff of Avalanche-Journal publications, said two men in a 1948 light green Chevrolet car turned the corner of the intersection and stopped. One of the men, describing as approximately 5 feet 9 inches tall, weighing about 160 pounds, having dark complexion, and wearing a blue-striped suit, a dark hat and ox-blood shoes, placed a small caliber automatic pistol to his side and forced him to place his hands behind his head and submit to search.

Charlie Yates, Slaton constable, informed Lubbock officials that a 1941 Chevrolet business coupe, bearing Texas license AP 5604 and owned by C. M. Day of 1825 Ave. F in Lubbock, had been stolen in Slaton.

A 1946 two-tone green Pontiac stolen Monday night from S. S. McMillan of 1308 Twentieth, was marked recovered by police Tuesday.

pass and to secure an estimate of probable building costs of the structure, both to be submitted to the school board for consideration.

Superintendent of Schools R. W. Matthews, present at the meeting, said that enrollment of Hunt school had been dropping off at the rate of about 50 students per year, and that the present school enrollment there from the immediate neighborhood was approximately 325 students. Others are carried in by bus.

Abandonment of the school would be dependent upon securing sufficient school facilities elsewhere to care for the students involved, the school board indicated. Tentative estimates indicate that more high school units will be needed sometime within the next six or eight years, it was said.

Contracts Renewed

Before Mayor Rodgers left the meeting, his attention was called by Clyde Tatum, president of the board, to the need for a traffic light at Twenty-sixth and Jefferson near Roscoe Wilson school. The mayor promised that the matter would be called to the attention of the City commission, and reiterated the desire of the commission to co-operate with the school board in any way possible.

A short executive session of the board was held immediately after the regular meeting, in which the contracts of Superintendent Matthews and A. C. Jackson, school business manager for the past 24 years, were extended.

Matthews' contract was extended three years beyond July 1, when his present contract expires. Ishmael Hill, present director of elementary education, was named as assistant superintendent of schools.

Jackson, who asked that the board extend his contract for only one year, was granted his request. He told the board that he had served for the past 24 years "without any outside business interests," and that he believed "the best interests of the school district and of myself" do not warrant more than a quarter of a century in the same position.

The additional year beyond the expiration of his present contract on July 1, 1949, would, he said, give him an opportunity "to investigate the possibilities for other employment."

Routine business handled during the regular meeting included the approval of the superintendent's statistical report for the fourth month of school, approval of the monthly report of expenditures, and approval of the architect's preliminary plans for the proposed East Broadway school and Cottage school additions.

Summer school tuition fees were set and approved as follows: Grades 1 through 6, $10 per thirty-day term; grades 7 and 8, $9 for one course and $18 for two or more courses; and grades 9 through 12, $12 per one-half unit of credit.

Dr. J. G. Morris was named to act as school physician from February through the end of the school term.

The board approved the retirement of Miss Beulah Starnes, and accepted the resignations of Mrs. Olive Huff Deavours of Guadalupe school, R. Lloyd Neelley of P. F. Brown school, and Mrs. Marjorie M. Brashear, school nurse.

Leaves of absence were approved for Mrs. D. M. Hopper of Sanders school for educational purposes, and for Mrs. J. Neuel Bryan of J. T. Hutchinson school at her doctor's recommendation.

The following appointments were approved: Walter F. Latta, P. F. Brown school; Mrs. Carrie Reid, Guadalupe school; E. E. Hancock, science teacher at J. T. Hutchinson school; Roy H. Hendrix, social science teacher at J. T. Hutchinson school; Mrs. Johanna W. Jones, Cottage school; and Mrs. Eliza J. Dodson, Dunbar school.

In addition to Superintendent Matthews, Jackson, and Tatum, the following board members were present at the meeting: Glenn Woody, G. C. Dowell, W. H. Evans, M. M. Ewing, C. H. Hamilton and E. J. Parsons.

Hundreds Flee Midwest Floods power plant out of service.

Mayor Frank Talley reported that about 15 Mt. Carmel families were moved into garages and other buildings for temporary shelter.

Many of the 1,000 Illinois flood refugees moved into box cars.

Besides inundating hundreds of acres of land the floods swirled over highways and made many of them impassable.

While the midwest wrestled with floods and ice a cold wave that plunged temperatures to as low as 30 degrees below zero held a firm grip on northern Rocky Mountain states, and North Dakota.

Light to moderate rains were forecast for tomorrow in the flood belt and a freezing drizzle in the northwestern and northern sections. General rains and warmer weather were predicted for Thursday.

Weather officials said Wednesday's rain was not expected to add materially to the flood crests on the White and Wabash rivers.

However, Don M. Corbett, district engineer for the U. S. geological survey, declared:

"If we get another two to three inches of rain here in the next 48 hours we're in for a repetition of the 1937 flood along the lower White and Wabash rivers."

The Weather bureau added that conditions were "ripe" for more precipitation.

German Reds Meet

Union never will agree to such an ambition."

Friedrich Ebert, mayor of the handpicked Communist "rump government" in Berlin, and other speakers pledged a redoubled fight for what they termed a "unified, socialist Germany."

Much of today's session was given over to flag-waving and reported important behind-the-scenes discussions on what concrete steps will be taken to weld eastern Germany into the Soviet orbit.

German Reds Visit Moscow

Western observers are certain that appropriate measures already have been drafted for new Communist moves which may be revealed shortly.

They believe discussion on methods of carrying them out is the reason for several unexplained postponements of the rally. Urgent trips of German Communist leaders to Moscow preceded the rally. These and other developments have led to reports there may be a purge of some German Communists considered too nationalistic.

Leading guest Communists from Bulgaria, Poland, Czechoslovakia, France, Britain and Austria were reported at the opening meeting.

Western newsmen were barred from the meeting but the speeches were carried over loudspeakers in the heart of the Soviet sector.

Steel Shortage Predicted

Sawyer conceded that the voluntary system is "not the complete solution to our stabilization problems." But he added that it "has been successful thus far in overcoming many of the problems."

At the same time he predicted a shortage this year of 7,000,000 tons of finished steel products.

The voluntary agreements extension plan was given a priority rating by both the Senate and House Banking committees, with export and rent controls ranking next.

Following today's appearance before the Senate group Secretary Sawyer was scheduled to carry the administration case to the other side of the Capitol Thursday.

Chairman Spence (D-Ky) of the House Banking committee said his group will consider the steel question then and will open hearings Monday on export controls, with the rent law extension bill scheduled for later next week.

Stock Rescue Pushed

Arizona and new snow swept into southern California and Nevada. At Flagstaff, Ariz., the snowfall this month had totaled 100.4 inches. Since Sunday morning, 39.1 inches has fallen and 67 inches remains on the ground.

Snow fell in Texas, but elsewhere in the gulf states temperatures were above normal. Slightly above normal readings also prevailed along the south Atlantic seaboard north to Washington. The weather was about normal north of Washington.

The U. S. Air Force continued its "haylift" operations in the snow-covered Nevada livestock ranges, hauling in feed in their big "flying boxcars." Most of the hay was landed at the Ely airport and trucked to ranches. However, the flyers also "bombed" cattle on ranges inaccessible by truck.

In similar "precision bombing" Monday, the airmen dropped fodder directly on three ranches to feed 10,000 sheep. The feed is being brought to Ely from Fallon, 210 miles to the west.

In Nearby Utah, a similar haylift was operated by two C-47 transports of the Utah National Guard. Hay and cottonseed oil concentrate were being dropped directly to the starving livestock.

Ranchhands, aided by deputy sheriffs, pushed through deep drifts in an effort to reach thousands of snowbound cattle on ranges of southeastern California and southwest Nevada. Their operations were hampered by new snows.

Two more inches of snow fell at Las Vegas, Nev., which advertises as a "fun in the sun" winter resort. A total of 15 inches has fallen there this month.

Snow blanketed the Mojave desert, where temperatures of 120 degrees are not uncommon in the hot months. North of San Bernardino, Cal., eight inches clogged Cajon pass. Traffic on U. S. Highway 66 was blocked for hours while snowplows cut through drifts.

Ida Lupino Is Signed For New Film After Gene Tierney Rejects 'Starring' Role

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
INS Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 25.—While Gene Tierney was busy in New York turning down "Everybody Does It," 20th Century-Fox up and signed Ida Lupino to a two picture deal, giving Ida a movie originally intended for Gene.

That movie, "Methinks The Lady," based on Guy Endore's book, was bought with Miss Tierney in mind. It starts in March with Otto Preminger as the director and Richard Widmark as Ida's co-star. Ida and Widmark were so good in "Roadhouse" and brought the dollars into the box office, it will be interesting to see them together again.

I would have bet my last Kopek when Gene was put into "Everybody Does It" with Linda Darnell, she would back out. Most of her refusals in the past have been pictures in which the glamorous Linda was also scheduled to appear.

Clift Is Watched

Who gets Montgomery Clift? It has been widely rumored that he had agreed to play in "Sunset Strip" for Charles Brackett and Billy Wilder. True, he has an oral commitment with Paramount for one picture, but I doubt if this is it.

I believe he will sign with 20th Century-Fox to co-star with Gregory Peck in "The Virgin Bar," which Elia Kaza will direct.

Greg, by the way, if he goes to Rome at all for "Quo Vadis," will wait until after Greta has her baby in June.

Margaret Gets Dog

An unscheduled performance at the Washington inauguration was given by Xavier Cugat who took a Chihuahua to Margaret Truman as a gift from the Latin-American nations. The little dog had a big red ribbon and a card around his neck which read: "My full name is Independence, Mo., but since I am so tiny, just call me Mo."

When Cugie approached the presidential box to make the presentation, the whole secret service descended upon him and said it was impossible to give Miss Truman the dog during the ceremony—which was understandable. So, Cugie and the pup spent the rest of the day posing for photographers.

Employment In Area Declines

as seeking employment now.

In January, 1948, only 988 persons were shown to be seeking employment.

O'Connell explains, however that a large portion of the current figure of 1,840 is due to a 30-day carryover from December, result of a policy change. On a strictly comparative basis, the figure might be closer to 1,300.

"Our information, and information from the state office," O'Connell explains, "shows no cause for alarm. It's strictly a seasonal, temporary situation."

But those workers who are employed by the hour and haven't worked for three weeks apparently are seeking work actively, and feeling the effects of prolonged unemployment.

Job Hunters Increase

Private employers report an increasing number of job seekers—many of them less particular than in the not-so-dim past.

Mrs. Nancy Green, assistant to Ben Mansker, City-Council Welfare agency executive secretary, painted a dreary picture.

"We've declared a state of emergency. At a meeting of welfare agencies we assured the mayor there is no overlapping of our services.

"Our load has become tremendous and we are asking for volunteer workers to help the City-County Welfare association to make home visits.

"Food is principally what we need because common laborers haven't worked in three weeks. We've seen as many as we could, and welfare workers are getting emergency calls at home.

"Monday," Mrs. Green said, "we received 30 applications for aid. In some months we don't receive 30 a month."

Meeting Is Held

A group of welfare workers met Tuesday to discuss the situation. Present were Mrs. Green, Mansker, Father John Moore of St. Joseph's Catholic church, Mrs. Tom Cannon, First Methodist church visiting nurse; Leo Healer, supervisor of the state welfare department here; Capt. W. G. Gregory of the Salvation Army, Dr. L. B. Woods, city health officer, Mrs. J. H. Stiles of the Red Cross, Mrs. Mary Frances Holly, Red Cross case worker, and Mayor W. H. Rodgers.

They agreed the welfare agencies currently are heavily overloaded.

O'Connell probably summed up the current situation most neatly when he said:

"We don't have a serious, permanent unemployment crisis here. But we're not bragging.

"Transients come here from as far away as Ohio and California and say they have heard Lubbock is booming and they want work.

"This naturally brings additional competition for the local persons who are looking for jobs. But there has been no indication of a letdown in employment."

O'Connell's office handles a nine-county area, comprised of Cochran, Hockley, Lubbock, Crosby, Dickens, King, Stonewall, Kent and Garza cunties.

The monthly applications for employment during 1948 ran like this:

January	998
February	1,117
March	908
April	1,084
May	1,105
June	1,071
July	868
August	741
September	564
October	587
November	659
December	1,198

The total for January, 1949, including the December carry-over: 1,840.

A break-down of that 1,840 unemployment figure is interesting By classifications, the total includes: Professional, 27; clerical, 196; service personnel, 423, farm laborers, 247; skilled laborers, 180; semi-skilled laborers, 312; unskilled laborers, 455.

Weather Slows Placements

The weather may also be blamed for the fact that placements by the Texas Employment commission have failed to follow the rising trend of unemployment in this area. The table below shows a comparison of actual job placements by the Lubbock office.

Month	1947 Placements	1948 Placements
January	566	867
February	606	436
March	451	640
April	533	666
May	575	718
June	619	814
July	696	650
August	679	908
September	645	910
October	480	897
November	721	808
December	502	748

In January, the current month, only 456 placements have been made although five-sixths of month has passed.

Office Visits Climb

Visits to the office have shown a remarkable increase. O'Connell explains that the figures below do not indicate a given number of individuals, since each individual is counted as a "visitor" each time he returns to the office to seek work or aid.

Months of 1948	No. of Visits
January	4,507
February	5,519
March	5,907
April	5,656
May	5,943
June	5,301
July	2,930
August	2,454
September	3,714
October	3,600
November	5,647
December	5,361

Here again, in the current month, the increase is startling. Visits to date total 6,948. At best, this indicates an unusual number of unemployed persons.

SPEEDUP IS ORDERED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25. (AP) — The government has ordered a speedup in its $3,700,000,000 program of stockpiling war materials—with the result that some civilian products may be scarcer, the munitions board disclosed today. Just what civilian goods will be affected by the stepped up tempo of the layaway plan could not be learned, but an official doubted that it would be felt "too badly" by the nation's housewives.

Gibraltar may reduce the number of its taxis, now totaling 91.

Texas Legislature

state department of education; by Senator James E. Taylor of Kerens.

2. Provide a "minimum foundation program" of education for every child in Texas, set up a formula for computing its cost, and determining how much money each local district would put up through application of an economic index; by Senator Ottis Lock of Lufkin.

3. Provide the machinery for operation of the foundation school fund, by Senator A. M. Aikin, jr., of Paris.

In his second emergency message of the session, Jester put the "urgent" tag on six prison bills already introduced, and on three more yet to be offered.

Prison Measures Urged

He asked the Legislature for rush action on measures providing $4,196,075 for new cell blocks and other equipment for the "dilapidated" physical plant; $530,000 for current needs; law changes to permit the system to make a profit on sale of farm produce and goods; laws to modernize handling of inmates.

Both the House and Senate adjourned until tomorrow after brief sessions.

The House sidestepped immediate action on a plan to give members in effect a $10 pay raise by a boost in expense allowances. The resolution was referred to committee.

Speed Indicated

Also introduced in the Senate were bills which would:

Make sale of sleeping pills and like medicines illegal except upon a doctor's prescription; by Howard Carney of Atlanta.

Regulate the practice of naturopathy by establishment of a board empowered to examine and license those who would practice this healing art; by Senator Charles R. Jones of Bonham.

Add two members to the board of public accountancy and extend to 1952 the time allowance for registration of World War II veterans as certified public accountants; by Senator Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo.

The administration strategy in pushing the Gilmer Aikin proposals apparently was to ram them through the Senate as fast as possible. Toughest opposition was expected in the House. The bills were referred to committee immediately.

Chief opposition to the proposals thus far introduced has come over reorganization of central control of the school system. The state school superintendent is now elected, and the board of educations is appointed by the governor. They have often been in conflict.

There has also been opposition to the "economic index" idea of distributing the costs of education as between the state and local districts.

Some idea of the mammoth job faced by the Legislature on the Gilmer-Aikin education bills and the scope of the proposed reorganization may he had from these figures:

The Lock bill is 26 mimeographed legal-size pages long. It has 11 separate articles and fourteen sections, broken down further into dozens of subdivisions with scores of definitions and detailed financial formulas. The Taylor bill is 14 mimeographed pages long, with eight separate articles and scores of sections or subsections.

AMENDMENT REJECTED

BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 25. (INS) — Idaho became the first state in the union today to reject a constitutional amendment which would limit the president to two terms in office. The state senate rejected the amendment today on a straight party line vote, 24 to 20, after only an hour of speech-making.

Taft Hits HST's Housing Program

NEW YORK, Jan. 25 (AP) — Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said tonight the free enterprise system has failed to solve the problem of providing low-rent homes for the lowest income groups.

Until construction costs are cut, he said, the only solution is for the federal and local governments to replace slum dwellings with public housing.

Taft outlined his views in a speech prepared for delivery to the Mortgage Bankers Association of America.

HST's Program Hit

He renewed his criticism of President Truman's program calling for construction of 1,000,000 public housing units in the next seven years. He said it is too costly and would cut too deeply into private building.

Taft suggested that the administration program looks "toward the socializing of all housing."

He said it is true to a certain extent that public housing "is socialistic in nature." But, he added:

"We have socialized medical care to the extent that we provide medical care to the poor through public hospitals. But this does not mean that we have socialized medical care as a whole . . ."

Taft long has been an advocate of a limited public housing program. With a group of Republican senators he will introduce a bill in the Senate Thursday calling for about 500,000 public housing units in five years.

Jews Hold Election

visional regime.

A count from 37 villages, mostly Jewish but some Arab, gave Ben-Gurion's Mapai, a strong labor party, and Mapam, the united workers party, each 32.5 per cent of the vote. Mapai is considered moderately leftist and Mapam far left.

There was only a scattering of votes for the 19 other parties, including rightwing Nationalists and Communists.

While first returns indicated the two strong labor parties would have an important influence in the new parliament, it was too early to predict any outcome.

The total election results probably will not be known before Friday.

No Disorders Reported

There are 21 political parties entered in the election. The issues were explosive and the voting was heavy, but no disorders were reported. The people seemed in a holiday mood as they trooped to polling places in colorful groups.

Ben-Gurion campaigned for support of his program to form the state within the framework of United Nations approval, then settle down to peace with world recognition.

Challenging him strongly is the freedom movement of Menachem Beigin, a rightist party born of the underground Irgun Zvai Leumi.

Many observers said Beigin's party may emerge from today's voting as the strongest opposition party.

A strong party is the far-left united workers party, Mapam. A Jewish Communist party had a ticket in the field. Five all-Arab lists of candidates were entered, to represent Israel's minority Moslem population.

All told, the voters are asked to pick the 120 constituent assembly members from 1,282 aspirants.

Grain Price Studied

ly. Twigg admitted the need for it in luring farmers away from planting cotton this year in view of the bumper crop expected.

Would Bypass 1949

Twigg recommended that acreage planted to cotton in 1949 not be used in establishing the acreage allotment of farmers in 1950 when cotton acreage controls are imposed. However, he suggested that 1949 be counted in computing years to determine whether a farmer were an old or new grower.

Also discussed the question of not supporting the price of cotton of any producer who planted more than 50 per cent of his crop to cotton.

After the hearing, Poage and Mahon held lengthy conferences with Dick Cade, Lubbock, state farm committeeman, and B. F. Vance, head of Production and Marketing administration for Texas.

They discussed grain sorghum, cotton and other problems now facing Texas farmers and all phases of the pending legislation to solve these problems.

HURLEY SAYS CHIANG ATTEMPTED TO UNITE NATION

U. S. Still Has Chance To Keep Foothold In China Despite Communist Gains, Former Official Claims

By BOB CONSIDINE
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—There is still time to keep the Iron Curtain from ringing down on China's countless millions. So asserts Patrick J. Hurley, former ambassador to China.

The vigorous ex-secretary of war, who during World War II nearly effected a peaceful coalition of the forces of Chiang Kai-Shek and Mao Tze-Tung, believes that Chinese democracy can be kept alive if we keep a token armed force there, "headed by a man with hair on his chest who isn't afraid of getting shot."

If we follow what he condemns as our "pussyfoot policy," and withdraw completely from China in face of advancing Chinese Communists, we may one day be confronted by millions of Russian-trained and equipped Chinese troops, Hurley warns.

Longer Fight Seen

"We have abandoned a friend who fought loyally on our side in a great war," the tall, gray-topped veteran of two world wars told us in his Washington home.

"We have yielded to a group of State department officials who were pro-Communist in the first place and, when that imperiled their jobs, began using the personal controversy between Chiang and Stilwell as an excuse for deserting Chiang."

Unless the "caretaker government" of acting President Li Tsung-Jen capitulates abruptly, the government armies should be able to fight delaying actions for at least another year, Hurley believes.

Reds Would Take Over

But he is not sure the government will be able to resist the temptation of Mao Tze-Tung's peace plan, which promises coalition rule. "It would, of course, be Communist rule," Hurley states. Hurley made an extensive study of Chinese Communist forces during 1943 and 1944, when he served first as a personal representative of President Roosevelt and later as U. S. ambassador. It was during this period that he obtained, on a one-page peace plan which he composed, the signature of Mao Tze-Tung. He retains a copy of the pact, which was never signed by Chiang.

"The Communist armies in China are well-trained and well-directed by Russians," the former major general said. "I did everything I could to bring about an accord which would have united them with Chiang's national forces in a common attack on the Japs. But it was an insurmonutable job, for reasons far beyond personal rivalries.

No Modern Communications

"China was weak, exhausted, ruined by years of civil war and years of Japanese invasion," he recalled. "There were no communications, no roads, no rails, too much territory to cover, no suitable means of supplying forces who needed everything. But Chiang fought loyally."

For these, and other reasons, Hurley retains his warm admiration for Chiang Kai-Shek.

"I don't think he will ever be tried as a war criminal," said the American who perhaps knows Chiang best. "I certainly know they wouldn't dare try him if we keep a moral and physical beachhead in China.

"Stalin doesn't dislike Chiang nor want to get rid of him. Stalin told me in Moscow in 1942 that he personally had saved Chiang's life when young Marshal Chang kidnapped him.

Also Admired Chiang

"'Chiang is a selfless man,' Stalin told me. 'We don't always agree on ideology. But he, too, is a patriot.'

"I can't conceive of Stalin's permitting him to be tried or our permitting it—in case Stalin has changed."

Hurley's own estimation of Chiang:

"The greatest index to his character came one day when I said to him, as bluntly as possible, 'Sometimes I think you're nothing but a damned dictator.'

"He looked at me a long time before he replied, but when he did he said, 'If I die a dictator I'll suffer the oblivion of all dictators. But if I succeed in bringing self-government to China I'll live forever in every home in this land. Now, then, what course do you think I'll follow?'

"Chiang is a courageous man, a fine statesman, leader and patriot. He attempted the almost hopeless job of uniting in one short lifetime a country which has been a huge nest of dissension for more than four thousand years.

"Certainly there was graft and corruption around him, as there is in every government. In our own case we are strong enough and well-organized enough to convict our Andrew Mays and Murray Garssons and Bennett Meyers. China wasn't."

Paper protests to Mao Tze-Tung will have as little effect as our warnings to Japan before Pearl Harbor, Hurley predicts. A get-tough-with-Japan man long before the Japanese attack, Hurley now sees an alarming parallel in China.

"If our Marines are pulled out and China falls, all of heaven's angels, swearing that the State department was right, will not sway the verdict of history," Hurley said in ringing conclusion.

Aerial Expert Says U. S. Could Enforce 'Century Of Peace'

NEW YORK, Jan. 25 (INS)—Major Alexander P. De Seversky tonight offered the hope of a "century of peace" through the strength of American airpower "without the risk of military regimentation."

De Seversky, author of "Victory Through Air Power," outlines the plan for achieving world peace in an article in the February issue of Reader's Digest, the condensation of a chapter from a forthcoming book.

Britain Made Bid

England made a bid in the 19th century for a "century of peace." De Seversky pointed out, by attaining command of the seas through an invincible fleet, "when water was the decisive medium for carrying destruction to enemies."

"Today," he added, "the air has become the primary medium of global power. An Air Force capable of commanding the skies can enforce its will on everything below.

"If we hold our effort on land and sea to a minimum and channel our resources into long-range airpower, we likewise can be incomparably strong without the risk of military regimentation.'

De Seversky emphasized that the key to effective air power is the phrase "long range." He explained:

"True air power means a strategic striking force that can rise from our own American continent for direct assault against the industrial solar plexus of the enemy and return to its home bases.

The creation of such an aerial force is fully possible. It calls for no new inventions; the necessary aircraft are already in the skies, but we are not building enough of them."

Bi-Lingual Services Set In Church Here

Services in English and Czech of the Czech-Moravian Brethren church will be conducted in the chapel of the First Methodist church, Broadway and Ave. M, Sunday at 11 a. m. and 2 p. m., Rev. Josef A. Barton, minister from Bellville, has announced.

Members of the church from Lubbock, Slaton, Levelland, Litlefield and Anton have been meeting in the vicinity of Anton for a number of years but will meet here in the future, Rev. Barton announced.

Regular order of services will be observed with English services at the 11 o'clock hour. Sunday the pastor will incorporate into his sermon a report on the biennial meeting of the Federal Council of Churches held at Cincinnati. Rev. Barton is on the executive commitee of that organization of the Protestant churches of America as a representative of the Czech-Moravian Brethren.

The Lord's Supper will be observed in Czech at 2 p. m. services. The long - established custom of all present joining in a basket lunch at the noon hour will be continued with the use of the dining room facilities at the local church, Rev. Barton said.

Ice Storm Grounds Southbound Geese On St. Louis Highway

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 25. (U.P.) — A severe ice storm that paralyzed early morning traffic here today made even the city's airways dangerous, grounding a flock of southbound geese in the middle of a traffic artery.

The wild geese, wings burdened with tiny ice particles, flopped helplessly out of the sky on Natural Bridge Road in the west end.

Watchmen at the nearby Chevrolet plant reported that the grounded geese honked plaintively as they flapped about the street and sidewalks.

Early morning motorists, enroute to work, stopped in such numbers that a traffic jam developed, bringing police to the scene to keep the street open.

According to the watchmen only one driver was lucky enough to get a goose dinner although many tried.

"Some of them looked as big as turkeys," the watchman said wistfully.

After about an hour the body heat of the migrating birds acted as a de-icer and the last of them resumed their trip to the south.

German Pianist Quits U. S. Before Deadline

NEW YORK, Jan. 25. (U.P.)—German pianist Walter Gelseking, whose projected concert tour of the United States and Canada was cancelled because of charges he had a pro-Nazi record, left for Europe today 45 minutes before the 11 a.m. deadline set by immigration authorities.

The pianist, whose Carnegie Hall concert was called off last night an hour and 45 minutes before it was to have begun, arrived at LaGuardia field in a limousine and slipped into the side door of immigration offices for a 30-minute hearing before his departure.

When reporters asked whether he was disappointed in not returning home with a pocketful of dollars, he answered sharply:

"I can make enough in Europe."

Gieseking said he never had been treated badly in other countries.

"They have been asking for concerts everywhere—in South Africa, Scandinavia, Portugal, Holland," he said. "This is the first time I have not been treated as an artist."

Illinois Sheriff Hopes 'Gold Find' Won't Start New Rush

CARTHAGE, Ill., Jan. 25 (U.P.)—Sheriff Willard Steinberger hoped today that Hancock county doesn't have a "gold rush" as a result of the $1,600 in gold pieces that Mrs. Clyde Shrier dug up in her back yard.

The money already has caused Mrs. Shrier's son, Merlin, 40, a lot of trouble. He was arrested in Macomb, Ill., for disturbing the peace when he tried to buy a drink at a bar with a shiny new gold piece. But even when he piled $595 in gold on the bar, the innkeeper wouldn't serve him.

Mrs. Shrier told Steinberger that she dug up a metal container of $5, $10, and $20 gold pieces in the back yard of her farm home near here last month. She said she unearthed the money while filling flower pots.

"I sure hope we don't have a gold rush around here," the sheriff said.

He said federal authorities were told of the find, and were expected to investigate the money. The coins all were dated in the 1880's, and showed little wear, Steinberger said.

Senate Chaplain Peter Marshall Is Claimed After Heart Attack

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.(U.P.)—Senate chaplain Peter Marshall, a plain spoken man whose prayers frequently remind senators of their obligation to legislate "wisely and well," died today of a heart attack.

Death came to the Presbyterian clergyman, a native of Scotland, with unexpected suddenness. He was only 46. He became ill during the night and was taken to George Washington hospital.

Dr. Marshall had been a minister for only 17 years. Before that he had been a mechanical engineer, a ditch-digger and a newspaper man.

In his official Senate role, he was completely nonpartisan. He was elected in January, 1947, when congress was controlled by Republicans. Democrats re-elected him at the start of the 81st Congress.

Asked once whether he was a Democrat or Republican, he replied:

"Neither. I'm a native of Scotland and as I was naturalized after I became a resident of the District of Columbia, I've always been denied the right of a vote."

Marshall never stood in awe of the men for whom he prayed. He regarded them as human beings in need of the divine aid he invoked for them. Before the present session opened, he told the congregation of his New York Avenue Presbyterian church—where Abraham Lincoln once worshipped—that his job was not too easy. The senators, he said, always arrived in the chamber with their minds made up.

Request For Zoning Change Is Made Here

Only one request for the City Planning commission to consider a zoning change had been received Tuesday noon, said C. J. Griggs of the city engineers department, ex-officio secretary of the body.

R. C. Hopping has requested change of property on the northwest corner at Fourth and Ave. Q from C to F zone in order that he may build a gasoline station there.

Tuesday noon was the deadline for applications to be considered at the next planning commission meeting at 7:30 o'clock the night of Thursday, Feb 3.

Texan's Christmas Trip Is Delayed By 'Complications'

PARIS, Jan. 25. (AP) — Donald Cothran's Christmas trip from his home in Bryan to visit his parents here developed complications.

On Christmas morning he was taken to the hospital here with a critical kidney infection. Before he was released from the hospital his daughter, Donnie Lou, 9, took the measles.

Things began looking better Sunday when Cothran was taken to his mother's home to convalesce.

Then his wife started out the driveway and broke her arm.

Defeated Solon May Get Seat After All

AUSTIN, Jan. 25. (U.P.)—A member of the House in 1947 who was defeated for re-election appeared headed today for a seat in the 51st legislature because his successor resigned before taking the oath of office.

He was W. E. Heatly of Deleon, whose successor, J. R. Eanes of Comanche, resigned before becoming "qualified" to serve in the House of representatives—by being sworn in.

Speaker Durwood Manford read an opinion by Attorney General Price Daniel to the House stating that Heatly may serve until a member is elected from district 104 at a special election Feb. 10.

The district comprises Comanche and Mills counties.

However, Manford said he could take no action immediately on Heatly's status because he had not received official notice from the governor or secretary of State on Eanes' resignation.

Eanes resigned due to ill health. He defeated Heatly in the Democratic primary last summer.

Paris now says dresses will be 12 inches from the ground.

Odessa Growth Indicated By Large Postal-Receipts Increase

ODESSA, Jan. 22. (AP)—An indication of the growth of Odessa is shown by the figure of $230,873.40 in postal receipts for 1948, Postmaster W. T. Henderson reported.

Postal receipts for Odessa in 1930 totaled only $77,066 while the 1931 figure was $9,545.

Radio Programs Recorded In Lubbock For Maine Audience

When residents of Bangor, Maine, turn their radio dial to a home station, WABI, at 10 a. m., Mondays through Fridays, they are likely to hear descriptions of fields of lettuce in Lubbock vicinity, of drilling of oil wells on the South Plains, of the phenomenal growth of Texas Technological college or of the cotton empire that surrounds Lubbock.

Mrs. Charlotte Carter, a visitor here, transcribes programs five times weekly to send back to her home town, Bangor, for her "This Day" radio program.

Finds City Friendly

Mrs. Carter is visiting her son, Charles S. Carter, 2818 Twenty-seventh. She is considering making Lubbock her permanent home.

"I think this is the friendliest city I have ever lived in, for a city of this size," she said. "It's more like a big town. There is a friendly warmth here you seldom find in a city."

Mrs. Carter this year qualifies for the Twenty Year club in New York, an organization of radio personnel who have broadcast at least 13 weeks each year for 20 years. She began broadcasting in 1929 after a radio station manager heard her call for her mail in a hotel and told her that her voice was suited for broadcasting.

Appeared On Programs

She has appeared on the Victory Varieties program over WGY in Schenectady, N. Y.; appeared as Claude in "One Man's Family," the first 18 times that program was presented over WGY; managed the radio department of Moser & Cotins Advertising agency in New York; created and presented the Bumpus series of children's programs over WABI in Bangor, and presented 'Is There a Star in Your Window" over WABI during the war.

Her only training for radio work, she said, was the study of elocution at Arrostook State Teachers college in Presque, Maine. She was working as a claim agent for Massachusetts Accident Co., when she decided to go into radio work in 1929.

Her father, Charles Bugby, moved to the Texas Panhandle in 1890 and lived there three years before he went back to the East and married and remained in the East. His brothers, George M. Bugby and the late Samuel Bugby, remained at Clarendon. George M. Bugby now lives in California. He owns a ranch on the Red River.

Harold Bugby of Clarendon, noted cowboy artist, is a cousin of Mrs. Carter.

Los Angeles Woman Must Give Up All Rights Of Motherhood

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 25. (INS)—Mrs. Georgette Brucks, 21-year-old expectant mother, today was deprived of all rights of motherhood and placed on probation after pleading guilty to manslaughter in the death of her 7-months-old son, Howard.

Superior Judge Thomas L. Ambrose granted the woman probation on condition she give up her 20-months-old son, Donald and her expected baby for adoption and also submit to a sterilization operation.

Mrs. Brucks' infant son, Howard, died last October from a fractured skull.

Edward Arnold Faces Suit, Charges Of 'Amorous Pursuits'

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 25. (INS)—Mrs. Edward Arnold filed a separate maintenance suit against her famous actor-husband today in which she accused the veteran performer of "innumerable amorous pursuits" of other women.

The 58-year-old actor denied his wife's allegations and said that he will fight the action.

Mrs. Arnold, 54, who married the actor in 1929, said that her heavy set spouse, who portrays bankers and tycoons on the screen, boasted of his affairs and once let her look at his address book.

East Texas Oil Field To Halt Gas Flaring

Rail Board Told Of Fuel Savings

By MAX B. SKELTON
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, Jan. 25.— The railroad commission today was advised that open field burning of natural gas in the vast East Texas oil field soon will be a thing of the past.

Operators of the field advised the commission that all flaring—amounting to 203,197,000 cubic feet in November—will be stopped by next Sunday.

Hearing Is Held

The big East Texas field of approximately 25,000 producing wells was the first field to be considered today at a show cause hearing during which operators of 26 fields presented evidence to show why the fields should not be closed until wasteful flaring of gas is halted.

Members of the commission, in signing the show cause hearing orders last month, alleged the fields were wasting a total of 177,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily.

The commissioners obviously were impressed with the East Texas report, as well as similar reports from six other fields. But there was indication of displeasure over testimony several fields will be unable to conserve its oil well gas for at least another six to 12 months.

Six Fields Halt Flaring

Attorneys for operators of the Concho Driscoll, Odem, North Kity, Red Fish Reef and Navarro Crossing fields said all flaring has been eliminated.

Nelson Jones, Humble Oil and Refining company attorney, said an addition to a compressor station will permit completion of the conservation measures in the Amelia field by Feb. 15.

An East Texas field report submitted by Ira Butler of the Gulf Oil corporation was described as "a major achievement in conservation" by commission chairman William J. Murray, jr.

Butler said that 10 of the 12 gasoline plants processing residue gas in East Texas no longer are flaring gas and that the other two plants will be in a similar position by next Sunday.

Murray Lauds Move

After Jan. 30 there will be no flaring of gas in East Texas except for periods of mechanical difficulties," he said.

He added that during November the field produced 3,230,518,000 cubic feet of oil well gas, of which 203,197,000 was flared.

"I think this a major achievement in conservation," Murray replied. "We commend you for a very fine accomplishment. I well recall the day when 30,000,000 cubic feet of gas was being flared in East Texas each day."

Dimes Drive Is Behind Schedule

Lubbock county's March of Dimes campaign continued to lag Tuesday.

With the campaign half complete, officials in charge of the drive pointed out that less than one fourth of the minimum goal of $12,000 had been contributed. The weather was held partially to blame because of the number of persons not in town who might contribute to containers placed in stores throughout the city.

The campaign fund contributions totaled only $2,259.50 Tuesday night with only 321 letters out of more than 17,000 mailed to Lubbock county residents returned.

Containers to receive cards given school children for contributions the past two days were placed in the schools throughout the city Tuesday and this move is expected to swell the total. The cards permit school children to contribute from one to five dimes toward the campaign to furnish aid to children stricken with polio.

Co-chairmen Warlick Carr and Lester Grimes renewed their pleas for all-out aid by residents Tuesday night, pointing out that the county chapter received some $8,000 from the National Foundation in aid last year although sending little more than $2,000 to the National Foundation.

Meanwhile, ticket sales for the President's Balls to be conducted at Lubbock Supper club, Cotton Club and Hotel Lubbock next Monday night continue to be sold at $1.20 a person. Members of the Exchange club, sponsors of the Dimes campaign, the Business and Professional Women's club, and Sigma Alpha and Beta Sigma Phi sororities are selling the tickets.

Press Urged To Resist Detroit Police Loyalty Pledge Ruling

NEW YORK, Jan. 25 (U.P.)—The American Civil Liberties union asked "all elements" of the press today to resist the ruling of a Detroit police commissioner that newspapermen must file loyalty certificates in order to obtain police cards.

U.S. Attitude Toward Other Nations Hit

By ROGER SOUTHALL
Avalanche Staff Writer

Dr. Houston Peterson, of Rutgers university, New Jersey, last night warned members of the Lubbock Knife and Fork club at their monthly meeting in Hotel Lubbock that "people of other nations are not going to be grateful to us for our generosity; we are not going to make things easier if we broadcast constantly that lack of gratitude."

That matter of lack of gratitude on the part of other nations which we have aided will be a difficult problem with us in the next 10 to 20 years, Dr. Peterson said, and the people of this country, because of their repeated reference to this same lack of gratitude will not serve to ease the strain.

Emphasis On Size

Dr. Peterson, who heads the department of philosophy at Rutgers, is a descendant of the youngest sister of Texas' famous Sam Houston. His talk here last night concern "American Character and Culture."

In line with his statements concerning other peoples' lack of gratitude for American generosity, Dr. Peterson listed a number of Americantraits or characteristics which, he said, become weaknesses if carried to extremes.

The first such trait is the American sense of "bigness," for he said, "we are famous for our emphasis upon our size."

"We carry it too far when we confuse bigness with goodness, and quantity with quality," the educator declared.

Always Pushing Ahead

Another trait or quality is the American capacity for action, which, he said, motivated the westward push to the Pacific, and has been a dynamic influence in the American culture.

A third trait is "know how" or ingenuity, Dr. Peterson declared, however, that "ingenuity in some respects has gotten away from us." To illustrate his statement, he rather humorously pointed out that many of our labor-saving devices have developed into time-consuming, death dealing devices instead.

A fourth American characteristic is that of comparisons. Dr. Peterson said that Americans are too much given to comparing "our way" with the "way" of another nation without taking all pertinent factors into account.

Comparisons Are Hit

He spoke of the American "plumbing neurosis," and said that large numbers of Americans were too quick to compare the rather rudimentary plumbing facilities of, say, India or southern France with those of their own country without evaluating the beauty, culture, or lore of these regions.

"Nothing is quite so offensive as unnecessary comparisons," he declared.

Dr. Peterson's humor, razor-sharp, won a warm response from an audience which was somewhat diminished by inclement weather. He was introduced by Dr. Clifford B. Jones.

The invocation for the occasion was offered by Dr. J. Ralph Grant, pastor of First Baptist church. Clarence Whiteside, president of the Knife and Fork club, presided.

East Broadway Underpass Site Of Second Mishap In Three Days

The second automobile accident within three days at the west end of the East Broadway underpass occurred early Tuesday morning.

Homer Daniel Powell, 24, a carpenter, of 3608 Ave. K, suffered a cut over the left eye and on the forehead and the right knee, police investigators said.

Claude Lee Gorden, 52, a Levelland carpenter, was fatally injured there Sunday night. A companion, Everett Lester Fitzgerald, 31, the driver, a Lubbock carpenter, was charged with murder while driving under influence of intoxicating liquor.

Powell was taken by Plains ambulance to West Texas hospital, where he was released after treatment.

The underpass was extremely slippery under a coating of snow and sleet when Powell had his accident, about 3:45 a. m.

Early Action Set On Rent, Housing

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25. (AP)—Speedy action on new housing and rent control laws was predicted today under a legislative timetable drafted by the Senate and House Banking committee chairman.

They agreed to begin hearings on both measures next week, with the House group handling rent controls while the Senate committee takes up the administration's long range housing program. After the respective houses have completed action on the assigned measures, the plan is to swap bills and thus speed final congressional consideration of the proposals.

Other Projects Up

Present rent controls are due to expire March 31, but before that date two other anti-inflation projects come up for renewal.

These are (1) the so-called voluntary agreements under which key industries work out their own rationing system and (2) export controls. Both are due to end February 28 and the administration has asked a seven month extension of the agreements plan and a 27-month extension of export controls.

The two banking committees are devoting one-day hearings to these two programs in an effort to clear the way for prompt action on the rent and housing measures.

15 Month Extension Favored

Chairman Spence, (D-Ky.) told a reporter his House banking group plans to wind up the agreements and export hearings Monday and then take up the administration bill to continue strengthened rent controls through March 31, 1951.

Senator Sparkman (D-Ala.), who will conduct the rent law hearings later on his side of the capitol, said he personally favors a 15-month extension of the rent law but that he is willing to listen to arguments for the longer period.

TULSA LANDLORDS ORDER EVICTION OF TENANTS

TULSA, Okla., Jan. 25. (INS)—Angry Tulsa landlords protesting two rent control bills now before Congress tonight served 60-day eviction notices on scores of tenants.

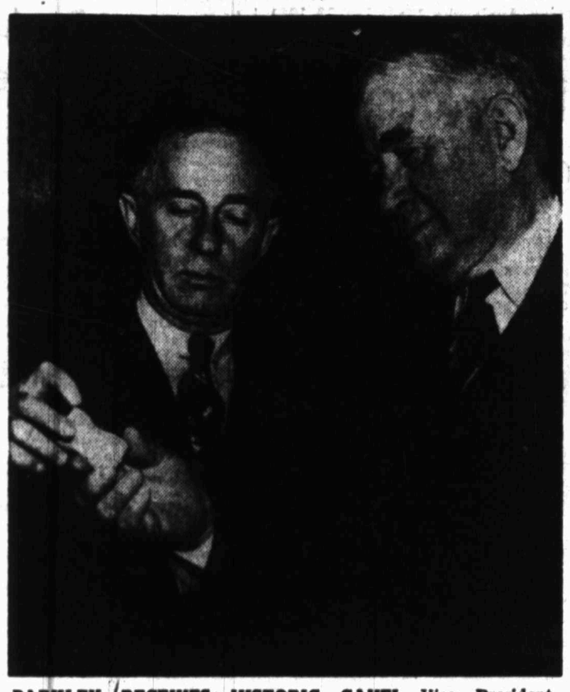

An estimated 600 to 1,000 notices were scheduled to be delivered personally or mailed to renters by members of the Tulsa Property Owners association.

Notices Standardized

The eviction notices were standardized and addressed to "tenants, veterans and taxpayers." They stated that the property owners were withdrawing all rental property from the market and would refuse to rent so long as rent controls remained.

CO-OPERATION OF PUBLIC ASKED

Lubbock Police Open Drive To Enforce City's Traffic Laws

Two men, who recently returned to the places where they had parked their cars in downtown Lubbock, were surprised to find them missing, but their astonishment was even greater to find the vehicles at city police headquarters, impounded for disobedience to traffic rules.

City police, in an all-out effort to "educate" residents in regard to traffic regulations, have been instructed to enforce recently passed city ordinances "to the letter," Chief of Police Lewis Kittrell said.

Co-operation of the public in enforcing the laws for the good of everyone concerned was asked by city officials.

Rules Are Given

Under provisions of Traffic Ordinance No. 890, passed by the City commission in November, 1948, vehicles may be impounded by police in any one of the following situations: (1)—Vehicles parked in a parking meter space for more than 24 hours; (2)—Parked in an alley; (3)—Parked in front of a fire hydrant or on any part of a crosswalk; (4)—Parked in any loading zone in violation of the traffic ordinance of the city; and (5)—Abandoned on any public street.

Chief Kittrell pointed out that the ordinance provides that an impounding fee of $2.50 plus a storage fee of 50 cents for each 24 hours will be assessed against any vehicle impounded by city police, and that the owner of the vehicle must pay such fees before the vehicle will be released into his custody.

Payment of the impounding fees does not constitute a defense to any charge against the driver, Kittrell stated, and the driver will find that the usual charges for his violation must be paid also.

Two other traffic rules which drivers either do not understand or deliberately disobey are the regulation against making left turns into or out of alleys and parking on paved streets of the city for more than 60 minutes between the hours of 2 a.m. and 6 a.m., Kittrell said.

The latter regulation is destined to clear such paved streets in order that city sweepers may clean along the curbings, he said. In some instances, he added, proprietors of certain hotels and all-night eating establishments have been exempt from the ruling in front of their places of business, when the proprietor has agreed to "clean up" along the curbing, Chief Kittrell said.

Test Is Slated Near Lubbock

An extension try for the Clear Fork-Permian production in the Lubbock field of central Lubbock county is slated by Tobe Foster, et al, as their No. 2 Ida Sina Collins.

The drillsite will be 330 feet from east and south lines of the west half of section 25, block A, John H. Gibson survey. Elevation is 3,199 feet.

Projected depth is 5,000 feet. Drilling operations with rotary are to begin February 1.

This new semi-wildcat is about three and one-half miles east of the city of Lubbock.

Possible Opener Seen

A possible new discovery developed between the Shafter Lake and Fullerton fields of north-central Andrews county as Magnolia Petroleum company drillstem tested its No. 2-11 University, wildcat in that area.

The examination was at 8,395-8,499 feet in the Wolfcamp formation of the lower Permian. With the tool open three hours, gas reached the surface in two hours and ten minutes.

Recovery was 207 feet of gas-cut mud and 920 feet of heavily and gas-cut mud. There was no water.

This prospector, 1,980 feet from south and west lines of section 11, block 13, University survey, was below 8,654 feet on last report, drilling ahead toward the Devonian.

Andrews Well Slated

Gulf Oil corporation No. 5-E-QQ University is to be an Ellenburger exploration in the Shafter Lake multi-pay field in north-central Andrews county.

It is 555 feet from north and east lines of the southeast quarter of section 24, block 13, University survey. That puts it one quarter of a mile south of the initial producer from the Ellenburger in that area.

Drilling to a possible bottom of 11,850 feet will start at once. Rotary tools are to be used.

The venture is in a region which has already proven production from the Wolfcamp-Permian and from the Devonian.

Further Drilling Set

Further exploration has been undertaken by Standard Oil company of Texas in the north-central Scurry county field recently opened by that company's No. 1 Jessie W. Brown.

The concern made location for two new projects in the pool, tentatively named the north Snyder field.

One is Stanotex No. 2-3 Jessie Brown, located 680 feet from north and west lines of the southwest quarter of section 440, block 97, H&TC survey.

Drillsite of the other, No. 3-2 Jessie Brown, is 1,960 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 440, block 97, H&TC survey.

Both are to drill to 7,000 feet to

RUSSIAN PLAN IGNORES TITO

Soviet-Backed ECMA Program Designed To Aid Red Economy

By BEN BASSETT
Associated Press Staff Writer

The new trade organization sponsored by the Soviet Union in eastern Europe is an answer to the Marshall plan—but the differences are striking.

There is no indication that the Soviet Union, through the economic council intends to pump rubles into the economy of her associate nations, in the manner that the United States has sent dollars into western Europe with the hope of restoring the economy there. There is, indeed, no indication that the Soviet Union will be on the short end of trading with the five other "ECMA" nations—Poland, Bulgaria, Hungary, Romania and Czechoslovakia.

Plan Aids Russia

Some of the ECMA countries, notably Czechoslovakia with her industrial know-how, produce things that the Soviet Union very much wants. ECMA thus will be far from a one-way street leading from the Soviet Union into the satellite countries. But two-way trade is of course an essential to a region's prosperity, and if the associated nations make the plan encourage the exchange of goods, they will strengthen the backbone of the eastern bloc of nations.

It is noted that Albania, the poorest nation economically of countries in the Soviet bloc, is not included in the ECMA setup. Moscow dispatches, however, say she may be invited later. There is little news from Albania—foreign correspondents are not welcome there—but the evidence has been that the little country is in a bad way.

Albania was under Marshal Tito's wing until the Cominform disowned the Yugoslav premier. Yugoslavia was not mentioned in the communique announcing ECMA. The Russians announced earlier that their trade with Tito's country was being cut 87 per cent this year.

Trades With West

Tito, meantime, is pressing toward freer trade with the West. And it is significant that none of the ECMA countries is placing all its eggs in the Russian basket. They all seem willing to trade with the West; Poland only last week signed a five-year trading agreement with Britain.

If past experience is a guide, Moscow's propaganda tom-toms shortly will be beating out a story of economic successes in the ECMA countries, while the Soviet-sponsored Cominform countinues its political attacks on Marshall plan countries. A declaration of war on the Marshall plan was one of the Cominform's first moves. It was announced in October, 1947. Formation of ECMA, could, in part, be an acknowledgement that the Cominform has not succeeded in its assignment to discredit the Marshall plan.

Carroll Thompson Junior High Opens 'Eat Breakfast' Campaign

An "Eat Breakfast" campaign designed to promote good nutrition practices among students opened this week in Carroll Thompson Junior High school.

The campaign is directed by girls' physical education students of Mrs. Norman Shaw. Other departments in the school are cooperating. Food classes taught by Mrs. Bill Henry are assisting. A poll is being conducted today to determine how many eat breakfast, how many do not and what is eaten by those who do eat breakfast. The campaign will proceed on basis of facts learned in the pool.

Skits are being given over the public address system and home room programs are being presented on subject of eating breakfast.

Agreement Reached In Civil Action Here

Judge Dan Blair of 72nd district court Tuesday afternoon approved a settlement agreement of parties in the civil action of O. C. Terrell against Trinity Universal Insurance company, whereby Terrell recovers from the insurance company $2,100—apportioned between him and his attorneys.

The action, to set aside award of the state industrial accident board and for compensation for an injury to the person, was withdrawn from a jury after several plaintiff's witnesses had testified Monday afternoon, and the settlement agreement was placed in writing before the court Tuesday morning.

Judge Blair also set aside the award of the accident board.

Terrell was represented by Boling, Smith and Allen, Lubbock law firm, and by Bob Huff, Lamesa attorney.

The Lubbock law firm of Crenshaw, Dupree, Milam and Crenshaw represented the insurance company.

A debt and damages action of Bob Robinson against W. C. Roberts had not reached a jury, which was selected Tuesday morning.

The Robinson-Roberts jury is: Claude Key, L. R. Rackley, N. N. Preston, W. J. Hood, jr., E. J. Shelton, J. P. Angerer, Brian Hester, Earl Bullock, Russell Schudel, J. D. Collier, Cloyce Knowles, and O. H. Cox.

The remainder of the 72nd jury panel will report back to Judge Blair at 9 a. m. today.

Lubbock Marine To Take Part In Operations In Alaska

Pfc. Osburn D. Davis, son of Mrs. Louise Davis of Arch, N. M., was announced as the first Marine from the Lubbock Marine area likely to go on the Leatherneck experimental operation to be made into Alaska soon.

Information from the Lubbock Marine recruiting office showed Pfc. Davis to be serving as a rifleman of the Sixth Marine regiment, a component of the First Marine division now stationed at the world's largest Marine training center, Camp Pendleton, near Oceanside, Calif. Other elements of the division are scattered from California to China, where they are protecting American lives and property.

The Pendleton-based units were announced recently as standing ready to go into Arctic wastes of Alaska for intensive training in cold weather operations.

"This operation in which Pfc. Davis is likely to participate," M/Sgt. M. L. Ailes of the Lubbock Marine office explained, "is actually a test of personnel and equipment, designed to conform with the mission of the Marines—being trained for any eventuality in any place or climate."

Prominent San Angelo Man Dies After Suffering Stroke

SAN ANGELO, Jan. 25. (AP)—O. L. Greer, 67, prominent San Angelo residential developer, died today.

He was a member of the firm Logan and Greer. He suffered a stroke as he opened his office at 7 a. m. and died in a hospital several hours later.

He had lived in San Angelo since 1907.

$8,100 Sought For Damages To Plane

A damages judgment totaling $8,100 was asked in a suit filed in 99th district court Tuesday afternoon against Don E. Ingle and others by Tobe Foster.

Foster said his Beechcraft model D18S airplane was damaged $6,000 and that he was deprived of rental of it, at the rate of $100 a day for three weeks, as a result of its alleged damaging Sept. 26 when another plane struck it at Municipal airport.

Named as defendants were Ingle, of Hale county; Roy W. Neal, jr., and Winston Reeves, and the Wes-Tex aircraft, a partnership.

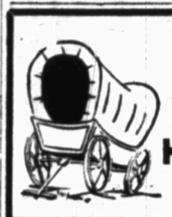

The partnership was described to be between Neal and Reeves, both of Lubbock.

The petition said that Ingle rented a Piper Cub, light tandem plane, from Wes-Tex and that when it was cranked by R. S. Keeton, when in scope of employment by Wes-Tex, it made a 180-degree turn to the right and struck the Beechcraft, which was described to have been left by Foster with Wes-Tex.

Reds Make Big Gains In Japan

TOKYO, Jan. 25 (INS) — A top Japanese Communist called today for a "people's front" coalition in the Japanese parliament to fight the ultra-conservative regime which won decisive control of the government in Sunday's general elections.

Kyuichi Tokuda, one of the 35 Communists elected to the house of representatives, denounced Premier Shigeru Yoshida as a "reactionary."

Tokuda, in his first news conference since the election, declared Yoshida's democratic liberal party would not last more than a year.

Huge Vote Cast

Yoshida's ultra-conservatives, on the basis of official returns, captured 268 of the 466 seats in the new House of Representatives. The party polled 13,381,610 of the 30,590,179 ballots cast in the record-breaking turnout.

The decisive conservative sweep —giving a single party control of the government for the first time since the beginning of the American occupation—was overshadowed by the unprecedented Communist success.

The Reds won 35 seats, nearly nine times the four seats they had previously held and their popular vote totaled 2,984,583. They gained almost 2,000,000 voters.

The smashing gains scored by the extremes on the right and left cut deeply into the political center and many qualified Japanese observers feared a trend leading to the extinction of the middle-of-the-road viewpoint in Japan.

Optimist Club Hears Boys Work Program

The growth, aims and plans of the Optimist club's boys work program were discussed by Art Young, president of Lubbock Boys club, in a talk which featured Tuesday's weekly Optimist meeting in Hotel Lubbock.

Young, a member of the Optimist club, outlined the need for a planned program for the club's work with boys of the community, and urged all members to take an active interest in the work. He briefly traced the development of the local Junior Optimist club, designed to provide recreational facilities for all interested Lubbock boys, from its origin in 1939.

Ten members present at the luncheon volunteered to serve as collectors at the "March of Dimes" wishing well, which will be handled by the Optimists Thursday.

G. C. Stewart was unanimously elected to edit this week's club bulletin, in the absence of Charles Greer, the regular editor.

AN AREA ASSET

Junior Stock Show

RESIDENTS of Lubbock and the entire area can be relied upon, as always, to lend their vigorous support to efforts to make the 17th annual South Plains Junior Fat Stock show here March 21-23 the biggest and best of its kind ever held in this part of the southwest.

The show has proved itself, since its inception, one of the most important assets of the area by stimulating the interest of youth in the raising of better livestock. Many successful South Plains livestock men give generous shares of credit for their success in that business to the interest encouraged while they were boys by the annual show. The event has paid, and would continue to pay, ever-increasing dividends in the form of more and better cattle and hogs raised and marketed in this area.

But the show involves much work and relatively modest expenses. A great deal of cooperation by many people will be needed to make the event truly outstanding—which everyone in Lubbock should want it to be.

Those who are called upon to help should respond as energetically and generously as they can. Better still, those who know they can help should volunteer their cooperation without awaiting a call from the Chamber of Commerce. Their inspiration for service should be their opportunity for a contribution to an event which helps to build a better and more prosperous Lubbock and South Plains.

Cold War' Reverse

NO ATTEMPT apparently is being made to deny that the Communists have given the United States and the democracies a beating on the Chinese front of the "cold war." The widespread suspicion that Washington fumbled the ball badly somewhere along the line in China neither minimizes nor helps to solve the serious problem faced by the democracies there now.

Circumstances which led to the reluctant relinquishment by Chiang Kai-Shek of dictatorial control of the Chinese Nationalist government may help the situation a little for the democracies. His flight has removed one apparently insurmountable obstacle to peace in China. Uncle Sam is due credit, which he probably won't get, for a big assist in forcing Chiang out by refusing the support that might have kept him in power indefinitely.

Recriminations because of Washington's belated recognition that China's masses preferred almost anyone to Chiang do not help matters for the democracies now. The U. S. must bear the brunt of apparently justified resentment among the Chinese for having kept Chiang crammed down their throats longer than they would have allowed, if given a choice in the matter.

Whether democracies can salvage anything in the nature of good will among the Chinese remains to be seen. The outlook is not encouraging. Prospects are that most of China soon will drop behind the Soviet's iron curtain, affording springboards and resources for Russian aggressions which are beyond the possibility of accurate guessing now.

But the situation is no worse, and may have been helped, by Chiang's enforced withdrawal. If his flight serves no other purpose, it gives unmistakable warning to the democracies of greatly aggravated dangers in the Far East. It will be their own fault if they fail to take proper steps to avert or meet this new peril.

Down Memory Lane

(From the files o The Lubbock Morning Avalanche of Jan. 26, 1929.)

Mrs. Vernon Brown and Mrs. Homer Pharr were hostesses at the home of the former in a meeting of the American Legion auxiliary when a program of activities for the year was outlined. The auxiliary "adopted" nine Texas soldiers in an Alabama hospital, to whom cheer and help were to be given, and was also sponsoring a newly formed Camp Fire group, with Mrs. J. A. Swindell as guardian. Committee chairmen named were Mrs. Tom Carter, rehabilitation; Mrs. J. A. Raley, child welfare; Mrs. E. E Hailey, transportation; Mrs. N. L. Peters, publicity.

Beware Of Romance

By ROBERTA COURTLAND
Distributed By NEA Service, Inc.

(THE STORY: When sixteen-year-old Merry Carson learns that her dashing father, Kin, has asked her selfish mother, Susan, for a divorce, her whole world turns topsy-turvy. Kin leaves home and Susan goes to pieces. Aunt Jane comes to look after things. The doctor tells Merry her mother needs a change and suggests they take her to St. Vincent's, an inland resort. At the hotel in St. Vincent's, Susan keeps up her martyr attitude, Aunt Jane decides that renting a house might re-awaken Susan's interest in something outside herself. Mr. Bagby, a real estate agent, is very gallant to Susan and she loves it. He shows them a house he owns and is forced to sell. To everyone's surprise, Susan says she'll buy it.)

XII

BEFORE the end of the week, the big Cadillac was in the two-car garage at the back of the beautiful rambling white house and Andrew and Lizzie were installed in the apartment upstairs. And Susan was racing gaily back and forth to Jacksonville, or to Savannah, in quest of "exactly the right thing" for the new house.

There were frequent consultations with Mr. Bagby about the selection of furniture since, as Susan put it, "the place meant so much to him;" and gradually Aunt Jane and Merry, finding themselves brushed aside, gave up any attempt to be of help. Merry began her studies with Miss Hutchens, and Aunt Jane went happily back to her fishing.

Merry made friends among Miss Hutchens' students and through them met others. Mr. Bagby brought a few friends to call at the hotel and he and Susan found among them two devout bridge players, and spent long evenings in happy absorption over a table set up in a corner of the lounge.

Merry's heart grew lighter than she had dared to hope it would ever be again. Eventually, when they moved into the new house, she loved every inch of it.

The months slid by, and she told herself that she had forgotten Marshallville. But she couldn't lie to her heart. She had not forgotten Tip nor would she ever forget him. He was too much a part of her very life, of her heart itself. However, she schooled herself not to think of him, not to remember too deeply.

TWO things about that summer always stood out in her memory in after years. The first was, of course, her 17th birthday. For a 17th birthday is of tremendous importance to a girl. It is the year when she feels that she is no longer a child, not even an adolescent, but on the verge of becoming a young woman.

Aunt Jane superintended the 17th birthday party, with Susan fluttering and being charmingly vague and pleasantly abstracted. All of which Aunt Jane noticed, with secret misgivings, but which Merry, absorbed in her own affairs and thoughts, seemed to ignore.

By now Carter Bagby was very much a part of the scheme of things at Cielito Lindo, which was Susan's name for the new house. He came to dinner twice a week; his presence at Sunday morning "brunch" was taken for granted; and often he squired Susan gallantly to entertainments of various kinds about the two islands, or even down to Jacksonville or up to Savannah for some outstanding musical event.

The second red-letter event of that summer for Merry was seeing Kin again. On the morning of her birthday, a glorious early June morning with school days behind her and her mind not yet made up about college in the fall, the telephone rang and Aunt Jane called Merry.

"Long distance, pet. New York is calling."

Merry raced to the telephone, her eyes bright and eager, while Susan, startled, dropped the petit point on which she was working, and listened tensely.

"Yes, this is Miss Merry Carson. . . . Dad!"

Susan's mouth tightened at the eager delight, the sharp surprise in Merry's gay voice, while Aunt Jane watched Susan covertly.

"OH, yes, Dad—you're a sweetie to remember my birthday . . . No, darling, of course you never did. . . . How are you, Dad? . . . That's wonderful! . . . Oh, Dad . . . of course I will! I'd love it! Oh, yes. . . . I'll leave at the crack of dawn in the morning and be at the airport when you get there. My party? Oh, it's a child's party, Dad . . . over at 10, not a minute later! . . . I don't mind a bit now, not if I'm going to get up in the morning in time to meet you at the airport. . . . Of course, darling . . . of course I will!"

She put down the telephone and whirled to face Susan and Aunt Jane.

"It was Dad," she explained eagerly and unnecessarily. "He's going to be in Marshallville a couple of days on business and he wants me to meet him there for a visit."

Susan's face was white and taut. "It's out of the question, Merry —I can't permit it."

Merry stared at her as though she had been slapped hard.

"Out of the question, Mother? Why—"

"Don't be a fool, Susan."

"You keep out of this, Jane," snapped Susan hotly. "It doesn't concern you at all."

"It does, too. Anything that concerns Merry is my concern."

"Merry is my daughter."

"And Kin's."

"He has forfeited any right to her."

"Fiddle-faddle and shucks! He's done nothing of the kind. Come on, Merry, I'll help you pack."

"I forbid it, Merry!"

Merry stood very still, her young face quite white, and then her pretty chin went up and she said quietly, "I'm sorry, Mother, but I want to see Dad. I've missed him."

And she turned and walked out of the room.

Looking At Life - - By Erich Brandeis

TODAY we will have a brief lesson in economics such as I learned from the owner of a Diner where I had my lunch yesterday.

The lesson gains nothing in value by the fact that the Diner is located on the Albany Post Road just outside Ossining that little Westchester County town where Sing Sing Prison is located.

BRANDEIS

Unless it is that there are quite a few inmates in Sing Sing who had ideas on economics similar to those of my friend of the Diner and that they, unlike him, put those ideas into practice.

This combination restaurateur and economist, his name is George, thinks that the world is all wrong and that something ought to be done about it.

He thinks particularly that the United States is all wrong, and that capitalism and capitalists should be eliminated once and for all.

He showed me a clipping from the local newspaper.

There was the picture of a lovely young girl, about sixteen, and a long story with it.

"That's my niece," he said proudly. "She has just come here from Athens. She no like it.

"Too much work. Not enough play. Rush, rush, rush all the time, she say. For what? For where?"

George and I were alone in the place, it being after the regular lunch hour, and after insisting that I eat my peas and my mashed potatoes that came with the hot roast beef sandwich, he said.

"Nice sandwich, eh?"

"Yes, nice sandwich," I agreed.

He then announced that all his sandwiches were good, that his coffee was excellent and his pies delicious, and that, in consequence, his place was a very fine money maker.

Would I like to buy it?

"No!" I said definitely. Then he confessed.

He was sick and tired of working fifteen hours a day, and of having whatever help he could get pilfer the cash register every time he turned his back.

If he could ever get enough money together he would buy himself a little place with a little garden and just sit in the sun and sing and play.

"BUT how would you do it?" I asked.

"By investing my money, of course, and living on my dividends."

"But," I queried, "didn't you just tell me that capitalism is a crime? That corporations make too much profit? That the workers should get much more money, and the bosses much less? Didn't you tell me that the hours are too long and that it wasn't right that some people should be able to sit in the sun and live on their dividends while others have to go to work in the cold and snow?"

George thought for a while.

Then he said: "Yeah, but I was talking about the others, not about me."

Thus endeth our lesson in economics.

BY REUTHER'S ACTION

UAW Is Put On Spot

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—Walter Reuther's General Motors experiment in basing demands for wage increases or acceptance of decreases on the cost of living index has had the unhappy effect for some of his union members which rival leaders forecast. In fact, several warned him against this sort of tieup, but the brash youngster would not listen to them.

TUCKER

Mr. Reuther's CIO automobile workers employed by GM had to take a one-cent an hour cut when pay was readjusted last November on the basis of this new formula. Barring a war, there is a possibility that the downward trend of prices may mean another reduction for his mechanics when the contract is reopened next spring, providing the present method of computation is retained.

PREDICAMENT: Facing this predicament, Mr. Reuther now emphasizes the need for pensions and a social welfare program, to be financed by the auto companies and, presumably, passed on to the customers. It is understood that the total cost would exceed $200,000,000.

Mr. Reuther maintains that his men need a separate welfare plan of their own because he doesn't expect that President Truman's new health and expanded old-age insurance scheme will provide sufficient protection for his union members.

The fact is that the adoption of these humanitarian ideas by so many large and small industries throughout the nation may jeopardize enactment of the White House program in as expansive a manner as Mr. Truman has asked. In many cases there will be "double coverage," meaning two increases in general living costs through boosts in pay roll taxes and the prices of the products affected.

DISCARDED: Although John L. Lewis may not admit it, nobody observes Mr. Reuther's plight with more satisfaction than the president of the United Mine Workers, who still would like to annex the numerically powerful UAW. The auto union is CIO President Philip Murray's most prized organization, and there is no love lost between these erstwhile associates.

John L. predicted from the start that the Reuther experiment would not work. The miners had a similar arrangement years ago, but they discarded it in 1917, when [illegible] was only a young, up-and-coming unionist. John Frey, Metal Trades chief, also threw a wage-price contract out the window in the early thirties. A F of L President William Green stresses profits rather than prices in all contract conversations.

It was not merely coincidence that led Mr. Lewis to announce that $68,000,000 in social welfare benefits, including pensions, had been paid to 260,123 miners on the same day that his Detroit rival showed some skepticism over the success of his General Motors tieup, and gave warning of his new demands.

PREMATURE: Young Henry Ford may be the key man in any general move to fix a new wage scale and install welfare benefits in the automobile field. Ford's present contract with the UAW expires on July 15, but negotiations can begin as early as May 15. G.M.'s runs to the spring of 1950.

To the chagrin of his principal competitor, General Motors, Mr. Ford announced several months ago that he thought another wage increase was "inevitable." He did not mention pensions because there is now no provision for them in his deal with Mr. Reuther.

In view of a hoped-for decline in living costs, Ford rivals felt that his remark was premature and ill-considered. In their opinion, it amounted to an invitation to the UAW chieftain to demand another helping from him and other automobile firms.

Should he grant these new demands as the first renegotiator with the union, he may force other companies, especially G.M., to comply. Otherwise, as Mr. Reuther threatens, the other automobile firms might face a costly strike that would give Ford a great advantage in what is now becoming a buyers' market.

VICTIM: In view of these possible developments, with their threat that cars may be priced too high for general purchase, Messrs. Ford and Reuther are not particularly popular in their respective fields of corporate and union affairs. Their offense is that they don't play the game in accord with the rules.

The older, orthodox union bosses resent the acclaim which the younger and more audacious Reuther has received in recent days. They maintain that he "got too big for his britches" because of the accolades given him as a "labor statesman" by conservative interests. On several ocasions, Mr. Murray himself criticized his behaviour, although the white-haired Scot has had to praise the pension proposal in order to keep on even terms with Mr. Lewis.

Now the Green-Lewis faction suspects his experience in wage-price economics will lead him to return to old-fashioned, union bargaining philosophy—namely, to demand the highest wages which production, sales and profits will bear.

Regardless of the outcome of this conflict in thinking and tactics, the ultimate victim will probably be the automobile buyer, who already considers the price of even the cheapest cars too high for his pocketbook.

HEALTH: "I notice," writes D.R. of Brooklyn, "that Senator Wagner of my state has had to turn over the Banking and Currency chairmanship to Senator Maybank of South Carolina because of ill health. Why does not Mr. Wagner resign and let us have two working Senators, if he is not able to attend sessions?"

Answer: I canot say why Mr. Wagner does not resign. In fairness to him, however, I suppose that he expects an improvement in his health to enable him to return to Washington.

The Senate, naturally, has no power to demand a resignation, and it would not do so if it could. It is the sole judge of the qualifications of its members, and it has never, to my knowledge, acted one way or the other in a matter of this kind.

The cases of the late Senator Carter Glass of Virginia and the late Hiram W. Johnson were two famous instances in which their physical condition prevented them from being present for more than a year or so.

LOSS: Their office staffs, of course, handled all routine matters for their states and constituencies during these periods. But their states did suffer some loss because of their inability to participate in committee work or in debate.

However, when men have served their country so ably and conscientiously as this trio did, it seems more than senatorial courtesy to overlook their enforced truancy.

A number of clean minds are that way because they are sterile

HUMANITARIAN PROGRAM URGED

HST Would Put U. S. In New Role

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — As intriguing as the idea itself are the human origins of President Truman's bold plan for world economic development on a democratic basis which he has proposed as a counterfoil to Communism.

It got its initial inspiration from the man who often was called "a Hudson Valley squire"—Franklin D. Roosevelt—who made no early pretensions to such vision, nor had a background that would seem to encourage it. He never got far with it after he came to a place of power because he was overwhelmed, first, by depression, then by war, though he planted the seeds in our own country with his New Deal.

STOKES

Now that plan is being carried to the world by a man who comes from an entirely different sort of background which would seem no more appropriate, a comfortable, normal, typically American background of farm and small town in the midlands. He never, during most of his career, gave signs of such imagination. Most of his mature life, after an unsuccessful venture in business, was devoted to politics, and in a routine, uninspired sort of way until he became President, first by accident, now by election. He is not a world-traveled man, nor a political philosopher in the way that is usually meant.

Close To Average People

Yet, when all is considered, it is natural for Harry Truman to be thinking and acting as he is. His roots are deep in our soil, our people, and our best traditions, and this enterprise is a truly indigenous conception, common in recent years in which the government, as representative of the people, has come to interest itself more in the welfare of the people on a partnership basis.

He is close to average people, and understands them. And they are the same everywhere in the world, no matter in what nation, or of what nationality, race, color or creed. Also he has seen and helped to develop a new sort of democracy in this country in recent years in which the government, as representative of the people, has come to interest itself more in the welfare of the people on a partnership basis.

It may be heresy to point out, but his conception was once very simply put by another midlander from the farm, Henry Wallace, when he said that every child in the world should have a quart of milk every day. For that he was derided. It was a revolutionary idea, for it hit at the sacred privileges of our production and distribution system from which a few profit handsomely, but it was also common sense. It is no more revolutionary than Harry Truman's idea, which is also common sense. The vision of that bottle-of-milk idea was what once won so many to Henry Wallace, though some who attached themselves to him in these latter days would not like Harry Truman's proposal, for they would achieve it by authoritarian rather than Democratic means.

Harry Truman's project finds a sponsor, too, in that citizen of the world, Sir John Boyd Orr, the sturdy and essentially simple Scotch professor and agriculturist who launched the Food and Agricultural Organization for the United Nations. He once said that if the world cannot do the very basic job of feeding everybody in it, then we are lost. It should, indeed, be a simple job; but it isn't.

Would Boost UN's Power

The ultimate aim of President Truman's plan is to increase the influence and effectiveness of some of those UN agencies which thus far have received too scant attention, though doing fine preliminary work, for they constitute the machinery for this world cooperative endeavor. They include FAO for developing new food sources and opening up ways to distribute it; the international bank for lending money to develop new production and new jobs; the internatoinal labor office to improve conditions of labor; the United Nations educational, scientific and cultural organization, UNESCO, whose aim is to help people everywhere to understand each other better, and so on.

For us, we can supply the technical genius and know-how. While ECA is helping now, that is at best only temporary. Cooperative effort through the UN and its agencies is the answer, in the end.

President Truman's project is not a boon-doggle—for the object is to help people to help themselves. Nor is it old-fashioned "private enterprise" as that term is so often used.

It must reach the people everywhere and enlist them. It can only succeed if it is worked out with people of our Democratic spirit and not if it relies upon the sort of special interests, the monopolists, cartelists, international financiers, with whom some of our business and financial leaders and some of our military officials have begun again to show a dangerous sort of sympathy.

TO: JAMES A. BENNETT, and if dead, his Unknown Heirs; John C. C. BENNETT, and if dead, his Unknown Heirs; WILL BENNETT, and if dead his Unknown Heirs; NANCY A. BENNETT, and if dead, her Unknown Heirs; FRANK BENNETT, and if dead, his Unknown Heirs; JEFFIE NEWTON, and if dead, her Unknown Heirs; ELLA BENNETT, a widow, or if she be dead, her Unknown Heirs; ETHEL MCLEOD and husband, W. C. MCLEOD, also known as ETHEL MCCLOUD and husband, W. C. MCCLOUD, and if either or both of them be dead, then their Unknown Heirs; HAZEL SHIELDS, and her Unknown husband, if she be married, and if either or both of them be dead, then their Unknown Heirs; and MECIE BENNETT, a widow, or if she be dead, her Unknown Heirs, Defendants, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable 99th District Court of Lubbock County at the Court House thereof, in Lubbock, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 21 day of February A. D. 1949, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 7 day of January A. D. 1949, in this cause, Numbered 16449 on the docket of said court and styled R. D. MOXLEY, Plaintiff, vs. MRS. BERTHA WILLIAMSON, a widow, H. L. CAPPLEMAN, JODIE MCDONALD and husband, C. A. (CHARLIE) MCDONALD, R. C. NEWTON, and LUBBOCK INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT, et al, Defendants.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to wit:

January 1, 1949, Plaintiff was in lawful possession of Lot Twenty-three (23) in Block Seventy-nine (79) of the Overton Addition to the City of Lubbock, Lubbock County, Texas. Plaintiff alleges title under three, five and ten year statute of Limitation.

On January 2, 1949, Defendants unlawfully entered and dispossessed plaintiff of above described lot. Plaintiff prays for title and possession of above described lot and any other relief to which he may appear entitled, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs. If citation is not served within ninety days after date of issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Lubbock, Texas, this the 7 day of January, A. D. 1949.
(SEAL.)
Attest:
Royal Furgeson Clerk
99th District Court, Lubbock County, Texas.

Westinghouse Researcher Finds Way To Tie 'Knot' In Light Beam

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 26—(AP)—Did you ever tie a beam of light in a knot?

Officials of the Westinghouse research laboratories announced yesterday the perfection of a "light pipe"—a flexible rod made of a translucent plastic called Fosterite.

The "light pipe," Westinghouse said, is so flexible it can be tied in a knot.

No matter how the rod is bent, Westinghouse said, a light beam directed at one end comes shining out of the other brighter than ever.

Dr. Richard C. Hitchcock, Westinghouse research engineer, said the "light pipe" is even better than plain air for transmitting light in some cases.

An ordinary flashlight beam travelling any distance through air will diverge, or spread," he said. "Piped the same distance through a Fosterite rod, it will reach its target with four or five times the intensity of the flashlight beam."

The "light pipe" was designed by Dr. Hitchcock from a plastic developed by another Westinghouse scientist, Newton Foster, for use in insulating radar units.

TWELFTH VICTIM DIES

NEW YORK, Jan. 25 (U.P.)—A 12th Coast Guardsman died last night of burns and injuries received in the collision last week between the Coast Guard icebreaker Eastwind and the oil tanker Gulfstream. He was apprentice seaman Stanislaus Coindreau, San Antonio, who was taken to the U. S. Marine hospital at Stapleton, Staten island with other injured crew members after the crash.

MARKET CONTINUES SLUMP

NEW YORK, Jan. 25. (AP)—The stock market declined for the second day in a row today after reaching a high since early November on Saturday.

Losses of fractions to around 2 points gave the market its largest overall setback since Jan. 14. Trading broadened to included 1,614 issues, also a 10-day top.

Market operations were affected considerably by a meeting of directors of U. S. Steel Corp., results of which were not divulged until after the close of the market. Big steel common stock is a market pivot and the meeting was preceded by the usual round of rumors concerning possible dividend or other action affecting the stock.

U. S. Steel's $1 special dividend and stock split-up have been rumored off and on in the financial district.

But the generous special was a flat surprise to many observers.

Steel common closed at 73⅛, down ¾, after losing more than a point at one time in frequent appearances on the ticker tape. On Monday the stock advanced 1⅛ points in the face of a declining market.

Turnover was comparatively slow throughout and about on a par with recent sessions. Sales of 810,000 shares compared with 850,000 Monday.

Trading was mainly professional, with many operators doing nothing more than chipping away a ⅛ or 1 point profit wherever they could.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined .4 of one point to 68.5, which put the general price level back where it was on Jan. 18. The industrial component took the widest loss while utilities held up a little better.

Cotton

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Jan. 25 (AP) — Cotton futures were irregular in slow dealings today. Trade buying was less aggressive than in recent sessions and old crop deliveries were under moderate pressure of profit taking and hedging. Both developments were influenced by the recent sustained rise in prices to approximately two cents a pound above the government loan level.

Cotton futures moved into new low ground for the day in late dealings as profit taking and hedging persisted.

Grain

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Jan. 25 (AP) — Wheat No. 1 hard 2.37-42.
Oats No. 2 white 83¼-84¼.
Corn No. 2 white 1.75¼-78¼.
Sorghums No. 2 yellow milo per 100 lbs. 2.68-72.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Jan. 25 (AP) — Grain futures prices sagged during the greater part of today's board of trade session. Wheat was under pressure and failed to advance on reports that the Production and Marketing administration had asked for bids on flour to be offered after today's session.

Prices ranged lower although the Commodity Credit corporation took 3,234,000 bushels of corn yesterday and there were indications that around a million bushels were purchased today. The deferred contracts, however, showed resistance to selling.

At the close, May wheat and corn were at the lowest point since last November.

Wheat finished ⅜ to 2 cents lower than yesterday's close, May $2.21¼-⅜. Corn was ⅜ to 1⅛ lower, May $1.63¼-½. Oats were ½ to 1⅜ lower, May 71⅛-¼. Rye was 1¼-½ lower, May $1.63½-¾. Soybeans were 2¼ to 3 cents lower, March $2.45, and lard was 23 to 33 cents a hundredweight lower, March $14.67-70.

Forrestal Asks Proration Order Exemption For 12 Helium Wells

AUSTIN, Jan. 25. (AP)—Secretary of Defense Forrestal has asked that 12 Panhandle wells producing helium bearing gas be exempt from a recent Railroad commission proration order.

The commission late yesterday announced approval of Forrestal's request which said the involved wells produce a gas with a higher helium content than other wells of the big Panhandle field.

In a telegram to the commission, Forrestal said the Extell helium plant near the field has continuous need for 24,000,000 to 30,000,000 cubic feet of the gas daily.

The wells now can produce at a rate not to exceed 25 per cent of their own flow capacity, the rate which was in effect before the Panhandle field became subject to a Sept. 24 commission proration order.

GOP Chairman Confident He Has Support To Beat Any Ouster Move At Committee Session In Omaha

By BERNARD J. McDONALD
INS Staff Correspondent

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 25.—Republican National committee chairman Hugh Scott, jr., declared today he has "all the votes needed" to beat any attempt to oust him from the chairmanship.

His statement of confidence was made as members of the GOP National committee completed preparations for the opening of their important policy meeting in Omaha tomorrow.

Scott said he based his claim on a poll of "well into two-thirds of the members" which showed he could muster "more than 68 votes." But he added:

"In my opinion, the matter is not coming to a vote."

The Pennsylvania congressman, whose reign as head of the committee reportedly had been challenged by some members, stated his confidence of retaining the post while holding a news conference.

Comment during the conference also swung to reports of anonymous notes pushed under hotel doors and recordings of telephone conversations.

Chairman Scott said he had not seen any of the anonymous notes, but did say that a national committeeman read one to him over the telephone and told him it "was one of several envelopes thrust under his door."

The note brought to the chairman's attention was said to have complained that certain persons were unaware of recordings of telephone conversations with national headquarters before the election.

However, Scott pointed out that the recordings were "merely conference calls that all persons concerned knew about." He elaborated:

"They were transcriptions of a series of round-robin telephone calls by campaign managers discussing prospects in the various states.

"They were made so a permanent record could be read over to officials in other states. They are nothing that anyone could find fault with—except for their accuracy."

Scott said the conversations were not with him but with campaign manager Herbert Brownell. He declared he had no knowledge of them until he found them in the files at headquarters after the election.

The chairman said he was "sure there will be no need of using them to refresh any memories," but added they would be used "if there is any challenge from people who might be inclined to say, 'I told you so'."

Eleven Dallas Men Fined $1,500 For Real Estate 'Side Deals'

DALLAS, Jan. 25 (U.P.)—Federal Judge T. Whitfield Davidson fined 11 Dallas men a total of $1,500 here yesterday on misdemeanor charges of making false statements to the Veterans' administration on the selling price of homes to former servicemen.

The defendants, mostly real estate men, originally were charged under felony statutes. The change to misdemeanor charges was made at the instruction of Ben Brooks, special assistant in the Department of Justice.

Gas Flaring To Halt

Oil association, an observer at the hearing, said the situation in East Texas has cleared up "pretty fast."

"From the evidence presented today the field is not wasting or venting any quantity of gas now," he said. "I wish to thank the commission for calling the attention of East Texas operators to conditions which have existed there."

Testimony presented on other fields included:

Imogene, Jourdanton and Charlott Fields (Charlott not included in show cause order) — Nelson Jones, Humble Oil and Refining company, said the company plans to spend $5,892,000 for construction of facilities to handle up to 26,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily. The facilities would serve all three fields, now flaring 10,000,000 cubic feet daily.

Lolita—Raymond Meyers, Magnolia petroleum company, said plans are underway to process 5,078,000 cubic feet of gas by construction of facilities at a cost of $1,058,000. The project would be completed by November.

Porter— Meyers testified that 427,000 cubic feet daily will be returned to the reservoir within 90 days.

Slick Wilcox — Ward Jones, Continental Oil company, said there is no immediate market available for 9,203,000 cubic feet of flare gas but that negotiations are underway for temporary disposal to United Gas company. If negotiations are successful the project would not be completed at least for one year.

tive secretary of the Tulsa group, said he had called in all the tenants of his 18 units and personally handed them their notices. Murphy was formerly president of the national association which has its headquarters in Kansas City.

He said all his tenants "are cooperating with me in this."

The minister identified the two bills before congress that the association objects to as Senate bill 423 and a House bill backed by House Expediter Tighe Woods.

"We don't intend to serve under a slavery which would take away our right to control our property," he said.

He castigated the two proposed bills as "vicious and giving dictatorial powers to Housing Expediter Woods and through him to every area rent control officer."

explore the Canyon lime section of the Pennsylvanian found productive by the discovery well.

Starting January 26, rotary units are to move in and operations are scheduled to commence.

Drilling toward the Canyon adjacent to these new locations are two other Stanotex prospectors.

The company's No. 2-2 Brown, 680 feet from east and 1,880 feet from north lines of section 440, block 97, H&TC survey, was below 6,026 feet, penetrating shale.

Stanotex No. 3-1 Brown, 1,980 feet from west and 1,880 feet from south lines of section 440, block 97, H&TC survey, was boring ahead from 6,276 feet, also in shale.

Presbyterian Men's Group Names Officers

Verne Waldron was elected president of the Westminster Presbyterian church's Men's club at the initial meeting of the organization last night in the Boy Scout building at 2109 Avenue X.

Others elected to office at the same time were Dick Matthews, vice president; Jack Blankenship, secretary; and Earl Scudday, sr., treasurer. A nominating committee appointed by Rev. David L. Zacharias, pastor of the Westminster church, submitted the four names and they were approved by unanimous vote.

The meeting followed a barbecue dinner served by a committee of men from the club. Mr. Zacharias conducted a brief discussion, during which he pointed out that the nucleus of the church originally had been laymen, carpenters, mechanics, plumbers, and others.

Mr. Zacharias went on to point out that the laymen had grown away from the principal activities of the church for a while, but that there was an increasingly large move toward the men returning to positions of importance in the church. He then suggested that the Westminster church organize a club of men, to meet at stated intervals apart from Sunday services.

The club agreed to meet once a month and the concensus was that Tuesday or Thursday nights were the best for everyone. Notices of the next meeting will be mailed.

Services For Claude L. Gorden, Levelland Carpenter, Set Today

LEVELLAND, Jan. 25 (Special) — Last rites for Claude L. Gorden, 52, Levelland carpenter who was fatally injured in a Lubbock automobile accident, will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the First Methodist church here.

Rev. Jordan Grooms, pastor, is to officiate, assisted by Rev. J. H. Wright, pastor of First Baptist church here. Burial will be in Levelland cemetery under direction of Plains Funeral home of Levelland.

Gorden died Sunday evening of injuries suffered when a car in which he was a passenger smashed into the center section of the East Broadway highway underpass in Lubbock.

TELEVISION NO HELP

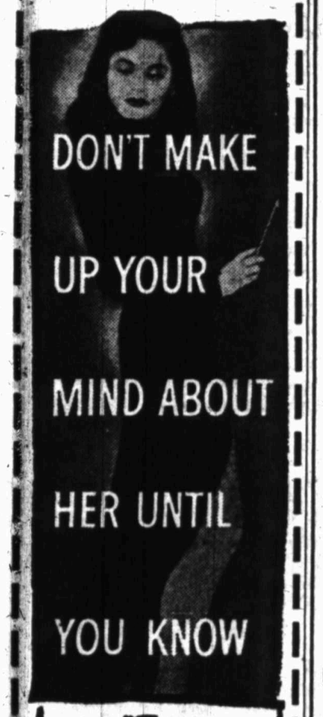

WORCESTER, Mass. — (AP) — Lorton C. Walden, superintendent of the Worcester insurance fire patrol, says he doesn't oppose progress but objects to television. Ever a business concern donated a television set for patrol headquarters, Walden said, "I can't get any work out of the men because they're too busy watching the show."
