

NICHOLS' WORTH

By: Nanalee Nichols

On last Wednesday night we have covered two major accidents involving five vehicles and one fatality.

How the loss of life kept from being higher is something of a miracle. But there is another near-miracle that occurs at these times that I've been observing for years. Too much cannot be said about it.

This near-miracle arrives in the form of volunteer firemen and rescue men.

I watched units from volunteers at Blossom and Reno work Wednesday night. I watched units from Bogata, Talco and Clarksville work Sunday afternoon. I've watched Deport, Pattonville, Cunningham...all of them, over the years.

They are tremendous. They do it has to be done...directing traffic, clearing dangerous debris, helping the injured, comforting the stricken. Sometimes what they do is difficult, dangerous work. Sometimes it is simply disturbing.

These people don't do this for a living. They take time out of their normal lives to train as much as they can. They may nly be faced with a specific situation once or twice during their "careers" as emergency personnel.

But they are always there...always working hard and doing a fantastic job.

Consider sometimes what an accident scene would look like without the volunteers. One highway patrolman, when he arrived from somewhere in his huge territory, a county deputy or two, also trying to cover a large area, and the paramedics in the ambulance...again called from a larger town and taking some time to arrive on the scene.

To this, add the traffic streaming by, curious onlookers, wreckage blocking the road, injured people needing attention, sometimes the danger of fire.

Without the volunteer firemen and emergency teams there would be chaos...not enough people to handle the situation.

Volunteer firemen do a great deal more than just go to fires. They are on hand to search for the lost, to help at wrecks, to work during tornadoes, they never know exactly what type of thing they will be doing.

But work they do. For as long as it takes, through whatever the crisis may be. Then they go home, bone weary, and resume whatever their lives routinely are.

They may not be the classic television heroes we watch performing amazing dramatics on the screen. They are heroes.

City Council Appoints Marshall To Water Board

By Randy Corbell

The Bogata City Council made its appointment Monday to the Red River County Water District Board during regular session at the new city hall.

George Marshall, Sr. was appointed in a split decision to fill the Place 3 position being vacated by councilman A.G. Puckett.

About 20 citizens listened to the nominees and some shared their concerns about the appointment before councilwoman Billie Hervey nominated Marshall and was seconded by councilwoman Jettie Bond. Puckett chose to nominate local postmaster Jack Crane and was seconded by councilman Dr. Jack Troutt. Mayor W.T. Harbison broke the deadlock by giving his support to Marshall. Councilman Howard Ed Bryson was absent from the meeting.

Puckett said at the beginning of the meeting that he would not consider trying to hold the position and was upset over "rumors" that he had not represented the city.

"The water district is here, whether you're for it or not," he said. "I've not been politically for or against."

"The plan went to the vote of the whole county where it carried," he added, "so it (the Place 3 position) is actually not a representative of Bogata except to see that Bogata gets as fair a deal as Detroit, Bagwell or somewhere else."

Bogata voters went to the polls last fall in a 4-to-1 turnout against the water district proposition. However, the proposal was passed county-wide for the formation of the district and provided for its board of directors the power to levy maintenance and ad valorem taxes and the issuance of $7.2 million in bonds for construction of the reservoir.

"I think the representative on the board should reflect the people who voted," Marshall said prior to his appointment. "I would like to represent the people the way they voted. If someone wants to represent the whole county, they can face the county. I just want to represent Bogata."

Marshall, a local rancher, was one of three who filed a lawsuit against the county to have the election proposal nullified alleging the county did not follow Texas election procedure. The suit was later dismissed.

Crane mentioned the suit and expressed his concern for a swift, cost-efficient development of the district.

"The water board is going to be made," he said. "It's already cost an extra $15,000 because of this trip down to the courthouse. If you keep putting it off, dragging your feet with environmental studies and so forth, in the long run it's still going to be built. Only this time, it's going to be a whole lot more expensive than it is to get it built now while the interest (rate) is down."

The council also announced at the end of the meeting there will be an open house at the new city hall beginning at 10 a.m. Saturday, May 14.

City Election Set For May 7

The Bogata City election will be May 7. Voting will be at the Fire Station and polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The terms of Mayor W.T. Harbison and council members Dr. Jack Troutt and Jettie Bond are expiring. All three are seeking re-election to the council. No other candidates have filed for the positions.

ONE FATALITY and two injuries were the result of this two-vehicle accident Sunday afternoon near Bogata. Joy Wilson was killed and her mother, Nellie Williams, is listed in stable condition after the car driven by Mrs. Williams was hit by a pickup, according to DPS Trooper Jerry Conway. The driver of the pickup, Donna Stewart, was treated and released from Titus County Hospital. Her two children, ages 3 and 5, were unhurt in the accident. Here volunteers work to fold back the driver's side door so that Mrs. Williams can be transferred to a waiting ambulance. (Staff Photo)

One Killed, Two Injured In Wreck

One person was killed and two injured Sunday in a two-vehicle accident which occurred two miles southeast of Bogata on U.S. Highway 271.

Joy Nell Wilson, 58, of Denton was pronounced dead at the scene after the car in which she was a passenger with her mother was hit broadside by a pickup at 1:50 p.m., according to the Department of Public Safety report. Nellie Williams, 76, of Bogata and Donna Stewart, 25, of Mt. Pleasant were taken by Emergency Medical Service to Titus County Memorial Hospital where Mrs. Williams remained Monday in stable condition. Mrs. Stewart was treated and released.

Mrs. Williams was driving a 1986 Ford Tempo southeast and attempted a left turn into her driveway when a 1975 Ford pickup, driven northwest by Mrs. Stewart, crashed into the right side of the car, according to investigating DPS officer Jerry Conway.

Mrs. Stewart's two children, Joseph, 3, and Rebecca, 5, who were passengers in the pickup, were reported to be uninjured. Talco and Bogata EMS and firefighters responded to the call. Justice of the Peace J.C. Watson pronounced Mrs. Wilson, who was formerly of Bogata, dead at 2:40 p.m.

Musical Nostalgia At Homecoming

By Mollie Williams

Laughter was mingled with a few tears as those attending the 1988 Bogata High School Homecoming were taken back in time with a musical program called "Reflections" under the direction of Neva Jean Oats, music teacher for the Bogata and Talco schools. Gene and Geneva Norwood revived memories of the 20's with songs from those days including "Look For The Silver Lining" and "Side By Side". Shirley Temple, all dressed in frills and curls, portrayed by Amber Norwood, sang the 1930's favorite "Good Ship Lollipop". Folks from the 1940's era thrilled to the song "Sentimental Journey" by the Andrews Sisters, portrayed by Neva Jean Oats, Freida Norwood and Linda Musgrove. Country music lovers remembered the legendary Hank Williams as Scott Norwood sang favorites made popular by Williams in the 40's.

Rock and roll fans from the 50's and early 60's were entertained with songs by the King of Rock and Roll, Elvis Presley, sung by various members of the Norwood family and several couples demonstrated the Jitterbug, a dance popular during that time. An instrumental, "Wipe Out", brought back memories of the Beach Boys from the 60's. In 1965 the last graduation exercises were held for Bogata High School Seniors due to the consolidation with Talco. The words from the song "Yesterday" made popular by the Beatles, summed up the feelings of that last year of BHS.

A style show was an added attraction on the program for this year's homecoming events. Lori Bush modeled the graduation dress worn by Iva Hooker in 1916 and Kathy Vickers modeled the basketball uniform worn by Ruth Wood in 1917. Lori Alford modeled a poodle skirt and saddle shoes much like those worn in the 1950's and 60's.

Mrs. Anne Cody was recognized as "A Special Person" during the program. In introducing Mrs. Cody, homecoming president, Louise Mauldin, said "Mrs. Cody has been our teacher, our friend and confidante. She's always been there when we needed her." Anne Lou West Cody was born in Dial, Texas and attended elementary and high school in Pecan Gap. She attended East Texas State Teachers College at Commerce where she met William Sherman (Bill) Cody. After graduating, she taught school at Dial for three years and at Brookston for two years. She married Mr. Cody on June 25, 1933 and they moved to Bogata where he had already taught school one year. Mrs. Cody taught at Bogata for five years as a full time teacher and then continued to substitute teach and help in various areas in the school for many years. Mr. Cody died in 1972. They have three children, Billie Ann Pierce of Oklahoma City, OK, William Harold Cody of Paris and Janette Brooks of Sunnyvale. They have eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Faye Bailey and Cathryn Killian, school friends of Mrs. Cody, each gave complimentary remarks about Mrs. Cody and recalled fond memories from their past school days.

A special ceremony was conducted honoring all veterans. Donald O'Donnell served as master of ceremonies. Each veteran gave their name and dates of service. Special recognition was given to the casualties of WWI, WWII and the Korean War and Viet Nam. Robert White played Taps as those veterans were remembered. A plaque bearing the names of Bogata servicemen killed while serving the country was presented to Bogata City Mayor, W.T. Harbison to be displayed in the new City Hall building. The plaque was given by the Bogata VFW Post 8187 and Ladies Auxiliary. The ceremony was concluded with the singing of God Bless the U.S.A.

The Bogata graduating class of 1988 and 1989 were recognized as having reunions. Mr. White received the gift for being the oldest man at the reunion, he is 72 years old. Mrs. Iva Hooker received the gift for the oldest woman, she is 91 years old. Wade Garrett of New York received the gift for traveling the most miles to attend the homecoming and Lillian Roseman received the gift for having the most children.

Louise Mauldin, Shirley Vickers and Mary Jo Porterfield were elected to serve as officers for the homecoming another year.

A small hint of sadness seemed to fill the air as the program was concluded and homecoming events drew to a close for another year. Perhaps the sadness stemmed from being reminded of the days when hearts were young and life was carefree or maybe because so many were missing that had been such a vital part of those days. Whatever the reason, the mood of the evening soon changed to a lighter one as those attending visited with old friends, reminisced about school days and viewed the school pictures on display.

Homecoming 1988 is over, but the memories surfaced by this year's program will no doubt linger in the hearts and minds of those who love Bogata High School for many days to come. And with these memories Bogata High School graduates will anxiously look forward to Homecoming 1989.

Where To Find Wildflowers

Wildflowers are blooming abundantly along Texas roadides. But where do beauty hunters find their favorite tapestries of color?

For the many motorists in search of the best floral road show, the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation provides a special service. Representatives in the department's 24 district offices can direct callers to the most bountiful wildflowers in their districts. The department's 11 tourist bureaus also have this information.

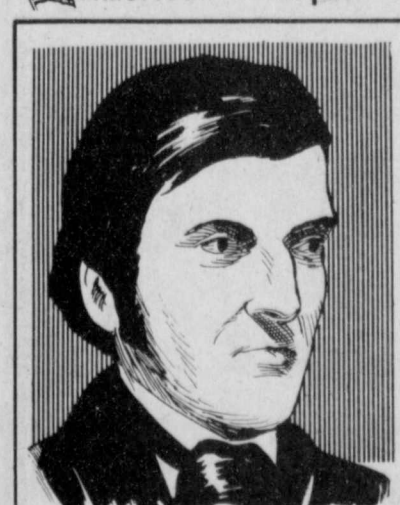

With more than a million acres of roadides to maintain, the highway department is the nation's largest landscape gardener, giving Motor Nature a little help through native plant and wildflower seeding programs.

The landscape programs, in all 254 of the state's counties, cut maintenance costs, save water, and control soil erosion on the roadides.

The highway department annually sows 40,000 pounds of wildflower seed along Texas roadides. "This program provides a source of pride and enjoyment for the citizens of Texas as well as the many visitors who appreciate our efforts to keep Texas beautiful," said Engineer-Director Raymond Stotzer.

In Paris, the number is 784-4311.

Wards Return From Trip To Great Britain

Lindsey and Ina Ward have just returned from a wonderful trip to Great Britain and Nanalee Nichols asked them to write an article about the trip.

After an all night flight, we landed in London, England March 22 at 8:20 a.m. We called the car rental, who picked us up at the airport and took us to get our rental car. Our son, Dr. Michael Ward and wife, Sharron, our grandson, Ward Jones, a college student in Wales, Lindsey and I. With Ward as our driver we traveled south and west to Stonehenge, a lot of mystery about Stonehenge, but begun about 3,000 years B.C. Always circular, always in the same spot. Chalk line, trenches, tribal chiefs burial mounds which are large rounded mounds evident for miles around. The stones were dragged in and set up, from South Wales probably, about 200 miles away. Slowly over hundreds of years, more stones were added in complicated formations. Stones are about 15 feet high. Purpose? No one knows for sure. The Celts were Druids. There is some kind of connection with the Equinox, I think. Romans invaded Britain about the fourth century, pushed the Druids (Celts) back. Six languages emerged, three north languages (Scottish, Irish Gaelic, Marx), three south languages (Welsh, Cornish, Britton). Welsh is the most prevalent.

We traveled (B roads) country roads admiring the pastures, looked as if they had been mowed with lawn mowers, hedge rows for fences, pheasants, grazing with the sheep, green grass and flowers everywhere. Next we arrived at Bath. A trip through the ancient Roman baths (hot springs) and museum, a cathedral beautiful, small, with stone markers of prominent people from the year 1100 stained glass windows, organ and altar. On to Caerphilly Castle. This area of England and Wales is very picturesque with many castles. Caerphilly Castle is interesting because it is surrounded by water (drawbridge, etc.). It was probably started about the year 1000. Wales is filled with hundreds of castles from the times when the Welsh were fighting the Romans and the Normans who were about 600 years later. The Romans never took Wales. The castles are all old fortresses, mostly from the Welsh/Norman fights. A castle would be built to hold an area as a base to capture more. The battles were hand to hand, knights, catapults, hot oil, moats, arrow slits, the stuff from fairy tales. King Arthur was supposedly a Welsh rebel leader. His legend was built up (like Robin Hoods). His father was Pendragon who put a Red Dragon on his flag. The Red Dragon now represents Welsh nationalism and pride.

The Normans finally conquered Wales about 1300. A Norman prince took on the title Prince of Wales, which Charles has today. So most of these castles were fortresses as well as being living quarters. The people are small, stout and very energetic. They are the most powerful nationalists in Britain. The nationalist party has several seats in Parliament. A bit of history learned. We spent most of one day at Cardiff, Wales, at the Folk Museum. The agriculture exhibits were most interesting to Lindsey and Michael. I think we understood why we had (chips) french fries at most meals. We traveled the country roads to Lampeter Dyfed. Former President Jimmy Carter was there last year. Ward's friends had prepared dinner for us at the Dorm. What a joy to visit with nice young people and learn about their lives in Great Britain. Most older people speak Welsh there and the young are speaking more Welsh today. We traveled to Llangrenog, Wales. A seacoast town so beautiful with five or six foot waves coming in. We took our time through the Lake District going north, amazed at plowing up and down hills and no gullies or washes, immaculate pastures and farmland, homes, some with straw thatched roofs, dry rock fences and hedge rows.

We crossed north England to south of Edinburg, Scotland. My ancestors came from this area. We passed the community of Hume and the Hume Castle, partly in ruins, once a fortress, on to Wedderburn Castle, seat of the Humes since 1413. It is being restored now and we were allowed to come in and see the work that has been done and the old furnishings that the original families used there. We were allowed to make photographs and were given the history of the family from that area. We followed the coastline on roads only wide enough for a small economy car to travel, sometimes almost straight up. Thank goodness we only met the mail truck at a pullover. I think I left my stomach in the little town down below. The ocean was so beautiful and the little fishing villages so picturesque.

Next we went to Edinburgh, Scotland. We visited Edinburgh Castle, and Museum, also St. Margaret's Chapel, built about 1040. Mike and Sharron walked the Royal Mile, many historical places of interest. Lindsey, Ward and I went to Palace of Holyroodhouse. This is Queen of Great Britain's home when she is in Scotland. It also was Mary, Queen of Scots home. We toured the palace a lot of ancient history comes back.

We visited Dunbar Castle, mostly ruins, seagulls have nests on the east side as it is right on the coast of the Atlantic Ocean.

We are still traveling north. We saw "Blue" cattle. Long-haired, a mixture of Highland, Angus and Shorthorn, that gives them a blue long-haired frosted look. We spent the night in Couper Angus with a nice couple. The wife prepares the meals and the husband serves them. Always formally in three or four courses and what breakfasts! Juice, cereal, eggs, gammon (ham), sausage, toasts, jams, broiled mushrooms and tomatoes and sometimes blackened cakes. We found the people of Great Britain friendly and kind everywhere we went.

We went north to the Highlands to Pitlochry. The mountains were snowcapped and some covered with snow. We traveled through the Loch Country. Loch Lomond was most impressive to me. Its time to start south and York in England is our next destination. York is famous for its ancient city walls, 15 feet thick, 20 to 30 feet high. The city has a Viking influence that is most interesting. We visited Yorkminster Cathedral with the largest stained glass windows in the world. We took country roads to London, took the "tube" subway to Buckingham Palace, saw the changing of the Horse Guards at Whitehall, House of Parliament, Big Ben, Westminster Abbey, No. 10 Downing Street (Margaret Thatcher's home), a walk in the park at Buckingham Palace and Lindsey and I were exhausted, so back to the hotel. We left London the next morning and flew north. I could see the ocean and icebergs from the air. There is a reason for flying north and then south that has something to do with the rotation of the earth. It was good to get back to familiar ground at Dallas from a trip we will never forget.

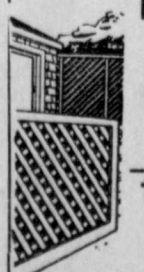

TRAVELERS-Lindsey and Ina Ward of Bogata are shown standing in front of Holyrood House in Scotland during a recent trip. The Wards, their son and daughter-in-law and grandson toured England, Wales and Scotland from March 22 through April 30.

Power lines vs. the bottom line for employers

If you're an employer, you want to take steps that have a favorable impact on your bottom line performance.

Electrical safety is one of those steps.

By educating your employees about the danger of contacting power lines with anything — backhoes, winches, ladders and other equipment — you can help prevent serious accidents.

You'll avoid valuable time lost on the job and give your employees a safer working environment.

For more information about the potential dangers of power lines, call or visit a TNP office today.
