WITH THE MANY TOWNS in this area of West Texas voting membership into water districts to cost many millions of dollars to develop and to pay for piping into the towns, water apiently could be provided to furnish Martin County if the county would vote itself into its own water district, build lakes and provide other means of conserving water. Anything like a normal rainy season, sufficient water runs off the watershed to waste, if impounded, would add many hundreds of thousands of gallons of water to the already abundant supply.

THE FIRST TRAFFIC FATALITY for Stanton for the year by a motor vehicle happening recently was a shock to the citizens. There was only one other traffic death in Stanton, happening a few years back. Since then deaths by motor collision and the recent one a pedestrian victim, Stanton motorists have been doing a good job of safe driving.

Nevertheless, it would be a wise idea to adopt the advice given motorists by the Texas Safety Association, "Be a good sport. Give pedestrians a break." Further, the association cautioned drivers to look out for children and people, reminding that these pedestrians are likely to be found in residential areas, around schools and churches and near parks and playgrounds.

BOB DEAVENPORT, ONE of Stanton's prominent and enterprising young business men, has been named president of the recently organized Junior Chamber of Commerce. Had this column been charged with the responsibility of naming the head of this organization, he would have picked Deavenport to fill the top ranking office of this organization. One of the principal reasons we would have selected Deavenport, we would want somebody to lead this organization which is charged with activity almost as potent as dynamite. The Jaycees is an excellent place for Deavenport to exhaust some of his potent vim and vigor.

TO GET REVENGE ON HIS laundryman, a Houston man burglarized the laundry four times. He told the judge: "I had a grudge against the laundry. I went there one day just past closing time and the man wouldn't give me my clothes." The judge gave the burglar 10 years.

THIS SOUND PIECE OF LOGIC from the Kingman, Ariz., Mohave Miner: "Nothing serves as a better barometer of the condition of a community or state than its newspaper. Many first impressions are made by the community newspaper and it can either promote or detract from its area."

REFERENCE TO THE 1956 March of Dimes program to raise funds for the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis, reminds that $47,600,000 will be needed.

Basil O'Connor, president of the Foundation, says the largest single item on our program is Patient Aid, for there will be polio in 1956, in spite of the fact that we have an effective vaccine.

"We have proven the success of our Patient Aid program each time one of our chapters has provided a wheel chair for a bedridden little girl, each time we have helped a young mother get out of her iron lung, each time we have supplied crutches and braces for a father so that he may return to work and support his family again."

O. J. Chapman is county chairman this year.

AND IT'S ANOTHER COUNTY heard from whose officials are interested in publishing a statement that their constituents may know what is being done with their money.

This time it is the Littlefield Independent School District publishing a statement of their affairs in the County Wide News. It led Douglas Poe, of the News to comment in this wise in his column, "Nearly News."

"Littlefield Independent School District makes in this issue of the News one of the most complete reports we have ever seen a school board make to its constituents. It shows in some detail where the money came from and where it went."

"We congratulate the seven good men who make up our school board on this excellent report and commend a willingness to be open."

Funds For Girl Scouts Will Be Sought Dec. 8

"We'll Give to Our Girls" is the slogan for Stanton to adopt the night of December 8.

That's when members of the Beta Sigma Phi will conduct their door to door campaign to raise funds for the Girl Scouts.

There are five troops of Girl Scouts in Stanton with 90 girls enrolled in the Girl Scout work. Seventeen registered adult leaders give of their time each week to help the girls.

Funds raised will go to buy supplies, leaders' books, and to help maintain the Girl Scout Little House, which at the present time is badly in need of repair.

Also each year part of the girls' expenses are paid when they attend the Girl Scout Camp Booth Oaks near Sweetwater.

Last year six girls attended the camp. Money also must be sent to the West Texas Area Council to pay for the training the leaders receive.

C. J. Chapman is general chairman of the Girl Scout city council, Mrs. P. M. Bristow, organizational chairman, and Mrs. Phil Berry is secretary - treasurer.

Mrs. Bristow, in urging the citizens of Stanton to keep the Girl Scout Fund in mind, says, "To maintain Girl Scout work in Stanton, we must raise at least $350. This is a very small sum when you think of the good it does and the number of girls in scouting. Some years, however, the funds raised have been short and to keep Girl Scout work going, the leaders paid for the supplies out of their own pockets."

"Don't neglect our girls, but give and give generously when a member of Beta Sigma Phi knocks on your door December 8 for a Girl Scout donation," Mrs. Bristow concluded.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thomas visited in San Angelo over the weekend.

Census Will Tell Needs of Schools

Questionnaires will be used to make a pre-school census of Stanton to determine future needs of the city schools. It was decided Tuesday night at a meeting of the P-TA, the school board and a number of other interested citizens. The survey will be handled by the Martin County Chamber of Commerce and the Stanton P-TA.

The meeting was called by Supt. L. M. Hays and members of the Stanton school board, since it is becoming more and more apparent that there are more youngsters going into the system each year than graduates in the next few years. The main thought in the survey is to determine the enrollment that can be anticipated for the first grade in the next few years.

The need for the survey was felt when it was realized that right now every building at the school is full to capacity, and it is felt that if enrollment does increase as expected some provisions will have to be made for more facilities. It was emphasized that present plans do not call for any expansion in the physical plant of the school system.

Ed Robnett, president of the Stanton school board, presided at the Tuesday night meeting. The P-TA was officially represented by Mrs. Stanley Reid, president, and the chamber of commerce by Ed Davis, manager. It is expected the survey will get under way in about two weeks.

Bobby Carlile Wins Honors At Capon Show

Bobby Carlile, a 1955 graduate of Stanton high school and a student at Texas A&I College, Kingsville, showed the grand champion single capon Saturday at the annual Martin County 4-H and FFA Capon Show for the fourth year.

He also showed the grand champion trio of capons.

Carlile had the grand champion single capon in Martin County capon shows in 1950, 1951, and 1953. In 1954 his bird was reserve champion. He will keep a floating trophy, given in 1953.

Butch Haggard showed the reserve champion single capon and Charles McKaskle entered the reserve champion trio.

Carlile entered his birds as a member of the Stanton Chapter of Future Farmers of America. He was the breeder and the results were of breeding started four years ago by the Stanton FFA chapter.

Marvin Webber of the Power Feed Store, Abilene, who judged the show, said the poultry was among the best he had ever judged. Auctioneer for the sale was Houston Glasson, deputy sheriff of Dawson County.

The first 17 trios all were shown by Stanton FFA members, with the 18th being the entry of Jerry Cave, a member of the Martin County 4-H Club. The FFA trios were placed by Webber in this order: Bobby Carlile, Charles McKaskle, Jack Hildreth, Butch Haggard, Del-

Children Are Eager To See Old St. Nick

Santa Claus' annual visit to Stanton at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon will officially usher in the Christmas season in Stanton.

Stanley Reid Is New Head of Stanton Exes

Stanley Reid, local businessman, was elected president of the Stanton Ex-Students Association at the business meeting held Friday afternoon along with the annual homecoming celebration for all ex-students of Stanton high school.

Mrs. P. M. Bristow was selected to serve as vice - president; Vestal McClane, corresponding secretary; and Bob Halslip, secretary - treasurer.

Two resolutions were passed by the ex-students at the meeting. The first one was that the annual Stanton homecoming celebration be held on Saturday, if possible, and the second, that the officers of the association set the date for homecoming. Formerly homecoming has always been held on date of the last home football game.

The sixth annual homecoming celebration drew a large number of ex-students from the surrounding area as well as from out of state. The program began Thursday night with a bonfire, and Friday's program included a general meeting at 2:30 in the gym, followed by a business meeting, a barbecue served by the senior class in the cafeteria, a football game between Coahoma and Stanton and a reception in the cafeteria after the game.

The presentation of Miss Suzanne Reynolds as football sweetheart was the highlight of the halftime activities at the football game. The Coahoma band and the Stanton pep squad formed an interlocking heart for the ceremonies. Also taking part were runner-ups for football sweetheart, They were Nancy England, Sara Mott, Jeanene Gibson and Linda Glaze.

Miss Reynolds, who is a senior student and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Reynolds of Stanton, was crowned sweetheart by the football captains, Dee Cravens and Bill Burns. She was presented with a gift from the football team.

Out-going officers of the ex-students association are Bob Deavenport, president; Stanley Reid, vice-president; Eva Mae Cook, corresponding secretary; and Vestal McClane, secretary - treasurer.

Children from all over Martin County will get to view the real live reindeer driven by Santa Claus when he parades down St. Peter Street to the courthouse, where he will talk with every boy and girl who wants to talk with him about Christmas.

While Santa is talking with all the boys and girls on the courthouse lawn, bags of fruit and candy will be passed to the children in the courthouse. A line will form and children will march through the courthouse where they will receive the fruit and candy.

Red-nosed Rudolph is expected to lead the four reindeer—Donder, Blitzen, Dancer and Prancer. Santa will be wearing a bright red suit to match his red sleigh. His charges will be gaily decorated in bright and red harness on which their names are inscribed in brass name plates.

The Martin County Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring Santa's annual visit this year as it has done in former years.

Ed Davis, manager of the chamber of commerce, says the schools at Courtney, Stanton, Greenwood, Grady and Flower Grove have received invitations to turn out school so the children may come and see Santa Claus.

Most of the schools have indicated they will turn out school. L. M. Hays, superintendent of Stanton schools, said Stanton schools will turn out in time for the parade and parents will take the children to see Santa.

No matter how cold the weather the parade will be held on time. In fact, the colder the weather and the more snow is flying pleases Santa and his reindeer. It reminds them the more of the deep snow and raging blizzards in Alaska, their homeland.

The Arctic reindeer have some odd characteristics. For example, their ankles pop when they walk—a crackle you can easily hear. Their cloven hoofs are large and act as a firm foundation for deep Arctic snows. They are completely covered with fur. They breathe like a dog when warm, and regurgitate like a cow when eating.

Both male and female reindeer have antlers with a range spread as high as three feet, and with as many as forty points which they shed each year. Flies are their pet peeves for if one gets even close to a reindeer he shudders.

Grady Carothers, Goldthwaite, Texas, is bringing the live reindeer here.

Several years ago, Carothers came to the conclusion he would try to satisfy his children who asked every Christmas season, "Where is Santa's reindeer?" After three years of hard work that included many letters, the ranchman finally obtained authority from the Alaska government to get the reindeer from Alaska.

After Santa's visit Tuesday afternoon Christmas lights all over Stanton will be turned on Tuesday night. The Jaycees plan to have their giant Christmas tree on the courthouse lawn decorated by then and its lights will be turned on, according to Bill Lively, chairman of the Jaycee committee.

Cecil Bridges is chairman of the Christmas program committee. Other members are James Jones, Carlton Chapman and Bob Deavenport.

All the merchants are expected to have their stores decorated by the time Santa comes. Some have already started their Christmas decorating and all are urged to decorate their businesses to give Stanton a gay Yule look.

The Jaycees are in charge of the packing of the bags of candy and fruit and the Lions' Club and members of the American Legion will purchase the candy and fruit.

Visiting Sunday in Grove were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ragland and daughters.

Shivers Says 1956 Rules Okay But He Wants Leeway

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Tex. — After three exiled years, Texas again has an official, accredited Democratic national committeeman.

Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey's acceptance by the national committee gave Texas full representation for the first time since September, 1952. Wright Morrow was refused recognition because he supported Republican Dwight Eisenhower.

Official groups of both conservative and liberal Texas Democrats supported Ramsey. Only scattered protests were heard, one by the president of the liberal faction of the Texas Young Democratic Clubs.

Shivers Okays Demo Rules

Gov. Allan Shivers says he is willing to play by the rule adopted for the 1956 Democratic national convention.

He said at a news conference that he expects to be challenged, nevertheless, by a "bunch of albedy pinkies."

Rules set for 1956 were vided by Shivers as being the same as in 1952. Then they required heads of delegations to work for placing the party nominees' names on the state ballot under the proper column.

Shivers said he is not surprised to hear that some old political enemies, like Stephen Mitchell, Adlai Stevenson's aide, think he should not be allowed a 1956 seat.

He held firm that he would not take any pledge to support the party nominee. "I will give no pledge to support a nominee"

Mental Health Is Something To Consider

Mrs. Dorothy Croft of Odessa is president of the Mental Health Development Association of Texas, which started in Odessa in August of 1954. She has been making addresses before various club and organizations in West Texas. Her latest address was made in the First Methodist Church, Seminole, sponsored by the mental health group of the American Association of University Women.

The writer is one among many who is personally interested in the welfare of the Big Spring Hospital. Therefore this editorial is framed from the information spread by Mrs. Croft in her address in behalf of the state's mental institutions.

The development association is a mass volunteer group that is trying to improve mental institutions so that more cures will be possible.

Though the organization has grown to statewide size, it began, according to Mrs. Croft, with concentrating on improving the Big Spring State Hospital.

For the cynic who shrugs and says, "Nothing can be done for those people" — meaning mental patients — doctors point out the fact: 60 per cent CAN be cured. Many mental patients need a feeling they are not forgotten, a sense of belonging in the world, recreation, pleasant, wholesome surroundings. These are some of the things that the mental development association is trying to provide. The association has no paid workers, declares its president.

Limited budgets keep the state hospitals from providing the "extras" themselves. Mrs. Croft feels it is up to a mass group of lay people to take an interest in mental institutions and try to improve them. It is in the self-interest of every citizen to take this interest.

It is estimated that one of every 12 persons alive today will spend some time in a mental hospital before he dies. That means a public supported state hospital.

The trouble with state hospitals, Mrs. Croft points out, is that once a patient enters one, he may spend the rest of his life there. "Average stay is nine years, but if a patient doesn't get out during his first year there, then the statistics shows he stays for life."

In attempting to improve mental hospital conditions and providing cures in them, the association has done such things as this at the Big Spring institution:

Constructed a baseball diamond and provided equipment, planned to sponsor square dance programs, set up a miniature golf course, make drapes to go over window bars, give permanent waves, sew stoles for women patients, seek funds for an electric organ, provide entertainment at hospital programs.

Mrs. Croft says: "What is needed is more interest from the average citizen."

In a recent story appearing in the Big Spring Daily Herald, the public was informed that the Big Spring State Hospital has a chaplain. He is Chaplain Clarence E. Thiele, came to Texas because he desired to get in a state mental hospital that wanted to build up its program.

It is the idea of Chaplain Thiele that the religious side of the individual should be built up just as the psychiatric and physical.

Chaplain Thiele has set up a religious activity board, composed of himself, a doctor, a psychiatrist, and 12 patients — six men and six women. The patients have elected a chairman and secretary. The patients are urged to bring their visitors to their weekly worship services. (Worship services for Protestants is held Sunday at 2 p.m. and Catholic mass is heard on Thursday, led by Father W. J. Moore.)

Chaplain Thiele reported among the needs at the state hospital include: mirrors, irons, ironing boards, card tables, radios, and a television set.

He also noted that patients have presents and packages to be sent out for Christmas, and the hospital is looking for an organization to assume responsibility for mailing the packages.

The Herald's story wound up by saying: Clubs, groups, or organizations wishing to help the chaplain and in turn help the patients at the State Hospital can contact him there.

Heart Disease Takes Big Toll in Texas

In a recent tuberculosis survey in the state by the Texas Department of Health it brought to light many non-tuberculosis abnormalities, the Health Department has announced. Some of these have been heart conditions.

Dr. Henry A. Holle, Commissioner of Health, advises that the three frequent types of heart trouble are: coronary heart disease, hypertensive heart disease, and rheumatic heart disease.

The Commissioner of Health states that coronary heart disease is the chief killer and is a disease of the arteries which supply the heart muscle itself with blood. A majority of persons survive the first attack, and with good medical care, rest and common sense precautions, may even live a normal life span.

Another major cause of heart trouble is high blood pressure or hypertension. This is the most common heart disease of middle age. There is a great deal that is not known about this disease, but we do know that it is most common in people who are overweight, and that it is associated with long, continuous nervous strain, high tension and constant worry.

Dr. Kleberg Eckhardt, of Corpus Christi, is president of the Texas Heart Association. He has announced that Senator Lyndon B. Johnson, has been appointed to serve as state chairman of the 1956 Texas Heart Fund during February.

Senator Johnson declares, "This is a cause in which all of us can work together for the good of humanity. I know Texans will not fail to meet this challenge."

A little blurred will tell you when you have had too much to drink.

Philosopher Wants Months to Decide On His Business

Dear editor:

It's not my job to advise the politicians, the way I see it, there's too much advice in the world already, especially farm advice, but it seems to me the politicians are starting in so early on the next election which won't happen till a year from now that by the time voting day rolls around everybody will be tired of the subject.

In fact, if farmers started working on next year's crops as early as politicians do on next year's election, a telling how big the surplus would be.

I sort of like the way President Eisenhower is handling the situation. He doesn't even discuss the matter.

I know there are a lot of people who wish he would say what he plans to do about running again, some Republicans want him to say so they can get in the race if he doesn't, others don't want him to say anything unless he can say yes, and some Democrats want him to stay quiet so it'll confuse the other Republican candidates, other Democrats want him to say something, provided it's no.

Personally, I prefer silence for this reason. The other day I read an article about a big industrialist who said his plans for expanding his business were being held up until he found out what President Eisenhower is going to do, and that's the policy I use out here on my Johnson grass farm.

There are a few preparations I could be making now toward next year's farming activities, but I hesitate to do anything until I find out what the President is gonna do.

This is a sound policy, provided you don't carry it too far. For example, it wouldn't be a good idea to hold up all your efforts until you find out what Congress is gonna do. I tried this once and it was three years before I found out and even then I wasn't sure.

People ought to be content to let the President take six months or so to make up his mind, when it takes Congress years.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

BIBLE COMMENT

Christ-Taught Largely a Message of Love

"The time draws near the birth of Christ" — in about a month we will observe the birthday of the Savior. It is appropriate that we consider what Christ means to the world of today, and what messages from His life and teaching are most applicable to the solving of the problems and dangers which we face.

Of prime importance is the message of God's redemptive love. Cruelty and unkindness still stalk the world because so many men have not as yet experienced, and put into practice, the rule of the love of God. As John says, if God so loved us we ought also to love one another.

Two Parables are at the very heart of Christ's message concerning our daily lives. One of these is the Parable of the Prodigal son. Our world is peopled with many prodigals and wastrels. One of our most vital problems is to redirect onto the road of life those who have made the wrong choice and wrong turning, like the prodigal of old.

The other Parable which especially applies is that of the Good Samaritan. Religious profession is not enough. We need, today, in every walk of life, Good Samaritans who will be as efficient, courageous, prompt and resourceful in action as they are in belief.

In this, perhaps the hour of greatest need for the world, we need men to implement Christ's name and way in all things, for "if any man have not the spirit of Christ, he is none of His."

Terry Franklin Has 6th Birthday

Terry Franklin was honored with a party Friday, November 18, in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Franklin. It was in celebration of his sixth birthday.

What Was The News Of Note? -Twenty-Five Years Ago-

From the Files of The Stanton Reporter of November 21, 1930

The Martin County Commissioners Court met last week and officially canvassed the votes held at the recent general election. Little interest was manifested in the election as the very light vote will testify. The Republicans polled 82 votes in the county, this vote showing up in the race for governor.

G. B. Shelburne, Jr., sports writer for The Stanton Reporter, said of the Stanton - Wink game: "Amid a flurry of sand such as has not been seen for many days in these parts, the Wink Wildcats relinquished their last faint hope for honor in the district race, when they were overwhelmed by the 19 to 7 score piled up by the Buffaloes here Saturday afternoon."

100,000 Planes Owned Privately In 1965 is Aim

General aviation, which accounted for some 93,000 airplanes last year and flew more than 8.7 million hours, is just beginning to come into its own, according to the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association.

These aircraft engage in all the flying that is done with the exception of the scheduled airlines and the military, and last year they were in the air almost three hours for each hour flown by the big commercial transporters.

After researching the status of general aviation today and its prospects 10 years hence, AOPA says that one light aircraft manufacturer expects to have at least 6,000 of its twin-engine models in operation in 1965. Another estimates a total of 2,500 of its twin-engine type will be flying at the end of the decade and another sets its figure at 1,500. Just these three types from only three manufacturers account for 10,000 planes, nearly seven times that of the scheduled airlines combined.

This figure doesn't include the tens of thousands of other types of light planes that will be flying at the time. One manufacturer of popular four-place aircraft says his company will have as many as 18,000 of these single-engine aircraft in operation during this period and another sets a figure of 12,000 for the 1965 total.

Since the precision and skill that goes into the manufacture of these planes, plus the completeness of maintenance required by the Civil Aeronautics Administration, gives light air-

The third grade class was under the direction of its teacher, Mrs. J. M. Payne, and Mrs. Paul Landers, teacher of the fourth and fifth grade class, directed its activities.

Plans have been started to improve the school library. Members plan for an enclosure for the books to be built and additional books purchased. A committee to investigate the library needs was appointed by Mrs. Delmar Hamm, president. It is made up of Grover Springer, chairman; Mrs. A. C.

Mrs. Billington went on to say that we should especially at this Thanksgiving season give thanks for the Bible, which was such an inspiration to our ancestors, the Pilgrims, and which is still the greatest of all books.

Several Bibles were exhibited by Mrs. Billington, including a third generation Bible. During the business meeting, conducted by President Mrs. R. B. Whitaker, Mrs. A. Clarence Smith was elected press report-er.

Members also voted to take part December 18 in a Christmas Pilgrimage, sponsored by Rho Xi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. A Christmas tree and special Christmas decorations will be on display in the home of Mrs. Glenn L. Brown.

For a Christmas project members will take magazines and small gifts to patients at the Big Spring State Hospital.

Garden Club In Study of Insects

Gerry Hanson, county agent, was guest speaker when the Stanton Garden Club met on Tuesday in the home of Mrs. J. B. Harvard.

Mrs. Floyd Smith, program chairman, introduced the speaker who gave an interesting and detailed account of "Garden Insects," and also showed slides illustrating the damage done to flowers, shrubs and trees by different insects and fungi.

He said the insects are divided into three groups, chewing, sucking and disease carriers, so there are three remedies to control them.

The remedies are by contact sprays, stomach poisons and repellents and fungicides, but to spray effectively one must know the history and characteristics of each fungus or insect.

Hanson also pointed out that nitrogen in soil produces height in plants, phosphorus produces the fruit and potassium is the regulator in the soil.

After the supper, games of ping pong were enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Horton and Rev. and Mrs. J. Roy Haynes.

Fire of unknown origin destroyed a small storehouse behind the Ackerly drug on Sunday night, November 13.

Residents succeeded in getting the fire under control until a Big Spring fire truck could arrive to finish smothering the flames.

Sunbeam Morrison, owner, said the contents of the building were unused and under $1,000 damage was done. The building was a complete loss, however.

COUNTY AGENT HANSON

If some of you know how to use some of your grain sorghum you might try this formula for wintering your calves.

66 per cent ground sorghum grain
20 per cent cottonseed meal
10 per cent salt
4 per cent bonemeal

The above is suggested with the idea that the calves would take 2 1/2 to 3 pounds of grain sorghum grain, 3/4 to 1 pound of cottonseed meal, from 1/3 to 1/2 pound salt, and 1/8 to 1/12 pound of bonemeal.

Now is a good time to control the lice on poultry. The louse spends its entire life on the host bird and spreads through a flock most rapidly during cooler weather. The eggs are attached to the feathers by a gluey substance and hatch in two weeks or less. The lice are grown in two weeks and a pair may produce 120,000 offspring within their life span of a few months hence, the need for immediate control.

The number of different species found in Texas can be controlled by the same treatment. The most common is by using a roost paint. An effective paint is one percent lindane in an oil solution. It should be applied at the rate of about one pint to each 200 feet of roost and just before the birds go to roost. A second application should be made within a 10 day to two weeks period. There are some dips, sprays, and dusts that can be used to control lice but this requires the handling of each bird. If anyone is interested in this method contact the County Agent and he will give you the formula for spraying, dipping or dusting.

One commercial calf for the fall shows of 1956 has already been placed on feed. Jimmy Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Robertson of the Tarzan community, got his calf from the Smith Bros. Ranches located in the northern part of Howard County.

The County Agent is in the process of locating three or four more calves that boys over the county have indicated that they want to feed. The five commercial calves that were fed in the county last year by Craig Beckmeyer, Ronnie George, Brenda George, Jeff Glendenning and Kathy Glendenning brought a little over $1500 an average of $300 or better per calf. They all sold for 30c or better.

Another reminder for this time of year. Don't forget that Vitamin A for your livestock. They may not have much stored up, due to the dry weather and the lack of green stuff. Vitamin A can be obtained from alfalfa or bright green hay. There are also some commercial pellets furnish Vitamin A. The lack of Vitamin A will cause livestock to become diseased and they won't make thrifty gains.

The Grady 4-H club had its regular meeting Monday, November 14, at the Grady school with County Agent Gerald Hanson and Home Demonstration Agent Mildred Eiland in charge.

Garden City Has Perfect Record For 1955 Season

By SANDRA WILKERSON

Garden City emerged from its District 7-B six-man football schedule without loss of a game when it defeated Water Valley, 41-12 Friday night.

The Bearcats were scoreless in the first quarter, but in the second quarter Jimmy Smith ran 45 yards for a touchdown, and Rob Childers added the extra point. Ken Rogers ran 15 yards for another touchdown and Doug Gray took a short pass from Lorin McDowell for another tally.

In the third quarter Eddie Engle ran 17 yards for a touchdown.

Water Valley's Richard Michum ran 45 yards for Water Valley's first score.

On the next series of downs Ken Rogers made a tally and Bill Bowden scored the extra point to make it 26-6.

In the fourth quarter Rogers again ran 35 yards for a Bearcat score.

Water Valley made a touchdown when Mitchum raced 60 yards.

Jimmy Smith came back into action to score again for Garden City and Dale Hilliger made the extra point.

The Garden City Bearcats will play the by-district game in Hobbs on November 24 at 7:30 p.m.

made the Buffaloes eight losses, one win and a tie, and the second reason, was that Friday night's contest was the last game to be played on the conference schedule for the 1955 season.

The Coahoma Bulldogs was the aggregation that scampers almost at will over the Buffalo field, pitching passes for three scores and plunging the line and racing 40 yards for a score.

The highlight of the game was the crowning of Suzanne Reynolds, high school senior, homecoming queen. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Reynolds of Stanton.

One consolation the Stanton Buffaloes have while shedding tears over the bad year they had in football, and that is some of the former members of the Stanton Buffaloes are making good in playing on other state teams. For example, Norman Blocker, who played outstanding football on the Buffalo squad, performed nobly on the Schreiner Mountaineers, in their game with Ranger. The score was 18-6 in favor of Schreiner.

Referring to Blocker in this game, the reporter said: "Blocker rambled 91 yards for the first score and went over from the one for the second score."

Weed Burning Is Firemen's Task

You may have supposed the whole south end of town was afire Monday night. But it was not. It was only the city firemen on "Operation Conflagration."

Each year the fire boys burn the weeds in the old lake area, just south of the tracks, and Monday night was the time to do it. Flames did run high, and it seemed everything might be afire, but the boys were watching it, and everything went off as planned.

Bobby Bryan returned Monday to Chicago where he is stationed in the army at a guided missiles radar station. He was on a 15-day leave here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Bryin.

until I know who he is," Shivers said.

He said he considers himself a "bona fide democrat" and feels it is no crime for a Democrat to vote for a Republican friend.

UT Tests Slated

High school seniors with a University of Texas career in mind will find a good vocabulary, logical mind and number sense helpful in taking the scheduled aptitude tests.

Tests may be taken in 42 Texas cities on three dates—February 4, May 12 and August 10.

Dr. H. T. Manuel, director of the University Testing and Guidance Bureau, said that, as a general rule, a student can be confident of his ability to succeed with university work if he is in the upper three-fifths of his high school class and makes a score of 75 or more on the aptitude test. Most of those applying for entrance would be admitted, he said.

The tests are designed to measure two very general abilities in academic work. First is the ability to work with words and to understand their meanings. Second is the ability to work with numbers and to solve problems. Scores on the required tests will not be the only basis for admission, Dr. Manuel added. All test scores will be kept confidential.

Both Giles' convictions in land scandal trials have been appealed to the Court of Criminal Appeals. Formal submission of the Austin conviction and three-year prison sentence is set for January 18.

A six-year sentence imposed in San Antonio was appealed and is expected to come before the court about January 25 or February 1.

Council Posts Filled

Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey announced committee assignments at the first meeting of the new Legislative Council.

Serving on the executive committee with Ramsey and House Speaker Jim Lindsey will be Sen. Abraham Kazen of Laredo and Reps. Obie Bristow of Big Spring and W. G. Kirklin of Odessa. Studying finances will be Sens. Neveille Colson of Navasota and Gus Strauss of Hallettsville, Reps. E. F. Crim of Henderson, W. S. Heatly, Jr. of Paducah and Pearce Johnson of Austin.

On the subject matter committee are Sens. Rogers Kelly of Edinburg, George Moffett of Chillicothe, Reps. Tom King of Dallas, Gus Garrett of Raymondville, James W. Yancy, Jr. of Houston, Ben A. Gusing of Kingsville and Joe Burkett of Kerrville.

As to subject matter to be studied before the next regular session, committee members say the council already is "loaded."

Committee Organizing

Every county in Texas is being asked by the State Historical Survey Committee, to set up a County Committee, announced HSC director George W. Hill of Austin.

The state committee was authorized by the 1953 Legislature to "study the subject of preservation and dissemination of the records of Texas and Texans."

County judges, with other officials, have been asked to appoint committees for their counties.

Should Be Simple—But

On September 6 the fee for driver's license renewal was increased to $2. All summer, however, Texans kept jumping the gun and sending in the larger fee. Patiently, the Department of Public Safety sent back the over-payments.

Now, however, the new law is in force—and guess what. The DPS is busy writing Texas drivers—asking for more money. Many of them are sending in the old $1 fee.

Short Snorts

Heart disease is Texas' No. One killer, accounting for 20,191 deaths last year, said Commr. of Health Henry A. Hoile. . . . An early winner in the first week of deer hunting season was Rep. Charles L. Sandahl, Jr. of Austin who shot an eight-point buck from the wheelchair to which polio has confined him.

W. Newton Barnes, Terrell city attorney has been named assistant secretary of state, replacing Miss Marie McCutchen of Dallas who did not accept the office offered her two weeks ago.

Saturday visitors with Mrs. S. E. Jones and the Les Durhams were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wright and family of Midland.

Juannell Overton Of Garden City Area Is Married to Jack Edwards

By SANDRA WILKERSON

Juannell Overton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Overton of Less, was married to Jack Edwards of Big Spring Saturday morning, November 12, in the home of her parents. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Edwards of Colorado City.

Arrangements of fall flowers decorated the home.

The Rev. Lee Crouch, pastor of the First Methodist Church, read the vows for the informal double ring ceremony.

Doyle Little, pianist, played "Whither Thou Goest" and the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length white faille frock. The basque waist, which was buttoned down the front with tiny covered buttons, featured a Peter Pan collar and short puff sleeves. Her hat was of white faille and she carried red roses.

Deanna Kay Overton was her sister's maid of honor and Wynona Fay Overton attended her sister as bridesmaid. Both were identically dressed in blue nylon and they carried colonial nosegays.

James Morgan of Big Spring served as best man.

During the reception at the home of the bride's parents, Darlene Hanson and Susan Bednar presided at the refreshments table. A three-tiered cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, was served with punch. Miss Little registered guests.

Mrs. Edwards attended Garden City high school, where she was a sophomore favorite this year. She was also a drummer in the pep squad. The bridegroom is employed by C. D. Turner Drilling Company of Big Spring.

A tea honoring Mrs. Edwards was given recently in the home-making department of Garden City high school. Hostesses were members of the Homemaking Two Class.

Mary Ruth Asbill served punch and Darlene Hanson served cake from a white linen-covered table. It was centered with a bridal doll cake.

A gift tea honoring Mrs. Lee Moore, the former Retta Stephens, was given recently in the home of Mrs. Lee Crouch.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Crouch were Mrs. R. C. Schafer, Mrs. Allie B. Cook, Mrs. Erwin Wooten, Mrs. V. M. Gill and Helen Cunningham.

The tea table, laid with a white lace cloth, was centered with an arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums. Crystal appointments were used.

Mrs. R. C. Schafer and Mrs. Allie B. Cook presided at the tea table. Mrs. Crouch greeted guests and Mrs. Wooten presided at the bride's book.

Names were drawn for secret pals and gifts were exchanged when the Federated Missionary Society met recently in the Methodist Church with 35 members present.

Mrs. W. A. Wilson was in charge of the program. A duet was sung by Mary Duncan and Latrelle Venable. They were accompanied by Mrs. Bill Cook. Mrs. Clyde Reynolds directed games.

Rev. Bill Cook gave a devotional.

Next meeting will be in January with the Presbyterian women and Mrs. Steve Calverley as hostesses. Mrs. B. L. Murphy will be in charge of the program and chairman of the games committee will be Mrs. Tucker Duncan.

Civil Defense was the topic of discussion at a recent meeting of the St. Lawrence Home Demonstration Club in the home of Mrs. Millard Saunders.

Saunders, who was at one time assistant fire chief at the Pyote Air Force Base, spoke on fire prevention and the precautions that should be taken in the home.

Mrs. I. L. Holscher told what to do in the event a tornado strikes and she gave six hints to take the public into their confidence, which is so often missing in public officials.

"It always amazes us how many intelligent citizens, once they are elected to a public place of trust, get the idea that the citizenry as a whole does not have sense enough to understand the reasons for what they do. So they try to keep them from knowing any more than absolutely necessary, thus creating real suspicion of their motives."

"Our school board and our city commission are two notable exceptions to this rule, and we are proud of them for it."

CALLING ATTENTION TO 3,704 new cases of tuberculosis reported in the state last year, Governor Allan Shivers warned Texans that tuberculosis is a communicable disease which can invade any home at any time.

The Governor pointed out for survival during an enemy attack.

In observance of National Homemakers of America week, the Garden City chapter recently entertained the faculty members of Garden City schools with a coffee in the homemaking department.

The table was covered with an ecru linen cloth and was centered with a cornucopia filled with fruit.

Darlene Drews served coffee and was assisted by Susan Bednar and Darlene Hanson.

Jackie Wilson and Mrs. S. G. Oaks, homemaking sponsor, arranged the centerpiece.

Weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Leach were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Dorn, Johnny and Sug, Mr. and Mrs. Curt Shaw and Connie, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Leach, all of Colorado City, and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Wood of Big Spring.

Mrs. Glenn Orren of Mt. Vernon has returned home after visiting with her mother, Mrs. Stant Davis.

Farm & Ranch Review

By JAMES E. KELLY

Dedication of the Big Bend National Park November 21 had a tinge of ranch color attached to it when it was brought out Ira Hector, Fort Davis tourist camp owner, once owned the Basin, the great natural cup high in the Chisos Mountains, where the dedication ceremony was held.

Writing of Ira Hector in the San Angelo Standard, Barry Scobee, Fort Davis, Standard correspondent, reported that Hector and wife moved in 1917 way down in the vast wastes of the Big Bend. In the years followed Hector rode in cattle work over every hill and into all the mountain clumps and into every canyon.

"I don't figure on going down to the dedication," Ira says. "What with Mrs. Hector teaching in Valentine I've got to ride herd on this tourist court. And believe me that is a long rope toss from ramrodding drives out of the Big Bend to the railroad. Anyhow, the Big Bend isn't what it used to be, with all those buildings where Mary Lee and I used to whoop cows out of the crush."

Of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hector, Scobee said, "Their ranch house was in the afternoon shadows of the Chisos Mountains. It was then that their daughter decided to be a nurse. With money from the cows she helped to gather in the Basin she went to Hendrick Memorial Hospital at Abilene. As a graduate nurse she entered the Army Nurse Corps in the Second World War as a lieutenant and came out a captain. Now she is back at her alma mater as its educational advisor."

Hale County's cotton crop for the season has been estimated to reach 150,000 bales. According to last week's ginning reports the county is a long way from ginning that many bales. The report gave the county's ginnings as 38,375 bales.

Hundreds of farm boys and girls from many states will spend their Thanksgiving holiday in Chicago to play a major role in the 1955 International Livestock Exposition November 25 through December 3, show officials have announced.

Farm youth will be in the spotlight the first two days of the show. The National 4-H Livestock Judging contest will start the activities of the International on Friday, November 25.

The Junior Livestock Feeding Contest is scheduled for Saturday, November 26. In this contest 4-H and FFA boys and girls will show their prize winning stock from County and State Fairs earlier in the season. The management reports that over 500 head of 4-H and FFA raised livestock have been entered in the junior competitions of this year's show.

A Lamb County farmer is sold on deep plowing of his land. Last year he deep-plowed 10 acres, 15 to 16 inches deep. This year he planted cotton on the 10 acres, and it made 77 pounds of lint more an acre than from similar land not deep plowed. The net increase amounted to better than $77 an acre.

This may be rather an unusual item to be put among those printed in the Farm and Ranch column, but originating on a farm it is in line for a spot in this column. The incident

Second—its getaway—with the double-action take-off of the new Variable Pitch Dynaflo®—is spectacular even at only part throttle—and comes with a new boost in gas mileage to boot.

Third—on ride, this new SPECIAL is more than great—what with all-coil springing, and torque-tube stability, and a new deep-oil cushioning, and a whole new front-end geometry that adds a wonderful "sense of direction" to the car's travel.

Fourth—on room, luxury, interior finish—there's never been a Buick SPECIAL like this before. From the big, broad seats to the stunning new instrument panel—there's new decorator smartness and quality throughout.

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

But get the picture on price, and you have the biggest reason why this sizable automobile is so extra special a buy.

For this Buick comes to you at a figure so close to those of the most widely known smaller cars, the difference in price is small change.

So—come in and see and sample this beauty. You'll find it, we firmly believe, the biggest package of automobile at anywhere near its budget price.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo® is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.
