"SCOUTS OF THE WORLD BUILDING TOGETHER"

Boy Scout Week February 8-14

Nearly 2,000,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Senior Scouts will mark the 36th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America during Boy Scout Week, Feb. 8th to 14th. The theme of the celebration is "Scouts of the World—Building Together." Members of the movement are helping brother Scouts throughout the world to reorganize. Their "World Friendship Fund" of voluntary contributions and their "Shirts-Off-Our-Backs" project of donating Scout Uniform parts and equipment, will assist Scouting overseas and help develop understanding among the boys of the world. Above is the official poster marking the event.

Motor Vehicle Owners Must Have Titles for 1946 Registrations

The Motor Vehicle Division of the Texas Highway Department this week urged all Texas motor vehicle owners to see that the titles for vehicles to be registered in 1946 are in order. The law provides that before a vehicle may be registered, the owner must present to the Tax Collector the prior year's registration receipt and must have a title, according to information released Tuesday from Austin.

Many people do not understand the importance and value of the Title Act, and do not realize that the Certificate of Title Act was passed to improve the validity of titles on motor vehicles thereby making such title comparable to an abstract on real estate.

Motor vehicle owners who have acquired used vehicles, and who have received assigned titles from the previous owners, are urged to apply at once for their titles in order that the transactions may be recorded and the new owners shown on the title records of the Department. Motor vehicle owners are also urged to register their equipment by purchasing the 1946 license plates as soon as possible. It is a common practice throughout the State for owners to wait until the last week in March, thereby creating congested conditions and long lines of applicants in the various Tax Collector's offices. The County Tax Collectors are experiencing difficulty in obtaining temporary help, and you will be helping them and yourselves by obtaining 1946 license plates during February or in the first part of March and not waiting until the last day or days.

There are some persons operating motor vehicles with Out-of-State license plates who may legally operate under 1946 Out-of-State license plates, and these persons are cautioned to obtain such 1946 plates and apply same on or before the expiration of their present plates. There are others operating motor vehicles with Out-of-State license plates who must legally re-register in Texas, and these persons are advised to purchase Texas plates immediately to avoid having to pay penalty in addition to the registration fee.

Particular attention of the owners of trucks, truck-tractors, trailers, semi-trailers and buses was called to the fact that they must be prepared to furnish the Tax Collector with a complete description as to the size, type and serial number, etc., of equipment to be registered, and must be prepared to register for the actual weight of the empty vehicle plus the heaviest load to be carried, which under the law cannot be less than the manufacturer's rated carrying capacity. If in doubt as to the actual weight, the owners of commercial vehicles should have them weighed and present the weight certificate at the time of registration.

Radio Program to Feature Bishop Clare Purcell

The first Southwide radio broadcast of "The Methodist Hour" will be heard from Maryland to Texas, from Florida to the Middle West, Sunday morning, Feb. 17, from 7:30 to 8:00 a. m., as Bishop Clare Purcell, president of the college of bishops of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church, speaks over an independent network of 36 stations. This program originates from WSB in Atlanta and is carried by radio stations in fifteen southern and western states.

Dr. William F. Quillian, Executive Secretary of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Council of the Methodist Church, announces that other "Methodist Hour" programs will be heard during May and June. This first broadcast by the Council is in co-operation with the South Central Jurisdictional Council and the Upper Room. The Council is a member of the Southern Religious Radio Conference, which is composed of the radio committees of the Baptist, Presbyterian, Methodist Churches and representatives of certain radio stations.

Bishop Purcell will speak on "The Church That Is To Be." He is resident bishop of the Charlotte Area of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, a member of the General Commission on Archives and History, and a member of the North Carolina Council of Churches.

"The Methodist Hour" will be heard on the following near-by stations:

Texas — KGNC, Amarillo; WFAA, Dallas; KPRC, Houston; KWBU, Corpus Christi; WOAI, San Antonio.

Oklahoma — KOMA, Oklahoma City; KWON, Bartlesville.

Wilburn J. Ayers, Foard Pioneer, Died at Flomot

Funeral Held at Flomot, Interment in Turkey Cemetery

W. J. Ayers, Foard County pioneer and resident of this county for many years, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Raymond Ross, near Flomot at 3 o'clock Sunday morning. Mr. Ayers had been in failing health for some time.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist Church at Flomot Monday afternoon with interment being made in the cemetery at Turkey beside the grave of his wife, who died there twelve years ago.

Besides Mrs. Ross, two sons, Forrest Ayers of Tucumcari, N. M., and U. L. Ayers of San Antonio, were present for the funeral services. Two sons were unable to attend.

Wilburn J. Ayers was born Sept. 24, 1866, in Habersham County, Ga., and came to Comanche Springs, Texas, with his parents in 1878, and in 1885 to Old Margaret, county seat of Hardeeman County. He was married to Miss Emma Rambo in 1888 and five children were born to this union.

After leaving the Margaret community many years ago, Mr. Ayers and family resided near El Paso, Texas, for a long period and then moved to Crowell about 1924, when he operated a grocery store. Selling his store in Crowell, he moved to Rayland where he entered the same business.

Mr. Ayers was a member of the Methodist Church and was of a quiet, unassuming disposition and had many friends wherever he lived.

Besides the five children, survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Stan Westbrook of Truscott and Mrs. E. G. Kennedy of Chillicothe, and one brother, Minyard Ayers, of Tampico, Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Westbrook attended the funeral services.

Report of Used Clothing Drive Sponsors to Date

Mrs. Leslie McAdams, Foard County chairman for the Used Clothing drive which has been under way for the past three weeks, makes a report of the clothing which has been received and shipped out up to the present time. The close of the drive will positively be on Feb. 28, and anyone wanting to give clothes may bring them to the court house basement at once as the shipment will be made on Feb. 27.

Mrs. McAdams reports that 1,933 pounds of clothing have been boxed and shipped as well as 10 sacks of shoes, besides several boxes of baby shoes.

Those who assisted with the packing for shipment include Mrs. L. A. Andrews, Mrs. Hartley Easton, Mrs. Leo Owens, Mrs. Jack Roberts, Mrs. Sam Bell, Mrs. Russell Beverly, Mrs. Jack Seale, Mrs. E. R. Roland, Marion Crowell, A. V. Sheppard, Supt. Grady Graves, W. M. Wagnon, Ed Thomas, J. A. Brock, John Mitchell and H. A. White.

Changes in Faculty Made Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilkinson, instructors in Crowell High School, tendered their resignations to the school board Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Wilkinson has formed a partnership in the grocery business with his father in Frederick, Okla., and they will establish their home there immediately.

At a meeting of the school board late Wednesday afternoon, Henry Black was employed as instructor of English and Speech, which have been taught by Mrs. Wilkinson. Mr. Black is an ex-teacher in Crowell High School and is well known to the people of this section. He has recently been discharged from the service, having been in the Navy. Marvin L. Myers, who will return from U. S. Service in the Navy on February 28, was employed as Vocational Instructor, a position which he held before entering the service.

These two instructors will take care of the vacancies created by the recent resignations.

Rev. Grant L. Slagle will substitute for Mr. Myers until he arrives to assume his duties.

Veterans Officer Is Here Today

The Veterans Administration officer of Vernon will be here today, Thursday, Feb. 14, and can be contacted at the office of the draft board during the forenoon.

1,250 Poll Taxes Paid in Foard County for 1946

According to figures released from the tax collector's office, there have been 1,250 poll taxes paid in the county for 1946. It is also estimated that there are approximately 100 exemptions to persons being above the age to be required to pay poll taxes, or those who have become of age at a time when it is not necessary to have a poll tax receipt in order to be entitled to vote.

Returned World War II veterans, who have been discharged from the service and do not have to have poll tax receipts to be entitled to vote in the 1946 elections, number up to the present 292, according to a count made by J. E. Long, secretary of the local draft board.

Basing an estimate on these figures, the voting strength of Foard County this year will be approximately 1,650 votes, and will increase as the men are released from the service.

Grand Jurors for February Term of District Court

Grand jurors who have been impaneled to appear in the February term of District Court on Monday, Feb. 18, at 10 o'clock, a. m., are as follows:

Boy Scout Program Set for Sunday Night at Methodist Church

Each year during boy scout anniversary week one service is set aside for religious observation, according to D. F. Eaton, local Scoutmaster.

Since Troop 49 is sponsored by the Methodist Church, the services will be held there Sunday night, February 17, at 7 p. m. The Cub Scouts will also join in the observance with the Scouts.

The Scouts and Cubs will participate in the program and are very anxious to have their parents present as well as Scout officials and the public in general.

With a new Scout executive, Chas. Romine, assigned to this area which now consists of four counties, scouting should go forward in Foard County. Also a completely new local set up among the adult scout supporters is beginning to function so it is thought the program will function more effectively in the future.

"We are convinced that scouting offers an opportunity for youth development that we cannot afford to neglect and is a challenge to our community. This particular field is not covered by any other youth movement. We cannot afford to neglect this program," Mr. Eaton said.

Leadership is required and it is a privilege to give this service so it is hoped that this phase of the youth program will be properly taken care of in this community in the future.

Mr. Eaton further stated that, "It has been indeed a pleasure to have served Troop 49 and we hope the boys have gotten as much out of it as we have. We can assure the new scoutmaster he will have the earnest support of a grand group of boys and the possibilities of scouting are unlimited."

"It was felt that by having this service at night it would interfere less with the day services of those boys who happen to worship at other churches."

"So may we invite you to be present at this service and lend your encouragement to the boys as well as to the leaders of the movement and scouting in general."

Ray Shirley Will be Kaiser-Frazer Dealer in This Territory

Ray Shirley has secured the dealership in Foard County and vicinity for the Kaiser and Frazer automobiles and farm equipment, tractors, rototillers, etc. The firm name will be Shirley Motor Co.

Mr. Shirley has leased the building and shop equipment from Henry Moss, located across the street from Girsch Service Station and the City Hall, effective March 1. Mr. Moss will continue to operate the repair department and has recently employed Jake Parish, an experienced mechanic, as shop foreman.

RETAILER IS A PUBLIC SERVANT

In commenting on the future of the retailer, Dr. Paul Nystrom, Professor of Marketing, Columbia University, says:

"It seems necessary to me to make a statement on what I believe to be a dangerous trend in retailing, namely, shorter hours of store operation."

"Retailers have a public service to perform and that is to sell goods to consumers when consumers want to buy them. Furthermore, in the years that lie immediately ahead of us, if this country is to regain prosperous conditions with full employment, retailers must sell more goods than they have ever sold before. It is going to be difficult, if not impossible, to increase retail sales if at the same time we cut down the number of hours of store operation."

"A retail store is not like a factory that can be operated or closed down at will. If it is to serve its purpose, it must be open to the public at the time that the public wants to shop. There are millions of customers who are at work in factories, offices and on farms, who can't shop during the middle of the day. Factory hours are not shopping hours. There is real danger to our economy in any effort to match store hours of operation to the hours of operation of the industries."

Among the great advantages of the American distribution system, from the standpoint of consumers, are the numerous types of competing retail establishments. For example, the chain stores, while only doing a little over twenty per cent of the total retail business, have since their inception had a salutary influence on consumer service. Unquestionably, hours of store operation in the distribution industry are tailored more closely to consumer needs because of the chains. —Industrial News Review.

Ah—a capitalist!

Now—it's just a penny in a piggy bank. But soon his piggy bank will be full. Then the pennies will be taken to a real savings bank.

The bank will put his pennies to work. Some of these pennies almost certainly will be invested in electric utility securities. Financial institutions, including insurance companies, prefer such securities because sound, thrifty business management has made them a steady, dependable investment—as dependable as electric service itself.

So, the little boy has a personal stake in the electric service industry. Practically every American has—millions of people as direct stockholders, other millions of citizens as savings depositors and life insurance owners.

This is the American private initiative economic system. It's called capitalism. It's a good system. It helped make America great. It produced to save the world. It had more electric power in service than all sources of electric power of all enemy countries combined. And it will continue to open doors of opportunity for all little boys and girls with piggy banks.

Talmage Wilson

Appointed Keith Advertising Manager

Of interest to the fresh fruits and vegetables industry of the Southwest, and to the advertising profession, is the announcement by the Ben E. Keith Company of the appointment of Talmage Wilson to the position of Director of Advertising, Sales promotion and Dealer service, succeeding the late Miss Trula House, Advertising Manager.

Mr. Wilson has been with the Ben E. Keith Company seven years as head of Display and Dealer service department, and is well known throughout the entire industry for his aggressive promotional work and artistic point-of-sale materials.

His intimate knowledge of the needs of the independent retail dealer in the way of sales helps and co-operation singularly fit him for the over-all directing of this important phase of the company's business.

The important position occupied by the Ben E. Keith Company in the fruits and vegetables marketing has, in a large measure, been built up by its aggressive newspaper and radio advertising and merchandising policy and Mr. Wilson plans not only the continuation of this co-operative work with the dealers, but many extensions and improvements to this service.

Special attention will be given to helping the dealer in the proper location of the fruits and vegetables department in his store; working toward the handling of more complete lines; maintaining cleaner departments; appealing and colorful displays and artistic decorations. Wilson also plans to appoint specialty service men to work in each community in rendering the dealer close personal co-operation and assistance in display and marketing.

Already recognized as "the largest distributor of fresh fruits and fresh vegetables in the southwest" the Ben E. Keith Company expects to go on from here under the new promotional set-up to even more markets and better marketing. The concern maintains distributing centers in Fort Worth, Dallas, Longview, Abilene, Lubbock and Wichita Falls.

It has always been the aim of the Ben E. Keith Company to serve the trade with all the seasonable fresh fruits and vegetables both of national and Texas origin, every day of the year, and it is this policy that has gained for it a position of leadership in the industry.

Mr. Wilson announces that packaging of fruits and vegetables will be given careful study, and wherever possible, select merchandise will be marketed in individual "Fresh-From Keith's" packages.

INTERESTING FACTS OF THIS AND THAT

Man may acquire trichinosis (pork worm infection) from eating infected pork. The pork worm is taken into the human system by eating raw or underdone pork. The worm causes stomach and intestinal upsets in from three to fourteen days after eating the infected pork. The worms sometimes invade the muscles of the person eating the infected pork by passing through the walls of the stomach or the intestines. In this case severe muscle pains follow. Deaths occur in from 5 to 6 per cent of the cases in which infection is recognized. The present method of inspection in packing houses by government inspectors does not reveal the pork worm. If the inspection is made with a microscope as in Germany, Denmark, Sweden, France, Argentina and Chile the infection can be detected. Thus pork bearing the government stamp "United States inspected and passed" may contain trichinae worms. Trichinae worms may be destroyed by thorough cooking, smoking and curing, or by holding the meat at below zero temperature for seventy-two hours. It has been found that sixteen per cent of the people of the United States upon whom post mortem examinations have been held showed evidence of trichinae infection.

The number of beggars in Rome is placed at 20,000 including many professionals.

Keeping the Town Up

There is a very popular old song which says "The old home town ain't what it used to be." Many towns could also sing that the old town ain't what it used to be. It will thus decline if people become so absorbed in their own affairs, that they do not feel able to give any time to work for the public good.

The coming years are likely to be a time of advance and progress. The servicemen who have traveled so widely and met so many people will have their ideas as to what communities should do to keep up with the times. There is a demand that towns be generous in providing educational advantages. A general movement for improvement of buildings and home grounds can be expected, to start as soon as materials and labor are ample. Towns will have to keep up with this modern progress or fall behind.

Your Horoscope

February 11, 12.—You are very selfish and domineering. If your plans do not work out it is always someone else who interfered. Your way is the only way and you are always ready to criticize others if their plans fail, especially if they have done it their way in preference to your way. You like to put a wet blanket on every new idea or scheme that is not your own.

February 13, 14.—You are very broad minded and see things in a clear light. You love your leisure and seldom exert yourself except when it may lead to enjoyment. You are very attached to your home and your family.

February 15, 16, 17.—You are very faithful and earnest in everything you undertake to do. You always look on the bright side of things which helps you to keep in a cheery mood. You love your home and your family and hate to be away from them. You are the favorite and pet of the family.

The Lord hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad.—Psalm 126:3

One peril of a democracy, perhaps its greatest peril, is the fact that the average citizen does not actively concern himself with what is going on in Washington. The advice to "Write your Congressman," is not followed by a sufficient number of citizens. As a rule the noisy minority who favor certain class legislation write in urging its passage while the greater number of people who are often injured by such class legislation seldom if ever write. After the harmful legislation is passed they voice too late their protests. What this country needs is more statesmen at home writing letters to their Congressmen. If the Congressman is to render the best service to his constituents and his country he should be kept informed regarding their wishes. The people back home are democracy's soundest safeguard.

In an effort to curb child delinquency schools for parents of delinquent children have been opened in a number of larger cities of this country. When a child in one of these cities is taken into court as a delinquent its parents are required by law to attend the school regularly and take a course in child training. The schools are said to accomplish much good. Some day perhaps we will reach the point in this country where a knowledge of child training will be a requisite to securing a marriage license. We might as well look at the matter squarely and realistically. Why wait until the damage is done before corrective measures are applied? It is not fair to the children. Why not prepare parents in advance? The court records show a tragic need for some preventative means. They show that child delinquency is rapidly reaching a point where it cannot longer be safely ignored. We attend college to learn how to raise cattle and hogs, why wouldn't a little education help when it comes to raising children?

Texas attorneys who have been in military service for the past five years have registered for a refresher course being offered by the University of Texas. Lectures will be given two hours daily by outstanding Texas lawyers, including Chief Justice James P. Alexander of the Supreme Court. The course began February 11, and will extend through March 9. Any lawyer is eligible to attend, regardless of whether he is a University of Texas graduate or ex-student.

In our opinion the Fair Employment Practice Act should not have been brought up at the present time when Congress has more problems before it than it can possibly settle and there is little excuse for dragging in at this time a highly controversial issue that has been hanging fire for over fifty years.

The high handed manner in which Petrillo, the head of the musicians organization is forcing his unreasonable demands upon the American people is a striking example of what a well organized minority can do in a democracy.

The fellow who thought that labor troubles would be over in this country as soon as Miss Perkins was eased out of the position of Secretary of Labor, isn't saying much these days.

What We Think
(By Frank Dimes)

There is now before the Senate labor committee a bill proposing to amend the Wage Hour law.

The present wage-hour law provides that no worker employed in an industry whose products are shipped across a state line may be paid less than forty cents an hour. This applies to all classes of labor in the plant regardless of the degree of skill or the character of the work performed.

The amendment now before the Senate committee provides that this minimum pay be boosted to 75 cents an hour.

This would mean that any industry, any part of whose products are shipped across the state line would receive, regardless of the character of work done a minimum of 75 cents an hour. The bill also provides that for each hour worked over forty hours during any one week the worker, regardless of the character of work done, would receive $1.12½ an hour.

The amendment was proposed by the President in his recommendation to Congress and is being sponsored by Senator Claude Pepper of Florida. Senator Taft of Ohio is engaged in what appears to be a futile effort to hold the minimum down to 55 cents an hour.

I talked to the operator of a small business in my town as to what the effect would be upon his business, I give herewith his version of the bill.

The amendment to the Wage-Hour bill as proposed by President Truman is definitely harmful and unfair to the small industry of the country.

The small industries, employing all the way from three or four to twenty or thirty people, are going to be hurt if the minimum rate is increased above forty cents. The small industry does not have the advantage of the assembly line or the conveyor belt method of assembly. It employs a few persons in the community who do mostly hand work. Little industry does not have the capital nor the resource nor the volume to justify the purchase of large automatic equipment.

If the bill is passed as proposed, many of these industries will be forced to close, because, with their limited volume and lack of equipment, they cannot market their product at the same price that it is sold by firms with a large volume.

None of those sponsoring the bill and urging its passage has ever had any experience trying to conduct a small business in a small community.

In these small plants the owner works side by side with his employees and in the vast majority of instances pays all the wages he can afford to pay in justice to the business. Proof of this is to be found in the fact that few of them earn incomes much above that of a skilled worker. The sponsors of this bill say they want to catch the big concerns who exploit labor and do not wish to harm small industry. If they are sincere in this, which I personally doubt, they will exempt small plants employing ten or less, from the operation of the bill.

It will be interesting to see how sincere they are.

Washington News

By Congressman Ed Gossett, 13 District of Texas.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 8.—I have just returned from a little surprise birthday party given for Congressman J. J. Mansfield of Texas, affectionately called "Judge" Mansfield. The Judge has represented the 9th District of Texas in the Congress for 15 consecutive terms, or 30 years.

Before coming to Congress he was a county attorney and then a county judge. He has served in public office continuously for about 60 years, and is now 85 years of age. He is one of the most highly respected, best loved members of Congress.

After coming to Congress he suffered an accident and has been in a wheel chair for many years. His memory and mind have not been impaired by age, and he is one of the most mentally alert and active men whom it has been my pleasure to know. He has served longer as Chairman of the House Committee on Rivers and Harbors than any person in the history of the nation. He perhaps knows more about the rivers and harbors of America than any living man. His home town is Columbus, Texas.

I dropped into the House cafeteria with friends this morning for a cup of coffee. The girl at the coffee urns remarked that in the previous two hours she had served more than 56 gallons of this favorite beverage. It appears that Capitol Hill employees real-

In the House Committee on Immigration this week I made a motion to take up my bill, H. R. 1663, to restrict immigration. The motion carried by a vote of 9 to 7. Hearings will start within two weeks. The bill will deny admission to this country to all persons who bore arms against us during World War II, all members of the Fascist and Nazi parties, the Gestapo, Storm Troopers, and auxiliary organizations, and will reduce immigration by 50 per cent for a period of ten years.

About one-third of the people in this country are either foreign-born or one or more of their parents were born abroad. Many of these are among our best citizens. However, it seems to me we should restrict immigration until our so-called "melting pot" has melted and until we have clearly assimilated all those who have arrived in recent years.

It might be interesting to note that the Commissioner of Immigration is an Italian by the name of Ugo Carusi. The Chairman of the House Committee on Immigration is John Lesinski of Michigan, who is Polish.

Persons returning from inspection trips in the Pacific war theaters unanimously agree that Manila, once one of the most beautiful cities in the Orient, is the most devastated of any war-torn city. The Japs did a good job of sabotage and destruction leaving Manila. Building structures of mortar and steel dynamited and the job of cleaning these sites for new construction is a tremendous one. High Commissioner to the Philippines, Paul V. McNutt, is back with plans for assisting the Filipinos. Not only Japs devastated their cities, most of their livestock was and their tools and equipment stolen or destroyed. Their is indeed serious. We are to them complete independence July 4 of this year. Measures now under consideration tend them certain economic advantages in order to aid the habilitation. We will retain navy and naval bases in the islands.

Much interest and discussion going on in Washington concerning atomic bomb experiments to be conducted on some 90 vessels in the far Pacific. Mrs. George Wright has returned from a week's visit with her son, Sgt. Minyard Wright, and family in El Paso. Sgt. Wright is employed in the hospital and postoffice there. He was injured about three years ago in Amarillo and has been in various hospitals but is now on the road to recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stone and three children, Gerald, Patricia and David, and Mrs. Elmer Pitts and daughter, Patsy, of Wichita Falls, visited in the home of Mrs. Madge Johnson on Wednesday of last week. Mrs. Stone is Mrs. Johnson's daughter. The two little boys remained with their grandmother for a longer visit.

Southern Methodist University Receives Gifts of $1,650,000

Two gifts amounting to $1,650,000 to Southern Methodist University were announced at the semi-annual board of trustees meeting February 5.

Mrs. W. W. Fondren, long time benefactor of SMU gave $1,000,000 for the construction of a natural sciences building.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Perkins, of Wichita Falls, two of Methodism's leading philanthropists, gave an additional $650,000 for the Perkins School of Theology at SMU. This gift by the Perkins makes a total of $2,000,000 which they have donated to the school of theology in the past year.

In a letter to the board announcing the gift, Mrs. Fondren said, "In these days of scientific advances, it has seemed to me that our church schools should increase their contributions in this field of human thought, and with this end in view it is with much satisfaction that I am able to advise your board that I am working out a program whereby a gift of $1,000,000 in cash and in property will be made available to Southern Methodist University for use in erection of a new science building on the University campus in Dallas."

The $1,000,000 will be used to house the Fondren School of Science and will include both graduate and college work in the sciences. In 1935, Mr. and Mrs. Fondren gave funds for the Fondren library which was completed in 1940 at an approximate cost of $500,000. Other gifts for scholarships have been made during the years. Mrs. Fondren is a member of the board of trustees of SMU and of Scarritt College of Nashville. She is a member of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, representing the Methodist Church; a member of the general board of hospitals and homes of the Methodist Church in America, and a trustee of the Methodist

State Department of Health Needs Its Own Library

Austin.—The Texas State Department of Health is in need of a library of its own so that all those interested in giving Texans the best possible health service may keep abreast of the advanced ideas in their line of work. Many of the problems encountered in dealing with public health require a great deal of research and information. These books are also needed for use by those interested in health questions and by students.

No money has been appropriated for a library and Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, believes that public spirited citizens, industry and organizations in the State will donate enough books so that the State Department of Health may have a first class library without spending tax money.

Books are needed on the following subjects: Public Health, Medicine, Laboratory Techniques, Nutrition, Pediatrics, Sanitary Engineering, Nursing and all subjects allied to those mentioned.

The Texas Society for Crippled Children has made the first donation of one hundred dollars worth of books, dealing with the crippled child. Some books are needed more than others so anyone wishing to buy books to donate should ask for a list from Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, of those needed most urgently. Books should be sent to the State Department of Health, Austin.

Competitive examinations for positions in the State Department of Health have just been announced by the Merit System Council for the Texas State Department of Health. Examinations are for professional and technical positions, and will be of the unassisted type consisting of an evaluation of training and experience. Veterans preference will be allowed applicants who have been honorably discharged from the United States armed forces and who make a passing score on the examination.

All applications must be mailed before midnight March 1, 1946. Positions for which examinations will be held and their salary ranges are as follows:

Director, Maternal & Child Health; Field Consultant, M. & CH; Field Consultant, Local Health Services; Field Consultant, Venereal Disease (The foregoing must be graduate physicians.); Public Health Dentist; Engineer; Health Education Consultant; Public Health Nursing Consultant; Sanitation Consultant; Field Sanitation Supervisor; Nutrition Consultant; Administrative Assistant; Bacteriologists; Chemists; Entomologists; Immunologists; Serologists; Pharmacists.

Application blanks may be obtained from Russell E. Shrader, Merit System Supervisor, Littlefield Building, Austin, Texas.

March, Field Star in "Tomorrow, the World," at Rialto

Fredric March and Betty Field head a cast in Lester Cowan's "Tomorrow, The World!" the high-tension drama which makes its debut at the Rialto Theatre on Feb. 19. The film is the first in which Mr. March and Miss Field have been co-starred.

As Mike Frame, sympathetic college chemistry professor who is suddenly burdened with a visit from a youth trained in Hitler's Germany, March gives the most powerful performance in his long and distinguished career. An Academy Award winner for his portrayal of the title role in "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," March is called upon in "Tomorrow, The World!" to handle the most delicate acting assignment he has ever faced.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to the friends who were so kind to us in many, many ways during the illness and at the death of our loved one, Mrs. W. E. Robbins. The food sent in, the flowers, the sympathetic words and each kind deed is greatly appreciated. May God bless you.

W. E. Robbins and Daughters,
Mrs. J. N. Ribble and Son,
J. M. Bostick and Family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Perkins have made numerous other gifts to Southern Methodist University including $76,000 for the completion of the Perkins Hall of Administration. $176,164 was given in 1942 for the building of the Joe Perkins Gymnasium. Of the gift of $1,350,000 last year to the school of theology, $550,000 will be used for the construction of a dormitory for single theological students, a dormitory for married theological students and for a chapel. The remainder will be used for an endowment as will the latest gift of $650,000. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins have also made many other gifts to SMU.

Both the Perkins and Mrs. Fondren are well known throughout Methodism for their philanthropy to Methodist institutions.

NOTICE TO FARMERS

I will be terracing in Foard, Knox and Hardeman Counties. Due to the change in construction of terraces, I will be forced to check each farm I terrace to determine the height of terrace your farm requires to meet government standard and price. The price will depend on the fall of your land, as some farms require a 12 1/2 inch terrace in height and others with greater fall run to 16 1/2 inches height.

I will accept government approvals as part pay on any terracing job. I am equipped to complete the job. I appreciate your patronage and hope to make a little money on each job.

LAST CONFERENCE GAME

The Wildcats ended their '46 basketball season last Friday night after losing by a four point margin to Seymour.

The Wildcats couldn't get started playing the kind of ball they had been playing all season.

Cox set the pace for the Panthers with 11 points. Made 10 of the Wildcats' 26 points. Joy tallied 6 points for the Wildcats. Brock made 5. Wallace sacked up 3 points and McBeath made 2.

The Wildcat B squad nosed out the Seymour B squad by a 14-17 count. Cooper was high point man for the Wildcats with 12 of the Wildcats' 14 points.

ARE YOU LED BY A GOAT?

Too much time is spent reading personality improving articles, and too little time is spent practicing what is read or being one's self.

How often we simply do what the rest of the crowd does rather than what we really like or approve. Like sheep we follow the goat who leads, no matter if the leader is intelligent or not. We follow for fear of what the others will think if a spark of individuality shows.

On the other hand, since following has become a fixed habit, one can observe various signs of the personality of a person, even though he dresses and acts exactly like thirty-four other people who in turn dress and act like forty-four others. The boys wear levis, but notice the way different ones wear them. One boy has an untidy disheveled appearance. Another has gleaming boots, clean levis faded to the fashionable shade, clean looking hair that is not buried beneath a thick film of oil, clean teeth and fingernails that show what kind of person the boy is, and a friendly grin that the boys like and the girls love.

Then there is the girl whose moosehorns are never polished from the time they are bought until they are discarded. She also has a disheveled appearance. A wise girl knows the value of a clean, scrubbed look—shiny hair, simple, neat, and appropriate clothes for school. She knows how important it is to speak to all her classmates, not just a few special friends.

Why not dare to be yourself instead of being a counterpart? You have all the necessary qualities—youth, time, and intelligence. Use them.

YOUNG MAN WITH THE HORN

This week we called on the young man with the horn—Miles Neill. He is eighteen, and you know where he will be going soon, but he wants to hang around as a civilian as long as he can. His idea of heaven is to relax with a romantic book and to have some "hot" records furnishing the background. Although he prefers swing music, of course, his favorite song is lovely "Clair de Lune."

Science classes and baseball also rate in his opinion. Ditto for Paulette Goddard. But girls who smoke do not. Steak is his favorite food. His hobby is music.

Volley Ball Girls End Season in Big Way

The Volley Ball Girls made a good beginning and ending of their season as they came out with a victory both times. Friday night they won over the Seymour girls by a nice score.

Those who suited out were De Alva Thomas, Evelyn Barker, Ruth Barker, Martha Schlager, Hazel Marlow, Anna Laura Payne, Mary Jo Short, Kathleen Eddy, and Betty Seale. Four of these girls, De Alva, Hazel, Evelyn and Betty, will not be back to play next year, and we know they will be missed.

THE CAT'S WHISKERS

"Low and Lonely—Sad and Blue"—scuse please—I didn't know I had visitors. As I sit here in my cold prison cell—pardon me, I mean the study hall this morning, I sit with a heavy heart and heavy eyelids. I'm thinking of the basketball game Friday night, which we lost, but let's think of something happier and congratulate the volleyball girls and B string for playing and winning such swell games.

As I look around me, I see many dream-eyed people—take for instance, Martha Johnson. I bet she's thinking about Don. See that guy—yeah Bobby Cooper, trying to make us think he's reading his English, but we knew all along he was thinking about Booty.

Take a look at Betty Seale—bet she's thinking about Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights when she was with Brock.

Hey, just look at Joe Meason. Doris is written all over his face. By the way, did you catch that gleam in Kathy's eye? Must be looking at Danny's senior ring on her finger.

Well—enough for the tears and smiles. Let's get down to business.

Thursday night brought on a trip to Vernon which included Dee, Jenny, Doris, Betty, Jo Ann and Shaney. Say, Betty, you and Doris almost got left, didn't you?

Gerald and Hardy are doing O. K. I hear. Tell us more.

Peggy and Carlos weren't doing bad at all Friday and Saturday nights. Double dating with them were none other than Julia and Kendrick. What about Louis, Julia?

Will you boys of CHS please take notice that one of our little Freshmen girls stays at home by herself? She's blonde and she's short; she's none other than Maggie Eavenson. One at a time, please!

Mary Ruth and Larry weren't doing so bad Saturday night. Booty and Bobby and Joann Nichols and Miles were strictly O. K. Saturday night.

A new romance is in our midst. That one of Janet Roark and Wayne Short. Ain't love grand?

"Shaney" and M. W. and Kathy and Danny were really seen a lot together Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights. Oh, these romances!

Evelyn and Johnny are still "that way."

"Supposing" we talk about Dee and Booger for while. They're a cute couple. Don't you agree?

"Jenny" is still kinda "day dreamin'" over a certain guy. Right, Jenny?

Well, well, all of CHS and especially one certain little blonde was glad to see a certain sailor. Welcome home, Jimmy!

Ann Payne is still "ra-ga" over Bobby Gloyna.

Larry Wood, we wish for the sake of CHS you would get yourself a woman. What about a nice, little blonde from your own community. (hint, hint).

People, I feel a trance coming on, so maybe I'd better stop before I say something I shouldn't. O. K. I remain,

"The Cat's Tail."

SAFETY SLOGANS

It is every bit as necessary to walk safely as it is to drive safely.

The best way to meet the stress of modern business is to keep oneself fit at all times. The first step in keeping fit is to eat right and to get the right kind of exercise. To keep fit, keep well.

The best way to reduce traffic accidents and fatalities in this country is to drive safely and to walk safely. Both are necessary. Both are equally important.

Totalitarian Rule

Pope Pius XII, in his Christmas message, denounced totalitarian rule, and described it as a root of vast human misery. To this statement the American people will heartily agree.

The word "totalitarian" is a long one, and many people may not be clear as to what it means. It might be defined as the idea that the government of a country is all supreme, and that it has complete power over all individuals, and that they have to give up their freedom and rights of individual liberty to this power.

The worst curse of totalitarianism has been that it has driven the people under its rule into wars of conquest. In so far as they had a desire for peace and good will, it was ignored, and they have been called to fight people who wish them no harm. The world has said most emphatically that that kind of rule has brought on the worst disasters the world ever suffered. It is necessary to drive that idea out

"THE HARVEY GIRLS"

MGM's musical romance in Technicolor

Epic of a famous Eating Place! Hearts, Heroism and Happiness in a Harvey House! When the Santa Fe, back in the last century, pushed its rails on out through the West, Fred Harvey followed with "civilized" eating places along the railroad. Waitresses were ladies. Food was good. Harvey Houses along the Santa Fe became a national institution.

Stir up the Harvey House Girls serving beefsteak and coffee in a wild and woolly frontier town, add a handsome Western hero and a crooked Western political boss, season with seven hit songs, including that toot-toot-tootest hit, "On the Archison, Topeka and The Santa Fe," produce it under famous MGM producers, wrap it all up in Technicolor and you have something!

You met her in St. Louis. She made your heart ticktock in "The Clock." Now she'll put your hair in curls in "The Harvey Girls." Who-o-o? Nobody but Judy Garland. Never such a song for Judy to sing as "On the Archison, Topeka and The Santa Fe." Never such a part for Judy to play. She carries coffee—sings songs. She curbs crime. She rates romance—and she hog-ties her hero as the lights go up.

Winningest cast of the West:

Along with Judy you get He-Man JOHN HODIAK.

PRESTON FOSTER as the vicious villain.

Find-of-the-year ANGELA LANSBURY.

RAY BOLGER with the frisky feet.

Dead Pan VIRGINIA O'BRIEN.

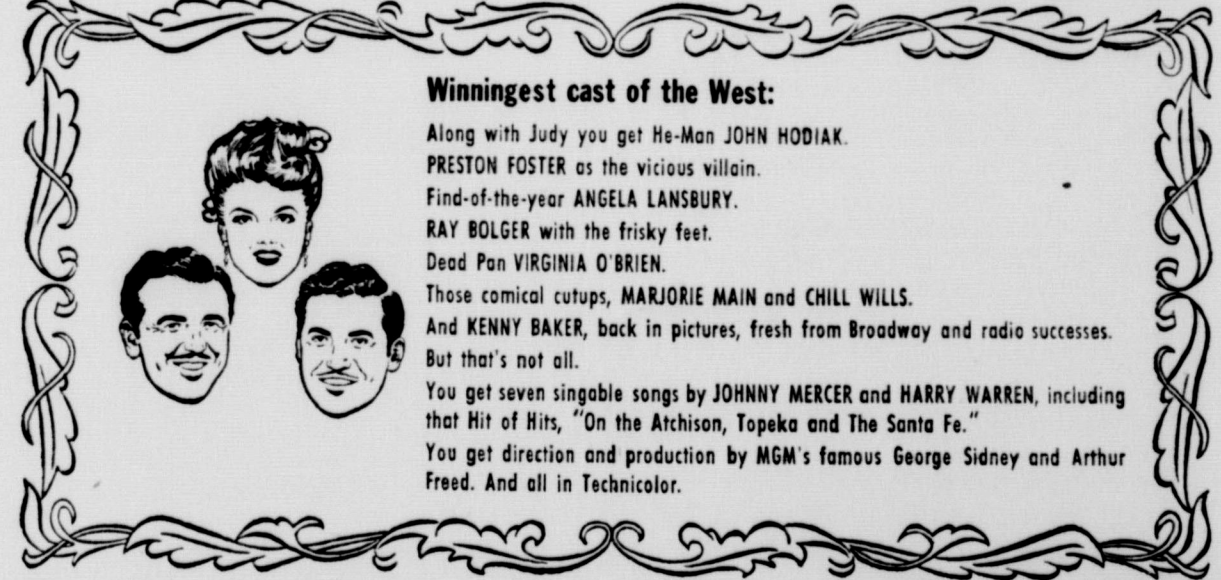

Those comical cutups, MARJORIE MAIN and CHILL WILLS.

And KENNY BAKER, back in pictures, fresh from Broadway and radio successes.

But that's not all.

You get seven singable songs by JOHNNY MERCER and HARRY WARREN, including that Hit of Hits, "On the Archison, Topeka and The Santa Fe."

You get direction and production by MGM's famous George Sidney and Arthur Freed. And all in Technicolor.

Historically "The Harvey Girls" grew up with Santa Fe. Our railroad and their eating houses pushed through the Southwest and West when towns were scarce, times were tough, and a Colt's 45 was a man's standard equipment. Today, the 70-year-old Fred Harvey company—which has been under the management of the same Harvey family for three generations—operates Santa Fe dining cars and the Fred Harvey hotels and restaurants located along the railroad.

"The Harvey Girls" is a delightful and wholesome entertainment the entire family will enjoy. Watch your newspapers for announcement on when "The Harvey Girls" will be in town.

My Is Offering Men Chance Education

Young men enlisting in the Army are establishing an education bank account that amounts to $6,986.67, if married and $5,786.67, if single, when completed a three-year enlistment. Col. Robert L. Hardy, Texas District Recruiting Officer, has revealed.

Under the liberalized bill of Rights, this amounts to accumulating savings of $7 per month for married and $6.67 for single men during their enlistments. That's a fast-growing bank account for educational purposes," Hardy said. "It's astounding when you consider that every married man is building up a fund at the rate of $2,328.89 a year, and $1,928.66 annually for the single."

There probably isn't one young man in this community—or anywhere else—who earns enough to save this much toward a college education," Col. Hardy said. "Thousands of young men throughout the United States, and in the West Texas area are taking advantage of this unidentified opportunity. Particularly, West Texas State Teachers College of Canyon, Texas Tech Lubbock, Amarillo College, in Simons, Abilene Christian and McMurtry of Abilene, San Joaquin College of San Angelo, and these colleges show for spring semester, a remarkable enrollment increase of students who are former service men."

Hardy explained, "The reason for 48 calendar months of education at the university, college or trade school of their choice at government expense, actually amounts to five and a half years of college, enough to acquire two college degrees, and today, as never before, education is essential to the young man who hopes to establish himself in a good-paying profession. This is the scientific age, the era of highly-competitive specialization, in which virtually all of the better occupations require thorough preparation," Col. Hardy pointed out.

And that means college training in most cases, a prolonged education that many young men and parents cannot afford. And these are the very persons who possess outstanding ability, never develop their aptitudes, use of financial circumstances. This opportunity for a government-paid education should be a serious consideration by every young man and parent. It is an opportunity that has never been equaled in the history of our or any other nation," he said.

GI Bill of Rights, recently authorized by congress, allows tuition costs up to $500 per year and monthly allowances of $100 for married men and $65 for single men.

McCarthy, Acting Manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Waco, Texas, which exercises jurisdiction over practically the entire State of Texas, is in receipt of a telegram from General Omar N. Bradley, U. S. Army Administrator of Veterans Affairs, calling attention to a telegram sent to Department Commanders of the American Legion at the direction of John Stelle, saying: "The Veterans Administration is attempting to dismiss from hospitals 46,165 total non-service connected cases."

General Bradley wires that statement is without any foundation in truth. That such statement might cause no unnecessary worry on the part of patients in Veterans Administration hospitals and their loved ones, he has requested that publicity be given to the following letter which he has sent to all members of Congress: "Upon inquiry made of the National Adjutant of the American Legion, the Veterans Administration is informed he has sent telegrams to Legion Department Commanders, quoting the Legions National Commander as saying 'The Veterans Administration is attempting to dismiss from their hospitals 46,165 total non-service connected cases.' The statement is absolutely without foundation in truth. There is great danger that it will cause unnecessary fear and anxiety among sick veterans and their families. At a press conference held on February 1, 1946, I said: 'Under the law, priority must be given to service connected cases. Non-service connected cases will be hospitalized wherever possible. I have not, nor will I, advocate any change in the law which would provide for hospitalization of service connected cases.' That statement still holds good. We are not dismissing non-service connected cases of any character from our hospitals so long as they are in need of hospitalization. . . . This is being sent you for your information that you may reassure any constituents who write to you that there is no basis of fact to this allegation."

Paving For America

The federal income taxes are heavy compared with the amounts people had to pay before World War 2. Before people complain, they should consider what a fortunate thing it is to live in America, and that we have to pay for these blessings.

The country has just passed through a terrific ordeal. It has taken a stupendous amount of money to carry it through. It was threatened with a great peril, and in its extremity it had to turn out a stupendous volume of war production. Its war effort astonished the world, but it took a great many billions to pay for these things. It had to raise and train and equip the greatest armed forces in its history. Now our people have to pay for the great triumph they achieved. The taxes are heavy, but not many care to give up their citizenship and go elsewhere.

The Texas 36th Division is the Army's only division that was composed entirely of men from one state.

Backing Up Good Ideas

In about every town, plenty of good ideas are suggested which would promote progress, but when these ideas are mentioned, objections may be offered. Some say the plan would cost more than it would afford, in spite of the fact that towns of similar resources are doing the same thing.

The obstacles in the way of accomplishing a good idea or a useful program, may not be as serious as some people imagine. There is in most towns a sincere desire for progress and keeping up with the times. If some group suggests a good and practical idea, and will do some work to push it, it will get a lot of support. There is plenty of enthusiasm ready to be harnessed, if people can be found to take the lead.

Poll Taxes Paid in Texas to Oppose Socialized Medicine

Fort Worth.—More than 100,000 poll taxes have been paid this year at the direct solicitation of the physicians of Texas by citizens opposed to socialized medicine and who also favor a constructive medical and public health program in the Texas legislature, so Dr. Holman Taylor, Secretary of the State Medical Association of Texas stated this week.

"The State Medical Association made a strong appeal to its 6,000 members and the members of its Women's Auxiliary to see that all people opposed to the Federal legislation which would destroy the private practice of medicine qualified as voters," Dr. Taylor said.

"The results were most encouraging for we estimate that more than 100,000 voters qualified with the definite purpose of opposing unfriendly and destructive legislation both State and National. The physicians of Texas and their friends are going to take a hand in next summer's elections. They will support Congressmen in every district who are opposed to Socialized medicine and will favor legislators who believe in constructive public health measures."

Home Town Thoughts

It is hardly consistent to find fault because of the lack of progress in the home town, if people are not themselves doing what they could for the good of the community.

People will travel many miles next summer to see famous scenes, when many of them never visited many of the splendid points of interest in Texas.

Weekly Sermon

By the Rev. Will H. Houghton, D. D., President, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

The Star in the East

The stars and their story handed down through the ages tell us that the heavens declare the glory of God. Suggestions of similarity between the Bible, mythology, and ancient traditions, some of them older than the Bible, indicate the probability that God gave a revelation of Himself before the Bible. That revelation became corrupted.

Somewhere in the East students of this primitive revelation learned, apparently from their astronomical studies, of a great star, which, we read in the gospel story, they followed until they bowed before the One who is the bright and morning Star.

In the beginning God said of the stellar and solar world, "Let them be for signs and for seasons." The ancients marked off the seasons by the locations of the stars. It is not at all strange that heavenly lights should be God's messengers, for now the creating God became a redeeming God. He who was known as the living God became known as the loving God. Now the utterance of John 3:16 became a possibility, and a star blazed the trail: "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him, should not perish, but have everlasting life."

The world has called the followers of the star the wise men, and they were wise, indeed. These were about the last seekers after God, historically, for now that God is come in the person of His Son, it is He who does the seeking. "The Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost."

We are told of three gifts the wise men brought—"gold, and frankincense, and myrrh." Myrrh was brought, for there was a life of bitterness and crucifixion ahead. Frankincense indicated resurrection and a seat at the right hand of the Father. Gold promised a scepter, for He is to be the King of kings and Lord of lords.

but it is the means by which the people of a community communicate with the world, and tell what is going on in the home town.

State's Youths Offered Awards in Scholarships

Texas town and country boys and girls are entering competition for college scholarships in a nationwide contest of the National Junior Vegetable Growers Association, Chesley Hines, Mississippi State College extension horticultural specialist, announces.

Outlining the sixth annual vegetable production and marketing project in which awards of $6,000 have been made available by A. & P. Food Stores, Hines said:

"Working with the soil is an education in itself, and the contest is designed to give awards as an incentive to efficient gardening and marketing. Size of project is not a factor, since contestants are scored on efficiency, improvements in methods, leadership in community and school activities, and scores attained in a study course."

Scholarships to be awarded in 1946 include $500 to the national champion, a $200 scholarship for each of the four regional winners, $100 checks to 33 sectional winners and the remainder of the award money in lesser awards within each state. The contest is open to all boys and girls between 12 and 21 years of age.

Marriage of Lt. (jg) A. Y. Olds and Miss Joyce Bumpass of Quanah Solemnized in Church Ceremony Sunday Afternoon

The marriage of Lt. (jg) A. Y. Olds and Miss Joyce Bumpass of Quanah was solemnized at 5 o'clock Sunday evening, Feb. 10, at the First Methodist Church of Quanah. Dr. Stanley Hayne, pastor of the church, read the double ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and close friends. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bumpass and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Nona Olds and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Olds of Crowell.

Vows were recited before the altar which was decorated with tall baskets of white gladioli and palms and fern. The floral appointments were flanked by white tapers in floor standard candelabra. Pews for the families and relatives were marked by white satin ribbon bows.

A musical setting for the marriage service was provided by Miss Frances Lea Harris, who played incidental organ selections and accompaniment for Mrs. Don Bethel, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because" as pre-nuptial music. She also played the traditional wedding marches for the processional and the recessional. Soft strains of "Claire de Lune" were played during the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a slipper satin gown with a curved basque bodice and deep chiffon yoke outlined with wide lace. The long fitted sleeves ended in petal points over the hands and the very full skirt extended into a train. Her fingertip veil was of imported bridal illusion and was held in place by a small bonnet of pleated illusion. Her only jewelry was a diamond set locket, gift of the groom, and she carried a white Bible topped with gardenias from which fell a shower of white ribbons.

Miss Jacqueline Martin was maid of honor to the bride and wore an aqua jersey fitted gown with cap sleeves and mitts to match. She carried a colonial nosegay of pink sweet peas with pink ribbon shower. The candles were lighted by Mrs. J. Y. Hammack, sister of the bride, who wore a pink taffeta dress and white carnation corsage and Miss Margaret Sampley, who wore an ice blue taffeta gown and a pink carnation corsage.

Joe Wallace Beverly of Crowell served the groom as best man and ushers were Bert Ekern, Bill Klepper and Henry Black of Crowell and Lt. J. Y. Hammack of Ft. Sill, Okla.

Following the marriage, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The guests were greeted by the bride and groom and their parents. Miss Margaret Sampley secured the signatures of the guests for the pretty bride's book and directed them into the dining room. Here the table was laid with a white linen and lace cloth. White satin ribbons tied into bows holding white carnations encircled the three-tiered wedding cake which was topped by a miniature bride and groom, the groom dressed in Navy costume. Crystal candelabra holding white tapers completed the table ensemble. After the bride and groom had cut the cake together, Mrs. Bert Ekern of Crowell, cousin of the groom, presided over the cake and Mrs. Charles Bumpass served punch. Others assisting in the dining room were Misses Jacqueline Martin, Frances Lea Harris, Pauline Bumpass, Mrs. J. Y. Hammack and Mrs. Johnny Dobson.

Miss Lula Lee Gregory and Mrs. A. D. Green Jr. were also members of the house party.

After the reception, the couple left for a wedding trip to Seattle, Wash., and to Vancouver, Canada, and will then be at home in Bremerton, Wash., where Lt. Olds is stationed. For going-away the bride chose a two-piece taupe suit with black blouse, hat and accessories. She wore a corsage of white gardenias.

Mrs. Olds graduated from Quanah High School in 1941 and attended Texas Technological College in Lubbock where she was a member of the Freshman Honor Society and Las Chaparritas club. Lt. Olds graduated from Crowell High School in 1941 and received his degree from the University of Texas in June, 1944, and a commission in Naval Reserve from the ROTC there. He belonged to the honorary Freshman Scholastic Fraternity, Phi Beta Sigma, national society fraternity, Beta Theta Pi, and to the Silver Spurs, a service organization. Since leaving college, he has been serving aboard a destroyer, the USS Hudson, in the Pacific. The ship participated in the invasion of Iwo Jima and Okinawa and was damaged at the latter place while on duty as a radar picket. The ship is now undergoing overhaul prior to being put into the inactive reserve fleet at San Diego.

Mrs. Olds was complimented with a number of pre-nuptial social events during the past several weeks in Quanah. The entire wedding party was entertained at a rehearsal dinner party given by Mrs. Hollis Martin and daughter, Miss Jacqueline Martin, on Saturday evening, at the Martin home. A number of relatives and friends from Crowell attended the wedding and reception.

Truscott Couple Married on Feb. 6

Miss Tennie Ola Walker of Truscott was married to Ernest P. Tapp, also of Truscott, on Wednesday evening, February 6, at the home of the pastor of the Baptist Church of Truscott, Rev. Joseph English, the pastor, performed the ceremony. Mrs. English was the only witness.

The bride was attired in an aqua gaberdine street dress, with which she wore black accessories. Her only jewelry was a gold locket, a gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. Tapp graduated from Truscott High School. Mr. Tapp also attended Truscott High School. He recently received his discharge from the Army.

On Sunday, February 10, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Walker, parents of the bride, honored the couple with a wedding dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Tapp, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bryant, Nile Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Newt Bryant and daughters, Mary and Betty, Mrs. Ray Glascock and daughter, Larue, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Collier and daughters, Kynze and Susie, of Benjamin, Louie Miller, Pete Greene, Bill Greene, W. J. Walker, the guests of honor and the host and hostess. Games were played in the afternoon.

Choral Club Met at Luncheon Saturday

Mrs. Grady Magee, chairman of the PTA Choral Club, entertained eight ladies of the club at a luncheon at Mrs. Belle McKown's Saturday, Feb. 9. At the meeting, plans were laid for further work of the club and new officers were elected.

Mrs. Magee was re-elected as chairman, Mrs. Roy Todd was elected as vice chairman, Mrs. H. E. Thomson as secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Verne Walden as attendance chairman and Mrs. William Ricks as pianist.

Those present were Mrs. Van Browning, Mrs. Grady Graves, Mrs. Verne Walden, Mrs. Roy Todd, Mrs. Virgil Smith, Mrs. Harold Wilkinson, Mrs. H. E. Thomson and Mrs. Magee.

Former Resident Weds in Ft. Worth

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Young of Fort Worth, formerly of the Vivian community, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Winnie Fay Young, to S-Sgt. James Braudaway of Fort Worth, on Saturday, Feb. 9, at the home of the parents. The family had resided in Foard County for many years before moving to Fort Worth two years ago.

The couple will make their home in Fort Worth.

PTA Will Meet Tuesday, Feb. 19

The Crowell Parent Teacher Association will have its February meeting next Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 19, and the program will be on observance of Founders' Day. The meeting will be held in the Music room of the Grammar School building.

Mrs. Jim Cates is to be program leader. The feature of the afternoon will be a Founders' Day pageant which will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Harold Wilkinson, High School Speech Instructor and Mrs. Grady Magee, director of the PTA Choral Club.

A social hour will follow the program. Everyone is cordially invited to be present, whether a PTA member or not.

ADELPHIAN CLUB

Mrs. J. W. Bruce was hostess to the Adelpian Club at the club house on Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 6.

Mrs. Merl Kincaid, president, presided during a short business meeting, at which time Mrs. J. A. Stovall was elected to the office of treasurer to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. F. C. Brooks. The president appointed Mrs. Earl Manard, Mrs. Richard Ferguson and Mrs. L. A. Andrews as the calendar committee for the season, 1946-47.

In continuance of the year's theme, "The Far East Draws Near," Mrs. W. B. Tysinger led a program dealing with the country of Siam. She was assisted by Mrs. Verne Walden.

Mrs. Tysinger stated that Siam being situated between India on the west and China on the east, with various small kingdoms lying between, had been a battle ground for many centuries, winning her freedom near the close of the 19th century.

Mrs. Walden gave an interesting discussion of the people, their habits and customs, their culture and arts, their response to modern, western civilization and the progress made by missionaries who have labored in this area.

The hostess was assisted in serving by her daughter, Jane, and by Mrs. M. J. Girsch.

COLUMBIAN CLUB

Mrs. John S. Ray directed the program presented on "Russia at War" at the meeting of the Columbian Club held in the home of Mrs. N. J. Roberts Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 6. Others assisting with the program were Mrs. Charlie Wilson, Mrs. Sam Crews and Miss Elizabeth Elliott.

During the business period conducted by Mrs. Grady Halbert, the club president, Mrs. Halbert was chosen as delegate to the Seventh district meeting of Federated Clubs. Mrs. Pearl Carter was selected as alternate.

In response to roll call, the members gave items of interest on miscellaneous topics.

Describing the people of Russia and the country, Mrs. Ray stated that Russia, like the United States, was a melting pot for races and religions. Russia was pictured as a land and ice-blocked country with Leningrad the window through which the rest of the world was viewed.

In talking about "Personal and Religious Freedom in Russia," Mrs. Wilson pointed out that in spite of the fact that the Bolsheviks closed the churches and converted them into museums and clubs, many people and the peasants were still Christians. It was not until 1943 that Stalin, for political reasons, allowed the churches to be re-organized.

Miss Elliott named as outstanding features of "The Third International" the educational program to eliminate illiteracy with its slogan "Work, Study and Learn" and the eleven hour work day from which only mothers with small children were excused.

Discussing "American-Russian Relations" Mrs. Crews stated that Russia was recognized by the United States in 1933 and there was no jealousy existing between the two countries, as the form of government of each was distasteful to the other.

Coffee, cake and brick ice cream made the tempting refreshment course which was served to eighteen members and two guests, Mrs. W. A. Mussetter of La Grange, Mo., and Mrs. Gordon Johnson of Nebraska.

B. & P. W. CLUB

The Business and Professional Women's Club met in a regular business meeting February 7. Marjorie Ownbey was elected to membership.

The legislation committee was in charge of the program, "Get together to get good laws" was discussed by Jim Lois Bursey, chairman of the committee; "Teen age centers" was given by Elizabeth Elliott; and Blanche Hays discussed "Prostigmim" and "Streptomycin."

Stars Rise to New Heights in MGM's True-To-Life Drama

One of the most gripping motion pictures of the year, with a superb cast headed by Margaret O'Brien and Edward G. Robinson, will come to the Rialto Theatre, Sunday and Monday, Feb. 17-18. Presented by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, it is called "Our Vines Have Tender Grapes."

Both stars rise to new heights in roles far different from those they have portrayed recently. Little Margaret is simply superb as Selma, a seven-year-old Wisconsin farm girl who battles almost single-handedly against the complacency and self-centered attitude of the town's men and women which is inevitably leading to their destruction. Robinson, whose recent roles were in "Double Indemnity" and "Woman in the Window," now plays Margaret's father, a farmer whose first and last devotions are to his own home and his own family.

Seen in solid support of these two are James Craig, as the editor of the local newspaper, a forward-looking young man who is Selma's confident and ally; Frances Gifford, who is beautiful as well as talented, as the new school teacher; and young Jackie "Butch" Jenkins, who is utterly delightful as Selma's five-year-old cousin and playmate.

"Our Vines Have Tender Grapes" is a true-to-life drama, peopled with true-to-life characters. It is full of award-winning performances, full of humanity and of dramatic highlights you will long remember.

Pianist Will Give Program in Vernon

The Community Concert Association of this area announces that Hilde Somer, renowned pianist, will present a program in Vernon on Monday night, Feb. 18, at 8-15 o'clock at the High School auditorium.

GRADUATES AS NURSE

Miss Mary Tamplen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Tamplen, is at home for the week-end after having graduated from the Lubbock Memorial School of Nursing in Lubbock.

Miss Tamplen entered Nursing School in February, 1943, and since that time has continued her work and study. The formal graduation exercises will be held in the First Methodist Church in Lubbock in May. Miss Tamplen has accepted a position as office nurse for Dr. J. H. Stiles, Orthopedic Surgeon, of Lubbock.

SHOWER

Mrs. Richard Ellis was honored at her home on Saturday, Feb. 9, with a miscellaneous shower. She was presented with numerous gifts. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Travis Fox, Mrs. Jabus Harris, Mrs. Frank Love, Miss Betty Love, Mrs. Richard Ellis and children, Mary Sue and Sharon Ann and the following out-of-town guests: Mrs. C. R. Ellis, Mrs. Don Burch and children, Jackie and Joyce, Mrs. Fred Ellis and children, Shirley, Jimmy and Mickey.

GILLILAND H. D. CLUB

Miss Lucille King, Knox County Home Demonstration Agent, gave an interesting demonstration on cleaning upholstered furniture when the Gilliland Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Roy Fox on February 6.

Miss King used the dry soap method of cleaning. One arm chair was cleaned in this manner. She commented that family pictures were in poor taste in the living room which prompted most all the members to say that they must make some changes.

Mrs. W. H. Simmons, club president, was elected as a delegate to the district meeting which will be held in Seymour on April 10.

There were fourteen members present, and three new members were received into the club, Miss Faye Ryder, Miss Edith Ryder and Mrs. Glenn McGuire. Miss Billie Marie Cash was present as a visitor.

The next meeting will be without the agent, in the home of Mrs. W. L. Capps, Wednesday, February 20, at 2 p. m. A lovely refreshment plate was served by the hostess.

CROWELL 4-H CLUB

The Crowell 4-H Club girls and boys met in the Music room on February 8. Jean Hughton called the meeting to order.

Miss Elizabeth Elliott demonstrated how to plant beets and other vegetables. The next meeting will be on February 22 in the music room of the Grammar School.

Choral Club Will Have Practice

Members of the PTA Choral Club are reminded that a practice meeting will be held in the Music room of the Grammar School on Thursday, Feb. 14, at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Each member is asked to bring a sandwich for her supper and 5c

I WISH...

I had the talent to write an advertisement worthy of OUR VINES HAVE TENDER GRAPES!—Shut out on Sunday and Monday, Feb. 17 and 18.

I wish I could write an announcement that would reach every man, woman and child—from 8 to 80—in the area to see the picture.

I honestly believe that would make the entire town feel better—happier, more contented, more neighborly. I wish I could convey in this type the gentle, tender mood of OUR VINES HAVE TENDER GRAPES!

The usual adjectives do not fit this picture. They do not describe the soft, human charm of the school teacher's romance with the country newspaper editor. They can not begin to explain why the farmer (Edward G. Robinson) dreams of a new barn. They do not make you feel the touching love of Margaret O'Brien for her father and her little boy friend, the Jenkins.

No superlatives can express the atmosphere of the 1946 movie—from the moment Margaret kills the squint to the burning of the barn and the startling choral scene.

You MUST see and feel OUR VINES HAVE TENDER GRAPES! Let the spirit of this story enter your head for—and you'll smile and glow for hours afterward.

Yes, I loved the picture and recommend it.
