Marines On Hunt

By ROBERT D. OHMAN
Associated Press Writer

QUANG TRI, Vietnam (AP) — A safari of U. S. Marines and a Vietnamese hunter left today for a jungled mountain valley to kill a tiger that killed a young Marine three weeks ago.

"When a Marine is killed, we'll get to the source, even if the source is a tiger," said Brig. Gen. Robert B. Carney Jr., assistant commander of the 3rd Marine Division and the director of the hunt.

Pfc. Francis Baldino of Ashland, Pa., was the tiger's victim while on an ambush patrol Nov. 14 in the northwest corner of South Vietnam.

The patrol leader told investigators he was only three paces in front of Baldino, a radio operator, when he heard a low growl and a scream. When he turned, Baldino had disappeared, he said.

Baldino's body was found the next morning under some bushes. Other patrols were sent in and saw two tigers but were unable to get a shot at them.

Maj. Gen. Raymond G. Davis, commander of the 3rd Division, ordered Carney to organize a hunt and he called for volunteers who had experience hunting big game.

"We had at least 20 volunteers right away," Carney said, "but none had been on a tiger hunt."

Carney's civil affairs officer found Phan Xuan Sang, a 32-yearold tailor in Quang Tri City and an experienced tiger hunter.

"When they told me about the Marine, I was disturbed," said Sang. "I would like to shoot the tiger that killed him."

He agreed to lead the hunt and refused to accept any pay.

Alaskan Crash Claims 39 Lives

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — A twin-engine propjet airliner crashed into a frozen lake in barren southwest Alaska Monday, killing all 39 persons aboard.

Residents of an Eskimo village near the crash site reported by short wave radio they saw an explosion near the tail of the Wien Consolidated Airlines plane before it spiraled to earth.

Wind gusting to 55 miles per hour and 11 below zero temperature hampered efforts to recover the bodies and start an investigation into the crash. Teams of workers from the Air Force, FAA, National Transportation Safety Board the FBI hoped to reach the scene by helicopter or small plane today.

George Fay of the Federal Aviation Administration in Anchorage confirmed that the reports indicated either an explosion or that the craft was trailing smoke before it hit the frozen ground and careened into the ice of Spotsy Lake.

The FAA said there was no indication of what caused the crash.

The plane was bound from Anchorage, 150 miles northeast, to several small towns on a regularly scheduled flight.

An Air Force helicopter reached the site Monday afternoon, but its commander, Maj. Norman B. Kamhoot of Forsyth, Mont., said fierce winds forced him to take off after 15 minutes on the ground. He said there were no survivors, and that Air Force medics checked the bodies they could find.

Dead were 36 passengers and the crew, Capt. David Stanley, Copilot Jerry Svengard and stewardess Sally Lamar, all of Anchorage. The plane was making a southwestern Alaska swing to Iliamna, Big Mountain, King Salmon and Dillingham.

"The plane was just a hulk," Kamhoot said. "I couldn't tell which end was up, and I couldn't tell that it was an airplane."

Bodies were scattered over the area, he said. Eskimo villagers said they would stay with the wreckage to keep animals away.

The board of directors of Wien Consolidated was discussing the Airline's safety record at a meeting in Seattle, when it got word of the crash. It was the first fatal accident on the line, formed last April in a merger of Wien Airlines and Northern Consolidated.

Ray Peterson, board chairman of Wien said neither of the lines had a fatal accident before the merger. Wien Consolidated has been flying six F27s on intra-Alaska schedules.

The crash site was in frozen marshaland surrounded by mountains, the highest reaching about 3,500 feet.

Bill Kelley, news director of KTVA and KBYR, Anchorage, flew to Iliamna and reported the radio messages from the bush that spoke of the explosion. "The reports came from the vicinity of Pedro Bay, he said.

Saigon Sends 3-Point Plan

By DAVID MASON
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnam's delegation to the Paris peace talks will take along a three point plan, informed government sources said today.

"That's ridiculous, very ridiculous," said a spokesman in Paris for the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front when told the plan's third point called for the NLF and the Viet Cong to rally to the Saigon government.

The other points are:

1. A de-escalation of the fighting, particularly reduction of attacks on South Vietnam's cities and a halt to incidents in the demilitarized zone.

2. A "controlled and guaranteed" withdrawal of North Vietnamese forces, accompanied by a phased cutback in American strength.

"You know very well the position of our delegation," said the NLF spokesman in Paris. "The puppet administration of Saigon represents no one. It is the creation of the United States. The National Liberation Front is the legitimate representative of the South Vietnamese people who are rallying to us at this moment. I find these proposals scarcely realistic."

Meanwhile, an advance party for South Vietnamese President Nguyen Cao Ky began arriving in Paris as U.S. and North Vietnamese negotiators inched toward the opening of the expanded conference.

Maneuvers Denounced

TOKYO (AP) —The Japan Socialist party today denounced maneuvers being carried out by U.S. 7th Fleet warships including the 33,099-ton aircraft carrier Hancock off Korea.

Tomomi Narita, the party chairman, declared the maneuvers create the "danger of a flareup of another Korean conflict similar to the war in Vietnam."

Narita made his declaration in Kobe, while the party in Tokyo urged Prime Minister Eisaku Sato's government to "take steps" and issue a protest demanding U.S. military authorities cancel the naval exercises.

The government, however, said it would not issue a protest note even if U.S. warships entered Japanese territorial waters.

Says Gov. Volpe Will Join Staff

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP) — The Springfield Union said today that Gov. John A. Volpe will be named secretary of transportation by president-elect Richard M. Nixon.

The newspaper said the official announcement will be made "within a few days."

Barry Lockie, Volpe's press secretary, said "We absolutely have no comment on the story whatsoever."

Volpe campaigned for Nixon and was mentioned as a possible vice presidential candidate.

Israeli, Jordanian Guns Duel Again

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Jordan charged today that Israeli planes and artillery killed at least 13 Jordanian civilians and wounded 17 in a heavy attack on Northern Jordan early Tuesday.

It was the second successive night of heavy fighting across the Israeli-Jordanian cease-fire line, and the Jordanian casualties were the largest reported on that front in some months.

Israel charged that Jordanian guns began firing first on agricultural settlements in the Beisan Valley. The Israelis said eight settlements came under fire during an exchange that lasted nearly five hours. A spokesman said the Jordanian barrages caused some damage but no casualties.

Israel confirmed that its air force had gone into action again, as it did during a similar duel Sunday night across the cease-fire line.

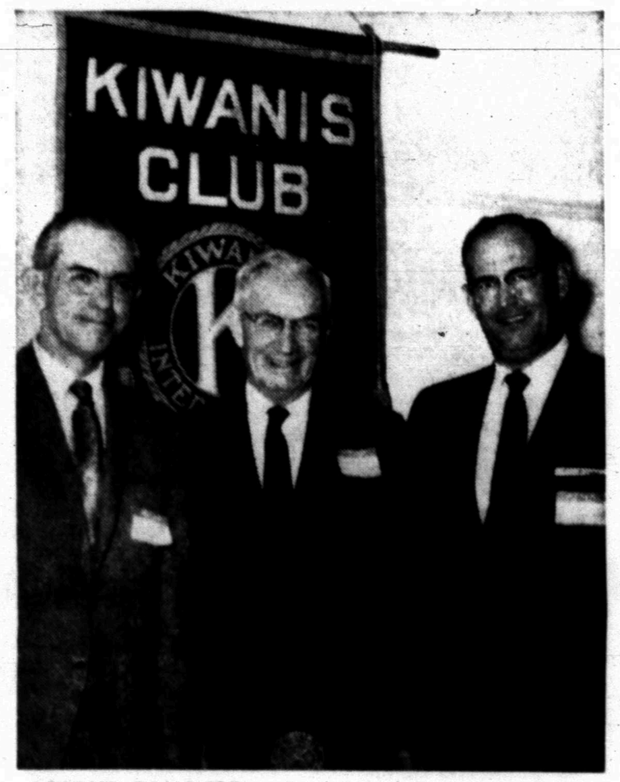

Israeli spokesmen said the targets both nights included batteries of the Iraqi Army division which has been stationed in northern Jordan since the 1967 Arab-Israeli war. Israeli sources said the Iraqi batteries have been strengthened by big new Soviet 122mm guns.

A Jordanian spokesman said Israeli planes bombed the villages of Kafr Assad and Irbid. He said heavy artillery on the Golan Heights, which Israel seized from Syria during the 1967 war fired on both villages and on the villages of Ghum and Summa.

The Jordanian spokesman said most of the victims were at Kafr Assad and that the bombing and shelling destroyed 10 houses at Irbid.

He added that rescue operations were continuing, and the number of casualties might increase.

The Israeli spokesman said the Jordanian gunners fired on the settlements of Hamadiya, Ashdot Yaaqov, Tel Qazir, Degania, Fkar Ruppin, Maoz, Hayim, Neve-Ur and Beit Yosef, a chain extending a distance of 20 miles south of the Sea of Galilee.

ATTEND BANQUET — Included among those present for the annual Kiwanis Installation and Ladies Night Banquet at the Scurry County Coliseum last night, were, from left to right, Joe Williamson, master of ceremonies; Clarence Waterfall, new member of the local Kiwanis Club; and, Paul Cooper of Midland, Lieutenant-Governor of Rotary Division 22.

Kiwanians Install Officers For 1969

Success in life is based more on spiritual values than material values.

That was the message Paul Cooper of Midland, Lieutenant Governor of Division 22, brought to local Kiwanians last night at the Scurry County Coliseum as he installed new officers for 1969.

Incoming officers of the Snyder Kiwanis Club are I. E. Martin, president; A. L. Byrom, first vice-president; Garth Austin, second vice-president; and Roy J. McCloskey, secretary. In making his acceptance speech, Martin challenged Kiwanians to do what they can to help preserve our freedoms.

"The nation was never more in need of citizens who will put Christian precepts into action," he said, urging members to "help justify the sacrifices (of patriots) in the past." Martin concluded his speech with a call for support from the individual members.

The board of directors for 1969 include James Stehley, Jeral Beard, Pat Patterson, Jack Riley, Ford Kenner, Don Adams, Roy Meador and the immediate past president, Arel Faver.

Faver, reviewing past accomplishments of the Club, said he appreciated the "opportunity to work with such fine people." He listed some 16 projects the Club completed or participated in last year. Included among the projects are sponsoring of a boy to Boy's State, support of the American Field Service, contributions to a boy's camp, sponsorship of a Little League baseball team, sponsoring a boy at a retarded children's camp, paying expenses of nine boys at the Boy's Club camp at Lake Thomas, sponsorship of Boy Scout Troop 35 as well as numerous other projects. Faver said he was especially pleased that Kiwanians presented a tape recorder to a blind girl.

The Snyder High School choir, under the direction of J. D. Smith, sang Christmas carols. Guests, including wives of Kiwanians, were introduced by Joe Williamson, who served as Master of Ceremonies.

Hubert Cargile presided over induction ceremonies for a new member, Clarence Waterfall, who moved here recently from Utah. He is a missionary for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

Tomorrow Is First Of Duo Launch

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — America's astronomical observatory, most complex scientific spacecraft yet developed, rockets into orbit early Wednesday in the first of a double-header launching this week.

A European space research organization's first interplanetary satellite is to blast off from a nearby launch pad Thursday to paint the sky in a multicolored study of earth's magnetic field.

Perched atop a powerful Atlas-Centaur rocket, the U.S. craft will give astronomers their first look at thousands of stars not visible on the ground because of the distorting influence on earth's atmosphere.

Packed aboard the spacecraft are 11 telescopes designed to photograph "young" stars which are extremely hot and produce an ultraviolet light filtered out by the atmosphere. Information from these stars may provide scientific clues to the origin of the universe and our own solar system.

The European satellite, named Heos for highly eccentric orbit satellite, is to ride atop a Delta rocket into a lofty orbit that will carry it 138,000 miles above earth, equivalent to two-thirds the distance to the moon.

Among eight experiments is one which requires Heos to release another capsule into orbit about two months after launch. The capsule, containing a mixture of barium and copper oxide chemicals, is to be blown up by a signal from earth to release a cloud of barium ions in earth's magnetic field.

MAN'S WARS PUT ASIDE

Assembly Tackles Pollution

By TOM HOGE
Associated Press Writer

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The General Assembly put aside the issue of man's wars against man today and sought ways of preventing humans from polluting their world into extinction.

It was the first time the question of poisoning the atmosphere and depleting the soil has been taken up in plenary session of the 126-nation body which usually deals with such issues as war and peace.

Sweeden and 50 other nations have introduced a resolution to call a world conference on pollution. Swedish Ambassador Sverker Astrom told a news conference Monday his government believes it is imperative for all U.N. members to take urgent steps to establish a more harmonious environment.

Astrom said his delegation supports the idea of a universal declaration on the protection and betterment of human environment.

"Man depends for his survival on a very complex system of relationships and balances between living organisms, all existing in or on the extremely thin crust of earth or just above it," Astrom said.

The ambassador said this system has a remarkable capacity of renewing itself, but he warned that even "nature's patience has a limit."

Astrom noted that man's environment does not stop at man-made frontiers and hence is a worldwide problem.

"It is urgent to compel governments to take note of this problem and think seriously about it," Astrom said.

If nations were to prepare for a world conference on the issue, he added, they would realize the peril involved in pollution and plunder of air, soil and water resources and do something about it.

"Such action may be postponed," he said, "but the price or postponement will be high."

The U.N. Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) proposed last summer that the general assembly discuss the problem and urged that a world conference be set up. The question has been discussed since then by an intergovernmental conference of experts, sponsored by the U.N. Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO).

DEAR ABBY: I am 30, my wife is 23, and her mother is 39. My mother-in-law is a divorcee and lives with us. My wife works days and I work nights, and my mother-in-law stays home and looks after our two small children. Well my wife is P.G. again, and so is her mother. I am responsible for both, but my wife doesn't know about her mother's condition. My mother-in-law plans to leave town pretty soon and keep this whole situation quiet. She has a sister she can live with in west Texas.

Do you know where I can get a nice, respectable middle-aged woman who will live in and take care of our kiddies?

DEAR GOLDEN: Try the want ads of this newspaper. Also the employment agencies. As a matter of policy I rarely offer advice beyond what is asked for, but boy, do I have some advice for you!

• • •

DEAR ABBY: My husband's family always come by for Thanksgiving dinner because I have the biggest house. I don't need any donations, but everybody brings something toward the meal.

Well, turkey and dressing have always been my speciality, but this year my sister-in-law begged me to let her bring the turkey so like a fool I let her. She is a big show off and just wanted the relatives to know that SHE could make good turkey and dressing, too. Well, hers wasn't as good as mine, but here is my complaint.

When she went home, she took every scrap of left-over turkey and dressing with her! The next day, my family gave me a hard time because we didn't have any left - overs. My question: Just because she brought the bird, do you think she was within her rights to take what was left over home with her?

MAD

DEAR MAD: No. She should have left another kind of bone for your family to pick with you. Next time, fix your own bird, or be prepared to cook your own goose.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: You are usually very fair to service men, so I hope you'll print this.

Some girl wrote in saying her brother, who was in the service in Vietnam, hardly ever wrote home, and their mother went around worried to death all the time.

Well, I'm also a service man away from home, but I write home often altho I sure have to think hard to write a decent letter.

The letters I get from my mother go like this:

"So and so is very sick and isn't expected to live thru the week. So and so died from cancer last Friday. She suffered something awful. She went from 140 to 88 pounds. Grandpa isn't feeling good at all, and he looks bad, and I don't like the way your father looks either. This country is in a mess and it looks like things are going to get worse. Sometimes I wish I could just close my eyes and never wake up. Well, George, write when you get a chance. Love, Mother."

Don't use my name, Abby, but maybe if mothers realized that if they wrote more cheerful letters to their sons in the service, they might hear from them more often. Sincerely,

G. I. GEORGE

Robert Taylor Has Cancer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor Robert Taylor, known for his strikingly good looks and forceful, low-key performance, is suffering from cancer in his right lung, his wife said today.

"He has known of it for some time," added his wife of 14 years, actress Ursula Theiss.

Surgeons discovered the cancer after removing most of Taylor's right lung Oct. 8 because of a fungus infection known as valley fever.

Taylor returned to St. Paul's Hospital Nov. 18 for treatment of an infection that complicated recovery from surgery. Doctors announced only that they had been successful in draining an abscess that formed in the area of surgery.

"It is not a benign cancer, but he is doing well," said Miss Theiss, a Germanborn beauty who wed Taylor in 1954, three years after his divorce from actress Barbara Stanwyck.

Taylor has not been rehospitalized and remained at his 113-acre ranch home near Hollywood in Mandeville Canyon where he raises quarter horses and black chickens called australorps.

Rookie Stan Bahnsen of the New York Yankees won 17 games last season. He lost 12 and in pitching 267 innings he compiled a 2.05 earned run average.

Mills Sees No Extension Of Surcharge

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., in an apparent change in his position of two weeks ago, said Monday it appeared to him there would be no effort made to extend in full the 10 per cent income tax surcharge into 1970.

Mills, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, indicated the White House would not favor an extension in full, but it was not clear whether he referred to President Johnson or President-elect Richard M. Nixon or both. The surcharge expires June 30.

"If the 10 per cent surcharge is continued, as it appears to me it will not be in full because of what President-elect Nixon has said, possibly because of a decision that may be made by the Johnson administration not to recommend continuation of it in the budget—if all these things happen, the Congress wouldn't pass it," Mills said.

"It is utterly impossible for Congress to pass a tax increase or a continuation of a temporary increase without the full support of the very active support of the White House," Mills said. "And if the White House looks with disfavor on it, there will be no effort made probably to continue it."

Mills' remarks reflected a switch in his position of Nov. 10, when he said in Little Rock that he doubted that Congress would go along with Nixon's desire to drop or reduce the surcharge.

To do so, Mills said then, it would be necessary to place "additional, very stringent economies" into effect. He said at that time that the fiscal problems that had led to the adoption of the surcharge had not been cleared up in the year it had been in effect.

Mills said Monday, however, that the latest economic reports showed the impact of the surcharge was "beginning to be felt."

Nixon's campaign position was that the surtax should be ended as soon as the Vietnam war was over. Herb Klein, Nixon's communications aide, said Monday in New York that Nixon's position had not changed, but that some of the campaign positions were "under review."

Jerry Lost In Financial Jungle

BALTIMORE (AP) — Jerry Wolman has court permission again today to try to find his way out of a financial jungle which may require sale of the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League.

When he originally sought to stave off being declared legally bankrupt late last year, Wolman listed debts of more than $70 million.

His financial interests included the Eagles, the new sports arena in Philadelphia, the Connie Mack stadium, cab companies and real estate developments in Pennsylvania, Maryland and Washington, D.C.

Joseph Kafser, U.S. referee in bankruptcy, accepted Monday a compromise plan by Wolman to sell the Eagles if necessary.

He will be required to find a buyer by Dec. 31 but then have until May 1 to cancel the sale if he can produce $34 million another way to satisfy major creditors.

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — Five aquanauts simulating a record 1,000-foot dive into the ocean's depths underwent psychological tests today and passed with flying colors.

"Things are going very well indeed," said Dr. Herbert A. Saltzman, director of Duke University's hyperbaric chamber in which the men are being subjected to pressures equal to those under the sea.

Scientists recited numbers over a speaker system into the chamber and measured how quickly each man could answer "odd" or "even."

The test was carried out as the aquanauts completed their first night of the dive by napping fitfully, joking and occasionally strumming a guitar.

Takes Case For Sirhan

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Grant B. Cooper, a Los Angeles trial lawyer, has taken over the defense of Sirhan Bishara Sirhan.

Cooper said Monday he agreed to take the case shortly after Sirhan was charged with the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

"I was the first one that was asked to defend Sirhan," Cooper said. "I'll be calling the shots but we'll all be working together."

Russell E. Parsons has been handling Sirhan's case. He announced June 19 "A prominent man who has handled many prominent cases" would join the defense when he finished another client's case.

Cooper said Emile Zola Berman of New York also will join the defense.

DuBridge New Nixon Advisor

NEW YORK (AP) — President-elect Richard M. Nixon announced today his appointment of physicist Lee A. DuBridge, president of the California Institute of Technology, to be his policymaking science adviser.

Nixon told reporters that he believed a number of scientists and intellectuals "take a rather dim view of the political operator" and expressed hope that the 67-year-old DuBridge would help bridge that gap.

DuBridge, who had planned to resign his universty post soon—he has been president of Cal Tech since 1946—said, for his own part, that he would try to encourage and increase federally sponsored basic research which he said is in a down trend.

The president-elect said DuBridge, whom he has known for 22 years, has been able to advance his retirement date and will begin immediately working full time for the incoming administration.

He said his new science adviser would go to Washington almost at once to confer with Dr. Donald F. Hornig, who holds the advisory post in the Johnson administration.

Cozzens Follows Life Line

MORNING NOON AND NIGHT. By James Gould Cozzens.

On the surface, a man's life appears as simple as a straight line that runs from birth to death.

Looked at closely, the straight line is seen to bend, double back, come to dead ends and to cross itself as it weaves its complicated pattern. This fascinating complexity is the theme of Cozzens fine, new novel — his first in a decade.

Cozzens concentrates on a single life, that of Henry Worthington. Worthington, well - to - do head of a management consultant firm.

"I have been young and now am old," Worthington begins. "Like the Psalmist long before me I find myself feeling on occasion that what I have to say about life deserves attention. We have, he and I lived. We must have learned. This tells you, to start, why we ought to be, as well as heard, heeded."

And with this, Worthington leads the reader into a compelling journey into time — a journey that moves back to the days before Worthington was born, for to tell his own story properly he must tell the stories of those who begot him. And, in his own time, he also must tell the stories of his wives, his much-married daughter, his parents, and his friends, for without these his own life is not complete.

These multiple journeys, these often-parallel trips, provide an absorbing experience for the reader, one in which the total experience that comprises Henry Worthington is probed, sifted and examined through the powerful writing of a major contemporary novelist.

And when the trip is done, when Worthington has told all he wants to tell, he concludes:

"I look around at the twilight, and I look back on my life. I see how it consists of a succession of acts or happenings related in that they were done by or happened to me and were little governed by logic or demonstrable cause and effect — not that there can be effects without causes; still, in the order, may be something of the Queen of Heart's sentence first, verdict afterward."

Olympic skier Larry Damon, formerly of Burlington, Vt., resides in Norway with his wife, the former Babben Enger, also a skier.

Did Smart Money Foresee Financial Crisis In Europe?

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Did the smart money foresee the political and financial crisis in Europe? You certainly could present a statistical case for saying that at least it sensed the problems.

For the first eight months of the year European investors in American stocks had a net purchase balance of $918,848,000, meaning they bought that much more stock in American corporations than they sold.

This figure, for only the first two-thirds of 1968, is more than double the total for all of 1967, when the trend began. For several years before that Europeans sold more American stock than they purchased.

In 1966, for example, European sales of American stocks resulted in $637,163,000 leaving the country. And in 1965 and 1964 there was a net outflow also. American stocks were not always so much in demand.

There are several possible reasons for the turnabout:

— Better tax treatment for foreigners under a 1966 law.

— The attraction of rising stock prices.

— Increased efforts by American brokers living abroad.

— The growth of "off-shore" mutual funds, which invest in American stocks but which sell their own shares only to foreigners.

In addition, federal authorities suspect that some of the "foreign" purchases really represent American money which has been shipped abroad, especially to Swiss accounts, to avoid taxes.

In the opinion of seasoned analysts of money movements, none of these possibilities rules out the theory that foreigners began buying a couple of years ago to obtain the relative security, politically and financially, of the American stock market.

As one monetary crisis followed another, and political troubles developed too, the possibilities for investors abroad became limited. Paper money was dangerous to hold; gold was safe but offered no interest.

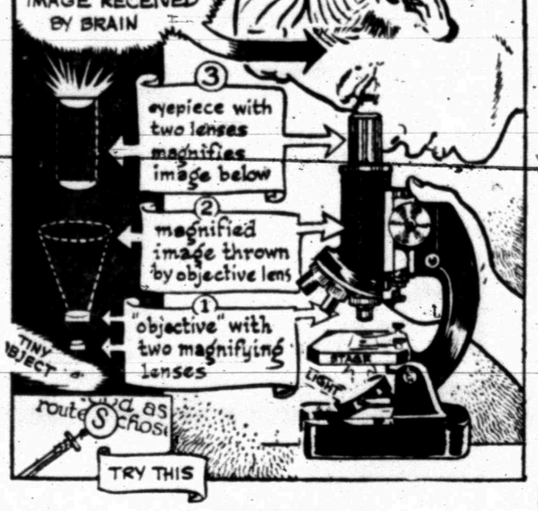

By contrast, American stocks offered protection against inflation, a malady which is even worse in some foreign countries. They provided security from political upheaval. And they offered liquidity, or easy convertibility.

The influx of foreign money has, in fact, been a prop under the stock market all year long, and might very well have been one of the reasons why American stocks rode out the latest monetary crisis.

Surprisingly, France has been one of the strongest believers in American stocks, despite the admonitions of its leaders. For more than a year now, France has had a net purchase balance each month.

In August, the latest month for which figures are available, the French bought $14,726,000 more U.S. stocks than they sold. In July the figure was $18,359,000. In June $11,845,000.

Junior Editors Quiz on MICROSCOPE

QUESTION: How does a microscope work?

ANSWER: Take a bit of fine wire, wrap it around a nail and bend a neat quarter-inch circle beyond the nailhead. Then dip in water (glycerine is even better) and look at the letters on this page through the circle, which will be filled with fluid. The water will curve out on both sides of the wire, making a convex lens. As light rays come through, the curve bends them apart, showing things in a larger size. Microscopes use this same principle, only with more lenses. Notice the part of the microscope marked stage. This has a hole in it, through which light coming from a mirror underneath is reflected upward. Light comes through the tiny object you want to look at. The objective (1) then throws an enlarged image of this (2) up inside the tube. The eyepiece (3) enlarges this image again. Through the miracle of the eye, the image, now greatly enlarged, is passed inside your eyeball and into your brain, letting you see what the minute object on the stage really looks like. Using lenses in the way we have shown was invented by Zacharias Janssen in 1590.

(Lou Ann Faokleman of Edwardsburg, Mich., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

New List Of Phobias For Social Status

B HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — What are you afraid of?

Not long ago we listed here a number of phobias that might add to your social status. A number of prestige seekers, seeking to be afflicted with even rarer panics unknown to their neighbors, asked if there were any more on the list.

Indeed there are. Mankind will never run out of phobias; if he cures an old one, he is bound to find a new one.

Here are a possibilities that may be of interest:

If you dislike animals generally, you are suffering from simple zoophobia. However, if you can't stand touching their fur, you are a doraphobe, and if you are frightened by the teeth of animals you are an odontophobe.

Worried pedestrians can be put into two classes. Are they afraid of automobiles approaching from the left side? They are levophobes. Are they afraid of automobiles coming from the right side? They are dextrophobes.

Many college girls don't like to make a date for the prom too far ahead because they are hopeful some guy they like better will ask them later. This is perhaps the most common ailment of coeds and is scientifically known as merinthophobia, the fear of being bound or tied up.

If a friend tells you something you don't believe and you reply, "I can't swallow that," you are unconsciously perhaps exhibiting a touch of pnigophobia, the fear of choking.

Want a few more panics to pick from? Well, try these on for size:

A henpecked husband who refuses to argue with his wife could be classified as an amychophobe, because he evidences a secret fear of being clawed.

Hate to go out on the streets at night because of the possibility you'll be mugged? That could well mean that you are a harpaxophobic, achluophobic amychophobe. Translated, it says you have a healthy fear of being robbed in the dark and suffering lacerations.

Do you fret because your girl friend is giving you a frigid stare and turned an icy shoulder you've got cheimaphobia, the fear of cold.

Some bashful men hate to see topless waitresses or girls who wear miniskirts too short. They are incipient victims of gymnophobia. They dread seeing naked bodies.

Are you afraid that people will laugh if you sit down at a piano. Put yourself down as a catagelophobe, one who dreads ridicule.

Do all these fears seem dull to you? Do you want to come up with a new and interesting fear that will impress everyone in your block? Well, why not succumb to auroraphobia?

That is the fear of the northern lights—so rare it will even impress your psychiatrist.

Stag Movies Cost Technician His Job

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Showing a racy stag film movie on television cost Robert Allen Veatch, 25, a $500 fine Monday. He was fired as a studio control technician by the TV station.

Veatch, in entering a plea of guilty to violating Federal Communications Commission regulations against transmitting obscene material, said the showing was accidental. The film appeared on KPLM, in the Palm Springs area, last October after the station signed off for the night.

Veatch, of San Bernardino, Calif., told U.S. Dist. Judge Francis C. Whelan he thought all transmission was cut off and the film was only on a studio set for private viewing.

Top Teams Matched In Rose Bowl Tilt

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

That Dream Match—the No. 1 team against the No. 2 outfit in the Rose Bowl—remained a reality today . . . but just barely.

Ohio State solidified its hold on the top spot in The Associated Press' major college football poll, but the Buckeyes' New Year's Day foe, Southern California, had only a precarious hold on second place after last weekend's 21-21 draw with Notre Dame.

The Buckeyes, who wound up their regular season on a 9-0 note Nov. 23, drew 34 of the 39 first place votes in amassing 770 points.

Southern Cal, the No. 1 team for six straight weeks before being displaced by Ohio State a week ago, had 631 points—only 13 more than No. 3 Penn State, 9-0 and Orange Bowl bound.

A week ago, Ohio State held only a 10-point margin over Southern Cal.

Because the race is so tight, the final AP poll of the season won't be released until after the Jan. 1 bowl games.

Georgia, 8-0-2, which polished off arch-rival Georgia Tech 47-8 last weekend, remained fourth, but Texas, 8-1-1, advanced a notch to fifth after routing Texas A&M 35-14 Thanksgiving Day.

Idle Kansas, 9-1, slipped to sixth, while Notre Dame's tie with UCS boosted the Irish, 7-2-1, up two spots to seventh.

Tennessee, 8-1-1, a 10-7 conqueror of stubborn Vanderbilt, was eighth, down one spot; idle Arkansas, 9-1, dropped one place to ninth, and Oklahoma jumped from 11th to 10th on the strength of a 41-7 blasting of Oklahoma State.

Idle Purdue, 8-2, moved from 12th to 11th; Alabama, 8-2, advanced from 15th to 12th following a 24-16 victory over Auburn; idle Michigan, 8-2, remained 13th; idle Oregon State, 7-3, held on to 14th, and surprising Ohio U., 10-0 leaped from 17th to 15th although it did not play.

Rounding out the top 20 were No. 16 Missouri, 7-3; No. 17 Arizona State, 8-2; Houston, down all the way to 18th from 10th after a 40-20 loss to Florida State that lifted the Seminoles from among the also rans into the No. 19 slot, and No. 20 Southern Methodist, a newcomer which finished with a 7-3 record Nov. 26.

Auburn, 18th last week, dropped from the rankings after the loss to Alabama. Also vanishing was Arizona (19th) after suffering a 30-7 drubbing by Arizona State.

1.	Ohio State (34)	9-9	770
2.	So. Calif. (2)	9-0-1	631

Bengals Host Ector In Coliseum Tonight

Snyder's Tigers host Odessa Ector tonight in the Scurry County Coliseum in a basketball tilt that could go into overtime. That's how close the 8 p.m. affray could be. Both teams are 2-0 for the campaign.

Ector has good height and is expected to be a power in District 3-AAAA. The Tigers will be contending for the South Zone championship in District 3-AAA.

"They like to run a fast break and press," declared Coach Ned Underwood of the Tigers, who stated the Panthers will provide the Bengals with their toughest challenge of the season to date.

The Tigers worked out in the Coliseum yesterday in preparation for tonight's clash. Underwood said he probably would go with the same starting alignment that opened against Levelland and Andrews. That would include front court men Benny Ward, Jim Patrick and Wesley Bishop and back court men Jodi Williamson and Bill Hood.

Patrick, Ward, Williamson and Jerry January are all senior lettermen. At 6-3, Patrick is the tallest of the four. Bishop, a sharp shooter from the corner, is a junior. Other lads up from the talented "B" team of a year ago who should see considerable action are Lee McNair, Dennis Carlton, Randy Rushing and Dennis Wolfe. All are juniors except Rushing, who is a senior. Hood also is a senior, but was ineligible for the varsity last year. In addition, sophomore Bruce Almond is ready to help out at guard.

Several of the Tigers are in the 6-0 range, but the team lacks a really tall boy. Underwood is hoping the Tigers can make up in desire what they lack in height.

The program begins at 6:15 p.m. with a tussle between the "B" teams of both schools. The Tiger junior varsity, coached by Jerry McLeod, also won their first two tilts. Probable starters include Almond, if he doesn't see varsity action, along with Ronald Ward, Glen Rambin, Jeff Stewart and Danny Farmer.

Tickets for tonight's program can be purchased at the Coliseum at the rate of 50 cents for students and $1 for adults.

Pete Fines Jets $2,000

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Jets were fined $2,000 Monday by Pro Football Commissioner Pete Rozelle for criticizing game officials in a 43-32 loss Nov. 24 at Oakland.

The fine was one of the largest ever leveled against a club in pro football and, in addition, assistant coach Walt Michaels and safetyman Jim Hudson were fined $150 each. Hudson and defensive tackle John Elliott also incurred automatic $50 fines for being kicked out of the game.

The Jets complained about the officiating after blowing a 32-29 lead when Oakland scored two touchdowns in the final 65 seconds of the American Football League contest. Those 65 seconds also brought complaints from millions of television viewers after NBC cut off the game for a special showing of Heidi, a children's show.

Frogs Find Victory In First Clash

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Defending Southwest Conference basketball champion Texas Christian successfully opened its 1968-69 campaign with an 87-84 victory over Oklahoma City University Monday night.

OCU hit an inept 16.7 per cent from the field in the first half but stormed back in the final period with a zone press. It pulled the losers within two points with 4:19 to play, but the Frogs jumped back in front from that point.

Billy Swanson led TCU with 18 points and James Cash contolled the boards with 20 re-

In other games Texas A&M defeated Southern Mississippi 95-82 in its opener; Vanderbilt nipped Southern Methodist 97-94 and Texas defeated Mississippi 67-63.

The Mustangs didn't go down easily in their lid lifter at Nashville. The lead changed hands 14 times in the second half and the Methodists held a 48-47 lead at intermission.

Bill Voight led SMU with 24 points, followed by Lynn Phillips with 22 and his brother Gene with 21.

Billy Bob Barnett scored 27 points and grabbed 11 rebounds to lead the Aggies, who shot a scorching 54.7 per cent from the field.

Texas trailed 39-27 at the half but zoomed back in the closing stanza and held off a Rebel rally with 19 seconds to play. Wayne Doyal led Texas with 16 points, followed by Billy Black and Kurt Papp with 15 each.

Rice and Baylor, the final two Southwest Conference teams who haven't yet seen action, open tonight. Baylor is hosts to Texas Lutheran and Rice to Texas A&I. SMU plays at Georgia Tech and Arkansas travels to Oklahoma State.

Five Inducted Into Famed Hall

BRECKINRIDGE, Tex. (AP) — Five high school football players from the past were inducted into the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame Monday night.

They were: Boody Johnson, Waco; Leo Baldwin, Wichita Falls; Clarence Smith, Cleburne; Buster Mills, Ranger and Boyce Magness, Breckinridge.

About 375 attended the first annual event. Claude Gilstrap, head football coach and athletic director at the University of Texas at Arlington, was the principal speaker.

Baseball Rules Changes Aired

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Minor issues, such as eliminating last season's inequities between the pitcher and the batter, and major ones, such as the length of players' sideburns, may be decided at baseball's annual winter meetings today.

The major and minor leagues opened their week-long session Monday and, aside from the draft of some marginal players, about the only thing the American and National leagues accomplished was to fall behind schedule.

The rules committee, which will make some important—and some not-so-important—decisions, was to meet Monday, but lasted so long that the committee, some of whose members are general managers, put off its session until today.

At that session, several methods of improving batting averages, which fell to an all-time low last year, will be discussed.

Among these are shrinking the strike zone, lowering the height of the pitchers' mound and strictly enforcing the spitball rule.

Perhaps the most revolutionary method, though, would be an often-mentioned change that would allow a permanent pinch-hitter for the pitchers. This would let a team hit for its pitcher without taking him out of the game.

The general managers recommended changes in the first three categories, but left the pinch-hitter question up to the rules committee for discussion.

Also set for today was a meeting of baseball's ruling executive council to disccuss how to split the money in the intra-league playoffs that will be held for the first time next year and whether to give World Series players a flat fee instead of a cut of the gate.

The Major League Players Association will also begin meeting, with the most pressing issue reported to be a pension plan. But Marvin Miller, director of the group, said Monday the meetings may last for two days with no announcement likely until they conclude.

Ira Wins Two From McCaulley

IRA — The host Bulldogs trounced McCaulley twice here Monday night with the boys winning 67-29 and the girls taking a 51-35 decision.

Three Ira boys were close in the battle for scoring honors. Ricky Hester put in 18 points, Joe Williams meshed 17, and Doug White garnered 16. For McCaulley, Denazios was high with 10 points.

Carolyn Rogers, Ira's speedy little forward, tossed in 20 points, including 14 from the free throw line, to capture scoring honors. Janie Roddy, a freshman, aided the Ira cause with 14 points. Olga Guerra was outstanding for McCaulley, getting 20 points.

Ira will return the favor and visit McCaulley tonight.

IRA BOYS (67) — Sterling 1-1-3; Cox 2-1-5; Hooker 2-4-8; Hester 7-4-18; White 7-2-16; Williams 7-3-17; totals 26-15-67.

Mike Gets Bowl Bid

Mike Patterson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Patterson of Snyder, has been selected to play in the Blue-Gray Bowl game at Mobile, Ala. Dec. 30, according to information received here.

Mike, a senior at Texas Tech, has been an outstanding tackle for the Red Raiders the past three seasons. He played high school football at Winters.

Travis Makes Clean Sweep

Travis Junior High School made a clean sweep here Monday in Tiger gym, winning the 8th and 9th grade basketball tilts with Lamar. The 8th graders triumphed 33-25 while the 9th grade was victorious 49-47.

That 9th grade tussle was close from start to finish. Travis led by only one point, 23-22, at halftime, but the Blue Devils dominated the boards in the third period to jump into a 44-32 lead going into the final frame.

Lamar fought back gallantly, outscoring Travis 15-5 in the last period to pull within two points. The deficit was just too much to overcome.

Travis had an outstanding performance from Jackie Murray, who netted 27 points. Donnie Durst also finished in double figures with 15 points. Two Lamar boys also roped more than 10 points, with David Thompson sinking 25 and Mike Line meshing 11.

Travis 8th grade led all the way, building a 7-3 and 19-13 advantage in the first two periods respectively. Lamar pulled within four points, at 27-23, in the third period, but Travis was equal to the challenge. The young Blue Devils outscored the Texans 6-2 in the last stanza.

Jerry Brooks was the only member of the Travis squad to hit in double figures. He collected 14 points. Jim Waters produced 10 points for Lamar 8th.

Casey Sparks 'Cat Rally

OXFORD, Ohio (AP) — Mike Casey sparked an eight-point Kentucky attack in the final minute Monday night as the Wildcats, ranked third nationally, wore down the scrappy Miami, Ohio, Redskins 86-77 before a capacity crowd of 9,315.

Casey broke lose for two field goals with the clock showing 1:15 left and Kentucky on top 78-76. The Wildcats then added a quick four free throws.

Miami, of the Mid-American Conference, spurred by Frank Lukacs with 20 points and 13 rebounds, battled their way out of a nine-point deficit before the Wildcats poured the final steam.

With 10 minutes left, Kentucky enjoyed a 61-41 lead. But Lukacs came back in the next eight minutes with 10 points.

Kentucky's Dan Issel pumped in a game-high 22 points.

Texas Blue Law Challenged Anew

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Texas Sunday closing law, already declared unconstitutional by a Midland judge, was challenged anew Monday with a ruling by a San Antonio judge and a decision by Fort Worth retailers.

Judge Robert R. Murray of the 45th District Court in San Antonio ruled that the Texas law stopping the sales of some restricted items on both Saturday and Sunday was unconstitutional.

The action came on a temporary injunction hearing requested by Dist. Atty. Jim Barlow against Spartan's Industries, Inc.; Barkers of San Antonio Inc.; Shoppers World of San Antonio, Inc.; and Globe Stores Inc.

Spokesmen for Leonard's Department Store, Mitchell Department Stores and Montgomery Ward & Co. said they have decided to stay open on Sundays in protest of the Saturday-Sunday operation of some discount stores.

One Fort Worth discount store, Clark's, operates its three locations on Saturday and then sells its merchandise to Sundaco Inc. every Sunday. Sunaco operates the store Sunday and then sells back the merchandise Monday and goes dormat for a week.

Charles Wagner of Montgomery Ward said, "What we're trying to do is get some public sympathy to get them (the discount stores) to close so we can all be closed on Sunday.

"We don't believe employes should have to work on Sundays," he said.

Paul Leonard, chairman of the board of Leonard's, said his store and the seven Tarrant County Mitchell stores will be open only the three Sundays preceding Christmas.

Judge Perry D. Pickett of Midland ruled the closing law unconstitutional because of its being "vague." the attorney general's office appealed the ruling and the case was argued Nov. 6, before the Texas Supreme Court.

Wagner said the Montgomery Ward stores would remain open on Sundays until the high court rules.

Sees Opposition To School Plan

AUSTIN (AP) — An educational research leader says "patrons and taxpayers" in Texas' small school districts will be ready when the legislature convenes in January to fight the recommendations of Gov. John Connally's public school study committee.

"Without these reforms the rest of the state faces either an intolerable tax bill or a substantially watered down version of the proposed basic foundation program and its accompanying supplemental aid program," said Glen Ivy, the committee's executive director.

Ivy spoke Monday at the University of Texas' 10th Institute for Tax Assessors.

"Frankly, the legislative program for implementing the recommendations of the governor's committee faces rough sledding," Ivy said. "Patrons and taxpayers in small school districts across the state will be well organized to oppose the organizational and financial reforms.

"Unless the majority of Texas citizens make their wishes known to the Texas Legislature clearly and effectively—we probably face another 20 years of educational mediocrity and its costly by-products of under-educated and underproductive citizens."

Primary recommendations of the committee are: 1) consolidate numerous rural school districts and provide extra help to sparsely populated districts too large to consolidate; 2) expand the foundation school program to include pre-school and summer school instruction, add extra personnel and operating funds and raise salaries; 3) add a program of supplemental state aid to provide extra teachers and operating funds for districts with many educationally handicapped students, as well as a state-guaranteed adult education program.

The program would raise the level of state-supported public school education costs from $840 million this year to $2.1 billion in 1978-79.

"It would be a truly abitious undertaking, but Texas can afford it," Ivy said.

The committee also recommend that new formulas be established to equalize the taxing effort of rural and city school districts.

Ivy said Charles Bartlett, who did the property tax study for the governor's committee, said the condition of most school tax in Texas "just made me sick."

In one such district, he said, the tax assessor-collector's own property was found to be untaxed and his records kept in a paper sack at the hardware store "and they are illegible."

McCarthy Hosts Poets

NEW YORK (AP)—The poetry reading was in the 92nd Street Young Men's and Young Women's Hebrew Association. The poet was Giorgos Seferis of Greece. The host was Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy.

The Wisconsin senator, a poet himself, introduced the Nobel Prize poet and led a discussion after the readings.

"He's doing this with much more eagerness than he did most of his political things," said a friend who traveled with McCarthy during his campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination. "He really cares about this stuff."

Singer Holds Out For More Money

HONOLULU (AP) — Singer Don Ho, who has a 6.25-million 12-year contract with the Duke Kahanamoku night club, has skipped his act for a week in a wage dispute.

Kimo McVay, club owner, said Monday that Ho wanted an extra $5,000 a week, "which he got, but it is impossible for us to continue it."

McVay said, "We had the right to continue this temporary, oral agreement in case the public wouldn't pay the increase in prices, so we had to cancel the raise."

The president of the Musicians Association of Hawaii, I. B. Peterson, said Ho could lose his union card if he refuses to work. Ho was not available for comment.

Fire Meeting Closes To Save Landmark

EASTON, Conn. (AP) — The annual meeting of the Easton Volunteer Fire Department adjourned early Monday night when the 45 members rushed out to save the town's combination general store and post office.

The 150-year-old landmark, the oldest business building in town, was the site of the formation of the fire company nearly 150 years ago. Fire Chief William A. Cross said an electrical short circuit started a fire that caused about $4,000 damage.

Santa and the HIPPIES

By LUCRECE BEALE

"Let's make Santa our prisoner," shouted the hippies.

Synopsis: Santa sends Ding Dong to Hippieville because he behaves so badly at home.

FUN WITH THE HIPPIES

DING DONG stood there looking at the hippies. They hadn't had a bath or changed their clothes in goodness knows how long. But they looked good to Ding Dong because they were having fun.

A red-headed boy with his mouth full of peppermint candy grabbed Ding Dong and shouted, "You're new, aren't you? Well, you're in luck. The action is just starting in the next room!"

He led Ding Dong into a back room where kids were sitting on the floor around a big electric pot. Suddenly the pot began jumping up and down and Ding Dong saw it was a popcorn popper.

Giant puffs of corn exploded over the children who scrambled on the floor and gobbled them up. What they didn't eat they stuffed into Ding Dong who was standing with his mouth hanging open in astonishment.

Someone handed him a pneumatic drill and told him to make some music. He picked up the drill and started busting up the fireplace. The hippies said it was groovy music. But it hurt Ding Dong's ears. He was glad when they took the drill away and gave him a triple pizza to eat.

They gave Ding Dong finger paints and told him to paint a picture. He climbed on the chandelier with his hands. The hippies said it was beautiful; they really did dig the scene.

The paint dripped on Ding Dong's hair and clothes. When someone gave him a quart of ice cream it dripped with paint, too.

But after all, this was really living, so when someone said, "Make up a poem!" he stood up and said:

"I'm a top

"I rockety-rock."

After that he was very sick from all the stuff he had eaten, paint and all. He went to sleep on the kitchen floor. There didn't seem to be any other place to sleep.

The next day the parties started all over again — up and down the block. It was the same thing every day — hippies making music with crazy instruments and popping popcorn and reciting poems and painting pictures on each other when there wasn't anything else to paint on.

After about two weeks Ding Dong decided it might not be such a bad idea to be home again. When he told the hippies this, they said, "Man, you want to go home and take bath and go to bed on time and speak polite and all like that?"

Ding Dong said he certainly didn't want to do that but maybe things at home would be different now.

"They'll never be different," said the red-headed boy. "It's all because of this square Santa Claus who wants everybody to be so good. What we ought to do is get rid of him."

"Yeah!" shouted the hippies.

"We'll make him a prisoner," said the redhead. "Then all the kids in the world can do as they please!"

"Groovy!" screamed the hippies.

The redhead said to Ding Dong "What do you think?"

Ding Dong didn't want to be a spoil sport so he said weakly, "Great!"

The redhead said, "Good. You're appointed."

"Appointed to what?" stammered Ding Dong.

"Appointed to capture Santa Claus!"

Tomorrow: Letter to Santa

TAX ANSWERS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

* * *

Q — Is a gift of food or clothing to a charity deductible? I gave some things to some Boy Scouts when they came through our neighborhood collecting for a local church.

A — Yes, gifts of food, clothing and other property to a charitable group are considered a contribution which may be deducted. The amount of the deduction would be the fair market value of the property donated.

Q — I'm working a few hours a night in a local department store. Is there any way I can stop them from taking Social Security tax out of my pay since my regular job gives me full coverage?

A — No. Each employer is required to withhold Social Security taxes on the first $7,800 of income paid each employee during 1968.

If more than $343.20 is withheld from your wages for Social Security in 1968 because you worked for two or more employers, the excess should be taken as a tax credit on your 1968 income tax return.

Q — I'm a full - time student and don't expect to have a paying job anytime before the end of the year. Can I file my tax return now to get back the money withheld from my paycheck last summer?

A — No, an income tax return cannot be filed until the end of the tax year. Even though you may not work or receive income during the rest of the year, a tax return is required to be filed on the basis of a full tax year.

Q — My income is quite a bit higher than I expected it to be this year. Is it too late to file an estimated tax return?

A — No. If your situation changes after September 1 you should file declaration of estimated tax and make the required payment by January 15. To obtain a copy of an estimated tax declaration send a post card to your District Director and ask for Form 1040ES, Declaration of Estimated Tax for Individuals.

However, if you file your 1968 return and pay in full the balance of tax due by January 31, 1969, you need not file the required declaration or make the January 15 payment.

Q — Does IRS have the legal right to seize somebody's property or bank account for unpaid taxes?

A — Yes, Federal tax law provides several actions that IRS can take to protect the government revenue when a taxpayer refuses to satisfy his obligations voluntarily.

Before enforcement action is taken, a person who owes taxes is given ample opportunity to voluntarily pay his tax liability. A taxpayer is sent several written notices and invited to visit IRS offices to discuss the matter. If in response to any one of these notices the taxpayer cooperates, no enforcement action is taken. Only when all attempts to gain the taxpayer's cooperation in regard to the settlement of his tax liability have failed, does IRS initiate levy action to enforce the law.

Q — I'm having calendars printed up this year and plan to give them to my customers. Is this a deductible business expense?

A — Yes, however, the law limits the amount you may deduct as business gifts to a total of $25 for any one individual during the tax year. For the purposes of this provisions, the customer and his spouse are generally considered one individual.

That means you can't give a $25 gift to a customer and a $25 gift to his wife and be able to deduct them both as a business expense.

Gifts which cost $4 or less are not subject to this $25 rule if your name is clearly and permanently imprinted on them and they are distributed in quantity. This would cover items like the calendars you plan to give away.

Wheeler Honored For Science Contributions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. John A. Wheeler, a physicist at Princeton University, is this year's recipient of the Enrico Fermi Award.

Wheeler was selected by the Atomic Energy Commission for his contributions to nuclear science. He receives $25,000, a gold medal and a citation.

As President Johnson presented the award Monday he said not many persons would be able to understand Wheeler's world of nuclear science.

"But there is one thing all of us—laymen and scientists alike—can understand: It is the idea that the human mind must be free to range as far and as freely as it can—unfettered and unconstrained," the President said.

New Arrests At Strike Bound Plant

LONE STAR, Tex. (AP) — Officers said cars struck or bumped two men outside the main gate of the struck Lone Star Steel Co. plant Monday, and the automobile of a non-striker was rammed by another vehicle.

They made five arrests as a result of the trouble, which occurred during a change of shifts. State police estimated a crowd of 200 had assembled.

Authorities charged two drivers with aggravated assault and the two men they were accused of hitting with violation of the state picketing law.

They reported a non-union worker's car was rammed as he tried to enter the plant grounds and the other driver was taken into custody.

Intermittent violence has occurred since about 2,500 members of the United Steelworkers struck Oct. 15 in a dispute over employe benefits. Lone Star Steel has used supervisory and non-union workers to keep the mill operating.

A company spokesman said tickets smashed the windows of ars entering and leaving the plant Monday and pieces of broken soft drink bottles littered the plant landing field. There was no comment from the union.

Armed Women Take Liquor Store Loot

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Two women, both armed and both about 35, held up a liquor store Monday, took $167 and fled in a pink sedan.

"This is the first time in 27 years as a policeman that I can remember an armed robbery in Memphis in which the robbers were women, said Inspector Ed Huddleston.

Joe Liuzza, 17, turned in one of the best bowling series by a junior during 1968 when he rolled 266, 258 and 280 for an 804 series. He's from Metairie, La.

FLU GERMS ON THE MOON?

Astronauts Innoculated

By PAUL RECER
AP Aerospace Writer

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — The Apollo 8 astronauts received innoculations this week in an effort to keep Hong Kong flu from becoming a stow-away on the Christmas-time flight to the moon.

Officials at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said the prime, back-up and support crews for both Apollo 8 and 9 received innoculations against the Asian 2, or Hong Kong, influenza virus.

A NASA doctor said the Apollo 8 astronauts have also been placed in a program of "limited exposure", but that it's impossible to place them in total isolation before the flight.

Essential ground personnel, such as flight controllers, are also being innoculated against the virus this week.

The doctor said the supply of flu vaccine available to NASA was "extremely limited". Another NASA official said selection of those to receive the flu shots is based on the effect their absence would have on the mission.

Apollo 8, with Air Force Col. Frank Borman, Navy Capt. James Lovell Jr. and Air Force Maj. William A. Anders aboard, is to be launched Dec. 21 for a flight around the moon. The crew is scheduled to circle the moon for 20 hours on Christmas Eve and start for home early Christmas Day.

Apollo 9, planned as an earth orbit mission, is scheduled for the first quarter of 1969, possibly in February.

Head colds which were contracted before launch and developed in space were a problem among the crew of Apollo 7, the highly successful 10-day flight in October. All three of the Apollo 7 astronauts developed colds and clogged ear tubes. Doctors at the time feared they would experience pain during the sudden atmospheric pressure change of their return to earth but they did not.

Dr. Charles Berry, director of medical research and operations, said at the time he was investigating ways to isolate the crews of future flights to assure their not carrying colds into space with them.

Isolation, however, is impossible because of the crew's need to train at several NASA installations just before the flights. A program of limited exposure was initiated, a doctor said. The program also includes what the doctor called "an educational campaign" to keep away from the crew people who are suffering from upper respiratory ailments, or colds.

Dr. Berry said last week medical supplies aboard Apollo 8 have been increased substantially to aid the astronauts in treating themselves should they develop colds in space.

Decongestant pills, which were so limited on Apollo 7 the crew had to hoard them for re-entry, have been doubled on Apollo 8.

The Apollo 8 medical kit, for the first time in any American spaceflight, will also include sleeping pills. Dr. Berry said last week he may order crews in space to take sleeping pills before each rest period. Astronauts on past flights have reported difficulty in sleeping the first and second nights in space.

Concensus Guesses Are Best

The Snyder Daily News' annual football forecast ended last week with the consensus opinion finishing with the highest percentage. Concensus guesses were right .681 per cent of the time. All of which proves that two heads or better than one and three or better than two, etc.

Regular panelist Franklin Pruitt and the guests ended in a tie for the runnerup spot with .658 for the season. Wacil McNair and Buck Sitton also were tied with a .644 mark. Vonnie Black, the other regular panelist finished with a .630. Thus only five percentage points separated the top from the bottom.

Would Repeal Law Calling For Salute

BOSTON (AP) — Every year a 21-gun salute booms out on Boston Common on the Jan. 8 anniversary of the Battle of New Orleans in the War of 1812.

No one knows why, but a special state law requires the annual salute. A bill filed Monday in the legislature would repeal the law. Gen. Joseph M. Ambrose, state adjutant general, said the salutes are costly and ammunition scarce.

First Lady Speaks To Press Club

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson says she hopes the wife of a president will always have the freedom to do what comes naturally.

"It would be very easy for critics and observers to fit one First Lady into a mold created by another, a mold which might prove uncomfortable to everyone," she said Monday night at the Women's National Press Club.

"I would hope our president's wife would always have the freedom to do what comes naturally," she said. "And I have no doubt this would always serve the public good."

Mrs. Johnson received the club's Golden Candlestick award for "her efforts to improve the quality of life for all Americans."
