KILL OUT COMPLETED

First Bass Due Next Month for New Lake

Texas Game & Fish Commission Wednesday completed preparatory work for stocking the newly completed Champion Creek reservoir south of Colorado City.

The initial management procedure included killing all undesirable fish out of virtually all of the stream areas above the dam.

It will be followed next month — as soon as the toxicant in the water becomes inactive — with a restocking program for the new lake. First fish to be released by Game & Fish Commission in the restocking next month will be large mouth bass.

Channel cat will be released during the summer in the second phase of restocking.

The commission will release white crappie next fall.

Approximately 25 miles of streams and water now impounded by the dam were included in the kill out completed Wednesday.

This work will clear the way for future Fish and Game Commission management work and will amount to clearing out an area representing about 80 miles of contributing drainage, according to Larry Campbell, fishery biologist for the commission from San Angelo.

Campbell said the kill out destroyed an estimated 100,000 polywogs or bullhead catfish, plus lesser numbers of suckers and carp.

"If we were to get a heavy rainfall right now," the biologist said, "stocking could begin even sooner as fish are becoming available daily in the San Angelo Hatchery due to spawning activities."

However, this week's rain didn't make a dent, so to speak, to filling the new reservoir. Water in the streams were hardly muddy after the rain.

Campbell said the Game & Fish Commission employees carrying out the kill out desired to express personal gratitude to the many landowners who "unselfishly permitted their private stream areas to be rubbed out in order that a prolonged benefit could be obtained for future fishermen on Champion Creek Lake."

Thanks were expressed also by the biologist to Texas Electric Service Company, City Manager R. K. Snetten and other city officials, and local sportsmen in their assistance and cooperation for the initial lake project.

NEW REQUEST BEING PREPARED

City Back at Starting Point For Federal Airport Funds

Colorado City is back where it started last year in quest for federal airport aid.

Estimates for a federal-city airport development project for Colorado City are included in a $42,663,000 airport program recommended for Texas by Federal Aviation Agency.

But that means nothing more than the fact that the city is back on the FAA air activity plan.

And City Manager R. K. Snetten is preparing a new request for air space for an FFA approved airport site here at Colorado City.

The request is expected to be acted upon within approximately six months, the city manager said Thursday.

The $42,663,000 airport program recommended by FAA for Texas is on a five-year development program and is based on request estimates.

Among the estimates is a $205,500 project figure for Colorado City, which was estimated in the city's initial airport aid request last year. The $205,500 figure was divided $102,750 for federal funds and $102,750 for local funds.

Colorado City's request last year lost out in the airport development program for a variety of reasons.

Federal airport funds were dissipated before the local request was completely processed and no additional funds were made available.

Also, the city's air space request was weeded out because of insufficient number of locally based aircraft and also uncertainty of future of the Air Force jet landing strip north of the city.

Versions of the new FAA development program have been approved by House and Senate and is in joint committee study prior to final passage. And, additional improvements scheduled at the jet landing strip indicate permanent Air Force use of that facility.

So, the city manager is beginning preparation of the new requests to keep the project before the FAA for renewed consideration.

MAJORS LEADS BALLOT

Voters Okay Annexation

Colorado City voters Tuesday approved annexation by almost a 3 to 1 majority and placed Sam L. (Buzz) Majors at the top of their City Council state 20 freeway north of the

The vote for annexation, which stretches the city's boundaries to beyond State Highway 208 on the east and north of the proposed Interstate 20 freeway north of the city, was 282 to 117.

Majors, partner in Sam L. Majors Jewelers, received 319 votes in the field of seven council candidates, to gain his first term as city councilman.

Just five votes behind was A.W. Hubbard, T&P Railway cashier also in a successful first bid for council, with 314 votes.

Also elected were Lawrence Ruddick, only incumbent in the race and Col-Tex Refinery assistant chief clerk, who received 285 votes; and Ira Uttz, owner of Colorado Tire & Supply and Lions Club secretary, who received 271 votes.

Losing in their bids for council places were Dr. Elton Berkman, 181 votes; Frank Derigibus, 185 votes; and Elton Harrell, 103 votes.

Despite the high number of candidates and the annexation proposal, the city election drew only 434 voters.

Not seeking reelection in the Colorado City council race were L. J. Taylor, R.B. Baker and O. L. (Doc) Simpson, who will retire from the council this month.

Dr. Bruce Johnson, Loraine civic leader, won the mayor's post in Loraine's city election Tuesday.

Johnson received 84 votes to defeat Vance Dickenson, current mayor, who received 65 votes.

Joining Dr. Johnson on the Loraine council will be two newcomers — B. W. Tarrt and C. W. Henderson — and Virgil Walker, incumbent, all elected Tuesday.

Tarrt polled 124 votes, Henderson received 97 and Walker, 71.

Defeated in the Loraine race were Roy Richard, with 68 votes; James T. Green Jr., with 67 votes; and Loyd Ray Finch, with 52 votes.

WRECK NEAR IATAN

3 Women Hurt, Car Demolished

Three out of town women were injured Monday afternoon when their brand new 1959 model sedan was demolished on Interstate 20 at the Spring.

Most seriously hurt of the trio was Mrs. H. M. Bassett of Cisco, a passenger in the car. She was hospitalized until Wednesday here in Root Memorial Hospital for treatment of a broken leg and cuts.

Hospitalized overnight in Root Memorial with minor injuries were Mrs. Henry Fry of Cisco, driver of the car, and Mrs. J. D. McClaine of Midland.

Escaping unhurt in the accident were Mrs. McClaine's 18-month old son and Mrs. J. T. Cauthen of Burbank, Calif.

State Highway Patrolman Buddy Hertenberger said Mrs. Fry lost control of the 1959 Plymouth while traveling west on Interstate 20 at the Iatan Cemetery cutoff road.

The car went off the north side of the highway, struck an overpass railing and then turned over once.

Hertenberger said the sedan, with only 255 miles on its speedometer, was a total loss.

Receiving leg cuts Monday when his motorcycle flipped on a dirt road near the city was Bobby Lee, 26, of Colorado City.

Hertenberger said Lee reported the vehicle flipped when it hit a sand bed. However, the motorcycle was not damaged, he said.

1.5 INCHES AT CHINA GROVE

Spring's Second Rain Soaks Entire County

Mitchell County Tuesday night soaked in its second general rain in less than 10 days.

Just like the Easter moisture that broke an extended dry period, Tuesday's rain was general over the entire county.

Some areas reported half an inch of moisture, but most reports ranged upward to an inch or more.

Farmers and ranchers were happy about the new rain which soaked into the ground with little runoff.

But they were ready for more rain for pastures and crop land, too, which will be planted to cotton this spring.

Says Regulations Hurt Agriculture

Mitchell County Farm Bureau has voiced opposition to an attempt by executive order to place farm and ranch workers directly under the federal Wage and Hour Law.

The opposition and call to farmers and business men, alike, to join in a fight against the move came Tuesday night from the bureau's board of directors, representing approximately 450 farmers.

By unanimous vote the directors adopted this resolution:

"Be it resolved, that we oppose the imposition of further regulations and restrictions as proposed by Federal legislation on farm labor, including the placing of agricultural workers under wage and hour law or compulsory regulation on housing requirements, prevailing wages and transportation costs of domestic workers.

"And, be it further resolved, that we work collectively and individually to prevent the enactment of such legislation, which we feel could be disastrous to the agricultural economy of our county, state and nation."

The Farm Bureau directors voted also to cooperate with retail firms, service organizations and small businesses that may be effected, along with the farmers, by the same federal trend and who oppose the regulations.

J. D. HILL, president of the county bureau, said the directorate was urging all its members to voice opposition to the federal move with letters, telegrams and phone calls to their senators, congressmen and Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell.

Copy of the directors resolution was sent immediately to Congressman George Mahon, Senators Lyndon B. Johnson and Ralph Yarborough and Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn.

At the same time the county organization notified Matt Trigg of the American Farm Bureau in Washington, D. C., that the local bureau was "uniting" with the national organizations in seeking "to repulse this new threat by organized labor to encroach in farm labor."

MITCHELL COUNTY action here Tuesday night follows a series of area meetings by farm, ranch and Chamber of Commerce leaders.

The area meetings were called to alert West Texas agricultural industry to the fact the Department of Labor has proposed new regulations to cover domestic farm workers recruited through the U.S. Employment Service.

Farm Bureau leaders contend that unless the Labor Department is convinced the new regulations will have an adverse effect upon agriculture, the proposals will be published in the Federal Register.

See FARM Pg. 7

Installation of the new officers will be held early in May.

Other officers elected were: Don Benson, first vice president; Henry Lewis, second vice president; James Hull, secretary; Harold Oliver, club treasurer; Ernie Larmer, Civic House treasurer.

Directors elected were Lewis Williams, Seth Cowan, Cummins Wood, Bob Reilly and Drew Ballard.

Top Cafe at Westbrook reported one inch.

South of Loraine, Bruce Byrne measured 1.2 inches of moisture at his ranch.

"It certainly is good for grain and grass and stock water tanks are full," Mrs. Byrne reported.

Payne community south of Colorado City received .60 moisture, according to Charles Williams.

At Spade Ranch in the county's southwest corner, the rain totaled 1.10 inches.

However, at Silver just south of the county line, the rain measured only .25.

In Cuthbert community northwest of Colorado City, the rain was .60, according to inch in the town. And Blue-Elmo Dunn.

BUT JUST HOW NEAR?

Breakthrough Appears Near In Race for Cancer's Cure

(Editor's Note: This is one of a series of articles on "Cancer Breakthrough—Now or Never?" prepared especially for The Record by Pat McGrady, Science Editor of American Cancer Society.)

Is the long-awaited "cancer breakthrough" near?

A few recognized authorities have suggested that it may be. But the word, "breakthrough," is left undefined. And few, if any, will hazard a guess as to just when this blessing may come to pass. They don't say how near it is.

Unhappily, it must be said at the outset, nothing in the published accounts or in confidential reports of thousands of scientists working on the cancer problem now suggests that a new cure is at hand. As things stand, the 260,000 Americans doomed to die of cancer in 1959 will die on schedule—unless something unforeseen happens.

That a "breakthrough" will come to pass eventually few now will deny. This is a strange and encouraging contrast to the attitude of scientists and informed doctors of only a decade ago, when the consensus seemed to be that cancer, by and large, never would be controlled.

In this series, we will try to outline where we now stand, prospects for the immediate future, the course of future progress and the possibilities of a sudden and surprising development which would drive cancer from its grim eminence as the second most prolific killer of this century.

For our purposes, a cancer breakthrough would be any development which would prevent a substantial percentage of cancers which now occur, or bring about the cure of advanced cancers—the kind against which Medicine today is completely helpless.

In a sense, and within the framework of this definition, the last twenty or so years have seen a cancer breakthrough—or, more exactly, a "sneakthrough." Just recently we have found that one in three cancer patients is saved; the figure used to be one in four.

This salvage of human life has not been due to research advances so much as to the application of common sense by patients and of good medical practices by doctors. The patients became suspicious of their symptoms and brought them to the attention of the physicians in time—and the doctors cut out the cancers or burned them out with radiation before they could seed distant parts of the body and foreclose on the patients' lives.

It was one saved in four. Now it is one in three.

When will it be one in two?

It could be one in two right now—and without a single new discovery. One-half of today's cancer victims die not so much from cancer as from ignorance, carelessness and fear. And maybe poverty. They could be saved by the best cancer detection and treatment facilities now available. But they must go to the doctor in time. And the doctor must know what to do—and do it quickly.

The best way to beat cancer is to prevent it. The only way to prevent it now is to avoid the things that cause it. More than 400 chemicals have caused experimental cancer in animals; and their use in food and drugs has been curtailed.

Excessive x-rays cause cancer; and, while they must be used to diagnose and treat certain illnesses, they should not be used capriciously. Long-sustained over-exposure even to sunshine causes skin cancers; and within reason, this abuse too should be avoided.

Chemicals and physical irritants are believed to give rise to pre-cancerous conditions. Common sense and good personal hygiene eliminate many irritations. Non-healing injured tissues should be looked at by one's doctor.

Among the habits suspected that, statistically, cigarette smoking has gained the most attention. Responsible authorities do not dispute the fact that, statistically, cigarette smokers have many times the risk of lung cancer run by non-smokers. And more and more investigators are finding chemicals in cigarette smoke which cause cancer when applied to experimental animals. Each must decide for himself whether or not to smoke. They're your lungs—and your life.

One big life-saving advance adopted during the last decade is the technique of removing fluid from various body areas and examining it under the microscope for the presence of cancer and pre-cancerous cells. This has been highly effective in finding uterine cancers while they are still early and curable; and scientists are using similar procedures in other areas of hidden and dreadfully deadly cancers—such as the lung and stomach.

If you would avoid death by cancer, you should call these conditions to the attention of your physician:

1. Unusual bleeding or discharge.
2. A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere.
3. A sore that does not heal.
4. Persistent change in bowel or bladder habits.
5. Persistent hoarseness or cough.
6. Persistent indigestion or difficulty in swallowing.
7. Change in a wart or mole.

These symptoms may not mean cancer. But if they do, your best bet for beating the disease is to have it treated without delay.

PRESENTED BY GUEST SPEAKERS

Discussion of Boys' Ranch Highlights Club Program

A discussion of Boys' Ranch of West Texas presented by three guest speakers highlighted a meeting Friday afternoon of the Self Culture Club in the home of Mrs. Tom Glover.

Elmer Martin, Frank Ginzel and R. E. (Dick) Gregory Jr. were speakers discussing the Boys' Ranch, which is located 17 miles west of San Angelo, near Tankersley, on a 960-acre tract.

The speakers explained to the group that Boys' Ranch has grown from a one boy institution to 45, and plans are being made to expand to 65 boys. There is an ever increasing need for the services of institutions such as boys' ranch.

Boys' Ranch of West Texas is not an orphanage, a training school, a detention home, nor a summer camp. It is one method of prevention of juvenile delinquency, speakers pointed out. The motto at boys' ranch is — "The boy of today is the man of the future, invest in the future".

During a special business session at the close of the program club members voted to make a cash contribution of $7.50 to Boys' Ranch each month. The monthly contribution will be raised by special donations by individual club members.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Charles Wakefield.

Mrs. Tom Grant directed the opening prayer and pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Mrs. C. P. Gary, federation counselor, announced the federation meeting planned for May 4 through May 6 in Lubbock.

Mrs. Gary also announced June 20 is the date of the next meeting of the MC Tuberculosis Association at the Baker Hotel.

Announcement was made by Mrs. Wakefield concerning the Hobby Show sponsored by the Zetaganian Study Club April 16 in Civic House.

Mrs. R. M. Reed was appointed program chairman for the April program of the Mitchell County Federation of Women's Club, which will be presented by the Self Culture Study Club.

Mrs. Paul Beeman reported the last meeting of the federation, stating the program concerning "Travel" presented by Miss Jane Merrill of the Beta Sigma Phi was very interesting.

Announcement was made that National Library Week is set for April 12 through April 18.

The group discussed the club's picnic and the date was re-scheduled for Friday, April 24, at 7 p. m. at the Col-Tex Club at Lake Colorado City, Kentucky.

with Mrs. Wakefield as hostess.

Mrs. Willie Whitmore was leader for the afternoon program: "Need For More Nurses".

Mrs. John Brown's topic was "Keeping Up With Medicine".

During the social hour the hostess served party plates, of sandwiches, date squares and iced punch to guests, Mrs. W. H. Garrett, Mr. Martin, Mr. Zinzel and Mr. Gregory; and members — Mrs. Beeman, A. H. Jackson, C. C. Berry, Whitmore, Wakefield, L. J. Taylor, Reed, Leslie Keith, A. A. Herrington, Grant, Gary, and Mrs. John Brown.

Mrs. Gary of 544 Chestnut Street will host the next meeting of the club Friday, April 17. The program will feature Mrs. Reed presenting a book review.

gister and, thus, become law.

THE FARM BUREAU declares the proposed regulations would require any farmer or rancher who uses the services of the Employment Service to recruit either domestic (other than local) or foreign workers to:

1. Provide farm labor housing acceptable to the Department of Labor.

2. Pay prevailing wages, or wages paid by other farmers who have successfully hired and retained workers. This means, the bureau leaders say, that all farmers would have to pay wages equal to the highest paid in the area, with resulting escalator effect.

3. Pay transportation to workers on the same basis that farmers in any area have found to be successful in recruiting workers.

HILL ANNOUNCED that another area meeting on the wage and hour proposals will be Monday afternoon at 3 p. m. in Big Spring at Howard County Junior College.

A delegation from Mitchell County will be on hand for the Monday session, reported Hill, who is urging all interested persons to attend.

Goal of the Monday meeting will be to coordinate farm, civic and business interests in a planned move of opposition. The Big Spring session will be followed by a statewide meeting April 17 in San Angelo under the sponsorship of the Texas Farm Bureau.

Mitchell County Farm Bureau directors adopting the local resolution Tuesday night were Hill, Travis Turner, Edward H. Roach, Roy Henderson, Harold Hester, Wiley Walker, Murrell Blasingame and Preston Morris.

Others attending the meeting were L. A. Browne, Linden Solomon, Lindley Webb, Ivan Barber, Mrs. Bonnie Calaway, office secretary; Mrs. Ivan Barber, service agent, and Ed Cumble, field representative.

ON SWEETWATER TRACK

Wolves Battle Saturday For Track, Field Title

Colorado High Wolves will battle it out with four other 3-AAA teams Saturday in Sweetwater for the District Track Championship.

Defending circuit champions — Snyder High — will be highly favored to repeat for the crown this year.

Sweetwater is a strong choice for second place with Lamesa, Colorado City and Lake View of San Angelo scrambling for the third place finish.

Coach Win Talley's Wolves will probably pick up majority of their points in the field events.

Snyder should dominate the sprinting events with ace hurdler Stanley Woolver while Sweetwater has good sprint strength in Jimmy Watson and Co.

Lake View has several outstanding high jumpers and broad jumpers while little is known of Lamesa's strength.

Wolves finished third last year by virtue of two first places by Don Black and Bancker Cade, Black, who departed via graduation as did Cade, set a new 3-AAA standard in the 440-yard dash with a time of 52.35.

Cade won the 220-yard dash in 22.9 seconds. Both boys helped the Wolves finish third in both relay events.

Wolves' best chances for points will come in the shot put, broad jump, high jump, pole vault and 880.

Bill Davis, junior shotputter who finished fourth in district last year with a heave of 40 feet 5 1/2 inches, will again toss the 12-pound iron ball for the Wolves. He has hit over 40 feet this year and will have to contend with the defending district champ Mickey McGrew of Snyder, who won last year with a heave of 44.5.

Joining Davis in the shotput will be Rumaldo Lujan and Truman Stinson.

Stinson and Mike Schoolcraft finished third and fourth, respectively, last year in the pole vault and they will be back again Saturday to improve on their marks. Lucky Merket will join the duo in the vault.

Sophomore Jerry McKay could provide the Wolves with a first place in the high jump. He has been crowding the 6-foot mark all season, but he also will have to contend with the defending champion — William Keel of Lake View who won the event last season with a leap of 5-10. Stinson is also an entry in the high jump.

McKay is also a standout broad jumper. Freddie Womack and merket will join McKay in the jump.

John Johnson, Wolves' junior 880-man, finished fourth last year in that event and should improve on his team of last year. Lujan will also run the 880.

Wolves stand a so-so chance of scoring in the other events.

Schoolcraft and Stinson — two of the four seniors on the Wolf squad — will run both the high and low hurdles.

Gary Lightfoot, Wayne Reed and Merket will toe the blocks in the 100-yard dash while Freddie Womack, Lightfoot and Reed run the 220.

F. Womack, an exceptionally busy trackster, will be C City's lone entry in the 440-yard dash.

The sprint relay quartet will be comprised of Merket, Reed, Lightfoot and Womack.

Robert Womack and Schoolcraft will run the mile while McKay, R. Womack, Lujan and Johnson run the mile relay.

Lujan and Davis, a couple of juniors, hope to bring the Wolves some points in the discus throw.

The meet will get underway at 10 a. m. Saturday with the prelims in all running events and finals in the field events that morning with the exception of the broad jump and high jump.

Finals in the two jumping events will be Saturday, 2 p. m. Other finals will also start at 2 p. m. on Sweetwater's new track.

The freshman track events will also be run in with the Lead Wolf Tracksters

Jerry McKay, left, Mike Schoolcraft, center, and Truman Stinson will be counted on heavily Saturday at the District 3-AAA track meet in Snyder. McKay is a broad jumper and high jumper while the other two excel in the pole vault and hurdle events.

high school events.

Coach Jerry Reynolds will carry a strong freshman group to Sweetwater. He will have Jim Womack, Marvin Martin, Darrell Davis, Randolph Cupp, Ken Northcutt and Luke Harrison entered in the 50, 75 and 100-yard dashes.

The sprint relay team will be Northcutt, Womack, Harrison and Cupp.

The Junior Wolves should pick up a first place with Northcutt in the shot, joined by Larry Oliver and Roger Cumba.

Steve Hillhouse, Harrison and Danny Latimer will be in the broad jump with Hillhouse, Tommy Allen and Terry Davis in the high jump. Mike Robinson and Henry Ross will also handle duties on the freshman squad.

The Junior Wolves picked up a first place last Saturday at the Sweetwater Invitational with a victory in the 1320 relay. Running on the quarter were Harrison, Hillhouse, Womack and Terry Davis.

Dillard, Brown in 3-AAA Tennis Go

Colorado City will have two boys in the District tennis matches Saturday in Sweetwater.

Tennis coach Bob McMillan said Ray Dillard and Jimmy Brown will compete in the boys' doubles.

FEASTER, MERKET LEAD WAY

Wolves Pound Merkel, 9-1, For Initial Baseball Win

Ronnie Feaster's pitching and Lucky Merket's hitting gave the Colorado High baseball team its first victory of the season Tuesday, a 9-1 affair over Merkel High Badgers.

The Wolves' win on Merket's field was revenge for a 10-4 pasting the Badgers put on the Wolves here last week.

Feaster gave up only two hits and struck out 13 of the 29 batters he faced in going the route for the Wolves.

Merket, the stocky little senior who has been switched to centerfield, pounded out 4 hits in 4 trips — a home run, triple and two singles.

In all, the Wolves touched Badgers' Joe Neill for 10 hits. It was Neill who defeated C City in the initial meeting of the clubs.

Manley Denton, who literally tore the Wolves up last week with his 5 for 5 performance, went for naught this time, getting on base twice via Wolf bobbles.

Wolves committed only four errors — one which allowed the lone Merkel run in the fourth. Badgers' Tokyo

Moreno got one of the two hits off Feaster in the fourth and then scored on two successive C City errors.

The only other Badger hit came in the seventh when Ronnie Reeger doubled but was left stranded on the sacks.

Wolves surprised the Badgers in the night game by rushing across two runs in the first frame.

Jerry Treadwell doubled and then Merket placed his home run over the fence.

In the third inning, Joe Merritt was hit by a pitched ball, Treadwell socked a three-bagger and Merket followed with a triple to push across three more runs and a 5-0 lead.

Leading 5-1 in the fifth, the Wolves scored three more runs. Merket singled, Don Vest doubled and second sacker, Steve Smith singled to bring across the tallies.

Coach Ron Gurley's forces marked up the ninth run in the seventh frame when Vest singled, stole second and trotted across home plate on two Merket errors.

Wolves' B-team was scheduled to play Snyder B here Thursday evening.

Next scheduled competition is here Tuesday when the Wolves host Robert Lee Steers.

Time: It's Important For Coach And School

Selection of a new Colorado City High head coach soon will get down to serious business. That is, the real screening, interviewing of the most promising candidates and actual negotiations for a final selection is almost at hand.

The list of applicants has grown over a period of weeks to include interested "lookers," at least, from just about every classification of Texas Interscholastic League competition — A to AAAAA.

We don't know by what yardstick Colorado Independent School District officials will measure the applicants. Neither do we know just how they will measure the final selection's success or failure in the future.

But this we do know. Athletic coaches and destiny have had a peculiar crossroads in late years here in Colorado City. Four of the last five are no longer public school coaches and three have made a complete break from the coaching profession.

The last two operated with only year-to-year contracts.

It has long been our contention that school boy athletics, especially football, are being over-emphasized to the extent of creating a dangerous win-or-lose sports attitude throughout the state.

But regardless of over-emphasis or de-emphasis, no matter the yardstick by which our new head coach is selected and paid, it appears sound, practical and fair for all concerned if the gentleman is provided a contract for a period of seasons, not just one year.

The longer contract benefits the school, not just the coach, for only over a period of years can a system be installed and proved to be beneficial or a failure on its own merits.

Parents' Shame

Since 1954 there has been a gradual decline in the number of polio cases within the state. Credit for this drop—which for a brief period has just about left Mitchell County untouched by new polio cases—is generally attributed to Salk vaccine.

To emphasize the ratio of decline, accumulated over the years, is the fact 3,037 cases of polio were reported in Texas in 1954 and only 610 cases last year.

But sad heart of the fact, however, is that 76 per cent of the paralytic polio cases last year occurred in persons who had not received any of the Salk inoculations.

Even more shocking is the evidence that almost nine out of 10 of the paralytic polio cases had not completed the basic series of three prescribed shots of anti-polio vaccine.

Last year, 65 per cent of the cases of paralytic polio struck at small children in the birth-to-four age group. These victims couldn't do anything about receiving the Salk shots themselves. The burden of responsibility for this horror falls on those parents who don't care, don't know or don't believe Salk vaccine can keep paralytic polio from striking down victims who mostly are tiny children.

"First, We Must Cross This Bridge"

PHILOSOPHER SAYS

Oh, for a Breath Of That Oxygen!

Editor's note: The Shiner Flats Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Bone Hollow Creek seems to be misconstruing the argument in his letter this week, but it's not the first time.

Dear editor: I don't know how it got here, what with the Berlin crisis on, a summit meeting coming up this summer, Congress in session, and in come taxes due, but right on the front page of a newspaper I ran into a discussion of the farm problem. I always read every article I find on the farm problem. Not to find out what somebody thinks the solution is, but what he thinks the problem is.

the farmer's problem is mostly government aid, and if the government doesn't stop spending so much money supporting farm prices, the consumers are going to revolt, and the farmers will be in worse shape than ever.

Now I don't know how the consumers go about revolting, maybe stop buying all food that's farmer-grown. But what interested me about this man's idea of the farm situation was that he says "the farmer is living under an oxygen tent of government support."

And his idea for solving the problem is to jerk the tent off and let the farmer stand up on his own. I hate to disabuse this fellow, and while I don't know anything about farming in his part of the country, I have to report that the supply of government oxygen tents must have run out before they got out to this Johnson grass farm.

I've got plenty of oxygen out here, but it's not tented. It's right out in the open under the sun, frequently mixed with a little dust. However, agricultural oxygen tents sound good to me. In fact, if the government has got some, why don't they make enough to go around? Ain't this a democracy we're living in?

Riding a tractor under an air-conditioned oxygen tent would go a long way toward solving one of the worst phases of the farm problem, which is going up one row and down another under a hot sun breathing dust.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

'Now or Never' Time Arrives For Bills Before Legislature

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

With just about a month left between now and May 12, automatic adjournment date, it's "now or never" time in the Texas Legislature.

Bill sponsors are challenging other members to "pass it or kill it." No more playing the waiting game. Less juggling of the parliamentary ball.

House Speaker Waggoner Carr gave this "get with it" mood a strong shove by taking a firm stand on tax goals. "There is no Santa Claus," Carr told House members. Texas must raise $300,000,000 in new money to meet its obligations, he said. On "how to do it," the Speaker made these suggestions and observations:

1. A bill is needed "which will include a broad array of selective taxes — including, but not confined to — selective sales taxes."

2. A general sales tax is "out." Lawmakers will — and should — keep their promises not to pass one.

3. "Broad" taxation would include upping levies in areas suggested by the governor — natural gas, liquor, cigarettes, corporations — but at a lower rate than suggested by the governor. In addition, many new items would be added, in keeping with the "spread thin, hurt little" principle.

4. "Piece-meal taxation" is unfair, inadequate to the present challenge. State government should not "reward political favorites." New taxes should be "spread across as much of the Texas economy as possible."

5. Likewise on appropriations. If college professors and state employees get a raise, public school teachers should, too.

Carr's speech was regarded as public announcement that he is taking the reins of leadership to get a tax program passed.

Gov. Price Daniel's comment on Carr's statement was in the vein of "why didn't you say so before?" Daniel said, "I am in agreement with much of it and only wish it had been made 30 days earlier."

House Taxation Committee Chairman V. L. Ramsey of Beckville named a five-man committee to write a tax bill and have it ready early next week.

Given the task are Reps. Wesley Roberts of Lampasas, H. J. Blanchard of Lubbock, Joe Burkett of Kerrville, Ben Atwell of Dallas and Warren C. Cowen of Fort Worth.

ABANDONED PROPERTY — Governor's abandoned property bill has been reported favorably by the House Tax Committee, but sponsors claimed it has been "gutted" by committee action.

As originally proposed, the bill would have allowed the state to take over bank accounts and money and property held by banks, insurance companies, oil and gas companies, etc., if unclaimed for seven years.

As amended, the measure cut all holdings except bank accounts and upped the waiting period to 20 years.

Rep. Marshall O. Bell of San Antonio, sponsor, said this would take away 60 per cent of the revenue raising possibilities.

TEXAS IN 1980 — Creation of a vast "government center" that would cover most of an area seven blocks long and four blocks wide is the aim of the Capitol Hill Master Plan.

Legislators, whose assent will be needed to make the dream a reality, got a preview of the 20-year plan from architects and Building Commission members.

Governor Daniel said the $37,000,000 project could be financed with no new taxes. Income, he said, would come from the Confederate pension fund, funds of state agencies now paying rent for privately owned buildings and funds now available to the Building Commission.

Recommended steps for 1960-61 are buying up several more blocks of land and remodeling the Capitol to provide offices for House members.

PARTY REGISTRATION — A watered-down party registration bill is in line for House consideration after approval of the Elections Committee.

Original proposal by Rep. Jamie Clements of Crockett would have required that a voter state his party preference and have it stamped on his poll tax at time of purchase. Thereafter, the carrier of a "Republican receipt" could not vote in a Democratic primary and vice versa.

Attorney General W. W. Wilson ruled this unconstitutional.

tional. He said it set up requirements for voting not authorized in the constitution.

As amended, the measure provides that a voter would have his receipt stamped when he voted in a primary or participated in party conventions. This would prevent his participating in the convention of a different party until he bought a new poll tax.

Liberal Democrats, particularly DOT spokesmen, were very dissatisfied, even called the attorney general's opinion "dead wrong."

HELP FOR BUSESSES — In this two-car-in-every garage age, public transportation companies say they've fallen into hard times, and need tax relief.

A bill to lower the license fees on motor buses to a rate equal to trucks of the same weight has Senate Transportation Committee approval. It is sponsored by Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas.

City transit companies are asking to be relieved of motor fuel taxes. Rep. Warren C. Cowen of Fort Worth is sponsoring a measure to do this.

Transit companies are caught in a cost squeeze, say supporters, that makes it hard to continue serving working people at reasonable rates. San Antonio transit lines had to give up, were taken over by city government.

SUNDAY SALE BAN — Senate has given final approval to a measure that would prohibit selling, buying or trading motor vehicles on Sunday.

Exempted would be persons who observe some day other than Sunday as the Sabbath, such as Seventh Day Adventists.

Bill had lively opposition from several senators whose argument was that it would "restrict competition in the name of Christianity."

BIBLE COMMENT

Church Founded On Resurrection

With the miracle of the Resurrection of Jesus still fresh in our minds, it might be well to think of the current miracle of the transformation in the lives of men — through founding of the Christian church.

For it is in the miracle of the Resurrection and its effect on the lives of the disciples that the founding of the church began to take place.

Its true founder, of course, is Jesus, and the church is founded in His life and teaching.

Its charter is the Sermon on the Mount, and its mission and purpose the preaching of the good news concerning the gospel of God's love and grace.

But it is the Resurrection that brings the life and teaching of Jesus to its triumphant moment in the lives of those who go forth to preach that gospel in all ages.

If we would see the church strong in our time, we must relive the experiences of the apostles in our minds and hearts and, from them, take new strength to live our lives as Christians.

We must find the faith, vision and courage they possessed.

What was possible then is possible now, if we will but seek the power and guidance of God.

Count 10 for each correct choice. A score of 0-20 is poor; 20-40, average; 40-60, good; 60-100, excellent.

LOCAL BUSINESS

Even the Eskimo Had to be Shown

By JOE ED BOATRIGHT
Record Staff Writer

All of us have heard about the salesman who was so good that he could sell a refrigerator to an Eskimo.

Actually, the idea is not so far-fetched. Refrigerators are used to good advantage in Arctic regions to keep foods at constant temperatures. The salesman only had to show the Eskimo how he could benefit from the use of a refrigerator.

The trader who shows the native how he can make life fuller and his time more profitable by the installation of new equipment enriches the native, himself, and the people engaged in manufacturing the equipment. Such is the function of good salesmanship — or good advertising, which is mass salesmanship.

When an Eskimo buys a refrigerator, or when a native of New Guinea buys a fishing net to use instead of a spear, advertising has played a basic part in the creation of wealth.

In more complex ways, advertising is continuously stimulating the same process in modern society. New markets are not created until advertising convinces the public that the purchase of a product will result in some benefit.

Without advertising, most new products would not be adopted for many years after development. But advertising makes it possible for our economy to benefit from new inventions almost immediately.

How many billions of women-hours at the ironing-board has been saved during the past few years by the introduction of wash-and-wear clothing? Yet we would not be using these goods today except for mass advertising.

The merchant who uses his advertising to create wealth through the introduction of new and better goods does not have to worry about competition. For in the new markets that his advertising is constantly building competition does not have a chance to form.

Why Electric Cooking is CLEAN

An electric range cooks with concentrated, sealed-in-metal heat—the same spotless heat you use to iron clothes. This means that your cooking utensils will stay bright and shiny. Cleanup time is reduced to a minimum.

When you use an electric oven there is no need for a draft of air into and out of the oven. A minimum of cooking vapors is carried into the kitchen. So you can expect your kitchen curtains and walls to stay fresh and new-looking with a minimum of cleaning and care.

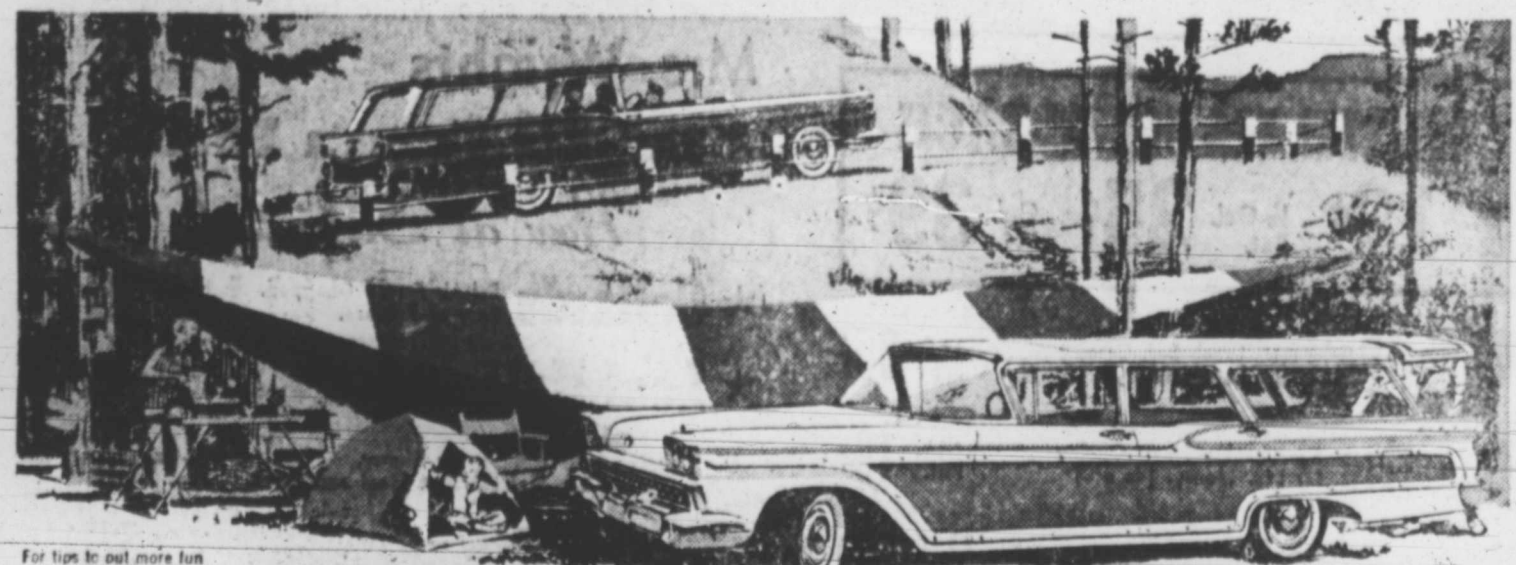

Electric cooking is also cool, fast, accurate and economical. Select your new electric range now and enjoy all these benefits ... at an average cost of only about 3c a meal for electricity.

BEFORE APRIL 15 DEADLINE

Phone Service Available to Assist Income Tax Returns

It's later than you think—only 10 days left to file your Federal income tax return for 1958.

That's the reminder coming from Ben Hawkins, administrative officer for U. S. Internal Revenue Service in Big Spring.

At the same time, Hawkins announced that his Big Spring office will assist those persons, who have not yet filed Colorado City to know," Hawkins said, "that we can provide help for them."

The most convenient service, he explained, is the telephone assistance service designed especially for those taxpayers who find it difficult to visit the district of their '58 returns, to submit their returns before the April 15 deadline.

"We want the citizens of office in Big Spring. "Taxpayers who have started their returns and are puzzled by a problem or two," Hawkins said, "should phone us at AM 4-2612 in Big Spring between the hours of 8:30 a. m. and 12:30 p. m. on Monday and we will be glad to help them."

"Then, if they still need help, they should visit our office at Room 304, Permian Building, Big Spring, between the hours of 8:30 a. m. and 12:30 p. m. Monday."

Hawkins reminded taxpayers that most of them may now use the simple punch-card form 1040A, designed for the first time to cover income up to $10,000 a year consisting of wages reported on the tax - withholding Form W-2 and not more than $200 in dividends, interest, and wages not subject to withholding.

"This convenient short card form for incomes up to $10,000," Hawkins said, "is one of the many new things that Internal Revenue is doing to improve taxpayers' service."

Hawkins said, the Revenue Service has made improved taxpayer service one of its major goals.

To help Colorado City area taxpayers get their returns in by April 15 is part of his larger goal of courteous, fair and prompt handling of taxpayers, together with fearless and impartial administration of the tax laws, Hawkins said.

Other phases of the program, Hawkins said are:

1. Speedier replies to taxpayers' letters in simple, down-to-earth language.

2. Further simplification of tax forms where possible.

3. More expeditious issuance of rulings in tax matters, and faster preparation of tax regulations and their immediate release to taxpayers.

4. Further improvement in tax settlement procedures.

5. Vigorous recruitment efforts to get the cream of each year's crop of college graduates as revenue agents, revenue officers, and special agents, so that taxpayers will be dealing with capable, courteous and highly intelligent personnel.

Gold Star Award For Gas Ranges

There's a new star for the Colorado City homemaker in the gas range firmament.

It is the striking Gold Star Award which goes to gas ranges that meet at least 28 standards of cooking perfection plus two of five optional features of convenience and operating efficiency.

Any gas range manufacturer has the opportunity of qualifying under the Gold Star Award program if his range meets the high standards that are set for these fine cooking appliances.

The Gold Star Award range is the homemaker's assurance of the fastest, coolest, cleanest, most modern, most care-free and economical cooking she ever thought possible. Such ranges provide the ultimate in performance and customer satisfaction.

Among the 28 features the Gold Star Award range must have to don the gold seal are the marvelous "Burner With A Brain," interval timer, self-lighting broiler and oven, plus numerous other automatic and time and work-saving devices.

The owner of a Gold Star Award range also gets the exclusive advantages that only gas can give, like smokeless, closed-door broiling, no hangover heat and other famous cooking features so greatly in demand by the modern homemaker. These features are also available on numerous other top-of-the-line gas ranges not wearing the gold seal.

These gas ranges will make the difference during the April-May spring range campaign featuring those ranges that have qualified for the American Gas Association's Gold Star Award. Participants will be local gas appliance dealers and the Lone Star Gas Company.

These and other manufacturers are making ranges to Gold Star Award standards and the various brand names will be readily recognized on dealer and Lone Star sales floors: Athens Stove Works, Inc.; The Boston Stove Company; Brown Stove Works, Inc.; Caloric Appliance Corporation; Crown Stove Works, Inc.; Dixie Products, Inc.; The Eagle Range and Manufacturing Company; Gaffers and Sattler (Division of Utility Appliance Corporation); Glenwood Range Company; Hardwick Stove Company, Inc.; Magic Chef, Malleable Iron Range Company.

Also the Norge Sales Corporation (Division of Borg-Warner Corporation); O'Keefe and Merritt Company; George D. Roper Corporation; Sunray Stove Company; The Tappan Company, Tennessee Stove Works, Universal (The Cribben and Sexton Company), Wedgewood-Holly Appliances Corporation, Whirlpool Corporation and Whirlpool Corporation.

Puzzle Picture

U. S. Navy's icebreaker Staten Island had visitors while caught in an antarctic situation "for the birds." The photographer counted six penguins who came to see the ship, trapped temporarily by pressure ice in the Ross Sea. We count seven. There's an eighth bird in the picture, however. A whirlybird, its rotor and cab are unobtrusively visible behind ice ridge, background.

Scrip's In His Script

State Sen. Haskell Nichols (R), left, of Jackson, Mich., has introduced a bill in the legislature at Lansing which would permit communities to issue scrip—certificates of indebtedness, issued as currency. Purpose: to tide communities over Michigan's current money problems, should they become desperate. State Sen. Stanley Rozycki (D), right, contributed the example of substitute "money," shown, to this picture. It's a certificate issued by the City of Hamtrack, Mich., during hard times more than a quarter century ago.
