Fear Bank Head Met Foul Play

POLICE INVESTIGATE DISAPPEARANCE OF SOONER BANKER

(By The Associated Press)

BURLINGTON, Okla., Sept. 23—Fear that Henry C. Doherty, 36, missing Burlington banker, met with foul play on a motor trip to Amarillo, Tex., was held today by Alfalfa county officers investigating his disappearance.

The Burlington bank, of which he was president, failed to open Tuesday, three days after Doherty left here on a business mission to Texas. The bank's closing, according to Ben Krat, bookkeeper, resulted from a shortage of cash. No indication of irregularities was found by J. W. Ingram, state bank examiner.

Thought Harmed

In letters to his wife, mailed from Oklahoma City and Shamrock, Tex., Doherty told of picking up hitchhikers to keep him company, and officers expressed belief he probably had been harmed by someone whom he sought to befriend.

Search for the banker revealed two mysterious telephone calls had been made to his brother in Wichita, Kans., adding to the apprehension for his safety. The calls were made Tuesday night. The first investigators said, told Doherty's brother, "I phone bad news. Henry won't return. Don't tell anyone but your son and daughter. God bless you."

The second, 30 minutes later, said "that call a while ago was all a farce." Officers have been unable to trace the calls.

Pistol Shells Found

An automobile identified as Doherty's was found abandoned on the Newcastle road in Cleveland county, Oklahoma. Deputy sheriffs said two discharged pistol shells were found in the rear seat of the car.

An anonymous note, mailed from Oklahoma City and addressed to the Oklahoma highway commission, added to the mystery. It gave the number of Doherty's automobile license and read further:

"Be sure to look on the northeast side of the Santa Fe underpass and find what I saw north of Amarillo. He should have hit the gun. I was sure scared. A Hoover bug."

Texas officers investigated but found no clues.

The last word of Doherty's whereabouts was a letter he mailed his wife from Shamrock, Tex., last Sunday.

GRETA NISSEN

VIVIAN DUNCAN

BOTH VIVIAN DUNCAN AND GRETA NISSEN TO GO TO COURT

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 23—The call of the troupers was blamed today for one of Hollywood's latest broken romances, that of Vivian Duncan, portrayer of the role of Eva in the stage and screen version of "Topsy and Eva" and her husband, Nils Asther, Swedish born film actor.

Announcement Miss Duncan and Asther separated 10 days ago was followed by revelation of a domestic split between Greta Nissen, blonde screen actress, and Weldon Heyburn, actor and former Alabama and George Washington universities athlete, because they don't see things "in the same light."

To Start Proceedings

Miss Duncan's attorney said divorce proceedings probably will be started by the actress. She married Asther secretly in Reno, Nevada in August, 1930.

"They like different things," C. O. Bacon, Miss Duncan's attorney stated. "She is a trouper by nature. She loves to go places and do things."

B. L. Irving, attorney for the Swedish actor, added:

"Mr. Asther is just the opposite. He is almost a recluse."

Miss Nissen explained her split with Heyburn whose real name is Weldon H. Franks, as follows:

Couldn't Agree

"We found after six months of sincere effort to make a go of married life that we do not regard things in the same light. We couldn't agree about things that you can not get along without agreeing about. Consequently we have reached the decision that we must separate which we have done with great fondness, mutual respect and regret."

GOVERNOR HAS FIRST CASE DISMISSED

ASKS COURT TO OPEN BALLOT BOXES TO REVEAL FRAUD

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Sept. 23.—Trial of Governor R. S. Sterling's suit contesting the Democratic nomination of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson for governor of Texas was set today for October 3 in the district court of Judge W. F. Robertson.

Papers preparatory to obtaining service on Mrs. Ferguson were being made out by the district clerk's office.

Asks To Be Nominee

Governor Sterling asked the court to go into the allegations, order the ballot boxes opened to determine the genuineness of his charges of illegal votes having been counted for Mrs. Ferguson and finally declare him the lawful nominee of the party for governor. In the event Governor Sterling should be sustained the court would direct the secretary of state to certify his name as the nominee.

Service of papers in the case had been held in abeyance today and a cost bond had not yet been filed. The district clerk's office said it had not been determined when papers would be issued to officially notify Mrs. Ferguson of the suit. Actual trial was expected to consume a number of weeks.

Another Move Looms

Some lawyers believed Gov. Sterling's next move would be action in some court to prohibit Mrs. Jane Y. McCallum, secretary of state, from certifying Mrs. Ferguson's name as the nominee to the various county judges for a place on the general election ballots, pending disposition of the suit.

The law requires the secretary of state to certify the ballot not later than thirty days before the general

FAIR TOUR IS MADE TODAY

ITINERARY CUT DOWN BY WET HIGHWAYS TO NORTHWEST

A group of Lubbock citizens left this morning to invite Plainview, Hale Center and Abernathy residents to the 10th annual Panhandle-South Plains fair, which will begin Monday and continue through the week. Members of the autocade were to be guests of the Plainview Kiwanis club at luncheon. E. L. Klett, Lubbock City attorney, was to be the principal speaker there.

Plainview schools were to be dismissed early to hear the Westerner high school band, directed by H. A. Anderson, an accordion duo, Mrs. Willette Merrell and Miss Louise Garrison, and a blacklace team, Dr. G. H. Aler and Clarence Miner.

Extremely heavy roads" in the vicinity of Lockney, Floydada, Ralls, and Crosbyton cut short the proposed itinerary for the third and final tour heading the exposition, it was announced last night by T. C. Meinecke, tour chairman.

Six Bandits Flee With $35,000 Loot

REDWOOD FALLS, Minn., Sept. 23 (AP)—Six bandits kidnaped the cashier and assistant cashier of the State Bank and Trust company today and fled with about $35,000 of the bank's funds.

The two victims were released about two miles out of town, unharmed. Five of the men invaded the institution and, flourishing pistols, carried out sacks of currency and gold to an automobile, in which the sixth member of the band sat.

ROOSEVELT IN APPEAL FOR NEW DEAL

EXPECTS PARTY LINES TO BE BROKEN IN NOVEMBER VOTE

BY WALTER T. BROWN
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23 (AP)—With a prediction party lines would be broken more than ever before in history in the November elections, Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt today carried his presidential campaign to within 35 miles of the legal residence of President Hoover, whom he hopes to succeed in the White House.

The Democratic nominee's statement that liberal Republicans were giving a "remarkable response" to his plea to forget party lines, was coupled with praise from Senator Hiram Johnson, California independent Republican who has often clashed with President Hoover.

Praises Johnson

Shortly before he was welcomed by great San Francisco throngs last night, the New York governor in Sacramento—the state capital—described Johnson as "long a warrior in the ranks of true American progress" and endorsed his most recent criticism of the administration.

Earlier in the week Johnson had told the state federation of labor a government which "thinks only a favored few is unworthy of the name and unfit to govern."

Said Mr. Roosevelt at the capital:

"There is another principle that I am stressing wherever I speak that I know is in line with the fundamental ideas of your state and that is that in this campaign there is going to be less following of party lines than ever before in history.

"The people of this country have come to believe that what this country needs is new leadership and that the battle we are waging is a battle for new leaders—not a mere change of party, not a mere change of party emblem; not a mere change of names, but a change of principle—a new deal."

GIRLS REPORTED MISSING IN CITY

Two girls, Marguerite Miller, 15, and her 13-year-old sister, Louise, reported missing since 7 o'clock Thursday morning, had not been found at noon today, so far as police had learned.

The two girls left at 7 a. m. for a relative's residence at a tourist camp here, and last night had not been found. Mrs. A. C. Harp of Acuff Tourist camp, 100-block of Avenue H, reported. Location of the place they left Thursday morning was not designated in the police report.

Marguerite Miller was described as 5 feet 6 inches tall, 114 pounds in weight, with black hair, gray eyes, dark complexion, and a scar over the right eye, and wearing a black crepe dress, red spring coat, navy blue tam, tan hose, and black slippers; Louise as 4 feet tall, 107 pounds in weight, with long light hair, blue eyes, fair complexion, and wearing a red crepe dress, black slippers, and no hose.

Settlement Seen In Row About Secret Societies

LOCAL SCHOOL HEADS, PATRONS, STUDENTS CONFER HERE

Lubbock High school's difficulties over secret, Greek letter societies which have been flaring here for the past several days, bid fair this afternoon to be amicably settled following conferences between the school board and patrons and school executives and students.

Although the cases of 12 girls reported dismissed with 15 boys from high school, for violation of the institution's anti-secret society pledge, were under consideration, the girls voluntarily agreed to withdraw from a sorority, Delta Beta Sigma, and were not dismissed, M. H. Duncan, superintendent of schools, corrected this morning.

Principal Talks To Boys

The boys, members of Theta Kappa Omega, national high school fraternity, were interviewed by Principal R. W. Matthews, and were told not to return to school until they were willing to withdraw their memberships in the fraternity. Thursday, the differences were adjusted, and all were eligible to return to classes this morning. Superintendent Duncan said. Some were back under the red tile roofs Thursday afternoon. Similar disciplinary tactics in dealing with the girls were contemplated, the superintendent said. The girls, however, of their own initiative pledged themselves not to engage in sorority activities, the superintendent said. The problem was a recurrence of one of previous years.

Vote To Disband

A mother of one of the girls this morning said the girls at a meeting shortly before the opening of this school year had voted to disband, and the sorority had not met since. The mother said also that the girls had not been the subjects of any such contemplated discipline, although most of them Thursday had again signed the customary anti-secret society pledge.

Sorority Formed In Summer

"The sorority was organized in the summer, and they (the girls) did not know it would come under school regulations; they disbanded two weeks before school began," another mother said. She added that most of the 1931 Lubbock High school championship football team belonged to Theta Kappa Omega, the fraternity which bore the brunt of this week's discipline.

On Wednesday night a committee of six patrons, together with a number of students and ex-students,

CLOTHES DRIVE FOR POOR WILL BE SATURDAY

A city-wide drive for clothing to be given to Lubbock's poor will start here tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, under the auspices of the City-County Welfare association.

At least 20 automobiles, each manned by a driver and two Boy scouts, will leave City hall at the appointed hour Saturday and cover the city systematically. Persons who have clothing suitable for men and women, boys and girls, are requested to have their bundles on their front porches, plainly marked as 'old clothes', so that collectors may gather them rapidly and easily.

There is a great demand for all sorts of garments and shoes, welfare workers said, and unless they are forthcoming there will be much suffering in Lubbock this winter.

CLAIM LIQUOR LAW INVALID

AMENDMENT WILL BE CHALLENGED IN U. S. DISTRICT COURT

(By The Associated Press)

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 23—The argument that the Eighteenth amendment is invalid because it never was submitted to the states for ratification was prepared to be submitted to the United States district court here today by local attorneys defending an alleged dry law violator.

The attorneys, Morris S. Snyder, John S. L. Yost and Joseph McCormick, have filed a demurrer and motion to quash indictments against their client who is charged with sale and possession of liquor and maintaining a nuisance.

Claim Law Void

In their brief it is asserted the Eighteenth amendment has been void since Jan. 17, 1926, because section 3 of the amendment reads:

"This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the constitution by the legislatures of the several states, as provided in the constitution, within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the states by the congress."

This procedure, they contend, never was literally followed.

Court Of Honor Is To Be Held Tonight

Lubbock Boy Scouts will attend their first court of honor of the fall season at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the district criminal courtroom, Slaton scouts also will attend a court tonight, in the high school.

D. T. Jennings, area executive, has asked that scouts who are to participate in an old clothes drive tomorrow assemble in the corporation courtroom at 9 a. m., wearing uniforms if they have them. The scouts will be assigned to automobiles, which will travel virtually all parts of the city, to collect donated bundles from porches and take them to the cars.

Tenant Farmer Is Sentenced To Die

ARDMORE, Okla., Sept. 23 (AP)—A death sentence faced Albert Ellis, young tenant farmer, today for robbery of the family of John Weber, Fort Worth bond broker, near here Aug. 28.

A district court jury, after deliberating ten hours, returned a verdict last night convicting Ellis of robbery with firearms and condemning him to die in the electric chair.

ASSAULT CASE FACES SMITH AND CROFT

CHOKING ALLEGED IN ARREST OF BROWN ON TRAFFIC CHARGE

Charges of aggravated assault were filed against Eugene Smith and J. L. Croft, Lubbock policemen, in county court late Thursday afternoon in a complaint by Franklin D. Brown, a Lubbock lawyer who, after his arrest Monday afternoon accused the peace officers of subjecting him to violence.

A corporation court jury was dismissed about 2:20 o'clock Thursday afternoon after it reported it was unable to agree on a verdict in Brown's case. The attorney was charged with over-running a stop-sign. Smith was a witness for the city in trial of the case.

Choking Alleged

The assault complaint, charging the two policemen jointly, was filed soon after Brown's case was left undecided in the police court. The complaint alleged the officers did "choke, wound, and bruise" the lawyer. A dentist and a medical doctor were among seven state witnesses listed.

A capias, issued late Thursday, for the arrest of Smith and Croft had not been served at noon today. The two policemen were on duty.

The corporation court case against Brown, first scheduled tentatively for trial this morning, will be tried next Thursday, the usual day for city court sessions, it was said at City hall this morning.

Four Suspects Are Held For Bombing

CHICAGO, Sept. 23 (AP)—Hope for a speedy solution of the attempted bombing of the home of Judge John P. Goorty was held police said today after the arrest of four men.

At the same time, the police announced they had seized thirteen and a half sticks of dynamite in connection with one of the arrests. William McDaniel, 55, arrested as the owner of the explosives, admitted, police said, that he had brought 20 sticks of dynamite from Diamond, W. Va., where he bought them for 10 cents each.

Divers Descend About Half Mile

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Sept. 23 (AP)—A new deep sea diving mark of nearly a half mile was added to the world's records today.

Dr. William Beebe, New York scientist, and Otis Barton, inventor of the "bathysphere," a newly-devised diving apparatus, descended 2,200 feet below the surface of the Atlantic here yesterday and broadcast their impressions over the radio from the depths.

The 2,200 feet was several hundred feet farther down than Dr. Beebe, noted as a deep sea explorer, had ever been. The "bathysphere" protected them from a pressure of 4,800 tons, enough to have flattened both of them if the apparatus had failed.

ARGUMENTS IN MURDER CASE ARE BEGUN

EXTREME PENALTY IS ASKED BY VICKERS FOR COVINGTON

Declaring that "common justice asks that the extreme sentence be assessed in this case", J. E. Vickers, member of the state's counsel, opened arguments this morning in the trial of Jess Covington, charged in 99th district court with murder, by emphatically asking for the death penalty.

Covington is charged jointly with Hugh Walker and B. L. "Barber John" Richardson in connection with the killing of F. V. "Leather Hat" Brown, pioneer county stockman, at Woodrow on the night of May 30.

Speaks Hour And Half

Vickers, who spoke for an hour and a half, was the first speaker in six hours of argument in the case. The other attorneys are being heard this afternoon. The courtroom was crowded to capacity.

As he would shout his demands for the death sentence and point his finger at Covington, the defendant's invalid mother, Mrs. Cora Covington of Amarillo who sat in a wheel chair near her son during all of the trial, would weep as did a daughter and Covington's wife. They wept throughout most of Vickers' talk.

After tracing step by step testimony in the case and pointing out corroboration of other witnesses to the testimony of G. A. Ross, chief prosecution witness and admitted fourth member of the slaying party, Vickers declared, "if there ever was a corroboration in the history of Texas, we have produced it in this case".

Makes Strong Appeal

Vickers made a strong appeal to the jury for conviction of Covington.

"I believe the hand of Almighty God asserts itself in every murder case," Vickers said.

"When Frank Brown was shot down like a dog out there that night, he cried out 'My God' as he stumbled and fell dead."

While exhibiting the two "death guns" to the jury, Vickers would let them fall a few inches to the table each time he laid them down. Their falling caused a gruesome

ESTIMATED 1,200 STUDENTS ENROLL AT TECH COLLEGE

An estimated 1,200 students were in the process of matriculation or had completed it at Texas Technological college at noon today, Dr. Bradford Knapp, president, said. Enrollment of sophomores, juniors, seniors, and graduates began at the college at 8 o'clock this morning. Seven hundred 40 students, nearly all freshmen, received enrollment cards Thursday, Doctor Knapp said.

The president said Thursday that records of the registrar's office indicated about 200 students were seeking transfers from other institutions to Technological college. The first-day enrollment was about 15 per cent greater than that of the first day for the fall term last year, he added.

SUPPORT URGED FOR TECH TRAIN ON SATURDAY

If the Matador Special train is to run to Amarillo tomorrow for the Tech-Texas Aggie grid battle, local Matador boosters and Tech students are going to have to get busy.

In order to assure the train's operation, ABC club members, backing the feature, must sell 100 more tickets before Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, when the train will start on its journey to the North Plains city and the Tri-State fair, of which the game is a feature card.

Head Coach P. W. Cawthon, of Tech, joined ABC club members today in urging support of the team in the Amarillo tilt, which is first of an imposing list of grid combats of this season.

If the train is run, it will leave Lubbock at 9 a. m., arrive Amarillo at noon; will leave Amarillo at 11:59 p. m., returning to Lubbock at 2:30 Sunday morning.

WOMAN SLAYS CHUM, SELF

WOUNDS HER HUSBAND BEFORE ORGY OF KILLING TODAY

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23—Mrs. Irene Etter, 37, daughter of a retired Norristown, Pa., financier and known as a huntress and markswoman, shot and critically wounded her husband, killed her young woman companion and then committed suicide today.

The husband, Earl Etter, 43, a traveling construction superintendent for a steel company, was wounded twice as he entered the bedroom of his apartment.

Clad only in pajamas, Mrs. Etter then ran to the nearby home of her parents where her companion, Miss Gwendolyn Shinn, 26, a department store sales girl, was visiting.

Chasing her to the rear yard, police said, Mrs. Etter shot her twice and with the last bullet in her pistol killed herself. Miss Shinn died four hours later.

Police had not established the motive. Members of Mrs. Etter's family denied reports she had been jealous of Miss Shinn, but said she had been brooding over the death of her mother three months ago.

MINER GIVEN LIFE

HARLAN, Ky., Sept. 23 (AP)—James Reynolds, 46, Evarts miner today was given a life sentence in Harlan circuit court by a Jessamine county jury on a charge of slaying Deputy Sheriff Jim Daniels, one of four men killed in the mine battle at Evarts in May, 1931.

THE WEATHER

WEST TEXAS: Mostly cloudy tonight and Saturday, probably showers in Rio Grande Valley; warmer in north portion Saturday.

EAST TEXAS: Partly cloudy in north, unsettled in south portion, occasional rains in the Rio Valley and near west coast tonight and Saturday; somewhat cooler tonight in north portion and on east coast. Moderate northerly to easterly winds on the coast.

John Garner Back At Capital Today

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—Speaker John N. Garner returned to Washington today after attending the funeral of his 81-year-old mother, Mrs. Sarah Jane Garner, at Detroit, Texas.

Met by a few friends at the station who expressed their sorrow over his loss, the Democratic vice-presidential candidate told them "it was a sad mission."

Towns Isolated By Heavy Cloudbursts

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 23 (AP)—Del Rio, Fredericksburg and Kerrville were cut off from highway communication with San Antonio today because of heavy cloudbursts north and west of here.

The Sabinal river, beyond Uvalde, was slowly rising on the Del Rio highway, it was reported. W. H. Purlong, director of the chamber of commerce highway department reported Uvalde could be reached but that the Nueces river and other streams probably would close the road to that city during the day.

MAHATMA GANDHI "DEATH FAST" MAY BE BROKEN TODAY; COMPROMISE SEEN

(By The Associated Press)

POONA, India, Sept. 23—Mahatma Gandhi's death fast in protest against the British government's plan to solve the electoral problem for the millions of India's lower caste of untouchables may be ended today.

Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya, one of his former lieutenants, who has been active in conferences of Indian leaders to reach a compromise the last two days, visited the mahatma early this morning and said afterward he hoped an agreement would be reached before the day was over which would enable Gandhi to partake of food again.

The mahatma slept well during the night. When he awoke he conducted his morning prayers as usual.

Predictions were made yesterday after a long heart-to-heart talk between the conference leaders and Gandhi that an agreement would be worked out today, but his closest friends felt tense about the situation, fearing the little evangelist at the last minute might pick out some flaw in the proposed agreement and refuse to accept it.

ADDITIONAL PRECIPITATION EXPECTED AS DRIZZLE BRINGS COLDER WEATHER

Under a sky without any suggestion of sunshine, and with temperatures ranging from the high 50s to the middle 60s, Lubbock at noon today anticipated additional precipitation. The temperature at 12:30 p. m. at municipal airport was 64 degrees. The earliest reading of the day there was 58 degrees.

Rainfall here Thursday and to about 1:30 o'clock this afternoon totaled 1.2 inches. Wednesday's precipitation totaled .08 of an inch, Thursday's and that from midnight to 8 a. m. today totaled .99 of an inch, and .21 of an inch fell between 8 a. m. and 1:30 p. m.

Drizzling rain continued intermittently through last night and this morning, sometimes assuming intensity of a shower and again dwindling to little more than a wind-blown mist. Rainfall was general over much of the Panhandle and Plains yesterday and last night. Roads were difficult for travel in many localities. Three buses scheduled for routes to the south and east of Lubbock did not make runs this morning, and road conditions generally on bus lines

Colombia Mobilizes Troops For Battle

RIO DE JANEIRO, Sept. 23 (AP)—Reports from Manaos, in western Brazil, today said Colombia was mobilizing troops and airplanes in the Putumayo district, near Leticia, over which there recently has been a clamor for war with Peru.

Six airplanes have been sent to La Chorrena, on the Putumayo river, the dispatch said, and the Colombian garrisons at Popayan, San Miguel and Puerto Assis were proceeding toward the lower Putumayo and probably would concentrate at La Chorrena, from where they would embark for Leticia.

Closing Date For Women's Division At Fair Changed To One O'Clock Saturday

Exhibits Retarded By Rainy Weather

Because of rainy weather that has retarded entries in the women's division at the Panhandle-South Plains fair, the entry date has been moved up to one o'clock Saturday afternoon, the director, Mrs. Hub Jones, announced just before noon today.

The department was scheduled to close at one o'clock today.

Although several out-of-town judges are in the city, judging will be postponed until Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Jones said.

Entries were heavier this morning than on Thursday, the opening day, but many people had sent word that they could not get to the building by one o'clock today, because of the rain, Mrs. Jones stated.

Receives Most Entries

The largest number of entries were received Thursday in the Girls and Women's Home Demonstration clubs division, of which Miss Isla Mae Chitwood is director. Several home demonstration agents from this section came in with exhibits from their counties. Floyd county is entering 30 rugs.

All local entries are to be in the women's building at the fair grounds by one o'clock Saturday afternoon. After judging is completed, the exhibits will be arranged for the fair opening on Monday morning.

Cakes, breads and cut flowers, perishables, will be received on Monday from 8 until 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Miss Myrtle Murray, district home demonstration agent, and Miss Mildred Horton, state home demonstration agent, arrived Thursday evening and will judge in the culinary, textile and home demonstration divisions.

Public School And College Receptions Are Expected To Draw Large Numbers

Tonight is reception night in Lubbock.

Public school teachers, school patrons and the general public are to meet at the Senior High school. At the same time, church people of the city will be extending an annual reception for students at Texas Technological college.

The public school reception is being sponsored by the City Parent-Teacher council and is a special honor to new teachers in the school system. Other teachers, fathers and mothers of school children and anyone else who wishes is to attend, it was announced. The reception committee is composed of Mrs. George Herd, Mrs. E. L. Klett, Mrs. Fred Sparks and Mrs. T. R. Prideaux.

Several hundred collegians are expected to attend the receptions to be extended by church folk.

The occasion is an annual one observed in Lubbock and is on the calendar at the college. At most of the churches a get-together program has been planned to welcome the students and light refreshments will be served.

A three-part program has been planned at the First Methodist church with "Discoveries" as the theme. The first part will be introduced through music and games, the second part features stunts and the last part is to be a candle light service.

Miss Elizabeth Conner is general chairman, Miss Zella Riegel is to direct freshman students and Miss Johnnye Gilkerson is to direct upperclassmen.

This affair is to begin at 8 o'clock.

To Be Informal

An open house for students is to be held in the basement of the Broadway Church of Christ at 8 o'clock. This is to be an informal affair, according to B. Sherrod, chairman.

Students who attend the West End Baptist church are to be welcomed at an open house which follows revival services. This will begin at 9 o'clock and is to be held at 2415 Main street. Music and a recreational program are to be features. Ira Prosser of Fort Worth is general chairman.

Students who attend the First Baptist open house will be greeted by a receiving line composed of the Rev. R. C. Campbell and Mrs. Campbell, teachers in the young peoples department, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Clement and Miss Juanita Pool. Miss Pool is president of the Baptist Student union and other members are to be in the house party.

After the reception, music, stunts, and contests will be enjoyed and a play is to be staged. Mrs. Rex Greer, Miss Gladwell Mullins and Miss Wynona Pardue are to play musical numbers. Miss Eulala Henderson, Parker Taulman and Miss Mary Alyce Scott are to be cast in the play.

Miss Patti Hopping is decoration chairman and Miss Bonnie Thomas is chairman of refreshments.

Introductory games at the Asbury Methodist church will be followed by a talk on the use of talents by C. A. Holcomb, teacher in the college department of the church. Special lighting effects are to be arranged in the auditorium for a devotional service which will conclude the program.

The Rev. O. W. Carter, pastor, is arranging details, assisted by a committee from the young peoples department.

Hill Garrison is directing entertainment for students who attend open house at the First Christian church. The hours are from 8 until 10 o'clock.

Buford Battin of Woodrow is to lead a devotional service at the Church of the Nazarene at 8 o'clock. After this talk the group is to have games and refreshments.

The red, white and blue theme of the Washington Bicentennial is to be featured at the entertainment at the First Presbyterian church. Miss Christova Sawyer is general chairman and Miss Ruth Reed is chairman of decorations. Women of the church are to serve refreshments.

Mrs. A. E. Jones Is President Of Unit

An election of officers was conducted by the First Baptist Euzelian class Thursday afternoon in the home of the teacher, Mrs. Fred Litton. Mrs. A. E. Jones is the new president.

Other officers are as follows: First vice-president, Mrs. L. R. Johnson; second vice-president, Mrs. W. A. Lyles; third vice-president, Mrs. A. E. Sailors; fourth vice-president, Mrs. Charles Burkett; stewardship chairman, Mrs. J. T. Howard; secretary, Mrs. J. A. Spikes; assistant secretary, Mrs. J. J. Scharnberg; home department chairman, Mrs. Paul Reed; reporter, Mrs. O. C. Moore.

Mrs. Johnson presided for the business hour and reports from chairmen were heard. There were 22 women present.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Deckelman 1926 Avenue O were hosts with a bridge and forty-two party Thursday evening benefitting the Little Flower circle of St. Joseph's Catholic church.

Guy Wheatley scored high in bridge games and H. E. McMillan made high score in forty-two.

Guests were Messrs. and Mesdames John Hunt, Roy Vaughn, F. C. Smart, McMillan, Ralph Decker, Hubert Wiley, Wheatley, Ray Allen, Frank Bowers, E. Hendricks, A. Rhodes, Mrs. Dick Shiro, Mrs. A. L. Borho, Miss Mattie Brown, Miss Mary Bowers and Misses Cleo and Vera King.

K. Carter PTA Is In Initial Meeting

Meeting for the first time this fall, members of the K. Carter Parent-Teacher association heard two talks Thursday afternoon. George Dupree talked on co-operation between patrons and teachers and Dr. J. T. Hutchinson, president of the school board, talked on school finances.

Several patrons sung the official "Tree Song" of the association.

Duncan Is Speaker Before Dupre PTA

M. H. Duncan, superintendent of city schools, was the principal speaker at a meeting of the Dupre Parent-Teacher association at Asbury Methodist church Thursday afternoon. This was the first meeting for the fall and 115 attended.

The association is to offer monthly prizes to rooms having the largest number of visitors and patrons at meetings.

College Club Men Hold Open House

Returning College club members and resident men who hold membership in that society were entertained at an open house given by Franklin Maddox Thursday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Maddox, 1643 Main street. The College club is a stag social organization at Texas Technological college.

About fifty guests called between 7 and 8:30 o'clock.

AIRLINE FOR MINERS

BOISE, Id.—An air line for miners has been started here by A. A. Bennett and C. Walker. The line will run freight and passenger service into the more isolated mining communities and, it is thought, will open new territory to prospectors.

Broadcast advertising is charged for by the word and not by the hour in Roumania.

LOCALS

Miss Mary Ansley, teacher in the Petersburg school, is to spend the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Ansley.

E. P. Austin of Abilene has been the guest of his brother, John Austin, and Mrs. Austin, 2203 13th street, this week.

Mrs. J. B. McPherson and baby, Barbara Jean, have returned to their home in Tahoka after a visit with relatives here.

Mrs. Ernest Dowell, Bride, Honored

Complimentary to Mrs. Ernest Dowell, who was Miss Elfreda Davis before her marriage last week-end, Mrs. Noma Whitworth and Miss Juanita Jones entertained Wednesday evening in their home, 1519-B 9th street. A miscellaneous shower of gifts was presented to the bride. About 35 attended.

To Honor Visitor At Party For Club

Members of the Kayo Kids, a social organization, are having a birthday party for Herbert Jay of Ropes at the home of Mrs. J. A. Burns, 1609 Avenue E, at 8 o'clock Saturday evening.

About 90 per cent of China's 450,000,000 people are classed as poor.

135 Attend Asbury Meeting Thursday

There was an attendance of 135 at an all-church social for Asbury Methodist congregation Thursday evening in the educational building of the institution. This affair had been planned as an out-door barbecue but was moved indoors because of the rain.

After the supper, adults and children met separately. Joseph Griggs, Dr. C. A. Bickley, Rev. J. O. Haymes and Rev. O. W. Carter made talks. The male quartet sang.

Mrs. L. E. Grimes Is Bridge Hostess

Contract bridge was played Wednesday afternoon at a party given by Mrs. L. E. Grimes, 2222 Main street. High scores were made by Mesdames Bill Watson and R. F. Hinchey. Others who attended were Mesdames C. M. Carroll, C. A. Gammill, jr. Forrest Lindsey, Paul Morgan and A. O. Thomas.

Primary Club Meets Next Thursday

Although a meeting was announced for Thursday, the Primary P.-T. A., which is being formed at Junior High school, will not meet until next Thursday, according to an announcement made by Mrs. J. T. Shaver. The meeting is scheduled for "after school" on Thursday.

CONTROLLED ROASTING
PUTS EXCLUSIVE GOODNESS INTO
EVERY CUP OF HILLS BROS COFFEE

As the accuracy of the hour-glass depends upon an even, continuous flow . . .
a little at a time
. . . so the uniform flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee is produced by Controlled Roasting—the patented process that roasts evenly, continuously . . . "a little at a time."

No other coffee is roasted by this patented process . . . no other has the same flavor

Roasting "a little at a time," continuously instead of in big batches, is the basis of Controlled Roasting

Hills Bros. Coffee is a revelation in coffee goodness! It has a flavor no other has. For it is roasted a little at a time, by Hills Bros.' patented Controlled Roasting process. Ordinarily, coffee is roasted in bulk.

Nature gives coffee-berries the elements for a very delightful flavor. But that flavor must be developed by roasting. And if the berries are underdone or overdone, the flavor falls short of perfection.

Under-roasting or over-roasting invariably occurs when coffee is roasted in bulk. But Hills Bros. roast a little at a time . . . as the blend flows through the roasters in an even, continuous stream. Every pound is done to perfection! You always get the true flavor of coffee.

Hills Bros. Coffee is vacuum-packed, and can't go stale. The vacuum process of packing coffee is the only method that fully preserves coffee freshness—the air is removed from the can and kept out. It was originated by Hills Bros. over thirty years ago. There is no magic about a vacuum can—it will not make poor coffee good, but it will keep good coffee fresh.

Pour a cup of Hills Bros. Coffee. Taste that famous flavor—rich, smooth, and satisfying—the exclusive goodness that Controlled Roasting makes. Order Hills Bros. today. Ask for it by name, and look for the Arab trade-mark on the can.

THIRD IS HELD IN SLAYING

AUSTIN, Sept. 23 (AP)—A third arrest was made late Thursday in the investigation of the slaying of Edgar C. Arledge, University of Texas senior, shot to death while seated in an automobile on a road near Austin with a young woman companion late Tuesday night.

Sheriff Coley C. White said the last man taken into custody claimed he was a resident of Dallas and that he had been in Austin only since yesterday. He planned to question him today.

Holdup Reported

Sheriff White said he was attempting to link the suspect with an attack that occurred in the general neighborhood of the Arledge slaying in which a man with a flashlight and a revolver entered a dwelling and held up a man and his wife. A pocket book taken from the woman was found about 50 feet from where Arledge was shot, the sheriff said.

The robbery of the man and his wife occurred about 3 a. m. Monday, Sheriff White said.

Suspect Released

Officers questioned a 35-year-old man, but released him after he had satisfied them he knew nothing of the shooting of young Arledge. A 16-year-old youth found asleep in some weeds near the place where Arledge was shot to death by a man who stepped from the dark suddenly to the side of the student's automobile and fired, still was in custody. He maintained, however, that he could not give any information about the tragedy.

$50 SPANKING

HOUSTON, Tex.,— Paul Stephens, 26, was up before Judge Kinnerly on a charge of liquor law violation. "Did your father ever spank you, young man?" the judge asked Stephens. "Lots of times," the defendant replied. "I'm going to fine you $50," Judge Kinnerly said. "That fine is the spanking I'm giving you. I think you need it."

HUFSTEDLERS TO HANDLE TRUCKS

E. K. Hufstedler and Sons, Lubbock implement dealers, have been appointed dealers in this area for General Motors trucks and trailers. Models of the new line will be received in time for display at the Panhandle-South Plains fair, Mr. Hufstedler said Friday. The firm will carry a complete supply of repair parts and service equipment at their headquarters at 2202 Avenue H.

The GMT line includes a complete range of trucks, from a light delivery to one of the heaviest hauling units allowed on the highways. Models of the one-and-one-half, two and three ton trucks will be carried in stock here, Mr. Hufstedler said.

met with the school board to discuss the situation, it was learned here this morning, despite failure of the school board to report any such meeting to the public. Then Thursday afternoon a group of fathers, with their sons, met and further went into the matter.

Hearing Is Held

At the Wednesday night meeting the board gave both patrons, students and ex-students a hearing and at the conclusion of the joint meeting said board members would study the situation carefully.

The school superintendent said this morning that local clubs made up of high school students would be permitted if their aims and objects, after being submitted to school authorities, were found to be not detrimental to the school and to its study.

Membership Forbidden

The board of education three years ago passed a regulation forbidding membership by high school students in secret organizations. Of the 27 students disciplined this time for pledge violations, some had been detected twice and others thrice in similar offenses. Officers were dealt with no more severely than other members, Mr. Duncan said.

"The school board was unanimous in its belief that a secret sorority or fraternity in a high school is a bad thing," Mr. Duncan said Thursday.

"They (the 27 students) have all agreed now that they did wrong in violating the regulation, and have agreed to adhere to the regulations hereafter. We are not trying to regulate social activities."

No Restriction Intended

The superintendent made clear an opinion that no restriction of student rights is intended, "except as they interfere with the school," and affairs outside the school are not of interest to the board of education.

Letters asking their opinions of secret societies in high schools were sent from Lubbock to 30 leading school superintendents and high school principals in the state, and all 25 who replied opined that such organizations are "harmful," Mr. Duncan said. A five-page mimeographed bulletin, with an introductory summary of the replies, and composed chiefly of the verbatim answers, has been prepared for distribution to school patrons here.

Several Cities Answer

Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth, San Antonio, Beaumont, Port Arthur, Austin, Temple, Waco, Galveston, El Paso, Amarillo and Wichita Falls were represented in the replies to the Lubbock query.

The school executives charged secret societies "bring about class distinction, cliques and are the foci of trouble generally; create disciplinary problems, moral problems, and educational problems; cause extravagance among students; are not in harmony with the ideals of public education; are harmful to scholarship; render impossible the best results in school activities."

Following evident settlement of the latest Greek letter imbroglio here, Mr. Duncan said members of Theta Kappa Omega had come to him with a letter they had prepared to send to T. K. O.s national headquarters, and in which they stated they were withdrawing from the fraternity.

At the bottom of the registration blank which each student entering Lubbock High school is required to fill is the Student's Anti-Secret Society pledge, which follows:

"I hereby declare that I am not now, nor have I ever been, a member of any fraternity, sorority, or other secret organization, local, state, or national, composed in whole or in part of high school students, nor will I join so long as I am enrolled in this high school."

In parenthesis it continues:

"If you have been a member and have resigned, you may draw a line through the words 'nor have I ever been.' In such instance, state on the back of this page the names of the organizations from which you have resigned and the dates of resignation."

The superintendent pointed out Thursday that of about 1,400 students of high school classification now in Lubbock schools only 27 had been found guilty of affiliation with secret societies.

Germany's Lenin

Ernst Thaelmann, Germany's Communist leader, has appealed to the 3,500,000 members of his party to participate in a nationwide strike war against the von Papen government and the so-called "National Socialist hunger offensive." He urges economic, rent and general strikes in all cities.

AN OLD TRADE

Leather dressing was one of the most important trades among the ancient Egyptians, and at Thebes in the days of Egypt's glory a special quarter of the city was set apart for tanners.

IMPROVEMENT SHOWN TODAY IN MRS. BUTLER'S CONDITION

NO DEVELOPMENTS IN REQUEST FOR POLICE PROTECTION HERE

Improvement was reported this morning in the condition of Mrs. J. C. Butler, 42, of 404 Avenue L, who swallowed a poisonous tablet at her home early Thursday, and no developments were reported in a police investigation of a possibility that Mrs. Bertha Burnett, 411, Avenue H, might be harmed.

Mrs. Burnett asked police protection last night, saying she had heard "some neighbor women might try to harm me tonight." Mrs. Burnett's fears were believed, according to police, to be an aftermath of Mrs. Butler's attempted suicide.

Still Critical

When the attending physician visited Mrs. Butler in Lubbock sanitarium last night, he said, "She really is a little better than I thought she could be by night." Her condition still was critical this morning. When the doctor asked Mrs. Butler Thursday morning, while making emergency efforts to save her life, why she swallowed a bichloride of mercury tablet, she replied:

"I didn't want to live."

Mrs. Butler's husband attributed her act to family difficulties.

Son Calls For Officer

Mrs. Burnett's 14-year-old son, Eldridge, told police about 4:15 o'clock his mother was "expecting trouble" and asked that an officer go to the home. Police Chief Wiley L. Metcalfe and Geo. Eubank went to the Burnett home. They were told by Mrs. Burnett, a widow since last November, that the Burnett and Butler families had been "like one family" for years.

Troops Clear Way For Mine Workers

TAYLORVILLE, Ill., Sept. 23 (AP)—Tear gas and smoke bombs of the militia burst in the streets of Langleyville today, clearing the way for union miners to go to work through pickets of a new miners union who refuse to abide by the new $5 wage scale.

Through a jeering, jibing crowd the national guardsmen pushed their way.

Machine guns looked menacingly down the street from each end of the village. In platoons of six, bayonets fixed, the guards marched into town, tossing gas bombs ahead to clear the way.

DISTRESS AFTER MEALS
Relieved By Black-Draught

"I had sour stomach and gas," writes Mr. Jess Higgins, of Dawsonville, Ga., "and often I would have bilious spells. I read about Thedford's Black-Draught and began to take it. It relieved me of this trouble. I keep it all the time now. I consider it a fine medicine. I take a pinch of Black-Draught after meals when I need it. It helps to prevent sick headache and to keep the system in good order."

Druggist Gives New Formula To Stop Headaches

Realizing that no one drug can relieve all headaches, as they come from so many causes, a North Carolina pharmacist has developed a combination of several ingredients, so blended and proportioned as to relieve almost any headache in a few minutes. You can get this formula wherever drugs are sold under the name "B.C." 10c and 25c packages, and when you have one of those violent, nerve-racking headaches, from inorganic causes, "B.C." will give you soothing relief in three minutes. "B.C." should also be used for the relief of muscular aches and pains, common colds and neuralgia, reducing fever, and for quieting a distressed nervous system without opiates, narcotics or such habit forming drugs. —(adv.)

TECH MATADORS LEAVE TODAY FOR AGGIE CLASH AT AMARILLO

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

TEXAS A. & M. 7; TEXAS TECH 13.

Or words to that effect. It may be 20 to 13, or 19 to 14, but the difference, one way or the other, will not be more than one touchdown.

Neither club has had a severe test of its strength this autumn, and they go together leaving nearly everything to the imagination. Since we can't compare the teams, then let us look to the individuals.

Starting with the backfields, we find that the Aggie backs are able to put up a superior front, both in weight and experience of individuals.

G. C. "Frenchy" Domingue, 166-pound quarterback, outweighs Speed Moffett by about 16 pounds. Moffett has the edge on varsity experience. Last year was Domingue's first, but he's considered quite a terror in Southwest Conference circles.

The Aggie halfbacks due to start against Tech are Captain Jimmy Aston and Rue Barfield. Aston is a little mite of 190 pounds and Barfield weighs 172. They outweigh by several pounds almost any halfback Coach Cawthon could put on the field. Aston has seen two years of varsity life and Barfield one. Guessing that Marion Harris, 165 pounds, and Gwynn Dowell, 185 pounds, will get the starting call, you have veterans against two who have had no varsity experience.

Harold Crites can hold his own against almost any fullback Coach Matty Bell sends on the field, though he will be outweighed by Ted Spencer of the Aggies. Both are one-year varsity men.

You've heard the old, old story of "that thin, red line of Aggieland," and you'll see it tomorrow at Amarillo. It will be minus one of its leading stars, however, in Charlie Malone, who was already being touted for all-American honors. Malone sustained a knee injury in scrimmage last week that may keep him out for the most of the season. In his place probably will be Bear Wright, veteran squadsman who weighs 167 pounds. Tech can put an end of equal weight and experience against Wright, and another against Ray Murray, a 178-pound fellow.

Charlies Cummings and Stumble Jordan are Texas A. & M. tackles due to start against Tech. They weigh 190 and 239 pounds respectively. Elva Baker and Truett Owens, 215 pounders, can give them a battle.

George Lord and Stapp Maxwell probably will start against Captain Ross Ayers and Toby Greer. The weights are about even, with the Matadors having an edge on varsity experience. Willis Nolan, a two-letter man weighing 178 pounds, will face either Whacker Barton or Terrible Tribble, and the odds are about even at center.

Over all, Texas A. & M. has a weight advantage of about 42 pounds. Tech will place four pounds more than one ton of football players on the field. The Aggie backfield has a 32-pound weight advantage.

And we pick the Matadors to win! How come? Well, we kinda got a likin' for those birds and we believe they're going to play one of the games of their lives. Just something of a hunch. There's something behind the sentimental reason, too, as you will see (we hope) tomorrow afternoon.

Description of the above Aggie footballers, given us by A. & M. authorities as the probable starting lineup against Tech Saturday, is also for the personal benefit of one John Bennett, who writes us a letter dated from Lubbock and who claims to be a student of Texas A. & M.

"Be fair with Texas A. & M.," he writes, "and mention the fact that A. & M. plays two games Saturday, one with Southwestern and one with Tech at Amarillo.

"As you know, A. & M. prefers to win on their home ground, therefore your Tech team will be playing against the Aggie "B" team at Amarillo.

"You are fighting to keep stage fright down on your Tech team, so give them the facts on the sport page of your good paper and you will help them to put over a win on the A. & M. second team at Amarillo."

The writer of the letter encloses a clipping about the injury to Charlie Malone last Saturday which is old news to this section. Charlie will not be able to play, as has been stated several times this week, but that does not necessarily mean that Malone is Texas A. & M.'s first team. He has to have ten men on the lineup with him, and these ten, with another of equal ability will face the Matadors Saturday.

If the lad who claims to be a student at Aggieland, a land with which we are more or less familiar, he is shaming his alma mater by not keeping up with the facts. The Lubbock High school squad could beat Southwestern, anyway. Thanks for the letter, anyway. It came in time to fill out the rest of this column.

GRIDMEN SURE OF VICTORY TOMORROW

FINAL PRACTICE HELD THIS MORNING FOR FOOTBALL TILT

Appearing to disregard in totality the drizzling rainfall and the slick field, Texas Tech's Matadors were whooping it up this morning in the final practice session before the team entrains this afternoon for Amarillo.

Tech sends its gridders against the Texas A. & M. College Aggies tomorrow afternoon at Butler Field. The game will start at 3 o'clock.

PEP MEETING TONIGHT

The first big pep meeting of the school year will be held at the Tech gymnasium tonight, starting at 7:30 o'clock, Head Yell Leader Rob O'Hair announced last night.

A couple of assistant yell leaders will be elected tonight and a plan of organized rooting outlined for tomorrow's game.

All Tech students are urged to attend, and freshmen — "well, they had better show up, if they know what's good for 'em." Lubbock townspeople are also invited to the big rally, "if they want to hear some real hollering."

Hustling through their repertoire of offensive plays, taking time to go through a few defensive motions, particularly against passes, rushing hither and thither about the field, the Matadors displayed a great spirit this morning. They have never slackened their pace and their enthusiasm since the official statement, "We're going to Amarillo to win!" was circulated over the field early in the week.

Lineups Switched

Cawthon worked his men in groups of three, switching lineups from time to time in an effort to find the best "mud" team, in view of a possible heavy field at Amarillo tomorrow. Which eleven Cawthon would start was not a certainty this morning.

"They look pretty good to me," Cawthon opined. "They are showing a fine spirit, one of the best I've ever seen in a college squad, particularly since they are up against such odds tomorrow. They think they're going to win, and I wouldn't be surprised myself. We'll be outweighed several pounds to the man, but we'll give 'em a battle anyway."

45 To Make Trip

The entire squad, now cut to about 45, will make the trip to Amarillo this afternoon, leaving at 4 o'clock on a northbound Santa Fe. Early to bed tonight, a brisk walk over Amarillo and maybe a hike in the suburban districts will be the last for the Matadors before they clash with the Aggies in the first of three Southwest conference team games, the second of which follows next Saturday when the S. M. U. Mustangs come to Lubbock.

The Aggies, with Coach Madison Bell in charge, left College Station Thursday afternoon. They will precede the Matadors into Amarillo. Coach Bell brings a squad of 26 players, his best, to the Panhandle, leaving 15 of his second stringers behind to meet the Southwestern University Pirates at Kyle Field tomorrow afternoon.

SENS AND A'S IN STRUGGLE

TWO TEAMS FIGHTING FOR SECOND PLACE IN LEAGUE RACE

BY GAYLE TALBOT
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Most of the excitement to be gleaned from the closing days of the major league pennant races is wrapped up in the final three-game series between Washington and Philadelphia starting today in the capitol city.

Second place in the American league, with its attendant "cut" of the world series money, is at stake, with Walt Johnson's Senators needing to sweep the series to win runner-up honors.

Foxx Hits Homers

Jimmie Foxx, mauling first baseman of the Mackmen, cracked his 55th and 56th home runs of the season yesterday as the Athletics dropped a 10-inning struggle to the champion Yankees, 8 to 7.

The Senators remained in the scrap for second by beating Boston again, 4 to 2.

In the National league, Pittsburgh continued to pour it on the champion Chicago Cubs, who are in no mood to be bothered by such trifles. Hal Smith, a youngster purchased from Kansas City, set the champs down with six hits and blanked them, 7 to 0.

Brooklyn tightened its hold on third place by taking its final from the Giants, 7 to 2. George Puccinelli and Charlie Wilson, members of the St. Louis Cardinals' newest rookie crop, hit homeruns to help beat Cincinnati, 8 to 5.

EXPORTERS AT CHATTANOOGA FOR CLASH

TWO TEAMS ARE EVEN WITH ONE VICTORY EACH IN SERIES

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 23 (AP)—The Chattanooga ball club was at home today to continue the quest for Dixie's baseball supremacy. The path was blocked by the Exporters of Beaumont, champions of the Texas league, and the teams will meet again at 2:30 p. m. today for the third game. Each has won one game.

Bert Niehoff, who manages the Chattanooga club for Joe Engel, says he will send Leon Pettit to the box today. Leon is a lefthander.

Hamlin or Rowe

And Del Baker, who bosses the Texas team, says he will work either Luke Hamlin, his ace in the hole, or Schoolboy Rowe, giant 19-year-old sensation.

This city was prepared to entertain one of the largest crowds ever to visit in these parts since the confederates and federals squared off for a fight around Lookout and Chickamauga. The stadium will seat 22,000 and Colonel Engel has all kinds of plans to bring out the customers.

Players Greeted

The two clubs arrived last midnight from Texas and were met by a throng of approximatedly 30,000 persons. Chattanooga has waited a long time for a championshp club and was making the most of its fun.

Baker said Fox, leading hitter of the league, would take the place of Fred Tauby who was injured in Wednesday's game. Tauby is an outfielder. Fox has been out of play because of an injured leg.

GRIMM TO USE "BIG FOUR"

CUB PILOT TO STICK TO FOUR PITCHERS IN WORLD SERIES

CHICAGO, Sept. 23 (AP)—Nothing has happened during the relaxation process of the Cubs to alter Manager Charlie Grimm's decision to stick to his "big four" pitchers in the world series.

The Cub hurling quartet of Guy Bush, Charlie Root, Lonnie Warneke and Pat Malone was expected to start in that order against the Yankees with the burden of relief, if necessary, falling mostly on the shoulders of young Bud Tinning.

Malone was cuffed around by Pittsburgh Wednesday. But every Pirate hit was music to Manager Grimm's world series ear. The Altoona, Pa. fireman always has been an in and outer, with one good game and then a bad one. So Grimm stacked his last start with the bad collection and was happy about it.

Except for a few innings, Root was to be allowed a good rest before his start in the big show.

Bush and Warneke were slated for their final tune-ups tomorrow and Sunday in closing series against Cincinnati.

BUCYRUS, O.—One of the few women airport managers in the United States is Lauretta Schimmoler, who handles operations of Port Bucyrus. The port consists of about 63 acres and is the center of activities for the Bucyrus Institute of Aviation and for the Crestline Glider club.

CHICAGO CUBS' INFIELD HOLDS EDGE OVER YANKEE RIVALS IN EVERYTHING EXCEPT KNOCKING BALL OUT OF PARK

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP)—The infielders of the Chicago Cubs hold the edge over their Yankee rivals in most everything except the art of slugging baseballs out of the park.

Lofi Gehrig, Tony Lazzeri and Joe Sewell, a newcomer to this feature of the business, all pack the kind of a batting punch that breaks up the ball game. Man for man, however, the Cub combination can point to more robust-looking batting marks for the 1932 season. The Bruin infielders, besides, can claim than their rivals, faster on the bases and quicker at the vital task of pulling double plays.

Apart from the color added to the world series by the comebacks of Tony Lazzeri and Mark Anthony Koenig, one-time "Keystone Kids" of the Yankees now turning up as rivals, the two infields are closely matched in all-around ability.

Both Lazzeri and Koenig are expected to start the series, although they have been out of commission recently, the former at second base for the Yankees and the latter at shortstop for the Cubs. Bill Jurges is ready to step in if Koenig can not go the series route. Otherwise the only question in either lineup is whether Frank Crosetti, the slender Yankee recruit, will hold down the shortstop post or yield to Lyn Lary or Dr. Eddie Farrell.

Whatever Manager Charley Grimm of the Cubs lacks in clouting ability by comparison with larruping Lou Gehrig, the Yankee "iron man" first baseman, he makes up for in general steadiness.

Lazzeri's harder hitting ability and longer experience, providing he is in shape, gives him a distinct shade over Billy Herman, the 23-year-old Cub keystone star.

Koenig's return from the minors was simultaneous with Chicago's pennant rush. Grimm was instrumental in getting him and credits the former Yankee with a big part in the team's winning drive. Because of his hitting and experience mark has the edge on any of the three Yankee shortstop possibilities.

Elwood English is a better hitter than his average of around .270 for the season indicates. He is nine years younger and considerably faster than Joe Sewell, the veteran Yankee third sacker, but no steadier in the field nor as consistent at bat.

VINES BEATEN BY NIPPONESE STAR

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 23. (AP)—Ellsworth Vines, jr., had to watch the semi-finals of the Pacific southwest men's singles championship from an unaccustomed position in the stands today because he was a better prognosticator than he knew.

The Wimbledon and National champion said a week ago that Jiro Satoh, Japan's leading star, is destined to become one of the greatest tennis players in the world, so that nonchalant Nipponese net man went out yesterday and made good the prediction by defeating Vines, 6-4, 6-4.

Two of Great Britain's best players, Henry (Bunny) Austin, and Frederick Perry, gained the semi-finals by eliminating John Van Ryn, Davis cup player from Philadelphia, and Keith Gledhill, Santa Barbara's national doubles champion with Vines. Georgio De Stefani, Italian champion, won unexpectedly from Wilmer Allison, another of America's Davis cup stars.

LAUDS MAIL PILOTS

WASHINGTON.—Glorification of the U. S. Air Mail pilots, coming from none other than Maj. Gen. James E. Fetchet, U. S. Army (retired), is quite a feather in their caps. Says Maj. Gen. Fechet: "No set of men sail the skies today who have had more experience, or possess greater skill, than that gallant group which daily streaks with the air mail across our skies. This is a tremendous potential war reserve which our military leaders will be quick to utilize in the next national emergency."

INSULL HOPES SHATTERED

HOPE OF RECOVERING HUGE INVESTMENTS HELD DOUBTFUL

CHICAGO, Sept. 23 (AP)—The last slender hope of stockholders that receivership proceedings might salvage part of their $300,000,000 investment in two of Samuel Insull's investment trusts apparently have been shattered.

Federal Judge Walter C. Lindley, who appointed receivers for the Insull Utility Investemnts, Inc., and the Corporation Securities company, the deposed utility king's most ambitious projects, has decided the best course open was to institute bankruptcy proceedings against both concerns.

Recovery Doubtful

"It seems unlikely," Judge Lindley declared, "that the stockholders will receive anything on their investments. The best course of action is to institute bankruptcy proceedngs, under which something may be saved for the creditors of the concerns."

Both companies have been operating under equity receiverships since April 16. Judge Lindley last night consented to act on a bankruptcy petition against the concerns presented by a Chicago law firm which represents a group of bondholders in both companies. He will hear the petition next Wednesday.

The assets of the once $140,000,000 Corporation securities concern were so meager, the receiver reported, that they were unable to meet the expense of having an inventory made.

Efforts Traced

Through the maze of statistics contained in the report could be traced the last desperate efforts of Samuel Insull to save the tottering company. The statement of liabilities indicated he had obtained succor from banks, from affiliated companies, and from manufacturers with whom his companies did business. Then, with other resources exhausted, and the market value of the company's securities steadily declining he had pledged his own credit in a last vain attempt to stave off disaster.

Yesterday was replete with developments in the investigations being conducted into the affairs of the companies once headed by Samuel Insull, and his brother, Martin, now both voluntary exiles in foreign lands.

Investors Listed

State's Attorney John A. Swanson made public, without comment, of 205 "favored investors" in the stocks of the Insull Utility Investments, Inc., a $250,000,000 enterprise.

With the list was attached a copy of an agreement purportedly made in January, 1929, Samuel Insull and the 205 persons whereby they were permitted to purchase 250,000 shares of Insull Utility Investment at $12 a share. A few weeks later the stock was first offered to the public on the Chicago stock exchange at $27 a share. Later, in the same year before the stock market collapse of October, the stock reached its peak of $147 a share.

The purchasers, however, were bound in the agreement not to dispose of the stock for two and one-half years without first offering it to the company at its market price. Many of the 205 persons listed were Insull employes.

QUARANTINE NOT SURE SAFEGUARD AGAINST PARROTS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—Surgeon General Hugh S. Cumming, whose 1929 campaign against psittacosis resulted in clamping down a strict parrot import quarantine, today warned that that method can not be expected to check new appearances of "parrot fever."

He said cases now arising are being traced almost invariably to domestic love birds, believed by physicians the source of Mrs. William E. Borah's illness.

Last night Dr. Cumming dispatched to Boise via airmail a packet of "parrot fever" convalescent serum for treatment of the Idaho senator's wife.

"The only case arising from an imported bird since we started the quarantine was a customs officer at San Diego, who went out to a ship and brought a bird ashore," said Dr. Cumming. "All the rest arose from domestic birds, and all thus far have been from the west coast."

Extensive investigations of the disease by the service led to the system of treating it with convalescent serum which now has been invoked for the treatment of Mrs. Borah.

NEW AIRCRAFT RADIO

PASADENA, Cal.—A new aircraft radio receiver, which weighs only ten and a half pounds and is capable of receiving on all three waves allocated to aviation by the Radio Commission, has been developed by the radio department of the Pasadena-Alhambra Airdrome. In tests the receiver has picked up signals from all parts of the United States with little difficulty.

Minnesota's forest area in 1931 experienced 2,778 fires, covering 992,000 acres and doing damage estimated at $3,490,147.

NEW DISCOVERIES CONFIRM VIRTUES OF BRAN IN DIET

Supplies "Bulk" and Vitamin B for Constipation; Also Iron for Blood

For ten years, now, millions have found Kellogg's ALL-BRAN a safe, pleasant way to overcome common constipation — with the headaches, loss of appetite and energy that so often result from this condition.

Recent laboratory tests show that ALL-BRAN supplies "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and Vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract. In addition, ALL-BRAN contains twice as much blood-building iron, by weight, as beef liver.

This "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like the "bulk" in lettuce. Inside the body, it absorbs moisture and forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes.

Special cooking processes make ALL-BRAN finer, softer, more palatable. It is not habit-forming.

Think how much better it is to enjoy this delicious cereal than to take endless pills and drugs, which often lead to harmful habits.

Two tablespoonfuls daily—in serious cases with every meal—are usually sufficient. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Serve ALL-BRAN as a cereal with milk or cream, or use in cooking. Appetizing recipes on the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

PENNSYLVANIA IS AWARDED RELIEF

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—After a controversy that began even before the relief law was enacted, Pennsylvania today had a $2,500,000 advance from the reconstruction corporation for aiding the needy in three of its largest counties.

With the money, voted yesterday by the corporation directors for Philadelphia, Allegheny and Northampton counties, came also an 800-word public statement which said:

Governor Blamed

"If there has been any failure to grant relief to the poor and distressed of Pennsylvania, the fault lies with the governor and the legislature of that great state and not with the Reconstruction Finance corporation. Any statement to the contrary, no matter by whom made, is not true."

Governor Gifford Pinchot has charged repeatedly in public statements that "red tape" was causing starvation in Pennsylvania by delaying the relief loan. Tuesday he took the dispute to the White House, asking by telegram a personal audience, but was told by President Hoover in a return massage that corporation actions were independent of his influence.

COMPLETE 1932 PLAN

WASHINGTON.—The 1932 Federal Airways construction plan has been completed with the approval of the Aeronautical Branch, U. S. Chamber of Commerce, of routes for the Albany-Springfield-Boston airway, and for an 82-mile section south of St. Louis on the New Orleans-St. Louis route. This brings the total of Federal Airways to 19,500 miles. No plans are made for 1933, in accordance with the government's economy program.

"The Best Place To Shop After All"

"NOW I GET MORE CUPS

. . and far more delicious coffee!"

says Mrs. Peter Finley

"I used to think I was saving by buying cheap coffee," says Mrs. Finley. "But now, since trying Maxwell House, I realize how foolish I was!

"My coffee is so much better now — there's no comparison. And I get more cups from every can — so it doesn't cost me a cent more in the end."

Yes, it is poor economy to buy coffee in old-fashioned tins, paper bags or cardboard boxes — coffee that has lost its strength and flavor.

And it's wise to buy Maxwell House — the coffee that is always fresh. Because Maxwell House Coffee is packed by the VITA-FRESH process which removes every bit of oxygen from the can. And it is oxygen, you know, that makes coffee grow stale.

Try Maxwell House. See how much more delicious — and economical — really fresh coffee is! And for drip coffee use Maxwell House Drip-grind, scientifically ground to give you supremely delicious drip-coffee. A product of General Foods.

TAMMANY MAN AIDS DRIVE

JOHN McCOOEY IS ON STRATEGY BOARD OF DEMO CAMPAIGN

NEW YORK, Sept. 23. (AP)—One of Tammany Hall's most powerful political allies, John H. McCooey, head of the Democratic organization in Brooklyn, has joined the Roosevelt-Garner strategy board.

In his capacity as national committeeman, McCooey moved into an office in the section of national headquarters reserved for the real directors of the campaign, three floors removed from receptions rooms and public activities.

Conferences Begun

He immediately began a series of conferences with other leaders over campaign procedure and said he would appear at headquarters "just about every day."

With a broad smile he expressed optimism over prospects of the New York governor's receiving his own state's 47 electoral votes.

"The state's in good shape," he said.

"How about the presidential prospects in New York City," he was asked.

"The situation's favorable," he replied.

It was announced Mrs. Roosevelt would leave Friday to join her husband in the west.

She will travel from Albany to Kansas City by train and then to Williams, Ariz., by plane.

Piccard Ascension Figures Reported

BRUSSELS, Sept. 23. (AP)—Prof. Auguste Piccard and Max Cosyns, both Belgians, reached a heighth of 16,201 meters (ten miles, 117 yards) in their world balloon ascension of last August 18, stated an official report by the Swiss Aero club, received here.

Though slightly below the height of 16,500 meters claimed by Professor Piccard, the official figures showed they ascended slightly above the ten miles made last year by the professor.

They started this year's ascent at Dubendorf, Switzerland, and landed near Camballaro Di Monzanrano, Italy.

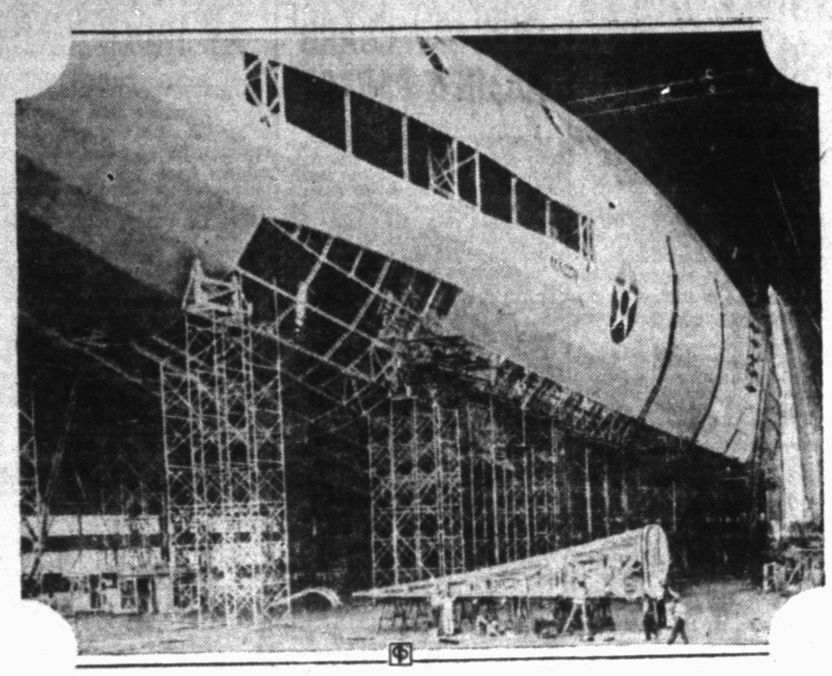

The official figures are subject to conformation by the International Aeronautical federation.

Fewer Loans Asked From Corporation

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23. (AP)—The number of applications for bank, railroad and insurance company loans from the reconstruction corporation has dropped off in the last month.

Wilson McCarthy and Gardner Cowles, sr., directors of the corporation had greatly decreased. This indicated, McCarthy said, that the unfavorable condition which prevailed between Feb. 1 and July 15 had passed.

TALE OF CITY IN RED INK NOW HAS A HAPPY ENDING

BAINBRIDGE, Ga., Sept. 23. (AP)—The tale of this city was written in red ink until city fathers started paying bills with cash and collecting taxes on the installment plan.

It was necessary in 1929, when hard times started riding down Main street, to borrow $24,000 to run the government. An economy program was ordered and next year only $10,000 was borrowed. Last year Bainbridge got $4,000 in a loan and this year no money was borrowed.

Property valuation declined about a million dollars—a lot of dollars in a little agricultural city like this.

But working on the theory everything should be reduced, the city fathers cut the tax rate five mills and then fixed the budget within the income and held it there.

Tax payers were unable to pay promptly so an installment plan was started and citizens now can pay their taxes a little at a time.

What Is the Texas C-E-N-T-E-N-N-I-A-L?

On March 6, 1836, at 5 A. M., Santa Anna with 4,000 Mexican regulars stormed the Alamo. They were twice repulsed with heavy losses. Of 850 Mexicans, only 150 remained. They finally scaled the walls and the heroic last stand which the defenders made is well known to every Texan.

Q. What does the word Centennial mean?

A. Webster's Dictionary defines the word Centennial as: "A 100th anniversary or its celebration."

Q. Why the movement to celebrate it in 1936?

A. 1936 marks the 100th anniversary of the actual gaining of Texas Independence and the formation of an Independent Republic. In other words, 1936 will be the 100th birthday of Texas.

Q. What State in the Union has a more brilliant history than Texas?

A. Though a few states closely rival the colorful history of Texas, there is certainly no state which has a more brilliant or inspiring history than our own dear State.

Q. Why celebrate the 100th birthday of Texas?

A. 1936 offers an opportunity which occurs only every 100 years. Surely the least which present-day Texans can do is to make public and fitting recognition of the heroic deeds and sacrifices of our forefathers.

Q. Who are sponsoring the movement?

A. An official Centennial Committee of 100 was appointed by the State Legislature to officially sponsor the movement. This committee is made up of patriotic Texans from all over the State. In addition, many other patriotic groups, such as the Texas Press Association, the Advertising Clubs of Texas, Progressive Texans, Inc., the Texas Daily Press League and others, are sponsoring the movement.

Q. How can the Texas Centennial in 1936 become a reality?

A. An exposition of this magnitude and character must have the official sanction of the entire State, hence the matter of whether or not Texas shall celebrate its 100th birthday is to be submitted directly to the people. On November 8th a Texas Centennial Constitutional Amendment will be voted upon.

Q. What will it mean to Texas?

A. The celebration of the Texas Centennial offers the greatest opportunity that Texas has ever known. It is certainly patriotically mandatory upon us to make this public recognition. From an economic standpoint, twenty-five years' growth can be brought to the State within five years.

Q. What should every loyal Texan do as his part?

A. The first and most important duty of every Texan is to go to the polls November 8th and be sure that he votes for the Centennial Amendment. After this Constitutional Amendment has passed, there are many things which Texans can do to make the Exposition a brilliant success. These instructions will be given the people of Texas at a later date.

Q. How much actual wealth will be brought to the State by the Centennial in 1936?

A. It is conservatively estimated that the visitors who come to the Centennial Exposition in automobiles alone will return to the State Treasury in gasoline tax alone an amount of approximately $25,000,000.00. This State gasoline tax goes directly into the Highway and School funds and thus will show permanent development to the State. Wealth in untold millions and from many different angles will pour into the State as the immediate result of this celebration. And thus while celebrating the patriotic Centennial revering the memory of Texas' forefathers, present-day Texans will benefit in an economic way by a dissemination of information concerning present-day opportunities in Texas.

RESTAURANTS IN FEDERAL BUILDINGS OVER COUNTRY MAY FACE EXTINCTION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23. (AP)—Restaurants in federal buildings throughout the nation may be facing extinction if congress adopts the attitude apparently held by the house committee investigating government competition.

Representative Shannon (D., Mo.), chairman of the committee, is concerned about it to the point where he thinks legal action is in order to force the government restaurants to disclose their profit and loss sheets to private competitors.

Other members of the committee seem to feel the same way, although those in charge of Washington cafeterias for government workers insist the plan is necessary and does not cost the taxpayers a thing.

Representatives of the National Hotel association asked to be heard today to back up the protest of the National Restaurant association heard yesterday.

Representative Shannon also is anxious to find out about the Washington "butter clubs" which he says he understands import butter from the country and dispense it among government workers, including White House employes, at reduced prices.

The feeding of the 320 members of President Hoover's economic conference of last month at the commerce department cafeteria where the conference was held created a storm before the committee.

Dawson Free Fair Is Well Attended

LAMESA, Sept. 23 (Special)—The opening day of the Dawson county free fair was thronged by thousands Thursday despite heavy rains.

McCarty won first in the community exhibits awards, and Woody was second and Wilson third. Owen C. Taylor is president and Olive Debnam manager of the association, which this year is sponsoring a two-day exposition.

Many exhibits were shown in all departments, including agriculture, livestock, poultry, rabbits and women's work.

Wen Wang was one of the most noted names in Chinese history.

LITTLE GIRL WOULDN'T EAT

YESTERDAY she only toyed with her food—and of course Mother was concerned. But today, she has a bowl of Kellogg's Rice Krispies and milk—just see the difference!

Kellogg's Rice Krispies actually crackle in milk or cream. The very sound fascinates youngsters. And how they love the flavor!

Serve for breakfast, lunch—fine for the children's supper. So easy to digest, Rice Krispies invite restful sleep. How much better than many hot, heavy dishes.

Sold by all grocers. Always oven-fresh. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Quality guaranteed.

Ye olde "Prisoner's Song" wherein an incarcerated soul sighs for wings of an angel, might be an appropriate theme song for this tableau, presented at the recent fancy dress ball at the Atlantic Beach Club, Long Beach, L. I. Mr. and Mrs. William S. Carmichael, of New York's ultra-smart set, are the shackled convicts, whose costumes won first prize. The affair was attended by the entire society Summer colony.

COSGROVE MAY FACE ARREST

FORMER IRISH CHIEF MAY BE TRIED FOR VALERA ATTACKS

DUBLIN, Irish Free State, Sept. 23 (AP)—A possibility that former President William T. Cosgrave of the Irish Free State may be arrested and tried for his platform attacks on the De Valera government was predicted today by Cosgrave's supporters.

A speech which he made recently in Galway especially angered the government, these sources said, and led President De Valera's newspaper, the Irish Press, to warn the former president if he repeats the charges he may be tried before a military tribunal.

The military tribunal mentioned was set up by Cosgrave himself while he was head of the government, to try cases of sedition under the national safety act. The practice was suspended by the De Valera government when it came into power, but the legislation setting up the court has not been repealed and presumably it could be made operative again.

SOME SHOOTIN'!

LONDON—Great Britain now is testing a pursuit plane that is equipped with six guns, all capable of being fired simultaneously by the pilot. The guns are mounted two on either side of the air cooled radial motor, and the others out along the wings. The guns are fixed so that the lines of fire converge ahead of the plane.

BULLINGTON ASKS SUPPORT IN RACE

HILLSBORO, Sept. 23. (AP)—Orville Bullington of Wichita Falls, Republican nominee for governor, last night asked the support of members of both major parties to prevent Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson from becoming chief executive of Texas.

During the day Bullington made appearances at Cleburne, Keene, Alvarado, Grandview and Itasca. Today he will make four more addresses, ending the day at Waxahachie.

Bullington said honesty in government was of more importance than loyalty to party. He said there was no obligation for anyone to support a party nominee when the election of the nominee would be against the best interests of the state.

STAMFORD MAN NAMED

STAMFORD, Sept. 23. (AP)—Dr. F. E. Hudson, Stamford was elected president of the Mid-West Texas District Medical association at the closing session of the annual meeting here Thursday.

Dr. Chester U. Callan of Rotan was elected vice-president and Dr. Roland Peters of Sweetwater, secretary-treasurer.

Sweetwater was selected as next year's meeting place.

Youth Given Death In Slaying Trial

SALLISAW, Okla., Sept. 23 (AP)—Nineteen-year-old Ted Patten was sentenced to die in the electric chair today for the murder of Robert Hayne Wall, also 19, son of W. B. Wall, prominent attorney here.

Patten testified he killed Wall in self defense and to protect the honor of his young sweetheart, Vera Frazier, but the jury, after 16 hours deliberation, accepted the state's version that he killed in jealous rage.

The birth rate for Minnesota dropped from 18.4 per thousand in 1930 to 18.1 in 1931. The death rate fell from 10 to 9.9.

Thought For Today

And ye now therefore have sorrow; but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice.—St. John, 16:22.

Happiness is neither within us nor without us, it is the union of ourselves with God.—Pascal.

Sensible

Arthur Henderson's comment on Germany's demand for military equality with her former foes sounds very much like good common sense.

In 1919, as this president of the World Disarmament Conference points out, the allies pledged themselves to disarm down to Germany's level. It is almost time that they took some action to redeem that pledge—or, failing that, grant Germany the right to arm up to their level. As Mr. Henderson remarks:

"Why shouldn't the World War allies get together and recognize that what was said in their names in 1919 must bind them? Why should they not publicly declare their intention to remove Germany's position of inferiority with all possible haste, and to restore Germany's equality in military status?"

Why not, indeed? The present situation is only breeding a new war. Something must be done—and it must be done soon.

"White Plague"

Tuberculosis is vanishing in the United States and in another five years it will be classed as a minor disease. So, at any rate, says Dr. Gerald B. Webb, of Colorado in a recent speech before a middle western medical association.

Tuberculosis, as Dr. Webb points out, seems to run in cycles of about 100 years, and all indications now point to the belief that the present cycle is on its downward swing.

Modern methods of treating tuberculosis, beyond a doubt, are more effective than those practiced in former generations. Yet it is odd to realize that the prevalence of the disease seems to depend, at least in part, on mysterious forces beyond human control. Just now it is subsiding, but medical science does not pretend to claim all the credit. There is at work, apparently, some factor which we cannot yet understand.

The United States has just presented the Marne victory memorial to France, as a return gift for the Statue of Liberty. Probably the next gift that passes between the two will have to wait for another war.

Sentimental love songs are played on the phonograph just as a matter of record.

The Plainsman Says

That Girl on Broadway says a lot of marital troubles are caused by two things: either a husband can't keep his wife in clothes or she can't keep him in nights.

* * *

When a man says he likes an intelligent girl he means he likes a good listener.

THE annual 'tempest in a teapot' over high school clubs and fraternities is again drawing to a close at Lubbock High. An elaborate pledge has been required of students disclaiming membership in everything from Greek letter fraternities to The Sons and Daughters of I Will Arise, which is probably all for the best although rather dictatorial.

Personally, The Plainsman believes the school board and executives of the system will have plenty to do in operating the schools and in scraping up the cash to pay the teachers, without going out of their way to fret over social activities of the youngsters, most of whom have parents fully capable of advising them along such lines.

It appears to your humble servant that school chieftains could have saved themselves a lot of trouble by laying the problem before parents and in relying in the good judgment of the latter to decide upon what their kids can belong to and what they can't.

It will be a miracle if those in authority do not later discover that young humans, like old ones, are prone to seek companionship of their own choosing; that they're gregarious, naturally.

People, whether youthful or matured, have a habit of binding themselves together in organizations and whether those organizations happen to be called by Greek, French, Yiddish or English titles, "a rose by any other name is just as sweet."

AS a feature of the Nineteenth Annual Panhandle-South Plains fair there will, of course, be a carnival. This year's midway treat is opined to be one of the best on the road; it offers in the way of carnival attractions everything the average organization of its kind boasts—and then some.

But more interesting to some people than the attractions in the tents will be the head of the show, Col. John T. Wortham. Known wherever showmen gather as a veteran of the road, the Colonel will be here in person, lending color to the fair.

Probably there are more interesting vocations than the show business, but if there are we ordinary folks rarely come into contact with them.

There is something of a glamor to trouping, something attractive and appealing to us who stay in one place, following our more or less common-place existences year after year.

It's a hard life, we are told—this business of keeping a big show moving despite Hades and high water. It results in trials and tribulations, in indigestion and prematurely gray hair.

But it must be a happy life, never-the-less, with the element of chance and battle prevalent every day.

* * *

SOMETIME during fair week while the Wortham shows barkers are still pleading for patronage, The Journal will present an interview with Colonel Wortham, telling in part the thrilling experience which is bound to have come from decades of trouping.

Watch for the Wortham story.

It will be well worth your reading time if you care to delve into the mysteries of showmanship which have raised this prominent figure of the tented world from rags to riches.

* * *

A man pinned underneath a motor car as the aftermath of an accident near Abilene recently was being questioned by a State Highway patrolman.

"Married?" asked the patrolman.

"No", groaned the victim. "This is the worst fix I was ever in!"

ALTHOUGH the press gave great publicity to the fact that Alfred E. Smith will break his political silence on October 3, at the New York State Democratic convention, The Plainsman wonders if it makes any difference whether he does or doesn't.

The once proud and jaunty Brown Derby is now battered and dented as the Roosevelt juggernaut goes plunging on.

The Smith of 1932 is no more the Smith of 1928 than the man of 80 is the youth of 21.

Politically speaking, Mr. Smith finds himself in an embarrassing predicament.

If he comes out for Mr. Roosevelt, thousands of Democrats are going to say that he saw the writing on the wall; realized he could do his enemy little or no harm and climbed on the bandwagon before it was too late to save his face.

If he comes out against his one-time friend a million Southern voters will cheer and cheer.

They'll double their efforts for the party's nominee, feeling that Democracy at last has cut the string which bound to it odious Tammany hall.

IN behaving like a spoiled child Mr. Smith has lost much prestige, much power. He booted the best chance he ever had to play the part of the big, tolerant man he has been described to be and to knock down the bars of prejudice which stood between him and so many Democrats.

Now he finds himself in the position of the Roman rider who, with each foot on a different horse sees his mounts begin turning in opposite directions.

He'll have to take a tumble, no matter which way it goes.

About all the harmony left in the Texas Democratic party now is 'Sweet Adeline'.

That Man on Avenue Q says Time may be a great healer but it's a cinch it's no beauty specialist.

* * *

Our Mr. J. Sam Lewis, who makes a speciality of kiting around the South Plains area, has it figured out that the territory's gins and compresses will furnish employment this fall to somewhere around 1,500 men and boys.

Not bad, folks, not bad, in these times when employment means buying power and buying power means a return to normalcy.

"Up A Tree"

Even If There's One Less Hoover In Capital After Next March, There'll Still Be Plenty; None Related To Herb

By RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.— Even if there happens to be one less Hoover here after next March, there will still be plenty.

Washington seems to attract Hoovers. Not the president's relatives, but just people named Hoover.

Dutcher

It isn't a common name. Lots of people never heard of it before they read about Herbert Hoover. But there are only 25 or 30 Hoovers listed in the big Manhattan telephone directory as compared with 62 occurrences of the name in the little Washington directory.

One of the ways to be reminded of this large group of local Hoovers is to have a steamship blow up and sink with heavy loss of life.

Dickerson N. Hoover goes dashing off to the port to find out how the disaster happened. He pops from relative obscurity into print, inevitably after a big marine tragedy. Most recently he rode to New York to investigate the explosion of the ferry boat Observation.

This Hoover, famous enough among shipping men, is assistant director of the Bureau of Navigation and Steamship Inspection. Before the two agencies were combined he was supervising inspector general of the Steamboat Inspection Service, which title was considered one of the most impressive in the government.

He is large and stout. He worked up through the S. I. S. after joining it in 1903. His cases have included the General Slocum disaster — in which a thousand persons were burned and drowned at New York in 1904 and great scandal developed over equipment and inspection; the Eastland tragedy at Chicago, the Fairfax-Pinthis collision, the Mackinac explosion, the Vestris horror of 1928 and many others.

He has done a lot toward bringing about greater safety at sea. He is responsible for the new regulations requiring that lifeboats be not only inspected but also lowered and operated by the crews at periodical fire drills and for new specifications giving the quality and quantity of the balsa wood used in life preservers.

He is now drawing up new piping and electrical codes for steamers and has a revised boiler code which awaits legislative enactment.

* * *

There are other Hoovers in Washington widely known. The most famous probably is Ike, the chief usher at the White House, who has been handling functions at the executive mansion for 41 years. Ike seemed a trifle worried when Hoover was elected. Being the second most important man in the residential section of the White House, he feared that the duplication of names might get on the nerves of the new Hoover. But everything worked out pretty well.

Ike, too, is an executive rather than a servant and a dry, sardonic humor goes along with his efficiency.

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Bureau of Investigation in the Department of Justice, is another exponent of "Hoover efficiency." He took hold of the bureau after the Daugherty-William J. Burns period and built it up to the point it is sometimes called "the American Scotland Yard." He has the largest finger print collection in the world and his last public appearance was in the Lindbergh case.

There are several lawyers here named Hoover, one of whom appeared in the naval oil cases, a butcher, a florist, and a sporting goods dealer.

There is also a Miss Tell Hoover. But except for Mrs. Lou Henry Hoover, the president hasn't a relative in town.

THE PLAINSMAN GETS SOME MAIL

LITTLEFIELD READER DISAGREES ON COLUMN

Dear Mr. Plainsman: I nearly always read your column in the Daily Journal because my husband thinks it fine and I am trying to keep on common terms with him. You do not know me and will probably have some sarcastic remark about that but nevertheless it is true and that is the only reason I ever read it. Trying to like what he likes, do what pleases him, thereby making for all the happiness we may get out of life.

But Mr. Plainsman, your column always irks me. I am a bit sorry to say so, and it could be my fault, by not being broad-minded enough to see things your way.

Just why should you compare the child of your old friend with your negro cook's little boy in order to illustrate your point? It was so radical and absurd a comparison. That's the first perfect negro I have ever heard of and I was raised in the South where the colored people are thick. Even the negro would not appreciate such comparison. Not only did you compare your friend's child but your own. I can think of many more uplifting and praiseworthy comparisons than that with a negro, for my own children and those of my neighbors.

Manners are not all that is important in this life but I realize that they have their place; all the coons are never up the same tree, if you know what I mean. Your sons may have something mine haven't but mine will be there before it's all over.

You may wish at some future time to go back to the home of your friend. Wouldn't it have been a good thing as smart as you are to have said something that would have helped that little mother to make a better son out of that little fellow that hasn't had a chance with his parents? On returning to that home you would have enjoyed the very atmosphere, but instead you will think of the example and black, fine comparison you have made and more than that she may even find out these things you have said. But I suppose you have seen to that.

If the average woman is below the best standard in moral ethics why not tell us what the few good women are doing and thinking. I do not think your girl on Broadway as wise as she thinks she is. You think she is clever and modern and I am sure she suits you. But she and her shallow way of thinking is not all it might be.

Yours for anything that is really better,

Mrs. Max Touchon.
Littlefield.

(Dear Reader: Please do not consider anything I say as sarcastic for I really don't intend to be that way. I appreciate your frank letter in disagreement with my column, which certainly does not please everybody any time, although of course I wish it could. This is a funny world and many of us see things differently. I know you'll be interested to know that I have received numerous comments on the comparison of the boys, which you speak of. Some thought it was good; some didn't—so you see how it goes. I, too, have always lived in the South. Thanks for your letter. The Plainsman.)

The Republican campaign committee has issued the first party textbook ever prepared especially for women voters. It contains 32 pages giving the record of the Hoover administration. Thirty-two pages!

As Brought Over Associated Press Wires Today

(By The Associated Press)

Poor Training

NEW YORK—Pete, a red fox with a love for liberty, mourns the fact that three years in a cage in Central park zoo is no training for a marathon. He jumped a fence and streaked away, pursued by a couple of hundred citizens, but his flabby muscles gave out after a short run and he was carried back to captivity in a state of collapse.

Just A Neighbor

JACKSON, Miss.—Cambodia has its eye on Mississippi's doings. Secretary of State Wood received a telephone call from New York. It was a request from a representative of Cambodia for information about the state's new sales tax. After furnishing the data, Wood pored over maps and announced that Cambodia is a French possession in Indo-China.

Has No Success

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—Jack McKinny, charged with breaking into a store, argued his own case, with no success at all. He explained carefully that he didn't break into that store, that he was trying to break into the one next door. He got 19 to 20 years.

Crowns To Museum

MADRID—Crowns are curios and regal trappings are relics of a dead day in Spain, the government of the republic believes. It plans a museum to house mementoes of the "definitely past time of the constitutional monarchies."

Confederate-Union March Is Opposed

MEMPHIS, Sept. 23. (AP)—General Charles A. Desaussure, whose twinkling eyes and military bearing belie his years, says he can't even imagine Confederate and Union veterans marching arm in arm.

The general is a retired commander-in-chief of the United Confederate veterans and he said today he was opposed to a joint review as proposed to delegates to the 66th annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic.

"I hold no bitterness in my heart towards the brave soldiers of the north," he said, "but I am strictly against the suggestion that the men of the South and the men of the North join in a grand review before the president of the United States."

Aristocrats Being Exiled From Spain

MADRID, Sept. 23 (AP)—The soul of the old Spanish aristocracy, a forlorn group of marquises, dukes and high army officers whose ancestors commanded fleets when Spain's power was mighty on the seas, was bound for exile in fever-ridden Africa today in the rusty bunks of a prison ship.

Rounded up by the new republican government following the recent monarchist uprising under General Jose Sanjurjo, the aristocratic group set sail last night in the Espana V, while on the dock, in the moonlight, weeping wives and sisters, sons and brothers waved sorrowfully knowing many of the deportees never will return.

TREES USED AS WINDBREAKS

THIRTY-FOUR PLAINS FARMERS AID U. S. DEPARTMENT

Thirty-four farmers in seven South Plains counties are co-operating with the U. S. department of agriculture in the use of trees as windbrakes on farms and the coming year will see several more farmers added to the list.

In 1931 the first work of its kind was done through the federal dry land station at Woodward, Okla. Preliminary survey was made the fall before, with trees being shipped in the spring of 1931.

The following year more trees were shipped and replacements made of trees that died.

Results Are Checked

Late in the summer of each year, the station sends a man around to check up on results. He works through county agents in making contacts and visiting the farmer co-operators.

"We have put out about 100,000 trees and shrubs each year for our work," S. S. Burton, field man in Texas, explains. "The first year we used mostly two year old seedlings of Chinese elems. The second year we set out apricots, both common and Russian types, mulberry, honey locust and green ash trees.

"I do not believe we will distribute over 60,000 to 70,000 trees next year. We are adding as many new counties as we can take care of, which is not very many each year."

20 Counties Active

All told, there are 20 Texas counties in the Panhandle-Plains area, that have been named as experiment counties for the work. These, with the number of cooperators are: Bailey, Hockley, Dawson, Ochiltree and Lipscomb, six farmers each; Lynn and Gaines, five each; Dallam, Hartley and Howard, four each; Terry two and Moore, one.

Wheeler and Hale counties are to be added next year. Hale has six cooperators.

Besides this state there are seven New Mexico counties that have cooperators, eight in Kansas and 14 in Oklahoma.

RAINFALL

routes becoming worse the union bus terminal reported early this afternoon.

Hail in the Littlefield vicinity, coupled with heavy rains Wednesday night, was said by the Santa Fe to have wrecked considerable havoc in cotton and feed fields. Littlefield has had two inches of rain in 24 hours, including one-half inch yesterday afternoon.

That more damage probably would result to the feed crop was the opinion expressed last night by County Agent D. F. Eaton. He said that the rainfall was damaging the grade of the cotton, an appreciable portion of which already is open.

Danger of worm infestation is largely passed, the County agent believed because of cool weather. There have been reports of boll worm activity in scattered sections.

The Fort Worth & Denver City railway early this afternoon reported precipitation equal to that here general on its South Plains line and slow rains on its main line.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP)—Cotton futures opened barely steady, 10 to 21 points lower in response to lower Liverpool cables and increased Southern hedge selling.

There was considerable liquidation through wire and commission houses while houses with Liverpool connections were early sellers. Offerings were readily taken around 7.35 for December and pressure subsided. There were rallies on trade buying and covering promoted by reports of rains in Texas and increased insect damage in the northern two-thirds of that state. Liverpool was relatively firm early but eased off sharply before the local opening. The early buying was attributed to covering on the rain news, but the advance met hedging and realizing.

The rally from the early decline was promoted by firmness of the stock market and extended to 7.50 for December contracts toward noon, with active months generally selling back to approximately yesterday's closing quotations. A little more southern selling then developed and there were moderate reactions later with the market at midday quiet at net declines of about 6 to 9 points. The report of the census bureau showing ginnings of 2,636,530 bales was a shade under expectations in some quarters but had little apparent effect on the market.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 23 (AP)—Cotton opened rather easier today as Liverpool cables were not as good as due. First trades showed losses of 7 to 9 points and the market continued easy after the start under pressure of hedge selling. October dropped to 7.16, December to 7.29 and January to 7.35, down 17 to 18 points from yesterday's close.

Later, prices rallied on a firmer opening in stocks, recovering 9 to 10 points from the initial lows. The market was rather nervous owing to uncertainty as to what the census bureau's report on ginnings to Sept. 16 would show. Trading was fairly active.

The market ruled qu... during the greater part of the morning. The census report on ginnings prior to September 16 showed that 2,636,530 running bales had been ginned, and was rather smaller than private estimates had indicated and was therefore considered mildly bullish.

This report, coupled with firmer stocks, caused prices to rally on short covering and December advanced to 7.51 and January to 7.55 or 20 to 22 points above the early lows and 2 to 4 points above yesterday's close.

Later in the morning, profit-taking and some hedgeselling caused the prices to ease 7 to 12 points from the top. December declined to 7.39 and January to 7.48.

At mid-session the market was quiet and steady, weekly statistics were somewhat disappointing as far as mill takings were concerned.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Sept. 23 (AP)—Upturns in grain values predominated early today owing to relative firmness of securities. Argentine reports said some wheat had been irreparably damaged by locusts. Opening unchanged to 1-4 higher, wheat afterward scored additional gains. Corn started at 1-8 off to 1-8 up and subsequently held near the initial limits.

Even in 2000 B. C., they used bath towels. This is born out in findings in an Egyptian tomb by an expedition of the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP)—Stock market bulls, interested in the prospects of slowly expanding autumn business, bid up prices of their favorite shares today, although trading was quiet on the upturn.

Rails commanded particular attention, Lackawanna running up 4 points to a new high and gains of 2 points or better developing in Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, New York Central, Reading, Atlantic Coast Line and Lehigh Valley. The steel stocks also lent their shoulder to the advance, most of them gaining substantially. Guf States jumped 5 points to a new high. U. S. Steel, Bethlehem and Youngstown were up 2 or more.

Oils, dampened by gasoline price cuts, were soggy, Standard of New Jersey yielding a point or so, but the main line of industrials and utilities folowed the rails and steels. United Aircraft soared 4 points to a new high and Case and Allied Chemical were up 3 or more. Du-Pont, Air Reduction, Coca Cola, Consolidated Gas, Westinghouse and American Telephone rose about 2.

DEATH PENALTY

noise.

Then as he traced evidence in the case and cited instances where he said guilt pointed to the defendant, he would repeat, "The hand of God, gentlemen of the jury, going and writing across the face of that man, (pointing to the defendant) murder!"

Asks For Death

He continued, "I think there can be no doubt about it. If there ever was a case in the history of Texas where the extreme penalty ought to be meted out it is in this case.

"Those fellows out there that night passed the sentence of death on Frank Brown. . . They were the judges that night. . . they were the jury that passed the verdict. . . and they were the executioners who meted out the death sentence.

"Gentlemen of the jury, an eye far an eye, a tooth for a tooth, and a life for a life," he continued. "Common justice asks that the same sentence be assessed in this case."

Vickers declared the defense effort to prove an alibi "completed the state's case."

"Death Car" Traced

He traced the route of the "death car" from the time it left Lubbock until it got back, citing corroboration of defense witnesses in testifying that Covington and Hugh Walker "could have been at the Frank Robinson home at a 'few minutes' after 9:30."

Pointing to that portion of Ross' testimony which said Hugh Walker looked at his watch near the Crosbyton underpass on the way back into Lubbock from the north and said "48 miles in 46 minutes," Vickers said it was most likely that the men were at the house "a few minutes after 9:30." He pointed out that most of the eye-witnesses of the slaying had testified it happened "around 9 o'clock."

"Wanted Some Liquor"

"That Engineer Covington over there (pointing his finger at the defendant) had put that murder car through with all it had," he shouted. "And like murderers and hi-jackers will, they wanted some liquor. . . . Wanted something to bruce themselves with." Defense witnesses testified Covington and Walker had gone to the Robinson home to get some beer.

Vickers cited the court's charge, pointing to paragraphs on principals and Ross' testimony as basis for Covington's conviction. He declared testimony of Ross was corroborated by several witnesses and cited their testimony as proof of the statement.

He again said defense testimony aided the state's case, declaring "if the defendant needed anyone thing to finish hanging him, it was when he put his wife on the stand to testify he came home 'a few minutes after 7:30'." Ross had testified that they drove by Covington's house "about sundown" and Covington got a pistol.

Doesn't Blame Wife

"I don't blame a dutiful wife," Vickers continued, "for trying to do anything to keep her husband from the electric chair for a damable crime he committed against himself, his wife, his invalid mother, the state and the widow and children of the slain man. No wonder she would say she went riding with him from that time until 'around 9 o'clock'."

As Vickers finished his argument, Mrs. F. V. Brown, widow of the slain man, came to the attorneys' table and shook his hand. Her daughter, Mrs. Billie Harris, was with her.

"In this case the state relies on circumstantial evidence," the court's charge said as it instructed the jury to consider Ross as an accomplice and gave three channels through which the jurors might make their decision.

Choice Listed

They were: confinement for life, or any period of years not less than two, or death if malice aforethought is shown; not less than two years or more than five is malice is not shown and acquittal if the defendant is found not guilty.

The court said the defendant was not required under law to take the stand in his own behalf and instructed the jury as follows: "his failure to testify can not be considered by you as a circumstance tending to show his guilt, and you must not consider for any purpose, allude to, comment on or discuss in your retirement the failure of the defendant to so testify in this case."

The court's charge was read after Walter Price had been put on the stand as the final defense witness.

Price testified he sold Covington a 1932 model Chevrolet car, that it had black wheels and that he (Price) tried to sell it for Covington a few days after the date of Brown's death. He said the car was a dark green with black fenders and top.

On cross-examination, Price said he did not know what kind of wheels the car had the night of May 30.

Two Indicted For Kidnaping Pastor

PARIS, Sept. 23 (AP)—Grand jury indictments charging robbery with firearms were returned today against J. B. French, 25, and Lloyd Delmar, 17, in connection with the kidnaping last Friday of Dr. F. L. Wear, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church of Paris, and the taking of his automobile.

The defendants were arrested at Coffeyville, Kansas, and returned to Paris.

Woman's Nude Body Is Found In Brush

MERIDIAN, Miss., Sept. 23 (AP)—The nude body of Miss Jerline McNeil, 40, was found hidden under brush in a ditch near here today with knife wounds in her breast. Bloodhounds led officers to the home of a negro known as Dudley Roberts.

They hurried him away to a secret jail after searching the house and finding bloody clothing and a sawed off shotgun.

Miss McNeil left home late yesterday to search for lost cows. Her failure to return aroused neighbors and they searched for her all night.

CONTEST SUIT

election. The election will come on November 8th this time.

Governor Sterling filed the suit last night alleging that 55,000 persons had been permitted to cast illegal votes in the runoff primary of August 27 between him and Mrs. Ferguson. Mrs. Ferguson had been declared the party nominee by the state Democratic convention at Lubbock on September 13. The official canvass showed she received about 4,000 more votes than Gov. Sterling.

Governor Sterling filed a court contest of Mrs. Ferguson's nomination the day the convention declared her the nominee but his attorneys yesterday had it dismissed and decided to file a new suit. Both petitions were placed in the court of Judge W. F. Robertson.

Names Are Listed

Attached to the suit petition were approximately 1,300 pages of exhibits, including the names of the voters it was alleged cast illegal ballots.

The suit contended that all votes cast for Mrs. Ferguson were illegal, "in that she was ineligible to become a candidate of the Democratic party at the general election and ineligible to the office of governor."

The petition recited that Mrs. Ferguson was ineligible to hold the office of governor because she was the wife of James E. Ferguson, a licensed attorney, and entitled to a share of his earnings under the community property law.

Impeachment Cited

Ferguson was impeached by the Texas senate and removed from the office of governor in 1917 while serving his second term. Mrs. Ferguson served as governor for a single term in 1925-26.

The petition asserted that during Mrs. Ferguson's administration Ferguson became the attorney in fact and agent of various large interests, "thereby increasing the community earnings of himself and wife."

Sterling alleged in his petition that each year of Mrs. Ferguson's tenure her earnings were increased to more than $20,000 above the salary paid her by the state. These earnings were described as "compensation, rewards, fees, secured by her for the practicing of law through her husband as her marital partner and by the services which he rendered to various interests and corporations."

It was contended that was in violation of a provision of the state constitution which prohibits the governor from practicing any profession or receiving any reward, fee or compensation.

Father Charged In Death Of Stepson

HARRISBURG, Ark., Sept. 23 (AP)—Herman Ledbetter, 31-year-old farmer, was captured today and charged with the murder of his two-year-old stepson who was beaten to death near here Thursday.

Scores of citizens joined the search for him after the issuance of a first degree murder warrant on the complaint of his wife whom he married a year ago.

WOMAN FREED ON BOND HERE ON ASSAULT CHARGE

Mrs. May Harris of Lubbock was arrested at police headquarters here Thursday afternoon, charged with assault, and released on a cash bond of $50 to appear in corporation court next Thursday. E. S. Fisher of Lubbock, who came to police headquarters, following an alleged altercation with Mrs. Harris, was fined $25 in corporation court Thursday for assault.

Funeral Set—Funeral services for Mrs. Alma McGinnis, 62, a widow, of Anton, who died here Wednesday, will be conducted at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at Bynum-Stahler Funeral home. Dr. J. M. Lewis of the First Presbyterian church will officiate. Burial will be in Memorial Park cemetery. A daughter survives Mrs. McGinnis.

SLASH PRICES OF GASOLINE

FOUR STATIONS SELL AT REDUCTIONS AND OTHERS EXPECTED

Lubbock's Sinclair, Gulf, Continental, Magnolia, and Phillips service stations this morning were selling gasoline at reduced prices. Cities Service and Texas Pacific stations reported they anticipated notices of reductions today.

Sinclair, Gulf, and Continental stations yesterday had price cuts effective here, selling the motor fuel at 12, 16, and 19 cents a gallon. Their price schedules formerly had been 12, 19 and 22 cents. Magnolia this morning was notified of a 3-cent slash in a grade of gasoline formerly selling for 19 cents. Phillips reported a reduction of 3 cents each in gasolines which had been selling for 19 and 22 cents.

Home Of Theater Owner Is Bombed

DALLAS, Sept. 23 (AP)—Terrorists who exploded a bomb shortly after midnight last night at the home of E. W. Paschall, operator of a chain of motion picture houses, had not been identified today.

The blast shattered windows in the Paschall residence and tore a small hole in the front yard, where the bomb detonated. It was believed the bomb was hurled from an automobile driven past the house.

Mother Of Capone Backs Court Move

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 23 (AP) — William E. Leahy, Washington, D. C., attorney, said Mrs. Theresa Capone, mother of Al Capone, was behind the latest move to obtain the former Chicago gang czar's freedom.

Leahy entered in United States court here Wednesday a petition in behalf of Capone for a writ of habeas corpus for the gangster's release on the ground his sentence violates the statute of limitations. Federal Judge Marvin Underwood set October 19 as the date for hearing the petition.

Capone entered the Atlanta federal penitentiary last May 4 to serve a 10-year sentence for violations of the income tax law in 1926, 1927 and 1928.

BOWMAN PLANS HORSE SHOW

ARRANGEMENTS ABOUT COMPLETE FOR FAIR EVENT NEXT WEEK

Virtual completion of arrangements for a horse show which will be conducted in connection with the 19th annual Panhandle-South Plains fair next week was announced last night by Joe W. Bowman, superintendent of the horse and mule department, of Lubbock.

Three ribbons, denoting first, second and third places, will be given in each class of the show, Mr. Bowman said, after a conference with Jimmie Hamilton, Amarillo trainer and expert, who spent yesterday in Lubbock helping with arrangements.

Information Is Available

Persons interested in entering competition will be given full information by Mr. Bowman, whose office is in the Union Bus Terminal. His telephone number is 100. There is no entry fee.

Displays of horsemanship will be given fair crowds before the fair park grandstand nightly throughout the exposition, which opens Monday, September 26, and closes Saturday night, October 1. Performances begin nightly at 8:30 o'clock.

Classes Are Selected

The following classes have been selected for the show:

MONDAY — Class 1: Plantation class. Horses to show walk, fox trot and canter. Ladies or gentlemen riders; judged on conformation and performance. Class 2: Children's riding contest, boys or girls between the ages of 11 and 15, inclusive. Horses or ponies, any style. Riding ability only to count.

TUESDAY — Class 1: Racking class. Mares, geldings, stallions or ponies. Ladies or gentlemen riders. Judged: 50 per cent on speed; 50 per cent on smoothness and timing. Class 2: Children's contest, boys or girls, 10 years or under. Riding ability alone will count. Ponies or horses, any style.

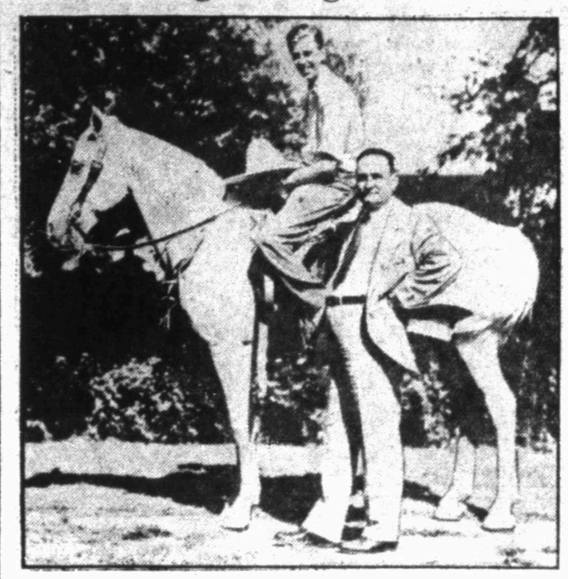

WEDNESDAY — National guard battery riding. Jumpers and Roman riding. Not open to public competition.

THURSDAY—Additional features by National guard battery. Not open to public competition.

FRIDAY — Class 1: Children's sweepstakes. Boys or girls, 15 and under. Riding ability only counts. Winners of children's contests of Monday and Tuesday must compete. Class 2: Owners' class. Open to mares, geldings, stallions or ponies. Judging based 50 per cent on horse and 50 per cent on riding equipment. Owners only may compete. All entries to be shown as owner desires.

SATURDAY — Additional riding features and displays of horsemanship by National guard battery members. Not open to public competition.

New Rough-Riding Roosevelt?

Here's John Roosevelt, youngest son of the Democratic presidential nominee, all ready for a gallop on the snow-white mount presented him by Democrats of New Mexico upon the occasion of his visit to Albuquerque. Beside him is Mayor Clyde Tingley of Albuquerque, who for good measure of hospitality, threw in the ten-gallon hat on John's saddlehorn.

INDIAN WAR CRY TURNS TO CROONING

CLOSEST SEMBLANCE TO WAR PAINT IS ROUGE WORN BY FLAPPERS, SURVEY REVEALS

ST. PAUL, Sept. 23 (AP)—The war cry of the Indians has been replaced by "crooners" and the closest semblance to war paint is the rouge used by Indian flappers.

That was the picture of the modern Indian drawn by M. K. Sniffen of Philadelphia, secretary of the Indian Rights association, as he stopped off here yesterday on his way back east after making a survey among Alaskan Indians.

Change Cited

"Sitting Bull undoubtedly would roll over in his grave," Sniffen said, "if he could witness the transformation a few years of civilization has wrought in the Indians.

"The war cry—the hunter—the chiefs in war regalia—dancing around the camp fires preceding battle—are a thing of the past, he said. The sons and grandsons of the old Indian warriors who roamed the plains, living on buffalo and other wild game, now work in factories or till the soil.

"The modern American Indian is as industrious and ambitious as the average white man," Sniffen declared. "The Indians are not a vanishing race as they are depicted. In 1890 there were 250,000 Indians in the United States while there are 345,000 at present living on 200 reservations."

JAFSIE IS STILL IN SEARCH

DR. CONDON HUNTING FOR KIDNAPERS OF LINDBERGH BABY

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP)—Dr. John F. Condon, the "Jafsie" of the Lindbergh kidnaping case, has not abandoned the hunt for the kidnapers and for the man who tricked him into throwing $50,000 over a cemetery wall.

"Last week he went to Canada where seven of the bills turned up," the World-Telegram said it had been informed by a confidant of the doctor.

For four weeks after the disappearance of the Lindbergh baby Dr. Condon played the role of negotiator, using the name "Jafsie" in newspaper wantads he used in an attempt to communicate with the kidnapers. On the night of April 2 he tossed the money over a wall to "a mysterious Scandinavian named John" in the belief that it would ransom the baby, but this turned out to be a hoax.

The World-Telegram said Dr. Condon confers twice a week with federal agents working on the case and that of Col. Breckinridge, Col. Lindbergh's friend and adviser, is "invariably present."

LONG LIVED PLANE

DETROIT—The useful life of airplanes has been prolonged of late years and one Ford tri-engined craft operating here has just completed 400,000 miles. The plane has been in service five and a half years and has carried more than 6,000,000 pounds of freight.

TECH PRESIDENT AND WIFE HONORED AT RECEPTION BY FACULTY MEMBERS

Texas Technological college faculty members were hosts at a reception from 8 to 10 o'clock last night at Hotel Hilton honoring President and Mrs. Bradford Knapp.

Dr. R. C. Goodwin, head of the chemistry department, was chairman of arrangements for the affair, attended by virtually all Tech faculty members and several guests. Special guests included Mr. and Mrs. John N. Thomas of Tahoka, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bledsoe. Mr. Thomas is Democratic nominee for representative from this district, and Mr. Wilson is a Tech director. Arthur P. Duggan, state senatorial nominee, and Mrs. Duggan of Littlefield, also invited were unable to attend because of the bad roads.

Harry Le Maire's orchestra played, and refreshments were served.

In the past, the late Dr. Paul W. Horn and Mrs. Horn have been hosts at the reception at the opening of school. Before the arrival of Doctor and Mrs. Knapp on the campus from Auburn, Ala., this year, Faculty members arranged the affair in their honor, Dean Jas. M. Gordon said last night.

THEY'RE MILDER
THEY TASTE BETTER

YOU would be astonished too, if you could see this machine that turns out 750 Chesterfields a minute . . . and every one as near perfect as cigarettes can be made.

But please bear this in mind. It is what happens before the tobacco goes into this machine that matters most. Rolling and packaging are important, but not nearly as important as the selection, blending and treatment of the tobacco.

That's why we keep telling you about the tobaccos used in Chesterfields. They're fine, mild, and pure tobaccos. We tell you about ageing and curing the tobaccos . . . about blending and cross-blending them . . . because they are things that count.

Chesterfields are milder. They taste better. Prove it for yourself . . . Just try a package.
