By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
PORT EVERGLADES, Fla., March 29 (AP)—President Roosevelt summoned Americans of every political creed tonight to stand united in a determination that "with all our resources and all our power, we shall help those who block the dictators in their march toward domination of the world." Arising from an "alliance of dictator nations," the president warned, is a threat to America, its union, its democracy, and its cardinal principles of freedom—a threat which "draws more tightly around us day by day."

But, speaking to fellow-Democrats attending party rallies throughout the country, Mr. Roosevelt declared that to meet the threat nearly all Americans had risen above considerations of party politics and had remained devoted to country and democratic ideals.

The chief executive spoke by radio from the officers' wardroom of the White House Yacht Potomac, to "Jackson Day" dinners held to raise money for the Democratic party.

"The enemies of democracy, Mr. Roosevelt asserted, are 'trying to destroy our unity,' using as their chief weapon a propaganda of increasing quantity and violence. Agents of Nazism and their unwitting helpers, he said, have attempted to exploit the natural love of Americans for peace.

"They have represented themselves as pacifists," he said, "when actually they are serving the most brutal warmongers of all time. They have preached 'peace' in the same way the devil can quote scripture."

"Of course, the purpose of all this has been to spread the terror among us. The effect of it has been only to fortify our determination."

Five Counties, Including Gray, Sign Contracts For Food Stamp Plan

System To Go In Operation Here May 1

County Government To Put Up $4,000 To Finance Deal

Gray county will have the food stamp plan in operation by May 1, as the result of the county commissioners yesterday voting to sign a contract between the county and the Surplus Marketing Administration.

This action follows the area meeting at which five counties were represented, held Friday in Childress, and arranged by Rep. Eugene Worley, 18th congressional district.

There were 75 in all attending the all-day session, with Wheeler, Briscoe, Donley, and Collingsworth, in addition to Gray, being the counties represented. All these counties signed for the plan. H. DeWayne Kresser, Surplus Marketing Administration agent, conducted the meeting held at the Childress Chamber of Commerce.

Meeting Called

To arrange for the cooperation of wholesale and retail grocers, bakers, produce and vegetable dealers in the plan for Gray county, a meeting of these businessmen has been called for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning at the BCD committee room in the city hall by the food stamp plan committee of the chamber of commerce.

At the meeting the official agreements are to be presented for signatures. This form is not to be confused with the petitions food dealers over the county have already made, asking that the plan be put into operation.

Plan Defined

The food stamp plan is one for the disposal of surplus farm products to those with insufficient budgets. It increases buying power,

Amarilloans Fill House At Premiere

AMARILLO, March 29 (AP)—First-nighters in cowboy boots and Saturday night movie frocks sat stiffly, then giggled, then shook the house with applause tonight at the premiere of New York Busboy George Baton's play, "Treat Her Gently."

The lusty cowtown had shown little interest in Ruth Chatterton, star of the play. There were few advance reservations. Without excitement, the folks simply strolled their wonted way to the theater, shelled out and filled the house.

But the town was willing to be thrilled. Mrs. Chatterton received a huge ovation—and a Panhandle ovation is designed to carry counts. Then the folks settled down to see what would happen.

It was a sophisticated comedy, but it soon had the crowd laughing.

It was a new experience all around: Amarillo's first premiere and the first time Broadwayites ever initiated a play by an unknown playwright in a cow town.

The busboy-author, who telegraphed Producer Harold J. Kennedy that he was hitchhiking to Amarillo for the opening, didn't arrive. His last message was from Baltimore, Md.

From here the show goes to Wichita Falls, Fort Worth, Dallas and other Texas cities on its way back east.

AT 103RD BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Here are pictured the relatives who attended the 103rd birthday celebration of T. L. Lovelace, the oldest person in the Panhandle. These are by no means all of "Dad" Lovelace's descendants, but they are all who attended the celebration at the Church of the Nazarene last Monday at McLean. The upper picture shows the relatives congregated outside the church just before more than 200 persons, including persons over 60 years of age, enjoyed a basket lunch inside the church. The middle picture shows "Dad" and four great-grandchildren: Drusilla Gibbs, Grant Craven Pierce, Thelma Rose and Jaynelle Hadlock. The lower photo shows

Mr. Lovelace cast his first vote for Abraham Lincoln. He fought in the Union army during the War Between the States, although his father and brother fought for the Confederacy. He is a native of East Tennessee. After the war he came to Arkansas, then to Fannin county, then to West Texas. He has lived at Memphis, Hedley, McLean, Shamrock.

Kelley, Matthews Make Public Statement On School Policies

Belief in businesslike conduct of school affairs, better salaries for teachers, modern schools in regard to health and sanitation, and a system of planning that will make Pampa's schools among the best in the state were set forth Saturday by W. D. Kelley, drilling contractor and oil operator, and Harry V. Matthews, superintendent of the Stanolind Oil & Gas Co., as their motives for becoming candidates for school trustees in the Pampa Independent school election next Saturday.

Mr. Kelley and Mr. Matthews are two of six candidates whose names will be on the ballot when independent school district voters go to the polling place next week-end.

The other four candidates are Mack Graham, Texas Company wholesale agent; Irvin Cole, of the Cole Hatchery; H. W. Waters, insurance broker, and C. E. Ward, Ward's cabinet shop.

The joint statement released Saturday said:

Humble Posts Raises For Panhandle

Other Purchasers Due To Follow Suit Next Week

Dollar oil returned to the Panhandle for the first time in several years when the Humble Oil & Refining company announced that it had set a single price for Panhandle crude oil effective Saturday morning. Top price under the new schedule was set at $1.02 a barrel for oil of 40 gravity and above.

No other company had followed the raise yesterday but other purchasers are expected to follow Humble on Monday.

The new schedule announced by Humble marked the first time that a single price has been adopted for the Panhandle. In the past Gray and Wheeler county oil brought a better price than oil from other areas.

Price range for Panhandle crude begins at 60 cents a barrel for 20 gravity oil with a two-cent raise for each point of gravity up to 40 and above.

At the present time Gray and Wheeler county oil is bringing 96 cents for sweet oil of 40 gravity and above while Carson and Hutchinson county oil brings 91 cents for sour oil of 40 gravity and above. That means that Gray and Wheeler county oil has been hiked six cents a barrel and Carson and Hutchinson county oil 11 cents a barrel under the Humble scale.

Last change in price of Panhandle oil was made two years ago last month when a 10-cent reduction was posted. Humble, however, tried to establish a new scale paying more for oil above 40 gravity but when none of the other companies followed the Humble company abandoned its plan.

Rumor of a hike in the price of crude has been heard for several months.

Panhandle oil allowable for April, exclusive of the Osborne area in Wheeler county and Moore county, is 88,125 barrels, with four shut-down days.

Restaurateur Sees Hitler Mask And Dies Of Fright

PITTSBURGH, March 29 (AP)—Dr. Louis G. Ignelzi said tonight that Carlo Colombo, 45, well known Pittsburgh restaurateur, died Monday of fright induced by a rubber mask of Adolf Hitler worn by a merrymaker in his Shady-side Cafe.

"He had an extensive Jewish clientele and feared that such an incident would cause a boycott," the physician said. "He was on the verge of delirium from drinking, or it wouldn't have hit him so hard."

Colombo was a messenger for Marshal Pietro Badoglio, former chief of the Italian general staff, during the World War.

The incident occurred last Saturday night. Dr. Ignelzi said that after the masquerader saluted in Nazi fashion, Colombo was taken with convulsions. He quoted the restaurateur as saying before he died:

"When I saw the Hitler mask my fright became uncontrollable and I saw ruin staring me in the face."

Five counties in the 18th congressional district which have been trying for months to secure the Food Stamp program, and especially those people with insufficient budgets who will share in the plan were today saying "Thank you!" to Rep. now add to their diet with foods purchased in stores through use of food stamps.

For example, the warehouse may have a big stock of potatoes at one time and nothing else. The relief client is enabled to get the kind of foods he wants through use of the stamps, instead of being limited to potatoes.

There are 600 counties in the United States now using the food stamp plan. In the Panhandle, these are Hall, Childress, Potter, Hale, and Lubbock. The station-wide program in Oklahoma and Arkansas. In Childress county 96 per cent of those eligible for stamps are buying them and 70 per cent of the total case load took advantage of the plan in Childress county in February.

Seven Groups Eligible
County Judge Sherman White estimates that 750 families in Gray county will be eligible to share in the food stamp plan's benefits.

These are divided into seven classes: old age assistance, station-wide assistance cases receiving public aid in the nature of all purpose cash grants or food vouchers from local welfare agencies; security wage (WPA) workers actually assigned to WPA projects; persons certified to WPA but not assigned to a Works Projects administration project; commodity only, those cases receiving assistance in terms of surplus commodities only and not certified under any other category of relief; Farm Security grant cases, being FSA subsistence grant cases eligible under the agreement worked out between the Surplus Marketing administration and the Farm Security administration.

Other groups later may be declared eligible to participate provided the basis of participation meets the approval of the SMA, and providing a method of certifying and arranging through the designated central certifying agency for the county.

Agencies Participating
The SMA, Gray county and Texas department of public welfare, are the three units uniting to make the plan possible here.
Central certifying agency will be the Gray county welfare office, branch of the department of public welfare. It will assume the responsibility for determining the eligibility of all cases for participation in the food stamp program, in accordance with the SMA's requirements.

Sponsoring Agency
Designated as the issuing agency for Gray county is the county government which will provide for operation of the food stamp office, responsible for the issuance of food order stamps.

The county commissioners yesterday took no action toward a location for the office, but the county is required to provide office space, including necessary furniture, equipment, utilities, sales booths, counters, and office supplies.

What Office Will Do
Work of the issuing office will be to receive, distribute, and account for all food order stamps and to make regular and special reports to the Surplus Marketing administration.

Besides providing office space and equipment, the county is required to put in an adequate safe or vault for the proper storage and safeguarding of the revolving fund, cash and food order stamps, together with necessary insurance against loss by fire, theft, water, wind, or other extraordinary cause.

Personnel of Office
Furthermore, the county shall provide the supervisory personnel. This will include:

A non-relief, full-time and properly qualified person to perform the duties of issuing officer to be in charge of the issuing office and to act as agent for the sponsoring agencies in dealing with the SMA.
This officer shall be a capable executive type individual, familiar with welfare administration and with accounting practices. He shall be bonded by the sponsors for not less than $5,000.

Two full-time, non-relief clerical assistants, one to serve as an assistant to the issuing officer, and one to assist in the county welfare office.

It is understood that the WPA will furnish a sufficient number of security wage workers as clerical personnel for the stamp issuing office insofar as such workers are available for assignment.

At the county commissioners meeting Saturday, it was suggested that one officer and one assistant would be all that is necessary for the present. Assignment of an NYA worker, with extra compensation after the regular NYA monthly hours are worked, was mentioned as a means of making a plimenting fund.

To start the plan also requires a revolving fund. For Gray county this sum is $4,000. The cities of Pampa and McLean some time ago agreed to put up this amount between them for the fund, later to be reimbursed by the county.

For the county the money put into the revolving fund is to be returned when the food stamp plan is discontinued.

Reason for the two cities putting up the money in the first place was that the county did not want to establish the revolving fund, until a bill granting such authority to counties had passed in the legislature. The measure is now in the house.

While other counties have gone ahead with the stamp plan, the local county government withheld its action on the stand that in a strict legal sense it did not have the authority.

When this situation developed, city governments temporarily filled the breach in order to lay the groundwork for the plan and get it off to as fast a start as possible, if the program was adopted.

Two Kinds of Stamps
An intricate schedule is provided for the issuance of stamps to the various classes of eligibles. To take one example, a relief family with 3 persons. Their income is from $32 to $30 a month. They would be required, if they join the plan to spend $16 a month on food stamps. The maximum is $18.
From the issuing office they buy the stamps, which are in denominations of 25 cents.

For each $1 worth of orange stamps, the agency issues 50 cents worth of blue stamps.

The stamps are redeemable at the grocery stores joining in the program. Money paid for the stamps is sent by the issuing office to the regional headquarters at Dallas.

Food dealers receiving the stamps turn them in to the bank, which gets its money from the SMA. All Gray county banks have already agreed to cooperate in the program.

Blue stamps are used in purchasing foods on an approved list of the Surplus Marketing administration furnished to stores operating under the plan.

In Childress county in February there were $7,928 in orange stamps and $4,634 in blue stamps issued.

Confers With DPW
Gray county commissioners conferred with area 31 department of public welfare workers on the plan yesterday afternoon, on the occasion of the regular departmental monthly staff meeting.

Garret Reeves, BCD manager, and one of those from Pampa who attended the five-county meeting in Childress Friday, met with the commission Saturday morning.
Both Pampa and McLean were represented at the Childress meeting. Present from McLean were M. D. Bentley, Clifford Allison, and R. T. Dickinson.

KPDN Radio Chat

By BILL BROWNE

The reason that "The Heart of Martha Blair" has not been broadcast by KPDN for a week now is that just when Martha was about to crash in her airplane, which was headed for Dallas and the iron lung which would save the life of her son, Donald—the script writer and the production director of the play were called urgently to New York for permanent assignment there.

This ultra-dramatic production was re-broadcast by KPDN, originating in the studios of WKY in Oklahoma City. As far as officials at KPDN know, no warning of the sudden discontinuance of "The Heart of Martha Blair" was given ahead of time by WKY. Consequently it was as much a surprise to them as to you listeners when last Monday lulling piano music came on the air quite oblivious to Martha's predicament in that airplane as it hurtled toward the ground. Well, it'll be good sport for you in your imagination to tie all the loose ends together.

There was poor Donald Blair dying in a hospital for lack of an iron lung. There was Martha's little foundling baby still in the hands of kidnappers who were even considering his murder. And there was Elliot Blair, Martha's husband, in the state penitentiary working on the invention of something that was going to be of tremendous value to his country. And there was the ruthless criminal Louie Bourne, also in the pen, befriending Elliot so as to accomplish some end we listeners had every reason to believe was evil.
So we're just as broken up about it as you are.

Well, the frequency change went through all right before you turned on your radio yesterday morning. KPDN was at 1340 instead of 1310 on your dial. Now, on a good many dials there are no such numbers. If your dial reads 130, then you're supposed to find KPDN at 131. If your dial reads 13, then tune KPDN now at 13.4.

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock a few hardy listeners heard the note of "The Staff Frolic," justly dubbed the world's worst radio program. You are invited to make suggestions as to how the program could be made worse. The staff feels satisfied that is impossible, but invites your suggestions.

"There'll Be Some Changes Made." How true those lyrics proved to be in KPDN's "All Request Poll" of the most popular tunes of the day, with all the mentioned tunes leading all the rest as the number one favorite of KPDN's Radio Audience. The collegiate flavor of "You Made a Touchdown in My Heart" won radio listeners to the extent of number two position. And "You Walk By," than which there is no more beautiful, was in third place. The catchy lyrics of "G'Bye Now" were good for fourth place. And "So Sweet" climbed from the comparatively 'unknowns' to fifth place in your "Top Tune Parade." These are the "Top Tunes of the Day" which you will hear over KPDN on the program of that title at 2:45 this afternoon.

Dolomite Oil Company To Drill Well One Mile South Of Pampa

Wildcat Test Announced In Twitty Area

The Dolomite Oil company will attempt to open up new oil production territory south of Pampa with its test on the G. Cole estate in section 104, block 4, I&GN survey, located less than a mile south of the Pampa city limits. The company is owned by trustees of the Sand Springs Orphan Home at Sand Springs, Okla.

Recently the company drilled a well in section 88, block 3, I&GN survey, located a mile and a quarter south of Pampa good for 225 barrels. It opened up new territory. Their new test is three-quarters of a mile northwest of the other well. It is a half mile east of nearest production on the Texas company Barrett lease and a half mile north of production on the Cree and Hoover company Haggard lease. There is no production north or east.

Another wildcat was announced last week when the Alma Oil company staked a location on the J. A. Welch land in section 7, block A-8, H&GN survey, Wheeler county. The location is two miles west of the town of Twitty. Only production anywhere in the area is a half mile southwest of Twitty where Skelly Oil company and Penleton and Vaughn have 20-barrel wells.

A test was drilled a half mile south of the Alma location and production was gauged at 70 barrels but after producing a short time the pay disappeared and the hole was abandoned.

Sixteen new locations were staked in the Panhandle field last week, hiking the total for the year to 187. Nine of the new locations were made in Gray county, three in Carson county and two each in Wheeler and Hutchinson counties. Coronado Oil company announced four new locations on their Jackson lease 10 miles south of Pampa in Gray county.

The Rock Oil company, which drilled the closest well to the Pampa city limits, on the west, made a location for its No. 2 Vickers estate, a north offset to their first well which gauged 193 barrels. The location is north and parallel to the city limits. No further locations can be made east, toward Pampa, until owners of lots in the city pool them for drilling purposes.

Ten new wells were gauged during the week, all for oil. New oil totaled 2,182 barrels. A total of 118 wells have been completed in the Panhandle this year.

Completions by counties follow:

In Gray County

Warner Oil Co., No. 4 Morse "A," section 68, block 25, H&GN survey, gauged 23 barrels.

Magnolia Petroleum Co., No. 43 Fee Land 227, section 11, block 3, I&GN survey, tested 118 barrels.

King Oil Co., No. 9 S. Vollmert, section 140, block 3, I&GN survey, was given a potential of 216 barrels.

Southern Petroleum Exploration Co., No. 13 M. Vaughn, section 138, block 3, I&GN survey, gauged 155 barrels.

Phillips Petroleum Co., No. 6 B. McKinney, section 137, block 3, I&GN survey, tested 77 barrels.

In Hutchinson County

J. M. Huber Corp., No. 13 Weatherly, section 26, block Y, AB survey, was given a potential of 77 barrels.

Benouline Oil Co., No. 9 Starnes, section 24, block M-23, TORR survey, gauged 221 barrels.

Holmes and Holmes No. 2 E. J. Moore, section 125, block 4, I&GN survey, gauged 321 barrels.

Revival To Begin This Morning At First Christian

Members of the first Christian church will join today in launching their pre-Easter program with a "home-forces" revival. Much enthusiasm has been reported by officials of the church and there is reason to believe it will be one of the most successful evangelistic campaigns in the church's history.

The Rev. B. A. Norris will deliver all the sermons during the two-weeks meeting. His subjects today are: "The Church" and "Household Conversion." He will speak on the following topics throughout the week: "Christian Baptism," "The Faith That Saves," "Every Man Has His Price," "Death Bed Repentance," "Words That Cut." Each of these sermons are designed to have a peculiar appeal to both members and non-members of the church.

L. R. Bowen, chairman of the evangelistic committee, invites all who are interested in doing personal work throughout the campaign to meet with the committee after each evening service in order that a more successful contact with prospective members can be made.

Mrs. Mary Foreman Carr, organist, and Charles Madeira will have charge of the music. A large choir composed of the young people of the church will be one of the interesting features at each service during the revival.

All members and friends of the church are invited to attend as many of these services as they possibly can and build up the "home-forces" campaign to a great climax on Easter Sunday.

Pampans To Attend Gas, Black Hearings

Many Pampa gas operators will be in Austin Monday night when the gas tax division of the omnibus tax bill will be discussed. The meeting will be devoted to discussion of all phases of the gas tax.

On Wednesday night discussion will be on carbon black, oil well cementing, sulphur, and all other business phases upon which a tax amendment will be proposed and which has not been discussed.

Several Pampa oil operators attended the hearing on the oil tax Thursday night and joined in the fight to have the tax reduced.

A hearing has been set by the Senate affairs committee for Tuesday on a bill by Senator John Lee Smith of Throckmorton to curb strikes and lockouts, and at the same time the committee may also consider the anti-violence bill passed by overwhelming majority in the House Thursday. The latter was submitted as emergency legislation by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel.

House committees likewise have scheduled hearings on legislation concerning labor disputes. Monday the house labor committee plans a hearing on a bill by Rep. John E. Lyle of Corpus Christi creating an arbitration board to settle differences between employers and employees. A bill by Rep. Walter A. Ferguson of Overton, making it a felony to prevent a person from engaging in his lawful employment, is to come before the house criminal jurisdiction committee Tuesday night.

Highway Department May Drop Many Roads

AUSTIN, March 29 (AP)—Unless the highway department is furnished additional operating funds, nearly one-fourth of the roads now state highways may have to be removed from the system, Dewitt C. Greer, State Highway Engineer, said today.

To answer this need a legislative proposal would return to the department for state road building and maintenance the annual surplus in the county and road district indebtedness fund, financed from one cent of the four-cent gasoline tax.

Chicago Judge Lectures In Pampa On Christian Science

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following lecture on Christian Science, entitled "Christian Science: The Government by Divine Law," was given by Judge Samuel W. Greer, C. S. J., of Chicago. Judge Greer is a member of the Board of Lecturers of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

It is safe to assume that any religious teaching which expects to meet with public approval must base its claim for recognition upon the Bible; and this Christian Science does. Careful reading of the Bible discloses the fact that the outstanding characters of the Old Testament regime were men who discerned God's law or God's government, and brought their lives into accord therewith. Such men as Abraham, Moses, Jacob, Joseph, David, Elijah, Elisha, and others, who triumphed over human obstacles and difficulties for themselves and others through adherence to God's law, are a powerful example to men of today and their lives should be of great and universal interest to mankind.

To one of the men of that period came this inspiring message: "Only be thou strong and very courageous, that thou mayest observe to do according to all the law, which Moses my servant commanded thee: turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that thou mayest prosper whithersoever thou goest."

It is indeed greatly to the credit of these eminent men of Biblical fame that they constantly endeavored to know God's will, God's law, and to abide therein.

strating the divine Principle and rule of universal harmony.

The Discoverer and Founder

This use of law in defining Christian Science is an indication that in her study of the Bible Mrs. Eddy saw that the accomplishments of its chief characters were not haphazard, but their successes were carefully and intelligently worked out through obedience to law. She was thus encouraged to try the Biblical method in her search for health, and for the solution of other human problems.

In her endeavor to take practical advantage of this dawning truth of Bible understandings she caught a glimpse of God as Principle. This brought to her the happy realization that the power of God as Principle is just as much a fact in the nineteenth century as in the first century or in any time. This caused her then to study the instances of healing recounted in the Bible, that she might discern the same power with the same satisfactory result as in Biblical times. She saw the healings of the prophets and of Jesus and his disciples not as supernatural or miraculous, but as the result of God's law being observed, and God's power thereby being made manifest. She took a particular case of healing and strove to apply the same lawful procedure in her own case, and quickly found herself able to rise from a sick bed and to immediately express a better sense of health.

This was the discovery of the meaning of God's law and its mighty potentialities, which she called Christian Science.

Mrs. Eddy names the "two cardinal points of Mind-healing, or Christian Science" as "the nothingness of material life and intelligence and the mighty actuating of all-inclusive God; good" (Science and Health, p. 52). On this foundation she took her stand and built her Church; and its growth and stability surely attest the wisdom and inspiration of the Founder.

Chicago Judge Lectures In Pampa On Christian Science

She then applied herself to a study of the Bible that she might know the scientific basis of her healing. As she studied, the Scriptures were illumined, and she saw and understood how healing depends upon a knowledge of God, as is evidenced in one of Jesus' most comprehensive promises, "This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent." She saw that all of Jesus' healings came through his reliance upon God. She saw that Jesus claimed no exclusive right to do spiritual healing, but that the same healing power could be exercised by all who believed on him—that is, understood the Christ. Thus was led unerringly to the discovery that this scientific healing is in accord with divine law. Therefore, its practice is not limited, but is available to every earnest seeker after God who adheres to the plan outlined in Christian Science.

The Textbook

For the purpose of enabling the Bible student to understand its spiritual import and significance, and to elucidate the practical operation of Christian Science, Mrs. Eddy wrote the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures."

At first the book evoked a storm of criticism from medical, religious, and scientific sources, but gradually, as faithful men and women studied it, some under the author's tutelage, others independently, and began to apply its teachings, the healing of sin, disease, and other human problems resulted. Today spiritual healing, as practiced in Christian Science, is generally recognized as possible and of common occurrence. Indeed some medical men are sending the so-called incurables to Christian Science, and many preachers are advocating a study of the methods of spiritual healing. The Christian Science textbook is now well known in most libraries of any importance. It has been the agency

Salute To Greek Freedom

Just 120 years ago this spring, Greece was launching a fight for freedom which roused the admiration of the world. Lord Byron in England, Dr. Howe in the United States, the poet Mueller in Germany, sang the praises of Greece bravely taking its stand and dying to gain freedom from the Turkish oppressor.

Our great-grandfathers heard of the defense of Missolonghi, the massacres at Chios, and Greece became a synonym for freedom wherever free men met. It took 10 years, but in 1830 the independence of Greece was won.

Today, 120 years later, the world again salutes Greece because, with Finland, it dared to stand against overwhelming aggression and speak a "No!" that rings defiantly across a yes-world.

Cities On The Screen

Municipal governments have become movie stars in an effort to show their citizens just what they're like.

At least 35 cities (so reports the International City Managers' Association) have made one or more movies by which to report their municipal activities to citizens. The cost of the movies ranged from $250 to $25,000, and from amateur to strictly professional technique. Detroit estimates that 7,000,000 people have seen its movie.

A city's municipal government is simply an activity of all the people to provide in an organized way services that the people can't so well provide individually. Newspapers devote infinite space to reporting municipal affairs, and they welcome a new technique like this one, which aims at rousing in citizens the interest they ought to have (but do not always have) in their own city government.

Behind The News

By PETER EDSON

Pampa News Washington Correspondent WASHINGTON, March 29—If you had an idea all labor troubles in defense industries would vanish as soon as the new 11-man National Defense Mediation Board got functioning under the chairmanship of Dr. Clarence A. Dykstra, don't hold your breath for this miracle to happen. The millennium of labor peace of any kind will be a long time coming.

This was apparent from the day the board first met to get organized. In addition to going through all the monkeyshines any new government organization must perform—having its picture taken, being shot for the news reels and being told by a caterer in the O. P. M. building when it was time for lunch—the board could accomplish little more than read over the order which created it, and head from the Department of Labor and its conciliation service as to what existing machinery there was in operation to meet the problem.

No one questions the ability of the N. D. M. B.—a new set of initials for you to remember. Its personnel is of the highest caliber, with labor, industry and the public representatives all giving the deep bow of respect to each other in beautiful gestures of mutual esteem and admiration that augur well for harmonious functioning. While Chairman Dykstra announced the board was open for business, the fact remains that the board can do nothing about any labor case until that case is officially "certified" to it.

All this means is that the board doesn't know, officially, that there is labor trouble at a plant until Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins passes on the word. There are no side or back doors by which labor or capital or the public can appeal directly to the board and demand that any fuss be settled.

WORKS WITH KNUDSEN OFFICE

What the board amounts to, therefore, is another top "holding company" if you choose to call it that, created over the existing National Labor Relations Board and the very effective but small Department of Labor conciliation service now headed by John R. Steelman. When these two have exhausted all their efforts at settling a dispute, they can admit defeat and turn the case over to the new National Defense Mediation Board, to see what it can make out of the mess.

N. D. M. B. is to operate within the Knudsen-Hillman Office of Production Management. The board gets its money from O. P. M. and it can call on the O. P. M. and Department of Labor facilities whenever needed. Its permanent staff of investigators, masters or deputies to hold hearings will come from O. P. M.

Once a case is certified to the N. D. M. B., its function is simply to get the facts it can review testimony taken by N. L. R. B. or the Conciliation Service. It can hold hearings of its own, and if it functions like the old War Labor Board, it can split up into two- or three-man groups, each group working on a different case.

The board can appoint its own field force and send its investigators out to get its own facts, but the board has no power of subpoena and cannot compel any boss or any labor union leader to appear and give testimony. All the order creating the board says is that "it is the duty of both parties" and they "should" co-operate in the board's office.

TEN STAR COP MORE POWERFUL

Once the board has made its own investigation, all it can do is report on the facts and make them public with its recommendations as to what the terms of settlement should be. There is no compulsion about these recommendations, and any tin star township

Common Ground

By R. C. HOILES

This column contends there can be no satisfactory progress until we measure the shares of each man by the common yardstick of the God-given equal right to create and enjoy anything anyone else has a right to create and enjoy.

QUOTES FROM COL. LINDBERGH'S ARTICLE Here are a few quotations from the Chas. A. Lindbergh article in Collier's, under the heading of "A Letter to Americans":

"I wrote to ask your immediate aid in maintaining the independent American destiny our forefathers established. I write to warn you that the men who entice us on to war have no more idea of how that war can be won than the governments of France and England had when they declared war on Germany. The interventionists call on us to fight, and then their responsibility ends. They offer no feasible plan for victory.

"The situation in America today is alarmingly similar to that of France and England in the years prior to this war. There, as here, people let their emotions get the better of their judgment; and they had the same unwillingness to face realities. Both countries had refused to take part in a European readjustment while there was still time to make it peacefully. Both had refused to make the sacrifice that was essential for adequate rearmament."

Lindbergh continues by telling how similar the American situation is today compared with that of France and England in years prior to the war. He points out that then the people let their emotions get the better of their judgment; that they did not face realities. He contended that both countries had refused to make the sacrifice that was essential for adequate armament. I quote further:

"I sat in England, one afternoon in 1938, listening to the man who had charge of co-ordinating defense for the British government. I had pleaded with him to take additional steps to safeguard the British position in aviation. I had told him that if this were not done Germany would soon become as supreme in the air as England was at sea. He listened courteously, and then replied that if the wars in Spain and China had demonstrated one thing, it was that the danger of air bombardment, and the damage which could be inflicted by bombing planes, had been grossly exaggerated. He said that the British aviation program was being 'adequately expanded.'"

"A few months later, at the time of the Munich crisis, I went to see one of the foremost leaders of England. I went at the request of other English leaders, to tell him my belief that the strength of German aviation was underestimated in England, and that the strength of Russian aviation was almost as much overestimated. He did not agree with me, although he admitted that the situation was serious. While I was there, however, he showed me an official report concerning British anti-aircraft units. The report stated that not enough anti-aircraft guns existed in all England to form an adequate defense for the city of London alone. Yet that man at that moment, was advocating war."

Revolution or War

Lindbergh said, "In France, internal conditions were so bad that I often wondered whether war or revolution would break upon the country first."

Lindbergh illustrates the attitude in the democracies of Europe by telling you of a conversation I had one evening with a French business man on the outskirts of Paris. He had been talking for nearly an hour about the inevitability of war, and why German aggression must be stopped. He advocated a declaration of war by France.

"What would your first move be?" I asked him. "We must fight the Germans," he replied. "But how?" I asked him. "Do you think the French army can break the Siegfried Line?"

"He looked startled, then sank back into his chair. 'Oh, I don't know about that,' he answered. 'That's up to the military men.'"

"A week or two later, I was having lunch with one of those military men—a general in the French army. I asked him if he felt that the Siegfried Line could be broken.

"No," he replied. "I don't think so." And then added: "But if it could, the cost would be too high."

"What's the answer then?" I asked, for the war drums were beating loudly.

"He shrugged his shoulders. 'If only they had let us attack when we wanted to,' he said. 'When we could have won, the people would not fight. And now, when we cannot win, they want war.'"

"France waited until it was too late. England waited until it was too late. We in America have waited until it is too late; and yet we step closer and closer to the war, as though hypnotized by its bombing and its fury. Like France and England in 1939, we are unprepared today. We have not as many thoroughly modern fighting planes in our Army and Navy combined as Germany produces in a single week; and our Army is deplorably lacking in such essential items as tanks and anti-tank cannon. We have not made the sacrifice necessary for adequate rearmament. We, too, have cultivated the philosophy that it is essential to defend someone else in order to defend ourselves. Our politicians and idealists harangue us about defending freedom and democracy, and our way of life. They are now shouting, 'We must stop Hitler.' Our newspapers echo 'Down with the Nazi regime.' But not one feasible plan has been offered us for an invasion of the continent of Europe. With the disaster of France and England fresh before us, we are following the selfsame path."

The article certainly should cause all these starchy-eyed people who do not realize what foreign war will mean to begin at least to offer some suggestions as to how we can free the rest of the world from fear and want without creating fear and want and misery and poverty and death to millions and millions of our own people.

cop in the land has more real authority to stop a labor ruckus than has this board. The standing of the board will carry some weight, and that great intangible of public opinion may carry enough more authority to make recommendations the equivalent of orders, but if either management or labor wants to get stubborn, there is nothing the board can do to make either or both conform.

As it stands, there is only one possible last chance to make a board recommendation stick. That is the authority granted to the President in the selective service act and the old national defense acts, to seize industries for government operation and to draft defense industry labor by taking away its deferred classification. Any union or employer that isn't inclined to comply with a board recommendation might find itself slapped into government service. Once again, the real power has been retained in the White House.

THE GREAT BATTLEFIELD

Around Hollywood

(Lucile Neville is pinch-hitting for Paul Harrison, now touring army camps and defense industries.)

By LUCIE NEVILLE NEA Service Staff Correspondent BEVERLYWOOD, March 27—When writing about Eleanor Powell's dances for "Lady Be Good," I didn't have space to tell you about her new partner. He's better than Fred Astaire, nimbler than George Murphy, and can look more woebegone than Ben Eager.

He's "Buttons," a pup whose ancestry is a cross between a fox terrier and a beagle, with the funnier points of each breed retained.

This dance with a non-human partner is something Miss Powell has been dancing for a long time. She thought of introducing comic strip characters but rejected that idea as too fanciful. There didn't seem to be any animals that could learn as intricate outlines as the dancer likes. Then they found Buttons.

Nominally the dog's owner is 14-year-old Arlene Crooks, daughter of M-G-M's head prop man, but actually, Buttons belongs to Propboy Jackie Ackerman who trained him, and to Miss Powell, who is completely nuts about him. There's considerable unrequited rivalry for his affections, with each slipping him snaps of hamburger.

UNFAIR DOG WINNING PRACTICES Currently, Miss Powell is ahead, with Buttons lugging her slippers around her ankles at her dressing room door whenever he hears her voice. (Also, the dancer carries a supply of small dog biscuits tucked under the elastic waistband of her practice shorts, and flips him one whenever Ackerman isn't looking.)

The pup was the runt of a litter and nobody much expected him to live when he was given to the Crooks youngster. Certainly nobody thought he'd turn into one of Hollywood's smartest performers. He hadn't even been trained to sit up or shake hands when Ackerman first saw him. Visiting the boss' kid, the prop boy discovered the little dog eager and willing to learn.

He had seen trainers handle dogs so he tried the same methods on Buttons. When Miss Powell started acting about her search for a new partner, Ackerman suggested his pup.

The phrase "working like a dog" never was as true as in this case. Dancer and pup practiced for six weeks before the number was filmed, but that's an unbelievably short time, considering that Buttons wasn't movie-trained. The first tough trick he learned was to make a Figure 8 around and between Miss Powell's feet as she commanded "Get through!"

ANIMAL TRAINERS The first time Miss Powell started to tap, the noise threw Buttons off completely, but as soon as his ears were accustomed to that, the dancer began using finger snaps instead of spoken commands. Finally, these were eliminated and the pup learned to cue to music—which most animal trainers say is impossible.

As a finale to the dance, Buttons leaps over a table and sofa, landing on the dancer's chest, and the two collapse on the couch in a free-for-all romp.

To the dog's and his trainer's credit, everybody was so sure he'd be letter-perfect in the dance that the music was recorded in advance. Also, he'll go all through the picture and Miss Powell keeps the script department busy writing in new scenes and gags for Buttons.

The minute I first saw Mrs. Frank Hutton Schill, wife of the artist-head of the Pampa Fine Arts Academy, 722 West Kingsmill, I said to myself, "There is a face in a million; it is one of the sweetest faces I ever hope to see. I would like to be an artist just to paint that face and head. . . . Dr. Schill need never hunt for a model—he would, with pleasure and profit, paint that face forever." Well, it so happens that Dr. Schill has painted several portraits of his wife. The best one, he says, is in Louisiana, his former home, but he has a good one here, and it will be on exhibit when Dr. Schill and his students exhibit their work soon. (Their paintings, sculpture, sketches were highly praised in Amarillo last week.) The Schills have been married 46 years, and they have six children, one boy and five girls. One of their daughters is Mrs. Lacy Good. Another daughter, Mrs. Higgins, moved away from here not long ago. Her husband was, and is still, with the Tulsa Rig and Reel. Mrs. Schill was born in Michigan, and Dr. Schill in Nebraska, and both are looking forward to seeing the floats that represent their native states in the All States and Nations parade at the Top 'O' Texas Folks Fiesta. . . . They were married in Pennsylvania and have spent most of their life in the East and South. . . . Everyone who is conscious of pictures becomes aware as soon as one sees Mrs. Schill, that her hair, head, and profile strongly reminds one of the famous painting of Whistler's mother.

BYRON E. Lopp, the nationally-known human analyst, has the right idea about things. . . . He is all-gurgle to pessimists, and believes we have altogether too many of them at large today. . . . We rode back to the office with him Friday afternoon following his appearance at the Kiwanis club luncheon where he got the pessimists, if any, told off in pretty strong language. . . . America, he believes, is just in the cradle of the period of greatest opportunity for all of us. . . . Of course, we're going to have to help ourselves a bit. . . . It is his idea that we should quit squawking. . . . On our little trip back to the office Friday, Mr. Lopp expressed the idea that he would like to be a boy of 15 today on the threshold of the great period just ahead in these United States—the next ten or 15 years.

We are just beginning to live, he says. . . . We have been working for centuries to get to the point we just now are reaching. . . . The years immediately ahead are to be filled with the best of life, the best of happiness, and the best of human progress, he believes. . . . But, we must begin now to be optimistic and prepare the national mind so that it will be in a receptive mood for the things that will come when it is decided we are in the right state of mind to receive them. . . . Be positive—not negative—in your way of life, in your expressions. . . . Be cautious of what you say, how you say it, and to whom you say it. . . . That's his message. . . . Live it, and you'll realize it.

It is our suggestion that each of the candidates submit a public statement on what he has in mind doing for the betterment of Pampa schools and his reason for seeking the office.

Charles F. Taft, active in work to safeguard the welfare of the new army, is backing more stringent measures to stamp out prostitution in the neighborhood of camps, ancient enemy of army health. . . . Of 100 soldiers, Taft believes, 15 avoid trouble that sort in any case; 15 will find no trouble no matter what is done; but 70 are likely to get into trouble in proportion to the opportunities afforded. Thus, for the sake of the 70, Taft is all for cutting down the opportunities. Whether he's right on his own terms, we wouldn't know, but we think we know this: the best way to safeguard the welfare of men in military service is to provide recreation outside camp limits. . . . RICHARD Denny of Cleero, Ind., recently celebrated his one-hundredth birthday. Denny, who has been married 13 times, told reporters: . . . "Women are easy to get. And the easier they are to get, the harder they are to keep.

The War Today

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON

British admiralty figures, due probably Tuesday, on shipping losses for the third week in March are awaited with special interest for the light they may shed on Nazi operations in the Atlantic during that period.

The first week of the Hitler-announced March-April drive to knock down England's "bridge of ships" across the Atlantic was disastrous for the British. They admitted loss of nearly 150,000 tons of shipping in that seven days. In the two succeeding weeks, not notable for heavy mid-Atlantic storms or other conditions which might have handicapped raiders—the admiralty figures showed successive reductions in tonnage losses. They were heavy still, but dropped to 98,000, then to 71,000 tons.

That last figure is not much above the average loss the British have sustained at sea week by week since the war started. The German air-underline-surface attack must make a far better sustained score than London acknowledges to create an immediate shipping crisis for England.

Experience and what can be gleaned in Washington from official sources tend to make the London reports credible. Berlin's official announcements are not keyed to stated periods. There is no means of checking them week by week against British announcements or of telling just what actual successes have been repeated to build up seemingly tremendous results in the Nazi counter blockade.

That invites the charge London has made against Berlin of 100 per cent exaggeration—and even 200 per cent at times. It also supports the theory that German efforts of terrific damage done to British shipping at sea at any particular moment have something to do with Nazi political maneuvering of that same moment in the Balkans or elsewhere.

Prime Minister Churchill months ago told parliament that the best minds in the British navy were at work against the hour when the peak Nazi attack at sea would come. Now the test has come. Unless the British all but quit using the Atlantic lanes in the first two weeks of March—and German claims of ships sunk admit that they did not—they have somehow already restricted tonnage losses.

Allies Could Close In On Three Sides

By E. C. DANIEL
 BERN, Switzerland, March 29. (AP)—Twenty-three years after the successful Salonika campaign of 1918, the British army again is knocking at Germany's back door and hoping that Yugoslavia, which holds one of the keys, will aid in the opening.

What the new military government at Belgrade will do with the key is a major uncertainty.

The last remaining non-Axis powers in eastern Europe, if they joined forces, could challenge Germany with the greatest aggregation of military strength since the fall of France.

Allied quarters have estimated that as many as 4,300,000 men might be available for the fray on the British side.

The value attached to Yugoslavia by both sides is reflected in the urgency of German demands to know the Belgrade government's intentions and the jubilation with which the British acclaimed the Yugoslav coup.

In order to obtain a foothold on the continent for a blow at Germany, Britain must, in the opinion of many strategists, gain access to the Danube valley.

The vital points leading to or along this route are: first, the Dardanelles, held by Britain's nonbelligerent Turkish ally; second, Nis, on the Morava river, key city of south-east Serbia, held by Yugoslavia; third, the Iron Gate, control of which is shared by Yugoslavia and the Germans in Rumania; and finally, Vienna, gateway to old Austria.

Having overwhelmed the Italians in Africa, the British are ferrying many of their veteran troops—reportedly 300,000—across the Mediterranean to Greece.

If Yugoslavia should go to war against Germany, the British, Greek and Yugoslav armies presumably would attempt to polish off the Italians in Albania and possibly attempt to drive up the Vardar Valley to clash with the Germans while holding the Struma line against attack from Bulgaria.

If Turkey should join such a venture, Germany might find herself harassed from three sides.

ACE ENTERTAINMENT THRILL OF 1941 READY FOR PAMPANS

Pampa's own "Follies" the merry, melodious, fast-paced, and colorful Pampa Lions club annual charity minstrel, is all set to make its 1941 bow. Dress rehearsal of the cast of 65 will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the city hall auditorium. It will be the last time the cast will go through its routine before the show is staged on Tuesday and

Black-Eyed Peas, Buttermilk, Corn Bread Worley's Favorite Fare

By L. T. EASLEY
 WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—The average Texas Congressman could cook a right good meal for himself if the worst came to pass.

At least that's their own aggregate opinion.

They all claim some knowledge of domestic science. Those who are married hurry to explain that since their wives are excellent cooks there's really no need of their keeping in practice. But that if necessary they could prepare a tempting meal.

Almost to a man they reflect in their preferred dishes the section of the country from which they hail. . . . They like Mexican foods. Steaks and fried chicken rate tops. They'd take black-eyed peas, corn bread and butter milk anytime to an elaborately prepared multi-course dinner such as served in some of the big hotels.

Speaker Sam Rayburn of Bonham goes for corn pan cakes and fried chicken.

Representative Gene Worley of Shamrock likes black-eyed peas, corn bread and butter milk so well he eats them for lunch whenever he finds a restaurant with them. He then goes home and asks his wife to cook more for supper. (It's still supper, not dinner, to most Texans here).

to try his hand at cooking now, the cutlerman-legislator has a most discerning taste and can readily identify every ingredient in a plate set before him.

Representative Nat Patton of Crockett has hickory smoked country ham sent up from his East Texas district. He drives about forty miles into Virginia from Washington and buys corn meal ground at an old, water-powered mill, which has been in operation since colonial days. Black-eyed peas and butter milk then make up the rest of a perfect meal for Cousin Nat.

Simple foods are preferred by Representative Lindley Beckworth of Gilmer. He grew up sharing the cooking in their home with his father, O. J. Beckworth. The young congressman proudly declared that his father, who teaches at West Mountain, near Gilmer, "is as good a cook as anybody."

Tall, sandy-haired Milton West of Brownsville probably would be chosen for the delegation if they suddenly found themselves cast off on an island.

The former Texas Ranger once patrolled horseback along the Rio Grande, going for days at a time without seeing a soul except his partner. Each carried behind his saddle provisions for days. Tied to one side of the saddle was the top of a cast iron "dutch oven" on the other side the bottom. The utensil was used for cooking anything from stews to biscuits.

Many of the Texas Congressmen keep in their offices and at their homes cans of Texas-made chili and tamales, sometimes sealed cans of tortillas. It's hard to find chili to their liking here, tamales and enchiladas are almost unknown.

Representative Paul Kilday of San Antonio proved that he knew more about making chili than just opening a can, and mixing in the beans, if you want them mixed. Here's his recipe:

Take a two-pound round steak and dice. Mix two table spoons of chili powder, or chili sauce made from large dried red peppers, with flour. Add one teaspoon of ground comino seed, a pungent spice. Roll until meat gets brown. Then place in pot and fry diced onions, two or three generous sized cloves of garlic, and five or six ounces of beef suet. Add two quarts of boiling water to all this and let simmer for at least an hour.

A big pot of dried beans should be boiling on the side, with a peeled but unsplit onion and a piece of ham thrown in for seasoning. Serve beans and chili as desired.

This is Kilday's recipe for guacamole:

Take one large avocado, peel and mash into a paste. Dice an onion, tomato and mix with the avocado. Add olive oil, a little lemon juice and red peppers or chippiquins, a certain kind of small, hot red pepper.

Congressman Ed Gossett of Wichita Falls traveled over Runnels county one summer, while a University of Texas student, selling aluminum cooking utensils and actually demonstrating the efficacy of such wares to good West Texas housewives. He cooked roasts, potatoes, vegetables and even cakes.

"None of that sample cooking was ever left over," he bragged.

Nearly two years ago Gossett married the home economics teacher at Vernon High school, who has fourteen cook books to choose from and rarely ever repeats a salad or desert. He hasn't settled down to any favorite dish yet, explaining:

"I like anything she cooks."

Mrs. Gossett was the former Miss Mary Helen Moseley of Quanah and Vernon.

Representative Poage of Waco, who for many years was a bachelor and cooker superb of red beans and ham, commented:

"I married myself a wife that can cook. Now I've lost the art."

He still likes the red beans. Eats them with crackers and sweet milk.

Japan Ready To Back Down, U. S. Officials Think

By WILLIAM B. ARDERY
 WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—Despite increasing German pressure on Japan to enter the war against Britain, the feeling grew in responsible Washington quarters today that developments in Yugoslavia had tipped the scales against such a step by Tokyo.

Those of this view expressed belief the Balkan setback to Axis diplomacy would lead Japan to proceed cautiously and to weigh carefully the possible consequences of any action against Britain.

Berlin reports have indicated that Germany wants Japan to attack Britain's far eastern naval base in Singapore. If the Japanese accept this advice, an informed source said, the United States undoubtedly would take "immediate steps" to aid Britain. The transfer to Britain of cruisers or other important American naval units was mentioned as a specific possibility.

Tokyo is believed to be particularly concerned over the position of a Japanese-British clash. American policy, apparently has been to keep the Japanese guessing.

A Navy department statement of "no comment" regarding the future movements of a formidable American naval force in the south Pacific already has aroused speculation that the vessels might remain indefinitely in those waters in order to exert "moral influence" on Japan.

The squadron consists of two cruisers and five destroyers. A smaller force also visited New Zealand recently.

Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the Senate Foreign Relations committee was one of those believing there was little likelihood of immediate

Cotton Stamps To Be Issued In June

Cotton order stamps, to be earned for participating in the supplementary cotton program, will be issued this summer as soon as possible after performance is checked under the 1941 AAA farm program, according to Irvin W. Cole, chairman of the Gray County AAA committee.

This means that in the early cotton-producing counties of Texas, issuance of stamps may begin in late June, with the bulk of the stamps expected to be distributed during July and August.

Mr. Cole said this estimate is based on past experience in checking cotton performance during a normal growing season. A late growing season in 1941 would, of course, delay issuance of stamps to farmers in the areas affected.

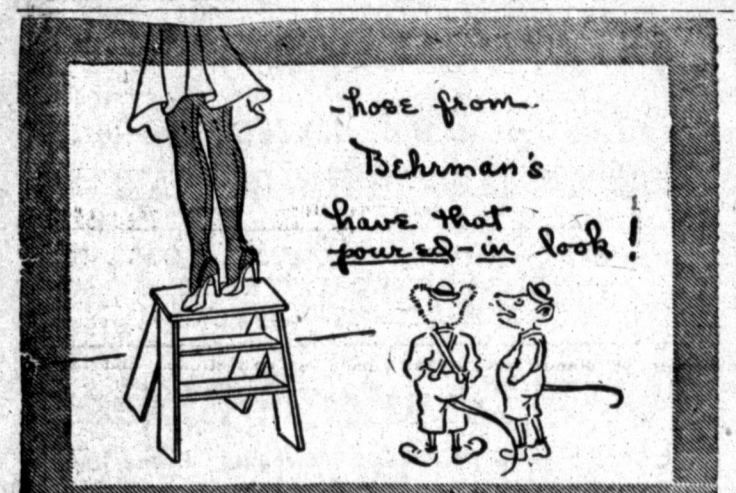

Cotton stamps will be issued to farmers who make a further voluntary reduction in their cotton acreage in 1941. Stamps can be used to purchase cotton goods in local retail stores.

Farmers may earn stamps at the rate of 10 cents a pound on the normal cotton yield of the acreage reduced. A farmer interested in only one farm may earn a maximum of $25 in cotton stamps, except that an operator with two or more tenants or sharecroppers may earn up to $50. A farmer interested in two or more cotton farms also may earn up to $50, but not more than $25 of this amount can be on any one farm.

It just Breathes a little Deeper and Wades In!

EVER stop to figure why Nature gave you both a nose and a mouth to breathe through?

Your nose, barring colds, does all right for ordinary purposes.

But go up against some heavy exercise—and you can open up your mouth as well and increase the intake of oxygen.

Your 1941 Buick with Compound Carburetion* works something like that.

Its "nose," which is the forward one of your two throat-size carburetors, does a grand job of supplying "breath" for your engine on normal jobs.

But when the time comes that your engine has to dig in for a tough pull or a burst of power, then your extra foot-pressure on the gas treadle opens up the "mouth" and your engine "breathes" through two carburetors.

Simple, isn't it? Yet look what happens:

Your engine always consumes gas according to the need.

By simply taking it easy when easy does it and breathing deep when the work piles up, your power plant gets as much as 10% to 15% more mileage from the same gasoline.

That, in these days, is nothing to be sneezed at.

So why don't you get the whole story from your Buick dealer?

Chalmers Workers To Continue Strike

(By The Associated Press)

CIO strikers at the Milwaukee plant of the Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Company accused Secretary of the Navy Knox as Defense Production Director William S. Knudsen yesterday (Saturday) of conspiring to force a "back-to-work movement," and then voted to continue their work stoppage.

The union decided against ending the 68-day old strike in the face of a request from Knox and Knudsen for a resumption of work while negotiations proceeded.

In a statement, the union said its members would not go back to work until they received the security which "the United States government has promised us." It added that the office of production management had promised to force the Allis-Chalmers management to accept a "union security" provision if the union agreed to other proposed conditions for returning to work.

About $45,000,000 worth of defense orders have been awarded the Allis-Chalmers company. The plant reopened and the management said about one-third the normal day shift reported. The CIO claimed no more than 100 of 7,800 production workers were on the job.

Strike Goes On

Another government effort to get defense machinery wheels turning resulted in at least temporary failure. A spokesman for the International Harvester company announced the concern had canceled plans to reopen two of its four strike-bound plants on Monday. It had found, he said, that the strikers "are demanding conditions which makes their position very unclear."

An official of the CIO farm equipment workers organizing committee telegraphed W. H. Davis, vice chairman of the defense mediation board, at Washington that the union would meet Sunday to consider a board request that production be resumed in International Harvester plants to reopen two of its four strike-bound plants on Monday. It had found, he said, that the strikers "are demanding conditions which makes their position very unclear."

Telegram Mixed Up

A mix-up in telegrams resulted in the postponement from yesterday until today of a mediation hearing on the strike of the Vanadium Workers of America (CIO) at the Bridgeville, Pa., plant of the Vanadium corporation. Davis told reporters that a telegram inviting Union representatives to the Washington hearing was misrouted and will not be late for them to arrive at the meeting scheduled for yesterday. The strike was called because of employment of non-union plant guards.

The board, however, did start hearings yesterday on another case, the strike at the South Plainfield, N. J., plant of the Corning Duplicator corporation. That strike began 20 days ago in connection with wage increase demands by the AFL electrical workers union.

Federal and State Mediators at Johnston, Pa., conferred with union leaders in an attempt to get workers back to their jobs by Monday at the huge Cambria Works of the Bethlehem Steel company. "That every citizen should be willing to devote a part of his time to the welfare of the community, and certainly the schools are among our most important services in this community.

"Our schools should be modern in regard to health and sanitation, and should be kept that way at all times.

Dr. Popenoe is being brought to the Panhandle for this series of institutes of family relations through the efforts of Harold L. Nichols, executive director of the Great Plains district of the Y. M. C. A. Dr. Popenoe recently conducted a six-day conference on marriage and family life at West Texas State college at Canyon, which quite a few Pampans attended. Representatives of Parent-Teacher associations, women's study clubs, home demonstration clubs, church groups, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Hi-Y, Girl Reserves, 4-H clubs, F.F.A. clubs, and the Panhandle High School Press association were special guests at various sessions of this conference.

and more courage—action and more action."

In the statement that American resources and power would resist those standing in the path of dictators was an implied reiteration of America's offer to help Yugoslavia. And the decision that was reached on aiding opponents of dictatorship, Mr. Roosevelt declared, was not a partisan one.

He added:

"A leader of the Republican party himself, Mr. Wendell Wilkie—in word and in action, is showing what patriotic Americans mean by rising above partisanship and rallying to the common cause."

It was apparent that the plain people of America have spoken their determination, Republicans and Democrats in the congress and out of the congress are patriotically co-operating to make that determination take positive form."

It was appropriate to honor Andrew Jackson, today, Mr. Roosevelt said, because Jackson placed devotion to country above adherence to party.

The Jackson Day dinners, an annual affair, usually are held in January, but they were postponed because this year the convening of a new congress, the presidential inauguration, and the observance of Mr. Roosevelt's 59th birthday all took place in January.

The principal dinner was to have been held in Washington and tickets already had been sold at $100 a plate, but the affair was called off because of the chief executive's absence.

The president spoke from the Potomac berthed in the Port Everglades harbor with those who had been his fishing companions assembled around him.

In Jackson's day, he recalled, the union was endangered by a sectional threat inspired by a refusal to recognize the sovereign authority of the United States government, and Jackson's actions placed him above "section and party."

"In our own day," Mr. Roosevelt went on, "the threat to our union and to our democracy is not a sectional one. It comes from a great part of the world which surrounds us, and which draws more tightly around us, day by day."

"Again, to do this job, we Americans—nearly all of us—have risen above any considerations of party politics."

Dictators cannot seem to realize, the chief executive said, that the American people can maintain at the same time two parties and an inviolate and indivisible nation.

There can be no party division under a declaration, he said, for men must think, see, write, live, and die as they are told. He contrasted the suppression of disagreement in a concentration camp with the American way of expressing differences in the polling place.

"And we are determined so to act," he asserted, "that Americans will go on year after year, holding free elections, x x x for such elections guarantee that there can be no possibility of stifling freedom of speech, freedom of the press and the free freedom of worship."

"These are the eternal principles which are now being threatened by the alliance of dictator nations."

"Ours is the responsibility of defending these principles which have come to us as our national heritage. Ours is the responsibility of passing them on—not only intact, but stronger than ever to all the generations yet to come."

The president arranged to head northward tomorrow, with stops for inspection of Camp Jackson, S. C., and Fort Bragg, N. C. Monday. He will be in Washington Tuesday.

The fishing on the cruise was, on the whole, only fair, but Rear Admiral Ross T. McIntire, the president's personal physician, said the days at sea had benefited Mr. Roosevelt greatly, enabling him to obtain much-needed rest and relaxation.

TEXAS BEGINS STUDY OF FIGHT ON CANCER

AUSTIN, March 29 (AP)—With assertions that cancer was becoming more prevalent in Texas still ringing in their ears, members of a House sub-committee has begun further study of a bill to appropriate $1,750,000 to combat the disease.

The appropriations committee after hearing advocates declare 15,000 persons were suffering from cancer in Texas, and 4,000 would die within the next year, referred the measure to a sub-group.

The bill would allocate $1,000,000 for construction of a state cancer hospital, $250,000 for additional research, $150,000 for sub-station treatment centers and $350,000 for maintenance.

Appealing for funds to control spread of the disease, Dr. John W. Spies, dean of the medical school of the University of Texas, said this state was not doing what it should in combating it even though a cancer laboratory had been established in the medical school at Galveston.

today that crude oil prices in Oklahoma and Kansas would be advanced 10 to 20 cents a barrel early next week.

The Tulsa World Predicts that the increases will be announced Monday or Tuesday and will be followed by advances of at least one-eighth of a cent a gallon in gasoline tank car quotations in the two states.

While none of the purchasing company officials would consent to be quoted, virtually all of them were of the opinion that the crude price increase would be at least 10 cents and possibly 20 cents.

These predictions followed an announcement by the Humble Oil and Refining company that it was boosting its crude prices in all but two of the fields in Texas and New Mexico in which it is a purchaser.

Humble's advances, ranging from five to 11 cents a barrel, affect approximately 350,000 barrels of crude oil daily.

President E. B. Reeser announced today that the Barnsdall Oil company was meeting Humble's increases in the Refugio and Miranda districts of southwest Texas, where it buys about 10,000 barrels of crude a day.

alliance—an alliance which caused the downfall of the pro-Axis government.

Macek was expected to remain silent at Zagreb, Croatia capital, on all overtures that he be active in the new regime, it was said, at least until he can go to Belgrade Tuesday or Wednesday and investigate the situation at first hand. Macek was retained as vice premier in the new government.

An important member of the Croat leader's intimate circle asserted that the "new government has decidedly won the confidence of all Serbs, but has lost the confidence of all Croats." Croats were reported as saying there is a widespread feeling that last Thursday's coup d'etat was a Serb stroke directed more against Croatia than against the tri-partite pact.

The RAF middle east command at Cairo said two Italian cruisers and a destroyer had been hit with heavy bombs in a fight in the Ionian sea. The admiralty communique said the sea battle took place in the eastern Mediterranean. Apparently both referred to the same fight, but duplications, if there were any, were not apparent.

Totalling up the score against Italian vessels thus far, British observers opined that there were few of the Italian battleships left.

As this heartening news reached London word also was received from Belgrade, Yugoslavia, that Germany had ordered all her nationals out of the province of Serbia. Italians began leaving by the hundreds and British women also were advised to get out of the new Yugoslav government debarred the problem of keeping the nation in the non-belligerent class.

Germany also directed its commercial airline, the Lufthansa, to suspend operations over Yugoslavia, the Belgrade government closed the part of the Danube they control to German navigation, and tension increased in diplomatic quarters. Only one thing seemed certain: General Dusan Simovic, premier of the new regime which ousted the Yugoslav government, was not eager to provoke a conflict with anybody.

Simovic wants time to reconcile, if he can, widely divergent views on whether to accede to Nazi wishes and confirm Yugoslavia's junior partnership in the Axis or head those of the Yugoslav army and people who shouted against it Thursday after the overnight coup which put him and young King Peter II in power.

Berlin Protests Returning Of Nazi Prisoners

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—Berlin has forwarded a new and vigorous protest to the United States, it was learned today, over the surrender of two escaped German prisoners of war to Canada.

The German embassy, an informant said, was instructed to protest as a violation of the Hague Convention the action of immigration officials who denied the fleeing German officers entry into this country and returned them to Canadian custody. The Convention prescribes the treatment to be accorded war prisoners.

State department officials said tonight that the protest had not yet been received, and declined any comment.

The German embassy lodged a protest on March 24 against handcuffing of the German prisoners at the time they were returned to Canada.

The two Germans—Lieutenants Bernhart Cokohe and Heinz Rottman, believed to be submarine officers—escaped from an internment camp near Kingston, Ontario, on March 21, but were intercepted midway across the frozen St. Lawrence river by the United States border patrol.

Justice department officials reported that Cokohe and Rottman said they desired to apply for admittance into the United States and were, accordingly, taken to the immigration office at Clayton, N. Y.

After a hearing there they were denied admittance on the ground they had failed to meet immigration requirements and—since they had not legally entered American territory—were escorted across the Thousand Islands international bridge to the Canadian boundary. Canadian immigration officials immediately returned them to the internment camp.

Since Britain began sending German prisoners to Canada for internment, 33 have escaped. All but two, however, are now back in Canadian custody.

Ernest Nueller was shot and killed while resisting capture in northwestern Ontario.

100 PANHANDLE BOYS TO BOX IN TOURNAMENT PRELIMS

First Round To Begin Here Tuesday Night

One hundred junior high and high school boxers will gather in Pampa on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday nights of this week for the first Panhandle Plains High School Boxing League elimination tournament from which will emerge north and south district champions in 13 weight divisions. On the night of April 8, in Pampa, those titleholders will meet in a Tournament of Champions.

Fights will be held in the high school gymnasium beginning at 8 o'clock each night. Admission will be 25 cents for students and 40 cents for adults. Additional seats will be installed around the ring.

Boys in the south division of the league will battle each other to determine district champions, while boys in the north division will also fight each other. Boys will be weighed-in at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and pairings will be made after weights have been announced. Only one boy can be entered by each school in any weight.

It is estimated that there will be 30 or more fights each night of the tournament.

Member schools in the south division are LeFors, Shamrock, Wellington, Miami, and Canadian. Schools in the north division are Pampa, Borger, Stinnett, and Sanford.

Amateur boxing rules will be followed, excepting that fighting in the clinches is barred.

Coch Oscar Hinger of the Harvester boxing team took 15 boys to Borger Friday night, but only five of them got to fight and those five lost in one way or the other.

The way Lane lost to Downey in the 135-pound division set the tempo for the whole match. Lane held his own in the first round, but when the bell rang for the second round he was unable to go on account of a low blow. He had to be helped to the dressing room and the pain was so intense a doctor was called and an hour later he had to be carried to the car.

The referee announced "no decision" in this fight. He did not declare a foul. Meanwhile the referee and various Borgans exchanged angry words over the technique of officiating. The argument ended when the referee said, "if you don't like the way I'm doing it get in here and call them yourself." Nobody volunteered so he stayed.

Many in the crowd of possibly 350 were massed around the ring heckling and cheering the boxers and the official.

The Pampa boys who lost were Gamble in the 75 weight who was felled by Hale, Small who lost to Fryer, and Nelson and Corbett who lost to Nelson and Corbett who lost to Carter on a decision.

Coch Hinger had Sparks, Campbell, Roy Ray, Richard Stephens available but matches could not be arranged for them. Several bouts were canceled. Hinger's team refused to let Johnny Campbell who weighed in at 82 fight a boy who weighed 89 pounds. At that time Sparks and Ray were matched.

When the Bulldogs came to Pampa three weeks ago they won only two out of 10 bouts. Losing several fights because of fouling. Friday night, the Borgans fought five exhibition bouts among themselves.

All the bouts were announced by a Borger high school student who stood in the ring and yelled. "In this corner, Corbett of Pampa, Weight 165! And in this corner, Carter of Borger! Weight 165!"

Aggies Will Play Texas Tech In 1942

COLLEGE STATION, March 29 (AP)—Resumption of football relations with Texas Tech's Red Raiders was announced today by Homer Norton, director of athletics at Texas A. and M. college.

The Aggies will meet the Raiders on Oct. 3, 1942, at College Station and are negotiating for another game in 1943.

The Aggies became the first Southwest conference team to book the Raiders since the change in athletic policies, featuring the hiring of Morley Jennings as athletic director and Dell Morgan as head coach, was announced by Tech a few weeks ago.

LOS ANGELES, March 29 (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates dealt harshly with Dizzy Dean today, but the one-time great pitcher's Chicago Cub teammates retaliated with a murderous 21-hit attack and a 17-7 victory.

The Cubs hopped on Dean for eight hits and six runs in the first two innings.

LeFors Boxers Win 5 Out Of 8 Bouts From Rockets

LEFORS, March 29.—LeFors High school boxers closed the home season sensationally Friday night by winning five out of eight fights from the Wellington Skyrockets. Three of the fights ended in knockouts with Wellington leading in that department two to one.

Third man in the ring was Elwood Dow of Wellington. Judges were Dan McGrew and Paul Hill of Pampa and Robert Holt of Wheeler.

The gymnasium was packed and standing-room was at a premium. Music preceding the fights and at intermission was presented by the Sims brothers.

LeFors recorded the first knockout when Jackson stopped Cummings in the second round. Ingram of Wellington kayeed Nipper of LeFors in the opening round and Thompson of Wellington stopped Barrick on the third. Up to the knockout blow it was anybody's fight. Barrick had dropped Thompson for a count in the opening round, but the Skyrocket middleweight came back to turn the tables on his opponent.

The bouts were declared the best of the season. Hundreds of LeFors fans will accompany their team to the tournament in Pampa on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday.

Results of Friday night bouts, Wellington boys named first:

- 85 pounds—Crowley lost to Dunn.
- 105 pounds—Smith decisioned Benefield.
- 130 pounds—Cummings lost to Jackson on a knockout.
- 135 pounds—Cook lost to Hughes.
- 145 pounds—Montague lost to Twigg.
- 155 pounds—Ingram kayeed Nipper.
- 165 pounds—Thompson won on a technical knockout from Barrick.

Track Prospects Can't Practice Due To Weather

Last week's weather didn't bring any smiles to the faces of Coach J. C. Prejean of the Harvester track and field team or Coach J. C. McWright of the junior high football team. It just wasn't the type suitable for workouts.

Coch Prejean has 50 boys out for track and field but the weather has been so unfavorable for workouts that he has been unable to find out in what events his boys should enter. He hopes for nice weather early this week so that he can determine who will participate in the district meet to be held Saturday at Harvester park.

Athletes from all schools in the 10 northeast Panhandle counties will be eligible to compete in the Big Eight meet, which will be held at the Harvester park on Saturday. The champion and the Irish hope to repeat. Strength of teams in the district is unknown because none have had much opportunity to train.

Coch McWright called for his boys to get football uniforms on three different occasions last week but the weather was so bad that he hasn't had a practice yet. He hopes to get started on Monday afternoon. He will have only two lettermen back.

Boys' Summer Camp To Be Shown In Pictures Wednesday

W. N. "Bill" James, football line coach at Texas A. & M., will be in Pampa Wednesday, with a moving picture of his summer camp for boys. The movies are in technical and show the camp site, building, equipment, personnel, campers, and the camp activities.

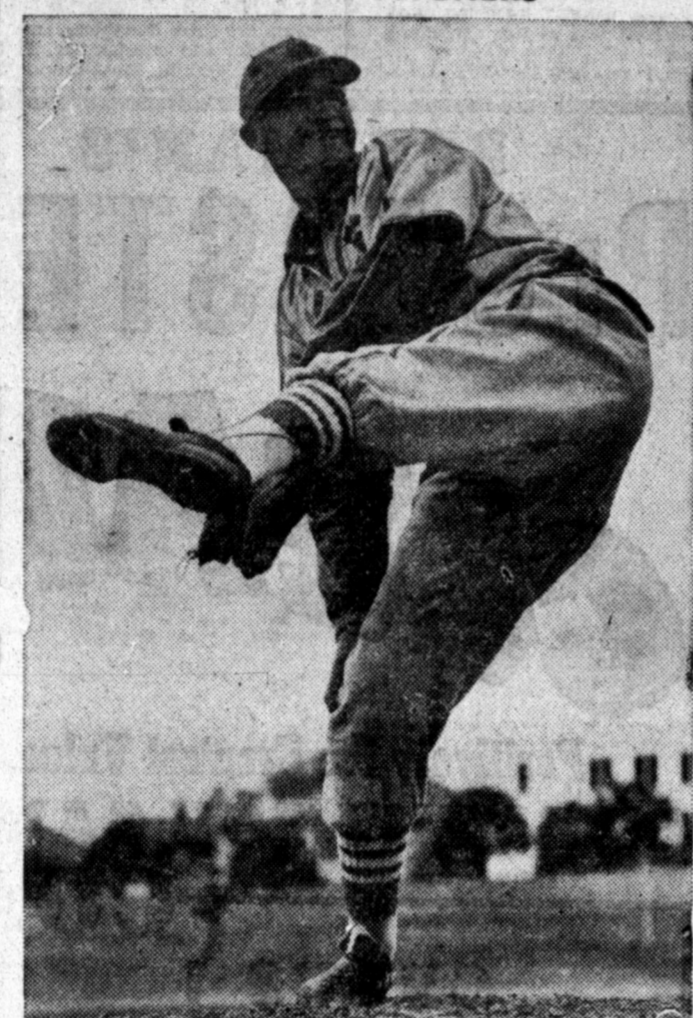

The picture will be shown at the Schuler hotel at 3 p. m. Mr. James is director and owner of Camp Stewart for boys located 16 miles west of Kerrville, near the head of the Guadalupe river. The camp was founded in 1924 by the late E. J. "Doc" Stewart, who at that time, was head football coach at the University of Texas. Mr. James has been director of the camp for the last 16 years.

Camp Stewart is the oldest, continuously-operated private camp for boys and the best-known camp in the Southwest. It is listed in Fort-er Sargents' Select Directory of Camps, as one of the 400 better camps.

There are two separate and distinct camps located over a quarter of a mile apart—namely, the junior camp for boys six to 13 years, and the senior camp for boys 13 to 16 years. These camps are divided into four divisions with each division having a separate director. Each one of these divisional directors has had more than 10 years of camping experience as a counselor in Camp Stewart. They are P. E. Showtwell, senior camp director; Buddy Savage, junior camp director; Bobby Cannon, intermediate camp director; and "Doc" Sowell, midge camp director.

The duration of the camp is from June 7 to Aug. 29, with the first six-weeks term from June 7 to July 18, and with the second six-weeks term from July 19 to Aug. 29.

TOP LIST OF CARD'S PITCHERS

Retarded last season with Rochester Red Wings by minor operation during training season, 200-pound Johnny Grodzicki lost no time at St. Petersburg, Fla. base this spring pitching himself to top of St. Louis Cardinals' list of dozen promising young hurlers.

Dallas Track, Field Stars Have Edge In Early Meets

DALLAS, March 29 (AP)—Dallas is the major concentrating point for the stars of schoolboy track and field this season on the basis of records surveyed to date.

So many potential state champions have turned up that Highland Park's title defenders appear in for trouble aplenty in even taking the district crown.

There's little Jerry Thompson, Woodrow Wilson's mighty miler who has clipped off 4:35.8 this season; Big Ralph Nelson, Adams' great weight man who whirls the discus over 147 feet; Adams' lanky Earl Collins, who has done the 220-yard dash in 22.2; Forest's Ray Womack, who has a mark of 15.2 in the high hurdles; Sunset's Jim Hoff, with a 2:1.3 half mile; and Sunset's Bill Hamman, who has ripped off the 200-yard low hurdles in 23.5.

Highland Park has its stars, boasting a mile relay mark of 3:35.6, a pole vaulter with an 11-foot, 6-inch performance. The state quarter-mile champion, Larry Wolf, has yet to hit his true stride this season. The vaulter is Bill Hamman, who appears capable of eclipsing the 12-foot mark.

However, Sunset looks like the best balanced team and the one most likely to win at the state meet in Austin next month.

Other outstanding marks made over the state have been by Sheppard of Lamar (Houston), with 12-foot, 2-inch in the pole vault; six-foot high jumps by Patrick of Austin, Loube of Jeff Davis (Houston), and Harry Connors of Goose Creek; Pendleton of Woodsborough, who has pitched the shot 51 feet, 10 1/2 inches; and Aubrey Vaughn, Laredo, Shilliant hurdler and broad jumper. Vaughn has a mark of 23.5 in the low hurdles and 21 feet, 5 inches in the jump.

Sunset appears to be the leader in the 440-yard relay, with a 44.9 second performance. District meets are scheduled next week in a majority of the sectors, with the others coming the following week.

There are some 1,000 schools in the track and field program, with the county meets cutting the number of contestants down to about 10,000. The regional meets will trim the field to about 400 for the state meet at Austin.

District meets will be held at the following cities: Canyon, Pampa, Lubbock, Childress, Sneedwater, Breckenridge, San Angelo, Brownwood, Wichita Falls, Fort Worth, Dallas, Waco, Commerce, Texarkana, Tyler, Nacogdoches, Bryan, Huntsville, Galveston, Beaumont, Uvalde, San Antonio, Georgetown, La Grange, Victoria, Rocktown, Laredo, McAllen, El Paso, Fort Stockton, Midland, and Van Horn. Dallas, Fort Worth and Houston will have their own city district meets.

Loughorns Beat Owls HOUSTON, Texas, March 29 (AP)—Filling up a big lead in the first two rounds, the University of Texas Loughorns coasted to a 9-2 victory over the Rice Owls here this afternoon and a clean sweep of the two game series. Texas won Friday's game, 10-6.

Miami Gives 20 Jackets To Warriors

Special To The NEWS MIAMI, March 29.—Twenty boys received jackets when the athletic awards were made to the Miami Warriors here recently. A new system has been adopted by the high school for making the awards for participation in sports. Instead of giving separate awards for each sport, they will be valued on the basis of how many sports a student letters in through the season.

Six boys received reversible wool and satin jackets. They are purple and gold, the school colors, and bear a large "M" on the left side when the wool jacket is worn outside. The inside is heavy gold and purple satin.

Receiving this type jacket were Keith Kiviehn and Jack Ramsay, who lettered in three sports, football, basketball, and boxing; C. H. McCasland and Willie Locke, who lettered in football and basketball; Herbert Bruce, who lettered in football and boxing; and Eldon Saul, who lettered in basketball and was football manager.

Boys lettering in one sport received plain purple and gold wool jackets. They were J. Edwin Carrihan, Bob McCasland, Bob Dial, Irvin Cunningham, J. R. Newman, Leroy Hear, Marlow Hardin Loren Nickel, Raymond Maddox, John Porter Pennington, Leo Graham, Milford Graham, Belton Howard, and Norris Kiviehn.

Receiving silver footballs were Leslie Moore and Edward Talley, and silver basketballs were given to Kenneth Bates and Ford Cowan. The Warriors, coached by Garrison Rush, made a good showing in all three sports. Forty-three per cent of the boys in Miami High school received some sort of award for participation in sports.

Dog Races To Be Staged On Open Plains

Dog races, not in an enclosure, but on the wide-open prairie, will be staged two miles west of Panhandle Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, according to Ira Hughes, who invites dog lovers of the Panhandle territory to attend.

At least 10 dogs from Pampa will participate in the races along with dogs from Panhandle, Borger, Amarillo, and other cities.

Two dogs will be turned loose on each rabbit found during the afternoon. The catchers will be one week from the "old" lake, south of U. S. Highway 60 and about two miles west of Panhandle.

Some of the best dogs in the country will participate in the races.

Louis-Musto Fight To Be Homecoming

ST. LOUIS, March 29 (AP)—Joe Louis probably will do a little reminiscing as he climbs into the ring for his sixteenth title defense here one week from next Tuesday.

To most fight fans his championship match with Tony Musto is winked at as just another stop on his "fight-a-month" parade.

But to Joe it will be more like another homecoming.

It was just seven years ago next week that the brown bomber, known as plain Joe Louis, Detroit Negro Golden Gloves whirlwind, came to St. Louis to win his first major national title and start his sensational climb to fame and fortune.

Fighting as a light-heavyweight, he won the national A. A. U. crown and started tongues wagging all over the country, predicting a great future for him. Everyone knows what happened.

This tournament was staged in the same St. Louis arena where Joe will engage Musto, squat Chicagoan, April 8. It will be Louis' first appearance in the ring here since that time and advance ticket sales indicate the ringside crowd will include many of the same fans who saw him then as a sober-faced 19-year-old kid.

Spectators boed Louis in two tournament matches because they thought he let up on opponents just when they were ripe for the kill. But they didn't know Joe was fighting under the handicap of a broken bone in one hand and boils under both arms.

Young Englishmen once wore handkerchiefs, edged with gold, in their hats as gifts from young women.

Prather To Return This Week With Oiler Players

Although the weather of the past week has not been the kind that brings out the best in baseball fans, nevertheless, there has been a strong undercurrent of baseball discussion in Pampa. The one question foremost in the minds of fans is, "what have the Oilers got in the bag?"

Well, that question cannot be answered yet, but Harold Miller and Hal H. Lucas, owners of the Oiler franchise, and Manager Dutch Prather believe they have "something." Prather is now on the Pacific coast selecting players from the San Diego Seals. He will return this week with a station wagon load of prospects.

Pitchers and catchers will report for workout Tuesday afternoon, as per schedule, even though Manager Prather is not here. Their preliminary training will be supervised by Harold Miller and one or two assistants.

The rest of the squad has been instructed to report on Saturday for the beginning of a stiff workout period.

While Prather has been on the coast the "front office" hasn't been loafing. The park has been ordered cleaned up and the playing field worked over. Sale of box seats is under way, and sale of fence signs has started.

Sixty-seven boxes, each containing four chairs, will be available this season. Price of the boxes this season will be $20, $25, and $30, plus a 10 per cent government tax. One person must secure each box and he in turn can "sub-let" part of it to friends. Application for boxes must be made by writing P. O. Box 1662. The cost of the box does not include general admission.

The same method of selling signs on the fences will be carried out, persons desiring to secure an 8 by 20-foot sign must write to that box.

The season will open on April 22 with the Oilers in Borger. First home game will be on April 24 with Borger here.

The Oiler prospects will be seen in action on April 13 if a game can be matched. The famous and colorful House of David team, headed by Doc Talley, Tucker, and Anderson will be here for a game on April 16. The Oilers will play in Amarillo on April 17, in Borger on April 18, and will play Borger here on April 20.

Several players from last year's champions will be here. Sam Malvica, shortstop, and Monty Montgomery, pitcher, are scheduled to arrive here from Chicago on Tuesday. John McFarland, left-handed pitcher, will return with Prather from California. Harry Monroe, catcher, is here and rarin' to go. If Uncle Sam doesn't accept Frank Grabek, 1939 pitcher, he'll leave Portland, Conn., Monday night. He goes before the medical examining board Monday.

Eight rookies have signed contracts and Prather will bring three or four boys from San Diego.

HOUSTON, March 29 (AP)—The swashbuckling Brooklyn Dodgers, who opened their Texas invasion yesterday by tarponing the Port Arthur Tarpons 17 to 0, butchered the Houston Buffaloes 11 to 6 today.

The Veteran Curt Davis worked the first six innings for Brooklyn and didn't let a Houston runner get as far as second until Dolph Cammille fumbled a grounder in the sixth. Wes Flowers finished off a seven-hit pitching job.

Alessandro Volta, an Italian electrical wizard, invented voltaic batteries.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 29 (AP)—Though Lawson Little, the National Open champion, belted two of the finest wood shots of his life, he couldn't pick up any slack on Ben Hogan today and the field reached the halfway mark in the $5,000 "land of the sky" open golf tournament when Hogan still in front by four strokes.

Atlanta, March 29 (AP)—A combination of recovered power and feet' errors gave the Cleveland Indians a 10 to 1 victory over the Atlanta Crackers today. Jim Bagby, Jr., and Lefty Harry Elsensat held the Southern Association club to five hits while the Tribesmen collected 11.

Chapson's SCOREBOARD

By HARRY GRAYSON NEA Service Sports Editor

Detroit took Dick Bartell, supposedly a crippled castoff from the Chicago Cubs, and won a pennant with him in 1940.

Now the Tigers expect to repeat with a shortstop let go by the White Sox.

Everybody at Lakeland believes Donald Eric McNair will replace Dowdy Richard Bartell.

Booby McNair goes a step farther than Bartell in all directions, and off by 1929 will suit the Californian nearly 100 points.

McNair played plenty of third base and batted .324 for the Pale Hose two years ago.

A moody individual, McNair doesn't like to play second base, which he was forced to do a year ago with the Cubs, and at the far turn.

He got off on the wrong foot, never could righten himself, and went home before the season closed.

He was so enthusiastic about being properly cast with the Tigers that he sprained his ankle the first day, but started being the ball over the left field fence as quickly as he healed.

With Eric McNair at shortstop old Charley Gehring, spryer than he has been for three or four springs, the Tiger infield may not be as bad off as some critics imagined.

Monte Pearson says there was nothing wrong with his arm last season, which prompts Joe McCarthy to ask where he was when the Yankees were crying for pitching in the fall.

But Bill McKechnie is high on the 31-year-old right-hander for whom the Reds gave the Yanks $20,000.

Denon McKechnie well remembers Pearson's 2-hit shutout of the Reds in the world series of 1939, but it wasn't for that feat alone that he recommended his purchase.

McKechnie has had phenomenal success with older pitchers—Ray Kramer and Lee Meadows in Pittsburgh, Danny MacFayden and Lou Felte in Boston, Jim Turner in Boston and Cincinnati, and Paul Derringer, among them.

Derringer was supposed to be rather washed up when McKechnie took command of the Redlegs in '38.

Bill McKechnie doesn't need his spectacles to see the best in . . . and get it out of . . . aging pitchers whom other managers suspect have gone the well too often.

Phillies Whip Cards

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 29 (AP)—The Phillies went base hit berserk today and laured the visiting St. Louis Cardinals 16 to 11.

The Quaker City lads, fresh from a shakeup by Manager Doc Prothro, slammed eight straight hits in the fifth inning, racked up 8 runs, including a 3-run homer by Catcher "Mickey" Livingston.

NEW ORLEANS, March 29 (AP)—The New York Yankees were held to one hit for four innings by the first inning, but set off a series of their famous bombs in the late frames to wreck the New Orleans Pelicans of the Southern Association, 12 to 2.

HOUSTON, March 29 (AP)—The swashbuckling Brooklyn Dodgers, who opened their Texas invasion yesterday by tarponing the Port Arthur Tarpons 17 to 0, butchered the Houston Buffaloes 11 to 6 today.

The Veteran Curt Davis worked the first six innings for Brooklyn and didn't let a Houston runner get as far as second until Dolph Cammille fumbled a grounder in the sixth. Wes Flowers finished off a seven-hit pitching job.

Alessandro Volta, an Italian electrical wizard, invented voltaic batteries.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 29 (AP)—Though Lawson Little, the National Open champion, belted two of the finest wood shots of his life, he couldn't pick up any slack on Ben Hogan today and the field reached the halfway mark in the $5,000 "land of the sky" open golf tournament when Hogan still in front by four strokes.

GARDENING FOR HAPPINESS

For Profusion Of Color In Garden, Use Dahlias

By HENRY FREE

Pampa News Landscape Consultant

Bulbs play an important part in our gardens. Not only are they the first to bloom in the spring, but a proper selection will give a succession of color as the season progresses.

Few flowers offer us such variety in form and coloring as do dahlias. Tall growing varieties are used to good effect at the rear of the herbaceous border while the dwarf sorts are excellent for bedding purposes. Both types make grand cut flowers. Unwin and Colts varieties grown from seed will produce magnificent sturdy flowers the first season.

Although dahlias grow best in a high, dry climate, they can be grown almost anywhere in the U. S. They should have exposure to full sun. Dahlias grow best in a sandy loam with a gravelly sub soil and require a large amount of humus in the soil. Do not try to grow dahlias in a heavy clay soil. Phosphorus and potash are needed for good blooms.

Dahlias of the large type require at least three feet between plants, while the dwarf types grow well if spaced 15 to 18 inches apart. Allow only one stalk from a tuber to develop for the finest blooms. Shallow cultivation and plenty of water during the growing season is most necessary. In early August give each plant a handful (two to three ounces) of 2-10-6 commercial fertilizer. Spread it in a broad ring about each plant. Cultivate and thoroughly soak into the ground, then give a mulch of partially decayed leaves and cultivate no more.

Another excellent bulb or corm for the summer garden is the amazingly adaptable gladiolus. Gladiolus will do well on almost any soil of medium fertility. Soil of slightly heavy texture produces flowers of a superior quality, but not so many stems. Light, sandy loam soils produce the opposite. Superphosphate has proved to be the most effective fertilizer. Apply in the row at the rate of 5 pounds per 100 feet, cover lightly with soil before planting the corms in the furrow. They require no special care, growing best in a sunny location with moderate amounts of moisture and cultivation.

Begonias are summer-flowering bulbs for bedding and pot plants and are of spectacular beauty. The enormous single, frilled or double flowers are held well above the foliage, displaying a rich color-range from scarlet to white, through shades of yellow, orange and pink. Start the bulbs indoors and put outdoors when the ground is warm. Highly recommended for moist soil in shady or half-shady places. Tuberos-rooted begonias come in nearly every color. They are single, double and camellia-flowered. The hardy begonia is a fine bulb for growing in deep shade. During September and October they are covered with pink flowers. The foliage is a deep green with traces of bronze. The fancy-leaved caladium is a beautiful, variegated-leaved plant adapted for pot culture in the house where they make beautiful and easily grown specimens. The hardy amaryllis produces attractive green foliage in early spring.

Excellent specimens of the brilliant St. Bridget anemone which ripens and disappears. About a month later, as if by magic, the flower stalks spring from the ground to a height of 2 to 3 feet, developing an umbel of large, lily-shaped flowers, 8 to 12 in number of a delicate lilac-pink shade. Cover crown about 4 inches.

The St. Bridget anemones are exceedingly brilliant when in flower and excellent for cutting. For northern states early spring planting is recommended; for southern, fall planting. Cover in winter with strawy manure.

The Cape hyacinth is a white summer-flowering hyacinth, growing three to five feet in height, gracefully surmounted with from 20 to 30 pure white bell-shaped flowers. Culture same as for gladiolus. Ismene or Peruvian Daffodil is one of the best of our summer-flowering bulbs. Clusters of large, fragrant, pearly white flowers, resembling the amaryllis family. Tuberoses have lovely, large, double flowers of thick waxlike texture borne on graceful, long, strong stems, and a rich, exotic fragrance. Plant the bulbs after all danger of frost has passed, and cover them two inches deep.

Junior Department Of First Christian Church Redecorated

The junior department of the First Christian church recently completed a redecoration project under the direction of Mrs. Burl Graham, superintendent. The six rooms of the department have been decorated in keeping with the different countries where the Christian churches have missionaries at work. Among them are Mexico, China, Japan, Africa, India and Tibet. Both the children and teachers have taken active part in the project, thus making their course of study more valuable to them.

Upon completion of the project, the department had "open house" to express their appreciation to the parents and friends who helped with the program. After general inspection of the rooms, tea was served to the guests by the girls of the department.

During 1939, Canada's exports of lumber exceeded two billion feet.

Mann, Arney Named 'Young Men Of Year'

CORPUS CHRISTI, March 29. (AP)—Selection of Attorney General Gerald C. Mann and Binford Arney of Austin as "young men of the year" was made public here today by Fred F. Morgan of Corpus Christi, chairman of the state junior chamber of commerce announcement committee. Arney, 32, is president of the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce. He is an Austin attorney and formerly lived in Amarillo. Mann, 34, was a minister and football star at Southern Methodist University. He is serving his second term as attorney general.

Selection of the two young attorneys for the post was made, Morgan said, by a committee of representative business and professional men from all parts of the state. The state junior chamber of commerce will hold its annual convention at El Paso April 17, 18 and 19. Arney was reared on an Oldham county cattle ranch and studied at Northwestern University, Cornell and Drake. He is a law partner of former State Senator Clint C. Small and has been active in junior chamber of commerce work since 1934.

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, March 29 (AP)—The stock market reverted to a trendless range today after a week in which mild improvement had been registered. While there were scattered spots of strength, particularly among rails and specialties, most leaders shifted over a narrow range and fractional advances and declines were about evenly split at the close.

The generally hopeful business picture and another upswing in major commodities, together with signs of easing tension in the labor situation, brought in bidding here and there. A bandwagon remained in the confusing Balkan puzzle. The Associated A year average of 60 stocks was unchanged at 41.4 but on the week was up 2 of a point. Transfers of 20,000 shares compared with 260,319 last Saturday.

Mrs. Myatt Hostess At Eastside H. D. Club Meeting

At an all-day meeting of the Eastside Home Demonstration club members in the home of Mrs. C. A. Myatt, Mrs. Elton Johnston told club members and visitors that one of the greatest and most used arts which the people have on this earth today is reading.

"Time can be spent that otherwise would be idle time; we know that idle hours are wasted hours. Reading can be a leisure or it can be a teacher. Everyone is willing to learn, so by reading good literature we can learn much. A good book or magazine should be enjoyable and educational to be good."

Mrs. Johnston continued by saying that we should be our children's critics and to be a good critic, we should study the subject ourselves; we should know by study which is good reading and which is not.

"Do we, ourselves, set the example of good reading? Have we educated our children to read the good things of the land," Mrs. J. H. Wade asked club members. In the discussion of "Why we have so much poor reading in the home," Mrs. C. A. Myatt gave a list of books that are suitable for various ages. The books may be obtained from the Texas library.

"TOBACCO ROAD", THE DEEP SOUTH'S "GRAPES OF WRATH", OPENS 4-DAY RUN

Grapewin Has Role of Jeeter In Film Version Of Erskine Caldwell's Famous Story; John Ford Directs 20th Century-Fox's Splendid Photoplay

By BROWNWOOD EMERSON

With its mouth scrubbed and profanity completely extinguished, the film version of the stage play still retains virtually intact the story of the vicissitudes of the poor white farmer Jeeter Lester (Charlie Grapewin), and the remnants of his scattered family who cling desperately to the unproductive land through ignorance, habit, and sentiment.

This is The Film Daily's appraisal of 20th Century Fox's "Tobacco Road," a sort of Deep South "Grapes of Wrath," minus the migration. Marjorie Rambeau, Gene Tierney, and William Tracy are the other principals in the 48-minute picture, opening a four-day run today at the LaNora. Directed by John Ford; screenplay by Nunnally Johnson; author, Erskine Caldwell.

Adman Hero

At the LaNora Thursday is showing the story of the classified ad salesman who dreams of buying a boat and taking a trip around the world with his friend, "Skipper Martin," played by Alan Hale: "Dreamy" (Eddie Albert) also looks forward to the day when he will be able to marry Mary Clover, portrayed by Joan Leslie. "The Great Mr. Nobody" is the title.

Edward Arnold, Lionel Barrymore, Robert Sterling, and Gene Reynolds are the principals in Metro's 81-minute "The Penalty." It combines homespun philosophy, gangster goings-on, a slight touch of romance and considerable action. Story opens with Arnold pulling off bank hold-up. On the LaNora screen Friday and Saturday.

Republic's 71-minute "Girl From God's Country," on the Rex screen Wednesday and Thursday, is typical outdoor adventure drama of the Far North, with Chester Morris as a backwoods doctor, Charles Bickford as a U. S. Marshal, and Jane Wyatt as a nurse.

Vance Pile Returns

Robert Taylor and Norma Shearer have the leading roles in Metro's "Escape," picturization of the Ethel Vance story, with Taylor in the role of the son seeking work of his actress-mother, doomed to execution in a concentration camp. On the State screen today and tomorrow.

A more grown-up Deanna Durbin is presented in her eighth picture, Universal's "Spring Parade," at the State Wednesday and Thursday. In the story Deanna is cast as the young peasant girl who goes to the city of her dreams and meets adventure and romance.

"Prairie Schooners," 58-minute Columbia western showing today, tomorrow, and Tuesday at the Crown, features Bill Elliott as the leader of a migration of farmers from Indian country into new farm lands in Colorado.

DOLLARS TO DOUGHNUTS

BY EDITH ELLINGTON

YESTERDAY Bee begins to learn more about Huntington's and the way the store controls many lives. After a particularly busy day, one of the store girls faints. Toby shouts for Bee.

A SHOCK FOR THE DUCHESS

CHAPTER XVII

BEATRICE stared down at the girl on the floor. For a moment, she was so surprised and frightened she couldn't move. Miss Ryan's face was white, her eyes were closed, she was as still as death.

Toby cried, "Get somebody! Get some water! Do something!"

But Miss Dane was already pushing aside the curtains. "How long does it take to—" she began testily, Beatrice's face stopped her. "What's happened?"

"Miss Ryan fainted," said Toby. Miss Dane rushed forward. "Everything happens to me!" she cried in irritation. "The department's mobbed, nobody does anything, stock's in a mess, shipments don't come in on time—and now this!"

"I'm sure she couldn't help it," Toby snapped. "Or do you think she's faking?"

"Go away—" Miss Dane made a distracted lunge, and peered down at the unconscious girl. "Get some water. Phone for the nurse." She began to rub Miss Ryan's wrists, almost impatiently. "Haven't I trouble enough with those contingents they wished on me? And not an 18 in black, and I have to see that girl from advertising in a minute! How can I get up a decent ad with all this going on?"

There were little beads of moisture on Miss Ryan's upper lip. Her nose looked pinched. Beatrice said, "I think she ought to have a doctor."

"You think!" screamed Miss Dane, still roughly massaging Miss Ryan's limp wrists. "You think! What were you doing in here, anyway? Get out on the floor, wait on somebody!" She added, "The girl probably didn't have any lunch, that's all!"

Today was pay day, Beatrice remembered. The envelopes wouldn't be distributed until nearly closing time. Perhaps, she thought pityingly, Miss Ryan had not had lunch money.

"Toby came back with water," Toby lifted her up. "I'll see some down her throat."

"Oh, give it to me!" Miss Dane spat the glass and dashed it into the prostrate girl's face.

There was a gasp, a moan, and Miss Ryan's head moved slowly from side to side. At last, slowly, her eyes opened. She stared up at them. She winced, and tried painfully to rise.

Beatrice knelt beside her, swiftly. "You're ill, don't try to get up. We'll send for a doctor."

"Nonsense!" snapped Miss Dane. "Help her up. She can walk to the elevator, can't she? Take her to the infirmary. She looked at Miss Ryan with ill-disguised disgust. "The busiest day we've had in weeks, and you faint!"

"I—everything went black—" Miss Ryan whispered. "I'm all right now, though." She tried to stand without leaning on Beatrice. "I can go back on the floor."

With a shock, Beatrice realized that the girl was afraid of losing her job. "You're going to infirmary," she said quickly. "Come on."

BUT when they got to the elevators, Miss Ryan caught at Beatrice's sleeve. "No. Don't take me up there. They—they'll find out what's the matter with me, and I—I've got to keep on for a while..." Her blue eyes began to blink, and her fingers plucked nervously. "Please, Miss Dane."

"What is the matter with you?" "I—I'm going to have a baby. Oh, don't look like that! I'm married. I've been married for two years." Her eyes dropped. "Jimmy works in the shipping, and he doesn't make much, that's why we—we kept it secret." She leaned against the wall and closed her eyes for a moment. "Promise not to tell. I'll be all right. I'll go back in a minute."

Pity swept Beatrice. "I'm not the only one who's hiding things," she thought. But her secret seemed insignificant beside the plight of this girl.

"Let's go to the infirmary anyway. They'll only give you a sedative and let you lie down. I'm sure they—they couldn't tell. Say you went without lunch."

"I did," confessed Miss Ryan. "I'm saving for baby clothes and a crib." Her chin lifted. "I would have been all right if it wasn't for that extra work, stooping to pick up stock and lifting my arms so much, rehanging things..."

Miss Dane fumed about being shorthanded. Beatrice walked off and left her. What could she do for Miss Ryan, she wondered. The girl ought not to be standing on her feet all day, working. Yet she knew Miss Ryan would be back tomorrow. She'd stay until the very last minute. It was barbarous.

"Why can't a big store like this provide for such emergencies? Both she and her husband work here. Surely the store owes them something."

She wondered if Grandfather had ever considered such situations. She knew that if his attention had been called to a young couple—any young couple, not just his own employes—in this fix, he'd have promptly presented them with the baby clothes and crib. "But I can't do that. I'm just a salesgirl. She'd think I'd stolen the money. Anyway, I can't write a check now. They'd trace me."

Anthony asked, "What was the excitement?"

"She skipped her lunch."

"Oh." He rattled some sales slips in his hand. "I have a class tonight. Would you—would you have dinner with me, somewhere nearby, before I go? If you'd wait, I could take you home afterward."

"I'd love to."

In the little restaurant, she wished she could tell Anthony about Miss Ryan. But of course she couldn't. She said, instead, "Do any stores anywhere give their employes sick leave? I mean, supposing a girl's run down and needs a rest. Or an operation..."

"What do you think stores are, philanthropic institutions?" He crumpled a roll. "But the ideal store, the store I sometimes think about—you know, with Anthony Bradley as general superintendent and all the other stores on Fifth Avenue biting their nails in envy—he grinned—"if a store can bite its nails. Anyway, the ideal store would give sick leaves. The employes would be part of a happy, loyal family, don't you see, feeling secure in their jobs and giving their best because working for that store, being happy and well treated, would give sick leaves. The employes would be part of a happy, loyal family, don't you see, feeling secure in their jobs and giving their best because working for that store, being happy and well treated, would naturally result in increased efficiency. I'd have a health department, to keep everyone at peak fitness, and a welfare department to deal with the special cases..."

Beatrice made herself breathe quietly and evenly. "The Duchess ought to hear you."

That name the girls in the store had bestowed on Beatrice Huntington Davenport was strangely bitter on her lips. But she wanted to see if Anthony would recognize it. He did.

"Her Grace doesn't bother with the source of the polo ponies she buys her boy-friend," he said. "Startled, she almost dropped her fork. How did Anthony know about the polo ponies?"

Pupils Offered "Inspid Stuff," Says Teacher

PHILADELPHIA, March 29 (AP)—Miss Gladys Ide, Philadelphia director of special education, who says school teachers "offer school children inspid stuff," wants the instructors to "earn the way of life of the students."

"Read the newspapers and find out what's going on in the world," she told a special education panel of the 28th annual schoolmen's week at the University of Pennsylvania last night.

"Some teachers are teaching what happened 1,500 years ago, when we have the here-and-now problem," she continued.

"We offer the children inspid stuff. The kids can't stand it and I don't blame them. The teachers must learn the way of life of the students. We must make them capable of getting by without being exploited in life."

Japs Give Hitler Model Flower Cart

BERLIN, March 29 (AP)—Japanese Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka presented Adolf Hitler a gift from Japan's Emperor Hirohito today—a hand-wrought, miniature flower cart or "blumenwagen."

The gift, presented at a luncheon given by Hitler for Matsuoka, was described as a costly masterpiece of the so-called "O-Hana-Guruma," which in Japan is a symbol for "might and well-being."
