Wheat Bins!
How to Get Hold of One!

Yesterday's $1.50 wheat price whooped 'em up for the steel grain bin business in a big way.
Last week salesmen were having trouble getting enough people interested to order out a couple or three carloads.

Yesterday they were running over local dealers, calling out of town, talking to anybody that would listen.

Visions of the loss of 40 to 80 cents a bushel on a crop that had been raised on a $2 basis didn't appeal. Besides the bins, if they could be had at all, would be approved storage and give the wheat man a chance to save more on his price of wheat than the bin would take out of his pocket—and he would have the bin without cost.

DOLLAR DAY
NEXT MONDAY
IN FLOYDADA

It looks like First Monday, June 6, is going to be another finger for big bargains in Floydada, a day which you can call First Monday. Value day, Dollar day, or whatnot. It is the second in a series that may be continued for a long, long time, if the public continues to like the idea and respond to it.

Merchants, and there are a good many of them, who plan and buy specially to make the first Monday in the month an event worthy of the name, point out that the day helps to pep up buying because it gets out of the rut of every-day buying and selling. Robt. H. Crowell, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, and Robt. Finley, chairman of the retail merchandising committee, say the idea appeals to retailers and their customers alike.

Although Monday, if weather holds good, will be a big busy day in the fields, those who can separate themselves from their work long enough to do so will find the offerings quite attractive.

A number of advertisements in this week's Hesperian feature the Dollar day or First Monday idea.
In some of these offers the retailers really are stepping out with feature merchandise.

Although merchandisers can and probably will offer any slow-moving merchandise at bargain combinations on the special day they also buy merchandise which arrives over the week-end specially for the morning of First Monday to add spice to the day's business. A study of the advertisements thus will be of more than passing interest this week.

Consolidation
Majority High

Although not many voters of the three districts went to the polls for the consolidation vote in Center, McCoy, or Floydada districts on May 27, the sentiment was near unanimous in all three for the consolidation.

At Center 17 votes favored the move, three opposed; at McCoy 13 favored and two opposed, and in Floydada 47 cast votes for the consolidation and two voted against.

The merger of the three districts was generally looked upon as a practical change. In April Floydada and Starkey districts voted in practically the same ratio as in Friday's election for consolidation.

Miss Woodruff to Report as Asst.
Home Dem. Agent Monday

Miss Eloise Woodruff has been appointed by the Extension Service of A. & M. college as assistant county home demonstration agent in training for Floyd county, effective June 6 to August 30. Miss Kate Adele Hill, district agent, announces that Miss Woodruff will report for duty on June 6. Her appointment has been approved by the commissioners court of Floyd county, although her salary will be paid entirely by the Extension Service as a part of their training program for prospective county home demonstration agents.

Miss Woodruff lives in Shallowater and has been one of the leading 4-H club girls of Lubbock county, having won national honors. She has finished two years of home economics college training at Texas Technological college and expects to complete her work for her degree there.

A planned course of instruction will be given Miss Woodruff under the supervision of Miss Lella Petty, Floyd county home demonstration agent, and Miss Hill. Floyd county was selected as one of the four counties in Extension District Two where assistants in training are be-

Lack of Storage Alarms Wheat Men Area Cotton Outlook Grows Brighter

Abatement of the heavy rainfall must continue another week or 10 days if Floyd county farmers are to get all of their cotton acreage planted and up to a stand, it appeared as of yesterday.

In all sections of the county there are some fields which are beginning to show cotton above the ground and many farmers are well pleased with the outlook for a stand. With seed at $3 per bushel the cotton man is making efforts to get a stand from the seed he has in the ground.
Lon M. and Lon M. Davis, Jr., have 600 acres at Harmony that they have rotary hoes going in but are gone after more seed as a matter of insurance.

Around Dougherty for the most part the rains over the week-end were light and it looked like a stand would result from last week's plantings. Most of the cotton men got their seed into the ground. This week will see them finished, barring more rain. Lakeview is in about the same situation, with good promise of a stand in most of the area over into Pleasant Hill and Baker as well. Wayne Battey said the rain in the Lakeview area was about half an inch on an average.

D. A. Senn said Tuesday afternoon's spot hail at Dougherty did not damage tender garden plants and he thought it would not affect the cotton situation. J. E.
Newton and Robt. Hinesley felt like they had a good chance for a stand of cotton south of Dougherty.

At Lone Star the rain amounted to two inches or so and G. B. Johnston said some cotton in the ground for several days would come on through but plantings of Friday and Saturday might not. At Sterley a little less rain fell than at Lone Star, and the situation is a bit better.

J. W. Lanier, manager of Farmers Coop gin here said yesterday that 85 per cent of the crop in this area would come up to a good stand.

Edgar Hays, publisher of the Lockney Beacon, said the week-end rainfall was light in the vicinity of Lockney and the prospects for a good stand is excellent there.

At Center a flood rain fell and it is possible 60 per cent of the cotton there will have to be re-planted, especially on land that was planted on the contour.

"Rotary hoes are doing the job."

Good Softball
Games Are Due
For Tonight

Wee bit of an increase in the number of spectators for the City Softball league was noted the past week as evenings began to warm up.
Tonight ought to have two good games for spectators, with South Plains tying into Builders Mart, and the REA trying their hand with the league leading Merchants. Lockney goes to Farmer.

Next week's games will be as follows:

June 6, Monday: Builders Mart vs.
REA; South Plains vs. Lockney; June 7, Tuesday: Farmer vs. Merchants;

June 9, Thursday: Builders Mart vs. Lockney; Merchants vs. South Plains. REA goes to Farmer.

This will end the official league play until after harvest except for make-up games which will be played in the following week, weather permitting. Apparently harvest will not hit until after that week to any appreciable extent.

ON TRIP DOWN STATE

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Orman left this morning for an extended trip downstate that will take them to Galveston, Houston and Huntsville.
On the way down, the Ormans will stop at College Station to get their son, Maely, who is a student at A.
& M. college and who will make the trip with them.

In Huntsville, they will visit with Mrs. Orman's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Rambo.

J. W. Lanier said, "They are loosening up the crop and killing the little weeds and grass so a rain will have a clean crop when his cotton gets a stand."

Not much rain fell in the vicinity of Sand Hill. There Ed Holmes reports, the cotton outlook is good.

In the southwest corner of the county many cotton men have finished planting, and have cotton coming out satisfactorily. Some of these are planting feed, said Mrs.
Marvin Shubert Tuesday.

Looks Good At Aiken

At Aiken the situation as to cotton is practically ideal as of Wednesday afternoon. H. L. Stowe, manager of the Aiken gin, said nearly all the cotton is up to a good stand and the rest of it will be up by the week-end. The ground is warm, the ground is clean and the stands good. In that area farmers have had to replant but it looks like now it was a good thing they had to do so, said Mr. Stowe.

The crop is doing good also up into the Providence country where heavier rain fell over the week-end but not enough to destroy or damage the crop materially. Lockview farmers, where the Paymaster block seed are grown, have good stands and good prospects.

Replanting Around Edgin

Hall did not do a lot of damage around Edgin and in the Quitque valley last Saturday afternoon but the rain did. At Quitque the estimate is that 60 per cent of the cotton will have to be re-planted there, and at Edgin on over in Floyd county, 90 to 95 per cent of the crop will have to be re-planted.

Mrs. Webb Taylor said yesterday Tuesday afternoon and that the ground is drying out fast, so that all the work that has to be re-done can be done soon. (Parenthetically Mrs. Webb said combines pulled into the J. T. Persons wheat Wednesday afternoon southeast of Edgin.)

In the Flomot area there will be some replanting, but that area did not suffer too much damage. On over at Whiteflat the country was laid flat and everything will have to be re-done there as it will also up around Northfield.

J. H. Barnard of Barwise reports no rainfall west of Sand Hill over the week-end. Quite a few farmers in that territory have planted cotton, and there are some instances where some of it has dried out, but for the most part the farmers have a pretty good stand, and expecting better.

At Lockney, said Mrs. V. E. Spars of Spears Gin company, a lot of people have got their cotton up and to a stand. A few will have to plant over but not many. "Give us three or four days and the crop will be off to a good start with few weeds and good, warm ground to grow in," she said. A heavy acreage of cotton is being put into the ground in that area, she said.

On the first three days of a week of X-ray service by technicians of the Texas State Health department, there was as brisk business as the registration and hostess committees could handle with something more than an average of 300 persons per day stopping and registering for the x-ray. Actual numbers who had been x-rayed Tuesday night was 627 persons with about the same rate of speed on Wednesday.

X-ray is being done by a mobile unit of the Texas State Department of Health. They have set up at the Chamber of Commerce office, loaned for the purpose for the week.

Mrs. C. K. Arnold, chairman of the registration committee, and Mrs.
E. L. Angus, chairman of the hostess committee, have had an ample number of aides on hand every day to carry on the handling of the crowds. Technicians doing the x-ray work are Lee Balotte, of New Orleans, and Ken Hess, of San Antonio.

Registrations are pretty well from all parts of the county. A nominal cost is being born by local organizations. The x-ray service is free.
The technicians will continue to operate through Saturday here.
Friday the hours will be 9 o'clock to 6 o'clock, but on Saturday, the last day, the hours will be from 10 o'clock to 5 o'clock.

BOND HOME DOING NICELY

Hollis Bond, who underwent major surgery at the Lubbock Memorial hospital last week, returned home Tuesday, May 31. Mrs. Bond reports that he is doing just fine, and expects to go back to work some time next week as he is able to be up some now.

Mr. Bond is a co-partner of Masie & Bond land agency.

Many local farmers have or may be bothered with "Model A" bugs in their crops. To control these pests, mix 10 to 12 pounds of arsenic in 100 pounds of shorts. Add water until there is a rather thin mash and scatter it along the turn rows and edges of wheat fields. This mixture should be applied late in the evening or early morning, reports county agent Robert H. Gibson.

Floyd county pioneers in their re-union here Saturday enjoyed a parade three quarters of a mile long, saw some of the best horse flesh the panhandle-plains country affords, met many of their old friends, and heard Judge E. C. Nelson, jr., of Amarillo, in an address in which he recounted some early history of the county for the benefit of the youngsters in the old-timer family.

It was a pretty day right up to the late afternoon hours. When rains came they interrupted the outdoor open platform dancing program for only an hour or so.

To succeed Mrs. Jeffie Smith as president of the association the old settlers selected Carr Surginer, who came to Floyd county from Young county in 1896. With him were chosen Omer Parrish as vice-president, Maud E. Hollums secretary and G.
L. Fawver as treasurer. Directors all were re-elected being A. T. Swepston, Tom McLain, Glad Snodgrass, R. C. Scott, Buck Sams and C. L.
Anderson.

Lubbock Sheriff's posse

The parade was a long one and probably the best display of good horse flesh seen locally in many seasons. It also had numerous good floats and displays in the line. Led by Geo. L. Fawver and G. L. Snodgrass as flag bearers, the parade formed on South Main street. Floydada High school band played marching airs as they paraded in the line.
O. L. Stansell was parade marshal.

Polly 300 of the old-timers enjoyed a delightful luncheon served by clubs of the home demonstration organization of the county.

Preceding this repast the old settlers spent two or three hours of association after they had registered. Mrs. J. J. Spikes said the invocation at the luncheon. As has been the custom for a number of years bouquets of wild flowers from the prairies graced the tables where the pioneers were served.

When the speaking program began, Judge E. C. Nelson, jr., was presented by Glad Snodgrass, chairman of the entertainment committee. During the course of the afternoon the pioneers also heard Claude V. Hall, of Commerce, briefly. Mr.
Hall is the founder of the Floyd County Hesperian. He recently retired as head of the government department at East Texas State college at Commerce and is now engaged in the practice of law there.

In the late afternoon the large platform prepared by McDermitt post of the American Legion, was used for many square dances and other old-fashioned steps. When the clouds boiled out of the northwest they ran the celebrating crowd under cover for a couple of hours but the fun was renewed when the skies ceased to weep.

The 2 o'clock parade, first afternoon parade in the history of the re-union, made way for a morning show of quarter horses which was a classy one. Several of the quarter horse breeders had their fancy stock in the parade.

A late afternoon feature at the Floyd county wheat growers, with a tremendous harvest right around the corner and depending solely on good weather for major production, got a real bump this week as the market plummeted 44 cents per bushel in Floydada, from $1.94 last Wednesday to $1.50 yesterday.

And the resultant talk was all about storage.

Storage Outlook Is Bad

And the outlook is really bad, unless the wheat raiser has some way of protecting himself. Wheat raisers in Young and Wichita counties already are piling wheat on the ground while they wait for permission to spot cars, or accept a price far below the government loan value set.

Some farmers are getting ready to pile on the ground, some are throwing steel bins together, a few think the situation may not be so bad and are just waiting.

Storage space available in Floyd county will not take care of much more than a million bushels and the elevators have got to keep some of their space clear for the movement of the crop as they have an opportunity to spot cars. With an embargo on the major terminals, a shipper must have clearance on his wheat before the railways can or will accept billing.

Roe Jones, manager of Producers Cooperative elevator here said he got no encouragement in the matter of storage space on a trip down-state last week. He said also that farmers can expect the terminals to be exacting in their demands as to moisture content. "Two or three good days runs in this territory will fill up all the space available," said Mr. Jones, "and from then on it will be a situation where a grower will have to pile his wheat on the ground or put it in some kind of a bin on his farm."

W. Ed Brown said he was piling several steel bins together to store part of his crop. There is no probability that anything like all the storage needed can be provided in the time now left before the harvest starts.

Crop Looks Most Promising

Assuming that the weather holds good the crop throughout the county is most promising. Some thin wheat southeast of Floydada will not be so good but everywhere else the crops are uniformly fine. A hail overnight could change this picture but a wheat grower can't sit and wait to see whether a hail is going to strip his grain.

Harvest here is days away, how-

FIRST LOAD OF WHEAT

Floyd county's first load of wheat went to the elevator last night. It was cut yesterday afternoon on the J. T. Persons farm southeast of Edgin. It tested 63 pounds to the bushel with a moisture content of 9.52 per cent.

Reporting on the crop last night Mort Hawkins of Quitque elevator where the grain was marketed, said the yield would run about 25 bushels by estimate.

EDITORIALS

A Pesky Situation.—Recently The Hesperian had complaint from a group of Texas tech exes who felt unhappy about the abbreviation for technological being put in the paper with a lower case "t" (thus tech) whereas it appears from grammatical authorities that slang or shorts for proper expressions should be capitalized. We did not know of this rule of grammar, having wrestled with English as it should be done only up to (and including, mind you) the seventh. We sympathize with these souls who have been more fortunate in their educational program. The fact is we envy them with green eyes and we do not mean maybe. Now comes the Coca Cola company (lower case c for company you note) which has a hired hand who is compelled by court order to write a letter to every newspaper which prints "coke" with a lower case "c" calling attention to this error. The phact is this newspaper is limited in the number of capital tees available and also capital cees. We would like to get along with Mr. cokeacola and we want the Texas tech people to like us but we have a technological problem which is ever present and compelling. These phactory people charge us for the capital tees and the capital cees. We know they have to and we do not complain at that. Nor do we complain when the up and at them exes of Texas tech fall out with us. But when Mr. cocacola who puts a sign on every tourist cabin in the United States (but no ad in The Hesperian because we do not qualify) gets his man Friday to write us a letter that is bad indeed. We are going to write tech with a capital tee every time we have a capital tee available but we hesitate to write coke or cokeacola with a capital cee just to get along with a federal judge with a New Jersey complex. We will attempt to get a certificate from the phactory that they charge more for capital tees and cees, also zeex exes and aiches than they ought to. This may satisfy the high court and mollify the courtess.

One of the most acute agonies is fear of tornadoes or cyclones. If you are an afflicttee you just can't help it, and you may save your life by being in a cellar when the right time comes, also those of your family of course. On the other hand there is always the possibility that you will miss getting into a hole in the ground at the wrong time. If you let that worry you, though, you had also as well worry about many of the other hazards of life which you undergo daily but do not let bother you, quite likely because they are not so dramatic. You think of losing a life or being maimed in a tornado as being an awful thing. As a one-time habitue of the storm cellar we know the horror of the feeling of impending doom that goes with a stormy day.

As a sort of a suggestion we offer the idea that a fatalistic attitude is about as good as any other. If you can bring yourself around to it take it easy. You may live just as long that way and certainly you won't have nearly so much trouble while you are living.

Twisters in the north plains area remind us again that a good many people, including ourselves, do not have storm cellars. A good cellar can be used for canned food storage, as well as protection for the family in a storm period, but, of course, a good substantial one costs some money.

Every type of work has its monumental problem and every man who is charged with seeing that things carry on has this problem to solve. For instance the maintenance men of the State Highway department. Perhaps these men foresee the day they will again have the situation under control. But if they do they are better than we. It appears to us the public is gradually gaining on them. War conditions first let the public get a "head start" in Texas, and later for two or three years they couldn't get this and that, couldn't get help, couldn't take the stitch in time to save nine. The public has the last word, of course, and the public has decreed bigger and better and longer and heavier loads on the road. The road maintainer man has quite a pattern of work cut out for him by the turn the traffic demand has taken. It looks monumental to us.

Contributed thought.—To live continually in thoughts of ill-will, cynicism, suspicion and envy, is to be confined in a self-made prison hole. But to think well of all — such unselfish thoughts are the very portals of Heaven; and to dwell day by day in thoughts of peace towards every creature will bring abounding peace to their possessor. This is from "As a man thinketh" by James Allen. Mrs. Wyatt, of Floydada hospital suggested it for use in the paper.

Commercial broiler production where 5 thousand to 40 thousand broilers are produced each 10 to 12 weeks on the farm will continue to increase quick frozen poultry on the market and consumer acceptance if high poultry and price ratios are favorable.

The coming of warm weather emphasizes the need for prompt cooling of milk and cleanliness in production. Milk from clean, healthy cows contains few bacteria as it comes from the udder.

Be Your Age, Says Dr. Cox

AUSTIN, Texas.—There is an old slang expression that would make a good slogan for living a longer and more comfortable life, and that is "Be your age." According to the State Health officer, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, many persons injure their health through indulgence in exercises and health and endanger their life through vigorous sports unsuited for their age and physical condition.

"While a young man in prime physical condition may benefit from a fast game of tennis, older men and women have been known to collapse and suffer serious heart attacks following such a game. The same thing applies to golfing, swimming and other vigorous sports," Dr. Cox said.

During the hot summer months, it is of special importance that you know your physical limitations, and merchant, are on the jury that is hearing the sensational trial of Sheriff W. F. Cato of Post, charged with murder in federal district court for the Northern District of Texas.

Mrs. Maud Burrus and James and Eulalia, left Tuesday for Crystal City where they will spend two weeks visiting relatives.

Misses Geraldine Hale and Ena Lea Fyffe spent Friday and Saturday in Plainview.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Davis, Lon, Jr., and Mrs. O. P. Rutledge spent Thursday afternoon in Plainview on business.

Mrs. A. E. Guthrie and son returned home Monday morning from Dallas where she has been visiting her sister, Miss Anne Brown, and other relatives and friends.

indulge in only such activities as will benefit, and not harm your physical condition.

"Persons of middle age should never participate in activities requiring violent physical exertion, and should confine their physical exercise to such bounds as their doctor prescribes," Dr. Cox asserted.

The State Health officer suggested that all persons of middle age be examined by their physician, before planning their summer vacation activities. A vacation can easily be more exhausting than refreshing, and in such event, more harm than benefit results from the time thus spent. Fishing, boating, hiking in moderation, and many other light recreations can be engaged in by the older people who must avoid heart strain, and it is a wise precaution to have your doctor advise you as to what sort of vacation you should plan.

Jack Fortenberry Recalls Days When Plains Wollies Got Caught in Storms on Woodhauling 'Runs'

So far as Jack Fortenberry of Adrian recalls the biggest number of plains woolies the Ceph Fortenberry family ever bedded down in one night during the Nineties was 37 people. All of these were men who had gone down into the prairie country for wood and got caught in a storm. Trying to make it back to their dug out homes up on the plains they ran across the Fortenberry place (maybe a purpose) and stayed for the night. Jack remembers many nights vividly.

Jack Fortenberry, after he grew up, and his family moved out where there was more space some years ago and are prospering in Oldham county. High Fortenberry also moved out into that territory a good while ago. Both are somewhat close neighbors to Floyd county people who have holdings in that area.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fortenberry were among the visitors here this year for the old settlers re-union. Three years ago, when their son was killed, they missed being here and again last year.

The plainsmen who had to have wood for their fires in crude homes on the plains often went down into the brakes and fashioned various kinds of ways to get their fuel hauled to the top of the caprock. A good many used burros. Others who had luxurious wagons piled the precious fuel on them and brought the fuel in home that way. When wood supply failed they restored to prairie fuel, which was more plentiful those days.

As of last week-end the hail had left the Fortenberry wheat crop pretty well intact although Mr. Fortenberry said there had been some hail damage. They will harvest a fair to good crop, hail permitting, he said.

Mrs. Billy Woody and son from Houston have been here the past two weeks visiting relatives. Mr. Woody came for them the past week-end.

Ned Bowers, of Matador, who was here for the pioneers re-union Saturday was guest of some of his old-time friends, including Mrs. J. D. Starks.

Center News

The "Stanley party" at Mrs. J. R. Robertson's home Wednesday was well attended.

Mrs. Clarence Ashton and Mrs. J. E. Green visited in the Denison home Tuesday afternoon.

Church services will be held at the regular hours Sunday. Rev. R. C. Hodges of Plainview, will bring the messages.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(By Nellie Witt Spikes)
Clouds this year have left us in a nervous jitter and we can sympathize with Ham Smith when he says he sits on the porch all drawn up like a tobacco sack while he watches the clouds.

I was told while in Lubbock last week there were so many tornadoes in West Texas "There are so many Oklahoma people living here now that it makes them feel at home."

How many muscles do you have? Well in the spring of the year you have more than you ever dreamed you have and ever will have.

Over heard: "My arm is sore." "I used that spray gun yesterday afternoon." "My back hurts so and my feet are sore."

Whenever there is a common ground of belief there can be an agreement. There is such a ground between the countries of Argentina and Chili, which in 1904 swore to keep peace with each other. On a high mountain marking a boundary between them they erected a statue of Christ, in which the citizens of both countries believe. To a photograph of the statue in its subject setting the Hermite art company appends the following legend.

Christ of the Andes
"Sooner shall these mountains crumble into dust than the peoples of Argentina and Chili break the peace which at the feet of Christ the Redeemer they have sworn to maintain."

So reads the inscription a twenty foot high granite pedestal carrying the impressive statue "Christ of the Andes", erected as a symbol of ever lasting peace. It stands a short distance south of the snowy peak of Aconcagua, above La Cumbre Pass, on the frontier between Argentina and Chili, to mark the end of a dispute between these two nations which had lasted over half a century. Cast from the bronze of guns removed from the frontier fortresses and melted down in the arsenal at Buenos Aires, the statue was taken by train as far as the rails were laid; then drawn on gun carriages by mules to the summit. Whenever mules failed at the ascent soldiers and sailors of both governments dragged it with ropes to its 13,000 foot site on the mountain top.

I wish to thank the 6A room and the two room mothers, for the lovely electric clock they gave me at the close of school.

(5) Doors—All exposed edges of the lower eight (8") inches of wooden doors and door jambs, serving as front, rear or side entrances into business buildings, from the ground, basement or cellar floors, and other doors accessible to rats, shall be protected against the gnawing of rats by covering said doors and jambs with solid sheet metal of not less than twenty-four (24) gauge thickness. The same material shall be used on all door sills or thresholds, or such door sills or thresholds may be constructed of cement, stone, steel, or cast iron. Doors, door jambs and sills of coal chutes and hatchways that are constructed of wood shall be covered with solid sheet metal of twenty-four (24) gauge or heavier, or they may be replaced with metal chutes of twenty-four (24) gauge or heavier, installed in such a manner as will prevent the ingress of rats. All buildings with side and rear door entrances shall be provided with fly screens and hardware cloth doors. These entrances shall be provided with suitable automatic self-closing devices.

(6) All doors on which metal channel flashing has been applied shall be properly hinged to provide for free swinging. When closed, doors shall fit snugly so that the maximum clearance between any door, door jambs, and sill shall not be greater than three-eighths (3/8") of an inch.

(7) Windows—All windows and other openings for the purpose of light or ventilation shall be covered for their entire height and width, including frame, with wire cloth of nineteen (19) gauge or heavier, having a mesh of not larger than one-half (1/2) inch, in installed metal frames of twenty-four (24) gauge and anchored in place with proper anchorage.

(8) All window and other openings for the purpose of light and ventilation that may be accessible to rats by way of exposed pipes, wires, conduits and other appurtenances, shall be covered as specified above. Or in lieu of wire cloth covering, said pipes, wires, conduits and other appurtenances shall be blocked from rat usage by installing sheet metal guards of twenty-four (24) gauge or heavier metal.

(9) Such guards when used on vertical pipes, wires, conduits or other appurtenances shall be fitted snugly around the pipe, wire, conduit or other appurtenances.

(10) Light wells with windows in exterior walls that are located below the outside ground level shall be protected from the ingress of rats by one of the following methods:

(a) Installing over light wells cast iron or steel grills or grates of equal strength and rat-resisting properties, with openings in grills or grates not to exceed one-half (1/2) inch in largest dimension.

(b) Installing securely to and completely covering existing metal grills that are broken or have openings larger than one-half (1/2) inch in largest dimensions or otherwise defective, with expanded metal of eighteen (18) gauge or heavier, having openings not greater than one-half (1/2) inch in largest dimensions.

(c) At the option of the owner the opening in the wall of the building below the grate may be entirely closed with brick or concrete or partially closed and the remaining open space covered with nineteen (19) gauge or heavier wire cloth with mesh not to exceed one-half (1/2) inch.

(8) Business buildings constructed on piers having wooden floor sills less than twelve (12") inches above the surface of the ground shall have intervening space between the floor sill and ground protected against the ingress of rats by installing a solid masonry or concrete not less than four (4") inches thick around the entire perimeter of the business building and extending said curtain wall to a depth of not less than eighteen (18") inches deep with twelve (12") inch shelf extending outward from the wall and fastening securely to the exterior wall of the business building. In such a manner as will prevent rats from entering the building.

(a) In lieu of the installation of wood construction may be replaced with concrete of not less than three (3") inches in thickness. Exterior wall protection shall be securely tied to the concrete floor at all points.

(b) Business buildings constructed on piers having wooden floor sills greater than twelve (12") inches above the ground level shall have the intervening spaces between floor sill and ground protected against the ingress of rats by installing curtain walls in accordance with the preceding paragraph, or by protecting said business buildings against the ingress of rats by installing solid sheet metal coverage of twenty-four (24) gauge or heavier snugly around each pipe, cable, wire conduit or other utility service passing through wooden ground floor. Said metal coverage shall not be less than eight (8") inches in diameter larger than diameter of pipe, cable, wire conduit or other utility service, and shall be securely fastened to the wooden floor. All other openings in wooden ground floors through which rats may gain entrance into double walls or the interior of business buildings, such as openings that may exist in floors and double walls above floor sills, shall be closed with twenty-four (24) gauge or heavier solid sheet metal of sixteen (16) gauge or heavier wire cloth of one-half (1/2) inch mesh or masonry or with concrete. Wood frame constructed business buildings having concrete or masonry foundation walls shall have ventilators in foundation walls protected as herein provided in Section 2, a, (4). All miscellaneous wall openings, doors and windows shall be protected in accordance with this ordinance.

b. Curb or farmers' markets in which fruit or vegetables or any other products are exposed and offered for sale, on racks, stands, platforms and in or outside of business buildings, shall have floors paved with concrete or asphalt for the entire surface area of the market. Display racks, stands or platforms on which fruit or vegetables or any other food products are displayed or offered for sale shall be of sufficient height that all such fruits, vegetables or other food products shall be kept at a distance of not less than eighteen (18") inches above the floor pavement and be so constructed that rats cannot harbor therein or thereunder.

Section 3. That upon receipt of written notice and/or order from the Health Officer the owner of any business building specified therein shall take immediate measures for ratproofing the building, and that unless said work and improvements have been completed by the owner in the time specified in the written notice, in no event to be less than fifteen (15) days, or within the time to which a written extension may have been granted by the Health Officer, then the owner shall be deemed guilty of an offense under the provisions of this ordinance.

Section 4. That whenever the Health Officer notifies the occupant or occupants, of a business building in writing that there is evidence of rat infestation of the building, said occupant or occupants shall immediately institute rat eradication measures and shall continuously maintain such measures in a manner satisfactory to the Health Officer. Unless said measures are undertaken within five (5) days after receipt of notice, it shall be construed as a violation of the provisions of this ordinance and occupant shall be held responsible therefor.

Section 5. That the owners of all ratproofed business buildings are required to maintain the premises in a ratproof condition and to repair all breaks or leaks that may occur in the ratproofing without a specific order from the Health Officer.

Section 6. That from and after passage of this ordinance the Health Officer is empowered to make unannounced inspections of the interior and exterior of business buildings to determine full compliance with this ordinance, and the Health Officer shall make periodic inspections at intervals of not more than forty-five (45) days of all ratproofed buildings to determine evidence of rat infestation and the existence of new breaks or leaks in their ratproofing and, when any evidence is found indicating the presence of rats or openings through which rats may again enter business buildings, the Health Officer shall serve the owner or occupants with notice and/or orders to abate the conditions found.

Section 7. That whenever conditions inside or under occupied business buildings provide extensive harborage for rats (in the opinion of the Health Officer) said Health Officer is empowered, after due notification in accordance with section 3, to close such business buildings until such time as the conditions are abated by ratproofing and harborage removal including, if necessary, the installation of suitable concrete floors in basements or replacement of wooden first or ground floors with concrete or other major repairs necessary to facilitate rat eradication.

Section 8. That whenever conditions inside or under unoccupied business buildings provide extensive harborage for rats (in the opinion of the Health Officer) said Health Officer is empowered to require compliance with the provisions of Section 3, above, and, in the event that said conditions are not corrected in the period of sixty days, or within the time to which a written extension may have been granted by the Health Officer, the Health Officer is empowered to institute condemnation and destruction proceedings.

Section 9. That it shall be unlawful under the provisions of this ordinance for the occupant, owner, contractor, public utility company, plumber or any other person to remove and fail to restore in like condition the ratproofing from any business building for any purpose. Further, it shall be unlawful for any person or agent to make any new openings that are not closed or sealed against the entrance of rats.

Section 10. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation hereafter to construct, repair or remodel any building, dwelling, stable or market, or other structure whatsoever, unless such construction, repair, remodeling or installation shall render the building or other structure ratproof in accordance with the regulations prescribed here-in and hereunder. The provisions of this Section apply only to such construction, repairs, remodeling or installation as affect the ratproof condition of any building or other structure.

Section 11. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation hereafter to occupy any new or existing business buildings wherein foodstuffs are to be stored, kept, handled, sold, held or offered for sale without complying with Section 10, of this ordinance; and unless provisions of this Section are complied with, no city permit or license to conduct or carry on such business as defined above will be issued.

Section 12. That all food and feed within the City of Floydada, Texas for feeding chickens, cows, pigs, horses and other animals shall be stored in rat-free and rat-proof containers, compartments or rooms unless stored in a ratproof building.

Section 13. That within the corporate limits of the City of Floydada, Texas all garbage or refuse consisting of waste animal or vegetable matter upon which rats may feed, and all small dead animals, shall be placed and stored until collected in covered metal containers of a type prescribed by the Health Officer.

It is further declared unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to dump or place on any premise, land or waterway, any dead animals, or any waste vegetable or animal matter of any kind.

Section 14. That it shall be unlawful for any person to place, leave, dump, or permit to accumulate any garbage, rubbish, or trash in any building or on any premise, improved or vacant, or on any open lot or alley in the City of Floydada, Texas so that same shall or may afford food or harborage for rats, except under the direction of the Health Officer.

Section 15. That it shall be unlawful for any person to permit to accumulate on any premise, improved or vacant, or on any open lot or alley in the City of Floydada, Texas any lumber, boxes, barrels, bottles, cans, containers or similar materials that may be permitted to remain thereon unless same shall be placed on open racks that are elevated not less than eighteen (18") inches above the ground, and evenly piled or stacked.

Section 16. Penalty: Any person, firm or corporation who shall violate any provision or provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or imprisonment of not more than ten days (10) or both. Each day's violation shall constitute a separate offense.

Section 17. Repeal Clause: All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only. Section 18. Savings Clause: If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this ordinance is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, void, or invalid, the validity of the remaining portions of this ordinance shall not be affected thereby.

Currie Attends Dealer Showing of New Bendix

J. A. Currie and S. M. Brown, of the Currie Appliance company, attended the dealer showing of the new Bendix washer in Amarillo last week, and returned home enthusiastic about the new appliance.

"The new Bendix is entirely new in the automatic washing machine field, because of its simplified construction and unique method of extracting water from the clothes," said Mr. Currie. The new machine is of the agitator type, with top loading, features the undertow washing action, thereby washing clothes cleaner. Another advantage of the new machine, as pointed out by Messrs. Currie and Brown, is that it may be installed wherever hot and cold water and drain are available. Vibrationless, it can be easily moved and requires no fastening to the floor. Economists point to it as the washer that "couldn't happen." It will be priced well below $200, said Currie and will be shown to the public for the first time on June 6.

Wheat Storage Plant Being Constructed

Donna E. Dempsey and W. E. Watson, operating as the Dempsey Grain Agency, are racing against time in construction of a wheat loading and storage plant on lots at the intersection of East Crockett and 10th streets, hoping to be ready for harvest time to take care of the wheat that will be offered by Floyd county farmers.

Dempsey, who is on the job during construction work, said the loading chute and scales foundation have been finished and machinery installation will be effected soon. Meanwhile, he said, contract for a Quonset type building has been let and he expects a hurry-up job to take care of 20 carloads of wheat and additions will be made along to increase total capacity to 100 thousand bushels or so.

Ray Barber, a student at Texas Tech, spent Tuesday night in the home of his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Barber. He left Wednesday for Canyon, where he will spend a day fishing at Buffalo Lake, and then return to his home in Weatherford, for the summer.

Jack Eudy is among the students home this week from Texas Technological college following the close of the school year. He hopes to finish his work with the January class.

Mrs. Green Enjoys Trip to Washington

One of the most enjoyable trips taken by local people recently was that of Mrs. Ruth Green, who went to Washington, D. C. for a brief visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Doherty. Mrs. Green accompanied her son, Starks Green and his wife of Houston.

In addition to the visit with her daughter and the view of the Washington scene, Mrs. Green visited the scene of her father's birth and early childhood at Paducah, Kentucky.

"West Virginia is one of the country's prettiest states," said Mrs. Green. "And we enjoyed our trip through that state. The opportunity to visit my father's childhood home was an unexpected pleasure that I wouldn't take anything for. We didn't have much time as we wanted but we enjoyed every minute of the trip."

STITCH AND CHATTER CLUB

Plans were made for the float in the Old Settlers parade and decorations were made for the float, when the Stitch and Chatter club met at the home of Marie Turner, May 25. Gifts were also exchanged.

The hostess served ice-cream and cake to the following members: Pauline Faulkenberry, Lillie Mae Johnson, Jewel McCormick, Susie Mooney, Era Norrell, Claudia Porter, Lella Price, Mattie Norell, Robble Stewart, Inez Walker, Dorothy Green and the hostess, Marie Turner.

The next meeting will be June 8, with Mamie Bunch at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. E. C. Thomas, of Roswell, and Mrs. H. P. Barker, of Lubbock, have been visiting relatives and friends in Floydada. They returned Wednesday of last week from Oklahoma City, where they attended the R. B. Renick, of Ponca City, while on their trip.

West Texas has some of the most beautiful country in the world. Beautiful fields of wheat, cotton and many other crops that help feed and clothe the nation...and, too, it has picturesque canyons, rocky terrain, sunken lakes around which cattle graze and many other beautiful scenes comparable to any that a world traveler could describe.

Although beautiful—they are pipe line construction obstacles.

To maintain good gas service, pipe line construction and maintenance and repair crews cross many canyons and other natural obstacles.

This year we will invest over $2,225,000.00 to build new pipe lines and other facilities. Several miles of these new lines will be laid in solid rock. This means dynamite crews will have to clear a ditch for the lines, but this will be but one of many construction obstacles they will overcome.

Pipe line construction and pipe line maintenance and repair are but few of many functions of West Texas Gas Company...all of which are designed to furnish good gas service, high in quality, low in price...the best bargain in your family budget.

Other facilities besides pipe lines are necessary to furnish good gas service.

West Texas Gas Company operates seven compressor stations to maintain movement of natural gas through more than 1,700 miles of transmission and distribution lines.

Garden Club Tour Reveals Pretty Yards

The members of the Floydada Garden club made a garden tour Friday, May 27, meeting at the home of Mrs. O. M. Watson, at 10 o'clock a. m.

After the group had assembled on the lawn, they then went into the back yard, where a short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. John Hoffman. The secretary, Mrs. Ross Henry, read the minutes of the last meeting.

Mrs. Watson had a beautiful garden containing different types of lovely flowers and blooming shrubs. At this time of year, the plants seemed to be at their best, and the balmy morning was just right for the tour. The members of the club would like to advise the public to drive around and take a look at the beautiful flowers and shrubs at the different homes.

After leaving the O. M. Watson garden, the group admired lovely plants in the gardens and yards of the following members: Mmes. E. L. Norman, L. J. Welborn, J. D. Cleveland, Guy Ginn and Geo. V. Smith.

The members had the privilege of seeing and examining many species of plants, including some very beautiful roses, peonies, poppies, and other kinds.

Perhaps the most beautiful and inspiring view observed, was the large picture window, in the home of Mrs. Geo. Smith, overlooking the lovely garden, which contained many flowers and shrubs.

Upon completion of the tour, the group was ushered into the living room of the Geo. V. Smith home, and served refreshments.

The following were present for the tour: Mmes. J. M. Willson, O. P. Rutledge, O. M. Watson, Bill Poole, E. J. Morehead, John Stapleton, J. D. McBrien, C. A. Caffee, Geo. V. Smith, Ross Henry, John Hoffman, A. P. McKinnon, D. T. Mayo, Wilson Kimble, E. C. Henry, W. E. Grimes, L. C. McDonald, O. G. Glassmoyer, L. J. Welborn, B. K. Barker, and J. B. Jenkins.

Legion Auxiliary Grateful For Help in Poppy Sales

The American Legion Auxiliary of McDermott Post No. 118, Floydada, Texas, would like to thank each and every one that helped in any way to make the poppy sale last Saturday the success that it was.

The poppies which were worn in honor of the war dead, were shipped either from the Legion hospital in Waco, where the little red flowers were made by disabled veterans of the world wars, working under supervision of the Texas Department of the American Legion Auxiliary, or from the picture World War bridges (in wheel-chairs) making poppies for four years while in the Legion hospital and Philip Whittey (in bed), World War I veteran, who has been making poppies several years while in the hospital there.

Mrs. Frank Sheffield, poppy chairman of the department, said: "Making these flowers has provided interesting employment for veterans at the hospitals during the winter and spring months, and it has helped keep their hands and minds busy, relieving them of long hours of tedium and contributing to their occupational therapy value toward their recovery."

Something Worthwhile to Do

Poppy making gives veterans the encouraging experience of being able to earn money again, often after many months of idleness. They are paid by the auxiliary for each poppy they make and are able to earn amounts during the poppy making season. Much of this money is sent home by the veterans to help support their wives and children, who often have difficult time when the veteran requires hospitalization and is unable to work for a long period.

September 27-29, 1920. At the time the poppy was adopted by the American Auxiliary the profits from the poppy sale was pledged 100% to welfare for service men and women and their families, thus fulfilling the true meaning of the poppy—emblem of faith, faith which is being kept with all who died, through service to the living. And in order to protect the memorial poppy from the inroads of commercialism, adopted a national poppy program at the St. Paul convention in 1924 which eliminated the commercial poppy.

Wear Your Poppy Proudly

When you buy a poppy wear it proudly, the money you give for it helps a disabled veteran and his family. The Poppy is America's silent tribute to her heroes, says the American Legion officials of McDermott Post.

In Flanders' Fields

Between the crosses, row on row, In Flanders' fields the poppies blow That mark our place: and in the sky The lark still bravely singing fly, Scarce heard amidst the guns below We are the dead. Short days ago we lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow, Loved and were loved and now we lie

In Flanders' fields, Take up our quarrel with the foe, To you from falling hands we throw The Torch—be yours to hold it high; If ye break faith with us who die We shall not sleep, though poppies grow In Flanders' fields.

Jake B. Watson Resigning as City Secretary to go with F.N.F.L.A.

Jake B. Watson, who has been secretary of the city of Floydada since the second week after the city election early in April, is resigning his job. At a special session of the city council last week he asked to be relieved the first of July.

Watson has been offered the post of secretary-treasurer of Floydada National Farm Loan association to succeed A. B. Clark. The latter, a veteran of years on the job, is asking to be relieved on account of his health.

Watson said he would accept the offer of the farm organization as secretary-treasurer. "So long as you deliver the goods the job has more permanency than an elective job does, and the job offers other inducements which appeal to me as a family man more than does the job of city secretary," said Mr. Watson Wednesday. "Please say for me that I appreciate the job to which the people of the city named me in April but I can't afford to pass up this opportunity with the loan association."

Yesterday Mayor F. C. Harmon said the matter of filling the vacancy that is due in the city secretary's office has not come up in a meeting of the council for discussion as yet.

Baptist Vacation Bible School Began Monday, for 2 Wks.

The Baptist Vacation Bible school got under way Monday, and by Tuesday, 164 students had enrolled. The school begins at 8 o'clock in the mornings, and it will last two weeks. The school contains five departments, including nursery, beginners, primary, juniors and intermediates. This takes in ages from two to sixteen.

Rena Taylor is the principal of the school and department superintendents are as follows: Barbara Marshall, nursery; Mrs. W. C. Sims, primary; Mrs. John Gray, juniors; and Mrs. Helen Patterson, intermediates.

ver, and there may be some provision made for more wheat on the farm than anticipated.

May Use Government Tents

West Texas Chamber of Commerce officials, in a meeting yesterday at Colorado City, which was attended by J. M. Willson, a vice president, uncovered the fact that the federal government has many 14 by 14 foot tents, which can be used for approved storage. These tents have four-foot centermatch shiplap walls, with a tent covering that have a capacity of 1600 bushels each, and Willson said upon his return home the district representative of the Commodity Credit corporation had okayed these for storage loans on individual farms. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce asked for 100,000 of these tents, declared to be logical and practical to use. "The railways are not going to haul our wheat to the terminals and it is going to cost West Texas from Olney to Daltown $20 million unless we can get something of this kind done," said Mr. Willson.

Robt. H. Crowell, secretary of Floydada Chamber of Commerce and Floyd County Board of Development, was an interested onlooker at this Colorado City meeting. "It sure would be a great break if we could get those tents," said Crowell. Floyd county stands to lose a million dollars if we can't get something done, the way it looks as of this date."

made in obedience to judgment of sentence passed by District Judge Dan Blair in 72 District court at Crosbyton Tuesday morning.

Electrocution awaits the Floydada grocer at the Huntsville prison on July 8, except for clemency from the Governor of the State of Texas.

The scene of the court's action Tuesday morning in Crosbyton was a dramatic one. The prisoner, who had been in Lubbock jail since the previous Wednesday, when he was transferred from Vernon, was taken to the Crosby county capital for the final court action, which followed refusal of the Court of Criminal Appeals to grant a new hearing three weeks ago.

Twice convicted of first degree murder by juries in Hale and Crosby county in the fatal shooting of H. C. Love, Jr., on September 27, 1946, in Floydada, the defendant had told friends here he had resigned himself to his fate and had made his peace with his maker.

One of the witnesses of the sentence was Mrs. W. Fred Jones, who came from Stockton, California.

The prisoner remained calm. He made a statement as stood up to be sentenced, declaring his innocence and asserting the truth of his testimony in two trials.

Jones' attorneys, Col. E. A. Jones and Dusty Miller of Amarillo, were in the court room as were District Attorney John B. Stapleton of Floydada and District Attorney L. Croslin of the 72nd district.
