Federal Funds For Depositors In Closed Banks Proposed

Sentiment For Plan Boosted; Trouble Seen

Measure Bound Up In Parliamentary Dispute Which May Prevent Vote This Session Of Congress

Favorable Report

All Accounts Up To $2,500 In Closed Banks Would Be Paid In Full; Government Would Take Over Assets

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 12.—A bill designed to pay millions of depositors the money they still have tied up in closed or reopened banks was bound up tonight in a parliamentary dispute which may prevent a vote at this session of congress.

With sentiment for the measure swelling the roll of signers to a petition to force a vote, the house banking comittee met in hurried session, amended the bill and voted to report it out with a favorable report.

Action Is Lessened

Instead of brightening the prospects for passage of the bill, however, the favorable report, paradoxically enough, lessened the likihood of a vote at this session.

Under the house rules, if 145 members had signed the petition it would have forced a vote to take the bill out of the hands of the banking comimittee. The favorable report transfers jurisdiction to the rules committee to decied when the bill shall be taken up.

New Petition Likely

If the rules committee does not act within seven days, a new petition may be started to take the bill away from that commmittee and bring it before the house for a vote.

If the rules committee reports it either favorably or unfavorably, however, this could not be done.

Speaker Rainey indicated that if the rules committee reported the bill favorably, he would not recognize anyone to bring it up. It was certain that the banking committee would not call it up off the calendar for consideration.

Would Pay Accounts

As the measure stands, it would have all accounts up to $2,500 in closed national, state and private banks paid off in full, the federal government taking over the assets behind these frozen deposits and liquidating them over a long period. The bill would affect deposits in banks closed on or since January 1, 1930.

The dispute over the bill brought

NORFOLK, Va., April 12. (AP)—His plane caught in a sleeve target towed by another airplane, First Lieutenant David L. Cloud, jr., crack marine corps pilot whose squadron held the Schiff award for safe flying, plunged 3,000 feet to his death into the Atlantic ocean about a half mile off Virginia beach today.

Other Utility Rates Likely Will Feel Paring Knife

FIRST steps were taken in contemplated reductions of utility rates for Lubbock when members of the City commission reduced the city water rate approximately eight per cent Thursday afternoon, considered a like reduction on light rates and heard one of its group propose a bond election for a municipal gas system.

The minimum charge for water was reduced from $1.95 for the first 3,000 gallons to $1.80.

Unanimous Approval

The reduction was approved unanimously after it had been indicated by the body that further slashes in the rate may be made. A. J. Richardson, new commissioner, proposed a cut of the minimum to $1 for the first 2,000 gallons; 40 cents for the next two thousand and 20 cents for the next 5,000 gallons. An analysis of consumer brackets was ordered on this schedule to determine the decrease in revenue.

The reduction approved would decrease water revenues $7,290 per year while Richardson's proposal was estimated to cut revenues approximately $40,000.

Schedules Are Given

The new and old water rate schedules are as follows:

Present regular rate: first 3,000 gallons, $1.95 minimum; next 2,000 gallons, 50 cents per M; next 5,000 gallons 25 cents per M and next 10,000 gallons, 20 cents per M. Present irrigation rate: first 7,000 gallons, $2.80 minimum; excess at 15 cents per M. Both rates less ten per cent if paid within ten days.

New regular rate: first 3,000 gallons, $1.80 minimum; balance same as old rate. New irrigation schedule: first 3,000 gallons, $2.80 minimum; excess at 15 cents per M. Both rates less ten per cent if paid within ten days.

No Action Taken

Reduction of light rates was considered but no action taken, it being the consensus of the commis-

Final Vote On Revenue Plans Believed Near

Taxes Are Hoisted To A New Peace-Time High; Estimated Revenue To Be Produced Is Given A Boost

Schedule Approved

Inheritance, Gift And Corporation Taxes Are Increased Substantially; Some Changes Are Defeated

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Moving toward a final vote on the big revenue bill, the senate today hoisted taxes to a new peace-time high on inheritances, gifts and corporations, and raised the estimated revenue to be produced by the bill to approximately $480,000,000.

With little debate, it voted 65 to 14 for higher inheritance taxes proposed by Senator La Follette (R-Wis) and adopted 40 to 37 an amendment by Senator Borah (R-Ida) repealing the consolidated return provisions in existing law whereby corporations are permitted to make single returns for themselves and affiliates.

Another Rejected

It rejected by 39 to 33 another Borah proposal to have holding corporations deduct from gross income dividends on stock received from other corporations.

As a companion piece to the higher inheritance or estate levies, the senate approved another schedule by La Follette raising taxes on gifts to a point where they would be three-quarters of the estate tax rates. The latter levies are payable on transfers of estates after death. Gift taxes are applicable to transfers of property before death.

Estimates Are Shown

As the bill stood shortly before final passage, experts figured it would raise the following additional annual revenue:

Capital stock and excess profits taxes—$95,000,000.

Increase in estate tax rates—$92,-

Here's Just A Few "Don'ts" For This Gosh-Awful Day

IF you're cautious today, folks, you'll watch your step, mind your p's and q's, take care not to spill the beans and refuse wooden nickles. For, if you had paused to reflect a moment in your mirror this morning you'd recall that this is Friday the thirteenth, the day when danger lurks at every corner for the superstitious. In case you are the sort, better be careful not to smash a glass. It means seven years' hard luck. Another tough break is spilling salt on the table. If you'd square yourself with the dark fates, you'll have to toss another portion over your left shoulder. That evens things. Walking under a ladder is tough luck enough, but to have a black cat cross your path at the same time—well, that's just too bad.

Final Tribute Is Paid To A Great Grid Star Of Tech Matador Squad

Double "T" Sweater Is His Shroud And Blanket Is Draped Across His Casket

FINAL tribute, simple and impressive, was paid to Matt Hitchcock by Texas Technological college and Lubbock in funeral rites said at First Presbyterian church at 7:30 p. m. Thursday.

The 23-year-old Matador football star died of pneumonia at 1:45 p. m. in a sanitarium here.

Sweater Is Shroud

Hitchcock's three-stripe football sweater, won in Matador football games last fall, was his shroud; his Double T blanket was draped across his casket.

President Bradford Knapp of Tech paid tribute to Hitchcock as a man, a sportsman, a student, and as a youngster "whose influence was felt on the campus." Dean A. H. Leidigh of the division of agriculture, in which Hitchcock was a senior, read the scripture, and Rev. J. O. Haymes, First Methodist Episcopal church pastor, gave the invocation. Dean Jas. M. Gordon of the division of arts and science spoke briefly, introducing Doctor Knapp.

Double T Men In Group

The Double T club, of which Hitchcock was a member by virtue of having won varsity football letters, and freshmen lettermen were seated in a group in the crowded church auditorium. National guardsmen also were seated in a group. Hitchcock was a member of the guard.

The body was sent to Lexington, near Cameron, last night for burial. Martin Funeral home said. Rites will be conducted at 11 a. m. Saturday, with burial there. He was born at Lexington Feb. 2, 1911.

The young man's sweetheart, one of his sisters, a football teammate, and a national guardsman were members of the party leaving with the body. Others will leave by automobile at 6 a. m. today to attend the rites. Pete Cawthon, athletic director at Tech, who is in Austin,

Agreement On Cotton Found

Measure Virtually Restored To Form In Which It Passed House; Few Adjustments In Plan Are Retained

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 12 — Conferees today reached an agreement on the Bankhead cotton control bill which restored it virtually to the form in which it passed the house.

The measure's aim is to limit the cotton marketed from the 1934 crop to 10,000,000 bales.

Few Adjustments

Only two or three minor adjustments inserted by the senate were retained.

Senator Bankhead (D-Ala) who will have charge of the conference report in the senate, said he planned to call the bill up not later "than Monday."

He said he was confident that the report would be approved "without difficulty."

Chairman Jones of the house agriculture committee probably will call up the bill soon after the senate acts. If both houses approve the revised measure it will go to the White House.

President Roosevelt has already said he favored the legislation.

Here are the principal provisions

Son Of Groveswille School Superintendent Dies Here

Bobby McClendon, 2, died at 11:30 a. m. Thursday in a hospital here following an illness of two weeks. The body was sent to Farmersville last night for burial there, Rix-Bynum Funeral home said.

The child was a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. McClendon of Grovesville, where Mr. McClendon was superintendent of schols. The McClendon's had been in this section six years, coming here from Collins county. Two other children are in the McClendon family.

Nebraska Failing To Keep Agreement And "Gift" Sand Is Being Sent Back

(By The Associated Press)

AMARILLO, April 12.—That estimated $25,000,000 worth of Texas silt which blew into Nebraska a year ago is coming back, and Texans aren't exactly happy over its return.

A year ago Prof. E. E. Schramm, of the University of Nebraska geological department, estimated that silt settling over Nebraska farms from Texas sandstorms was worth $25,000,000.

A few days later the Texas plains "consigned" another sandstorm to Nebraska, and the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce sent Prof. Schramm a letter setting up the condition that "you see to it that it is kept in Nebraska and not permitted to return" to Texas.

But Nebraska didn't keep the agreement.

Sandstorms, which the weather maps show originate in Nebraska, have been giving Texas housewives (the silt isn't noticed on the farms) no end of trouble this spring. One of these yesterday swept down through Oklahoma and into North Texas.

Texas Farmer Badly Beaten

Two Men Change Clothes In A Gravel Pit; One Believed To Have Been Much Sought Raymond Hamilton

(By The Associated Press)

TEMPLE, April 12—Two men, one of whom officers believed might be Raymond Hamilton, today beat Bryan Camp, a farmer living near Temple, when he saw them changing clothes in a gravel pit near Little River, seven miles from Temple.

Working in the pit alone, Camp said he saw the men drive up in an automobile and back it into the pit. They left the motor running and took out a machine gun and a shotgun. They then took out a suitcase and changed from brown clothes to lighter colored clothes, Camp said.

Death Threatened

Finishing changing, the men saw Camp and went over to him. They threatened him with death, he said, and told him they were going to take him to Houston with them. Camp said he pleaded with the men and they took a rope from his wagon, beat him about the head and legs and put it about his neck, He said they almost choked him.

He said the two men finally left, warning him not to leave the pit for an hour and a half or "we'll kill you." Camp said he remained there until found by J. B. Jackson, on whose farm the pit is located.

Camp said the men beat him about noon. He was not found until two hours later and officers did not learn of the incident until some time after that.

Democrats In Congress To Extend President Welcome

WASHINGTON, April 12. (AP)—Democrats in congress—and some Republicans, too—will welcome homecoming President Roosevelt tomorrow with cheers and the United States marine band.

As a part of the reception, as extraordinary as a president's absence from Washington during a congressional session, house Democrats will march from the capitol to the station behind the band and a police escort. There they will be joined by senate Democrats.

Republicans were invited to participate in the welcome but there was no indication tonight of how many would accept.

"We are not going to participate in any war. If Columbia ever goes to war we go home."

Methodist Conference Will Meet In Childress Next Year

The Woman's Angle

BY MARGARET TURNER
Woman's Editor

AS METHODIST women bring to a close an anuual spring session of the Northwest Texas Methodist Women's Missionary society, members of the Business and Professional Women's club are making final preparations to entertain delegates attending a district conference here this week-end.

The business women's conference opens Saturday evening with a banquet to be served at Hotel Lubbock. Pre-conference features will include a trip to Texas Technological college and a visit to the annual engineering show on the campus.

This conference closes Sunday afternoon. Monday morning local delegates will leave for Amarillo to attend an annual spring meeting of the seventh district, Texas Federation of Women's clubs. The State library is sponsoring a district library conference here next Tuesday which is expected to draw about fifty out-of-town women.

Next week-end women will be in Snyder to attend a meeting of the fourteenth district, Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers. It's truly convention time for the women.

TO GIVE DEMONSTRATION

HIGH SCHOOL girls who attend the open house at the home economics building at Texas Technological college this afternoon will be students busily engaged in activities of the various departments. The Home Economics club sent invitations to girls in 32 high school clubs in the district.

In the department of applied arts girls will be making batiks and block prints, explaining their work. In the clothing department visitors will see dresses in various stages of construction as well as finished products. The art of making bound buttonholes will be explained. Weaving looms will be in operation.

In another room the girls will be shown the process of upholstering furniture. After the open house at this building, the group will go through the home management house on the campus.

A THEORY EXPLODED

ANOTHER age-old theory has been debunked (to our secret glee) with the announcement by Dr. R. T. Rock of Fordham university that women aren't any more fickle than men. Cold figures were offered to refute the mass of evidence gathered these many years by lovesick swains and husbands.

Dr. Rock reported at a meeting of the American Psychological association in New York City the results of applying to large groups of high school and college students, both male and female, tests designed to reveal their interests and how they change. Reapplying the examinations after short and long intervals indicated strongly, Doctor Rock said that:

The women weren't more changeable than men. There is no relationship between one's intelligence and the tendency to change one's interests. One is more constant in his likes than his dislikes; one gets more tolerant with the years.

There has ever been a popular theory that women change their minds abruptly and often and although not a feminist in the strictest sense, still we are glad to have the New York professor come to the rescue with his interesting statistics revealing that males are also inconsistent.

THE RETICENT MR. ROGERS

WILL ROGERS, humorist and actor, spends a great deal of his time side-stepping. He avoids interviewers, evening clothes, telephones, and photographers. It is said that his concession to evening dress is a blue serge suit, a white shirt and a black bow tie. Recently a newspaper woman attempted to interview him but she asked the wrong question by inquiring as to his daily menu. Rogers went up in the air, in a manner of speaking.

"Now who cares what I eat?" he demanded. "I eat what I want and when it suits me to eat." That ended the interview.

We remember Mary McKenzie, of the Abilene Reporter-News, tell of an unsuccessful attempt to interview Mr. Rogers several years ago when he had a six-minute wait over there on an airplane trip. It took several minutes for Miss McKenzie to satisfactorily identify herself with the officials and finally when she climbed aboard the plane and told Mr. Rogers who she was and that she wanted an interview for her paper she was rewarded with a disgusted "Hmph". This reticence on the part of Mr. Rogers is worthy of mention. He makes the front page as often as any celebrity without resorting to the tricks that many employ in order to make "news". Mr. Rogers tells as much about his personal life as he thinks the public is entitled to know.

Why
Liquid Laxatives
Do You No Harm

The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can thus be regulated to suit individual need. It forms no habit: you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Nor will a mild liquid laxative irritate the kidneys.

The right liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement, and with no discomfort at the time, or afterward.

The wrong cathartic may often do more harm than good.

An approved liquid laxative (one which is most widely used for both adults and children) is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a prescription. It is perfectly safe. Its laxative action is based on senna—a natural laxative. The bowels will not become dependent on this form of help, as they may do in the case of cathartics containing mineral drugs. Ask your druggist for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Member N. R. A.

A small frame house occupied by Cora Murry, a negro woman, caught afire from pieces of pasteboard boxes she was using as fuel while washing clothes Thursday afternoon. Damage to the house, at 208 Eighteenth street, was estimated $100 by D. A. Forbess, city fire marshal, who said another negro woman, E. A. Lewis, owned the house. The Murry woman carried virtually all furniture out before it was damaged, he said. The fire department, responding to an alarm at 2:30 p. m., extinguished the blaze.

Pastor Confesses Impulse To Smash Liquor Windows

FORT WORTH, April 12. (AP)—Confessing that he sometimes felt an impulse to smash the plate glass window of a "bottled in bond" establishment near his home, Dr. C. Oscar Johnson, former president of the northern Baptist convention, urged patience as one of the essentials in constructing a life that will endure today before the state Baptist Sunday school convention.

"Maybe some day I will 'go Carrie Nation' and smash that window," the pastor of the Third Street Baptist church, St. Louis, Mo., said smilingly.

Times Do Change

Salesman Recalls Early Days

CLOVIS, N. M., April 12 (AP)—Half a century ago it took O. B. Erickson, of Fort Sumner, six months to visit the three eastern New Mexico towns in the territory assigned to him as a traveling representative of a Las Vegas wholesale firm.

Erickson said he "worked" his territory once a year, traveling in a buggy. Roswell, Lincoln and White Oaks were the towns in his territory, and it required six months to visit the three and return to Las Vegas.

The long, lonely rides between towns usually were rewarded with big orders, Erickson said. He recalled one sale of 90,000 pounds to a general merchandise store at Lincoln. The shipment included 50 barrels of whiskey and 100 kegs of beer.

"It was not unusual to see as many as 250 freight wagons backed up to the loading docks of the wholesale house, Erickson said.

Bronson Merchant Is Shot To Death After A Dispute

BEAUMONT, April 12. (AP)—Louis H. Russell, 54, Bronson merchant, was shot to death this afternoon in his store as the result of a dispute concerning the office of town constable.

Noble Garrett, 38, operator of a shoe repair shop and who held the office of constable until he resigned three months ago, was charged with the shooting and lodged in jail at Hemphill, Sabine county seat, by Sheriff George Russell, no relation of the slain man.

Work of the Civilian Conservation Corps in Washington and Oregon was appraised at $5,321,663 by the forest service.

In a spelling match, students of Fresno State college, Cal., misspelled "ecstasy" 38 different ways.

Export Price Being Sought

Strongly Contrasting Ideas Have been Encountered With Reference To What Prices Should Be Fixed

ROME, April 12 (AP)—The world wheat advisory commission entered today upon the most difficult phase of its meetings as a sub-committee sought to draw up a plan for a minimum export price. The plan will be submitted to the whole commission.

The sub-committee was unable to complete its work on schedule and the committee as a whole postponed the session it was to have held this morning.

Many strongly contrasting ideas have been encountered in reference to what minimum prices should be fixed, and only the most friendly cooperation between the delegates had enabled the body to agree on the few points which have been found acceptable.

Consequently, when the whole commission meets tomororw, a storm is likely to be experienced.

Barrow Sought In Des Moines Area

DES MOINES, April 12 (AP) — A hastily formed posse sought Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker late last night on a tip the two had visited a residence here, the Tribune said today.

Federal Agent O. C. Dewey refused to comment on the report but he was known to have led the posse, the paper asserted. Dewey and Deputy Marshal Charles Antles were reported to be checking further on the tip.

Police officers commented that the tip might be a "hot one," however, inasmuch as the Texas bandit and his woman companion were reported near Grant City, Mo., Saturday. Two persons reported seeing the bandit car near the Missouri city.

The hunted couple drove here last night from Centerville, the federal officials were informed, the Tribune said.

Free Lance Fighter Pines In Prison; War's A Business To General Hall Who Made Chinese Pay; Explains Arrest

By CLEVELAND WILLIAMS

McNEIL ISLAND FEDERAL PRISON, Wash., Apr. 12 (AP)—He's been a general in China, a commander in Russia and France, a decorated hero and a fighting man in other countries, but today Bert Hall—number 10,661 in prison—is just a business man anxious to get back to his business of battleplanes and bombs.

"General" Hall, world famous soldier of fortune, in his first interview since he was sentenced in China to serve 2 1-2 years in the federal penitentiary, said he's here because there isn't enough honesty in the fighting business.

Explains His Arrest

Fighting men and diplomats of many countries were startled to learn that "General Chan" Hall was imprisoned on a charge of engaging in illegal importation of arms into China. Nobody knew exactly why. Today Hall told why he's here, what he's going to do when released and described the family and books to which he's anxious to give his attention.

"It's all in the game," he said. "I can take it on the chin and still smile. The circumstances surrounding my incarceration were that I had a contract with the North China clique of generals, and they did not pay up. They needed arms and ammunition and came to me to purchase them for them. I was trusted by the Chinese general with a sum of money to purchase arms and retained this money for my own personal use.

His Collection Plan Worked

"My claim for $34,000, due me on a contract with the governor of Hopeh province, had been placed in the hands of the American consul-general at Tientsin. He finally informed me that he could render me no assistance. Consequently I applied my own methods of collecting . . .

"If the American authorities feel that is a crime under the circumstances, all right. But now that I am here I regret very much that I was not able to collect the entire sum due me, as Chinese generals obtain their money from the poor people by force. I do not feel as though taking money owed to you is a crime, even though you use trickery to obtain it. There is still a balance of $24,000, which I may be able to collect in the future.

"Fighting is a business, you know, and should carry the obligation of paying honest debts, like any other business. Whenever I can make more money at some other business, I'll quit the one I have known best so far."

He should know—one of the charter members of the Lafayette Escadrille, a daring aviator in the Chinese wars, with a record of having fought or organized armies in France, Greece, Turkey, Bulgaria, Russia, China and Manchuria. His score includes nine German planes downed during the world war and the glittering decorations of France, England and the Balkan countries.

"My work in China recently," said the sturdy, blue-clad Hall, sitting in the warden's office, "was part flying and part organization work. And so here I am, with a good war started in China right now. It's not so bad, though. Warden Finch R. Archer is a fine man. I have been doing clerical work in the captain's office, and there is plenty of time to tinker with engines—I like that."

He started out across the blue waters that surrounded McNeil island to where the gray prison boat chugged at the dock.

"I have a wife and three fine sons at a military academy in Los Angeles. I would much rather be with them."

"General Chan" reached into a pocket and found a snapshot.

"I sent them each a real gun," he smiled, "and told them whatever they did not to point them at each other. Look at what they sent me!"

The photo showed three handsome youngsters in wild-west costume, pointing the self-same revolvers at each other.

'Too Much Exaggeration'

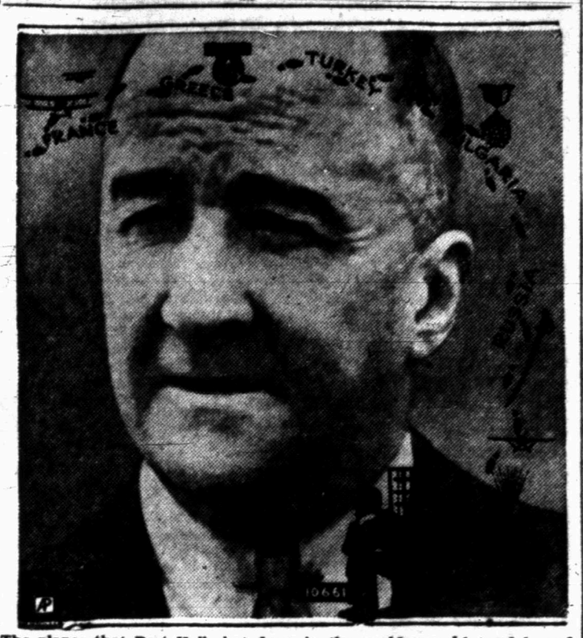

"A fighting man, an organizer, learns a lot about what is civilized and what isn't. There is a lot of tearing down and building up to be done in this world before it will become civilized."

Hall doesn't care for reports that a soldier of fortune is necessarily a wild-eyed adventurer.

"There is too much exaggeration about my business," he said.

"So when I finish here I'll look out for my family, attend to the books and go back to work."

His place of business, he explained, will be wherever there is a "satisfactory" war going on.

The planes that Bert Hall shot down in the world war, his medals and exploits, all give color to a career now interrupted by a prison sentence, this last, he explains, because his method of collecting his pay as a Chinese general irked his superiors. But is he through with war? No, says Hall—prisoner 10,661 in McNeil Island prison—it's a business, and one to which he's eager to return.

WASH OUT 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

Win Back Pep . . . Vigor . . . Vitality

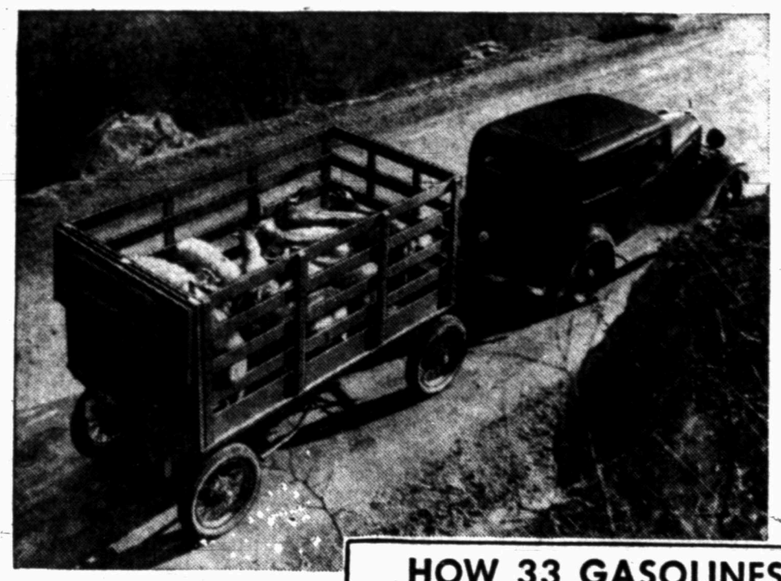

Medical authorities agree that your kidneys contain 15 MILES of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. They should pour out thru the bladder 3 pints of fluid a day which contains 4 pounds of waste matter.

If you have trouble with too frequent bladder passages with scanty amount causing burning and discomfort, the 15 MILES of kidney tubes need washing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and vitality, getting up nights, lumbago, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains and dizziness.

If kidneys don't empty 3 pints every day and get rid of 4 pounds of waste matter, your body will take up these poisons causing serious trouble. It may knock you out and lay you up for many months. Don't wait. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS . . . a doctor's prescription . . . which has been used successfully by millions of kidney sufferers for over 40 years. They give quick relief and will help to wash out the 15 MILES of kidney tubes.

But don't take chances with strong drugs or so-called "kidney cures" that claim to fix you up in 15 minutes. Your common sense will tell you that this is impossible. Treatments of this nature may seriously injure and irritate delicate tissues. Insist on DOAN'S PILLS . . . the old reliable relief that contains no "dope" or habit-forming drugs. Be sure you get DOAN'S PILLS at your druggist. © 1934, Foster-Milburn Co.

Agent Says Cannon Asked Cash Donations In Smith Campaign

Carried Funds In His Pocket

Money Used To Pay Individuals Whom He Approached In The Drive; Original Charge On Churchman Supplemented

WASHINGTON, April 12. (AP) — Testimony by a justice department agent that Bishop James Cannon, Jr., had said he had campaign contributions converted into cash because he "didn't want any of the courthouse gang to know" workers were being paid was given today to the jury trying the churchman.

The agent, Lee P. Oliver, told the court Cannon said he carried "four or five thousand dollars in cash in his pocket." This money, Oliver said, referring to a talk that occurred in the district attorney's office in 1931, was described by the clergyman as used to pay "individuals whom he approached" in the campaign against Alfred E. Smith, the 1928 Democratic presidential nominee.

Money Used Privately

Oliver's testimony came shortly after the government prosecutor, John J. Wilson, supplemented the original charge that the bishop had not reported the disposition of all the 1928 anti-Smith campaign chest with a second assertion that some money from the political funds went to straighten out a legacy administered by Cannon.

Oliver was quizzed by Roger Robb, assistant United States district attorney.

The justice department agent said although Bishop Cannon was cautioned that anything he said in the interview in the district attorney's office might be used against him, the churchman talked for about four hours.

Wanted Cash Donations

Oliver said Bishop Cannon told Jameson he preferred cash contributions.

"Did he say why he wanted cash?" Robb asked.

"He said," Oliver testified, "that he didn't want any of that crowd down there to know anything about his business."

Subsequently, Oliver supplamented this with the quotation "he said he didn't want any of the courthouse gang to know these fellows were working for money."

The government agent also told of a $5,000 cash fund in a safe deposit box which he said the bishop had said he had "forgotten."

Finds The Money

Oliver said Bishop Cannon asserted he had a note due in December, 1928, and went into a Richmond bank to borrow money to meet it, but that while there he looked into his safe deposit box and there found an envelope containing the money.

Oliver said the churchman was asked regardnig his financial condition and replied he "found himself in somewhat of a hole" at the time he discovered the forgotten $5,000.

Testifying about the E. C. Jameson campaign contributions out of which the charges against the bishop and Miss Ada L. Burroughs, treasurer of the headquarters committee, anti-Smith Democrats grew, Oliver said in one of two recent conferences in the district attorney's office, Miss Burroughs pointed to a photostatic copy of her final campaign contribution report and said to Bishop Cannon:

"This is the report you and I made out."

SETS NEW RECORD

ROME, April 12 (AP) — Renato Donati, Italian air ace, reached an altitude of 14,433 meters (47,352.21-939 feet) yesterday, it was officially announced today when the barograph was unsealed.

The existing recognized record is 44,819.418 feet, set last year by the French flier G. Lemoine.

It nestles at the edge of Biscayne Bay, and all its splendor is shown in this remarkable air view. "Villa Viscaya" only recently was opened to the public.

Proposed Wage Differentials In The Oil Industry Are Opposed Thursday

WASHINGTON, April 12 (AP) — Proposed wage differentials in the oil industry, continuing regional differentials, were opposed today before the petroleum labor policy board by John P. Frey, member of the NRA labor advisory board, and a representative of the federal trade workers division of the American Federation of Labor.

The differentials proposed by the planning and coordination committee to be retroactive to December 2, when the industry's code went into effect, were supported by a number of southwestern oil operators including J. D. Collette of Fort Worth, Tex.

If certain regions should pay less wages, Frey said, by the same reasoning they should pay less for their equipment. He said there should not be a 15 per cent difference between sections merely because they were on opposite sides of a river.

B. D. Hull of Houston, and E. M. B. Keye and R. M. Collins, Oklahoma producers, were among those supporting the proposed differentials.

Keye said regional wage scales were necessary because interior points had smaller refineries with higher production costs and freight rates to markets. He added his own company would not be affected as it was paying higher wages than those proposed.

Every employe of southwestern refineries, he said, was getting a larger pay envelope than before the code went into effect.

PLAINVIEW, April 12. — Two veteran exhibitors will make exhibits again this year at the Seventh Annual Texas Panhandle Plains Dairy Show, which will be held in Plainview April 16-19 inclusive.

Large Delegation From That City Will Attend Convention At San Angelo; Dates Are May 14-16

(Special To The Avalanche)

SAN ANGELO, April 12—Amarillo will be an active contestant for the 1935 convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at the San Angelo convention May 14-16, according to Wilbur C. Hawk, Lawrence Hagy, and J. Roy Cullum, directors of the regional chamber in Amarillo.

Amarillo was host to the regional chamber in 1926 when one of the best attended conventions of the West Texas Chamber was held, the Amarillo directors point out, and since then no meeting has been held in the Panhandle, the closest being at Lubbock in 1930. In 1932 Amarillo was a contestant for the 1933 convention, but was beaten by Big Spring.

Delegation Planned

Advices to convention headquarters at San Angelo say that Amarillo will have a large delegation from its newly reorganized chamber of commerce and a band at the convention to push their campaign for the next convention, and will participate in every feature of the convention program. It was the first city to enter the My Home Town Speaking Contest, and W. A. McIntosh, Superintendent of schools already has the contest in Amarillo under way for the selection of the contestant who will come to San Angelo.

In support of its claims for the next convention, Amarillo is already conducting a campaign among the member cities pointing out among other things that Amarillo has more than forty hotels including some of the largest in the Southwest; that it has successfully entertained some of the greatest conventions in Texas; that it is the center of the Panhandle of West Texas, an area large as Pennsylvania or Indiana; that it is a railroad, highway, and airway center that it has the largest municipal auditorium in West Texas within easy walking distance of the business section of the city; that it has natural scenic attractions, including Palo Duro Canyon, second to none in West Texas; that as the industrial center of a large area it has many attractions worthy of note from convention visitors; that it has the only Helium plant in the United States; and that at the season of the year when the convention is held, Amarillo's climate is refreshingly cool and delightful.

Mining Industry Is Given Impetus

ALPINE, April 12 (AP)—The mining industry in the Big Bend country received impetus with the recent opening of the Shafter silver mine, 45 miles south of Marfa. The mine, one of the heaviest producers in America, plans a steady increase of its working force which now numbers nearly 200 men.

Added interest was given to mining by the sale of the Mariscal quicksilver mine by H. C. Slaughter, Glen Springs ranchman, to U. E. McDermott, San Antonio geologist, and associates. The mine was developed and produced much quicksilver during the world war.

Reports have been received in Alpine from the Brewster quicksilver company mine at Study Butte, six miles east of Terlingua, of an ore discovery of considerable proportions.

Louis Spencer is now engaged in active development of the old Bird mine, six miles east of Alpine. This mine has been worked at intervals for forty years and has produced much high grade silver ore.

Stowing away on a ship was made a jail offense by the last session of the Hawaiian territorial legislature.

Bristow, Okla., no longer has a "white way." The city officials turned of the lights to save money.

Final Tribute To Grid Star

Matt Hitchcock Dies In City Thursday; Burial Is To Be At Lexington; Others Also Claimed By Death

will go to Lexington for the services.

Members Of Party

Members of the party on the train were Miss Dorothy Dobbins, Hitchcock's sweetheart; her mother, Mrs. Dan C. Dobbins, Waco; Truett (Juicy) Owens, Tech football star; Mrs. J. S. Childers, Hitchcock's sister, and E. C. Plemmons, a National Guard member.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dalrymple, cousins of the young man; Elva Baker, 1933 Tech football captain; Alvin Kotrola, Hitchcock's roommate; Coach Russell T. Smith; the young man's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hitchcock, his sister, Mrs. J. T. Copeland of Wewoka, Okla., her son, James, and a brother, Hal Hitchcock, are to leave early today for Lexington.

Two Other Sisters

Hitchcock also was survived by two other sisters, Mrs. Clayton Bouldin, Lexington; Mrs. Jack Hardy, Houston, and two other brothers, Hubert Hitchcock, Calgary, Canada, and Otis Hitchcock, Houston. Hal Hitchcock is a Tech sophomore.

Pallbearers were members of the Tech football squad. They were Baker, Yancy Price, Bennie McWilliams, Albert Greer, Ross Ayers, and Malcolm Martin.

Hitchcock, known as "Hitch" to his football comrades, coaches and fans, enrolled at Texas Tech in the fall of 1930, a freshman from Cameron High school where he starred for his last two preceding years.

Demonstrated Ability

Early he demonstrated his athletic ability, and was a natural build for an end position on Tech's "Notre Dame system" team. He flourished as a freshman under Coach Smith, and took his place as alternate right end on the varsity of 1931, playing enough to win a letter.

One of the greatest defensive linemen ever to play at Tech, Hitchcock, slipped into the first string niche in 1932 and played well enough to rate honorable mention on several All-America football selections. A popular athletic journal gave considerable space in the 1932 annual to Hitchcock, the writer listing him as one of the standout performers of the entire Southwest.

Played Regularly

Hitchcock earned his third and final varsity "double-T" last fall, still playing regularly with the top notch team. His work against Southern Methodist, Baylor and Kansas State came in for comprehensive commendation.

Head Coach Cawthon referred to Hitchcock as one of the greatest athletes ever to come under his observation. The young man had aided in spring football training at Tech this year, particularly working with the line.

Orders Given To Teach The Soldier How To Fight First And Then Polish Him Off With Finer Points Of Army

Filing Of Suit In Relief Battle Postponed Thursday

AUSTIN, April 12 (AP) — Filing of a suit to test claims of R. L. Holliday of El Paso and Col. Julius Dorenfield, jr., of Amarillo to a place on the Texas relief commission was delayed today while James V. Allred, attorney general, sought to determine in what court it should be instituted.

Allred said he was hopeful he could file it in the supreme court since ultimately that tribunal would be called on to decide the question. It may be necessary to initiate the proceedings in the district court, however, Allred said.

to the surface anew the old fight over how many signatures shall be required to take a bill away from a house committee and force a vote.

The so-called "145 petition rule" by which a third of the membership can force a vote on a bill buried in committee was sought by the Democrats for years before they gained a majority of the house.

NEW ST. ANDREW STATUE

A statue, 20 feet high, of St. Andrew, patron saint of Scotland, is being erected on the facade of St. Peter's in Rome. It will replace the present image of the saint, which has become so weather beaten that repairs are impossible. The new statue consists of six huge blocks of white marble having a total weight of 20 tons.

SAN ANTONIO, Apr. 12 (AP)—First teach the soldier recruit how to fight, then polish him off with close-order drill and parades.

This edict has gone out to army posts in the eighth corps area from Maj. Gen. Johnson Hagood, commander of the third army and eighth corps area, who in spite of criticism and misunderstanding maintains that new training methods should replace those now used by the army.

In a general order General Hagood directed adoption of a system of recruit training incorporating his ideas how to train a soldier for field service in the shortest time possible.

Under this order the recruit will begin to receive instruction in the use of weapons within 24 hours after joining his organization.

Within 48 hours after his arrival his feet will be examined and his shoes properly fitted. His equipment then will be adjusted and he will commence marching with equipment, first making short marches and increasing the distance until he is marching eight miles with full pack.

Also within 48 hours after arrival he will be instructed in the fundamentals of obedience to orders and respect for authority. This instruction will be given in simple language and without reading of articles of war or army regulations. He will be shown how to stand at attention and execute the hand and rifle salutes but he will not at that time be taught the other so-called "customs of the service."

As soon as practicable after 48 hours and within the first 10 days, the soldier will be taught such simple fundamental field duties as may be applicable to his particular assignment. Th's instruction will be concurrent with his training in the use of weapons, marching and obedience. It will be conducted in the field as far as practicable, and will include basic combat training, essential details of musketry and field gunnery, defense against aircraft, use of gas mask and first aid.

After the recruit has been trained thoroughly in the combat fundamentals his instruction will be gradually extended to close-order drills, ceremonies and other exercises for the purpose of improving and polishing him as a soldier.

This system reverses to a large extent the training methods of the world war when long periods were devoted to close-order drill and men were sent to the front without being tauught how to use their weapons or to conduct themselves in combat.

— 4½ miles of warehouses

Everything that Science knows about is used in making Chesterfields.

One thing we do is to buy mild, ripe tobaccos and then lock up these tobaccos in modern storage warehouses to age and mellow like rare wines.

It takes about 3 years to age the tobaccos for your Chesterfield, for Time does something to tobacco that neither man nor machine can do.

It means something to keep 70 million dollars worth of tobacco in storage. It means just this:

We do everything possible to make Chesterfield the cigarette that's milder, the cigarette that tastes better.

Removal Of State Highway Markers From Federal Routes Is Ordered

Other Orders Made Public

Appropriations Made On Several Routes In This Area; Wage Increases To Be Made For Skilled Labor

AUSTIN, April 12 (AP)— Removal of state highway markers from roads designated as federal routes and use of only the United States number on a standard shield was ordered today by the Texas highway commission.

Previously federal highways in Texas had both state and federal markers. Use of only federal numbers ordered by the commission conformed to a practice followed in many states.

Exceptions Made

An exception was authorized "on such sections of United States highways over which a state highway not bearing a United States number is routed for such short distance that the junctions are not readily discernible on the map."

The United States bureau of public roads was requested to designate as part of the federal aid system state highway nine from San Antonio to Pleasanton, thirty miles, and from near Three Rivers to Corpus Christi, about sixty miles. Federal designation also was requested for 46 miles of highway 89 between Weatherford and a connection with highway one near Strawn.

Three Renumbered

Three state highways were renumbered. Highways 57 and 58 were merged into highway 35, the route of which was designated as from the Texas-Louisiana state line near Logansport via Tenaha, Nacogdoches, Lufkin, Livingston, Cleveland, Houston, Alvin, Bay City, Angleton, Palacios, Military Camp, Port Lavaca, Rockport and Aransas Pass to Gregory.

Highway 116 was cancelled and the route of highway 14 amended to be from highway five near Sherman via Gunter, Dallas, Ennis, Corsicana, Richland and Mexia to Bremond.

Statute Modified

The commission interpreted a recent act of the legislature to modify, but not repeal, a former statute empowering the commission to require bonds and issue permits for the movement of super-heavy and oversize loads on state highways.

Bonds will be required to indemnify the state against damage to highways or bridge structures.

Wage increases were ordered for three classes of skilled labor on highway construction. Structural iron workers and carpenters were raised from 75 cents to $1 per hour and painters from 70 to 75 cents. Thirty cents an hour was prescribed as a uniform scale for common labor.

Appropriation Made

An appropriation of $1,620 was made for completion of location surveys and right of way data on 16 miles of highway two in Hays county, the last gap in reconstruction of the Austin-San Antonio road. Work has been started on all other sections.

Other orders of the commission were, by counties:

Erath, $866 appropriated to maintain six miles of highway 89.

Fisher, advertisement ordered for bids for construction highway 70 from Roby to Rotan, nine miles, estimated cost $85,000.

Galveston, previous order requiring 100 foot right of way for highway 146 amended to require sixty foot right of way through town of Kemah, if the county will construct curb, gutters and base course.

Hale, $1,292 appropriated to maintain 171 miles of highway 194.

Hill, $2,752 additional approriated for grading and drainage structures on highway 22 between Brandon and Hillsboro.

Jasper, $5,336 appropriated to refloor the slough bridge over the Angelina river on highway 63.

Jefferson, $1,622 appropriated for five wooden culverts on highway 87 between Port Arthur and Sabine Pass.

Moore, $17,000 supplemental appropriated to complete highway nine.

San Patricio, survey ordered for widening highway 16 between Sinton and Nueces county line.

Upton, $547 appropriated to maintain 6.5 miles of highway 137 west of McCamey.

Walter, $600 additional appropriated for beautification of highways six and twenty.

San Saba, $42,693 appropriated for maintenance of highway 81. $5,000 to be expended monthly.

Stonewall, $1,000 appropriation for road oil surface treatment of highway 4 from the Fisher county line 900 feet north.

Jefferson, all bids for construction highway eight cancelled, because prices considered too high and state engineer ordered to re-advertise for bids.

Rusk and Panola, state engineer will be supplied to locate a highway from Carthage to Mount Enterprise, the counties to pay the cost of the survey.

Tarrant, bids on Texas and Pacific overpass on highway 15 near Mount Olivet cemetery rejected.

Bastrop, location ordered for highway 95 from Elgin to Bastrop county to furnish fenced right of way, with understanding actual construction will not begin before two years.

Brown, $10,893 appropriated to construct division warehouse and shops in Brownwood.

Calhoun, survey ordered to determine a more direct location from highway 27 near Clark station to Port O'Connor, 22 miles.

Castro, $1,896 appropriated for maintenance of 24 miles on highway 194.

Chambers, $3,022 appropriated to construct two creosoted timber bridges on highway 125 over two irrigation canals near Stowell.

Coryell, $1,664 appropriated to maintain thirteen miles of highway 36 between Hamilton county line and state juvenile training school at Gatesville.

Donley, $1,440 appropriated for preliminary engineering on highway five from Clarendon to the Hall county line.

Drake Gridders "Snub" Co-Eds

These Drake university football players were among the waiters at a girls' dormitory who refused to speak or dance with the girls since the co-eds became critical of the boys' table manners. ...tion For A New Trial By Houston Attorney Overruled

GEORGETOWN, April 12 (AP) — District Judge Harry Dolan today overruled a motion of C. E. Heidingsfelder, sr., seeking a new trial on charges of embezzleing $34,500 from a client, Mrs. Adele Pipkin of New York.

Heidingsfelder, a Houston attorney, recently was convicted and given a 10-year sentence. He claimed to have been lured to his office and robbed of the money.

Judge Dolan set eHidingsfelder's bond at $10,000, pending an appeal. The bond was made for Heidingsfelder.

LaGuardia Is Cutting Down

Total Of $12,429,541 Is Cut From $31,000,000 Deficit; Thirteen Departments Feel Pruning Knife

NEW YORK, April 12 (AP)—Mayor LaGuardia and his experts here whacked $12,429,541 off the city's $31,000,000 deficit.

Armed with retrenchment authority since Tuesday, when the municipal economy bill navigated the state legislature, the mayor and the board of estimate have taken the pruning knife to thirteen city departments in an attempt to balance the half billion dollar budget.

Some Untouched

The largest of the municipal administrative units yet untouched are the departments of sanitation, law, hospitals and welfare. These are due for quick action.

The latest action of the mayor and the board of estimate had these results:

(1) Elimination of 1,010 jobs.

(2) Scaled furloughs ranging from 30 to 7 days.

(3) Salary reductions for departmental commissioners of from $13,390 to $10,000 annually, with corresponding cuts for deputy commissioners.

Beyond stated certain administrative economies, there is a possibility that the mayor will seek a way to spread his retrenchment program to employes of the transit commission, a state body, and employes of the education department, who may be given payless furloughs only by the board of education.

That the much-amended and weakened economy bill—in the mayor's estimation—will not permit of sufficient retrenchment to balance the budget is seen in LaGuardia's preparations to supplement the economy act with an emergency tax bill. He plans to go to Albany next Tuesday to confer with leaders on this possibility.

LOANS REPORTED

WASHINGTON, April 12 (AP) — Loans to brokers and dealers, held by weekly reporting New York City banks amounted to $1,002,000,000 during the week ended April 11, the federal reserve board reported today, representing an increase of $47,000,000 for the week.

The loans for the week ended April 12, 1933 were $375,000,000.

Little Tropical Texas Valley To Be Turned Into An Unusual State Park

GONZALES, April 12 (AP)—A little "tropical valley" amid surrounding sand-hills in Gonzales county soon is to be converted into Texas' newest state park, which will be one of the most unusuual public reservations in the country.

Composed of 500 acres of vine-covered swamp lands, floating islands, mud geysers and rare botanical specimens, the new park is expected to be open to visitors within a year.

Luxuriant Growth

The luxuriant growth of ferns, rare flowers and other plant life usually found only in the tropics is a result of the waters from many warm springs and hot artesian wells flowing throughout the park in small streams, Dr. B. C. Tharp of the University of Texas, said.

When completed the park will present a galaxy of natural wonders including scenic roads, foot-trails and canals that will wind among scores of floating islands. When touched with sufficient force the islands shake and cause trees and vegetation growing on them to tremble.

Cone-shaped mud geysers on several of the islands boil forth mud constantly while others erupt more erratically.

200 Men Get Work

Two hundred men of a civilian conservation corps camp will work at the new park site near Ottine, nine miles north of Gonzales, according to information received by Gonzales park authorities. The federal government will also spend approximately $33,000 for materials and supervision.

As outlined in the federal plans for the park a 40-acre camping ground will be constructed, including a concession building, ten cabins, swimming pool, bath house and open air pavilion. Modern conveniences available on the camp site will include a water works system, sewage disposal plant, electric lights, and telephone lines.

Lake To Be Stocked

A large natural lake near the 40-acre camp site will be stocked with game fish and provided with facilities for fishing and boating.

Probably the greatest attraction of the new park, however, will be its swampy, fern-covered marsh lands. In this area an artificial lake will be created with a system of canals weaving among the floating islands which are covered with a heavy growth of ferns and rare flowers.

The floating islands in the midst of a thickly wooded section of the park, with vines trailing from the trees overhead, are said to be similar to those in the Mexican national park at Xochimilco, near Mexico City.

The freakish soil structure of the park site was caused by an in-wash of sand from the surrounding hills. The sand settling on an impenetrable layer of clay and rock which acts as a water reservoir, resulted in the top soil having a movable water foundation. The quaking bogs are a result of accumulation of water underneath.

President Is Satisfied With Progress

Roosevelt Is Given Report

Declares He Had A Marvelous Time Just Laying About On Trip; Warm Greeting Given In All Towns

ENROUTE WITH PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT TO WASHINGTON, April 12. (AP) — Sun-tanned and rested, President Roosevelt traveled back to the capital tonight fully acquainted and apparently satisfied with the national recovery campaign as reported to him after two weeks on the tropical waters.

General Hugh S. Johnson, industrial administrator, who rode northward with him from the docking point at Miami, said the president indicated "general agreement" with the Wagner labor board bill but was withholding decision on his own plan to permit the licensing power of the NRA to expire next June.

Had Good Rest

Traveling through the heat and tropical rain storms of Florida, Mr. Roosevelt in his first day ashore in 15 days took off his coat and in an interview with newspapermen related that he had "a perfectly marvelous time just laying about." He added he had "a good rest."

Applauding crowds saw the president through Miami early today but a heavy secret service guard was on hand as he motored past the very spot where a year ago he was fired upon by the assassin Joe Zangara, who killed Mayor Cermak of Chicago and wounded four others in firing upon Roosevelt. Zangara was executed.

Waves Advice Aside

The president waved aside advice of friends in coming into Miami again and the crowds applauded. All along the route up the coast, the people were out at the stations to wave a greeting.

After talking with Johnson and Donald Richberg, general counsel of the NRA, Mr. Roosevelt ordered them to take a few more days off while they were in the south and get a real vacation.

"I had a perfectly marvelous time," he told newspaper men as his special train pulled northward. "I had a good rest. The first two days I spent fishing. Then I caught a nose cold and spent a couple of days sleeping. After that I put in the time fishing and just laying around."

Texas Earthquake Same For Mexico

WASHINGTON, April 12 (AP)—The slight earthquake reported from Paris, Tex., yesterday was described today by Father Sohon, Georgetown university seismographer, as probably the same shock recorded by his instruments and which he said centered near the west coast of Mexico.

Frank Neumann, earthquake expert for coast and geodetic survey, said there was no way of determining causes of local earthshocks. He discounted the presence of the Kiamichi mountains north of Paris, with a river between the mountain and city, as a contributing factor.

It was pointed out by Neumann, however, that the diminishing weight pressure caused by the washing away of a mountain might cause readjustment of subterranean rock strata. But he recalled that serious quakes had occurred in open plains.

The government expert said shocks were far more frequent in some areas, but no place was absolutely immune.

Georgetown's seismograph recorded two shocks of moderate intensity about 2,200 miles south of Washington, the second starting before the first ended. The first started at 4:31 p. m. and reached its maximum intensity at 4:42. The second started at 5:15 and ended at 6:30.

Lithuanian Flier Resumes Delayed Jaunt To Chicago

EL PASO, April 12 (AP) — Joe James, Lithuanian aviator, and other members of his party, today resumed their airplane journey to Chicago, interrupted last night when a sand storm forced a landing on a ranch near here.

They expected to stop at Oklahoma City or Bartlesville, Okla.

Members of James party were Wiley Post, and Art Goebel, noted flyers, their wives and Mrs. Anna Bielsky.

They left Los Angeles yesterday. At Chicago, James expects to make preparations for a solo flight to Lithuania from America.

HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN

The Favor of Other Men

Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Movements get hard and constipated. You get yellow complexion, yellow skin, pimples, dull eyes, bad breath, bad taste, gas, dizziness, headache. You have become an ugly-looking, foul-smelling, sour-thinking person. You have lost your personal charm. Everybody wants to run from you.

But don't take salts, mineral waters, oils, laxative pills, laxative candies or chewing gums and expect them to get rid of this poison that destroys your personal charm. They can't do it, for they only move out the tail end of your bowels and that doesn't take away enough of the decayed poison. Cosmetics won't help at all.

Only a free flow of your bile juice will stop this decay poison in your bowels. The one mild vegetable medicine which starts a free flow of your bile juice is Carter's Little Liver Pills. Professor Is Under Medical Care After Rescue From Ice

NOME, Alaska, April 12 (AP)—Rescued from a drifting ice floe on which he and 89 companions had been marooned for nearly two months, Prof. Otto Schmidt was under medical care here today.

Professor Schmidt, leader of a Russian scientific expedition which nearly met disaster when its ship sank Feb. 13, was one of 62 persons rescued in the past two days by three daring soviet fliers. He was brought here late yesterday from Cape Van Karem, on the northern Siberian coast, to receive treatment for a bronchial ailment.

The other refugees are at Cape Van Karem, where the aerial rescue expedition established a base for the perilous flights over the uncharted Bering sea. Twenty-eight men remain on the ice floe.

TOOK PILLS FOR 30 YEARS, THEN CEREAL BROUGHT RELIEF

Mr. Forsythe Endorses ALL-BRAN for Constipation

"If you suffer from headaches, loss of appetite and energy or any other of the frequent effects of constipation, read this voluntary letter:

"After taking pills and tablets for about thirty years for constipation, I started to take your ALL-BRAN three times a day according to directions. Today I can eat cheese, and that is binding, and certainly feel fine."—Mr. Ed. Forsythe, Box 219, Youngstown, N. Y.

Science says ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further aid regular habits. In addition, ALL-BRAN is rich in blood-building iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of leafy vegetables. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass which gently clears the intestines of wastes.

Isn't this pleasant "cereal way" far more healthful than using patent medicines—so often habit-forming?

Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily. In serious cases use with each meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Testimony In Trial Started

Two Belton Doctors Called To Stand; Describe Treatment Of Girl After Gasoline Was Thrown Over Body

AUSTIN, April 12 —Testimony in the trial of Cal Yarbrough of Belton on charges of murdering his adopted daughter, Doris, 16, was started in Travis county district court today.

Two Belton physicians, Drs. A. E. Ballard and M. P. McElhannon, testified they treated the girl after she had been burned severely in the Yarbrough garage.

"I told her (Doris) I'd like to know just how she happened to be burned," Dr. Ballard testified. "She said she had caught on fire and something had been thrown on her. I asked her who did it and she said her daddy did."

The girl's clothing was fired by flames from a blow torch while she and Yarbrough were cleaning the family automobile. Yarbrough threw a bucket of gasoline on her, claiming he thought it was water. She died several hours later.

Dr. Ballard said he had once a conversation with Yarbrough in which Yarbrough said he "was having trouble controlling Doris and had to do something about it."

Dr. McElhannon testified about an examination he made of Yarbrough after the fire.

"He was sitting up in bed with his hands on his face crying and asked me if I thought he'd swallowed any of the fire," Dr. McElhannon testified. "I told him I didn't see any evidence of it."

Dr. McElhannon said he found no evidence of burns about Yarbrough's hands.

Cutten Refuses To Talk On Alleged Grain Violations

CHICAGO, April 12 (AP) — Arthur W. Cutten, grain trader, today declined to discuss his citation by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace for alleged violations of the grain futures act.

"I don't want to say a thing at this time," he said. "I would prefer to talk further with Secretary Wallace."

He refused to say what he hoped to learn through a discussion with Secretary Wallace.

L. A. Fitz, grain exchange supervisor in Chicago for the United States grain administration, said that Cutten's alleged market violations had been discovered by chance.

Young Girl Will Receive Millions

BEAUMONT, April 12 (AP) — Mildred Yount, 13-year-old daughter of the late Miles Frank Yount, Beaumont oil magnate who died last November, will receive an estate of $4,000,072.36—that figure being half of the community estate of the oil man and his widow, Pansy Yount—according to an inventory filed with the county clerk here today.

Previous estimates of her estate were $800,000 short of this figure and had placed it at $3,200,000.

Real estate holdings in Texas and Colorado, stocks in many local corporations, the Texas corporation and the Yount-Lee Oil company, which he founded; and miscellaneous holdings, made up the inventory.

The Younts' share of the Yount-Lee Oil company amounts to $7,610,507.66 and stock in the Texas corporation totals $356,796.

BREAK FEARED

FORT WORTH, April 12 (AP) — Luke Trammell, who already has two jail breaks on his record, was brought to the Tarrant county jail for safekeeping today because Erath county authorities feared he might be planning another. The convicted burglar was being held at Stephenville in connection with the theft of an automobile from Dublin, Tex.

Game birds became so depleted in number that the United States was forced to import 90,000 from Mexico during 1930.

"We As A People Are Determined To Keep On Going Forward," Roosevelt Writes In Book Published Thursday

NEW YORK, April 12 (AP)—"We as a people are determined," writes President Roosevelt, "after going forward for one year, to keep on going forward some more x x x.

"A year ago times were going wrong with our civilization," the president adds in his "On Our Way," published today. "We might as well admit it. We know at least the ideals of the men and women who settled America. We know at least the ideals of the founders of the republic.

Conditions Changed

"In the latter years conditions had greatly changed—perhaps we had not forgotten the older ideals, but at least we were disregarding most of them.

"We the people of this country do not need, nor do we seek for criticism or for opposition that is merely destructive; such individuals or associations of individuals, which for political or selfish financial reasons oppose the broad objective, will, we know, harm only themselves, for we as a people will never go along with any proposal that the country return to the conditions of the decade which followed the world war."

"On Our Way" is, in effect, a report to the public on the president's first year. It details the major events, using as a skeleton the messages, executive orders, statements and speeches of the year, joined by brief explanatory passages.

An example of the succint style of the narrative parts is the president's disposition of the air mail tangle.

"On Feb. 9," he writes, "because of disclosures that the air mail contracts had been awarded under circumstances which conclusively showed irregularities amounting to collusion and illegality, the postmaster general cancelled the contracts, and the temporary duty of carrying the air mail was assigned to the war department.

Permanent Objective

"In spite of the necessary complexity of the group of organizations whose abbreviated titles have caused some comment," he writes, "and though what has seemed to some a mere reaching out for centralized power by the federal government, there has run a very definite, deep permanent objective.

"With regard to the individual excellence of each one of them, I can only repeat what I have often said—that the individual parts in this planned program are by no means inflexible or infallible. In some respects we may have to change the method; in others, we may not have gone far enough. Time and experience will teach us many things."

Sets Forth Milestones

The president is "setting forth the milestones that mark the achievement of a new public policy" in his book, he said.

"Some people have sought to describe that policy as revolutionary. Perhaps it is. It is revolutionary, however, only in the sense that the measures adopted and the purposes that they seek differ from those that were used before.

"If it is a revolution, it is a peaceful one, achieved without violence, without the overthrow of the purposes of established law and without the denial of just treatment to any individual or class.

Is Not Fascism

"Some people have called our new policy 'fascism.' It is not fascism because its inspiration springs from the mass of the people themselves rather than from a class or a group or a marching army. Moreover, it is being achieved without a change in fundamental republican method. We have kept the faith with, and in, our traditional political institutions.

"While some people have called it 'communism', it is not that either. It is not a driving regimentation founded upon the plans of a perpetuating directorate which subordinates the making of laws and the processes of the courts to the orders of the executive. Neither does it manifest itself in the total elimination of any class or in the abolition of private party x x x.

"Apart from phrases and slogans, the important thing to remember is, I think, that the change in our policy is based upon a change in the attitude and the thinking of the American people—in other words it is based upon the growing into maturity of our Democracy x x x."

Body Of Unclothed Woman Found In River Identified

AUSTIN, April 12 (AP)—The body of an unclothed woman found last night in the Colorado river was identified today as that of Mrs. Alma Teal, 18, of Lometa, drowned in a flood April 4 near Llano. The body was identified by D. H. Teal, her husband, and A. V. Rice of Viola, her father.

Mrs. Teal was drowned when she attempted to walk from a stranded automobile on a low bridge over six mile creek near Llano. Her husband escaped and sought aid.

Officers surmised she tore off her clothing in attempting to escape the flood waters.

District Meet Draws Hundreds Of Athletes To Texas Tech Field Today

Lamesa Chosen As A Favorite In Track Meet

Preliminaries Begin Today At College Grounds; Finals In All Events Scheduled For Tomorrow Afternoon

Preliminaries in the annual District 3 interscholastic league athletic meet will begin today at Texas Tech. Finals will be conducted tomorrow.

Entering the meet as an established favorite, the Lamesa High school Golden Tornado team is expected to send a large delegation of track and field stars here today. Champions of 14 South Plains counties will participate in the meet. Something like a total of 250 to 400 athletes are expected for the two-day meet.

Lubbock County alone may enter more than a hundred boys in the track and field events. Lubbock High school, which did not participate in the county meet, will be represented in every event.

Local Hopes Slim

Coach Goober Keyes of Lubbock High entertains but slight hopes for a district championship, but does have faith in the abilities of certain individuals. The Westerner mile relay team, losing only to Lamesa this season, may find its top speed in that event. The Westerners may show up in the sprint finals, and Graham Stanfill is given a look-in on the mile jaunt.

Olton, the defending champion and winner of the Lamb county meet, is sure to send serious competition for the laurels so desired by the Lamesa contingent.

Exclusive of Lubbock High school's entries, contestants will be selected from the following Lubbock county athletes, winners in the county meet two weeks ago:

High hurdles—Todd of Slaton, Campbell of Idalou, Kirksey of Slaton, Ison of Idalou, Odin of Wolfforth, Wheeler of Wolfforth, Pointer of Foster and J. R. Bell of Shallowater.

100-yard dash—Weaver of Idalou, Nichols of Slaton, Wood and Burnam of Idalou, Northern of Acuff, Ingley of Monroe, Hodge of Shallowater and Nelson of Liberty.

One-mile run—Gentry, Traweek and Cline of Slaton, Vanstory and Middlebrooks of Shallowater, Nelson of County Line and Waldrip of Foster.

Low hurdles—Wood and Campbell of Idalou, Todd and Kirksey of Slaton, Ball and Duncan of Shallowater, Ingley of Monroe and Odin of Wolfforth.

440-yard dash—Nichols and Ussery of Slaton, Burnam and Fuller of Idalou, Woodruff of Shallowater, Odin of Wolfforth, Reasoner of McClung and Chauncey of Hardy.

220-yard dash — Weaver, Ussery and Nicholson of Slaton, Burnam of Idalou, Ingley of Monroe, Northern of Acuff, Nelson of Liberty and Hodge of Shallowater.

880-yard run — Pickens Smith and Wilkes of Slaton, Ward of Idalou, Brown and Duncan of Shallowater, Foster of Acuff and Newton of Foster.

One-mile relay — Slaton, Shallowater, Acuff, McClung and Woodrow.

Pole vault—Campbell and Ison of Idalou, Sanders and Stevens of Slaton, Helms and Liner of Wolfforth, Waldrop of Foster and Spoter of Shallowater.

Broad jump — Campbell, Wood and Weaver of Idalou, Gentry of Slaton, Hodge of Shallowater, Ingley of Monroe, Thomas of Foster and Northern of Acuff.

Discus—Weaver, Embry and Harmon of Idalou, Gates, Middlebrooks and Anderson of Shallowater.

High jump—Fuller, Wood and Ison of Idalou, Todd of Slaton, Huckabee of Woodrow, Bell of Shallowater, Odin of Wolfforth and Welch of Foster.

Shot-put—Weaver and Embry of Idalou, Purdue and Nichols of Slaton, Pointer of Foster, Foster of Acuff, Hodge of Shallowater and Ingley of Monroe.

Javelin—Embry and Campbell of Idalou, Thompson and Kirksey of Slaton, Gafer and Bell of Shallowater, Shuffel and Simmons of Wolfforth.

Tennis Is Included

Winners in the prolonged Lubbock county tennis tournament were announced last week by Athletic Director Harold A. Cooper, as follows: Boys singles—C. W. Cutler of Shallowater, first; E. Ketchevel of Slaton, second; boys doubles—Pigg brothers of Estacado, first; Grovesville second; girls singles—Fern Derrick of Idalou, first; J. Corley of Wolfforth, second; girls' doubles—R. Massingill and M. Stanhill of Slaton, first; V. Calley and L. O'Neal of Shallowater, second.

The district tournament also includes preliminaries and finals in playground ball and volleyball for girls.

Grim Reaper Removes Star Athlete And Popular Collegian From Tech

Less than a week ago, dressed in football togs, he cavorted with his class mates through a spring training drill. His days of varsity service were over, but none of his fellows had thought of looking toward another gridiron season without the accompanying vision of Matt Hitchcock somewhere around.

Hitchcock's death yesterday cast a thick curtain of gloom over the entire athletic department at Texas Tech, but particularly in the football division did sorrow settle with appalling suddenness and sincerity. Because Hitchcock not only was a stellar athlete, an unusual football player, but a "regular fellow," a specimen of high character, a gentleman, as well.

There had been some talk among school authorities regarding the retaining of Hitchcock as an assistant end coach next fall. He had been helping candidates for end positions in spring training, and if he could have taught like he had played, line coaching troubles would have been cut to a minimum.

His coaches said of Hitchcock:

"I never coached a greater end, and have seen few to step his pace, few indeed who could compare with him in team spirit."

Athletic critics said: "Had he played on a team of greater national recognition, surely he would have gone down as one of the best ends of his time, truly an All-American.

And his friends: "They don't come any better than old Hitch. A square shooter, a symbol of sportsmanship."

Vernon, Perry In Semi-Final

Pampa Slugger To Meet Fort Sumner Boxer In 8-Round Semi-Final At National Guard Armory Monday

Joe Vernon, middleweight slugger from Pampa, will meet a newcomer, Jim Perry from Fort Sumner, N. M., in the 8-round semi-final of the National Guard's boxing show at the Armory next Monday night.

Local guard authorities will announce within the next day or two the fighters for a six-round preliminary. One four-rounder has been scheduled, bringing together Gordon Parks of Morse, Texas, and Jimmie Spencer of Sweetwater. They are junior middleweights, and are booked for four rounds.

An effort to bring the pleasing Kid Stamper of Pampa back here for a second preliminary was abandoned upon notice of the death of a member of Stamper's family.

New Comer Here

These fights will precede a scheduled 10-round combat between one of the South Plains' leading scrappers and a newcomer from the Pacific Coast.

Jack Kirk, introduced before a fight public Wednesday night at the Auditorium, will meet the challenge of J. D. Spann, ravenlocked youngster from Plainview who has pleased the folks in two previous fights here. Kirk hails from Los Angeles and brings a short but nevertheless imposing record of victories from the West Coast.

Canadian Cup Players Lose In North And South Tennis

PINEHURST, N. C., April 12. (AP) —Canada's Davis Cup stars, Walter Martin and Marcel Rainville, were ushered out of the North and South tennis tournament today as four of America's ranking players reached the semi-final round.

Frank X. Shields, of New York, ranked first in this country and top-seeded for the tournament, eliminated Martin in straight sets while Rainville won only five games as Wilmer Allison, of Austin, Texas, turned him back.

Flashing an effective overhead game with passing shots, Allison trounced Rainville 6-0, 6-1, 6-4.

The other players advancing to tomorrow's semi-finals were Bryant Grant, of Atlanta, and George Lott, jr., of Chicago. The Atlantan required two and a half hours of tennis to beat the veteran J. Gilbert Hall of South Orange, N. J., 6-3, 1-6, 1-6, 6-4, 6-4. Hall was volleying spectacularly, but Grant's ability to keep the ball in play finally decided the match.

Lester And Topping Clash In Mason And Dixon Finals

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., April 12 (AP) — Robert Lester of West Orange, N. J. and Daniel R. Topping of Greenwich, Conn., will be the finalists tomorrow in the 1934 Mason and Dixon golf championship.

Taking advantage of his opponent's disastrous second shots today, Lester, one of the low handicapped golfers in the metropolitan district, overhauled Robert A. Stranahan of Toledo, O., 5 and 4 and Topping socred a one-sided victory over Arthur Lynch, of Mamaroneck, N. Y., the co-medalist, 7 and 6.

In the first known automobile race (from Paris to Rouen, France, in 1894), 102 cars attempted to exceed the minimum qualifying speed —7 3-4 miles an hour! The American qualifying record is 147 miles an hour, set at Atlantic City, N. J., in 1927.

Before we go into the details of the actual swing I want firmly to impress upon the beginner's mind the value of the straight left arm. It is one of the main fundamentals of the swing.

The left arm acts as a measure to gauge the distance to the ball. It connects the hub of the swing, the left shoulder, to the club. This lengthens the swinging arc, giving one a long sweep at the ball.

It is absolutely necessary that the left arm be straight at impact. Any bend will result in heeling, topping or missing.

Don't misunderstand the term straight left arm. This does not mean it should be stiff, but only suuggest straightness.

Old Man Mountain Will Referee Mat Opera Wednesday

Jess Willard, former world's heavyweight champion, is scheduled to appear in a Lubbock fight ring next week.

In the capacity of referee Willard is the headline attraction of Promoter Sled Allen's mat show at the auditorium Wednesday night.

Willard came into fight prominence shortly after the old bare knuckle era.

In 1910 Jack Johnson knocked out Jim Jeffries to take the title. For five years no white slugger arose to jar the huge Galveston negro from his championship perch. Then in the spring of 1915 Willard came out of Kansas, a hulking rough fellow with little boxing finesse but a pair of battering ram fists coupled to 275 pounds of bulking shoulder muscles.

Recognize White Hope

The sporting world seized on the big man at once. He was another "white hope," a man to put an end to the fistic reign of a black man.

So the fight was arranged, and the big negro and the huge Kansas farmer battled before a chattering, saddle-colored crowd at Havana. After 26 rounds, not three minute ones either, the negro lay on the canvas and Willard's thick arm was held aloft.

For four years Willard successfully withstood furious attacks at his title. He made a lot of money; got fifty thousand dollars for one scrap in 1916. Then he met a black-haired, tiger-eyed young man at Toledo and the Willard reign was over.

Since then Willard has occupied himself in various ways. He is always at ringside during the big fights. For awhile he was bouncer at a night club. Here he got his first training as a rassling referee.

Darkness Puts Stop To Games

McMurry Netters Lead Texas Tech When Darkness Halts Final Doubles Match; To Resume Play Friday

Final decision regarding the victorious team in yesterday's intercollege tennis matches between Texas Tech and McMurry college will not be known until the second doubles teams resume their postponed match in Abilene next weekend.

Darkness settled on the Texas Tech courts yesterday and halted the play with McMurry leading 3 matches to two. The second doubles match would have decided the issue.

In the singles matches, Larry Taylor, seeded No. 1 at Tech, lost to "Sloppy" Smith, 8-10, 6-4, 7-5; Sam Hergert of Tech was defeated by Francis Smith of McMurry, 8-6, 6-4, 10-8; Polk Robison, captain of the Tech team, defeated Mack Boyer, 6-3, 6-3, and Henry Roberts of Tech lost to Harless of McMurry, 10-8, 5-7, 15-13.

Tech's No. 1 doubles team of Taylor and Hergert defeated "Sloppy" and Francis Smith, 10-8, 4-6, 12-10, and the other doubles match was deuced at 8-8 in the first set when darkness prohibited further playing.

The Tech team plans an invasion of Abilene next Friday and Saturday when they will settle the issue with McMurry, and play Simmons and Abilene Christian college in other matches.

Hershel Bobo, Auburn's baseball coach, played every position except that of pitcher when he was a member of the Memphis, Tenn., team in the Southern Association two years ago.

Nine varsity football players are members of this season's track team at the University of Alabama.

Stoefen Seen As U. S. Hope For Cup Glory

Davis Cup Committee Advises Lanky Californian To Drop Out Of North-South Joust; May Succeed Vines

By ALLAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, April 12. (AP)—Although our guiding tennis minds naturally are reluctant to admit it now for the obvious reason that their spring optimism of the last few years has proved to be premature, the fact is that the sensational singles performances of Lester Rollo Stoefen, the giant Californian, has revived Uncle Sam's hopes of lifting the Davis Cup from England this summer.

The seriousness with which this prospect is now being regarded, after experiencing a new "low" last year is indicated by the cautious step taken to keep Stoefen from going stale. The Californian's withdrawal from the Pinehurst tournament, on telegraphed advice from Holcombe Ward, chairman of the Davis Cup committee, marks the beginning of organized measures.

Is Answer To Need

Stoefen is the answer to what America needs for the Davis Cup challenge—a single star who can perform with consistency. On the basis of his play so far this year, the blond youngster from the coast is our No. 1 singles performer now and fully equipped to fill the gap left by Ellsworth Vines. He looks to be more formidable than either Frank Fhields, the top-ranking amateur of 1933 or Sidney B. Wood, the players heretofore figured as the most likely singles choice.

It would be highly optimistic to expect Stoefen to become another Tilden in his first Davis Cup campaign but the Californian, if he can keep up his dazzling spring pace, will add unexpected strength to Uncle Sam's challenge.

It is conceivable that Stoefen may tip the scales in favor of America by capturing at least one singles interzone as well as challenge play match. Should he win two, in the interzone as well as challenge play at Wimbledon, the classic cup would be just about as good as on its way back home, for the Americans consider the doubles team of George Lott and Wilmer Allison a "cinch" to beat any foreign combination.

May Stick To Singles

Stoefen's showing in the singles probably means he will be relieved of responsibility in the doubles, although he and Lott now are holders of the national doubles championship. Allison's days as a Davis Cup singles player apparently being ended, his experience makes him a logical teammate for Lott. Allison and Lott know all the tricks of the doubles trade.

Stoefen's sensational play is only one of the several factors affecting this year's Davis Cup outlook. The death of Jiro Satoh eliminates Japan as a serious threat and Australia's chances appear lessened by Jack Crawford's slump, which started when the Anzac lost to Fred Perry in the American singles final at Forest Hills last year.

Barney Ross And Chicago Promoters Threaten To Take 'Run-Out' On Tony Herrera In Fight Set Friday Night

DALLAS, April 12. (AP)—Dick Griffin, Fort Worth boxing promoter, said here tonight he was determined to hold Barney Ross, lightweight champion, to what he termed an "iron-clad" contract for a bout with Tony Herrera of El Paso.

The bout was scheduled to be held in Fort Worth the night of April 20, but Ross, who yesterday signed to fight welterweight champion Jimmy McLarnin in New York on May 28, advised Griffin that he would be unable to go through with the Fort Worth engagement. Ross asked that it be postponed indefinitely. In return Ross offered to pay Griffin "any reasonable" sum to cover expenses incurred in arranging the bout.

Hold To Contract

Griffin has declined the proposition and has notified Ross he will hold him to his contract.

"It's an iron-clad agreement," Griffin said. "It was signed by Ross and his managers on March 2, at San Francisco. I shall insist to the last ditch that Ross live up to the agreement. I have instructed Herrera, who already is training in Fort Worth for the fight, to continue his preparations. If necessary, I'll carry the case to the National Boxing association."

Several thousand tickets already have been sold, Griffin said.

FORT WORTH, April 12. (AP)—Reports that Barney Ross and his managers are seeking to take a "run-out" on their fight with him in Fort Worth April 20 are not worrying Tony Herrera.

The slender "symphony of boxing" put in a hard hour of training this afternoon. A cut on his nose sustained when a sparring partner accidentally butted him, kept him from boxing, but he announced that he would be ready to don the mittens by Sunday.

Quizzed about Ross' efforts to withdraw from his contract to defend his junior welterweight championship, Herrera said he believed the fight would go on as scheduled.

"Dick Griffin has a signed contract and I don't see how they can get around it. They are afraid that I'll beat Barney and will hurt their show with McLarnin. They're perfectly right, I'm going to give that guy a licking he'll never forget."

Ross is due here Saturday to conclude his training for the fray, but tonight had not confirmed his arrival.

SNOW HALTS GAME

ASHEVILLE, N. C., April 12 (AP) — Carl Hubbell was hit hard in the early innings today but the New York Giants rallied in the closing frames to gain a 6-6 tie with the Cleveland Indians in an exhibition game called at the end of the eighth inning because of light snow.

The Indians got to the world champions' ace hurler for one run in the second and then put together three hits, including a triple by Earl Averill and Hale's double, with an error and a base on balls to score four runs in the fifth.

DEMPSEY IN HOSPITAL

DALLAS, April 12 (AP) — Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight champion, was in Baylor hospital here tonight undergoing treatment for what was described as "a touch of ptomaine poisoning."

Dempsey was scheduled to have refereed a fight tonight at Austin, but his illness caused the engagement to be called off. His condition was not serious, hospital attendants said.

PIRATES TAKE EDGE

TULSA, April 12 (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates cinched their 14-game exhibition series against the Chicago White Sox with a lop-sided win in a high wind and on a rough diamond here this afternoon. The score was 10 to 4.

So far the Pirates have won 8 and lost 5. The remaining game will be played in Terre Haute, Ind., tomorrow.

ON THE SIDELINES
By Edward J. Neil

IN all the history of baseball there have been only two real holdouts. One was Mike Donlin, back in John McGraw's heyday with the New York Giants. The other was Edd Roush, Cincinnati Reds outfielder.

Both quit the game temporarily when their salary demands were not met. Both came back eventually, at the club owners' terms. Neither ever could get back into stride again.

That fact must stick deep in the minds of ball players who bleat loudly when the contracts arrive in mid-winter, swear their undying fidelity to their cause through the final snowstorms, then race meekly to the training camp when spring calls out the baseball battalions.

Ernie Orsatti, George Watkins, Flint Rhem, of the Cardinals; Wally Berger, of the Braves; Ray Benge, Al Lopez, Hack Wilson, of the Dodgers; Frank Higgins and Jimmie Foxx, of the Athletics; Lyn Lary and Bill Dickey, of the Yanks, to mention a few. The chances of any staying out of the fold for as long as one entire major league ball game always was as remote as a total solar eclipse the astronomers hadn't figured on.

Jimmie Had Best Case

Of all this year's holdouts, Foxx had the best case and realizing it, Connie Mack quickly pacified the last survivor of his once mighty array. Jimmie was offered $11,000 for one season, a drastic cut from last year when he led the American league in practically every batting statistic. Jimmie demanded $25,000 and took $20,000, which was fair enough.

As a matter of fact, Foxx probably would like to have prolonged his argument with the Athletics' pilot. It isn't difficult to see that Philadelphia is coming upon lean years. With Grove, Cochrane, Walberg, and Bishop joining Simmons, Dykes and Haas on enemy firing lines, there will be little sustenance for Jimmie in Quakertown.

He'll get his hits in profusion, as in the past, but the measure of a hitter's value to which the experts all go pointing is the runs-driven-in score. Just as a pitcher's real ability over a full season can be better gauged by his earned run average than by the number of games he wins and loses.

And it stands to reason that you can't drive runs in if there aren't men on your team who can hit ahead of you and get on bases. Similarly there isn't the incentive to hit when the sacks are empty that there is when a hit means the ball game. Fellows like Foxx do their best in the pinches.

Furthermore, with all the rest of the stars gone to other clubs, Jimmie's chances of picking up an extra $4,000 or $5,000 as a share in world series cuts likewise has gone glimmering.

Jimmie's Last In Philly?

So it won't be surprising at all if this is Jimmie's last season in Philadelphia. Like any young fellow anxious to do the best he can for himself financially, Foxx would have welcomed a trade to a club with a better chance of figuring in the pennant race. As his potentialities decrease in Philadelphia, so will his value to the A's. He's a tremendous asset to a contender, and correspondingly valuable.

To the A's, in their present form, he's just another ball player, worth more than he can be paid. The Yanks would bid high, so would the Boston Red Sox. One of them will have him next season.

Adolph Schwammel, outstanding football tackle on the Pacific Coast last season, has signed with the Green Bay Packers for the next pro season. He was one of Oregon State's "iron men."

Pratt Granted Little Chance At Youngsters

Panther Team Made Up Of Veteran Players, And Not Very Promising At That; Del Has Tough Job Ahead

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAKE CHARLES, La., April 11.—When Del Pratt piloted Waco, formerly of the Texas League, he was ranked as a peerless developer of young talent. As manager of this year's Fort Worth Cats he will have an opportunity to prove himself capable of handling veterans, for the 1934 Fort Worth team is composed mostly of players who have been in the game almost as long as Pratt.

Frankly, the Cats are not impressive. They finished seventh last year, ranking sixth in batting and fifth in fielding. Unless new additions are plastered on offensively and defensively it is doubtful if they will finish much better this year.

Lineup Is Determined

Pratt has practically determined his lineup. Jack Tavener, former idol of Fort Worth fans, retired last season but is trying a comeback at shortstop and appears to have the position clinched. He played 36 games last season for the Cats, fielding .926 and batted .139.

Tom Holley, who played two games for Oklahoma City and ten for Hollywood last year, will be the second baseman. He is a former Texas Leaguer and appears to be the best of the infielders. Cecil Smith, a semi-pro off the Fort Worth lots, is holding down third base in exhibition games. Ed Lowell, holdover, will be the first baseman. He played 147 games last year, batted .257, and fielded .992. Whether Pratt plans to go through the season with this infield or whether he expects help from major league clubs when they start cutting down their rosters is unknown.

A Holdover Catcher

Dallas Warren is the holdover catcher and probably will do practically all the catching. He worked in 106 games last season, batted .223 and fielded .962. Joseph Cogdell, a semi-pro, is trying for the second string job. Earl Wolgamot is also trying for a job.

McHenry, Moore and Scarritt are the outfielders. McHenry played 121 games last year for the Cats, batted .245 and fielded .983. Eddie Moore, another former Fort Worth idol, has come out of retirement to try and win the centerfield berth. One thing can be said for Eddie—he is always a hustler.

Dick Whitworth, who won 15 and lost 20, Harry White, who won 11 and lost 17, Jimmy Minogue, victorious in 8 and loser in 10, are the holdover pitchers. Pratt has a flock of pitchers striving for jobs but most of them are inexperienced.

Tech Golfers Run Into SMU Trouble

DALLAS, April 12 (AP)—Southern Methodist university golfers defeated an invading Texas Tech squad from Lubbock at the Dallas Country club today, losing only one doubles match while registering a 5 to 1 victory.

Results, Southern Methodist players named first:

Marvin Jones defeated Bill Holmes, 3 and 1.

Jakie Gore defeated Pannie Parmer, 2 and 1.

James Wilson defeated Bud Fisher, 2 and 1.

Bob Startzell defeated Al Cooper, 3 and 2.

Startzell and Williams defeated Fisher and Cooper, 6 and 5.

Jones and Gore lost to Holmes and Parmer, 1 up in 19 holes.

Clyde Propst, new football coach at Howard college, Birmingham, Ala., starred in football, baseball and basketball at the University of Alabama.

When Athletics Took Slats From Ump's Bed—Oh, It Was Shocking

Umpires are constantly the butt of ball players' jokes, both on and off the diamond. John Quinn is no exception—as he found out recently at Fort Myers, Fla., where he was working out with the Athletics.

John had put in a very tough day. He went up to his hotel room with thoughts of retiring. The bed looked mighty good to him, and he took a dive at the inviting mattress, land on it heavily.

Instead of finding soft down, John wound up on the floor with a shock that shook the hotel building. Some ball-playing "friends" of his had removed the slats from his bed!

Saga Of The Sea, Unparalleled In Modern Times, Finds Dramatic End

New Cotton Variety Is Developed And Is Adapted To Northwest Texas Area

COLLEGE STATION, April 12 (AP)—The experiment station near Chillicothe has developed a new cotton variety known as mebane 141 which is particularly adapted to the Northwest Texas cotton producing region.

J. R. Quinby, superintendent of the station, reports that this year 23 acres planted to this cotton produced 24 bales. Its average actual yield for four successive years in tests on the station has been 380 pounds of lint cotton per acre, leading all other varieties except half and half by as much or more than 8 per cent.

It is a bread and butter cotton which will produce 15-16 inch staple. In 1930, one of the driest years on record, this variety produced 7-8 inch staple and for the last two more favorable seasons it produced 15-16 inch and 1 inch staple. The lint percentage is ordinarily between 37 and 38 and about 60 bolls will make a pound of seed cotton. The variety is storm-proof but picks well and this feature is one that, along with its good producing ability, will make this variety popular in the region to which it is adapted.

This new variety has been in the process of development since 1925. One thousand and twenty-four selections were made in that year from a strain of mebane that was the most valuable Texas variety 20 years ago, and as selection progressed it finally became apparent that selection 141 was the best.

Distribution of the new variety was begun last year when approximately 50 farmers grew about five acres apiece. At the Spur experiment station this variety produced 568 pounds of lint per acre, or approximately 8 bales on 7 acres. Since the behavior of the variety in the hands of farmers has proved satisfactory, 500 bushels of the seed will be distributed this year in the Northwest Texas area.

Barlow Is Chosen Special Assistant Attorney General

WASHINGTON, April 12 (AP) — Walter L. Barlow of Liberty Hill was today named special assistant attorney general in charge of criminal prosecution for Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona, the Dallas Times-Herald's regular staff correspondent reported.

Barlow will succeed Amos W. Woodcock, who will come to Washington to act as special assistant to Attorney General Homer S. Cummings.

Barlow, formerly an Austin lawyer and manager of Vice-President Garner's campaign on the west coast in 1932, is now in Washington acting as special assistant attorney general in charge of tax litigation.

The new officer will leave Washington Saturday for Fort Worth, which will be his headquarters, and will take over his duties immediately.

His first assignments will involve pending mail fraud and oil violation cases. The job is a permanent appointment.

Barlow was educated in the Taylor public schools, the University of Texas and the United States Military academy at West Point. He is the son of Walter A. Barlow, with whom he was associated in law practice at Austin.

McKinney Man Is Chosen As Templars' Grand Commander

DALLAS, April 12 (AP) — Will J. Rhea of McKinney was elected grand commander of the grand commandery of Texas, Knights Templar, at the conclusion of the annual business sessions today.

W. D. Miller of Ruthvan commandery was named captain of the guard but all other grand officers were elevated one position.

The final session restored the Bonham commandery, adopted an official route to the San Francisco convention and adopted various reports.

Last Survivor Off Ice Floe

Hazards Of The Far North Are Conquered By Daring Fliers; Perils Of The Castaways On Ice Are Described

MOSCOW, April 12. (AP)—A saga of the sea, unparalleled in modern times, reached a dramatic conclusion tonight when two Soviet pilots rescued the last six persons of a party of 102 marooned on an Arctic sea ice floe two months ago.

The aviators a few hours earlier had conquered hazards of the far north and brought 22 to the mainland at Cape Van Karem, Siberia, from the dangerous ice pack on which they sought refuge when their ship, the Cheliuskin, was crushed in the ice Feb. 13 and sank.

Perils Described

The perils of the castaways were described by M. Ushakoff, who flew to the camp April 7 to supervise relief operations, he said:

"When I arrived at the camp, surrounded by floating ice blocks, the Cheliuskiners were living in heated and light log barracks. But despite their reasonably comfortable quarters they existed as if on the slope of a volcano.

"The camp was faced with constant dangers. On April 9 drifting icebergs bore down on the camp with a tremendous noise, crashing ice and destroying the barracks and a motor boat.

Field Is Wrecked

"They wrecked a landing field under the airplane of the flier Slepneff, who had damaged a strut in landing two days before. The plane was moved safely, however, to a new landing field.

"The whole party displayed courage and fortitude despite that crushing of the ice, which began at 2 a. m., confronting the castaways with the greatest peril since the Cheliuskin sank, and continued throughout the day."

Pilots Vodopianoff and Doronin, who affected the rescue of the last survivors had flown by easy stages from Khabarovsk to Cape Van Karem, from which point they made their flights.

In the last two days 84 have been saved from the floe.

Piano-Playing Tournaments Begun At Abilene To Spread Over Entire State

SAN ANTONIO, April 12 (AP)—The piano-playing tournaments sponsored by the National Music guild for the purpose of stimulating interest in piano study will be conducted for the fifth consecutive year in Texas and other states during National Music week, May 5-11.

Tournaments will be held in all of the larger cities of Texas. The idea originated five years ago at Simmons college at Abilene, as the "All-Southwestern Piano-Playing tournament."

Not Competitive

The plan, with the building of repertoire as its ultimate aim, affords piano teachers the opportunity of presenting pupils of all ages and degrees of talent before worthy judges every National Music week, that each may receive a fair, unbiased rating of his or her achievement. The tournaments are not competitive.

Gifted students are urged to enter complete programs in accord with their ages and stages of advancement. Others may enter with a minimum of four selections, one polyphonic, one in sonata form, one romantic and one modern, each chosen according to the age and advancement of the entrant.

All Students Eligible

All grade school, high school and college students of piano are eligible. Contestants may enter the various divisions either on the basis of age or pianistic classification. Each selection of a contestant's repertoire will be rated superior, good or fair and three honor rating will be attainable regardless of the achievements of other entrants. National honors will be given to anyone who receives ten or more superior ratings, state honors to contestants receiving seven to nine unit honors for from four to six.

Miss Henrietta Pyle of San Antonio, is southwestern representative of the National Music guild.

Insull's Fears

SAMUEL INSULL'S expressed fear that he will suffer violence if returned to the United States is, of course, without any justificaiton. The aged fugitive probably hoped to win the sympathy of Turkish officials and, possibly, freedom. The former utilities magnate who ruled a great business empire is on his way to the United States to stand trial on charges of criminal practices that brought grief to thousands of investors in his various power enterprises. It has been a long chase and a costly one for the government.

For more than a year, efforts have been made to bring back the fugitive. But these were defeated by various means until the little tramp steamer on which Insull was seeking a safe haven made the mistake of dropping anchor in a Turkish port. Turkey recognizing the justness of the United States claim on the the fugitive, soon had him in custody. Despite the efforts of expensive lawyers to prevent his deportation, the officials held that he must be returned to the United States.

It was then that Insull expressed fear that personal harm would be visited upon him.

It may be that some of the victims of his alleged misdeeds feel an inclination to manhandle him. But the government will give him every protection, so that all he will have any reason to fear is justice.

The latter, it is to be hoped, will be administered in his case as promptly as is possible after his return.

JOBS FOR YOUTH

Some way must be found to furnish jobs for some 6,000,000 young men and women in the United States, if they are not to drift into chronic malcontent which would make them bad citizens.

This is the warning issued by the New York Committee on Mental Hygiene, which finds in extended joblessness a grave menace to the mental balance of young people.

Young people who want to work and cannot, the committee asserts, tend to discover in themselves "a growing sense of guilt, discouragement, and even chronic malcontentment"; and once this feeling has taken root, it is very difficult for them to adjust themselves to the society in which they live.

Stating a problem, of course, is vastly easier than finding a remedy. That the depression has put a great strain on young people is undeniable. Finding jobs for all of them, however, is a thing that can't be done overnight

Nevertheless, the warning of this committee is a thing well worth keeping in mind

NEUTRALITY IN WARTIME

If you insist that your country keep out of war, you must be prepared to assume unaccustomed burdens and to yield rights you have been used to assert.

So warns Dr. Charles Warren, assistant attorney general in the Wilson administration, in a recent discussion of the problem of neutrality.

He illustrates his warning by asserting that in the case of a foreign war we could insure our neutrality only by passing stringent laws and enforcing them rigidly.

Such laws, he says, should permit the president to prohibit all sales of munitions to belligerents, should forbid the shipment of munitions on United States ships, and should forbid the flotation in this country of loans for belligerents.

Such laws, as he says, would be rather irksome. But he is probably quite right in asserting that they would be the price of true neutrality in any large-scale future war.

It will be time enough to decide on the permanency of the recovery program when the latter has proved its success as an emergency resort.

The folks who said repeal would never come should have taken a leaf from the experience of the folks who said prohibition would never come.

Doctors who advise folks how to live long probably include in the instructions "stay off the highways."

STILL WATER

"He leadeth me beside the still waters." —Psalm 23:2.

The symbolic language of this poem is very beautiful. A sheep will not drink from a rippling spring because the bubbling water gets in his nose; he must drink from the quiet pools. Whatever else God may be, He is one who leads us beside the still waters.

The News Behind The News

WASHINGTON
By George Durno

ENTIRELY too many liberties are being taken with this so-called Brain Trust.

Ever since Dr. Wirt, the Gary schoolmaster, discovered the "Brain Trust" was plotting to sell America down the river Washington writers, including yours truly, have been prone to use the freak moniker to embrace almost anybody and his brother who might be under immediate discussion.

Speaking for the craft we can only plead it's a catchy, convenient title. Jim Kieran, of the New York Times, first branded the boys as a Brain Trust in the summer of 1932 to save himself explanatory wordage. But he surely could have had no idea to what lengths the order would be stretched.

According to unofficial count if one more name is added to the Trust by a reporter or a rugged individualist Attorney-General Cummings will surely have to proceed against it under the Sherman anti-trust act.

Let's take a look at the record and see who the Brain Trust really are, or were.

There could be no better source than Ernest K. Lindley's book, "The Roosevelt Revolution." Ernest is the President's official biographer and this particular tome explains the fundamentals of Mr. Roosevelt's campaign and his first six months in office.

On careful perusal we learn that this group of master-minds was formed early in 1932 to help Mr. Roosevelt through his campaign and finally grew until it numbered 14.

ROSTER: Six of the heavy thinkers are still openly on the scene of action. The back door remains wide open to some of the remaining eight—though not so wide to some.

Here is Lindley's official list—and it's our guess it was proof-read by the White House:

Ray Moley, the No. 1 man, who no longer holds office but enjoys plenty of active confidence; Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Rex Tugwell; George F. Warren, the Cornell professor who seems to have a guiding finger on our monetary policies; Prof. Frank A. Pearson, of Cornell; Governor William I. Myers, of the Farm Credit Administration; A. A. Berle, drafted to the New York City government; General Hugh Johnson, the boss of NRA; Prof. Felix Frankfurter, of Harvard; Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr.; Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace; Prof. M. L. Wilson, of Montana State Agriculture College; Ralph West Robey, financial writer who has since broken definitely with administration views; Prof. John Dalton, of Harvard, and Charles W. Taussig, president of the American Molasses Co.

HOT-DOGS: If all the stories around town are true Dr. Wirt got himself all hot and bothered over the theories of a much newer group.

This is the band or proteges that Dr. Felix Frankfurter planted in a score of periscope positions in the New Deal. Most of them are in federal legal divisions. They answer to the name either of Young Liberals or Hot-Dogs. They have pulled quite an oar in a more or less unobtrusive way. In many respects they're carrying on for the Brain Trust but they weren't in the first draft.

So far as we can ascertain the Hot-Dogs are merely interested abstractly in the theory of communism just as they are interested in other relatively new theories of world government. We haven't found a single one of them on a soap box. Our most secret agents report there isn't a red flannel shirt in the whole carload.

BLACKLIST: Commercial aviation circles are chuckling over one angle of the administration's air mail dilemma.

Cast an eye back and you'll recall that 32 representatives of private flying companies sat in at what is now known as the "Spoils Conference." Senator Black's investigating committee flashed testimony to show these 32 officials "divided up the map" and allocated the air mail contracts among themselves.

Therefore, as you know, no company may bid under the new order if any of these men are serving as officers or directors.

The Republican horse-laugh comes as a result of this fact:

On the day this conference met—and it was not altogether secret—representatives of one firm after an air mail contract decided to muscle in and see what was going on. Col. William P. MacCracken was designated chairman. Just to remind you, he's the one now appealing a senate jail sentence for contempt.

MacCracken saw there were several gentlemen present not invited. As soon as he was named chairman he called the roll of all those in the room and wrote down their names and aviation affiliations. This was the list which eventually fell into the Black Committee's hands and became the official blacklist.

The invited quests finally outsat the interlopers.

After getting no information and no contract the intruders decided to leave. They knew they were licked. But their names were on that original roll-call and now they stand automatically barred from bidding on a new federal contract!

What furnishes the laugh is that some more aviation officials arrived twenty minutes late. They stayed on at the conference but MacCracken didn't bother to enter their names on his "minutes."

These late-comers are persona grata so far as the Post Office's new call for bids is concerned.

NEW YORK
By James McMullin

PLANS to help the Roosevelt administration revamp its personnel are brewing in private New York vats. A surprising number of influential conservatives are confident that the brain trusters will be discredited and put to rout before many months and are deeply concerned about their successors in key administration jobs. They assume the successors will be right-wingers and see no reason why they shouldn't help select them.

R. C. Leffingwell's speech before the Academy of Political Science—recently mentioned in this column—takes on special significance in this connection. A powerful group of New Yorkers is quietly and seriously booming him to replace Henry Morgenthau, Jr., as secretary of the treasury. His indicated sympathy with the government's monetary policy is supposed to increase his eligibility. Mr. Leffingwell is doing nothing personally to further his candidacy but probably would not be averse to the appointment.

Neutral observers raie the chances of a Morgan partner to be named secretary of the treasury on a par with those of William R. Hearst to become emperor of Japan. But that doesn't discourage Leffingwell's friends.

They have even gone to the length of asking Father Coughlin—through intermediaries—to soften his tirades against Wall Street bankers and perhaps intimate that there may be some good in them after all. The intermediaries report a chilly reception.

New York is also intrigued with the thought of assisting in the choice of talent to succeed the "little Frankfurters." The slate of nominees isn't ready yet but it will be if there's an opportunity to present one.

CONFIDENT: Wall Street's inner cockiness about a comeback in power and prestige is indicated by the fact that it even dreams of placing one of its own at the head of the treasury. As a matter of fact—to head the conservatives tell it—they feel pretty certain of their ability to force the President's hand on appointments and policies.

Why the confidence? Three reasons. One is the anticipated public reaction to a vigorous appeal against "communistic tendencies" with a nod of thanks to Dr. Wirt.

Married Flirts — by MABEL McELLIOTT

BEGIN HERE TODAY

GYPSY MORELL and TOM WEAVER are married on the same day as LILA HOTALING and Derek BLISS, but while Lila lives in luxury Gypsy has to struggle to keep expenses within Tom's income.

After Gypsy's son is born her days become a dreary round of caring for him and caring for her home. Tom is frequently away from home evenings and Gypsy suspects he is interested in VERA GRAY, who works in the same office.

Lila confesses to Gypsy that she intends to divorce Derek and marry MARKO BROUGHTON, richer and older.

Gypsy's father is seriously injured in a motor accident, but recovers. Gypsy is so relieved she resolves to forget her jealousy of Vera. However, Vera continues to pursue Tom.

Lila divorces Derek. She gives a dinner party at which Gypsy and HUNT GIBSON are guests. Derek arrives, uninvited. Tom has gone out of town on a business trip and Vera takes the same train.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXXIX

When Tom Weaver swung down the ramp to the Tarrytown train he caught sight of a familiar figure just ahead of him. Instead of quickening his step, he lagged behind a bit. What the dickens, he asked himself irritably, was Vera doing here? He was not a conceited young man. He had the average male's share of confidence but he was not idiot enough to suppose, he told himself, that this girl actually pursued him. No, things simply happened this way. Wherever he happened to be these days, there she was also. Always prettily, tastefully dressed. Sweetly scented, charmingly made up. You couldn't help liking her. Tom admitted grudgingly that if it hadn't been for his meeting Gypsy he'd probably be married to Vera Grey this moment. As it was, he liked her in a comradely sort of way. He knew lots of men considered her devilish attractive. Undoubtedly she was. But he didn't feel like talking to her just now. And what, again, was she doing on this particular train?

In spite of his laggard steps he could not help catching up with Vera tonight. She turned to enter the car at the foot of the ramp and she saw him. She waved. Tom gallantly hastened and dropped into a seat beside her.

Vera's fair hair, under the brim of her small white hat, was gilt, curly; her lips were scarlet. In spite of the heat she looked cool and elegant.

"Where on earth are you bound for?" Her tone was so innocent that Tom blamed himself for a suspicious fool. He had thought he'd seen her around the corner of the boss's office when he had made the date with old Strathmore, but undoubtedly he had been wrong.

He told her, going into detail about Strathmore and what a tough customer he was. Vera was a good listener when the speaker was a man. Tom, unburdening himself, felt insensibly cheered, refreshed. Somehow all day he had been a bit downcast at the idea of Gypsy spending this evening in Hunt Gibson's company. He hadn't really liked her going with Hunt to Lila's dinner party. The fellow was undoubtedly attracted to Gypsy. He was forever hanging around. Well, a man wasn't a jailer to his wife. Gypsy was young—she'd had a difficult few years of it. It was high time she had some fun. But Tom did not exactly relish the notion of her seeing so much of this chap. And at Lila's, too. Darn the woman!

Vera made him forget his own problems momentarily. She was, she said, going up to Irvington to see some old friends. That is, she was going up on an impulse—not on invitation. She hadn't telephoned to see if they were in. But she was going to take a chance on it. She got awfully lonely, she said, dropping her lashes. New York was a lonely place . . .

Tom felt a beast. He hadn't thought about the poor kid. She probably was darned lonesome. All her people were in Boston. It would be nice if he and Gypsy could have her around occasionally. It would do Vera good, thought Tom innocently, to be with two such happy people as themselves. Vera seemed cynical about marriage these days, kept saying that of course she would never marry. And that was the most unmitigated nonsense.

"I suppose you'll be in Tarrytown until the wee small hours," Vera said casually. Tom consulted his time table and said he certainly would do no such thing. He expected to get the 8:36 back to town. He'd told Gypsy he would be home shortly after 9. Then he remembered, rather tardily, that Gypsy would not be there. And he frowned. Vera noticed it and was curious in her intricate feminine fashion.

"If I don't find the Wilsons at home I'll wander around and have dinner by myself and get that train, too." She pounded awfully down, poor kid. Tom felt terribly sorry for her. When she got off she waved at him and he was glad he had been decent to her. It wasn't much fun, being a girl alone in New York.

Vera didn't take a taxi up the hill as she had said she was going to. She went into a drug store and sought a telephone booth and when she got a certain New York number her voice altered and she said a few words carefully into the mouthpiece. She was smiling when she came out. She didn't seem to be interested in her friends any more. She didn't even try to find them. She went for a walk up the main street of the village; she bought a magazine and had a chocolate malted milk and wandered back to the station. The 8:36 was a long time away, but she didn't seem to mind the idea of waiting . . .

In Lila's exotic dining room a dark-haired young woman in a modish apricot satin gown looked down the long table nervously at a handsome, rather dishevelled young man who had just entered. Instinctively she gripped her hands together. Derek's eyes were wild and his tweeds stood out oddly in this assemblage of men in full evening kit.

Lila rose to the occasion superbly. "Davies, a chair for Mr. Bliss. Derek, my sweet, how good of you to drop in. Why didn't you let me know you were here? I thought you were in Bauff. Someone told me . . ."

Capitol Chatter

By Charles E. Simons

AUSTIN, April 12 (AP) — Figures don't lie and R. S. Calvert, chief statistican of the state comptroller's department, has some to back up his statement that conditions in Texas are improving.

One of Calvert's chief duties is to keep a close check on the probable condition of state finances. A few years ago this was a difficult assignment because tax collections were discouraging and each report had a more dismal story to tell than the previous one.

Times have changed the figures show.

For the first eight months of the current tax year collections of delinquent taxes on real estate alone are more than $1,000,000 ahead of collections for the entire 1931-32 tax year.

Delinquent tax collections totalled $3,319,236 from July 1, 1933, to March 1. Total tax collections for 1931-32 amounted to $2,033,248.

The figure is the more encouraging. Calvert said, because of the prospectof heavy delinquent tax collections before the tax year expires June 30. The close of the current tax year will mark the end of the period of grace in which property owners may take advantage of the law remitting the penalties and interest on delinquent taxes.

Calvert believes that thousands of ta xpayers who have been holding off will take advantage of the penalty and interest remission and that the total collection of back taxes will be augmented several hundred thousand dollars.

The March 1, report did not include delinquent collections from 18 of the smaller counties. Calvert said reports fro mthese counties should increase the total several thousand dollars.

The state treasury is $436,409 to the good because persons to whom state warrants have been issued have not persented them for payment. This amount accumulated over a period of years, has been charged off the record of outstanding warrants. The state, however, will pay the warrants if presented. It charged them off merely to strike an accurate balance in the treasury.

Thousands of dollars in warrants, however, will not be presented as they either have been lost or destroyed Calvert said.

THE SON OF TARZAN, No. 65

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

Morison Baynes's thoughts were certainly upsetting him. This lovely creature riding by his side—he had seen climbing and swinging through trees and actually conversing with grotesque baboons! Beautiful she was and very desirable; yet after all what did he really know of her? Before he realized it he had blurted out: "I saw you in the trees with thte baboons!" "Yes?" laughed Meriem, "the baboons are among my very best friends."

And then, because she saw the horror that the man felt at her answer reflected in his face, Meriem rather enjoyed shocking him further. "Yes," she said. "I lived among the great apes for many years. I dwelt among the tree branches and hunted the lesser beasts. Korak brought me fruits and flesh. He fought for me and was kind to me." There was a wistful note in her voice. She had not thought of Korak a great deal of late.

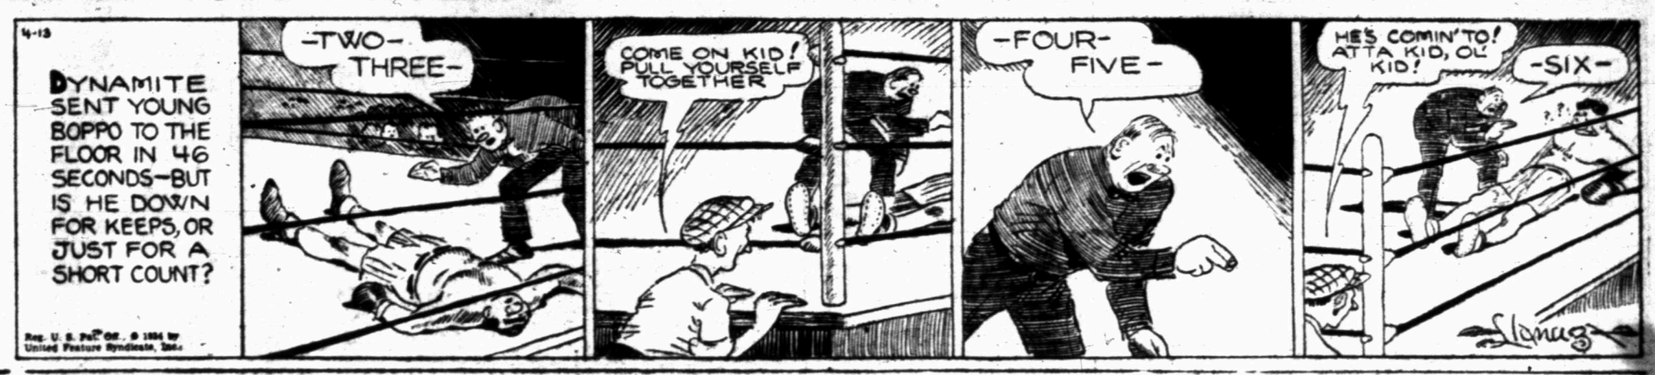

For a time the two rode on through the deep night, both silently absorbed in their own reflections. The girl was thinking of a god-like figure in a leopard skin who came nimbly through the trees. Behind him, shaggy and powerful, swung a huge anthrapoid ape, while she, Meriem, laughing and shouting her welcome, swung from a swaying limb before her sylvan bower. Ah, the happiness of those sunny days! The freedom! And, best of all, Korak!

The man's thoughts were rather jumbled. He suddenly realized he had come mighty close to falling hopelessly in love with this girl who had voluntarily told him just now her weird story. And he had been about to offer her his honorable name! A girl who by her own admission had lived among the apes! The Hon. Morison Baynes trembled at the narrowness of his escape. Yes, he loved her. Perhaps though, he would not have to propose.

D., 1934 the same being the 21st day of May, A. D., 1934, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 30th day of December, A. D., 1933, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court as No. 6876, wherein F. R. Jones, is Plaintiff, and Watson B. Dillard, Tillman R. Dillard, Bryan B. Dillard and J. Dillard, and W. M. Allison are Defendants, and said petition alleging That on or about the 28th day of September, 1929, plaintiff was lawfully seized and possessed of "All that certain lot, tract or parcel of land lying and being situated in Lubbock County, Texas, and being a part of the Southeast One-fourth (S. R. Uzleaman Addition to the town of Lubbock; Thence south with the east line of said Addition 1217.6 varas to a point for the southwest corner of this tract; Thence east 178.2 varas to the east line of said Survey No. 7, Block 'B'; Thence north along the east line of said Survey No. 7, Block 'B,' to the place of beginning;
That on September 28, 1929, the defendants unlawfully entered upon said land and premises and ejected plaintiff therefrom, and unlawfully withhold from him the possession thereof to plaintiff's damage $5,000.00.
That the reasonable annual rental value of said land and premises is $300.00.
Wherefore, plaintiff prays judgment for title and possession of the above described land and premises, and that Writ of Restriction issue, and for his rents, damages and costs of suit:
But in the alternative plaintiff alleges that on or about the 28th of September, 1929, defendant Weldon B. Dillard made, executed and delivered to J. C. Royalty, his one certain promissory note of said date, payable to the order of J. C. Royalty, at Lubbock, Texas, bearing interest from date until paid at the rate of ten percent per annum, for the principal sum of $2,500.00, and further providing that upon failure to pay said note or interest thereon when due or 10 per cent additional as attorneys fees if placed in the hands of attorneys for collection; That said note was secured by the vendor's lien contained in deed of even date therewith from Overton C. Dillard to Weldon B. Dillard, and same was given for a part of the purchase money of said parcel of land above described. That by reason thereof, Weldon B. Dillard became liable and bound and promised and agreed to pay the same.
That the above mentioned note is indorsed as follows, to-wit: "J. C. Royalty Without recourse on us. M. O. Owens, J. D. Quick, L. C. Smith and Corona Typewriter, Inc. M. Clare Asst. Treas. without recourse on above."
That on September 28, 1929, the above described land and premises were conveyed by Overton C. Dillard to Weldon B. Dillard, in consideration of the promissory note hereinabove described; and in said conveyance a lien was expressly retained and reserved thereon to secure the payment of said note; that afterwards the said property was conveyed to Tillman R. Dillard, who agreed to pay the said promissory note. That thereafter the property was conveyed to Bryan B. Dillard, who assumed the payment of said note; That heretofore on or about the 28th day of December, 1929, J. C. Royalty the payee in said notes sold and conveyed said note to J. D. Quick, who became the legal and equitable owner and holder of said note and lien securing same. That afterwards on or about the 17th day of October, 1930, the said J. D. Quick sold, transferred and conveyed said note, together with all rights, equities, liens and interests in and to said note, lien and land, to L. C. Smith and Corona Typewriter Company, Inc., who became the legal and equitable holder of said note; That on Dec. 26th, 1933, L. C. Smith and Corona Typewriter Company, Inc., sold, transferred, conveyed and assigned said note, together with all rights, equities, superior title, liens and interest in and to said note, lien and land to the plaintiff herein who is the legal owner and holder of said promissory note and the vendor's lien securing its payment;
That on July 15th, 1931, Bryan B. Dillard and wife sold and conveyed the above described tract of land to Tillman R. Dillard, who executed and delivered to Bryan B. Dillard his two certain promissory notes, payable to the order of Bryan B. Dillard, at Lubbock, Texas, numbered 1 and 2, respectively; Note No. 1 being for the sum of $1250.00 due January 1st, 1932; and Note No. 2 for the sum of $1500.00 due January 1st, 1933; both of said notes bearing interest from date at 10 per cent per annum, and provide for 10 per cent additional as attorney's fees if placed in the hands of attorneys for collection;
That the two notes were given for a part of the purhase price of the above described tract or parcel of land, which said two notes are second lien notes inferior to the $3000.00 note first hereinabove mentioned and described. Further that on or about the 12th day of August, 1931, the payee in said last two described promissory notes, Bryan B. Dillard, sold, transferred, conveyed and assigned said two notes together with all rights, equities, liens and interest to one L. L. Manley, who became the legal and equitable owner and holder of said notes, who transferred said two notes to the plaintiff herein.
Further that all notes above mentioned and described are past due and unpaid. That defendants though often requested have failed and refused to pay said notes or any part thereof, to plaintiff's damage in the sum of $6000.00.
That defendants, J. J. Dillard and W. M. Allison are claiming some right, title, interest and estate in and to the above mentioned land and premises, which claims if any, are inferior and subordinate to the debt, lien and claim of plaintiff.
That the defendants are in possession of the above mentioned deeds of conveyance, and they are hereby notified to produce said deeds at the trial of this cause, or secondary evidence thereof will be offered.
That T. Wade Potter, an attorney, has been employed to collect said notes, and plaintiff has contracted to pay him the 10 per cent attorney's fees.
Wherefore, Plaintiff prays that in the event that he is not entitled to recover on his first count in Trespass to Try Title as hereinabove prayed for, then and in the alternative he prays for judgment for his debt, $4,750.00, interest and attorney's fees, and all costs of suit in this behalf expended; that Plaintiff's lien and debt be, decreed prior and superior to any right, title, interest, claim and or estate of any of the defendants herein; for a foreclosure of his vendor's lien on the above described land and premises, etc.
Herein fail not, and have you before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.
Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Lubbock, Texas, this the 14th day of March, A. D., 1934.

Grains

FORT WORTH REPORT
FORT WORTH, April 12 (AP) — Demand was steady for all offerings on the Fort Worth cash grain market today except wheat which shows some improvement.
The grain price committee of the Fort Worth grain and cotton exchange quoted the following prices, based on sales made to midday Thursday, basis car loads on track at Fort Worth, freight paid to delivery point:
Delivered Texas gulf ports, export rate, or Texas common points—wheat No. 1 hard 67 3-4@69 1-4. Red No. 2 nominally 63 1-2@64 1-2. No. 3 barley nominally 38 1-2@43 1-2. Sorghums No. 2 milo per 100 pounds nominally 108-110. No. 3 milo nominally 105-107; No. 2 kafir nominally 98-100; No. 3 kafir nominally 96-98.
Delivered Texas common points on group three—corn No. 2 white 65 3-4@66 1-4; No. 2 yellow 62 3-4@63 1-4. Oats No. 2 red 40 1-2@ 41 1-2; No. 3 red 39 1-2@ 40 1-2.

CHICAGO REPORT
CHICAGO, April 12 (AP) — Sharp downturns of grain prices, with corn and oats in the van, accompanied general liquidation today on the part of holders of May contracts.
Corn tumbled 2 cents a bushel to the lowest level since Nov. 1. Uncertainty over pending legislative measures affecting comomdity exchanges did much to promote increase of selling that included execution of many stop-loss orders.
Wheat closed weak at virtually the day's bottom figures 1 1-8@1 1-2 under yesterday's finish, corn 1 5-8@1 7-8 down, oats 1 1-8@1 5-8 off, and provisions unchanged to a decline of 2 cents.

Stocks

WALL STREET REPORT
By JOHN L. COOLEY
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, April 12.—Bonds and preferred stocks provided most of the lift in security markets today. Junior equities were again disposed to hesitate, except for an assortment of specialties, and the closing average represented a small net loss.
Group movements into higher territory appeared from time to time in rubbers and amusements. Utilities gained ground on balance but rails and the general industrial section lagged a bit. Steel and motor stocks looked unenthusiastic, nor did metals assume much prominence. Transactions totaled 1,337,600 shares.
The market tried to rally in the morning, but soon gave over the advance to particular favorites of the moment, including Celotex, Mullins, Curtis Publishing, Radio, Peerless, the Armour group, Loew's and a few others. Industrial Rayon rose more than 4 in response to proposed splitup. American Telephone was firm, especially through the afternoon.
Gains for many preferred stocks ranged from one to half a dozen points. American Beet Sugar's senior issue which traces in 14th share lots rose vigorously on news of rising earnings. Armour of Illinois, U. S. Rubber, Real Silk and Radio Corporation "A" and "B" preferred found themselves in New high ground for the year.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS REPORT
NEW ORLEANS, April 12 (AP) — Cotton after ruling quiet all morning became somewhat more active and easier in the afternoon. The close was called steady at the decline prices showing net losses of 5 to 7 points.
The opening was steady with Liverpool about as due. There were some over night buying orders on the market at the start and first trades here showed gains of 2 to 3 points, but the market soon lost this gain.
The market rallied slightly at the beginning of the second hour in sympathy with firmer stocks. Late in the morning prices turned easier, however, and during the afternoon weakness in wheat and irregularity in stocks induced selling by tired longs and ring traders. Late in the afternoon prices made lows of the day with May at 11.98, July at 12.00 and October at 12.12 or 9 to 11 points below the highs of the morning. There was a rally of a point or two at the end and May closed at 11.96, or 5 points net lower, July at 12.01, or 6 points net lower and October at 12.13 or 7 points net lower.
Port receipts 9,489, for week 58,033, for season 6,932,389, last season 7,743,400. Exports 8,454, for week 34,526, for season 6,171,497, last season 6,223,184. Port stock 1,598,182, last year 4,242,135. Combined shipboard stocks at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 84,943, last year 91,196. Spot sales at southern markets 8,435, last year 9,401.

NEW YORK REPORT
NEW YORK, April 12 (AP) — Early moderate advances in cotton today in sympathy with relatively higher stocks were followed by declines under continued liquidation and southern selling. Easiness of wheat and reports of poor demand for spot cotton and textiles checked demand except for trade buying on a scale down. July eased from 12.11 to 12.03 and closed at 12.03, with the general market ending steady at net declines of 2 to 4 points.
There was a tendency to mark time pending definite developments in the Bankhead bill in committee. Prices moved within a narrow range and more or less irregularity in response to small orders, but on the whole were inclined to sag under local, New Orleans and southern selling. Trade buying at around the 12 cent level for July accounted for some resistance on the reactions. May eased from 12.09 to 11.91 and closing quotations were at or within a few points of the lowest.
Exports today 12,478 making 6,315,078 so far this season. Port receipts 13,190. U. S. port stocks 3,062,468.

of the latest draft of the measure.
The bill's life is limited to one year, but if two thirds of the cotton growers favor such action it may be extended another. The tax on cotton in excess of the 10,000,000 bale allotment is 50 per cent of the value of the staple. The levy will be applied at the time the cotton is sold and not at the time it is ginned.
The measure contains stiff penal provisions for violations.
The secretary of agriculture will allot each state and county its quota. The allotment will be determined on the basis of the average number of bales produced during the past five years.
The senate had changed the allotment period to ten years. The house base was five.

Livestock

KANSAS CITY REPORT
KANSAS CITY, April 12 (AP) — An active market on fed steers and yearlings was the feature of the livestock trade around the mid-western circuit today. Receipts were reported largely fed steers, but relatively few choice beeves of any weight were offered. An improved dressed beef trade in the east resulted in continued broad demand for medium weight and weighty steers of quality. Generally strong to 15 higher prices prevailed although gains of 15-25 were noted at some points. Good and choice light weights and in-between grades of all weights were mostly strong to 15 up. Choice steers averaging 15-14 lb reached 7.65 at Chicago and best 1026 lb yearlings brought 7.15 at Omaha. Choice 862-1122 lb weights realized 7.60 at St. Joseph. Best yearling heifers scaling 692 lbs made 6.20 at St. Louis.
Receipts of 56,600 hogs at eleven markets compared with actual arrivals of 48,891 on Thursday of last week. Prices were not materially changed at most centers except top weights under 180 lbs and medium grades of all weights, which closed slightly lower.
Trade in fed lambs was mostly on a steady basis, some shorn lambs 10 higher. Few spring lambs were offered. A few odd lots up to 12.00 on specialty account at St. Louis were steady. Other classes of sheep were scarce and nominally steady.

Samuel Insull Starts Trip To United States

Fugitive Faces Lengthy Jaunt

Former Utilities Czar Taken Under Guard; Walks With A Firm Step And He Appears To Be In Good Health

ISTANBUL, April 12. (AP)—Quietly and calmly, Samuel Insul started today the long trip to the United States where the fraud and bankruptcy charges he has evaded 18 months await him.

The 74-year old former utilities czar was taken under guard from the Istanbul house of detention to the steamer Adana bound for Panderma. Later he will be taken by train to Smyrna and placed in the hands of Burton Y. Berry, of the United States embassy, aboard the S. S. Exilona, which sails Friday for America.

Trip Is Started

The Adana started its trip at 7 p. m. a few minutes later she passed the exact place where Insull was taken off the Greek steamer Maiotis, on which he fled Greece nearly a month ago.

The Adana was scheduled to arrive at Panderma about midnight. Insull will be kept aboard until morning, when the trip to the Exilona will be made. Finally, his formal extradition will be made to Berry and he will begin the month-long journey to the United States.

Appears In Good Health

He left the jail at 6:08 p. m. He walked with firm tread and he appeared in good health, but said nothing. He wore a black overcoat and a gray hat.

Despite police efforts at the dock a large throng surged about, trying to get a glimpse of the former magnate. A single cabin was given him.

Texas Lumbermen Choose Officers

MINERAL WELLS, April 12 (AP)—L. D. Garrison of Corpus Christi today was elected president of the Texas Lumberman's association. Houston was selected for the 1934 convention.

Robert Landers, El Paso, was elected first vice-president; W. L. Foxworth, Dallas, second vice-president; Abe Gross, attorney, Waco, was reelected. G. Hyett, Houston, was reelected executive secretary and traffic manager. He has served in this capacity for 12 years.

The by-laws were amended to permit the election of Jack Dionne, Houston, editor of the Gulf Coast Lumberman, as honorary secretary for life. John C. Ray, Waco, was elected sergeant at arms, and Webster McEvoy of Houston, was elected assistant sergeant at arms.

Resolutions of appreciation to local lumbermen and ladies and to all on the program and assisting in any way with the convention, were passed.

Deadline For Applications On Crop Loans Is April 30

Dead line for applications for Emergency crop loans is April 30 and all applications must be in the hands of government officials by that time, Fred N. Warren, Plainview, district field supervisor, said here yesterday afternoon.

"We are making applications very promptly," he added. "It only takes about three or four days to get the application through. Some of our applicants have had their money three days after the papers were mailed.

"Lubbock county farmers may make application through the county agent's office. Miss Mary Cooper is in charge of this work and she is there each afternoon."

Checks come to the county clerk's office, direct from Dallas. So far only about 35 applications have come from Lubbock county. The four other counties in the district, Hale, Floyd, Briscoe and Swisher, have averaged over 40 each, Mr. Warren added. Farmers are asking about $100 each.

Did you know that there are over 1200 users of General Electric Refrigerators in Lubbock.—Adv.

Rancher Grabs 50 Pounds Of "Cat" By Tail And Drags Him Up On Bank

DEL RIO, April 12. (AP)—Piscatorial bibliography has few chapters so extraordinary but this one is vouched for and the fish, still breathing, provided satisfactory evidence, Izaak Walton dreamed not of this thrill.

George F. Cox, who ranches on Devil's river, last week rushed into a local grocery with a mammoth catfish. He asked to have it weighed and the scales beamed 50 pounds. There are giants in the waters of the Rio Grande and its tributaries!

This was sufficient "corp" for even Jasper Shrigg, but how captured?

Cox was strolling along the river when he saw the tail of a fish in shallow water a few inches from the bank. The head was in deeper water.

"Opportunity," he muttered as he sanded his hands, "the tail is night!"

Whereupon he laid hold and with a deep breath and a mighty heave landed the fish on the bank. But 50 pounds of slippery "cat" is difficult to control when removed suddenly from its habitat. Cox, however, threw himself down on the fish and, after its indignant flapping had subsided somewhat, George dashed to town to discover how much catfish he had caught by the tail.

Three Men Are Arrested At A Tourist Camp; Questioned In Connection With Robbery Of Colorado Bank

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 12 (AP)—Three men arrested at a Perry, Okla., tourist camp were being questioned late today in connection with the $34,000 robbery yesterday of the Security State bank of Sterling, Colo.

They gave their names as R. G. Smiley, 47, and Ernest Millsap, 31, both of Seminole, Okla., and Dolph Tuck, 27, of Fort Worth, Tex.

Sheriff Merl Harman and Undersheriff W. B. Cavitt of Noble county said they had trailed the men from Billings, 28 miles from Perry, arresting them at the tourist camp. The officers said the men had five revolvers in their new sedan, but only a small amount of change.

"We also found a complete set of burglar tools," said Cavitt. "The men had not been to bed all night and apparently had been driving."

Descriptions of the three were telephoned to Colorado this afternoon. Cavitt said Smiley and Millsap had acknowledged serving sentences at Leavenworth prison and said Tuck had once been sentenced to the Huntsville, Texas, prison.

New Townsite Being Opened In Heart Of Wheeler Area

SHAMROCK, April 12 (AP)—A new townsite is being opened in the heart of the most active area in the Wheeler county oil and gas field.

The town, to be known as Belco, is located 15 miles west and 10 miles north of Shamrock on the Childress-Pampa branch of the Fort Worth and Denver. The Wheeler-Gray county line runs through the townsite.

Horses have a great fear of mice and some authorities say this is one reason why many of them will not lie down to sleep.

More Complete Movement
NO BOWEL ABUSE

To banish logginess, headaches and other constipation ills, just cleanse your bowels of putrid waste with Feen-a-mint, the delicious chewing gum laxative that gives complete and thorough movement. It does this because you chew it. Chewing distributes the laxative ingredient of Feen-a-mint uniformly throughout the intestines to give you a "full," more natural movement. That's why Feen-a-mint is more complete, more thorough. That's why it never shocks the system nor abuses the bowels. It is safe and gentle and non-irritating. Feen-a-mint because of its more modern action eliminates any necessity of experiencing that delay that sees start of putrid wastes seeping their poisons into your system. "Delay" is dangerous—chew Feen-a-mint for constipation. 15c and 25c at druggists.

Married Flirts

Derek dropped into the chair someone pushed forward, never taking his eyes from her face. If Lila was disturbed by his arrival she concealed it well. Only Gypsy noticed that the white bosom, dipping into the deep V of her black lace decolletage, rose and fell on a quicker breath. Her coloring was not heightened one iota.

"I got back this afternoon," Derek said thickly, carefully. "I only just heard about . . ."

Marko scraped his chair on the polished floor, interrupting. "You look splendid, my dear fellow. Splendid . . ."

Derek fixed him with a glittering eye. "Thanks awfully," he said carefully. "Thanks a lot. Mighty good of you to say that."

The tension in the big, high-ceiled room was almost a tangible thing. Outside, in the darkening summer night, the rumble of a storm began to deepen. Lightning flashed occasionally and in the western sky clouds gathered ominously. A girl laughed on a high, nervous note. The candle flares dipped and flickered uneasily in the breeze coming in the long windows.

Why doesn't someone do something — say something, Gypsy thought uneasily. Why the poor boy looks half demented! Oh, I'm afraid, I'm afraid . . .—

Derek drained the glass put before him. He put his hand on the back of Lila's chair. His expression was sardonic.

"My friends," he said deliberately, looking about him, "we're modern people . . . all of us. I've come to congrat . . . to congratulate . . . my rival."

"Don't be ridiculous," Lila said softly. "Don't be a fool, darling. Have some coffee."

Derek ignored the interruption. "All very modern," he went on, quite as if she had not spoken. "A man loses his wife to another man. He does the decent thing. He says 'Bless you, my children.' He steps out of the picture. Isn't that so, my friends? He steps out of the picture."

Marko was standing now, his face ruddy in the dim light. "Come along, my boy," he boomed. "Come along. We'll have a talk in the library."

Derek shook off his big hand. His fair, handsome face was distorted.

"I'm staying here," he said coldly. "I'm telling our friends all about it. They know I'm a modern man. They know these things are done. What are you afraid of?"

"Hunt," Gypsy half whispered. "This is really dreadful. Can't you do something?"

He shook his head uncomfortably and the pretty, fair-haired girl in ice-blue satin who sat beside him laughed on a hysterical note.

On an impulse Gypsy went to him. "Derek, come along. Let's go out on the terrace and cool off," she said softly. He gave her a curious, penetrating glance.

"Oh, it's you, is it? I didn't know you ran with this crowd. Where's that nice fellow, your husband?"

Gypsy's color flamed. "He's not here, Derek. He's working . . ."

"Ah, working." Derek's expression became cunning. "That's good. That's the right idea. We're all modern people . . ."

But he got to his feet and Lila threw Gypsy one amused, desperate, grateful glance.

"I'll do something for you some day," she said under her breath.

Derek took Gypsy's arm and they strolled out to the narow terrace with its high stone wall, its awnings, its trees in gayly painted tubs. The girl was trembling all over.

"It's going to storm," she said, stupidly and incoherently. The air was sultry. There was in it that feeling of high and unbearable tension.

Derek started down at her. Sullenness had dropped from him like a mask. "Why did you want to get me out of there, little Gypsy?" he wanted to know. "What were you afraid of? Can't a man congratulate his wife on getting a better man? That is, a richer one?"

"You really mustn't say these dreadful things," she protested. "It isn't fair to Lila . . ."

His laugh was horrible to hear. "No, let's be fair to Lila at all costs," he said loudly.

He leaned on the parapet.

"Lovely city," he chanted, staring at the rooms spread before him like a gray tapestry. "Lovely, hellish, faithless city. Just like a woman. Promises all . . . gives nothing . . ."

He lurched, and in that split second Gypsy screamed.

"Derek! Ah, great heavens!"

Her fingers, groping, clutched empty air. There was no one on the parapet save herself.

Impeached Governor Starts His Battle For Exoneration

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 12 (AP)—State Senator Henry S. Johnston of Perry, impeached as governor in 1929, started his fight for statewide exoneration today by filing as a Democratic candidate for congressman-at-large. He was removed from the governor's office on a charge of incompetency.

Rep. Will Rogers, Democrat, is the incumbent congressman-at-large.
