'Red Ribbon' week will focus on drug awareness

Colorado City students will be participating with others across Texas this week during Red Ribbon Week 1990.

The Red Ribbon project links, via red ribbons, millions of Texans who are convinced that the war on drugs is winnable. The campaign is a grass roots effort which is designed to change attitudes about drug abuse and to promote a standard of "No Use of Illegal Drugs and No Illegal Use of Legal Drugs."

Since 1985, red ribbons have symbolized the nation's effort to reduce the demand for drugs and to save our coming generation from the perils of drug involvement.

Colorado City schools are promoting the national theme "Proud To Be...Drug Free" through participating in the week-long campaign.

"This campaign is sponsored by the Texan's War on Drugs," said Mark Merrell, Colorado Middle school assistant principal. "During this week, our school district will make an effort to educate our community in the area of drug prevention."

He said the goals established for the week are:

1. A red ribbon will be provided for each student to promote drug prevention.
2. Bookcovers supporting drug prevention will be given to each student.
3. Every teacher will teach a lesson on drug prevention.
4. Parents and students will be involved in promoting the week.
5. The "I Care Hotline" will be re-emphasized through T-shirts and

Questions answered about proposed landfill

How often do EPA officials go on site for inspections?

EPA has delegated authority to the Texas Water Commission (TWC) to issue hazardous waste permits, conduct inspections, and initiate enforcement activities under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA). The primary responsibility for inspections would rest on the TWC, with additional inspections and annual test requirements on the incinerator by the Texas Air Control Board (TACB). EPA would conduct inspections in an oversight role or on an "as needed" basis.

Who will certify that the site is properly closed?

The TWC has been delegated the authority from EPA to review and approve closure plans and issue closure and post-closure permits. Within 60 days of the completion of final closure of hazardous waste facility, the owner or operator must submit a certification to the TWC. The certification must be signed by the owner or operator and by an independent registered professional engineer and must be supported with documentation.

What monitoring will be done?

Hazardous waste landfills are required to have double liners, a leachate collection system, and a ground water monitoring system. Incinerators are required to demonstrate their ability to meet performance standards and stringent air emission requirements through a series of initial trial burns. After passing the trial burns, a facility is issued a permit and re-tested periodically to ensure continued compliance. One of the permit conditions is to conduct continuous combustion and emission monitoring. Storage facilities are required to have secondary containment and release detection systems.

I would like to request a list of towns that have had an incinerator located there within the past ten years.

In the State of Texas, there have been two commercial hazardous waste incinerators permitted within the last ten years. They are Rollins Environmental Services, Deer Park, Texas; and Chemical Waste Management, Port, Arthur, Texas.

Do local health facilities have toxic poison treatment equipment and expertise?

Local health facilities are equipped with antidotes and treatment policies for commonly encountered toxins and poisons. They also have immediate access to poison control centers across the United States that are able to instruct local health officials in treating exposure to specific toxins and chemicals. As far as specific toxins and poisons encountered through the proposed hazardous waste landfill, most facilities dealing with this sort of material have proposed and well defined outlined procedures which are followed in the event of exposure to potential toxins and poisons. Local health facilities usually follow these outline procedures and protocols under the guidance and direction of the agency or industry immediately involved with the production of the toxin or poison in question.

(This question answered by Dr. Dee A. Roach, M.D., Mitchell County Health Officer.)

Man slightly injured in one-vehicle accident

A Crane man escaped serious injury early Friday morning when the pickup he was driving went out on control and fell some 16-feet from the Interstate 20 bridge overpasses onto Highway 208.

Roy L. Wilson, 19, was traveling west on I-20 at 5:50 a.m. when he apparently went to sleep. The 1979 Chevrolet Silverado pickup went out of control before dropping to Highway 208.

Wilson was taken to the Mitchell County Hospital by a passerby where he was treated and released.

The pickup received extensive damage.

The accident was investigated by the Colorado City Police Department.

Sales tax refund increases slightly

State Comptroller Bob Bullock's office sent a check totaling $25,058 to Colorado City as its monthly local sales tax rebate.

The amount is a .17 percent increase over the $25,015 received for the same period last year. The 1990 payments to date are $290,415, a 6.22 percent decrease over the 1989 payments to date of $309,683.

Westbrook received a check for $853, a 60.40 percent increase over the $531 check received for the same period last year. Payments to date are $6,129, a 47.96 percent increase over the 1989 payments to date of $4,142.

Loraine did not receive a check this time. Its payments to date are $4,856, a 6.97 percent increase over the 1989 payments to date of $4,539.

Mitchell County's check totaled $13,283, a 26.98 percent increase over the $10,461 received for the same period last year. The payments to date are $159,104, a 33.46 percent increase from last year when the figure stood at $119,214.

Area cities and the amounts they received this time include Robert Lee, $2,714, up 5.26 percent; Big Spring, $98,817, up 10.84 percent; Coahoma, $2,282, up 58.74 percent; Roscoe, $1,310, up 14.75 percent; Sweetwater, $62,533, up 21.18 percent; and Snyder, $66,486, up 6.59 percent.

The only area county that collects the optional sales tax is Scurry County which received $43,747, up 30.78 percent.

This month's checks reflect taxes collected on August sales and reported in late September by businesses filing monthly tax returns.

Merchants collect the state and local sales taxes and send them to the comptroller's office with their tax returns. The state keeps its 6 1/4 percent share and each month sends cities and counties their portion of the sales tax.

All local sales taxes must be approved by local voters and may be used for any legal city or county expenses. Most areas put the regular 1 percent city sales tax in their general fund and use it for operations like fire fighting, maintaining roads and law enforcement. Cities use additional 1/2 percent city sales taxes to help fund local economic development.

Lone Star seeks hike in Loraine

Lone Star Gas Company Manager Gary Parker Thursday filed for a rate change in Loraine that will raise the average monthly residential gas bill by 4.28 percent.

"This rate change is necessary to continue the high performance levels our customers are accustomed to receiving," says Parker. "It will cover necessary operating expenses, such as maintaining and improving the local pipeline distribution system, all vital to dependable service."

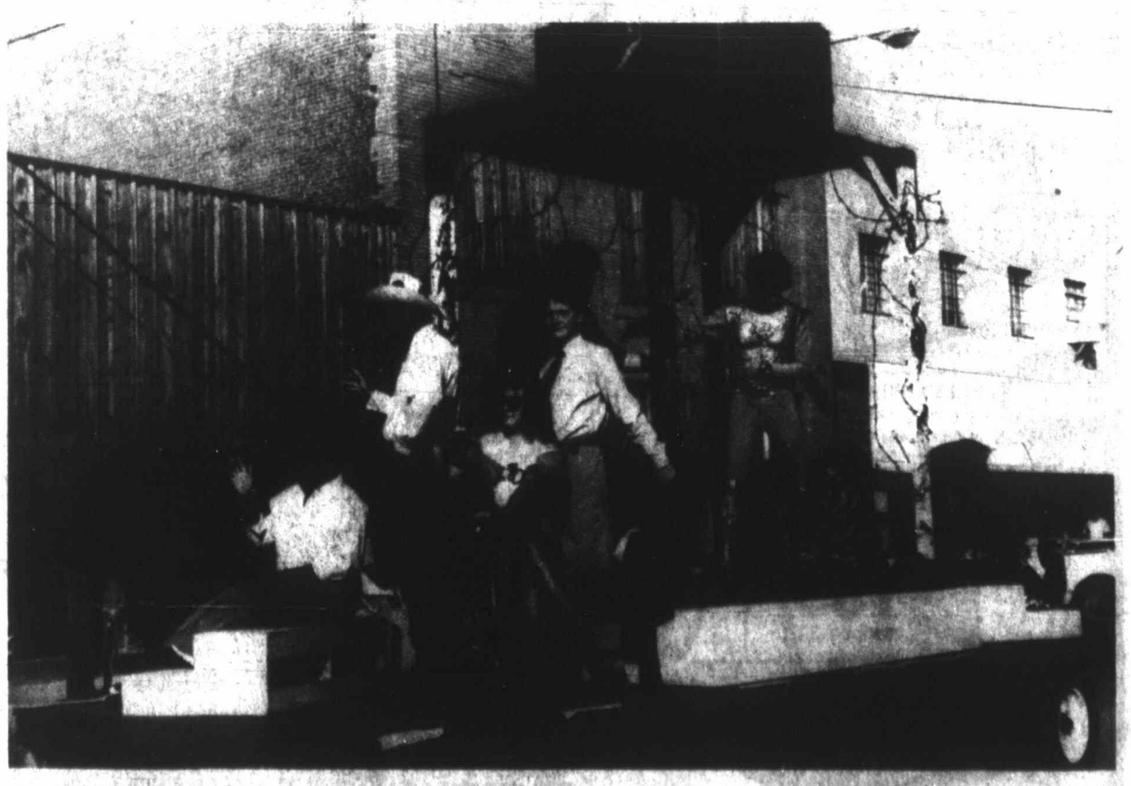

The last time Lone Star filed for a rate change in Loraine was in April 1985.

"Lone Star will continue to work for reductions in the cost of the gas purchased for our customers, and net savings achieved are passed on to customers each month through the gas cost adjustment," says Parker. "General increases in the cost of doing business make this request necessary."

Based on Lone Star's application, a residential customer using an average of 6,000 cubic feet of gas a month would see a change in the monthly bill from $32.29 to $38.18.

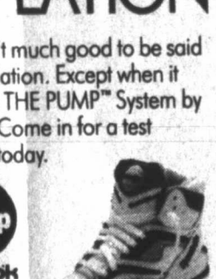

"No one likes rising prices, but any business must earn enough money to cover its cost of service. Even though our expenses have gone up, Lone Star still has the lowest average operating cost per customer compared to the other five major gas utilities serving Texas," Parker said.

Youth Center said progressing

The Optimist Club of Colorado City has announced it is making progress on the renovation of the Mitchell County Youth Center, Third and Chestnut streets.

Clean-up day was very successful with two truck loads of trash hauled away. Thanks to the city for loading the trash and hauling it to the dump.

A new concession stand counter has been built by members Boyd Griffin and Jerry Boyd.

Donations are starting to come in and the club is very thankful. Dr. Dee Roach donated a stereo system to the club. This has been a very pressing need as the club has borrowed one for dances.

Also donating are Mitchell County Farm Bureau and Clay Strange, with cash donations; Perry Noblett, ping pong table; Danny Bell, public address system; Kerry King, speaker; Bob and Sonya Girvin, speakers; and Ada Pender, ping pong table.

The club sponsored its first youth activity in the center. It was a dance for sixth through eighth grades and some 73 students from Colorado City, Westbrook and Loraine attended.

A "Fun Fifties" dance is set for Oct. 31 from 7-10 p.m. for students sixth through ninth grades. Admission is $2 per person and it will a dress in fifties or costume dance. Costume contest, dance contest and door prizes will be given. A concession stand will be open.

Also set for that night is a "Candy Stop" at the center on the west side of the building. There will be candy and balloons for youngsters from 6-8 p.m.

Plans are in the making for a high school dance and a Hutchinson Game Day. The club also will be sponsoring a painting contest from area students for the outside panels of the building. Details will be announced soon.

4-H IS CELEBRATING

...a proud history dating back to the early 1900's

Celebrating a program that has grown from the rural areas into towns, cities and suburbs.

There are over 100 youth involved in 4-H projects in Mitchell County.

Celebrating a program that reaches youth ages 9 to 19.

At the time a youth enters the third grade or reaches age 9, they can enter the exciting world of 4-H.

Celebrating a program that offers unlimited opportunities.

4-H activities and events.

--combine learning and fun

--are offered on club, county, district, state, national and international levels

--are spread throughout the year

--help youth develop their own special talents

--build self-esteem, self-confidence and communication skills.

Celebrating a program that increased the projects it offers to meet the expanding interest of today's youth.

4-H has always had the philosophy that youth learn best when actively involved - "learning by doing".

4-H project help ranges from one-on-one interaction with a caring adult, to written materials, workshops, trainings, clinics and camps.

The key element to learning and the completion of project work is still the parent - who guides, encourages and supports their child's involvement.

In general, over 40 4-H projects are offered in these categories: Mechanical Science, Animal Science, Home Economics, Natural Sciences, Plant Science, Personal Growth and Development and Communication arts.

Celebrating a program that emphasizes record keeping skills.

4-H project records teach: planning, goal-setting, responsibility, language skills, documenting efforts and determining accomplishing.

Celebrating a program that provides an opportunity for interaction between a child and caring adult.

4-H parents and other interested adults are the organizers, supporters, guides and teachers that are the driving force that makes the 4-H program operate. Volunteer training and resources are provided by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Celebrating a program that emphasizes family involvement.

4-H is a family organization. Families come in all shapes and sizes - they may have one child or many, and one parent or two. Whatever it makes-up, 4-H encourages family members to work together, which in turn helps to strengthen family bonds!

Celebrating new directions and dreams for the future that will combine the best of the past.

4-H is continually evolving, making changes that will keep it in step with today's youth and their families.

We hope you'll join the 4-H celebration!

Wolves shutout Kermit, 17-0, in homecoming tilt

GO ROBBIE GO - Colorado High Wolf quarterback Robbie Smith tries to outrun the pursuit of the Kermit defense in Friday night's homecoming victory, 17-0.

On a cool October evening, the Colorado City Wolves continued District 6AAA play against the Kermit Yellowjackets on Friday, October 19. Not only were the Wolves needing a victory to even out their district record, but looking to please a packed Wolf Stadium on Homecoming. The Wolves displayed great teamwork and desire in the 17-0 victory, and a 1-1 district mark.

From the start, Colorado City led in almost every facet of the game. The Wolves took a couple of series to get rolling, and on a deep punt by Kermit, the pack began at their own 1 yard-line. What looked to be disastrous, turned into a "gut check" for the offense. Little by little, yard by yard, the Wolves FB Bobby Silva carried the ball to the Wolf 15. QB Robbie Smith hit TE Jason Lawson over the middle for a 25 yard gain. Two plays later, RB Kevin Green raced 58 yards for a touchdown. The PAT was good by R. Smith and a 7-0 lead.

The Wolf defense was put to the test as Kermit drove the ball down to the Wolf 7. The Pack did their job as the Wolf offense started with 9:01 left in the half. R. Smith got the Wolves going with a 32 yard gallop. The Wolf offense used good ball control to set up at the Kermit 42. The drive was fitting that R. Smith should started it out and end the drive on a 34 yard FG. The Wolves scored with 4:37 left in the half and a 10-0 lead.

As the Wolf defense forced the Yellowjackets to punt, the mighty Wolf Pack had 1:31 to get the ball into the end-zone before the half. On a 30 yard pass from R. Smith to Lawson. The Wolves then had good runs from Green and FB Mark Smith to set the offense at the 24. R. Smith then hit Green down the sideline. WR Jeremy Strain made a great block allowing Green to score for a 24 yard TD pass. The PAT was successful for a 17-0 lead.

In the second half, the Wolf offense had trouble getting the ball into the end-zone.

On the Wolves' first possession of the second half, the offense started at the 'Jacket 36. Kermits' defense did the trick and forced R. Smith to try a 48 yard field goal. The ball had the distance but was a little wide.

Again the Wolf defense answered the call and on 3 down and 27, Cade Proctor picked up a sack and forced Kermit to punt once more. The punt was short and the Pack began at the Kermit 27. The Wolves worked the ball to the Yellowjacket 1 yard-line, and the Kermit defense put up a tremendous effort in keeping the Wolves out of the end-zone with 4:59 to go in the third.

As the Kermit offense started at their own 1, FB Darrell Pando moved the ball to the 26. On the next play, the defensive attack by the Wolves came up with the fumble. Again the Wolves could not get a score as the Kermit defense stopped the attack at the 3 yard-line.

With 3:47 to go in the contest, Kermit had one more opportunity to get on the scoreboard. On three passes good for 44 yards, the Yellowjackets were at the Wolf 6. Kermit suffered a penalty and were moved to the 16 with 2:19 to go. The Yellowjackets advanced the ball to the 7, but that is as close as the Yellowjackets would come as a Wolf sack gave the Wolves the ball to run out the last :39 seconds on the clock for the victory, 17-0

The Wolves leading ground gainer was Kevin Green who had 118 yards on 9 carries and 1 TD. R. Smith 5-10 for 108 yards and 1 TD.

WE SUPPORT
Red Ribbon Week
October 21st through 28

Red Ribbon Week 1990 is a project that links, via red ribbons, millions of Texans who are convinced that the war on drugs is winnable. The campaign is a grass roots effort which is designed to change attitudes about drug abuse and to promote a standard of NO USE OF ILLEGAL DRUGS AND NO ILLEGAL USE OF LEGAL DRUGS. Since 1985, red ribbons have symbolized the nation's effort to reduce the demand for drugs and to save our coming generation from the perils of drug involvement.

INDIVIDUALS CAN:

Put a red ribbon on your homes, offices, car antennas, trees, mailboxes, bicycles, dogs, spouses, friends, the boss, employees, light posts,newspaper ads, billboards, and on a finger to remind you to demonstrate to others a commitment to a drug-free, healthy lifestyle.

Leave a basket of red ribbons where others can take one: in the library, on a desk, in a restaurant, in a church or synagogue, in the doctor's office, at school, in the bank, in the movie theatre, in the pharmacy, in the grocery store, and any other place that comes to mind.

VOLUNTEER. Call TEXANS' WAR ON DRUGS, 1-800-683-0333. Your help is needed.

Organize a parent/community team and plan to continue drug prevention efforts throughout the year.

Over the years, the experience of drug educators and the evidence supported by research have identified some activities and actions that should be avoided when conducting drug use prevention education. These red flags include:

Trivializing drug use prevention.
Drug use prevention must be treated as a valued course of study, not as supplemental subject matter. ESR II activities should be integrated into regular lesson plans and included as a part of graded activities.

Using guest speakers who are recovering addicts.
Students should be exposed to successful adults who do not use, or have not used drugs. Speeches by former addicts and pushers may make a strong antidrug impression on adults, but students often receive totally opposite messages. For example, students may be impressed with the idea that a person can use drugs and still be perceived as a successful--even famous--adult. The only time recovering users should be invited to assist with a drug prevention effort is in working with students who themselves are recovering users. Do involve healthy role models in the program at every opportunity.

Engaging in teacher self-disclosure.
Personal revelation by teachers or students should not be encouraged as a means of stimulating classroom discussion. Honest dialogue is an important aspect of prevention education, and students should be encouraged to strengthen their thinking skills by considering real-life dilemmas they will face. However, asking for personal revelations by students and teachers puts many students in situations for which they are not prepared.

Grouping students according to drug use behavior.
When conducting group activities, randomly select members for each group. Research indicates that students who associate with drug users tend to use drugs. Therefore, allowing students to choose their own groups may inadvertently promote drug use.

Teaching how to use drugs under the guise of informing about drugs.
Discussions of how drugs make people feel may stimulate curiosity and encourage experimentation. Likewise, demonstrating drug paraphernalia serves no prevention purpose.

Sensationalizing the drug epidemic.
Consider your students' ability to handle the information you are presenting. While scare tactics may generate attention, such tactics are not a useful prevention strategy. Young people usually do not internalize sensational messages.

THESE DRUGS DON'T COME IN CHILDPROOF BOTTLES.

Cocaine, marijuana, speed, crack and other common teenage drugs are passed around in plastic bags, small vials or just hand to hand.

They don't come in complicated containers when they're sold to children for quick use.

The side effects of these drugs aren't written on bottles, and your children won't learn the dangers from friends. Their friends may be those who try to sell drugs to them.

You can't childproof a bottle when it comes to street drugs. But you can drugproof your children by talking to them before someone else does.

These businesses support Red Ribbon Week!

CMS squads fall to Kermit 'Jackets

The Colorado Junior High hosted the Kermit Yellowjackets Thursday night, October 18. The seventh grade Pack played in a high scoring attack, while the eighth grade Wolves displayed more defensive tactics. Unfortunately, both Wolf teams were defeated in great efforts.

In the first half of the seventh grade game, each team relied on huge plays which resulted in a touchdown or touchdown set up.

The fist punt return for the Yellowjackets resulted in a 48 yard touchdown and the quick 6-0 lead with 6:23 left in the first. The mighty Wolves retaliated with a score of their own which was set up by QB Frank Espinoza's 55 yard run. Espinoza then hit TE Michael Hoyle in the end-zone for a 7 yard pass and a 6-6 tie at the end of one.

On a Kermit fumble, the Wolves mounted their second scoring attack from the Yellowjacket 26. With the ball at the 7 which was set up by 14 yard pass from Espinoza to WR Ryan Costabile to keep the drive alive. From there, Espinoza carried the ball in for the 12-6 Wolf lead. On Kermit's next possession, a 61 yard TD was the result for a 14-12 lead. The Wolves punted the ball and the Yellowjackets scored one more time on that series for a 20-12 lead at the half.

In the second half, the Pack scored first with 2:09 to go in the third. FB Dusty Robinson scored from the 1 yard line for the 20-20 tie with the 2-point PAT. Kermit then scored again from 53 yards away and a 26-20 lead. The Wolves were forced to punt and the 'Jackets did what they did best and that was scoring on the big play. This time, from the 22 yard line and 34-20.

With less than a quarter to play, the Wolves looked as if they might roll over and give up, but to the surprise of many, the Wolves scored behind strong running by Espinoza who capped off the drive with a 2 yard run. The Wolves were good on the 2-point PAT. With less than 1:52 to go in the contest, Kermit struck pay-dirt once more from 50 yards out and a 42-28 lead. The Wolves, however, fought back and scored on a great passing drive by Espinoza to Hoyle and Costabile. The score was completed by Hoyle on a 8 yard receiving pass. The PAT was good for a 36-42 score. With :49 seconds left in the game, the Wolves attempted an onside kick and were successful. After playing so courageous, the Wolves through an interception. The Yellowjackets "sat on the ball" for the remaining seconds, and the win, 42-36 in a tremendous scoring effort.

Espinoza had a fantastic passing night as he was 7-14-126 yards 2TDs and 2 interceptions. Espinoza also rushed for 118 yards on 16 carries and 2 TDs.

As the seventh grade Wolves and Yellowjackets played more or less without a "defense", the eighth grade game was more controlled in the Kermit victory, 22-6.

First quarter action consisted of great defensive stances, and off a Yellowjacket interception, the Wolves took the ball into the second period. RB Eddy Martinez, behind solid blocking, raced 76 yards for the first and only score of the half, 6-0.

Once in the second half, the momentum switched heavily over to Kermit. On a third down and long situation, an incomplete pass was ruled as a completion by Kermit. Although the Wolves' coaches pleaded with the "men in the striped shirts", the first down was given to the Yellowjackets, and the end result was the 8-6 lead change on a 4 yard score. If that were not enough trouble for the Wolves, how about starting the next drive at their own 3 yard-line? The Kermit defense buckled up and earned a safety for a 10-6 lead. In the fourth quarter, the Yellowjackets picked up two more scores; one from 11 yards out and the other from 6 yards away to ensure the 'Jacket victory, 22-6.

Leading ground gainer for the Wolves was Martinez with 112 yards on 12 carries and 1 TD.

CHS freshmen lose in closing seconds of game

The Freshmen Wolves travled to Kermit on Thursday night, October 18, and in a hard fought defensive battle, the Yellowjackets prevailed in the last :30 seconds to play for the 10-8 win.

The Wolves scored first on a 6 yard run by FB Richard Gomez in the first quarter. The PAT was no good for a 6-0 score.

Midway through the second quarter, the Wolf defense picked up a score on a safety for the 8-0 lead.

In the third, the Yellowjackets picked up their first score. The PAT was good for an 8-8 tie.

As the other team's defense held their ground, Kermits' defense did what they had to do as the defense managed to pick up a game winning safety in the last :30 seconds for the victory, 10-8.

Missions auction scheduled

An "Auction for Missions" is being planned by the First United Methodist Church to be held on Saturday, Nov. 17, at the C-City Auction House on East Highway 80. A wide variety of items is being collected and will be offered to the public at auction on that date.

The purpose of the auction is to raise additional money for the church's general missions and benevolent program, both local and world-wide. It is being planned by the Missions Commission of the church, Peggy Ratliff, chairman.

Members of the church, or any other persons willing to contribute to the cause, who have items to donate are invited to bring them to the C-City Auction House between 2-5 p.m. on Fridays between now and Nov. 17, or leave them at the church, 333 Chestnut.

MUSEUM VISIT - Kit Neumann, left, with the Museum Services Department of Texas Historical Museum, visits with Liz Connell Tuesday at the Heritage House. Neumann met with the Colorado City Museum Board and gave suggestions on how to reorganize the city museum. "The museum has some terrific collections, but a lot of work needs to be done to improve the museum so that the collections can be more educational and interesting to the public," she said. She offered suggestions and advice on ways to get started on the project.

Literacy Council eyes revisions in by-laws

The Mitchell County Literacy Council met recently in the Hospitality Room at the First National Bank, with Louree Upton, president, presiding.

The item of business that was tabled during last meeting was presented by Frances Godwin, chairman of the committee for revising the by-laws. Changes and corrections were discussed and approved and the committee plans to have a revised copy for members to read at the next meeting.

A roll of members was identified and it was determined that notice of meeting will be sent only to members, but that all people who are interested will be most welcome at the meetings. Specific dates and times of meetings were listed and will be mailed to members in their next communication.

Literacy members discussed the International Literacy Day Promotion and the Fair Booth. Both activities were very successful and a debt of thanks is due to some of the community business people. We express our sincere thanks to the City National Bank for the advertisement for International Literacy Day. Thanks also to Sheets Eye Clinic for the fair booth and to Ramage Appliance for the VCR and the TV equipment used in the booth.

Next literacy meeting will be January 10, 1991.
