Lower Bond Requirements Trim City's New Budget

Briefing The 'Newcomer'

Looking Ahead to New Year

School Calendar

Colorado City schools — moving into nine week terms next fall — will have a calendar — in addition to replacing 179 specific working days for the teachers.

Major change in the calendar — in addition to replacing six week terms with nine week periods — will be the inclusion of more days for bad weather.

The schools always allow for possibility of weather — like snow and ice — of closing school for a day or two. But for the 1967-68 school year, the safety days are included in the Easter holiday period, April 11 through April 16.

So, if bad weather is at a minimum and schools are not closed any during the winter, then students and teachers stand to gain an extra Thursday before Easter and an extra Tuesday after Easter for holidays.

Here is the complete 1967-68 calendar as prepared by Supt. James G. McMath's staff and approved this week by school board:

Aug. 12 (Monday) — Final registration for 12th grade students. High school football workouts begin.

Aug. 15 (Tuesday) — Final registration for 11th grade.

Aug. 16 (Wednesday) — Final registration for 10th and 8th grades.

Aug. 17 (Thursday) — Final registration for 9th and 7th grades.

Aug. 24 & 25 (Thursday, Friday) — Registration of students new to Colorado City elementary schools, grades 1 through 6, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Also safety meeting for bus drivers, 4 p.m.

Aug. 28 (Monday) — Teacher orientation.

Aug. 29 (Tuesday) — Room assignment and final registration for grades 1 thru 6. Also teacher orientation continues.

Aug. 30 (Wednesday) — First day of classes for all students. Regular football workouts for Junior High begin.

Sept. 4 (Monday) — Labor Day holidays.

Nov. 23 & 24 (Thursday, Friday) — Thanksgiving holidays.

Dec. 22 - Jan. 2 (Friday thru Tuesday) — Christmas holidays.

Jan. 3 (Wednesday) — First day of classes after Christmas holidays.

March 8 (Friday) — Student holiday. District 4 Texas State Teachers Association meeting in Snyder.

April 11-16 (Thursday thru Tuesday) — Easter holidays. Thursday April 11 and Tuesday April 16 contingent upon not having days classes dismissed for bad weather.

May 19 (Sunday) — Baccalaureate service in Colorado High.

May 21 (Tuesday) — Commencement in Colorado High.

May 22 (Wednesday) — Last day of classes.

May 23 (Thursday) — Work day for teachers. Reporting periods under the new nine-week system.

A reduction in bond requirements will allow the city to pay salaried employees 5 per cent more in the next fiscal year with the same tax rate which has been in effect 17 years.

City Council has approved the budget which goes into effect May 1, as recommended by City Manager Ford Merritt.

Overall expenditures are planned for $451,991.55 in the budget — down $12,909.55 from the current year ending April 30.

"NO INCREASE in the tax rate is proposed in this budget," the city manager told City Council. "The same rate of $1.45 per hundred dollars assessed valuation is proposed."

The 5 percent pay raise for salaried employees is across the board — in all departments and will begin May 1.

This increase in salaries is a main reason why the new budget lists higher expenditures in the general fund.

HERE IS A thumbnail look at four major areas of municipal spending planned for the new fiscal year:

General Fund: $245,103 up $4,925 from current year's $241,078.

General Executive Department: $47,189 up $5,815.23 from current year's $41,373.67.

Water and Sewer Department: $85,130 down $1,820 from current year's $86,950.

Payment of Bonds and Interest: $61,660 down $20,929.88 from current year's $82,589.38.

Total: $139,082 down $12,999.55 from current year's $151,991.55.

IN THE NEW budget the city will be paying $19,000 less in principal on retiring bonded indebtedness — $38,000 instead of current year's $57,000 — and $1,929.88 less in bond interest. The interest payment will be $23,660 compared to $25,589.88 in the current year.

The drop in bond payments comes with paying off the 1961 street improvement bond account. This year's payment amounted to $20.

The improved telecasting by KWAB-TV results from complete new microwave equipment for receiving and transmitting network television, new facilities for closed circuit telecasting, and other new equipment inside the station for quality television.

Placing of Channel 4, KWAB-TV, on 'Able Cable' will remove the Abilene-Sweetwater station from cable television here. Frontier Electronics representatives said the change was made after extensive tests proving the new quality of KWAB-TV and for better picture viewing.

Blowing rain and sand at about the same time caused an automobile accident in Colorado City which resulted in about $1,200 damage but no injuries.

Strong winds the next day brought blowing dust, bringing some damage reports and putting deeper frowns upon the faces of farmers and ranchers.

Browning and Claxton reported the tornado cloud at the same time Scurry County sheriff's officers saw the cloud from their area. Both the local and Scurry officers were on weather watch on State Highway 208 between C. City and Snyder when the tornado — apparently passed between them.

Police Chief Jesse Browning and Sheriff Lewis Claxton spotted a tornado cloud between Colorado and Snyder shortly before 10 p.m. at the height of the turbulence.

RAIN IS LIGHT

Turbulent Winds Blow Light Loss

Just about everything in the way of weather came this way — except enough rain.

There was rain, too, but it amounted to only .31-inch here in Colorado City, according to official measurement on Courthouse lawn.

Over the county the moisture was spotted, but mostly light.

The rain what there was of it, came Wednesday night with thunderstorms which brought lightning, wind and rain.

Police Chief Jesse Browning and Sheriff Lewis Claxton spotted a tornado cloud between Colorado and Snyder shortly before 10 p.m. at the height of the turbulence.

Jailed After Slapping Wife

Husband Breaks Probation

A young husband went to jail here Monday for slapping his wife.

County Judge Elmer Martin revoked a probation for Earl Wayne Walraven, 18, and ordered him to county jail for 40 days.

In addition, the judge told the young man he would have to pay a $50 fine and $28.50 court costs.

Walraven was placed on probation by Judge Elmer Martin March 20 for aggravated assault on his wife.

Last Friday he was arrested by police and charged again with aggravated assault on his wife in violation of terms of his probation.

The probation, as specified by Judge Martin, had prohibited Walraven "from any similar acts and drinking and also specified certain conduct for him."

In the new complaint, County Attorney Frank Gintel charged Walraven with "striking and hitting" his wife "with his hands." In addition, the complaint charged him with "consuming intoxicating liquor" prior to the assault.

Walraven, who is the father of a child, had stayed out until 1 a.m. and drank intoxicants before returning home to hit his wife.

A felony complaint filed in Justice of Peace Leonard Henderson's Precinct 1 Court charged Melvin Hall, 22, with assault with intent to kill.

Hall, who was arrested here on the weekend at 9:30 p.m. in the vicinity of the public housing project in southeast Colorado City, was in jail in lieu of $2,000 bond.

The complaint alleges that Hall "unlawfully and with malice aforethought" made an assault with a pistol upon Herman Lewey "with the intent then and there to murder" Lewey.

The arrest was made after an incident near a rest house, Lewey, who now works in Graham, also was here for a weekend visit.

County Attorney Frank Gintel said a 22 caliber automatic had been taken into custody. No shots were fired in the incident, he said.

CONVERSATION CORNER

Ruth Coffey's

BACK when young swains dressed up for summer in white flannel trousers, navy blue blazers, and stiff straw hats, there came into vogue a word which always began "We'll now sing a song entitled..."

After that opening, almost anything could follow. It was considered very, very funny, funny to announce "We will now sing a song entitled Ma Sleeps Better Since Pa Washed His Feet."

Or "If You Don't Like My Peaches, Don't You Shake My Tree." Those were samples of the sharp wit expressed just before, or just after, the game "You tell 'em" took over.

FOR no reason that would make sense to a serious mind, had to bite my tongue all day Thursday to keep from announcing "We'll now sing a song entitled Sand Gets In Your Eyes."

Sand also gets in your ears, hair, mouth, nose... in every nook and cranny of the house.

Fifty old sayings like "nook and cranny" can be very educational. Just looked up cranny for fun. All it means is small opening, crack or crack.

Anyhow, sand also gets into every conversation all day and all night any time it blows up a storm such as Thursday.

Even steady people like Jay Craddock and nonchalant people like the Record's publisher turned out to be conscientious objectors to sand-storms.

OBJECTION to weather is just about as useless and hopeless a thing as people ever manage to do.

It does, of course, give everybody something to talk about. And it tends to ease the strain of bearing unpleasant weather alone and in silence.

This much I have learned since transferred by honorable matrimony from the tall trees of deep East Texas to the rolling prairies of West Texas, years and years ago: nobody ever gets used to sand storms. NOBODY.

WEATHER of any kind is accepted by the average person in fairly good humor.

... or never snow a fall... it can thunder all night and flash lightning all day... and people pretty much go about their business.

Even frequent weather warnings of possible tornadoes don't always panic people any more since this modern age has made them more or less routine.

It's like Henry Billberry said the other day, "Wish they'd quit predicting so I could just enjoy and be surprised by the weather again."

Most weather is a thing to enjoy... now that air-conditioning and central heat lessens extreme heat and cold. But not sand storms. Let the sand blow hard and streets are deserted, business is almost at a standstill, and everybody you meet looks dejected, bothered and bewildered... and even sad like the little toy dog... "covered with dust."

Who had seen the wind? Never I, at least. But when the sand is blowing, wind is felt by man and beast.

Keeping with the historical theme the speaker read a letter from an early-day surveyor to his wife, recounting Indian attacks.

Earnest also stressed the importance of making wills and spread that portion of his address with reading one capricious will of a wealthy landowner who wrote and re-wrote his will according to his affection... or anger toward members of his family.

Guests for the evening were Mrs. Billie Smith of Montevideo, Mexico, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Berry, and Mr. Earnest.

Members present were Mrs. Maurice Kirschbaum, Mrs. Roy Dazler, Mrs. Jesse L. Jones, Mrs. Keith Miles, Miss Nelda Garrett, Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. Annie Mary, Monahan, Mrs. Rose Dixon, Sr., Mrs. B. J. Lloyd, Mrs. Arnel B. Smith, Mrs. Inez Hook, Mrs. Chester Hart, and Mrs. Margaret Oyler.

"All living things have an almost indestructible drive for survival," she said.

quoting "I am fearfully and wonderfully made," Psalm 139.

"If a drug is harmless it is probably also worthless," Mrs. Bell advised her audience, adding "This is true of many of the vitamins on the market. Few people need more vitamins than are obtainable in daily diets."

At one point in her lecture Mrs. Bell said "Drugs in use today are both a blessing and a curse... a curse through our use and abuse. Antibiotics are a good example."

Mrs. Bell then explored the subject of the virus, the great riddle of biology, bacteria will grow in broth.

but a virus will grow only in living cells... often only in cells of a certain animal or plant.

Properly used drugs are a blessing to mankind. Improperly used they could destroy the human race, she concluded after describing drug LSD. "Man is, indeed, fearfully and wonderfully made."

PTA Will Buy Gym Set For Primary

Primary School children in Colorado City are to have the fun of a giant, nine-piece, indoor-outdoor gymnasium set, thanks to the Primary Parent-Teacher Association.

In a meeting held Tuesday at the school, report of the Project Committee, with Mrs. Wayne Whiteside as chairman was heard and adopted by PTA members.

The gym obstacle course, sturdily built for game-time, will include a tunnel, a fence to climb, low parallel bars, high parallel bars, a horizontal ladder, hurdles, a turning bar, balance beam, and dodge posts.

The play equipment was made possible because Primary PTA staged a smashing success with their annual Halloween carnival at school, last October.

With $350 on hand, Project Committee members, backed by the membership in session, decided to invest $325 in the gym equipment. Total cost of the nine-piece obstacle course is $549.50. Colorado City Independent School District will pay the balance, plus shipping costs.

Remaining $25 in the PTA treasury will be used to buy a coffee urn for Primary School.

The "Game Time" obstacle course is designed to provide safe, body building fun for younger children. Parent Teacher members hope, said Mrs. Evelyn Kelley, public city chairman, "to provide many happy hours for children in the first three grades 167 years to come."

Also approved at the Tuesday PTA meeting was a new slate of officers for the 1967-68 term.

To be installed in May are Mrs. Eddie Braswell, president; Mrs. Corby Houston, first vice-president; Bessie Franks, second vice-president; Mrs. Ann Randle Davis, secretary; Mrs. O. B. Trulock, Jr., treasurer; Mrs. Evelyn Kelley, historian; and Mrs. Bonnie Corbett, parliamentarian.

Attendance prize was won by Mrs. Susan Cramer's room. Social hour hostesses were Mrs. Ford Merritt and Mrs. Gene E. Louder.

MRS. W. H. BUCHANAN

Garden Club Workshop Features Abilene Speaker

The "Do's" workshop for Colorado City Garden Club members got underway Wednesday morning at 9:30 in Community Center.

Guest speaker for the morning session and afternoon hour was Mrs. W. H. Buchanan of Abilene.

At 12 noon, members and guests recessed for a salad and dessert luncheon. Mrs. Ruth Airhart and Mrs. John Brown, hostesses.

Mrs. Roy Davis Cole introduced Mrs. Buchanan, national flower show judge, past president of Abilene Garden Club, past president of Council of Garden Clubs in Abilene, and president of district eight unit, Council of Nationally Accredited Flower Show Judges.

For the morning workshop Mrs. Buchanan discussed "The Art of Flower Arranging."

"Flower arranging is an art," she said, "and can be as simple as daisies in a basket or as painstakingly traditional as a Japanese composition. It can be as dainty as French embroidery, flamboyant as a Flemish painting, or as colorful as a sunset."

A flower arrangement can inspire silence or thunder, tranquility or excitement.

As her address progressed, Mrs. Buchanan advised Garden Club members to see beauty in grasses, weeds, common garden flowers, textures and foliage. She suggested contrast and consistency, a dominant idea, proper distribution of light and dark materials.

The speaker also gave specific details for preparing foliage, berries, ornamental peonies, calla lilies, gourds, squash, pomegranate, driftwood, grasses, cactus. She closed with the "Do's and Don'ts" of preparing a winning entry for a flower show.

Colorado City Garden Club members plan their own Spring Flower Show for Saturday, April 29, in Community Center from 3 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. with the theme to be "Happiness Is..."

Following the workshop day luncheon hour "Horticulture for the Flower Show" was featured with Mrs. Buchanan as speaker director. Each member brought material, container and equipment for making a flower arrangement.

Present for the meeting

Doyce Edwards gave the welcome address. Robert Chambers and Carolyn Bryant reviewed the boys' and girls' win-loss records and points scored by each player. Sam Scroggins, boys' coach, introduced Mr. Villines. Ralph Bryant said the invocation and Maxey Ware, benediction.

AT PRIMARY PTA

Neighborhood Youth Coordinator Speaks

J. M. Lawrence, NYP coordinator of this nine-county area, was guest speaker at the Tuesday afternoon meeting of Primary Parent-Teacher Association.

Introduced by Brooks Teague, Primary School principal, Mr. Lawrence discussed "The Neighborhood Youth Program," a work training program under the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964. It is administered by the Department of Labor with regional office in Dallas, he said.

"The program is designed," said the speaker, "to reduce the rate of high school dropouts by providing jobs in state, city and federal offices, non-profit organizations. It is also designed to give counseling and guidance to keep enrollees in school through their graduation and make them better prepared for employment after graduation."

The speaker explained how the program is carried on. "Each county is designated so many enrollees — for instance, Mitchell County was allotted 16 for this school year," he noted.

Each boy or girl must make application for the program and must be 16 to 21 to qualify, he said. To date, Neighborhood Youth Program has enrolled 850,000 of the 300,000 young people estimated as living with families poverty-stricken (less than $3130 yearly for a family of four.)

Mr. Lawrence then pointed out the fact that the Job Corps and the Neighborhood Youth Program are not the same project, but are two different programs.

"Neighborhood Youth Program is financed 90 percent by the federal government, 10 percent by local government. In this area by the city of Snyder which furnishes office space, equipment and utility bills. City Manager of Snyder signs all checks. Mitchell County Judge Elmer Martin helps with counseling of enrollees," Mr. Lawrence concluded.

Attendance prize was won by Mrs. Susan Cramer's room. Social hour hostesses were Mrs. Ford Merritt and Mrs. Gene E. Louder.

What Color Is The Moon Discussed At Self Culture

Self Culture Study Club members met in the home of Mrs. Leroy Gressett, at Westbrook, Friday afternoon for a program, "Public Affairs."

Mrs. John Brown discussed as her topic, "Reasons for the Space Race. The speaker traced accomplishments in space beginning with the first Sputnik launched by Russia, Oct. 4, 1957, and reviewed the first manned space flights made by Russia's Gagarin and John Glenn, United States astronaut who orbited the earth three times in four hours, 55 minutes.

In conclusion she noted that the tragic explosion which took the lives of three American astronauts has delayed this country's efforts to put a man on the moon.

A paper, prepared by Mrs. Wilfred Fox, was read by Mrs. A. A. Herrington. Subject was "The True Color of the Moon."

The paper described in detail the first black and white photographs of the moon's surface as "Beautiful lunar scope studded with craters and rocks scattered all around."

Man's image of the moon took on a new aspect, the paper pointed out, when for the first time the moon was shown in two-color photographs.

"At last, the true color of the moon can be seen as a rich and varied gray," club members were told as the speaker showed a photograph in color — first ever made of the moon in color.

The paper was climaxed by word pictures of the moon as scientists believe it to be — lunar oceans, mountains, rolling plains, craters, rocks and a soil-like substance with no resemblance to the thick dust layer originally suspected to be there.

Club collect and pledge to the flag were led by Mrs. Sam Armstrong, Mrs. E. L. Tiller presiding.

Texas State Federation of Women's Clubs convention in Dallas May 14 was announced and report of Mitchell County Federation was given by Miss Ruth High-tower and Mrs. R. M. Reed.

The hostess served angel cake, ice cream, and punch to Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Earl Brown, Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Coit Butler, Mrs. Tom Grant, Mrs. Herrington, Mrs. Fox, Miss High-tower, Mrs. A. H. Jackson, Mrs. Leslie Keith, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Tiller, Mrs. Erwin Whitmore, and Mrs. J. L. Strain.

College, Albuquerque, New Mexico, and is employed by Joe Morren, C.P.A., Colorado City.

Bryant attended Howard County Junior College and is presently employed by Montgomery Ward while attending Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene.

Wedding of the betrothed couple has been set for Saturday, June 10, First Baptist Church in Westbrook.
