Music, readings and contests comprised the evening's program, Miss Marie Henry and little Miss Mary Elizabeth Triplett favoring the guests with readings. In the contests Mrs. A. P. McKinnon was given a set of muffin pans as a prize for the highest score.

Delightful refreshments were served at the close of the evening to about 30 guests.

MUSICAL ARTS QUARTETTE NEXT LYCEUM NUMBER

The Musical Arts Quartette, a male quartette of singers and players, who are coming to Floydada on Wednesday night of next week, will be the last number on Floydada Lyceum Committee's 1920-21 program.

Advance notices indicate that the Musical Arts Quartette is an excellent organization of music makers, and that they will give a highly satisfactory program. Male quartettes always get a good house and the fact that this number is expected to be above an average augurs a full house to hear them.

"PUSSYFOOT" JOHNSON ESCORTED OUT OF CANADA

Windsor, Ont., April 12.—"Booted" from the platform by a derisively howling mob, William E. (Pussyfoot) Johnson, American dry campaigner, was forced to abandon his speech at the Windsor Armory.

Escorted by the entire police force "Pussyfoot" headed a mob of 2,000 persons to the Detroit ferry. Bricks, eggs and a glass of beer or two mingled with the jeers of the crowd. Johnson was uninjured.

NO HEARING DATE SET FOR SHIPLEY SCHOOL INJUNCTION

No hearing has been held and no date has been set for a hearing of the injunction petition of W. A. Shipley filed in District Court on April 2nd against the trustees of Floydada Independent School District, praying that the board be restrained from further collection of taxes against his property in the district and asking for a restraining order against the expenditure of funds under the $90,000 bond issue voted on March 12th this year.

No new developments of any kind have come to light in the matter.

TIME CHANGE NOT ORDERED BY SANTA FE YET

No order putting into effect the time change on the Panhandle lines of the Santa Fe had been issued up to Tuesday.

Local Agent J. M. Hughes, of the Santa Fe, said Tuesday morning he had not been notified of the change.

No effort is being made by people locally to comply with the time change and will probably not be until the railroad company puts the change into effect on their timetables.

Geo. W. Smith, of Mt. Blanco, was a business visitor in Floydada yesterday.

BOY SCOUTS SPEND DAY IN FIELD SCOUT WORK

EARLY WHEAT HEADING

A few fields of early wheat are beginning to head and within ten days or two weeks a big per centage of the early wheat will begin to show heads.

A stalk with a good head of grain was shown in Floydada Monday. Garland Dunavant found it in a neighbor's field. Volunteer fields and early planted fields are thus shown to be in a far advanced stage. The bulk of the wheat crop is later than this.

Much late wheat is just beginning to "grow up."

FIFTY EPWORTH LEAGUERS AT SOCIAL MEETING

Members of the Epworth League were entertained last Monday evening in the parlors of the Methodist Church by their leader, Mrs. A. N. Gamble, at a social meeting following a business session at 7:30.

Some fifty members and guests were present and enjoyed the games and contests which furnished the evening's diversions. Among those present for the evening was Mr. Casey, of Lockney, District Epworth League Superintendent. He made an interesting address on Epworth League work. Punch and cake were served as refreshments.

The League will meet next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the church, and the meeting will be conducted by Mr. McCleskey, evangelistic singer in the party of Evangelist Fishér.

U. S. DOLLAR BACK ON 1916 BUYING POWER BASIS

Chicago, April 4.—That sturdy old friend, the American Dollar, is coming back and displacing the miserable 32-cent limitation that has been posing as a dollar for the three or four years. Here are some evidences that Mr. Dollar is functioning again:

The dollar today will buy ten pounds of sugar. The dollar in 1919 bought only four and three-quarter pounds.

The dollar now buys twenty pounds of rice, against six pounds in 1920.

The dollar now buys sixty pounds of potatoes as against eleven and a half in 1920; 16 2-3 pounds of navy beans as against 11 3-4 a year ago; four dozen eggs as against one dozen a year ago; three pounds of butter as against one pound a year ago, and 2 1-2 pounds of coffee as against 1 1-4 pounds of the same brand a year ago. The dollar will also buy three times as much clothing, twice as many shoes, a third more coal and nearly twice as much lard, fruit and some varieties of meat.

It will in some instances buy five or six times as many vegetables.

Stripling, Vanetta and Urnon Borum, Donnie and Lonny Stephenson, Gwendolyn Snodgrass, Jessie Mae Wood, Arlene Donnell, Avanel Shockey, Vela, Curtis and Meeta Gilbert, Ethna and Starks Green, Katie Lee and Mary Louise Thurmon, Bishop Pitts, Relis Allen, Gerald Mac Hughes, Juanita Suiter, Velma and Grace Hodges, Vonceil Ray Benton.

FORT WORTH UP IN ARMS OVER WEST TEX. A. & M. VETO

J. J. McNeely returned yesterday afternoon from Fort Worth, where he had been for a day or two on business. Speaking of conditions in that section he said that rain had been plentiful but wheat was apparently not doing as well as in this section.

Fort Worth is up in arms over the veto of the West Texas A. & M. College veto of Governor Neff, he says, and the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce and other business organizations of that city are for the claims of West Texas to a man.

He was accompanied to Fort Worth by his son, Will, and Mrs. Will McNeely accompanied them as far as Abilene for a short stay with relatives.

SWINE BREEDERS CHOOSE OFFICERS FOR THE YEAR

The Floyd County Purebred Hog Breeders' Association at their meeting in Lockney last Saturday re-elected J. E. Lee, of Lockney, president of the association, and J. I. Hammonds secretary-treasurer. B. B. Gullett, of this place, was elected vice president.

Plans for the year were discussed at this meeting. The Association expects to accomplish a number of constructive matters this year.

The next meeting will be held in Floydada on the first Saturday in May at 2 o'clock p. m.

PORK AND SPRINGTIME MAKE HOGRAISER TURN POET

Springtime 1921 does not see many of Floyd County's farmers blue, because they are raising hogs and chickens, besides a wheat crop, cotton and feedstuffs. Though the cotton market has gone to pot, and wheat is on the decline as fast as it ever went up and feed stuffs are very slow on the cash market, a combination of porkers and springtime is actually making some Floyd County farmers turn poet.

For instance, one hog-raiser who has prospered for many years from hog and cattle raising, one day last week sold a few hogs for $385.40. He was so busy with his operations on the farm that he didn't have the time to bring the money to the bank so he just mailed it in to the banker for credit. However, he felt so poetic over the situation that he sat down and the rhymes came to him so fast he wrote his letter that way:

A little dog to bark and bite,
A little bird to sing,
A bunch of hogs to make some pork
But they eat up everything.
They got among my lady's chickens
And she just raised the dickens,
So to the market I did go
And turned them porkers into dough.
A check for $385.40,
There are 90 left to stay a spell,
So if they be good and not raise hell
I get by just sorry.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Dorothy Louise, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Allen, was the honoree at a birthday party from 3 to 5 last Thursday afternoon, given by her mother and her aunt, Miss Mary D. Allen. It was the occasion of her third birthday. Candy was served the little folks during the progress of the games of the afternoon and ice cream and cake were served late in the afternoon.

Little guests present were: Wilmina and Harold Salisbury, Arthur Earl and J. W. Gamble, Juanita Houghton, Jean Bain, E. L. and Elam Morris, Edward Walter Morehead, Ruby Doris Johnson, Worth Gwendolyn and Geneva Shipley, Gerald Mack Hughes, Dola Maddox, Cecil Covington, Mary Louise Truitt and Willie Allen.

Many years ago, when the nearest railway to this section of the state were the Fort Worth & Denver at Childress and the Santa Fe at Canyon, and the mail was carried in hacks propelled by mule power there was a profession of mail hack driver. The good drivers "made it" on time regardless of the weather, and the others didn't do so well.

One of these old-time stage drivers became a married man in Floydada Tuesday. He is Stant S. Rhea, a resident of Hale County for probably 30 years and for many years a driver on the Floydada-Plainview line.

His wife was formerly Mrs. Florence Royal. Judge W. B. Clark officiated at the wedding which was held in his office at the court house.

OKLAHOMA WINS TITLE TO RED RIVER OIL LANDS

Washington, April 11.—The boundary between Oklahoma and Texas follows the south bank of the Red River, the Supreme Court held today in deciding the dispute between the two States. This decision sustains the contention of Oklahoma.

The treaty of 1819 between the United States and Spain made the southern bank the boundary, the court said, citing negotiations between Secretary of State Adams and the Spanish envoy at the time when Texas was a part of Mexico.

Oil lands in the Red River Valley valued at many millions of dollars were involved in the suit. The lands have been in the hands of a receiver appointed by the Supreme Court a year ago on motion of the Government which intervened in the dispute between the States.

Under injunctions issued by the court at the request of the Government, the State of Texas was prohibited from issuing permits affecting the contested lands, while both States were prohibited from removing oil or gas well machinery located in the territory.

The court announced that a formal decree would be issued within the next few days carrying out its judgment.

The Red River case grew out of a suit brought by the State of Oklahoma, which claimed title to valuable oil deposits lying in the shallow waters of the river. Had the center of the river been held to be the State line, as Texas claimed, the oil wells in operation would have been thrown into Texas.

Oklahoma's counsel produced in court lengthy excerpts from the negotiations between the United States and Spain in 1819 to show this very point was brought up at that time.

Secretary Adams, according to his memoirs, set forth he had insisted that the "southbank" of the Red River must be accepted as the limit of the jurisdiction of the United States.

CLAIMS OF JACK CLOSE GET ATTENTION AT LAST

The claims of Jack Close under the War Risk Bureau of the government for injuries sustained during the World War have been recognized at last and he will receive substantial recognition. For more than two years the home service department of the Red Cross, local physicians and other agencies have been working to get his case properly adjusted.

During the war he saw considerable service at the front in the infantry. He was gassed and spent many months in hospitals in France and America and was finally declared sound, when he was discharged. Returning home he at once went to work but in a few months his troubles began to show up. He was bedridden for a long time with paralysis and other maladies and must still use crutches to get about.

Although examined many times by physicians from the Treasury Department he has been receiving only $9 per month the last few months under the act ceating the War Risk Bureau.

Last week local people who have been working on the matter in the belief that he was entitled to more consideration, received advices from Congressman Jones that the case had been disposed of finally, a letter from the War Risk Bureau announcing that Close would get $1600 back pay and $100 per month.

Materials for new foundations and other improvements contemplated are being placed on the ground. The company expects to be ready for business in their added line within the next thirty to sixty days.

FISHERS, HUNTERS, CAMPERS WORRY CANYON OWNERS

Owners of land on Blanco Canyon are being worried more than ever already this spring with hunters, campers and fishers, some of whom treat the property owners with every consideration and a goodly portion of whom treat the property owners with no consideration whatever. Locked gates, fences, sheep, cattle, or other live stock do not bother the latter class.

R. B. Smith, who owns the old Rock House and the Rock House pastures at Mt. Blanco, did not get any dinner Sunday of last week trying to keep trespassers from tearing down his fences, scattering his sheep including ewes with young lambs, and taking possession of the place in general.

Trespassers for many years have had every consideration, and so far as is known, no complaints have ever been filed against them by owners on Blanco. Apparently these owners have about exhausted patience and some of the more careless trespassers may have an opportunity to explain their actions to the judge.

F. L. HAINES' HOME BURNED

Fletcher Haines' home on East Georgia Street was burned last Friday evening about 8 o'clock catching from an unknown origin. The house was a complete loss and very little furniture was saved.

Some insurance was carried on both house and contents.
