Dorticos Urges U. N. To Condemn Blockade

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — In a stormy General Assembly session, Cuban President Osvaldo Dorticos Torrado demanded today that the United Nations condemn as "an act of war" what he called a U.S. naval blockade.

Burglaries Are Reported

The Snyder city police reported that thieves entered Lamb Chevrolet and Wilson Motors early this morning.

A cigarette machine at Wilson Motors was reported burglarized. There was no report of anything missing at Lamb Chevrolet.

Carlos Little Mexico was also burglarized over the weekend. That robbery took place sometime after 1:30 a.m. Sunday.

Carlos Little Mexico was also burglarized over the weekend. That robbery took place sometime after 1:30 a.m. Sunday. The Little Mexico also was the victim of thieves about three weeks ago, on Sept. 12.

First Withdrawal Of Troops Slated

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army announced today the first withdrawal of regular forces sent to Mississippi and Tennessee a week ago because of integration riots at the University of Mississippi.

Secretary of the Army, Cyrus R. Vance said about 5,400 troops now at Columbus, Miss., and Memphis, Tenn., will leave for their home stations by air and truck.

About 14,000 troops will be left in the vicinity of Oxford, Miss., site of the university and scene of the riots which killed two and injured many.

The Army announcement did not identify the units being moved, nor the stations to which they will be returned.

Memphis, 87 miles north of Oxford, was used as a staging area. Although the Army has never put out a strength figure, it is known that about 15,000 paratroopers of the 82nd and 101st Airborne divisions were sent into the Mississippi-Tennessee area last week. The 101st is based at Ft. Campbell, Ky.

In addition, two battle group totaling about 2,500 troops moved from the Second Infantry Division, Ft. Benning, Ga., and three Military Police battalions totaling about 1,500 men, plus various engineer, truck company, and other support units, were drawn into the Mississippi situation.

leashed about 3,300 Mississippi National Guardsmen called into federal service after mobs attacked federal marshals attempting to enforce federal court orders for admission of Negro James H. Meredith to the University of Mississippi.

Another 7,500 Mississippi Guardsmen still are under federal orders.

Texas Cotton Yield Estimate Increased During September

WASHINGTON (AP) — Texas cotton prospects took a 75,000-bale spurt between Sept. 1 and Oct. 1, the Agriculture Department reported today.

The department said late rains improved prospects, raising the September forecast of harvest of 4.7 million bales to 4,775,000 million by October.

Nationally, the department estimated the crop at 14,675,000 bales.

This figure is 12,000 bales less than last month's forecast of 14,687,000 bales. It compares with 14,318,000 produced last year and 13,278,000 for the ten-year (1951-60) average.

and marketing quota program designed to prevent overproduction. This crop will be supplied by a reserve and surplus of about 7,700,000 bales accumulated from past crops.

The yield of cotton per acre for harvest was forecast at 448 pounds compared with 449 pounds indicated last month, 438 last year and 280 for the ten-year average. Production of American-Egyptian cotton was estimated at 97,500 bales compared with 98,000 forecast last month, 62,800 last year and 64,600 for the ten-year average.

In an accompanying report, the Census Bureau said 4,680,944 running bales of 1962 crop cotton had been ginned prior to Oct. 1. This compared with 2,683,390 bales ginned to the same date last year.

Flash Floods Hit Dallas In Wake Of Heavy Rains

A deluge struck Dallas Monday, triggering flash floods that swept cars off streets, caused some home evacuations and stranded residents.

The Dallas Times Herald called it one of the worst flash floods in the history of the city. Rain measured 4.67 inches between 3:08 a.m. and 7:30 a.m., practically paralyzing the northern portion of the city north of Northwest Highway-Loop 12.

Showers continued well after the height of the cloudburst, and continued moisture was forecast through Tuesday.

The Weather Bureau said the rains were concentrated from Dallas north, and particularly in northern Dallas County.

Police and fire department rescue units were besieged by calls to rescue stranded residents in north Dallas. All available rescue units and ambulances were on call by 8 a.m.

Carrollton, Farmers Branch, Irving, Mesquite and other Dallas county towns reported serious flooding.

Fire department equipment evacuated home residents, and automobile drivers from 16 areas of Dallas.

Department officials said it was impossible to estimate the number of residents evacuated or still trapped around daylight.

"There are a terrific number of people who can't get out of their homes, but they aren't in danger of their lives," one official said.

One unidentified man was found hanging on to a rope in swirling flood waters at Webb's Chapel Road and Park Lane, where he was rescued. An unidentified woman was rescued as she held to a stop sign not far away.

The Cuban president stressed the phrase "including the use of arms" in preventing the spread of Marx-Lenin doctrines in the hemisphere.

"This is most bizarre," he said. "Was it Cuba that was guilty of aggressions in this hemisphere?" he demanded.

"President Kennedy admitted that the Bay of Pigs invasion was carried out by troops prepared in the United States. Troops were prepared in one Central American country for invasion of another."

The former president showed surprising strength in the first rural districts to report. Quadros, whose main support in past elections came in the cities, ran up 921 votes in returns from the interior to lead two opponents.

Achomar de Barros got 636 votes and Jose Bonifacio, who enjoyed the bulk of official support, trailed with 606.

Quadros, now 45, who resigned as president in 1961 after only seven months on the job, was the central figure in Sunday's election.

Sparkling clear spring weather brought out a heavy vote for the 400 members of Congress, 45 of the nation's 66 senators and 11 of the 22 state governors.

Official results are not expected to be announced for three weeks.

Flooding was so severe that often rescue units could not enter the area.

One resident in far North Dallas reported that overlying waters from Je Creek swept a car into a ditch, carried it a half-mile down the creek, and under a railroad bridge. There were many other reports of cars completely submerged by the floodwaters.

"We woke up with water all over our house," said Mrs. Jerry B. Greene of 11736 Coral Hills Place.

"Shoes were floating around in side the house. Our car was nearly covered up. This is the second time this has happened.

In July, both our cars were caught inside the house, but the city didn't do anything to give up more adequate drainage.

"The water's so deep in our street, that you couldn't see a car there," she said.

She said several other houses on the street were also flooded with ankle deep water inside.

Another flooding report came from Mrs. T. A. Haddock of 214 Cindy Lane, also in far-North Dallas where water was ankle deep on her front porch. She said three cars on her street were damaged by water.

Gigantic traffic snarls resulted from flooded streets, and police had used up all of their traffic barricades, so many streets were submerged early Monday.

Lines of cars which extended out of sight were reported by police at the Tim FMEILD Traffic Circle.

Preston Road was closed. White Rock Creek at Greenville avenue was so deep that fire department rescue equipment could not be routed over the bridge.

Underpasses on North Central Expressway were deeply flooded, also, police reported.

Mesquite reported several streets closed by high water, as did Irving and Garland.

At one point, firemen called for a boat for a rescue mission.

The Weather Bureau said flash flooding would continue in North Dallas County for hours.

On Dallas' Central Expressway, a major artery into town, traffic appeared backed up bumper to bumper from Lovers Lane to wall north of Richardson, a large suburb 14 miles from downtown Dallas.

On the expressway, cars were stalled in low places in water that appeared to be as much as five feet deep.

Traffic accidents on the expressway added to the jam.

The bureau said the rain was locally heavy from Dallas northward and some shower activity was expected through Tuesday.

Some other rainfall totals included: Amar, Calif., 1.4; between Dallas and Fort Worth 1.35, Carrollton in the Dallas area 3.55, Weatherford 1.60, Mineral Wells, 1.45, Rockwall 1.95, Crandall 1.73, Carroll 1.38, Arthur City 4.2 and Haltom 4.2.

Skies generally were clear to partly cloudy over most of the state.

Meredith Is Back In Class

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — Negro James H. Meredith resumed classes without incident at the University of Mississippi today, starting the second week of desegregation at the 114-year-old institution.

In Washington, the Army announced it was pulling out about 1,400 troops now at Columbus, Miss., and Memphis, Tenn., the first withdrawal of regular forces sent to Mississippi, since riots greeted Meredith's arrival eight days ago. National Guardsmen have already been withdrawn.

About 1,000 troops still remain in the Oxford vicinity.

Test Is Detected

UPPSALA, Sweden (AP) — The seismological University of Uppsala University registered Sunday night another Soviet nuclear test in the Novaya Zemlya area, the institute reported today. It was the 18th in the present series to be recorded here and had an estimated power of three megatons.

Washington (AP) — The Supreme Court agreed today to take a further look at the whole question of prayers and Bible reading in public schools.

It announced it will review: — A decision by a three-judge federal court in Philadelphia that a Pennsylvania law requiring Bible reading in public schools violates the federal Constitution.

— A decision by the Maryland Court of Appeals, upholding a Baltimore school board regulation calling for a daily opening exercise of Bible reading and recitation of the Lord's Prayer.

In its last term, the high court ruled unconstitutional a prayer which New York State authorities had directed be used in public schools.

The court held that this official prayer breached the Constitution's provision for separation of state and religion.

The 22-word, nondenominational New York State prayer read: "Almighty God, we acknowledge our dependence upon Thee, and we beg Thy blessing upon us, our parents, our teachers and our country."

Among other actions in today's first business session of its new term, the Supreme Court: — Rejected an appeal by the State of Mississippi contesting the orders that resulted in enrollment of James Howard Meredith, a Negro, at the University of Mississippi.

— Agreed to review a school pupil transfer plan adopted by Knoxville and Davidson County, Tennessee, which entitles a pupil, either Negro or white, to transfer out of a school previously used only by the other race or having a membership predominantly of the other race. The question is whether this operates to preserve a racially segregated school system.

— Affirmed lower court decisions striking down Louisiana's segregated transportation laws and a Georgia attack on an Interstate Commerce Commission order barring bus operators from using terminals where segregation is practiced.

— Declined to consider an appeal by theater owners who failed in lower courts in efforts to block a large scale boycott of pay television in the Hartford, Conn., area. The boycott has been under way since June.

— Agreed to consider a complaint by Marion D. Green, a Negro, that Continental Air Lines Inc. refused to give him a job as a pilot

PASO Withdraws Connally Backing

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Endorsement of Democrat John Connally for governor was withdrawn Sunday by the Political Association of Spanish-Speaking Organizations—but the group said Republican Jack Cox would suit them no better.

PASO members meeting here voted to leave the endorsement of the candidates up to the individual county organizations.

A substitute motion to endorse Connally, offered by Gilbert Garcia of Fort Worth, lost 14 to 11. It was supported by Tarrant, Webb, Cameron, Hidalgo, San Patricio, Nueces and Pecos counties.

Counties defeating the measure were Bexar, Guadalupe, Dallas, Harris, Kinney, Travis, El Paso, Elmer, Kibbey, Wharton, Victoria, Jefferson, Comal and Medina.

A McAllen lawyer, Bob Sanchez, charged Garcia was a Connally's payroll as a paid employee.

Connally sparked the endorsement dispute. Speaking in San Antonio Friday and Saturday, he questioned if PASO had really endorsed him Aug. 26 when it laid down qualifications "diametrically opposed" to his campaign position. He also charged PASO was trying to run his affairs.

Dr. Hector Garcia, national president of PASO from Corpus Christi, said PASO is the victim of a "historical prejudice" and has few friends in the political arena who want to see it organized and united.

County Judge Robert Benavides, of Jarejo, urged the organization to remain united, to better conditions for minority groups in social and economic areas.

The membership in the Political Association of Spanish-Speaking Organizations is largely Latin-American.

Castro Frees Florida Man

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—John V. Martino, 31, began picking up today the threads of a life interrupted by three years in Cuban jails.

The Miami Beach businessman was dramatically freed Sunday by Fidel Castro and flown to Miami.

He had served 40 months of a 13-year prison term handed down on a 1959 conviction by a revolutionary court.

Martino, 30 pounds lighter, and his wife Florence, who filed the petition for release that Castro approved, planned to spend the day bringing each other up to date on happenings during their separation. Their three children were allowed to stay home from school.

Martino and his son Edward, were clapped in jail during a 1959 visit to Havana. He was accused of counterrevolutionary activities and tried on charges of attempting to fly political fugitives out of the country, despite the fact he had no plane nor a license to fly one.

Edward was released.

RIVAL CAB UNIONS COFFEE BREAK

Members of two rival Chicago cab unions charge each other as a scuffle broke out at Chicago's O'Hare International airport because one union protested the other campaigning by giving free coffee to drivers.

Robert Howard, right, is a member of the Teamsters union local giving out coffee as part of campaign to regain right to represent Chicago's 6,000 cab drivers that they lost in an election last year. Albert Yurkonis, left, is secretary of the independent union that replaced the Teamsters. Yurkonis and three others were arrested and charged with simple assault. (AP Wirephoto)

Doctoral Plans At ETSC Given Okay

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas Commission on Higher Education approved today four doctoral programs at East Texas State College, Commerce. The vote was 7-5.

The opposition was based mainly on the contention that the "role and scope" as outlined by the commission does not contain doctoral programs. The four areas approved were in student personnel services; supervision, curriculum and instruction; educational administration; and English.

Wins Prize As Speaker

Roy J. McCloskey, local agent for State Farm Insurance, was advised today that he had tied for second place among insurance agents participating in speaking engagements during the past year.

A $25 prize was awarded by the Southwestern Insurance Information Service.

Sumner Roberts, deputy regional vice president of State Farm Insurance Company, accepted a $25 check in behalf of McCloskey at a luncheon, and then forwarded the check to McCloskey.

In the information service program, agents are scheduled for speaking engagements, mostly on safety topics.

Woman Says She Was Held By Cubans

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A Mexican woman has arrived here from Cuba saying she had been held in jail for more than two months on charges of being a spy for the United States.

Mrs. Juana Margarita Bocanegra, 34, told newsmen Sunday she would ask the Mexican government to investigate the case.

"I lived days of horror and despair... without being guilty of anything," she said.

She said she went to Havana on Aug. 2 to see about collecting alimony payments she said she was owed by her former husband, singer Benny Moré.

"I was detained arbitrarily for 62 agents and sent to the women's prison at Guanajuat in Pinar del Rio Province without being allowed to talk to the Mexican Embassy," she said.

At the prison, she said, she was questioned daily and at one time put on a diet of water only for a week.

When she continued to deny that she was a U.S. spy, she said, she was twice put up against a wall as if they were going to shoot her in an effort to frighten her into confessing.

She said that as a result of the treatment she gave birth two months prematurely to a child which was taken away from her.

3 Mishaps Are Logged

Snyder city police reported three auto mishaps on Snyder streets Sunday afternoon. No injuries were reported in any of the accidents.

At 2:02 p.m. at Thirty-eighth and Denison streets a mishap involved a 1957 Chevrolet driven by James P. Feather and a 1960 Chevrolet driven by David P. Brown. Damage to the Feather car was estimated at $450 and to the Brown car at $150.

At 3:22 p.m. there was a mishap at Twenty-fifth Street and Avenue B. Involved were a 1953 Chevrolet driven by Barbara Ann Caldwell of Abilene and a 1955 Pontiac driven by Larry Glenn E. L. Damage to the Caldwell car was estimated at $100 and to the Loe car at $400.

An accident at Thirtieth Street and Avenue R at 5:45 p.m. involved a 1953 Ford pickup driven by Vicente Goano and a 1959 Chevrolet driven by Alton A. Carmichael of Wellman, Tex. Damage to the pickup was estimated at $250 and to the car at $200.

TROPICAL STORM IS CAUSE OF CROP LOSS

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A tropical storm in Sinaloa state last week caused crop losses of between $2.4 and $4 million.

The storm left at least five dead in the Mazatlan Pacific coast resort area. One hundred shrimp boats sailed out from Mazatlan late last week where they had taken refuge during the disturbance.

Tobacco Gifts Are Banned By Air Force

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force has banned tobacco companies from giving free cigarettes to its men in service hospitals, citing "ever increasing evidence" of a link between smoking and lung cancer.

The order, issued Sept. 17, stated that such evidence "can no longer be ignored," an Air Force spokesman said Saturday.

Guilty Plea Heard

James Edward Nebbett, Hermann, pleaded guilty this morning to County Court to a charge of DWI.

He had been arrested at 1:24 a.m. today in the 2400 block of Avenue K by the Snyder city police. He was sentenced to three days in jail plus a fine of $100 and court costs of $20.25.

TOP TV TONIGHT

By RUD EVANS

9:00 CBS "Loretta Young". When Christine calls on magazine editor Paul Belier to sell him an article for his publication, the bachelor editor finds her a refreshing and attractive diversion from the pressures of business. She, however, becomes troubled when she allows him to fall in love with her, without knowing that she has a family of seven children at home. James Philbrook co-stars as Belier.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

6:30 ABC "Cheyenne", recalling Sam Fenderson—whose good deeds are the admiration of the townspeople, suspects that the bank's burgling safe is the reason Sam is in Rock Springs. Robert McQueeney is featured.

6:30 NBC "It's a Man's World". Randy Boone, without being told, finds himself a classy automobile for ten dollars by using this measure as the down payment on a typewriter, using the typewriter on a something costlier, and on and on. Ted Bessell, Glen Corbett, Randy Boone, and Michael Burns are seen.

7:00 CBS "I've Got a Secret". Victor Berge, internationally known comic pianist, will be the celebrity guest.

7:30 NBC "Saints and Sinners". Lew Ayres is guest star as a respectable judge who is investigated by a newspaper when he starts to crack under the strain of personal problems. Ray Weston co-stars in "Judgment in Jazz Alley" and series star Nick Adams is the investigating reporter.

7:30 CBS "The Lucy Show". Lucy, trapped in the local YMCA while looking for a date, disguises herself in a fencing costume and tries to duel her way out of the men's building. Candy Moore and Jimmy Garrett are seen in the roles of the children.

8:00 CBS "Danny Thomas". When Danny's agent tells him he has booked him for a tour of European theatres and clubs, Danny and his wife are exuberant until they realize they must find a replacement for the Copa Club. Jack Carter is guest star and saves the day.

8:30 CBS "Andy Griffith" and pretty Peggy McMillan get along famously on their dates until Andy discovers that her father is extremely wealthy. Joanna Moore is seen as Miss McMillan.

9:00 ABC "Ben Casey" takes command when a power failure plunges the huge hospital into darkness and threatens panic among the staff and patients. Darkness comes when an operation is under way, an expectant mother is stranded in the elevator and a traffic victim is in need of immediate attention.

Panel Show Interrupted

NEW YORK (AP)—The CBS television panel show "What's My Line?" had a different kind of "Mystery guest" Sunday night.

He didn't tell his line. His appearance on the show was a mystery even to the producers. He wasn't a guest, either.

He just jumped up out of the audience, ran on stage into camera view, and proclaimed, "I'm your second mystery guest."

CBS sources said he was on camera for only a few seconds before being ushered off stage by producer Gil Fates and announcer Johnny Olson.

Police were called but said no complaint was filed against the man, whose name was not learned. He was released.

Suit Threat Facing HST

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman left Evansville Sunday with a libel and slander suit threatened against him for remarks he made about Sen. Homer E. Capehart, R-Ind., at a Democratic rally Saturday night.

Truman departed from his speech text to charge that Capehart once asked him to reach a settlement with John L. Lewis in a postwar coal strike crisis to keep Capehart from losing $100,000 a day.

Capehart branded it a "fantastic lie" and added, "I will make Truman pay for that statement."

He said he was "amazed that a former president would make such a statement" and that he would file suit after the Nov. 6 election.

Quinn Wins GOP Race In Hawaii

HONOLULU (AP)—Gov. William F. Quinn rode the crest of heavy voter turnout to defeat Lt. Gov. James Keolu for the Republican gubernatorial nomination in Hawaii's primary election.

Quinn faces a tough fight in the general election next month.

Unofficial final figures today gave the governor a 10,700-vote margin over Keolu, who led only on his home island of Hawaii.

The governor now faces the same candidate he defeated in 1959 by roughly 4,000 votes, John A. Burns, former territorial delegate.

Burns had only taken opposition from Atty. Hymen Greenstein and piled up 71,648 votes. The combination Quinn-Keolu vote was 77,372.

Rep. Daniel K. Inouye swept to a runaway victory in the Democratic primary—for U.S. senator with a whopping 80,707 votes, the largest for any candidate.

Says Program Is Developing

MEXICO CITY (AP)—"There are many satisfactory elements of judgment in the way the Alliance for Progress has been developing," Mario Ramon Beteta, Mexican delegate and Secretary General to the first ECOSOC meeting said Sunday.

When the several viewpoints of the delegates attending the meeting are analyzed and the statistics of the countries participating in the Alliance are clarified, he said, the whole program of the Alliance will be perfected and its limitations surpassed.

The Mexican delegate said he was optimistic as to the eventual results which are to be expected from the two meetings—one at the experts' level now in progress, and another at ministerial level to be held later this month.

"In only one week," he predicted, "the ministers of the treasury of the participating countries may be able to reach important conclusions to clarify the goals of the Alliance for Progress, and thus help in making its program a truly effective tool to promote economic development in the Latin American countries."

Beteta said this, the first evaluation ever to be made of the Alliance's results after one year of operation, shows that there are "many satisfactory elements of judgment" regarding its march.

Smith Happy To Go Home

MOSCOW (AP)—Cmdr. Raymond Smith, assistant U.S. naval attaché accused of espionage, left for the West today saying he is happy to get out of the Soviet Union.

"I don't think there is anybody who wouldn't be glad to leave the Soviet Union," Smith said. "But I am sorry I couldn't finish my tour of duty here."

He came to Moscow in June for a two-year assignment.

The Soviet government accused Smith of spying in Leningrad and ordered him out of the country. The U.S. State Department claimed the Russians were retaliating for the expulsion of two members of the Soviet U.N. delegation. They were accused of buying military secrets from a U.S. Navy yeoman.

Soviets Have Two Abortion Policies

BY REINHOLD G. ENSZ MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet government has two policies regarding abortions. It is for them, and it is against them.

Abortions are legal and can be had by any woman who insists on one. To make things easier, the government has ordered mass production of a new vacuum machine which simplifies termination of a pregnancy.

At the same time, the Ministry of Health campaigns against abortions.

The campaign was explained in an interview with Olga Nikonchik, the ministry's chief specialist on obstetrics. "Even though abortions are permitted, we were—and are—against them. The new apparatus makes things easier for women, but we still fight abortions."

"She said abortion-seeking women are advised of the dangers, including the possibility an abortion may leave them sterile. The minister is circulating a booklet, 'Why Have I Done This?' It tells of a woman who had an abortion and is now unable to have children."

Another facet of the anti-abortion campaign is the policy of silver, bronze, silver and golden medals to women who produce large numbers of children. The government is in favor of big families since it needs manpower for industry and the armed forces.

Yet it is also in favor of abortions because the acute housing shortage. Most Soviet families cide to open a children's wear store. Mrs. McDowell replied "I have always liked children, and I've always liked clothes. This looked like a perfect chance to put them together. And it has worked out that way too—I love it."

Also in the Twinkle Shop is a display of ladies' hats to catch the eye of Mother as she shops for those children's clothes. Also a selected line of gift items are displayed.

The nationally famous Kate Greenway dresses for little girls are to be found exclusively in Snyder at Dell's Twinkle Shop. Also exclusive in Snyder is the Carter's knitwear line with sizes from infants through teenage.

Today is Oct. 8, and while Dec. 25 still seems quite a while off, Mrs. McDowell suggested that it's not as far as it seems. Now, before the Christmas rush starts and while stocks are complete, is the ideal time to make those Christmas selections she said.

Mrs. Hazel Berry assists Mrs. McDowell in the operation of the shop.

Nikolai Petrov, 19, of Moscow, the second-place winner, received $3,000, and Mikhail Voskresenski, 27, also of Moscow, who placed third, $2,000.

Other winners and their winnings were: fourth, Cecil Ousset, 26, Paris, France, $1,000; fifth, Marilyn Neeler, 25, Glendale, Calif., $750; sixth, Sergio Vrelli-Gid, 27, of London, representing Portugal, $500; eighth, Takashi Hironaka, 19, Tokyo, $500, and ninth, Miss Hinko Nakamura, 18, Yokohama, $500.

"With this machine an abortion takes only two minutes, as against five to seven minutes for a surgical operation," she said. "The machine is so simple that even a woman who is not a doctor can operate it. The walls of the uterus will be perforated and there is one-third less bleeding."

"Most important, it is really painless. Our big worry is that women who have had operations with the new machine will no longer be afraid of pregnancy."

Violence Claims 17 Lives In State

By The Associated Press

Violence in Texas over the weekend took 17 lives, with shootings and traffic mishaps each causing six deaths.

Miscellaneous mishaps—including a hanging—accounted for the other deaths.

The Associated Press violent death count began at 6 p.m. Friday and continued until midnight Sunday.

Michael C. Trapp, 18, of Cold Springs, Tex., died Sunday when the car he was driving went out of control and burst into flames on U.S. Highway 159 between Cold Springs and Waverly.

Sgt. Charles H. Cline, a 43-year-old Abilene father of five, was killed Sunday in the crash of his light plane south of Blackwell.

Rose Marie Bertsch, 18, was shot to death at her home in Plum, five miles west of La Grange, Sunday. Officers took a 50-year-old man into custody.

Gus Ennis Jr., a Negro, was dead on arrival at Parkland Hospital in Dallas early Sunday from 22 caliber bullet wounds. Police said he had been shot during an argument in a Dallas residence.

Walter Leroy Muir Jr., a 21-year-old Dallas food store employee, was found hanged Sunday in the rear of the store. An inquest verdict was pending.

Two-year-old Sara Faye Blackshear of Denison was fatally injured Sunday when she was run over by a driverless automobile. Investigators said the mother had parked the car and went into the house. When the car started rolling, the child apparently got out and attempted to halt the vehicle.

An autopsy performed Sunday revealed Gloria Jean Tucker, 2, of Houston, who died Saturday night, was killed by roach paste.

Calvin Ruff, 10, of Houston, was killed Sunday when he apparently was struck in the head by an object thrown out by a power lawn mower.

Claude Lee Murray, 54, Garland, was killed Saturday night when struck by a Southern Pacific freight train at an overpass in Dallas.

Ezekiel Keno, a 38-year-old Odessa Negro, was shot to death Saturday night in an Odessa night club. A suspect was taken into custody.

A two-car crash five miles west of Victoria Saturday killed a Negro woman from Victoria, Callie Porter. Four others were injured. Mrs. Jack Stevens of Tyler was shot to death in her home Saturday. A male suspect was arrested.

Benjamin Hines, 42, of Houston died Saturday of gunshot wounds he received Monday night during an argument.

A 21-year-old Euless woman, Mrs. Frances Jeanette Glas, was found shot to death in her suburban Fort Worth home Saturday. An autopsy was ordered.

A 33-year-old Fort Worth Negro woman was stabbed to death Friday night. A 46-year-old man was taken into custody.

A 43-year-old woman was killed and her husband and daughter injured Saturday morning when their automobile collided with a grain truck on Highway 81 North, near the Tarrant County line. Dead is Mrs. Concha Gomez of Fort Worth.

Papers Urge Berlin Action

BERLIN (AP)—West Berlin newspapers today demanded Western action, instead of another addition to a pile of paper protests, to counter the latest Communist challenge to Western freedom of movement in Berlin.

Two newspapers suggested that the Western powers bar Soviets from West Berlin in retaliation for the refusal of East German border guards to let a British ambulance enter East Berlin.

The ambulance was barred Saturday when it attempted to go to the medical aid of a West Berliner who was shot at a tunnel entrance on the East side of the city. He was helping refugees escape. It is not known whether he died of his wounds.

This was the first time East German guards had refused to permit an Allied military vehicle with occupants in uniform from entering the Eastern part of the city.
