Armed Showdown On High Seas Looms

Britain, Venezuela Back U. S. In U. N.

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Britain and Venezuela today threw their support behind the U.S. military quarantine of Cuba as Acting U.N. Secretary-General U Thant weighed a small nation appeal that he intervene in an attempt to head off a U.S.-Soviet showdown.

A committee representing 45 countries from all parts of the world called on Thant this morning and requested him to seek a standstill pending a negotiated settlement. He was reported to have told the group he would consider the appeal.

Ambassador Zenon Rossides of Cyprus, chairman of the group, said Thant indicated he might address the 11-nation Security Council later in the day. The small countries were called into another session to hear the committee report and to consider a possible resolution for the council.

Inside the council chamber, Venezuelan Ambassador Carlos Sosa-Rodriguez declared the Soviet weapons in Cuba were no longer defensive but were a threat to the entire hemisphere. He demanded that the council take action to halt the shipment of offensive weapons and to dismantle the missile bases already built.

"It is sufficient," he said, 'that these weapons are now in the hands of the nuclear powers themselves, and we cannot accept that they be handed over to the only Communists state in the Americas."

British Delegate Sir Patrick Dean accused the Soviet Union of "calculated double dealing" and declared this is bound to cast doubt on any statements issued by the Russians.

He said the stationing of Soviet missiles in Cuba affects the whole security of the Western Hemisphere and cannot be tolerated.

Convinced that the council would wind up in a deadlock over opposing U.S. and Soviet resolutions, the small powers delegated Ghana, the United Arab Republic and Cyprus to ask Thant to intervene.

Many of the small nations wanted to call directly on President Kennedy to lift his arms quarantine of Cuba, but it was decided instead to address the appeal in general terms.

Considerable doubt was felt that the United States, having ordered its warships to halt all vessels in Cuban waters, would pay any attention to an appeal addressed only to it. The group—made up of nations from Africa, Asia, Europe and Latin America—was hopeful that a general appeal to the United States, the Soviet Union and Cuba might ease the situation.

Some observers viewed the small nation action as a sign that the United States might not get the support it hopes for if it takes its case to the 109-nation General Assembly. Many nations which strongly oppose both Cuba and the Soviet Union feel a blockade is too drastic a move and risks a head-on collision between the United States and the Soviet Union.

U.S. Delegate Adlai E. Stevenson urged the 11-nation Security Council to act at once before the Soviets swallow up the world piecemeal.

Stevenson charged that the flow of Soviet missiles and other offensive weapons into Cuba is a "grave threat to the Western Hemisphere and the peace of the world."

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin countered that the U.S. blockade is a reckless act which brings the world to the brink of nuclear war. He branded as "completely false" U.S. charges that the Soviet Union has based offensive missiles in Cuba.

Cuban Ambassador Mario Garcia-Inchaustegui demanded that the United States call off its blockade.

He challenged the right of the United States to demand that Soviet bases in Cuba be dismantled while it kept a base of its own on Cuban soil at Guantanamo Bay.

The United States introduced a resolution demanding that the Security Council order the Soviet Union to pull out all offensive weapons it has sent to Cuba. The proposal is believed to have the seven votes needed to pass the council, but it is certain to run into a Soviet veto.

The Soviets put in a counter resolution calling on the United States to end the blockade and start talks with the Soviet Union and Cuba to "normalize the situation" and "remove the threat of war."

Soviet Ships Approaching Danger Zone

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and the Soviet Communists approached an armed showdown on the high seas at midmorning today, as Soviet cargo ships plowed toward Cuba and American naval power converged on them.

At 12:30 p.m. (EST), with the quarantine officially in effect for 3½ hours, the Defense Department said it had no reports of interception of any ships.

The department also said it had no report that any of the Cuba-bound Russian ships had changed their course.

Strung out along the approaches to Cuba were an estimated 25 Soviet ships. Some of them quite possibly were carrying offensive weapons to the Cuban Communist ally—a movement which President Kennedy says must be stopped.

At 9 a.m. Eastern Standard Time, Kennedy's quarantine went into effect and the historic moment was at hand. The first warships headed in toward the first Soviet cargo ships.

A few hours before, the Navy had broadcast radio warnings to all shipping to stand clear of the area, that it could become dangerous.

There was a report that Soviet Embassy officials here were claiming that no Soviet ship would heed the stop signal of any U.S. warship.

Cuba's Fidel Castro saw the quarantine as an act of war and Moscow took a grave and angry view.

For more than a year the tension between the United States and Cuba had mounted. Then on Monday night, Kennedy made his move, announcing a quarantine with the clamp on offensive arms shipments into Cuba. He was accepting the fact that anything might happen as a result.

The Defense Department made public aerial reconnaissance photographs which it said proved the charge that the Soviet Union was installing or has installed ballistic missiles, almost certainly with nuclear warheads, on Cuban sites.

The Defense Department kept secrecy on the total of Navy ships and planes assigned to the quarantine operation and on the precise areas in which they were operating.

All indications pointed to a force of a size and type which seemed more than ample for the job. Obviously, the preparations were for events even more far-reaching than stopping merchantmen at sea, which might flare up from this first action.

The Washington Post said Soviet military attaches were spreading the word at a Soviet Embassy reception Tuesday night that Soviet ships steaming toward Cuba are under orders not to be stopped or searched.

Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin declined to refute the statements. Speaking of an assistant naval attache who had made the remark, Dobrynin said: "He is the one who knows what the navy is going to do, not I"

Kennedy signed a proclamation Tuesday night formally invoking the quarantine against offensive weapos — an act he said was needed to defend the security of the United States.

Ten minutes later, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara sent the Navy's Task Force 136 its formal orders to halt all ships headed for Cuba, to examine their cargoes and turn away any vessels—Soviet or other nationality—found to be carrying missiles, bombs, bombers and other weapons that could menace the United States or Latin-American nations.

The blockaders—already poised across the Atlantic—were told to use the minimum amount of force necessary to enforce the ban but skippers were given full authority to bring into play "whatever force is required." Clearly, this meant sinking Soviet vessels, if necessary.

Shortly after issuing these orders, McNamara announced he had extended the enlistments and duty tours of all Navy and Marine officers and enlisted men for up to 12 months. This is intended to provide the necessary manpower for the blockade and reinforcement of the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay in Cuba.

The freeze will give the Navy an increase of about 10,000 men a month and the Marines 2,400 men a month. The only exemptions will be granted to men pleading unusual hardship.

Solons Reconciled To Crisis Alternatives

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional leaders grimly accepted today the prospect that full scale military action may be needed to back President Kennedy's move aimed at wiping out the Cuban missile threat to the Western Hemisphere.

Without exception, party leaders scheduled to confer with Kennedy late today on the crisis made it clear they recognized the risk of nuclear war is great. They are willing to take it.

Some of them expect a preliminary showdown with the Soviet Union in the shipping lanes almost momentarily. Others believe that if the President's demand for dismantling of Soviet controlled missile bases in Cuba is flouted, massive military action to take them over might come later.

Strong sentiment for an immediate invasion of Cuba was expressed during a meeting of the congressional leaders with Kennedy on Monday, a House member who sat in on the meeting reported today.

"But the decision had been made before we were called," he added.

He said, however, that there is a possibility of an armed invasion of Cuba, if the arms quarantine is not effective.

Another House member said he did not get the impression that there was any strong insistence on an invasion.

"There was a lot of talk about alternatives," he said. "We batted everything around, and it was obvious that the President also had considered other possibilities; but, when it was all over, it was generally agreed that the course decided on was the best one to take."

Neither informant would allow himself to be identified.

The unanimous viewpoint that the crisis is heading toward a climax was sustained by a statement of Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon.

Dillon told a meeting of Latin American finance ministers in Mexico City Tuesday that if offensive preparations on the island are not halted immediately "further action will be fully justified."

Latin Nations Offer Help In Blockade

WASHINGTON (AP)—A State Department official reported today that various Latin American countries are now offering to help out in the U.S. quarantine of arms shipments to Cuba.

He listed Argentina and Costa Rica as two Latin-American countries which have offered to aid in the action against Cuba. He indicated he expected other offers would be received soon.

He said discussions are now under way with Argentine officials on the use of Argentine ships to aid in the quarantine.

Costa Rica, he said, has no army but offered base facilities this morning for use in the anti-Cuban action.

The U.S. official said some bases in Latin America might be helpful to the U.S. Navy in carrying out its operation.

This official, declaring that the West faces its gravest crisis since World War II, described building of nuclear strike bases in Cuba as a Red power move, which he said must be met head on now, lest the Soviets try more elsewhere.

Th State Department authority spoke to a group of visiting European broadcasters under circumstances not allowing the use of his name.

TWO ENTRANTS SHARE GRID CONTEST PRIZE

"Co-champions" have declared following tabulation of the past week's Daily News Football Contest entries. With five incorrect choices each, the winners are Mrs. Rupert Short of 3001 Thirty-third Street and Darrell Haney of Route 1.

Due to there being a $2.50 carryover from last week's contest due to a multiple tie, the co-winners will each pocket $7.50 for their efforts.

Three of the misses were common to both Mrs. Short and Haney — SMU's 15-7 upset over Rice, Hardin-Simmons' 14-6 reversal over Trinity, and the Odessa-Big Spring scoreless tie game. Both liked Odessa in that one, but a tie must be called a tie in order to ring the bell for contest purposes.

Mrs. Short also stumbled on New Mexico Highland's 26-20 lowering of ACC and Hermleigh's 30-6 powdering of Bronte, while Haney failed to call the shot on Arlington State's 25-13 sidetracking of McMurry and Northwestern's 18-14 toppling of Ohio State.

The Snyder B-Midland Lee B game had to be "thrown out" of the contest when a date change moved the duel up from Saturday to Thursday. Noon Friday is the contest entry deadline.

Five contestants were close behind the winners with six misfires, thus finishing out of the money. They are Mrs. C. E. Gould of Route 2, Wayne M. Jones of 3709 Rose Circle, Maxie Beasley of 1400 Nineteenth Street, Sylvester Spells Jr. of 1109 Thirty-second Street, and Roy Jeffress of 3105 Hill Avenue.

One entrant with six misfires was found to have submitted two ballots and was disqualified as a result, in that each person is permitted only one blank per week.

A new contest is listed in today's edition.

Tempers Flare In Billie Sol's Trial

By FINIS MOTHERSHEAD

TYLER (AP)— Trial of Billie Sol Estes on state charges for theft and swindling appeared to be headed into a bitterly contested marathon today.

With selection of a jury still far from complete, it already had produced one briefly violent flaring of tempers. Opposing lawyers gave every indication they would continue to fight every step with equal vigor.

Counsel agreed Tuesday to the tentative seating of five jurors for the case of the former West Texas millionaire, who now is bankrupt.

To allow for the 10 peremptory challenges allowed each side, they must agree to a panel of 32. The top 12 left on the list will hear the testimony.

Dist. Judge Otis T. Dunagan granted a defense request that the jury pane be interrogated individually as is done on charges of capital offense. Sources close to the court said this would lengthen the trial about seven days, making it last three to four weeks.

The display of temper came late in the day as the rival lawyers questioned the tenth of 86 prospective jurors left after excuses released the rest of 150-member venire.

Hume Cofer of the defense staff asked if Omar O. Pope, Tyler foundry manager being quizzed as a possible juryman, could find Estes innocent if the defense established that a farmer accepted $7,500 solely for signing a mortgage.

The prosecution contends this instrument was one of a number through which Estes borrowed money on the credit of associates, usually with non-existent farm fertilizer tanks as security.

Dist. Atty. R. B. McGowen, from Estes' home district in West Texas, interjected that the line of questioning was improper.

John D. Cofer, heading the Estes staff, argued that "we want to know if the juror would be prejudiced if we prove there was no false pretext in this transaction, as the state claims.

Judge Dunagan sent the prospective juror outside the courtroom as the point was argued.

Thursday Set Aside For Vaccine Makeup

This Thursday has been designated as makeup day for those area people desiring Type II Sabin oral vaccine who were unable to receive it the past Sunday.

All such persons may receive their vaccine at the Scurry County Health Unit tomorrow between the hours of 9 a.m. and 6 p.m.

Approximately 10,000 doses were given the past Sunday according to Jaycee officials heading up the drive.

India Rejects Red China's Proposal For 'Peace Talks'

NEW DELHI (AP) — Chinese Communists are advancing into northeast India at four points, and India has rejected Peiping's proposal for peace talks on Chinese terms, an official spokesman said today.

Chinese troops have driven to within 10 or 12 miles of the important monastery town of Towang, in northeast India, to the west and are also pushing toward it from the north.

A fresh Chinese attack into India has been launched at Asfila, on the northeast frontier about 100 miles east of Towang.

At the eastern end of the northeastern border, near Burma, an Indian post has fallen and the Chinese are driving down the Luhit River valley.

At the northwest end of the disputed Himalayan frontier in Ladakh, the Chinese have attacked for the first time in Changchenmo River valley and have captured a post.

Although the spokesman declined to comment on the over-all Ladakh situation, it appeared to observers that the Chinese might have overrun all Indian military posts on what the Chinese claim to be their territory.

High Indian officials said a Red Chinese proposal for a meeting between Prime Minister Nehru and Premier Chou En-lai to settle the border dispute was "pure hypocrisy."

The officials also rejected a companion Chinese proposal, broadcast from Peiping, for a cease-fire under which each nation would withdraw its troops 12.5 miles from the present battle lines.

There was no official comment from Nehru's government on the Chinese proposal.

One Indian official said the offer of talks might be considered if the Chinese withdrew to the position they held Sept. 8. This was just before their troops crossed what India considers to be her northeastern border with Tibet in the area just east of Bhutan.

Some officials believed the Chinese proposal was made under pressure from Soviet Premier Khrushchev, who wrote Nehru last weekend he hoped the border dispute would be settled through peaceful negotiations. Nehru reportedly replied Monday night that India refuses to negotiate with Peiping under duress and that "no negotiation is possible or feasible so long as an aggressor occupies our sacred soil."

'GO' EDITION FROM YESTERDAY TO TOMORROW

Yesterday will be a nostalgic part of the exciting "Snyder on the GO" issue of the Daily News which is coming this fall, but the big edition will be as up-to-the-minute as tomorrow because of some space age projections it will feature.

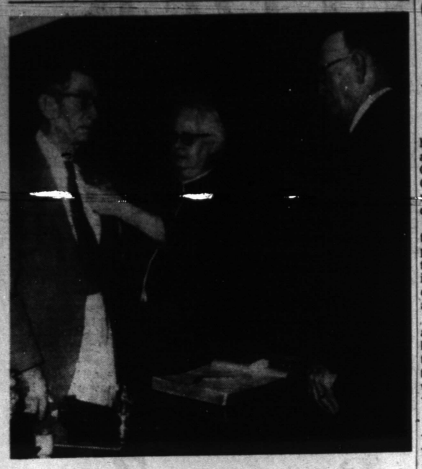

In fact, one automation conscious industry in these parts features a look at an outer space missile which hasn't even been fired yet.

So, for the facts on Snyder when it was no more than a band of hardy buffalo hunters in the 1870s, lean and hungry, drouth-beleagured ranchers of the 20s, or exhilerated oil producers of the boom days, you'll have to see the issue which will commemorate the Daily News-Snyder Signal 75th anniversary.

Extra copies will be available in limited number, so order now for copies for friends or relatives. They are only 50 cents apiece and we'll mail them anywhere in the U.S.A. at our expense if ordered in advance. Bring down your mailing list now!

Berlin Withdrawal Demand Renewed

By GEORGE BOULTWOOD

BERLIN (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko was reported today to have renewed the Communist demand that Western troops get out of Berlin and called for full recognition of East German svereignty.

The official East German news agency ADN said Gromyko made the statements in a speech to a crowd in East Berlin after he toured the wall dividing the city.

Standing on a truck as an improvised platform, Gromyko pledged that the Soviet Union would never allow the "slightest violation of the sovereign rights" of East Germany, ADN said.

Gromyko arrived Tuesday in East Berlin from New York and had talks with the Communist chief of East Germany, Walter Ulbricht, and Foreign Minister Lothar Bolz. The visit was announced as a stopover on his way to Moscow.

There have been fears in the West that the Soviet Union might make some move against West Berlin as retaliation for the quarantine of Cuba.

Soviet tanks, artillery and motorized units were observed on the move outside Berlin during the night, West Berlin police reported.

They said travelers across East Germany saw Soviet units on the autobahn, the highway connecting Berlin with the West, and on the road from Berlin to Hamburg. The largest group was reported around Nauen, a small town about 10 miles west of Berlin.

Western Allied military sources said the troops appeared to be units returning to bases from training exercises.

A fog that hampered Gromyko's look into West Berlin helped seven East Germans flee during the nigh police reported.

Visibility was poor along the 101 miles of concrete and barbed wire surrounding West Berlin. Police did not disclose any details of the escape into West Berlin.

Castro Rejects Arms Limitation

By GEORGE ARFELD

HAVANA (AP) — Asserting he has the weapons to "repulse any aggression," Prime Minister Fidel Castro rejected any limit on Cuba's arms buildup Tuesday night and called the U.S. arms quarantine an act of piracy.

"Our arms are defensive," Castro declared as he defied a U.S. proposal for the United Nations to send in an inspection team to investigate President Kennedy's charge that Soviet missile bases are plated in Cuba.

Anyone trying to carry out an arms inspection in Cuba "had better come ready for combat," the bearded revolutionary leader told the nation in a 90-minute television address.

Castro scoffed at Kennedy's warning in his speech Monday that the flow of Soviet arms to Cuba was a menace to the Western Hemisphere.

He ridiculed the Organization of American States for its solid support of the U.S. quarantine of Cuba. He called the organization's inter-American defense pact a scrap of paper only "valid for those following in the flock of imperialism."

Castro, who had mobilized Cuba's military forces right after Kennedy's blockade announcement, was 30 minutes late for his address.

President Osvaldo Dorticos, dressed in a militiaman's uniform, and other high government officials sat in the stuio. An announcer said the prime minister was speaking "at a particularly delicate moment in the history of the world."

Castro emphasized he would tolerate no outside interference on the question of arming Cuba and implied it was the United States that had forced him to arm.

"We will acquire the arms we feel like acquiring," Castro said, "and we don't have to give an accounting to the imperialists. Cuba has the right to arm itself and defend itself and we have had to do so. What would have occurred if we had not been armed at the time of Giron Beach?"

This was a reference to the invasion at the Bay of Pigs by a force of U. S.-backed Cuban exiles in April 1961.

Castro spurned the U.S. plan before the U.N. Security Council to send U.N. observers to see that Cuba complies with Kennedy's demand that Soviet offensive weapons be dismantled and removed.

"We reject all types of investigations, no matter where they come from," Castro said. "Cuba is not the Congo. We will not disarm."

Only once did Castro mention the Soviet Union, which has threatened to defend Cuba with its rockets should the United States attempt an invasion.

Without elaboration, Castro said the "serene attitude" of the Soviet Union should be a lesson to the imperialists.

Castro said the Cuban people were not worried by Kennedy's warnings.

However, there was a rush on food shops by houswives apparently fearful of new shortages. There was a brisk sale of candles, useful in blackouts and power failures.

Cubans in the streets seemed more quiet than usual. They watched as more troops and weapons appeared in Havana. Soldiers barricaded the avenue next to the Armed Forces Ministry.

Enlistments Extended For Navy, Marines

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has extended enlistments of Navy and Marine personnel for up to one year, saying they are needed to man the U.S. arms quarantine of Cuba.

McNamara, in announcing the order Tuesday night, said extra manpower also is needed to reinforce the U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

McNamara said the order applies to all men now on active duty and in effect means that there will be no discharges, except for hardship, until further notice up to one year from now. All Navy and Marine Corps personnel are volunteers.

Congress recently authorized President Kennedy to extend enlistments up to one year and to recall to active duty up to 150,000 Reserves to meet any crisis. The congressional authority expires next Feb. 28, two months after Congress reconvenes.

McNamara said no steps are being taken to call up any Reserves at this time.

Pentagon officials said the extension order probably would increase the Navy by 10,000 men a month and the Marines by 2,400 men a month.

One Mishap Logged In City Tuesday

The Snyder city police department reported a mishap at 8:16 p.m. Tuesday at Thirty-first Street and Hill Avenue.

Involved was a 1956 Ford driven by Curtis Dale Hall and a 1960 Ford pickup owned by the City of Snyder. The pickup was parked. Damage to the Hall car was estimated at $200 and to the pickup at $50. There were no injuries.

A LOAD OF APPLES AND PEPPERS was scattered over a wide area about 7:30 p.m. yesterday when this truck driven by John F. Lammert, 301 Twenty-third Street, overturned. Lammert was taken to Cogdell Hospital by Bolger Ambulance Service where his injuries were not believed to be serious.

Turks Cancel Army Leaves

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—The Turkish army was reported today to have canceled all leaves for units in the eastern sector, along the border with the Soviet Union.

Premier Ismet Inonu called another Cabinet meeting to discuss the Cuban situation, but there has been no official announcement on the stand Turkey will take.

Studded with American and North Atlantic Treaty Organization missile bases, Turkey would be in the vanguard of any military showdown. But the government was expected to endorse moves taken by the United States.

Turkish editorial reaction was generally favorable to President Kennedy's action. The left-wing Vatan said, however, Kennedy might have taken "the false step that could lead to a third world war."

Turkey's army forces are estimated at about 700,000 men.

NATO bases here have taken precautionary measures, but have not been placed on any alert basis, Turkish sources reported. The atmosphere in Istanbul was generally calm.

Grissom Has Hard Landing

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—Astronaut Virgil I. Grissom has walked away from a hard landing—in a kite.

The incident occurred here Monday. The Air Force told of Grissom's misadventure Tuesday.

He flew a kite-like paraglider and landed it upright, although the craft's nose wheel crumpled when it hit the ground.

The Air Force major climbed out smiling and unhurt. He was the first astronaut to pilot the open-air vehicle, which was towed aloft by a biplane and released to glide downward in the manner expected to be used eventually for the two-man Gemini space capsule.

The Air Force termed its landing "a hard touchdown," rather than a crackup.

Twenty-five of America's 42 living Nobel Prize winners attended land-grant colleges.

Polaris Sub To Be Named For Rayburn

MCKINNEY (AP) — President Kennedy today notified U. S. Rep. Ray Roberts he is recommending one of the nation's new Polaris submarines be named the U. S. S. Sam Rayburn.

Roberts released the text of a letter received by him from the President. It said:

"As you know, Polaris nuclear powered submarines are named for great patriots who have rendered distinguished service to the cause of freedom. Vice President Johnson and I have discussed the naming of one of these ships in honor of the late speaker of the House, Sam Rayburn.

"We feel that there has been no one who has made a greater contribution to the progress of this nation nor has rendered greater service to the people than he.

"Mr. Sam will be remembered as a leader who was fearless in exercising the power of the office but who did so with greatest wisdom always in the best interest of his nation. His contributions for more than 40 years in the congress of the United States were significant in maintaining our democratic way of life.

"You will be glad to know that I have asked the Secretary of the Navy to name a Polaris submarine the U. S. S. Sam Rayburn. The secretary will release this information to the press shortly.

Lions Sponsor Sea Scouting Group Here

A new Sea Scout "Ship," sponsored by the Downtown Lions Club of Snyder, has been organized and is now beginning to function under the leadership of "Skipper" Gerald Pullig.

Committeemen helping with the project include D. V. Merritt Jr., M. H. Roe, T. E. McCollum, G W. Ferguson, and Cecil J. Boren.

Sea Scouts who have already joined the organization include Jay Rogers, Gary Hill, Charlie Shockley, Norman Andertor, and James Moss III.

Any other boys interested in Sea Scouting may acquire information on the unit by contacting Pullig.

WOMEN

YOUNGSTERS WHO take lunch to school may enjoy concocting their own soup combinations to stir up and carry in a wide-mouth vacuum jar.

Advice For Lunch Boxers

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

HOW MUCH organization can your family take?

Do kitchen affairs run smoothest when there are well-ordered plans? Or does a set schedule create tension? It may be that what might seem hit-or-miss arrangements work best for your family because with them everyone is relaxed.

This question is pertinent when it comes to packing school lunches for youngsters, whether they tote their noontime meal regularly or occasionally, and whether they do the preparation or you do it yourself. No kitchen organization is worthwhile if it creates a strained atmosphere. Better to have things casual and the family happy!

But whatever the temperamental tendencies of the members involved, highly organized or carefree, some families like to use what might be called The Pantry and Freezer Plan.

This involves giving over a small amount of storage space to canned and packaged foods to be used only for lunch boxes, refilling at regular shopping times. Available here may be favorite soups: canned fish and meat for sandwich use; buffet-size cans (about 8 ounces each) of fruits and vegatables—the latter to be added to soups, sandwich fillings or salads. Surprise items also often appear: small boxes of raisins; individual packages of crackers, cookies or potato chips. These pantry foods are, of course, supplemented by such fresh vegetables as tomato, carrot, lettuce, celery and cucumber: and such fresh fruits as oranges, apples, pears and grapes.

Then into the freezer go small packages of food specially ticketed for lunch box use. Pie-dough trimmings are sometimes made into a few meat or fish turnovers or individual fruit turnovers or individual fruit tarts or pies. Some sliced leftover meat or poultry parts add to sandwich variety, and are usually easily saved from Sunday's main meal.

Teen-age youngsters with hearty appetites often enjoy two sandwiches—one regular main-course type, the other sweet. The former might be chopped corned beef with chili sauce and lettuce, or tuna mixed with celery, drained canned peas, grated carrot and mayonnaise. The latter might be cream cheese and dates on raisin-cimmamon bread.

Along with regular packaging materials for lunch boxes, empty cottage-cheese containers can be put to practical use. They'll hold potato ot other salad to eat along with sliced meat or turkey or a chicken wing or drumstick; one of them will also hold a baked pear or apple with a special sauce, or a portion of leftover pudding.

Wide-mouth vacuum jars are best for carrying soup. If your youngsters like to experiment, they might enjoy creating some soup combinations of their own. Here's a new one, tried at our house and particularly like. The simple basic version is suggested for lunch boxes; our variation is interesting to serve at home.

LUNCH BOX SOUP

1 can (1¾ ounces) chicken noodle soup mix
3 cups boiling water
1 can (about 8 ounces) cream-style corn

In a 1½ or 2-quart saucepan, stir the soup mix into the boiling water. Cover partly and, stirring occasionally, simmer 7 minutes. Add the corn and reheat. Makes 4 about 1-cup servings.

HOME VARIATION: Dice fine a small onion and half a green pepper. In a small skillet melt 1 tablespoon butter or margarine over low heat; add the onion and green pepper; cook gently, stirring occasionally until softened; add to soup with corn and reheat.

NOTE: Choose yellow rather than white cream-style corn for this soup because the former adds attractive color. If you use part of a large can of corn, instead of the buffet size suggested, add 1 cup.

World Community Day Services To Be Held

Deepening the channels to peace will be the theme of World Community Day observances held by United Church Women on November 2. More special services than usual are expected in Texas this year.

Mrs. James A. Rogers, Texas chairman for World Community Day states, "United Church Women are well suited for the role of peacemakers in the goal set for our World Community Day observances—a peaceful world community. To successfully wage peace we must wage war against poverty, disease, exploitation and ignorance as urged by the assembly of the World Council of Churches in New Delhi."

Men and women must pool their skills to build toward a peaceful world community, but it is obvious that women are one of the most effective channels to peace in Southeast Asia as they are everywhere in the world.

Political and national plans are important, but unless they reach down through the narrow channels of village life to the high percentage of Asians who live in a rural environment, they will not improve family well being, educational opportunities or standards of living.

These are the areas which concern Christian women. These are the areas where women work best.

Last year United Church Women of Texas sent 4,225 school bags to the Latin American Countries—tools for learning. This year they are sending sewing kits, garments, fabrics and offerings to Southeast Asia to help improve family well-being which in turn wil help the Asians to help themselves.

Like most independent countries, this is what the countries of Southeast Asia want, a means to better help themselves, rather than charity.

By pooling their resources, church women strengthen their impact and at the same time set an example of the spirit of community, thereby deepening the channels of peace.

Texas Society, DAR Invited To Odessa Antique Fair

More than 500 personal invitations have been mailed to members of the Texas Society, Daughters of the American Revolution to attend the DAR Convention and the Odessa Antique Fair October 26-28.

Although the Antique Fair has nothing to do with DAR activities officially, the Antique Fair has been planned as a climax to the DAR Convention. The Nathaniel Davis Chapter TS DAR and the Hospitality Board of the Odessa-Midland Symphony Guild will co-host this colorful affair. In addition to the twenty famous antique dealers who will be exhibiting antique furniture, jewelry, glassware, silver, china, and other objects de'art, antique automobiles from throughout Texas and New Mexico will be on display Sunday, October 28, following a parade of the antique jalopies in downtown Odessa Sunday afternoon at 1:30 p.m.

The DAR, the nation's most ardent supporters of our Constitution, will begin registering at 2:00 p.m. October 26 in the Lincoln Hotel. Other programed activities for the DAR include a Sea Food Dinner at the Odessa Country Club for the State Officers and Past State Regents at 7:00 p.m. October 26. On October 27 State Officers and Past State Regents will be the breakfast guest of Mrs. H. W. Fullingim, 704 West 21st Street. The Nathaniel Davis Chapter, TS DAR will host the Business Meeting of the visiting divisions at 10:00 a.m. October 27, where John Ben Shepperd, President of the Odessa Chamber of Commerce, will deliver the welcome address. Mrs. John Eston Hall, State Regent, will preside over the business meeting. Buffet luncheon will be served at the Athletic Club in the Lincoln Hotel October 27, and, upon conclusion of the DAR business session, all members will visit the Antique Fair where Buffet Dinner will be served at 5:00 p.m. in the "Apple Tree Tea Room" at Floyd Gwin Park. At 1:30 p.m. October 28 DAR members are invited to ride in the Antique Car Parade which will assemble in front of the Lincoln Hotel, parade through downtown Odessa, and return to Floyd Gwin Park where the antique cars will remain on exhibition for the remainder of the day.

The Antique Fair is sponsored by the Odessa-Midland Symphony Guild as a fund raising project for that organization. Mrs. John Ben Shepperd of Odessa, Projects chairman of the Guild is assisted by sixteen members of the Guild's Hospitality Board representing a like number of cities from throughout West Texas and Southeast New Mexico.

Troy Roberts, President of the Odessa-Midland Chapter of the Antique Automobile Club of America, said he expects to assemble at least sixty of the nation's top antique automobiles from Midland-Odessa and other West Texas and southeast New Mexico cities.

Spicy Joe And Doughnuts Aplenty Star At Teenage Halloween Fete

With a quick glance in the crystal ball, we predict that this will be the brightest and spookiest of Haloween celebrations. The gypsies tell us the Tarot cards will foretell brilliant futures for everyone. And the refreshments—sweet and sensational Chocolate Doughnuts served with mugs of steaming Spicy Joe—are certain to cheer a crowd of teenage party-goers.

The hostess can give mother a helping hand with the doughnuts, well ahead of the scheduled holiday festivities. But the hot, hearty Spicy Joe, a combination of spicy coffee and hot milk, is prepared just before it is poured into mugs for serving. Flavored with cloves, allspice berries and cinnamon, the coffee is a tempting treat for one of the most bewitching nights of the year.

Chocolate Doughnuts

1 cup sugar
2 eggs, beaten
1 cup milk
1-3 cup melted shortening
2 squares chocolate, melted
4 cups sifted all-purpose flour (about)
4 teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon salt

Add sugar to beaten eggs, beating constantly. Stir in milk. Add melted shortening and melted chocolate. Mix well. Mix and sift 3-2-3 cup flour, baking powder, cinnamon and salt. Stir in. (Add remaining flour if dough seems too soft.) Chill until dough is easy to handle. Roll out ¼-inch thick. Cut with doughnut cutter (reserve small rounds of dough from holes.) Fry doughnuts and balls in shallow fat (2 inches deep) heated to 370 degrees F., turning once. Drain on absorbent paper. Toss small balls in Orange-Flavored Sugar. Makes 2 dozen doughnuts and the same number of balls.

Orange-Flavored Sugar

Add 1 tablespoon finely grated orange peel to ½ cup sugar. Mix well with fingers.

Spicy Joe

Brew 6 servings of coffee according to your favorite method. As soon as the coffee is brewed add four 2-inch sticks of cinnamon, 12 whole cloves and 12 allspice berries. Hold at serving temperature 15 minutes. Do not allow to boil. Strain into pitcher. Add 4 cups hot milk. Mix well. Sweeten to taste. Makes 8 generous servings.

Author Of Cook Book Truly Great Benefactor To Man

By INEZ ROBB

When I read the obituary of Mrs. Irma S. Rombauer last week, I felt that I had lost one of my best friends, even though I had never seen or met the 83-year-old author of "The Joy of Cooking."

Her masterpiece has been a lamp unto my culinary feet for so many years that I some times thought of her as a member of the household. Indeed, through her book, I have spread domestic peace and tranquillity through the land for almost a quarter of a century.

For years I have mailed a copy of "The Joy of Cooking" to my friends and then to my friends' children when they were married. In all modesty, it seems to me that no writer of advice to the lovelorn can or could do more to make marriage a happy and an honorable estate.

Since the genesis of her famous book began with a pamphlet designed for a bride—her own daughter, Mrs. Marion R. Becker of Cincinnati—it was and is a helping hand to the newlywed.

'(It was always Mrs. Rombauer's wise contention that any woman could learn to cook if (1) she could read and (2) could tell when water boiled. Ergo, there is no excuse for poor cooking.)

Her daughter's friends kept Mrs. Rombauer so busy copying the 100 recipes she had selected for Mrs. Becker that eventually the author expanded the recipes to 350 and had them mimeographed. She gave them away with no thought of profit.

Finally, it occurred to Mrs. Rombauer, a widow, that there might be money in a cookbook. So she added another 350 recipes, making 700 in all and had the book printed in 1931 at her own expense. The title she chose, "The Joy of Cooking," was not so much a name as a message.

The book enjoyed a pleasant enough sale in St. Louis, Mrs. Rombauer's home town, but it was not until Bobbs-Merrill took it over in 1936 that "The Joy of Cooking" began its slow growth into a national institution. It jogged along, selling 8,000 to 10,000 copies annually until 1943. Then one of the most dynamic Americans who ever lived, Wendell Willkie, defeated Presidential aspirant, accidently sent its sales skyrocketing.

In that year, Willkie's own book, "One World," was the No. 1 best-seller all over the nation with the single exception of St. Louis. In that city, "One World" played second fiddle to a new edition of "The Joy of Cooking" by a home-town author.

Mrs. Rombauer, always a shy woman who could seldom be coaxed to make a public appearance, picked up her courage and her pen and wrote Willkie. She apologized prettily for the fact that she and St. Louis had kept him and his book from a clean sweep of first honors from coast to coast.

In turn, Willkie wrote Mrs. Rombauer a charming missive saying he was delighted to yield honors to her in St. Louis, since Mrs. Willkie had used "The Joy of Cooking" as a kitchen Bible for several years. There followed a note from Edith Willkie.

The delightful correspondence between the three was widely printed around the nation. It sent the sale of the cookbook skyrocketing to 75,000 copies in 1943. (That is the famous wartime edition of the cookbook, which many cooks still cherish. The resourceful Mrs. Rombauer, mindful of wartime shortages, wrought a miracle by coming up with an Angel Food Cake that called foronly two eggs instead of the traditional 12 to 13.)

Ever since Wendell Willkie lent a helping hand, the Rombauer cookbook has sold 90,000 to 100,000 copies annually, an inspiration to women and a godsend to the men they feed. The book, which started out as a handfull of family recipes set down for a bride, made Mrs. Rombauer a millionaire.

No woman ever earned money more gloriously or was a greater benefactor to mankind in the process. Ave atque vale, with love.

Reds Urge Session Of Kennedy, Krush

NEW YORK (AP) — The Communist party, U.S.A., urged President Kennedy Tuesday to meet immediately with Soviet Premier Khrushchev on the Cuban crisis.

The telegram from Gus Hall, leading Communist spokesman, also urged "suspension of all proposals which can aggravate war danger," but did not refer directly to the President's quarantine action.

War Scare Will Rule Stock Market

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The war scare as it grows or ebbs in coming days will rule the stock and commodity markets.

Stock prices tumble if war seems imminent or, worse, if it starts. Fear of what war will do to peacetime industry sends prices of stocks of consumer product makers tumbling. What passes for prosperity in wartime is quite different from the real thing in peacetime.

But a scare, if it seems to be no more than that, can bolster stocks of companies that traders guess—they can't always be sure—will get increased military orders and profit from them, or can convert quickly from consumer to defense production.

Actual war disrupts stock markets everywhere. After the outbreak in 1914 of World War I the New York Stock Exchange was closed for four and a half months.

Commodity prices usually rise sharply at the first hint that world trade routes may be clipped, or that businessmen will be rushing to stock up on supplies before they become scarce, or that housewives will buy anything from food to appliances they fear may be rationed.

Sober second looks may change this. At the time of the Korean War, American housewives went on a scare buying binge, despite assurances that the war was too small to disrupt consumer production or to tax production facilities. Only after food began spoiling on the shelves did some of them learn that all they had done was send prices up needlessly.

Stock traders will be busy trying to guess how serious the quarantine of Cuba will be—what the reaction of the Soviet Union or of some of our allies shipping goods to Cuba, will be.

If the United States succeeds in calling Soviet Premier Khrushchev's hand, there well may still be an aftermath of a bigger build-up in U.S. defenses. There is almost sure to be a belief among American businessmen and consumers alike that trouble will be just that much more likely in other parts of the world where Khrushchev tries to regain face.

Paring industrial material stocks tends to stop even when a war scare turns into a shaky peace. Buying of consumer goods, already planned, may be delayed no longer by many families.

While Americans are trying to decide how serious this war scare is, or while they're wailing for the Soviet Union to react—in deeds, that is, not words—many are expected to follow the usual pattern. The timid will sell stocks, preferring cash in hand. Others will stay on the sidelines and put off any buying plans. Some will look for stocks they think will profit from a defense buildup.

Few sober observers will argue there's anything healthy about the fever-glow of wartime activity or of massive defense buildups.

Problem For Entire World, Says Batista

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain (AP) Fulgencio Batista, ousted by Fidel Castro as president of Cuba, said Tuesday the Cuban crisis was to be solved "by those who presently bear the responsibilities in the world."

Batista called the situation very serious, but noted he had been separated from active politics since Castro took over Cuba Jan. 1, 1959.

"I do not possess enough information on the events," he added.

Junior Editors Quiz on ANIMALS

QUESTION: Do porpoises and dolphins actually talk to one another?

• • •

ANSWER: These animals—especially dolphins—have received a lot of attention in the last few years. This is mostly because they are gay and amusing captives in a tank and seem to love to have human beings looking at them. Recently, however, a scientist, Dr. John C. Lilly, has been trying to find some animal whom he can train to understand human speech and talk back. He says there are only two kinds of animals with big enough brains to do this: elephants, and the whale family, of which the dolphin is one kind. Dr. Lilly has concentrated on studying dolphins in special tanks wired so that he can catch sound. He finds they definitely do whistle, click, bark and so on. They are also said to carry on conversations with one another by buzzing and whistling sounds.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Listen to birds' notes. They certainly signal to each other, about danger and so on. These signals are not "talk" as we talk, but can you figure out what some of their notes mean?

• • • 10-24

Tough Policy Rejuvenates Latin America

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

MEXICO CITY (AP)—The United States appears to have electrified Latin America and to have leaped overnight to a position of real leadership in the Western Hemisphere with its bold showdown challenge to the Soviet Union.

Latin American sources attending the hemisphere finance ministers conference here say that the initial shock has worn off and that Latin leaders are taking a new and appreciative look at Washington.

If the United States wins its gamble to halt the Soviet weapons buildup in Cuba, these sources say, it will be in a far better position than ever before to push ahead with the Alliance for Progress program to lead the hemisphere toward political, social and economic stability.

The extreme left is not expected to take all this lying down. The Communists and their Castroist allies in Latin America can be relied upon to do all in their power to threaten governments and leaders with noisy demonstrations and various forms of violence.

But something new has been infused into the Latin-American scene with the development of the greatest world crisis since the end of World War II.

The overwhelming vote of the Organization of American States in support of President Kennedy's decisions is a token of the change.

Latin Americans point out that President Kennedy's action will not necessarily make people of the hemisphere love the United States. But they say that if the Kennedy decision is made to stick, it will create respect for the United States of a sort which was not there before.

In private, Latin Americans of the educated class concede that their countries look for strong leadership. It is, they say, part of the heritage of the "caudillo," the strong chief who commands respect rather than affection.

In private they will concede, too, that they may say one thing while meaning another. In the past two years at hemisphere conferences, Latin-American leaders have stubbornly opposed strong action against Cuba, offering the explanation that pressures upon them left them no other choice. There is a hint in all this that if the strong leadership had been present the United States would have insisted stubbornly upon having its way and eventually would have won it.

President Kennedy's action against the Cuban buildup was taken without prior public blessings from the governments of Latin America. Yet even governments which had followed the soft approach to Castro readily fell in behind Washington.

The new thinking and the new hint of excitement have been reflected in speeches at the finance ministers conference. There are new calls for more positive, aggressive economic action, for planning which reaches down to the grass roots, for less bureaucracy and red tape.

There is also appearing a note of refusal to apologize any more to the extreme left.

In essence, there seems to be developing in Latin America a call to battle with the extremists on the economic, social and political fronts. For this, tough leadership in Washington might be just what the hemisphere doctors ordered.

Council Works For Inner Vitality In Church Life

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Roman Catholic leaders are working to develop means of putting more inner vitality into the outer forms of church life.

This is a basic emphasis as the Roman Catholic Ecumenical Council weighs extensive revisions in ritual and modes of worship.

It also signals a central theme for the council in the months ahead. "We expect a spiritual renewal," the council said in its initial message.

Such expressions have given a sort of evangelical tenor to this worldwide gathering of about 2,400 prelates.

The accent is on internal rejuvenation, rather than external structure. The idea runs through many of the proposals facing the council.

It is inherent in plans for harnessing the energies of laymen more fully in the church's work.

It is linked with moves to give more latitude to bishops in shaping policies in their own areas to meet specific human needs.

It is associated with efforts to clear the way toward greater Christian unity.

It is an underlying factor in proposals for a broader interpretation of the Church as a spiritual organism, not bound entirely to institutional lines.

It is a main objective of the remodeling of liturgical methods and aids to worship now under discussion.

Council specialists said the proposed technical changes seek to draw people more actively, personally and intimately into fuller participation in the spiritual exercises.

Some of the present practices and symbolic forms are "not understood by modern man," said the Rev. Edward Heston, of South Bend, Ind., a council consultant on liturgy.

Adjustments, he said, would simplify some of the customs, in order to draw people into closer inward involvement.

In regard to the over-all work of the council, Bishop Charles H. Helmsing of Kansas City-St. Joseph, Mo., noted: "Since the 16th century, the church has been careful to stress the church as a visible society with a hierarchy composed of the successors of Peter and the apostles.

This, of course, was a reaction to the contention that the Church as Christ established it is entirely invisible and known o God alone.

"Important as I think the traditional image of the Church is, even more important, I believe, is an appreciation of her inner life."

Officer Has No License

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — Superiors in Royal Oak Township say no patrolman is more conscientious about handing out tickets to traffic violators than Elijah L. Burt.

But to their distress they learned Tuesday that patrolman Burt doesn't have a driver's license himself.

Burt was involved in a traffic accident in February 1959, was convicted of reckless driving and then failed to pay a damage judgment won by the other driver.

Under Michigan law a driver who fails to satisfy a judgment growing out of a traffic accident loses his license.

A constable reportedly complained to Oakland County Prosecutor George F. taylor, who broke the news to Burt's boss, Capt. Ed Watkins. The latter said he didn't know the amount of the judgment, "but it was over $100."

Watkins said Burt had promised to pay it off within a week.

"He joined us a year ago and is one of my best men," said Watkins, "but until he gets his license back he's grounded and assigned a desk job."

Snyderite Scores High

Lynnda Ann Bradley of Snyder was one of the freshmen students scoring highest grades on entrance examinations at Hardin-Simmons University this fall, Dr. Hoyt Ford, H-SU director of testing, has reported.

Miss Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bradley, 3711 Avenue U, ranked highest on the English test. Other tests were in the fields of social science, natural science and mathematics.

A 1962 graduate of Snyder High School, Lynnda plans to major in psychology at Hardin-Simmons.

The American College Test series is given to all freshmen students entering H-SU. There are more than 500 freshmen in the school this fall.

Cox Attracts His Biggest Audience

By The Associated Press

Republican Jack Cox drew the largest audience of his campaign Tuesday night at Rio Grande City where he said "the people are tired of what is going on in state and national gvernment."

"There is a rumble of change in the state, and on Nov. 6 there is going to be a titantic change in Texas," he said.

The GOP nominee for governor addressed a rally estimated by newsmen to number from 5,000 to 7,000. Cox spokesmen said the number was higher.

Cox called for a two-party system and added, "as governor I pledge to you to develop industrial capacity that has never been dreamed of and which is impossible under a one-party system."

Speaking in Tulia, his Democratic opponent, John Connally, said Republicans in Texas want to use the state to gain national political power and are attempting to make a political pawn of Texas.

"My opposition is not interested in the problems that face Texas," Connally said. "They are hungry for power and their interest is only in national affairs," he said.

Connally ended a whirlwind tour of West Texas and the High Plains in Tulia Tuesday night.

He was to be in Austin and then South Texas today. He was to campaign in Alice then go to Victoria for another area-wide rally.

Cox was to address some 600 women invited to a luncheon at a Fort Worth Country Club today.

He was then to talk with Young Republicans at Texas Christian University.

Wednesday night he is to speak in Abilene and Thursday begin a two-day bus tour through Central Texas.

In Austin, Secretary of State Frank Lake reminded all statewide candidates with opposition that they must file a sworn statement of campaign expenses before and after the Nov. 6 voting. The first report is due not later than Oct. 29 and the second report not later than Nov. 16.

The statement must include all gifts, loans, debts, obligations and payments received or made before or after the announced candidacy, Lake said.

Candidates for a district office involving more than one county also must file expense reports with the secretary of state. One-county district candidates and county candidates file expenses statements with respective county clerks.

CROP Event Set Nov. 3

Nov. 3 is the date for the annual "Trick 'R Treat for CROP" in which the youth of the cooperating Snyder churches will canvass the houses in the city for contributions to the Christian Rural Overseas Program.

The Christian Rural Overseas Program is a nationwide effort by all churches to relieve suffering in distressed areas overseas. In addition to the churches in Snyder, the Junior Chamber of Commerce has been engaged in promotion and cooperation with the Ministerial Alliance.

Scribe's Next Try 'Blindfold Method'

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Reverting to the blindfold and lucky stab method of picking college football winners after missing on 13 of 56 games last week. That's an average of .786 and pulled the season's totals down to 197-72 for .791.

Texas over Rice: The Longhorns haven't lost and the Owls haven't won this season.

Alabama over Tulsa: Joe Namath must be one of the best collegiate passers in the country today.

Northwestern over Notre Dame: Notre Dame is powerful, strong, and slow. Northwestern is powerful, strong and fast.

Southern California over Illinois: The Illini have taken their lumps all season but nothing to those they will get trying to stop Trojan fullback Ben Wilson.

Ohio State over Wisconsin: Wisconsin has a great passing attack but Ohio State has Paul Warfield, a great defender against passes. The Badgers haven't won at Columbus since grandpa watched in 1918.

Louisiana State over Florida: The Louisiana Tigers have Jerry Stovall.

Washington over Oregon: But the Huskies will be too busy to think about next weekend's encounter with Southern California which decides the coast title and the Rose Bowl designation.

Arkansas over Hardin Simmons: The Texans have won but once in three years.

Michigan State over Indiana: Saimes, Lewis and Rubick give the Michigan State Spartans a real triple threat over the benchpoor Hoosiers.

Mississippi over Vanderbilt: They are playing this one in Memphis to spare the feelings of the Commodore followers.

Auburn over Clemson: The sophomoric Auburn team came of age in last week's triumph over Georgia Tech.

Penn State over California: California switched to the wing T this year but continues to fly in the wrong direction.

Missouri over Iowa State: The Iowans have only Dave Hoppmann while the Missourians have scads of competent backs.

Maryland over South Carolina: Dick Shiner, the Maryland passer, was outshone last weekend at Miami but won't go into eclipse for a second straight week.

Nebraska over Colorado: The Buffalo remnants of last year's Big Eight champions haven't the power to stop Dennis Claridge.

Skipping over the others in a hurry:

Friday

Detroit over Dayton.

EAST: Boston College over Houston, Brown over Rhode Island, Ohio University over Buffalo Columbia over Lehigh, Princeton over Cornell, Dartmouth over Harvard, Syracuse over Holy Cross, Boston University over Massachusetts, Pittsburgh over Navy, Rutgers over Pennsylvania, Yale over Colgate.

FAR WEST: Miami over Air Force, Arizona State over Texas Western, Wyoming over Colorado State, Idaho State over Montana, New Mexico State over North Texas State, Oregon State over West Virginia, Washington State over University of the Pacific, New Mexico over San Jose, Utah State over Brigham Young, Utah over Idaho, UCLA over Stanford.

Koy Kicks, Returns With Best Of 'Em

DALLAS (AP)—Ernie Koy, the Texas sophomore who kicks the ball out of here, also knows what to do with it when somebody else does the booting.

Koy not only leads the South-West Conference in punting with a 42.3 yards average but he tops the league in punt returns with a 21.7 average.

Koy is one of a flock of sophomores holding statistical leads in the league.

Jerry Lamb of Arkansas tops in pass-receiving with 16 catches for 238 yards, two touchdowns and a 2-point conversion. Then there's sophomore Jim Fauver of Texas Christian who has the highest average on kickoff returns. He has taken five back for a 25-yard average.

The conference is noted for its feuds so how about Hatfield and Koy? Ken Hatfield of Arkansas is second to Koy in punt returns with a 15.5 average. Ken also ranks third in kickoff returns with a 24-yard average.

Koy's chief competition in kicking comes from the Thomases. Garry Thomas of Texas Christian is second with a 40.4 average while Danny Thomas of Southern Methodist is third with 40.2.

Veteran Billy Moore of Arkansas leads the league in scoring with 42 points and there are veterans standing out in the punting and kickoff returns. George Hargett of Texas A&M has gained the most yards taking back punts with 138 on 11 runs. Ronnie Goodwin of Baylor has the most kickoff return yards with 214 on 10.

Colts Race Past Frogs

The unbeaten but once-tied Colts, champions of the Boys' Club football league, ended their season impressively here Tuesday by rolling past the Frogs, 24-6.

It represented the fifth win for the champs as against an early-season scoreless tie involving the Frogs.

Quarterback Jodi Williamson, who led all ground gainers for the day with 66 yards, put the Colt eleven into the lead in the second quarter on a one-yard plunge, after which Billy Bowden's conversion run upped the count to 8-0.

Ronald Ward scampered over from eight yards away later in the period to put the Frogs back in striking distance, but a 20-yard scoring romp by Raymond Rios and extra-point run on the part of George Kay just before halftime served to give the Colts a fairly comfortable 16-6 intermission advantage.

They capped off scoring in the final period on a four-yard TD sprint by Kay and a Williamson-to-Larry Lofton conversion toss.

Statistically, the Colts netted 164 yards, picked up nine first downs, were penalized 20 yards, lost one fumble and intercepted one enemy pass.

The Frogs gained 104 yards, had five first downs, intercepted one pass, and had no penalty yardage stepped off against them. Quarterbacks Roy Lee and Ward led the Frog ground gainers of the day with 31 and 28 yards, respectively.

The Bears (3-2) and Hotshots (2-3) tangle Thursday at 4:45 p.m. in the league's season-ender.

Maryland has won every Atlantic Coast Conference team wrestling title for the past nine years.

SPORTS

Between You And Me

BY JERRY JACKSON

It's shaping up as a colorful spectacle in Lamesa Friday, wast with Greene, Brown, and White all pegged for extensive duty. And "Blue" Lowry will be recording it all on film, of course.

Greene and Brown, as I'm sure you've guessed, are Pete and Leslie of the Snyder Tigers. Greene, a guard on offense and linebacker on defense, has helped to give the Bengal line solidarity. Brown is the sophomore whiz who is pacing the Tigers in rushing, pass receiving, scoring, and related activities.

The "White" designation is in reference to Jay White, Lamesa's bruising 200-pound junior fullback and the leading scorer in the district with 42 points. He's picked up 403 yards on 67 carries for an average of six yards per, and is one of two prime backfield targets high on the Tiger list.

The other half of Lamesa's 1-2 punch which has helped to bring the Tors a 4-1 record outside the family circles is quarterback Sherrill Kidd. He isn't a wheelhorse on the scoring end of things—six points is all he's accumulated so far—but he rates as a constant threat in both the passing and running departments in addition to being a dependable and respected field general.

His 5.5 yard-per-carry rushing average, based on 31 carries, is quite remarkable for a quarterback. Add to that his 371 passing yards (30 strikes in 57 attempts) and it gives him a total of 541 yards gained—second only to Brownfield's Bobby Davis in district total offense.

Both White and Kidd will be hard to contain, but the Tigers have the defensive potential to do just that. The Bengals should be able to hold the Tors below their 18-point-a-game clip, but will probably have to at least double their own 6.8 average in order to bring home a victory.

TOUGH TEST — Coach Leslie Johnson (above), in his first year at the Hermleigh grid helm, guided his Cardinals to a 30-6 victory Saturday in their District 8-B opener against Bronte. Upset Fever In Air At Hermleigh

HERMLEIGH—Football fever, a welcome disease against which there is no known immunization, is running high here this week, as the host Cardinals prepare to cope with District 8-B favorite Robert Lee.

Redbird historians are hoping that Friday's engagement will constitute Robert Lee's Appomattox, however. A Hermleigh triumph would fall into the "major upset" category, but the feeling hereabouts is that it's a trick that could very well be done.

After a slow start in which the injury-riddled Cardinals dropped their first five contests, they have come back strong with a pair of wins in their most recent outings. They warmed up to the occasion by nudging Sands, a 3-B outfit, by 8-6 in a game that wasn't as close as the score would indicate.

The Cards followed up Saturday by scaling the heights in romping past Bronte 30-6 to open 8-B play, much to the delight of a homecoming crowd.

Robert Lee will be making a belated start in its district opener when it takes the field against the Cards. The Lee eleven will bring with it an outstanding won-lost record which includes five triumphs and a sole 14-0 loss to Class A Ozona.

Hermleigh is in its best physical shape of the season, however, and visions of an upset are running rampant.

The Friday night contest is the last home game of the season gracing the Cardinal schedule, as they are slated to travel to Loraine and Trent for their final two district battles of the campaign.

Cowboys In New Role As Flag Contenders

DALLAS (AP)—Dallas football fans woke up this week to the fact that their Cowboys had become real contenders for the National Football League championship.

Coach Tom Landry said it was nothing new to him—the Cowboys were running on schedule. He figured it would require three years to build a team that might go after the title. And this is it.

"We have an equal chance with any team in the Eastern Conference," he declared.

The Cowboys already have beaten Los Angeles, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh and tied leading Washington. Losses have been to Pittsburgh and Cleveland by close scores.

Mahan And Cannon To Carry Load

LUBBOCK—Texas Tech, with its alumni returned for homecoming, will engage Southern Methodist in a Southwest Conference football game in Jones Stadium at 2 p.m. Saturday.

More than 30,000 fans are expected to watch the Red Raiders try for their first victory of the season. SMU gained its initial triumph with a 15-7, regionally-televised upset of Rice University in Dallas last week.

Texas Tech is hoping to rebound from a 28-6 loss handed the Raiders by Baylor in Waco last week.

SMU has a 5-4 margin in the rivalry, the edge being attained via an 8-7 triumph last year in Dallas.

With Johnny Lovelace and James Ellis apparently sidelined for the season with leg injuries, Richard Mahan and Doug Cannon will do most of the quarterbacking. In reserve is Allen Shuler.

Tiger-Tor Tabs Are Up For Grabs

A large group of Snyder grid fans are expected to make a Friday exodus to Lamesa in order to witness the opening 3-AAA battle between the two teams, and everyone planning to make the trip is reminded that advance tickets are currently on sale at the School Administration Office.

Reports from Lamesa indicate that the 7:30 game will be a "standing room only" affair, so it would be to the advantage of local fans to purchase tickets ahead of time.

The ducats will remain on sale through noon Friday, and are priced at $1.50 for adults and 25 cents for students.

History On Owls' Side

HOUSTON (AP)— The nation's number one ranked college football team, the University of Texas Longhorns, will be battling history Saturday when they go against the Rice University Owls.

The Owls and the Longhorns have played each other 48 times, and Texas is leading with 29 victories, to 19 for Rice. In the new Rice Stadium, though, the story is different. The two teams met on the new terrain first in 1950 and since then Rice holds a 4-2 winning edge.

The Rice teams in 1957 and 1958 met nationally ranked teams and knocked them from their pedestals. Texas A&M College was rated number one in the nation in 1957, so Rice whipped the Aggies 7-6. In 1958, Texas came along with a No. 4 ranking and the Owls sent the Longhorns home with a 34-7 loss.

Fullmer Loses Title

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The long reign of Gene Fullmer as king of the world boxing association middleweight division was over today, terminated by a mauler and brawler much in the same mold as the Utah strong boy.

The new ruler is Dick Tiger of Nigeria, the British Empire champion of the 160-pounders, who won the title by unanimous decision Tuesday night in 15 rough, bruising rounds before a crowd of 11,600 in Candlestick Park.

There was blood, as is usual with a Fullmer fight; but no knockdowns. There was drama, as a host of Tiger's countrymen, resplendent in the flowing robes of their native land, swarmed into the ring and hoisted their idol to their shoulders.

Fullmer, unbeaten in 17 straight ring engagements, met defeat in the eighth defense of the crown he had won in this same city by a 14-round knockout over Carmen Basilio Aug. 28, 1959.

Fullmer fought the last 4½ rounds in a familiar Fullmer pattern. He was cut and bleeding from gashes over both eyes, but he was still flailing away with both fists at the final bell.

Fullmer will meet the 33-year-old Nigerian again Jan. 19 in either Bozeman, Mont., or Las Vegas, Nev.

Does he think he can whip Tiger in the rematch?

"If I feel like I can't, there won't be one," said Fullmer. "Right now I don't feel I can't.

"Now I'm the champion I think I'll stay the champion," was the response from Tiger.

A modest fellow, Tiger had praise for Fullmer. "After three or four rounds I knew I was tangling with the champion."

There was a disagreement in another area, Fullmer said he was accidentally butted in the ninth round. It slashed open a small cut inflicted in the second round.

Tiger claimed the ninth-round gash, which brought blood pouring down to Fullmer's shiny white trunks, came from a solid smash with a right hand.

Referee Frankie Carter had it 10-1, judge Jack Downey 9-5 and judge Vern Bybee 7-5. Under the California system of one or more points to the winner of a round, none for the loser and zero for an even round.

Tiger is the second Nigerian to claim a world title, one he must share with America's Paul Pender, who is recognized in Massachusetts, New York and portions of Europe.

Tiger whose real name is Richard Ihetu, has been boxing since 1955. His record now is 46 victories, 12 defeats and two draws.

An estimated 11,600 paid a gross of $101,000, some $54,000 shy of the break-even figure. Tiger was guaranteed $25,000 and Fullmer 45 per cent of the live receipts, plus 66 2-3 per cent of the revenue from the closed circuit theater television, shown in 48 cities.

Wilt Meshes 56 Points In Frisco Romp

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—There was no mistaking the star as the Warriors made their National Basketball Association debut in San Francisco a winning one Tuesday night with a 140-113 victory over the Detroit Pistons.

For Wilt Chamberlain, a 7-foot 1-inch ace, who set league scoring records for the team in Philadelphia the past seasons, scored 56 points in the new uniform to pace the assault at the Cow Palace.

Facing competition from the Gene Fullmer-Dick Tiger middleweight championship boxing match in nearby Candlestick Park the inaugural drew only 5,215.

As new coach Bob Feerick started an all-veteran lineup, Ted Luckenbill took the honor of scoring the first points and went on to tally nine of the first 11.

In the other NBA action Tuesday, the Cincinnati Royals rallied to edge the Los Angeles Lakers 116-115 and in another one-point affair, St. Louis beat Chicago 110-109. Syracuse beat New York 123-119.

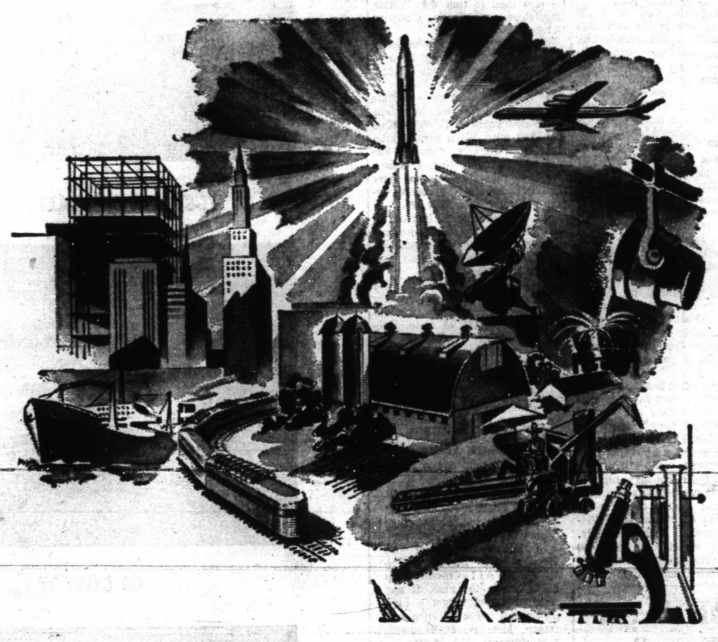

Those results left Syracuse with a 3-0 record atop the Eastern Division and St. Louis with the same leading mark in the Western.

San Francisco opened later than the other teams and the Pistons made a determined bid early in the second half to win their first game in three tries. But after the count was closed to 71-67 for the Warriors, Chamberlain's jump shot began hitting and he sank eight field goals in the quarter.

HERE ARE THE RULES OF THE CONTEST

In each advertisement on this page you will find the contestants in a prominent football game being played in the country this week-end. Get an entry blank from one of the merchants who are helping sponsor this contest and whose message is on this page. Fill in your selection of the WINNING TEAM only . . . opposite the name of the firm on the entry blank. Then send your complete blank to FOOTBALL CONTEST EDITOR, THE SNYDER DAILY NEWS. Entries must be in the hands of the editor by 12 o'clock noon, Friday. Games ending in a tie score must be specified as a tie or else it will be considered a miss.

If there is a tie for first place the winners will divide the cash money of $12.50 and no second prize will be given. If there is a first place winner and a tie for second place, the second prize winners will divide the money for the place. If more than two persons tie for second place, no second prize money will be awarded and the cash will be added to next week's prize. Tie for perfect score will split $25.00. There will be fun for the entire family. Only one entry blank will be permitted from any one person. More than one will disqualify all of the person's entries. Scores listed on the entry blank will have no bearing on the choice of the winner. Sign your entry blank and list your address and phone number — and watch for the story on next Wednesday's front page for the winners. Hurry now, and get your entry blank from one of the merchants on this page. The contest blank must be in your own handwriting. Employes of The Snyder Daily News and their families are not eligible to enter.
