Portales Opens Football Season To Win 53 to 0

On last Friday afternoon the Portales football boys played their first game of the season with Melrose, giving them their second whitewash of the season.

Portales made an excellent showing in their first game and in all probability will have a better team than that of last year.

The Portales Chamber voted that all business houses close to attend the game and the results were very noticeable as there was one of the largest crowds that has ever attended on the opening game.

The "Rams" completed 4 passes for a total of 76 yards while their opponents only 3 for a total of 31 yards. Melrose only completed three first and tens while Portales made sixteen.

The two outstanding players of the game were Kirksey and Patterson who made the runs that were the means of building up the score.

D. H. Smith as Quarter played an excellent game, not for the gains and runs but for his good judgment on making plays.

The game play by Portales: Melrose kicks to Portales, Kirksey returns 15 yards Patterson goes around for 11 yards, Kirksey fumbles but recovers, 3 down and eight to go, Patterson attempts but fails to gain Smith throws pass to Vaughn for 15 yards over the line.

Portales fails to make extra point.

Portales 6, Melrose 0.

Portales kicks, Melrose returns to their own 20 yard line. Their first attempt ends in a fumble, but they recover, another attempt thru center fails pass also fails.

Portales Ball. Kirksey makes about 6 yards, Smith attempts but fumbles, Melrose recovers their own 40 yard line. Melrose fails to gain. They attempt pass, which is incomplete. Melrose kicks and Portales fumbles and Melrose recovers ball on 5 yard line.

Melrose fails another attempt results in a fumble, but recover 10 yards back. Another forward pass which is complete, which gives Melrose their first, first and ten, Melrose fails in another try and another one is a fumble which cost Melrose 15 yards.

No Special Train New Mexico Day

Tuesday evening the News asked Mr. Sweetland, local Santa Fe agent in regard to the special train to Amarillo for Friday, for New Mexico Day at the Tri-State Fair, and was informed that there would be no special train nor reduced fares.

As quite a delegation had planned to attend from this section, this comes as a disappointment, and those going will have to arrange for auto conveyance.

The News feels that the Santa Fe is overlooking a bet by not running a special train on this occasion, as New Mexico day will mean much for the development of the entire state.

Perhaps when the T. & P. builds into Portales, better accommodations will be secured.

Portales Received First Bale of Cotton on 17th

On the Seventeenth of September Portales received two bales of cotton, one grown by B. M. Trammell of the Arch community.

This bale weighed 474 pounds. On the same day, Paul Fincher brought in the second bale which weighed 495 pounds.

Both bales were ginned by the Portales Gin Company.

In Justice Court Tuesday Afternoon

On Tuesday afternoon, Lee Smith appeared before Judge Kerr and plead guilty to giving a worthless check on the 23rd of July to Piggy-Wiggly.

Defendant is held under a $500.00 bond to await action of the District Court.

On the same afternoon, Arthur Watson appeared before Judge Kerr charged with having whiskey in his possession for sale.

Defendant plead not guilty, and is being held under $750.00 bond to await action of the grand jury.

MRS. SOWELL TELLS OF TRIP ABROAD

The Sunday morning service at the Methodist church was given over to Mrs. T. B. Sowell, who gave a very interesting account of her summer trip to Europe and the Holy Land.

Mrs. Sowell visited many of the scenes familiar to Bible History and was therefore prepared to make her talk Sunday morning of the most interesting nature.

CORRECTION

In the advertisement of the Butter Kist Bakery which appeared in the News last week, the price of cinnamon rolls and fruit cookies were given as 15 cents a dozen when it should have read 20 cents per dozen.

Many Cars In Parade Saturday

The parade held Saturday morning in connection with the Dairy and Live Stock Show was declared a success from every angle.

The entries were of sufficient number to make the parade several blocks long, and the artistic views and originality displayed in the decoration of the floats and cars was indeed commendable.

The morning was cool with very little wind blowing, just ideal weather for a parade.

Marshall J. H. Bond was leader and immediately behind him came Gov. R. C. Dillon with his escort of young ladies all upon mounts, perfectly groomed.

In the line were business floats, community display wagons, organization cars and several men and women riding pretty horses.

Mrs. Gordon Lyons, Misses Mae Watts, Sybil Lyons and Norene Youchum were the young ladies who served as escorts to the governor.

The Rebekah Lodge car received first place in the class of Decorated Cars. This machine was covered in the lodge colors of pink and green with the banner on either side, bearing the name of the organization. Riding in the car were three officers of the Portales Lodge, Misses Loretta McCarty, Edna Disney and Julia Stearns.

The private car of Mr. and Mrs. Coe Howard had second prize in this class.

Of the Commercial floats, the one representing the Poinsetta Golf course was given first place. This car was covered with large flowers of the poinsetta variety made from crepe paper, and across the top stood a banner bearing the name of the play ground. The red and white store of Youchum and Son won second honors.

The best mechanical contrivance was displayed by the Portales Motor Company. This was a 1½ ton truck decorated with the Chevrolet emblems with a special display of the tools and mechanical equipment of the shop at the garage. On this truck were E. P. Gowers, shop foreman; Ed Copeland, Willis Capps and Ferris Johnson.

The float decorated by the Arch people received the prize for the best community float. This was designed by Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Wise who are at the head of the Arch school. A huge liberty bell had been made from heads of red maize. This was suspended in the rear of a truck and was guarded by Uncle Sam and Miss Liberty. Hidden away from view was R. W. Murrell who rang a gong at intervals, that well represented the ringing of the liberty bell. Dolphus Pate, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Pate was the Uncle Sam, while Miss Mildred Murrell represented Miss Liberty. Red Randolph was declared the best clown of the day.

The Judges gave honorable mention to the Joyce-Pruit, Universal Motor Company and High School Pep Squad floats. These were all especially beautiful, but were not as representative of their firms and society as those to whom places were given.

The Portales school band was also an attractive float drawn by the big white horses belonging to Young and Hatch and decorated in the school colors: red and white.

The judges were: Mr. Maud Smith, Dr. Black and James Poe.

Miss Alda Roberts came up from Roswell last week and visited for several days in the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Angley. Miss Roberts is a society sister of Miss Elizabeth Greaves and the two young ladies had several happy hours together during the Roswell girl's visit in Portales.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Ribble, Mr. and Mrs. Coe Howard and Ed. J. Neer drove to Amarillo, Tuesday to make final arrangements about the Roosevelt County day at the Tri-State Fair tomorrow.

Willis White came home from Alto, N. M. on Monday of this week, but returned Tuesday. Bill has been up in the mountains for his health for several months, and is improving. He will remain until cold weather.

A. C. Woodburn won the $5 given by the Universal Motor Company during the contest that firm conducted at the Dairy Show, John Gimmett of Sudan, Texas, was second winner and received $2.50.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Thomas B. Sowell, Pastor. All services Sunday at the regular hours, and ever ymember of the church is requested to be present, for we have only two more Sundays in which to close the year's work.

Sunday will be an interesting day reviewing the progress of the past year, and looking forward to the Annual Conference that convenes in Portales, October 8th.

Have your children in Sunday School, for the purpose—promotion. This is always a great occasion for the youngsters and to miss it will be a great disappointment to them.

The Pastor will preach at both the morning and evening services, and a cordial invitation is given to all.

Dairy Show Best in State

The Dairy and Livestock Show held in Portales last week, was a success in every way. There was a large exhibit of high quality stock, the community and commercial exhibits were good, and the attendance was far better than expected.

There were 214 head of stock exhibited which was considerably more than were shown last year. The hog department was far better than last year, there being twice as many hogs entered.

There were 61 Jersey cattle, 46 of which were registered 82 hogs, 85 Hereford cattle, 22 horses and mules, and 24 sheep. All stock entered came from Roosevelt County farms, there being no entries from out of the county.

In the production contest, enviable records were made. The high-end production for 24 hours was 2.09 pounds of butterfat. The children's milking contest attracted a large crowd. The kids demonstrated that they could milk cows. The winning figure was 7.4 pounds of milk in 2 minutes.

The judging of the stock on Friday attracted a large crowd as usual, who took advantage of the remarks of the judges concerning his reasons for placings. The following breeds of hogs were shown:

Duroc Jersey, Poland China, Spotted Poland China, Tamworth, Berkshire, Hampshire, Chester White, OIC.

RAYMA JEANNE MEANS

Another bright and promising flower has been plucked from the garden of Youth in Portales and the city mourns the passing of little Rayma Jeanne Means, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Means, who was called from this earth, Monday at about noon.

Jeanne as she was familiarly known, accompanied her mother to Clayton, New Mexico about three weeks ago to be near her grandmother, Mrs. Ray Sutton, during the endless search which is being made for the missing prohibition officer, Ray Sutton. Soon after arriving in Clayton she developed typhoid fever and for three long weeks two doctors and a trained nurse exerted every effort and knowledge to save the life of this dearly beloved flower, but all labors of man were as naught and God took back to his care and keeping this little girl whom he gave to Dr. and Mrs. Means nine years ago this summer, in the same town wherein he claimed her last Monday.

Jeanne has lived in Portales the major portion of her life and was loved by her playmates, adored in her home and appreciated in her school. During the few years she has been a student of the Portales school she has always been an honor student and when the news of her death reached here the flag aloft the grade building was placed at half mast.

The Means home is almost within the shadow of the grade building and a pall was over teachers and pupils as they realized that the once agile and active little body was lying motionless within that home which once was so happy and merry.

The remains arrived in Portales Wednesday morning accompanied by her parents, her brother, Junior, her grandmother, Mrs. Ray Sutton, her grandfather, J. L. Means and her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sutton.

The funeral services will be held this afternoon in the Christian Church where she was a regular attendant at Sunday School and morning church services and always took leading parts in all the children's activities of the church.

Rayma Jeanne is the only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Means, was born in Clayton, New Mexico July 9th, 1922, and passed away in that same city, September 22, 1930. She was the second child of the family and leaves her brother, Raymond Webster Junior, grief stricken and lonely. He is three or four years older than his sister and has not only been her pal but her protector in play times.

Wheeler and Johnson, Funeral Directors, will conduct the interment services at the Portales Cemetery following the funeral rites at the Christian Church this afternoon by Rev. C. A. Lorts.

For the Dallas Exhibit

The News has been requested to ask the farmers who have samples of crops that will make a creditable exhibit at the Texas State Fair, to bring in these exhibits and leave them at the Chamber of Commerce Rooms.

It is a great expense to hire trucks to go over the county gathering these exhibits and full co-operation by the farmers of the county and the Portales Valley, will aid in making a display that will attract more farmers to this section, and will also help in creating a better market for our products.

Holt and Botts Head Republican State Ticket

Albuquerque, N. M. Sept. 23rd — Nomination of the top of the Republican ticket went thru in rapid fire order at the Tuesday session of the state convention in accordance with the decision reached by party leaders early in the afternoon when Judge Reed Holloman withdrew from the race.

H. B. Holt of Las Cruces for senate, Albert Simms of Albuquerque for congress and C. M. Botts of Albuquerque for governor, in quick succession, became standard bearers of the party before the convention recessed to take up nomination of the remainder of the ticket at the evening session.

Decision to nominate Botts came when Holloman agreed to withdraw. His withdrawal came as a result of refusal of Gov. Dillon to become the senatorial nominee, a post he could have had hands down had he desired it.

REPUBLICAN TICKET

Senator, H. B. Holt, Las Cruces. Governor, C. M. Botts, Albuquerque. Congressman, Albert Simms, Albuquerque.

Supreme Court, J. Frank Curns, Wagon Mound. Supreme court, H. C. Denny, Gallup. Lieutenant Governor, J. V. Gallegos, Las Vegas.

DRUM MAJOR

The Portales school band has one more very striking feature added to the personnel of the organization and that is a drum major.

Last June, when J. G. Geraves, editor of the Portales Valley News, was in Wisconsin, he purchased a drum-major's silver baton and upon his return presented it to the band at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce at which Mr. Earnest Pogue was present.

There was no one prepared to immediately step into the duties of that position, but Mr. Pogue began testing his material and Charles Gedeon was chosen as drum major.

This week the costumes for the drum major arrived and will be ready for the trip to Amarillo tomorrow. These trappings consist of a white flannel suit trimmed in red bands and gold fringe. The epaulets are deeply fringed with the gold trimmings. The shako which stands near twelve inches high is of white fur with gold tassels decorating the sides and front.

A pure white plume tipped with red stands several inches above the top of the shako. With this costume young Goodluck will wear a pair of three quarter length black leather boots, and will without doubt be one of the most outstanding band majors to be found upon the fair grounds in Amarillo tomorrow.

This afternoon, Mr. Pogue has announced the boys will give a concert and dress parade on the court house lawn sometime between the hours of five and six o'clock. This will give friends an opportunity to see the boys as they will appear in the parade in Amarillo tomorrow.

DEMOCRAT MEETING

A meeting will be called October 3rd, for a county organization of the State League of Young Democrats.

There are similar organizations in many states, the purpose of which is to sponsor the ideals of the Democratic Party and study American government.

Carl A. Reynolds was appointed, at the state convention, chairman for Roosevelt County.

The place of meeting will be determined some time this week and the announcement will be made in the next week's issue of the news.

LOS ANGELES VISITOR

Last Tuesday night Tom F. Wright met H. J. McKenzie General Manager of Layne and Bowler Pump Corporation of Los Angeles, California, at Clovis airport.

After Mr. McKenzie inspected the installation of the large number of pumps that Mr. Wright had installed here this year, he was very much pleased.

He also stated we have an ideal water lift here for pumping purposes. A number of the Layne and Bowler pumps are pumping 1500 gallons a minute.

Mr. McKenzie says the valley looks good and conditions are better than in California or other places west.

After enjoying a few days here he left for Clovis Airport, Friday morning, and expects to come again soon.

Prominent Speakers Address Dairy Show on Saturday

On Saturday afternoon, Coe Howard introduced Gov. Dillon who made a short talk on the advantages to the state, of the exhibits which had been placed at the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo, and the Texas State Fair last year. Gov. Dillon stated that this alone had been responsible for over 27 per cent increase in the gas tax from sales of gasoline to the tourists.

Gov. Dillon also touched upon the educational system of the state, and pictured a bright future for the state institutions.

Dr. H. L. Kent, president of the N. M. A. & M. College was introduced by Gov. Dillon.

Dr. Kent dwelt upon community spirit, and gave an outline of what had been done in Roosevelt county through this spirit in its farm program.

He stated that the college receives inquiries as to where germ free potato seed can be secured, and as Portales is the only point in the state that has made this feature a basis for this industry, that it means much for the farmers of the Portales valley.

He also stated that Roosevelt county heads the state in the production of butter fat. That the past year, from July 31 1929 to June 30, 1930, Roosevelt County had marketed 747,386 pounds of butter fat, for which the dairymen received $364,065.51.

That better production was being accomplished by the dairymen of Roosevelt county, and that the results from the dairy show for the past two years had largely been responsible for this increase.

He also stated that the First National Bank of Portales was doing more for agriculture in New Mexico than any bank in the state, and that Arthur F. Jones was the outstanding banker in the state.

Dr. Kent is known to men, women and children better than any other man in the state, and his audience showed their appreciation of his visit to the Dairy and Live Stock Show, and for his talk while here.

Miss Kenneth Bell is yet in a very serious condition at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Bell. Miss Kenneth has typhoid fever and has been ill for more than three weeks.

L. L. Lane, manager of the Roswell Pump and Supply Company for this district, spent Friday and Saturday in Portales attending the show and looking after the business future of his company. Mr. Lane feels the Portales Valley has a wonderful future and the possibilities of the district are yet untouched as far as development is concerned.

The surrounding communities are just now learning the dependable conditions of the valley for truck farming and within a few years many of the surrounding cities will be looking to this community for a supply of the mid-summer and fall truck and garden products.

Mrs. Blackburn of Roswell spent Sunday in Portales visiting with Mrs. Maud Smith and family. These two families have been friends for the past several years and the hours Sunday were very happily spent.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lang and Miss Mardine Morrison came up from Wink, Texas, during the Dairy and Livestock Show in Portales and spent several very happy hours with friends and former neighbors.

BUYS INSURANCE AGENCY

Mrs. Esther Clevenger this week became the sole owner of the J. Rex Forrest Insurance Agency, having made the deal with Mr. Forrest the first of the week for the transfer of business.

Mrs. Clevenger needs no introduction to the residents of Roosevelt County as she has been connected with public work here a number of years.

Before her marriage she was Miss Esther Tinsley and held a position in the First National Bank in Portales. She has also been a partner with H. A. Hunter in the Roosevelt County Abstract Company and during the past several months has again been in the business world.

Mrs. Clevenger will retain her office in Forrest and Rowley building where the business headquarters have been established heretofore.

Mr. Forrest plans to devote all his time to his farm south of Portales. Charles Starkey who has been connected with Mr. Forrest will remain with Mrs. Clevenger until the first of the month when he goes to the First National Bank. M. W. Bouldin plans to leave the employment of the bank and devote his entire time to the promotion of his own financial matters.

Mrs. Clevenger has not yet secured her office assistant.

G. W. Carr, H. H. Buchanan and E. N. Neer left the first of the week for several days' fishing trip in the vicinity of Fort Sumner.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET

NEW MEXICO CONFERENCE OCTOBER 8th

The annual Conference of the Methodist Church for New Mexico and Colorado will convene in Portales on the 8th of October, lasting throughout the week.

This gathering will bring ministers and laymen from every section of the state to Portales, besides many men of national importance.

This is an opportunity for Portales to gain some wide advertising of a character that will benefit the entire county.

Co-operation of the entire citizenship in seeing that these visitors are properly entertained and shown the attractions of the valley will mean much to Portales.

Home Makers Exhibit at Show

One of the outstanding attractions of the Live Stock & Dairy Show was the community booth displays, Red Lake, Portales Springs, Portales East Valley View, Floyd, Rogers and Arch are the communities that undertook this very worthwhile task. The homemakers clubs sponsored this movement in every community except Rogers where the school took charge and is to be congratulated for winning second prize.

The Arch community has the distinction of winning first place with a score of 851 out of a possible 1000. Rogers won second with a score of 817, only two points above Floyd who came out with a score of 815, and third place. East Valley View was winner of fourth place making a score of 797 while Red Lake came close with 774. Portales Springs followed not so far with a score of 698 and Portales came seventh and last with 556.

Mr. Queensberry from State College and Mrs. Edith Martin, County Extension agent from Quay County, were the judges and all are agreed that their decisions were correct.

The fact that some of the booths scored much lower than others does not mean that all of their exhibits scored low. In several instances they had products that placed first. It is to be regretted that space will not permit the scores of every article to be printed. However, copies of the scores will be made up in the County Agent's Office, and those desiring one may have it by calling at the office or writing for same.

A great many individuals interested in the booths were anxious to know what score was given them on general appearance. The possible score was 150. After the scores of the two judges were averaged the results appear in order as follows:

Arch 148, East Valley View 142, Floyd and Rogers tied with 140, Portales Springs 139 Red Lake 135, and Portales 116.

The exhibits were splendid and one comment made by Mrs. Martin, was that there was the best collection of jelly, preserves, bread and cake that she had found at a fair for quite awhile.

Everyone is to be commended who in any way helped to make the fair a success and the home demonstration agent takes this opportunity to thank all homemakers for their untiring efforts in making the fair bigger and better than it was last year. It is to be hoped that next year will find other communities taking part and everyone adopting the 4-H Club motto "To make the best better."

Besides choosing candidates from all sections, the Democrats gave eleven county candidates out of thirteen nominations.

Three Released From County Jail

On Tuesday of this week, J. H. Shows, Jim White and Elbert Langrum were released from the county jail, having served their sentence.

J. H. Shows, returned to his home at Amarillo. He was convicted on a charge of selling intoxicating liquors at Midway filling station, and is not the J. H. Shows who lives near Elida.

It has been quite embarrassing to the Elida Shows, that their names are the same, and many thought that it was Shows that was arrested and convicted.

Charged With Theft of Saddle

Monday Sheriff Jernigan went to Amarillo, for Dave Moorhead, who was wanted on a charge of theft of a saddle.

The defendant was released on bond until the preliminary hearing which is set for the 29th.

Chamber of Commerce to Banquet Exhibitors

At the weekly luncheon, Tuesday, it was decided that the Portales Chamber of Commerce will give a banquet in the near future for the officers and exhibitors of the Roosevelt County Dairy and Livestock Show.

A NEW COURT HOUSE WHEN AND WHY?

This is no time or place to talk about a new court house. I will not attempt to say the vault is sufficient to take care of the Records of the County. I know there is not enough room. Neither is there crops enough around Portales or our fine irrigated soils to feed the starving people in the radius of two hundred miles around us where there is no crops made. Think of God's creation starving without food. Winter coming and they will not have clothing or fuel. Thousands of people hungry and cold.

We have some people in our county now that have failed from lack of rain to raise enough crops to go through the winter and take care of the poor dumb brutes in their possession, much less raise the money to pay the taxes that will soon come due. And the interest on notes coming due. Some at the Bank, some on the Loans on their land. Why talk of more taxes to build a new court house when almost a nation wide drought is on. Thousands and millions of people out of employment, some would not work if they had a job offered to them. Still there is some honest people wanting work. Women and children not able to work. Out of employment, food and clothing, winter coming on and no fire and nothing to build a fire out of. In this irrigated part of the country if there is anybody in a destitute condition that is brought about by sickness or hail or some other unavoidable calamity he is excusable. But if they have had a chance and have not had these misfortunes. Then it is his fault. If a man is down help him up. But do not place a burden upon him that he is not able to carry. At a time like this keep silent.

The way out of trouble as a temporary plan is to get a fire proof vault and place it in City Hall. Take all old records that are never used only once in a hundred years. Store them in that vault. Should you need them then you can refer to them. There is no need of destroying any record, but there is quite a lot that can be removed to some other place for safe keeping, which will give room for other records and receipts and such like that more often used. That vault can be built fire proof at back end of City Hall. Then later when times get better and a new court house is built then all such book records and receipts can be brought back.

This is written only as a suggestion by a man interested in the welfare of all tax payers.

I think another thing greatly needed at Portales is a gold storage and market house to bulk or store beans, tomatoes, melons and other commodities for truckers to load out with such stuff as they haul out to other towns. The farmer can bring his crop and bulk it for sale, build up a market for our crops. It would not be long until everybody would be ready and willing to build the court house. Stay by your farmers. Help him and he will help you.

By E. B. LAUGHTER.

From Roosevelt Co. Record, published at Elida on September 18, 1930.
The above by E. B. Laughter, appeared in the Elida Record last week.

The News has invited discussion of this proposition by the tax payers of the county, and will be glad to publish such discussion whether it be for or against the proposition.

In writing the above Mr. Laughter has evidently given the matter little thought.

It was never the intention to build a court house to create a temporary prosperity.

The fact has been put before the public that a court house at this time could be built at a great saving to the public, and at the same time help to relieve the unemployment situation.

As to the taxes, there would be very little difference in the taxes of anyone and this would be distributed over a period of forty years.

As to building while a nation wide drought is on, that would be good business, and as Mr. Laughter is in the real estate business, he should readily see that the desirable classes of farmers would be attracted to a progressive community.

As to a fire proof vault in the City Hall, the county and city are two distinct units, and it would be very expensive and inefficient to mix the business of the two institutions. Besides if the entire city hall were made into one fire proof vault, there would not be room for the records of the county.

He states that there are many of these records which are never looked at and which are worthless.

We wonder if he has ever visited the office of the county clerk and watched the abstractors at work examining the records of the county?

Two years ago, the news was served a notice that the taxes on the News building had not been paid for 1910. Taxes interest and penalties ran into several hundred dollars. In fact more than the entire increased taxes would be on a court house bond issue.

The records of the tax collectors office, were dug into, and stored in a wooden cupboard, were found the duplicate receipts showing that taxes for that year had been paid. This alone saved the News more than the new court house would cost on its property.

Had there been a fire and these records destroyed, this back taxes would have to have been paid to clear the title of the News property.

Every time a piece of real estate changes hands, and an abstract is required, the abstractors dig back into the records from the time before the county was organized to gain a complete record of the property.

Should a fire ever occur in the court house and these records be destroyed, the seller of any piece of real estate would have to go before the district court to have a court title made to the property, which would be very unsatisfactory to the buyer. This would have to be done every time the property changed hands. The expense would be enormous.

There is no one who would benefit by the building of a modern court house more than the farmers of Roosevelt County.

NEED OF A PERMANENT FAIR GROUNDS

The Dairy and Livestock Show demonstrated that a permanent fair grounds is badly needed in Roosevelt County.

The Young & Hatch feed pens are a very good place to hold a show of this nature, but as the institution grows, as it will in future years, it becomes more important that permanent grounds and buildings be provided to house the display.

A few years ago, it was found sufficient to hold county fairs around the court house square, but of late years traffic has become so heavy, that this is no longer practical.

The farmers of the county who got behind the present organization deserve much credit, and with the co-operation of the public, this show will become an annual event which will attract visitors from several states.

Roosevelt county is the banner dairy county of New Mexico, and the dairy industry has galloped the farmers out of the hole in dry years of the past.

It is now one of the leading businesses of this section of the state, and will have a great part in the future development.

By all means they should have a permanent home for the show.

FINE BLOODED STOCK PREDOMINATED AT DAIRY SHOW

Those who visited the Dairy and Livestock Show last week, were impressed with the many entries of blooded stock both dairy and beef type.

These entries will go to show that these industries, so far as Roosevelt county goes, are on the up-grade.

The dairymen are introducing blood into their herds and as a result the cream checks are climbing higher and higher each year.

Much interest was shown in the bull owned by Tom Halslip, which was secured from the best strains of Oregon at a cost of $500.00.

While this seems a big price for a bull, it puts Tom's herd among the leaders of eastern New Mexico, and enables him to get a good price for his bull calves as well as for the heifers.

The Herford Head of Owenby & Young, show that better beef type cattle are holding sway in this county.

Owenby & Young have one of the largest herds of registered Herefords in the state and breeding stock from this herd is finding a market in several states.

While the show this year was exceptionally good, it is safe to say that the show of 1931, will contain a much larger entry of pure bred stock in both classes.

ROSWELL CAPTURES STATE TICKET

The Socialists of New Mexico have filed a State Ticket, and Roswell has captured most of the state offices.

It looks as if Roswell is the only socialist city in New Mexico.

Arthur Seligman, president of the First National Bank of Santa Fe and former Governor Jim Hinkle of Roswell were both drafted by the Party for the state's two most important offices. Those of governor or New Mexico Commissioner of Public Lands.

Mr. Seligman whose consent that he be placed in nomination was not gained until early Friday morning.

was put over with a bang on the first ballot to defeat Colonel D. E. Sellers of Albuquerque and Mayor Frank Vesley of Silver City.

Hinkle's consent to nomination was never gained, but he was nominated anyway by J. D. Hanna, Democratic national committeeman and the convention swung to him quickly, handing him the nomination on the first ballot by a large majority.

majority over W. Scott Day and Richard Ballard of Roswell.

That action gave Santa Fe county and northern New Mexico a candidate for governor, and gave southeastern New Mexico the office of land commissioner.

Mr. Hanna, placing Governor in nomination, told the convention that the southeastern section is entitled to that major office because that section is more directly interested in the development of the oil and gas area which has made the land office at the present time a $2,000,000 concern. It was generally believed that Mr. Hinkle will not reject the nomination.

For justices of the Supreme Court the convention chose Dan K. Sadler of Raton and Colfax county, a staunch Democrat from the northern portion of the state, and Andy Hudspeth, of Carrizozo and Lincoln County in the south central section. Both are strong Democrats and Hudspeth who has consistently refused attempts in the past to get him to run for congress and the United States Senate, finally consented for his name to go before the convention for the non-political post of Supreme Court Justice. T. E. Mears of Portales, president of the New Mexico Bar Association was the third man in nomination.

The Democrats went over to Clovis in Curry county on the extreme east central side of the state to pick A. W. Hockenbush to pair with Arthur Seligman, and make the race for lieutenant governor.

Then the convention reached over into San Miguel county, a native stronghold, and chose Mrs. Marguerite Baca to run for secretary of state. Mrs. Baca is the widow of the late Jose Baca, who died while lieutenant governor during Jim Hinkle's administration. She was placed in nomination last night by former Governor Hinkle.

There was a bit of scrap among the natives for state auditor, and the Spanish-Americans shelved Juan Vigil of Taos county to nominate Arcenio Velarde of Rio Arriba county which placed another nominee in the northern native counties. It likewise throws a Democratic native candidate into Rio Arriba county to oppose victor Ullrich, the present state auditor and who is a candidate for renomination on the Republican ticket.

Vigil had been slated for nomination, and the first indication of sentiment to the contrary came when a gentleman from Catron county moved that Vigil's nomination be made by acclamation. Rio Arriba protested vigorously and Judge J. H. Crist nominated Velarde. He went over on the first ballot.

Vigil has served two previous terms as state auditor for the Democrats and two year ago was the Democratic nominee for the short term in the United States senate. He was defeated by the late United States Senator, O. A. Larrasolo.

Warren H. Graham of Albuquerque won the greatest ovation he has ever received from a Democratic state convention when the party called upon him last night to run once more for state treasurer. On the roll call, Graham's nomination was seconded by each of the 31 counties. He has previously served five and one-half years as state treasurer.

Into the extreme southeastern section, the convention went to Carlsbad in Eddy county to pick E. K. Neumann, Democratic leader in that section, World War veteran and active in affairs of the New Mexico American Legion, to run on the ticket for the office of attorney general.

Then came "The Daughter of Democracy," as speakers styled Mrs. Georgia Lusk of Lovington and Lea county, who was again nominated for state superintendent of public instruction. That gave southeastern New Mexico another candidate, but speakers call her "The State's candidate," because two years ago she led the entire Democratic ticket although defeated by Alvarado Montoya, the Republican candidate.

The Democrats made an attempt to strike the heart of a Republican stronghold with the nomination of Jesus C. Sanchez of Valencia county for New Mexico corporation commissioner.

HOWARD CONFECTIONERY

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Howard are making some marked changes in the Boyce Confectionery which they recently purchased and are now operating. A new fountain has been put into place, that is the very latest model and one of the very prettiest in the city. Some changes have been made in the arrangement of stock in the store and the display windows have been filled with the latest in confection novelties.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard purchased the W. O. Oldham residence in the south part of Portales some several months ago and are now located in the city with the intention of making this their home.

Mrs. P. M. Bailey was absent from her duties in the Junior High School last Friday, due to an attack of Pottainie poisoning.

Chavez County Cotton Carnival

The grand opening parade on the first day of the Cotton Carnival and Rodeo at Roswell, October 8, 9, 10, and 11, will far exceed previous year's spectacles, according to Myron Frager of Roswell, chairman of this division of the carnival.

There will be more and better floats, and more different features this year he says. A number of committees in southern New Mexico and some from farther away have already entered floats in the parade. Substantial cash prizes will be given in the different divisions of the parade. With Edd Ammonett and Harold and Bob Crosby managing the Rodeo on the first three days of the carnival, and the assurance that world famous cowboys will be there in the contest a better rodeo than ever before, say the carnival managers. Not only will there be the usual roping riding and bulldogging contests, but enough specialties to make it more attractive than a three ring circus. And cotton carnival rodeos never drag—there are no waits between events. It's the sort of program which makes everybody want to see all three days of the show. The carnival proper will last four days—the rodeo only three because a better program of events can be arranged for three days than four.

Friday will be old timers day at the carnival and this will bring in men and women who have lived in New Mexico thirty years or more. A parade in which all modern things will be barred will feature Old Timers Day.

The products and livestock show will be larger with many community and county exhibits. The quarters for live stock have been doubled since last year.

Lachman Carson shows will be at the carnival grounds the entire week with many new rides and shows.

Side Lights on Dairy Show

Many visitors to the Dairy Show, found the Ferris Wheel the principle attraction.

Others spent many hours viewing the splendid display of Jersey cattle, and asked many questions as to the pedigree and production records.

The side show separated many of the curious from their kale.

The Hogs, while not hogging the show, attracted a good crowd each day.

The Parade was colorful and contained many beautiful floats.

The cars contained many beautiful girls—Roosevelt county products.

The News car was decorated with six news boys, who cried the paper at all points in the parade.

The duct storm Friday night flavored the contents of the refreshment booths.

It was hard to tell who was the busiest—Ralph Will or R. A. Young. Ralph found time Saturday night to give his two sons a ride on the wheel.

Tom Haislip is stepping high, having won both grand championships.

The parachute jumper landed in a field of peanuts Saturday yet no one accused her of being a peanut politician.

The band failed to make connection with their float during the parade, but were on hand for a concert after the parade reached the fair grounds.

Narry a fight at the fair grounds, according to officer Bond. Owenby & Young's Brahma cattle caused much comment.

Felt Bad After Eating

"Before I started taking Black-Draught, three years ago, my health was very bad," writes Mrs. C. C. Carson, 945 Concord St., Beaumont, Texas. "I suffered constantly from constipation. I had headache when I got up in the morning, and I felt dull and sluggish. I hardly ate a meal that my food agreed with me. Frequently I would have gas on my stomach, and felt awful."
"I read about Black-Draught, and I thought it might help me. After I had taken it a little while, I felt much better. It relieves constipation. I keep it on hand so when I need a laxative I will have it. In the three years I have been taking it, I have never found anything as good for constipation."

BAPTIST MEETING

Eighteen ladies of the Baptist Church gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Fletcher on Monday for the mission program planned for the day.

This was the all-day meeting of the society and each lady took a dish of food for the noon day meal. As is always the case the meal served at twelve o'clock was delicious and most bountiful.

The afternoon was devoted to the program which had been prepared by the president, Mrs. M. B. Jones. Mrs. N. F. Wollard led the devotional services. The subject for the lesson was "State Missions." Mrs. W. B. Oldham had for her subject "Pastors whose salaries have been supplemented"; Mrs. S. B. Fletcher had for her subject "The church, the Ordained Minister, the field, our needs." Mrs. O. S. Strland gave in her able way "A bit of history" and Mrs. J. C. Compton discussed "Our work and the readjustments of the finances of the convention."

Mrs. T. E. Mears led a number of the other members in the explanation of scripture quotations which the president passed to the ladies.

Mail Order Method For Testing Cows

Mail order testing is new. In fact, it is so new that only a small percentage of people, even in the rural districts know there is such a system of weeding out inferior cows, and how it is operated, says E. E. Anderson of the New Mexico Agricultural College. It's real beginning was in the great dairy state of Wisconsin a few years ago. A dairy-minded county agent by the name of Amundsen devised a plan whereby the milk and butterfat production of cows could be tested by mail. In brief, the plan worked out is as follows:

A testing laboratory is set up in a central location as possible. A tester is employed to conduct the tests and get out the reports. Once a month or every other month, the tester mails out a dozen boxes of sample cans to the dairy members who have joined the testing association. Upon receipt of the box of sample cans, the dairyman proceeds to weigh and take a sample of the night's and morning's milk from each of his cows. These samples are sent in to the laboratory where they are tested and the findings recorded. In due time the dairyman receives a report on the production of each of his animals. At the end of the year he gets a complete year's report. Such a system is so arranged to make it the least possible work on the part of the dairyman getting a line-up on the production of his herd. Such a system of testing, with a few minor changes in some cases to suit local conditions, lends itself admirably to our plains conditions where herds are for the most part, small and far between. The mail order system does not perform the services of the old standard method of testing, but in our regions of sparse dairy population, it is a wonderful substitute. The cost is such that there is no reason why every dairy farmer in New Mexico, who does not have access to the regular association, should not have his cows tested by mail.

At the present time mail order testing associations are operating in five counties in New Mexico. In areas where it is not possible to form a local testing association, arrangements can be made with the Agricultural College to do the testing at actual cost. For further particulars write E. E. Anderson, Extension Dairy Husbandman, State College, N. M.

Tom Haislip Has Best Bull in South

D. T. Simons, representative of the American Jersey Cattle Club of Fort Worth, who judged the Jerseys in the Dairy and Livestock Show, stated that the fair this year had made a marked improvement over that of last year. He stated that better grades and better registered blood was shown than in the past, and especially commented on the Jersey bull of Tom Haislip, which took the grand championship banner.

Mr. Simons stated that there was no better bull than this one from record of pedigree and production in the south.

He stated that this bull and the cow that won the grand championship, which was also owned by Tom Haislip, would show with credit at any fair in the country.

Display Off To Tri-State Fair

On Sunday afternoon a truck loaded with products from the farms of Roosevelt county left for Amarillo, where this display was arranged by Carl Turner, in the booth provided.

This display will be seen by thousands of people from several states, and will demonstrate that Roosevelt County is not a drought stricken area.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Herndon left Saturday for Lubbock with their daughter Miss Greta, who will enter Texas Tech this year.

FLOYD PRICE

During the early hours of Saturday morning, Floyd Price, passed away at the home of Grandma Morrison, where he has been living for the past several months.

Floyd was a young man, just twenty-two years of age, and came from his native town of Nocona, Texas, last November, with the hopes that the climate of New Mexico would assist in arresting the destructive actions of that dreaded disease, tuberculosis. The change did not bring the great relief which had been hoped and Saturday death claimed the young man.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Price and a nephew of Mitt Price, here in Portales. He has two brothers, Foster who is a few years older and Kermit, a lad of 13.

Funeral services were held at Floyd, Sunday afternoon, with both Rev. C. E. Ball and Rev. T. B. Sowell assisting in the rites. Interment was made in the cemetery at Floyd.

Locals and Personals

George Elam, State Secretary of the B. Y. F. U. spent Sunday morning in Portales and was present at the Eleven o'clock services.

Mrs. J. B. Raymond came up from McCamey, Texas, on Sunday evening and is spending this week in Portales looking after some business matters and visiting with her son, Floyd Raymond.

Rev. Charles Burnett, pastor of the Baptist Church at Morton, Texas was in Portales, Sunday visiting with his friends, Rev. C. E. Ball and family, and kindly consented to preach at the local Baptist Church for the morning services.

Miss Maxine Grissom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Orison, is ill at the home of her parents with Typhoid fever. While the young lady is quite ill, her condition has not been alarming and the attending physician feels she will get along nicely.

J. B. Chapman, one of the substantial stock farmers of the Dera neighborhood, was a Portales visitor Monday of this week.

Democratic Votes For Hoover Bought At $50 Each — Hanna

By

By Republican State Central Committee

Mr., Mrs. and Miss Voter:

To get your votes, the Democrats will make any kind of wild promises or wild charges. They are long on promises and short on performances. They make baseless charges against the Republican Party in the hope that they may gain enough votes to return them to power.

Former Democratic Justice of the Supreme Court R. H. Hanna is now the Democratic national committeeman. He has been signally honored by his party. Twice he was its nominee for the Supreme Court, later he was the nominee for Governor, and still later he was the nominee for United States Senator. Now he is national committeeman, a position held by only two other Democrats since statehood, A. A. Jones and Arthur Seligman.

Now comes Judge Hanna with grave charges against about ten thousand voters of his own party. In an address before the Young People's Democratic Club of Bernalillo County, he said, as reported by the Albuquerque Journal of September 12 "that the Republican Party won the last election in New Mexico by buying votes at $50 each."

ELEVEN THOUSAND BOUGHT

Hoover's majority was nearly 22,000, therefore, according to the Judge, the Republicans bought at $50 each, eleven thousand Democrats to vote the Republican ticket, for example, figuring the Democratic majority, in Chaves County in 1926, and the majority of 1765 for Hoover there were 1206 Democrats in that County, who, in exchange for $50 each, voted the Republican ticket. On the same basis of figuring 574 Democrats sold out in Colfax, 1005 in Curry, 615 in Eddy, 544 in Quay, 657 in Roosevelt, and 648 in San Juan.

Any Democrat who voted for Hoover is charged with having sold his vote for $50.

WHY THEY SO VOTED

What are the facts?

No Democrat was paid $50 or any other sum, for his vote. They voted against Smith for two reasons. First of all because he had committed the Democratic Party to repeal or nullification of the prohibition amendment. He mentioned no plan for making legal again the liquor traffic without restoring the saloon. Secondly, the Democrats who voted for Hoover were against Smith because he announced himself in favor of a revision of the tariff on the principles of the Underwood bill. That bill put cattle, sheep, meats, wool, corn and wheat on the free list and gave only twenty-five cents a bushel protection on beans which was no protection against the beans grown in Manchuria.

Prohibition and tariff revision will be the issue of the Democratic Party in 1932. This was made sure by the recent letter of Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Democratic governor of New York, to Senator Wagner, announcing that he favors the repeal or nullification of the prohibition amendment.

It is now sure that the big Democratic delegation will go from New York to the National Convention pledged to the nomination of Franklin D. Roosevelt for president. That, together with all other eastern delegations will be for an unequivocal wet plank in the platform.

A WET CANDIDATE

Perhaps the seeming chance of victory on a wet platform will lead the delegations from the southern states, traditionally Democratic and proverbially dry, to forget their prohibition views in the interest of practical politics as they did at Houston two years ago when they accepted Governor Smith on his own wet declaration.

The election of any Democrat to either house of congress, this year, from a dry state like New Mexico, will give encouragement to the wet Democrats of the eastern states. They know that such Democrat will stand by his party, regardless of what he may say in the campaign, just as Senator Bratton voted against the best tariff bill ever written for New Mexico after he had declared publicly that he would vote for it.

Notwithstanding the charge that they voted against Smith for $50 a vote, there are a great many Democrats in New Mexico who place their prohibition principles against party interests.

WHAT WOULD IT MEAN

Times have changed. In the old days the sale of liquor was merely a nuisance on the public highways, except that it wrecked millions of pay envelopes that, since prohibition, finance the family budget and go to make prosperous the grocer, the dry goods merchant, the doctor, the baker, and the butcher and the furniture dealer.

But widespread sale of liquor would be more than a nuisance now. It would be a menace to every one who might be traveling on the public highways. In the old days, the rate of travel was about four miles an hour; now it is thirty-five to seventy-five miles.

Not only is the Republican Party on the right side morally, but it has always been on the side of progressive government.

The state laws for the education of our children and for the construction of our wonderful system of public laws, are all Republican laws. Under those laws the people of the State have prospered, and New Mexico is looked upon as a marvel of progress, only eight of the forty-eight states showing more progress during the past ten years. So says the United States census.

OF COURSE YOU WON'T

Mr., Mrs. and Miss Voter: We don't believe you will help elect to office a party which charges its own voters with selling out. We don't believe you want to have in office a party that doesn't know what it stands for from one election to the next. We don't believe you want in office a party that will destroy New Mexico's chief industries by putting on the free list cattle, sheep, meats, wool, wheat, corn, beans, and other products.

Whenever the Democrats have been in power they have passed tariff laws that brought ruin to the business of the country—especially to the business of New Mexico.

We don't believe you want to put into power a party whose chief claim to your votes is restoration of the liquor traffic and ruin of the livestock industry and the prosperity of the State.

Murder Mystery

Evaporates in

Thin Air

Friday night at the fair grounds

word was brought out that a man had cut a woman's head off with a butchers cleaver, in front of the Adam's Cafe.

Sheriff Jernigan, Marshal Bond, and the News editor rushed to town to investigate.

The town was quiet and no disturbance of any kind could be found.

In front of the Adam's Cafe

there was no corpse, nor was there any blood on the side walk. R. H. Adams reported that he had seen nothing of this heinous murder.

How or who started this report, or what their object was was not learned by the officers.
