"If youngsters could observe an addict going through the agonies of 'cold turkey' withdrawal they would be horrified and unlikely to experiment." He said the drug pusher today is not a dirty, degraded and furtive person, but often is an associate, even a schoolmate, of the user.

"Some youngsters say, 'I'll try just once," not realizing how easy it is to become addicted," according to Hewes who pointed out that addiction and drug dependence lead to other crimes such as burglary and hold-ups to support the habit which quickly becomes very expensive.

Hewes Discusses—

ment officers are doing everything they can to fight drug traffic in Aransas County with the main emphasis being placed on arrest of pusher. However, he pointed out that drug users also are arrested whenever possible, citing two recent instances in which penitentiary sentences were given for possession of drugs. Possession, use or sale of narcotics remains illegal and can result in a felony conviction, Hewes asserted. He explained the life long-effect of a felony conviction which prevents issuance of state licenses in many fields, including medicine, law, dentistry and others.

Sheriff Hewes said local schools are doing a good job educating children to the danger of narcotics, starting with the fourth grade. While there continued to be addiction among school children, of late there appears to be more use of drugs in older age groups such as the 25 to 30 year olds.

He said one of the greatest problems in enforcement was the necessity to have what is almost an air-tight case against suspects before an arrest can be made. He explained that his department knows the identity of four drug sellers who operate in this area, but so far it has been impossible to get sufficient evidence to make an arrest. Often the necessary evidence comes in too late to be used, he added.

At the Rotary meeting Sheriff Hewes displayed a case containing samples of various kinds of narcotics seized by his department in recent months, along with paraphernalia used by addicts.

Morning TOPS Holds Meeting

Morning TOPS meeting was opened last week at 9:30 a.m. by Leader Cathy Gaskin, with 18 members present.

The weigh-in which began at 8:30 a.m. and ended at 9:20 a.m. resulted in Barbara Maley being Queen of the Week with a 4 3/4 pound loss and Verna Smith, runner-up with a 4 1/4 pound loss. The Queen was presented with a crown and corsage to be worn during the meeting.

Leader announced that a contest would be held with Ingleside TOPS Club to see which club had lost the most weight at the end of a six-week period. The winners could make their own choice of prizes.

A Ha-Ha contest will begin next week. To be eligible for the prize, winner must have a "no gain" recorded for that meeting. Chuck Smith made and presented the club with a wooden mail box for the distribution of secret pal cards, gifts, etc. He is now officially designated as "Morning TOPS Special Mailman, 1st Class".

The club total weight loss for the week was 21 1/4 pounds.

Further information on Morning TOPS may be obtained from Leader Cathy Gaskin, 729-2116 or Secretary Betty McMeredith, 729-6213.

Good Catch

Bill Bardwell and party including Mrs. Lydiac from La-Grange, Texas brought in 68 speckled trout and redfish. The trout weighed from 1 1/2 to 3 pounds and the redfish weighed up to ten pounds. On Thursday they caught many reds and trout up to five pounds.

Bartons Attend Graduation

Rev. and Mrs. Josef A. Barton of Copano Cove attended the graduation, last Saturday, of their youngest daughter at the University of Texas at Austin School of Nursing. May, Mrs. William Durfor, received her Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing along with 80 other bachelor candidates and 6 master degree candidates. The parents report a highly inspirational commencement program.

They recall a particularly amusing incident at the conclusion of the program with Mrs. Lucy Bird Nugent, daughter of the late President Johnson and identified as a board member, seeking out their daughter and congratulating her on her graduation and obvious pregnancy, confiding in her, "I am expecting, too, on June 1."

Mrs. Durfor had recently been inducted into Sigma Theta Tau, the only national honor society in nursing.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Nava, Sr. have announced the engagement of their daughter, Norma, to Joseph S. Garza of Houston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Arroyos of Junction City, Kan.

The couple plan a June 8 wedding in Sacred Heart Catholic Church of Rockport.

Miss Nava is a graduate of Rockport-Fulton High School, and her fiance from Junction City High.

Miss Nava is employed by Westinghouse Electric Corp. He attends San Jacinto College in Houston.

BIG RATTLER -- Billy McGill of Rockport killed this seven foot two inch rattler recently in the Freer Rattlesnake Roundup. He caught 12 rattlers ranging in length from 4 1/2 feet to the 7 foot 2 inch giant.

A.A.R.P. Meets

Sixty-seven members and guests were present at V. F. W. Hall May 8 for a meeting of Chapter No. 1536, American Association of Retired Persons.

Meeting was presided over by Zollie Glass, president. Opening prayer was given by Hiram Willetts, followed by group singing led by Earl Gage, with Mrs. Paul Morrison at the piano. Paul Riddle, program chairman, discussed plans for future entertainment, after which Mr. and Mrs. John Leslie gave an interesting account of their recent visit to Hawaii.

The next meeting will be a picnic at Memorial Park May 22, beginning at nine a.m. There will be games in the morning, with picnic lunch.

Persons 55 years or older are eligible for membership in A. A. R. P. Dues are only $2 for both husband and wife. Visitors are welcome.

B.J. Crowley's HOROSCOPE

Week of May 19, 1974

TAURUS--Those born under this sign usually like to travel. They are fearless and strong of mind. They are both shrewd and emotional. Their lucky number is 1, best color is yellow and lucky day is Monday.

TAURUS--April 21 to May 20--A fine week to make use of your original ideas. You could be included in some favorable publicity.

GEMINI -- May 21 to June 20 -- Concentration may be hindered by distractions. You may be tempted to goof off. Minimize the temptation by staying on your regular routing.

CANCER--June 21 to July 22 -- Time to buy something you want. A temporary break away from your usual practical approach could be helpful.

LEO -- July 23 to Aug. 22 --Organized effort is needed. Watch that you don't offend those close to you. Some are wearing their feelings on their sleeves.

VIRGO -- Aug. 23 to Sept. 22-- Talk that new idea out. When you discuss the idea of selling something with someone who is objective, you may find that the time is right.

LIBRA -- Sept. 23 to Oct. 22 -- New methods needed now. Be loyal to your employer or employees. You lose only if you are dishonest.

SCORPIO--Oct. 23 to Nov. 22 -- Familiarize yourself with your legal rights. The knowledge will be especially helpful in business matters.

SAGITTARIUS -- Nov. 23 to Dec. 21-- Complete tasks at hand before embarking upon new projects. Plan to study, improve health and stick to business.

CAPRICORN-- Dec. 22 to Jan. 19 -- Learn to control your emotions. You will lose friends if you continue to work so hard at putting others in their place by having the last word.

AQUARIUS -- Jan. 20 to Feb. 18 -- Try to keep your moods on an even keel, avoiding the tendency to be either high or low. You will do well to avoid making promises at this time.

PISCES--Feb. 19 to March 20 -- Take a look at family finances. With careful planning the budget can take on a healthier look.

ARIES--March 21 to April 20 -- Others will love you if you build their confidence, putting their preferences before you own. True happiness lies in giving, not getting.

The largest playing field for any ball game is that of polo, with 12.4 acres, or a maximum length of 300 yards and a width, without sideboards, of 200 yards.

Fix-It Tip

If it's time to put on summer-weight clothing then it also is time to store woolens. Just casually hanging them in a closet or stuffing them in a chest is a way to invite damage from moths.

First of all, it's the larva that does the damage, not the moth. Larvae feed on wool and other animal fibers (down, mohair, feathers, fur). The adult moth fluttering about isn't eating anything.

First step is prevention. Keeping everything clean will cut down or eliminate infestation. Lint, dust and hair that has accumulated give the larvae something to feed on and hide in. Store clothing away in a dirty closet and you are asking for trouble.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Cruelty Behind Bars

Block Thirteen in a certain state prison was known as the "hell hole." Inmates were kept—sometimes for years—in dark, 6' x 9' cells. Once a day they were allowed outside for 15 minutes, during which time they had to bathe, wash their clothes, and exercise.

But when these conditions were called to the attention of a federal judge, he ordered changes made at once. He said the situation was a form of "cruel and unusual punishment," forbidden by the United States Constitution.

Traditionally, courts have maintained a "hands-off" policy toward the administration of our prisons. They have felt that conditions behind bars were generally outside of their jurisdiction.

But in recent years, that attitude has been changing. Repeatedly, prisoners have won cases based on the "cruel and unusual" clause of the Constitution.

A broad spectrum of complaints has come under closer judicial scrutiny — corporal punishment, forced labor, restrictions on mail, restrictions on visitors, inadequate food, faulty sanitation, insufficient medical supplies or personnel.

Courts are still wary, however, of getting too deeply involved in the day-to-day problems of running a penal institution. Thus, one prisoner failed to establish "cruel and unusual" punishment merely because he had been deprived of the right to wear his civilian shoes. And in another case, a court found no constitutional problem when a prisoner's long hair was cut to standard length.

The court said:

"A man in jail is not a free man. His right to wear long hair is outweighed by the interests of the state in maintaining sanitary conditions and discipline. The Eighth Amendment expresses the revulsion of civilized man against barbarous acts. The prohibition of long hair is not barbarous."

Accent on Health

J.E. PEAVY, M.D., Commissioner of Health

Mother nature has many faces. In spite of all her gentleness there is a destructive side as well. Consider, for example, the tornado, one of the deadliest phenomena in nature.

Many of these violent storms occur during the springtime, when the earth is waking from its winter slumber. The destructive, whirling wind may strike almost without warning and seemingly at random, sweeping everything out of its way with a whiplash tail that moves in a narrow path across the land.

At one time, about all the people could do to guard against being killed or injured by a tornado was to be on the alert for tornado weather and to move underground -- into a storm cellar -- when conditions warranted.

While oldtimers had to rely on experience to assess the possibility of a tornado, electronics plays a major part in today's alert system. Radar storm warning sets are used in almost all major cities in the state. These stations are connected by teletype and radio. Any station is able to instantly apprise all other stations of tornado activity and the path of a tornado. Then, all communities in the vicinity of the twister can be warned of the tornado's approach through normal channels of communications, or through special warning devices.

The Texas State Department of Health has joined with other state and federal agencies and medical associations in efforts aimed at disaster preparedness. It is ready to go into action in any emergency.

If worse comes to worst, and a tornado does strike a community, the State Health Department can provide vaccine, public health engineering, medical emergency nursing know-how, and other vital services, to stem the threat of disease or further complications while disaster relief is underway.

One of the best examples of public health action following a highly-destructive tornado occurred in Lubbock, four years ago.

Although storm warnings were in effect, the tornado which actually hit the city appeared out of nowhere--forming just above the downtown section at 10 p.m. One of the first things knocked out was the emergency warning system.

With much of Lubbock's communication system knocked out, the health department staff and other city personnel were on their own in following the emergency procedures that had been established in advance. Vaccines and other medical supplies were dug out of the demolished health department building for transfer to an emergency clinic.

State Health Department engineers and other personnel arrived on the scene early the next morning. Food and drug investigators were assigned to Lubbock immediately and within a week had disposed of all spoiled foods and drugs. A large supply of tetanus vaccine was sent by the Health Department laboratories. Rapid insect control activities were vital because of the large amounts of rain.

As in all similar disasters, the one great lesson learned was the value of being prepared.

Over the years, the National Weather Service has developed a system to accurately report severe weather conditions. The public is informed by radio and television advisories.

For tornado activities, the terms used are "Tornado Watch", indicating the possibility of a tornado; "Tornado Warning", meaning that a tornado has been reported in the general area; and "Tornado Alert", meaning to act fast, that a tornado is known to be in the area.

What can you do in the face of a tornado alert?

If it's daylight, or if you can see the funnel advancing toward you, you may have time to move out of its path. If you have a storm cellar, you should move into it.

If you can't get out of the way and you don't have a storm cellar, you can still protect yourself.

In homes, open some windows and then keep away from them. Get to the center of the house, or to a basement if there is one.

In schools, move to prearranged shelter areas. Post a lookout if it can be done safely.

In shopping areas, go to designated shelter areas.

In mobile homes, evacuate the area. If no shelter is nearby, leave the trailer park for low protected ground.

In open country, move away from the twister's path. If there isn't enough time, lie flat in the nearest depression with hands shielding your head. If heavy rains accompany the twister, be alert for flash flooding.

OUTDOORS 'n things

by L. D. NUCKLES

A great many of us will be camping this summer -- it's getting to be national pastime. A great many pleasant things can happen when we're camping but one unpleasant thing we should be aware of is the possibility of encountering rabid wild animals. Rabies is a year-round disease that is quite common in Texas wildlife. In some years almost a thousand confirmed cases are reported in the state.

Some logical precautions should be second nature to the outdoorsman, and he should be sure that it becomes second nature to his children as well. One should never attempt to catch or handle wild animals. If you can catch them there is very possibly something wrong with them, and it could be rabies. Never have anything to do with friendly wild animals. Any wild animal that acts friendly to man is bound to have something wrong with it. A fox or skunk, or any other wild animal, that wanders into your camp and appears to have no fear of humans could quite possibly be infected with rabies -- this is one of the symptons, no fear.

If bitten by any animal, cleanse the wound and seek medical attention. Try to kill or capture the animal involved so that it can be examined to see if it is a rabid animal. In killing the animal for this purpose do NOT shoot it in the head. The brain tissue is what is needed for the examination. Keep the carcass cool but not frozen.

Only about 20 percent of the persons bitten by a known rabid animal will contract the disease. There are only about 30 cases of rabies in humans diagnosed in the United States each year, but remember, rabies is a fatal disease. Once you contract it - you die. I only known of one case where it was confirmed that the patient had rabies, and the patient survived.

Prompt medical treatment after exposure can prevent the disease. A great deal has been said about the terrible pain of the treatment. I understand that it's nothing like as bad as it once was -- but everyone agrees that it's still no picnic. Regardless of this, the pain of the treatment is nothing like as permanent as being dead.

There are many other diseases that can be transmitted to man from wildlife. With this in mind, look with a jaundiced eye at any animal that acts peculiarly or looks sick. Insects, especially ticks and mosquitoes, transmit many diseases so use plenty of repellant and keep these pests away.

Like so many other things, avoiding diseases that are carried by wildlife requires just a little bit of knowledge and a lot of common sense.

PROCLAMATION

SENIOR CITIZENS MONTH

GREETINGS:

One of Texas' finest resources is its senior citizens. Older people throughout the State make many valuable contributions to their communities through volunteer roles, active participation in local and State government and by being involved.

The State of Texas urges all communities, large or small, to provide opportunities for senior citizens to continue to use their talents and abilities. We all stand to gain from this natural resource—older people who have the wisdom of years, the expereience of living, and the time to give of themselves.

THEREFORE, I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate the month of May, 1974, as in Texas, and urge all Texans to join in honoring their fellow citizens who have reached a status of seniority and respect, and further urge that all Texans strive for a society where all persons may remain in the mainstream of life.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 7th day of January, 1974.

(SEAL)

DOLPH BRISCOE, Governor of Texas.

Lamar Woman's Club News

The Lamar Woman's Club enjoyed its annual family party on May 9, 1974, with a picnic supper and boat ride on The Whooping Crane. In spite of the high wind and rough waves, the group had a happy evening.

Mrs. G. D. James and Mrs. W. E. Blackshare had charge of making the arrangements for the party.

Around sixty adults and fifteen children attended.

Brownie News

Troop 431 went hiking and picked up trash on May 13. Girls that went were Tracy Sorenson, Jana Deason, Carla Bills, Hope Browning, Missy Krogsgaard, Lee Anna Cassel, Cheryl Hunter, Victoria Pena, Debra Schexnider and Teresa Tillison.

Leaders would also like to thank Mrs. Mikki Deason, the assistant leader, for going with them. Cindy Tillison, Kathleen Tillison and Timmy Deason also went on the hike.

Next week will be the last meeting of this school year and the troop will have a party.

Fashion

A good buy for the traveller is the purchase of two outfits which can be interchanged--a blazer over a pants suit which may be worn with a dress or skirt--or a blouse which may be worn with pants or skirt.

For flight trips the pants suit seems to be the answer for most women.

TOPS Evening Club Meets

Rockport TOPS #493 met Tuesday evening at the Wagley Office Building with weigh-in sechduled from 6 until 6:40 pm. followed by a group meeting from 7 until 8 p.m.

Fourteen members answered roll call on May 6 and a 7 1/2 pound loss was scored. Thelma Sours was Queen of the Week with Theo Johnson as runner-up.

Results on the contest "Stairway to Success" find the Bluebirds ahead for the first week.

After the business meeting, Julie Keller, a recent bride, was honored with a shower. Refreshments were served by Bernita Kinsey.

Faye Cowdrey, the TOPS leader for the evening group, extends a welcome to all visitors and residents of this area to come visit and have a cup of coffee.

ON TROOP COSTS

BONN, GERMANY -- The United States and West Germany have signed a long-delayed agreement under which Washington will receive $2.22 billion to offset foreign exchange costs of stationing 200,000 U.S. troops in this country.

Commission Sets Nov. 16 As Deer Season Opening

Mark the date November 16, 1974, on your calendar. It's the day that deer season gets underway in most of Texas and runs until January 1, 1975.

Texas Parks and Wildlife Commissioners in their April 29-30 meeting in Austin set this and other important hunting, freshwater fishing and trapping regulations.

Quail season over most of Texas was set for Nov. 16, 1974-Feb. 16, 1975. In South Texas the birds may be hunted Nov. 1, 1974-Feb. 2, 1975; in the Trans-Pecos, Nov. 16, 1974-Feb. 2, 1975; and Dec. 1, 1974-Feb. 16, 1975, in the Possum Kingdom and Northeast.

This will add one additional weekend of quail hunting to the 1974-75 season.

To put more teeth in the enforcement of game and fish regulations, commissioners approved a ruling which will make each game bird, animal, furbearer and fish taken illegally a separate offense.

Game wardens will also be in a better position to enforce the bag limit on Rio Grande turkeys because hunting licenses this year will have three turkey tags attached.

Turkey season generally runs concurrently with the deer season.

A uniform javelina season was set from Oct. 1, 1974-Jan. 1, 1975, in Andrews, Martin, Howard, Mitchell, Nolan, McCulloch, San Saba, Llano, Blanco, Hays, Caldwell, Gonzales, DeWitt, Victoria, Calhoun and all counties under Parks and Wildlife Department regulatory authority to the south and west of the counties.

Regulations were established to make it unlawful for any person while actually fishing on public waters to have in their immediate possession any fish in excess of the daily bag limits established for the various species.

Daily bag limits were reduced on flathead catfish to five and 10 fish in possession. Daily limits on blue and channel cats were also set at 25 in the aggregate and possession of 50 in the aggregate.

Commissioners set limits on coho salmon, kamloops trout, rainbow and brown trout at five in the aggregate per day and 10 in the aggregate in possession.

A regulation outlawing the use of "noodling" poles, hand-operated devices used to snag fish, was passed by the commission in an effort to reduce fishing pressure on catfish.

Gathering game fish eggs from the public waters of Texas is now forbidden. This is to prevent the collection of game fish eggs for private use.

Webb County hunters this fall will participate in the trial use of buck deer permits.

Buck deer may be harvested in the county by permit only. The permits will be issued to landowners by the Parks and Wildlife Department. The permits will not be required during the special October archery season.

Parks and Wildlife Department game officials will use the information gained from the experimental season to determine what effect the harvest of buck deer by permit will have on the overall herd.

Antelope hunting was closed entirely in the Possum Kingdom Regulatory District.

In the Panhandle, only buck whitetails and buck mule deer may be taken during the special October archery season.

Aoudad season runs from Nov. 16-22, 1974, in the Panhandle counties of Armstrong, Briscoe, Donley, Floyd, Hall, Motley, Randall and Swisher.

Ricky is a future graduate of Rockport-Fulton High School, and is scheduled for enlistment in the U.S. Air Force on August 30, 1974. Upon graduation from the Air Force's six-week course at the School of Military Sciences Airman, San Antonio, Texas, he will receive training in the Aircraft Maintenance Field, for 14 weeks at Shepphard Air Force Base, Wichita Falls, Texas.

Sergeant Rose also announced that the Air Force is now accepting applications for active duty enlistments in one of the 400 technical specialities the Air Force offers. Motor Home Rally To Be Here In June

The breakup at the end of a motor home rally is likened by some African Safari travelers as a herd of elephants coming to life in the morning, moving about slowly, getting organized to be on the move. Much of the same flurry of activity is when 35 or 40 motor homes come to life at a rally end. People bidding new and old friends goodby, drivers checking last minute details of their rigs, kicking tires, checking tie-downs on the ever present hanging bicycles and other gear.

This motor home scene will come to Rockport - Fulton - Lamar area when 35 or more motor home families come to enjoy a three day rally of the Lone Star Chapter of the FMCA (Family Motor Home Ass'n). This event is to center around the live oak tree area of the Ramada Camp Inn, June 7, 8 and 9. This rally is one of many rallies held each year by the FMCA's 10,000 motor home members from every corner of the U.S. Some of the national rallies attract up to 2500 motor homes. Manufacturers send service groups; sales persons come in the latest model, hoping to entice those that can afford a later model to start thinking. All in all it's an event that has a big impact on the economy of the local area and an impact on the lives of those joining in the fun. A way of life that is attracting more attention of the older generation as well as the younger couples who make it a family adventure.

In the early days of the motor home these hardy souls were called 'Okie Wagon' persons by some of the motel and restaurant owners who feared a loss of buiness. The 'Okie Wagon' has become quite a business bonanza to the area who cater to tourists. These 'Okie Wagons' run in cost from in the neighborhood of $20,000 to $125,000 and more. The owners justify the cost much as a larger boat owner justifies his investment. He takes a pride in this rig -- gets out to see the world from the ground level, makes lots of friends and in some cases it becomes his home.

It might be of interest to some in this area who like to travel to come by the rally site and chat with the owners.

Strange Looking Ants Identified

Recently the Rockport area experienced an infestation of strange looking ants that brought a number of calls to Pearson's Garden Center wanting identification.

These ants were winged, about one inch long, heavy bodied and looked particularly fearsome. They were present around some homes in very large numbers frequently covering whole sides of buildings.

Carlos L. Edgar, entamologist with the United States Department of Agriculture, has identified these ants as the drones of the cut ant. The drones emerge about every thirty days throughout the warm months in numbers so small they are seldom noticed.

About every ten years, when food and climate conditions are ideal, mass emergence such as seen this year will occur.

Edgar says the great numbers of drones recently noticed in the Rockport area indicate probably heavy infestation of cut ants in the immediate future and property owners may want to be especially alert for their damaging presence.

The sole purpose of the drone, according to Edgar, is to mate with the queen and they do no actual feeding. After mating with the queen the drones die off in two or three days. For control, Edgar suggests chlordane powder sprinkled lightly around the ant holes. (One teaspoon of chlordane dust around the entrance).

Also chlordane liquid diluted in water poured down the tunnel (one and half gallon dilluted chlordane) is very effective and should be repeated in twenty-five days in order to kill subsequent egg hatches. The earlier the detection of cut ant presence the easier the control. Edgar works on ant control with the U.S.D.A.

Circle No. 3 of the First Presbyterian Church met at the home of Mrs. Henry Camehl on Monday.

The meeting opened with a hymn "He Live On High" and "Open My Eyes" followed by repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. Nine members answered roll call with a Bible verse. Mrs. Winifred Copeland was welcomed as a new member to Circle 3.

Secretary Thelma Sours read the minutes of the previous meeting and they were approved as read. Mrs. Sours then gave a treasurer report. Dorothy Leslie gave a report from the Women of the Church meeting. Wednesday, May 15th, will be a family night supper and a program on the W.O.C. Birthday Objective.

Library News

New books at the Aransas County Public Library include "Go East, Young Man", William O. Douglas' own story of his life, from his boyhood to his appointment to the Supreme Court in 1939. Justice Douglas tells what it is like to grow up fatherless and poor and having to overcome a childhood bout with polio. He writes of his love of the land, of riding the rods, of getting to know the hobos, workers, minorities, and native American radicals.

New books in the juvenile section are "Free to Be ... You and Me", conceived by Marlo Thomas and "How To Play Baseball Better Than You Did Last Season", by Jonah Klab. "Free To Be...You and Me" is a book for children and adults to enjoy together. It is a book of humor, a son book and a story book, a collection of poems and pictures that extol the natural child in all of us.

Mrs. A. C. Hamon, librarian, is attending a Summer Programs For Children Workshop in Corpus Christi, in preparation for the Summer Reading Program.

Library hours are 12 noon to 6 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Destructive Insect

The boll weevil causes an annual loss of about $200 million in cotton and cotton seed in the south although many sections have switched to other crops. The ravenous insects attack a plant's fruiting buds in the spring and later infest the bolls — unripe pods containing lint and seed.

THANK YOU

To Voters in Precinct 2:

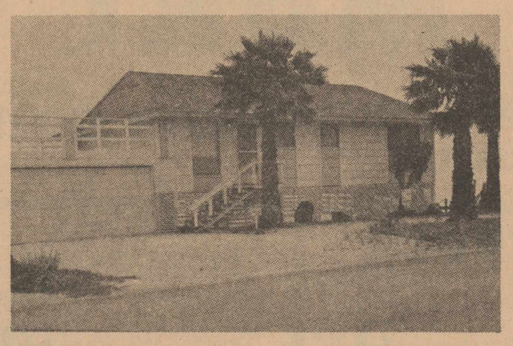

As a result of my residence location, which put me in Precinct 3 instead of Precinct 2, I discovered I was disqualified to serve as Democratic Precinct Chairman for Precinct 2; as described in the newspaper last week. Never the less, I want to use this means as saying thank you personally for your votes for me the May 4 election.

Sincerely,
Mrs. David Rossman p9

Shaws Attend Convention

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Shaw attended Texas Optometric Association Convention in San Antonio. They and their three boys, Jon, James and Jeffery, stayed with Mrs. Shaw's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wise, formerly of Rockport.
Several hundred optometrists from throughout the state met from May 5 through May 7. One of the highlights of the convention was a paper presented by Dr. R. A. Koetting on recent developments in the utilization of "soft contact lenses".

Local Bowlers

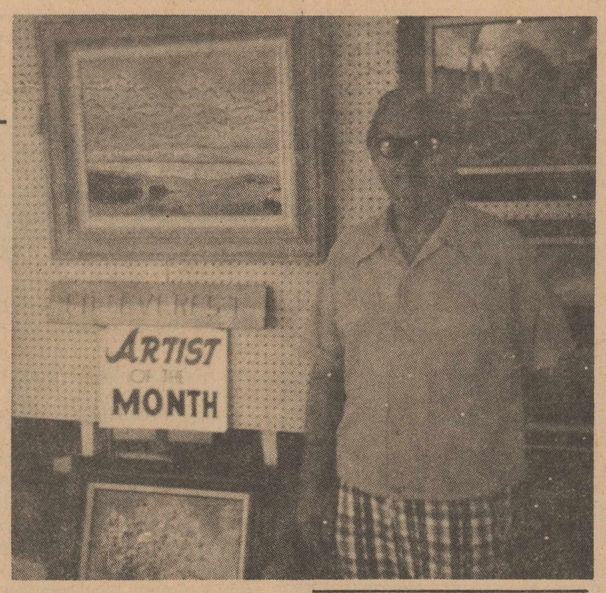

Three of the most important games that F. W. "Duke" Leierer and Elvira Garza will ever bowl will take place on Saturday, May 25, at Brunswick River Bowl Lanes in Bethesda, Md.

Leierer, who lives on Route 1, Rockport and Mrs. Garza, Lazy Lane, Rockport will be competing that day against 438 other bowlers from all over the United States and Canada for the top prize in Brunswick's ninth annual national "Bowl Your Way To Europe" tournament.

The two local bowlers are representing Brunswick Coastal Bend Lanes, Aransas Pass, in the national finals of the tournament being held in the Washington, D. C. suburb.

Each of the finalists, representing 220 establishments operated by Brunswick, will bowl three games on May 25. The man and woman scoring the most pins over his or her average in a single game will be declared national champions and each receives an all expense paid trip for two to Europe this summer. Trophies and cash prizes will be awarded to runner-ups in each division.

Chuck Kirkpatrick, manager of the Brunswick Coastal Bend Lanes, announced that Jesse Owens, one of the greatest track stars of all time, will be the featured speaker at the awards banquet which will be held in the Regency Ballroom of the Shoreham Americana Hotel in the nation's capital in the evening following the tournament.

Ed Everest Is Artist of Month

Ed Everest has been named "Artist of the Month" by the Rockport Art Association.

Everest is a native of Oklahoma City, Okla., from which he entered the Navy in 1941. He became a Naval officer and aviation pilot. After leaving the services he and his wife Ann lived in Artisia, N.M., where their son Steve was born.

He has been in the automotive parts and machine shop business in Kermit, Texas since 1948. Upon his retirement, he studied oils with Kit Dinger of Rockport, Dallas portrait artist Ramon Froma and Albuquerque, N.M. artists, Walter Bambrook (landscapes) and Leona Turner (portraits). Also he has studied with Steve Russell of Rockport.

He finds the lovely fall colors in the Jemez Mountains in New Mexico and Colorado particulary exciting. Through his travels from lower Old Mexico to upper Canada, he has painted many interesting and colorful character studies. His most satisfying work is in his portraits which show strong life like qualities. His paintings are enjoyed by many throughout the country.

His studio is in the Colony Art Gallery, north of Rockport by the Ramada Inn.
