Lions Club Sale Of Brooms, Mops May 9

The Rockport Lions Club has selected May 9 for its annual sale of brooms, mops, brushes, pot holders and other household items to raise funds for worthwhile projects. The sale will take place at Ray's Texaco Service Station.

Not only will the proceeds help the Lions Club carry out such projects as aiding handicapped children, but the funds also will help Lighthouse Industries for the Blind of Texas. Blind people make the products which the Lions Club will be selling.

N. C. Vandagriff is chairman of the project.

Fulton School Registration Set

Registration for pupils who will enter the first grade at George Fulton Elementary School in August 1970 will be held during the week of May 4 through 8. Parents are asked to bring their children to the principal's office between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

It will be necessary to bring a birth certificate in order to register any child. A record of the required shots is needed but if this is not available the record can be obtained later. If all students pre-enroll it will save much time and confusion at the beginning of school. The cooperation of all parents will be highly appreciated.

Registration At Rockport Elementary

Registration of children that will be first graders in the Rockport Elementary during the 1970-1971 school year, will be held in the principal's office May 4 through May 8, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

To be eligible to enter school next fall there must be proof from a birth or baptismal certificate that the child was born on or before Sept. 1, 1964.

Parents should also bring the child's immunization record. If no immunization record is available, please bring the children and register them. Arrangements can be made for later immunization.

Reminder of Precinct Conventions

Governor Preston Smith has scheduled television "spots" beginning April 30 to invite the more than 4,000,000 qualified Texas voters to "Take a Second Step" on Saturday, May 2, 1970. He will remind Texans to attend their Precinct Conventions, to let their voices be heard.

The Aransas County Democratic Executive Committee has announced that the attendance at precinct conventions following the May Primary of 1968, was greater than at any other time before.

The Democratic Committee encourages the voters of Aransas County to learn the meaning of "grass roots politics" by attending their respective precinct conventions, scheduled for 7:15 p.m., May 2nd, at the polling places.

Found Guilty

Henry Munoz was found guilty Tuesday of aggravated assault upon City Patrolman Jack Baird and was fined $100 and costs. The case was heard in Judge John D. Wendell's County Court before a jury consisting of H. T. Bailey, foreman, Ceylon Ammons, Dailey Heldenfels, Mrs. J. B. Gleason, S. L. Canterbury, III and Joe P. Allgood.

Centennial Box Supper Set For May 1

Following the colorful promenade in the business district April 24, another event in connection with the Aransas County-Rockport Centennial will be an old-fashioned box supper to be sponsored by the Yesteryear Centennial Belles at Navigation District Park (across the street from the Woman's Club building) at 6:30 p.m., Friday, May 1. This will follow the second weekly promenade which will start at 5:30 p.m., a half hour later than the start of last week's promenade.

All local residents are invited. Bring a box supper and have fun buying it back at auction. The prettier your box is, the more money it will bring. Please list the contents of your box supper to assist the auctioneer.

Booths of many kinds will be set up by various Centennial Belles chapters. Entertainment will be provided by local talent. Folks who attend are urged to dress up in their old-fashioned clothes.

Last Friday evening's promenade was highly successful and a lot of fun. About 200 appropriately attired men, women and children assembled at the Rockport Art Association Gallery, paraded south on the west side of Austin Street to just north of Market Street, crossed the street and paraded north on the east side of Austin.

Ladies were dressed in southern belle gowns and bonnets, saloon-girl dresses, old-fashioned bathing suits and other yesteryear outfits. Men attuned to old days by donning top hats, derbies, loud vests, watch chains, and garter sleeve holders.

The promenade was viewed by many spectators, including one who drove along in their cars. A cameraman from Channel II was on hand to film the parade for showing on television.

May Designated Cleanup Month

Editorial

The City Council is to be commended for taking the leadership to make Clean Up—Paint Up—Fix Up month in May an outstanding success.

Not only did Mayor Delmar R. Hiller and Aldermen Charlie Garrett, N. F. Jackson, Mrs. J. W. "Tony" Harden and Joe "Pepe" Zambrano proclaim May for this worthwhile purpose, but they also took specific steps to encourage the public to really help out.

In the first place, the City decreed that free trash pickup will be furnished for all residents of Rockport during the month.

Secondly, the City agreed to supply flatbed trucks, with drivers, free of charge to all organizations which would like to join the crusade to make the city spotlessly clean for the Aransas County-Rockport Centennial Celebration, June 13-21, and keep it that way in the future.

So, if you are a member of a civic club, church, school, fraternal, patriotic or any other kind of organization, talk to your fellow members, plan some definite Clean Up, Paint Up or Fix Up project and get going.

If you need the use of a flatbed truck and a driver, call the City Hall (729-2213) and make your reservation.

The City is doing its part. How about the citizens?

HEAD START PROGRAM SET

Registration for the Summer Head Start program will begin on Monday, May 4th and end on Friday, May 8th. Parents may register their child for Head Start at the same time he is registered for school.

Applications for aides will be accepted at the same time the child is registered.

The Head Start program will be held at Rockport Elementary School and will begin on Monday, June 8th and end on Friday, July 31.

The Head Start program is designed for students from economically deprived families.

Chamber Happenings

The Chamber of Commerce welcomes as new members Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schindler of Rockport Aviation, new operators of Aransas County Airport, Mrs. Gladys Gibson and Hull Pest Control.

Refreshments will be furnished May 4-9 by Col. and Mrs. Donald M. Davis of Falls Church, Va.—better known locally as Mike and Ruthie Davis, of Copano Ridge. Mike retired from military service in 1961 and after several years of loafing, he went back to work for the government as a civilian employee at the Pentagon a couple of years ago. They will still keep in close touch with Rockport through their many friends here and a subscription to the Pilot. Having read in the Pilot of the C of C hospitality program and desiring to have a part in it, they left $5 with President Juanita Wagley while visiting the area last week.

Board Secretary

Thomas E. (Eddie) Ratliff, assistant vice president of First National Bank, has been appointed secretary to the bank's board of directors, it was announced Wednesday by James H. Sorenson, Jr., president.

As secretary, Ratliff will be responsible for keeping official minutes of the board, Sorenson said.

Ratliff, who has been with First National since last April, starting as an officer trainee, was named assistant vice president in January.

Cancer Society To Meet May 12

"All interested in the American Cancer Society are invited to attend the annual membership meeting of the Aransas County Unit of the American Cancer Society," Joel Mixon, president of the unit, announced. It will be held on Tuesday, May 12 at 8 p.m. at the Navigation District building. There will be a speaker.

At this annual meeting, the membership will elect the Board of Directors for the 1970-71 year. Officers of the Unit, 5 delegates and 5 alternates to the District 6 North annual meeting in Corpus Christi June 24 and a delegate and an alternate to the state annual meeting in Dallas Oct. 14-15, will also be elected.

Members of the nominating committee appointed by Mixon are Mrs. E. T. Busch, Chairman; Mrs. Thomas McArdle and Mrs. Herbert French. Mrs. O. W. Brymer is chairman of the planning committee with Mrs. M. L. Hulett and Mrs. H. T. Bailey as committee members.

Bonner, legacies. The chairmen will make annual reports and recommendations for the coming year's objectives.

Little League Yankees

The Yankees baseball team of the Rockport Little League will hold its first practice on Monday, May 4 at 5:30 p.m. The following boys are requested to meet at the High School football parking lot at that time:

Tim Baylor, Andy Benavidez, Gabriel Benavidez, Jimmy Brown, Duke Bryan, Raul Castro, James Crusier, Carl DeForest, Richard Dominguez, Clay Evans, Kelly Fine, Benny Flores, Freddy Flores, Charles Garza, John Gravel, Royce Harrell, Jeff Jorday, Howard McNutt, Joe Molina, Donald Nava, Maxie Roesch, James Santos, Mark Setterbo, James E. Simmons, William Ulrich.

Phil Colling, Yankee Mgr.

The City Council, by proclamation and a proposed action program, has officially designated May as Clean Up—Paint Up—Fix Up Month.

With the Aransas County-Rockport Centennial Celebration scheduled for June 13-21, Mayor Delmar R. Hiller and Aldermen Charlie Garrett, N. F. Jackson, Mrs. J. W. "Tony" Harden and Joe "Pepe" Zambrano have pledged the city's leadership and cooperation to encourage local residents to pitch in and help.

The Council this week announced that free trash pickup will be provided by the city sanitation department during the entire month of May.

In addition, the city will make available flatbed trucks plus drivers, to all civic clubs, church and school groups, patriotic organizations and other clubs which desire to join the Cleanup Campaign. All interested groups are urged to call Mrs. Mary Lake Segler, city secretary, 729-2213, to make reservations for the use of the flatbed trucks.

Chief of Police Everett D. Taylor also announced that he will continue the "get rid of junk cars" campaign which already has resulted in the removal of many wrecks from local yards to a junk yard at Aransas Pass.

In other actions at the City Council meeting:

—A letter from the Texas Highway Department was read regarding an engineering and traffic study conducted at the intersection of Highway 35 and North Live Oak Street "to determine if existing traffic conditions justified the installation of a fixed-time or pedestrian actuated traffic signal."

Travis A. Long, District Engineer, wrote that results of the study "reveal that the existing traffic volumes are not sufficient to justify either type of traffic signal."

"We find that the school children crossing S.H. 35 at this location from about 7:15 to 8:15 a.m. and from 3:45 p.m. do need help," Long wrote. "The City provides a police officer at both of these times to direct vehicle and pedestrian traffic. At other times of the day, there is no congestion nor traffic problem. Our experience as well as that of a number of cities indicates that the City of Rockport is handling the school crossing problem in the best possible manner. This experience has shown that an adult guard or police officer provides the safest means of getting children across the highway. We cannot recommend anything which would be better than what is now being done."

—Alderman Harden was instructed to confer again with the Postmaster M. A. Rowan in an attempt to develop a plan to eliminate or decrease the traffic hazards in connection with parking at the Pose Office.

—It was decided to hire a dog catcher at $50 a week to work 20 hours a week and be on call to pick up stray dogs. In addition to the salary, the city will furnish 20 gallons of gasoline per week for his vehicle. Results of his work, which will last a maximum of two months, will be reviewed.

EDITOR'S VIEWPOINTS

SHE'S TOO BUSY TO THINK A LOT

The chicken, simply as bird, does not enjoy much of a reputation in the pecking order. Indeed, the creature's name is often used as a synonym for cowardice when it is not being abused as a symbol for stupidity.

In one respect, however, she is supreme. Of all the creatures now raised on the American farm, reports the Department of Agriculture in its Yearbook, she is "the most efficient converter of animal feed to human food," far surpassing the pig in this department; and the pig, although a pig, is no slouch.

With a little care and encouragement, one chicken can roll out 240 eggs a year. And for those who don't care much for eggs, she performs just handsomely as a broiler. Here she does so well that production of broilers has increased from 86 million in 1938 to 2.5 billion now. And with this there has been a decline in price. So forgive her defects of character and her low I.Q. In her input-output ratio, she surpassed a lot of other creatures in sheer productivity.—Charleston (W. Va.) Daily Mail.

EYES RIGHT

The school board in Glasgow, Mont., had to change its rule that skirts must reach to coed's knees. Clothiers told the board they couldn't buy skirts that long any more and the board then amended its order to require skirts of "reasonable and modest length."

While the board was changing its skirt order, we hope that it also changed its glasses. Board members' eyes must be failing if they hadn't noticed the skirt lengths in recent months.—Dallas Times-Herald.

CUSTOM TAILORED BABIES

The next step in the de-humanizing process is another pill, said to make possible pre-determining the sex of the unborn child. As man delves into realms once only controlled by nature we seem to lose identity rather than gain.

If the new pill works effectively children will be born as if ordered from a catalog, will be kept alive chemically through the norman span and then rebuilt with spare parts for extra years of life.

You'll know when the ultimate has been reached. Look over each new baby carefully. When you find a serial number, that's it.—Concrete (Wash.) Herald.

LOOK ALWAYS

Mandatory hairnets for hippie drivers are suggested by the automobile Legal Ass'n, which contends lengthy haircuts are a highway safety hazard because they obscure vision.

Philip C. Wallwork, ALA safety director, also points out other drivers are disconcerted when they see a car being driven "by a ball of fuzz."

He ads: "Many hair styles of the younger set obstruct both forward and lateral vision. A regulation requiring hairnets for the hairy sets may prove as sensible as the regulations requiring helmets for motorcyclists."

Since a mandatory haircut might seem too drastic, why not a hair style with peepholes?—Albuquerque Journal.

A lot of us are weekend warriors in the war on poverty. Just broke part of the time. — Concrete (Wash.) Herald.

Navigation Dist. Holds Meeting

The Board of Navigation and Canal Commissioners met Apr. 27 at the District's office. Present were Matthew W. Scott, chairman, and Commissioners Ted R. Little and Richard J. Fox; and Attorney L. Clark.

Visitors were R. E. Lyons and R. J. Lee of Channel Industries; R. C. Thwing of Loyd W. Richardson Construction Co., Aransas Pass; Carl Kreuger of Key Allegro Development Co., and Charles Vermillion of Vermillion Construction Co.

There was discussion of the need for emergency dredging of entrance channel to Little Bay Recreational Area. Motion was made by Commissioner Fox, seconded by Commissioner Little, and vote carried unanimously, that a resolution be adopted. Contract awarded Loyd W. Richardson Company for lump sum amount of $10,000. Key Allegro Development Company has agreed to participate in the cost.

Protest made by the District to Channel Industries' proposal was withdrawn, as they have revised their plans for installation of pipe line so as their contemplated construction will no longer interfere with the District's proposed future channel from Fulton Harbor to intersect Gulf Itra-Coastal Waterway.

Re-application of the Centennial Association's request to sell beer on Navigation District property during the forthcoming Centennial Celebration in June was again unanimously denied.

Palm Harbor Belles

The Palm Harbor Belles met April 24 for a business meeting and discussion of their Centennial projects.

A committee consisting of Eva Whitfill, Metta Brown, Rose Wright and Helen Dupre was appointed by the president to plan a Poor Boy's Supper for the husbands of the Belles and guests.

The float committee appointed are Helen Crooks, Evie Waters, Judy Watts, Metta Brown and Ora Monzingo.

The next meeting will be announced.

SO-O-O-BIG. It took six German upholsterers two days to make this giant-sized armchair. Built at a cost of about $2,000, the big seat will be used as a display item at fairs and exhibitions.

Uncle Sam's Selective Service

Editor's Note: Below are questions now being asked at draft boards. The answers are by Col. Morris S. Schwartz, State Selective Service Director, 209 W. Ninth Street, Austin, Texas 78701. He will welcome your questions.

Q—My first cousin died. I'm trying to help settle his estate. May I see his draft records?

A—Not unless you've been appointed legal representative of the estate. If a man is deceased or incompetent, and no legal representative has been appointed, his next of kin may see his records, next of kin being limited to his widow, child, mother, father, brother, or sister.

Q—When I reached age 18, I was living in Washington state, so I registered with a draft board there. I now live in Texas and plan to live here permanently. May I have my registration moved from Washington state to the draft board nearest my present address here in Texas?

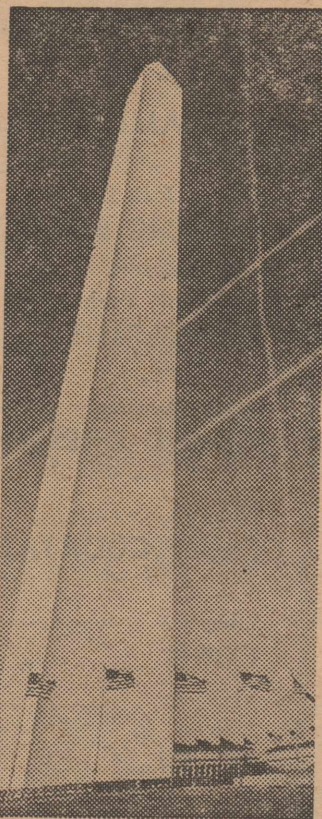

A—No. This is not authorized. Once you register and give your place-of-residence address in a particular state and area, the board which has jurisdiction over that area will always be the board which has jurisdiction over you. You can transfer to Texas to take a physical examination, and for other purposes, but the decisions must be made by your board in Washington.

Q—A friend of mine who is a citizen of another country plans to enter the United States for the first time next month. Since he's 37 years old, must he register at a draft board?

A—Yes. He was born after Sept. 14, 1925, so under authority of a 1951 presidential proclamation, he must register within six months of the day he enters the country.

The song, "Dixie," the rallying tune of Confederate soldiers, was written in the North.

Naturalist Misses Brown Pelicans

Edwin Way Teale, Trail Wood, Conn., noted naturalist, writer and Pulitzer winner, saw no brown pelicans when he arrived here this week for a month's visit—and he missed them.

"Rockport isn't the only place that no longer has brown pelicans," he said. "There simply aren't as many brown pelicans anywhere and the decrease in their population is mainly due to the use of such pesticides as DDT." "Pelicans eat fish affected by DDT and one result is that pelican eggs lack the strength to remain intact during the incubation period," Teale said. He added that DDT often causes sterility in birds.

Teale commented that it appeared to him there is less air pollution from area manufacturing plants today than there was at the time of his last visit here eight years ago. Teale won a Pulitzer prize in 1966 for his book, "Wandering Through Winter." This is one of four books he wrote on the four seasons in the United States, the others being "North with the Spring," "Journey Into Summer" and "Autumn Across America."

He and his wife, Nellie, traveled more than 100,000 miles gathering material for these books.

He is now working on his 26th book, "Springtime in Britain," which will be published in September and which will compare the natural history of the U. S. and Britain.

Teale paid tribute to 82-year-old Connie Hagar, saying she has made Rockport known to birders all over the country through her writings. The longest chapter in his "winter" book is about Connie, Rockport and the natural history of this area. His four "season" books are included in the White House Library.

Mis Junie Ledbetter, student at Southwest Texas University in San Marcos visited over the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerre Ledbetter. With Junie were Misses Joanna Ferguson, Dianne Pradt, and Nan White, of Pasadena, Glenda Henckell and Debbie Galyon of Houston, Connie Johnson of Austin, and Vanna Bulter of Snyder, also students at Southwest Texas.

Sometimes Experience Is Not Enough ELECT

OUR
DISTRICT 44

The incumbent representative argues that his seniority and experience make him deserving of reelection. This was also his platform two years ago. HAS THIS EXPERIENCE BENEFITED THE PEOPLE OF OUR DISTRICT? I do not believe that it has. I believe that our present representative has failed to provide effective leadership in solving problems facing our district and state. In order to solve these serious problems we must have legislators who are free to make independent decisions. Throughout my campaign I have consistently pledged one thing: I will not align myself with any one group in our district but will attempt to represent everyone as fairly and equitably as possible. I will do everything in my power to see that our citizens get a dollar's value for every tax dollar spent in government. I will strive to maintain an independent, open-minded, but aggressive approach in representing our district.

- Is a native of the 44th Legislative District
- Has a degree in History and Government from the University of Texas and has attended law school there for one year
- Understands the needs of our public school systems thru experience in teaching — teaches school in Aransas Pass

- Understands the needs of agriculture thru experience in ranch management
- Has worked throughout the state in attracting young people into CONSTRUCTIVE political and civic activities

Shrimp Landings Show Increase

Domestic landings of headless shrimp at Texas ports amounted to 2.1 million pounds valued at $2.2 million compared with 1.4 million pounds valued at $1.5 million in March 1969. Landings for the first quarter of 1970 totaled 5.3 million pounds valued at $5.4 million—slightly above the 5.1 million pounds valued at $4.4 million during the corresponding 1969 period. Landings at Brownsville-Port Isabel accounted for 53 percent of the State's total volume.

The following represents landings of headless shrimp for specified areas and periods:

Port Arthur-Sabine: Mar. 1970, 49,600 pounds; Jan.-Mar. 1970, 217,190; Jan.-Mar. 1969, 82,900.

Galveston-Seabrook: Mar. 1970, 153,600 pounds; Jan.-Mar. 1970, 332,600; Jan.-Mar. 1969, 167,900.

Freeport: Mar. 1970, 256,200 pounds; Jan.-Mar. 1970, 725,200; Jan.-Mar. 1969, 532,000.

Matagorda-Palacios: Mar. 1970, 22,600 pounds; Jan.-Mar. 1970, 52,000; Jan.-Mar. 1969, 87,900.

Port Lavaca-Port O'Connor-Seadrift: Mar. 1970, 108,800 pounds; Jan.-Mar. 1970, 197,300; Jan. Mar. 1969, 117,400.

Aransas Pass-Rockport: Mar. 1970, 388,000 pounds; Jan.-Mar. 1970, 1,130,500; Jan.-Mar. 1969, 1,148,500.

Brownsville-Port Isabel: Mar. 1970, 1,083,200 pounds; Jan.-Mar. 1970, 2,670,900; Jan.-Mar. 1969, 2,952,500.

Totals, Mar. 1970, 2,061,500 pounds; Jan.-Mar. 1970, 5,325,600; Jan.-Mar. 1969, 5,089,100.

Vessels working brown shrimp made broken trips from waters south of Louisiana to the high seas of Obregon Mexico. Catches ranged from 100-250 pounds per night in all areas. Fishing was considered poor in all major grounds throughout March. Large steel vessels remained at sea despite rough weather, whereas smaller wood vessels were forced to return to port.

White shrimp catches were restricted to 100-150 pounds per day and confined to areas adjacent to major passes. Vessels working pink shrimp on the distant Campeche grounds made trip averages of about 200 pounds per night. Poor fishing in this area for over 3 years has caused many vessels to abandon this heretofore profitable winter and spring fishing area. Brown shrimp catches from this area increased somewhat, however, additional fishing pressure accounts for most of this increase.

Oyster landings in March amounted to about 26,000 barrels, yielding 600,000 pounds of shucked meats. This was practically unchanged in volume from March 1969 landings. Fishermen received from $6.00-$8.00 per barrel for shell oysters.

Blue crab landings amounted to about 230,000 pounds in March or about equal to the previous month's volume. Crab catches were affected sharply by rough waters and cold temperatures. Fishermen received 8-9 cents per pound for live crabs.

Cold temperatures and north and northeast winds prevailed throughout March as during this period of 1969. The movement of larval shrimp into nursery areas along the coast is hampered to say the least, by constant low tides and the absence of inward currents.

Three large vessels made maiden voyages in March. One went down at sea but was recovered. One crewman was lost at sea.

Walter Hatley has been moved from the Intensive Care Unit to Room 993 at Spohn Hospital following surgery. He is reported doing satisfactorily.

Sailing News

With another windy week-end facing them, the Rockport Sailing Club Cal 25 fleet competed again April 25-26.

"Fancye" again came through with flying colors to place first in the race, followed by "Teal" for second place. Sunday's race was a reverse situation in the winners circle as "Teal" bounced back to overtake "Fancye" for first place, followed closely behind by "Havoc" for third place. The Cal 25 Spring Series will wind up their last two races probably this weekend.

The final race of the Spring Sunfish series was also held on Sunday afternoon for the Juniors and Women's Division. Ricky Morrison won first place, followed by Bill Smith, second and Charles Harris third. In the Women's race Martha Christian crossed the finish line first, followed second by Jeannette Morrison, with Caye Bailey third.

Fleet Captain Bill Christian called off the second race of the day due to extremely high winds and crowded conditions in the Little Bay area. We would like to bring to the attention of the various boat operators in the vicinity that due to high speeds in the Little Bay area, a number of accidents have happened during the Sunfish races.

Last Sunday, April 19, one of the teenage boys competing in the Men's Division was overturned by the wake of a fast moving boat charging up one of the channels. This resulted in the teenager suffering several broken ribs.

Again on this past Sunday, two children, ages 9 and 11, competing in the Junior Division, were hurled into the bulkhead by the wake from a fast moving boat heading towards the Key Allegro Marina. This boat charged through the sailing boats without any regard for the young sailors. The accident resulted in extensive damage to both sunfish and minor head injury to one of the children. Apparently these boat operators are not aware of the wake they are leaving behind them and the damage they are causing.

It is pointed out that the speed limit in the Little Bay area is five miles per hour and that violations of this law can result in a fine but this is not the matter we are pointing out; it is the safety of the children and adults in the smaller boats on the bay we do not want to wait for a serious accident to occur before something is done about it. When boating in this area, please be considerate of others, obey the speed limit and eliminate the possibility of a serious accident due to your carelessness.

Schindler has placed in the main hangar three panes available for rent: a Cessna 172, single engine; a J-3, single engine; and a Beach-Baron, twin engine.

As a convenience for visiting owners of private planes using the airport, three new Oldsmobile station wagons are available for rent.

A topflight aircraft mechanic has been employed and is on the job. He is Jack Johnson, who moved here from Laredo. He is an aircraft and engine licensed mechanic with an aircraft inspector license. Other airport employees are Ciro Myles, who takes care of gas and oil service for planes, and Joe Albert Slough, janitor and yard maintenance man.

Looking ahead, Schindler says he hopes the airport soon will have another large hangar with approximately 11,000 square feet of floor space. The County Commissioners Court recently voted to apply to the Federal Aviation Agency for a 50-50 grant for a new tie-down ramp.

An indication of the activity at the airport can be gained by the report that there were 1,186 landings and takeoffs there from May 15 to June 19 last year.

Things are looking up at Aransas County Airport, and Charles and Jeanie Schindler plan to do everything they can to make it the finest facility of its size in South Texas.

Sweepstakes

One hundred and eleven members of the Rockport-Fulton Fighting Pirate Band journeyed to Del Mar College Auditorium in Corpus Christi, Saturday for the U.I.L. Concert and Sight Reading Competition.

The Rockport - Fulton Pirate Band performed March Ponderosa by King, Music Makers by Reed, and Festive by Nehybel. The three judges in concert and the three judges in sight-reading all gave straight first divisions. The first division made in Marching Contest back in November means Sweepstakes for the Fighting Pirate Band.

Band Director Bob Massey and Bill Stephens were very proud of the band's performance and achievement of Sweepstakes. Many people from Rockport attended the contest to hear their band perform; this always makes a band feel good and appreciated.

Many thanks are due to the help of many people: Band parents, the school administration and faculty, Bill Traeger of the Horn Shop in Corpus Christi, Marion Busby, supervisor of Music in Corpus Christi, and Dick Kole, Del Mar Band Director. Their efforts and suggestions were greatly appreciated and were definitely partially responsible for all the success of the band this school year.

Above all, the fine 111 young ladies and gentlemen of Rockport-Fulton Fighting Pirate Band are to be congratulated for their hard, consistent, work, cooperation, determination, spirit and musicianship.

It is indeed a pleasure to be a part of this fine band and to work with them. They and all the bands of Rockport Fulton will present a Spring Concert Friday, May 8, in the High School auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

Proudly and respectfully submitted—Bob Massey, Band Director.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Case of the Outstretched Arm
Bookkeeper Jenkins, arriving at his place of employment one wintry morning, reached out for the knob on the front door. Unfortunately, the sidewalk on which he was standing was slick with ice. His foot slipped and down he went, suffering painful injuries.

Could he collect workmen's compensation? Was this an "on-the-job" accident? Jenkins argued that it was, because his outstretched arm had been across the property line, over the company's property, at the moment he slipped.

However the court denied his claim, noting that his feet had still been on the public sidewalk. The judge pointed out that it was his foot, not his arm, that did the slipping.

This case, although a close one, illustrates a common principle of almost all workmen's compensation laws. An employee is generally covered only while he is on the company's premises. Off the premises he is on his own.

Nevertheless, there are important exceptions. A workman may be covered off the premises too, if he is still somewhat under the company's "sphere of influence."

Thus, an employee who was hit by a car while on his way to lunch was held entitled to compensation, when it appeared that his lunch hour was paid for by the company. Under these circumstances, the court found him to be sufficiently "on the job" to be protected.

By the same token, in another icy sidewalk case, the victim did collect compensation because of two extra factors in the situation. First, the sidewalk was used almost exclusively by company employees. Second, the company was supposed to keep it free of ice.

These factors, said the court, brought the sidewalk area within the scope of the job, justifying protection for work-

Refugio Deanery Meeting Held

The seventy-first Deanery meeting was held here on April 17.

Sponsors were the Sacred Heart Altar Society of Rockport which selected, "For God and Country" as a motto and "Take Courage - Act" as the theme.

Msgr. Harold F. Palmer of Beeville called the meeting to order. Mrs. John R. Clark, president of the Sacred Heart Altar Society, gave a welcome and Mrs. J. H. Coward of Beeville gave a response.

The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Herbert Pivonka of Beeville in the absence of Mrs. Milton Clark of Sinton. Serving as delegate in Mrs. Clark's place was Mrs. Doris Herman of Beeville.

Following the business, Mrs. Coward, deanery president, gave a poetic history of the Deanery Council.

The deanery was organized in 1941 and pictures of deanery presidents were on display at the meeting. According to Mrs. Coward, the history was a project by Mrs. Frank W. Hartman, Sr. of Woodsboro.

Mrs. Hughes Moore of Refugio, diocesan president, stressed the importance of the Church Communities Commission. She also mentioned the necessity of appointing a new chairman of the Seminary Bursar since the loss of Mrs. C. T. Weir, chairman for many years who passed away on April 12.

Msgr. Robert Clark of Kingsville, diocesan moderator, gave a talk on the significance of the "Kiss of Peace, Peace Be With You." Urging all members of the Roman Catholic faith to come closer together, he said they should then reach out to all other religions.

Most Rev. Thomas J. Drury, Bishop of Corpus Christi, brought his usual timely message. Opening his address by giving thanks for the safe return of the astronauts.

He then discussed problems of world significance including poverty, abortion laws, euthanasia, contraceptives, sterilization, and drug addiction.

Following the close of the meeting, guests were served coffee, punch and colorful cookies by Mrs. Clark and Rockport members.

OPEN LETTER

To the Constituents Of the 44th District

MR. TOM WALKER

I read your advertisement in the local paper. You tell me that I should vote against the incumbent from the 44th District because he a member of a "special interest group"—an employee of Reynolds Metals Company. You also say that Reynolds is a fine company; therefore, just the employees are to be condemned for some reason that you do not state.

Mr. Wieting is also a member of a local church which is certainly a "special interest group". Do you also suggest that I vote against all such church members or members of all churches? Farmers are a "special interest group". Are they also ineligible to hold elective office? What members of the labor unions? They are a "special interest group". Shall we arbitrarily exclude them from public office? And what about the school teachers? They form a "special interest group". (You must remember them. I understand that you abandoned the classroom in midyear to make this race.) Are all the remaining members of this "special interest group" to be voted against? What about doctors, lawyers, engineers, realtors, service club members, P.T.A. members — all "special interest groups"? I guess you would not want me to vote for members of these groups either.

Really, Mr. Walker, condemning all of us that work at Reynolds, all 2500 of us, for being members of a "special interest group" that should not be permitted to hold public office is hardly fair. If all members of this "special interest group" holding public office were to resign, there would be a lot of vacancies in South Texas.

I think I shall join the "special interest group" that tries to extend the seniority of the incumbent in the 44th District and thus make our District a more effective and influential District in the Texas Legislature. I hope that many other "special interest group" members in District 44 will join this special group.

J. L. TOMLINSON

A present or past member of several of the above mentioned "special interest groups".

P.S. I'm sure Mr. Walker that you do not plan to join any "special interest group" after this election, right?
