UNEMPLOYED FATHER OF SEVEN CHILDREN

Skyjacker Slain By FBI Agent

STEWARDESS OF HIJACK — Eileen McAllister, stewardess of the Mohawk Airlines plane hijacked Wednesday evening, is shown leaving the airport at Poughkeepsie, N.Y., after a long ordeal with a hijacker. The police have identified the hijacker as Heinrich Von George, who was slain as he tried to get into a getaway car.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y. (AP) — An unemployed father of seven children hijacked a jetliner today and was shot dead by the FBI after receiving a $200,000 ransom and parachutes on a threat of blowing up the craft.

An FBI agent killed the hijacker with a shotgun blast as he prepared to flee here in a waiting getaway car. With him was the stewardess he had menaced in a 10-hour drama that began at Westchester County Airport.

Described by neighbors of his

Brockton, Mass., home as down on his luck, the hijacker commandeered a Mohawk Airlines jet on an Albany-to-New York City flight by flashing a pistol and saying he had a bomb.

The FBI said his weapon turned out to be a starter's pistol, harmless unless modified to fire live ammunition. The "bomb" was two water-filled canteens wrapped in pieces of blankets, authorities said.

Followed by the FBI in pursuit planes from Westchester, the hijacked jet landed at Dutchess County Airport here early this morning with its three crew members and the hijacker, who was identified as Heinrich von George, 45.

A car provided by the Dutchess County sheriff's office stood waiting at the end of a darkened runway as demanded by the hijacker.

WATCHED EXIT

Dutchess County Asst. Dist. Atty. Alfred T. Tallakson said four FBI agents lay on the ground about 40 yards behind the jet and watched the copilot exit, then place a duffle bag in the getaway car.

The hijacker had carried the bag aboard, it was learned later, and he had ordered the stewardess to fill it with the ransom.

The hijacker, holding a pistol in one hand and the stewardess' shoulder in the other, went to the passenger side of the car, Tallakson said.

He slid in behind the steering wheel, and his hostage slipped into the passenger seat.

An FBI agent went up to the passenger side, shoved a shotgun in front of the stewardess, aimed at the hijacker and demanded his surrender, according to the assistant district attorney.

Tallakson quoted the agent as saying the hijacker screamed unintelligibly, reached under the front seat, aimed a pistol at the agent and fired.

The agent said that after seeing a flash, he discharged his shotgun point-blank, at the same time yanking the hostage from the car.

Tallakson said the agent and the stewardess fled from the car because of a threat the hijacker had voiced that the bomb would go off if he were shot.

USED FIVE SEPARATE ROUTES

How Henry Did It

WASHINGTON (AP) — Henry Kissinger used five separate routes, each carefully calculated to disguise his destination and purpose, when he commuted regularly to Paris on his super-secret peace missions.

Friendly Frenchmen lent invaluable help as President Nixon's national security adviser conducted without detection the 30-month, 12-conference series of talks with North Vietnamese officials.

So secret were Kissinger's journeys that fewer than five persons in the White House knew full details.

But, it now appears, Nixon himself almost blew Kissinger's cover—before a national television audience, no less—when he apparently confused the private and public talks and mentioned an offer he later indicated was made secretly.

These are among major points that have emerged since Nixon's Tuesday night address in which he disclosed Kissinger's 100,000-mile search for peace and left the world wondering: How did Henry do it?

Kissinger himself won't divulge precise details of his covert travels because, he told a news conference Wednesday, "we may want to do it again."

He would say only:

"We generally flew to American military bases and then transferred one or twice until we wound up... at some little-used airfields near Paris and then we generally stayed in the outskirts with the people we used as contacts... we generally met in a meeting place furnished by the other side..."

But other details, obtained from sources in Washington and Paris, filled in some of the blanks.

Sometimes Kissinger would leave from Andrews Air Force Base, Md., on the outskirts of Washington. Other times he would leave from other U.S. airports.

Sometimes he flew in jets clearly identified by their markings, including the blue-and-white color scheme, as belonging to the presidential fleet. Other times he flew in less-conspicuous government aircraft.

—Sometimes he would land at a U.S. air base in Europe, then shift to another plane for the shorter hop to Paris. Other times he would fly directly to French air bases near the capital.

TEMPERS HIGH Ben Barnes Threatened By Solons?

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes' right hand man said today that Barnes was threatened twice in October by House members unhappy over changes made in House districts by the Legislative Redistricting Board.

Robert Spellings, executive assistant to Barnes, said Rep. Jim Slider of Naples and Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake threatened to call Barnes before the House General Investigating Committee for questioning unless House districts were changed to suit Speaker Gus Mutscher and other House members.

Spellings said the threats involved mostly changes made in the districts of Reps. Jim Nugent of Kerrville and Slider. Both are members of the House investigating committee that looked into the legislative aspects of the stock fraud scandal.

NO REAL THREAT

"To the best of my memory there has been no real threat made to me or to a member of my staff," Barnes said today.

"Personally I am convinced that Mutscher never threatened Barnes nor myself nor that he was aware of any threats made, despite some published reports," Spellings said.

"I doubt very seriously that either Reps. Clayton or Slider meant anything serious by their statements," Spellings said. "It all happened in the heat of the arguments over the redistricting bills, tempers were high and everybody's feelings were on their sleeve."

Spellings said Barnes "never really took the threats seriously. He took it in course of the events that were happening at the time."

He said Barnes never mentioned the matter to Mutscher, so far as he knew.

The Legislative Redistricting Board — composed of Barnes, Mutscher, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin, Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong and Comptroller Robert S. Calvert — was forced to undertake legislative redistricting after the 1971 legislature took no action on Senate redistricting, despite a constitutional requirement. The 1971 legislature passed a House redistricting bill but that was declared illegal by the State Supreme court which directed the board to take over the job.

REMAP TUSSELE

Both plans drawn up by the Redistricting Board in October are now before the Austin federal district court and a decision is expected this week.

Spellings said he was given the task of drafting a Senate redistricting plan by the Redistricting Board, which adopted it on Oct. 15. Then on Oct. 19 Barnes told Spellings to help draft a House redistricting map because the one offered by Mutscher and Rep. Delwin Jones, Lubbock, "was obviously as unconstitutional as the old one thrown out by the courts."

Bates Declares: 'I Am Innocent'

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP) — State Sen. Jim Bates, on trial on accusations of receiving a stolen diamond, declared from the witness stand today that "Absolutely, I am innocent."

He gave the statement in reply to a question by defense lawyer Frank Maloney of Austin.

The senator was on the stand about six minutes. The prosecution did not cross-examine him.

Bates was called at 11:20 a.m. as the defense appeared to be nearing its end.

Earlier, the judge ordered Dist. Atty. William Mobley to stop trying to find out if voting records of the Texas Senate could be falsified.

STANS RESIGNS

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon today personally announced the resignation of Secretary of Commerce Maurice Stans, and named as his successor the President's current international economic policy adviser, Peter G. Peterson.

Bank Holdup Loss Reported

DALLAS (AP) — Loss in the holdup of a drive-in window of the North Dallas Bank and Trust Co. was between $3,000 and $4,000 authorities said today.

The holdup man placed a sack in the window gate. It was inscribed, "There's a bomb in this sack and I am holding a button that can set it off."

The holdup man, driving a 1965 model olive colored car, warned teller Vernon Price, 18, against pressing an alarm button.

Price was told to take the "bomb" out of the sack and fill the sack with money.

The so-called bomb proved to be two batteries connected to a tube of yellow liquid, the FBI said.

HE HACKED TO DEATH COUPLE CAMPERS

NEVADA CITY, Calif. (AP) — Clarence Otis Smith was convicted of first — and second-degree murder late Wednesday night in the "sickle slaying" of two campers at a Sierra campground last summer.

The 44-year-old Smith took the verdict calmly, according to a courtroom observer.

Smith was convicted of first-degree murder in the killing of Donna Fitzhugh of Ontario. The second-degree murder verdict was for the slaying of John Simmons of Weimar.

Both were hacked to death July 12 at the Dog Bar campground along the Bear River about two miles from Smith's home in Weimar. Survivors of the attack said the assailant wielded a sickle, was smiling and growling like an animal.

Smith also was convicted of one count of attempted murder and one of assault in the injury of two survivors.

The five-man, seven woman jury deliberated Smith's fate for two days.

SCARLET FEVER IN EL PASO

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Eleven cases of scarlet fever were reported Wednesday night among preschool children in the Head Start program at the El Paso suburb of Socorro.

Dr. Bernard Rosenblum, director of the city-county health unit, said the cases were found during tests of 56 cultures. He said there were no reports of scarlet fever elsewhere in the city, although heavy absenteeism was reported Wednesday in some city schools.

Joblessness No. 1 'Economic Enemy'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Joblessness has become the great economic enemy, President Nixon said today. He assured Congress he is determined to defeat both unemployment and inflation, and reported "the outlook is bright" for success.

In his annual Economic Report to Congress, Nixon quashed with finality the hints by some officials of an early end to Phase 2. Price-wage controls will be enforced, he said, until the goal of "reasonable price stability can be maintained without controls."

"We will persevere until the goal is reached," he promised, "but we will not keep the controls one day longer than necessary."

The report, third and last of the major presidential messages to the new session of Congress, announced a strong business expansion in the final quarter of 1971. Real output rose 6 per cent in annual rate, twice the rate of the preceding six months.

Gross national output will rise by nearly $100 billion in 1972, or more than 9 per cent, to a total of $1,145 trillion, the message said, and two-thirds of the record gain will be real, not just inflation.

"1972 begins on a note of much greater confidence than prevailed 6 or 12 months ago," the President said. "Output is rising at a rate which will boost employment rapidly and eat into unemployment. There is every reason to expect this rate of increase to continue."

"We are converting the fear of perpetual inflation into a growing hope for price stability... For the first time in over a decade, the United States is moving decisively to restore strength to its international economic position."

"The outlook is bright, but much remains to be done. The great problem is to get the unemployment rate down from the 6-per-cent level where it was in 1971."

"Six per cent unemployment is too much, and I am determined to reduce that number significantly in 1972."

The jobless rate rose to 6.1 per cent in December. Nixon said the 1971 tax cuts and the massive budget deficits he announced in Monday's fiscal 1973 budget message will provide an upward thrust for the economy. Current federal spending, he said, would exceed revenues by $8.1 billion even if the economy were running at full employment.

Hobby Wants A New Texas Constitution

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — William Hobby, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, called for a head start Wednesday on preparing a new Texas constitution.

Hobby said he has asked Gov. Preston Smith to submit to the next special session of the legislature the need for a task force to begin work well ahead of the next regular session for the monumental job of overhauling the present constitution.

An amendment calling for the legislature to sit as a constitutional convention in 1974 will be on the ballot in November.

Voicing hope that people will support this "much needed reform," Hobby said Texas has one of the most restrictive constitutions in the nation, "born out of a deep-seated distrust of the powers of government and of the sinful propensities of public servants."

If the amendment carries, voters will be electing members of the constitutional convention when they vote on members of the legislature, Hobby said, and their duties as delegates will be far more important to the future of Texas than anything they might do in the next legislative session.

"We have a crisis of confidence in our state government," he said, in other remarks.

"It is a crisis of pride—pride in an institution I have been taught all my life to serve as my parents and grandparents have over the generations," said Hobby, the son of a Texas governor and of the first director of the Women's army Corps, Mrs. Oveta Hobby.

He is president and executive editor of the Houston Post and has served six times on the jury recommending winners of Journalism's Pulitzer Prize.

Gas From Coal Study Announced

HOUSTON (AP) — Two firms have announced a joint feasibility study for a major coal gasification facility.

Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co. of Houston and Peabody Coal Co. of St. Louis made the Thursday announcement which gave no indication as to the location of a proposed plant that would produce 250 million cubic feet of pipeline quality gas a day.

Contracts were awarded to the M. W. Kellogg Co. of Houston for a plant facilities study and to American Lurgi Corp. of New York for extension of the Lurgi process to the production of high pipeline quality gas from specific coals.

The new study implements a Panhandle-Peabody agreement to combine resources for the eventual construction and operation of a coal conversion facility before the end of the decade.

The object of the study is to determine complete technical and economic feasibility of producing high quality gas with Lurgi technology and to define the capital and operating costs of such a plant, the announcement said.

The Kellogg study will include plant construction, auxiliary services, and the ecological aspects related to the site, water consumption and waste disposal.

Panhandle Eastern operates a natural gas transmission line from Kansas to Michigan, serving customers in 12 states and Canada. Peabody Coal is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Kennecott Copper Corp.

New Programs Are Approved For Center

Directors of the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center Tuesday approved three new programs — hearing screening and learning disability screening, also a pre- and post-natal exercise program.

Most small area schools do not have a school nurse or audiometer, and the Center is offering its facilities and staff to screen children in grades one-nine for hearing deficiencies. It is estimated that 20 per cent of children have some hearing difficulty.

Parents will be notified through schools if a child shows any hearing difficulty, and parents, if they desire, may bring the child in for diagnostic follow up.

About the same percentage of children are shown to have some learning disability, and by spotting these the Center might aid in overcoming the problems, Jim Thompson, therapist, told the board.

This process, however, is more laborious than the hearing test. Again, those suspected to have some sort of learning disability will have their parents advised so there can be follow up service.

Each of these programs will be available to children without cost, but for those expecting or who recently have had babies there will be a $2 fee per session of instruction in basic pre-natal and post-natal exercises.

Mrs. Bill Cashion and Mrs. Raymond Torp were named as a committee to arrange for the volunteer awards program.

Directors approved enclosure of the reception area of the Center and are investigating the installation of an inter-com system.

New Producer Is Noted In Dawson

Dawson County had a new producer from an unidentified zone Thursday. It is the Tom Brown No. 1 Barnes, 12 miles northeast of Lamesa. The venture rated 127 barrels of oil per day.

There were three completions reported in Martin County's Spraberry Trend area, and one in the Howard-Glasscock (middle Clearfork) field.

Glasscock County gained a venture near Spraberry production about 25 miles southwest of Garden City.

10 New Members
In CAP Squadron

A recent recruiting drive for new cadets carried out at Runnels and Goliad junior high schools resulted in 29 students attending the Jan. 10 meeting and 20 students attending the Jan. 17 meeting of the Big Spring composite squadron, Texas Wing, Civil Air Patrol.

Ten new members have joined the squadron since the beginning of the year as the result of the recruiting drive and the explanation of CAP operations by Maj. Walter Trim.

Maj. James Shehley presented two films about World War II during the Jan. 24 meeting. Plans were also discussed concerning a Class B encampment, to be held Feb. 25-26-27 at Webb AFB.

CAP squadrons from Midland, Odessa and Andrews and other area cities will participate in the encampment.

Next meeting will be at 7:30 p.m., at Webb Aero Club at Webb AFB.

Hiltbrunner Foresees No Stoppage Of Service

No problems concerning ambulance service in the city or county is anticipated in the upcoming months, according to L. A. Hiltbrunner, owner of the Alert Ambulance Service.

The owner told The Herald Wednesday that his attorneys are currently working on the renewal of the contract with the city, and will meet with Harry Nagel, city manager, when the current contract expires.

He said that there are no complaints, and everything is going well for the service. He also said that his plans to run for a public office in Howard County this year will have no effect on the operation of the service under the new contract with the city.

Nagel said Wednesday he did not know if the contract will be extended, but that he would like to see it continued.

The agreement has been running for three months, since the heated issue was argued in county and city commission meetings. During that time the county was completely void of ambulance service, and the sheriff's department had to take ambulance service responsibility until an agreement was reached with the local service owner.

Under the city contract Hiltbrunner is being paid $400 per month, plus the city is enforcing an ordinance requiring that ambulance service payments be made within a certain time period.

Under the county agreement Hiltbrunner is paid for all calls outside the city limits and within the county limits that are not paid by the person receiving the service. Also the county pays the service $1 per mile outside a five-mile radius of the corporate limits of the city, one way to the point of termination and pays for all false calls outside the city limits.

That contract does not expire until Sept. 30, 1972.

Jury Verdict Here Favors Kent Morgan

A verdict returned Wednesday afternoon in 118th District Court in the tax suit of State of Texas et al., vs. Kent Morgan, et al., was clearly in favor of the defendants, as the jury assessed 100 per cent evaluation of land where the old Montgomery Ward building once was at $200,650 less than original assessments.

First appraisal of the property was set for four years from 1966 to 1970 at $350,650, and the jury's assessment amounted to only $150,000.

According to county records, original evaluation of the land was, 1966- $153,650; 1968- $80,000; 1969- $72,000; and 1970- $45,000.

The jury returned an assessment of, 1966- $45,000; 1968- $45,000; 1969- $35,000; and 1970- $25,000.

Originally the total city, school and county tax bill on the property was more than $7,000 on the land. Plaintiffs filed suit against Morgan and his associates to recover a total of $7,330.79, which they claimed was back taxes against the property.

The school and county tax offices have not been able to re-assess the amount with the jury's decision on the new evaluations, however, the city tax officials say that $882 is owed according to the new figures.

At any rate the total amount will be substantially less than what was originally claimed by the taxing agencies.

The tax suit was one of the first suits filed by new city attorney James Gregg, in his effort to collect on some of the city's back taxes that have not been paid.

Approximately 75 notices were sent out on delinquent tax accounts a few weeks ago and the city attorney is planning on sending that amount each month.

Bill Kothmann Is Derby Champ

Bill Kothmann was grand champion in the "pinewood derby," miniature car races, held Tuesday by Cub Scout Pack 100 during its regular meeting at St. Paul Presbyterian Church, which sponsors the pack.

The Rev. James Collier, pastor, gave the invocation, Den 2 had charge of the meeting's opening; Den 5 got the attendance pennant; and Den 3 furnished refreshments.

Other participants in the derby were Bobby Tolle, first runner-up; John Stanley; second runner-up; and Jimmy Butts, third runner-up. First place winners in preliminary races were Craig Drake, Tolle, Derek Horton, Butts, Mike Hicks, Rusty Hayworth, Kris Allen, David Anderson, Stanley, Greg Sackett and Kothmann.

Next meeting for the pack will be its Blue and Gold banquet Feb. 22 at the Marcy School cafeteria.

Cubmaster of Pack 100 is Joe Horton.

Grand Jurors' Panel Chosen

January term, Howard County grand jurors will convene at 9 a.m. Feb. 1 to consider evidence in criminal cases presented to them by 118th District Attorney Wayne Burns.

COFFEE DAY CHAIRMEN — M. A. Snell, left, and Don Swinney, center, are chairmen of the 8.3 miles March Against Birth Defects scheduled for Saturday to raise funds for the March of Dimes. Dan Conley, right, is chairman of the Coffee Day which local restaurants will observe Friday, donating all proceeds from coffee sales to the MOD.

Thirst For Coffee Friday Will Benefit MOD Drive

A cup of coffee purchased Friday in any of several local restaurants and coffee shops will mean a contribution to the March of Dimes Fight Against Birth Defects.

Dan Conley, chairman of MOD Coffee Day has contacted several restaurants which have agreed to donate all proceeds from the sale of coffee all day Friday to the MOD campaign.

Members of the Big Spring High School art class designed posters to be placed in participating restaurants and coffee shops to identify them as MOD contributors; according to Conley.

One participant is Richter's School Store, which does not serve coffee, but has pledged all of Friday's proceeds from the sale of soft drinks.

Participating restaurants and coffeehouses are Settles, Spanish Inn, Denny's, Phillips Truck Stop, Chaparral, Cokers, Herman's, Holiday Inn, Ponderosa, Ramada Inn, Georgia's Truck Stop, Coahoma Drug, and Highway Cafe.

Saturday, between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m., marchers will begin the 8.3 miles trek in the March against Birth Defects, which has been planned by Don Swinney and M. A. Snell, march chairmen.

Marchers will start from the Highland Shopping Center, get on FM 700 at the Goliad intersection and proceed around FM 700 to the IS 20 access road.

From there, the marchers will proceed west on 4th to the Howard County Courthouse, then east on 3rd to Goliad, down Goliad to FM 700 and ending back at the starting point in the Highland Shopping Center parking lot.

Checkpoints have been designated at the shopping center, county courthouse and Shroyer Motor Co. to validate each marcher's progress. At the courthouse and shopping center, concession stands have been set up, the proceeds of which go to MOD. Educational material concerning MOD will be available at the courthouse and at the shopping center.

Inside Highland mall an educational film about MOD's work in the fight against birth defects will be shown. Solicitations for contributions will be made at the courthouse and shopping center. Records furnished by KHEM Radio Station will be sold inside the Highland mall, and all proceeds will go to MOD, according to Mrs. Don Swinney, campaign chairman.

Mrs. Swinney said that several local businesses and organizations will be sponsoring walkers. Eli Guinn, KBYG Radio Station personality, is sponsored by Webb AFB NCO Club; Police Chief Vance Chisum is being sponsored to march through $50 in contributions raised over KBYG and Major Carl Wyrick will march, representing Webb AFB. Coahoma State Bank and The Little Supermarket will also sponsor marchers.

Unusual marchers dressed in special costumes or performing some type of stunt while trekking along the route will participate in Saturday's march, according to Mrs. Swinney.

The march will end at 6 p.m., and any stragglers will be picked up and driven to the finish line.

Anyone who would like to participate may by obtaining a sponsor to pay for the walk. Businesses may contact Mrs. Swinney to sponsor a marcher who will carry a sign identifying the sponsor.

Jonesboro VFD Sends Out Unit

Jonesboro Volunteer Fire Department was dispatched to a fire at the Fairview Gin at 5 a.m. today. Prior to that, the department had investigated a report at 3 a.m. today of a mobile home fire on Lomax Road, which turned out to be a false report.

At 1:44 p.m. Wednesday, the county barn fire unit was dispatched to a fire a half-mile east of Planters' Gin on Lamesa Hwy. The fire was a trailer-load of burs cleaned from ginned cotton. The fire was reported extinguished at 2:10 p.m.

Rugged Amarillo Meets HC Here

Howard County tries to bell the Western Conference cat in a 7:30 o'clock basketball game here this evening.

The Jayhawks take the floor against the pre-season favorite in the race, Amarillo College. The Badgers have more than lived up to expectations. Winners of their first four league starts of the year, the Badgers, topped 11 of their first 15 starts over the year.

In 6-9 Larry Kenon, the Amarilloans boast a genuine All-American. Kenon has been averaging 27 rebounds and 29.6 points a game. He's a great outside shooter.

Amarillo shared last year's

WC championship with Howard County and South Plains. Each had a 10-4 record. Over-all in 1970-71, the Badgers were 19-6.

Kenon had a total of 616 points and 456 rebounds during the 1970-71 season.

Others who likely will start for the Badgers include 6-11 Kenny Roberts, 5-9 Jay Roberts, 6-4 Scott Puryear and either 6-4 Hershel Martin or 6-4 Frank White, all sophomores.

Freshmen on the AC roster include 6-2 Ricky Walker, 6-3 Gary Hobbs, 6-3 John Fry, 6-4 Allan Clifton, 6-5 Bob Gailey and 6-7 Mitchell Taylor.

Coach Bill McDonald of the Badgers recruited boys from all over the country. Kenon hails from Birmingham, Ala., while other Amarillo players came from such widely separated points as Philadelphia, Brandon, Miss., and St. Anne, Ill.

HCJC, although it was edged by South Plains at home last week, is still very much in contention for a championship and a spot in the Region V Tournament. The Hawks are 20-5 on the year and stand 4-1 in conference.

Archie Myers, the nation's third leading scorer, will start for the Hawks along with Lawrence Young, Jim Kreier, Harry Miller and Herbert Lee.

The Hawks also play here Saturday night against powerful Cochise, Ariz.

Myers has amassed 802 points in 23 starts. F. Hoffert of Grand Rapids, Mich., ranks closest to Archie with 632 points in 20 starts.

Vincennes, Ind., unbeaten in 13 games, is the top rated team in the country. Only Texas teams in the top twenty are San Jacinto, now sixth, and Hill County of Hillsboro, ranked ninth.

Big Ten Czar Withholds Statement On Battle

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — The Ohio State basketball team has returned home following Wednesday's day-long probe of a brawl which ended the previous night's Big Ten game at Minnesota.

Big Ten Commissioner Wayne Duke met with athletic directors of the two schools and viewed news films of the events leading up to the melee, but did not issue any statement about the investigation.

Luke Witte and Mark Wagar, two Ohio State players, who were held overnight at University of Minnesota Hospitals for observation, returned to Columbus with the team. X-rays showed they had no fractures.

Commissioner Duke had said prior to Wednesday's meetings that he and the athletic directors were "just going to review what happened and look at films." He did not rule out the possibility of action against any players as a result of the skirmish.

The brawl began when Ohio State was leading 50-44 with 36 seconds to play. The game later was called at that point on the clock.

Witte was fouled as he attempted to shoot by Minnesota forward Clyde Turner. The act was ruled a flagrant foul and Turner was ejected.

Gopher forward Corky Taylor said he "tried to pick Witte off the floor after he had gone down following the foul. As I pulled him up, he spat at me."

News films were not able to pick up the alleged spitting incident, but witnesses generally agreed that at that point, Taylor kneed Witte in the groin.

Players from both benches streamed onto the floor, along with spectators, and a series of fights broke out.

The 16th-ranked Gophers are 4-1 in Big Ten action, and 6th-ranked Ohio State is 4-0, the victory giving them the league lead.

Rosie Casals Wins Over European

HINGHAM, Mass. (AP) — Top-seeded Rosie Casals of San Francisco heads a group of four players who have advanced into the quarterfinals of the $18,000 Virginia Slims Women's Indoor tennis championships at the Old Colony Tennis Club.

Miss Casals, No. 1-seeded in the absence of the injured Billie Jean King, Wednesday defeated Betty Stove of the Netherlands, 6-4, 6-0.

Karen Krantzke of Australia, the No. 8 seed, had to survive a marathon 15-minute game loss en route to a 6-4, 6-0 victory over Marcie Louie of San Francisco in moving into the quarterfinals.

Others advancing to the quarterfinals set for Friday were Kerry Melville of Australia and Wendy Overton of Chevy Chase, Md. Miss Melville, the No. 2 seed, defeated Edda Buding of West Germany 6-1, 6-4, and Miss Overton ousted Valerie Ziegenfuss of San Diego, 6-3, 6-2.

Worster Signed By St. Louis

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals announced the acquisition Wednesday of Steve Worster, former University of Texas running back who played last season in the Canadian Football League.

Two Florida Quintets Bid For Playoff Spots

By The Associated Press

If it were up to Jacksonville Coach Tom Wasdin, both the Dolphins and Florida State would be invited to the NCAA's Midwest Regional basketball tournament at Dayton, Ohio, March 16. But since there apparently will be room for only one, the NCAA selection committee will have a difficult time choosing between the Southern powerhouses.

Wasdin made a pitch for the two teams Wednesday night, after Jacksonville nipped Florida State 84-82 on Leon Benbow's two free throws with eight seconds remaining.

"We both ought to go," he said.

Hugh Durham, Florida State coach, said, "I appreciate his invitation and we accept it. I think both teams will wind up in post-season tournaments. I am not saying that both will go to the NCAA. I figure Marquette's got to go and that leaves room for only one more."

NOW 15-3

Marquette, an independent like Jacksonville and Florida State, is the nation's second-ranked team with a 15-0 record. Florida State, rated 10th, is 15-3, including a 90-83 victory over Jacksonville in the final of the Sunshine Classic at Jacksonville on Dec. 7.

The unranked Dolphins, who snapped the Seminoles' 10-game winning streak and extended their victory string to six, now are 11-2.

Two independent teams will be picked to join the Big Ten and Ohio Valley Conference champions in the Midwest Regional at Dayton leading to the national final at Los Angeles Mar. 25.

Ernie Fleming paced Jacksonville with 29 points and Benbow added 20. Reggie Royals was high for Florida State with 17.

Meanwhile, fourth-ranked Louisville won its 14th straight game since an opening loss and its fourth in a row in the Missouri Valley Conference, thumping St. Louis 77-59.

The Cardinals, who set a school record for consecutive victories, led only 29-25 at halftime before pulling away in the final 20 minutes.

Jim Price paced the Cardinals with 20 points, 10 during a 22-6 spurt early in the second half.

Fran Costello's two free throws with 1:10 remaining and two more by Marvin Barnes with 33 seconds left enabled Providence to upset seventh-ranked Southern Cal 70-66. Ernie DiGregorio sparked the unheralded Friars with 27 points and Barnes scored 21. Providence is 12-2 and the Trojans are 11-3.

DIDN'T HURT

Virginia, the No. 8 team, showed no rustiness following an 11-day layoff and crushed Johns Hopkins 112-70 for its 13th victory in 14 games. Jim Hagood led the balanced Cavaliers scoring with 19 points.

Fifth-ranked Penn became the best major college team to win 1,000 games, trouncing LaSalle 80-66. Penn, 11-2, joined Kentucky, Kansas, Oregon State and St. John's N.Y. in the 1,000-victory club.

"I'm very pleased to be a part of the 1,000th win," said Chuck Daly, Penn's first-year coach. "I haven't been responsible for that many. They have come under some great coaches. I hope I can continue towards the second 1,000."

Dwight Lamar, the nation's leading scorer, fired in 43 points—seven above his average—in leading 12th-ranked Southwestern Louisiana to a 90-

67 romp over Trinity, Tex. The Rajin Cajuns are 13-1.

Davidson rallied from a 53-45 deficit with 13 minutes remaining and upset 17th-rated Princeton 81-74. John Falconi, Davidson's leading scorer with 22 points, put the Wildcats ahead for good with a three-point play with 9:40 left.

Northern Illinois, ranked 19th, got 23 points from Jerry Zielinski and 20 each from Jim Bradley and Billy Harris, in racing to its 11th consecutive victory and 12th in 13 games, a 106-96 decision over Western Michigan.

In one of the longest games of the season, Virginia Tech outlasted West Virginia 105-101 in three overtimes, despite 41 points by the Mountaineers' Wil Robinson.

In another close finish, Nebraska edged Oklahoma State 64-63 on Mike Peterson's 20-foot jump shot with 52 seconds remaining for its fourth Big Eight Conference victory without a loss. Chuck Jura scored 34 points for the Cornhuskers.

Elsewhere, it was: Duke 77, Wake Forest 66; Mississippi 92, Vanderbilt 65; Detroit 77, Toledo 73; Dayton 66, Miami, Ohio 60; St. Joseph's, Pa., 75, Xavier 63; Temple 76, George Washington 73; St. John's, N.Y., 72, Hofstra 64; Bradley 104, Northern Michigan 56; Kent State 75, Bowling Green 65; Manhattan 111, St. Francis, N.Y., 75; Rutgers, 78, Delaware 73; Rockhurst 75, Air Force 73; Centenary 80, Long Island 71.

Seattle blew a 14-point halftime lead with the Cavaliers gaining the edge for the first time with 3:47 left in the game. John Havlicek led Boston with 27 and Jo Jo White had 20.

Seattle had to overcome a 15-point deficit against Atlanta. Spencer Haywood scored 28 for the Sonics but it was Lee Winfield and Don Smith who sparked the fourth-quarter surge. The pair combined for 18 points in the period. Smith finished with 24 points, Winfield 17, and player-coach Lennie Wilkens 22. Walt Bellamy pumped in 36 for the Hawks and Pete Maravich had 29.

Kareem Jabbar fired in 34 points and Bob Dandridge 23 in Milwaukee's victory. Jabbar got 28 points in the first half when the Bucks had a 62-50 advantage. Bob Lanier and Terry Dischinger each had 15 for Detroit.

In other NBA action Cleveland trimmed Boston 112-108, Seattle defeated Atlanta 131-119, Philadelphia topped Cincinnati 113-102, Milwaukee beat Detroit 120-94, and Chicago dropped Houston 117-108.

The New York Nets defeated the Kentucky Colonels 118-105 in the only American Basketball Association game Wednesday night.

Jack Marin paced the Baltimore scoring with 31 points while teammates Archie Clark and Phil Chenier had 21 and 18, respectively. Hazzard scored 30 for the Braves. Bob Kauffman had 27 and Randy Smith 23.

Cleveland broke its 11-game losing streak with Johnny Johnson scoring 22 points and Butch Beard 23 against Boston. The

Amateurs Get IOC Check

TOKYO (AP) — The International Olympic Committee's eligibility commission was holding a secret meeting here today to review the amateur status of competitors entered in the 11th Winter Olympic Games opening in Sapporo, northern Japan, Feb. 3.

But the IOC Secretariat declined to give any information on where the commission, headed by Chairman Hugh Weir of Australia, was meeting for the second day, when the meeting began and when it ended or was to end.

The commission, informed sources said, reportedly was to review the controversial list of Alpine and Nordic skiers today, the list having been hand-carried earlier today from Sapporo.

Avery Brundage, IOC president, has said some 40 skiers should be disqualified from competing in the Winter Games for allegedly having violated the Olympic amateur code.

All four commission executives and Brundage, informed sources said, were to review the results of the commission meeting in a meeting Friday morning. They reportedly will submit the commission's findings to the IOC general assembly meeting in Sapporo next Monday and Tuesday.

Sources said it was unlikely that anything on the issue would be clarified and announced by the commission, and any announcement would have to come from the IOC plenary session in Sapporo.

MODEST HOPE — Australia's "miracle mermaid," Shane Gould, above, would be happy to win one gold medal in swimming at the Munich Olympics this year. Other forecasters say the 15-year-old schoolgirl, who holds records in five events, has a shot at nine gold medals.

Nicklaus Is Solid Choice

SAN DIEGO (AP)—Jack Nicklaus currently is involved in one of pro golf's greatest winning streaks since Byron Nelson strung together 11 consecutive victories in 1945. The famed Golden Bear, probably the game's most feared competitor, was a solid favorite to pick up his sixth victory in seven starts when he teed off today in the first round of the $150,000 Andy Williams-San Diego Open.

"I may have played better in the past," mused Nicklaus, just off a week's rest during which he had his 32nd birthday. "But my scoring, in relation to the rest of the field, is as good or better than it has ever been."

"I've been playing pretty well ever since we left Hawaii."

That was almost 12 months ago. And in that time Nicklaus has finished ninth or better in all but one of his starts. He may have found the emotional spur he needed in the recent success of Lee Trevino, who is challenging Nicklaus as the game's premier performer.

Nicklaus responded by setting a single-season money winning record of $244,000. He won four of his last five starts last season then won his only outing this year, beating Johnny Miller in a playoff for the Bing Crosby national pro am.

"Putting will be the key here," Nicklaus said of the 7,011 yard, par 72 Torrey Pines layout. "And I four-putted once during the pro am."

Nicklaus said he now plans to play in the Hawaiian Open next week, although he hasn't yet tied an official entry.

"I'll play about the same number of tournaments this year, 25."

Right now I'm planning on playing about eight tournaments before the Masters. That's a lot for me. Why, I don't really know. I probably won't play so much during the summer and fall as I did last year."

New York Nets Get Rare ABA Win Over Colonels

By The Associated Press

The New York Nets won an American Basketball Association game Wednesday night—which is not so unusual, since they are near .500 with a 25-28 won-lost mark.

The team they beat was the Kentucky Colonels—and that is unusual.

"We really wanted to beat Kentucky," declared John Roche, who poured in a career high 31 points to pace the Nets to a 118-105 decision over the East Division-leading Colonels. Kentucky had beaten New York the last five times the teams met and led 6-1 in the season series.

"They look like the team we're going to be playing in the playoffs," explained Roche, looking ahead. "We had to beat them or else we would have been wondering if they owned us when we got to the playoffs."

Kentucky's game at New York was the only one scheduled for the ABA Wednesday.

In the National Basketball Association, Milwaukee whipped Detroit 120-94, Cincinnati slipped past Philadelphia 113-102, Cleveland nipped Boston 112-108, Baltimore edged Buffalo 115-114 in overtime, Seattle sank Atlanta 131-119 and Chicago beat Houston 117-108.

The Nets held a 62-54 half-time lead, saw the Colonels close to 98-94 midway through the fourth quarter but then ran off a string of 12 consecutive points to clinch the game. Dan Issel was high man for the Colonels with 29 points, while Louie Dampier added 20.

Roche, a New York high school star who became an All-American under Frank McGuire at South Carolina, hit on 13 of 17 field goal attempts, most from the 15-20 foot range. The 6-foot-3 backcourt rookie scored 20 points in the second half, sinking eight of 10 field goal tries.

Rick Barry, New York's high scorer for the season, contributed 30 points including the go-ahead basket, a three-point goal with 1:23 to play in the first period that put the Nets ahead 28-25.

"It was great to see Kentucky having to play catch-up ball for a change," grinned Barry. "In days past, we would have let them catch us and go ahead of us—but tonight, we forced them into the turn-over."

Barry, like Roche, was well aware of Kentucky's past dominance over the Nets.

"We had to redeem ourselves," Barry said—and they did.

Jean Adams'
TEEN FORUM

DIRTY BOY: (Q) My boy friend is very handsome, and I like him in every detail but one. He always shows up in dirty jeans, or, to put it bluntly, just plain dirty.

This has been happening ever since we started going together four months ago. I always try to make sure I look my best wherever we go. I bathe, fix my hair and nails, make up my face carefully and wear clothes that are clean and attractive.

He does not follow my example. He looks like a slob. We are very close but I don't have the courage to talk to him directly about it. If you will put your answer in Teen Forum, I will make sure he sees it.

— Devoted but Disappointed in Pennsylvania.

(A.) My answer is that no matter if your friend does see your complaint about him here, you will still no doubt have to put personal pressure on him.

His mother and his father should have taught him that lesson. He should have learned it in school. Now it's up to you. No matter how attractive a boy is otherwise, you and others cannot help look upon him as a slob if he persists in being personally dirty.

The closer you get to him the more his dirtiness will repel you. So, for your own sake, start talking.

DIFFERENT: (Q) I think I am a homosexual. I am a boy, 16, and I can't seem to get any pleasure out of being with any girl. None! But just being with my boy friends is fun and exciting.

What can I do? How can I find out for sure if I'm a homosexual? — Afraid in New Mexico.

(A.) To be 16 and have fun with boys and not have fun with girls is a problem.

AA Convention
HOUSTON (AP) — The Southeast Texas area Alcoholics Anonymous Association, which comprises 29 counties, will hold its annual convention Feb. 4-6 in Houston, it was announced Tuesday.

girls is no reliable indicator that a boy is a homosexual. You may just be a late developer. Many boys who write me do not get interested in girls until they are 18 or 19 or even older.

But if there is something else, or you are sufficiently worried, talk to your doctor. He can refer you to a psychiatrist if he thinks there is a need to do so.

(Jean Adams has quick, mini answers for the following problems: Losing Weight, Small Bust, Specific Spot Exercises, Double Chin, Gaining Weight, Walking, Sitting, Queer Posture. Bath Was Big In Old Days

By The Associated Press

When movies were glamorous spectacles and growing up to be a movie star was what every girl dreamed about, film directors turned bathing into an art, and almost every star of the silver screen was filmed in a tubful of bubbles.

In "Male and Female" Gloria Swanson was the epitome of sumptuous bathing when she appeared in a sunken tub filled with rose water — which had been tastefully colored for the sake of modesty.

And Miss Swanson and Dolores Del Rio were two movie queens who even had exclusive bath fragrances blended for them by Prince Matchabelli.

Joan Crawford personified luxury bathing in "The Women." She was filmed in a glass and marble tub, complete with a cushioned headrest, in a scene which called for a run-in with her step-daughter and a telephone call from her boyfriend. The film, which was about marriage and men, didn't have a single man in the cast.

In the 1940's, the bath was even the scene of a big production number with a dozen dancing girls. In "Step Lively" Gloria de Haven smiled amidst the bubbles while a bevy of beauties whirled around her.

Sheriff Kern Pays Filing Fee

HOUSTON (AP) — Sheriff C. V. Kern paid a filing fee Tuesday for the Democratic nomination for the post he has held for eight terms.

Kern will have at least two opponents for the nomination: Jack Heard, former Houston chief of police and former assistant director of the Texas Department of Corrections, and Robert Parke, a former FBI agent, have announced for the post.

$4.5 Million Plan To 'Sell' Region

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — The world, it appears, will not be unaware of the economic opportunities in the North Texas area with the coming of the Dallas-Fort Worth Regional Airport.

A $4.5 million program aimed at carrying the message far and wide was outlined recently to a group of area business leaders by C. A. Tatum Jr., president of the North Texas Commission.

Tatum, president of Texas Utilities Co., said $3 million of the $4.5 budget for three years of operation is already in hand or has been pledged.

Dick Jones has been named executive director and has established the commission's office in the Great Southwest Industrial District at Arlington.

Tatum said the commission was organized to provide an over-all effort for the entire region to capitalize upon the impact of what he called the world's greatest airport.

He said the magnitude of the airport is emphasized by the fact that it will be equipped to handle 10.5 million boarding passengers annually and to handle more cargo than the biggest seaport in the world. When in operation, some 40,000 persons will be employed at the airport, he said.

Tatum said the public relations program will be handled by Hill & Knowlton, a major public relations agency with offices around the world. It will be aimed at providing news and feature articles for newspapers and magazines and data for radio and television production.

Tracy-Locke has been employed to handle a nationwide display advertising program.

The projects are aiming, among other things, at attracting new business and industry to the area. Tatum said the emphasis will be on the region rather than on any single city or town. He said prospective companies will be given complete information enabling them to choose a site that meets their specific requirements, wherever in the region the site might be.

Court Order Enables Schools To Levy Taxes, Issue Bonds

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—A federal judge has cleared the way for Texas school districts to continue to levy taxes and issue bonds while the legislature devises a new school financing system.

Texas Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin had asked for clarification of this and other issues involved in a historic ruling that declared the present system unconstitutional.

U.S. District Court Judge Adrian Spears issued an amended order Wednesday, saying the original ruling was meant to "permit an orderly transition...from an unconstitutional to a constitution system of school financing."

VOICED CONCERN

The amended order specified that although the court retained jurisdiction for two years, this does not prohibit the state from appealing.

Martin had voiced concern that the action had ruled out the possibility of appealing to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Spears signed the order on behalf of himself and two other judges who struck down the financing system here last month. The panel found the current system, heavily dependent on property taxes, discriminates on the basis of each school district's wealth.

The amended order said the ruling "shall in no way" affect the validity of outstanding bonds, notes, securities or contractual obligations, nor their sources of payment.

COLLECTION

It also said the ruling does not affect the collection of taxes, the issuance of bonds and other securities, or contractual obligations during the two-year period in which a new system must be drawn up. Earlier Wednesday, officials announced that a House Committee has scheduled its first public hearing to study new ways to pay for public education in Texas.

State Rep. Paul Silber, chairman of the House Interim Committee on Financing Public Education, said the hearing will be held here next Wednesday.

When he requested the amended order on Jan. 11, Martin asked the court to reword its findings on a section of the Texas Constitution that provides for school financing through property taxes.

The court made clear it had not ruled against property taxes but rather against the method of distribution. The state was enjoined from enforcing the questioned Constitutional sections "insofar as they discriminate...on the basis of wealth other than the wealth of the State as a whole."

Yarborough Names Aides

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Ralph W. Yarborough, Democratic candidate for U.S. Senate, said Wednesday that Clifton L. Holmes, Kilgore, would be his assistant statewide campaign manager and director of organization.

Holmes has been assistant director of continuing legal education for the State Bar of Texas.

Yarborough said his director of public relations for the campaign would be T. Scott Bunton, a native of Wichita Falls, who has been working with the Baptist General Convention of Texas in Dallas.

Statewide coordinator for the Youth for Yarborough organization will be Garry P. Mauro, a native of Bryan, who is on leave from the University of Texas law school.

Spradling Added To TEC Staff

Michael Spradling, who was reared in Big Spring, has returned here to join the staff of the Texas Employment Commission as interviewer.

While he will be engaged in general interviewing, he will specialize in job placement for Vietnam veterans, said Leon Kinney, TEC manager.

Spradling grew up in Big Spring and was an Eagle Scout. Graduating from Big Spring High School, he received the AA degree at Howard County Junior College, then earned his B.S. degree in business administration at East Texas State University.

He also did some graduate work in business administration at Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Va., had experience as a life underwriter, and did student recruiting for colleges. He is an expert marksman, having authored a manual on the subject. Spradling was a member of the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lev. D. Spradling.

MR. AND MRS. JESS SLAUGHTER

Jess Slaughters Will Be Honored Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Slaughter will be honored Sunday, on their 50th wedding anniversary, with a reception from 2 to 5 p.m. in the First Federal Community Room. The affair is being hosted by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Slaughter Jr. of Trent and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Hurst of Denver, Colo. All friends are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Slaughter, who reside at 610 Baylor, have lived most of their married life in Big Spring. They were married Jan. 28, 1922, in Lamesa, where Mrs. Slaughter was a teacher in the Lamesa School and Slaughter was employed on one of the Lazy S ranches. Slaughter is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Slaughter, who were among the early settlers of Howard County. His wife is the former Elmer Paxton, daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Paxton of Elkhart, Tex. She retired from the teaching profession after 20 years with the Big Spring schools. Slaughter operated a service station with his late brother, Tom, and according to Slaughter, it was the first "drive-in" station in Big Spring. Later he became sheriff of Howard County, and he served in this capacity for 16 years. He is now serving a third term as Justice of the Peace.

The Slaughters are members of the First Baptist Church. They have six grandchildren. He is a member of the American Legion, WWI Veterans and the Odd Fellow lodge.

Those who will assist at the reception are Mrs. Slaughter's sister, Mrs. J. C. Shotwell, Elkhart; her sister-in-law, Mrs. T. K. Paxton, Palestine, Tex.; Slaughter's sister, Mrs. Bertha Heffernan, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Tom Slaughter, both of Big Spring; two granddaughters, Mrs. Johnny Stroth, Miliken, Colo., and Mrs. Eric Deniel, Munice, Ill.; Mrs. J. M. White, Canyon; and Mrs. Herman Taylor, Big Spring.

Bridal Shower Honors Mrs. Robin Sczepaniak

Mrs. Robin Sczepaniak, the former Miss Gennabeth Clinkscales, was honored at a bridal shower Monday in the home of Mrs. C. M. Weaver, 1515 Eleventh Place.

Hostesses were Mrs. Bill Pollard, Mrs. Herk Agee, Mrs. Ray Dabney, Mrs. O. C. Lewis, Mrs. Paul Guy, Mrs. Lawrence Robinson, Mrs. H. V. Crocker, Mrs. Jack Alexander and Mrs. Marvin Sewell.

Receiving guests with the honoree were her grandmothers, Mrs. C. Y. Clinkscales and Mrs. Eva Barnhill. Mrs. Sczepaniak, attired in a navy blue dress trimmed with red and white, was presented a red carnation corsage. Corsages were also presented to the grandmothers.

The refreshment table was covered with a white cutwork cloth and centered with a crystal epergne arranged with red tapers, red carnations, white pompons and fern. Silver and crystal appointments were used. Serving were Miss Sherri Alexander, Mrs. Dabney, Mrs.

Hear Program By Publisher

"One of the responsibilities of a newspaper is to speak out on what it thinks is right, yet, at the same time, inform readers on all aspects of a situation," said Robert McDaniel, publisher of the Big Spring Herald, when speaking Tuesday evening to the Spring City Chapter, American Business Women's Association.

Tracing, briefly, the history of newspaper journalism, McDaniel defined a newspaper's place in the community, noting that the Big Spring Herald is respected in the newspaper profession and has a reputation of being one of the better newspapers in Texas.

"Reporting cannot be 100 per cent objective," said McDaniel. "It involves what the reporter sees, but there are times when this view is influenced by other factors. The amount of news available today is enormous, and there must be someone to edit it, since there is no possible way to publish all of it. That is when the newspaper's staff of professionals enter the picture."

The speaker stressed progress made in methods of reporting.

"The first reporting was done by word of mouth," he said. "Later, records of events were written by hand. The invention of the printing press was an enormous step forward, as was movable type and the process of turning rags and wood pulp into newsprint."

Mrs. William Jackson, an employee of Hemphill-Wells, gave the vocational discussion. Invocation was by Mrs. Mack Key and benediction was by Mrs. Vernon Schroeder.

Accompanying Mrs. Wallace Walker as guests were Mrs. James Cox and Mrs. L. Q. Rudicil.

Take High Tallies In Club Play

Two groups of duplicate bridge players held separate sessions Wednesday at Big Spring Country Club.

Four and half tables were in play for the La Gallinas, with Mrs. Delnor Poss and Mrs. Harold Davis placing first. Other winners were Mrs. P. W. Malone and Mrs. Ross Boykin, second; Mrs. Ike Robb and Mrs. Paul Shaffer, third; and Mrs. Ken Perry and Mrs. John Taylor, fourth.

The regular duplicate play high tallies went to Mrs. Elvis McCrary and Mrs. Ray McMahan, first; Mrs. Elmo Wasson and Mrs. Ova Mae Edwards, second; and Mrs. Sid Johnston and Mrs. Joe Herbert, third.

Home Decorating Emphasized By BSP Speaker

"Decorate your home the way you live," said Mrs. Ronald Suggs to Alpha Beta Omicron Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, Tuesday evening at the K.C. Steak and Seafood House.

"Furnishings and styles you choose should reflect your family's taste and pattern of living," continued Mrs. Suggs. "You may choose subtle or vivid colors and old or new styles, but whatever your decision, stick with it."

Mrs. Suggs emphasized that colors play an important role in decorating. Contrasting colors are used to emphasize and closely blended colors are used to conceal. Each member told how their home reflected their personality.

Mrs. Roe Fulgham presided, and announced the BSP Sweetheart Ball is Feb. 12 at Cosden Country Club. Tickets are $5 per couple.

A hind quarter of beef will be offered by the chapter in a fund-raising project March 28. Donations are 50 cents each.

In other business, members agreed to take a gift to a patient at Big Spring State Hospital.

The next meeting is at 7:30 p.m., Feb. 8 in the home of Mrs. Don Cunningham, Route 1.

Western Wear Is More Stylish

Generally, western gear takes on a more fashionable look for men, many suits and coats made in double knit with various characteristics such as flap pockets and flare pants.

Soft suede jackets and shirts in chamois are showing up with some emphasis.

The Hall of Fashion, where manufacturers and exhibitors may show their respective lines, will be open as a special feature of the 4-day market.

Rainbows Hold Ritual

Three new members were initiated into the Order of Rainbows for Girls, Assembly No. 60, Tuesday evening at Masonic Temple. They are Diane Pipkin, Elizabeth Swindell and Pam Smith.

Mary Alice Terrazas presided at her last meeting as worthy advisor. Susan Smith, worthy associate advisor, announced her installation will be at 7:30 p.m., Feb. 5 at the temple.

Kay Williams, faith station, announced the hosiery drive is extended until Saturday, and anyone with hosiery to donate may call her at 267-6713. The hose are used for therapy at Big Spring State Hospital. Susan Smith announced there are still some calendars for sale for $1.25.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Alden Ryan, Sheila Fryar, Phyllis Johnson and Janet Shanks.

Group Discusses Singer's Book

"Amazing Grace," a book by Anita Bryant, was reviewed by Mrs. Karen Bostick for members of Joy Sunday school class, College Baptist Church, Monday in the home of Mrs. Bobby Mariott, 2206 Lynn.

The book discusses the entertainer's experiences in show business, and how she confronted various situations as a Christian.

Plans were finalized for a department Valentine party scheduled at 7:15 p.m., Feb. 11, at Furr's Cafeteria. Refreshments were served.

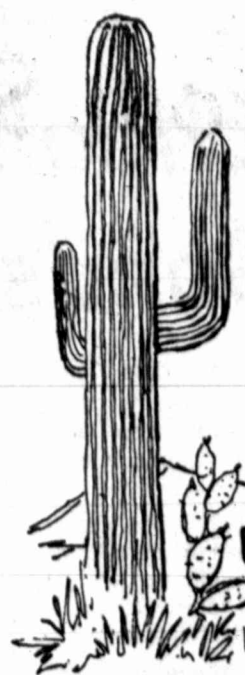

Wives, Mothers Still Baking

The Wives and Mothers of Vietnam Servicemen met for their regular bake day and business meeting recently in the VFW Hall. It was announced that the group sends packages to only nine local servicemen, and that at one time the group sent to 69.

Mrs. Harvey Hooser said a serviceman called her from Spokane, Wash., to thank her for the baked goods he received while in Vietnam, and said he often distributed them to needy Vietnamese children in an orphanage.

The next meeting is at 9 a.m., Feb. 16 in the VFW Hall.

Dr. Koshi said trees should be pruned only when needed, not by season, and that pruning paint should be used to protect cut ends. Cavities in trees should be filled with cement.

Mrs. Jesse Crane presided as members agreed to support the Garden Club Council's plan to replace roses in Comanche Trail Park. Johnny Johansen is in charge of the project.

A Friend of Youth membership was presented to the YMCA, and Mrs. Odell Womack donated a garden book to Howard County Library on behalf of the club.

Mrs. Dale Smith was hostess. Refreshments were served from a table covered with a red cloth and centered with a tree limb accented with red hearts and cupid.

All local garden club members are invited to hear Mrs. Charles Sweeney review the book, "The Big Thicket," at the club's next meeting, at 2 p.m., Feb. 15 in the home of Mrs. Bill Edwards, 2703 Crestline.

FANCY FAVORITES — White and fluffy Snowball Cake and cool and tasty Gelatin Cake are two of the favorite desserts for Mrs. William Reed's family. Both of them are pretty enough for party fare, but still easy to make.

RECOMMENDED RECIPES

Shared By Mrs. William Reed

FRIED CHICKEN BREASTS

4 chicken breasts
1 egg
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup flour
Shortening
Salt and pepper to taste
Remove bones from chicken, and cut into bite-size pieces. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Beat egg, add milk and flour and mix well. Dip each piece of chicken into batter separately, and fry in shortening until tender and brown. Good with Snow Biscuits, shown below.

SNOW BISCUITS

2 cups flour
4 tbsps. sugar
1 tsp. salt
1 pkg. dry yeast
3/4 cup warm water
1 tsp. shortening
Sift flour, sugar and salt. Dissolve yeast in lukewarm water, and add melted shortening. Combine with dry mixture and turn out on floured board. Knead quickly and gently until smooth and stretchy. Roll 1/2-inch thick. Cut with cutter and place on greased pan. Let rise until double in size (About one hour). Bake at 425 degrees for 20 minutes.

GELATIN CAKE

1 3-oz. pkg. strawberry gelatin
1 lb. graham crackers
1 cup vegetable shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
1 cup chopped nuts
1 No. 2 can crushed pineapple
Mix gelatin according to directions — set in refrigerator to chill. Do not let it thicken. Cream shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add eggs and beat. Stir in pineapple and nuts. Line deep dish with graham crackers. Spread half the mixture over graham crackers. Add another layer of graham crackers, and top with remaining filling mixture. Top with a final layer of crackers, and cover with chilled gelatin. Refrigerate.

STUFFED ONIONS

6 large onions
2 tbsps. vegetable oil
1 lb. lean ground beef
2 tbsps. chopped green pepper
2 tbsps. dry bread crumbs
1/2 tsp. chili powder
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. pepper
3 slices American cheese
1 8-oz. can tomato sauce
Peel onions. Cook in boiling salted water about 30 minutes, or until tender, yet firm. Drain and cool. Slice off top third of each onion. Cut out center to make cups. Chop 1/2 cup of the centers and saute in oil. Add beef and green pepper, and cook until done (about five minutes). Mix in bread crumbs, chili powder, salt and pepper. Fill onion cups with meat mixture. Place stuffed onions in shallow baking dish. Top each onion with strips of cheese. Pour tomato sauce over top, and bake occasionally. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 minutes. Makes six servings.

SNOW BALL CAKE

2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
4 tbsps. cold water
1 cup sugar
1 cup hot water
1 No. 2 can crushed pineapple
2 tbsps. lemon juice
1/2 cup chopped pecans
3 pkgs. boxed whipped topping mix
7 ozs. flaked coconut

Angel food cake
Dissolve gelatin in cold water. Add hot water, sugar, lemon juice, pineapple and pecans. Chill until thick. Beat two pkgs. topping mix according to directions, and fold into gelatin mixture after it has chilled. Break angel food cake into small pieces. Line large bowl with waxed paper. Alternate layer of cake pieces and filling, starting with cake and ending with filling. Chill again. When chilled, turn over onto a plate. Ice with remaining package of whipped topping. Sprinkle with flaked coconut.

PIZZA

(Makes two 14-inch pizzas)
3/4 cup warm water (not hot)
1 pkg. dry yeast
6 tbsps. cooking oil
3 cups flour (do not sift)
1 1/2 tbsps. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
Measure warm water into large bowl. Sprinkle yeast into water, and stir to dissolve. Stir in cooking oil. Measure flour, salt and pepper, and add to yeast mixture all at once. Blend thoroughly. Knead dough until smooth and stretchy. Grease the same bowl and top of dough with oil. Cover with cloth and let rise about two hours. Cut dough in half. Roll and stretch each half to make a shell in a 14-inch pizza pan.

PIZZA TOPPING

1 1-lb. can tomatoes
1 6-oz. can tomato paste
1 tsp. garlic powder
1 tsp. sugar
1 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
1 small green pepper
1 lb. cooked sausage
1 6-oz. pkg. Swiss cheese
2 tbsps. oregano
While dough is rising, prepare sauce by mixing tomatoes, tomato paste, garlic powder, sugar, salt and pepper in saucepan, and simmering 20 to 30 minutes. Cook sausage until done, but not brown, and break into pieces. Seed green pepper and cut in strips. Spoon half of hot sauce mixture into each pizza shell. Spread evenly with back of spoon. Arrange sausage pieces, pepper strips and then cheese on top. Sprinkle each pizza with one teaspoon oregano. Bake at 400 degrees for about 25 minutes, or until cheese melts and crust is golden brown.

Bacon Can Be Fixed In Oven

To fix bacon for a crowd, lay strips on rack in roasting pan so fat edge overlaps lean side of next slice. Bake in hot oven from 12 to 15 minutes or until done. No need to turn, drain or watch.

Preparing Meals Is Fun From Store To Cleanup

By BARBARA LORD

A lot of women like to cook, but seldom is one found who enjoys all of the additional duties involved in meal preparation. Mrs. William Reed delights in all aspects of culinary art, including going to the grocery store, which most women consider pure drudgery.

"Grocery shopping can be relaxing if you go at the right time," said Mrs. Reed. She shops on Mondays or Tuesdays when stores aren't crowded, and takes time to examine new products and to take advantage of sales.

Evening meals are fairly regular in the Reed household, usually served about 5:15 p.m. when Reed, a computer technician for IBM, Inc., arrives home from work. Breakfast, however, is another story.

"We all eat breakfast in a rush like most people," said Mrs. Reed. "It's just impossible to get them all at the table at once in the morning." The couple has three children: Carol, 19, is a sophomore at Howard County Junior College, and Donna, 17, and Dennis, 15, both attend Big Spring High School.

Mrs. Reed has a vast supply of recipes which she has collected "here and there." Seldom does she just go to a cookbook and choose one, because she prefers to have a picture of something she is about to make, and often tries recipes from magazines.

Some of her favorite recipes are ones she tasted as a guest in somebody's home. If she likes something particularly well, she'll ask them if she can write it down.

Mrs. Reed is generous with her recipes. Whenever she goes to a covered dish or salad luncheon, she tries to take something unique and is flattered if anyone asks her for the recipe.

Meals and other household activities are scheduled around ceramic classes which Mrs. Reed teaches three times a week for three hours each class. She presently has 19 students and considers the classes fun rather than a job, and her students as friends rather than students.

Mrs. Reed took ceramic lessons for three years from a certified teacher, and has collected numerous awards for her work, including the "Freddie Award," which is the highest one can receive for ceramic work.

The Reed home at 4035 Alma is appealingly decorated with several ceramic pieces made by Mrs. Reed or her daughters, yet she has chosen just the right number to avoid a cluttered look.

The men in the Reed family don't share enthusiasm in ceramics, but they do enjoy deer hunting. As a family, the Reeds enjoy playing 42, and often have people in to play the game.

"We don't do a lot of entertaining," said Mrs. Reed, "but we like to have people in to play 42 or to have a group sing. If people come to sing, I usually take care of the children and serve refreshments. I'm not much of a singer."

The Reeds have lived in Big Spring for about 1 1/2 years, but they previously lived here in 1957 to 1961 when he worked for Texas and Pacific Railways. They spent the interim nine years in Shreveport, La.

COBBLER BLENDS APPLES, RAISINS
Delightful family treat

Easy, Tasty, Healthy Cobbler Gets Approval

"A is for apple" is one of the basics of nursery school learning. Another one of the basics of home baking is fruit cobbler — apple in particular. Here's one of the easiest, tastiest apple cobbler recipes ever.

Serve the warm cobbler topped with vanilla ice cream and you'll rate A's for approval!

APPLE-RAISIN COBBLER

Makes 6 servings
1 1-lb. 5-oz. can apple pie filling
1 1/2 cup dark seedless raisins

1 1/2 tbsps. grated lemon peel
2 1/2 cup complete pancake mix
1/4 cup firmly packed brown sugar
1/4 cup butter or margarine, melted

Heat oven to 375 degrees. Combine pie filling, raisins and lemon peel in 8-inch square pan; blend well. Place complete pancake mix and sugar in small bowl; blend well. Sprinkle evenly over apple base. Drizzle with melted butter. Bake in preheated oven 35 to 40 minutes. Serve warm with vanilla ice cream.

Chicken Recipe Contest Opens

Just about everyone has a favorite way to cook chicken, and yours may be worth $10,000! Entries are now open for the 1972 National Chicken Cooking Contest which has a top prize of ten grand, with three other prizes of $5,000, $2,000 and $1,000 for the lucky cooks.

The National Chicken Cooking Contest is sponsored by the National Broiler Council, the association representing the chicken industry, in conjunction with Ac'cent International, Best Foods-A Division of CPC International Inc., Wear-Ever Aluminum and Alcoa Wrap. Fifty-one finalists will be selected representing each state and the District of Columbia to compete in the national cook-off in Birmingham, Alabama on May 20, 1972. Each state finalist wins a free trip to Birmingham plus $100 each, a trophy, a year's supply of Ac'cent, Alcoa wrap, Mazola corn oil, a seven-piece Wear-Ever Bounty Cookware set and a Cutco Cutlery Carving Set.

In addition to the top prizes, six bonus prizes of $150 will be given for the best chicken recipes with the following attributes: low calorie, low cost, uses livers or other giblets, hors d'oeuvres or snack type, cooked on outdoor grill, quick and easy. There's plenty of time to try your recipes because entries will not close until March 31, 1972. Each recipe must be accompanied by an entry blank or reasonable facsimile. Entry blanks will be available in some food stores starting in January, or may be obtained by writing to the National Chicken Cooking Contest, Suite 1100, 551 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10017.

Each recipe must feature whole or parts of broiler-fryer chicken. It must also include Ac'cent, Mazola corn oil or Mazola margarine, and must incorporate the use of Alcoa Wrap or Wear-Ever cookware in preparation or serving. Judging will be on the basis of appeal, method, idea, appearance, flavor and eating qualities. Recipe should present something especially interesting and perhaps new and different as a way of fixing chicken.

The cook-off will encompass an exciting weekend in the Southland, with the final judging itself done by a panel of twelve nationally-known food authorities. Enter now. Your chicken dish may win!

War Critics Want Fixed Pullout Date

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate war critics say they will continue to push for a fixed date for total U.S. withdrawal from Indochina despite President Nixon's effort to defuse the war as a political issue.

Taken somewhat by surprise by Nixon's disclosure Tuesday night of secret U.S.-North Vietnamese peace efforts, many conceded the President's speech will have a favorable political impact, at least over the short run.

BE SPECIFIC

But, in a series of statements and interviews Wednesday, they said Nixon's plan fails to set a specific date for U.S. withdrawal and risks North Vietnamese rejection by linking the U.S. pullout to a cease-fire throughout Indochina and release of American prisoners.

"North Vietnam is not likely to accept his proposals, and I do not recommend our people place too much hope in this," said Sen. Allen Ellender, D-La.

Ellender, who has opposed congressional efforts to set a fixed withdrawal date, thus agreed with Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Foreign Relations Committee, a supporter of a fixed date.

SOUNDED GOOD

Fulbright's comment: "I don't think we're going to get anywhere under this formula."

Sen. Harold E. Hughes, D-Iowa, said in an interview that "when I first heard it on the news, it sounded pretty good. On close inspection, it didn't turn out that way."

Sen. Edward W. Brooke, R-Mass., who had predicted a major administration move some 24 hours before Nixon spoke, foresaw "a growing movement here in Congress to get a date certain" unless the President takes further peace steps, possibly after his late-February visit to Mainland China.

Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., said establishment of a fixed U.S. withdrawal date is "the only way in which there might be a chance that South Vietnam would shape up for its own defense."

LONG STEP

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, while praising Nixon's initiative as "a long step forward," emphasized he still plans to offer at the proper time his amendment calling for total U.S. withdrawal in six months if America's prisoners are freed.

Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif., drew sharp Republican criticism when he told a virtually deserted Senate chamber late Wednesday that the Nixon proposal is "totally unrealistic" and could be designed to make a possible U.S. escalation in future weeks "more acceptable if and when it comes."

Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., assistant GOP leader, called Cranston's statements "disappointing and shocking" and said it would be better for critics to stay silent if they couldn't back the President.

On both sides of the aisle, indications were that senators who have backed the previous Mansfield amendments, which passed the Senate but were blocked by the House, will support future moves.

ONE-POINT PLAN

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., said in a statement that Nixon's plan lacks a precise date, which Humphrey said "has been the basis of the Mansfield amendment which I have consistently supported and which the majority of the Senate and the American public has accepted."

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., said that, instead of President Nixon's eight-point plan, "all we need is a one-point plan—a complete withdrawal of American ground, sea and air forces by a date certain in exchange for a return for our prisoners.

"So long as we try to condition our withdrawing with things like free elections, a cease-fire or any of the other trappings disclosed last night, reasonable as that may seem, we shall be pursuing the same blind alley in public negotiations that we have followed with such futility in private," Kennedy said.

STALEMATE

Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, said in Frankfurt, Ky., that, "On the military side, the one sticking point in the proposal is that it would call for a cease-fire in Cambodia and Laos as well as Vietnam."

"That means that our withdrawal from South Vietnam would be tied to a settlement of the military activities in Cambodia and Laos as well as in South Vietnam. This could well lead, I think, to a stalemate in Paris and to a prolongation of the war," Muskie said.

Baylor Hikes Tuition Rates

WACO, Tex. (AP) — Baylor University trustees increased tuition rates and at the same time asked school authorities to maintain restrictions on campus speakers to keep out atheists, scofflaws and rebels.

The trustees voted to raise the tuition fees five dollars to $35 per semester hour beginning with the fall semester.

Baylor President Abner McCall said the decision to increase the tuition fee was made with "reluctance."

He said the increases were necessary to meet inflationary trends and continue operations of the school.

At the same time the university trustees asked McCall to take "whatever steps are necessary to maintain restriction of speakers on campus who might advocate atheism, defiance of the law or violent rebellion."

The board of trustees also set July 20 as the date for groundbreaking of a new journalism communication building, Castellow Communications Center.

Author Says Hughes Expressed 'Thanks' For $275,000 Check affidavit disclaiming any knowledge of Irving or authorization for his book was a valid Hughes document.

"This is probably the most horrible experience I've ever gone through," Irving said. He has maintained that he delivered McGraw-Hill checks of $275,000 and $50,000 to Hughes personally and gave one for $325,000 to a bona fide Hughes representative.

Swiss police are searching for a woman identified as H.R. Hughes who apparently deposited the three checks into a Swiss account and later withdrew the money.

A police spokesman in Zurich reported that Spanish officials have been asked to check the whereabouts of Irving's wife, Edith, when the money was withdrawn by the mystery woman.

Irving, his wife and their two children came here from their home on the Spanish island of Ibiza, passing up a request from Swiss police to go to Zurich for questioning.

Swiss police have reportedly sent the FBI a list of questions to be put to the Irvings if they do not go to Zurich.

Irving is in New York for a court appearance in a libel suit against him over a previous book.

Before leaving Ibiza in the Balearic Islands, Irving told newsmen he also hoped to unangle the mysteries surrounding the purported autobiography of the secretive industrialist.

Yesterday's Jumbles: FINAL TWEAK HANSOM GATHER
 Answer: The hearing can't begin until you do this—LISTEN

'PLATFORM CITY' BEGINS — Construction of the first unit of Texas Eastern Transmission Corp.'s Houston Center — a "platform city" that will ultimately occupy 33 downtown Houston blocks — will begin this week. Buildings with external details comprise Houston Center's first increment. The initial unit, to be called "2 Houston Center" at left, will include an office tower building rising 40 stories above a 3½-story platform level and a six-story wing.

Command Says 64 Reds Killed In New Fighting

SAIGON (AP) — The South Vietnamese command today claimed 107 enemy killed in an upsurge of fighting across the country.

The command also admitted having erred in reporting Wednesday that four North Vietnamese tanks were destroyed by South Vietnamese planes in the central highlands. The vehicles were trucks, not tanks, a spokesman said.

But a field report from the highlands today said one tank had in fact been knocked out, along with three trucks, inside the South Vietnamese border Wednesday.

The U.S. Command reported that five Americans were wounded by a booby trap while on patrol south of Da Nang. A spokesman said the GIs, members of the 196th Infantry Brigade, were patrolling less than a mile from their battalion headquarters, 10 miles south of Da Nang, when one stepped on a "pressure type" booby trap.

The command, amplifying an earlier account, reported that a U.S. district adviser was killed in the Mekong Delta Tuesday when a motorboat was ambushed by Viet Cong troops hiding along the bank of a canal. The Vietnamese district chief also was killed. The two were inspecting security posts in Bx Xuyen.

Air strikes were credited with at least 40 of the enemy soldiers killed in fighting Wednesday.

The Saigon command said 25 enemy soldiers were killed, 20 of them by air strikes, after two government platoons discovered a company-size base camp 13 miles southeast of Tan Canh, in the central highlands.

In the other encounters, 20 enemy were killed by air attacks near Cai Lay District town, 45 miles south of Saigon, and 22 others in several clashes northwest of Saigon.

Five South Vietnamese were reported killed and nine wounded in the actions, military sources said.

The highlands fighting occurred about 10 miles from where two trucks, first identified as tanks, were reported to have been knocked out.

Military sources said the conflicting reports apparently stemmed from differing accounts by aerial observers.

There was agreement that North Vietnamese tanks have been sighted in the highlands near where the borders of Laos, Cambodia and South Vietnam come together.

U.S. and South Vietnamese officials are predicting that North Vietnam will launch an offensive in that region next month to coincide with the Tet festival Feb. 15 and to embarrass President Nixon during his trip to Peking.

Meeting Set In Snyder

Construction industry leaders will hold a one-day conference in Snyder, Friday it was announced today by J. W. Little, Big Spring, president of the West Texas Chapter, Associated General Contractors of America.

Little said that a quarterly business session would be held of the chapter's board of directors, and that numerous topics of interest to the builders would be handled in depth.

"Our current problems," Little said, "include such things as Phase II of the wage-price freeze, coupled with new education programs for safety and accident prevention. And in parts of our West Texas area, we are plagued with labor problems that affect both open shop and union-oriented employers alike. We're looking harder than ever for ways to increase productivity and lower costs."

A reception will be held at 6 p.m. for members and their guests, who will be present from a wide area of West Texas, including Wichita Falls, Brownwood, Midland-Odessa, and Lubbock.

Harold E. Moore, general manager of the North Texas Contractors Association, will give a program on regional bargaining of the Dallas-Fort Worth area, which involved a historic settlement of wage rates for 23 different crafts in a single set of negotiations last year.

All functions will be held at the Snyder Country Club, Little added, and the hosts for the occasion will be the firm of T. E. Shelburne & Sons of Snyder.

LCC To Dedicate New Structure

There will be open house at Lubbock Christian College on Saturday, celebrating the dedication of the new Maddox-Pugh Educational Center at 2:30 p.m.

Dr. John W. McFarland, dean of the College of Education at Texas Women's University, Denton, as the main speaker.

The 16,384 square foot, two story, masonry structure was made possible by a gift from Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Maddox, Amarillo, as a memorial to their parents, Samuel W. and Elizabeth Maddox and E. H. and Margaret Pugh.

Deepest Oil Hunting Hole

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — A world's record for the deepest exploratory well for oil and gas has been set with the completion of a Parker Drilling Co. operation in West Texas, the firm has announced.

The hole is 28,500 feet — more than over five miles deep. It was the target depth for the Ralph Lowe Estate No. 1-17 wildcat, located near Fort Stockton in West Texas.

The well could have been drilled down to 35,000 feet with the equipment on the well, said R. L. Parker, president of the Tulsa-based firm.

He said that testing for possible discovery of oil or gas was not immediately possible because the hydrostatic pressure of the drilling mud would unseat the packers.

The drill set a world record Nov. 5, 1971, when it passed 25,000 feet, the record previously held by a Placid Oil Co. dry hole in southern Louisiana.

TOMORROW

—CARROL RIGHTER

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Unexpected problems can arise to annoy you today and tonight. It is wise to do nothing which can lessen harmony in solving problems, because you as well as others are to quick to take offense and can become greatly overwrought, making mountains of molehills.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Do your utmost to keep harmony within the home now, and you find your business life improves. Quietly get rid of whatever is causing trouble. Try to talk less and listen more. Learn.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Avoid any tendency to be careless in driving, walking or motion of any kind and prevent trouble. Criticizing others could get you in hot water, so think before you speak. Save more money for the future.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You are tempted to spend lavishly and then regret it at leisure, so think twice and don't do it. Put your money in the bank and be glad you did. It is important you stay within your budget now.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) You are in a discontented mood and could accomplish little or nothing, or get into trouble, so change your attitude and this becomes a happy, good day for you. Test your mettle, turn adversity into gain.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Instead of trying to get out of those obligations facing you, you had better see to it and dig right into them. Then you find you even have time to help others in similar circumstances. Keep objective.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Friends are in the mood to criticize, so do not give them any cause for doing so today. Some group meeting is best avoided.

Others' moods are combustible and the wrong word could start off a big fracas. LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You want to handle some public affair today, but take care you do not inadvertently do something that could ruin your reputation. Take no risks with bigwigs what-ever. Show you know exactly what you are doing, saving.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Although your head is buzzing with new ideas you want to put in operation just because you are bored, you could get into trouble if you do not study them well. Show you are a good cautious person. Relax in a moment.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Although you are reaching the end of your patience, go through with promises you have made and then all is fine. Being blunt with others could get you into a peck of trouble. Use diplomacy instead.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You feel unhappy where others are concerned, so study the situation well before you lose your temper, and then don't do it. Don't rush out to see an opponent angrily, either. Get down to constructive work to be accomplished.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Although you want to get away from it, it is no time to neglect it and then lose out on the benefits it can bring. Discipline yourself well, especially where dealings with others are concerned. Get much accomplished easily.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Although you want to get away from worries, you must be sure not to neglect promises you have made, because this could increase anxieties. Listen to the worries of others. Show you have understanding.

Opening lead: Three of ♠. When South opened the bidding with one heart, North's holding became worth 19 points in support, but without a long suit of his own or a strong distributional fit, he decided against making an immediate jump shift response. Altho his simple forcing responses in clubs and diamonds elicited only minimum rebids, North decided that the presence of a good heart suit plus the proper controls would present a reasonable play for slam. When his Blackwood inquiry revealed that the partnership held three aces, he carried on to six hearts.

West opened the three of spades. East covered the queen with the ace and returned the suit, putting dummy in with the king. A small heart was led to the king, on which East showed out—discarding a club. A heart was returned and the proven finessse was taken against West's jack by playing the ten from dummy and then the queen was cashed as East disposed of his remaining spades.

The closed hand was entered with the ace of diamonds to draw West's jack of trumps with the ace as both North and East discarded diamonds. It appears that the fate of the slam hinges on the diamond finesse. The play of the cards so far indicated that West had started with five spades and four hearts. This meant that he held only four cards in the minor suits, whereas East had nine. On this basis, South resolved to reject the normal play and attempt to squeeze East out of his assets. A fifth round of trumps was led, the jack of diamonds was discarded from dummy and this was the position with East not yet having played to the trick:

It was East's turn and he observed that he could not afford to part with a club, for this would present his opponent with an opportunity to establish dummy's hand by cashing the ace and king of clubs and then ruffing out the queen. The king of diamonds puts North back in to cash the long club.

East chose to discard the ten of diamonds. South countered by leading over to the ace which felled the nine and queen. The ace and king of clubs were led followed by a third round, which declarer ruffed with the six of hearts. The four of diamonds took the fulfilling trick.

Ex-DA Takes Aim At Mutscher Post

HOUSTON (AP) — Hulen C. Hall, 53, former county and district attorney in Grimes County, has announced he will be a candidate for the state House of Representatives from District
29.

He was county attorney of Grimes County from 1949-56 and district attorney for the 12th judicial district from 1957-
61. He also served as an assistant state attorney general to Grimes, Madison, Walker and Washington Counties.

Mutscher, whose name has figured prominently in the Texas stock scandal that broke early in 1971, has not yet announced for re-election but is expected to do so.

Hall is the second announced candidate for the House seat.
Latham Boone III, 32, a Nava-
Hall, who announced Wednesday, is a native of Bedias Monday.

Looks To Better 'Deal' With Environmentalists

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The executive director of the Texas
Water Development Board says it appears that the "radical wing" of the environmentalists may have peaked last year, and "hopefully" work can now resume on water projects.

Harry Burleigh also said
Wednesday in the board's monthly magazine that while the board has established a "dialogue" with environmentalists, "it is premature to note that full accord has been established."

"In any event," he said, "it begins to appear that efforts of the radical wing of the environmental movement may have peaked in 1971."

general public are no longer accepting half-truths, innuendo

Mistress Tips

Dear Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: May I give your readers the benefit of my very valuable experience? I address this to any woman who is "in love" with a married man:

Never expect to see him on Sundays or holidays.

Never call him at home.

Don't ever expect him to take you out in public, but be prepared to entertain him at your place. He may bring a bottle or the steaks occasionally, but in actual dollars and cents you will spend more on him than he'll spend on you.

Never depend on him in times of personal crisis. Don't believe him when he tells you his wife is a shrew, cold, homely, too fat, or too thin, and she hasn't slept with him for 10 years.

Don't ever expect his wife to divorce him — even if she catches him. She knows that you are not his first and won't be his last. Also, she is not about to give up her social status, financial security and retirement income because of you. However, her discovery will probably terminate his affair with you, so be prepared to get some new clothes, circulate, and find another married man whose wife is a shrew, cold, homely, too fat (or too thin) and hasn't slept with him for 10 years. Sign me

DEAR WIFE: Bravo! Thanks for sharing.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I recently met a very attractive and charming couple. We took to each other on first meeting and they asked us if we played bridge. We said we did, so they invited us over for a foursome of bridge. We accepted.

Abby, my husband and I enjoy bridge, but these people took the game so seriously, that they nearly came to blows with each other! All evening long they were making sarcastic remarks to each other and my husband and I didn't enjoy the evening one bit.

We invited them to our home (avoiding any mention of cards when we asked them), but we ended up playing bridge again, anyway. This time was worse than the first!

They have since twice invited us over for bridge and I said we were "busy" — which we weren't.

They are a charming couple when they aren't playing bridge, and we'd like to see them again. If they invite us again, would it be proper for us to accept and suggest we don't play cards?

DEAR NORTH AND SOUTH: That's one way of finding out if it's your company they want.

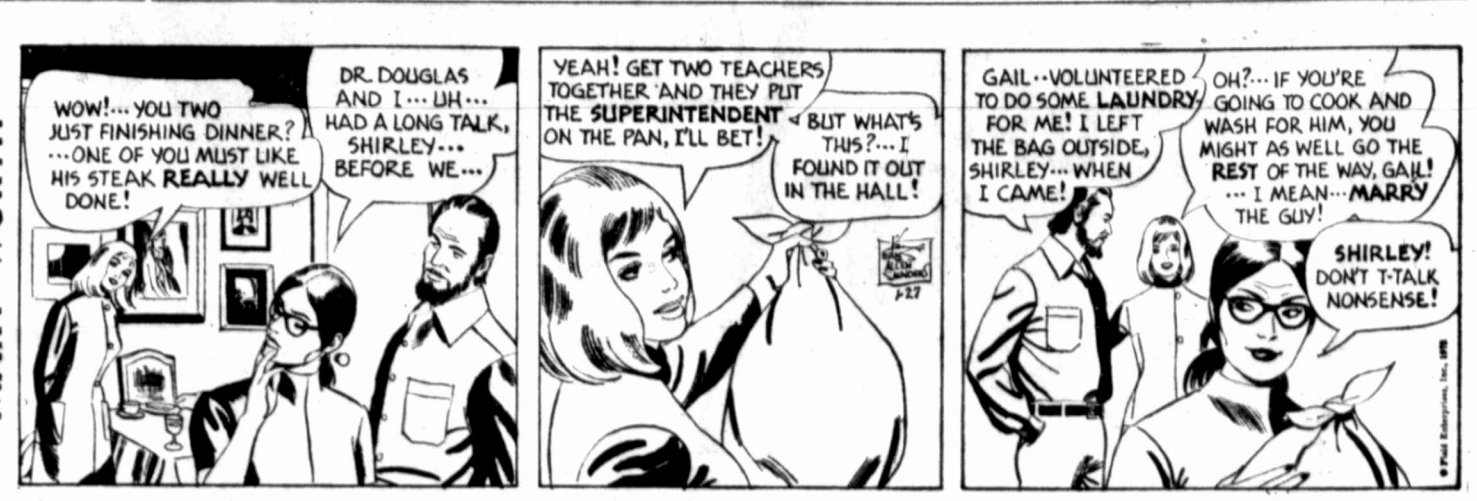

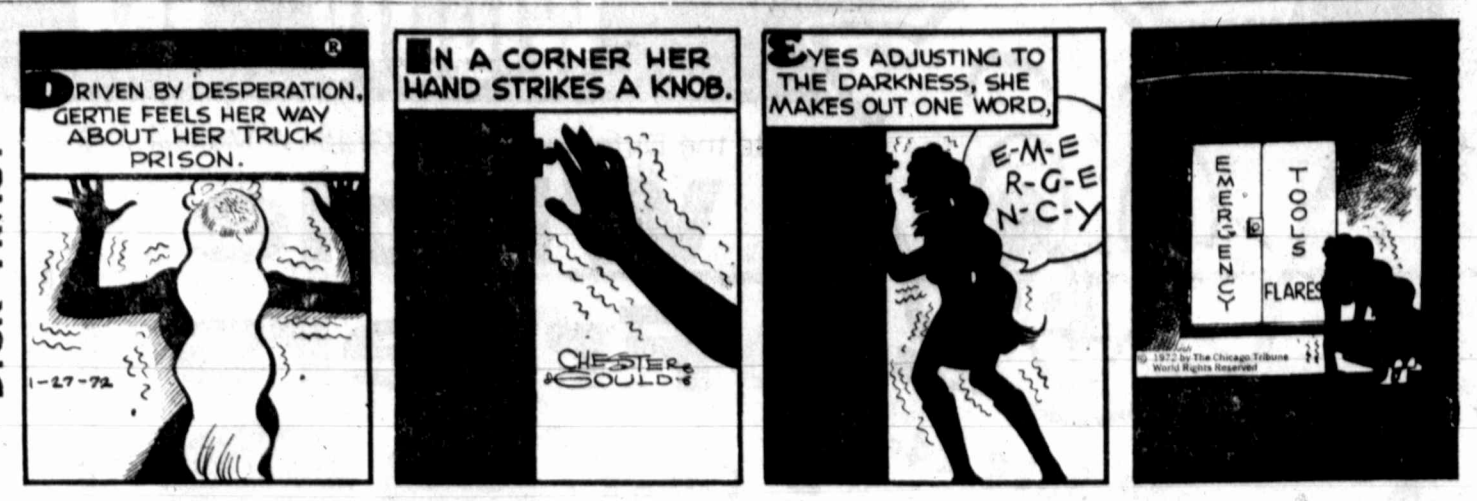

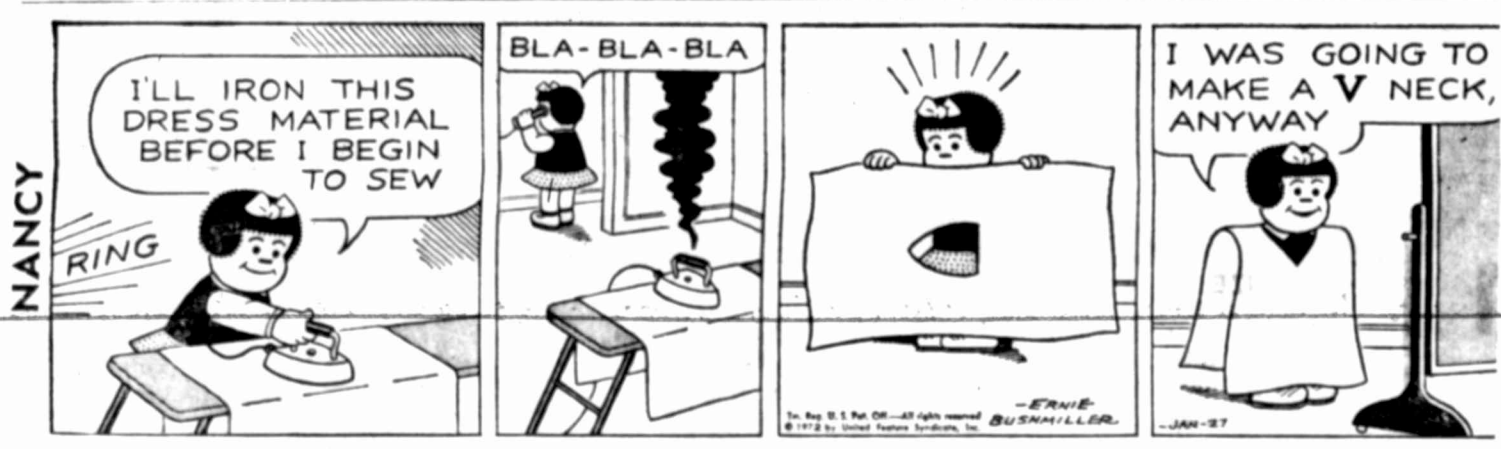

DEAR ABBY: When my wife and I were married, she was 33, and I was 41. She said at the time she didn't want any children until she was sure our marriage would last. Well, it's lasted for 11 years, and she's still not sure.

I told her if she doesn't make up her mind by next Easter, she will have to get another "Daddy" for any children she plans to have because I am not about to start raising kids in my middle fifties.

If you can provide me with any other arguments for my side, please let me have them. Thank you. NO KID MYSELF.

DEAR NO KID: I think you're the one who's being kidded. Your life doesn't really want any children. There are exceptions, of course, but a Daddy who's old enough for Social Security is hardly young enough for touch football.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "SORRY IN CENTRALIA, WASH.": There is no disgrace in saying, "I was wrong." It proves that you're smarter today than you were yesterday.

Blood Pressure

Your Good Health

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Why do slimmer people mostly have low blood pressure? What will help bring the pressure up? And what does 144-94 mean? Is this normal pressure? What is normal? — C.R.L.

I don't think it's true that slimmer people "mostly" have low blood pressure. Rather, obese people are more likely to have high blood pressure. It takes more pressure to force circulation through their bigger bodies. The overweight can have other effects, too.

If a person keeps his blood pressure in the lower ranges, he is glad of it. Seldom is there any point in trying to raise it.

Those numbers — 144-94, or "144 over 94" — indicate the range of pressure. Your blood pressure isn't constant. It fluctuates between pressure at the moment the heart is pumping and a lower pressure that exists between heart beats. The figure you quote shows a pressure that would raise a column of mercury to 144 millimeters when your heart is having a beat and only to 94 between beats.

A reading of 140-90 is generally regarded as the upper limit for a mature adult. (Children and young people, when healthy, have lower pressures).

Thus your 144-94 is a bit above what would be preferable for an adult — not much, but it would be wise to try to bring it down a little. If you can reduce it substantially, that's fine.

If you want to know more about why and how blood pressure varies, you may be interested in my newest booklet, "Controlling Your Blood Pressure (Hypertension)," which I've just completed. It took longer to write than I had anticipated, because there were so many questions that I felt should be answered in the booklet — everything from how pressure is measured, to the effect of diet, medication and even surgery. What's normal pressure, and what damage does excessive pressure do?

If you'd like a copy, send 25 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of the Big Spring Herald.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My son is seven and weighs 122 pounds. I have taken him to several pediatricians and each doctor told me to cut down on his starch food, but he is just a healthy child and I am not satisfied with those answers.

What do you think causes him to be fat, and would you send me a copy of a diet for him?

V.C.M.

What do I think makes him fat? Probably too much starch food, (or fat or sweet) food, and if you won't believe what you've been told by "several pediatricians," I don't know why you should expect me to come up with some fancy excuse for his overweight. He eats too much. This problem in childhood can persist into adulthood with a continuous weight problem.

Dear Doctor: A friend of mine had cirrhosis of the liver, and after proper diet and medication, the liver reached normal stage.

Would it ever be possible for this person to have an occasional drink, or would it be harmful? — M.M.M.

I must risk sounding like an old kill-joy today, but I will have to advise your friend to avoid that drink.

A return to normal life after an attack of cirrhosis of the liver was a 50-50 proposition to begin with. Unless he (or she) wants to buck those odds again with a recurrence, then alcohol should be removed from the picture.

Antiwar Priest Convicted With Brother Wins Parole

WASHINGTON (AP) — Antiwar priest Daniel Berrigan has been granted parole after serving just over 17 months of a three-year sentence for destruction of draft records at Catonsville, Md., in 1968.

The U.S. Board of Parole announced the decision Wednesday after its second parole review, which included new information concerning Berrigan's health.

A previous application was denied last August.

Berrigan, 51, is the brother of the Rev. Philip Berrigan who, along with six other persons, went on trial Monday in Harrisburg, Pa., on charges of planning to kidnap Henry A. Kissinger, national security affairs adviser to President Nixon.

Philip said news of his brother's impending release was "totally unexpected."

"Yet (it was) received with the utmost joy by myself, the defendants and lawyers. By all who know and love Dan, very simply, we thank God and our friends who worked so steadfastly for Dan's release."

Some 50 demonstrators held an interfaith religious service outside the main gates of the Danbury prison Wednesday night after the parole announcement.

In 1967, Philip was involved in a raid on selective service offices in Baltimore for which he was later convicted. He and several others poured a mixture of animal and human blood over draft files.

In November 1970, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover told a Senate committee both priests were part of a group called the East Coast Conspiracy to Save Lives. Hoover said then that the government believed the group planned the bomb-and-kidnap plot.

Smallpox No Threat

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston health officials have announced that smallpox immunizations no longer will be required for tourists going to European nations or Russia.

The announcement followed a similar release from the Center for Disease Control in Atlanta. The center said all European countries have dropped their immunization requirements for American visitors.

Dr. Robert MacLean, director of the Houston City Health Department's communicable disease section, said the vaccination is a waste of time and money since smallpox no longer is a public health threat except in a few primitive areas.

1970 Bludgeoning Death Trial Lags

HOUSTON (AP) — Jurors in the trial of Aureliano Silva resumed deliberations today.

They deliberated two hours Wednesday evening and then were locked up for the night.

The jurors have been in and out of the courtroom for three months during the lengthy trial.

Silva is charged with the Nov. 17, 1970, bludgeoning death of June Grove Gleason, a real estate saleswoman.

Air Force's 1st Airborne Unit Waits For Doomsday

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force's 1st Airborne Command and Control Squadron waits, as it has for 10 years, for the nuclear trigger at a hardened underground shelter in Virginia, at the headquarters of the North American Air Defense Command buried deep inside Cheyenne Mountain, Colo., or aboard the flying command posts of the Strategic Air Command.

At any hour, day or night, one of its three planes stands fueled and ready for takeoff from a runway only 10 minutes by helicopter from the White House.

Within minutes of alert of impending nuclear attack on the United States, the president and his military command staff could be airborne in one of these flying command posts.

Sophisticated electronics and communications equipment aboard the plane would enable the president to direct the nation's defense and counter-attack while cruising more than 40,000 feet above the earth.

The president would be in constant touch with U.S. military commands around the world even if the White House or Pentagon were destroyed in the first wave of a surprise nuclear attack.

An underground sanctuary at Ft. Ritchie, Md., in the Catoctin Mountains, serves as an alternate command post. Or, the of staying aloft for several days.

Although never used in a real emergency, the planes have piled up thousands of flying hours in simulated alerts.

The Pentagon says the planes are getting old and are too small for the improved electronics computers and communication equipment that has come along in recent years. It wants them replaced with a fleet of seven bigger and more costly Boeing 747 jumbo jets.

Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird asked Congress this week for $113.8 million to buy four 747s immediately. Two more would be bought next year and the seventh the following year.

With new and bigger planes, Laird explained, "We will be able to obtain greater endurance, more flexibility, larger battle staffs, a larger group of varied experts to support top-level decision making, and additional space to put improved communication and automatic data-processing equipment as it becomes available."

Laird suggested Soviet weapons developments may have made the existing flying command posts vulnerable to communications blackouts in a nuclear attack.

Abilene To Sort Coahoma's Mail

COAHOMA — Postmaster Edward L. Engel says that the Coahoma post office starting Feb. 1, will be a part of the area mail processing system of the Abilene section center. Mail will still be postmarked locally as time permits. Mail that does not receive local postmark will be sent to the Abilene section center for processing.
