Saw where two families from over at Plainview were slated this week for a royal treatment at Lake Brownwood by the Brownwood Chamber of Commerce. It all started when they went on a fishing trip to the lake several weeks ago and were met by all kinds of disasters.

If you read the story of how tough fate can treat fishermen you probably laughed at their plight. We didn't. We had about the same thing happen six or eight years ago.

It seems that late one Friday afternoon this writer and fishing buddy Orrin Howe got together and decided to go to Lake Conchas over the week end. After throwing our rods, reels, tackle boxes, outboard motor and other equipment into the back of our old Studebaker we took off about six o'clock. All went well until about 9 o'clock when we reached Tucumcari. The bridge across the river there was closed for repairs. A sign said "Use Low-Water Bridge" and pointed to a well-used road going down to the river bed. But the rains had fallen and the river was up. We got stuck, couldn't get across the low-water bridge and had to work ourselves out. We finally got back uptown and found a bridge that was crossable. This maneuver put us on the unpaved (and probably uncharted) road to Conchas Dam.

All went well for awhile. Heavy rains had washed out the road in spots and it took some cautious driving. But we rattled through the hilly country for a good piece, planning to sleep in the car when we got to the lake. Midnight approached and we were about halfway to the lake when disaster struck. We didn't recognize it at the time as a disaster, but it proved to be. It was an old Dodge panel truck with one wheel in a washout and the driver sitting dejectedly beside the machine apparently at wits' end. Since it was raining and the man was apparently in trouble on this deserted road we stopped to lend a hand.

"Whatsamatter?" we asked him. "I'm stuck," he replied. "An' my battery's run down."

So we hooked up, pulled the old truck out after a bit of digging and maneuvering and got him started again.

The old car we had at the time was a prewar Studebaker. Whoever had it before we did had put an electric fuel pump on the thing when the regular pump quit working. This electric pump had a weak connection to the fuel line and when the car went up a steep hill it was apt to quit. A little further down the road it did quit and Orrin and I got out to try and fix it about halfway up a steep hill.

While we were stopped along came the man again in the old panel truck. Somehow or the other he managed to get stuck again, but he left his vehicle to come see what we were doing.

First off, he offered us a wrench he had brought along. It wouldn't fit anything we were working on and told him so. Then the fellow got mad, claiming it was a "dawg-gone good wrench." By this time the rain was falling in steady little pitterpats, and it was muddy and easy to lose patience. We finally got the fuel pump fixed despite a running barrage of conversation with our newfound contemporary of Clem Cadiddlehopper. He kept saying "are you fellers sure you don't have some smokes? . . . not even some rollin's?"

We drove the old car to the top of the hill and started back to see what we could do for our friend in the truck. By this time it must have been 2 or 3 a.m. We looked the situation over and decided the only thing to do, since the truck's battery was down, was to back my car back and tow him out. So after trudging wearily back to the top of the hill, we started backing the old car down the hill. We heard Orrin yell, but it was too late. With a clunk and a groan the right rear wheel dropped off into one of the small ravines that crisscrossed the road.

It didn't take much digging and pushing to see this was a hopeless case. The rain was increasing and with one rear wheel hanging free doing all the spinning, we couldn't get any traction with the other.

The man who had indirectly caused all this (or at least we felt he had at the time) was a gardner. He was going out to Conchas Dam to look for work and was broke and having a rough time. But he was willing to listen to reason. If we'd help him get his truck out of the hole, he'd take us the fifteen miles or so back to town for a wrecker. So we took the battery out of the Studebaker and put it in his truck (back then everything was 6 volts on trucks and cars alike.) After some more digging and pushing we released the truck.

Then started one of the most amazing rides we ever took. That old Dodge panel, which was built somewhere around 1932 or 1933, (Continued on Page 2)

Hospital Bond Date Set

Tuesday, September 9th. has been tentatively set for the Castro County new hospital bond election.

County Judge Robert Estes said this week that while the Commissioners Court had not yet received the petitions calling for the election, a request had been made for the September date and the Court had indicated it would be acceptable. The official announcement will come after the petitions are formally presented probably sometime in July.

The bond election has been delayed for several reasons. While it could have been held as early as last December under the present program, a more thorough study of the situation was needed and also the bond interest rate has been declining.

Bond interest rates are now about two and three-fourths percent the lowest in years. A full one percent decline has occurred since this time last year, and the present rate is expected by financiers to hold until this fall. It may actually go down further. This drop can mean a possible savings of $40,000 to $50,000 or even more over the twenty year period of bond maturity.

The election will be for $290,000 to finance the new hospital, which has been a long felt need in the county. The first proposal was for well over $300,000, but a complete study of existing equipment and needs was made and the cost trimmed in line with the findings.

Sponsored by the Castro County Hospital Improvement Association, the aim will be construction of a new 32-bed brick and tile hospital for the county.

A proposed and tentative set of plans for such a new hospital have been drawn up which would give Castro County one of the best hospital plants in this area.

It would consist of eight private rooms with baths, six double rooms and two four-bed wards, each with an adjoining bath. There would also be two, two-bed isolation wards and an eight bassinets nursery with adjoining workrooms.

The lobby would have a seating capacity of twenty-five and would be enclosed on one side by a brick, glass and tile front. Just off the lobby proper would be a small chapel or prayer room as found in many modern hospitals.

One-half of the patient wing would be of reinforced concrete and steel as an added protection in case of tornado or severe storm.

Other features of the proposed hospital include an operating and delivery room, recovery room, two-bed labor room, one room each for laboratory, x-ray, central supply, drugs, laundry, kitchen and dining room.

The proposed hospital is completely modern in design and is said to be subject to less expense in regards to heating, cooling and maintenance than the present building.

Should the bond election carry, the new hospital will fit against the apex of the south and west wings and permit the complete construction on the present property without disturbing the old hospital until the new one is ready for use.

The present plant was designed as a co-operative hospital shortly after World War II. To house the hospital a war-surplus wood frame building was purchased from the government and moved into Dimmitt. After several years of operating as a co-operative, the hospital was purchased by the county.

Often filled to capacity, the Castro County Hospital is inadequate in many respects due to design and construction. It is highly vulnerable to fire and constant maintenance is necessary.

Castro County Hospital probably is a better business proposition than most county hospitals. According to one hospital board member, if all charity cases were charged to the County, the hospital would actually make a profit. The margin of loss, including charity cases, is considered so small that a new building could probably do better than break even since it would attract more good-paying customers who now use hospital facilities in larger area towns.

New Labor Building Construction To Furnish Field Hand Housing

Work on two labor camp buildings in East Dimmitt got underway Tuesday.

The two buildings will house 186 Mexican braceros who will work as field hands gathering vegetables to be processed here by Pacific Fruit and Produce Co.

Constructed by a farmer-operated group, Castro Vegetable Growers, Inc., the buildings are to be made of sheet metal over wooden framework and will meet specifications for housing Mexican Nationals by the U. S. Department of Labor.

Approximate cost of the two buildings will be $15,000 with lots and furnishings adding another $3,000. Contractor is Truett Boothe. They are 28x132 feet in size. Expected date of completion is July 15th.

A good vegetable harvest is expected this year, although 40 or 50 acres of carrots and about 80 acres of onions were hailed out. All carrots are looking good but insect infestation in cabbage is requiring spraying. Carrot harvesting should start late in July with onions during the first week.

Baptist Youth Revival Here Next Week

The First Baptist Church of Dimmitt will hold its annual Youth Led Revival beginning Sunday and lasting all next week.

Leading the revival will be Bill Coffman, Evangelist and Roy Kornegay, Song Leader. Everyone is invited.

The morning devotional period will begin at 7:30 a.m. and Evening Services begin at 8 o'clock. Youth fellowship and seminars will follow the evening services.

SUNNYSIDE COMMUNITY TO HOLD REUNION JULY 4

The Sunnyside Community will have its annual homecoming on Friday, July 4th at the community building there. All residents and former residents of the community are invited to attend and bring a picnic lunch. Drinks will be furnished by the community.

THE GRAND MARCH—Led by adult workers, the first teen-age recreation night was held Saturday. Some 140 youngsters were present at the American Legion Building for bingo, ping-pong, pool, balloon dance, grand march, Hat Dance, Paul Jones Dance and several numbers by local talent. The next recreation night will be Saturday, June 28th. A swimming party will be held from 7 to 9:30 p.m. and following this the teen-agers will go to the Legion Building. For those not caring to swim the Legion Building will open as usual at 8 o'clock. Adult leaders will again be on hand.

Garden Club Play Sponsorship Pending Interest Shown at Meeting

A Summer Theatre, to be sponsored by the Dimmitt Garden Club, will be held this summer under the direction of Dimmitt High School Drama Instructor James W. (Rosie) Bates.

Anyone wishing to participate in this Summer Civic Theatre are invited to attend a meeting at the High School Auditorium at 7:30 Monday.

Purpose of the Theatre will be to permit persons who are interested in theatre arts to present advanced plays before adult audiences.

No particular play has yet been chosen for the summer. Part of the purpose of Monday's meeting will be to decide on a name for the group and to discuss plays or a play to be done as the summer project.

Tentative plans call for production of two plays—a comedy and a drama.

Proceeds from these productions will go into the Garden Club general fund.

"We need more than just actors," Bates said this week. "Everyone can have a part in a Summer Theatre. We need stage manager, set constructors, painter, light operators, make-up artists, costumers, ushers and people for various other jobs that are important to make any production a success."

This will be the first time such a summer theatre group has been attempted in Dimmitt. Other cities over the state have inaugurated such a program with considerable success and have based their productions on comedy, drama, melodrama and variety schemes.

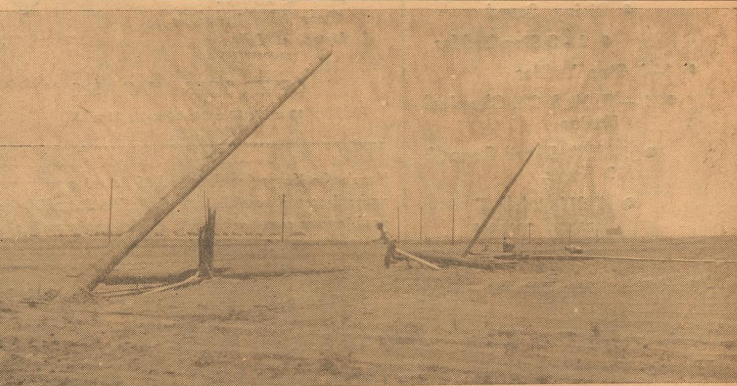

Practice nights will be held four times each week, skipping Wednesday nights. Bates figures about four weeks are needed to have a play ready to present.

All play presentations will be in the Dimmitt High School Auditorium, probably on Thursday and Friday nights.

This will be Bates' first attempt at working with non-school actors. "We haven't any idea how many people will turn out, or how many feel strongly enough about acting and stage work to expend the effort necessary for a successful theatre," he said. "The entire program rests on how many people turn out for Monday night's meeting."

DOUGLAS DENNIS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Dennis of Dimmitt, was named to the Dean's Honor Roll at Baylor University School of Medicine in Houston for the past semester. Young Dennis is doing laboratory work this summer at the Houston Veterans Hospital and at the Polio Center. He was one of 12 out of a class of 90 sophomores to make the honor roll. Dennis is a graduate of Dimmitt High School.

POWER LINES DOWN—These power line poles were broken like matchsticks by a strong wind Thursday night about three miles west of Dimmitt. Quickly repaired, these lines carried electric power northward from Southwestern Public Service Company's Plant X near Earth. There were nine frames, made up of eighteen poles, torn down.

Methodist Youth Week Begins June 29

Discussion groups singing, recreation and worship beginning at 8 o'clock make up the nightly program. Everyone is invited to attend who is a teen-ager or in their early 20's.

Rev. George Coates, assistant pastor of the First Methodist Church, will be in charge of the Youth Week.

Castro Chamber of Commerce To Meet

Castro County Chamber of Commerce will hold its second quarterly meeting of the year on Friday, June 27th, beginning at 8 p.m. in the District Court Room.

Everyone in the county is invited to attend the meeting. Purpose will be to hear a report on the work accomplished since the first of this year and plans and suggestions for future Chamber of Commerce activities.

Laborer Injured Due to Fall Friday

Raymond Gonzales, 401 S. Spring, Rt. 3, Clovis, New Mexico, was critically injured when he fell an estimated thirty feet from a ladder into a pit while working at the Castro Grain Company early Friday morning.

Gonzales, employed by Roberts Construction, sustained head, neck and back injuries. A Dennis Ambulance was sent to the scene of the accident.

He was taken to the Castro County Hospital where his condition shows much improvement according to hospital staff members.

OBLITERATED—The above scattered wreckage on a farm four and one-half miles west of Dimmitt is all that is left of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Librado Duran Tarrez and their three children. Tarrez works on the Clarence Bearden farm operated by W. A. Mandrell. Mr. Mandrell saw the small twister coming that destroyed the home last Thursday night about 9:30. He told the Tarrez family to get into a farm cellar along with the Mandrells and their guests for the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Mayhew and children. The windmill in the background was knocked askew and other buildings on the farm were damaged, but the Mandrell home was almost untouched. The Tarrez children are aged 4, 3 and ten months and every possession of the family, clothes included, was torn up and scattered. Mr. Mandrell said last week the family would greatly appreciate any clothing or anything else people of this area would care to give the Tarrez family. He asked that do-

Homemakers Achievement Day Program Set Tuesday

Dimmitt High School girls who took part in the Summer Homemaking Program will show the results of their work at the Achievement Day Tuesday.

The Homemaking Achievement Day will be held in conjunction with a Food Demonstration Monday and Tuesday in the Homemaking Room of the High School. In charge of the food demonstration will be Earnestine Garrett, Southwestern Public Service Company home specialist. The Demonstration and Achievement Day is open to all interested persons in the County and will be conducted from 9:30 until 11:00 both mornings.

A covered dish salad luncheon will be held Tuesday noon.

There are 42 girls in the summer program taught by Mrs. Glenn Render. They are next year's sophomores, Juniors and Seniors and have had homemaking before. The summer's work counts one-half credit towards the regular homemaking course.

Projects covered during the summer included food, clothing, child care, home management, home improvement, including management and yard work, home care of sick, time and money management and leathercraft.

BIG BLOW—The above jumbled wreckage had once made up the spotless interior of a $5,000 trailer home before a vicious wind picked it up, flipped it once, and slammed it back to the ground where it rolled twice before stopping Thursday night. Inside the trailer, which belongs to E. B. Noble, were Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Huffman who rented the trailer from Mr. Noble only a few weeks before. Mrs. Huffman received a cut ankle and Mr. Huffman and their baby boy escaped with only bruises. Huffman works for the City of Dimmitt. The incident occurred about 8:30 p.m. Other damages occurred in a line running eastward through South Dimmitt but no one was reported injured. The trailer was covered by insurance. A smaller trailer several blocks from this one was unaffected. The Huffman loss was estimated at about $1,000. Nearby television antennas were blown over also.

was about 17 or 18 years old at the time and it's very ability to operate would have shocked any mechanic.

There was barely room for the gardner and myself in the two little front seats so Orrin found himself a perch high on a pile of garden tools and other assorted odds and ends in the back.

After the driver worked several minutes trying to find the proper place for the gearshift and grinding gears all the time, we were off in a cloud of mud and bolts. The exhaust somehow found its way inside and we were all crying like babies within a mile.

The first big thrill came when we were approaching the top of a hill and the thing jumped out of gear (this happened periodically).

There were no brakes so we started rolling backwards downhill at what seemed like a hundred miles an hour. This is a maneuver guaranteed to make you draw up in little knots inside. This kind of thing happened several times going back to town. Each time as we rolled to a stop we would jump out, chock up the wheels and try to get it in gear again. And each time the old truck came to rest there was a steep drop-off at the side of the road.

The driver wanted to know if his gears being messed up would keep the generator from charging. We told him it wasn't very likely. He wanted to know why the gears did like they did when he had just spent $12 for a "complete overhaul." We didn't know. He wanted to know if we didn't think the hoe that kept jabbing our left ear wasn't one of the best hoes we'd ever seen? We told him we'd never seen a GOOD hoe.

He wanted to know if we didn't think he could get a job at Conchas Dam? Never having been there before, we answered with some authority that we didn't know.

Periodically there were little puffs of smoke that came from under the dashboard. The lights were slowly dimming, but that didn't matter since the sun was coming up. Our driver would apparently see something off the side of the road every once in a while and drive toward it. These sporadic little impulses didn't help our jangled nerves.

But we finally got back to town. Orrin and I had scraped together a few bucks to make the trip on but we didn't have enough for a towing charge. But the man who operated a tow truck was willing to take our $15 check. Before we left we noticed our gardner was missing. We found him behind the service station that operated the towing service. He was dead asleep, so we left him a dollar or so, ate some breakfast and left with the tow truck.

It wasn't long before we were on our way. At the lake we found a tent that we suspected, but didn't know, belonged to Dale Maxwell. Anyway it was dry inside so we crept in and went to sleep. After an hour or so sleep, we started fishing about noon.

The winds blew, more rain came. No fish bit. Our rented boat nearly swamped a time or two. We lost some of our best bass plugs. If we remember correctly, we caught one little mud cat about eight inches long. The sun never did shine while we were there.

There were a few other things that happened—all bad, too. Actually, the number of incidents wasn't so important as the frame of mind a person can work himself into after a few good jolts.

But if any of our readers ever go fishing and awake some morning on the cold hard ground to see their boat and motor has drifted away during the night with their billfold and car keys they should remember that others have had similar problems.

THESE DIMMITT DEALERS SHOW HOW TO COOK BETTER...Electrically

Dimmitt Motor Company salesman Bob Brooks shows Mrs. Kay Stafford how quickly the electric units on this Frigidaire range heat up for instant cooking. Electric ranges heat immediately for quick, efficient cooking.

Mrs. Mary Lou Frazier and Gene Seely of King-Seely Furniture and Appliances are both in agreement about the many merits of Mrs. Frazier's new General Electric Range. Mr. Seely says his best sales talk is an electric stove demonstration.

Electricity is the perfect built-in range fuel and no one knows this better than Mrs. Charles Vaughn and daughter Charlene. They have a Leonard built-in range from their White's Auto Store which Mr. Vaughn operates.

See the versatility of electric cooking, first-hand. Your Reddy Kilowatt dealer will give you a personal demonstration of an electric range PLUS a certificate good for two free bug lamps. Yellow bug lamps, which fit ordinary sockets, eliminate most of the light that insects see, yet provide a soft, comfortable light for outdoor living.

Soil Conservation District News

There is a great deal of interest in irrigated pastures here this year and some grass is being seeded for seed production. Some of those who have seeded grass or who are planning to seed include Elvis Burch of Dimmitt, E. E. Huggins of Dimmitt, Bud Jones, whose place is near Sunnyside, Roy Chiek, south of Dimmitt, and others. There seems to be a lot of interest in Blackwell Switch Grass, a native perennial with high forage production under irrigation. Those who would like to see some Blackwell Switch Grass growing can see a planting on the Ray Axtell place near Sunnyside and also of the Herring estate near Flagg. This looks very good for either grazing or cash crop seed production or both.

Not only is a grass like Blackwell Switch Grass good as a cash crop for seed production and for grazing, but it is an excellent soil improving crop. These deep, fibrous rooted grasses such as switch grass are even superior to legumes as soil improving crops if left long enough. Of course they will not add nitrogen to the soil as legumes do, but they are wonderful soil conditioners and utilize and hold nitrogen that falls with rain and snow. We certainly feel that grasses such as Blackwell Switch has a place in this area in long time rotation for soil improvement as well as being a good cash crop.

NEWS FROM BETHEL

Mary Flynt, percent damage to his wheat. He said cotton leaves were floating out of the field and that much of the fruit was knocked off the trees along with many leaves and small branches.

The rain came down in sheets and the wind was high and gusty. About one and twenty-five hundredths rain fell in about twenty or thirty minutes here. About one inch and sixty hundredths fell in all. About two miles north-west of the gin, three inches of rain was reported.

Lightening knocked out the power and telephone for the Charles Rickerds and the Mac Teakells. The wind and hail broke the north windows in the Burl Beavers home and they said that water stood two to four inches deep in the north rooms. Mr. B. E. Sinclair and the Thompson twins were caught in their vehicles on the Beavers place where they were cutting wheat.

Milton Bagwell also reported heavy damage to his crops. That storm we had last Thursday was a dilly, too. It turned over a trailer-house in town. Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Huffman and three-year old son were in it when it rolled over one and a quarter times. They were bruised and shaken up . . . and quite scared, I would imagine.

It was reported that about one quarter to one half mile of high-line was down about five miles west of Dimmitt. The tin was blown off the ball park and the Big "T" Pump Company's 140 ft. two-way radio antenna was blown down. I heard that on the Dan Bruton place, about seven miles north-west of town, 4 1/2 inches of rain was received.

A lot of plans have been shattered lately. However, nothing is so bad that it could not have been worse and visa-versa. People have a marvelous way of bouncing back, farmers in particular. For them, there's always "Next Year." (Some of them probably feel like a rubber ball, by now . . . a mite deflated, but still in bouncing order.)

In spite of all the weather, other news is still in the making out this way.

Mrs. Gaines Neill, who had been visiting with a daughter and her family, the Van Earl Hughes, for about four or five days, returned home Thursday. Another daughter, Miss Kathryn Duree, came with her for a few days visit.

Miss Nancy Neumayer is visiting for a few days with her sister and family, the Milton Bagwells.

Mrs. Embry Finley visited with the Jack Flynts for several days last week. She came Thursday.

Mr. Finley spent Saturday night at the Flynts and he and Mrs. Finley returned to their home in Happy, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lust and Miss LaTrelle Bagwell returned home Sunday. The Lusts were visiting their daughter and family, the Melvin Settles in Nashville, Tennessee and Miss Bagwell was visiting in Hazlehurst, Mississippi with her brother and family, the Robert Bagwells, who, incidentally have a rather new son.

Mrs. Jim Bagwell of Amistad, New Mexico, spent the week end visiting friends and relatives in and around Dimmitt. She had dinner with the Kay Roberts, Sunday, and that afternoon she visited with the Earl Lusts, where she met her daughter, LaTrelle, who had been visiting in Mississippi and Tennessee with the Lusts.

Mrs. Moss Howell reports that the grasshoppers have been assisting her in gathering her strawberry crop. It has been nip and tuck to see who got there "firstest" and got the "mostest".

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fitzpatrick of Santa Fe, New Mexico visited in the Moss Howell home, Friday. They were on their way to Dallas where Mr. Fitzpatrick is going to work this summer. The Fitzpatricks are a newly married couple. They were married last Tuesday. Mrs. Fitzpatrick is the former Carol Eagan. She and Mrs. Bill Samuelson, nee Susie Howell, were close friends at T.W.C.

Jackie Flynt and Wesley Smith were both hospitalized for a few days, this past week. Jackie had an attack of appendicitis and Wesley had Strept-throat. Both are doing fine, however, Wesley has been confined to his bed for several days.

Mrs. B. E. Sinclair is doing fine, but is still getting about via a wheelchair. She is hoping it won't be long before she can have a walking-cast put on her broken leg.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston Lust and family spent Father's Day with her parents, the Joe Fincks, of Tulia. Later in the afternoon they visited with the Bill Avents of Amarillo. Joe Lust, who had been visiting with the Avents, returned home with his parents, Kay and Fay Avent returned with them, too, for a few days of visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Underwood visited with the Doyl Underwoods Tuesday afternoon.

Callers in the B. E. Sinclair home Tuesday afternoon, include Mrs. W. E. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. John Turner, Mrs. Maggie Boren, Mrs. Jim Maples, Mrs. Gaines Neill and Miss Kathrine Duree.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivor Bagwell and Nelda visited with Grandmother and Granddad Bagwell Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rickerd visited in the Jack Flynt home, Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Howell went fishing at Buffalo Lake, Tuesday. They spent the night. Also, in the party, were her parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lee and Jackie of Summerfield.

Mrs. Alva Finck and boys of Tulia visited in the Houston Lust home Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Houston Lust has been kept quite busy each morning chauffeuring several youngsters to and from their swimming lessons. The group consists of Joe, Sue, and Rex Lust, Kay and Fay Avent, and Sandra and Mike Bruegel. (quite a car-load, I'd say.)

Mr. and Mrs. Doyl Underwood and girls spent Sunday with the A. T. Morgans.

Miss Nelda Bagwell had foot surgery Friday in Plainview. She returned home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivor Bagwell and Nelda, Mr. R. M. Dunn, Mrs. Dilmond Neumayer and Nancy, and Leon Crum enjoyed home-made ice cream, Sunday with the Milton Bagwells.

Jackie Lee of Summerfield has been visiting since Friday with his sister and family, the Jack Howells.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyl Underwood and family visited the Tommy Stantons, Friday evening. They met the Stanton's new son.

Mrs. A. T. Morgan and children visited Mrs. E. D. Underwood and girls Wednesday afternoon.

I was present for the opening night of the Teen Can-Teen. Never have I been impressed by a more enthusiastic and well-behaved group of youngsters. Their ages ranged from thirteen through nineteen. Everyone seemed to have a grand time. Many expressed their hopes and desires of a great future for the Teen Can-Teen.

There were several kinds of entertainment open to them and many participated in a bit of it all and some limited their program to only one or two kinds.

Many of them commented on the program to me. The majority of the comments were . . . had a grand time, lots of fun, looking forward to the next meeting, wonderful idea, etc. Several remarked that it was so much better than just riding around, racing cars or parking.

Yes, I hope it will be the answer to the age old problem of young people . . . "There's just nothing to do."

I feel safe in saying that I DARE any one of you, who have any criticism of such a program, and there are a few, to please be present at the next meeting and then, sincerely, and honestly, say you feel the same toward the Teen Can-Teen. Where would you rather have your son or daughter, if you had either or both, out racing up and down the high-ways or in parked cars OR at a place for recreation supervised by other parents; and interested adults? Think this question over.

Home after visit with Parents Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Gipson returned home Tuesday after a visit with her parents at Germain.

Left for California Mrs. Earl Brock left Wednesday for Bakersfield, California where she will spend a week visiting relatives.

Spending week with Grandmother Susan Reynolds of Midland is spending this week here with her grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Wilson.

CONTROL JOHNSON GRASS (AND OTHER GRASSES) CHEMICALLY . . . WITH DOWPON

Unwanted grasses are usually the toughest problem where farming is best. They thrive on the very climate and soils that should produce top crops.

Now you can control grasses, without cutting, cultivating, or oiling. Dowpon, is the new chemical way to keep grasses from invading your fields, throttling irrigation and drainage ditches. Hoeing, chopping, cultivating, and oiling only get grass out of sight temporarily. Dowpon gets rid of it.

How DOWPON works

Dowpon is a systemic grass killer—meaning that it kills by working through the plant's system. You simply spray the foliage. Dowpon is absorbed through the leaves and works down through the plant, right into the roots, usually killing the entire plant.

Because it works inside the plant, a Dowpon spray is less likely to be affected by weather conditions. Rain can't wash it off after it has been absorbed.

You can use Dowpon with safety on your farm—foliage sprayed with Dowpon is non-hazardous to grazing livestock.

Shirley Stalcup and Wilmer Lee Studer Exchange Vows at Church of Christ

In a double ring service read June 10, Miss Shirley Stalcup, daughter of Mrs. Henry Stalcup, 705 Lee Street, and the late Mr. Stalcup, became the bride of Wilmer Lee Studer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Studer, 306 5th Street, in the Dimmitt Church of Christ, with D. C. Lawrence, minister, performing the ceremony before an altar decorated with arched candelabra holding white tapers and floor standards of white gladioli and stocks and banked with emerald palms, which was defined by colonial columns at either side. The aisle was marked with white satin ribbon on pew markers.

Traditional wedding music was by the Church Chorus, under the direction of Paywayne Murphy, who sang, "Because and 'I Love You Truly'". Accompanied by the chorus, Mr. Murphy sang "The Lord's Prayer".

Mrs. Troy Stafford of Lockney was matron of honor, and Miss Nancy Neumayer as maid of honor. Misses Nelda Bagwell, Karen Bell and Gail Cooper were bridesmaids. Judith Cleavenger and Sue Bagwell were candle-lighters. They wore identical waltz-length dresses of party green taffeta and lace with bateau necklines and full skirts with matching hats and shoes. Each attendant carried a fan shaped nose-gay of pink carrol amling roses.

Little Miss Janice Killough, niece of the bride, was flower girl, and was dressed identically to the other attendants. She carried a white satin basket filled with rose petals. Richard Stalcup cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Fashioned with a Sabrina neckline edged in scalloped lace, the molded bodice had long sleeves ending in points over the hands. The floor length skirt of gathered tulle was oaded with swathe of scalloped lace, enhanced with scattered appliques of lace embroidered with iridescent sequins. Her finger tip veil of illusion was joined to a plateau-type cap of tulle embroidered with pearls and iridescent sequins. She wore a single strand of pearls belonging to her Mother, and the traditional blue garter. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid surrounded by a garland of white Frenched carnations and streamers of white satin and net.

Mrs. Stalcup, mother of the bride, chose a pink lace dress for her daughters wedding. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of white cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Studer, mother of the bridegroom, chose a gray lace dress over pink with white accessories. Her corsage was the same as Mrs. Stalcups.

The reception which followed immediately was at the home of the bride. Miss Nelda Bagwell and Karen Bell presided at the brides table which was laid with a floor length cloth of white embroidered nylon over green, and centering the table was a five branched candelabra eperque holding green tapers and cascades of tiny pink rose buds and white baby breath. White gladioli and small mums were used throughout the entertaining rooms.

Mrs. Bob Killough, sister of the bride, registered the guests.

For the wedding trip to Ruidoso and Clouderoff, New Mexico, the bride chose a blue linen suit with white accessories, her corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

My Trip To 4-H Camp

By Mary Taack

On Tuesday, June 3, we left for Camp Don Harrington. We got there at 10:15 a.m. Those who went from Castro County were Gwen Dunn, Verdena Curtis, Mrs. Dunn, Mrs. Stringer and myself. We registered and found out what group we were in. I was in group 3. We went to the Assembly Hall and Dr. Elmer Knowles from Texas Tech talked on "Understanding Ourselves and Others." We ate lunch and at 2:00 I went to the group on Electricity.

At 4:00 we had free choice. I went swimming, and then we had supper. After supper we had a chance to get acquainted with each other. At 7:30 we had the Flag Program and at 8:30 we had the Talent Show and games. We gave a skit. We had the ceremonials and then went to bed.

The next morning we had the Flag Program at 6:30 a.m. We had breakfast and then went to our study groups. I went to Manners. At 10:00 we had recreation. We learned how to plan a party and how to play many games.

We had lunch and then went to another study group. This was on records. From 3:30 to 5:30 we had free choice. Gwen and I went swimming. At 6:45 we had supper and then had the Flag Program.

From 8:30 to 10:00 we had our party. Our party was on "Outer Space". We had to make space hats and each group had to put on a skit on what they saw on the moon. We had games and folk dances. We had the ceremonials after the party. We ate sandwiches and then went to bed.

Thursday morning we had the Flag Program and then we had breakfast. At 8:00 to 10:00 we had the Achievement and Award Program. I gave the Safety report and Verdena gave the report on Manners.

There were six blue ribbons awarded on "Manners" and I received one of the ribbons. We had lunch and then broke up camp. We left about 1:30 and came home. I really had a wonderful time.

Around 165 boys, girls, leaders, and agents attended this annual affair.

ALL DOGS CAUGHT ON THE LOOSE DURING THIS PERIOD WILL BE DESTROYED

Search patrols will operate night and day.

Arrangements will be made to have a veterinarian here in the near future to vaccinate your pet. Watch for the notice in your paper.

This advertisement will be run continuously for three weeks as adequate notice to all. Action will begin promptly on June 30.

To Furnish Field Hand Housing

Work on two labor camp buildings in East Dimmitt got underway Tuesday.

The two buildings will house 186 Mexican braceros who will work as field hands gathering vegetables to be processed here by Pacific Fruit and Produce Co.

Constructed by a farmer-operated group, Castro Vegetable Growers, Inc., the buildings are to be made of sheet metal over wooden framework and will meet specifications for housing Mexican Nationals by the U. S. Department of Labor.

Approximate cost of the two buildings will be $15,000 with lots and furnishings adding another $5,000. Contractor is Truett Boothe. They are 28x132 feet in size. Expected date of completion is July 15th.

A good vegetable harvest is expected this year, although 40,500 acres of carrots and about 50 acres of onions were hailed. All carrots are looking good. Insect infestation in cabbage requiring spraying. Carrot harvesting should start late in July. Onions during the first week.

Baptist Youth Revival Here Next Week

The First Baptist Church Dimmitt will hold its annual Youth Led Revival beginning Sunday and lasting all next week.

Leading the revival will be Coffman, Evangelist and Kornegay, Song Leader. Every one is invited.

The morning devotional period will begin at 7:30 a.m. and Evening Services begin at 8 o'clock. Youth fellowship and seminars follow the evening services.

RIGHT AND WRONG IN RECREATION

Recreation is defined: "A recreating; refreshment of strength and spirits after toil; diversion or a mode of diversion; play." Webster. From this definition of recreation it seems that toil is essential preceding recreation. Jesus endorses recreation in this sense. We have an example of He and His disciples taking recreation, Mk. 6:31.

However, we are not at liberty to do everything in the name of recreation, and take the attitude that just because it is recreation, it is all right. Recreation must be measured in the light of the scriptures; thus, we give the following scripture measurements:

1. Anything that has a tendency to corrupt the heart is wrong, Prov. 4:23.
2. Anything that will lead others into sin or cause them to stumble is wrong, Matt. 18:6.
3. Anything that will hinder Christian duties is wrong, Matt. 6:33.
4. Evil associations are wrong, I Cor. 15:33.
5. Anything doubtful is wrong, I Jno. 3:20,21; Rom. 14:23.
6. Anything requiring immodest dress is wrong, I Tim. 2:9,10; I Pet. 3:3,4. This scripture is violated in the wearing of swim suits in mixed swimming and other indecent forms of dress or should we say forms of undress.

Life is more than one long search for a so-called "good time and fun." Just because boys and girls are young "but once" is no excuse for sin or "sowing wild oats" as some might put it. Whenever young or old, either, sow "wild oats" they should be reminded of the reaping which is just as sure, Gal. 6:7,8.

The answer to the problems of youth is not complicated. They need real Christian parents who will set the Christian example before them, teach them the Word of God, see that they have plenty of wholesome WORK. When this is done the problem of delinquency and recreation will be reduced to a minimum. People do not have to engage in sinful things to have a good time.
