Parrish Says Restaurant Men Make Profit Of 1,250 Per Cent On Eggs

AUSTIN, Feb. 25. (AP)—Senator Parrish of Lubbock today proposed in a semi-humorous resolution that the senate sound a warning note to the hotel and restaurant men of Texas who, the resolution charged, were making "the meager sum of 1,250 per cent" profit on eggs they serve.

"The farmers are receiving at this time only a sum of between seven and ten cents per dozen for their eggs as they are placed on the market," the resolution stated.

"The restaurant and hotel owners of this state and especially in the city of Austin, are receiving from their trade the meager sum of 25 cents for an order of eggs, consisting of two eggs. The cost of the preparation of the order not exceeding more than two cents," it stated.

The resolution proposed that the senate go on record as asking "the hotel and restaurant men in our great state to give some consideration to the profits being made by them, with a warning that the time might come in the near future when it would be necessary to establish a state commission or board invested with the authority to look into this question of this meager profit."

The resolution said the farmers had in the past been advised by the "various chambers of commerce, civic organizations, and business men to rely heavily on the cow, sow and hen for the support of their families and the nation."

Defendant's Wife On Stand In Trial At Floydada

BY J. SAM LEWIS
Avalanche Staff Writer

FLOYDADA, Feb. 24. — Weeping and twice breaking down while on the stand, Mrs. Pearl Hawkins today testified in defense of her husband, who is being tried for the murder of her father.

The case was that of Joe Hawkins, charged with slaying 76-year-old S. M. Walker, his father-in-law. Hawkins is 34-years old. Presentation of defense testimony began this morning before Judge Kenneth Bain.

Youth On Stand

Frank Hawkins, 14 year old son of the defendant and Mrs. Hawkins, and Mrs. Hawkins' brother, Walter Walker, also took the stand as defense witnesses.

Other witnesses for the defense said that S. M. Walker, the victim, had been known by reputation as possessor of a violent temper. The witnesses were three neighbors, John Stetner, R. W. Cheney, and Mrs. W. D. Lamar, and a former constable, J. B. Kimbrough of Ralls.

Bradley Testified

Durwood Bradley, district attorney, of Lubbock was called to the stand to explain how he obtained a statement from Mrs. Hawkins the morning following her father's death as a result of a shotgun charge. Mrs. Hawkins at that time told him that her father had been standing in the yard near the porch with a hoe resting on a shoulder, but that he had made no move to strike Hawkins, Bradley testified.

R. H. Templeton, chief defense counsel, of Wellington, asked the court to quash the statement introduced by Bradley, who is aiding District Attorney A. J. Folley of Floyd county in the prosecution.

Judge Bain deferred a decision on the defense motion until Thursday morning.

The defense is expected to close its arguments Thursday and the state to call rebuttal witnesses. The

Senate Constitutional Amendments Group Votes Five To Two For Favorable Report On $200,000,000 Proposal

House Bill Passed

Issue One Of Chief Planks In Sterling's Platform In First Campaign; To Come Up For Vote November 3

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Feb. 25.—The proposed $200,000,000 state highway bond issue survived its first test today when the senate constitution amendments committee voted five to two to give it a favorable report.

Senator Woodul of Houston, senate sponsor of the proposed constitutional amendment, and Senators Parr of Benavides, Williamson of San Antonio, Hornsby of Austin, and Stevenson of Victoria voted for a favorable report. Senators Hopkins of Gonzales and Deberry of Bogata voted "no."

In Sterling Platform

The bond issue was one of the chief planks in Governor Sterling's platform in his first camapign last summer.

The resolution reported favorably by the senate committee was one agreed upon by the various bond issue proponents; under its terms $100,000,000 or as much thereof as necessary would go to the counties for the amounts they have spent on state roads, and the remainder would be used for construction. Not more than $20,000,000 in construction bonds could be authorized by the legislature in any one year.

Senator Parr, who voted for a favorable report today, voted against the proposal two years ago when it was killed in the house by a few votes after passing the senate by

Suspect Drives Westward In Effort To Elude Officers After Murdering Tanner In Hog Pen

(By The Associated Press)

ASPERMONT, Feb. 25.—Sam Tanner, 58, pioneer of Stonewall county and one of the most widely known characters of West Texas, was shot dead this afternoon on his farm 18 miles southwest of Aspermont.

A former tenant of Tanner's, is sought tonight in a sheriff's dragnet covering every county west of Stonewall and across the New Mexico border. After the shooting Altman left the Tanner place in a Whippet coupe, 1928 model, accompanied by an elder brother. The car was registered in Fisher county and has highway number D6-2637.

No Witnesses

Killing of Tanner occurred as he stood in his hog pen, several hundred yards from his house. The other man was outside. The locality is in the shadow of Double Mountain and in the same vicinity where the B. C. Cochrane "empty cave" case originated in 1920. There were no witnesses. Sidney Tanner, son of Sam Tanner, was working in a nearby field and heard a shot. He looked up to see a man leaving and carrying a rifle.

The younger Tanner hurried to the hog pen to find his father lying face down, the top of his head blown away. The hogs were mangling and tearing at the body as he arrived. Tanner hastened into Aspermont and notified Bailey Bingham, sheriff of Stonewall county.

Officers Notified

Bingham, after questioning Mrs. P. R. Allen, who lives on the Tanner place, notified sheriffs of other West Texas counties to arrest the man.

The former tenant who had spent the past three months at Willard, New Mexico, returned to Aspermont last week. At 3 o'clock this

Utility Probe Is Sought By Pink Parrish

State Senator From Lubbock Offers Resolution For Committee To Investigate The Rates And Practices

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Feb. 25.—Senator Parrish of Lubbock today offered a resolution calling for the appointment of a legislative committee to investigate the rates and practices of public utilities and the taxes paid by them.

An error in typing caused the Lubbock senator to lay the resolution on the table for the present.

Parrish said citizens from all sections of Texas were protesting against rates of public utilities. He mentioned "transportation, insurance, telephone and telegraph services, natural gas and electricity for domestic and power purposes and oil pipe lines." He said it had been alleged the charges of such utilities were exorbitant.

Monopolies Charged

Other alegations in the resolution were that the companies were monopolistic and were not bearing their just burdens of taxation.

The investigating committee would be made up of three members of the house and two of the senate. The committee would be empowered to obtain the assistance of one or more assistant attorneys general, and an auditor from the the state auditor's office. It would be requested to report within 40 days after beginning its work.

"It is necessary that the legislature have all the facts in connection with these allegations and charges in order that proposed legislation now pending in both houses may be acted upon in the interests of the public welfare," the resolution said.

Horse Racing Measure Dead

Legalization Proposal Meets Defeat When Motion To Print Minority Report On Controversy Is Tabled

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Feb. 25.—The house today killed the highly controversial race horse bill, the vote coming on a motion to print on a minority report. The proposed law would have legalized horse racing in Texas under the contribution system.

The motion to print the bill notwithstanding an adverse report from the committee on state affairs was tabled, 65 to 58.

Motion Defeated.

The house previously had voted 66 to 57 against a motion by Representative Weinert of Seguin to return the bill to committee to permit consideration of amendments designed to remove some of the objectionable features of the proposal. Weinert said these amendments could not be offered at the committee meeting yesterday because opponents of the bill moved the previous question and it was ordered.

Representative Anderson of San Antonio charged the committee conducted its meeting yesterday in "the most high-handed manner ever seen in the house."

The committee voted an unfavorable report on the bill, 9 to 8, after another member of the committee had been found to break a tie.

FORT WORTH, Feb. 25. (AP) — Headquarters for federal drouth relief in Texas, will be established and functioning here some time next week, O. S. Fisher, extension agronomist in the department of agriculture, who arrived from Washington today to have charge of these offices announced. Fisher was accompanied by H. F. Fitts, who will be disbursing agent for the state headquarters, and will be joined in a few days by three more officials from Washington.

Quarters for the office will be selected tomorrow and a staff of 25 to 30 accountants, clerks and stenographers will be employed in the office, Fisher said. He said it is expected the office will be functioning fully some time next week, ready to accept applications for federal aid.

Military Junta In Peru To Conduct Active War Drive

LIMA, Peru, Feb. 25. (AP) — The military junta governing Peru decided today on active warfare against the rebellious southern troops who seized the city of Arequipa last Friday.

There were indications yesterday the conflict might be settled amicably, as 100 high officers of the loyal Lima garrison decided to send three of their number south by airplane to treat with the rebels.

The provisional government of President Luis M. Sanchez Cerro ignored this move, however, and the intermediaries did not take off.

Dry Forces To Campaign For Arid Platform

Leaders Of 33 Organizations Favoring Prohibition Lay Plans For Coming Election; Strategy Board Named

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. — Leaders of 33 national dry organizations today served notice on both political parties they would exert all pressure at their command to obtain dry planks and dry candidates for the 1932 presidential race.

After protracted debate, the national conference of organizations supporting the Eighteenth amendment, at its final day of executive sessions, appointed a new broad of strategy" to attend both party conventions with this end in view.

To Stage Camapign

The so-called strategy board would consist of not less than 15 members. The resolution authorized it "to have charge of the campaign for dry planks and candidates and for necessary operations prior to, at and following the national political party conventions of 1932."

Previously the conference had drastically re-written its constitution. Authorization was given to establish politico-dry fighting units in each of the 48 states, to be comprised of local or state organizations. Two representatives of these state branches would be admitted to the national conference.

One board of strategy, consisting of 15 members already had been elected, but to avoid confusion its name was changed to an "executive committee." This group guide the activities of the 33 combined dry organizations between the national conferences.

One Dead, Another Badly Injured In Oil Explosion

GRAHAM, Feb. 25. (AP)—Jim Price, 50, was fatally burned and J. E. Rider, was expected to die of burns, after an explosion and fire late today at the W. B. Hinson well of the Nash and Windohr interests, a mile north of Graham.

A sudden rush of oil from the well sprayed a boiler at the rig, near which the men were working and the flames were believed to have ignited gas from the well, causing the explosion.

Wilson Given 20 Years For Taylor Death

Jury Deiberates Only One Hour In Murder Trial At Pampa; Death Penalty Was Asked By District Attorney

(By The Associated Press)

PAMPA, Feb. 26.—Charles (Little Chuck) Wilson late today was convicted of murder for the killing of C. H. Taylor near Le Fors last July and a jury assessed his punishment at 20 years in the penitentiary. The jury deliberated one hour.

District Attorney Raymond Allred had pleaded for the death penalty.

Evidence Circumstantial.

The state based its case on the testimony of witnesses that a bullet found in Taylor's body was identical with those found in a gun taken from Wilson's home by Deputy Sheriff Warren Belcher. Others testified that Wilson's boots fitted perfectly into tracks beside the body of the dead man at the scene on a highway where he was shot.

The prosecution also introduced evidence to prove that Wilson and his wife confessed to Paul Nisbet, who lived in the same house with them, that Wilson shot Taylor and that Mrs. Nisbet corroborated the testimony of her husband.

Defense counsel built its case around Mrs. Wilson's belief that Nisbet and not her husband shot Taylor and that Mrs. Wilson was the only eye-witness to the shooting. She testified her husband did not shoot Taylor.

Taylor was killed at about 1 o'clock in the morning, near Le Fors, several weeks ago as he sat with Mrs. Wilson in an automobile parked at the side of a highway.

Defendant Relates Details In "Santa Claus" Robbery Of Cisco Bank On Christmas Eve Day Of 1927

(By The Associated Press)

EASTLAND, Feb. 25. — Robert Hill, testifying this afternoon in his trial here on murder charges in the slaying of Police Chief G. E. Bedford during the "Santa Claus" robbery of a Cisco bank Christmas eve day, 1927, declared that he never saw Chief Bedford at any time during the holdup.

Hill related that Marshall Ratliff planned the bank robbery, one of the men being dressed as Santa Claus, and told him it was "fixed" with Alec Spears and there would be no need for shooting.

Tells of Life.

The defendant gave a detailed account of his life from the time of his birth in Billings, Mont., 25 years ago, up to and including his arrest in El Paso a few weeks ago. He had escaped from a state prison farm several months previously. He denied he fired a shot during the bank holdup excepting to frighten people from coming into the bank.

Patrolman Is Struck By Car At Littlefield

Jones Mabray Is Injured By Hit-And-Run Automobile On Wednesday Night; Brought To Sanitarium Here

Struck by a hit-and-run automobile, Jones Mabray, 26-year-old motorcycle patrolman of Littlefield, suffered a fracture of the right leg immediately above the ankle and minor bruises and abrasions at 9 o'clock Wednesday night. The accident occurred at Littlefield.

Mabray is a brother of William Mabray, Lubbock police patrolman. The traffic officer was taken to Lubbock sanitarium, where he was x-rayed and the broken leg was set.

Officers On Watch.

Lubbock police and members of the sheriff's department kept watch on state highway No. 7 northwest of Lubbock following a report from Littlefield that the hit-and-run automobile was headed this way. The officers later returned and reported that the car had not been sighted.

The hit-and-run machine, described as a tan colored Buick coupe, was without lights when it ran down Mabray from the rear, according to Littlefield police. A man was believed to have been driving the car.

Suffering from injuries and his motorcycle wrecked, the traffic officer dragged himself to the home of Constable Fred Hoover, who lived about two blocks from the scene of the accident. The constable summoned medical aid and after receiving emergency treatment Mabray was taken to the hospital here.

Fire Fighters To Tackle Oil Blaze

WEWOKA, Okla., Feb. 25. (AP) — Two fire defying brothers, wise in the ways of Mid-Continent gushers, got another job today.

Abandoning hope of reaching and shutting a master gate to control the flow of 81,000,000 cubic feet of gas a day that is feeding flames of a Deep Rock Oil company gasser near here, an emergency crew slowed operations to await the arrival of M. M. and Harry Kinley, oil fire specialists, from Tulsa.

They will take up work of tearing away debris preparatory to placing and firing a shot of "nitro" expected to blow out the flames.

The two, veterans of many a battle with flaming torches that drew their fuel from oil and gas pools, were called when workers found themselves able to make little progress in the face of the terrific heat from the fire.

PASS TOBACCO TAX

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 25. (AP)—The house this afternoon passed the Ferman Phillips tobacco tax bill. The measure would place a sales tax of four cents a package on cigarettes and 10 per cent of the retail price on cigars. The measure now goes to the senate.

Nude Body Of Woman Identified To Strengthen Queer Story Of Murder

(By The Associated Press)

RAHWAY, N. J., Feb. 25.—The queer story of Martin Jensen, odd jobs man who said he shook hands with a corpse when invited to meet "the girl friend" one dark night, was strengthened today by the identification of the nude body of a woman found in a Virginia thicket and by the arrest of William Frazer at Raleigh, North Carolina.

The woman was Mrs. Phoebe Quick Slader, 32-year-old former hairdressess and "the girl friend" of Jensen's story. Luxury-loving, she had tired of her drab life with an unemployed husband and when they were evicted from an apartment, she announced she was "through for good."

That was February 16. She was never again seen alive in Rahway.

Denies Charge

When he was arrested today at Raleigh, authorities accused Frazer of killing the woman, driving about the country with her body and finally pitching it into a woods near Bowling Green, Va. He denied the charge.

The accused man, prominent in a small way in Rahway's civic affairs, two years ago inherited $25,000 and promptly quit work. Recently, his money gone, he was forced

Texas Tech "T" Club Minstrel Proves Hit With Lubbock Audience Wednesday

GREETED with howls of laughter from an audience that packed the auditorium, members of the "T" club of Texas Tech college presented their first annual blackface minstrel last night at Lubbock high school.

Proceeds from the show will be used to decorate the trophy room of the club in the college gymnasium.

Preceding the first curtain Frank Stone's Collegians played several selections and opened the main program with a novelty number, "Oleomargarine." The main curtain rose on the strains of "Good Evening" which the colored boys sang with vim and vigor. Dr. W. A. Jackson, head of the government department at the college, proved himself to be a good interlocutor and a grand sport.

Four girls were presented in "Georgian Quartet". They were Eileen Graves, Sue Brown, Cecil Horne and Jean Shelley Jennings.

Mose Witherspoon and Robert Crenshaw brought forth peals of laughter with their skit "The There Eyes", with Crenshaw dressed as a colored girl and rolling his eyes to advan-

The Woman's Angle

BY BLANCHE E. BEAN
Avalanche Woman's Editor

IF MONEY means much to you, here's a little treatise against attempting to get a doctor's degree, and, after all is said and done, a bachelor's degree doesn't seem to yield such encouraging monetary results.

Miss Marion H. McClench, president of the National Business and Professional Women's Federation has released some statistics gathered among business women to show that the earning capacity of the average woman with a college degree is $1,700 a year and that one with a master's degree earns about $300 more. The average woman with a high school education earns $1,500 a year in America.

Those having doctor's degrees usually earn less than the ones with master's degrees as lots of them go into teaching or social science work.

That would make a good argument for these people who think that a lot of schooling is a waste of time, wouldn't it? But earning isn't the only reason for getting an education. Even if they don't make a lot more money, most of the business women I know wouldn't trade their erudition back for a few more years out of school.

Some day, we all hope, business women will be able to demand salaries. Today few of us are able to command equal salaries with the men in the same positions simply because we are women and there is a general prejudice against women in the business world.

TATTING IS BACK

IF YOU keep something long enough you may be able to use it again. There's tatting coming back into style now and some people can use up the yards and yards of these loops that they made several years ago when every woman —and some men—went around with her tatting shuttle flying back and forth.

* * *

Some of the new spring sports and afternoon frocks have collars, cuffs and tucks edged with a row of fine tatting in simple loop design. The tatting generally matches the color of the frock, according to fashion notices.

OUR CHILD BRIDES

THE OTHER day a story came out of Jerusalem about the practice of selling young girls of Arabia into virtual slavery. The Arab newspaper, Al Hayat, charges that it is not unusual for Arab girls of 10 years of age and even under to be "hired out" for as long as 25 years at the rate of $5 a year by their fathers to masters and "husbands." This is alleged to take place among the Gazawieh tribes of Transjordania.

* * *

And civilized Americans that we are, we think what a horror this must be. Our girls are protected by law from such marriages.

American girls aren't sold to masters or "husbands," it is true, but they are not all protected by marriage laws. There are 11 states in the United States which permit girls to marry at the age of 12, according to a comment of Miss Grace Abbott, chief of the children's bureau.

This comment followed a statement recently made by Dame Rachel Crowdy, British sociologist, who said that Europeans are somewhat amused at "the moral indignation Americans exhibit against child marriages sanctioned in the Orient."

Marriage at young ages is not common, but it is legal in several states and the Russell Sage Foundation study of 1925 on child marriages estimated 343,000 women and girls then living in the United States began their married life as child brides.

OH WOMAN!

SOME flashing black eyes down in Coahuila, Mexico, probably are going to flash a little more discreetly in the future. Drafters of the new state penal code have inserted several clauses designed to protect the women of Coahuila against insolence which in the past have gone unpunished.

Flirting, when the new law is applied, will subject the offending party to a jail sentence. And, inconsistent creatures that women are, I'll wager they will lament the passing of the flashing black eyes and their promises—provided there is less flirting!

ANYONE whose fancy leads him to believe that the modern woman's ideas center about gastronomic delicacies may be a little shocked to find that Miss 1931 is just as apt to be air-minded as anything else and that her fancy may take any sort of eccentric turn.

Of course, I haven't lived always, but I don't imagine this flightly imagination is any innovation. Women may have appeared to have their major interest in cooking at other times, but probably plenty of them were dreaming of other things.

* * *

Questionnaires recently submitted to Girl Scouts in an attempt to discover what sort of material they want in their magazine, The American Girl, elicited the information that they are distinctly air-minded and that their favorite sports are tennis, swimming, golfing and canoeing, in the order named. They are keenly interested in movie reviews, aviation, business success and becoming beautiful, but they aren't particularly interested in cooking and the kitchen.

MILK SHOULD BE ADDED TO WAFFLE BATTER GRADUALLY

This Method Insures a Smooth, Light, Lumpless Batter

Every cook knows that it is risky to pour all the milk at once into the flour when making waffles. In spite of vigorous stirring the batter will invariably contain lumps.

Coffee roasted in bulk also involves risk. Even the most skilled operator cannot prevent variation in the roast because the quantity is too large to handle. As a result, some of the coffee berries are overdone and some underdone. Such variation in the roast causes variation in flavor.

Realizing this, Hills Bros., in San Francisco, perfected and patented a process that roasts every coffee berry evenly. By automatic control, only a few pounds at a time pass through the roasters in which heat is also automatically controlled. When the coffee finally leaves the roasters, it is perfectly uniform in color and roast and gives a delicious flavor in the cup that no other coffee can equal.

No matter when or where you buy Hills Bros. Coffee, it is as fresh and complete in its exclusive flavor and aroma as when it came from the roasters. This is because Hills Bros. Coffee is packed in vacuum—a process that takes air, which destroys coffee flavor, from the can. The ordinary air-tight can does not keep coffee fresh. Hills Bros. Coffee is sold everywhere. Ask for it by name and look for the Arab —the trade-mark—on the can.

The recent revival of all-over embroideries for frocks—in other words lingerie frocks—has stimulated interested in the numerous cotton materials for both day and evening wear.

Pictured is an evening dress of yellow embroidered batiste with which cotton net is combined with deep peplum gives the effect of a tunic or upper skirt tier. It, the shoulder capelet and the skirt are deeply bordered with the net.

The waistline is banded with a green velveteen girdle and bow, an unusual color unity.

FORD COMFORT

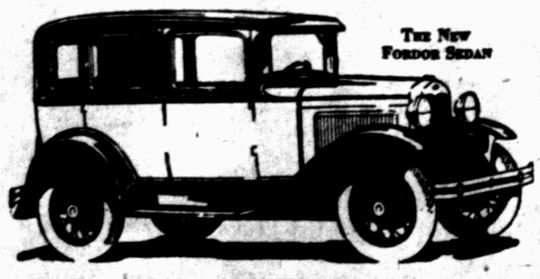

Every new Ford is equipped with four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers

ONE of the fine things about driving the new Ford is the way it takes you over the miles without strain or fatigue. No matter how long the trip, you know it will bring you safely, quickly, comfortably to the journey's end.

The seats are generously wide, deeply cushioned and carefully designed to conform to the curves of the body. Every new Ford has specially designed springs and four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers. These work both ways — up and down. They absorb the force of road shocks and also provide a cushion against the rebound of the springs.

Other features that make the new Ford a value far above the price are the Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield, silent, fully enclosed four-wheel brakes, more than twenty ball and roller bearings, extensive use of fine steel forgings, aluminum pistons, chrome silicon alloy valves, torque-tube drive, Rustless Steel and unusual accuracy in manufacturing.

In addition, you save many dollars because of the low first cost of the new Ford, low cost of operation and up-keep, and low yearly depreciation.

Cochran Will Receive Help

George E. Lance Reports That County Is To Obtain Federal Drouth Relief Appropriation; In St. Louis

Cochran county will receive federal drouth relief appropriations, according to a report from George E. Lance, president of the Morton Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Lance is in St. Louis where he is conferring with officals of the divisional loan office.

Officials of the office agreed to include Cochran in the drouth area, it was stated, after facts concerning the conditions there were presented. Cochran was not included in the original area.

Most of the farmers affected by the drouth in Cochran county are newcomers to this section, having purchased their farms on cash payments during the past two years and depending on crops for their livelihood and other land payments. Most of them are living on lands formerly included in large ranches of that section.

A COLLEGE COLUMN

By MARSHALL FORMBY, TECH CORRESPONDENT

NEW MUSIC ADOPTED

By a unanimous vote students at convocation yesterday at 11 o'clock at the Tech gym, new music for the Tech Matador song was adopted. A copyright is to be obtained for the song which contains words by R. C. Marshall, student from Hillsboro, and music by Harry LeMaire, band director.

The Matador song was donated by the students at a general assembly last spring but since that time there has been criticism that the music was too much like Notre Dame Victor march. The words are original and although the music for the old song was somewhat different from the Notre Dame song, it was similar enough that no copyright could be obtained.

The same words will be used in the song, but the music is entirely different. The Tech band played the new song yesterday at convocation. Plans are to have the song printed in the 1931 annual.

HORN LEAVES FOR AUSTIN

Dr. Paul W. Horn, Tech president, left last night for Austin where he will meet with the appropriation committee. Several members of the Tech board of directors are expected to join the president tomorrow.

"FISH" DEBATE IS TODAY

Staging the first freshman debate ever to be held on the Tech campus, Garland Smith and Carrol Thompson, both of Lubbock, will meet Kenneth Woodward and Ray Walling of the Amarillo Junior college in a debate in the auditorium of the engineering building at 8 o'clock tonight. Tech will present the affirmitive of the question, "Resolved, that the Nations Should Adopt a Policy of Free Trade."

Although the college has staged freshman debates before, none of the engagements have been on the campus. The Tech team has worked for some time on the question under the direction of Miss Annah Jo Pendleton, acting head of the speech department and director of debates. No admission will be charged tonight and the people of Lubbock as well as college students and faculty members are inivted.

RUSSELL SPEAKS

Professor C. E. Russell, of the Tech horticulture department spoke at a meeting of the Texas Tech Aggie club last night. Music was featured by Orville Cunningham and Hilley Banta. Jim Williams is the new president of the organization.

Last night's meeting was held early in order to give time for the members to attend the "T" club minstrel at the Lubbock High school auditorium. The event was sponsored by the lettermen of the college.

WILL BANQUET ELSEWHERE

So great is the influence of the Tech engineering banquet on students in the engineering school that graduates who have gone out from Tech and obtained positions in other states still celebrate the annual banquet date. While the annual feed is in full swing at the Hilton hotel Saturday night, Tech graduates engineers at Youngstown, Ohio, at Atlanta, Georgia and Dallas will gather for similar affairs. The annual date for the Tech feed is March 1 but as that day falls on Sunday this year the event will be held a day earlier.

Word has been received that Harry Gardner, former member of the textile engineering deaprtment and who was toastmaster at the second annual banquet here, will be master of ceremonies at the banquet at Atlanta. From eight to 10 students will attend the gatherings in each of the three places.

RECEIVES PRIZE

Miss Ruth Horn, daughter of President Paul W. Horn, recently received fourth prize in a criticism contest sponsored by Scribners magazine. Miss Horn's prize was for the criticism of James B. Whatrton's short novel, "Mortal Man".

SOCIAL HOUR ANNOUNCED

Following a special program on the beauties and places of interest in Mexico City, members of the Tech Spanish club, "La Capa y Espanada" will be entertained with a social hour tonight in room 310 of the administration building.

The meeting was called for 7:30 o'clock.

TO PLAN MIXER

Discussion of the all-college mixer which will be held next month will be taken up at a meeting of the Association of Women students council today at 5 o'clock in room 207 of the administration building.

Lilah Gaye Rodgers, Lubbock, is president of the organization.

BEAN TO SPEAK

Miss Blanche Bean, society editor of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal publications, will speak at a meeting of the Tech Press club tonight in room 209 of the administration building.

The meeting will start at 7:30 o'clock.

PLANS GRAD WORK

James A. Jackson, 1931 graduate of the Tech school of agriculture, plans to do graduate work at the University of California next year, according to word received here. Jackson owns a large farm at Pampa where he is spending this year.

He won the Clifford B. Jones scholarship of $250 for the highest scholastic standing in the agricultural school in 1929.

PRE-MEDS PICNIC

Pre-med students at Tech plan a picnic for next week. A special meeting of the pre-med club has been called for tonight at 7:30 o'clock by Murray Ballenger, Lubbock, president of the organization.

The gathering will be held in the auditorium of the chemistry building.

Home-Talent Film Completed; To Be Shown Here Soon

"The Romance of Lubbock," home talent motion picture, has been completed and will be shown at the Lindsey theater, March 4, 5 and 6.

The announcement was made Wednesday by George L. Satterwhite, director, of Photo Arts Production Company of San Antonio. Camera work was finished late Tuesday and the films have been sent to the company's laboratories at San Antonio, Mr. Satterwhite said.

"Last shots of the picture were taken Tuesday at offices of the chamber of commerce," Mr. Satterwhite explained, "and members of that organization gave us every possible coperation.

"Over 2,000 local people have been filmed in the picture and all of the shots have been woven into a complete story. We want it distinctly understood that the picture will be nothing more than a story of interest and there will be no advertisements whatsoever in it.

"Those who carried parts in the film were very good and as natural as any we have ever had occasion to work with. All were good and we believe that the picture will be one both of quality and interest."

Mr. Baldwin Loses Out

MR. FRANK BALDWIN, the Waco editor, will not, it appears, serve as a member of the State Board of Education. Appointed by former Governor Moody in one of the latter's last official acts, Baldwin's confirmation was made the subject of a bitter fight from West Texas and the Senate yesterday passed the McClennan county man by.

One day last summer, when the mercury was flirting with the 100 mark near the Amicable building, Editor Baldwin dragged out his battered old typewriter and went to work on his daily column, which appears on the front page of the Waco Times-Herald.

Hitting upon West Texas as a subject, the Wacoan proceeded to slam this country in general and Texas Tech in particular, for all he could. Immediately upon the heels of the Baldwin column came a thunder of replies from West Texas and the fight was on.

In spite of the fact that West Texas has always been one of his political strongholds, Governor Moody evidently felt he owed a political debt to the Marsh-Fentress newspapers which have supported the ex-governor all the way down the line. So Moody appointed Baldwin just before his term came to an end and ducked out of the back door of the statehouse to dodge the storm which followed.

West Texans, from Texline to the Rio Grande, bombarded the Senate with telegrams which evidently did the work. Baldwin's confirmation was pigeonholed for a time and when called to a vote failed of passing.

Now that it's all over, The Morning Avalanche admits its opposition to Baldwin was based upon a principle, rather than on fact. We felt that since Baldwin is unfriendly to West Texas, West Texas should leave no stone unturned to keep the Wacoan in his place.

Baldwin has a lot of ability—a lot of common sense.

Had he been confirmed he probably would have made a good member of the education board because he is admittedly intelligent.

But the editor had to learn his lesson, which in this case is "politics engenders bitter and lasting enemies."

When he talked about West Texas he matched himself a battle—one which is likely to be rekindled almost anytime Mr. Baldwin seeks a plum for himself.

Our mistake was in making high-powered salesmen instead of high-powered buyers.

An optimist is a man who lends money to kinfolks.

Practical Health Problems

PROPER HYGIENE IS HIGHLY IMPORTANT IN CONTROLLING RINGWORM OF FEET

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN
Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygeia, the Health Magazine

The advertisements concerning certain special methods of treating so-called athlete's foot have made this subject almost as interesting to the public as halitosis or body odor. As in the case of the latter condition, the announcements are much exaggerated.

Ringworm of the feet is a fairly frequent condition, but there is no good evidence that most of the advertised remedies will stop it as certainly as they say. There is, moreover, plenty of evidence that proper hygiene of the feet is necessary if the condition is to be controlled.

This disease is caused by small fungus which grows between the toes, causing the skin to become moist, soft and white and to peel off easily. There may be itching and scaling of the skin.

Investigators in the University of California, as reported by the California State Department of Health, found 53 per cent of the men and 15 per cent of the women out of 3,100 freshmen who entered the college to be suffering with this disorder. During two terms, the women students wore rubber shoes in the swimming pool of the gymnasium while the men did not. At the end of the second term, 2000 of the students were again examined, and it was found that the disease had increased 25 per cent among the men and only 2 per cent among the women.

It is therefore of great importance to wear shoes or slippers in public swimming pools, gymnasiums, golf clubs, or other places in which people walk around barefooted.

The authorities of the University of California recommend that one stand on a thick, clean towel while bathing. People with the infection should be excluded until they are cured, and the floors of the swimming pools and shower baths should be scrubbed thoroughly with soap and water, one part in 10,000 of bichloride of mercury, after which they should be thoroughly rinsed.

The following are the instructions issued to students by the University of California relative to preventing this condition:

1. Absolutely never put your bare feet on the floor at any time or place. This is the most important rule to follow if one wants to avoid infection.
2. Do not wear any shoes, slippers or hose except your own. If you suffer from ringworm, sprinkle powdered sulphur in your shoes twice weekly at bedtime. Dust it out thoroughly the next morning.
3. Keep your feet as cool and dry as possible. Wear cotton sox instead of wool. Change them frequently. Light shoes or sandals which permit ventilation are desirable. (Exposure of the feet to sunshine is beneficial for those who have this infection but an actual sunburn should be avoided.) Long hikes, especially in hot weather, are quite apt to aggravate any existing ringworm.
4. Avoid shower baths which are used by many persons. If obliged to use such baths, place a clean towel on the floor or use sandals. When stepping out of your bath, step onto a clean bathmat, towel or newspaper. Dry the body first and feet last, and do not use the same towel for a second rub, as by so doing you may inoculate the groin or armpits from the feet. Wash your hands after touching your feet.

Reed May Be Candidate

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Ex-Senator James A. Reed may be too old to outlast a term in the White House, should he land there. He will be past 70 before the Democrats' next national convention even.

However, if he should be nominated next year, as his party's presidential candidate, he is not too old to wage the fiercest campaign, in all probability, that this country ever saw. Politicians on both sides generally are agreed upon that point.

Reed has been out of the senate since March, 1929. He did not run for re-election the preceding November, having preferred to make a bid for first place on the Jeffersonian ticket at Houston. Beaten there, it was assumed that he was through with public life, on account of his age, which already had been mentioned to his disadvantage.

HOW LITTLE they knew Jim Reed, who took it for granted that a little matter of six and a half or seven decades could discourage him!

True, folk did sit up and begin to take notice when, a few weeks ago, he "went on the air" with a speech which sounded astonishingly like the preface to a definite announcement of his candidacy to carry Democracy's standard in 1932. Still, his old friends in Washington could hardly believe they had interpreted him aright. It seemed impossible to them. "Too old!" they repeated.

Now comes word from Kansas City that there was no mistake about it. Jim once more is going after the nomination. At the Democratic national committee meeting to be held here March 5 or soon thereafter, it is understood, he will say so unequivocally.

WELL, THERE is this to be admitted about Jim Reed:

The Democrats need a leader in 1932 who will tear into the G. O. P. as the G. O. P. never before was torn into, and it is doubtful if the whole field of politics ever has produced a warrior with qualifications superior to his as a remorseless, merciless, absolutely fearless fighter.

Those of his senatorial friends who have kept in touch with him during his recent period of retirement report that accumulating years simply have added, if anything, to his ferocity.

The present administration, they relate, has not pleased him.

Nevertheless, he has not criticized it much. It is not the Missourian's habit to waste his comment. He is saving all of it until the right time comes. Given the opportunity which the leadership of his party would afford him, and the few persons with whom he has talked confidentially say that he has ammunition in store to sear the vegetation from ocean to ocean and from the gulf to the Canadian border.

ANOTHER THING about Reed:

There is no question as to his presidential stature. The number of possibilities, who have been suggested in connection with the Democratic nomination, runs to at least two dozen already, but not more than four or five of them can be named without raising the query, "Is he big enough to fill the bill creditably?"

Fault can be found with Jim Reed, but no one is likely to ask, "Is he big enough?" He is big enough to have fought the White House to a finish, and to have won when it tried to beat him for the senate.

THERE ARE counts in his favor.

His geography is right—sufficiently western to appeal to the corn and wheat belts; sufficiently southern to furnish a contact with the cotton area; not too remote to be out of the world t oeastern communities.

He is a wet, at a time when his party appears to need a wet candidate, and yet with a certain understanding of Dixie's dryness.

Actual complaints, from radical sources, of the ultra-Bourbonism of his views, should be reassuring to conservatives. For all that, as good a progressive as the late Senator La Follette pronounced him "so right when he IS right that his errors," as "old Bob" saw them, "ought not to count too heavily against him."

He is on what seems to be the popular side of internationalism.

And if the country SHOULD happen to want a Democrat, he knows what Democracy really IS, which is more than can be said for a great many who wear the label.

HE IS hard onto 70 undeniably.

Will his age handicap him? Or is there something to stir the blood in the spectacle of his old berserk polishing up his mail shirt and putting the edge of his sword to the grindstone, as if he were 35 or 40?

If he fights, no quarter will be asked or granted, anyway.

MORE DIGGING THE NEED

On the street the other day this conversation was overheard:

"How's business?"

"Off a little."

"I suppose you've considerably reduced your sales force?"

"On the contrary, we have just put two more men on, and are going to take on three more the first of the month."

"Rather queer time to branch out if your business is off."

"Not at all. Then we have to dig for business, there's only one thing to do—put more diggers on the job. What would you do—fire your salesmen and wait for the trade to bring orders to you? Nothing to it; we have to go out and get 'em."

If you agree with that, you cannot logically dodge the proposition that when business is not al that might be desired, and increased selling effort is called for, increased advertising effort is naturally indicated.

This does not necessarily mean larger advertisements or more frequent insertions, though they are desirable. It may mean only the wiser use of the advertising appropriation in the matter of mediums and copy.

There never was a better time to cultivate assiduously the field covered by The Avalanche and Journal.

Actions speak louder than words at a speakeasy.

It is no indication a farmer is domestic merely because he belongs to the sowing circle.

At least, the Tully-Gilbert, Keaton-Keys altercations have given certain Hollywood stars opportunity to view brighter constellations.

EXPLANATION OF YESTERDAY'S CARTOON

HENRY MARSTON PREDETERMINES SEX BEFORE BIRTH.—Mr. Marston, who has correctly determined the sex of 44 children before birth, bases his theory of predetermination of sex upon several scientific truths proved by him after long and diligent study and application. His successful prophecies have attracted much attention in the vicinity of his home, Coushatta, La., and they are verified by scores of his townspeople.

COYOTES ARE OMNIVOROUS.—Contrary to the popular belief that the coyote or small prairie wolf of western United States, is strictly meat-eating animal, it has been observed that in some sections they are fond of watermelons, corn, apples and berries. All coyotes, when pressed for food, will eat cedar berries, ground cherries, and hipberries.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Life was never dull with GINGER ELLT TOLLIVER around. Whenever there was a threat of it Ginger got a new idea. Thus she suggested a Junior Country Club to save the younger set of Red Thrush, Iowa, from utter boredom. It was to be exclusive—no parents, no babies. Accordingly Ginger, whose father was a minister but whose stepmother, the former PHIL VAN DOORN, was both wealthy and indulgent, purchased the Mill Rush farm, a 10-acre tract with an old house on it, which she proceeded, with the assistance of her friends, to overhaul and furnish.

Red Thrush seized the idea with enthusiasm. The younger set would paint Iowa nights a deep rose red. One day, while the rehabilitation of the club house was going on, an artist called at the Tolliver kitchen and offered to do a portrait of Ginger in exchange for a meal. After he had shaved off his beard, Ginger found to her amazement that he was both young and good looking. And he had talent. He had studied in Paris, and his name was BARD HOLLOWAY.

Ginger, never at a loss for ideas, thought it would be a good one if Bard remained a while in Red Thrush. She would see that he got enough commissions for portraits, which would be better than hoboing through the country, and he could do the mural decorations at the new club house. So, very cleverly, she got her stepmother to prevail on Bard to accept an invitation to stay at the Tollivers'.

Bard thought "Joie de Vivre" would be a good name for the club. It was adopted. And he thought it would be splendid if they could import NICOLO CALLENO from Chicago. For Nicolo was handsome and he could cook and sing and strum a guitar. He would make a picturesque addition to the club. He would be a knockout on the opening night, for which a dinner dance was planned. So he sent for Nicolo. But on the morning of the dance there arrived at the Tollivers not one Latin youth, but what seemed an army of them. Little ANGELO was a musician, and PIETRO could cook. And BENITO could sing. And how! Nicolo, it seemed, could not come, and they had come in his place. They would work for their board. So they were installed at the club, and the opening arrived. And when Bard saw Ginger all dressed up for it, and Ginger saw Bard in his dinner clothes, they both were a little breathless.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XVI

BUT when Ginger swayed forward, smiling tremulously, to pass him—the perfume of her hair touched his nostrils—a bright tendril swept his arm. Bard caught her hand suddenly and pressed it, palm upward, against his lips, crushed it against his face. When he released her, he took her by the arms, slowly, with both hands—drew her toward him—his eyes grave and unsmiling.

"Ginger?" Phil again.

"Yes—um-hum." She pressed her fingers warmly upon his hand and ran down.

"Oh, you are so flushed and out of breath," said Phil.

"Yes. I—I ran down stairs."

"Um. I heard you."

Bard Holloway, left alone, looked no more into the flattering full-length mirror but at the open door through which she had come. His face was very sober indeed. The little smirk of satisfaction had faded from his lips and eyes.

"Like—that," he said thoughtfully.

And followed her slowly down the stairs.

When he entered the room where the three were waiting for him, his eyes traveled swiftly for one pleased breathless look at Ginger, standing motionless beside the velvet curtain, all in ivory white, with deep bright blue upon her throat, twinkling in her ears, and upon her wrists. And in her eyes the bluest blue of all.

Only for an instant their eyes clung, but Phil, who saw everything, saw that.

"You look so simply elegant, the pair of you," she said, smiling, "that I just don't see how Red Thrush is going to stand it. We aren't used to such gay carrying on."

"I don't feel gay a bit," said Ginger softly. "I wish I had never started the silly old Joie de Vivre. I feel more just like walking quietly in the garden—and not even talking."

"A very good idea, just the same—the Joie de Vivre," said Phil dryly. "Is anybody driving out with you?"

"No. But we are having a table with Pat and Eddy Jackson. Eddy's taking her out in his car."

As they started out, by a deft imperceptible gesture, Phil managed to let Mr. Tolliver lead the way to the car with his arm around his baby daughter, while she followed with Bard. With a restraining hand she held him, back a little.

"Now don't flirt, you terribly good-looking tramp, you," she whispered, smiling.

"I won't flirt with Ginger, Mrs. Tolliver, if that is what you mean."

She smiled again. "I dare say Ginger can hold her own all right," she said good-naturedly. "Just don't crowd her."

When he was in the car beside Ginger he thought it over, sitting rigid and silent, his arms sternly folded.

"I know what she means by that," he said to himself, "and she is right. But it is such a wonderful night—and it will soon be over—and we're both so sort of tingling

Grocers Meet Here Tuesday

Hundred Retail Merchants At Session Here To Discuss Red-And-White Plan Of Operation In This Section

A hundred retail grocers of the Lubbock territory met Tuesday night at the Lubbock hotel and discussed the red-and-white plan of operation. H. O. Wotten Co. is sponsor of the movement.

Several speakers appeared on the program. G. C. McDonald, of Abilene, discussed food distribution.

A discussion of the manufacturer, jobber and retailer lined up with the movement was made by C. K. Rogers, of Amarillo.

J. W. Johnson, John Barton and W. J. Walsh, retailers of Amarillo, stressed the importance of group buying and cooperative merchandising, the advantages of newspaper advertising and hook-up with national advertising.

Following the general meeting, a brief business session was held. It was stated that announcement of the formal opening date of the Lubbock group is expected to be made in the near future. T. W. Pearce, local Wooten company manager, presided at the meeting.

Plot Against Life Of Pres. Machado At Havana Revealed

HAVANA, Feb. 25. (AP)—The Associated Press learned Tuesday that a bomb exploded within the presidential palace yesterday, and it was only by a narrow margin that President Machado was not killed or seriously wounded.

Police last night admitted a bomb had been placed in the palace but, because the investigation had not been completed, let it appear the explosive had been discovered before the person who placed it there had time to detonate it.

It was learned today the bomb had wrecked part of the top floor of the palace and that a soldier who had been on patrol duty on the roof of the home of Cuba's chief executive had confessed to placing it there.

UNDER GUNFIRE

TYLER, Feb. 25. (AP)—Belief that a robber was only a friend trying to play a trick on him brought Harvey Jordan, young theater caretaker, under gunfire early today. Jordan started to walk through a doorway as the robber was entering. The latter fired five times through the door, bullets tearing Jordan's trouser leg and shoe. The man then fled.

Big Intramural Program To Replace Tech Competition

Morgan Issues Call For Ring Men This Week

Extensive Boxing, Wrestling, Track and Basketball Season On Intramural Basis Planned For This Spring

While competitive sports on the basis of intercollegiate play have been curtailed to nothing this spring by action of the athletic council last week, Texas Tech enters an extensive intramural season Friday with the initial meeting of boxers and wrestlers of the school.

Next Monday has been set as the probable date for the opening of an intramural basketball season on a larger scale that has ever been practiced at the local college. W. L. "Crip" Golightly, basketball coach, will conduct the campus cage program. Del Morgan, assistant football coach, freshman basketball mentor and general handy man, will have charge of the fighters.

Boxers Meet Friday

Morgan has issued a call for all prospective boxers and wrestlers of all classes, from flyweight to heavyweight, to meet with him in the gymnasium Friday afternoon at 5:30. A schedule of eliminations will be worked out at that time and that nearly 100 men will report for classes will be divided. It is thought boxing and wrestling. An even greater number, running probably above 200, of intramural basketball candidates are expected to report to Golightly next Monday.

Boxing and wrestling matches have figured prominently on the monthly "open-house fun nights" for men at the college and a number of students have already felt the blows and grips of campus fighters. Some first class boxing has been seen in the Tech ring.

Fights Next Week

The intramural boxing program will be introduced next week with several matches carded for the week. The schedule will be on the elimination plan with the fighters in each class grouped into two or three brackets and matched according to weights. At least four divisions will play for as many championship, including featherweight, lightweight, middleweight and heavyweight classes.

Each of the four schools, liberal arts, engineering, military and agriculture, will be represented by an intramural basketball team. Other campus organizations may enter the schedule. Each team will meet the other three or four times during the season and a champion recognized on the basis of final standings.

Track On Elimination Basis

The athletic council declared last week that no track would be practiced this season on a competitive basis, but track aspirants will have their intramural season during the spring months.

The college will not be represented by a baseball team this year, though Coaches Morgan and Golightly plan to organize at least two teams to play in a prospective city league this spring and with other teams of the South Plains. The sport will be self-supporting, baseball not being included in the budget.

Simmons Cowboys Sitting High In Texas Conference

AUSTIN, Feb. 25. (AP)—Simmons University, having completed the Texas Conference schedule undefeated, thereby gaining undisputed possession of first place, the only point remaining unsettled is what the final ranking of the second division clubs will be. The game between Trinity University and Austin College, scheduled for Friday night at Sherman, will determine the matter and ring down the curtain on the 1931 season.

Southwestern University, doped to give Simmons a tussle and a possible beating Tuesday night, went to pieces in the final encounter and lost to the Cowboys 40 to 19, and at the same time lost the chance to close the season in a tie with the Abilene school. Southwestern's only two losses were to Simmons.

The standing of the clubs tonight was:

	Won	Lost	Per Cent
Simmons	10	0	1.000
Southwestern	8	2	.800
Howard Payne	6	4	.600
Trinity	2	7	.222
St. Edwards	2	8	.200
Austin College	1	8	.111

O'Conner Leading In Florida Open

FLORIDA COUNTRY CLUB, JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 25. (AP)—John O'Conner, 27, professional from Lake George, N. Y., today put a par 72 together with a first round of 73 for 145 to lead at the halfway mark of the Florida open golf tournament here.

The lanky New Yorker was a stroke ahead of the veteran, Al Espinosa, Chicago, who smacked out a 71 today to add a total of 146.

Cal Farley In Amarillo Mat Show Friday Night

Billy Hallas Meets Farley At City Auditorium

(Special To The Avalanche)

AMARILLO, Feb. 25. — Cal Farley's return to the mat after an absence of several months is hailed with delight by wrestling fans of the Panhandle. Farley will appear in the headline match at the City Auditorium, Friday night against Billy Hallas.

Cal, long a favorite in the southwest, came out of retirement at the request of the Tri-State Fair association, sponsors of the bout. Farley gave the welterweight champion, Jack Reynolds, the scare of his life last June out at Butler Field before the largest crowd ever assembled in the Panhandle to see a mat battle. Since that time Cal has devoted his attention to business, and gave but little thought to wrestling.

Wants Another Try.

Then came the Tri-State Fair with a proposal to sponsor a great wrestling card. Once convinced he should return to the game, Farley made up his mind to go after another crack at the title. And he told the promoters to get him as tough an opponent as could be found. Cal's wish was certainly carried out, for Billy Hallas is rated by the N. B. A. as second only to Reynolds.

Farley figures if he can get in shape and beat Hallas, he'll be next in line for a match with the champion. This line of thought is consistent because Hallas last week almost beat Jack Reynolds. It took all the ingenuity of the old fox of mat to keep from being defeated by the clever and persistent Hallas.

Dutch Mantell On Card.

Not only will wrestling fans of these parts flock out to see Cal once more, but also to get a look at that old redoubtable and incomparable veteran, Dutch Mantell. Mantell has for his opponent one Blacksmith Pedigo of Toledo, O., who is a reformed blacksmith and has been knocking over all opposition with monotonous regularity.

Mantell will be 50 years old next June, and it has been hinted if he loses this bout, he'll quit the game. At least he is taking this party seriously, for he departed for the mountains of New Mexico right after arrangements had been completed where he has been in training ever since. The Mandell-Pedigo bout will be a regular two-falls-out-of-three affair.

Savoldi's Mat Career Halted

Former Notre Dame Fullback Butts Opponent In First Bout And Is Suspended For Thirty Days

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 25. (AP)—"Jumping Joe" Savoldi's professional wrestling career in California came to an abrupt halt today when he was suspended for 30 days because of his butting tactics in his first bout here.

The state athletic commission in announcing the suspension of the former Notre Dame football fullback, said he butted the veteran Howard Cantonwine so severely in their match here last night the Iowan was under a doctor's care until 3 o'clock in the morning.

The commission said "Jumping Joe" repeatedly had ignored the referee's warning. It was Savoldi's second professional wrestling match.

George Veenker Selected To Coach At Iowa State

AMES, Ia., Feb. 25. (AP)—President R. M. Hughes and athletic officials of Iowa State college today announced selection of George Veenker, University of Michigan basketball coach, as head football coach at Iowa State.

Veenker succeeds Noel Workman, who resigned last fall after his eleven had lost every game.

Favorites Win In Miami Net Match

(By The Associated Press)

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 25.—Favorites advanced through the third round of singles play in the Pan-American tennis championships here today after completion of first round of doubles play, halted by rain yesterday.

Only two of the singles matches went over two sets for a decision. Marcel Rainville, Montreal, won from Melvin Tarpley, Tampa, 4-6, 6-2, 6-2. John Van Ryn, East Orange, N. J., defeated Gus Feuer, Miami, 6-1, 2-6, 6-2.

In other singles matches Ricardo Tapia, Mexico, defeated Keith Morgan, New York, 6-2, 6-4; J. Gilbert Hall, Orange, N. J., won from W. R. Bragaw, Providence, R. I., 6-3, 6-3; J. S. McDermott, New York, whipped Bud Sieve, Cincinnati, 6-2, 6-1; Gustavo Vollmer, Cuba, won from S. Jarvis Adams, Port Washington, L. I., 6-2, 6-4, and George Lott, Chicago, beat Oscar Evans, Miami, 6-3, 6-0.

Seven doubles matches were played. Lott and Van Ryn romped over John Nixon, Miami, and Evans, 6-1, 6-2; Tapia and Vollmer shut out E. S. Stillman, New York, and E. W. Travis, Miami Beach, 6-0, 6-0; McDermott and Morgan defeated Stuart Kenyon and Donald McNeil, Miami Beach, 6-3, 6-4.

"Dry" ice is to be introduced into Australia.

Here And There In Training Camps

Donie Bush Promises Some Batting Today

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 25. (AP)—The Chicago White Sox continued to toss the baseball gently and shag flies vigorously today, although the tossers yearned to do some batting. Manager Donie Bush indicated he would let them bat tomorrow.

He also showed considerable interest in a recruit pitcher, John W. Intiekofer, recently of George Stovall's Los Angeles semi-pro club. Intiekofer, who is 19, was described as one of the best looking rookie right handers Bush has seen in several seasons.

Cub Second Baseman Is First Casualty

AVALON, CATALINA ISLAND, Calif., Feb. 25. (AP)—When a hard hit grounder from the bat of Coach Charlie O'Leary took a bad hop, Clarence Blair, Chicago Cub second baseman, suffered an injury today to his left cheek bone.

Blair, taking part in his first spring practice session at the Cub camp here, was knocked unconscious by the blow, which cut a deep gash in his cheek. He was taken to a hospital, where it was said he would be unable to resume practice for several days.

Marse Joe Watches Hurlers Warm Up

CLEARWATER, Fla., Feb. 25. (AP)—Pitchers occupied the attention of Marse Joe McCarthy, manager of the New York Yankees, today. Herb Pennock, veteran southpaw, arrived in camp and George Miner, formerly of Jersey City, departed to complete his recovery from a severe case of influenza. He will join the team after it goes north.

Larry Bettencourt Is Popular With Browns

WEST PLAM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 25. (AP)—Among players who have attracted most attention in initial workouts at the St. Louis Brown's training camp here is Larry Bettencourt, former California football star, who played excellent baseball for Wichita Falls, Texas last season. Bettencourt is determined to make good in the major. Manager Bill Killefer hopes he will be able to play right field regularly, this solving one of the Brown's big problems.

Tony Piet Pleases Pirate Skipper

PASO ROBLES, Cal., Feb. 25. (AP) Manager Jewel Ens of the Pittsburgh Pirates looked over his green timber during the initial infield practice of the training season today and seemed pleased the Buccaneers have infielders Tony Piet, former Texas League player, and other youngsters working out.

The cheering news that Paul Waner, star outfielder who has been under treatment at St. Louis for an infected leg, would be out of the hospital by Monday was received today. He is expected to start practice about March 15.

Heilmann, Red Slugger, Suffers Arthritis

CINCINNATI, Feb. 25. (AP)—Harry Heilman, heaviest slugger on the Cincinnati Reds roster, is suffering with a severe case of arthritis in his right wrist and will not be in shape to use his throwing arm for another month, Sidney Weil, club president, said today. Heilmann will spend the spring training period at his Detroit home undergoing medical treatment.

Cincinnati Reds Held Back By Weather

TAMPA, Fla., Feb. 25. (AP)—Baseball training activities at the Cincinnati Reds camp here were confined today by cool and blustery weather to fungo hitting and easy tossing by the hurlers. Johnny Allen, former University of Florida catcher, has been engaged to help the Reds regular catchers, Sukeforth, Ashby and Styles during the conditioning period.

John McGraw Arrives In San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 25. (AP)—Manager John J. McGraw arrived from Havana today prepared to look into the list of New York Giants who should be training here and are not. He also planned harder workouts for his athletes. Coach Dave Bancroft made the Giants ready for what is to come by increasing the time of their drill to two hours.

Shotton And Hurlers Arrive In Camp

WINTER HAVEN, Fla., Feb. 25.—Manager Burt Shotton and a half dozen pitchers and catchers arrived at the Philadelphia National's training camp today. Most of the Philly regulars are headed this way from various sections and a full crew is expected by the end of the week.

Mickey Walker Wins Decision Over Risko

Slugfest Ends With Champion Taking Favors

Spotting Rival 20 Pounds In Pa Stribling's Miami Fight Program, Walker Takes Lead In Last Two Rounds

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN STADIUM, MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 25. (AP) — Mickey Walker, the black-haired fighting Irishman who holds the world's middleweight crown, spotted Johnny Risko nearly 30 pounds tonight and handed the Cleveland heavyweight a beating in 10 bruising rounds in the feature bout of "Pa" Stribling's elaborate fistic festival under the palms.

Due chiefly to a furious finish in the last two rounds, in which he punched roly-poly Johnny groggy with vicious left hooks to the head and body, Mickey received the unanimous decision of the three Miami judges.

Risko, weighing 194 pounds to Walker's 165 1-2, made his big advantage in poundage useful as he mauled Walker throughout the first half of the fight, but Johnny tired and was a mark at the finish for Mickey's sharpshooting left.

Walker looked the more battle-scared due to a nasty gash over his left eye, received when Johnny connected with a wild right in the sixth round, but Mickey was much the fresher and better fighter at the finish.

Something like 20,000 customers turned out for the heavyweight show. The entire setting was in sharp contrast to the more glamorous days of Florida's fistic festivals, but Promoter Stribling, in spite of the weather and an arena less than half filled, appeared to have come out with a slight profit.

The bout was a toss-up for the first eight rounds but Walker won the last two by convincing margins to have an edge of six to four on the Associated Press score-card.

Tech Matadors Defeat University Of New Mexico, 29 to 24, To End First Series; Play Miners Next

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Feb. 25.—The Matador cagers of Texas Tech, Lubbock, turned the tables on the University of New Mexico Lobos here tonight and won a 29 to 24 victory to wind up the first athletic series between the two schools.

Tech led, 17 to 6, at the half, but the Lobos attemped a rally in the last period that narrowed the margin of superiority. At one time the Matadors were leading, 13 to 0, due to the hot shooting of Captain Clarence Hodges and Center Leon Fisher.

From here the Matadors go to El Paso where they end their 1931 schedule in a pair of games against the Texas School of Mines quintet Friday and Saturday nights.

INDIANS SIGN BLANKENSHIP

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 25. (AP) — Ted Blankenship, former Chicago White Sox pitcher, was signed as a free agent today by the San Antonio Texas League club.

Alabama Track Star Sets New 70-Yard Hurdle Mark

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (AP) Ray Conger, until a few days ago America's premier miler, came back to the track wars tonight with all his old time last-lap kick to win the 1,000-yard run in the national championships from an international field. The time was 2:14 1-10, only average.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (AP) — Percy Beard, a slow spoken but fast stepping youngster from Alabama Poly, set a new world's indoor record for the 70-yard high hurdles tonight of 8 5-10 seconds in defeating a classy field in the national indoor championships.

Revivals of old ballets are popular in London this winter.

Dalhart Wins Over Bulldog

Wolves Nose Out Plainview, 25-24, In Even Game; Meet Tonight In Championship Contest

PLAINVIEW, Feb. 25. (Special)—The Dalhart Wolves won the second game of the bi-district basketball championship play-off here tonight, defeating the Plainview Bulldogs, winners of the first game, 25 to 24, in one of the closest matches seen this season. Both sides fought furiously throughout, with first one and then the other in the lead.

The teams meet tonight in the final game to decide which team shall represent Districts 1 and 2 in the Texas Interscholastic league meet.

The box score:

PLAINVIEW	FG	FT	PF	TP

Van Wie Loses First Round To M. Bennett

ORMOND BEACH, Fla., Feb. 25. (AP)—Virginia Van Wie, sterling Chicago golfer, met the medalist jinx in the first round of the South Atlantic tournament here today and fell before the fine stroking of Marion Bennett, New Britain, Conn., one up.

Five members of the English team qualified in the championship flight yesterday, but today all were eliminated except Diana Fishwick, the leader, and Kathyleen Garnham.

More than 11,000 American tractors were imported into Canada last year.

For Ginger's Sake

all over. She is, too, I know she is. I can't spoil it— not tonight—it would spoil it for her, too. Tonight I'll let myself go—just a little—and tomorrow I'll be careful."

"When you get them all nicely thought out in good order," interrupted Ginger, "I will give you a free bus ride to the Jaw de Veever for them. And very few thoughts are worth as much as two bits."

"You can have them for nothing," he said, moving closer to her, and lifting her silken cape so that his arm could lie against hers beneath it. "I was just thinking that tomorrow and every day I am a poor little tramp artist, working for my daily bread and no jam on it. But tonight I am a prince in my own grade and if the beautiful [illegible] will let me ride to the [illegible] heaven with her—"

"Now how I will love to go." Ginger's breath fluttered, half [illegible]ing in her throat. "And you [illegible] have to take the long ride [illegible] with the princess if you get [illegible] of her," she said, laughing, [illegible]kily, "because Iry Ford will [illegible] you for reduced rates."

Ginger's smile was misty sweet. [illegible]otten were the cares, the sor- the surprises and the hard which had infested the day's [illegible]rations. Remembered only was [illegible]leased surprise that had come [illegible] Bard's gray eyes at sight of [illegible] the pressure of his lips upon [illegible] hand.

What did she care whether Pietro really understood the intricacies of [illegible]hetti il duce? What matter if [illegible]lo tipped over the dancing [illegible]sts and spattered their evening attire with bullion? If the booming [illegible] of the stout-lunged Benito [illegible]ttered the unaccustomed ear- [illegible]drums of the Middle West with his [illegible]-rending melodic Italian?

Joie de Vivre was hers. And Bard's with her.

When she led him to the corner table where Pat and Eddy Jackson impatiently awaited their coming, her eyes, her smiles, her very voice rang in triumph.

"It is a success," she announced joyously. "I don't care what happens from this on. I don't care if the food is burned, if the dance floor caves in beneath us, if we all get a puncture of the inner ear from our imported music—it is a success, and I am satisfied."

If Ginger's sole aim had been to create a sensation, not even her own fond fancies could have conjured up a greater triumph. To import a French artist for her decorations had been revolutionary. The addition of three "Eye-talians" in one sweeping cosmopolitan gesture was cataclysmic.

Mrs. Thrush felt itself tottering on the foundations of its 100 per cent Americanism. All day long the telephones at Doorndee and Mill [illegible] had rung with belated demands for reservations but Ginger and her assisting allies stood upon the laws of the club with a steadfastness that would have put mere Medes and Persians to shame.

"The club says thus and so," The voice on the telephone was connected with nothing but the enforcement. That Ginger herself was the club and all its rules had nothing to do with the case. In fact, even to Ginger, the club had already evolved from its dawn of shadowy abstraction and assumed the solid proportions of personality.

Along the mile and a half of wood lane that led from the state highway to the big gate of the Junior Country Club, cars were parked solidly, headlight to bumper, on either side of the road.

There were cars loaded to the spring leaves with the unwanted and the inadmissible. Billy Band's milk truck was there, with anoisy crowd from the waterworks section; Guy Sloan's ice wagon, taxed to its last hundredweight; and Milt Avery's Wood and Coal.

But there were other cars, too, the smart roadsters, the trim sedans, the handsome limousines of those rendered ineligible for admission by the divine act of parentage alone. Curiously had chauffered them out the river road that soft spring night.

And more than once during the evening—this would have infuriated Ginger had she but known—Phil and Mr. Tolliver drove slowly down that way in Phil's big car.

The gates to the clubhouse grounds were rigidly kept by Gar Haven, the postman, and Walter Main, the schoolhouse janitor. They had volunteered their services at the suggestion of their friend Iry Ford, who assured them the evening's entertainment, even from without, would be well worth the labor.

Irby Ford, with his unquestioned right of admission, was much in evidence, and when every reservation had been taken up and transportation was temporarily at a standstill, he and Ben Brooks made their way under the gay fastoon of colored lanterns to hold pleasant and critical converse with their friends, the Keepers of the Gates.

And whenever the eruptions of Italian opera rent the mild air of the early spring evening, the applause from without was louder and more prolonged than that from within, echoing and re-echoing the full mile and a half of wood lane.

Cotton — Cotton Trade Is Somewhat Quieter; Livestock — More Activity In Wednesday Market; Grain — Corn Is Slightly Higher Wednesday

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 25. (AP)—After a period of active trading during the first hour of today's session the cotton market ruled somewhat quieter, with Liverpool showing a sharp upturn and reporting spot sales of 10,000 bales, the market here opened higher and gained 16 to 18 points in early trading. Additional notices for the tender of 6,000 bales on March deliveries were issued in the early morning but had no perceptible effect on the market.

Later prices turned reactionary owing to liquidation and selling by professionals to force a reaction and prices eased off 16 to 21 points from the highs. The market rallied about 5 points in the early afternoon on covering but eased off again with stocks in the late trading, making new lows 23 to 26 points under the early highs and closed at or near the lowest with the general market steady and showing net losses for the day of 6 to 9 points.

Liverpool came in 11 to 12 points better than due and private cables said the continent and Bombay bought Manchester cabled that there were fair cloth sales to India and moderate business with the continent and South America. First trades here showed gains of 16 to 18 points with May at 11.65 and October at 12.14. Later the first hour the market reacted on considerable realizing and liquidation.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (AP)—A further advance promoted by firmness in Liverpool and Alexandria was followed by reactions in cotton today under realizing which seemed to be coupled with some southern and local selling. May contracts, after advancing to 11.65 at the start or 185 points above the low record of last December, eased off to 11.40 in the late trading and closed at 11.41. The general market closed steady at net declines of 4 to 7 points.

There was considerable selling of May by brokers credited with operating for one of the interests mentioned in connection with the stopping of March notices yesterday, while there also seemed to be a little more selling by the South. Reactionary selling based on the extent of recent advances, may have been encouraged by rumors that Japanese mills were refusing to follow the advance, and prices worked off during the balance of the day. The lowest levels were reached in the late trading with March selling at 11.17 and October at 11.92 or about 20 to 25 opints below the high prices of the morning. Closing quotations were within a point or two of the lowest.

A few additional March notices were issued at the opening, representing about 5,600 bales but appeared to be without much effect on the market as there was very little change in differences between March and later deliveries.

afternoon, Mrs. Allen said, he appeared at Tanner's, armed with a rifle, asked for a drink of water and inquired who was there. She told him Tanner was at the hog pen. He went in that direction, she said, and in a few minutes she heard the shot.

Drives Westward

After the shooting he went to the home of his father, a half-mile from Tanner's, made no statement as to what had happened, but immediately left with his brother, driving west.

It was said here tonight that trouble between Tanner and the man was of long standing. Tanner had lived in Stonewall county 40 years, and his 1,000-acre farm is one of the finest in this section. In his early days he was an outstanding citizen. Then there was a period in which he had trouble with the law. For the past few years, however, he had been living quietly on his farm.

The victim leaves his wife, the son, Sidney and two daughters, all living in Dallas. Sidney, employed in a Dallas bank, came to his father's farm two weeks ago on his vacation.

TWO MEN BURNED

WELLINGTON, Kas., Feb. 25. (AP)—Two men were burned and damage estimated at between $50,000 and $60,000 resulted from an explosion late this afternoon in the Etna Milling company's Larabee mill here. Fire started by the explosion was out of control late today.

A new Hungarian petroleum refinery in Budapest is said to be one of the largest and most modern in Europe.

Professional And Other Traders Get Palatable Profits From Stock Mart

BY JOHN L. COOLEY
Associated Press Financial Writer.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (AP)—Professional and other traders shook palatable profits out of the stock market today, leaving quotations 1 to 5 points lower.

Just to keep their hands in, the bulls gave the merchandising issues a turn, but the strength in that group was generally ignored elsewhere. Particularly soft were the amusements and the handful of erratic issues which usually show extreme changes whatever the trend. Trading remained active, although the turnover of 4,400,000 shares was 900,000 under yesterday's.

Domestic bonds were unsteady, with a recurrence of weakness in United States governments. Grains showed considerable firmness, while bar silver and cotton sagged.

Several attempts at rallies cropped up during the day's share trading, but the market was in a profit-taking mood and the occasional sallies failed to get far. General Motors, Radio, General Electric and Consolidated Gas, among others, worked to new highs for the year and U. S. Steel duplicated its top before realizing finally turned prices definitely lower. The strong tone of the chain stocks at the close induced some short covering and final quotations were above the day's lows.

Hawkins Trial

jury possibly will receive the case late Thursday.

Two Witnesses New

Two new witnesses, who did not appear at the first trial when Hawkins was sentenced to 50 years in the state penitentiary, took the stand today. They were Walter Walker, a son of the dead man, and John Orand, of Lampasas but formerly a farmer living near the Walker place.

Young Walker was the first defense witness and testified that he had been forced to leave his home when about 15 years old because he could not get along with his father. He told from the stand of a number of incidents of trouble with his father after he had married. The younger Walker married a stepsister of Hawkins. On the stand for more than an hour, Walker also related incidents of trouble between his father and tenants.

Had Been Threatened

Orand took the stand after Walker and testified to an occasion when his younger brother and nephew had trouble with Walker. He declared that Walker had also threatened to kill him (Orand) and had drawn a gun on him.

Defense attorneys next put G. M. Bryan, of Knox City and formerly a tennant of Walker's on the stand Bryan told of an alleged attempt on the part of Walker to shoot his 15-year-old son. Walker was said to have gone to Bryan's house and threatened the father, saying also several times that he wanted to kill the "damn boy." Bryan said this occurred in the summer of 1917 and that he moved his family from the farm the following day. Mrs. Bryan was the last witness to go on the stand at the forenoon session.

Between 400 and 500 spectators crowded the courtroom here today, and a large part of them were from Crosby county, where the shooting occurred this afternoon of October 28, 1929.

State rested its case Tuesday night.

These shots he said were fired high and inside the building.

County Attorney Joe H. Jones asked Hill on cross examination to explain why he had a black mask and pistol in his possession when arrested in El Paso. Hill answered that the clothing he was wearing when arrested he had borrowed from a soldier and if they found a mask in his pocket it belonged to the owner of the clothes. He said the pistol was his and he carried it because he planned going into Mexico and thought he might need it.

Livestock

MIDDLEWESTERN LIVESTOCK

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 25. (AP)—Cattle trade was more active with better fed steers and yearlings at some centers quoted strong to slightly higher. Chicago had a top of 11.00 on choice 1,382 lb. steers while at Kansas City good to choice 1,402 lb. beeves brought 9.25. Receipts were estimated at 27,000.

Lighter weight hogs, 230 lbs. and down, found a slow demand at generally steady to 15c lower rates while heavier weights ruled steady to 15c higher. The top of 7.35 was paid at Chicago and St. Louis for choice 150-230 lb. averages. Heavy butchers are materially higher than the low spot last week when 300-350 lb. weights at some centers had to sell under 6.00. Offerings were around 87,200.

The sheep supply numbered around 50,000. A few markets reported slight upturns on fat lambs but values for the most part were steady. Shippers and city butchers in Chicago purchased choice lambs up to 9.00 and Omaha had a shipper top of 8.50.

Minstrel

tage. Frank Stone was encored for his accordian solo, "Washington Lee Swing" and the girls' chorus "I Still Get A Thrill" closed the first part.

The novelty numbers were interspersed with a number of new gags and dialogues between the interlocutor and various members of the minstrel.

During the intermission P. W. Cawthon, coach, was introduced and after introductory remarks he presented a varsity trophy to J. Maltby as the hardest working athlete on the team during the past season and Whacker Barton and Toby Greer were two outstanding freshmen men, presented with a trophy as the James H. Dallas "T" club president, presented Miss Gail Quinlan with a five-pound box of candy as award for Las Chaparritas club members having sold the greatest number of tickets for the minstrel. Misses Johnnye Gilkerson and Zella Riegel were each presented a basket of flowers as appreciation from the club for their work in the minstrel.

"Headin' For Better Times," a number played by Stone's Collegian opened the second part of the program, and a waltz clog by Mildred Price, Frances Gunn and Harold Bettersworth, a song and clog, "Ding Dong Daddy" by Jack Flowers and Bettersworth and solo "St. Louis Blues" by William Sewell followed. A number of girls appeared in a clogging skit; Lewis Walker tap danced and the grand finale, 'Stein Song" completed the program. The evening closed with the singing of the Matador song by the chorus and audience.

Characters in the cast included: Dr. W. A. Jackson, interlocutor: End Men: Harold Bettersworth, Mose Witherspoon, Walter Burns, Tedo Hazelwood, Jack Flowers, Marlin Minter, Wilson Holden, Jack Durham, William Sewell and Curtis Allen.

Those in the circle: Charley Brown, Raymond Mitchell, Mack McCrory, Matt Hitchcock, John Phillips, Henry Murphy, A. Loughridge, Jay Maltby, Dick Bond, Johnny Cook, Tom Abraham, J. W. Timmons, Hogue Williams and Matt Seymour.

Those in the clogging chorus were Virginia Bacon, Catherine Jameson, Louise Garrison, Leverne Garrison, Frances Gunn, Lois Templeton, Mildred Price, Faye Connel, Mary Frances Gale, Dorothy Wilson, Eva Doak, and Earnestine Reynolds.

COMMITTEE ADJOURNS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—The special house ways and means subcommittee on oil imports limitations adjourned late today without acting and will meet again early tomorrow.

MEYER CONFIRMED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—The long-contested nomination of Eugene Meyer of New York to be governor of the federal reserve board was confirmed by the senate today, 72 to 11.

Grain

FORT WORTH GRAIN

FORT WORTH, Feb. 25. (AP)—Corn was slightly higher while sorghums sagged on the cash grain market today. Demand continued fair for the light offerings. Estimated receipts included: Wheat, 27 cars; corn, 8; oats, 1; barley, 1, and sorghums, 3.

Quotations ranged as follows, basis carloads delivered Texas common points, freight paid.

Wheat, No. 1 hard of any protein 78@80 1-2c.

Corn, No. 2 mixed 69 1-2@70 1-2c; No. 2 white 72 1-2@73 1-2c; No. 2 yellow 72@73c.

Oats, No. 2 red 42 1-2@43 1-2c (No. 3 white delivered Texas group one, same price.)

Sorghums, No. 2 milo per 100 lbs. 1.19@1.21; No. 2 kaffir 1.16@1.18.

Cane seed, bulk country run red top per 100 lbs., according to type, germination, origin and clean-out 2.35@2.75.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Feb. 25. (AP)—Wheat and corn scored material advances today, helped by better export call for North American wheat and by improved shipping demand here for corn. Europe took about 1,000,000 bushels of wheat from North America. Shippers' purchases of corn in Chicago were of decidedly larger volume than of late.

Wheat closed firm, unchanged to 1 1-4 cents higher, corn 1-2 to 1 1-8 cents up, oats advanced 1-8 to 3-8 and provisions at a rise of 5 to 25 cents.

The 1,000,000 bushels of North American wheat reported as bought for Europe included purchases today and yesterday. Accompanying firmness of the Winnipeg market was in the face of downturns in Liverpool wheat quotations. Numerous additional export bids were said to have been received at Winnipeg, but at prices just below the market.

The corn market gave evidence of having been over-sold. Rural offerings were scant, and primary receipts totaled but 741,000 bushels, compared with 1,208,000 a week ago, and 1,081,000 at this time last year. Oats sympathized with upturns in corn and wheat.

Provisions reflected advances in hog values.

Would Be Submitted

The resolution would be submitted to a vote of the people November 3.

The senate unanimously passed the house bill making kidnaping a capital offense after amending it so the death penalty could not be assessed if the kidnaping victim should be returned without injury. The minimum sentence would be five years. The bill was introduced by Representative Petsch of Fredericksburg. The sentence also passed the house bill offered by Representative De Wolfe of Goldthwaite, making it a felony to threaten one's life.

A resolution was introduced in the house criticising the state affairs committee for its rule providing for executive sessions, from which even other members of the house are excluded, when a vote is being taken on a bill. The resolution was referred to the commitee on rules. The state affairs commottee had suspended its rule on at least two occasions.

Continue Hearing

The hearing on the oil divorcing bill was continued until next Wednesday because certain amendments had been made concerning which those planning to discuss the bill had not been advised. The most important of these changes was one proposing that gas pipe lines be made common purchasers, as oil pipe lines are at present.

The purpose of the bill is to divorce the retail end of the oil industry from the producing, distributing and refining ends.

The public utilities regulation hearing was continued and still was not finished.

ed at grape and fruit concentrate manufacturers.

Mrs. Mabel Willebrandt, counsel for one of the manufacturers of grape concentrate, has told the Wickersham commission this sentence in the Volstead act was the ground for legal immunity claimed by the grape industry.

Senator Sheppard also disclosed he was preparing additional measures aimed at affirmative action against fruit concentrate manufacturers.

It appeared likely tonight, however, that all prohibition proposals would go over until next session with adjournment just a week away.

The sentence in the Volstead act which Sheppard proposed to strike out says:

"The penalties provided in this act against the manufacture of liquor without a permit shall not apply to a person for manufacturing non-intoxicating cider and fruit juices exclusively for use in his home, but such cider and fruit juices shall not be sold or delivered except to persons having permits to manufacture vinegar."

Sheppard said he never had construed the sentence to permit the manufacture of intoxicating cider and fruit juices in the home.

"Inasmuch as great difference of opinion prevails as to the meaning of this sentence, however," he added, "I am introducing a bill to eliminate it in order to remove any possible source of controversy."

a petition asking that the Waco man be rejected. Objection to Baldwin was made on the grounds that he would not work with the board of education unless he shoid be able to dominate it. His oppbnents also referred to his editorials censuring the legislature and some of its members. Charles E. Coombes of Stamford, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, said Baldwin had not been fair to West Texas.

Baldwin was the second appointee to be rejected by the senate, the other being Fred Horton, another newspaper man of Greenville, who likewise was appointed by former Governor Moody. Horton was appointed to the prison board.

Governor Sterling said today he had decided on some one to replace Baldwin and would announce his appointee within a day or two.

In Campus "Shipwreck"

Immodest and indecent? These pretty co-eds at Southwestern University, Memphis, Tenn., don't think so, for they wore this attire to a recent "Shipwreck Party" on the campus—a dance which brought charges from several Memphis pastors that girls "wore shorts that came just below the hips, and pajamas." Just to prove how modest they are, the girls refused to give their names.

Murder Mystery

to take a factory job.

The motive for the crime, Prosecutor Abe J. David said, probably lay in Frazer's diminishing resources. David expressed belief the woman, knowing Frazer's money was gone, wanted to break off their affair, and that Frazer discovered her intention.

On February 18, Jensen said, Frazer came to his home in his automobile and called him outside.

"Meet the girl friend," he was quoted as saying.

Cold In Death

As Jensen reached out to grasp a hand cold in death, Frazer is alleged to have said he killed the woman and would slay himself.

According to Jensen's account he and Frazer drove to Iselin, where Frazer left the car and told his cousin to listen for a suicidal shot. He returned, said he had lost his nerve and asked Jensen to shoot him.

Jensen refused and they drove back to Rahway to Frazer's mother's home, leaving the robe-covered body outside in the car.

Jensen went to sleep and when he awoke Frazer and the car were gone, but there was a note asking him to get some money and take it to a hotel in Raleigh.

Jensen got the money and took it to Raleigh last Friday.

"What did you do with the body?" he asked.

"Never mind, you know too much already," he said Frazer replied.

Then Jensen came back to Rahway and told his story to police.

The manner of Mrs. Stader's death has not been determined.

Early Agreement On "Lame Duck" Proposal Predicted

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—An early agreement on the proposed constitutional amendment to abolish the last, or "lame duck," session of congress was predicted tonight as congressional conferees attempted to adjust differences between the house and senate.

It was sent to conference today when the senate rejected the Gifford substitute to the Norris resolution which was adopted overwhelmingly last night by the house. The prosposal by Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, has been approved six times by the senate.

The total farm income for 1930 is expected by the department of agriculture to be about $9,950,000,000.

Employes Wish To Buy World

Three Thousand Workers On New York Newspaper Would Make Purchase; "Better Offer" Made By Block

BY DEMING SEYMOUR

NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (AP)—Employes of the New York World—3,000 of them, their spokesman said—raised a united protest in surrogate's court today against sale of the Scripps-Howard interests of the newspaper on which they earn their livelihood.

So Paul Block, publisher of seven newspapers from Frooklyn to Los Angeles, made what he called "a better offer" than that of Roy Howard and his group, and announced if the three sons of Joseph Pulitzer would sell the New York World to him he would give the employes 45 days in which to buy it from him at the same terms.

Delays Decision

And Surrogate James A. Foley deferred until tomorrow morning or later his decision as to whether it is legally possible, under the rigid Pulitzed will, for the sons to dispose of the Morning, Evening and Sunday World.

What began late yesterday as a perfunctory action to merge the World papers with the New York Telegram and supposed to unite all in one evening newspaper to be called the World-Telegram, becamg today an impassioned hearing at which the men who work on the World pleaded for a chance to continue on a cooperative basis a newspaper "with traditions worth preserving—the traditions of Joseph Pulitzer."

Would Pay Cash

It culminated in a written offer by Mr. Block to Herbert, Joseph and Ralph Pulitzer, as trustees of their father's estate, in which he proposed that he buy the paper, pay cash for it, and give the employes a month and a half to acquire it from him.

The brothers may conseder the offer if Judge Foley rules the paper is salable. If they decide to accept it they may submit a contract for a sale to the surrogate for his approval.

Block and his attorney, Max D. Steuer, did not say how much they offered for the World papers. The Scripps-Howard papers had offered $5,000,000—two million of it conditional on profits to be earned by the World-Telegram.

It was deemed possible that disposal of the Worlds, if approved by the surrogate, might develop into a bidding scramble in which new figures might appear, for Herbert Baynard Swope, former executive editor of the World, indicated today a group which he heads would be interested in the papers.

Mr. Howard, as chairman of the board of Scripps-Howard and president of the New York Telegram, made no statement after today's development as to the possible effect of today's turn of events upon the offer made by his group an offer which he said yesterday was the highest price ever tendered for the intangible assets of a newspaper.

Uprising Gains.

The employes' uprising began at midnight this morning and gained rapidly a momentum which carried it into court and into the forefront of the negotiations.

Rumors the World was losing money and was on the market have pervaded newspaper circles in New York some months, but first intimation of action came to employes of the paper, their counsel told Surrogate Foley today, in a city news association bulletin Tuesday afternoon.

At midnight they gathered, elected City Editor James Barrett of the Morning World as their spokesman, and drew up a petition to Surrogate Foley, asking him not to allow the sale of the World.

Famous Names Included.

In their ranks were some names famous along Park Row. Three of them — Lindsay Denison, George Buchanan Fife and Martin Green —are veterans of the most famous rewrite quartet that ever ground out glistening copy for a newspaper. Their fourth comrade, long since a graduate from their ranks, was Irvin S. Cobb.

The employes worked out a plan of their own to take over the World papers, and sold hypothetical stock at $200 a share. Purchase of one share in the name of every employe was pledged — and that made, on paper, $600,000.

Men who had pounded beats and covered page one stories for years for the World rustled around town and got substantial citizens out of bed to enlist their support. The employes' committee gathered this morning, totalled the fruits of their skirmishing, and calculated pledges of $2,000,000.

Davis Denies Bribe Charge

Pennsylvania Republican On Stand In Investigation Of $100,000 Donation From Domestic Sugar Company

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—Senator Davis, Republican of Pennsylvania told the senate lobby committee today that if the reports that a senator had received $100,000 from a domestic sugar company during consideration of the tariff bill were directed at him, "it is a contemptible lie."

Davis read a prepared statement after taking the stand. It said:

"If the charges which were read into the congressional record yesterday from a metropolitan newspaper refer to me, I most emphatically state that I never lobbied for or against any sugar tariff measure; that I have never spoken to anybody in congress or any one in government service about putting a duty on sugar; that I never received any money or anything of value for any such alleged service.

Contemptible Lie

"It is a contemptible lie, and I am glad that it is out in the open, so that the matter can be thoroughly investigated and the falsehood killed once for all.

"The charge is a serious one. The senate and the public are entitled to promptly know al the facts; to condemn if true; to absolve if untrue.

"Congress will soon adjourn. I earnestly urge you in behalf of the citizens of the state of Pennsylvania, our nation, my family, and myself, to fully inquire into the accusation, and make your conclusions public before the adjournment of this congress."

All members of the committee were present except Senator Borah, of Idaho.

In addition to Caraway, they were Senators Walsh, Democrat, Montana; Blaine, Republican, Wisconsin, and Robinson, Republican, Indiana.

Waives Immunity

Davis added to his prepared statement the assertion that he would waive all rights of senatorial immunity.

Caraway began immediately to question him, asking him if he knew B. G. Dahlberg, president of the Celotex company.

Davis said he knew him in a business way, that he held stock in the company worth from $80,000 to $100,000.

He bought the stock, Davis said, from a fellow Welshman.

Questioned by Caraway, he said he had never discussed the sugar tariff with Dahlberg, could not tell whether his company wanted a high or a low rate, and did not even know the rate on sugar.

Davis said as a result of "rumblings," last year, he had asked the Nye committee to run them down.

Denies Donation

He denied he had accepted a campaign contribution from Dahlberg.

"If he had given it to me, I would have accepted it in public," Davis added.

After the brief examination of Davis, the committee adjourned. The senator informed Caraway that Mr. Dahlberg was in the room but the chairman replied the committee would decide later on its procedure.

After the committee broke up, Caraway said the investigation was not ended. He said he would consult with members of the campaign funds committee, which first advanced the reports of the sugar transaction, before determining the next step.

Einstein Regards Visit To California His Greatest Expedition Into Space

By WALTER B. CLAUSEN

PASADENA, Cal., Feb. 24. (AP)—Albert Einstein regards his visit to California as the greatest expedition into space and into matter he has ever taken. He expressed this thought today at a luncheon given at the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce.

"Let me souchsafe my thanks to the extra-ordinary group of scholars in the field of physics and astronomy who have accorded me glimpses of their work," said the German professor.

"They have conducted me not only into the world of atoms and crystals but also to the surface of the sun and into the uttermost depths of space.

"There I saw worlds which are flying away from us with incomprehensible rapidity in spite of the fact that their inhabitants do not know us well enough to justify any such action.

"In these numerous excursions to the surface of the sun, I suffered no scorching, thanks to the careful piloting of Dr. St. John and Dr. Walter S. Adams—except possible a few slight scorchings of my tongue, which may be atributed, perhaps to the all-too-quick and unthinking venturing of my opinions.

"Likewise in equal measure, let me express my gratitude to Mr. Arthur Fleming and Dr. R. A. Millikan, who like two fire shouting dragons have stood guard over me, against the catechizing of journalists and the effusive demonstrations of interest on the part of many other friendly contemporaries.

"Pasadena and Southern California will always remain among by happiest recollections."

Two Suspects Face Charges

Women Accused Of Murder Of Wealthy Arizona Lumberman; Verdict Says Death Caused By Poison

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 25. (AP)—Two women were accused of murder today in the poison death of August Lindstrom, 81, once wealthy Arizona lumberman, February 9.

Mrs. Esther Carlson, 61, Lindstrom's former housekeeper in Los Angeles suburb, and Mrs. Anna Erickson, 42, a neighbor, were charged with murder by the district attorney, following the coroner's jury verdict that the lumberman had died from poison "administered with homicidal intent by a person or persons unknown." The jury recommended the women be held.

To Probe Deaths

Deputy District Attorney George Stahlman said he planned to send investigators to Hemet, Cal., today to check up on the deaths of Mrs. Carlson's husband and of A. Ahlzen, 80. Ahlzen, Stahlman was informed, died in the Carlson home there nine years ago, presumably of heart disease, after stimulative tablets containing poison had been prescribed for him. Carlson died a year later, with the cause of death given as cancer.

Deputy Sheriff Harry Brewster testified at the Lindstrom inquest he had found an empty poison bottle in a sewing bag belonging to Mrs. Carlson and she told him she had not opened the bag since she left Hemet in 1925.

Body Exhumed

Lindstrom's body was exhumed a week ago at Williams, Ariz. At the request of a son, Peter Lindstrom, Chicago meat packer, who said he found Mrs. Carlson had withdrawn $2,000 from a point bank account held with his father. Examination disclosed poison in the body. The death certificate showed he had died of heart disease.

Mrs. Erickson, who is recovering from poisoning, testified she became violently ill a week after Lindstrom's death when she drank a cup of coffee prepared by Mrs. Carlson.

Extension Class In Public Speaking Meets Last Night

A public speaking class organized by the extension division of Texas Technological college for business men and women met Wednesday night in room 202 of the college administration building.

The class was formed last Wednesday night and will meet once each week for 11 weeks.

The course includes a study of the principles of speech, with practical training on subjects of every day use. It is intended for those who wish training in the art of getting across their ideas to an audience, in an effective and easy manner. Those who enroll may do so for college credit, or for practical and cultural benefit only.

Miss Anna Jo Pendleton, professor of speech at the college, is the instructor.

Makes Address On Prohibition

Member Of Wickersham Commission Says Immense Revenue Of Bootleggers Endangers Social Peace, Security

NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (AP)—Henry W. Anderson, Richmond, Va., member of the Wickersham commission on law observance and enforcement, declared today that immense revenues of bootleggers threaten this country's social peace and security.

Anderson, addressing the New York Merchants' association, referred to prohibition as "the highly emotional question." He emphasized he was speaking neither for or against national phoribition.

"At a former period in our history" he said, "when the strain upon our social and political structure was much less severe than it is today, the prolonged agitation of the inflammable question of slavery under intemperate leadership on both sides threw us into an unnecessary war. So today, in the face of more dangerous conditions, the continued agitation of this highly emotional question in a spirit of intolerance may lead to disastrous consequences."

Anderson said the question challenges wets and drys, notherners and southerners, cities and rural communities, to find a solution "through understanding born of knowledge and faith born of love of our common country." He warned that the problem must be approached "in a broad spirit of tolerance."

Discovery Of Terrific New Speed In Heavenly Bodies Announced Yesterday

BY F. B. COLTON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP) — Discovery of a new terrific speed among heavenly bodies was announced today by the Carnegie institution of Washington.

The faintest discovered island universe, or nebula, far out in space, apparently is rushing away from the earth at the breath-taking speed of 11,000 miles a second, sixty per cent faster than any nebula previously observed.

The discovery was made by Dr. Milton L. Humason of the Carnegie institution's observatory at Mount Wilson, California.

The speed of this nebula exceeds that of any other known nebula roughly as much as a fast express train exceeds the speed of a slow freight.

Dr. Humason's discovery may have a bearing on Dr. Albert Einstein's studies of the nature of the universe. Einstein has been studying at Mount Wilson during his stay in California.

The speed of the nebula was calculated by photographing the spectrum of the light it gave off, and observing the "red shift" which is the amount the spectrum lines shifted toward the red, or long wavelength end of the spectrum. Measuring the exact amount the lines were out of position as compared with a normal spectrum, and knowing the speed of light, the astronomers could figure the speed of the nebula.

The nebula is estimated to be 120 million light years away from the earth, or 120 million times the distance light would travel in a year. Light travels approximately 186,000 miles in one second.

A special short-focus lens was used with the 100-inch telescope at Mount Wilson to photograph the spectrum of the nebula.

One Office Of $10,000,000 Corporation At San Angelo

SAN ANGELO, Feb. 25. (AP) — The Apollo Oil Co., a Delaware corporation recently organized with $10,000,000 capitalization, will maintain one of its three operating offices in San Angelo, it was announced here Tuesday by George A. Henshaw Jr., president and principal organizer. The other offices have been opened at Chicago and Oklahoma City.

Wealthy middle west bankers and realtor, the majority Chicagoans, are the Appolo's largest stockholders.

Henshaw assigned to the new firm royalties and leases in the O'Brien and Shipley producing areas in West Texas, and other producing leases in the Taylor-Link field of Pecos county, leases in Crockett county and royalties in Reagan and Upton counties.

NEW ORLEANS CARNIVAL CROWDS GIVE OLD GOLD BIG VOTE

By ROBERT RIPLEY, Himself

Creator of "Believe It or Not"

" 'Believe it or not!' You can take any group of ten or more smokers. Let them smoke the four leading cigarettes, with the names covered up. And the majority will pick out OLD GOLDS as the smoothest and best cigarette.

"I proved this again with 1241 smokers in New Orleans the other day. The score was OLD GOLD, 440; Brand X, 286; Brand Y, 264; Brand Z, 251. This test hasn't failed yet, and I've made it in 15 cities. The reason is: Better tobaccos, genuinely easier on your throat. Believe it or not that's why O. Gs. win."

OFFICIAL BOX-SCORE

As audited by Certified Public Accountant

"I hereby certify that the following is a true and complete audit of the test of the four leading cigarettes, conducted by Robert Ripley, in New Orleans."
