Mobile Home Park Plans Sewer System

Carl C. Krueger, Jr., and John Lewis, who are developing a 640-unit mobile home park just north of here, plan to equip it with a complete sewer system.

In a letter to Mayor Delmar R. Hiller and the City Council, Krueger stated:

"We propose to construct a lift station and force main to deliver the sewage to the city of Rockport gravity system at our cost.

"After the system is completed, we will either continue to operate and maintain the system or dedicate it to the city of Rockport, whichever the city desires.

"Since we are in the process of final planning, your early reply would be greatly appreciated."

The matter was considered by the City Council this week. During the discussion, the mayor stated that plans are nearing completion for doubling the present capacity of the city sewage treatment plant, increasing its capacity from 500,000 gallons per day to 1,000,000 gallons.

When this expansion is completed, the mayor indicated, the city probably will approve such requests as that made by Krueger and Lewis. For one thing, Hiller pointed out, the city will benefit from the sewer revenues from such operations.

Krueger and Lewis have named their mobile home development Lakewood and plan accommodations for 500 mobile homes and 140 trailers. The 110-acre tract is located on Highway 35, just north of Aransas County Airport. Although situated less than a mile from both Copano and Aransas Bays, the unique site contains a 26-acre fresh water lake, heavily wooded, rolling hills and some of the highest elevations in the county.

When completed, the park will feature a swimming pool, lakeside recreation building, underground facilities and a marina facility on Copano Bay.

Engineering and sight planning for the development is being done by Urban Engineering of Corpus Christi.

Local Woman Sister Of 1943 Air Victim

Mrs. Sue Dexter of Holiday Beach is a sister of a member of the crew of an American B-24 bomber which was shot down by the Japanese in 1943. Her brother, Wendell P. Rawson, was navigator of the ill-fated plane.

The airman were aboard the bomber on Dec. 1, 1943, when it crashed in an isolated area of New Guinea's jungle. Hope for finding the crew members was abandoned after several unsuccessful search efforts in the late 1940's.

Last year, however, a team of American and Australian officials discovered the decayed remains of the aircraft and determined it was the long missing plane.

On Tuesday of this week the crew members were laid to rest with full military honors at Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery in St. Louis. Mrs. Dexter attended the services and described them as "very impressive."

Mrs. Dexter and her brother were the only children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Rawson. They were born and raised in Minneapolis, Minn. Both children graduated from West High School in Minneapolis. Wendell worked for a while for the First National Bank in Minneapolis and joined the Army Air Corps (as it was called then) in March of 1942.

Mrs. Dexter enlisted in the WAVES in December of 1943 "mainly because my brother recommended this as a fine branch of the service for women." The last time Mrs. Dexter saw her brother alive was in August of 1943.

Traffic Conditions To Be Reviewed

At the suggestion of Alderman Mrs. J. W. "Tony" Harden, the city plans to make a thorough study of traffic conditions throughout the city and then make recommendations for better enforcement of the laws prohibiting speeding, reckless driving, improper operation of a car and illegal parking.

It was indicated that particular attention will be paid to the way motorists drive on Enterprise and Omohundro in the area of the high school, and also in the area of the Post Office.

The action was decided on after Mr. and Mrs. Danny Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Loden appeared before the Council and asked that something be done to stop speeding and reckless driving in the vicinity of the high school.

Herman Johnson Receives Praise

Herman Johnson, city tax assessor-collector, was commended in the following letter sent to the mayor and the city council by the equalization board:

"The Equalization Board for the City of Rockport met on May 20 and 21, 1971.

"There were no property owners who appeared before the Board.

"It is therefore the intent of this Board to convey to the Mayor and City Council that the Tax Assessor, Herman C. Johnson has done an outstanding job of evaluation.

"The seeming satisfaction by the city property owners is most commendable.

"The people of Rockport can take pride in having such a dedicated public official."

Respectfully submitted, Board of Equalization, Walter S. Falk, Jr., Chairman, Harold Embury, E. H. Tengge.

Lyman-Roberts Receives Approval

Official notification has been received by Gene Scott, Administrator for the Lyman-Roberts Hospital, Inc., Aransas Pass, on the basis of rigid inspections by the Texas State Department of Health, American Hospital Association, Medicaid (Texas Medical Assistance Program), Medicare and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, that the hospital was in compliance and participation in these programs were approved.

The hospital was awarded a 7-A certification, which is the highest classification awarded by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

One More Files For Navigation Dist.

One additional candidate filed this week for the July 10 election of commissioners for Aransas County Navigation District. He is Fernando Martinez, a candidate from Precinct 1.

Other candidates who previously had filed are:

For commissioner from Precinct 1: David Maguglin, an incumbent.

For commissioner from Precinct 2: Richard J. Fox, an incumbent.

For commissioner from Precinct 3: Robert M. Hill and Jack T. Smith.

For commissioner from Precinct 4: C. H. Mills and Col. J. Henry von Pein.

For commissioner-at-large: W. E. (Ed) Beasley, Eugene W. Carter and Mrs. Bernita Kinsey.

Matt Scott, the third incumbent on the present Board of Commissioners, has announced that he does not intend to run for reelection.

The deadline for filing as a candidate is noon, June 14. Absentee voting will begin June 21. Election for each of the five posts will be determined by simple majority, a spokesman for the Navigation District said.

Industry's Pollution Problems Discussed

Industry's viewpoint and problems in connection with current widespread public interest in pollution were discussed by R. Henry Featherston, manager of Reynolds Aluminum Company's Sherman plant at Ingleside at a luncheon meeting of Rotary Club at Corky's Restaurant Wednesday.

"If we are to approach pollution problems rationally we need more scientific research to determine just what is and what is not pollution. Right now there is much misunderstanding and inadequate communication on the subject. No good purpose is served if we make a witch hunt out of pollution campaigns," Featherston declared.

He said that if all the seriously proposed curbs on industry to reduce or eliminate pollution were put into effect, thousands of plants would be forced to close, consumer prices would be increased substantially and our standard of living reduced. In the end, consumers would be forced to pay for so-called reforms, many of them unneeded, in higher prices and increased taxes, he asserted.

While agreeing that anti-pollution pressure has accomplished much in forcing manufacturers to exert greater pollution control efforts, Featherston said regulatory agencies—both state and federal—were advocating many control measures which are either impractical or unnecessary.

He declared that many so-called authorities on pollution have no scientific facts on which to base their charges. Further, he said many politicians are attempting to capitalize on these unsubstantiated charges for personal gain.

Referring to air pollution caused by automobile exhausts, Featherston said most of the current outcry is against lead in gasoline, whereas leaded gasoline exhaust is much easier to clean with mechanical devices now nearing perfection. Yet in response to public demand, refiners are now removing lead from gasoline at a cost of four to five cents a gallon.

Featherston said there was widespread misunderstanding of the problem of dust from factory chimneys. He pointed out that only toxic dust can be considered a pollutant, and at present industry controls more than 90 per cent of the dust it creates. Proposed legislation would require industry to remove 100 per cent of its dust at a prohibitive cost, according to Featherston. In the last session of the Texas legislature more than 100 anti-pollution bills were introduced, many of them predicted on ideas without scientific foundation, he asserted.

In conclusion, Featherston said our two greatest pollution problems stemmed from uncontrolled population growth.

DROWNING IS RULED IN DEATH

John Fry, 55, of Brenham, died while wading fishing about 1:30 p.m. Saturday in Cedar Bayou. Justice of the peace Paul Rogers ruled accidental death by drowning.

Fry was fishing with his 12-year-old son, Chris, and R. D. Barnes, also of Brenham, when it appeared his son had waded too far into the water. Fry attempted to rescue the boy, but became entangled in his fishing gear and drowned about 40 yards offshore, Barnes said. Attempts to revive him failed. Fry's son managed to swim back to the bank unharmed.

Fry, a 35-year employee of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., and a resident of Brenham was a frequent visitor to the Rockport area. He was a native and longtime resident of Houston.

Funeral services were held Tuesday in St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Brenham, with burial in Prairie Lea Cemetery.

Survivors, in addition to his son, include his wife, Melba; a daughter, Lynda; and his mother, a resident of Houston.

Plan 81-Unit Condominium Here

The Global Land Corporation of San Antonio, which recently bought the Mrs. Sibyl Means home and property on Fulton Beach Road for over $200,000, plans to build an 81-unit condominium there.

The corporation sent a letter to Mayor Delmar R. Hiller and the City Council and stated:

"It is our intention to use water from the district water system and we would like to connect to the city sewer system at our cost. We propose to construct a lift station and force main to deliver the sewage to the City of Rockport gravity collection system at our cost.

"After the system is completed, we will either continue to operate and maintain the system or dedicate it to the City of Rockport, whichever the City desires."

The Council deferred action on the sewage service request until the City's present sewage treatment plant is expanded, a project expected to be started within the next few months.

Cancer News

The service chairman of Aransas County and Aransas Pass American Cancer Society has announced the following committee members be contacted for service to cancer patients during the summer: D. M. Meador, 729-2458, or Bill Janacek, 729-2372. If unable to contact either, call Mrs. Helen Foster, director, Corpus Christi, phone TU 4-1543 collect.

Final Fire Station Bids Due June 14

Final bids for construction of a new fire station are to be submitted to the City Council by 7:30 p.m., Monday, June 14.

Mayor Delmar R. Hiller and Aldermen Charlie Garrett, N. F. Jackson, Joe "Pepe" Zambrano and Mrs. J. W. "Tony" Harden, after spending many hours reviewing the city's financial situation and the federal government's offer to provide a grant, have set $55,000 as the maximum for construction of the new fire station.

The city previously advertised for bids and then tabled the bids received because they were too high.

Now the city is inviting four of the contractors who previously bid to bid again, and this time to submit specifications showing what they can build that will cost no more than $55,000. It is expected that the Office of Emergency Planning will give the city a grant of between $25,000 and $28,000.

Those invited to bid on this basis are Sam Canterbury, III of Canterbury Construction Co., Port Little of Port Construction Co., Paul Harris and Picton-McMillan.

Rockport Elementary Library News

The Rockport Elementary Library has just completed a very successful year. The boys and girls checked out 27,803 books—5,973 more than the previous school year.

A Book Fair was held in October and March and the children bought 1,157 books for their own use. The library earned 20% of the cost of the books and this money was used to buy extra books for the library. This purchase by the children was 319 more books than the last school year. The books for the Book Fair are obtained through the Educational Reading Service, Alexandria, Va.

The students bought for their own 856 paper back books from the Scholastic Book Service, Jefferson City, Mo. and for this library received 171 free paperbacks.

Since many of our students do not have reference books at home from which to make their reports for school, it was decided to use four older sets of encyclopedias for that purpose. That was not enough to go around. From a notice in the Rockport Pilot of the need for older encyclopedias not being used, the school received eleven sets. The school now has 325 volumes for that purpose and wish to thank again the people who were so generous.

Navigation District Holds Meeting

The Board of Navigation and Canal Commissioners met June 2, with Chairman Matthew W. Scott presiding. Also present were Commissioners Richard J. Fox and David Maguglin; Attorney Ellis L. Clark and Harbormaster B. C. DeForest. Visitors were V. B. Proctor, Victoria, and Martin Pena.

Minutes of the May 5 regular meeting, May 14 and May 25 special meetings were read and approved. The Treasurer's report was reviewed and placed on file.

Proctor appeared before the Board, representing Lowell H. Lebermann, who is concerned about safety in Little Bay ski basin. He presented a suggestion from Lebermann for an observation tower to be located on an island in ski basin, with a patrol officer on duty eight hours a day, with boat available for his use in enforcing rules and regulations.

He reported that Lebermann has promised to raise $3,000 to get the plan underway. The Commissioners explained that a joint effort for stricter enforcement of rules and regulations is being made by the City of Rockport, State Parks and Wildlife Department and the Navigation District.

The Board passed a resolution that City Council will be asked to enact an ordinance that ski basin and salt water swimming pool will be open from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m., with penalty of fine up to $200 for anyone using these facilities other than stated hours. Signs to this effect will be posted.

Pena appeared before the Board, representing A. H. Cadwallader. He outlined plans for a minor change in an existing pier at Key Allegro Condominium, to which the Commissioners gave approval.

There was a discussion of beautification of north island in Little Bay and two bids for planting of palm trees and yucca were reviewed. Motion was made by Commissioner Fox, seconded by Commissioner Maguglin, and vote carried, to accept one bid. Chairman Scott abstained from voting. Contract was awarded Trevino's Nursery, Aransas Pass, in the amount of $917.84. This includes delivery and planting ten Washington palms and ten Spanish daggers, guaranteed for one year.

Pirate Band Majorettes Chosen

The Pirate Band twirling line for 1971-72 was chosen in tryouts at the school cafeteria June 3. The selection of majorettes climaxed a four-day twirling clinic conducted by Mrs. Frances Malek of Robstown.

Ten teams have entered the second annual Rockport to Riverside (at Houston) ski race which will be held June 27.

The announcement was made today by Gordon Stanley, chairman of the tourist promotion committee of the Rockport Chamber of Commerce, one of the sponsors of the event, which will provide water skiers with a grueling 210-mile test of skill and endurance.

One of the teams entered won first place last year with a time of five hours and 20 minutes. Team members are Robbie Robinson, Don Kemp and John Mitchell of Austin.

Red Adair, the world famous oil fire fighter, who is another sponsor of the ski race, plans to pilot a boat towing a team of skiers if he isn't summoned to some far-off place to put out an oil fire.

Prizes will consist of $600 for first place, $250 for second, and $150 for third.

TV Channel 11 in Houston, with Ron Franklin as sports-caster, will cover the race, shooting film at the start at Key Allegro Hotel bay here, taking pictures during the race, and covering the finish. The coverage will be for showing following the race.

In addition to the Rockport Chamber of Commerce, other local sponsors are Marineland Boat Center, and Frank Randt, owner of Key Allegro Hotel who will give a cocktail party for the skiers and boat pilots June 26.

Each boat may have as many skiers as desired and must carry all skiers during the entire race. While the boats and skiers are racing toward Houston, mobile radio operators in cars will keep in touch with those aboard the boats throughout the entire race as a safety precaution.

Those wishing to enter the race should send an entry fee of $50 to Gary Miller, 8554 Sunderland, Houston, Texas 77028, not later than June 25.

Sunday worship services at Peace Lutheran will be at 8:45 a.m. with Holy Communion the Second Sunday of each month. Guests and visitors in the Rockport-Fulton area are welcome.

Pastor Bohot, his wife, Lois, and two children, Rebekah and John Paul, are residing at 931 S. Water Street, Rockport.

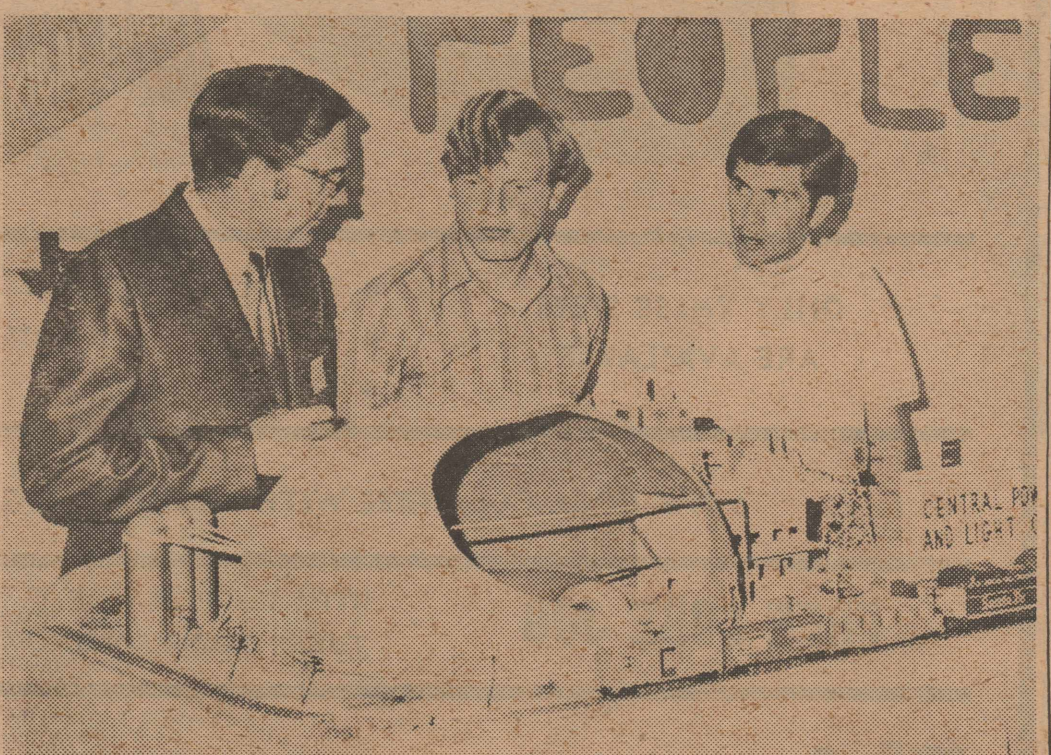

Plan 'Patrolman' For Ski Basin

A group of individuals interested in water safety have offered to build a watch tower on one of the tiny islands in the Ski Basin, and hire a "patrolman" to man this perch and enforce water safety regulations.

The plan is to supply this man with a boat and give him the necessary authority to enforce the regulations that apply to operation of boats and to water skiing.

The goal, of course, is to prevent accidents and deaths and to make the Ski Basin a completely safe place for water sports.

Letter to the Editor

As one of the officers of the Rockport Conservation Association, Inc., who has been working for years to save the Bay Natural Resources, it seems fitting to comment on the learned gentleman's statement on page 1 of last week's Pilot, dealing with pollution.

"... About the only danger of serious earth pollution is from a possible atomic attack." From this it can be concluded that he is thinking only in terms of the wide world. His horizon is so large that the small redfish bays in Aransas County are not in it.

From his remarks about Lake Erie's pollution problems, he is utterly ignoring the tremendous industrial waste which has been poured into the Detroit River around Detroit for years. This is considered to have played a substantial roll in the pollution of the westerly portion of Lake Erie.

If all we had to consider now was an atomic blast, our bays would still be clean and the fishing still good. Unfortunately, this is not the case. The two main pollutants which are damaging our Bay's resources are mineral waste and dredge waste — oil and mud.

It is time to get down to earth on the job of saving what we have left — which even though depleted — is still worth saving because of their contribution to the economy of this country.

Congratulations to the Boy Scouts, who are working weekends on cleaning up the rubbish thoughtlessly thrown out of cars to pollute the roadways. Their horizon includes the earth — and they are doing something about making it a better place for all of us to live in.

Very truly yours,
M. W. Cochran,
Secretary & Treasurer

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir:

This is in response to the article in your June 3 edition concerning a talk by Harry Allen given at a recent Rotary luncheon. Mr. Allen "decided" what he called unsupported and unscientific public statements made by people when speaking about the perils of pollution. He said that many of these "uninformed individuals" rely on generalities and not on any specific figures.

It was at this juncture that Mr. Allen apparently forgot his own point and launched out onto a sea of generalities. Noting that pollution is not new, he related that 200 years ago, the Los Angeles area was obscured by the smoke from Indian camp fires. He did not say whether the Indian children had to be restricted from any physical activity on pollution alert days such as has happened in Los Angeles 34 times since July 3, 1969.

Mr. Allen also stated that the air in New York City is far cleaner than it was 100 years ago. I would rather he got back to using specific figures and scientific terms and tell us how they measured the pollutants in the air back in 1871! What were the ozone, nitrogen oxide and sulfur dioxide levels then as compared with those of today?

For the life of me, I can't see how, in the same speech, a man can say he isn't trying to minimize the dangers of pollution and also say that about the only danger of serious earth pollution we have is from a possible atomic attack.

Perhaps he would have an easier time explaining this story to the loved ones of the people who have died, as a direct result of air pollution, in London, New York, and (just this past May) in Alabama.

Mr. Allen says that most people who have been speaking out against pollution have done so for political or economic gain. That idea, coupled with the way his speech makes industry smell like the proverbial rose makes me wonder who is financing his speaking tour. To me, his talk falls under the category of what ecologists of today call Ecopornography, but most of us know it by another name — "whitewash."

Respectfully,
Eddie Bradley

Cub Scouts

Pack 340 held their spring picnic on May 22 at Goose Island State Park. A baseball game was played and some of the boys explored the nearby woods.

Four boys received the Webelos award, which is the highest award in cub scouting. It signifies that the boy has completed the Boy Scout Tenderfoot requirements and is ready to start enjoying the adventures of Boy Scouting.

The boys receiving the Webelos award were Brett Sharon, Steve Stafford, Robert Gade and Jackie Mundine. Two other boys have also earned the award but were unable to attend the picnic and will receive them at the next pack function. They are Louis Solis and John Wyr. Brett Sharon also received a geologist activity badge.

Many thanks are due Scoutmasters Otis Mundine and Melvin Mills, and the Boy Scouts who gave many hours of their time to help these boys earn the Webelos award.

The student and the person who receives payments on his behalf are responsible for giving notice of excess earnings that will affect payments.

and the burning of fossil fuel. Even in the United States the population problem is such that if all young couples were to limit their offspring to two, our population would not be stabilized until the year 2100. Consumption of natural resources by man and disposal of waste created by him are problems which must be solved if our environment is to permit survival of man, Featherston said.

Pharmacy Topics

By SHELLEY ROATEN
In Italy, flu has become more of an economic disaster than a seasonal nuisance. Last year's four-month epidemic hit about a quarter of the population and cost more than $200 million.

Long before the scientific use of drugs, Hindu medicine used iron for a condition now known as anemia.

The chemical element polonium was discovered in 1898 by Pierre and Marie Curie, and named after Madame Curie's country of birth, Poland.

Many medicines on the market today need special care in storage and preservation to keep their original therapeutic value.

It's estimated that some 5,000 compounds have been studied for the relief of pain in the past quarter of a century. So how come it still hurts to pay taxes?

Mary Ellen McHugh, Douglas Jackson Wed

Miss Mary Ellen McHugh and Douglas Jackson were married Saturday evening in the First Baptist Church, with Rev. Charles Fake officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mary McHugh of Fulton, and the late Preston (Skeet) McHugh. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Jackson of Lamesa.

Given in marriage by her brother, John M. McHugh of Beeville, the bride wore a formal length gown of silk organza over peau de soie designed with a Redingote Empire "A" line skirt outlined with Venice lace. Rows of Venice lace outlined the puff sleeves and neckline and was repeated on the chapel train. A pearl beaded crown held her veil of illusion.

Miss Henrietta Woerdell of Hondo was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Beverly Gunn of Killeen, Miss Ava Pearson of Rockport, Mrs. Rennie Knipling of Houston and Miss Mary Jane Jackson of Lamesa. They wore matching gowns of renaissance style pink chiffon, featuring full gathered free flowing skirts. The raised waist and jewel neckline were circled with white Venice lace.

The groom's father was best man. Groomsmen were Craig Houston and Mike Stewart of Lamesa, Gary Howard of Rockport, and Larry Jackson, brother of the groom, of Lubbock.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride.

After a wedding trip to New Orleans, the couple will live in Brownwood.

The bride is a graduate of Rockport-Fulton High School, and is a senior at Howard Payne College in Brownwood. The groom is a Lamesa High School graduate and is also a senior at Howard Payne College.

Patrolmen For—

Hiller informed Aldermen Charlie Garrett, N. F. Jackson and Mrs. J. W. "Tony" Harden that Dick Fok, a commissioner of Aransas County Navigation District, had told him of this plan.

During the discussion that followed, the Council expressed a desire to cooperate in any plan that would increase water safety and authorized Hiller to confer with the Navigation District to get more detailed information.

One necessary step will be to determine the proper legal procedure to give the "water patrolman" the necessary to enforce water safety regulations.

DANIEL MONTGOMERY RECEIVES SCHOLARSHIP

College Station—Daniel A. Montgomery of Fulton has been named for an Opportunity Award Scholarship for bachelor degree study at Texas A&M University.

New students receiving the 1971 Opportunity Awards will enroll next August. The scholarships go up to $750 a year for four years. They are made possible through the university's Association of Former Students, the A&M Development Fund and interested citizens and organizations of Texas.

Student aid director Robert M. Logan noted that 1971 Opportunity Award recipients are better than ever students, in terms of high school scholastic achievement.

Son of Mrs. Dorothea Montgomery is a 1971 graduate of Rockport-Fulton High School. He plans to study mathematics at Texas A&M.

Woman's Club Hears Historian

The Woman's Club of Aransas County met for their monthly meeting Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Roy Burke. The hostess served coffee, punch and cake to 26 members and the speaker, A. Ray Stevens.

Stevens, Ph.D. and a professor of history at North Texas University, is writing a history of Aransas County from 1871-1971 and gave a resume of his progress to date. He requested any information of historical significance. Several members present, including Mrs. J. H. Mills, Sr., and Mrs. Fred Bracht, Sr., gave interesting information.

A letter of appreciation was read from the President of the Auxiliary of the Driscoll Foundation Children's Hospital for the contribution from the Woman's Club for their therapy program. Church of Christ

Foremost to any discussion of religion is the matter of authority. Jesus said "Ye do always err not knowing the Scriptures". Basic to any study of the Christian Religion is the authority of the Bible, and in particular the New Testament. The Christian, if indeed he is, is under the authority of a Biblical vocabulary.

The things of the Christian faith have not been left to human opinion. My personal likes and dislikes do not count, but "What saith the Scriptures". The question as to the kind of church, it's worship, and laws is not left to my planning. That church, it's worship and laws is identified in the New Testament. It is not what is my preference, but what is the church that Jesus built?

Area to Benefit From Publicity

Austin (Sp.)—Rockport this year will begin reaping the benefits of new national publicity as a prime tourist destination because of its location on the new Conquistadores Trail.

The trail, a 4,000-mile designated route through the western two-thirds of Texas, New Mexico, and Arizona, is the seventh in the system of regional Heritage Trails established under the aegis of the American Petroleum Institute.

A $100,000 promotional fund is being used to acquaint American tourists with the tri-state trail. Contributing to it are the three states, the API, Eastman Kodak, Texas International Airways, Six Flags over Texas, Budget Rent-a-Car and Roadway Inns. Also, the cities of Amarillo, Corpus Christi and San Antonio.

"We are delighted to be teamed with our Southwestern neighbors in this extremely worthwhile promotion," said Frank Hildebrand, executive director of the Texas Tourist Development Agency and chairman of the Conquistadores Trail Coordinating Committee.

"For we have long felt that the romance of our common history makes our region one of the most attractive magnets on the domestic travel scene. And, increasingly regional promotion is necessary if we are to compete successfully for our share of the $45 billion travel market."

From the Tucson-Phoenix-Grand Canyon area on the west, the trail extends as far east as Corpus Christi, San Antonio, Austin, and Fort Worth.

Among the other highlights of its 2,000-mile Texas segment are: El Paso, the new Guadalupe Mountains National Park, Davis Mountains State Park and Fort Davis National Historic Site, the Texas Highway Department's Judge Roy Bean Visitor Center at Langtry, Big Bend National Park, Amistad Reservoir and Brackettville's Alamo Village.

Also, the Texas Hill Country, Padre Island National Seashore, Presidio La Bahia at Goliad, Gonzales, Aquarena Springs and Wonder World at San Marcos, LBJ National Historic Site, and the Highland Lakes.

Also, the new Dinosaur State Park at Glen Rose, Six Flags Over Texas, Chander Gardens at Weatherford, Fort Richardson State Park at Jacksboro, Amarillo, and Palo Duro Canyon State Park and the outdoor drama, "Texas."

"The Spanish Conquistadores (Conquerors) were the first white men to see many of these sites during their 16th and 17th Century explorations of Texas and the Southwest," Hildebrand noted. "Thus it seemed appropriate to their memory."

The Conquistadores Trail is expected to complement the four-year-old system of Texas Travel Trails since it crosses, and follows, segments of eight of them: The Mountain, Pecos, Hill Country, Tropical, Independence, Lakes, Ports, and Plains Trail.

Hildebrand said that nearly two-thirds of available promotional monies are being invested in production of a color film, A Trail for All Seasons. Produced in both 35mm and 16mm versions, the film will be released through movie houses and television by early autumn. It will highlight major attractions throughout the tri-state region.

Already released is a descriptive 16-panel pamphlet in four colors. It features San Jose Mission National Historic Site in San Antonio or its cover. Interior Texas photos depict Padre Island National Seashore, Big Bend National Park, the Highland Lakes, and Six Flags Over Texas.

Major distribution of the 500,000 copies initially printed is being made through nationwide American Automobile Association offices and oil company tour offices.

The trail is also being promoted through a colorful eight-foot exhibit in the Discover America Showcase. The showcase, under auspices of the Discover America Travel Organizations, Inc., is appearing in 36 covered, mall-type shopping centers through Mid-America this year.

He's looking for an "Old" Medallion Home.

Obviously, he hasn't found one. Chances are, he'll be looking for some time—because all electric homes stay modern. People love the total electric life... with built-in appliances, electric climate control, light for living and full housepower. All the things that keep a home up-to-date through the years. So not many Gold Medallion Homes seem to reach the real estate columns.

When they do they're always a bargain. Because operating costs are surprisingly low, with just one source of power—dependable CPL electricity.

The Kinsey Report

Dr. A. Ray Stephens, professor of history at North Texas State University, is making good progress on research work preparatory to writing a history of Aransas County that will cover the period from 1871 to 1971.

His present thinking is to cover at least 12 major topics which will include: ranching and meat packing, county line boundaries, boat building, bays and Gulf of Mexico, hurricanes, fishing industry, tourism and resorts, conservation, oil and gas, transportation, culture, depression and pioneer families.

In a talk last week before the Rockport Lions Club, Dr. Stephens emphasized that these topics do not necessarily represent the complete coverage in his history but that on the basis of his research to date, they at least form the outline for some of the major phases of 100 years of life in Aransas County.

Dr. Stephens again expressed appreciation to the people in this community for the help they are giving him in assembling material for his history. He said many individuals have been generous in granting interviews and letting him examine scrapbooks, public documents and old newspapers.

He asked the residents to please continue to assist him and he explained that they need have no fear of not getting materials back. "In most cases, I can have copies made of old letters or documents and immediately return the materials to the owners," he explained.

Arrangements to contact Dr. Stephens can be made by calling Mrs. Thelma Barber, secretary to County Judge John D. Wendell, 729-2403, or calling the G. C. Francisco home in Fulton, 729-6996.
