Agency Refuses CISD, Westbrook Transfers

Sixteen former Westbrook elementary students who live in Colorado Independent School District and four former CISD students who live in the Westbrook district were denied transfers when school started Monday.

In the past few years, transfers could be completed by the May 1 deadline and these students and parents had completed the transfer requirements, but both school districts recently received letters from the Texas Education Agency admonishing compliance with a court order issued by U.S. Federal Court Judge William Wayne Justice in Tyler in 1971, updated in 1973.

The court order denies transfers into a district if the racial blance is affected by as much as one per cent.

Westbrook school district, which accepted 26 transfers from CISD in May, was affected by more than one per cent, the 16 elementary transfers changing the racial makeup from 75.8 to 80.3, about four per cent.

Although it was only Westbrook school district's racial balance that was affected, Colorado ISD was also sent a letter denying the transfers for four elementary age students from Westbrook.

Both superintendent Lloyd McKee of CISD and L. M. Dawson of Westbrook made last minute phone calls to parents of the elementary students, K-8 grades, informing them that their children could not transfer this year.

High school students in the two districts have not been affected by the transfer denial.

McKee said that 26 students transferred from Loraine ISD into Colorado ISD this year but apparently the racial balance was not affected because neither Loraine nor Colorado City school systems received letters denying those transfers.

Dawson made a flying trip to Austin Tuesday to speak personally with TEA officials, but he said all efforts to explain how families and students are affected by the ruling, although sympathetically heard, were nevertheless turned down.

"I tried to explain that we've never refused a transfer, we're just trying to educate students out here, but everyone I talked to said that we had to turn down the transfers or else face lawsuits.

"When I said I'd just go home and accept the students anyway, I was told I wouldn't look good behind bars," Dawson said.

Dawson flew to Austin from Midland Tuesday afternoon to meet with top officers in the TEA and when he was turned down at one office, tried to explain his case at another, missing his afternoon connecting flight and had to wait over in Austin until about 10 p.m., fi-

2,026 Students Start Classess

Following the first few days of classes in the county's three school systems, enrollment figures show a slight increase in Colorado City and about the same numbers for Loraine and Westbrook.

The largest gain in enrollment was shown in the Kindergarten class in Colorado City as 126 beginning students came to class at Kelley Elementary Monday morning.

Enrollment figures by schools and grades are given below:

KELLEY
--Kindergarten, 126.
--First, 113.
--Second, 102.
--Total, 341.

HUTCHINSON
--Third, 115.
--Fourth, 114.
--Fifth, 129.
--Total, 358.

MIDDLE SCHOOL
--Sixth, 125.

- Eighth, 120.
--Total, 371.

HIGH SCHOOL
- Ninth, 130.
--Tenth, 141.
--Eleventh, 96.
--Twelfth, 100.
--Total, 467.

A total of 1,537 students are enrolled in the Colorado City school system, "more than last year," said Supt. Lloyd McKee.

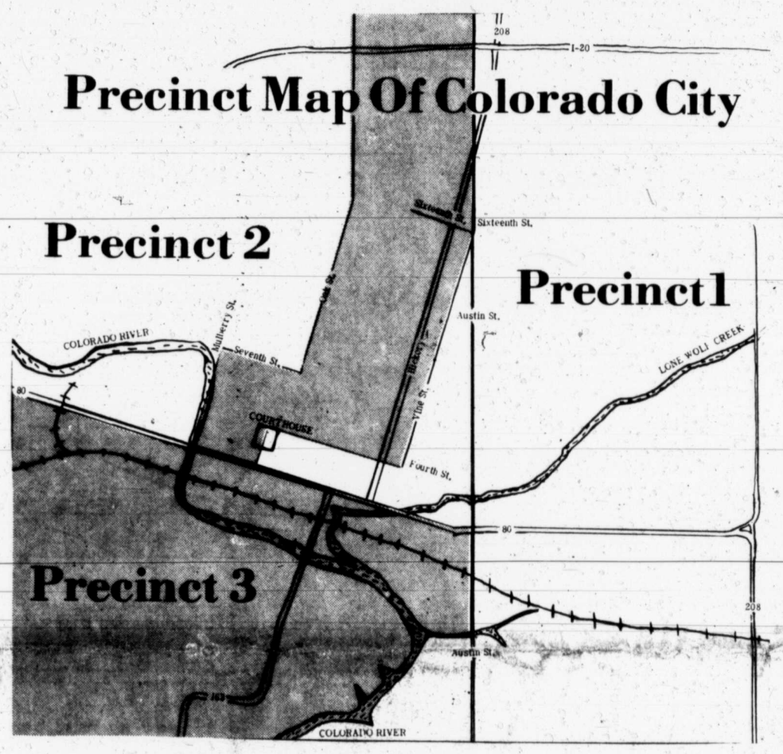

Loraine superintendent L. R. Dunn said that the enrollment figures were slightly higher than when school was out in May and that school officials are expecting a few more students to enroll in the next few weeks.

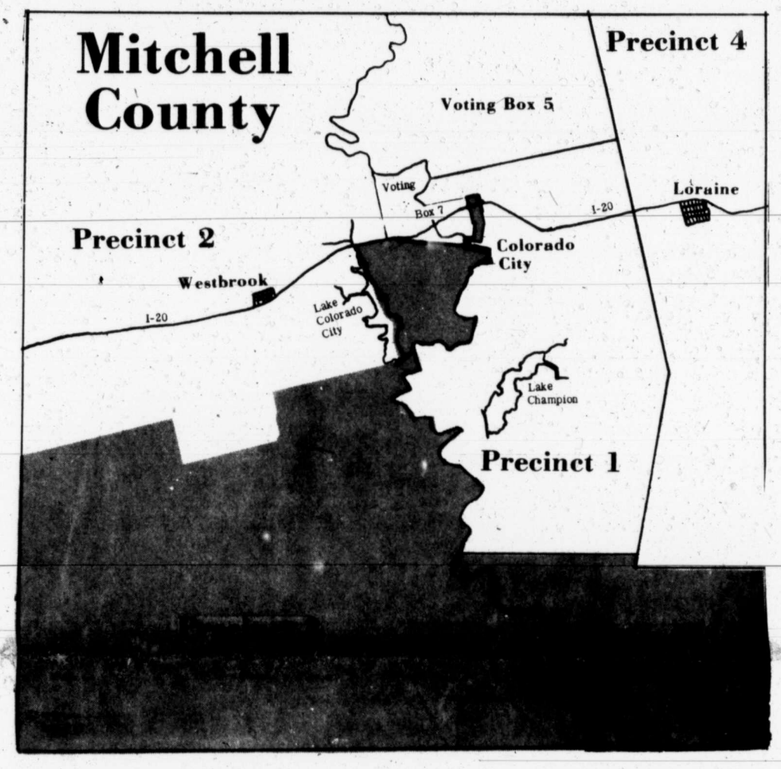

There were 189 elementary students in grades K-6, 63 junior high school students and 91 high school students in grades 9-12, a total of 343 students.

LORAINE
--Kindergarten, 21.
--First, 25.

- Total, 91.

Westbrook students numbered 146, with Superintendent L. M. Dawson expecting about five more. The Westbrook enrollment was affected by the change in transfer of students and would have been higher than last year if transfers, formerly allowed, had been approved this year, Dawson said.

Westbrook usually has about 150 students enrolled for classes.

Otto F. Jones, 86, who served as foreman of the famed Spade Ranch for more than half a century, died Saturday after an apparent heart attack while driving his car in Colorado City.

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. Monday in First United Methodist Church with the Rev. Bob Ford, pastor, officiating. Masonic graveside rites were held at Colorado City Cemetery, directed by Kiker-Seale Funeral Home.

He is survived by his wife, of the home at 743 Hickory; two daughters, Mrs. Pauline Kayser of High Point, N.C., and Mrs. Frances Croslin of Lubbock; a sister, Mrs. Allie George of Lubbock; a brother, Fred V. Recording Star Coming To City

Tony Douglas brings his country and western style entertainment show to Colorado City Friday night.

The show starts at 8 p.m. in Colorado High School auditorium. Tickets at the door are $3 adults and $2 for children under 12, but Chamber of Commerce executive vice president Sefton Pickens said that advance tickets may still be purchased until Friday noon.

The Chamber is sponsoring bringing the show to Colorado City.

Advance tickets are available, for only $2.50 adults and $1.50 for children under 12, from the following businesses:
--Stereo Corral.
--Sparks Hardware.
--Colorado Drug.
--Truck Town.
--Villa Restaurant.
--Wood's Boots.
--Chamber of Commerce.

Douglas, a native of Martins Mill (in the central part of East Texas), grew up on a farm and began singing at the service club while he was stationed in Germany with the U.S. Army.

Douglas then sang at small country musicals or any public gathering and received five encores upon his first appearance on the Cowtown Hoedown in Fort Worth. After his success there, he became a regular member of the show, later going to the Louisiana Hayride in Shreveport. He signed on as a show regular and was there for three years.

The Shrimpers band travels with Tony Douglas as he makes public appearances throughout the southwest.

Miss Gaston, Hillhouse Exchange Vows In June Candlelight Ceremony

Miss Wanda Gail Gaston and Randall Scott Hillhouse were married in a double ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m. June 7 in the sanctuary of St. John's United Methodist Church in Richmond, Texas. The Rev. Elmer Mayne, pastor of the church officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis W. Gaston of 904 Morton St., Richmond, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hillhouse of Colorado City are parents of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Robert Massey played a program of music preceding the wedding and the processional and recessional marches. She accompanied Cheryl Frickie as she sang "The Lord's Prayer" and the "Love Song" among five songs.

Multicolored arrangements of carnations in tall gold vases flanked lighted single candles and the central gold cross on the altar. At either side were seven-branch candelabrum.

Escorted down the aisle and presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of polyester organza in summer styling with empire bodice of cotton Venise lace which extended over the shoulders to form a cap sleeve. The lace also formed a high wedding band collar above a sheer yoke. The skirt of polyester crystal fell gracefully to slipper lenght in front and then swept to a chapel length train. Her long veil was attached to a headpiece of Venise lace matching that of her gown. She carried a Victorian clutch bouquet of pink, yellow, blue and green carnations, white daises and baby's breath with a central white orchid.

Mrs. Jane Rozsypal, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Jeanne Gaston, sister-in-law of the bride; and Karen Grunwald and Gail Priess. They wore rainbow colored dresses in empire styling with cut-in shoulders. The bodices were covered with long-sleeve jackets that tied in the front. They wore floppy brimmed hats to match the individual color of their gown and carried a single carnation in the same color.

Mike Hillhouse of Beaumont, brother of the groom, served him as best man and groomsmen were Ronald Hillhouse, brother of the groom, John A. Woods and Danny Walston.

Performing usher duties were Don Gaston, brother of the bride, and her brother-in-law, Johnny Rozsypal.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gaston chose a blue arnel multi-knit formal length gown featuring an empire band and coachman collar trimmed with dyed to match beaded Venise trim. The gown had long sleeves and a flared skirt. Her corsage was a white double carnation trimmed in blue. The mother of the groom wore a floor length gown of yellow with sheer jacket that had flounces at the wrists and waistline. Her corsage of white double carnations was tied with yellow ribbon.

In the house party for the reception, which followed in the church fellowship hall were Adell Harbes and Kay Seabourn, who cut and served the wedding cake; Cissy Jacobs, cousin of the bride, who presided at the punch bowl; Debbie Gaston, also her cousin, who served the coffee; Jean Whatley, who served the groom's cake; and Cheryl Fricke, who registered the guests.

The reception tables were covered with formal length satin.

The bride's cake was a three-tiered white confection decorated with flowers in colors to match the rainbow hues of the attendant's gowns. Grecian pillars separated the top layer which was crested with two white satin wedding bells in a heartshaped filigree ornament. Surrounding the cake were six heart-shaped cakes decorated with dainty white birdbaths with miniature bluebirds and blue net.

The groom's cake was a square confection iced in chocolate and decorated with the Texas A&M initials. Chrystal candelholders with rainbow candles flanked the cake. Lime sherbet punch was contained in a crystal bowl and the silver coffee service was at the other end of that table.

Out of town guests were from College Station, Colorado City, Sweeny, Nacogdoches, Houston, Dallas, Austin, San Antonio and New Braunfels.

When the couple left for a honeymoon in Mexico City, the bride wore a green and white pantsuit with tan accessories and a small white orchid as a corsage.

They are living in Houston.

Mrs. Hillhouse is a 1975 graduate of Texas A&M University with a degree in accounting. She is a member of Alpha Lambda, Cwens, Phi Kappa Phi and Beta Gamma Sigma. Her husband was graduated from TAMU in 1974 with a BBA in marketing. He was manager of the baseball team while at A&M.

On the evening before the wedding, the couple was honored at a rehearsal dinner given at Larry's Mexican Restaurant. There were 21 guests in attendance.

During the evening, the couple presented gifts of initialed key chains to all their attendants.

"GONE WITH THE WIND"

Happy Days

By Ann Randle Davis

Have come to the conclusion that I ain't as young as I used to be--you know, that smarts, but when I was in school things were just different!

It was really a good thing when a boy had use--on special occasions--of the family automobile, but in high school he never had his own car and usually not in college either, to say nothing of the fact that it was almost unheard of for a girl to have one.

Will admit knew a few, but darn few, who had their own cars, but it was the exception rather than the rule.

Also grew up with television but had plenty and I repeat plenty to do. When I think of all the millions of changes it staggers me--how about you?

My apologies to Camille Curlee. Reported seeing Cathy, her sister, (who is truly a dear and talented too) but it was Camille, who is also a talented dear and I apologize for confusing the names.

Can't believe it's time, but school started Monday. Everyone's been hurrying and scurrying to get theirs enrolled and get those necessary school items--clothes too.

Had a nice visit over the phone with Mrs. Sara (Norman) Lee. Her husband, Rodney, came over for a visit in Colorado City, but Sara and children stayed for a visit with Mrs. Opal Norman (Sara's mother) in Loraine.

Forgot to mention, had a nice but, as usual, short visit with Sherry Long (daughter of our Mrs. Sue Long) who's working and going to Lubbock Tech. Surely do miss her sweet smile around here, but one thing for sure, she hasn't changed that one bit! !

Got to have a short but good visit with Peggy (Mrs. Joe) Maddox, who had her two precious kids, Marjorie and Dalton with her. She asked me a question which I was more than happy to answer--"Could Middle School band students' parents become Band Boosters?" Was thrilled to tell her "yes" and that anyone who so desired could become a Band Booster whether or not they had a student participating in this great organization.

Spied Jeff and John Horton walking down the street and their mother, Jane following in her automobile, close behind.

As you know, she's a sixth grade teacher and a good 'un, I hear.

Had a nice but much too short a visit with our lovable, Mrs. Myrtle Womack, over the telephone...also got to visit a minute with our "little" Mrs. Nadine Gordon...saw Jimmy Payne driving up Oak Street...had a short talk with Mrs. Mamie Lou New (Middle School librarian)...saw Mrs. Marie (Joe) Bryant working but smiling and happy, as always...saw Linda Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Taylor, who gave me a big smile...also got to see Deeann Hamer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hamer, and it's hard to realize she'll now be a seventh grader...spied the Rick Robinsons' several times. They're both always so very friendly. As you know, she teaches third grade and he teaches seventh grade and also coaches, must be nice to have all that energy! !

HAVE A HAPPY DAY! ! !

Use it wisely.

This is a gas meter. It's fairly easy to read and check to see if you're using natural gas wisely.

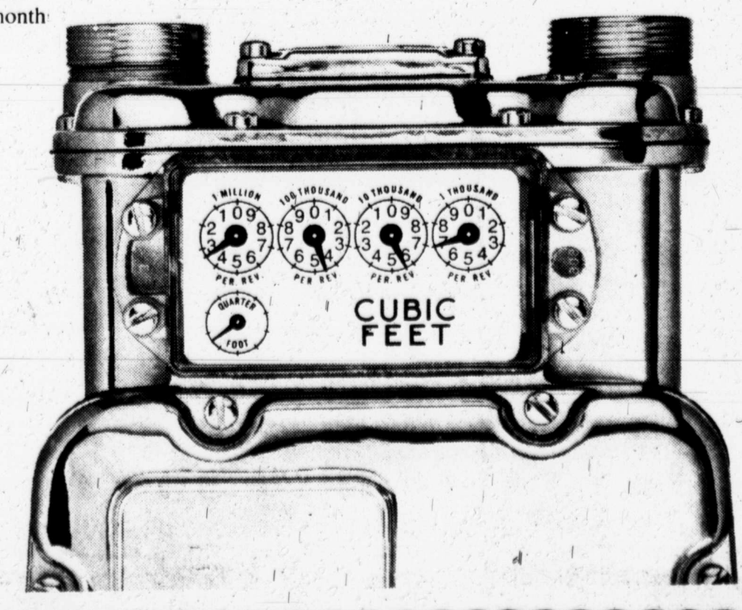

There are five dials on the meter face. The smallest dial is a test dial . . . and it's not included in the actual reading. The remaining four dials are divided into ten segments, using the number the hand has just passed for the reading. When a hand is between numbers, always use the smaller number.

The reading for the meter pictured below would be 3 4 5 7. The last number is in "tenths," so your final reading should be 345.7 THOUSAND CUBIC FEET.

It's our intention to read every accessible gas meter every month on or about the same day. You may want to informally check your natural gas usage each month to see how much you can save. Practicing conservation in your home is a good way to get the most efficient use of nature's cleanest, most desirable energy source — natural gas.

If your monthly home meter readings remain low, you're conserving natural gas. And today . . . that's the name of the game!

ton and a group from El Paso sent a message that they were also interested in joining.

Ivy is director representative of the chamber's Transportation Committee.

According to Pickens, Amtrak proposes to extend its service through West Texas to connect east and west coasts.

The Big Spring meeting was held to recommend that a feasibility study be made showing the necessity for the route to pass through Big Spring connecting with the Southern Pacific track at El Paso.

This would give the Amtrak system across the continent service from its Tennessee connection with Missouri Pacific, Pickens said.

The Texas & Pacific track which runs through Mitchell County is kept in fine condition, he said, and would allow for the fast train runs used by Amtrak. T&P is part of the M&P system due to a consolidation, Pickens said

Amtrak service has now reached to the Dallas-Fort Worth area and will probably be extended soon. An alternate route has been proposed from Sweetwater through Lubbock and Clovis, N. Mex.

Most people attending the Tuesday meeting in Big Spring felt that more people, towns and cities could be served by extending the service through Big Spring, Midland and Odessa to El Paso.

The City Council has also officially passed a resolution recommending that the Amtrak route pass through Colorado City.

Hansen said that an A&M study will begin in September on the route.

Lignite coal-fired power plants like this cost more than twice as much to build as gas-fired plants.

But we have to build them because we're running out of natural gas.

The generating unit you see here is being built right now at Martin Lake, near Henderson in East Texas. It will make electricity by burning lignite coal.

It will also cost more than two times as much as a comparable gas-fired unit.

So why are we building it? Because new supplies of natural gas, our traditional boiler fuel, are increasingly hard to get and much more costly.

Lignite fuel is comparatively economical, which in the long run will slow the rising cost of electricity.

Electricity is still a good value today. If you're a customer of Texas Electric, you pay about 27% less than the national average for your electric service.

At Texas Electric we're working to make sure you'll continue having the electricity you need. And that it won't cost any more than it has to.

Matlocks Suffer Burglary

Over $1,000 in cash and about $300 in equipment was stolen from Matlock Farm Supply's San Angelo store during the night Monday or early Tuesday morning.

The burglary was discovered by Howard Jackson, an employee, when he went to the store about 7:30 a.m. Tuesday to make an early delivery of equipment.

Jackson, who was at the Colorado City Matlock Farm Supply store Tuesday afternoon, said that the burglars gained entrance through the double-locked back door by tearing off the outside lock and prizing the door open, breaking the inside lock.

Jackson and Mrs. V. W. Matlock both said that burglars struck the store at the only time that an appreciable amount of money was on hand in the cash register.

"We had just cashed a large check that day. Any other time there wouldn't have been but $50 or $60 in the store," Mrs. Matlock said.

The Matlocks have owned the San Angelo store for more than a year. John McMinn is manager of the supply store there.

nally getting into Midland about 1 a.m. Wednesday.

"I've been to the agency a number of times in the past and I've always been able to be heard and get some action, but this time, things were shut down. They said they'd had over 3,000 phone calls from districts throughout the state over this same thing (transfer of students from one district to another) and that over 45,000 students in Texas are affected by it.

"Finally, one man told me what we needed to do is to get after some of these other Federal Judges in the state and try to get some relief from this one judge's ruling that has blanketed the state.

"I'm going to talk to my board and see what they want to do about this, but for now, we've had to turn down our transfers, 12 in elementary and seven more that were going to transfer, and we've had our enrollment affected by the ruling," he said.

Trip, Feast Set For Youth

Northside Church of Christ preacher Eddie Swinney has announced that about 50 or 60 local young people will attend the Denver City Youth Conference and leave from the church about 9:30 a.m. Saturday morning.

Swinney also said that a Back-to-School Watermelon Supper will be held for young people after church services Sunday night.

Between 50-60 watermelons have been donated for the feast by local farmers.

BUT WHAT HAVE YOU DONE FOR ME LATELY?

As power cost decreased over the years the member-owners of Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative enjoyed lower rates. But that trend is reversed. Higher fuel costs to the people who generate our power have meant higher cost to us as well.

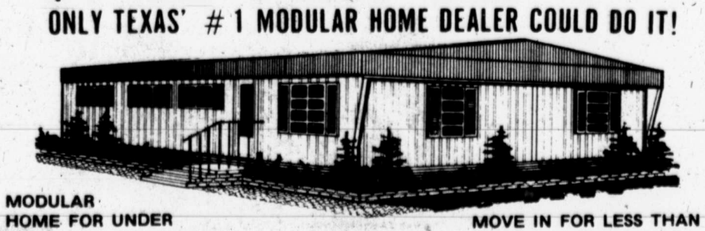

But the Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative has always provided power at its lowest possible price. That's still our promise today and for the future.
