

Requisition Ships...

British Sink Patrol Boat

By The Associated Press
British missile-firing helicopters sank one Argentine patrol boat and damaged another in a clash inside the war zone Britain imposed around the Falkland Islands, the British Defense Ministry announced today.

The reported sinking came a few hours after a British submarine damaged Argentina's only cruiser in a torpedo attack outside the war zone.

The ministry also announced it was requisitioning the luxury liner Queen Elizabeth 2, two more cargo ferries and a container ship to take 3,000 troops, helicopters and other war equipment to the Falklands, bolstering the 60-plus ship British armada already lurking off the islands.

The additional ships, which must make an 8,000-mile, three-week voyage to reach the Falklands, were further indications Britain was preparing for a long siege to wrest back the islands Argentina seized April 2.

A ministry communique said "two armed Argentine patrol craft-type naval auxiliaries," initiated the latest shootout around midnight Sunday in the Falklands (11 p.m. EDT) when they "fired on a Royal Navy Sea King (helicopter) from HMS Hermes," the carrier-ship of the British fleet.

"Two Royal Navy Lynx helicopters from ships of the task force then engaged the ships with missiles. One of the ships was sunk and the other certainly damaged," the communique said. Ministry officials said they did not know the names or size of the patrol boats, or whether they were among the nine patrol boats belonging to the Argentine navy. British news reports said the vessels were small patrol craft with a crew of about 15.

The British communique said the shootout took place north of East Falkland island and 90 miles inside the blockade area.

The helicopters dropped "life-saving" equipment to the boats, and there was "no damage" to the attacking helicopters, it added.

In Buenos Aires, Argentine military sources said they had no knowledge of the reported attack.

But in a statement early today, Argentina cried foul over the torpedoing of its cruiser 50 miles outside the war zone.

"It should be emphasized that the attack took place to the southeast of Isla de los Estados and outside the so-called 'zone of exclusion,'" the Argentine joint chiefs of staff said in a communique.

The Argentines also announced rejection of a new peace proposal announced Sunday by Peru's President Fernando Belaunde Terry. Buenos Aires claimed the plan was suggested by U.S. Secretary of State Alexander M. Haig Jr., and like several previous Haig proposals was not acceptable.

Britain admitted the submarine attack Sunday on the cruiser General Belgrano, the former U.S. light cruiser Phoenix, occurred "just outside the edge" of the 200-mile "total exclusion" zone. But it claimed the 44-year-old cruiser, Argentina's second largest ship, "posed a significant threat" to the British fleet in the area.

U.S., Soviet Heads To Meet

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Reagan will accept the informal invitation by Soviet President Leonid I. Brezhnev to meet with him in the autumn, administration officials said today.

While no site has been set, they said there has been talk in the White House about possibly holding the meeting in Austria.

Presidential spokesman Larry Speakes, asked about a published report that Reagan would meet Brezhnev in the fall as the Soviet leader has proposed, reiterated earlier statements that Reagan would consider a meeting "at the appropriate time" after proper preparations have been made and when there is some likelihood for "positive results."

Speakes said Reagan still hopes Brezhnev will attend the United Nations in June and that the two leaders could meet then.

The Washington Post reported in today's editions that Reagan has decided to accept Brezhnev's offer to hold a summit meeting in a third country, probably Austria or Ireland, in October.

In Poland... Riot Police Break Up Demonstrators

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Hundreds of riot police swinging batons moved in on a crowd of thousands of Solidarity union supporters rallying in Warsaw today, witnesses said. They said security forces opened up a water cannon and fired tear gas in an attempt to break up the demonstration, the second mass challenge to martial law in three days.

Witnesses said there were injuries and ambulances were rushed to the scene, at Warsaw's Castle Square. There was no immediate word on whether there was gunfire.

According to the witnesses' accounts, police had at least twice shouted orders for the crowd to disperse but were met by shouts of "Gestapo! Gestapo!"

They said despite police orders to disperse within 10 minutes, people continued to fill the square, unfurling Solidarity banners and singing the Polish national anthem. The crowd surrounded about 400 riot policemen. A police commander then yelled "Fire!" and police sent tear gas grenades flying in both directions.

Thousands of people panicked and began running from the scene as heavy clouds of the acrid gas filled the street, the witnesses said.

On Saturday, an estimated 50,000 Poles held a counter-march to the Communist Party May Day observances.

Jordan Agreement Reached

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Reagan administration has reached agreement with Jordan on the sale of F-5G fighter planes and Stinger anti-aircraft missiles, sources said today.

The sale is to be submitted to Congress after the November election, said the sources, who requested anonymity. Under the law, Congress can block the sale, which is certain to run into Israeli objections.

A U.S. delegation headed by Francis J. West, assistant secretary of defense for international security affairs, arranged the sale in Amman late last week, the sources said.

Jordan was turned down, however, in its request for two squadrons of F-16 jet fighters and I-Hawk missiles.

Upholds Death Sentences

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today left intact the death sentences of two Texas men convicted of killing law enforcement officers.

The justices turned down appeals filed for Henry Martinez Porter and Charles William Bass that raised varying legal arguments.

Porter was sentenced to die for the Nov. 29, 1975 shooting death of Fort Worth policeman Henry Mailloux.

Bass was convicted of the Aug. 16, 1979 killing in Houston of city marshal Charles Baker.

Baker was a municipal court employee empowered to serve misdemeanor warrants. He had stopped Bass for questioning in connection with a warrant.

Bank Purchase Announced

DALLAS (AP) — InterFirst Corp. of Dallas has announced plans to acquire First United Bancorporation of Fort Worth in the largest bank purchase in Texas history.

First United's $2.4 billion in assets would send InterFirst's holdings above $20 billion for the first time.

InterFirst, known until this year as First International Bancshares Inc., already is the Southwest's largest bank holding company and 17th largest in the United States.

The $280 million merger, announced Saturday, must be approved by shareholders of both companies. It would add 15 new banks to InterFirst's empire.

Oil Project Abandoned

HOUSTON (AP) — Exxon Corp.'s decision to write off its $1 billion Colorado shale oil project leaves analysts convinced that the push for synthetic fuels to replace imported oil is over, at least for now.

"Synthetics have been indefinitely postponed, maybe never to get off the ground," said John Lichblau, president of the Petroleum Industry Research Foundation.

Exxon, the world's largest oil company, announced Sunday that it was closing the Colony Shale Oil Project, the largest synthetic fuels undertaking in the nation. The plan was to mine oil-bearing rock and crush and heat it to extract the oil.

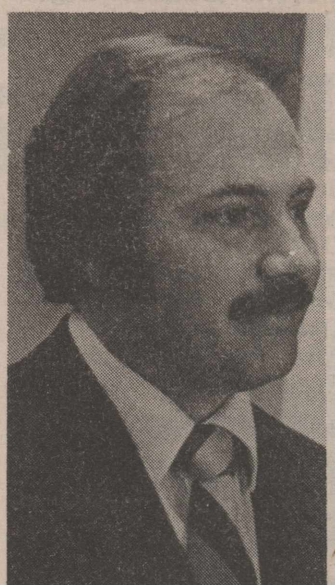

Randall Meyer, the president of the subsidiary Exxon USA, said estimates which set the cost of the project near Parachute, Colo., at $2 billion to $3 billion had doubled while oil prices had fallen.

Steve Carriker, 31, of Roby, son of a former legislator, carried nine of the 12 counties to win the Democratic nomination for state representative for the 78th District in Saturday's primary election.

Unofficial totals gave Carriker 9,961 votes and his incumbent opponent, Rep. Walter Grubbs of Merkel, 7,873.

Carriker led in the following counties: Cottle, 494-131; Fisher, 1,710-394; Garza, 510-236; Jones, 1,376-1,294; Kent, 390-114; King, 1,297-37; Knox, 634-498; Scurry, 1,144-1,112; and Stonewall, 429-171.

Scurry County Democrats re-nominated two members of the commissioners court and mostly went with statewide front-runners in their primary election Saturday.

In the race with the most local interest, County Judge Preston Wilson edged his only opponent, Bobby Goodwin, 1,244 to 1,175, in their second close race in a row. Four years ago, in a much heavier turnout of voters, Wilson had won by 2,336 to 1,998.

Precinct 2 Commissioner Earl "Hassie" Sneed won renomination over his only opponent, Jerry House, by 178-130. Sneed led in all boxes, Fluvanna by 49-25, Union 87-26, Northwest Snyder 75-70, and in the absentee box 19-8.

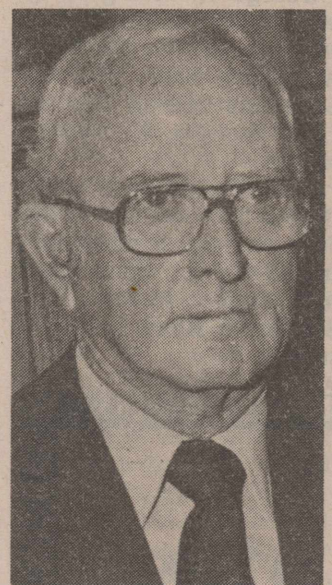

In the only other contested race within the county, R. C. Nixon with 89 votes and H. M. Lomax with 47 votes were thrown into a runoff for justice of the peace in Precinct No. 4 (Hermleigh). Trailing them were the incumbent, T. E. (Tom) Shelburne) with 43, and Rodney Mayo with 20.

In one of the closest races here, Steve Carriker of Roby led Walter Grubbs of Merkel, 1,144 to 1,112 for state representative in the 78th District.

Scurry County gave Sen. Lloyd Bentsen a 1,502 to 613 margin over Joe Sullivan, and they favored Mark White for governor, with 1,156 votes. Trailing White were Bob Armstrong with 521, Buddy Temple with 460, David L. Young with 50, Ray Allen Mayo with 21 and Don Beagle with 14.

In other state and district races, Scurry County Democrats voted as follows:

Collins Favored By Scurry GOP

Scurry County Republicans gave Congressman Jim Collins a 2-1 margin over Walter H. Mengden Jr. for the U. S. Senate, strongly favored jail terms for repeat drunk drivers, but strongly opposed banning private ownership of handguns in their primary election Saturday.

Collins got 84 votes, while Mengden received 42 and Don L. Richardson had 8 in the Senate race, according to complete, unofficial returns.

Gov. Bill Clements easily led Duke Embs, 129-2, in the governor's race while Mike Richard got 85 votes and Raymond Frank got 30 for State Comptroller. In the only other contested race here on the Republican ballot, Woodrow Glasscock Jr. led the ticket for land commissioner with 73 votes, followed by Andrew Jackson with 41 and Al Gutierrez with 6.

In the special referendum, Scurry County Republicans favored pari-mutuel betting on horse racing by a vote of 65-6, favored mandatory jail time for repeat drunk drivers by 116-11, favored initiative and referendum by 109-16, opposed banning private ownership of handguns by 108-19, and favored abolishing the "blue law" by 85-38.

In uncontested races Republicans here voted as follows:

George W. Strake Jr. 118 for lieutenant governor; Donald Herbert, 115 for commissioner of agriculture; John Thomas Henderson, 116 for railroad commissioner; John L. Bates, 119 for Supreme Court, Place 1; Ray Moses, 115 for Supreme Court, Place 2; C. A. Jenkins Jr., 117 for state representative in District 78; Carol Hunter, 115 for state board of education; Roy A. Baze 127 for county chairman.

June 5...

Demos Headed For Run-Offs

for June Runoffs By KEN HERMAN Associated Press Writer

Democratic candidates in six statewide races today began scavenging through the remains of former opponents' campaigns in an effort to collect support for June 5 runoffs that will advance the winners into the November general election.

In the gubernatorial race, Attorney General Mark White and Railroad Commissioner Buddy Temple counted on picking up backing from voters who went for Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong, a loser in Saturday's primary.

"I'll be talking with him as soon as I can," White said of Armstrong.

But Armstrong, who ran third Saturday, indicated he would not publicly back either candidate.

Other June 5 Democratic runoffs will include:

— U.S. Rep. Jim Mattox of Dallas against former U.S. Attorney John Hannah of Tyler for the nomination for attorney general.

— Former Travis County Commissioner Ann Richards against indicted State Treasurer Warren Harding for the nomination for Harding's job.

— Midland state Sen. Pete Snelson against either Garry Mauro of Austin or state Rep. Dan Kubiak of Rockdale for the nomination for land commissioner.

— Two Texas Court of Criminal Appeals races.

White, who had 508,192 votes, 45.3 percent, said Sunday he is confident of wooing the friend of Armstrong vote. Vote tallies had been tabulated from 5,755 of the 5,985 precincts.

"The important thing in the polling shows that we were the first choice among Armstrong supporters," said White.

Temple, who had predicted a runoff with White, said Saturday night, "We're glad to have this first part of the campaign over and look forward to that five-week runoff campaign." But Temple was not talking Sunday. Spokesman Tony Proffitt said Temple was meeting with campaign workers and gearing up for the runoff.

Temple had 343,791 votes, 30.7 percent. Armstrong had 210,780, 18.8 percent.

The Temple-White winner goes against GOP Gov. Bill Clements, whose campaign machine rolled by Lowell Embs, a former mental patient, for renomination Saturday. Clements got 92 percent of the vote.

The hard-charging Mattox topped the attorney general's race with 365,850 votes, 35.8 percent, to Hannah's 301,256, 29.5 percent. Former state Sen. Max Sherman of Amarillo, somewhat of a favorite to get into the runoff, was third with 225,031, 22 percent.

Houston State Sen. Jack Ogg, an early favorite in the race, faded at the end and got only 130,426 votes, 12.8 percent.

Mattox trained his eyes on Hannah on Sunday. "I spent most of my time working on Ogg. When we took our first poll he was the leader. We worked on him and we got him and Max Sherman out of the race," said Mattox. "Now we've got to get rid of Hannah."

"Our records will clearly delineate the differences between Hannah and myself," he said. "I've had over 200 jury trials and he has had very few."

Mattox campaigned as "the people's lawyer." Hannah portrayed himself as the "best lawyer" for Texas.

"The whole race is about who can be the best lawyer. I've been lawyering for the past 10 years while they've been in politics," Hannah said of his opponents.

The former legislator and prosecutor said he anticipated the support of the Sherman voters.

"I've been out of politics a long time. In fact, for the past five years (while U.S. Attorney in Tyler) I've been under the Hatch Act and couldn't be involved in politics at all. I just tell folks I'm the best lawyer in the race and they believe me," he said. The Hannah-Mattox winner faces state Sen. Bill Meier in the fall. Meier was unopposed on the GOP ballot.

Mrs. Richards bid to unseat Harding had attracted had 466,547 votes, 45.4 percent. Harding had 362,379 votes, 35.3 percent.

Former state Rep. Lane Denton of Waco was third with 139,506 votes, 13.6 percent. Austinite John Cutright had 59,421 votes, 5.8 percent.

Harding, indicted this year for allegedly using state workers to do campaign chores, could not be reached for comment Sunday.

Millard Neptune of Austin won the GOP nomination in an unopposed race Saturday.

However, Mrs. Richards predicted she would not face Neptune if she wins the June 5 runoff. Neptune will step aside in favor of a better-known candidate, she said.

"I know Millard real well. He lives in an apartment house with my mother-in-law. He has no intention of making the race," she said.

The land commissioner race was undecided as votes still were being tallied Sunday afternoon. Snelson, the leader with 293,048 votes, 30.8 percent, sat back as Mauro and Kubiak sweated for a runoff spot.

Mauro led Kubiak by a 2,500-vote margin, 275,525 to 273,025. George Fore of Paducah was fourth with 110,405 votes, 11.6 percent.

Former Hondo Mayor Woody Glasscock led the GOP race for land commissioner, picking up 88,048 votes, 50.8 percent, with 4,283 of 4,442 Republican precincts reporting. Austinite Andrew Jackson was second with 63,876 votes, 36.9 percent. Al Gutierrez of Bryan was third with 21,413 votes, 12.4 percent.

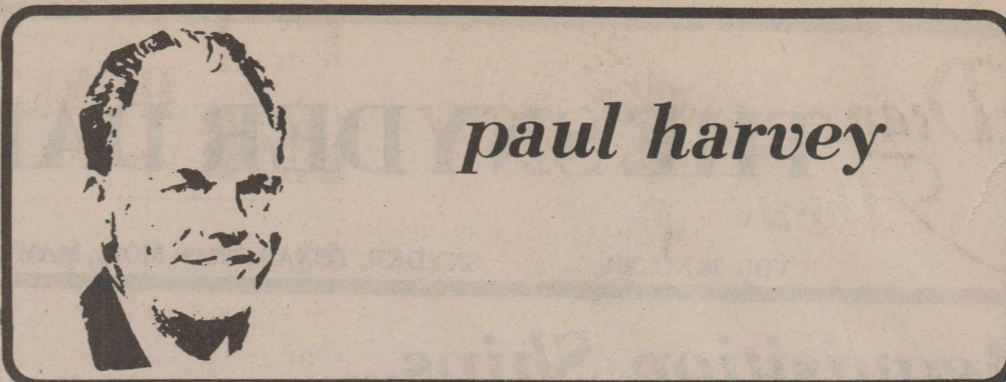

One of the Court of Criminal Appeals runoffs apparently will pit John Humphreys of Dallas — first with 234,857 votes, 29.3 percent — against Charles Campbell of Austin — second with 223,911 votes, 27.9 percent.

William Phillips of Temple ran third with 183,893 votes, 22.9 percent. Incumbent Carl Dally ran fourth with 159,480 votes, 19.9 percent.

There were no Republicans seeking Dally's seat.

The other Democratic runoff for appellate court will feature William Black of Belton against Charles Miller Jr., of Dallas. Black led with 245,951 votes, 31.3 percent. Miller drew 234,204 votes, 29.8 percent.

Roy Rawls of Austin ran third with 108,153, 13.6 percent. Mel Bruder of Dallas was last with 78,167 votes, 9.9 percent.

paul harvey

I like girls the way I remember them — dainty. And I hear cynics say that I remember them as they never really were. Perhaps.

It is life or death day for ERA — minus two months — and counting.

While the several states were voting aye or nay I have had nothing to say either way.

Because this broadcast crisscrosses state lines, I thought the process should be left to state lawmakers without some outsider seeking to superimpose his view. I have changed my mind and I asked this audience with the legislators of four states to explain why.

I suspect many of you are as undecided as I have been.

You know, from any distance it seems inconceivable that women are not assured any protection or privilege that our country affords the rest of us.

It would seem that there could be no safer political stance than any expression of respect for mothers, wives and daughters. Such goes against no tradition.

So the whole thing is silly — should never have come up.

The very idea that women should be treated less than equitably should never have come up.

But it has come up. And frankly, in this debate women have not done the best possible job of representing themselves.

The ones who pushed themselves out front — The ones for whom the silent majority of women silently cheered —

Frequently came out putting, irritated and irritating, aggressive, abrasive.

You male lawmakers know what I mean. Some of you, pestered may have reacted.

The ERA tub-thumpers, because they despised the female stereotype, came on like men. It's understandable if they thought they had to.

But the men they needed to turn on — turned off.

And women are not kind to women. Outside the umbrella of self-sufficiency they have learned to defend their territorial claims, however —

If by manipulating men or slapping down other women.

So the at-home or at-work women who publicly dismissed ERA as nothing they needed — applauded silently and contributed surreptitiously.

Women, in male dominated societies, have had to develop a strategy for survival.

I have no illusions, nor should anybody else, that an equality amendment will mandate equality between the sexes. It will not.

But we are not talking about "equality," we are talking about "equal rights." An amendment can mandate that.

There are places in the world where women are conspicuously and forever second class. But none of those places is any place you or I would want to live. (TO BE CONTINUED MAY 4, 1982)

Desert Dog Drivers

Share Fun With Pets

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — The desert dog drivers don't use the term "mush" to get their sled dog teams moving. These "sleds" have wheels, and the command their drivers use is "hike."

Traveling a desert road at 10 to 15 mph—or breaking through the crust of a snow-covered meadow in northern Arizona—"is really an experience you share with your dogs," says Pete Baum.

Baum, 32 and an administrative law judge for the Industrial Commission of Arizona, has been raising, racing and showing his six Siberian huskies for more than two years.

The Desert Dog Drivers Club was formed five years ago as an offshoot of several Arizona husky clubs that only show their dogs.

"All of our dogs are pets first," said Gary Jones, 36, a local insurance agent who has raced dogs for more than nine years.

Though they cite a variety of reasons for their interest, the Tucson drivers practice religiously and compete in three snow races in northern Arizona. They also compete in special cart races around the state.

And though they are friends, they readily admit their object is to win.

Richard Brace, 37, and his daughter Patty, 16, recently won a pair of races at Pichacho Peak. Baum won a three-dog three-mile event near Flagstaff.

Professional dog-sled racers such as those who compete in 500-mile events for purses of $10,000 and more use specifically bred racing dogs for which they may pay thousands of dollars.

THIRD GRADE PLAY—Mrs. Nellie Wommack's third graders at Stanfield Elementary presented a play, "The Day The Clowns Lost Their Smiles," Friday. Cast of players include Steven Broker, Amy Armstrong, Jaci Conway, Theresa Martin, Cari Slay, Jannet Nitsch,

early day Texas schoolroom. Randy Haynes serves as social studies teacher for the Hermleigh youngsters. (SDN Staff Photo)

Burglary, Theft Reported Here

Snyder police officers are investigating one burglary and one incident of suspected arson reported over the weekend.

Ricky Ornelas of 1500 27th St. called police around 8:20 p. m. Saturday and told police that someone had entered his apartment and taken a large amount of cash. The burglary apparently occurred sometime earlier Saturday afternoon and investigation into the incident is continuing.

Local officers were called to the scene of a vehicle fire near the old Lincoln School around 6:20 a. m. Sunday. Damaged in the fire were two dump trucks owned by Robert Durst of 3009 Avenue K. Local officials suspect arson in the early morning fire.

Police are also investigating an incident of criminal trespass reported Sunday morning. Stormy Thackerson of 1505 27th St. called police around 1:40 a. m. Sunday and reported a break-in at her apartment. Although nothing was taken, the residence had been entered and ransacked.

Three minor traffic mishaps were also reported over the weekend.

The first of these occurred at 4:25 p. m. Saturday in the Munden's parking lot. Involved in the mishap were a 1978 Mercury driven by Karen Hoyt Carmichael of Rt. 3, Snyder and a 1974 Oldsmobile driven by Alexandra Fuentes Garza of Rt. 2, Snyder.

Moderate damages were reported to the Carmichael vehicle and damage to the Garza car was listed as minor.

The 1700 block of 19th St. was the scene of the weekend's second mishap around 4:40 p. m. Saturday. Only minor damages were reported in the accident. Involved were a 1981 Chevrolet driven by Theresa Gay Bawcum of Rt. 3, Snyder and a 1979 Chevrolet Suburban driven by Israel Hernandez Tavarez of the Cooper Apartments.

A minor hit and run mishap on the service road at Western Texas College was reported to police at 8:38 a. m. Sunday. A fence along the road had been damaged by an unidentified vehicle. Damage to the fence was estimated at $150.

Cotton Used

To Make Dice

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Denizens of Nevada's felt-covered craps tables call them "bones" or "ivories."

Even considering the many quirks dice-tossers employ to produce the right combination, it's unlikely anybody would blow some luck on the two white cubes, give them a toss and yell, "come on, cottons."

But that's what they are. "Cotton is a basic ingredient of the dice used in our gaming industry," according to Jack Wise, Clark County Cooperative Extension communications specialist for the University of Nevada College of Agriculture.

Cotton has a desired weight to produce one of the heavier plastics and is the basic ingredient of cellulose nitrate of which dice are made, he said.

Its weight makes it less likely to bounce over the rails and skitter across the casino floor; its softness is preferred to more brittle plastics, he said.

Monks' Long Lives Are Short on Stress

By Abigail Van Buren
© 1982 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: First a 68-year-old man wrote in saying his doctor told him that men who are denied sex die young, and he's going to blame his old lady if he dies young because he's not getting any.

Then Father Barousse, a Benedictine monk, refuted that theory. "In this monastery (where we don't get any at all), the last monk to die was 89, and of the last five to die, four were in their 80s and the fifth, who died at 67, had been a married man who entered the monastery after the death of his wife."

I say celibates in the religious life live longer because they have a minimum of stress. They don't have the hassles of making a living in a competitive world. They don't have the pressures of courting, marriage and raising children. And in their old age they don't have to worry about where their next meal or rent payment is coming from. Everything is provided for them. It's stress that kills people.

Living a celibate or conjugal life has nothing to do with longevity.

B.D. IN ARIZ.

DEAR B.D.: Stay tuned for some input from the director of nutrition research at the Pritikin Research Foundation in Santa Barbara:

DEAR ABBY: A significant factor affecting longevity of monks is the type of diet eaten at the monastery. For example, Benedictines, who consume a typical American high-fat diet, have three times more heart disease than Trappists, who eat a low-fat vegetarian diet.

My thought regarding the relationship between sexual activity and longevity is that sex doesn't make you live longer, it just makes you want to.

DEAR ABBY: One good chuckle deserves another, and I had a good one over the letter from "one abbey (Benedictine) to another Abby." The Benedictine monk attributes the longevity of monks to "not getting any."

Having spent 13 years as a Capuchin Franciscan friar, a religious order which is much stricter than the Benedictines, I speak from experience. The monks' longevity cannot be attributed to the absence of sex, but rather to the absence of stress, which is the life-shortening culprit.

As a priest, I had fine food, liquor, charge cards, prestige, a captive audience in the pews I presided over, and virtually no adult responsibility. The church and my superior made all my decisions for me.

I was spoiled and couldn't relate realistically to the laity. Fortunately, I was mature enough to admit it and I left.

My wonderful wife and three sons are worth the "shortened" life span I may be faced with. You may use my name and city if you wish.

"PETE" WRIGHT, CARDIFF, CALIF.

CONFIDENTIAL TO JUNIOR CITIZENS: This Sunday is Mother's Day. You didn't realize it was so soon? You're broke? Don't sweat it. Sit down and write her a letter, telling her how much you appreciate her, and don't worry about getting too sentimental. I promise you she will appreciate it more than a $100 gift. (And I'll bet she saves it.)

HEALTH

Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

Health after pancreatitis

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I, too, have had pancreatitis and would like your Health Letter number 11-4, The Pancreas: Your Enzyme Organ. I had an abscess and a portion of my colon removed and after surgery I had an attack of post-operative pancreatitis where my pancreas was burning itself up and hemorrhaging.

Now that I have been on a fat-free diet for nearly six months I feel so much better. In my mind I question whether it was the post-operative kind of pancreatitis. For several years I had soreness and discomfort and now I am free from the constant reminder.

The strangest thing occurred, at the time of my severe attack and for two months afterward I was free from all arthritis pain. I have had arthritis from childhood causing me to be incapacitated at times and requiring surgery. You can't imagine the wonderful feeling. Can you explain this?

DEAR READER — I am glad you are feeling better. You can develop acute pancreatitis as a complication of surgery. When the pancreas cells break down and let the enzymes they contain leak out of the ducts into the pancreas tissues they literally digest the organ.

I call the pancreas the enzyme organ because it provides the enzymes to break down starches from carbohydrates, fats and proteins. These are powerful enzymes. When your pancreas doesn't produce them, as occurs in chronic disease, you can't digest your food well and much of it will not be absorbed. Some medicines such as Panteric or Viokase or Cotazym may help with this problem.

Rheumatoid arthritis may have spontaneous remissions, so I cannot confirm that your improved health, or something related to your illness, induced your remission. The remission may have occurred anyway.

You may feel better now, not because you had pancreatitis before your surgery but because of your overall improvement in health. And limiting fats may have helped your digestion.

As you requested I am sending you The Health Letter number 11-4, The Pancreas: Your Enzyme Organ. Others who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

DEAR DR. LAMB — What causes a red nose and how can you get rid of it? I run around with a glowing proboscis through the seasons of fall, winter and spring. Nothing seems to help. It must be a family characteristic for others in my immediate family suffer from this same affliction. None of us drink alcohol.

DEAR READER — It is called acne rosacea and it can be associated with a large deformed nose, particularly in men. We do not know what causes it. While excessive use of alcohol may be a factor in some cases, the problem occurs frequently in people who do not use alcohol at all.

It is not thought to be caused by any bacteria but, strangely, the most effective treatment is the use of antibiotics. Tetracycline is used initially at a dose of one to two grams a day for 10 to 84 days followed by a maintenance dose of 500 to 1,000 mg a day. Erythromycin and minocycline have also been used.

Things rubbed on the skin are of limited value for this problem. The tiny dilated vessels can be eliminated by an electric needle as in electrolysis for excess hair. And people with these problems may benefit from avoiding things that dilate the vessels — caffeine (as in coffee and tea), alcohol and spicy foods.

Gato del Sol Derby Winner; Preakness Not On Schedule

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) - Kentucky Derby winner Gato del Sol won't win thoroughbred racing's Triple Crown this year if trainer Ed Gregson has his way.

"I planned for the Derby and I planned for the Belmont," Gregson said Sunday, the day after his 21-1 colt won the 108th Derby. "His schedule has no Preakness on it."

The absence of the Derby winner from the Preakness would remove much of the lustre from

WTC Plans Program To Honor Athletes

Western Texas College will hold an athletic awards program at 11:10 a.m. Tuesday in the Science-Lecture Hall to honor its students athletes. Each coach is to speak approximately 10 minutes at the ceremony, which will have no guest speaker.

Letter jackets and some special awards will be presented by the respective rodeo, basketball, golf and judo coaches.

Western Texas has scheduled its annual All-Sports Banquet for May 8 at Snyder Country Club. Former WTC coach Nolan Richardson will be the guest speaker.

Gilder Claims Record To Win Nelson Classic

DALLAS (AP) - Bob Gilder said goodbye to Preston Trail Golf Club in a par-wrecking finale that forever will leave his name listed in the Byron Nelson Classic record book.

Gilder cruised home with no fives on his card and a 3-under par 67 Sunday to establish a tournament record 14-under par 266.

The tournament leaves Preston Trail after 15 years in 1983 and will be played at a new course, Cottonwood Valley, in nearby Irving, Texas.

"I'm sad to see it go," said Gilder, who earned a $63,000 check and his first victory since the Canadian Open in 1980.

The 31-year-old Gilder's score, fashioned with four rounds in the 60s, was three strokes lower than the old record held by Buddy Allin and Tom Watson.

the May 15 second leg of the Triple Crown.

Not since Tomy Lee in 1959 has a Derby winner passed up the Preakness.

Before Saturday's 2 1/2-length victory over Laser Light, an 18-1 outsider, Gato del Sol hadn't won a race in four starts this year. In his previous effort April 22, he finished second, 5 1/2 lengths behind Linkage, a non-Derby starter although eligible, in the Blue Grass Stakes at Keeneland.

Gato del Sol, a Kentucky-bred son of Cougar, was a survivor from a 3-year-old crop that was decimated by injury and illness. He came from last in a field of 19 under jockey Eddie Delahoussaye to win $417,600 from the gross purse of $522,600, the richest Derby ever.

Reinvested, part of the seven-horse parimutuel field, finished third, a neck behind Laser Light and 2 1/2 lengths in front of Water Bank.

Water Bank's more Thompson Will Go Professional

AUSTIN - Texas center LaSalle Thompson will pass up his senior year of eligibility here and turn professional, he has said.

Thompson, a 6-10, 245-pound center, led the nation in rebounding at Texas last season.

publicized stablemate, the one-eyed Cassalera, finished 13th.

Air Forbes Won, the 5-2 favorite of the crowd of 141,009 - second largest in Derby history - finished seventh. El Baba, the second choice, ran 11th.

Boston Blanks Texas As Rangers Lose 9th

BOSTON (AP) - A month ago, just before the start of the 1982 major league baseball season, a Chicago writer stung veteran Dennis Eckersley of the Boston Red Sox by naming him one of the three most overrated players in the American League.

Unfortunately for opposing batters, Eckersley is venting his anger on them. The right-hander is off to one of his finest starts with a 3-1 record, three complete games, two shutouts and a 2.65 earned run average in five appearances.

"Now, I'm not mad any more," Eckersley, 27, said with a sly grin Sunday after he scattered eight hits for his 17th career shutout and 101st major league triumph as the Red Sox rode a five-run first inning to a 6-0 victory over the Texas Rangers. "I realized early I didn't have my best stuff and wasn't throwing real hard, so I tried to keep my cool out there," Eckersley said.

Eckersley admitted that the shutout meant "a little extra" to him because he entered the game with a 4-10 lifetime record against Texas and had lost five in a row to the Rangers since July 28, 1979.

With a three-game sweep of the Rangers, who have lost nine in a row for

'Puff' Game Set Tonight

The annual Snyder High School "Powder Puff" Football Game is scheduled for 6 tonight at Tiger Stadium.

The game, in which girls are the players and boys are cheerleaders, is one of several projects designed to raise funds for the senior class. A volleyball game and pep rally were to be held at 2 today in the gymnasium.

Tickets for the game are $1 and may be purchased at the gate. Concessions will be available.

Westerners First In 'Final' Rodeo

HOBBS, N.M. - Western Texas College's cowboys rode to a first place finish at the New Mexico Junior College NIRA Rodeo last weekend, securing their berth into the upcoming College National Finals Rodeo.

The Westerners, who completed the regular season as the top junior college team in the Southwest Region, outpointed Sul Ross 313 to 288 to win here. Fourteen other colleges were represented at the rodeo, which was held in muddy arena conditions Friday and Saturday nights.

Western had two team members place in two events. Dave Appleton took third in bareback riding and second in bronc riding while Troy Reynolds placed fourth in calf roping and third in

Tigers To Test Ector

Snyder's Tigers, just five victories away from another District 2-AAAAA baseball championship, take on slumping Odessa Ector here tomorrow at 7:30 p.m.

It will be the first game in a three-game home stand for the 19-5 Tigers, who won the first half of district play and are 1-0 in the second round. Snyder hosts Andrews at 4 on Friday and Pecos at 7:30 on May 11. To close out the regular season, the Tigers play at Lamesa, 4 p.m. May 14 and here against Fort Stockton 7:30 p.m. May 18.

Odessa comes in at 8-14 for the season and 0-2 in the second round. The Eagles lost to Monahans, 6-3, on Thursday in the only game played last weekend. Two other games, Lamesa at Pecos and Fort Stockton at An-

Tech Knocked From Race

LUBBOCK (AP) - Mark Reynolds pounded a pair of home runs Sunday to lift Texas to a 9-7 Southwest Conference baseball win over Texas Tech, eliminating the Red Raiders from the league's post-season tournament.

Texas already had clinched its 54th SWC regular-season championship and finishes with a 44-4 full season mark, 12-4 in conference play. Tech fell to 21-22 and 9-10.

Lakers Lock Series; Await Rest Of Pack

by The Associated Press Coach Pat Riley isn't convinced another long layoff will help Los Angeles in the National Basketball Association playoffs, although the Lakers were idle for nine days before sweeping the Phoenix Suns.

"I'm disappointed we have to be off seven straight days because we're playing so well right now," Riley said after the Lakers finished off the Suns with a 112-107 victory Sunday. "But if they (the Lakers) want to win four in a row all the time, I'll take it."

While the Lakers advanced to the third round, San Antonio, Boston and Philadelphia all widened their best-of-7 series leads to 3-1. The Spurs defeated Seattle 115-113, the Celtics wore down Washington 103-99 in overtime and the 76ers defeated Milwaukee 100-93.

San Antonio is at Seattle, Washington at Boston and Milwaukee at Philadelphia on Wednesday night.

Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Jamaal Wilkes scored 24 points each and Earvin "Magic" Johnson had another brilliant all-around game to beat the Suns.

Johnson had 15 points, 12 rebounds and 11 assists, the third time in the four game series that he was in double figures in all three categories. He also had six key points down the stretch.

The game was tied at 100 with 5:11 to play when Johnson tapped in a pair of free throws and drove for a layup in the next 9 seconds to put the Lakers in control.

FTs Put Spurs Around Seattle

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) - The San Antonio Spurs, having beaten Seattle three times by two-point margins in their NBA playoff series, know they have the SuperSonic backs against the wall going into the fifth game Wednesday night in Washington.

The Sonics know it too but they say they are not giving up.

"We are in the driver's seat, but it's not over yet," said backup center Dan Corzine, who sank four pressure free throws in the last 30 seconds Sunday to stake the Spurs to a 115-107 win.

Sunday's victory gave the Spurs a commanding 1-4 advantage over the SuperSonics in the Western Conference semifinals in the National Basketball Association.

"We've got to come ready to play and keep our killer instinct," said San Antonio team captain George Gervin.

The victory Sunday kept intact the Spurs' dominance over Seattle at the HemisFair Arena. The Sonics have won here once in 15 NBA games, and that solo win was in 1978.

The teams, meeting for the first time in playoffs, would return to San Antonio for a sixth game Friday if Seattle wins on its home court Wednesday.

Dave Corzine, known as "Lumberjack" because of his bulky frame and mustache, put the Spurs ahead to stay with two free throws with seconds left after the game had changed hands three times and the score tied 23 times.

Astros Getting Revenge; Defeat Pittsburgh, 6-2

PITTSBURGH (AP) - Since entering the National League in 1962, the Houston Astros have lost three times as many games as they've won in Pittsburgh.

They were 0-9 here in 1968, 0-6 in 1978, and their best year ever here was a 3-3 split in 1973.

But the Astros earned their third straight victory here Sunday by a 6-2 margin over the Pirates. And it was an obvious morale boost for a Houston team that is tied for last in the NL West.

"In our history, we've never won here. So this feels really good," said winning pitcher Joe Niekro, who snapped a personal string of six straight defeats at Three Rivers Stadium.

"I just was told this was the first time we've ever won three straight here," said reliever Randy Moffitt, who posted his first save.

The knuckleballing Niekro, who limited the Pirates to one hit over the first six innings, allowed consecutive homers by Jason Thompson and Bill Madlock in the seventh inning Sunday.

But Moffitt choked the rally and allowed just one hit over the last three innings as the Astros raised their record to 11-14.

The Pirates are 2-7 at home this season and 8-12 overall, and their starting pitchers have been averaging about four innings an outing.

Houston took a 3-0 lead in the third off loser Tom Griffin, 1-2, with the aid of an RBI-double by Alan Ashby and run-scoring singles by Ray Knight and Art Howe.

In the fourth, the Astros chased Griffin and Jose Cruz rapped a two-run double off reliever Paul Moskau.
