Betty Alexander Earle Dies After Long Illness

Betty Alexander Earle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Alexander, died at the family home near Dodson Thursday, February 25, at 11:57 p. m. Her death came just one week after that of her grandmother, Mrs. M. A. Branum, one of the county's pioneer settlers.

Funeral services were conducted at the Church of Christ in Wellington Saturday afternoon, with Minister Alva Johnson of Turkey and Minister Van Bonneau of Dodson officiating.

Pall bearers were Stanley Brooks, Jimmy Mauldin, E. W. Clement, Bobo Castleberry, Ross Swift, Dayle Tipton, Mid Scott, and R. A. Covey Jr. Flower bearers were Billy Castleberry, Norma Bonneau, Olyse Kane, Odessa Covey, Jeanie Covey, Cathryn Covey, Kaye Feemster, Fara Wynn Burk, Joyce Wynn Scott, Jimmie Tipton, Vesta Pillers and Sterlene Pittman Isaac.

Hymns included "Previous Memories," "Beyond the Sunset," "When they Ring those Golden Bells," "How Beautiful Heaven Must Be," "We are Going Down the Valley," and "Nearer My God to Thee."

Burial was in the Wellington cemetery under the direction of the Kelso Funeral Home.

Born at Hollis November 11, 1928, Betty Alexander Earle spent most of her life near Dodson. She attended the Wellington schools, graduating in 1946. She attended Texas Technological College at Lubbock and was in her third year of work when she became ill.

Her illness was of five years duration, but during this time she never gave up hope of being well, never complained and was always cheerful. One who was close to her remarked, "Her disposition was to always see the silver lining and hosts of people said she was such an inspiration to them. We feel, though she only lived a few years, that she actually lived a richer, fuller life, than most people in a full lifetime. Betty had a great love for out-door life and loved nature and never failed to give God praise for all the wonders on nature. The floral offering spoke of the great love people had for her, for to know her was to love her."

She was a member of the Church of Christ, having obeyed the gospel in early life and lived a devoted Christian life.

Surviving are her parents and two brothers, Ruel Wade Alexander and Freddie Alexander, both of Dodson, and two nieces, Adele and Betty Ann Alexander.

Sister of Mrs. John Henard Dies

Mr. and Mrs. John Henard were called to Abilene during the week end to attend the funeral of their sister, Mrs. J. E. Montgomery, who died in a sanatorium in that city at 3:00 p. m. February 25.

Funeral services were held in that city in the Little Chapel of St. Paul's Church, with Rev. Landrum officiating. Her only daughter, Mrs. J. T. Carter, lives at Abilene.

Many old settlers of this county will remember Mrs. Montgomery as Miss Willie White. She had lived most of her life at Memphis, but in later years, her health failing, the family moved to Corpus Christi. Mr. Montgomery is buried at the latter city, and her body was taken there for interment beside him.

Bobcats Sighted Along Salt Fork

Two Bobcats have been sighted along Salt Fork on the road leading from Quail to Abra by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth King of Dixie, they reported this week.

They came upon one on the Salt Fork bridge Sunday night about 10:30 as they and their daughter, Mary Frances, were returning home from a visit with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Jones of the Marella community.

They chased the cat across the bridge at about 30 miles per hour and fired one shot at it with a .22 rifle before it jumped off the bridge into the bed of the river, they reported.

The King family saw the other cat on the preceding Thursday night about three-fourths mile of the bridge, when it ran across the road in front of them.

"One looked to be about 18 inches tall and about 20 inches long and is botailed. The other one is as big as a good size dog and is pretty spotted and sure can run. It gave a pretty good squall when it jumped from the bridge," the Kings reported.

Operation of Milk Route Begins Monday Morning

The county's milk route starts Monday, March 8, and the milk truck will run regularly each morning thereafter, Herman Crowley, Chairman of the Dairy Committee of the Chamber of Commerce has announced.

Arthur Belew will operate the truck and will start out about sun-up each morning.

The route will run five miles west of Wellington, then south through the Rolla community, back north through Quail and Marella communities, and from there will work north and east to Dozier and Samnorwood and eastward to Highway 83 and back to Wellington. The area east of Wellington then will be covered.

It is anticipated that milk from approximately 200 cows will be available within a very short time after the route is opened, according to Judge R. L. Templeton, a member of the committee.

Committee members, along with R. L. Deavers and Mr. Post of Quail County Creamery, Mangum, which will buy the milk, contacted a number of farmers late last week signing them up for the milk program. The Mangum men expressed themselves as well pleased with results and added that more milk would be available than they expected to start off the route.

The committee urges that any farmer wishing to sell milk through the route contact Mr. Belew by

Plans Complete for Project Show Box Supper Friday

Plans are nearing completion for the big old-fashioned box supper which will raise the money that finances this year's Youth Project Show, Cameron Beam and Herman Crowley, co-chairmen, said early this week.

The box supper will be held at the community building Friday night, March 5, at 7:30 p. m.

Contacts from over the county indicate much interest is being taken in all communities, and a capacity crowd is expected, those in charge report.

More than $500 will be required to finance this year's Project Show, and plans to raise the entire amount with this entertainment. If these are carried through, there will be no solicitation of funds from business men of Wellington, it was pointed out.

The box supper will be carried on like any old-time entertainment of this type. The women and girls will bring their prettily decorated boxes, a popular auctioneer will auction them off, and the proceeds will go to the stock show.

There will also be a number of side events for fun and money to add to the gaiety of the evening. Prizes will be offered the best decorated boxes in amounts of $10, $7, $5 and $3.

Civic and social clubs of the county are getting behind the idea and it is anticipated this will be truly a county-wide event, Mr. Beam said.

OPEN HOUSE AT WELLINGTON SCHOOLS THURSDAY-FRIDAY

The Wellington public schools, in observance of Public School Week, March 1 through 6, are holding open house Thursday and Friday, March 4 and 5, it was announced by Dick Sweat and James Sullivan, who are assisting in the arrangements.

In each of the three schools, high school, junior high and elementary, receptionists will be on hand at all times to show parents and all others interested in the city's schools through the buildings.

Classes will go on as usual, and the open house is being planned so that the visitors may observe the schools as they operate every day. Students will serve as receptionists.

Hours of the Open House will be from 9:00 a. m. to 3:45 p. m.

Meeting Called for March 11

Lillie-Salt Fork Seek Farm to Market Road

Farmers of the Lillie and Salt Fork communities are organizing to try to bring a surfaced farm-to-market road into their area.

A preliminary meeting was held recently, when the committee composed of Dudley Phipps, H. C. Langford and C. A. Wright was named. Mr. Phipps is secretary.

An open meeting, to which all farmers of those and all surrounding communities are invited, will be held at the Quail gymnasium Thursday, March 11, at 8:30 p. m. to further discuss plans for securing this road.

At this time such things as the best method to go about getting the road, the route it should take, and other pertinent matters will be discussed, according to Herman Moseley.

It has been pointed out by those seeking the road that these communities lie in the deep sandy area, and the roads are some of the most difficult in the county to keep in a passable condition.

Mr. Sweat said the little boy, playing alone, had run some gasoline from the underground storage tank near the family home on to the ground, then attempted to set it on fire.

His older sister, Doris Cloe, who was hanging out clothes in the yard, heard his screams, ran to him with a wet shirt she was holding in her hands, wrapped it around him, then rolled him on the ground.

St. Patrick's Day will be observed as a holiday for the first time, Mr. Roberts said. The Wellington Skyrocket band will participate in the St. Patrick's Day parade at Shamrock. Land Terraced and Chiseled

Last Week's Mystery Farm Owned By Mr., Mrs. Tommy Tate of Abra

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Tate of the Abra community are owners of last week's mystery farm.

Only two persons identified this farm. The first was Everett Fain, who operate the Lutie station and grocery, and the other was Mrs. Otis Tate, sister of Mrs. Tommy Tate—the two women married brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Tate have lived on this 160 acre farm since 1947 and had owned it two years prior to that. They have put a considerable amount of improvements on the place since moving there, including an addition to the house, the garage, other buildings, and the trees were set out.

The farm was terraced but the terraces have been built and part of the place has been chiseled.

Of the 160 acres in the farm, 156 are in cultivation. Most of the land has been planted to cotton and feed during the past years. This year Mr. Tate has a 49 acre cotton allotment, and he plans to put his diverted acres in more feed.

Mr. and Mrs. Tate bought the farm from the late A. J. Laycock, who had acquired the place earlier from Ernest Smith. Beyond that, Mr. Tate does not know the history of the farm.

Mr. Tate has lived in the Abra community since 1929, coming from Wheeler county. He was born in Oklahoma, however, and the family moved to Wheeler when he was three years old. Mrs. Tate is the former Minnie Butler, who came here in 1932, at the time of their marriage. She was born at Pittsburg, and her family now lives in California.

They have two children, Mrs. Robert Brown of Borger, and Richard Tate, 14 and an eighth grade student at Norwood. There's one granddaughter, Rikki Lou Brown, two, of Borger.

Our community was saddened at the passing of Betty Alexander Earle. A host of friends as well as relatives will miss Betty, but we can look to God who doeth all things well and say thanks to Him Betty is at rest and will not have to suffer any more.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Brannum and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Brannum an Glenna from Amarillo were here for Betty's funeral, also Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brannum from Hobbs, N. M. and a host of relatives that we did not know. I had not seen Ben since we attended school at Red Hill some 55 years ago and needless to say he did not know who I was. John Hunt taught that school. Ben, Lena, Ava and Georgia Brannum and Frank and Lena Bland, Alford, John, Mary and Maggie Reynolds, Maud Mahan, John and Edna Forbis were all going to Red Hill that year, but in a year they built the school house at Fresno and most of us went to Fresno the rest of our school days, till we went to Clarendon College.

Joe Thompson brought an inspiring message at the night services at the Fresno Methodist Church Sunday evening. Several of his boy friends came with him for the services and we were glad to have them come and invite them back any time they can come. One of the boys who came was Dee Ray Uselton and Dee Ray's of the Sunday School at the Fresno Methodist Church several years ago. Mr. Uselton was a good superintendent and seemed happy at his job, however, this was before the church was built at Fresno and we met in the school building. We are looking forward to the time that Dee Ray will bring us a message at Fresno.

DOZIER

By MRS. ALEX COLEMAN

The wind storm Friday done some damages to fences, several miles were blown down on rural roads and around fields. The wind at Alex Coleman's farm picked up a truck sideboard and landed in to the 3 electric lines close to the house and broke them loose, so we were out of electricity for about 4 hours. Blew the aluminum tin from the car shed roof, and turned over some out buildings for several of the neighbors. But the worst about the storm was the school busses could hardly see their way home in the evening, but no one was hurt.

The Queen contest for basketball was put off from Friday until Monday.

Mrs. Kenneth King worked hard cleaning up the Church of Christ so Bro. Clinging of Borger could fill his regular appointment Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Roy Hoffman is remodeling his grocery store by putting some glass in the front.

It has been reported that Mr. John Vanhuss Sr. died of heart attack Sunday night.

Mrs. Hugh Thomas of Fort Worth visited relatives in Dozier Sunday and has gone to Hollis, Oklahoma to visit some there.

Miss Effie Rankin has a new grey Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood Coleman visited Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Breeding in Shamrock hospital Sunday evening he has made some improvement lately.

By Mrs. C. A. Kesler

Mrs. John Aaron and Mrs. C. A. Kesler went to Lakeview Tuesday last week for the sub-district meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service. Mrs. Aaron gave the promotional secretary's report for the Fresno WSCS and also was on the program for discussion of Alcoholism.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morrow and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kesler attended the Youth for Christ revival services at the community building in Wellington most every night last week. The services were especially good. There were decisions each night as follows: Saturday, 20; Sunday 21; Monday 26; Tuesday, 28; Wednesday, 39; Thursday, 34; Friday, 5 and Saturday 6. Of the decisions four were boys answering the call to preach. Several were accepting calls to special work and some were re-dedicating their lives to God and some were converted.

The Fresno-Pleasant Point Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. H. E. Wynn for an all-day meeting. Each lady brought a covered dish. They quilted a quilt for the Presbyterian orphanage in Amarillo and quilted some on a flower quilt for Mrs. Wynn. Mrs. Frank Roberts gave the top for the quilt for the orphanage. The next meeting will be with Mrs. W. A. Morrow March 2. This will also be a quilting, beginning at 1:00 p. m. The regular program will be given.

BEAUTY AND HER BEASTS—Hollywood mask-maker Milliecent Patrick stands before a mirror with one of her creations on her head, another to her right. The one at right, called the "Gill Man," will soon be seen in a science-fiction thriller.

Fred Alexander, student in ACC, Abilene, was here last week at the bedside of his sister, Betty, and was here for the funeral of his grandmother, Mrs. M. A. Brannum.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Rippetoe last week were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rippetoe and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Rippetoe.

Mrs. Green Hodges was on the sick list last week.

Beth Aaron had the mumps last week.

Gary Killian had a relapse with the mumps. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Killian.

LOCO

By MRS. GEORGE ADKINS

A number from here attended the wonderful Youth for Christ revival conducted by Rev. Russell Allen in the Wellington community building. The singing of the Stamps Ozark Quartet of Wichita Falls gave much inspiration to the services.

Another land mark has been moved from our community. The ranch home of the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter Campbell was moved to a location on East Avenue in Wellington Tuesday. Frank Campbell, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Campbell, now owns the house and had it moved. It will become a rent house.

Work crews can be seen along the highways burning the tumble weeds that collected from last Friday's dust.

George Adkins reported losing 30 acres of wheat from the blowing dust. A number of fences were blown down here, as well as a lot of trees.

The quilting was held as usual Friday. The members honored Mrs. W. D. Duffey with a miscellaneous shower on her 70th birthday. Two quilts were quilted, one for Mrs. Duffey and another for Mrs. G. T. Austin.

Carthel Lewis finished hauling his bundles Wednesday. Yater Bearden of Hale Center is here visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bearden, and Mrs. Ed Clark, Loyd and Floyd.

Mrs. O. V. Vernon of Amarillo visited in the Wheeler home Thursday.

The best news that a lot of people have had is that three Collingsworth veterans are returning from Korea this week. They arrived in San Francisco on the Marine Transport Lynx last week after serving 18 months in the Korean war. Walt O'Neil flew home Sunday and Jimmy Graves and Douglas Coleman are coming by train and will be in next Friday. Virginia Robey hopes to have some stories next week if she can get interview these young veterans.

Undoubtedly the relief and joy and gratitude of the parents of these young men are emotions that cannot be fully understood except by those who have been through the same experience in other years and wars. Yet there are friends and acquaintances who can and do feel the same in a lesser degree.

The attack on members of the House of Representatives is unbelievable for its sheer idiocy; but it does demonstrate that it can happen here. It shows the need for greater safeguards to protect the lives of our chosen officials in the days of Communist aggression and the tensions that breed fanatics. The acts of these crazed people do not reflect the attitude of the vast majority of the people of Puerto Rico or their elected officials; but it will have the effect of causing more people in the United States to wash our hands of this costly appendage to the United States. That would mean absolute economic ruin for Puerto Rico.

Next Friday evening is the time for the old-fashioned box supper that will be held at the Community Building. It should be a lot of fun for a lot of people. The proceeds will go for a most worthy cause—to help raise money for the coming Youth Project Show. It has been a long time since some of us have been to a genuine box supper.

Thursday and Friday will be open house at the Wellington schools. Receptionists will be at both the elementary and the high school to escort visitors through the building. Such a visit on the part of any patron could be time spent very profitably.

Duggie Jameson had certain victory in his grasp in the Chicago Golden Gloves only to be floored in the last few seconds. Anyhow he has made a sensational record this year and is the pride of his hometown.

Ralph Ball is one man who is not worried about the price of natural gas in Wellington. Drove by his filling station the other morning and saw cheerful black smoke curling out of a smoke stack. He used a stove that will burn either kerosene or fuel oil for years. However, he says that it costs as much as gas.

Bob Bowen saw me buying some silver polish the other day and remarked: Why don't you save your wood ashes and you would not have to buy that polish. Come to think of it that is one method people used to clean silver in other days.

Shirley Wedding Feb. 14

Of interest here was the recent marriage of Miss Joyce Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Shirley of Estancia, N. M., and Freeman Lester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lester of Edgewood. The groom's family lived in Wellington and he is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Lester. The ceremony took place at the Estancia Church of Christ February 14, with Fred Bender reading the marriage vows. The bride wore a white brocaded satin suit with blue accessories and a blue carnation corsage. Her attendant was Miss Frances Gates, who wore a blue dress with a carnation corsage. Buford Hunt of Albuquerque, cousin of the groom, was best man. Following the reception held at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left on a wedding trip to Santa Fe, N. M. They will make their home at Barton. Mrs. Lester attended school at Stancia and later West Texas State College, Canyon. Her husband received his education in the Estancia and Moriarity schools and is now employed with the New Mexico Highway Dept.

Reunion February 21 Honors Mrs. Weltha Golightly on 80th Birthday

Mrs. Weltha Golightly, a longtime county resident, was honored on her eightieth birthday recently with an all-day reunion, attended by children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and other relatives and friends.

The celebration was held in the community building Sunday, February 21.

The group gathered in the morning and before noon sang the honoree's favorite hymns and other songs. A highlight of the meal was the presentation of the birthday cake, with its 80 lighted candles. Visiting continued until late in the afternoon.

Mrs. Golightly, who is affectionately known to her friends as "Mother" Golightly, has lived here since 1912. She is especially known for her work with the Nazarene Church and Sunday School, and she was instrumental in the early development of the church here.

She was born at Van Buren, Ark., February 21, 1874, but while still a child came with her parents to Texas. She grew up in Montague County and was married there to J. V. Emmert in 1895. Shortly afterward they moved to the Indian Territory and lived at Mangum about 15 years before coming here. Mr. Emmert passed away in 1914.

A few years later she was married to Mr. Golightly. They operated a grocery store here for a number of years, first on the east side of the square, and later on the west side, about where Otis' Grill is now located. Mr. Golightly died some 20 years ago.

Still unusually active, Mrs. Golightly lives alone, on 10th Street, west of the Community building.

Here to celebrate her birthday with Mrs. Golightly were these children: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Emmert and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Goswick of Wellington; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Emmert of Jacksonville, Ark.; Ike Emmert of Texola, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Bawcom of Galt, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hardman of Littlefield and Mrs. Lucy Massie of Lindsay, Calif.

Grandchildren attending were Mr. and Mrs. Otis Emmert, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Childress, Rev. and Mrs. Thurman Emmert, Nancy Ann Emmert, Mr. and Mrs. J.

Owens, and James Stanley Fife and Ila Turland of Childress, Alva Wood of Amarillo, H. A. Graham of Ash-tola, M. J. CARD OF THANKS We are deeply grateful to each of our friends who during the illness of our daughter and sister, Betty Alexander Earle, did so much for us. The encouragement you gave her, the joy you brought to her life, and the many things, big and little, you did to add to her pleasure meant much to her and us.

We are appreciative of the spiritual comfort given by Bro. G. B. Stanley, and the consolation brought by all others who were so wonderful to us. May God bless each of you. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Alexander and Fred Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Alexander and family.

CARD OF THANKS We take this means of expressing our deep gratitude to our many friends for their thoughtfulness and kindness at the death of our mother, grandmother and sister, Mrs. M. A. Brannum. We are especially grateful to the ladies of the Wellington Church of Christ and the Rebekah Lodge for the food served here, and to the friends at Dodson who served the evening meal. The words and deeds at this hour of sadness brought us comfort and consolation. May God bless each of you. The family of Mrs. M. A. Brannum.

IN MEMORY OF BETTY ALEXANDER EARLE God must have loved her very much. And we have loved her, too—We know how many helpful things Her kind hands found to do; But till we reach that happy place, Where griefs are all consoled, We'll never know the joy she's found Beyond the sunset's gold.

Many Decisions Made

Youth for Christ Revival Brings Religious Feeling to High Point

By RUSSELL ALLEN

A capacity crowd of 1300 people filled the main auditorium of the Community Building on Saturday evening, February 20 to attend the closing services of the Youth Revival. This series of meetings, being well attended since the opening night on Sunday, February 14, attracted large crowds from this part of Texas and Oklahoma. Some came from as far as Duncan, Okla. and Olton, Tex.

The spirit of Revival was apparent in the hearts of the young people as they came each night making their decisions for Christ and giving their testimony.

Various pastors of Wellington have expressed their opinions as follows:

Rev. J. F. Michael, pastor of the First Methodist Church says, "This is the most wonderful thing to my knowledge that has happened for the youth of this county. I am for this movement or any other that could attract 1000 or more people to a worship service."

Rev. Robert L. Webb, pastor of Faith Baptist Church says, "The Church was richly blessed and its members who attended thoroughly enjoyed the services and I feel that our youth department has benefitted greatly from it."

Rev. V. F. Love, pastor of the Assembly of God Church says, "The Church, which was behind the movement as a whole dismissed its regular midweek service to enable the members to attend and from their comment I believe they received a blessing. Our youth department even though small in number has been inspired by this movement."

Rev. Chester O'Brien, pastor of the First Baptist Church, stated

"This was truly a Revival prayed down from Heaven. Both the adults and the youth were blessed by the inspirational meetings."

Rev. L. D. Cleveland, former pastor of the Wellington Methodist Circuit commented before approximately seventy preachers from the Plainview and Childress districts, "I have been in the ministry for twenty-five years and never before have I seen such enthusiasm displayed by a group of young people working for the Lord. Certainly I received a blessing from the services I had the opportunity to attend."

Rev. Russell D. Allen, pastor of the Wellington Methodist Circuit and Director of the Youth for Christ in Collingsworth County said, "This was a remarkable demonstration of the power of prayer and effort put forth in the works of Christian young people. Needless to say I was revived, inspired and blessed by this meeting. I thank my God that He used me in my small portion of this work."

Raymond Patton, Wellington business man states, "I think this was a wonderful thing and has done a lot of good. I believe we will see the effects of this Revival for a long time. Certainly the effects could be felt in the churches Sunday in our Worship Services."

Ted Parker, Youth for Christ Director, remarked, "In this series of Services the Spirit of God was more real than at any time in my life. This was truly the greatest experience of my life. I truly give thanks to God for the wonderful young people who helped me, so much by singing each evening in the choir. Never can they realize the inspiration I received from their cooperation and their sincerity as they sang praises unto God."

These are but a few of the many similar comments that were voiced by the vast crowds which attended each service. The Youth for Christ, being only three months old in this county, has truly grown to one of the strongest organizations of its kind spiritually in the nation today.

In the series of 7 meetings 190 young people made their decisions for Christ. Four young men surrendered for the ministry and many others made their decisions to surrender for special service. Truly this was a revival that revived the Christian hearts as well as winning many to Christ.

SALT FORK

By MRS. R. H. ISBELL

The wind and sand is still blowing out our way. The roads are getting worse every day. We sure wish it would rain.

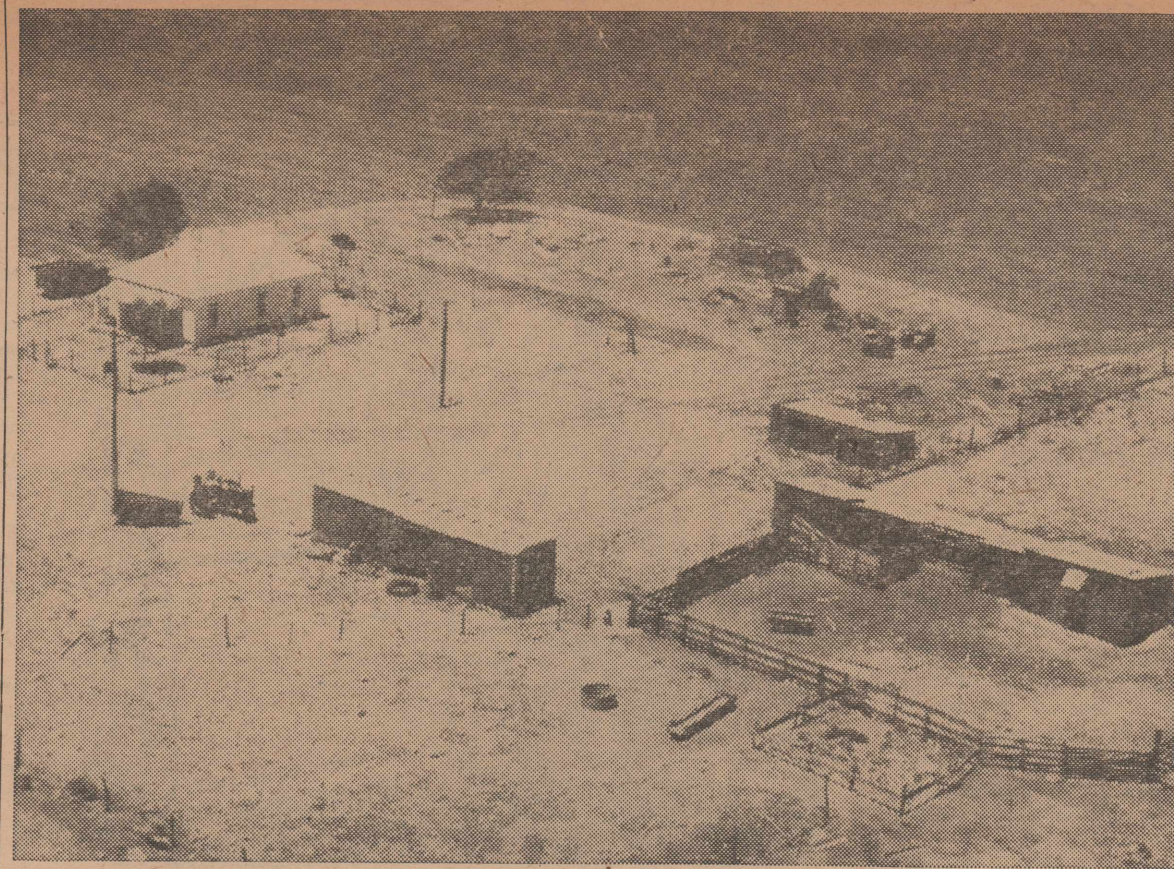

Mrs. J. D. Morris was operated on last Friday morning in the St. Joseph's Hospital. Last report she was doing well as could be expected. We surely hope she'll be well enough to come home soon.

Last Tuesday night Mrs. G. C. Wright, Mrs. S. L. Maxwell, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Isbell attended church at Kirkland, where Rev. L. D. Cleveland is pastor. Bro. Vernon Willard was preaching for the revival. Bro. Willard was pastor at Salt Fork for several years, and has lots of friends here in Collingsworth County.

Thursday night the Isbells and Mrs. Maxwell went back to Kirkland for church. The Elmer Willards and family also their married daughter and her husbands parents were there from Olympus. A large crowd was attending the services.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Isbell and Jerry Don left Saturday night for Needles, California for a two weeks visit with his parents, the Ted Isbells.

Mrs. Irma Riley of Briscoe came to Quail with the Briscoe basketball team last week. Her daughter
