COMMENT ON GIRARD;

It's A Raw Deal, Many Say

Executive, legislative, or judicial—no matter what branch of the government has the responsibility, most Snyder residents apparently feel that Soldier William S. Girard is getting a raw deal.

The U. S. Supreme Court yesterday cleared the way for Girard to be tried by a Japanese court for killing a Japanese woman. The high tribunal ruled, 8-0, that authority for the decision rested with the executive department, and the executive's decision already had been made.

According to a local survey conducted by The Daily News, most Snyder residents believe Girard should be tried by court martial, because he was in U. S. Military service and was on his post when the crime was committed.

Some of the comment locally included:

MILTON MAPES, V F W post commander: "As far as I'm concerned, it's a dirty deal for our Commander-in-Chief to turn a man over to a foreign nation for trial...in fact, it's worse than a dirty deal. There is many a man, including myself, suffering from wounds and inflictions we got during the war. We whipped them. Why should we appease them now?" Mapes reminded that the VFW, in state encampment, voted to censure the action.

HAROLD BENNETT, mayor: "I don't agree with the ruling. I think he should have a court martial, if I understand the case correctly. However, I think the Supreme Court was right in ruling that it is an administrative and congressional responsibility, and that the policy should be clarified."

[illegible] LARSON, American Legion post commander: "I don't know whether I speak for the Legion or not, but personally I think the executive branch of the government is usurping the rights of Congress...the Armed Forces, as directed by Congress as to what disciplinary action should be taken with servicemen. Girard was on duty, with signs on the fences, 'No Trespassing—Keep Out—Firing Range.' If he wanted people to take things off the firing range, he would have been subject to a court martial for not carrying out his assigned duties. I don't think Japan has the right to try our servicemen and deprive them of their legal rights."

J. W. PHILLIPS, hardware merchant and former city councilman: "I never thought they (the Supreme Court) would do it. I just believe our courts should try our own people."

ROBERT R. PATTERSON, state representative: "A constitution is a compact of a people, or a nation—a geographical area—and we cannot impose our constituion on the people of the lands where we send our military forces, except by complete subjection of those nations. I agree with the decision of the majority of eight members Court that Girard should be tried

Girard Not Fearful Of Japan Trial

CAMP WHITTINGTON, Japan (AP)—William Girard indicated today he doesn't dread a Japanese trial as much as members of his family back home in Ottawa, Ill.

Girard expressed confidence a Japanese court would acquit him on charges of causing the death of a Japanese woman on a military firing range.

The 21-year-old Army specialist issued a statement to newsmen a few hours after the U. S. Supreme Court upheld the American government's decision to turn him over to Japan for trial.

Asked whether he had any difference of opinion with his brother Louis, in Ottawa on the jurisdictional fight waged in the case, William replied: "I don't think so."

Later he added "my brother has never been in Japan and he doesn't think the way I do."

Girard was asked if he thought he needed any more help from his American lawyers.

He replied he didn't think so. "It looks to me like they've done all they can do."

Asked whether he thought the court fight to have him brought back to the United States was worthwhile, he said:

"Yes, with all them people back there fighting for me."

Then he added: "I was following orders from my brother. How I felt about it didn't make any difference."

Asked about the high court's ruling, Girard said he had "no comment on the way it went."

Girard told reporters "I am hoping to get a fair trial" in the Japanese court.

His Army legal adviser, Maj. Stanley Levin of Hollywood, Calif. was asked earlier if Girard expects a fair trial and gave this reply: "He might not put it just that way but you can say that."

At Maebashi, where Girard will be tried, Dist. Court Judge Juzo Kawachi announced he will open the trial Aug. 26. He said other sessions will be held Sept. 6, 13, 14 and Oct. 4.

Kawachi declared he will give the American GI a fair and fast trial and said he expected the proceedings to be completed in October.

Girard's prediction as to the outcome of the case was issued through Levin.

"It is our (Levin's and Girard's) belief," the Army lawyer said, "that the court will reach the conclusion that Specialist Girard was in performance of his duty and that it was a regrettable accident."

Girard has been indicted by the Japanese court on charges of "inflicting bodily injury resulting in (the) death" of Mrs. Naka Sakai, 46. He is accused of having fired an empty cartridge case from a grenade launcher that struck and killed the woman as she collected scrap metal on a firing range Jan. 30.

SPOT MUSE

INTEREST is growing here in doing something about improving things at the Snyder Cemetery, which has been in use here since 1890 and is run down in many ways. The Snyder Cemetery Committee is meeting regularly and now, discussing ways to raise funds to have work done at the cemetery. Members of the committee are Hugh Taylor, president; Harvey Shuler, secretary; Mrs. Allen Warren, treasurer; Mrs. H. L. Wren, and Mrs. W. R. Bell, Sr.

REMEMBER the picture the Daily News ran the other day of a four-legged turkey? Well, a Snyder resident, Mrs. Jessie May McClain, 701 Thirty-fifth Street has a three-winged chick. The chicken, which hatched about three months ago, is healthy. The extra wing, she said, is in the middle of the chick's back.

A SIGN on the Snyder police department bulletin board just outside the entrance to Corporation Court—"Don't complain. Think of all the times you violated the law and weren't caught—or weren't killed."

BOYS CAN come up with the most searching questions sometimes. One had a query for the Air Force Wednesday when more than 100 boys were conducted on a tour of Dyess Air Force Base at Abilene. Air Force men were showing the boys around in the ground training room. One of the items in the building was a huge chart showing the extensive fuel system of the B-47 Stratojet. After a thorough explanation of the system, one of the boys still had a question on something which had not been covered: "Does it use Ethyl or regular?"

Two Injured In Accident

Two men were injured at about 7:25 p.m. yesterday when their pickup overturned about five miles north of Snyder.

The accident occurred just north of the underpass on U. S. Highway 84.

The men, Ross Alfred Thomas, 36, of Lubbock, and Guy Richardson, about 60, of Big Spring, were taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital by Bolger ambulance.

Jim Kinser, highway patrolman who investigated, said Thomas driving the pickup owned by Dorothy May Mattress Co. of Lubbock. The pickup, loaded with mattresses, overturned twice when it got off the pavement and onto the shoulder of the highway.

Thomas suffered chest injuries, Richardson head injuries.

Operations Resumed

NEW YORK (AP) — Operations were resumed today at a bank and office building next door to the New York Stock Exchange where a fire and explosion yesterday killed one person and injured three.

Lower Down Payments Approved For Homes

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today signed a housing bill authorizing lower down payments on FHA-insured homes and making an additional $1,990,000,000 available for various housing programs.

In approving the measure, however, Eisenhower said that "unfortunately" it contains a number of very serious defects." He called for appeal of some provisions at the next session of Congress.

He noted that the sum made available for housing programs is "more than double the amounts requested for these programs."

"Accordingly, I have given instructions to limit the use of the new authority provided by this act during the fiscal year 1958 (which started July 1) to amounts consistent with the over-all budget program," he said.

Eisenhower's January budget proposal called for only $1,025,000,000.

The bill's provision for lower down payments on housing carrying FHA-guaranteed mortgages is only permissive, and there was no indication in the presidential statement that Eisenhower was taking any action to put them into effect.

The National Assn. of Home Builders had asked the President to give FHA orders on that point.

The lower down payments made possible by the bill are a minimum of 3 per cent on the first $10,000 of appraised value, 15 per cent on the $10,000-to-$16,000 segment, and 30 per cent above that.

The present law requires at least 5 per cent on the first $9,000, and 25 per cent above that. Thus the down payment on a $15,000 home could be cut from $1,950 to $1,050.

The $1,990,000,000 carried in the bill is new obligational authority for housing that the Treasury might have to meet. Experts in the Housing and Home Finance Agency say that actually it will provide $1,675,000,000 of new funds for housing construction.

The discrepancy comes in the funds for secondary market mortgage purchases by the Federal National Mortgage Assn. These purchases provide lending agencies with new funds to enable home building to continue even when private sources have dried up.

The bill increases the capital stock of FNMA by 65 million dollars, stock of which is subscribed by the Treasury.

However, FNMA is able to buy $10 of mortgages for each $1 of capital stock, so the bill actually will increase its mortgage purchase authority by 650 million.

The measure carries 900 million dollars in Treasury backstop money for FNMA. This means the agency could draw on the Treasury for that amount to buy mortgages if it cannot for the moment raise money in the usual way through sale of private debentures.

Thus the total impact of the bill on the Treasury could be 965 million—the 900 million backstop plus the 65 million of new capital stock.

Dems Will Permit Civil Rights Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Southern Democratic senators tentatively agreed today to permit a vote the middle of the next week on a motion to take up formally the controversial civil rights bill.

Their spokesman, Sen. Russell (D-Ga), said he was authorized to work out details with Republican Leader Knowland (Calif.), sponsor of the motion, and Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex).

Earlier Johnson told newsmen he hoped agreement could be reached by all sides for a vote either late Tuesday or early Wednesday.

Johnson said he thinks 20 additional senators want to speak before the question of taking up the civil rights bill can be brought to a vote in the Senate. He said he hopes such a vote can be reached Tuesday or Wednesday.

Johnson evidently expects the Senate to vote by about 2-1 in favor of the motion by Knowland to call up the bill.

"We're not trying to delay or procrastinate in this situation," he said.

Russell told reporters "there is no possibility of a vote on Sen. Knowland's motion before Tuesday." He added, "I'd prefer to delay it until Wednesday, or even Thursday."

Knowland had said before a conference at the White House with President Eisenhower that he favored a vote early in the week—by either Monday or Tuesday.

Knowland left the White House without seeing reporters. Later, however, he told newsmen on Capitol Hill there is no change in the administration's position on the civil rights bill.

"Their recommendations are still their recommendations," he said. "They have never taken the position, however, that there should not be any clarifying amendments."

Some congressional Democrats, including Rep. Celler (D-NY) and Sen. McNamara (D-Mich), have contended Eisenhower is wavering in support of the bill which the House passed last month. Asked if this is true, Knowland replied: "No."

"There are going to be no amendments agreed to," nor any negotiations or agreements looking toward amendments "until after the bill becomes the pending business in the Senate," Knowland said.

Nearly all Southern Democrats attended the 45-minute meeting in Russell's office.

"We felt we have been fully justified in our debate on the motion to take up," Russell said. "This bill has pursued a very unusual course. There is no committee report on it. We feel justified in putting into the Senate record, at least, an analysis of this bill.

AFTER ROBBERY

Troubles Begin For Salesman

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A 27-year old man robbed a downtown bank of $1,785 and got out with it yesterday, but then his troubles began.

He was chased by bankers citizens and police officers, creating quite a commotion among afternoon shoppers. He frightened the posse off once with the plastic pistol, but failed in an attempt to board a bus when the unidentified driver slammed the door in his face.

Patrolman Herald Ward and Deputy Sheriff Jack Middleton finally collared the man in a five and dime store basement. He had escaped his pursuers and was discussing purchase of a pair of pants with a clerk.

Dan Moody Jones, 27, identified as a New Orleans auto salesman, was charged before U.S. Commissioner Billy Costa with violation of the federal bank robbery statute and was jailed in lieu of $5,000 bond.

"I've got no relatives or friends in the world and don't need any," he said. "There's no use in all these questions. I'm guilty. I admit it. Lock me up and leave me alone."

Ward and Middleton found $1,785 in a paper bag on the man when they caught him and discovered a toy pistol stuck in his belt.

"It's a toy pistol and I'm the man," he said as the officers put handcuffs on him.

Jones declined to talk much about his past, but said he arrived in Houston Wednesday, registered at a downtown hoted and impulsively decided to rob a bank.

He walked into the Bank of Texas [illegible] before [illegible] time and up to Mrs. Virginia Murphy's window.

Mrs. Murphy said he handed her a note saying: "Put the money in the bag and be quiet. There is a gun under this coat."

'I No Say That' Former Czech Claims

HOUSTON (AP)—"I no say that," a Czech-born Texan said last night of a Communist propaganda story which quoted him as saying he wanted to go back and live in Czechoslovakia.

"I no say that," Joe Zvolanek, 73, a shoe repairman from Temple, told reporters. "This country best in world. No one can find a better country in world."

Zvolanek arrived here by air from New York after a month's business and pleasure trip to Czechoslovakia. It was his first trip there in 25 years. He planned to drive to Temple today.

He was met here by his son, Joe Zvolanek Jr., 38, who helps his father operate the shoe repair business. Young Joe insisted that while his father's English is a bit imperfect, his patriotism isn't.

The elder Zvolanek said there were "too many reporters" in Czechoslovakia, and they must have misunderstood him. He said he actually told reporters in Prague only that he might come back for a visit again some time.

The Czech News Agency in Prague claimed yesterday several Czech-born Texans had returned for visits and then decided that their homeland was so alluring the visits should be made permanent.

A Jos Zvolanek was, among those listed and he was quoted as saying:

"I like it here (in Czechoslovakia) so much that I shall only settle my affairs in America and return in the spring for good."

Zvolanek said he came to the United States in 1909 and became naturalized a little later. He said he had been operating the shoe repair business in Temple for more than 40 years.

He said he made previous trips to his homeland in 1921 and 1932.

This time, he said, he went to see his sister, Mrs. Annie Debecek, 80, a retired school teacher, and to try to settle a small estate.

He said his family owned a house worth about $10,000 and that he tried to transfer its title to his sister. He was unable to settle the estate because of government red tape.

Asked what he thought of life in Czechoslovakia, Zvolanek shrugged and said, "People work they make good living."

He said Czechs are "natural people" and that Czechoslovakia is a "free country, not owned by Russia."

The Czech News Agency also named Mrs. Puzena Prochazkova of Crosby, Tex., and a person identified as Frantisek Randuch as sharing purported desires to move back to their native lands. Neither could be located.

Sections Of State Hit By Light Rain

By The Associated Press

Light showers hit the southern and western tips of Texas Thursday night and more were forecast Friday.

El Paso and Salt Flat each had a trace of rain Thursday night and Brownsville had .10 of an inch. Rain continued at El Paso at midnight, but no other fall was reported Friday.

Partly cloudy skies with scattered showers was forecast for all of Texas.

Light rains earlier Thursday lolled Brownsville and Kingsville.

Highs ranged from 105 degrees at Presidio to 90 at Alpine and Corpus Christi Thufsday.

Friday's dawn readings were mostly in the 70s.

More collar-wilting weather was the unwelcome outlook for most of the nation today.

Hottest weather of the season clung to many areas and high humidity added to the discomfort. Some temporary relief came in the form of showers to some sections.

Temperatures were around normal levels in a few areas—the Pacific Northwest, Michigan's Upper Peninsula and the extreme northeastern section of the country.

Readings in the 70s and 80s extended from the eastern slopes of the Rockies to the Appalachians except for some 60s in the Great Lakes region and upper Mississippi Valley.

Fair weather prevailed in most areas east of the Rockies. The few thunderstorms reported in this broad expanse brought only light rainfall and afforded little or no relief from the heat.

Patrol Car In Accident

A non-injury automobile accident here early yesterday afternoon did extensive damages to the two vehicles involved, one of which was a city police patrol car.

A. E. Crowley, city police patrolman, was driving east on Twenty-sixth Street in the patrol car at the Avenue W intersection when it was involved in collision with a 1955 DeSoto driven by Mrs. Guy L. Sullivan, 203 Thirty-third Street.

The patrol car is a 1957 Chevrolet.

Damages to the two vehicles were estimated to total several hundred dollars. The police car had to be towed away from the scene, but the other vehicle was driven away.

The accident was investigated by officers of the county sheriff's department at the request of the police department.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moore. Moore, 47, is a brother of Sen. William Moore of Bryan.

They were convicted of evading income taxes during 1950-52. The couple filed returns showing a total net income of $24,672, on which they paid $3,161 in taxes. The government claims their net income during the three-year period was $74,305, on which they should have paid $20,232.

Discharge Of City Officials Sought

SHERMAN (AP) — Mayor V. L. Tuck asked yesterday for the discharge of the city manager and city tax assessor-collector, saying they were behind the increase in property valuations for some 2,300 property owners.

Tuck placed an ad in the Sherman Democrat saying Thomas Landrum, city tax assessor-collector, boosted valuations arbitrarily. He also blamed City Manager Robert Brown.

Tuck said he could not fire the two unless at least two other councilmen concurred and asked all four councilmen to stand up and be counted. The councilmen, Lewis Hall, C. W. Scharer, Frank Westbrook and Pat Wright, did not reply at once.

Pictures Cause Courtroom Row

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A bitter controversy exploded in U. S. District Court today over pictures taken by Time and Life magazine photographers of the Clinton desegregation disturbances last fall.

Defense attorneys, questioning a photographer, said: "They (the magazines) slanted their pictures to lower and degrade these people."

Grover S. McLeod of Birmingham, Ala., the defense lawyer, gestured toward the 15 Tennesseeans and John Kasper. They are on trial for alleged criminal contempt of court.

The witness was A. Y. Owen, 41, a free-lance photographer from Oklahoma City. He said he is employed by Time and Life.

When McLeod made the statement about the pictures, U. S. Dist. Atty. John C. Crawford Jr. jumped to his feet, shouting objections.

Judge Robert L. Taylor sustained him.

The defense contended that the photographers showed the defendants in an unfair light during the disturbances last Nov. 29 and 30.

The government introduced the pictures in evidence to identify some of the 15 defendants.

The outburst came as Crawford moved into the heart of the case—the government's effort to prove conspiracy between Kasper and the "Clinton 15."

A few minutes earlier, in an effort to speed up the trial, both government and defense attorneys had agreed not to call scores of news media representatives to testify.

Crawford prepared to move directly to the heart of the case—whether the 15 Tennessee men and women defendants conspired with Northern segregationist John Kasper to flout the injunction.

"We are getting to the "acting in concert" part of the story now," Crawford said.

in a Japanese court for his crime against the people of Japan."

BOB TAYLOR, department store manager: "I think Girard was out of line, but I still feel the United States should do its own trying and not turn him over to Japan."

RAY HOUPT, insurance agent: "I think trial by a Japanese court violates Girard's constitutional rights, but I also think he certainly is guilty against the Japanese state. If the situation were reversed and a Japanese boy killed an American woman on American soil, we certainly would want to try him in an American court."

A RESERVE OFFICER, who asked to remain anonymous: "The Girard decision is distressing for several reasons, over and above the International and diplomatic considerations. Drafted American boys who may be ordered to foreign countries are subject to extortion and black mail and honest ignorance of their laws. When apprehended by a foreign government, and lacking in money and friends, these boys are helpless. It appears that the Armed Services must engage upon an extensive educational program immediately and that our government should make some provision to supply immediate protective services to our personnel, pending any legislative action to correct the deficiencies shown up by the Girard case."

JAMES ROSSER, attorney: "I have no legal opinion, but my personal opinion is that Girard had no choice in getting into the Army, by virtue of his military obligation." He added that what has happened so far to Girard is not compatible with his rights as an American citizen.

Mock Attack On State Is Slated Today

By The Associated Press

Texans were warned Thursday against a simulated peril of attack by mock enemy planes.

Warning of a hypothetical bombing was sounded at 10:02 a.m. and residents of the state were told the make-believe bombers would strike within four hours.

This was the start of Operation Alert, testing adequacy of civil defense and mobilization plans in plans in case of any real onslaught.

Word was flashed from the Central Warning Office of the Federal Civil Defense Administration in Colorado Springs that the "bombers" of a supposed enemy had been sighted over Alaska and Canada.

The alert was sounded in a nationwide exercise.

At the outset, the cities or other points facing theoretical death and destruction—presumably from nuclear weapons if this had been the real thing—were not known, at least to the man in the street.

State and federal civil defense authorities had admitted in advance, however, that the test would be carried out with a presumption of bombs falling on possibly a dozen or more presumed targets.

Texas' share of the mock alert was being directed from a civil defense control center known to be in the vicinity of Austin. Also taking part was the Region 5 FCDA headquarters at Denton.

Texas Tech Will Offer Book Reviewing Course

LUBBOCK — Women who long have wanted professional help in preparing book reviews will have such an opportunity July 22-24 at Texas Tech.

Miss Evelyn Oppenheimer of Dallas will conduct an intensive short course on that subject under sponsorship of the Tech Adult Education Program.

The course is thought to be one of the first of its kind ever offered by an American college or university.

For 18 years, Miss Oppenheimer has been known as an outstanding professional book reviewer and critic-commentator on leeturing and radio and later, onis cre deitiiwd radio and later, on television.

She is creditied with originating the public review lecture in the Southwest and currently is sponsored in a regular book review series over KIXL Radio in Dallas.

"When a person tells you that your review was so wonderful that it's not necessary now to read the book, you have not received a compliment," Miss Oppenheimer declared. "Instead you have failed completely as a book reviewer. Story tellers are authors, not reviewers.

She also pointed out that "Memorized readings with gestures are not book reviews."

In the Tech course, Miss Oppenheimer will stress proper preparation and techniques for women who want to give book reviews for their clubs and other local organizations.

The study of book reviewing will be the first of three summer workshops which the Tech Adult Education Program will give for leaders and members of community groups.

Others will be July 25-57 on new television, films, and recordings —and July 29-Aug. 2 on ways to analyze forces at work in American communities.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS

News Sports Editor

(Ed. Note—Glen Cavitt, Daily News advertising man and all around sports enthusiast is taking over for Sports Editor Buck Francis today. Buck is on vacation.

Two more of our Snyder High School boys have signed scholarships for a berth on a college team. Tommy Prichard and Joe Reaves signed a baseball scholarship with Jeattie Feather, baseball coach of Texas Tech. I believe that Tech is getting a pair of top performers in these two boys. I am looking forward to hearing some good reports from them next baseball season.

Taking sports in general, I think that Snyder will have an upcoming team each year. I place this on the excellent sports program that is carried on the year around. In each sports respective season Snyder has coaches working with each age group and giving their best to teach sports and what it really means to the individual. By teaching the small tots from the very first they are inclined to improve faster and develop into better athletics. Take the Little League for instance. Men take their time and effort to coach and teach these small boys to play the best game that they can. When these boys get older and play Pony League I feel that they will be better qualified to play high school.

About 350 boys are now engaged in Pony and Little league. From this, Snyder High School should get a well rounded out ball club. This is true in Football, Basketball and track as well as baseball.

I also want to put in a plug for the old boy that sits on the bench. He doesn't get any praise except that from himself by just loving the game and enjoyment from it. I don't mean this from the coaches' view point who knows that these boys are very important. This boy usually really loves the game.

A very important game is on tap in the City League Saturday night betwee Sun Oil and Hermleigh. The winner of this game will play Snyder Furniture for the first place berth the first half of the season. Come on out and see some good baseball played between these two teams.

Thanks buck for the opportunity of sitting in for you. Have a good vacation.

Eighth Inning Run Gets Cardinal Win

It took an extra inning to do it, but the Hermleigh Cardinals last night edged out the Ira Yankees 6-5 to move a little closer to a fourth place spot in the Pony League.

Only one game was played, and it went eight innings.

The Cardinals won in the bottom of the eighth when Ronnie Young singled with the bases loaded to bring in Jimmy Robinson.

The game started off with Ira scoring twice in the first. In the second, Hermleigh came across with two runs.

Hermleigh tied it up in the fourth with one run which came on a double by Cooper, scoring Leon Browning, who had also doubled. Aside from those, there was only one other extra base hit in the game, a double by Hermleigh's Ken Bell in the third.

In the fifth, Hermleigh got a run ahead when Orville Paty was singled in by James Vernon. Ira came back in the top of the sixth with a run scored by T. Sterling on an error, but Hermleigh moved out again in the bottom of the frame when Paty singled Robinson home.

Ira got the tie back in the seventh, with Donnie Dove's single driving Bill Murphy home. Hermleigh got two on base in that inning but was held scoreless when Ira hurled Stanley Kruse pitched three strikeouts.

The winner was Paty, who hurled the whole game to give up six hits, two walks, and strike out nine. Kruse, as lower, put up quite a battle. He allowed 13 hits but struck out 13. He gave up three walks.

Lulu Perez To Meet Harold Gomes Tonite

CLEVELAND (AP)—If he can beat featherweight Harold Gomes in their 10-round lightweight battle tonight, Lulu Perez says he will be on his way toward the lightweight title.

"I win my last two starts in a breeze," said the peppery Perez," and if I win this one I'll be startin' a drive toward the light title.

"There's not much to beat. With champion Joe Brown still clever enough but growin' old and...well, you name another real classy one. I can't."

DALLAS (AP)—Sectional qualifying for the National Public Links Golf Tournament started at Tenison course today with 27 amateurs seeking three spots.

19 Lettermen Returning To SMU In Fall

DALLAS (AP)—SMU comes up this fall with a new coach, 19 lettermen and a thinness in the line.

Backfieldwise the Mustangs should be all right but only two regulars in the forward wall are back. They missed spring training because of injuries.

Bill Meek comes from University of Houston to pick up the sagging gridiron fortunes of SMU, which hasn't won a Southwest Conference championship in almost 10 years.

There are 19 lettermen but 11 of them are backs.

Charlie Arnold, a standout last fall until he suffered an injured kidney in the Baylor game, was in a hospital for several weeks, missed spring drills and it is doubtful if he will be able to play.

Otherwise, there are some fine backs on the string. Larry Click, Billy Dunn and David Musslewhite are back at quarterback. Click understudied Arnold last fall but also was injured in the Baylor game and couldn't work in spring training. He is expected to be back in good condition this fall, however.

Charlie Jackson, a talented runner; Dan Bowden, Lon Slaughter and Frank Smith are letterman halfbacks with Ray Masters, Wayne Slankard and Hal Bittenbender at fullback.

The regulars returning in the line are end Willard Dewveall and guard Tom Koenig. Both missed spring training because of injuries. Other line lettermen are Carlisle Robinson and Boyd Waggoner, ends; Jerry Cornelison, tackle; Garry Weber, guard, and Lou Farris and Raleigh Harvey, centers.

Fight Heats Up Race For Flag

By ED WILKS

Think that was a torrid first half of the season in the National League? Well, you ain't seen nothin' yet, pal, what with a player feud, a couple of no-hit bids and injuries to key players popping up in the breakaway for the final run to the pennant.

Taking the happenings one at a time.

1. Cincinnati's Don Hoak vowed "I'll get that Neal before this series is over, either on or off the field," while still riled up after being tagged with an "ambush" right hand from Brooklyn's Charlie Neal in the second of two fights last night at Ebbets Field. The Dodgers won it 5-4 on the second of Duke Snider's pair of two-run homers after Brooklyn's Jim Gilliam and Cincinnati's Raul Sanchez set off a big seventh-inning brawl when Gilliam was lowbridged by a Sanchez pitch.

2. After Chicago's Bob Rush had no-hit Philadelphia for seven innings only to lose 1-0 in 11 innings, rookie Jack Sanford set down the Cubs with 7 1-3 innings of perfect ball for his 11th victory, 3-1, and a twi-night sweep that hoisted Philadelphia into second place. The Phils, however, again lost catcher Stan Lopata, this time with a wrenched knee.

3. Milwaukee, slipping from second to third (one percentage point behind the Phillies) despite a 7-2 victory at Pittsburgh, lost shortstop Felix Mantilla and center fielder Billy Bruton in a fielding collision.

4. Southpaw Johnny Antonelli five-hit St. Louis to win 1-0 as the New York Giants shaved the Cardinals' first-place edge to two games and ended their winning streak at five games.

In the "drab" American League Mickey Mantle's 23rd home run gave the first-place New York Yankees a 3-2, 11-inning victory at Kansas City and a 3½-game lead over Chicago's White Sox, beaten 6-5 by Washington. Third-place Boston went 10 innings to beat Detroit 9-7. Baltimore jumped from sixth to fourth with a pair of 5-4 decisions over Cleveland, the first in 11 innings.

Snider's clouts twice brought the Brooks from behind. The first came in a three-run fourth that chased starter Brooks Lawrence. The other was off Tom Acker, who lost it after replacing Sanchez—booted out of the game along with Neal, Gilliam and Hoak. Roger Craig won it in relief.

A leadoff single by Chico Fernandez in the eighth got the Phils going against Rush, and they finished with five hits, scoring on singles by Harvey Haddix, Richie Ashburn and Gran Hamner in the payoff 11th. Haddix won his eighth.

Sanford, now the NL's top winner with an 11-2 record, finished with a four-hitter after Dale Long's broken bat single in the nightcap eighth. A two-run double by Harry Anderson and a homer by Joe Lonnett, Lopata's stand-in, beat Don Elston.

Johnny Logan, who replaced Mantilla, drove in three runs for the Braves, capping a four-run fourth against loser Bob Friend (6-10) with a two-run homer. Bob Trowbridge gained his first complete game.

A sixth-inning home run by rookie Valmy Thomas won the Giants, breaking up a double two-hit shutout duel between Antonelli, now 8-7, and bonus whiz Lindy McDaniel (8-5).

Yogi Berra's seventh-inning homer gave the Yankees a 1-all tie and Harry Simpson, late of the A's, singled home the run that made it 2-2 in the ninth to set up Mantle's swat.

Two walks and an error loaded the bases and made Rocky Bridges' single good for two ninth-inning runs off reliever Paul LaPalme for Washington's victory. Boston made it on Gene Stephens' single and Jim Piersall's sacrifice fly after a walk and two errors by losing Tiger reliever Lou Sleater.

The Orioles combined singles by Bob Nieman, Gus Triandos and Jim Busby with a wild pitch by loser Cal McLish for their two runs in the first-game 11th inning. Starter Ray Narleski and McLish had given the Birds only two hits for 10 frames—Nieman's two-run homer and an RBI single by Ray Moore, who was relieved by winner Ken Lehman in the seventh.

Baltimore tagged just three hits—one Al Pilarcik's homer — off Bob Lemon while scoring five runs in the first three innings of the nightcap, getting help from two walks, two hit batsmen and a double steal that scored a run.

SAYS HUTCHISON

Tight Race Is Expected

NEW YORK (AP)—His St. Louis Cardinals may be in position to crack the National League log jam wide open, but Manager Fred Hutchinson doesn't think they will. Fact is, he doesn't think any club will.

"This race is going to be tight all the way," he said today as the Redbirds in first place by two games, waited for a night game with the New York Giants. "There are five clubs who could win it, but nobody's strong enough to run away with it."

Hutchinson was disappointed at the way his Cards were set down by Johnny Antonelli and the sixth-place Giants 1-0 yesterday in the opener of a 13-game trip through the East. The loss junked a five-game winning string.

The Cards, have been shut out only three times this season and the Giants have done it twice.

"That Antonelli stuck the bats in our hip pockets," said Hutch in disgust. "He's good, but we've gotten him out of there before even after he's had a four-or five-run lead."

Antonelli, agreed he's never had it easy with the Cardinals.

"I've always had trouble with them for some reason," he said. "Seems funny, a left-hander saying that. Left-handers are supposed to have it made against that club. But they've got a lot of right-hander hitters now."

Anty, only 9-12 lifetime against St. Louis, dueled on even terms with Lindy McDaniel through five innings. Each had a two-hit shutout when Rookie Valmy Thomas slapped his third home run of the season against the upper deck in left field in the sixth inning.

Hermleigh Football Field Being Repaired

HERMLEIGH (Spl.) — Repairs are now underway on the lighting at the high school football field here.

Two of the poles were broken by ice, the other two by high winds.

AFTER SCRAPS

Baseball Feud Is Brewing

BROOKLYN (AP)—A bitter feud was brewing between the Cincinnati Redlegs and the Brooklyn Dodgers today as the result of two scraps last night.

Brooklyn's Junior Gilliam and Cincinnati's Raul Sanchez squared off for the first of two fights which brought players from both teams running to either get into a fight or attempt to make peace.

The second fight involved the Dodgers' Charlie Neal and the Redlegs' Don Hoak, a former Brooklyn player.

And when peace had been restored, the four players ejected from the game, and Duke Snider had hit his second home run for a 4-5 Brooklyn victory there came the charges and countercharges.

"I'll get that Neal before the series is over, either on or off the field," said Hoak. "I was hit from ambush, when I wasn't looking."

Neal said he entered the melee to protect Gilliam, who, was Sanchez, collided on the first baseline as the Brooklyn second baseman's attempted drag bunt popped foul.

"Every Brooklyn pitcher has orders to dust off a batter when the count is two strikes and no balls," said Manager Birdie Tebbetts of the Redlegs.

This Manager Walt Alston of the Dodgers promptly denied with the retort: "Ask my pitchers."

Tebbetts claimed Gilliam first tried to get the Cincinnati rookie right-hander in a disputed play at first earlier in the game. Sanchez sent Gilliam sprawling on the ground with a pitch before the Dodger infielder attempted his drag bunt.

Some players said the bad blood started in Cincinnati on Brooklyn's recent Western trip when Sanchez knocked down Roy Campanella.

The Brooklyn catcher didn't say yes or no but informed a dressing room crowd that "I can take care of myself in a fight."

Nobody was injured, but Gilliam, according to Campanella, got in several good blows on Sanchez before peace makers intervened. Neal probably got in the best blow of the two fights when he caught Hoak with a right.

The Cincinnati third baseman was so incensed that he had to be restrained from attempting to take on the entire Brooklyn bench.

Experience May Help Rice Owls

HOUSTON (AP)—Rice hopes its added experience over last year will reverse the close ones and if so the Owls could be in the thick of the Southwest Conference football race.

If Rice had won a few of the "go either way" games it would have had a 7-3 record instead of 4-6.

The Owls are more experienced and give promise of a tougher defense. There are 20 lettermen—five more than last year — and since most of those who did the playing in 1956 return there's bound to be more savvy on the squad.

The gain in experience is most noticeable from tackle to tackle where there are nine "R" men. There is no appreciable change in the squad relative to size and speed except that Bill Bucek and Gordon Speer, moving up from the freshmen, are unusually fleet youngsters, and Don Gillis, 230-pound center, returns after laying out a year because he was ineligible.

Rice moved the ball well last season, showing a 325-yard per game offense, and with veteran quarterbacks King Hill and Frank Ryan and sophomore star Larry Dueitt on hand, plus a corps of running threats in Ray Chilton, Bobby Williams, Speer, Bucek, Ken Williams, et al, there is no reason to xpect that the offense will fall off this season. There still is the top pass-receiving threat presented by end Buddy Dial.

The Owls have their best punting prospects in years with squadman Pat Bailey due to bypass a couple of lettermen for a starting right halfback role. Hill and Ryan are good punters and Speer, Dueitt and Bucek also can kick that ball, both in punting and extra points.

Anchoring the line again will be tackle Larry Whitmire, Matt Gorges at guard and Dial at end.

Ryan appears to be the No. 1 quarterback but could find it difficult to take over the man-under spot from Hill and Dueitt.

Monmouth Park racetrack at Oceanport, N. J., has a parking area that holds 18,000 automobiles.

Fertile Territory

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Bob Feller says he believes Los Angeles would be the most fertile baseball territory in the nation, if a Major League club moved here.

Coaching Clinic Is Getting Big

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

In 25 days another football season will be with us. They won't be playing; they won't even be working out. But the huge Texas coaching school will be going on in Dallas and that's the start of football.

The clinic has grown so big a fellow can't see all of it. Last year at Lubbock 2,001 coaches attended.

From Aug. 5 to Aug. 9 the coaches will hear the latest tactics in football and basketball. Aug. 8 they'll watch two schoolboy squads play a basketball game in SMU's new, air-conditioned coliseum. Prospects are good for an all-time record attendance because this place can accomodate them and let the spectators remain cool at the same time. The previous high mark was 5,931 at Lubbock last year.

Aug. 9 comes the all-star football game, in which squads of 28 schoolboy stars play in the Cotton Bowl.

Football instructors are coaches of the nation's No. 1 and 2 teams of last fall. Bud Wilkinson, whose Oklahoma Sooners have won 40 straight games, will make a return appearance. Bud tells about the split T.

Bowden Wyatt, who became known to the Southwest when he coached Arkansas to the conference championship in 1954, will be the other football instructor. He went to Tennessee in 1955 and last year produced the nation's No. 2 team. It took a licking from Baylor in the Sugar Bowl, however.

Wyatt is one of the few exponents of the single wing left in football.

Basketball instructors will be Hank IBA, who produced two national champions at Oklahoma A&M, and Milton Jowers, coach of Southwest Texas State. IBA teaches ball control, a type of basketball that isn't too colorful but is effective in winning. Jowers is the exponent of shoot and run.

Credit Group To Be Formed Here

Snyder businessmen are now in the process of organizing the Snyder Businessmen's Credit Association.

The new organization, which is now in the process of drawing up a constitution, has a purpose of better acquainting merchants on credit sales and to help merchants to work closely together in improving customer relations.

The organization will work closely with the Retail Merchants Association here, and members of the new credit organization must be members of Retail Merchants.

The group meets each Monday at noon at the Village Restaurant and has invited other businessmen to attend.

The committee working on the constitution is composed of Darrell Tramel, Joe Williamson, Mrs. Victor Baze, and Mrs. Thelma Ross.

The constitution is being patterned after that of a similar group in Lubbock.

Pupils Know Meaning Of 'AP' Symbol

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—The Associated Press provided at least one refreshing breathing spell for thousands of New York high school pupils in a recent regents examination.

According to a spot check, the University of the State of New York said today more than 90 per cent of 60,000 youngsters who took history examinations answered correctly a question involving The Associated Press.

The question asked the meaning of the symbol "AP" at the beginning of a news item. The correct answer was that the item was furnished by a news-gathering agency.

The alternative—and incorrect—replies to the question were that the news item was: approved by the government before its release; had appeared in an earlier edition; was written exlusively for the paper in which it appeared.

Peter Muirhead, chief of the University's Bureau of Examinations and Tests, said 90 per cent was a very high percentage of correct answers to any basic question.

"It certainly shows that the young people of New York know what the symbol AP means," Muirhead said.

Negro Deacon Is Arrested

OKEMAH, Okla. (AP)—Okfuskee County officers today held a 64-year-old Negro church deacon, accused of burning a Negro school near Paden in an attempt to force integration.

Jailed was Eli Watkins, identified as a farmer, church deacon and respected member of the Negro community.

Sheriff E. L. Jeter said Watkins was being held in connection with a $7,000 fire Sunday night which destroyed a school 2 miles east of Paden.

Jeter said Watkins signed a statement late yesterday saying he wanted the eight-pupil Negro school integrated with Paden white schools.

The sheriff said charges have not yet been filed.

Postal Carrier Is Spurred By Rooster

DALLAS (AP)—A note from the Beaumont postmaster to Regional Postal Safety Director Harold Packard read:

"Morris A. Johnson, 25, a carrier, was temporarily sidelined when he was spurred by a rooster. The carrier noticed the rooster when he went to deliver the mail, but he was unaware that the rooster was of a fighting nature."

Killed In Collision

NOCONA, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. J. J. Garner, 40, was killed yesterday in a car-truck collision.

Old-Style Duel Held

MAEBASHI, Japan (AP) — Police said brother killed brother last night in a medieval-style duel at Annaka near Maebashi.

Officers gave this account:

Kunio Koitabashi, 42, an innkeeper, fought with his unemployed brother, Kiyoshi, 32, each armed with an ancient six-foot spear.

Kiyoshi stabbed Kunio in the neck. The five-inch spearhead, mounted on a long shaft, pierced the jugular vein and Kunio bled to death.

Kiyoshi, who was jailed, told police the quarrel started when he returned home and found his brother berating their 66-year-old mother.

Officers quoted Kiyoshi as saying: "When I intervened, my brother grabbed a spear and challenged me. I also took a spear and fought. We were both drunk."

The spears were antique family treasures.

Postal Plan Will Affect State Cities

WASHINGTON (AP)—A number of Texas postoffice projects would be affected by a proposal to end the government's lease-purchase program.

The proposal would go back to the system of constructing federal buildings through direct appropriations.

The proposal was approved by a House Public Works Subcommittee yesterday. The subcommittee rejected a Senate-passed bill which would have continued the lease-purchase program.

Projects which would be eliminated under the lease-purchase program and which would be put on a list of projects authorized for construction by direct appropriations include, with estimated costs:

Daingerfield, post office and federal office building, $216,000; Gainesville, post office $645,036; McKinney, post office and federal office building, $480,000; Orange, post office and federal office building, $620,000; Terrell, post office and federal office building, $392,000; and Victoria, post office and courthouse, $1,563,000.

Asian Development

TOKYO (AP) — Prime Minister Nobosuke Kishi said today he plans another trip this fall to push his "Asian development program."

IS THIS INFLATION?

What Can You Do About It?

By SAM DAWON

NEW YORK (AP) — Inflation is damned by almost everyone today. But what to do about it, if anything, splits American thinking wide open.

The nation's money managers say tightening the screws on credit and making money costly to borrow is about to do the trick. But home builders and small businessmen say this threatens to ruin them and could trigger a recession. Some others hold that expensive borrowing just pushes up business costs and helps inflate prices.

Many economists say a natural correction of inflation is already in sight. Let 'em alone, they say, and soaring prices will cure themselves because consumer resistance will shrink demand. That will cut back work in the factories and service trades and take a lot of steam out of labor's wage demands.

The business expansion boom also means that in time there will be even more capacity to produce—maybe too much for awhile—and that will increase competition and check price rises.

Statesmanship on the part of management and labor could end inflation. President Eisenhower says. But others ask: Who is going to start this? And if there are unstatesmanlike holdouts, how can the conformists meet this competition?

The President reminds industry and labor now and then that another solution would be to reinstate direct wage and price controls. Many economists, however, challenge the effectiveness of these in practice, and Congress is definitely hostile to any such unpopular move in peacetime.

A few insist that a cut in taxes could help halt inflation. They argue that it would produce more risk capital, leading to more production of consumer and capital goods to match the amount of money and credit now in circulation—which they say is higher than ever, no matter how tight money may seem. It's the swollen demand for credit they blame now. More risk capital would take some of this pressure off the credit supply.

There is a sizable and vocal group who believe that the creeping variety of inflation won't hurt us—so long as it doesn't stand up and run.

They argue that if prices and wages rise only 2 or 3 per cent each year, the effect will be slight, and preferable to running the risk of a business slowdown and unemployment which deflation might bring.

At the opposite extreme are the economists who think the money managers should make money much tigher than it is now and drain off a sizable amount of the money and credit that has built up since 1940. They argue this would not only halt inflation but even restore some of the purchasing power of your dollar.

Brazil Journalist Sues Actress Wife

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A former journalist in Brazil has been granted an early trial of his annulment suit against a New York stage and television actress, in which he charges that she refused to bear children.

Fabio Ramos, 35, got a court order yesterday setting July 30 as the date for hearing his action against Lisa Daniels, 24. Her lawyer said he wasn't sure she could get here by then, but the court denied his plea for delay.

Ramos charges Miss Daniels put her "personal pleasures" and her career above wifely duties. She had filed a cross-complaint for divorce, charging cruelty and denying his allegations.

WINTERVILLE, Ga. (AP)—Clarke County Juvenile Court Judge Olin Price is a firm believer in making the punishment fit the crime.

Six boys were brought before him for breaking 125 windows in school buildings.

He talked things over with the boys and their parents and then ruled that next Tuesday the boys replace every pane of glass knocked out.

The parents will pay for the glass and the putty

Cancer Data Stacking Up

By FRANK CAREY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney said today, "There is an increasing and consistent body of evidence that excessive cigarette smoking is one of the causative factors in lung cancer."

But, Burney added, "it is clear that heavy and prolonged cigarette smoking is not the only cause of lung cancer." He said the Public Health Service favors more research into the problem.

"The precise nature of the factors is heavy and prolonged cigarette smoking which can cause lung cancer is not known" he said.

The statement was the first Public Health Service pronouncement on the subject since 1954 when it took note of evidence of a statistical association between cigarette smoking and lung cancer.

Burney gave no new proof, but cited results of previous studies, especially one by a special study group made public last March.

Burney's statement brought an immediate reply from Dr. Clarence Cook Little, chairman of the Scientific Advisory Board of the Tobacco Industry Research Committee.

Little said in New York that Burney's statement "adds nothing new to what has been known about the cause of lung cancer. It reflects the opinions of some statisticians and the relatively few experimental scientists who have actively charged that cigarette smoking is a cause of lung cancer."

Burney said, "While there are naturally differences of opinion in interpreting the data on lung cancer and cigarette smoking, the Public Health Service feels the weight of the evidence is increasingly pointing in one direction: that excessive smoking is one of the causative factors in lung cancer."

The special study group quoted by Burney was established in June 1956 by units of the Public Health Service in cooperation with two private health organizations—the American Cancer Society and the American Heart Assn. The group was headed by Dr. F. M. Strong of the University of Wisconsin Medical School.

"The study group," Burney said "reported that lung cancer occurs much more frequently among cigarette smokers than among nonsmokers, and there is a direct relationship between the incidence of lung cancer and the amount smoked."

Lives Saved By Traffic Campaign

CHICAGO (AP) — A nationwide campaign on traffic accidents was credited today with saving the lives of 400 persons in the first six months of 1957.

A special report of traffic deaths at the halfway mark in the National Safety Council's "Back the Attack on Traffic Accidents' campaign disclosed a 2 per cent reduction in fatalities at the end of June as compared with the first half of 1956.

This represents a numerical saving of 400 lives, the council said. It added the improvement is even more significant than the 2 per cent gain indicates in view of the increased highway travel.

The nation counted 426 traffic deaths over the long Fourth of July holiday period, from 6 p.m. July 3 to midnight July 7.

Since the campaign started, no month has shown an increase in traffic deaths, the council said in announcing the special report from the nation's state governors.

"The figures prove that the 'Back the Attack's campaign is paying off," said Ned H. Dearborn, council president. "We want everyone who has had a part in this nationwide campaign to know that his efforts have not been in vain. They have proved in the last six months that deligent application of known safety principles can pull down the death toll."

Many of the state governors noted the encouraging trend, and expressed to the council their determination to step up the attack in the final six months of 1957. Some governors submitted summaries of planned traffic safety activities during the last half of the year. Legislatures in several states gave public officials more effective tools to work with, the council reported.

So far 13 states are adding state patrol personnel; 5 have new speed laws; 11 are increasing slective enforcement efforts; 5 have driver license improvements; 7 have additional state or town citizen support organizations; 4 plan increased use of radar speed checks; and 4 plan statewide conferences on traffic safety problems.

Dearborn predicted that success of these stepped-up campaign measures will make them standard operating procedure in the future.

Young Groom And Bride To Get Trip

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) —Tom Henderson, 21, and his 63-year old bride will be Miami-bound as soon as plane tickets arrive from a former Nashvillian who offered them a wedding trip to the Florida City.

"Granville Dozier, operator of a night club in Miami, telephoned to the Nashville Banner his offer of a free one-week Florida honeymoon and round-trip airline tickets.

The Hendersons were married four days ago. They said then they would delay their honeymoon for lack of finances.

Oil Import Curb Asked

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson asked the Senate yesterday "why we are unable to get action to curb excessive imports of oil into this country."

Johnson said Congress has given the administration power to cut imports and "that authority should be exercised now."

He added, "I cannot understand why a few importing companies are allowed to control the economic development of my state of Texas and of other oil producing states..."

He said import companies are telling the domestic oil industry there is no room for its oil "and at the same time they are bringing into the country a record amount of foreign oil."

He criticized importing companies, saying they demand "on the one hand that they be uncontrolled . . . (and) on the other hand that the quota of the independent producer here at home be further tightened."

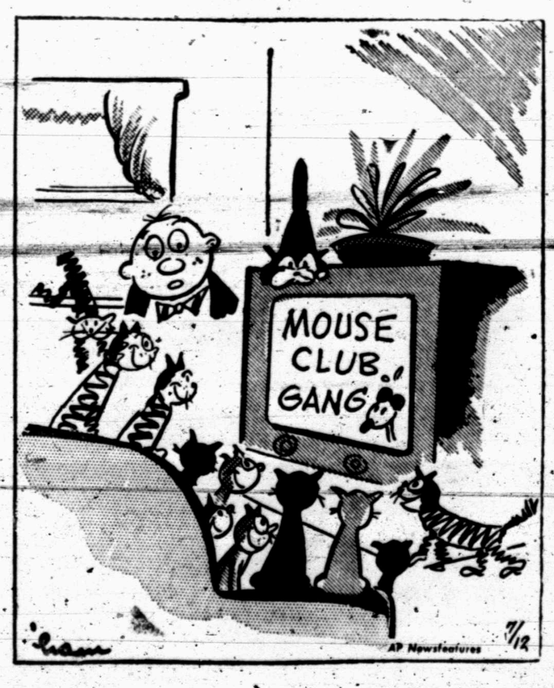
BUCKLEY



Cruise Ship Is Released

HAMILTON, Bermuda (AP) — Helped by a mighty yank from ground tackle, the British cruise ship Reina del Pacifico slid backwards off Devil's Flat Beef last night three days after running a ound.

The liner bobbed lightly on the squall-tossed sea, but with a starboard list. The effort to pull the Reina free succeeded as the weather grew increasingly worse, threatening to halt salvage operations until the weekend.

Divers found a big dent in the hull, but no holes. An underwater [illegible] was set to determine whether the ship could continue on its voyage to Liverpool.

Ground tackle equal to the power of 10 tugs moved the ship off the reef, eight miles north of Hamilton, where it had perched since Monday night with 566 passengers en route home to England from Bermuda holidays.

New Mormon Missionaries In Snyder

Newly-assigned ministers to the Snyder area representing the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (Mormon) are elders Ronald J. Shumway and Blaine H. Corling.

Shumway is from Mesa, Ariz., and Corling is from Providence, Utah.

The men are two of 6,000 representatives of the extensive missionary program of the church. Like other "Mormon" missionaries, the two left home for a period of two years on their own time and expense to acquaint people with the doctrine of the church.

The two will be calling on citizens of Snyder, they said, to acquaint them with beliefs of the church and the Book of Mormon.

Persons desiring information may contact them at 3001 Avenue S.

The two missionaries said they intend to find "Mormon" families living here and, if there are enough, begin weekly services.

Norton To Leave Here In August

Ted Norton, minister at the Twenty-fifth Street Church of Christ, will leave Snyder this month and is to become minister at a church in Manhattan, Kan.

The minister has been here since October, 1952.

"We feel like a boy who is leaving home," he said. "Of course, a boy must leave home sometime," he added. He will be in and out of Snyder for about two weeks before moving.

Following a meeting at Girard, which will be Aug. 4-11, the family will move to Manhattan Aug. 13.

The Norton's daughter, Marjorie, who graduated from high school here this spring, will attend Abilene Christian College in Abilene this fall.

Mr. Norton came here from Kansas City, Mo. He had worked with churches in the Kansas area for several years.

Joint Parking Lot

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The congregations of St. James Episcopal Church and Beth Ahabah Jewish Temple have been having parking problems. St. James holds services on Sunday, Beth Ahabah on Saturday. So they got together, purchased three homes which stood between them and a joint parking lot will soon be ready.

FINAL ADMONITION

"I COMMEND YOU TO GOD" is an expression used by the apostle Paul to the elders (bishops, pastors) of a church at Ephesus (Acts 20:32). God is father of all men by creation. But, in a special sense, God is the Father of all who have been "born of water and of the Spirit." (Jno.3:5). God is impartial in His love for mankind in material things—"He maketh His sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and unjust." (Matt.5:45); however, God is partial in regard to spiritual things. To the saints at Ephesus the Holy Spirit says, God "hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ." (Eph.1:3). That leaves no spiritual blessing out of Christ! Holiness, predestination, redemption, and heirship are all "in Christ." (Eph.1:3-14).

"AND TO THE WORD OF HIS GRACE." In every age of the world, men who have followed the word of God lived highly successful lives. It is still that way! The measure of ones' success is not in dollars and cents but in Character and fruitbearing. (John 15:1-8).

"WHICH IS ABLE TO BUILD YOU UP." God's word (Bible) is still able to build up God's children. "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect (mature) thoroughly furnished unto all good works." (2Tim.3:16,17). Can one desire more? The Scriptures give the guiding principles in every good work. When they do not, one can rest assured that it is not a good work!

"AND TO GIVE YOU AN INHERITANCE among all them which are sanctified." (Acts 20:32). A person is "sanctified in Christ Jesus" (1Cor.1:2) and he enters Christ upon being "baptized into Christ" (Gal.3:26,27). Hence, when one is baptized into Christ he is scantified (set apart) from the guilt of past sins. A Christian keeps sanctified by living a holy life "without which no man shall see the Lord." (Heb.12:14).

FAREWELL AND GOD BLESS YOU! To those of you who have read these articles regularly, the writer (Ted Norton) invokes the choice blessings of God upon you. This is the last of these articles to appear, since the author is concluding his work in Snyder and is moving to Manhattan, Kansas on August 13. Sunday, July 14, is his last Sunday to preach in Snyder. He would like to meet you at church, 1411 25th Street at 10:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m.

"THE CHURCHES OF CHRIST SALUTE YOU." (Rom.16:16). Tune in KSNY and hear "Five Minutes With The Master" at 8:25 a.m. Monday thru Friday.

CHURCH NEWS

PREACHES IN WALL STREET—Evangelist Billy Graham, stands on the steps of Federal Hall Memorial Building in New York and addresses a lunch-hour throng in the heart of the city's financial district.

Many Called Spiritually Dead

NEW YORK (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham says millions of people are taking tranquilizing drugs because they are spirtuallly dead.

Addressing 18,000 persons at Madison Square Garden last night, he also said that the way is still open for the reconciliation of sinners.

There is a chance for everyone to gain eternal redemption if they accept Christ, acknowledge their sins and repent, Graham said.

Graham said evil has been trying to capture man since the time of Adam, and it is "our job to get back to God." He [illegible] that [illegible] is a free agent and [illegible] Graham's text was from Matthew 5:23 — "Therefore if you bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother has ought against thee."

At the end of the service, 604 persons went forward to indicate that they had made "decisions for Christ."

It was announced that a special service in Graham's New York crusade will be held Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in front of the cornerstone Baptist Church in Brooklyn. The Brooklyn division of the Protestant Council of the City of New York is sponsoring the service.

Pledges To Church Made In Birdhouses

KYAPP, Wis. (AP) — To help finance a remodeling project at the Knapp Methodist Church two years ago, Harry S. Pope made his pledge in birdhouses.

The "Pope Special Wren House" went on sale for $1, with all the income going to the church building fund.

Thanks to sales throughout Wisconsin and in Washington, California, Arizona, Virginia, New Jersey and Connecticut, Pope has turned $216 over to the congregation.

JWs Are Back From Houston Convention

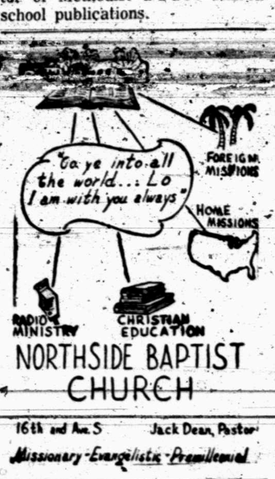
Fourteen delegates from Snyder were among the thousands of Jehovah's Witnesses who were in Convention at the Sam Houston Coliseum in Houston, July 3-7, J. D. [illegible] at the final group, said today upon his return home.

The south western district meet drew delegates from 30 states and three foreign lands. The principal speaker was N. H. Knorr, the President of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, which sponsored the event. Knorr was heard in the highlighted lecture of the final day, "Healing of the Nations Has Drawn Near".

The Houston meet was one of the first of a series of seven such conventions which will be held in the United States, and will draw 200,000 delegates. The series will then continue throughout the world, and the same program will be had at each, Cook concluded.

Rev. Philfer Retires

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The Rev. Lyndon B. Phifer has retired after more than 43 years of editorial work for the Methodist Church. He has been associate editor of Methodist adult church-school publications.



NORTHSIDE BAPTIST CHURCH
16th and Ave. S Jack Dean, Pastor
Missionary-Evangelistic-Premillennial

The older man is saying, "I have worked hard to make this farm pay. But I wonder if that is enough. What is ahead..., how much loss and how much gain?" He has asked this minister to explain it all. What does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses his own soul? Things do not satisfy. Man is a spiritual creature. He cannot be content with food and shelter. He was made for fellowship with God and his soul will always be hungry until he knows that he is a son of God and learns to walk with the Eternal Spirit. He must go forward with Christ. He must go to church and live in daily consciousness of the favor and blessing of his God.

As he sharpens his tools to lose or gain, so must he sharpen his mind and his heart for God. Any business will pay when God is the senior partner.
