

County Politics Opens With The New Year

Political activity opened in Collingsworth County with the beginning of 1984, although there has been little discussion of politics or candidates prior to this.

First candidate to announce was John T. Forbis of Childress, who is seeking the office of Judge of the 100th Judicial District. The incumbent is Judge Robert Montgomery of Memphis, who has not announced his plans concerning the office.

First candidate to file in a county race was Ann Wauer, the incumbent tax assessor-collector, who announced Tuesday.

Neither of these has filed for office, as Doug Seal, Democratic county chairman points out that the first day to file is Friday, January 7. The deadline is 6 p.m. Monday, Feb. 6. The Democratic Primary election falls on Saturday, May 5.

Collingsworth voters will elect 10 district county and precinct officials.

Sarpalius to Speak at Banquet

State Senator Bill Sarpalius, Hereford, has accepted an invitation to speak at the Chamber of Commerce annual banquet on Saturday, January 28, at 7:15 p.m.

"We will have a special banquet this year that will honor volunteers of the county," Chamber of Commerce president Tommy Hudson revealed.

He named these as Wellington Volunteer Fire

Chairman of Peat, Marwick New Chairman of Worldwide Group

New York, December 15, 1983--Thomas L. Holton, chairman of Peat Marwick in the U.S. since 1979, has been elected to the additional position of chairman of Peat Marwick International (PMI). PMI is the professional accounting firm's worldwide organization which has 2,255 partners and 24,700 staff operating in 328 offices in 81 countries.

Holton succeeds Sir John Grenside, senior partner of Peat Marwick's United Kingdom practice, who has served as PMI chairman since 1980.

Holton joined Peat Marwick in San Antonio and was managing partner of that office before he transferred to Chicago in 1959.

Subsequently, he was professional practice partner for accounting and auditing in Chicago, managing partner of the Chicago office and regional partner for the Midwest.

In 1968 he assumed three major national responsibilities: partner in charge of the SEC Practice Group in the Department of Professional Practice -- Accounting and Auditing; chairman of the Professional Practice Review Committee -- Accounting and Auditing; and the first chairman of the Firm's Auditing Procedures Committee.

Born in Prairie Hill, Texas in 1925, he came to Wellington as a youth with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Homer Holton. Holton received a bachelor of business administration degree from Baylor University in 1949 and master's degree from Baylor in 1950. In 1980 he received Baylor University's Outstanding Achievement Award and in 1982 its Distinguished Alumni Award, the highest honor that Baylor can bestow upon an alumnus.

Holton has served on many committees for the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and was a member of President Reagan's Advisory Committee for Trade Negotiations. Currently he serves as a member of the International Council of the Asia Society and the board of directors of the Coalition of Service Industries, Inc. and is treasurer of the National Advisory Council for the Congressional Award.

District Play to Open Jan. 10 for WHS Teams

If there is a word that describes the Skyrockets and Rockettes as they begin District play, it is "Optimism."

The district schedule begins Tuesday, Jan. 10, in a game here with Quanah.

Wauer, Forbis Announce for Demo Slate

John T. Forbis of Childress and Ann Wauer are the first candidates to announce that they will seek political office.

Forbis is a candidate for the office of District Judge of the 100th Judicial District, comprised of Carson, Childress, Collingsworth, Donley and Hall Counties, subject to action of the Democratic Primary election of Saturday, May 5.

That office is now held by Judge Robert Montgomery of Memphis.

Forbis said that if he is elected, he would terminate all connections with the law firm of which he is now a member and end the partnership with its other members.

Forbis has practiced law in the law firm of Williams, Broughton, Forbis and McCoy, now Williams, Forbis and McCoy, since January 1950 and has served the district for 8 years as district attorney, from 1957 through 1965. He also served as city attorney of the city of Childress and as County Attorney of Childress County.

He received his public education in the Wellington schools and his undergraduate and legal education came from Southern Methodist University in Dallas.

Mrs. Wauer, Collingsworth County tax assessor-collector, announced Tuesday, Jan. 3, that she is a candidate for re-election.

Mrs. Wauer was appointed to the office of tax assessor-collector in May 1978 to fill an unexpired term. She ran for her first full term in the office in 1980.

Play will begin at 4 p.m., with the junior varsity girls and boys games, followed by the varsity girls and boys.

"We are playing pretty good ball," said Skyrocket Coach Gano Wilson. "We won one tournament and came in second in another. Our record is 6-5."

"We are a little short on numbers, but there are some more people I'm going to suit out, Abel Villanueva and Kirby Pennon, who will be eligible and haven't played this year. They did play prior to this year. They just need to play some."

Wellington finished third in the district last year with a 6-5 record.

"We are in the Wheeler tournament this weekend. That will be a tough tournament and it would be good if we could win it, but it will be tough for anyone to win," said Wilson. Wellington's game Thursday will be against the Memphis Cyclone.

"They are not as strong as they were last year, but still are an awfully good team. They have beaten us 10 points this year already."

"With our new people we should be able to play them a little bit better game. We shoot the ball well with Resendo Villanueva and Dwayne Culpepper and Mark Hunnicutt is playing super ball," the coach said.

"Joe Bill Munn and Jay Warrick both have played extremely well at times and we have two players on the bench, Armando Sanchez and Michael Souder, who can come in as substitutes and both have done a real good job."

Wilson assessed the other teams in the district:

"Shamrock is going to be pretty good. We beat them by one point in the Samnorwood tournament. Panhandle is playing well and they have beaten some good teams. Quanah is always hard to beat at Quanah. As to Clarendon, I haven't seen anything about them or seen them play."

The Year 1983 That Was

In 1983 Collingsworth General Hospital was outstanding in its growth, the handling of its finances, addition of equipment and upgrading its building.

This is in sharp contrast to many other hospitals in the Panhandle in 1983, which had money or medicare worries and other losses.

Organizations, groups and individuals have worked with Collingsworth General Hospital Auxiliary, Kiwanis and Lions Clubs, with other donations from civic and social clubs and individuals.

Despite the recession, other institutions, companies and individuals have been outstanding in their achievements.

Here are some Collingsworth happenings in 1983.

JANUARY

Wheeler Oil Co. refused to accept the fact of the doldrums that permeated the oil and gas industry, and went ahead with an announced plan to pursue a drilling program of 36 shallow gas wells, with overriding royalty interest in 95 others. By taking advantage of the plentiful supply of drilling rigs and an overabundance of workers, drilling these shallow wells was at a lower-than-usual cost per well. Bill Spillman is president; R.C. Callan, vice president.

The worst ice storm in Collingsworth memory struck Jan. 26, breaking large trees and damaging utility lines faster than linemen could put them back. Greenbelt Electric Co-op had damage from Vinson to Claude and almost the width of its territory; West Texas Utilities was also a heavy loser with lines going down faster than they could be repaired.

Patricia Fourmentin, Stan Tate and Darvin Nix were winners in the Collingsworth Youth Livestock show. Patricia and Stan had calves in the Odessa Livestock Show. They and other 4-H calf exhibitors were in the Ft. Worth Livestock Show and Patricia placed third in her category in February at the Houston Livestock Show, largest in the country.

Wellington Schools: re-elected Supt. Kenneth McKay, Tommie Watts and Judy Thomas of the tax office, and later re-elected teachers...The school adopted a 5-year plan presented by Counselor Louis Graham to upgrade the math curriculum...Samnorwood School extended the contract of Supt. Garland Cavitt and learned it must put another exit in its 40-year-old native stone gymnasium.

The City of Wellington had an inkling of things to come when a woman called to ask why her house had a 1900 number and her neighbors in the same block were numbered in the 1800s. Later this would become almost a city-wide problem with its roots in construction of buildings more than 50 years ago. The city council agreed to try to correct the numbers at a time when its planned street marking program is begun.

City State Bank and Wellington State Bank had combined deposits of $43.9 million...the Red Cross Bloodmobile passed its 80 unit quota.

FEBRUARY

All three utilities -- West Texas, Lone Star and General Telephone -- requested rate increases. Later in the year Greenbelt Electric cooperative, Inc., and Cablecom General would request rate increases.

Collingsworth General Hospital paid $41,760 in short term debt. Oil and gas drilling picked up in the north part of the county. The Extension Service held an oil and gas leasing school of instruction meeting for landowners.

Construction: Wellington Volunteer Firemen and City employees were at work on the new fire station...work was near completion at the end of the year. Samnorwood firemen asked the Commissioners Court for assistance in paying for its fire truck.

Work was under way on the addition to the county jail...completion of the Highway US 83 widening and upgrading during 1983 at a cost of $1.5 million was announced.

The City 5-year-old contract with WTU for street lighting was about to expire and the council learned the cost of lighting the streets would rise by about 400%. The city and WTU worked out a plan for replacing the

New EMT Course Slated

The beginning date for an Emergency Medical Technicians class in Wellington is Tuesday, Jan. 17, at 6:30 p.m. in the Farm Bureau Hospitality Room.

Meetings will be each Tuesday and Thursday thereafter until 100 classroom hours are completed, according to Marshall Peters, president of the Volunteer Ambulance Service and EMT instructor.

After the completion of classroom hours, students will go to Northwest Texas Hospital, Amarillo, for 20 hours of observation.

"We can take a few more students and the class will remain open to the night of Jan. 17," Peters said. Upon successful completion of the course, those taking it will be certified by the State Department of Health.

"We have several members of the ambulance service who want and need to become emergency medical technicians," he continued, adding that there must be at least one certified EMT on each ambulance run, and the other person must have some training.

"We have approximately a dozen EMTs in the Donations to the Christmas Blessing Fund totaled $2,113.69 this week.

The fund was a little short of money last week, but by this week the donations covered all the funds spent to help 30 families during the holiday season. The families received food, clothing or gifts for children.

Donors to the fund this past week include Frank Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Estes and Anonymous.

Donations are still being accepted

Peters will be the instructor for the new course, assisted by Pat Robertson of Clarendon, where he is a paramedic and heads the ambulance service.

are sheriff, Kenneth Maxwell; tax assessor-collector, Mrs. Wauer; county attorney, Charles Darter, who is filling out an unexpired term; Commissioner of Precinct 1, John R. Henard, and Commissioner of Precinct 3, Bill Lowe; and Constable of Precinct 1, Wilson Porter.

On the district level, county residents will vote on the 100th District Judge and the 100th District attorney, a post now held by David McCoy. Other offices are state senator, District 31, Bill Sarpalius, and state representative District 84, Foster Whaley.

On the party level, voters will also name a county democratic chairman and 8 precinct chairmen.

State officials to be elected are U.S. Representative, District 13, Jack Hightower; U.S. Senator, Railroad Commissioners; Chief Justice of the Supreme Court; Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, places 1 and 2; Judge of the State Court of Criminal Appeals, places 1, 2 and 3; Chief Justice, Court of Civil Appeals, 7th Judicial District.

The idea for jet propulsion apparently dates back at least to the 1st century A.D. when Hero of Alexandria, Egypt, is said to have built an engine called an aeolipile.

Frozen water pipes in Wellington were a major problem over the Christmas weekend, but the return of warmer weather by New Year's brought another problem: thawing water lines show many pipes that have burst...pipes the City of Wellington was not aware of a week ago.

Only one major line froze and burst, a 4" pipe at 8th and Ennis Streets, said City Manager Glen Taylor.

Most of the others have been feeder lines, from three-quarter inch or two inch.

"There are still pipe that is not thawed, we don't know how many we do lack," Taylor continued. "It's not many but there are still a few people out of water."

Taylor pointed out that burst water lines between the water meter and the building are the responsibility of the property owner and a plumber is needed to repair a pipe that froze and burst.

A broken pipe beyond the meter is the city's responsibility and if one of these appears the city should be notified.

"We hope to get things put back together in the next week or 10 days," Taylor said.

Work continues to be done by city employees. Only one piece of equipment was hired, a welding rig from Wayne Parker. "Other than that, we have used city equipment," Taylor added.

Blaze Damages Quail Store Tues.

Fire that apparently started in the wall of the Quail Store damaged the southeast corner of the building Tuesday evening, Jan. 3. Fire Chief Danny Gray reported.

He said fire damage was confined to the outside of the building, but there was smoke and water damage to the inside and contents of the grocery store, which is operated by Mrs. Jessie Alston.

Men from the Quail Community who gathered to fight the blaze had pulled off tin which covered the exterior and had the fire under control by the time the Wellington units arrived, Gray said.

Wellington Fire department received the report at 6:53 p.m. and left immediately, he added.

Cause of the fire has not been determined, Gray said later Tuesday night.

Rockette Coach Dale Morris is taking his girls into their district schedule with a 7-5 record to date. "Their play this year has been good at times and bad at times. We're inconsistent," says Morris.

"We have been playing good defense, but the two main things we've got to do are, No. 1, we've got to shoot the ball a little better and score some more points. Also we have to cut down on our turnovers. If we do those things, we'll be able to compete with everybody that's in the district.

Rockettes have some strong points.

"Defense and team play are things we are doing well," says Morris.

He has one starter back from 1982, Dee Ann Williams; two letter players Sandie Cobb and Mary Torrez, and all the other girls are up from junior varsity, Juanita Martinez, Traci Hunnicutt, Michelle Black, Vanda Wood and Sandra Culpepper.

"We have one girl, Paula Nash, who did not play last year but came out this time and is doing a real good job. Right now she has an injured knee and we are working on trying to get it well for district.

Last year, the Rockettes tied for third place in district with Shamrock.

Panhandle the defending champions are picked to win the district title again this time. They lost only one girl off their team from last year and they are undefeated this season.

Quanah, who finished second and got in the playoffs in 1982, is picked to win second again this year. Clarendon is chosen for third, with their outstanding player, Linda Weatheron, while Shamrock is picked for fourth. Wellington defeated the Irish Lassies in the Shamrock tournament. Wellington is picked fifth and Memphis 6th by the pollsters.

Coach Morris urges basketball fans to continue to come out and support the young people, and he urges those who haven't been coming to begin seeing the games.

SCS Taking Great Plains Conservation Contracts

The Wellington office of the Soil Conservation Service is now taking applications for new Great Plains Conservation plans.

Funds are available for individuals applying for a new Great Plains conservation plan and farmers and ranchers wishing to participate in the program should contact the Wellington field office.

The Great Plains program is set up to aid landowners in applying conservation practices on the ground. The SCS will provide assistance in the planning application and cost share of the practices.

Some of the common practices applied in Collingsworth County, which includes all of Salt Fork Soil and Water Conservation District, are farm ponds, livestock pipelines, brush management, cross fencing and well installations, all at 50% cost share rates.

Others are planting windbreaks, seeding grass, constructing terraces and diversion terraces and treating critical areas at a 75% cost share rate; and shaping and seeding waterways at 80% cost share.

When a landowner goes into the program, the entire operating unit must be included in the conservation plan and no more than $40,000 can be paid in cost shares. The contract must run a minimum of three years and for no longer than 10 years. During the course of the Great Plains contract, practices are scheduled in an orderly sequence, according to their priority and the need of the land. Modification and rescheduling of practices can be made in the contract due to the needs of the land and/or the weather conditions. No future obligations will be incurred once the contract has been completed.

There are currently 7 active Great Plains Conservation plans in the county said Tommy Powell, SCS executive. Since the program began in 1957, Collingsworth County has dist Church will start again Friday, Jan. 6, and will be open on Wednesday and Friday of each week throughout the year.

"We have lots of bargains and lots of things to sell," said Mrs. Chester Fires.

Scott Cochran, LucyAnne Hayes Wed in Mid-Dec. Ceremony

The sanctuary of the Church of the Nazarene in Wellington was the setting for the wedding of LucyAnne Hayes and Arthur Scott Cochran on Friday, December 16, at seven in the evening. The bride's father, the Reverend Dennis Hayes, performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of the Reverend and Mrs. Hayes, 1705 Childress Street. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. James W. Cochran, 1720 East Avenue.

Candles lighted the altar area, with a heart-shaped candelabra at center. Spiral candelabras were at the right and left of the heart. The couple participated in lighting a unity candle.

Wedding selections were provided by Mrs. Henry Wells, vocalist, Mrs. Joe Harris, organist and Mrs. Jerry Cummins, pianist.

Rev. Hayes also gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace featuring a Queen Anne neckline. Beaded embroidered motifs of Venice lace accented the bodice and long sleeves. A white satin ribbon encircled the waist and was tied at the back in a bow with streamers extending over tiers of lace ruffles, which cascaded to a cathedral train. Her tulle veil had matching appliques and was attached to a Juliet cap. The bridal bouquet of white roses was accented with blue carnations and tied with blue satin streamers.

Michelle Eve Hayes, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor and bridesmaids were Susan Barnett, Camille Smith and Jennifer Margaret Hayes, sister of the bride.

They wore floor-length blue velvet dresses with white baby's breath in their hair. Each carried a single pale blue carnation with baby's breath, tied with blue and white streamers.

Neal Cochran, the bridegroom's brother, was the best man and groomsmen were Hank Barnett, Jeff Barnett, David Moore of Dallas. Ushers were Christopher Hayes and Dennis Hayes, Jr., both brothers of the bride, Dennis Hinson and Clinton Thomas.

Christopher Hayes and Dennis Hayes, Jr., also lighted the candles.

The flower girl was Faith Hayes, also a sister of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hayes wore a Dior blue crystal pleated silk gown. Mrs. Cochran, the bridegroom's mother, wore a platinum quiana gown with a beaded bodice.

The ceremony was followed by a reception, given by the Rev. and Mrs. Hayes in Bura Handley Community Center.

The bride's table was covered with an ecru lace cloth, which was decorated with garlands of English Ivy.

Afterwards the couple left for a wedding trip to Red River, New Mexico and they are now at home in Wellington.

The bride was graduated from Wellington High School and is employed at Collingsworth General Hospital.

TIPS TO CLIP

It is the crackle! Time of year! The younger folks are out of school, TV features football games, and parties provide a great opportunity to indulge in munchies. This easy snack is crunchy and delicious and has the good nutrition of cereal and peanuts.

CEREAL BRITTLE

3 c. crunchy-sweet peanut butter cereal
3 c. crisp wheat square cereal
1 c. salted peanuts
1/2 c. sugar

1/4 c. dark corn syrup
1/4 c. butter or margarine
1 tsp. vanilla
1/2 tsp. baking soda

Preheat oven to 325°. Combine cereals and peanuts in large roasting pan; set aside. Combine sugar, corn syrup and butter in a 2 quart saucepan. Bring to a boil over medium-low heat, stirring constantly. Boil without stirring an additional 2 minutes. Stir in vanilla and baking soda. Mixture will foam. Pour over cereal mixture and toss with wooden spoon to coat evenly. Spread mixture evenly in roasting pan. Bake 12 to 15 minutes or until golden brown and bubbly. Cool slightly and break into pieces. Store wrapped in heavy duty foil or in an air-tight container. Makes 2 1/2 quarts.

LeAnn Marcum, R. Peznowski, Wed in Ceremony Dec. 30

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Langley was the setting for the wedding on December 30 of their niece, LaNita LeAnn Marcum and Raymond Charles Peznowski, both of Cannon Air Force Base, Clovis, New Mexico.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Melba Marcum, 4625 71st, Apartment 258, Lubbock. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Tom Peznowski of Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania.

Elder Jack Hays, pastor of the Primitive Baptist Church, performed the ceremony at seven o'clock in the evening.

The background for the wedding were brass candelabras with yellow and white tapers, and yellow wedding bells. The couple lighted a unity candle.

Cary Don Neeley of Quail gave his cousin in marriage. She wore a gown of white silk organza over satin, designed with a sweetheart neckline and lace sleeves edged in ruffles. The skirt was made with an apron effect, accented with ruffles ending in a chapel train. Her fingertip illusion veil was attached to a Juliette Cap.

She carried a nosegay of white carnations.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Scott (Lori) Wells of Houston, the bride's sister; and Donna Langley of Quail, the bride's cousin, was bridesmaid. They wore yellow lace dresses with wide ruffles outlining the square yokes and cap sleeves. The accordion pleated skirts were floor length.

Ben Carson of Quail was the best man and Scott Wells of Houston was groomsman.

Curtis Neeley and Anthony Carson of Quail were ushers and Stephen Carson of Quail lighted the candles. Flower girls were Jennifer Carson of Quail and Marissa Wells of Houston. David Neeley of Quail was the ring bearer.

A reception in the Langley home followed the ceremony.

A white linen cloth covered the bride's table and appointments were of crystal and brass.

Mrs. Randy Langley, Mrs. Cary Don Neeley and Mrs. Ben Carson were members of the house party.

The bride graduated from Quail High School and Frank Phillips College.

The bridegroom is a graduate of G.A.R. Memorial High School in Wilkes-Barre. Both are in the United States Air Force and will make their home at Cannon Air Force Base.

Birthday Reception Given for Ida Stuckey

The nieces and nephews of Mrs. Ida Langley Stuckey, 1003 El Paso Street, honored her with a reception on her 80th birthday Saturday, December 31.

This was held at the Primitive Baptist Church, 1300 Graham Street, of which she is a member. Friends called between 7 and 9 in the evening.

Hosts included Mr. and Mrs. Donald Langley, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Langley, Mrs. Margaret Harwell of Childress, Mr. and Mrs. Ross O'Hair, Mrs. Harvie Price of Clarendon, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dennis of Stamford and Mrs. Melba Marcum of Lubbock.

Mrs. Stuckey received the guests, who were registered by Mrs. Harwell.

The reception table was covered with a white cloth and centered by a large arrangement of white flowers in a crystal holder. Other appointments were crystal. Presiding at the table were Mrs. O'Hair, Mrs. Price and Mrs. Dennis.

Afterward the group stayed to sing Mrs. Stuckey's favorite religious hymns, with Loyd Langley and Donald Langley as leaders.

Born at Terral in the Indian Territory, now Oklahoma. She graduated from high school and from Draughan's Business College in Wichita Falls.

Few Wellington women have worked in the business world longer than Mrs. Stuckey - approximately 50 years in many parts of the country.

Her first job, she recalls, was for North Texas Building and Loan, Wichita Falls, from 1927 to 1932. After coming to Wellington, she worked three years for John Stovall, head of the Triple A (government farm) program. Next, she went to Kern-Cone Chevrolet as bookkeeper in 1935. Her next move, in 1942, took her back to Wichita Falls, where she worked for Gable Dairyland Creamery, until her husband, the late Aubrey Stuckey, entered the Army. They had married in 1940.

She became an Army wife, as did so many women during World War II. She followed her husband to California, working as a bookkeeper for Haber Furniture, Co. and Pacific Oil and Burner Co. When her husband transferred to Michigan, she worked for the Veterans Administration at Fort Custer VA Hospital, and when they returned to Waco, she transferred to the VA hospital there, then to San Antonio when the Veterans Administration opened its office in that city in 1945.

The couple owned a laundry from 1946 until 1949, and another laundry at Comanche from 1949 until 1956, when they returned to Wellington.

Mrs. Stuckey continued in the business community, working for Arthur Belew and Charles Caison Massey Ferguson Dealership; Steve and Martha Owens, and last, the late Homer Holton and Howard Holton, Gulf distributors.

Out of town guests attending the reception were Mr. and Mrs. John Barnhart of Garland; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Richards of Norman, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dennis and Denise of Stamford; Mr. and Mrs. Red Lowe and Chad Tucker of Memphis; Mrs. Martha Henderson, Mrs. Barbara Ray, Mrs. Karen Husband and Mrs. Margaret Harwell all of Childress; Mr. and Mrs. Scottie Wells and Marissa of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Peznowski of Clovis, N.M.; Mrs. Melba Marcum of Lubbock; Mrs. Terry Bratt and Dana of Wainwright, Okla.; Mrs. June Price of Clarendon; Miss Karen Caldwell of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis of Hollis.

Those attending from Quail were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Langley, Donna Langley, Mrs. Ben Carson with Anthony, Stephen and Jennifer, and Mr. and Mrs. Cary Don Neeley with Curtis and David.

Mark Tarver, Lesa Darrow Wed In Early Winter Home Rites

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Tarver east of Lutie was the setting for the wedding of Lesa Darrow and their son, Mark Tarver, on Wednesday, November 30.

The couple selected this date as it was the wedding anniversaries of the bridegroom's parents and grandparents.

Elder Jim Jackson of Floydada, cousin of the bride, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Darrow of Panhandle.

The background for the ceremony was a brass arch accented with grape satin bows. Two brass spiral candelabras held grape tapers at each side of the prayer bench, and bows decorated the unity candle.

DiAnna Oldham sang "Through the Eyes of Love" after the bride entered and "Always and Forever," as the unity candle was lighted. Connie Jo Stages played the organ accompaniment.

Mr. Darrow gave his daughter in marriage.

Her polyester gown over bridal taffeta was fashioned with a Victorian lace collar enhanced with a white satin ribbon bow. Lace ruffles outlined the illusion yoke and accented the wide cuffs of her bishop sleeves.

The A-line skirt was attached to a raised waistline and at the hem a deep lace under-flounce which swept to a tiered lace chapel train.

Her fingertip bridal veil, edged in lace, was attached to a lace cap. She carried a nosegay of tiger lilies, large chrysanthemums and Queen Anne's Lace in shades of light and dark lavender and grape, tied with matching ribbon streamers.

She carried out the traditional something old, her grandmother's handkerchief, her gown was something new, she borrowed the pearl earrings, wore the traditional blue garter and in her shoe was a penny minted in the year of her birth.

Rita Barker of McLean was her sister's honor attendant and Carol Bentley of Shamrock was the bridesmaid. Their grape-colored dresses were accented with sheer ruffle edging. The necklines, high in front, scooped low at the back and the long sheer sleeves were caught at the wrist with ruffled cuffs. Their bouquets were a single large grape chrysanthemum surrounded by Queen Anne's Lace in shades of dark and light lavender with matching ribbon streamers.

Jennifer Barker of McLean, niece of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a white dotted Swiss dress and in her hair was an angel halo of small lavender tiger lilies and Queen Anne's Lace, tied at back by cascading ribbon streamers. Clifford Oldham served the bridegroom as best man and Clinton Oldham was the groomsman.

Richard Barker was ring bearer and Dale Barker lighted the candles. Both are from McLean and are the bride's nephews.

Special guests at the wedding were grandparents of the couple, Mr. and Mrs. J.J. Hunter and Mrs. Mac Tarver all of Memphis and Mrs. G.L. Darrow of Panhandle.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the Tarver home.

The bride's table was laid with a white lace cloth and her bouquet was the centerpiece. Crystal and silver appointments were used.

The traditional chocolate cake was served from the groom's table, along with coffee, poured from a silver service.

The tiered wedding cake featured a fountain and was decorated with sweet peas and roses topped with white satin bells.

Cathy Nunn and Mrs. Stages served the bride's cake and Mrs. Oldham served the bridegroom's cake. Dale Barker distributed rice bags.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Darrow wore a soft rose dress and Mrs. Tarver chose a silver gray satin dress. Their corsages were of grape and lavender daisies.

After a wedding trip to Red River, New Mexico, the couple is at home at 700 South Wall Street, Shamrock.

The bride is a graduate of Shamrock High School and is employed at First National Bank, Shamrock. A graduate of Samnorwood High School, the groom has ranching interests east of Lutie.

Scoopin'

Johnny Roberts is a familiar sight around town on his bicycle-built-for-two. But there was a time when Roberts had to hoof it and hitchhike wherever he went.

An article in the December issues of Burlington Northern News spotlights Wellington's Johnny Roberts and his hitchhiking feat.

Roberts' story appeared in Ripley's "Believe It or Not", and here are the facts: In 1934-35 Roberts traveled 66 miles a day to and from work, each day for two years, and he did it all by hitchhiking.

That's a total of 48,180 miles. Roberts says the article and the Ripley's item only gave him credit for one year and 24,090 miles, but it's a lot of miles however you count it.

Roberts job was moved from Chillicothe to Harrold, the Burlington magazine says, in 1934 and he says he stayed one night in Harrold and decided "that was long enough." So he commuted, and since he didn't own a car he would get up at 5 a.m. and hitch a ride to be at work by 8.

"I didn't have a car. The only things I owned were a pair of socks and some overalls," Roberts says. "As a telegrapher, I made $2.30 a day. That was just enough to keep me, my wife and two kids going. So I had to get to work and make that daily wage."

Roberts says he never had trouble getting a ride. "Sometimes four or five people would be waiting in the morning or after work to pick me up. I sure met a lot of friendly people."

Roberts, 87, retired from the railroad in 1973 after 59 years on the job. "When you retire, you have to find something to do," Roberts says, "so I wrote Ripley and sent him 10 references to prove that I really did hitchhike all those miles."

Roberts has other exploits. "Someone dared me to save 50,000 pennies in one month. I saved 54,000," Roberts says. "If anyone tells me I can't do something, I'll go out of my way to prove to him that I can."

COLLINGSWORTH COUNTY AGENT REPORT

by Don Reeves

TIME TO CONSIDER CATTLE LICE CONTROL
It's the time of year when cattlemen need to put up their guard against a pest that annually pilfers their pocketbooks.

Lice are the culprits, and they begin to reproduce rapidly with the onset of cool weather.

They reach peak populations in late winter and early spring.

Uncontrolled, lice can soon infest a whole herd, because with cold weather, cattle tend to bunch up more and the pests can easily move from one animal to another. Heavy hair coats on animals during cold weather also afford protection for the parasites and allow increased reproduction.

There are two types of lice--bloodsucking and biting--and both infest cattle. Sucking lice pierce the animals' skin and suck blood while biting lice feed on particles of hair, scale, scab and skin discharges.

Lice infestations irritate animals, causing itching, scratching and rubbing on fences or anything else available. This produces denuded areas, bruises and lacerations on the affected animal.

Heavily infested animals will have an unthrifty appearance and will suffer weight reduction, decreased milk production, anemia or even death.

Lice infested animals may also be more subject to respiratory diseases such as pneumonia. Heavy lice infestations often stunt calves.

Spraying and dipping infested animals with proper insecticides is an effective means of controlling lice. However, control measures are usually required when winter conditions are most harsh--a time when cold stress is a good possibility and respiratory diseases prevalent. Some of this problem can be prevented by treating animals on a day when they can be dry before sundown.

New Snows!

You can see by the car tracks that people are going places despite the heavy snows. Others, like you and me, perhaps, are going places because of it--because the new-fallen snow is beautiful and we want to enjoy it and look at the pictures it makes on the landscape. Also, that frosty, crackly wind that comes with the first snows blows roses in our cheeks and new energy and expectations into our hearts. We can't wait to get out and do things and be with people.

A New Year is upon us. What wonderful things this year can bring. Does the New Year lying before you, with its promise, fill you with new life and excited expectations like the new snow mentioned above?

May your New Year be a happy and prosperous one, and may you find great peace every day through worship and spiritual blessings each week through attending church.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

When You Buy, Build or Remodel, You Can Save Thousands of Dollars* on Your Electric Bills over the Life of Your Home if it's a WTU-Approved E.S.P. Home

Some homes on the market may seem to be energy efficient, but before you buy, build or remodel, be sure your new home earns the West Texas Utilities

"E.S.P. Award"

ASK YOUR REALTOR OR BUILDER ABOUT SOME OF THE MOST IMPORTANT ENERGY SAVING FEATURES:

- Ceiling insulation of R-30 and wall insulation of R-16.
- Storm windows or insulated glass.
- Weatherstripping and caulking around all doors and windows.
- Air conditioning with a Seasonal Energy Efficiency Ratio (SEER) of 8.5 or higher.
- Electric heat pump with an SEER of 8.0 or higher.
- Air infiltration control.

*COMPARE BELOW HOW MUCH MONEY AN E.S.P. HOME CAN SAVE YOU OVER A ONE-YEAR PERIOD

An average 1800 square foot home will cost approximately $835 per year to heat and cool.
An E.S.P. HOME of 1800 square feet will cost approximately $610 per year to heat and cool, which results in an annual savings on electricity costs of 25 percent or more.
(Energy savings may vary according to the type of construction of the home, family size and individual energy usage habits.)

Call your local WTU office for additional information on buying, building or remodeling to have an E.S.P. HOME. IT CAN SAVE YOU MONEY ON FUTURE ENERGY BILLS!

Obituaries

Services for John Bray Held Dec. 30

Funeral services for John Bray of Aledo, a former Wellington High School football coach, were conducted at Greenwood Funeral Chapel, at 9:30 a.m. Friday, Dec. 30. Burial was in Greenwood Memorial Park.

Bray, a former football star and longtime football official and coach, died Tuesday, Dec. 27, at a Fort Worth Hospital. He was 68.

A native of Graham who grew up in Ranger, he played football for Ranger High School, Ranger Junior College, Texas Tech University and Texas Wesleyan College, where he was named to the All-Texas Conference team.

He played linebacker and tight end for the New York Giants before World War II, and later joined the Paterson, N. J. Panthers, becoming part of the Panthers 1947 league championship team.

Bray later coached football at high schools in Carrollton, DeKalb, and Brewer, besides Wellington. He officiated at Southwest Conference football games and was a member of the Southwest Football Officials Association.

He taught driver education in Fort Worth School District. He retired in 1980.

Bray had lived in Ft. Worth for 16 years before moving to Willow Park near Aledo in 1973.

During World War II, Bray was a captain in the U.S. Army Air Corps and served as provost marshal at Clark Air Field in the Philippines.

He was a member of the Disabled American Veterans, the American Legion and the Parker County Sheriff's Officers association. He was a member of the United Methodist Church at Aledo.

Survivors include his wife, Nell Bray of Aledo, a son, John Wesley Bray of Aledo, a daughter, Barbara Blue of Atlanta, Ga.; two brothers, Lem Bray of Ranger and Paul Bray of Ft. Worth.

He was the son-in-law of Mrs. Nacie Lentz, and brother-in-law of Mrs. Cecil Shanks.

Mrs. Tucker, A Retired Teacher, Dies

A former teacher in Wellington Elementary School, Mrs. R.B. (Alice J.) Tucker, of Hollis died Wednesday Dec. 28. Mrs. Tucker, 70, had been in ill health a number of years.

She retired from teaching here in 1977. Her husband was also a former faculty member.

Before coming to Wellington, she taught at Farwell 9 years and also at Teacross and Ron in Harmon County. She was a member of several professional organizations and of 1st Baptist Church, Hollis.

Mrs. Tucker, the former Alice J. Sions, was born June 29, 1913, at Oakwood, Okla. She and Mr. Tucker were married at Oakwood in 1933 at which time she came to Hollis.

Services were conducted Saturday, Dec. 31, at 2 p.m. in Patterson Memorial Chapel, with the Rev. Hoyt Ellis, pastor of Antioch Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in Fairmount Cemetery, Hollis, by Patterson Funeral Home.

Survivors are her husband; a daughter, Emalee King of Drumright, Okla.; a son, Doug Tucker of Malibu, Calif.; a sister, Mary Davis of Hollis, a brother, Lynn Sions of Borger, and three grandchildren.

J.R. Benson, Shamrock Pioneer, Dies

John Rufus Benson, pioneer Shamrock business man, died Monday, Dec. 19, at the age of 94.

He was a brother-in-law of Frank Anderson.

Mr. Benson moved to Shamrock from Mangum, Okla., and established a hardware and furniture company in February 1925, which became Benson Hardware and Furniture in 1937. His son, Lyman Benson, took over the management of the company in the early 1960s. Mr. Benson continued a keen interest in the business until his death.

He was a member of 1st United Methodist Church, Masonic Lodge No. 929, the York Rite and Eastern Star. Mr. Benson was born in Sebastian County, Ark., June 21, 1889. He was married to Eula Gray Anderson in 1914, at Wellington. She died in 1981.

Memorial services were conducted Wednesday, Dec. 21, at 1st United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Todd Dyess pastor, officiating. Burial was in Shamrock Cemetery. Pall bearers were Don Reavis, Wallace Fields, John Vermillion, Walter Pendleton, Jr., Robert Laycock, Charles Sanders, Cabot Brannon and Kenneth W. Fields.

Survivors include a daughter, Pauline Benson, and a son, Lyman G. Benson, both of Shamrock, three brothers, Henry N. Benson and Herschel Benson, both of Hereford and Joe W. Benson of Dimmitt; two grandchildren and a great grandson.

Mr. and Mrs. Hodges went from here and were joined by their children, Dr. and Mrs. David Hodges and Mr. and Mrs. Randall Hodges all of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Howard of Edna.

Dub Gollighugh Lifelong Area Resident, Dies

W.A. (Dub) Gollighugh, Jr., 58, died Friday, Dec. 30 at 12:55 p.m. in Collingsworth General Hospital after a short illness. His home was at 704 Corsicana Street.

He had lived at Wellington and Quail most of his life. Mr. Gollighugh was a farm worker.

Graveside services were conducted in Fairview Cemetery at 9:30 a.m.

Ambulance Service to Hold Annual Meeting

Collingsworth Volunteer Ambulance Service will hold its annual supper and business meetings Sat., Jan. 7, at 7 p.m. in Bura Handley community center.

At that time, the service will begin its 12th year of operation in Collingsworth County, Marshall Peters, president pointed out.

A salad supper will be served, followed by a program and business meeting.

Jamie and Mary Johnson will present a program of music, which will include vocal, piano and guitar selections.

In the business session, Peters will discuss new laws relating to emergency medical technicians which became effective January 1.

The Collingsworth Volunteer Ambulance Service already is in compliance with most of these, he explained, and the service will not find it hard to comply with those it does not already meet.

Officers will be elected, along with three directors, for two-year terms. Those whose terms expire are Peters, John Brown and Mayor Ralph Owens. Hold-over members are Jim Sikes, Kenneth Patterson, and Dennis Cudd.

Officers serving with Peters are Cudd, vice-president; and Margaret Vines, secretary.

"We have 26 members in the ambulance service," said Peters. "We lose one occasionally and gain one occasionally. About half of them have been with the service the entire time since its organization."

In addition to Mayor Owens, members of the City Council, County Judge Zook Thomas and members of the Commissioners Court have been invited to attend

12,872 Acre Lease Assigned

Oil, gas and mineral leases in western Harmon County, Okla., and in the Dodson area of Collingsworth County, totaling 12,872.95 acres have been assigned by the Harlow Corp. of Amarillo to Adams and McGahey, a co-partnership, and to Harlow Corp.

The assignment was executed July 22, 1982, but filed in the office of Helen Gollighugh, county-district clerk, in late December 1983.

The 8,956.55 acres in Oklahoma lies along the western edge of Harmon County in Township 4 North, Range 26 West, and is designated as the North McKnight Project.

The Texas portion is the Dodson project, and lies in the immediate Dodson area. It is in the northeast part of block 10, except one tract in block OS.

The legal description of the Texas portion is: S/2 and NE/4 section 41; sections 42 and 39; N/2 sec 40; SW/4 sec 60 and NS/4 sec 41; NE/4 sec 59; NW/4 sec 60, west 140 acres of NW1 of N/2 and the N/2 of S/2 sec 22; S/2 of N/2 sec 22; NW/4 sec 59 less 10 acres; sec 46 block ?; and SW/4 sec 61.

In subsequent instruments filed in the clerk's office, the Harlow Corp assigned an overriding royalty interest in this acreage to W.V. Harlow, Jr.; oil, gas and mineral leases were assigned by Harlow Corp to Harry Boond, Jr., Billy K. Holderness, Roger T. Hughes and Ronald C. Odekirk.

In the next instrument, Harlow Corp. and the above four men assigned oil, gas and mineral leases to Caltex Exploration Ltd. of California.

Other oil and gas instruments filed include:

Oil, gas and mineral lease: Edward L. Pitcock and wife, Karen of Lubbock to Lela Drilling Co., Wellington: N/2 of N/2 sec 11, blk 17, and S/2 of N/2 sec 11, blk 17. The primary term is for two year and will expire Nov. 21, 1985. The landowner retained 3/16 royalty.

Oil, gas and mineral lease: Robert G. Budd, executor of the estate of Wilbur Q. Budd of Amarillo, to Lela Drilling Co.: N/2 of N/2 sec 11, blk 17, and S/2 of N/2 sec 11, blk 17. The primary term is two years until Nov. 21, 1985 and the landowner retains 3/16 royalty.

These leases were then assigned by Lela Drilling Co., to SESCO Petroleum Inc. Mineral deed: Lonny D. Morrison and Janet Morrison of Wichita Falls to Ferrari Oil Co., of Wichita Falls: sec 51, blk 14.

Oil and gas lease: Marion Eli Posey and wife, Glenna R. Posey of Memphis, to Maralo, Inc., of Houston: SW/4 sec 31, blk 14. The primary term of this lease is 5 years.

Trophies will be awarded. The number of teams will be limited.

Teams can register by calling Toni Wright, Satellite Center, 447-5436 on or before January 16.

"This will help benefit the Satellite Center, a non-profit organization," Mrs. Wright said.
