Newest Minister & Family in town

Rev. Carl Lee, newest minister in Colorado City, arrived here with his family Thursday. Rev. Lee is to start his duties as pastor for Oak Street Baptist Church, 8th and Oak Sts., Sunday. He is a 1959 graduate of Hardin-Simmons University and of Southwestern Theological Seminary in Jan. 1964. He grew up and finished high school in Hobbs, N. M. Mrs. Lee, the former Miss Twila Mae Turner, is a native of Lone Star, finished high school in Odessa and attended Hardin-Simmons. The couple's children are a son Jason, 4, and a daughter Julie, who is 6. The family moved to Oak Street parsonage, 1305 Elm St., from Forsan.

Interstate 20 Frontage Roads Get Official Okay

Federal Agency Head Clarifies Policy Here

Civic leaders in Colorado City who have been pressing for frontage roads on Interstate 20 here have received good news.

First major hurdle—the obtaining of Federal-aid-Interstate fund financing—has been clarified by the office of Rex M. Whitton, Federal Highway Administrator, U. S. Department of Commerce Bureau of Public Roads, Washington D. C.

Until the recent reversal of opinion, Whitton had held firmly to the ruling that Colorado City's frontage (access) roads were not eligible for money from the Federal-aid Interstate fund financing.

Whitton, who had been visited by Congressman George M. Mahon on several occasions concerning the frontage road decision, has now informed Mahon by letter of the revised ruling. Whitton's letter to Mahon credited Texas Highway Department's "additional information" with the favorable decision.

Letter from Whitton to the Congressman of this district reads: "Dear Mr. Mahon—I know you will be glad to be informed, in view of your continued efforts in this respect, that we have now found construction of frontage roads along Interstate Route 20 around Colorado City to be warranted for Federal-aid Interstate fund financing.

"This further and revised determination on our part was made after receipt of additional information from the Texas Highway Department firmly establishing that commitments that these frontage roads would be provided were made prior to passage of the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1956, and that these commitments were considerations in negotiations for acquisition of the Interstate rights-of-way.

"Your continued interest in the development of our highways is very much appreciated.

* * *

Work in Washington, work in Austin and work here in Colorado City toward getting the frontage roads constructed has been in progress for many months.

Among the insistent backers of the project have been business men, Chamber of Commerce committees, the Industrial Team, Inc., town and county officials.

Business men who have been working for frontage roads construction include Les Fuller who owns and operates Truck Town in the Interstate 20 area in question.

Fuller by-passed ordinary routes and took his own campaign for access roads to the President of the United States, Lyndon B. Johnson. Fuller's personal request to the President that something be done about Colorado City's frontage roads, brought an immediate reply from Mr. Johnson.

Letter from the President to Fuller gave full details of progress for the project and details of the new turning point in Federal Highway Administration decision. The letter arrived almost simultaneously with the letter, from Mahon to other frontage road enthusiasts here.

Mahon's letter, enclosing Whitton's letter to him, was addressed to Charles C. Thompson, president of City National Bank and chairman of the Industrial Team; to Elmer Martin, county judge; and J. Ralph Lee who heads the Highway Committee for the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce. Both Thompson and Martin are members of that committee.

Letter from the Congressman to those three local citizens follows: "Dear Friends—It looks as if we have finally made some progress in our efforts to obtain the frontage roads on Interstate 20. I know that you will be pleased as I was to note the attached letter which I have just received from Mr. Whitton, Federal

O. K. TO COUNT

Acreage to Push Cotton Dollars Up

Extra dollars about $255,000 of them for Mitchell County are coming with the next cotton season by way of a total of 2,955.5 acres of extra cotton acreage.

Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County and Community committees have been working full steam ahead this week to parcel out that additional cotton acreage allotment. Notices of additional acres alloted were mailed to Mitchell County cotton farmers Friday.

Total of 1,063.6 acres was awarded to this county by the State ASC committee. It comes from the release of cotton acres by farmers who raise cotton in East and South Texas and who received larger cotton allotments than they cared to plant in the new season.

Another 1,891.9 acres comes from acres released by cotton growers in Mitchell County. ASCS office in Colorado City has been busy in recent days taking notices of released acreage along with requests for more acres.

Actually, Mitchell County cotton producers asked for an additional acreage totaling 7,218.6 acres, which is more than double the acreage available for reapportionment in the county.

Even so, guessing the crop to be planted and harvested on the additional 2,955.5 acres at about half a bale per acre, the release and reapportionment means about $225,000 extra for farmers to put in circulation in Mitchell County. In some cases, irrigated cotton fields will yield considerably more than half a bale per acre, of course.

Add to that, approximately 600 tons of cotton seeds to bring in about $30,000 and there will be a total of at least $255,000 in round new dollars for the county's economy.

Every farmer knows the old maxim "Never count your chickens until they hatch." Counting dollars from this county's major crop is something else, according to Eddie Braswell, ASCS office manager here.

Merchants over the county will benefit, too, along with dealers in gas, electricity and other commodities to be needed for planting, growing and gathering that 2,955.5 acres of new cotton for the county.

J. Jones Last Rites Held Here

Last rites for James H. (Jink) Jones were conducted by Rev. Myron W. Crawford, pastor of Fairview Baptist Church, at 2 p. m. Friday in First Baptist Church here.

Prominent rancher-farmer in the Fairview Community, Jones had lived in this county for the past 55 years. He died, after an illness of several months, at Root Memorial Hospital about 12:55 Wednesday afternoon.

He was born April 13, 1893, in De Leon and moved to Mitchell County in 1909. His marriage to the former Miss Ida Mae Adams took place in Colorado City in 1916.

He was a member of Fairview Baptist Church.

Survivors are his wife, three sons and a daughter. Sons are Raymond Jones of Tucson, Ariz.; Jim H. Jones Jr. and Edward E. Jones both of Colorado City. Mrs. Thomas C. Coles of Post is the daughter.

Four brothers, included two of Colorado City, and four sisters, two of whom live here; 10 grandchildren and 4 great

Tumbleweed Dates

Tumbleweed Festival dates have been set for May 8-9.

Speaker for the traditional Dignitary luncheon in Civic House Friday, May 8, will be Waggoner Carr, attorney-general of the State of Texas.

Don Butler is chairman of the luncheon plans and will announce further details of the program for the May 8 noontime celebration part of the Festival at an early date, he said Saturday.

SHOW HERE APRIL 2

Lions to Sponsor 'Country' Singers

Lions Club members are circling the date of Thursday, April 2, as night of their next and newest money-making project.

With John Harper as chairman of plans and Albert Janke as chairman of ticket sales, Lions Club will present two performances of a Country-style musical show they will sponsor.

Stars to be in Colorado City for the two shows are Lefty Frizzell, who recorded the current number one Country-style song, "Saginaw, Michigan," Tex Ritter, world-famous performer, and Rose Maddox, popular singer.

With Rose of the famous Maddox Brothers and Rose family, will be her brother Cal. The Maddox group is best known, perhaps, for their "Philadelphia Lawyer" record and will be remembered by Country-style music lovers for "May You Never Be Alone," for "Kiss Me Quick and Go," and for "Muleskinner Blues."

Ritter, first of the cowboy singers, star of many old western movies now on late TV show circuits, gained renown in his field for his record "High Noon" which he sang in the movie by that same name. He appeared recently on the Jimmie Dean TV show and does a magnificnet version of Battle Hymn of the Republic," another of the "Gettysburg Address."

Ritter and the other performeres will include comedy acts and music. There will be inspirational numbers. There will be a four-piece western band to accompany the singers. The musical night will be one to entertain families along with all Country music fans.

Shows will be staged in the auditorium at Colorado High School at 7 p. m. and again at 9 p.m. April 2. Tickets to go on sale at the Villa Inn, Will

TEAM OF 12

Wolves Start District Golf Match Contest

Colorado High's golf team was to play its first all-district 3-AAA match at San Angelo Country Club Saturday.

Coached by Caddo Matthews, the team of 12 golfers will play at Snyder Country Club Saturday, March 21, and at Lamesa Country Club on April 4, to complete the district's golf season.

Best team in the district is declared on the basis of the team with the best (lowest) score average for 54 holes of golf with 18 holes played each Saturday by a team of four.

Golfers from Colorado High have played three matches, to date, and have won two out of three of those matches. First match was played at Sweetwater Country Club against the crack Sweetwater team, rated along with Lamesa, as the district's hottest this season. Score for that match was 358 for C-City and 306 for Sweetwater with 4 boys playing 18 holes of golf.

Second game, played at Colorado Country Club against the Lake View team, brought victory to the Colorado High boys who totaled 354 to 398.

Wolf team met Lake View again at Sweetwater Country Club and beat them again by 9 strokes, winding up 350 to Lake View's 359.

Next district match is the one scheduled for the game to be played against Snyder at Snyder.

First team for the Wolves is made up of Mike Mundy, Mike Burson, Reggie Noble and Skip Warren.

Second team players are David Kendrick, Clay Strange, Austin Helm and Wayne Parham.

Singles are Mike Garner, Robert Henderson, Bill Smith and Bill Magee.

Mrs. Darris Egger Resting at Home

Mrs. Darris Egger, wife of the pastor of First Methodist Church here, returned this week to her home. Mrs. Egger recently underwent surgery in a Dallas hospital.

Rev. Egger accompanied his wife to and from Dallas and reports her condition to be excellent. The minister's wife has been ill for a number of weeks.

WEBB AFB OFFICER

Mitchell 4-H Meeting To Hear Student Pilot

Mitchell County Community 4-H Club meeting Monday night at 7:30 in the Medallion Room at Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative, Inc., will feature as speaker Lt. Robert Horning.

Second Lt. Horning, now a student pilot at Webb Air Force Base, is a former 4-H Club boy who spent six months in Turkey as member of the International Farm Youth Exchange.

Horning's home is in Revere, Minnesota. As a boy he lived on a farm and was a member of the 4-H Club in his community. Later when he had completed a degree in agriculture engineering at South Dakota State College, he was named as an exchange student under the Internatonal Farm Youth Exchange Program which is sponsored by the 4-H Club in various states.

The International Farm Youth Program is designed to promote friendship and world peace and provides for sending young people from America to designated countries and bringing exchangees from these other countries to America, for a period of six months.

Thirty youngsters comprised the group from America of which Horning was a member. While in Turkey as an exchangee, he lived with thirteen Turkish families. Mr. Horning will relate these and other experiences at the 4-H Meeting Monday.

President of the Mitchell County Community 4-H Club is Susan Hock. Warren Anderson and Mrs. Sidney Compton are 4-H adult leaders. Extension agent sponsors are Buddy Logsdon and Miss Hallia Wood.

CHS SEASON BEGINS

Twelve Lettermen Back for Baseball

Baseball season for Colorado High School Wolves, coached by Jeff Walker with Howell Vineyard as assistant, began this weekend.

Doubleheader against Big Spring, Saturday at 1 p. m. was first on the baseball calendar for the Wolves. Next Saturday Wolves will travel to Abilene for a game to start at 3:45 p. m.

First home game of the season will be played here Saturday, March 21, and will be doubleheader again against Big Spring boys. Tuesday, March 24, Colorado City will take on Abilene here on Wolf diamond with the game to start at 4 p. m.

Baseball prospects look pretty good for the Wolves this season with 8 starting players back in the game for this year and 4 other letter men returning as team members to give coaches a total of 12 lettermen.

Back as pitcher is Larry Damborski. Other starting men last year who are out for baseball again this season are Danny Kennemur, fielder; Bill McGuire, 1st base; Richard Smith, pitcher; Denzil Pendergrass, pitcher and 3rd base; David Bearden, pitcher; Corky McAdams, fielder; David McKay, shortstop.

Lettermen with '63 experience to offer in '64 are David Turner, fielder; Joe Amesqua, fielder; Ronald Hillhouse, 2nd base; Perry Millsap, catcher

STATE RECORD

Freddie Fox, Star For Broad Jump

Coach Bill Everett's track team is pointing with pride at a Colorado High senior named Freddie Fox, broad-jumper with the best jump in the State of Texas to date.

Fox did a broad jump of ficially measured at 23.2¼ feet during an invitational track meet staged in Fort Stockton.

In Snyder, last weekend, Fox broad-jumped for a fine total of 21.875 feet. The Wolf team's star broad-jumper has an early season record which stacks up favorably with records for college athletes.

Saturday, Coach Everett and his team of 15 were to go to Denver City to another invitation track meet. They will travel to a meet each Saturday until time for the State Track Meet, set for May 8 & 9 in Austin.

Everett also plans to enter his team in the Texas Relays at Austin April 3 & 4.

Five members of the 15-member team are seniors. The other 11 will be back with more experience next season.

In the Snyder meet of the Canyon Reef Relays, the Wolf track team placed 5th in the 880 relays with Terry Redwine, Raymond Kincaid, Pete Garrett and Freddie Fox as relay runners.

Garrett placed 4th in the pole vault with a creditable vault of 11.6 feet.

Wolves placed 7th in competition against 10 other high school track teams. Total score in the Canyon Reef Relays made by Wolves was 9 points at the Snyder meet.

Scout Executives Honored

H. L. JONES—

Give them a Faith to live by

Worship with them this week

Naturally you want them to have all the good things in life . . . a happy home . . . a good education . . . plenty of chances to meet other nice young people. But be sure to give them the most precious gift of all . . . Faith.

The wonderful part is that faith is yours to give . . . no matter who you are, what you do for a living, how much money you have in the bank.

When you worship with your youngsters they see you—the biggest, smartest, most important people in their world—asking God for help, thanking Him for blessings. Then it's clear to them that here is where you find strength and consolation . . . and here they too can bring their problems.

FIND THE STRENGTH FOR YOUR LIFE...

"AN APPLE FOR EVE"

Junior Class Presents Play To Near-Capacity Audience

Local enthusiasts of drama and the comedy received a treat Friday night at the long-awaited performance of the junior class play, "An Apple For Eve," in the auditorium of Colorado City High School.

Approximately an audited number persons attended the production.

The three act play, a farce by Jay Tobias, starred Cal Gervin, Helen May, Pam Pratt, and Myra Robinson. Featured roles were ably portrayed by Judy Wood, Linda Bodine, Reg Noble, Cris Cooper, Sue Coffin, Mike Mundy, Skipper Warren, Martha Sheppard, Don Latimer, and Jim Latham.

Act one opened as Miss Dorinda Apple (Pam Pratt) tells her niece, Eve Langley (Helen May) that she has arranged for her to marry a distant cousin, William Apple, the last remaining male to bear the family name. Eve is furious with another, is furious and refuses. But Aunt Dorinda threatens to disinherit her.

Eve's boyfriend, Johnny Kelso (Cal Gervin), is likewise furious, and follows to Colorado to confront Eve.

Officer Mike McGonigle (Jim Latham) answered the call, accompanied by Chadwick (Don Latimer), the [illegible] of Sally's [illegible] scooter. Harvard refused to prosecute, as his brother had been driving when his head hit the pavement. He turns out to be the man whom Aunt Dorinda had planned to marry many years before. As the play ended, Aunt Dorinda and Johnny Sing, Jim Maggie and Sally's happy too, as Harvard [illegible] his with Peggy. The [illegible] thought she was over him, but [illegible] that Two was carrying and [illegible] of all.

Stage properties were handled by Mrs. Gerald Graves, assisted on the production by Mrs. Cecil Cradduck, Miss Lynn Moore and Lee Ann Wade.

"Young Man, Who Are You?"

Asks Miss Dorinda Apple, played by Pam Pratt, as she is confronted by the illiterate hillbilly with his boots off who claims to be the rich spinster's cousin, Bill Apple. Played by Skipper Warren, the cousin has come in answer to Miss Dorinda's letter, suggesting a marriage between him and her niece, Eve Langley, played by Helen May. The action all took place Friday night during the performance of the annual junior class play, "An Apple For Eve," in the auditorium of the high school.

AT ZETAGATHIAN MEET

School Officials Tell Of Testing Program

Two local school officials presented the program to the regular meeting of the Zetagathian Study Club in Terrace Room of the Baker Hotel.

Brooks Teague, principal of Primary School, and T. D. Wiman, high school counselor, discussed the value of the current testing programs being used in local schools.

Teague explained the testing of pre-school children with reading readiness tests. At the end of each year achievement tests are given. Each test grade is entered on a permanent record which goes with the child throughout his public school years.

Testing programs at junior high and high school were discussed by Wiman. He told of the aptitude and achievement tests given to students in these schools, and also explained the type of college entrance exams which local students take.

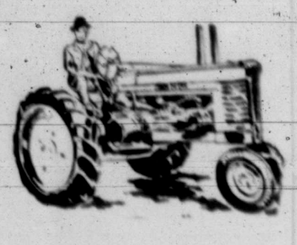

Each speaker illustrated his talk with slides and charts.

Mrs. Bob Reily was hostess for the day. The serving table was accented with an arrangement of spring flowers. Leader for the day was Mrs. J. S. Craddock, Jr.

Mrs. Brooks Teague was a guest of the club. Members present were Mmes. Craddock, Trevor Crawford, Jim Edison, R. F. Fee, Jr., L. S. Girvin, Jr., Larry Kinard, Curtis Latimer, Henry Lewis, Sam L. Majors, Jr., Ray Noble, Reily, Bob Robinson, O. B. Trulock, Jr., Brady Warren, George Witten, Floyd Morris, Robert Aycock, Jr., Don Butler, Warren Anderson, Bob Carver.

TO 1921 STUDY CLUB

Harry Ratliff Talks Of Texas Heritage

"Is Our Heritage Worth Saving" was the topic of the program by Harry Ratliff for the Friday meeting of the 1921 study club.

Ratliff began his talk with a colorful description of the history of Texas. He stressed that those who enjoy this State and national freedom today must guard and preserve its higher standards of moral living by teaching youth in the home and educational institutes to respect, honor and practice the teachings of Jesus Christ.

The code of ethics for the small town or the city is exactly the same, he said, and our youth will pattern their behavior after adult leaders in the community, whether it be good or bad leardership.

Mrs. J. T. Pritchett, program leader for Texas Day, introduced Ratliff, local attorney, following the opening prayer. Meeting was hosted by Mrs. Pete Ainsworth in her home.

Members present at the meeting were Mesms. H. B. Broaddus, Glenn Coon, J. S. Craddock, Doyle Hester, E. S. Jones, Lee Lavendera, P. K. Mackey, Sam L. Majors, Doris Martin, R. P. Price, Pritchett, J. F. Quinney, R. H. Ratliff, V. R. Trulock, Ainsworth.

The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. R. H. Ratliff, Friday, March 20, for a program entitled "Carousel of Fashion."

Kendrick, Bates Listed To Honor Roll

Phillip Lee Bates and Kerry Kendrick have been included on the 2.5 honor roll for the fall semester at North Texas State University, by announcement of J. J. Spurlock, vice president of the school.

The 2.5 listing includes all students whose grade average came midway between an "A" and a "B". An A average is 3.0.

Bates, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bates of Tesco Village, is a junior education major at NTSU, where he is a member of the Industrial Arts Club.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling L. Kendrick, 1416 Dallas, Kendrick is a senior accounting major at the Denton School. He is a member of the Accounting Club and the Marketing Club.

Both students are 1960 graduates of Colorado City High School.

CONVERSATION CORNER

SURE and begorra, 'tis time for the wearin' of the green again! Come Tuesday, 'tis St. Patrick's Day . . . and the bit of Irish in us will likely do a bit of a jig.

That little bit of Irish was a gift from the family side of Daddy—who was blue-eyed, ruddy-cheeked, high-tempered, sweet-tongued and music-lovin' enough to tickle the shamrock right where it grows.

What time he wasn't singin', he was more than likely fightin' mad—usually at all Republicans everywhere along with the telephone company which he couldn't reach long distance.

* * *

ACTUALLY, we find the bit of the Irish in the veins enchanting. Even though diluted with other bits of "Turrin" heritage and, ever more, with a long line of just plain longtime American.

'Tis the Irish in people which makes for laughter. For the Kissin' of the blarney stone. For a half-way belief in elves and fairies past the age of reason. For the love of a rousin' fight. For most of the jokes you ever heard.

And for much of the sweetest music ever sung.

* * *

REMEMBER, anybody, the lyrics of "Where the River Shannon Flows?" Or any of these . . . Mother Machree . . . Wearin' of the Green . . . Sure a Little Bit of Heaven . . . and the one John McCormack used to sing so well, O, Little Mother of Mine?

Then there were the comical ones like "Where'd You Get That Face?" And there was, always, "I'll Take You Home Again Kathleen," which echoes the sound of crying.

* * *

ST. PATRICK'S Day is a day for tipping shillelaghs across the green . . . a day for remembering the Saint who drove the snakes away from the Emerald Isle.

It might well be, too, a day to chase away all the snakes from your own personal Ire-land. (That's a pun in case nobody notices.)

There are snakes and snakes in anybody's private Ire-land. They vary in size, color and danger signals. Some are poisonous. Others just obnoxious. Or maybe scarey.

* * *

THERE is that reptile known as hate . . . another called jealousy, which nibbles away the heart and mind and self-assurance in little chunks.

There is prejudice. Narrow-mindedness. Lack of understanding. Envy. Fear. Gossip.

Negative qualities are like snakes sunning on the rock of a hardened heart. The littler ones go by names like sarcasm, natural-born rudeness, anger, selfishness and deceit.

Even the littler ones wiggle inside and warp . . . Hiding the beauty of the world.

THE WAY to serenity of spirit is uphill all the way.

Nobody ever arrives there without stumbling some. But once the snakes are driven out of your own Ire-land, you can see to climb and there is a rest spot waiting at the summit.

Sure and begorra, nearly anybody can get worse and meaner as the years come and go. It takes a stout heart—and maybe a stout stick—to improve your chances of turning into a white-haired Saint, some day.

It also may take the luck of the Irish . . . and a little bit of Heaven worn inside, all day . . . everyday.

SEEN LATELYS were Betty and Frank Ginzel and their son Carl, along with the district attorney, Weldon Kirk of Sweetwater . . . Buddy Logsdon enroute to purchase a birthday gift for his Mrs. . . . Eddie Braswell, who seems to love cotton allotments like a blood brother.

In for a breezy little visit was our Emily Dulaney Barry (Mrs. Tom) saying her husband still wears a cast on the leg he fractured about six weeks ago. And saying son Pat still pursues his journalism career—via job on an Austin daily and via University of Texas.

FAVORITE fan mail came from Houston and was signed R. A. Shepherd (Bob) of Vincent, Elkins, Weems & Searls, Attorneys at Law, First City National Bank Building, Houston.

After some delightful opening remarks we intend to hold over a husband named Bill, because they began "I can't remember whether you are married or single . . ." Robert went on to write "Mrs. Shepherd and I saw your write-up of Houston in your column and we were very disappointed that you had not called us while you were here and let us help introduce you to Houston."

Mrs. Shepherd, he writes, "feels exactly the way you do about the traffic. It does not bother me in the slightest, but it is something you have to live with if you stay in Houston."

* * *

IT WAS Robert Shepherd and his brother Jim who starred in last year's Tumbleweed Dignitary luncheon along with their attractive wives, you'll remember. Both the Shepherds, prominent lawyers of Houston grew up in C City.

It's simply not smart to argue with an admittedly brilliant attorney about anything, so we won't. Can't resist adding, though, that we were more than willing to live with Houston's traffic! We were plumb anxious to live with it. It just began to look doubtful, every once in a while, that's what.

VOICES via tell-em-phone enjoyed have been those of Margie Carlock Martin (Mrs. Felix) chief clerk at Root Memorial . . . Virginia Warren (Mrs. Pete) whose voice added a gay note to a very routine day.

Add to those, the softly pleasant voice of Juanita Schafer (Mrs. Louis) over at the police station . . . Nancy Cooper (Mrs. Mickey) of the county attorney's office . . . Frances Kiker (Mrs. Doyle) . . . and a cute little high school gal named Myrna Feaster . . . and you've got a fair sample of how come working a news beat is sometimes a downright pleasure.

HAND shakingest bunch of boys in town are the Lions. Know, why? Fifth man who gets "shook" gets a dollar! That makes everybody pretty friendly.

It never works for feminine guests . . . but this is the hand that shook the hand (all for free) of Bob Reily, John Harper, Charlie Godwin, Jeric Steakley, Albert Janke, Ken Looney, Bill Randle, Luke Nichols, Ralph Lee, Earl Brock.

It's also the hand that shook the hand of Frank Wilson (guest) and Jeff Taylor . . . Ira Uttz, who's headed for the Dakotas . . . Bob Ratliff, Tandy Curlee . . . Weldon Kirk, the D. A., guest of Leon Yeager, the C. O. P. . . . Montie Hardegree of the Court House crew.

Saw Max and Philip Berman, Joe Earnest, Jay Craddock, Bill Rhode, George Womack, Roy Bates, Jimmie Harrison and Avaline Hallmark, too.

COME to think of it, ole Bob Reily, Lions Club president and our own host for the luncheon visit, was a wearin' of the green, Friday. He had a green carnation in his lapel.

Sure and begorra, the boy's bound to be Irish, 'himsilf!' He's got the rollicking ways, the flair for a rhyme, the love of fun. And he's got the name. Reckon that makes him an Irish Republican?
