Committee Probers Working In Areas Indicated By Coke

(By The Associated Press)

Rep. Lyndon Johnson, Democratic nominee for the U. S. Senate, demanded today that the Senate seize all Texas ballots cast in the August 28 runoff primary if it impounds the boxes designated by Coke Stevenson, his opponent.

The South Texas probe asked of the Senate by Stevenson got under full swing today, as Johnson made his request in a letter to Senator C. Wayland Brooks, chairman of the senate's committee on rules and administration.

County Clerks Called

Arthur E. Broer of Arlington, Va., chief investigator for the committee, moved into Jim Wells county this morning and subpoenaed C. H. (Hap) Holmgreen, county clerk, to produce all of the ballot boxes used in the August primary, together with their contents. Broer was expected to take similar action in Duval county later.

A second investigator was operating in Zapata and Starr counties. Truman Phelps, Laredo attorney, said last night that the ballot boxes, tally sheets and poll lists of those two counties were seized last night by Joseph Langan, also a committee employe. Phelps said the material would be sent to Washington.

Other Alleged Frauds Cited

Johnson said in his letter to Senator Brooks that if a recount is made, "it must be comprehensive enough to embrace all ballots cast in all the 252 counties where the primary election was held."

He listed local election contests and other evidences which he said pointed to irregularities in Brown, Dallas, Harris, Galveston, Eastland, Wharton, Chambers and Clay counties.

In Jim Wells county, Broer also subpoenaed B. F. (Tom) Donald, former secretary of the county Democratic executive committee, to produce all records in his possession. Donald said he would comply.

A federal investigation into voting in the South Texas counties, ordered last month by U. S. District Judge T. Whitfield Davidson of Dallas, was stopped by the United States Supreme Court on

Trawler Sunk In Collision

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 26 (U.P.)—The 10,000-ton tanker Tullahoma collided with and sank the trawler Colonna off Hooper's island in Chesapeake bay today and Coast Guard officers said five men were still missing.

Officers said the pre-dawn collision occurred at 4:42 a. m. today.

The 110-foot trawler, out of Reedville, Va., went to the bottom, the Coast Guard reported, and 16 of its crew were later picked up by the tanker.

Five Still Missing

Five of the trawler's crew were still unaccounted for.

Officers said the Coast Guard cutter Jonquil from Portsmouth, the cutter Chinook from Baltimore, and a plane from Elizabeth City, N. C., were dispatched to the scene.

The Jonquil was expected to reach the scene by 9 a. m.

Near Mouth Of River

The Coast Guard said the collision took place near the mouth of the Potomac river.

Small craft warnings were fluttering in the area at the time. The weather bureau said a 12-mile-an-hour wind from the west-northwest was kicking up whitecaps in the bay. Officers described the water as "very rough." But it was a clear dawn with no fog.

Paraguay Military Revolt Suppressed

Leader Of Uprising Surrenders With His Followers After 20-Hour Street Battle

(By The Associated Press)

ASUNCION, Paraguay, Oct. 26—Paraguay's new government announced today it had suppressed a military revolt after 20 hours of bitter street fighting.

The regime of President Juan Natalicio Gonzalez said Col. Carlos Montanaro, brother of Foreign Minister Domingo Montanaro, led the uprising.

The revolt started at 1:40 a. m. Monday. Montanaro surrendered with the Paraguayan military academy cadets he led at 7:30 p. m. last night. His brother is attending the United Nations meeting in Paris.

A loyal cavalry regiment stationed at suburban Campo Grande supplied the politically-harassed Gonzalez government the power it needed to suppress the revolution.

Casualties were not disclosed.

The interior ministry said "necessary measures" have been taken to restore normal life in Asuncion. There was no indication the revolt spread to any part of Paraguay outside the capital. The government said the whole country was calm.

Gonzalez was elected president earlier this year. He was the only candidate. In the interval before he took office Aug. 15 the army overthrew President Higinio Morinigo, who had barely suppressed a revolution last year in seven months of hard fighting.

Only a week ago, Mayor Enrique Volta Gaona of Asuncion, a former Gonzalez supporter, was removed from office.

Condition Of Young Victim Said Critical

Howard Stewart Is Still Unconscious In Hospital Here

Howard Stewart, 18, of 218 Ave. G, was critically injured at about 8:25 a. m. today when his one-cylinder motorcycle collided with an automobile at the intersection of Fourth and Ave. O.

Preliminary unofficial reports indicated the youth suffered a fractured skull, broken neck and probably a crushed chest. He was taken by a Bryan McDonald & Son amoulance to West Texas hospital for emergency treatment. At 2 p. m. he had not regained consciousness at the hospital.

Westward On Fourth

Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Stewart, was driving his motorcycle westward on Fourth when it crashed into a light automobile driven by Ewel V. Middleton, 42, of 2103 Eighteenth. Middleton was going east on Fourth, and had just begun a left turn onto Ave. O.

The motorcycle smashed into the right front fender of the auto, throwing Stewart against the car. His head struck the right front windshied post.

Capt. Bill Lamb, Sgt. Harold McInroe and Radio Patrolman William H. Verner of the Lubbock police investigated the accident. At 2 o'clock this afternoon, no charges had been filed as investigation by police continued.

The accident was Lubbock's second serious mishap involving a motor-bike type of vehicle within a week. Wednesday two 14-year-old boys suffered extensive injuries in a similar collision with a car at Twenty-seventh and Ave. S.

Gordon Gibson, 2001 Ave. R, is still hospitalized as result of injuries sustained in the earlier accident. Gibson was the driver of a motor scooter which collided with an auto driven by Venice Alton Ryan, 32, of Lubbock route 7. In the wreck, young Gibson's body broke the windshield of the car.

Jack Vaughn, 14, of 1505 Ave. Q, who was riding in a wagon towed by Gibson's scooter, suffered less serious injuries.

GIRL IS SLAIN — Gertrude Bauman, 17, of Eau Claire, Wis., was found slain on the Eau Claire Country club golf course. The girl had gone on a hike with Raymond Smith, 18, whose body was found about 200 feet away. Both had been shot to death and Miss Bauman criminally attacked. See story page 1, section 2.

Man Killed In Church Blaze

GOLDTHWAITE, Oct. 26 (U.P.)—One man died and 11 others were hurt today fighting a fire which destroyed the beautiful new First Baptist church of Goldthwaite.

T. Barber, 36, died about seven hours after the blaze. He was a service station employe. Only two other persons were hospitalized and their injuries were not serious.

Caught Under Debris

A masonry and brick gable topping the structure fell after what appeared to be an explosion within the church. It fell outward and caught a number of men fighting the blaze under the debris.

Jesse C. Moreland, 31, and O. B. Hale, 38, volunteer firemen remained in a Brownwood hospital.

The fire loss was estimated at $100,000, including a new $6,000 organ.

Brownwood and San Saba firemen aided local firemen.

Services To Be Held

Rev. Joseph Emery, pastor of the church, was in Fort Worth at the time of the blaze. He said the Fairman Funeral home of Goldthwaite had offered the use of its chapel for church services and that they would be held there pending plans for rebuilding the structure.

The church, regarded as one of the most beautiful in this part of Texas, was completed about two

Gen. Hap Says MacArthur Is The Man To Tell Russians Where To Get Off

(By The United Press)

SONOMA, Calif., Oct. 26—Russia is attempting a gigantic bluff against the United States and the Western Allies but is "not ready to fight, doesn't want to fight and won't fight" if her bluff is called General H. H. (Hap) Arnold told the United Press today.

"I've been away from Washington now for a couple of years and I may be slightly off the beam, but that's my considered opinion," the war-time chief of the Army Air Forces said.

Arnold was asked what positive steps the Western Allies might take in the present situation.

"Why not take a motor convoy and push it through the corridor to Berlin," he replied. "Perhaps we might have learned something from George Patton's technique. If Patton were running the show he would take it through."

Asked what the Russians would do if an armed Allied convoy did push through to Berlin, Arnold replied—"not much, if anything."

Technically Retired

Arnold, now technically retired and raising white-faced cattle on his Rancho El Feliz in California's Valley of the Moon, still maintains an office at the nearby Hamilton field Air Force installation.

"We need today the same courage of conviction we had when we marched into Berlin," the white-haired, smooth-faced general said.

"It would be a grave and basic error to let the Communists bluff us out in the present deadlock in Germany.

"They are not ready to fight and they do not want to fight. We should curb the national tendency to be in awe of the Russians, an awe amounting almost to fear. If our people will take the time coolly to analyze what Russia does and does not possess militarily, America will be greatly heartened.

Had Direct Experience

"Of course it's easy to lean against the fence rail here in California and call the shots as to what we should do and should not do on the other side of the world. I may be 100 per cent wrong. But I did have direct experience with the Russians under combat conditions throughout the war and to that extent I base my personal

New Violence Hits French Coal Strike

PARIS, Oct. 26 (AP)—One striker was killed and two policemen were wounded seriously today in southern France in a new outbreak of violence in the nation-wide coal miners' strike.

The interior ministry said government forces passing a strikers' road block near Ales were met by a blast of gunfire and hand grenades. Several policemen were wounded, the ministry said. The striker and the two seriously wounded policemen were struck by gunfire.

The government force was preparing to clear strikers from four coal mines and a power plant near Ales, about 50 miles northwest of Marseille.

Strikers Bear Arms

Reports reaching government headquarters in Paris said the strikers fired first.

As the government force approached the pits, a number of small mines also exploded, a ministry spokesman said.

About 100 strikers were captured, most of them bearing arms, a ministry statement said.

While the police and soldiers were operating between the villages of Rochebelle and Saint Martin De Valgagues, workers in Ales surrounded the subprefecture, the gendarmerie headquarters and the post office. Reserve forces drove them off, an official report to Paris added.

The death of the striker today brought the coal mine strike death toll to three. Two strikers were killed last week in a clash between troops and pickets in St. Etienne.

Quiet In North

The attack near Ales shifted the strike spotlight from northern to southern France. Yesterday,

Chicago Scene Of "Big Berthas" In Campaign Oratory

(By The Associated Press)

The presidential specials streaked into the home stretch today as Gov. Thomas E. Dewey followed President Truman's trail into the big cities hunting victory votes for next Tuesday.

The Chicago stadium provided the setting for both candidates' opening address in the final week of campaign oratory.

There last night Mr. Truman implied that a dictorial form of government might result from a Republican victory in the November 2 election.

There tonight the GOP presidential candidate will discuss "what the three great elements of our country—labor, business and agriculture—have a right to expect from their government."

Truman Cleveland Bound

Mr. Truman meanwhile was headed for Cleveland for the second of the six major addresses that wind up his drive to retain the presidency.

The Democratic standard bearer told his Chicago audience the campaign is more than a battle between two parties. "It is a fight for the very soul of the American government," he said.

This country's freedom and democracy, he said, are seriously threatened by powerful forces of reaction "working through the Republican party."

"In our own time," he added, "we have seen the tragedy of the Italian and German peoples who lost their freedom to men who made promises of unity and efficiency and security."

"And it could happen here," Mr. Truman said.

He called Republican leaders men of "little vision" who gave "lip-service" to democracy and make "soap-bubble promises" that "vanish at the first touch of reality."

Dewey Also Confident

"Everywhere I go," Mr. Truman said, "I hear news and see faces that make me know the tide is rolling for us."

"We are sweeping toward victory," he confidently proclaimed.

Dewey was reported equally confident as he set out last night for the windy city. A few hours before he left Albany, the New York governor conferred with

State Rests In Trial Of Duty

The state rested its case at 11:15 a. m. against Hildred Milton Duty, 28, taxicab driver charged with murder in the July 19 shooting of James W. Hickman, 55, railroad yardmaster.

The defense had presented two witnesses before 72nd District Judge Dan Blair declared a noon recess.

Judge Blair ordered the jury and witnesses to return into court at 1:30 p. m.

Offer Six Witnesses

District Attorney Lloyd Croslin and assistant District Attorney A. W. Salyars introduced six witnesses, including Croslin, to the stand, as well as the defendant's signed statement given soon after the shooting in 1000-block Ave. J.

After Kenneth Berry and Robert Clark, two youths who took Hickman to a hospital after the shooting, had testified, Croslin took the stand and attempted to give evidence he classified as Hickman's "dying declaration." Robert Porter, who with Grady West is defense counsel, objected that proper predicate had not been established to show that Hickman was in a dying condition and that the victim had been so apprised at the time he told the district attorney from his hospital bed his version of what had happened.

Doctors Are Called

Whereupon, Croslin and Salyars called Dr. Allen T. Stewart and Dr. Clarence Mast to the stand. Dr. Stewart, testimony showed, had informed a hospital nurse in hearing of Hickman — who was said by the physician to have been fully conscious at the time—that the district attorney should be called; that Hickman would not have "much more time."

Then Croslin, with the predicate laid, testified.

Sgt. J. T. Alley, jr., then testified for the state, after which the defendant's voluntary statement was admitted into the record.

After a brief recess, the defense placed Capt. Gilbert Newton

DARK DAYS FOR CHIANG KAI-SHEK

Chinese Uneasy As Red Tide Rolls On

(By The Associated Press)

PEIPING, Oct. 26.—Chinese in uneasy Peiping are talking about a possible new Dunkirk—a Dunkirk of Manchuria.

The port of escape may be newly-recaptured Yingkow, on the western neck of the Liaotung peninsula. It is 100 miles southwest of Mukden and across the Gulf of Chihli from Hulatao, also held by the government.

Has Clear Route

For the first time since early last spring, the government has a clear route from Mukden to Yingkow, and this has heightened talk of getting out of the sliver of Manchuria not yet taken by the Chinese Communists.

To many observers here it seems a foregone conclusion that Chiang Kai-Shek shortly will order the withdrawal of his troops from the Manchurian corridor.

(In Nanking, however, a government military spokesman denied knowledge of any evacuation plans. The American embassy, which keeps a close watch through its consulate at Mukden, said it had not heard of any such plans).

Chiang flew to Mukden today to confer with his commanders there. These are the hard facts facing them in the winter of another year of the civil war:

The government can hope to hang on to its narrow corridor while meeting new Communist threats in north and northwest China.

Or it can withdraw entirely

New York Bus Strike Ends On Fifth Hour

NEW YORK, Oct. 26. (AP)—Bus drivers were ordered back to work today four hours after they struck in the city's biggest surface transportation tie-up which affected 3,500,000 New Yorkers.

Michael J. Quill, international president of the CIO Transport Workers union, ordered the 8,500 union members back to work on seven privately-operated buslines.

Quill issued the order to a mass demonstration of workers outside state public service commission headquarters in the Woolworth building. He spoke a moment after Mayor William O'Dwyer made a sudden, dramatic appearance at the demonstration and urged the men to return to their jobs.

Fliers Will Receive Badges With Supper

LONGVIEW, Oct. 26. (U.P.)—Two Dallas endurance fliers seeking to stay aloft 1,500 hours or nearly double the present record, were scheduled today to become honorary deputy sheriffs of Gregg county.

Sheriff Noble Crawford plans to send up their badges along with their suppers about dusk.

The pilots, Pred Vinmont and Bert Simmons, will complete their first six days in the air at 6:01 p. m. Both said they were feeling excellent and were confident of keeping their plane going until about Christmas.

This prompted a query from the ground crew as to what they wanted from Santa Claus. Vinmont said "a soft bed, a bathtub and a clean pair of pajamas."

Little Change Seen In Texas Weather

(By The United Press)

U. S. weather forecasters held out little hope today for a change in Texas' current weather.

Fair to partly cloudy conditions were reported throughout the state today with no rain reported from any section. A weak cool front, creeping into the extreme northern edge of the Panhandle, however, was expected to lower temperatures a few degrees.

Temperatures early today ranged from 38 degrees at Junction to 62 at Galveston. Yesterday's readings ranged from 80 degrees at Laredo to 66 at Marfa.

BALLINGER, Oct. 26 (AP) — Claiming injuries and damages to himself and three members of his family, E. H. Kunkel, Lamesa, entered a damage suit against the Santa Fe railroad today.

Kunkel asked a total of $144,405 in his suit filed in 119th district court. The suit is an outgrowth of an automobile-train accident here June 3.

Hearing Held On Gas Waste

AUSTIN, Oct. 26 (AP) — The saving of gas now flared in Texas oil fields would be a material contribution to national defense, presidents of two gas transmission companies agreed today.

Appearing as witnesses at the Texas Railroad Commission's hearing on whether 17 fields should be closed because of gas-flaring, the two men said their companies are interested in buying all the flare gas that it is economically feasible to take.

Paul Kayser of Houston, president of El Paso Natural Gas, said the company's pipeline capacity is now 370-million cubic feet per day, of which approximately 60 percent is flare gas. He outlined plans for enlargement of capacity to take some 900-million cubic feet out of the Permian basin and nearby fields by 1953.

Fields May Be Closed

Commission Chairman Ernest O. Thompson asked Kayser: "Would you say the saving of this (flare) gas would contribute materially to the internal security and national defense of this country?"

"Unquestionably," the gas company president answered.

Agreement with his viewpoint has voiced by Gardner Symonds of

Tech Students Hurt When Hit By Auto

Two Texas Tech girl students were injured, one sustaining a possible fractured leg, when they were struck by an automobile while crossing College avenue in the 1400 block at about 1 p. m. today.

Elizabeth Yeary, of Fort Worth, the more seriously injured of the two, was taken by Rix Funeral home ambulance to Lubbock Memorial hospital, where authorities said she suffered a possible leg fracture. Several x-rays were taken to determine the exact extent of her injury.

Miss Yeary's companion, Jan Riley, of Wichita Falls, received a slight injury to her left arm, but hospital officials said that preliminary examinations indicated it was not serious.

A report on the accident had not been completed at city police headquarters at 2 p. m., and the name of the driver had not yet been disclosed.

Boy Only Bruised As Train Goes Over Him

CLINTON, Ia., Oct. 26. (AP)—A year-old boy who lay between the rails while a 17-car freight train passed over him showed only bruises today.

The child is Allan Lee Langrehr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Langrehr.

The baby, left with his grandmother yesterday while his parents shopped, awakened from a nap and toddled out to the nearby Milwuakee railroad tracks before his absence was noted.

Two trainmen saw the freight thunder over the child. They found him crying but otherwise unhurt. A physician said today the x-rays showed no internal injuries.

Four Airmen Parachute From Plane Before Mountain Crash

(By The Associated Press)

DENVER, Oct. 26—An airman reported today that he and three others aboard a missing Air Force B-17 parachuted today before the plane crashed into a mountain in northwestern Colorado.

Maj. Philip Wachtel of Lowry Air Force base said Staff Sgt. James L. Helms, radio operator on the craft, telephoned from Silt, Colo., that he was the last aboard to parachute from the disabled plane. It left Hamilton base at San Francisco for Denver at 10:01 p. m. (MST) yesterday.

Wachtel said Helms reported was "shaken up" after leaping "fairly low" from the plane. He had not seen any of the others after leaving the craft. He did not report the time of the crash.

Seven C-47s and a ground team were scouring the area near Colorado's Grand Mesa for the missing trio. Helms reported the plane crashed four miles northeast of Haystack mountain.

Wachtel identified those aboard as First Lieut. William H. McQuinn, First Lieut. Stewart S. Ackerman, and Staff Sgt. Edward A. Cook, all of Denver.

THE CROSSLEY POLL

Gov. Dewey's Voting Strength Distributed Widely Over U.S.

By ARCHIBALD M. CROSSLEY
Director, The Crossley Poll

Governor Dewey's top fifteen states include three in New England, two in the Middle Atlantic states, four in the industrial midwest, five in the agricultural belt, and one on the Pacific Coast. These are the states in which the Dewey-Warren ticket should achieve its highest percentages of total voters. For each of them, the poll shows 54% or better.

Following in rank order are the final poll percentages shown for each leading candidate as of the third week in October, with the undecided group eliminated. They are subject to normal variation of at least two percentage points plus or minus for the major parties, due to the limitations of samples of the population. In the final days of the campaigns, Wallace may show some decline, and Truman may gain a small amount.

In 1944 the four most Republican states in rank order were Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota and Vermont.

Southern Gain Seen

Dewey's percentage of the total vote this year in Massachusetts, New York, Michigan, Washington, California, and a group of Mountain and other states is expected to be lower than for the states shown above. The poll indicates that Dewey will make gains over 1944 in total vote in several southern states, will profit in relation to the Democratic party in a number of them due to the Thurmond vote, and may carry one southern state.

While the Dewey vote relationship to the Truman vote will show a widespread improvement over the Dewey-Roosevelt standing, there will be individual states where the results may be very close, due to local political conditions.

The next and final article will present a complete round-up for all states together with a summary of the principal findings of the full poll series.

Says Man Has Strange Powers That Work While He Sleeps

A strange man in Los Angeles, known as "The Voice of Two Worlds," reveals the story of a remarkable system that often leads to improvement in power of mind, achievement of brilliant business and professional success and new happiness. Many report improvement in health. Others tell of increased bodily strength, magnetic personality, courage and poise.

The man, a well-known explorer and geographer, tells how he found these strange methods in far-off and mysterious Tibet, often called the land of miracles by the few travelers permitted to visit it. He discloses how he learned rare wisdom and long hidden practices, closely guarded for three thousand years by the sages, which enabled many to perform amazing feats. He maintains that these immense powers are latent in all of us, and that methods for using them are now simplified so that they can be used by almost any person with ordinary intelligence.

He maintains that man, instead of being limited by a one-man-power-mind, has within him the mind-power of a thousand men or more as well as the energy-power of the universe which can be used in his daily affairs. He states that this sleeping giant of mind-power, when awakened, can make man capable of surprising accomplishments, from the prolonging of youth to success in many fields. Strangely, he says that this power works best while we sleep, when proper methods are used.

The author states the time has come for this long-hidden system to be disclosed to the Western world, and offers to send his amazing 9000-word treatise which reveals many startling results—to readers of this paper, free of cost or obligation. New Evening Dress Uniform For Women Exhibited By U. S. Navy

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (INS) — The Navy saluted the new social season today by introducing the first evening dress uniform ever approved for women in the United States armed forces.

The sweeping, floor-length evening dress, like all other uniforms devised for Waves, was designed by Mainbocher.

The famous American designer, who was present at the Pentagon fashion show where the new uniform was previewed, explained that it will be worn by Waves and Navy nurses at official dinners, receptions and other formal functions.

New Dress Described

The three-piece evening dress features a long, slightly-flared skirt of sheerest navy wool. Topside, a white silk-pleated blouse is worn under a short eton jacket with two rows of twinkling gold buttons.

A wide navy faille sash around the waist completes the ensemble, which is worn with white kid gloves and a square faille envelope bag with one gold button.

Instead of the combination navy hat worn by women officers, the evening dress uniform will be worn with a small, pet navy felt diadem with faille piping and shining gold and silver insignia in the center.

Other Uniforms Planned

Mainbocher said the dress uniform is meant to combine "dignity and distinction with femininity."

The new uniform, however, will not be worn by women Navy officers until a new dress uniform for male officers is approved by the Navy.

A complete set of revised uniforms for Waves and Navy nurses was presented at today's showing. The new skirts were all 13-inches from the floor and flared gracefully.

Existing uniforms will not become obsolete until 1952, although some of the new models will be distributed to Navy women this spring.

Hat, Hair Appear To Protect People From Type Of Cancer

BY FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Staff Writer

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 26 — A man's hat and a woman's hair appear to offer some degree of protection from the type of skin cancer that can result from chronic exposure to the sun, a Missouri doctor said today.

Declaring cancers of the skin appear most frequently on the face, neck and forearm, wrist and hand as a consequence of chronic exposure to solar rays, Dr. J. A. Regato of Ellis Fischel State Cancer hospital at Columbia told of observations in 2,000 cases.

"Only one in every four patients was a woman," he declared in a report to the Southern Medical association's 42nd meeting, "but women accounted for more than half of the carcinomas (skin cancers) of the forehead.

"This is apparently due to the usual protection of this area in men, by a hat or cap. Women had little cancer of the skin of the ear or neck, which are well protected by their hair."

He said cancer of the skin is frequently observed in individuals who, by virtue of their occupation, are chronically exposed to sunshine, "such as sailors and farmers."

Two Distinguished

He distinguished between "carcinoma" of the skin and "malignant malanoma" — another form of malignant tumor of the skin which arises commonly from the head, chest and legs. The doctor said a malanoma-type cancer of the skin has no relationship to sunshine.

"Carcinomas of the skin," he said, "are highly cugable by x-rey and those which fail are those that have received previous inadequate treatment such as home remedies, caustic pastes, or unskillful treatment of any kind."

Parliament In Crucial Meet

LONDON, Oct. 26. (AP)—King George VI opened the new session of Parliament amid ancient pomp today and called for the nationalization of Britain's steel industry.

Thousands of spectators stood in a drizzing rain to watch the monarch and Queen Elizabeth drive in a state coach from Buckingham Palace to the Houses of Parliament to open the crucial session.

Before dawn crowds gathered at the palace to get a close view of the houshold cavalry, in full dress uniform, which escorted the royal couple.

Legal Aid Mentioned

On the throne in the House of Lords the King wore his crown and robes of state for the first time in 10 years.

Foreshadowing a bitter fight on steel nationalization, which Winston Churchill's Conservatives have opposed, the King announced:

"A measure will be laid before you to bring under public ownership those companies extensively engaged in the production of iron ore, or of pig iron or steel, or in shaping of steel by the rolling process."

That was all the king said on steel in his speech written for him according to custom, by his ministers. He said also "you will be asked to consider proposals for making legal aid and advice more readily available to persons of small or moderate means."

Some lawyers fear the latter proposal will amount to "nationalizing" the legal profession.

Lords' Powers Involved

The extent of the governments' plans will not be known until the bill is introduced. The general feeling is it will not be as broad as Labor's health insurance program, already enacted, which makes medical and dental hospital care free to all.

The King said the legislative program will include reintroduction of a measure to curb the power of the House of Lords. The measure has been defeated twice by the Lords, but third passage by the Labor-dominated House of Commons would make it law.

Referring briefly to the international situation, the King said attempts to repair the ravages of the war "have been hindered by distrust and dissension between the nations."

"Yet," he said, "with mutual confidence and good will, the problems now facing us would not defy solution and the peoples of the world would be able to live in peace and enjoy the fruits of their labors."

In his speech the King referred to "general aid of the United States" through the European recovery program.

13th Accident Lucky For Battered Porch

DUNCANNON, Pa., Oct. 26 (UP)—Mrs. Mabel Lukens found the 13th accident lucky for her.

Twelve times this year automobiles and trucks failed to make the curve on Route 22 outside Duncannon and crashed into Mrs. Lukens' front porch.

But the 13th wayward vehicle, a heavily-loaded tractor-trailer, caromed from the highway curb, crashed and rolled to a stop three inches from Mrs. Lukens' battered porch.

FANS PUT HIM IN THE HOSPITAL—Jack Carroll, 24-year-old crooner who won a nationwide talent show, leaves his New York broadcast and is mobbed by autograph-seeking fans whose enthusiasm put him in the hospital. A policeman rescued him and put him in a taxi, headed for Carroll's Belleville, N. J., home. The singer collapsed in the cab and was taken to a Newark, N. J., hospital where he is in serious condition with bruises and internal injuries.

Wallaceite Will End Campaign This Week

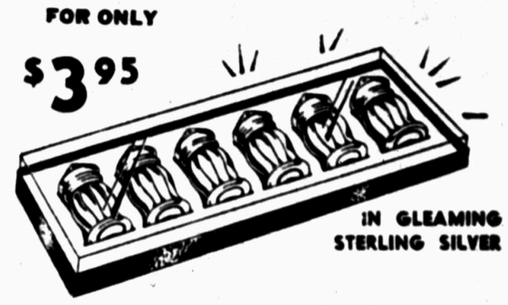

HOUSTON, Oct. 26 (AP)—Herman Wright, Progressive party candidate for governor, said he will wind up his campaign this week in Dallas and Houston. He plans appeals to college students.

The Houston attorney is scheduled to speak on the campus of Southern Methodist university in Dallas and Thursday at Rice institute here.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Cultured Woman Is Dashed By Poor Return To Hospitable Dinners Served In Washington

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I have been reading your articles and enjoying them very much, and was particularly interested in your column of October 7, in which you advise the mature-age professional woman, alone in life, not to be childish or timid in the field of friendships, and to invite a respected man co-worker to dinner, if she so inclines.

The implications of that discussion apply to me in various ways, but leave certain questions unanswered, at least in the light of my experience.

I am a mature cultured woman with an excellent position and a lovely apartment-home. I am attractive, chic and look ten years younger than my calendar-age, according to the testimony of relatives and friends.

At present I am living away from family-roots, so to speak, my work having caused me to settle here, and at first I bid for new friendships in this locality by the hospitable procedure which you encourage. In every way, I exemplified the spirit of the aphorism, "He who would have friends must be friendly."

MEN DON'T BOTHER TO SAY THANK YOU

I GAVE lovely dinners at which nothing was lacking, and faithful to the proprieties, I never dined a man alone but always had another couple, sometimes a married couple. But to my utter puzzlement I never received any courtesy from these men guests in return; not even a thank-you message by mail or telephone. I repeat, I never heard from them again.

I mentioned this to an elderly worldly-wise woman friend of mine back home, who said that men in Washington are terribly spoiled and run-after, dreadfully afraid of being ensnared, and take almost any social favor for granted. Be that as it may, I never have known how to act or what to say when I see these ingrate guests again.

How does a woman act in such circumstances? Is one to persevere in "being a friend" at the expense of being played for a fool, or at least being made to feel like one? Please advise.

(Signed) S. C.

WOMAN IS BARKING UP WRONG TREE

DEAR S. C.: Well, now, if you are talking of Washington men, or rather of Washington's "extra men," you are barking up the wrong tree in expecting them to register modest responsive appreciation of lonely Mrs. Newbody's hospitality; or so I gather from reading reports on the subject for 15 years.

The consensus of those "in the know," who care to tell, is that Washington's bonafide or ersatz bachelors, whether in school, in trade, international diplomacy or government service (just so long as they've reached long-pants age), have found themselves so much in demand as social props in the last quarter-century that fine behavior in acknowledging hospitality is an all-but-lost art to them.

Critical observers, who bother to stalk the current species and report its habits for whatever reasons, relate that quality-manners and feelings to match seem to figure as rarely in its gulp-and-gallop social pattern (to purloin a phrase of David Cohn's), as dress suits figure in Zulu festivities.

WASHINGTON BEAUX TOO MUCH PURSUED

A DECADE ago I was told by a mother, wise humorous wife of a Government bigwig from the Middle West, that after some years in Washington, observing the spoiling effects of the social climate on the young male ego, she resolved to keep her teen-age sons at a far distance from the city until they were married and safely in charge of a girl with sense and spirit.

Thus it would appear that you don't need to feel that your talents for friendship have withered away, just because you can't catch a beau by "feeding the brute" in a town where brokenfield running from feminine pursuit has been bachelor exercise for many years.

For advice, when you meet negligent fellows who've failed to thank you nicely for dinner hospitality, behave as you please, but don't shrink in shamed chagrin, as if seeing a man who'd pushed you in the face for wanton presumption. Be amiably vague, as if you scarcely remember the name; or cordially kind, if the spirit moves. The circumstances of the encounter and your spontaneous reaction to the man's behavior of the moment should be your guide.—M. H.

Lubbock County Irrigation Is Cited In National Magazine

A national magazine this month cites Lubbock county and some of its farmers for the progress they have made in restoring profitable grazing lands for livestock in the Southwest.

Country Gentleman, national farm magazine, features the county in an article titled "Irrigated Pastures." The story tells how new methods of watering dry lands in the Southwest are bringing back the livestock that cash crops such as cotton chased off.

Irrigation Boom Cited

Progress made by the county is measured by the experiences of county residents, Otis Isom, Fred Kveton, Frank Gray, Jason Gordon, John Joiner, and County Agent D. W. Sherrill and his assistant Leroy Cogan.

Neil M. Clark, author of the article, chose Lubbock county on which to base his story because he found the county indicative of the irrigation boom going on throughout the whole Southwest.

Improvement Shown

Clark writes that because of pump irrigation, the character of agriculture in the county changed completely in less than a quarter century, and claims the reasons for the change were "tough, pocketbook reasons." He gives statistics which show the percentage of the improved economy in the county and the possibilities for continued progress.

The illustrations are photographs showing scenes in the county. County Agent Sherrill is pictured in one discussing pasture with a specialist. Fred Kveton and Assistant County Agent Leroy Colgan are shown in another looking over Kveton's pasture which carried three head of grown cattle per acre throughout last season.

RED ADMIRAL DIES

MOSCOW, Oct. 26 (AP) — The navy newspaper Red Fleet announced today the death of Rear Adm. N. V. Antonov, commander of the Amur river flotilla. He served in the Baltic during the war against Germany. His decorations included the Order of the Soviet Union, the Order of Lenin and two Orders of the Red Banner.

Poland Active On War Lines

WARSAW, Poland, Oct. 26 (AP) —The Polish government, standing fast with Russia in everything she does, says it is interested only in keeping the peace, but things are happening that resemble preparations for war.

Government officials discount or deny reports of unusual defense activity. Their standard reply is "Poland is peacefully going ahead with rebuilding what the war destroyed."

War Talk Spreads

Unofficially, war talk is widespread, but most Poles apparently believe the Western Allies will back down on the Berlin issue to keep the peace. The Polish press editorially is warning that the strength of the Russian forces is causing the West to reflect. War fears, however, have boosted black market demands for the American dollar. Speculators are paying 1,200 zlotys to the dollar. The official rate is 400.

The Polish army is sticking closely to its conscription plan of drafting young men for two years' compulsory military training.

The army's standing strength last was reported officially at 166,000 men. It is believed to be closer to 200,000, and with the calling of reserves probably could be multiplied several times.

Polish Youth Trained

Under the cloak of the organization called "in the service of Poland," hundreds of thousands of Polish youth are now learning — and soon their number will run into millions — how to shoot and kill. Sponsors of the movement say the youths' military training averages 16 hours monthly.

But it is not uncommon to see hundreds of youths marching through the streets of Warsaw long after midnight.

In an order reminiscent of the war, the government has ordered Poles to "save everything" that can be used. That includes everything from rags and broken glass to old iron and metals. These are needed, it is claimed, to spur national reconstruction.

'Is there still so much demand for telephone service?"

Every month in the Southwest we get some 50,000 orders for telephone service.

This demand makes a shortage. Telephone service will be plentiful when we overtake the demand. Meanwhile there is less equipment to give service with than we need.

In 1946 we expected to catch up with our backed-up orders by spending 240 million dollars on new equipment, spread over a few years. Soon we had to increase that amount—to 400 million dollars, and later to about 500 million, where it stands now; twice what it was.

Higher costs for materials and for labor are two reasons for the increase. But the main reason is that the job keeps getting bigger.

As fast as we can—and that means twice as fast as prewar—we're changing dollars into switchboards, telephone lines, buildings, man-hours—everything it takes for more telephone service. In the last three years we've made the Southwestern telephone network more useful to users by adding over 800,000 telephones.

About 180,000 persons are now waiting for telephones in the Southwest. Most of these are fairly recent applicants. The majority ordered telephones this year. Except for some places with special problems, there has been a large and steady turnover in the waiting list.

We want to get a telephone to everyone who wants one, and keep improving the service to make it worth more to you all the time. Your understanding helps a lot. Thanks.

Huge Pennsylvania Labor Vote May Determine Election Winner

(By The Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26—The unpredictable labor vote may well swing the election in traditionally Republican Pennsylvania next week.

FDR bagged the state's 35 vital electoral votes the past three presidential campaigns but the GOP held onto statehouse control.

Now both Democratic and Republican chieftains are claiming the rich industrial empire. An estimated 80 per cent of the 4,758,058 eligible voters will decide the issue.

The labor picture is paramount with 500,000 CIO and 500,000 AFL members along with some 200,000 independent United Mine workers. They rule a big block of the voter registrations.

Miner Chieftain John L. Lewis says President Truman is "incompetent" but then just as strongly he attacks the Taft-Hartley law which has Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's okay.

Murray Backs Truman

CIO President Philip Murray of Pittsburgh backs Mr. Truman because the President insists on repeal of the Taft-Hartley act. AFL national leaders also are fighting the Taft-Hartley law.

Labor plumped for President Roosevelt in 1936, 1940 and 1944 as he rolled up impressive majorities in Pennsylvania's heavily populated industrial cities.

GOP National Chairman Hugh D. Scott, jr., a Philadelphia member of the U. S. House of Representatives, predicts Pennsylvania voters will give the Republican ticket a 400,000 majority.

Philip Mathews, Democratic state chairman, says "four years ago the people of Pennsylvania rejected Governor Dewey's bid for the presidency and this year they will do it again."

Progressive State Chairman J. W. Gitt says "the people" are rallying in greater numbers behind Henry Wallace—but he doesn't predict victory.

GOP Has Record

The candidates—all save the States Rights standard bearer J Strom Thurmond — showed their regard for Pennsylvania as a prize worth fighting for. All made major speeches in the keystone state, Mr. Truman twice.

Even the vice-presidential nominees—Democrat Alben Barkley, Republican Earl Warren and Progressive Glen Taylor — have stumped the hinterlands.

GOP administrations have governed Pennsylvania for more than 50 years except for the 1935-38 Democratic regime of Gov. George H. Earle who now is backing Dewey.

Roosevelt's victories were earned in the metropolitan areas with Philadelphia and Pittsburgh together turning in a 200,000 majority, double FDR's lead in the entire rest of the state.

Pittsburgh, in reality, is the Democratic stronghold in Pennsylvania but Republican Chairman James J. Malone, jr., said he's confident the GOP will carry the steel city "by a very comfortable margin." Democratic leader Bernard M. McGinnis, however, predicts victory "by at least 100,000 votes."

Congress Victories Sought

In Philadelphia, Democratic City Chairman James Finnegan says "we'll carry the city by a substantial majority." His GOP counterpart, William Meade disagrees: "The Republicans will make a clean sweep in Philadelphia."

Along with the presidency both Republicans and Democrats claim success in the 33 congressional district contests in the state. The GOP hopes "at least" to hold its own 28 seats. Democrats claim they will gain up to eight seats in addition to their present five. The GOP also rules the legislature which will be filled anew.

Los Alamos Seeks Texas Annexation

LOS ALAMOS, N. M., Oct. 26 (INS)—A petition was circulated at Los Alamos today asking the state of Texas to annex the New Mexico atomic research center.

The move toward "legal revolution" by residents of the government's atomic project resulted from the New Mexico supreme court's recent ruling that Los Alamoans are not residents of New Mexico for voting purposes.

Adding insult to injury, the New Mexico attorney general's office held last week that non-voting Los Alamosans are not entitled to the less expensive resident hunting and fishing licenses.

The attorney general's decision was considered the inspiration for the petition. Legal complications were feared, however, since Los Alamos is located almost in the center of New Mexico, about 200 miles from the Texas border.

Winners On Jackpot Programs Received Thrill, But It Hasn't Changed Living Ways

NEW YORK, Oct. 26 (AP) — Winning a lot of money is a thrill, but it doesn't change your way of living so very much, some of the winners on "give-away" radio programs said today.

Last Dec. 6, a telephone rang and a voice asked "is this Mrs. Ruth Subbie of Fort Worth, Texas?" That call paid her $24,000 in prizes from the "Truth or Consequences" program.

The United Press rang the telephone of Mrs. Subbie and some of the other major prize winners and asked them what they had done with their winnings.

Traded Off Mink Coat

Mrs. Subbie said she traded the $1,500 mink coat that she won for three $500 muskrat coats for herself and her two grown daughters. She sold the airplane and the trailer-house because she had no use for them. She used the money to pay the income tax on her winnings and paid off a $2,000 mortgage on her home. She kept the $1,000 diamond ring, the diamond wristwatch and the Buick convertible.

The experience gave Mrs. Subbie quite a lift. She turned author and wrote a book entitled "This Is It?" Three publishers rejected it and a fourth is now reading it.

Then she settled down to her old way of living. She does her own housework, attends her ladies club meetings and listens to radio give-away programs. Her husband still has the same job. Of an evening he returns to the same home, repainted inside and out as one of the prizes, and they entertain the same friends. They talk about the expenses-paid trip to Hawaii which she won, and will probably take it next summer.

Getting something for nothing hasn't changed the personal philosophies of the people who won.

Mrs. Lillian Finneran of Providence, R. I., is still waiting for someone to pay a reasonable price for the $3,500 fishing cruiser and some of the other prizes she won in her $18,000 take from "Stop The Music" on May 9.

"They think because I got them for nothing, I ought to sell them for nothing," she said.

The only thing Mrs. Finneran gave away was the one night's services of Cab Calloway and his orchestra which she donated to the Christian Brothers school for its annual dance.

None of the winners wants to see give-away programs abolished, not even Mrs. Robert Learman of St. Louis, who won the "Truth or Consequences" jackpot on Oct. 16 when it had built up to only $6,000.

"It was a tough break, she said. Mrs. Learman's prizes are still arriving and she's excited. She thinks she'd like to keep all of them. She's also getting a lot of help from friends who are bringing her their entries in all kinds of contests.

"People seem to think I'm an expert now," she said.

Southwest Lakes Top Tourist Attractions

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (AP) — Two man-made lakes in the Southwest are the nations greatest public recreational attractions, the National Park service said today.

They are Lake Texoma, in Texas and Oklahoma, and Lake Mead in Arizona and Nevada.

Behind them, in third place as a tourist magnate, is the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D. C.

Newton B. Drury, park service director, said there were 19,608,318 visitors to the area in his charge during the travel year ended Sept. 30.

Lake Texoma recreational area, with 500 miles of shoreline, drew 2,397,508 visitors, and Lake Mead recreational area 1,607,422.

Drury said the phenomenal popularity of Lakes Texoma and Mead probably was due to the absence of other large fishing and recreational waters in the Southwest.

Hundreds of thousands of tourists visited Lake Texoma in the preceding travel year also, but the small staff was unable to keep records.

The breakdown of visitors during the 1948 season, with 1947 visitor count, if any, in parentheses includes:

National parks:

Big Bend, Tex., 40,974 (25,334); Bryce Canyon, (159,043); Carlsbad Caverns, N. M., 431,709 (405,735);

National monuments:

Aztec Ruins, N. M., 14,376 (13,382); Bandelier, N. M., 28,072 (23,857).

THE WAY OF DEMOCRACY

Man's Ingenuity Has Conceived Nothing Better

Throughout their history, the American people have met challenge after challenge with voluntary group action. As social problems have arisen they have been solved by free enterprise and American initiative.

Today's challenge, the potentially ruinous cost of hospital and medical-surgical care, is being met by Texans through the typically democratic Blue Cross and Blue Shield plans. These non-profit programs, through voluntary group action, offer a method of prepaying hospital and surgical care without hardship. Members make a small monthly payment and thus are relieved of worry about the expense of hospital and doctors' services. In Blue Cross and Blue Shield, American principles are applied to solve one of the most pressing problems of the times.

BLUE CROSS and BLUE SHIELD

—nonprofit prepayment program for hospital-surgical care. A public service, the plans adhere strictly to American principles and practices and to the fundamentals of nonprofit operation.

Michigan Wolverines Retain Top Spot In U.S. Football

Idalou Takes Firm Grasp On 4-B Lead

The District 4-B conference football race isn't over yet, but the Idalou Wildcats are taking a firm grasp on the lead with an undefeated record, adding to their record with a 33-0 trouncing of the Meadow Broncs last Thursday.

The defeat virtually eliminated Meadow from any contention for the lead and dropped them into a tie for third. It also gave New Deal, beaten already by Idalou, a chance to move up in the race, which the Lions did on a 38-13 defeat of Ropesville. The victory installed the New Deal eleven as favorites to remain as Idalou's closest contenders.

The defeat of Ropes kept them tied with Meadow, but instead of being tied for second, the teams both dropped down to third. Whiteface went outside the conference to lose and remained in the running for a high finish with a record of one victory and one defeat.

Frenship Wins

Frenship startled the conference fans with a 14-7 victory over Cooper's Pirates to end their drought of football victories. In addition, they moved into sixth place, while the Pirates remained in the cellar without a victory.

Keithal Henry, an outstanding player all week, showed again that he is one of the classiest backs in the conference in leading New Deal to victory. He received able assistance from John Jordan in rolling to an impressive victory.

Oscar Powers was oustanding for Whiteface, as the Antelopes lost a 19-6 game to O'Donnell of District 4-A. And Duane Preston spearhead Frenship's Tigers to victory, although getting a lot of help from Pete Edwards.

Dimmitt And Hale Center Both Undefeated In 3-B Conference

Dimmitt's Bobcats and Hale Center's Owls refused to open up the District 3-B conference gridiron race over the week end, both teams winning games to remain undefeated and untied in loop play.

The Olton Mustangs didn't even come close to scaring the Bobcats, who walked off with a 32-13 victory. And the Owls had an even easier time of it, dropping Amherst under a 43-0 barrage. Each team has won four games and lost none to remain in a deadlock for first place.

Springlake, which had been floating along in the background as the dark horse, took another step up the ladder with a 7-0 victory over the Friona Chiefs. The one-touchdown win broke a tie with Olton for third place and left Springlake in undisputed possession of that spot.

Olton In Fourth

Olton's loss dropped them to fourth, Friona remained in fifth and idle Petersburg remained in sixth position. Anton climbed into a tie with Amherst for seventh, scoring its first victory of the season, a 14-6 victory over Whitharral, which has not won a game and is in the cellar.

Several players stood out over the week end, with Lonnie Rice, the clever Dimmitt quarterback, hurting his fair name not at all. Rice was the big gun in the Bobcat victory.

Eldon Davis was the spark in the Hale Center victory and gained stature in leading the Owls to victory.

Crucial Tilt Slated

Billy Glasscoek, a good player all year, teamed with Bobby Harper to lead the Anton Bulldogs to their lone conference victory of the year. Whitharral, outmanned all season, fought back and Joe Wade led the losing cause.

One crucial game tops the tilts this week, with Hale Center going to Springlake in the most attractive encounter. Other games send Anton to Dimmitt, Amherst to Petersburg and Whitharral to Friona. Olton draws a week of rest.

Fighting Irish Are In Second

NEW YORK, Oct. 26 (AP)—Michigan's rampaging Wolverines retained their rating as the top college football team in the country today in the weekly Associated Press poll of the nation's sports writers.

The powerhouse from Ann Arbor drew 17 of the 206 first place votes and piled up 1,885 points to beat out runner-up Notre Dame by 275 points. The Irish, second also a week ago, gained 19 first place votes and polled 1,615 points.

Michigan, unbeaten and untied in five outings, downed Minnesota, 27-14 last Saturday while the Irish surged to a 27-12 victory over Iowa for their fifth straight conquest of a perfect season.

Tar Heels In Third

North Carolina's Tar Heels held on to third place, drawing 46 first place ballots and 1,568 points. The Irish, as they did a week ago, scored heavily in second place votes to beat out North Carolina's unbeaten squad for runner-up honors. Points are figured on the basis of 10 for a first place, nine for second and so on down the line to one for tenth place.

California, Army, Georgia Tech and Pennsylvania, also among the nation's unbeaten teams, retained fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh places, respectively.

The Golden Bears, who brushed past Washington, 21-0, gained 13 first place votes and piled up 1,239 points. Army, which turned back previously unbeaten Cornell, 27-6, drew four first place ballots and wound up with 1,214 points.

Georgia Tech finished with 929 points and one first place vote. The Yellow Jackets rolled over Florida, 42-7. Penn, 20-14 conquerors of Navy, drew 505 points.

Missouri Moves Up

Missouri's Tigers moved up from ninth place to eighth, replacing Penn State. Missouri, which turned back Iowa State 49-7, drew 386 points. Penn State held to a 14-14 tie by Michigan State, dropped out of the top ten to 12th place.

Lockney Longhorns Rolling On Undefeated In Class A Chase

Football powers in Class A grid activity are turning an anxious glance towards Lockney, where the Longhorns of Coach Curtis Kelley are rolling along in District 3-A conference activity without a defeat on their slate.

Friday night the Steers opened up for one half against Ralls' Jackrabbits, racking up 20 points and then holding the home club scoreless. It was enough to keep the Longhorns on top of the district race with an unspotted record, the only team in the loop not beaten yet.

Jerry McCullough led the Lockney eleven to its fourth loop triumph, while Billy Wood tried to stem the tide for Ralls, playing the best offensive game for the losers.

Spur, dropped from the lead with Lockney a week ago by Lockney, returned to grab a share of second place with a 13-8 defeat of Crosbyton. The defeat dropped the Chiefs to fourth place. C. Blair and M. Lindsey led the Bulldogs to victory, while Bill Simmons, one of the top players in the loop, paced the losing efforts.

Matador Falters

Floydada's Whirlwinds moved up to a tie for second in the loop race with a convincing 34-6 defeat of downtrodden Matador. The Matadors were unable to check Bill Jeter and Bob Bishop, who have carried the Whirlwinds to several victories. Satto Sieske and Joe Pitts maintained the leadership endeavors for the Matadors.

Abernathy, without a victory in three attempts, finally broke the spell against a favored Paducah eleven, winning by the narrow margin of Bob Smith's extra place kick, 7-6. The defeat virtually eliminated the last Dragon hope of finishing high in the race. Jim Miller also played well for the Antelopes, while Joe Sandlin and Bill Rochelle continued their fine play for the losers.

The conference race may be decided this weekend, ... dada plays Lockney. Other games will include Ralls at Abernathy and Crosbyton at Matador.

Lubbock, Abernathy Squads Battle Today

Abernathy's junior gridders will invade Chapman field at 5 o'clock this afternoon to battle Lubbock's Carroll Thompson Cub Ropers, officials have announced.

The Cub Ropers recently battled to a tie with the O. L. Slaton seventh and eighth graders, and the tilt should provide plenty of action for Lubbock Grid fans.

Officials also announced that the annual encounter between the Lubbock Cowhands and the Amarillo Yannigans will be unreeled at 8 o'clock Thursday night at Chapman field.

The Cowhand-Yannigan clash is always staged the night before the traditional battle of the Westerners and the Sandies, at the city where the feature game will be played.

Both the Cowhands and the Yannigans have big, powerful ball clubs, boasting impressive victories over area Class A elevens. Last year the Cowhands chalked up a victory over the Yannigans on Butler field and the Amarilloans will be out for revenge.

Texas Varsity Gets Rid Of Satin Pants

AUSTIN, Oct. 26 (AP) — The Texas Longhorns switched to white satin pants for their out-of-town games this year, but it took only two games to send them back to their old gold pants.

In those two games, the Longhorns were defeated by North Carolina, 34-7, and Oklahoma, 20-14, and now they don't care how they look although the pants clash violently with their orange jerseys.

The Longhorns wore their old gold pants against Rice Saturday and returned victorious by a 20-7 score.

The members of the team deny the change was made because of superstition. One declared, "they just didn't fit right."

Now the Texas freshmen have hand-me-down white pants and look sharper than their varsity brethren. The yearlings wore white last week and defeated the Rice Owlets, 32-21.

The pants fit them fine.

Rice Owls Out To "Get" Tech

The Rice Owls, who come to Lubbock Saturday for a non-conference joust with Texas Tech's Red Raiders, will be making their first appearance in the Hub City.

Coach Jess Neely's squad, beaten in four of their first five games and victoryless since Sept. 25, will be out for blood. The Owls opened the season with a lacing of Sam Houston State Teachers college, but since then have been unable to chalk up a win. LSU, Southern California, SMU and Texas have taken successive victories and Rice followers don't believe the bad luck can continue.

The Owls pack a lot of weight and will be on the long end of the odds to end their football drought Saturday. It was just a year ago that Texas had licked them and they took out their fury on Tech. They are planning to come here to make history repeat.

The Raiders are in good shape after their 31-0 victory over Arizona, with no injuries. They will be at nearly full strength for Rice and Guard Millburn Haydon, out of action since he hurt a knee in the Texas Aggie game, may be ready to play some defensive ball.

Yesterday the Tech squad had an easy limbering up session, with some emphasis on polishing the offensive for Rice. At the same time, Coach Polk Robison prepared the freshmen for running Rice plays against the Raiders the remainder of the week.

Today the Tech squad will settle down to serious preparation for the Saturday game. And one man they will be setting their defenses against will be Huey Keeney, the brilliant senior halfback. Keeney is a dangerous punter, whose booming punts can keep the Raiders in the hole, while his speed and clever broken field running makes him a danger every minute he's in the game.

RICE OWLS TAKE DAY OFF WITH TWO MEN INJURED

HOUSTON, Oct. 26 (AP) — The Rice Owls took a day of yesterday following their gruelling 20-7 loss to the University of Texas here Saturday.

Two key players, Quarterback Tobin Rote and Center Joe Watson, received injuries against the Longhorns but are expected to be ready for Saturday's invasion of Lubbock where the Owls meet the Texas Tech Raiders in a non-conference game.

SERVICE QUINT WINS

Verdell Turner and Virgil Johnson each tallied 25 points to lead the Littrell Gulf Service quintet to a 75-49 victory over Sanders Motors in an exhibition cage tussle here Monday night.

Grid Feud Will Be Renewed On Friday

Lubbock's first grid victory over Amarillo since 1939 will be the goal of the unpredictable Westerners Friday afternoon at Jones stadium when they tangle with the powerful Golden Sandies — rated as one of the two top teams in state.

The Westerners beat the Sandies on Butler field in '39, the only time a 1-AA team has defeated Amarillo on their home gridiron, and the Hub city gridders went on to win the state championship. The year before, in 1938, the Lubbock schoolboys triumphed over their traditional rivals at Tech's old stadium and then battled their way into the final playoff game before bowing to Corpus Christi.

But the Westerners have been on the short end of the score for the last eight years. The Sandies won the annual classic in 1940, winning the state championship, and bounced back in 1941 to beat one of Lubbock's greatest elevens on a field goal, 3-0. In 1942 the Sandies really started to roll, chalking up a four-touchdown triumph, and in 1943 the Amarilloans humiliated a crippled Westerner eleven on Butler field, 47-0.

It was the same story in 1944 and 1945, although the Westerners finally broke into the scoring column in the '45 encounter, then in 1946 the Westerners staged a bitter struggle before losing to the visitors from the Panhandle by two touchdowns. In 1947 the Sandies piled up a 27-0 win.

This year Lubbock fans are hoping that the score will be different. The Westerners are coached by wily C. R. (Pat) Pattison, who mentored the Wichita Falls Coyotes to an upset victory over the Sandies in the bi-district playoff in 1946. In fact, since that meeting was the only time Pattison has tangled with the Sandies, he holds a perfect record against the feared Sandstorm.

The Lubbock eleven will enter the tilt slated to lose by 25-points or more, as a result of comparative scores. The Westerners tied Odessa, 7-7, in their opening game, then the Broncos were blasted by Amarillo by a four-touchdown margin. Lubbock barely defeated Childress, 21-14, and the Bobcat team was trampled by the Sandies, 39-6.

But comparative scores, and even season's records, mean little when the Westerners and the Sandies stage their annual grudge fight. And the fact that the Sandies are ranked as one of the two top teams in the state should just give the Westerners more incentive for a win. Even most of the games the Sandies have won by big scores have been hard-fought encounters that were featured by brilliant running, hard blocking and equally vicious tackling.

The largest crowd of the season is expected to be on hand at kick-off time Friday afternoon. Lubbock High officials expect a minimum of 12,000 fans, and the total could be boosted to 15,000 by good weather conditions. A special train will be run from Amarillo for Sandie fans, with approximately 1,500 Panhandle residents slated to make the journey to Jones stadium.

Top Offensive Clubs Battle

(By The Associated Press)

The top offensive teams of the Southwest conference will clash at Austin Saturday in the big game of the year in the championship race.

Statistics from the office of James H. Stewart, conference executive secretary, show Texas and Southern Methodist No. 1 and No. 2 in total yards gained rushing and passing.

SMU Average Best

Texas has rolled up 1907 in six games and Southern Methodist 1732 in five. Southern Methodist has the best average with 346 per game compared to 317 for Texas.

These teams also are the top passing units. Southern Methodist leads the conference with 819 yards in the air and Texas shows 694 for second place. Texas is the top ground team with 1215 yards. Arkansas is second with 1142.

The conference's leading passers will be working against each other at Austin. Gil Johnson of Southern Methodist tops the circuit with 34 completions in 49 attempts for 566 yards. Paul Campbell of Texas is second with 30 connections in 81 throws for 509 yards.

Clyde Scott Tops

The leading ground-gainer of the conference will be in action at College Station where Texas A. and M. plays Arkansas in a battle of eliminated teams. Clyde Scott of the Razorbacks has rolled up 500 yards on 63 runs, just 41 yards more than Lindy Berry of Texas Christian, who is second with 459 yards on 111 carries. Bobby Goff of A. and M. is third with 409 yards on 79 runs.

Berry is the conference's workhorse. He has figured in 183 plays and gained 867 yards. Berry has completed 35 passes in 72 attempts for 408 yards to make him third in the conference pitching. Scott ranks next to Berry in total offense with 603 yards on 77 plays.

Baylor Plays TCU

Baylor plays Texas Christian at Fort Worth Saturday night and Baylor will boast the conference's top punt returner in George Sims, who has carried 11 back for 283 yards. Ranking next to Sims in punt returns is Doak Walker of Southern Methodist, who has carried six back for 119 yards.

Walker also is the conference's leading punter and pass-receiver. He has kicked 10 times and averaged 38.0 yards and he has caught seven passes for 228 yards. Jasper Flanakin of Baylor is second in pass-receiving with 12 for 195 yards. Bob Goode of Texas A. and M. is second in punting with an average of 36.0 in 46 boots.

Between The Lines. . .

By Joe Kelly

The victory by Texas Tech over Arizona was sweet for the Red Raiders and no one was more happy over it than Coach Dell Morgan. He was so elated that he went up and down the line in the dressingroom, shaking hands with the players, thumping them on the back and wearing a smile a yard wide. He made no pretense of being confident before the game. Arizona had Tech outweighed, it was Mom's and Dad's Day and it was the game that Coach Mike Casteel had to win.

• • •

So when the Raiders went out there and fought the Wildcats off their feet to win, Dell was happy. In addition, the Tech team had to fight two other bugaboos, the altitude and the officiating. The altitude bothered the boys severely. On their first drive down the field, the only reason they took time out around the 20-yard line was because they were gasping for breath. It was that way most of the game, although the players were in good condition.

• • •

As for the officiating, it was the worst seen in many a year. Why college officials can't be as good as high school men, we don't know, but they don't appear to be. In the Arizona game, Tech received 11 penalties good for 105 yards, which was almost as many yards as the Wildcats gained on the ground all night. But the shocking thing was the way the penalties were dished out. For instance, when Tech scored on a short pass in the fourth quarter, the officials found some player offside. Three plays later, when J. W. Thompson finally did score, at least two Tech players were offside and the penalty wasn't called.

• • •

To get back to the penalties and the yards lost by Tech, those 11 penalties were almost half the total number the Raiders had lost altogether in five previous games, while the yardage was over half the total amount lost in five games. Until the Arizona fray, the Raiders had received 23 penalties for 190 yards. That's an average of 4.60 penalties for 38 yards a game, or an average of 8.25 yards for each penalty. The 11 for 105 against Arizona was a new high for a clean team.

• • •

The funniest penalty, one which took both Dell and Coach G. B. Morris out on the field, occurred in the fourth quarter. Ike Stuver intercepted a pass on the Tech 40, but the ball was taken back to the Arizona 45 and a 15-yard infraction stepped off against Tech. The alleged offense? Coaching from the sidelines. What happened was this: Milton Rathbone thought he caught a pass signal, so he yelled "Look out for a pass, look out for a pass." When Tech intercepted, the officials stepped off the penalty!

• • •

The officials told the Tech players not to tackle so hard, believe it or not, or he'd penalize them for unsportsmanlike conduct! He did, too, in that same fourth quarter. Allegedly Arizona was given four penalties for 22 yards. Two of these may have been declined, but the other two were in the third quarter and were the only two of the night, according to our chart. The first was defensive holding and gave Tech a first down on the Arizona 48. The other was holding following Tech's punt and this hurt, taking the Wildcats back to their one-yard line. Otherwise, they were unmarked.

• • •

Incidentally, Dell gave the best description of Walter Malony's brilliant 75-yard runback of a punt late in the second quarter that we heard. We couldn't begin to describe the way he twisted, turned, squirmed, sidestepped and bounced down the field, while his interference was trying to get organized. Dell told the quarterback club last night that there were 22 men on the field and not one of them knew where Maloney was going! Poor Walter didn't have any speed left in him; if he had, he would have gone all the way.

• • •

One of the bravest groups we know of is the six-man rooting section at the game. All members of the Saddle Tramps, they left Lubbock Wednesday by car, toured the Grand Canyon, went all over Arizona and finally arrived in Tucson, drawing up in front of Tech's hotel at 8:20 Friday night with cow bells ringing and giving cheers for the Raiders. They attracted quite a few locals, as well as Stuver and Dingy Davis. They wanted to make sure of game time so that they could be there. Seems they were then on their way to Old Mexico. The group had their sleeping sacks with them and slept out in the open. Youth, it's wonderful!

Port Arthur Holds No. 1 Grid Rating

DALLAS, Oct. 26 (AP)—Port Arthur's ranking as the No. 1 schoolboy football team in Texas is secure for another week.

The Dallas News' poll of sportswriters today listed the Yellowjackets first, Amarillo second, Waco third and Baytown fourth.

Sweetwater and Arlington Heights (Fort Worth) moved up to fifth and sixth place respectively.

Texarkana and Henderson were ranked seventh and eighth. Odessa and Alamo Heights (San Antonio) tied for ninth position.

KILGORE, Oct. 26 (AP)—A field of 80 is expected to start qualifying here today in Kilgore's first women's invitational golf tournament.

Leaders Hold To Top Spots

Seminole's powerful Indians had a tough battle in defeating Kermit, 20-19, in a District 5-A encounter last weekend, but most of the leaders in the 4-A and 5-A loops had little difficulty in retaining their top positions.

Monahans, boasting five consecutive wins in 5-A competition and an unmarred record for the season, hurdled one of the obstacles in the path of the loop championship by downing Andrews' Mustangs, 21-0. Denver City topped Fort Stockton and Wink blanked McCamey in other conference settos.

District 4-A leaders were not in danger last weekend, since Littlefield and Levelland in the north were idle and Post, south half leader, drubbed Snyder in a non-title clash. Sundown moved into the top bracket with an impressive victory over Muleshoe, however, and Sudan remained in the chase with a narrow triumph over Morton.

Seagraves Upsets Slaton

Probably the only real upset of the week was turned in by Seagraves' Eagles, who handed the Slaton Tigers their first south half 4-A defeat. The Tiger loss practically clinched the south bracket grid championship for the Post Antelopes.

A full slate of conference meetings will be unreeled this weekend, but most of the leaders appear to have at least one more week of comparative safety. Only Littlefield of the north 4-A loop faces strong competition—Sundown's powerful Roughnecks. Post will tangle with Levelland at the Lobo gridiron, but only prestige — and not conference standings—will be at stake.

The District standings:

Dulles Says Soviet Action In UN Is Move To Extend Power

PARIS, Oct. 26 (AP) — John Foster Dulles told the U. N. political committee today that Russian action before the world peace agency was part of "a general effort to extend the power of Soviet Communism throughout the world."

The American delegate spoke as small powers of the security council renewed their efforts to mediate the Berlin blockade crisis after Russia's veto of a compromise offered by six smaller powers.

Dulles, foreign affairs advisor to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Republican presidential candidate, said international Communism is working for a world revolution through "force, coercion and terrorism."

Issues Are Linked

He linked the Greek question, which is before the general assembly, and the Berlin deadlock, before the security council, as parts of the Russian plan to dominate the world through Communism's spread.

Dulles said he was presenting a resolution to send the U. N. special commission on the Balkans (UNSCOB) back to work for another year investigating the Greek civil war and appealing to Greek's northern neighbors to cease aiding efforts to overthrow the Greek government.

The resolution was presented by the United States, Britain, France and China. It said "the continued aid given by Albania, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia to the Greek guerrillas endangers peace in the Balkans and is inconsistent with the purposes and principle on the charter of the United Nations."

Would Stop Aid

The resolution would order those three northern neighbors of Greece to cease all aid at once and cooperate with UNSCOB in a continued inquiry into the civil war. It would call on the 58 nations to "refrain from any action designed to assist directly or through any other government any armed group fighting against the Greek government."

The deadlock on the Berlin case became more pronounced last night when Russia's Andrei Y. Vishingsky vetoed a plan for settling the dispute submitted by the six "neutral members of the council.

Despite the veto, well-informed quarters predicted negotiations to settle the dispute within the council would continue among the United States, Britain, France, Russia and the neutral members.

More Talks Possible

Sources close to Juan A. Bramuglia, acting president of the council, said the Argentine felt the Western and Soviet viewpoints on Berlin still might be reconciled after further conversations.

Bramuglia was pictured as basing his belief upon the fact that Vishinsky said last night the Russians were willing to raise the Berlin blockade if adequate control of Berlin's currency were established at the same time.

Vishinsky vetoed a council resolution calling upon the Russians to lift the blockade simultaneously with the beginning of four-power talks aimed at making the Soviet currency the sole money for all of Berlin.

Western Allies Meet

There was no immediate indication what the next security councily move would be. However, a British source said U. S. Secretary of State George C. Marshall, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman would meet this morning at the French foreign ministry to discuss the situation.

The meeting originally was scheduled for 9:30 a. m. (3:30 a. m. EST) but a spokesman said it had been postponed to "later in the day."

Meanwhile, the foreign ministers of the Western European Union nations—Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—resumed their secret sessions. This is the second day of the three-day meeting. Authoritative sources said a discussion of how the five-nation alliance can be linked in a military treaty relationship with the United States and Canada is the main task of the meeting.

A strict news blackout has been imposed on the Western European union talks, which also are being held at the French foreign ministry.

Authoritative sources in the American delegation supported Bramuglia's belief that further talks still are possible. They said there probably will be a lull, however, because of Vishinsky's veto.

opinion and conclusions upon fact.

"The only American in the post-war world to tell the Russians where to get off and make them like it is MacArthur in Tokyo.

"Churchill and Bevin have given Britain an understanding policy with reference to the Communists and have made strong statements the Russians cannot misunderstand — statements that should appeal to every American as they have to every Britisher.

"We should have an equally clarified policy concerning Russia. Our military policy must of necessity be geared to our foreign policy. How can we intelligently estimate the needs of our new Air Force, our ground forces and our Navy if we are not certain as to the foreign policy they will be required to implement.

"Time plays with the Russians. We have the superior power now. They may have it later. In the meantime, it would be folly to let them bridge the gap by bluff alone. Hitler pulled that stuff 10 years ago. We should now make certain of our objectives, state them so clearly that neither the Russians, our Allies, or our own people can misunderstand, and then firmly enforce them. The Russians will not fight today—tomorrow they may if we let them continue to create modern armed power."

Stock Market

ADVANCE IS RESUMED

NEW YORK, Oct. 26 (UP) — The stock market today resumed its interrupted advance, rising fractions to more than a point in another million-share session, the seventh in a row.

Yesterday's developments in the Paris United Nations meeting, where Russia vetoed a compromise settlement of the Berlin impasse, brought out selling, but today buyers came back into the market when a long list of favorable dividend announcements were made. Publications of good earnings, particularly for the railroads, also helped sentiment.

Another bullish factor was the Wall Street hope that directors of U. S. Steel Corp. meeting after today's close, would either raise the regular dividend, declare an extra, or both.

Extra or increased dividends were declared during the trading session by directors of Westinghouse, International Business Machines, Southern Railway, Norfolk & Western, Socony-Vacuum and Bigelow-Sanford. In addition, the board of Curtis Publishing Co. declared a payment of $12.25 on arrears on the company's $7 preferred stock.

Candidates

Menzies told reporters later he was "very impressed" with the GOP nominee. "I think he is confident," the Australian said, adding quickly that Mr. Truman "is confident too, very confident."

Following his Chicago speech, Dewey will head his special train for Cleveland, Boston and back to New York for his final campaign talk Saturday night in Madison Square Garden.

FEPC Law Attacked

Henry Wallace brought his progressive party drive back to New York after a Jersey City speech in which he urged that the United States and Russia abandon "stiff-necked pride" and quit their "petty jockeying for advantage in an atomic armaments race."

In Arkansas, Gov. J. Strom Thurmond said a national police force is "already being trained" by President Truman to carry out an FEPC law. The presidential candidate of the States' Rights Democrats told a Little Rock rally that this civil rights proposal would mean "you would be hounded by federal police whom you never saw before and who neither know nor care what your problems are."

Using Germans In Airlift Proposed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26. (AP)—American officials showed little inclination today to take up an offer by a group of German labor leaders to recruit former Luftwaffe pilots for the Berlin airlift.

Four German union officials said they made the proposal to Under-secretary of the Army William H. Draper, jr., yesterday. They told a news conference they could furnish more than enough former German fliers "willing to lay down their lives" to help ferry supplies to the blockaded German capital.

Officials here pointed out, however, that in addition to legal difficulties to such a project there is the language handicap, plus the fact that former members of the Luftwaffe haven't been in a plane for several years now.

The German labor representatives are scheduled to leave here Thursday on a six-week tour of U. S. industrial centers. They plan to visit Pittsburgh, Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis, Nashville, Chattanooga, Cincinnati and Boston.

Farmer Refuses To Take "Tainted" $500

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 26. (AP)—Federal officials have been trying for several years to refund $500 bail money to William J. Schrock, but the 63-year-old Amish farmer from Loogootee, Ind., won't take it. It has been "tainted" by the court, he says.

Schrock was arrested in 1942 for failing to register for the draft. Several months later, a federal grand jury decided he shouldn't be prosecuted, mainly because he was well over draft age.

The federal court clerk says he will keep the money until Dec. 12, 1949, when he will turn it over to the U. S. treasury.

Duty Trial

and City Detective LeRoy Boling, jr., on the stand. Court then was recessed for the lunch hour.

Contrasting Picture

A contrasting picture was drawn by the state and the defense.

The state brought out through Allen, for instance, and in Hickman's dying declaration that the men had been having trouble for months over Duty's attentions to Hickman's daughter, Oleta, 27; that Hickman had said he once had considered killing Duty because Duty persistently telephoned the Hickman residence, honked his cab horn there and made threats with a gun and a knife, but later decided not to injure Duty because "he isn't worth killing."

Hickman also said that Duty had "threatened" Mrs. Hickman and Oleta, "with death."

He said that "the last three months (before the shooting) have been a living hell," the state brought out.

Relations Were Strained

Duty began going with Miss Hickman in June of 1947, his voluntary statement said. It was in December that Hickman "got mad at me for calling her and going with her," he said, adding that relations between the two men had been strained thereafter.

Contrary to Hickman's declaration that Duty motioned for him to come across the street to where Duty was standing, at Main and Ave. J, Duty said that he looked up and saw Hickman coming. He said he began to walk away northward, but that he looked around and saw Hickman within a few feet of him. He said he was afraid of Hickman, since the two men had had serious trouble before when both had guns in their possession, so ducked behind a parked automobile and, when Hickman followed, fired two shots.

Went To Police Station

He went to the police station, said he had shot Hickman "and here is the gun."

No weapon was found in Hickman's clothing at the hospital, but he was carrying a railroad lantern at the time of the shooting, it was brought out.

Capt. Newton said both men had been in the police station "two or three times" in connection with complaints against each other. He, like Alley, said Hickman had told police that he one time had "tried to kill Duty." Newton then told Duty, "Better go on and let him alone—the old man may kill you," the officer testified.

The court declined to allow the state to introduce as an exhibit several hand-lettered signs Hickman had claimed were left on his property. The defense had objected that proper predicate had not been laid, that there was no proof that Duty was responsible for the signs.

Porter told newsmen this afternoon he probably would call seven or eight more witnesses, including the defendant and two policemen. The others, he indicated, would be reputation witnesses.

The jury was completed at 8:10 p. m. Monday, after 10 additional names had been drawn at a night session from the jury wheel. The original jury panel was exhausted with only 11 jurors having been sworn.

UN Halts Talk On Palestine

PARIS, Oct. 26 (AP)—The American president of the United Nations Security council angrily adjourned debate on Palestine today. He closed the session with a statement that the council could not be lashed into action by Arab charges of bias.

Warren Austin, the U. S. delegate and October president of the council, spoke up sharply to close the debate until Thursday after Mahmoud Bey Fawzi of Egypt pressed for immediate council action.

The council was called into the emergency session to hear an Egyptian charge that Israel is violating a cease-fire order on the Negev front in southern Palestine.

Egypt Accepts Order

Fawzi said Egypt had accepted the security council's week-old cease-fire order in the Negev but that fighting there was continuing.

"What is the security council going to do about this continued fighting?" he demanded impatiently.

Earlier, Faris El Khouri of Syria told the council it seemed indifferent to Arab charges of truce violations.

Austin said that "this is a matter requiring study before any action can be taken. The council cannot be lashed into action by charges of bias."

Mystery "Explosion" In City Unexplained

Did you hear an explosion shortly after 7 o'clock this morning?

That was the question many Lubbockites were asking one another today, but at 2 o'clock this afternoon it remained publicly unanswered.

Numerous telephone calls poured into The Evening Journal offices, as well as city fire and police departments, early this morning inquiring as to the nature of a disturbance which callers said caused a definite tremor of the earth's surface.

But no information definitely locating any such occurrence was received, and Dr. Raymond Sidwell, head of the department of geology at Texas Tech, said no record of a tremor was shown on instruments in the college seismological observatory.

HOUSTON, Oct. 26. (UP)—A fall from a railroad culvert was blamed today for the death of James W. Weathers, 56.

A verdict of accidental death was returned by Justice of the Peace Thomas I. Decker.

Low Taxi Rates Given For Pious

MILFORD, N. H., Oct. 26 (AP)—Milford's new Methodist minister will continue to operate his taxi business—with special low rates for the pious.

Kendall W. Burgess, 50, former Army chaplain recently appointed by Bishop Wesley Lord of Boston, said today taxi fare to the church would be 35 cents, instead of the usual 50 cents charge for the distance.

Burgess had retired temporarily from the ministry after his war experiences in Europe and during his retirement established a taxi company.

Lions Hear Talk On Personnel Relations

Speaking on employer-employe relations, A. B. Watkins, head of the personnel department at Dunlap's department store here, told the Lions club luncheon at the Hilton hotel today that a company is known by the men it keeps, and that it is up to the employer or his representative to create the right attitude for teamwork among employes.

Watkins asserted that the most critical shortage today is not steel or other products, but the intelligent management of men, and that to accomplish the most, an organization must function as a team. He added that in most instances "we are not as good employers and supervisors as we know how to be."

He believes that every employe should have recognition for a job well done, if no more than a good word, and that "a pat on the back many times eliminates the necessity for a kick in the pants."

Watkins, president of the American Business club, was introduced by Ed Merriman, program chairman. Five new members were introduced. They were Berry Vaughn, James Page, Rufus Peavy, Troy Womack, and Dr. Austin E. Givens.

The redistricting amendment, one of the eight on which the people of Texas are to vote at the general election on Nov. 2, was explained by Marion E. Key, with the urge that a full vote should be recorded.

Club President Wayne Henly presided, with invocation by Dr. J. Ralph Grant.

Credit Course Here Is Attended By 160

A total of 160 Lubbock business men and employes attended the first night session of the course in credit procedures Monday night at Hotel Lubbock. The course is sponsored by the Credit Grantors' club of Lubbock, the Credit Women's club and the Retail Merchants association.

Sterling S. Speake, retail credit specialist of the extension division of the University of Texas, Austin, is conducting the course. He outlined the program for the school Monday night. Classes will be conducted from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. through Tuesday night with Friday night's classes scheduled for 6:30-8:30 p. m.

Speake talked last night on business conditions and credit trends, pointing out that the upward trend in business failures in the past three years is traceable to charge accounts or accounts receivable.

He revealed that credit business in Lubbock, about 50 per cent of total sales, is below the state's average of 60 per cent. Other points brought out were: there's not as much money in circulation now as three years ago and the average charge customer has about one-third as much as two years ago; people are still moving, five out of ten of them in the past year; Regulation W has begun to slow installment selling, especially in used cars; and increased competition in selling is appearing daily in certain lines.

Speake also detailed solution to certain credit problems.

Johnson Letter

a stay obtained by Johnson.

Records Claimed Stolen

At that hearing, it was testified by Louis Salas, election judge in Jim Wells precinct 13 that his and Donald's records of the precinct were stolen from Salas' automobile. Stevenson has charged that about 200 votes were fraudulently added to Johnson's total in that precinct. The official count gave Johnson the nomination by 87 votes.

Salas resigned his office yesterday, along with his assistant, Frank Rojas. A petition asking their removal had been presented to County Judge C. Woodrow Laughlin by a group representing the Republican county executive committee. The commissioners court will appoint their successors Thursday.

Stevenson appealed to the Senate after attempting unsuccessfully in the courts to keep Johnson's name from the November general election ballot. The Senate has the final authority over whom it will seat.

After losing the court fight, Stevenson swung his active support to Jack Porter, the Republican senatorial nominee.

In a letter addressed to Sen. C. Wayland Brooks, chairman of the Senate's committee on rules and administration, Johnson declared that in event of a recount, "it must be comprehensive enough to embrace all ballots cast in all the 252 counties where the primary election was held."

"In connection with my request, I want to point out that there has been a judicial determination by a Texas court, in connection with a contest involving the nomination of a local official, that in said primary 1,736 illegal votes were cast in Brown county, out of which my opponent received a lead of 466 votes; that the county chairman of Dallas county, a kinsman of my opponent, amended his returns from that county some four or five times, each time increasing the vote of my opponent in that county and that at least two of those certificates were without basis in law or fact; that in Harris county election officials refused to count absentee ballots cast by perhaps 100 legally qualified voters, a majority of which I allege to have been cast for me; that a grand jury investigation in Galveston county is reported to have disclosed that there were approximately 2,000 illegal votes cast in that county, in the names of persons who did not reside in the county and in the names of deceased persons, the names being obtained from tombstones; that changes were made in the returns from Eastland, Wharton, Chambers and many other counties after the polls were closed; and that an election contest in Clay county discloses that a number of illegal votes were cast in that county."

Johnson's letter was sworn to and subscribed before a Travis county notary public.

Progressives Are Denied Place On Ballot For Nov. 2

ATLANTA, Oct. 26 (INS)—The Progressive party of Georgia today was denied an injunction that would have placed three of its candidates on the state's general election ballot.

A three-judge federal tribunal in Atlanta refused to grant the injunction which would have required Secretary of State Ben Fortson, jr., to place three candidates on the state's already-printed Nov. 2 ballot.

The tribunal ruled that Georgia voters' rights were not interfered with "because under Georgia law they may write in the candidate of their choice, and there is a place provided on the ballot for that purpose."

Petition Not Considered

The party brought the suit after a petition allegedly containing 80,000 names in support of the Progressives was declared fraudulent by Secretary Fortson.

The signatures were not considered valid because the Progressives refused to comply with a new general election law which required the party to swear that the signatures were those of bona fide registered voters.

State officials had testified at the injunction hearing that Georgias ballot could not have been reprinted in time for the Nov. 2 election.

Henry Wallace is listed on the ballot.

The three Progressive candidates who asked to be placed on the ballot were ex-University of Georgia Professor James Barfoot, gubernatorial candidate; Larkin Marshall, negro editor from Macon, Ga., candidate for U. S. Senate, and Floyd Hunter, Fifth District Congressional candidate.

Nuns In Portugal Refuse To Be Disbanded Despite People's Clamor, Church Orders

LISBON, Portugal, Oct. 26. (AP)—The people of Albufeira clamored before the convent of the barefoot Carmelite nuns today, denouncing them as devils.

The 11 nuns within the old mansion, which had been dedicated to their use, stood fast behind barricaded doors, refusing to be disbanded as the congregation of religious orders of the Roman Catholic church had ordered.

The nuns were ruled to be nonconformist and to be refusing entry to priests and the bishop of Algarve, who brought charges against them. The convent was organized six years ago by Maria Do Carmo, 20-year-old daughter of a wealthy Algarve family.

Rain Causes Alarm

The people of Albufeira, a town in southern Portugal, became alarmed after a sudden and violent rainstorm caused unprecedented damage. The storm washed away several houses, destroyed the electric power plant and flooded the streets.

Some persons, interpreting this as a "sign from heaven," assembled the crowd before the convent and shouted

"God will punish us if we don't expel the devil from our midst."

The nuns have defied successfully attempts of Republican guards, who surrounded the convent, to take possession. They are reported to have food enough for a considerable siege. Villagers have threatened to burn the place.

People Complain

The people complained some time ago to the bishop that Sister Maria Do Carmo, who became the Mother Superior, was becoming more and more of a dictator. They said she was defying orders of the church and the local bishop and making her own rules and hearing confessions of her novices. When the bishop called to inquire about a battle between the nuns in the village streets, he was barred by a woman porter who said:

"We don't want any men around here, even in skirts."

The order was ruled disbanded soon afterward and told to leave the convent.

Woman Freed In Murder

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26 (AP)—Frail, brown haired Mrs. Cecilia Atella was acquitted by a jury of 11 women and one man of murder charges in the shooting of her bank guard husband, Ernest.

The 23-year-old Mrs. Atella sat calmly by yesterday while Assistant District Attorney Raymond A. Speiser, obviously angered by the jury's verdict, polled the panel members individually following announcement of her acquittal.

Speiser then announced he would prosecute a further charge of involuntary manslaughter against the defendant. Defense Attorney Harry S. Abrams told the court he was of the opinion the general murder indictment included the involuntary manslaughter charge.

The jury deliberated 55 minutes after Mrs. Atella, testifying in her own defense, declared she meant to take her own life, not her husband's, when she pulled the trigger of the revolver last August.

"I was going to kill myself and I called to him to tell him that. But the gun went off when he turned around," she told the court.

"I went over and sat beside him when he fell. He said, 'Cis, go way; get out before the cops come.'"

Speiser termed her story a "lame duck excuse" and insisted the slaying had "all the elements of first degree murder." He didn't press for the death penalty.

Mrs. Atella, who was remanded to the county jail pending trial of the manslaughter charge, said the shooting occurred after she and her husband quarreled when he insisted they live with his mother if they were going to live together at all.

Of a total of 33 projects in the two-day letting, bids on 17 projects are scheduled to be taken today. The list includes 170 miles of farm-to-market roads and 30 miles of primary and state highway projects.

GOP Workers Seek Heavy County Vote

Charles H. Smith of Live Oak county told members of Lubbock County Republican club, which met in called session Monday night in the county courtroom of the courthouse here, that the number of regular Republicans in Lubbock county is not indicative of the number of votes to be cast for the Dewey-Warren ticket Nov. 2.

He cited the record of his own county in 1944, when with only 12 known Republicans in the county, Dewey received 44 per cent of the votes. He predicted a large vote for the Dewey-Warren ticket, for Jack Porter for United States senator, and for Alvin H. Lane for governor from the South Plains.

M. D. Temple gave instructions on voting the split ticket. Temple, who presided at the meeting, emphasized the need for a strong two-party system in Texas.

Party workers were urged to get out the votes at the forthcoming election. Plans also were made to have Republican supervisors at the voting precincts on election day. These supervisors will, if necessary, assist the election judges in explaining to the voters how to vote a split ticket.

Man Saves $6,410 While On Relief

NEW YORK, Oct. 26 (AP)—David Feldman, 34, disclosed yesterday that he had saved $6,410 while receiving city relief checks.

Appearing in magistrate court on a charge of fighting with Morris Unger, 65, Feldman said the scuffle started over a deal in which he had given Unger's son $6,410 to buy a house.

Under questioning, Feldman said he had been on relief for 13 years. He said he had saved the money during the past seven years by working as a porter and shining shoes.

The magistrate sent Feldman to jail on a disorderly conduct charge, and notified the welfare department to investigate the case.

Women Politicians Hope For Better Showing In November

By RUTH COWAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26—Women interested in politics have already scored a major victory this year—the election of Margaret Chase Smith as senator from Maine.

She is the first member of her sex to win a seat in the Senate on her legislative record in the House.

A Republican, Mrs. Smith has served in Congress since 1940, when she was elected to fill out the unexpired term of her late husband, Rep. Clyde H. Smith. Her Senate victory was chalked up in Maine's September 13 state election.

Just as they did for the first time two years ago, women again hold a slight edge over men in the number of potential ballot casters next month.

But while feminine representation in Congress dropped during the last session—from 11 in the 79th Congress to seven in the 80th. Women workers in all parties are hoping for a better showing November 2.

Most politicians think the chances are tops that the women veterans of the House—Mrs. Mary T. Norton, Democrat of New Jersey, and Mrs. Edith Nourse Rogers, Republican of Massachusetts, will be on hand again in January to answer roll.

Reelection Habit

Reelection has come to be a habit with them.

Vivacious "Battling Mary" Norton, the first woman to head a major house committee—that of labor—has weathered 12 previous campaigns. Only a few months junior in service is Mrs. Rogers, who now heads the important veterans committee.

In addition to Mrs. Rogers, the two other Republican women incumbents, Mrs. Frances Bolton of Ohio, and Mrs. Katharine St. George of New York, are running for reelection.

And along with Mrs. Norton, another veteran Democrat up for another term is Mrs. Helen Gahagan Douglas of California, actress wife of Melvin Douglas.

Loses Renomination

Mrs. Georgia L. Lusk, the newest feminine member of Congress, lost her renomination bid in the New Mexico Democratic primary in June.

All told there are ten women Democratic candidates for the House this year, one less than in 1946, and five Republicans, one more than two years ago. Minor parties have a total of 20 for the House, four for governor, and one for the Senate The latter is Mrs. Virginia Foster Durr, Progressive, running in Virgiina.

Mrs. Chase Going Woodhouse, Democrat of Connecticut, who served in the 79th Congress, and was defeated in 1946, is up again. Mrs. Olive Remington Goldman, who lost her bid in the last election, also is trying again on the Democratic ticket in Illinois.

Candidates Listed

Other Democratic House candidates include:

Mrs. Violet Patterson of Michigan; Mrs. Marcella F. Killen of Minnesota; Miss Mary Louise Nice of New York, who is also on the Liberal ticket; Miss Julia Maietta of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Jessie Sanders of South Dakota, and Mrs. Reva Beck Bosone of Utah.

The two Republican contestants seeking a first term are Mrs. Camille Geneau of Florida, and Mrs. Cecil Harden of Indiana.

AMENDMENT TWO OKAY URGED

Texans Given Opportunity To Okay Automatic Redistricting

Regardless of which party wins the November 2 election, Texas voters will chalk up another first in the state's political history according to John Ben Shepperd, chairman of the non-political Texas Committee for Redistricting.

"For the first time Texans are being given the opportunity to vote for automatic redistricting," Shepperd pointed out. "Constitutional Amendment Two, which provides for statewide redistricting, has been hailed as one of the most important amendments ever submitted to the voters."

Shepperd predicted overwhelming voter approval for Constitutional Amendment Two which will replace the present antiquated system of apportionment under which many sections of Texas are denied fair representation in the State Legislature.

"Texas has not been redistricted in 27 years," Shepperd stated. "Although there have been tremendous increases in population in many counties during that time, these areas have no more voice in the operation of our state government than they had in 1921 when the state was redistricted."

Under Constitutional Amendment Two a board is provided to redistrict the state according to population after every Federal census if the Legislature fails to do so.

Shepperd, former national president of the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, is heading the nonpartisan Texas Committee for Redistricting organized by more than 1000 prominent Texans from all parties and all areas to urge support for Amendment Two.

Gubernatorial candidates of both the Democratic and Republican parties, six former Texas governors, labor organizations, the League of Women Voters and numerous civic groups have endorsed Amendment Two, Shepperd stated.

"Amendment Two assures fair representation for all Texans in the Legislature," Shepperd declared. "Therefore, it deserves the support of every fairminded Texan at the polls on November 2."

Relief Unit Is Planned Here

Aid To World Needy Sought

Plans for organization of a county-wide unit of CROP — Christian Rural Overseas program — an organization through which rural and town people may contribute of their products for relief of needy people throughout the world, were formulated here Monday night in the second floor district courtroom of the Lubbock county courthouse.

A five-man steering committee empowered to set up a county-wide organization was named. Rev. Fred McPherson, pastor of Southside Baptist church here, was made chairman of the committee, and other members include Nat Heaton of Slaton, W. O. Fortenberry of Monroe, Mrs. John Redwine of Shallowater, and Mrs. Chester Gilmore of Becton.

Motion Picture Shown

This steering committee will serve as the nucleus around which the county CROP organization will be built. Membership of the committee is as yet tentative, pending acceptance of those appointed to the committee, all of whom except Rev. McPherson were absent.

A sound movie, "Seeds of Destiny," released by the War department, was shown at the gathering. The motion picture dealt with present overseas conditions as to rehabilitation of ruined nations and their peoples, problems of nourishing these peoples, and the scope of present aid programs.

Dave Sherrill, county agent, introduced T. H. Holmes of Ralls, assistant field director of CROP in this area, who pointed out steps to the taken in the organization of CROP in the county, how it operates, its policies, and its origin and mode of operation.

Chicago Is Headquarters

The organization, formed in August, 1947, is nationwide in scope, with national headquarters offices in Chicago and southern regional offices in Atlanta. It is sponsored by the Church World Service, the Lutheran World Relief, and Catholic Rural Life, and is responsible to these church organizations.

CROP operates in this area through a southern advisory committee headed by Dr. Louie D. Newton, pastor of Druid Hills Baptist church in Atlanta. Others on the committee are church and agriculture leaders, press representatives and other public spirited citizens.

The type of contribution, Holmes said, is largely determined by each individual county, and is based on practicability of overseas shipment. Included among desirable commodities are seed cotton, peanuts, rice, soy beans, dried fruits, livestock, dairy products, syrup, and others. It is set out that cer-

Parolee Questioned In Double Slaying

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Oct. 26 (AP)—Law enforcement officials planned further questioning today of a young reformatory parolee as they continued an investigation of the sex slaying of a teen age boy and girl.

The 21 year old parolee was taken into custody yesterday when he fled after seeing a police car. After he was questioned last night authorities declined any comment.

Raymond Smith, 18-year old bank clerk, was shot to death in a remote corner of a country club golf course Saturday, and his companion, Gertrude Bauman, 17, a high school senior, was raped and murdered.

A posse formed when they failed to return from a Saturday afternoon hike, discovered the bodies Sunday evening. Smith's nude body lay in two feet of water in the Eau Claire river. He had been shot four times.

The partly nude body of Miss Bauman bearing three .22 calibre bullet wounds, was found on the river bank some 175 feet away. Sheriff Lloyd Thompson said no weapon has been found, but a search of the river bottom yielded Smith's hat, the girl's shoes and a camera the couple had carried on the hike.

Official Sent

Governor Oscar Rennebohm sent Charles Wilson, head of the state crime laboratory to the scene, and Police Chief Charles Tierney, of St. Paul, Minn., also came here. Smith moved here from St. Paul about a month ago.

Thompson said officials are considering the possibility of a connection between Saturday's slaying and the attempted rape of a 21-month old girl in a trailer nome here last September. The baby was not seriously injured.

The match, one of the last preliminaries to official point shows, featured about 100 dogs of 25 different breeds. Although the show was held under the rules of the American Kennel club, no points toward championships were awarded.

Steak dinners were served to about 30 persons, judges in the contests and out-of-town dog owners, at Hector's following the judging.

RUGGED CENTENARIAN

BOSTON (UP)—When 101-year-old Muriel Salisbury was knocked down by an automobile, she struggled to her feet and walked two blocks to her home. Neighbors finally forced her to agree to a checkup at a hospital. Doctors found Mrs. Salismury had suffered several fractured ribs, possible fractures of the right wrist and right knee and a concussion.

DIET OF BREAD AND WATER—Gordon Kellye, 14, who was found half-naked and in a starved and beaten condition near Toronto. Gordon said he had been kept in a dark closet for a year in a district home. Asked by photographers to smile, he didn't comprehend the word. His weight is 65 pounds and he said he had been beaten and fed bread and water twice daily.

Eating Straw Bad On Man's Stomach

BALLYMENA, Northern Ireland, Oct. 26 (AP)—Paddy O'Neill, a meditative man, always chewed a straw as he drove his pony and cart around sleepy Ballymena. He always had a stomach ache, too.

Now he knows why.

Removed from Paddy at hospital: Two balls of straw, total weight of one pound 12 ounces.

Nothing Like Brew For Female Hair-Do

TULSA, Oct. 26 (AP)—There's nothing like beer—"just any old kind"—for milady's hair-do, a guest artist at the western beauticians Chautauqua said today.

The word came from Robert Fiance, director of New York's Hair Styling institute, who said beer not only makes a good wave set but also "provides an excellent method of getting rid of warm, flat beer no longer fit for human consumption."

The brew, said Fiance, is good particularly for fine, hard-to-control hair, gives it sheen and texture.

But the smell?

"When the hair is dry, the odor is gone," Fiance explained.

Truck Crash, Fire Is Fatal To Kress Man

PLAINVIEW, Oct. 26 (Special)—Robert Howard Francies, 27, of Kress, was burned to death late Monday afternoon when the butane truck he was driving overturned and burst into flames on a rural road three miles east of Finney Switch. The accident scene is about nine miles northeast of Plainview.

Highway patrolmen who investigated the accident said Francies' truck plunged from the highway and overturned one and a half times, coming to rest on its left side, then burst into flames. They said they had been unable to determine whether the crash was caused by a blowout of the left front tire or some other cause. The truck was owned by Francies' uncle, Carl Lawson, of Kress, the officers said.

Seek To Aid Victim

The truck, officers said, came to a halt about 120 feet from the home of O. T. Staggs, Hale county farmer. They said Staggs told them he was sitting in his pickup truck near his house when the truck overturned, and that immediately he left his machine to go to the aid of the driver. He was joined by W. C. Evans, a neighbor, who rushed to the scene at the sound of the accident.

Staggs told patrolmen that Francies was partially out of the truck when they reached the scene, and that they dragged him from the cab and 10 or 12 feet in front of the wreckage.

Staggs reported that Francies still had life at the time and tried to help himself, but collapsed and fell to his hands and knees. Staggs said he and Evans were forced by the intense heat from the burning truck, and the danger of an explosion to abandon Francies where he fell.

The burning truck caused the Staggs family to evacuate their residence near the accident scene although the house did not catch on fire.

Highway patrolmen said the flames finally were extinguished about 11:30 p. m.

Body Badly Burned

The farmers drove 10 miles to Plainview to report the accident and to get help, the officers said. The Plainview fire department, headed by Chief A. M. Hamilton and Asst. Chief Leedy Maxie, dispatched a truck to the crash scene. The firemen played foamite on the blazing truck while the body was removed to an ambulance.

Funeral home attendants said that the body was badly charred and that the clothing had been burned from it when they arrived.

Roy G. Woods Funeral home, Plainview, said Tuesday morning fureral arrangements had not been completed.

Survivors include his wife, two sons, Bobby and Jimmy Carl; mother, Mrs. Ida Francies, Kress;

Reports Show Democrats Have Deficit In Treasury Of Party

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (AP) — Democrats showed a deficit in their party treasury today, although their top organizations have spent $639,070 less than the Republicans in the struggle for the presidency and control of Congress.

A compilation of reports filed with Congress by the two national party committees and parallel groups seeking to elect senators and house members showed GOP spending at $2,177,217; that of the Democrats at $1,538,207.

The national committees were $202,661 apart with the Republican committee reporting an outlay of $1,706,370 and the Democratic committee $1,503,709.

Spending Is Listed

Spending by the two senatorial committees was listed at $164,650 and $32,263, leaving the biggest spread for the house contests.

The Republican congressional committee spent $306,257 to $2,235 for the similar Democratic group.

These figures take no account of spending by the various local organizations taking part in the campaigns.

The Democratic national committee said it has gone $10,755 in the red with its bank balance — just a week before election — down to $8,485.

In addition to the money in the bank, the committee listed $95,000 due from loans to state and local committees but $114,240 in unpaid obligations.

The Republican committee did not say whether it is operating with black or red ink. Its report covered expenditures up to October 18. The Democrats covered their spending through October 22. Contributions since January 1 were listed at $1,464,753 by the Republicans and $1,196,827 by the Democrats.

The parties must file their final pre-election reports Thursday.

Larger Quarters Sought For Parents Of Girl In Hospital

CHICAGO, Oct. 26 (AP)—A cook county hospital official today appealed for aid in finding larger living quarters for the parents of little Pamela Lamphere, who is undergoing surgery to correct a rare bladder malformation.

Dr. Karl A. Meyer, medical director of the hospital, said he is "fearful" of sending two-year-old Pamela home because of crowded conditions in the Lamphere's one-room apartment.

Not Beneficial

Dr. Meyer said he will not be to the child's benefit to live in such crowded conditions." He expressed hope public interest in the child would enable her parents to move to a larger apartment.

Pamela, who was born with her bladder outside her body, has undergone two operations and the major part of the malformation has been corrected. A third operation is planned in about three months.

Pamela's parents, Fred, 23, and Irene, 21, moved from a trailer home into their one-room apartment after the child was taken to the hospital several weeks ago.

Circus Man's Death Mystery

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Oct. 26. (AP) —A coroner's inquest failed yesterday to uncover any evidence on which to file charges in the mysterious death of a 19-year-old circus roustabout.

A woman performer and 10 men employes of Dailey Brothers circus were released after the coroner's jury returned an open verdict in the death of William Pettit, Louisville, Ky.

County Prosecutors Wayne T. Walker and Clyde Combs said there was "absolutely no evidence on which to file charges."

Pettit's battered body was found in a circus wagon Saturday after the show arrived here from Lamar, Mo. Dr. Murray C. Stone, who performed an autopsy, said the youth had been "stomped to death" and apparently was the victim of a fight.

One Declines Testimony

Three property gang laborers testified at the inquest they helped their boss, Oscar Lloyd Dennis, 19, load Pettit into the wagon and that they believed he was alive. They said they saw no evidence of wounds.

On the advice of his attorney, Dennis declined to testify.

Frances Benner, an elephant worker and aerialist, was booked at county jail after she heard the morning testimony. The booking was a routine action to prevent testimony from being relayed to other witnesses, officers said.

The circus' entire personnel—approximately 250—were under arrest for a time for screening purposes.

Wildcat Project Set; Other Developments Slow In Area

Magnolia Petroleum company is to drill a deep wildcat in northwest Andrews county, on the east side of the Fullerton field.

It will be Magnolia No. 2-11 University, and is slated to bore to a possible destination of 10,000 feet. That will take it through the Wolfcamp, lower Permian, and might allow an exploration of the Devonian.

The venture will be 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of the south half of section 11, block 13, University survey. Drilling with rotary tools is to start by October 28.

This development is adjacent to wells producing from the Clear Fork-Permian above 7,200 feet, on the east side of the Fullerton field.

Terry Test Negative

Seaboard Oil company of Delaware No. 1 E. M. Hinson, northeast Terry county venture, 10 miles northeast of Brownfield, and 660 fet from north and west lines of section 91, block 4-X, psl survey, took a 90-minute drillstem test in an unidentified lime at 11,461-483 feet.

Recovery was 4,700 feet of salt water. There were no shows of oil or gas. The wildcat is drilling ahead.

Some observers think the section which developed the water is in the top of the Ellenburger. There is no official verification for that surmise.

Scurry Well Cored

American Republics corporation No. 1 Susie Koonsman, 15 miles northeast of Snyder, in northeast Scurry county, and 2,115 feet from north and 3,290 feet from east lines of section 240, block 2, H&TC survey, took a one hour drillstem test at 7,406-26 feet on an unidentified lime section.

Recovery was eight feet of drilling mud, with no shows of oil, gas or water. The prospector is making hole below 7,441 feet in lime, and is due to stop and take another drillstem test soon. During the test at 7,408-26 feet, there was a very slight blow of air for two minutes, and it then died.

Standard Oil company of Texas No. 1 Brown, eight miles northwest of Snyder, in northwest Scurry county, and 1,880 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 440, block 97, H&TC survey, was drilling ahead below 6,120 feet in Pennsylvanian shale.

After taking a drillstem test at 6,030-58 feet, and recovering 1,310 feet of oil, and mud cut oil in two hours and 15 minutes, the project cored at 6,058-72 feet, and at 6,072-78 feet.

Project To Continue

Recovery from both cuttings was shale and sand, with only slight signs of oil. This development is slated to continue to about 8,000 feet to test the Ellenburger.

Argo Oil corporation No. 1-N Jones, northwest Gaines county possible discovery from the Devonian, and 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 496, block G, CCSD&RGNG survey ,perforated the casing at 11,135-150 feet, and took a 10-hour drillstem test on that interval.

Gas showed at the surface after 20 minutes. It was not gauged or estimated. Recovery was 5,810 feet of oil and 205 feet of heavily oil cut mud. There was no water. Operator is now preparing to acidize the section between 11,125 feet and the total depth at 11,205 feet.

Veteran Film Actor Under Special Care

MONROVIA, Calif., Oct. 26 (AP) Richard Dix, the veteran film actor, is under special care after suffering a third heart attack within the last 18 months.

Dix, 53, one of the silent screen's biggest box office attractions, is recuperating in a sanitarium here. All he needs is sufficient rest, his wife says.

He had been resting at his ranch near Hollywood after two previous attacks.

His recent motion picture work has been confined to appearances in "The Whistler" mystery picture series.

Police Convinced

Bleachers Stolen From Rodeo Site

REDWOOD CITY, Calif., Oct. 26 (AP)—Hey, somebody stole our bleachers! the Redwood City Rodeo association complained today.

Police raised a skeptical eyebrow. But they went and looked. Sure enough, the bleachers—or enough of them to seat about 1,000 people—were gone.

Police Lieutenant Stanley Wood said he couldn't understand why anyone would want the bleachers. And it puzzled him still more how they could have hauled them away without being detected.

LIVE BOMB FOUND

SCHAFFHAUSEN, Switzerland, Oct. 26 (AP) — An unexploded bomb believed to be of American origin was found embedded in the bank of the Rhine river here recently. Swiss army engineers believed the bomb was dropped during the American air attack on Schaffhausen on April 1, 1944, during which more than 30 persons were killed. The Schaffhausen raid, caused by a navigational error, was the heaviest suffered by neutral Switzerland during the war.

Marine Studios Learn About Eating Habits Of Pilot Whale

MARINELAND, Fla., Oct. 26 (AP)—Marine studios had hard luck with its pilot whales, but it learned something.

Of four captured when 44 came ashore to die near here a few weeks ago, only one remains—but that one apparently is going to live and be a healthy specimen.

The four were rescued when the 44 rushed ashore, either seeking food or in an attempt to escape a school of attacking porpoise. Studio officials leaned toward the latter theory because hardly had the whales been put in the big sea tank here than a battle broke out between them and nine porpoise.

Fight Was Furious

The fight was furious for an hour or so, then became resultory and finally ended by the following day. A baby porpoise was killed, and one of the whales badly chewed up.

One whale had died just before the battle and another died a week later. Both were females.

At this point, none had eaten anything, so far as studio officials could determine.

Fearing the remaining two — both males—might starve, an attempt was made to force-feed them. A noose was placed on the tail of one and he was towed into a flume.

A blue runner, a mullet and a blue crab were placed separately in its mouth. The animal spit out each. The whale was replaced in the tank, visibly weakened by the treatment. Next day it died.

During the afternoon of the following day, the studio received a consignment of squid from Boston, and an attempt was made to feed this to the remaining mammal. He showed no interest so instructions were left for the night crew to try.

Next morning, Dr. Henry Kritzler, a member of the studio scientific staff, brought his autopsy clothes to work, expecting to hear that the final whale had died.

Whale Eats Squid

Instead he was told the animal had eaten 17 squid during the early morning hours.

"We should have deduced that the whale is primarily a night feeder since both sexes of all ages are jet black; and squid come to the ocean's surface only at night," Dr. Kritzler said.

That afternoon the remaining whale ate 24 more squid and since then has eaten all the studio offered him.

The porpoise seldom bother him now, and when they do he is able to avoid them easily because of his recovered strength, Dr. Kritzler said.

TILLYER Ful-Vue Bifocals

If you are having difficulties getting used to your bifocals, ask your eye physician about Tillyer Ful-Vue Bifocals. He'll tell you that they require no "breaking-in" period, because, for all practical purposes, "jump" has been eliminated.

You won't be annoyed with color fringes rainbowing the edges of black and white objects. Most important of all perhaps: the Tillyer Ful-Vue reading segment is shaped so that its widest portion is located at the natural reading level of the eyes.

Whether you have been wearing bifocals of another kind for years, or whether you are about to wear bifocals for the first time, be sure to ask your eye physician (oculist) about Tillyer Ful-Vue bifocals.

North Atlantic Alliance Would Deter Attacker, Canadian Says

TORONTO, Oct. 26. (AP)—Defense Minister Brooke Claxton says Russia's chances of success in an aggressive war would be reduced by a North Atlantic security alliance including Canada and the United States.

Claxton told the annual meeting of the United Nations Association of Canada last night that "the existence of an Atlantic security pact in 1935 would have prevented the second world war in 1939."

"We are building up the defense forces necessary to defend Canada against immediate attack and to serve as the nucleus for large forces should the emergency arise," Claxton said.

"We have close working arrangements with the United States and we are working out with other free nations plans for joint defense based on self-help and mutual aid.

Claxton said he saw no possibility of Canada remaining neutral in another war.

He added that Canada was spending 10 times as much for defense as she had done before the war and had 95,000 active and reserve service men and civilians working at defense.

Orders Are Mailed For New Draft Call

Mailing of draft call No. 3 orders for men to report for physical examinations was completed Monday by the selective service board, said Mrs. Viola Younger.

In the three draft calls issued this far in the four-county area which has headquarters in Lubbock, 85 men have received orders to report for physical examinations at the Armed Forces Joint Examining and Induction station in the federal building.

Counties in this area are Lynn, Garza, Crosby and Lubbock. Orders first were mailed to men born in 1922. Some younger men have since received orders.

Selective service workers this week are completing records of men who reported during selective registration days. They prepared records of the older age groups first.

Woman In Colorado Is Choked To Death

ROCKY FORD, Colo., Oct. 26. (AP)—A 57-year-old woman was choked to death today when the ends of a scarf tied over her head caught in an electric wringer.

Her physician said the woman, Mrs. Gottlieb Eckhart, had been dead about two hours when her husband found her body when he returned from the fields to their house a mile and a half west of Rocky Ford for lunch.

Eckhart found his wife's body pulled taut against the wringer on the washing machine, the scarf ends twisted around her neck.

They have five children.

Sudden Thought: The lumber supply hasn't reduced the supply of 2x4 politicians.

JUST five years ago—shortly after 7 o'clock on the morning of Oct. 26, 1943—the murders of Doctor and Mrs. Roy Hunt, of Littlefield, were discovered.

In the bedroom of the Hunt residence, the bodies were found lashed togethed by a lamp cord. Dr. Hunt had been fatally shot. Mrs. Hunt had died as the result of a blow, probably with a pistol butt, on the head.

The double murder represented as heinous a crime as ever committed in this section of the state. Peace officers from nearby counties and from the State Department of Public Safety went into Lamb county to aid and support Littlefield and Lamb county officials. Clues, both real and imaginary, were run down as the public seethed with excitement, horror and righteous anger.

All that was five years—60 long months—ago and the Hunt murders still remain unsolved; the killer walks free.

Out of the welter of clues, one man finally was charged with the crimes.

He is Jim Thomas, then out on parole from the state penitentiary, a man with a long record of violent crime in Texas and Nebraska.

Thrice tried, twice sentenced to death, and once to life imprisonment. Thomas now is a free man. The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals reversed the verdict of juries in Hale, Dawson and Nolan counties on the ground that there was insufficient proof that Thomas killed Doctor and Mrs. Hunt. In fairness to the Criminal Appeals court, the evidence against Thomas was highly circumstantial for the most part. If he did kill Doctor and Mrs. Hunt, investigating officers never did succeed completely in linking him directly with the crimes. Their job was well done.

WHAT is more important today than whether Jim Thomas should, or should not, have been turned loose by action of the Court of Criminal Appeals is that neither he, nor anyone else, has been proven guilty of the murders. The murders were committed, but nobody has paid for perpetrating them.

It would be interesting to know just how long it has been since a Lamb county officer, or any of the experts of the State Department of Public Safety have thought about the unsolved murders of Doctor and Mrs. Hunt, let alone how long it has been since anyone in authority has attempted again to piece together the known facts. The Hunt murders, in some quarters, may be "forgotten." But they are not forgotten by a great many citizens.

This section of Texas still is full of people who think the Hunt murders should never be "officially forgotten," or dropped, until the job of clearing them up has been done, satisfactorily.

Certainly, there is nothing satisfactory about the solution of the murders as things stand today.

We realize, of course, that there are so-called "perfect crimes."

We realize, as does everyone else, that the more time which elapses between the commission of a crime and its solution, the more difficult and unlikely the solution becomes.

We realize that in every section of the country there are unsolved crimes and, reluctantly, we admit that the Hunt murders may wind up in that category.

But unless work is carried on in the Hunt cases, along with all others, more and more crimes which might be solved otherwise will slip into the "unsolved" category.

FURTHERMORE, the Hunt murders, while they represent the most sensational of violent crimes in this area, are not alone in the "unsolved" category out this way.

Within the past 15 years, or so, there have been at least a half-dozen other murders which have not been cleared up—which makes the official batting average of area and state officers pretty poor, indeed. Certainly it is a record devoid of laurels for officialdom to rest upon.

Somebody killed Doctor and Mrs. Hunt five years ago and that somebody hasn't been apprehended, convicted and punished.

With this fact in mind, we think there is no sound reason for the murders being either overlooked, or "forgotten."

WHEN you go to vote next week, you'll be confronted with a ballot to end all ballots—a sheet of paper about as big as a saddle blanket, filled with names and proposals, from top to bottom.

In all seriousness, the ballot is about the size of a newspaper page and, in addition to eight proposed amendments to the State Constitution, it sports eight "party" columns, including two that are without names of candidates. One of the latter is headed "Independent," the other "Write-In," and as to why there need be two such columns, your guess is as good as anybody else's.

The Democratic column is the only one on the Lubbock county ballot which lists candidates from President to public weigher, 43, in number. The Republicans have the next greatest number of candidates, 25 in all. The Progressive (Wallace-Communist)—column shows the next largest number of candidates, 10 for 43 positions. The Prohibition party has eight candidates while the States Rights Democrats and the Socialists content themselves with offering only candidates for President and Vice President.

The people who have to count the ballots everywhere in Texas this year are going to have a tougher time than customarily is true in general elections.

Usually, nine Texans out of 10—if not more—"vote 'er straight," simply marking out all the other columns on the ballot. But this year the votes for the eight amendments will require considerable counting time and, on top of this, there is going to be much more "split-ticket voting" than has been seen since 1928.

★ ★ ★

THROUGHOUT Texas, both the Republican and States Rights Democratic candidates for President will get a lot of votes—perhaps more, combined than will go to Truman-Barkley. Diehards of the broken-down Stevenson-for-Senator camp will vote for the GOP candidate to some extent. In a few sections, probably including the South Plains, the GOP gubernatorial candidate, Alvin Lane, will profit from the unpopularity of Beauford Jester. In El Paso, San Antonio, Houston, Dallas and the Port Arthur country, the Wallace-Taylor ticket will get some left-wing votes.

So don't look for an early clean-up of election returns in this state.

The counting job, except where voting machines are used, is going to be tough all over the country, because there will be a lot of "split-ballots" everywhere.

The prospects are that unless Dewey makes a run-away out of the Presidential race, it is very possible that the nation won't know the certain outcome until sometime the day after election day.

So-o-o, plan to vote early, then relax!

BY DREW PEARSON: TOO MANY AMERICANS HAVE WRONG IDEA ABOUT VOTING

Congressmen Not Deserving Of Reelection Listed

EN ROUTE THROUGH MIDWEST—Too many voters have the idea that once they pick a president every four years their voting job as American citiens is over. They don't seem to realize that no President, no matter what the party, can put across a program without an intelligent Congress.

PEARSON

If Congress is made up of party hacks and hangers-on, chiefly interested in patronage and nepotism, almost any administration will bog down. With a view to sorting out the congressional wheat from the chaff, therefore, here is the Washington Merry-Go-Round score-card of Congress.

First, no attempt is made to evaluate southern Democrats, since their real election comes in the primaries. These are the congressmen who don't deserve to be re-elected. Those who merit re-election will follow in a subsequent column.

The List

Charles K. Fletcher, San Diego, Cal., Republican—tool of the real-estate lobby, has been under federal investigation for loaning money from his own building-and-loan association to build a hotel on land sold a contractor by the congressman's father. Next to Rep. Jesse Wolcott of Michigan, Fletcher was the lobby's chief inside executioner of public housing.

Robert F. Rockwell, Colorado, Republican—though one of the wealthiest men in the state, he has put a local political leader, Crissa B. Pond, on the government payroll at $292.93 a month, supposedly as a member of Rockwell's office staff. However, Pond, never in Washington, travels with Rockwell during his campaign. Rockwell has voted consistently against all progressive measures.

Edwin A. Hall, Binghampton, N. Y., Republican—has four members of his family on the payroll, from his father down to his 16-year-old son who is a "folder" in the House document room, and his 19-year-old daughter who has been a student at Maryland university. Voting record—reactionary.

Leo Isacson, New York, Laborite—never amounted to much more than a weak echo of Sen. Glen Taylor and Rep. Vito Marcantonio. Republicans and Democrats are joining forces to oust him from his short-term seat. Disarming manner, dogged will.

Howard Buffett, Nebraska, Republican—A jack-of-all issues, a run-at-the-mouth politician and bedrock reactionary. Once he even upbraided Sen. Arthur Vandenberg for his liberal views and "token Democracy." Goes off half-cocked on any and all questions. Nervous, abrupt, honest.

Wat Arnold, Missouri, Republican—Taber-minded isolationist who can't see beyond his own corn patch. Bulky, earthy, placid, likable, rarely opens his mouth in Congress but keeps the voters in line by writing lengthy newsletters to constituents in which he preaches thrift, and homey, over-the-back-fency philosophy.

Harold Youngblood, Michigan, Republican—A wishy-washy conservative. Deserted his city constituents by opposing rent control.

• • •

JOHN SANBORN, Idaho Republican — Never opened his mouth in the House except to cast his vote with the hard-shelled isolationists who oppose Dewey-Vandenberg policies. So inconspicious alongside his colleagues that he was almost anonymous, but used his free-mailing privileges to spread propaganda for silver lobbiest John McBride.

Frank Barrett, Wyoming, Republican—Darling of the big cattlemen even though he, himself, happens to be a sheepman. Fought against Jackson Hole national monument because it removed some grazing land from the cattlemen in favor of scenic beauty.

Wint Smith, Kansas, Republican—Has been just as poor as a congressman as he was an attorney for the Kansas highway commission.

Bert Gearhart, California, Republican—Has a consistent record in favor of the California wine interests, for isolation, and he reached a new high in statesmanship when he introduced a bill barring newsboys from social security benefits.

• • •

Toward The East

Horace Seely-Brown, Connecticut, Republican—A push-button party liner. Party leaders merely push the buzzer and Seely-Brown votes as they tell him. Was one of five House members who voted against higher education allowances for war vets.

P. W. Griffiths, Ohio, Republican—A do-nothing congressman, who once admitted to newsmen that in four years he had never delivered a single speech.

Fred Smith, Ohio, Republican—A horse doctor who left any horse sense at home when he came to Congress.

Raymond Burke, Ohio, Republican—Travels at rocking-chair speed in an atomic age. Lets the G.O.P. bosses do his thinking. Studious, old, kindly, his only accomplishment was a bill setting up federal game preserves.

Robert McGarvey, Pennsylvania, Republican—Colorless. Backseat congressman. Well-meaning, but a lightweight. Content to follow the House leadership.

C. W. Bishop, Illinois, Republican—Never should have given up tailoring for politics. His chief claim to notoriety is that when a group of congressmen called at the Vatican he talked back to His Holiness, the pope.

Fred Crawford, Michigan, Republican—Acid-tongued, he is always talking his way into trouble; defiantly opposed admitting Hawaii into the union because he didn't want to have a couple of "Jap" senators; later reversed himself and supported both Hawaiian and Alaskan statehood. Created a furor by demanding that John Virden resign from the Commerce department because his daughter worked for Soviet news agency Tass; was forced to eat his words when it turned out Virden was a friend of the G.O.P. Divides his time between his office and a Maryland farm.

The Feminine Viewpoint

IN explaining how she managed to go into business for herself on the slimmest of shoestrings a successful New York businesswoman said: "You finance your business with your own work."

MILLETT

That is exactly how the successful housewife helps to finance a good home for her family by hard work.

She may not have any money of her own to contribute to the family income. But if she is clever and energetic, she helps with the financing.

Such a woman can make a livable home out of almost any kind of quarters.

Her "financing" is not only the scrubbing, cooking, etc., that is the housewife's regular routine. It's the extras she does that makes a house a home.

It's the sewing, painting, gardening and contriving that she does to make a living place attractive.

It's the brains and energy she expends in making her family comfortable, in the imagination she uses to give some grace to their living.

FAMILY "FINANCIER"

WHEN you wonder why the Smiths can live so much better than the Joneses when their actual incomes are about the same, you can usually find the answer in Mrs. Smith's contribution to family living.

She's helping to finance the marriage by hard work. And let no man underestimate the value of the financing a woman does by hard work.

The day that the novelist drew out the last hundred francs in his account, he tapped the guard on the shoulder and said, "Now it's all right for you to go home."

Spy Probers Likely To Find General Ike Ready For Them

WASHINGTON — The report persists that the house un-American activities committee means to turn its attention next to the universities and the threat of "subversive" forces in higher education. The committee, so the report goes, will open up first on Columbia university in New York.

That would be in accord with the pattern established by this headline-hunting body. Because the president of Columbia is Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, anything to do with that university will get a higher ratio of publicity.

CHILDS

But the committee is likely to find that President Eisenhower is prepared to meet them on their own grounds. Before going headline-hunting in the great university over which he presides, the members of the committee would do well to read the address he gave when he was formally installed as president.

In that address Eisenhower clearly stated the right of academic inquiry and the freedom to teach political doctrines considered evil. As the general pointed out, a medical student has not merely the right but the duty to study cancer and its causes and so does the political scientist have the right to explore the pathology of politics.

• • •

In the six months he has been at Columbia, Eisenhower has carefully and thoroughly surveyed the teaching staff. Aware of the possibility of an investigation, he has kept in mind the question of "un-American teaching." Recently he spent a day in frank and full discussion with the faculty of teachers college, which is the branch of the university most often accused of radicalism.

Eisenhower came away convinced of the true Americanism of teachers college. By taking statements out of their context and by other tricks of distortion some members of the faculty had been deliberately smeared.

The house committee will find President Eisenhower prepared not merely to defend the record of Columbia but to praise it before the world. They will find in him an able and courageous champion of academic freedom.

What the committee would hope to find at Columbia is obvious. They would like to ferret out some one on the faculty who had fallen for Communism, get him or her up before the movie cameras and then go to town as they have done in the past.

• • •

THERE may be such an individual or individuals. Columbia is a large institution made up of persons of many diverse origins and background. But such a discovery will have nothing to do with the great body of teaching at Columbia or, for that matter, at any other large American university.

Manifestations of thought coercion and guilt by association are developing in a frightening fashion. It is not merely rhetoric to say that freedoms profoundly and inherently American are threatened today. I have been hearing of things that have happened here in Washington in connection with the loyalty investigation that I could hardly believe were happening in this free country of ours. Fear and suspicion are poisoning the lives of American citizens who have never had the slightest shadow of a thought of disloyalty.

Before the New York Herald-Tribune forum the other day Paul A. Porter, former OPA director, made a suggestion that deserves serious consideration. He proposed appointment by the president of a committee of top-ranking Americans who would "appraise the dangers and disasters of political demagoguery in abolishing our freedoms while pretending to protect our security."

• • •

Eisenhower Proposed

Specifically, Porter proposed that Eisenhower be named as the chairman of such a committee. Presumably the committee would be appointed by the incoming President.

But there are many arguments, it seems to me, for the appointment of such a committee by President Truman immediately after the election. And if General Eisenhower could be persuaded to accept the chairmanship, president-elect Dewey (as he presumably will be) should welcome the move.

With a new Republican administration tensions should be lessened. Suspicions and fears should be allayed. But Dewey may find himself under pressures from within his own party to further in "cleaning out Communists in the government" than he would care to go. He may find himself pressured to act in such a way as to compound present injustices.

A committee of fair-minded citizens of high reputation would be a bulwark against that sort of pressure. Its findings, supported by public opinion, should do much to quiet hysteria.

Today's Journal Editorial

CORRECTIVE LEGISLATION NEEDED

Within the past few days the sudden illness of jurors have halted the trials of two criminal cases in District courts here. In each instance, the judge has had no choice under the law except to declare "mistrials," meaning that the time and expenses devoted to the proceedings had been wasted.

Similar occurrences are not unusual in Texas.

They call for corrective legislation. In some states, provision is made for a 13th juror, known as an alternate, in criminal cases. If a regular member of the jury becomes ill, the alternate fills in for him. Or perhaps it would be even more common sense, when one member of a jury is unable to serve, to allow the other 11 to go ahead with the trial. Such a provision obviously would not be prejudicial to justice.

Perhaps there are other and better ways of correcting the condition. The need of corrective measures of some kind can hardly be disputed in the light of the two recent experiences in Lubbock.

Rain Is Blessed Gift Because It Makes Mankind Grow Closer

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—It is a rainy day outside, and I wonder if any political candidate is going to endorse it.

It has always seemed to me that rain was one of the most blessed things in the universe. And not because it refreshes the green things that grow in the fields—but because of what it does to human beings.

Rain wets down and washes the dreary, dusty face of nature. In the same way it washes the pettiness out of people, and makes them nearer to what they want to be. At least it does for most people.

Has Opposite Effect

Sunshine has the opposite effect. Sunshine is an insidious tonic that makes everybody feel wonderful—but selfish. It makes a man say to himself, "Boy, today I got the world by the tail." And sunshine is a liar. Nobody ever really had the world by the tail—for long.

Rain tells the truth. It doesn't fool anybody. It tells him what he is. Look at a plowhorse, standing in a pasture under the slanting silver pencil beats of the rain. You can tell by the slack muscles, the hanging head, he realizes he is just an ordinary horse after all and will never win the Kentucky derby or fly out to California in his private airplane to race at Santa Anita. So he plods over to the other horses, and is grateful there are other horses in the world to stand with while the rain falls.

Rain does the same thing for people. They grow together more and feel the kinship of their kind, and this is the great gift of rain.

Rain does for mankind in a cheap and harmless way what war does in an expensive and wasteful way. It makes a man aware of the loneliness he is born to and dies in. It makes him want to be closer to his fellows, a feeling he always has when hardship threatens, the skies clabber, and his world darkens.

AFL Will Vote On Forming New Party

CINCINNATI, Oct. 26. (AP)—The American Federation of Labor may sponsor formation of a national labor political meeting at its national convention here next month, AFL President William Green said yesterday.

"I want to wait and see how the election will turn out," Green told newsmen, adding that a resolution calling for formation of a third party probably would be submitted at the AFL gathering, opening Nov. 15.

Green said he did not know whether other labor organizations would join in the move.

Tests Scheduled On Texas Gulf Wildcat

GALVESTON, Oct. 26 (AP) — Within the next few days tests are expected to determine whether Texas has its first offshore producing oil well in the Gulf of Mexico.

The tests will be made at the Stanolind wildcat well in the gulf 14 miles east of Galveston. Massive blowout preventers have been installed and the pipe will be perforated soon, Frank Lindeman, jr., assistant division production superintendent, told the Galveston News last weekend.

The well is being drilled from a 45-by-55-foot platform, 28 feet, three inches above water level. The gulf is 46 feet deep at the site.

Sidewall cores and electrical logs taken last week revealed oil-saturated sands such as accompany commercial oil pockets. Prospected depth of the well is 5000 feet unless salt is contacted at a lesser depth.

Texas WCTU Ends Meet At Corsicana

Mobile Betatron Is Being Installed By Navy In Maryland

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (INS) — The Navy disclosed today that installation will soon be completed on the world's first mobile betratron — a 10-million-volt X-ray generator whose rays can penetrate steel 16 inches thick.

The remarkable instrument is being set up at the Navy's new ordance laboratory at nearly White Oaks, Md.

It is so powerful it must be housed in a special building surrounding by three-foot walls of reinforced concrete to protect personnel. It will be placed in operation shortly after the first of the year.

The machine will produce sharp, clear, internal pictures of thick sections of steel such as castings, welds and armor plates, it was explained. These pictures will reveal any defects such a cracks, blowholes and flaws which might otherwise go undetected.

The apparatus also will give engineers a chance to get an "inside look" at the complex assemblies of mines, torpedoes and similar items of naval ordnance without dis-assembling them.

AMERICAN FAMILY CLOSE-UP

As they go, so goes the nation!

Only 60 days to find a house!

...yet the Richard N. Clarkes were prepared

Summer picnics, like house hunting, are more successful for this Troy, N. Y., family because they're all in on it!

How to get a house has been the question for many a family since the war. But Dick and Emma Clarke were ready to tackle this problem the same way they've handled others ever since their marriage. Right from the start, they'd noticed that the most successful families were those who did things as a family. They set out to see if they, too, couldn't get ahead faster, have more fun by working out plans and problems as a team . . .

Getting a better job was the first problem after marriage. They decided that Dick would take night courses at college, while Emma continued to add her pay as teller in a New York bank to his $35-a-week from a utility firm. Dick still studies up on latest engineering wrinkles.

No "problem children" in the Clarke family! For little Pauline, 3, like her brothers, Richie, 5, and Robbie, 1½, Mr. and Mrs. Clarke agreed that a good mixture of happy freedom and firm discipline is the best thing!

In 1942, Dick's extra studying paid off! He was offered a job near Troy, N.Y. He and Emma decided that the change would be wise, though it meant a war-time move to a strange town. An instrument engineer, he makes between $4,000 and $5,000 a year.

But last spring a blow fell! The Clarkes were given just 60 days to find a new house! Together they hunted around Troy . . . finally found an 80-year-old farmstead, well-built, but far from modern. They had to have a house . . . but could they afford to buy it . . . to make improvements?

To pay for the needed improvements, the Clarkes saw they'd have to be sure every future penny counted. Expert at sewing, Mrs. Clarke agreed to help save money by making things like curtains herself. Dick would do painting, other jobs, himself.

But how to buy the house itself? After a heart-to-heart talk with their life insurance agent, they saw their way clear! "We found that our life insurance was ready to work for us now as well as for the future," the Clarkes explain. "Our agent showed us how our life insurance could be helpful in this emergency, without losing the protection we needed, too." The house costs $58 a month. This fits right into their budget, as does their new life insurance program. "In spite of the rough spots everyone has," say the Clarkes, "we're getting a lot from life. We make it a family affair!"

More time for fishing is one of Dick's dreams. And as his income increases—college for the children, going places and seeing things with Mrs. Clarke.

THE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES AND THEIR AGENTS

BRING YOU THIS STORY BECAUSE... families like the Clarkes show us one way that happiness is earned! You, yourself, probably know a family, right in your own town, that is getting ahead in the same typically American way. Such families prove to all of us that we can solve our own problems by our own efforts. . . . Their example shows, too, why it is so important for us to hold to our rights to think for ourselves, to work at what we like, to live as we choose. For what this country amounts to depends upon what happens to its homes!

Stubborn Fire Razes Building

CINCINNATI, Oct. 26 (AP) — A stubborn fire, which destroyed the interior of a seven-story, downtown building, was brought under control shortly before 1 a. m. this morning.

A 20,000-gallon water tower on the roof, which had endangered the lives of dozens of firemen, still was standing as Chief Barney Houston led fire fighters into the charred and water-soaked interior of the structure.

Houston said he believed the huge tank, perched 15 feet above the roof of the building, was empty "and that's probably what kept it from coming down." The sprinkler system in the building probably had drained the tank, he added.

The building, valued at $60,000, apparently is a total loss, Houston said. Overall damage was estimated unofficially at $100,000.

Located on Opera place, near the heart of downtown Cincinnati, the building is hemmed in on both sides by smaller structures.

The fire apparently started shortly after 10 p. m. in a photo-engraving plant on the second floor. Houston reported, and climbed rapidly through the upper floors, which were unoccupied.

tain commodities not economical or practical for overseas shipment will be accepted for conversion to commodities that can be shipped, and in lieu of other gifts in kind, cash will be accepted for purchase of commodities.

Other Programs Aided

Holmes emphasized that those who want to give cash instead convert their cash donations into acceptable commodities by purchasing such from local rural friends or neighbors.

East donor is urged to designate his or her gift to the church of his choice. The gifts are destributed by church agencies on the basis of need, after they are received at the various ports designated by contributors.

"CROP has been set up to supplement, not destroy, other worthy overseas relief programs," Holmes said.

He said that as of the present time, each county has been asked to make only one drive for CROP, and that while no deadline is imposed upon a county, it is suggested by the regional state offices of the organization that each county set its closing date on its drive as early as possible in order that the commodities arrive without undue delay in the countries where they are needed.

Commodities will be distributed in those countries which the church groups think are in need of relief, with the exception of Russia and her puppet states. Germany and Japan doubtless will be included, he added.

Shipping costs of the commodities are to be paid by CROP, Holmes said.

The headquarters offices of the organization have announced that it is to be understood with the donor that such material not suitable for shipment overseas may be transferred into suitable material for export for relief, or used to defray legitimate expenses, which include administrative and transportation costs. Decisions as to the suitability for export shipments are left with CROP and the cooperating agencies.

Since its organization, CROP assembled and shipped overseas during the seven months ending last April a total of 38,726,273 pounds of relief supplies, including 22 different items valued at $2,350,311.83, Holmes said.

Sherrill and Miss Clara Pratt county home demonstration agent, called the meeting jointly, and are working with the steering committee in organizing CROP locally.

Talks Resumed In Oil Strike

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 26 (AP) — Some signs of progress loomed in the west coast oil strike going into its 52nd day. But CIO President Philip Murray urged all member unions to rally behind the oil workers.

Negotiations were resumed on three fronts as Murray dispatched a letter to CIO unions throughout the nation.

"The oil monopoly, headed as usual by Standard Oil, is attempting to destroy the oil workers' union on the west coast," Murray's message charged. O. A. Knight, head of the oil union, quoted his telegram copy.

Murray Calls On Unions

Murray called upon CIO unions to "extend every possible moral and financial aid to the oil workers."

Meanwhile, negotiations continued between the union and Shell Oil Co., at San Francisco, and with Standard Oil officials at El Segundo. Talks were also to be reported at the Texas Co. plant here.

Prospects for settlement of the strike, involving six major companies, "look more hopeful now than since it began," the governor's council was told at Sacramento by Paul Scharrenberg, state director of industrial relations.

Issues Are Center

Negotiations center around the issue of rehiring strikers accused of violence and the heavy damage suits filed by companies against the union.

Knight has said the union is willing to accept the 12½ cent wage increase offered by the companies.

After 21 strikers were arrested on violence charges in the San Francisco area yesterday, Knight offered to provide squads of his own men as police aids in an effort to end outbreaks.

Russia Has Now Blocked Action On World's Two Great Issues

BY JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26—Russia, by taking completely opposite stands, has now blocked action on two of the biggest issues in the world: the atomic bomb and the Berlin blockade.

In both cases the result is the same: obstruction. By contradicting herself, Russia has made this much plain: if there's going to be any ball game at all, it has to be played Russia's way.

Take the case of the bomb—

The U. N. long ago set up an atomic energy commission to find ways of outlawing the atomic bomb and being sure no nation could make it.

Inspection Rejected

The commission finally recommended this:

First, set up U. N. control, with U. N. investigators free to go into any country to see that no one was cheating.

After the controls were working, the United States would get rid of its bombs and no nation would have any.

Nothing doing, the Russians said. They wanted the U. S. to destroy its bombs before the other nations set up the controls or talked about them.

Now take the case of the Berlin blockade—

A group of six nations not mixed up in that dispute suggested in the U. N. that Russia lift the Berlin blockade so the U. S., Britain and France could send supplies in by train to feed their troops in Berlin and Germans living there.

Berlin Talks Deadlocked

Then, said the six nations, as soon as the blockade was lifted, Russia, the U. S., Britain and France could begin talking about all their Berlin problems.

No, said Russia yesterday, vetoing the idea. Russia said it will not lift the blockade before the Berlin talks get under way.

So Russia dished out the medicine it wanted the U. N. and the U. S. to take on the bomb; but when the U. N. asked Russia to take the same medicine on Berlin, Russia said No.

On Sunday, the third anniversary of the birth of the U. N., Secretary of State Marshall said the greatest blight on the record of the U. N. is the "obstructive attitude" of certain nations.

House Gives Report

He didn't mention Russia by name. There's no doubt he meant Russia. That country now has used the veto 28 times in the U. N. to block international agreements or action. The U. S. hasn't used it once.

Only time can show whether this systematic obstruction of the Russians is a plan (1) to make the U. N. helpless and hopeless and (2) to keep the world in jitters.

But it would not be the first time, according to congressional experts on Russia, that the Russians took part in an international peace organization for the purpose of wrecking it.

This year the House committee on foreign affairs published a study of Russia called "The Strategy and Tactics of World Communism." It said:

"Pravda in 1931, when the Soviet Union had accepted membership in the commission created under the League of Nations to study the problem of European union, explained that the Soviet Union had done so only in order to wreck the project."

"Bad reputations are indestructible . . . but good reputations are fragile. If your family name means something in your locality, carve that name with a bit of family history on a granite monument, and the principles and ideals for which your name has stood will be carried on into the future. If, through actions of your own you are ashamed of your name, don't do anything about reminding people of it."
