

SANTA PAYS A HASTY VISIT - St. Nick stopped briefly in town Thursday to begin taking orders. He stated that he expects to make another pre-Christmas visit and will have sacks of goodies for boys and girls.

Word From Santa

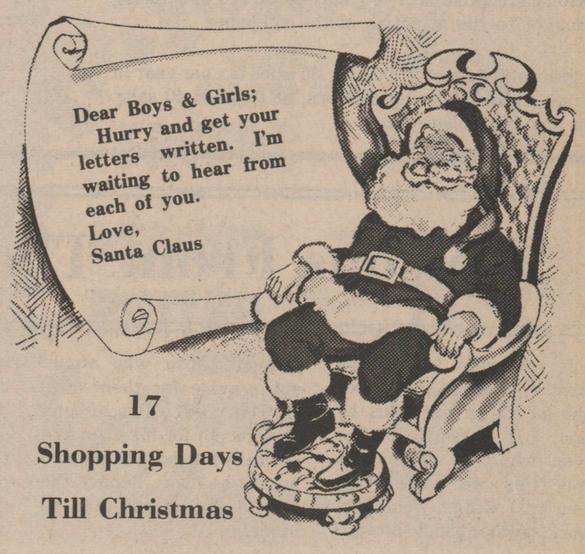

Boys & Girls Asked To Write Letters

Santa Claus took time off from his busy schedule at his North Pole headquarters this week to contact the Enterprise and ask that we help serve as the collection agency for his mail in the Olton area.

Letters from boys and girls in the area are asked to write their letters to Santa and mail them, postage free, in his special mail box at the Olton Post Office. His address is: Santa Claus, The North Pole, and his zip code is 99701.

All letters received by Dec. 15 will be published in the Olton Enterprise and then quickly forwarded to the jolly gentleman in the red suit so that he may process all orders.

Santa asked us to remind all children to write their letters as soon as possible so that the postal people would have plenty of time to get the letters forwarded to his home in the North Pole.

Goen & Nelson Win

Grand Prize Divided

Persistent in predicting, even though trailing by a few points throughout the season, two contestants wrapped up the 1977 Enterprise football contest with a hold on first place.

Joel Nelson of Bovina and Doug Goen finished the 13-week guessing game with 131 correct picks. Mutually agreeing, the duo chose to split the $50 grand prize rather than the flip of a coin decision set forth in the rules.

Don Nafzger, leader of the contest since Oct. 9, failed to get his final entry deposited and was thus eliminated. Don Martin finished right back of the winners with 130 correct predictions.

Winners in week before last's contest, delayed for the results of Penn State and Pitt, are Rodney Smith, first place; Goen, second place and Lynn Martin, third.

Smith missed just five games; Goen, seven. Martin and Ray Luera missed eight each with Martin winning on the tie-breaker. His 19-21 prediction was 12 points off. Luera missed by 27 with a 31-24 guess.

In the final week, Don Martin and Kregg Hukill missed one game each. Martin was off 22 points on the tie-breaker with a 14-17 guess. Hukill claims second place money with a 24-17 prediction which was 32 points off.

Mrs. V.J. Trusty and Jim Curtsinger missed two games each. Mrs. Trusty's 20-17 guess was 28 points off and earns third place. Curtsinger missed by 39 with a 31-17 prediction.

Doctor In Olton!

Services of a doctor are once again available in Olton with the clinic practice of Dr. Betty Johanson of Lubbock. Dr. Johanson will be in the clinic each Tuesday and Thursday afternoon from 1 to 4:30 p.m.

A registered nurse, Mrs. Wauline Lilley of Plainview, is at the clinic five days each week. Mrs. Lilley is a former Oltonite, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ball.

"These services are all we can offer right now," says Kathy Allen of Lubbock, a registered nurse and Family Nurse Practitioner student, who will also be at the clinic Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Sherry Hughes of Plainview, medical technologist, will also work out of the clinic Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The clinic is located in the same building that was formerly used by Dr. James Kirkpatrick.

Irrigation Gas Users

Farmers Have 'Big Stake'

Area farmers have a big stake in the Federal energy legislation now being drafted by the conference committee of Senators and Representatives, reminds Wade Mills, president of the 14-county Plains Irrigation Gas Users Association and secretary-treasurer of the Castro County organization.

Officers and directors of the Association are seeking to inform all farmers of the situation that could spell "the end" of farming operations on the Texas plains.

Mills reports that the Association's attorney, John D. Aikin, is working through Congressman George Mahon's office primarily in an effort to amend the present legislation so that natural gas used for irrigation pumping and crop drying would be given a priority in order to insure continued availability of natural gas.

The first threat to natural gas for agriculture came in December of 1974 when the Federal Power Commission changed the classification of agricultural gas from No. 2 Commercial classification to a Number 3 Industrial classification which would have meant making irrigation gas subject to curtailment.

Many trips have been made by the Association's officers and legal representatatives to Washington and Austin in an effort to protect natural gas for irrigation. In the last session of the Texas Legislature, a bill was proposed by the Association and ultimately passed by the Legislature which gave a strict priority to agricultural gas.

However, the same protection must be preserved in the Federal Legislation and the next few weeks will be a crucial period.

Charles Schlabs, secretary-treasurer of the Association, states there are two primary concerns with current legislation being proposed. The first is to amend the law so as to place agricultural gas in the category called by the current legislation "high priority use."

Second major concern is an effort to exempt natural gas used for irrigation pumping and crop drying from an incremental pricing section contained in the legislaion.

The thrust of incremental pricing section, he indicates is to encourage as many users as possible to convert to alternate fuels in order to conserve natural gas and that irrigation farmers ought to be exempt from that provision since there is no alternate fuel available to irrigation farmers.

Irrigation farmers have to have natural gas if they are to continue to irrigate, and

Radar System In Service

The city's new radar system has been set up and is in use according to an announcement made this week by Chief of Police Gayle Morgan.

Morgan says that the radar system has already shown that parents outnumber teenagers in exceeding the school zone speed limits. All drivers are warned to observe the 15 mile per hour limit or expect to pay a traffic fine. Safety of the children is the prime factor in the traffic crackdown.

Parents are reminded not to double park at school because of the hazards created. Persons may stop long enough to let children get out at school but are asked not to double park to wait for school to dismiss.

History Book For Giving, Stories OF Olton Families

Want a good investment? Buy a sack full of diamonds, corner the market on watermelons, or get yourself a copy of the Olton Area History Book.

No, it won't cost you nearly as much as the diamonds, but unlike most of the things you buy nowadays (car, clothes, appliances, etc.) it won't depreciate in value with the coming years.

This beautiful, hard bound leatherette collector's edition of the history of the Olton Area is being offered by the Olton Historic Preservation Society. The book will contain the "history" of our community -- its beginnings, its struggles, its growth and its people - you, me and our neighbors.

Limited copies are being made available on a pre-sale basis. There will be no second printings so book your copy now! It will make a wonderful addition to your own library and a creative Christmas present for all your special people! The handsome, keepsake volumes sell for $23 plus tax.

Gift certificates for this collector book are available. You may purchase these at Potts Insurance Agency, The Olton Enterprise or office of the Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture.

Persons are reminded to get their family histories written. Tell your story as you would to a child or grandchild who asks, "Tell me about the old days," for today is tomorrow's history.

Lions Talk Of Themselves

"Extemporaneous speaking" was the theme of Tuesday's program for Olton Lions Club. Lions were called on to share biographical sketches of themselves, their families and hobbies.

Initiating the unplanned program and speaking first were the club's queen and sweetheart, Sherri Hutson and Dusty Kinnison.

Recognition was given to two past presidents, Lauis Hair and Garrett Bley, who were chosen as recipients of life membership contributions to the Texas Crippled Childens Camp and Lions Eye Bank. One hundred dollars is being given by the club to each organization in honor of the two long-time Lions.

Members okayed the renewal of a contract with the carnival for next summer's visit. Announcement was made of Thursday, Dec. 8's Christmas Ladies Night.

One guest, Melanie Witten, attended.

Lessons From The Bible

By Don Jones

If you want to eat you must work is not man's idea but it was given to us by God. (II Thess. 3:10. For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.)

God did not stop with this command but also condemned those who would not provide for their own. (I Tim. 5:8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.)

We must of course help those who are in need but we are under no obligation to support those who wish to do nothing. The problem in our nation today is not that there is nothing to do, the problem is no one wants to do anything. We not only do ourselves an injustice but also do injustice to a whole generation by teaching them not to work.

Motorists Get Look At New Registration

Texas motorists will get their first exposure to year-round motor vehicle registration beginning January 1, 1978.

Registrations will begin a month earlier this year because of anticipated unfamiliarity that may slow the initial year's collections.

For the first time registrations will be issued on a monthly expiration basis, instead of having some 11 million all expire at midnight April 1 each year as before.

Spreading registrations through 12 months is expected to reduce or minimize the annual long, frustrating waiting lines stretching from county tax assessor-collectors offices.

Immediately after Christmas new registration application forms will be mailed to vehicle owners in preparation for "System '78" as it is described by the Motor Vehicle Division of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

Tax collectors and their staffs throughout the state have been preparing for this moment for the last year. Intensive workshops, seminars and individual meetings with department field supervisors have centered on the new procedures.

The department has been working up the overall operational plans for some three years. Other states -- including California, Washington and Kentucky -- already have initiated year-round registration programs.

Antoher first will be the appearance of two validation stickers on the multi-year license plates, first issued in 1975. The new stickers will represent month of expiration and year of expiration for that vehicle.

System '78" will be relatively simple for the motorist submitting his application for registration. The real complications fall in the tax assessor-collectors offices, primarily because of accounting procedures incident to collection and reporting of registration fees.

The will be some complications resulting from special vehicle registrations, but the county collection personnel have been briefed to anticipate every eventuality. Principal ingredient needed by vehicle owners will be -- as always -- patience.

The new system provides that regular and special disabled persons passenger vehicle registrations will be converted to monthly expiration dates. All other registrations, including personalized plates, will remain on the April 1 - March 31 registration period.

Motorists will receive a complete explanation of how expiration dates are to be converted to a monthly system with their vehicle registration applications for 1978, to be mailed and received on or about December 26 - January 1.

Special considerations involved in 1978 registrations will be explained at the county tax assessors-collectors offices, or by direct communication from the Motor Vehicle Division.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sue,

I'm an ordinary housewife, Mother and Grandmother. I have worked in clinics, hospitals and a Post Office, when it was necessary. I can and do identify with working women. I believe in equal pay for equal work. Although equality of work is debatable in many instances.

I cannot support women who seek to be completely liberated. I do not support their efforts to abolish biblical family structure. I will not support their so-called humanist philosophy. Their whole concept of equal rights, regardless of sex, is completely unbalanced. It will strongly impose on us a socialist government. This could lead to a crumbling within until our great American beliefs, ideals and freedoms will be totally destroyed. Do we want dictator government? This is exactly what many of the "women organizations" are proposing with our tax money.

I cannot sit quietly and allow degradation and debasing of values that America fought for and has upheld for 200 years. I'm concerned with lack of appreciation for the privileges that women in America enjoy. Do we dare risk these snatched away for an inferior substitute? Do we want women to take over America? Think about it! This could happen, if we, the great silent majority don't rise up and be counted! We cannot allow this "Federally-funded women bureaucracy" to continue without protest. We cannot allow "human rights" to be implemented into our legislation and risk social suicide. We could be reduced to barbaric conditions.

I propose to keep my God-given right as a woman and my freedom is in my slavery to Jesus Christ.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Lowell McGill

P.S. Copies sent to State and Federal officials and interested persons. Thank you for your support.

Editors note: The following is one of several letters written to Mrs. Don Workman of Lubbock who was appointed by Gov. Dolph Briscoe to serve on the Texas Women's Commission.

Star Route 2
Olton, Texas 79064
November 27, 1977

Dear Mrs. Workman:

As a school teacher and wife and mother it is important to me to stand up and be counted among those who are opposed to the ERA because of the many implications its passage has for our lives and the lives of our children and future grandchildren.

Why should we enact more legislation in order to gain the freedom that is already guaranteed us in our present laws? Why should we give the government more power to regulate our lives? What is wrong with the freedom that we now have on the local level to insist on certain standards of morality for the teachers and leaders who work with our children? Is it a democratic principal that the minority beliefs should be adopted just because the discontented yell louder than those who feel that our Constitution, in its present form, is adequate for correction of the inequities in our society? I do agree that women should receive equal pay for equal services rendered and that the women's movement has done some good things, but I do NOT agree that the ERA is desirable or necessary to improve the status of women.

It seems to me that the more power we give our government, the less freedom we actually have. As a woman, I feel that my only limiting factors are intelligence and drive and that, as an American, I have the greatest freedom to do and to be that any woman in the world has. The ERA would not do anything that would improve this situation, but it could take away some of the things that I value most.

Please speak up for our cause.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Don Spain

Dear Oltonites,

Presently there is a movement underway in our nation that seems harmless to many people, it is E.R.A. When Texas ratified this amendment we were told it would provide equal pay and equal opportunities for women. Being a people of concern for others we said yes. Now our concern grows deeper, not because we were trying to be fair, but because we were not given all the truth. Today every radical movement in our land is using the ERA for their own ideas. They are not after equality, but rather to dominate. We must now make our voices heard across our nation from Austin to Washington. We can accomplish our mission if we will all stand together and tell our elected officials what we want.

There are several women joining forces to try to stop these ungodly acts from becoming laws that will surely bring about the downfall of our freedoms we enjoy. They are defending the rights of their husbands to remain heads of our families and to maintain their God given positions of helpmates, mothers and in subjection to their own husbands. Please let your voice be heard along with them.

In Mixing Bowl

Full Time Homemaker

When Becky and Danny Smith moved to Olton almost two years ago, the young housewife "retired" to be a full fledged homemaker, a task she loves.

The Smiths live southeast of town in the sandhills which the Smith men levelled for potato farming. Danny farms with his father, Harold Smith, and brother, David, both of Hart. Their pretty brick home, sitting where there was once sand dunes, was built by Danny.

Tiny Jaime joined the family nine months ago and made being a homemaker more fun.

Becky's family moved to Hart from Plainview when she was a fourth grader. She graduated from Hart High School and attended West Texas State University as a biology major.

Danny, too, grew up in Hart and graduated from HHS.

Crafts are favorite pastimes for Becky. She likes to do macrame and has made a large hanging table for their home, planning originally to make others for gifts. The time it required made her decide to stop after one.

Becky also likes to sew and is presently making a Raggedy Ann doll for little Jaime. She also likes to snow ski but that is a seldom indulged hobby.

A Baptist, Becky is serving this year as president of Olton Young Homemakers.

The heat pump

"THE ELECTRIC SAVINGS MACHINE"

HOW MUCH HEAT DOES THE HEAT PUMP PUMP?

Neither glacial January winds nor a simmering August sun can affect the heat pump's year 'round circulation of air, at just the right temperature..

Now you can stop fussing with the thermostat on those in-between days, too. The heat pump is an automatic climate control system that switches from heating to cooling to maintain the precise temperature you want. On very cold days, resistance heating coils (installed with the heat pump) automatically supplement the heat extracted from outside air. THE HEAT PUMP IS AN ELECTRIC SAVINGS MACHINE . . . MRS. ALAN CARSON

Mr. Carson - Miss Kleman Recite Twin Ring Vows

An exchange of vows in Holy Family Catholic Church, Nazareth, Wednesday, Nov. 23, united in marriage Miss Noreen Kleman and Alan Carson. Father Stanley, pastor of the church, directed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kleman. Carson is son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Carson.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hodges, guitarist and organist respectively, presented nuptial selections and sang "Till The Rivers All Run Dry", "It's A Beautiful Thing" and "The Lord's Prayer." Also musically, the bride and groom closed the formal ceremony by singing to each other an original composition.

Arched candlelabra entwined with greenery and fitted with pink cathedral tapers, were accented with burgundy satin bows. Large baskets of pink gladioli completed the altar setting.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal wedding gown of candlelight organza and Chantilly lace. Designed with a Queen neckline, the Empire bodice featured lace motif appliques outlined in seed pearls. The long sheer sleeves terminated at the wrist with deep fitted cuffs enhanced with lace appliques.

The slightly A-line skirt fell to a deeply flounced hemline bordered in lace. Lace motifs traced a pattern over the skirt, front and back. Sweeping to back fullness, the skirt cascaded into a full chapel train.

Her matching fingertip veil of candlelight illusion, entirely edged in scalloped lace, fell from a Juliet cap of lace and seed pearls.

Miss Gail Kleman served as her sister's maid of honor. Bridal attendants were Misses Carol Drerup and Analeen Venhaus. Ring bearer was little miss Audra McClain. Flower girls were Nicole Kleman and Jill Pohlmeier.

Feminine attendants wore gowns of ice pink satin-backed crepe with coordinated jackets accented with pink boa necklines. Each carried a long stemmed burgundy rose. Miss McClain was gowned in pink, the flower girls in burgundy, each adorned with pink lace appliqued hearts.

Stanley Spain served as best man. Groomsmen were Vic Allcorn and Kent Gunter, cousins of the groom. Guests were seated by Kyle Allcorn, Blaine Buchenau, Glenn Kleman and Darryl Schacher. Candles were lighted by Blake Buchenau and Laura Kleman. Masculine members of the wedding party wore burgundy or dusty rose tuxedoes.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kleman chose a carpet length gown of burgundy with matching jacket. The mother of the groom wore a formal gown of dusty rose pink chiffon. Each added a cymbidium orchid corsage.

A wedding supper and reception was held in Legion Hall following the ceremony.

For travel the bride selected a Gaucho suit in burgundy. Following the wedding trip the couple will be at home in Canyon where both are students at West Texas State University. The bride is a music education major. Carson is majoring in geology.

National TV Series Keyed To Older Viewers' Interest

Older people are finally getting a National TV series for and about themselves, thanks to the cooperative efforts of two government agencies and a public TV station.

A half-hour daily TV series entitled "Over Easy" is now being carried by the public broadcasting service over Station KTXT, Channel 5 at 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday for the remainder of the '77-78 TV season.

This prime time program will present a variety of subjects and issues of interest to older people, their families and friends and others concerned with the well being of older people.

Older people themselves such as actors Robert Young, Milton Berle, Senator Frank Church, Rep. Shirley Chisholm and Anthropologist Margaret Meade will be celebrity guests on the program.

The program will be hosted by Veteran television personality Hugh Downs and produced in public TV station KQED's San Francisco studies.

Funded by the Administration on Aging and the Corporation for Public Broadcasting the series will contain 130 shows.

Each half-hour show will be handled in a magazine format in which major segments will be devoted to guest celebrities, detailed reports on subjects such as nutrition, health and medicine, money management, housing and legal rights of older people and portraits of older Americans who have found ability to cope with and thrive in their later years.

Material used on the program will be designed to help change some of the stereotypes about older people, help build self esteem and provide helpful information.

U.S. Commissioner Arthur D. Fleming has asked the local South Plains office on Aging and other organizations concerned with older people to use their new series as a "major new recourse for serving older persons."

"We anticipate that this series will bring millions of older persons into contact with information and service that are designed to improve their living conditions and life style."

Commissioner Fleming has also asked South Plains Office on Aging to help publicize and promote this new program. The office on Aging is doing this through the media, the multi-purpose Senior Centers and the help of the county committees Public Information network. The chairman of the Public Information net work is Maxine Marks of Post and her committee members are the representatives from each of the population centers over the 15 county area.

Mrs. Joe Chester is a county representative VISTA volunteer and a member of the Board of South Plains Office on Aging.

Simpson Visits Wednesday, Answers Local Queries

Bob Simpson, Democratic candidate for the Texas senatorial seat made vacant by the resignation of Max Sherman, was in Olton Wednesday morning. Friends of the candidate hosted a coffee in his honor in the community room of Olton State Bank.

Elected to the Texas House of Representatives in 1974 and serving with the 64th and 65 legislatures, Simpson served on the State Affairs Committee and Natural Resources Committee.

His father, J.M. "Red" Simpson, was a Texas Representative from East Texas. Simpson is married and the father of two children.

Questioned by Don Jones on his stand on ERA, Simpson said he did not believe the ratification by Texas could be rescinded because the deadline will expire about the time the legislature convenes.

"I personally think it should be left up to a vote by the people," he said. He added there would be no occasion for that unless the ERA deadline is extended.

Simpson stated that he does not believe ERA would legalize homosexuality but agreed it could happen.

In answer to his opinion of IWY, he said, "I don't agree with any of the views, or any that I know of. I can see why, at one point in history, people said women are not getting equal consideration but it was wrong to take over by the ERA and Pro-liberated."

"ERA," he added, "has been discussed for 50 years - since 1923."

Questioned about the water situation for West Texas, Simpson said that work is being done to work out a feasable plan to import water from Arkansas through Oklahoma. That can be done more simply and with less energy requirements than importing Mississippi River water from Louisiana, Simpson said.

"I would like to see the legislature authorize water districts," he said, stating that he did not believe that water importation legislation would pass on a state-wide vote.

Simpson said he was in support of what was being sought by the upcoming farm strike but added, "I think they are expecting more out of it than is possible. I'll believe the truckers are going to join in the strike when I see it."

"This is a long term problem. I hope we can do something. It started when they passed a farm bill allowing planting from fence to fence and when they combined it with an embargo."

VISITING OVER THE COFFEE CUPS - Bob Simpson, center foreground, was honored Wednesday morning with a coffee sponsored by local supporters. A number of Oltonites visited and sought the senatorial candidate's views on important issues.

Hospital Beds Rationed?

Hospital beds and services will be rationed if Department of Health, Education and Welfare (DHEW) proposed "standards" are adopted.

So said O. Ray Hurst, President, Texas Hospital Association (THA), Austin, as he described the DHEW proposals published in the Federal Register on Sept. 23, 1977.

Hurst went on to point out that these proposed regulations mean that within five years Texas will be required to reduce the number of hospital beds by approximately 17,400.

Hurst stated that "Such loss of beds coupled with previously announced ceilings on allowable patient days means that one in every four patients that need to be admitted to a hospital will be turned away."

He pointed out that this will be accomplished by forcing the closure of entire hospitals or portions of hospitals.

The proposed guidelines as published will require hospitals to have an occupancy rate of at least 80 percent over all. Also a hospital must have in order to maintain obstetrics services, a minimum of 500 deliveries per year (2,000 in or near cities over 100,000). Hospitals will be required to comply with special restrictions on open heart surgery, cancer therapy, renal dialysis and cardiac diagnostic procedures. In addition, there are geographic restrictions on services that are available to a community within 45 minutes travel time.

Hurst pointed out that "a part of the stated purpose of these proposed guidelines is to reduce health care cost while improving the care of patients, yet no consideration is given to the medical needs of the community. The THA Statewide Hospital Productivity Center that has been in operation for two (2) years has saved Texas patients over $100 million dollars. This type of voluntary system could be used as an example of efficiency by the private sector without Federal mandates for limiting and rationing of quality health care."

DHEW is giving the public, hospitals and physicians until November 22, 1977, to comment on these proposals.

Hurst said "THA is encouraging all persons interested in the continued availability in Texas of quality health care to respond to these proposed limitations. Although these proposals are from the bureaucrats, no doubt U.S. Senators and Congressmen will be interested in the public's views on these limitations and the rationing of health care."

THA is the Austin based trade association of hospitals in Texas with over 700 institutional members.
