"ROBIN" BOBS ALONG ABOVE CLOUDS TODAY

O'BRINE - JACKSON ARE IN FINE SPIRITS; TO OUTDO MOTOR

(By Associated Press)

ST. LOUIS, July 26.—The "St. Louis Robin" had clipped off its 317th hour of sustained flight at 12:17 p. m., (C.S.T.) today, and the latest word from the pilots, Dale "Red" Jackson and Forest O'Brine, was "it isn't bad at all."

At that hour they had exceeded the endurance record of the "Angeleno" by seventy hours.

FLIERS BEGIN 14TH DAY BY STUNTING

ST. LOUIS, July 26 (AP).—The record-breaking endurance plane "St. Louis Robin" began its fourteenth day of continuous flight today by performing a series of stunts low over Lambert-St. Louis field that told ground observers all was well aboard. A cheery "good morning everybody" came in a message dropped by the pilots, Dale (Red) Jackson and Forest O'Brine.

The plane, carrying its crew to a new record that is yet to be determined, passed its 318th hour aloft at 10:17 a. m. (C. S. T.) It was circling high above the field in a clear sky. The propeller lashed the air with no indication of quitting. At that hour the fliers had added 68 hours to the former endurance record. Jackson was piloting the plane as it swooped low over the airport and the usual morning order for gasoline and breakfast was dropped. At an altitude of about 300 feet, the Robin banked

VOLCANO IS ON RAMPAGE AGAIN

VOLCANO HOUSE, Island of Hawaii, July 26 (AP)—Pele, Goddess of Halemaumau, who has slumbered since February, again was active today at the "Pit of Everlasting Fire," center of Kilauea Volcano.

The first eruption, at 6:30 a. m., yesterday, was marked by four fountains of lava that shot 150 feet upward from the bottom of the pit. They gradually grew stronger through the day until the columbis attained a height of 400 feet while many smaller fire mountains appeared in the crater.

The floor of the lava pit became a flaming cauldron.

Late last night the volcano exhibited some rare pyrotechnics, the activity showing no sign of relaxation. Lava spouted to such a height that it took six seconds to fall back to the floor. The lava formed several new cones on the Kau side of the crater, which measures nearly 3,500 feet in diameter.

TEXANS SEEK TO TAKE ON THIRD MAN

TECHNICAL DEFEAT IS FEAR OF PAIR; UP 215 HOURS

(By Associated Press)

HOUSTON, July 26.—Fear that a technicality might defeat their attempt to make a refuelling flight record beset Pilots Glenn L. Loomis and Joe Glass as they swept the endurance plane Billion Dollar City back and forth over Houston today.

At noon today they were on their 216th hour.

Just before the monoplane passed its 203rd hour aloft at 12:49:54 a. m., C. S. T., its barograph ceased functioning. This the fliers had anticipated, and officials in Washington were asked to permit them to take a disinterested third man aboard, in much the manner they take on fuel, or to allow the "Billion Dollar City" to make a dash for another airport in the event of bad weather here. Under the regulations, strictly interpreted, the barograph being out, no record set would be official should Loomis and Glass depart from sight of the Houston field.

Progress Is Interesting

The progress of the St. Louis Robin in Missouri continued to interest Loomis and Glass objectively. In notes dropped they reannounced

FLOOD HITS IN COLORADO

SAN JUAN VALLEY IS SWEPT BY WORST IN HISTORY

(By Associated Press)

OURAY, Colo., July 26 (AP)—The worst flood in the history of southwestern Colorado last night swept through Ouray and the San Juan valley, inundating the north section of this city and forcing more than 150 automobile tourists to flee to high ground.

The Uncompahgre river, with five tributaries swelling it to a record level, went out of its banks. The river today had receded to some extent, but the bed was filled with huge rocks, some of them larger than houses, and it will be necessary to dig a new channel for several miles.

Ouray today was isolated, several highway bridges being washed out and roads piled high with boulders and debris.

McCowan was inside washing out the tank with gasoline when a spark from an electric light wire set off the fumes inside. Hepworth said he and Aldredge were blown from the top of the tank.

Efforts to rescue McCowan were unavailing, and his body was not removed until after the flames had subsided.

War Threat In Russia Louder

YANK MATADOR PLEASES FANS

MADRID, July 26 (AP).—Madrid bull fighting fans have a better opinion of Yankee toreadors today. In their own words Sydney Franklin, Brooklyn bull fighter, is "que hombre" "what a man!"

Franklin yesterday, making his debut in a Madrid bull ring, with Premier Primo De Rivera, his two daughters, and other notables looking on, dispatched two beasts in a skillful manner, although barely escaping a dangerous goring at the horns of one animal.

The fans, numbering 13,000, many of whom had come out of curiosity to see just what sort of a matador a "yanqui" might make, gave Franklin an ovation after each bull.

MILITARY AND LABOR UNITS DEMANDING ACTION

(By Associated Press)

MOSCOW, July 26.—Relations between Russia and China today reassumed a menacing aspect in the Russian capital. Military and naval units and labor organizations throughout the country demanded that the government take immediate and specific action to protect life and liberty of Russian citizens stranded along the zone of the Chinese Eastern railway.

Thousands In Meetings

Thousands of workers in Leningrad resolved in mass meetings last night that "The Leningrad workers insist that the Soviet government take decisive steps against haughty Chinese and white guard bands. The workers declared the Russian peace policy does not mean Russia is resigned to submitting to outrages.

Red army and Red fleet units from the Leningrad garrison and the Baltic fleet passed a resolution that "Red soldiers and Red sailors and the commanding staff demand most emphatically that the Russian government take decisive steps to ensure the safety of Soviet frontiers and to tame the white guard bandits."

Similar resolutions for decisive action continued today to reach Moscow from most of the workers' centers of the union, such as Karkov, Odessa, Kiev, Tiflis, and Kazan.

LEAHY SANITY BROUGHT UP

WITNESSES SAYS HE IS SANE; JURORS ILL AT START TODAY

(By Associated Press)

GEORGETOWN, July 26.—The opening of today's session of the sanity trial of Harry J. Leahy here was delayed by the slight illness of three jurors, who finally took their places in the jury box after treatment by a physician.

The defendant, under death sentence for the slaying of Dr. J. A. Ramsey of Mathis, appeared haggard when he appeared in court after a long conference with his attorneys. Shortly after taking his seat, he arose suddenly and walked hurriedly from the court room. Rangers sitting near, followed several paces behind him. A few minutes in the conference room, and the group returned.

Lee Whaley of Georgetown testified he had known the defendant two or three years, saw him three or four times a month and talked with him from one-half to an hour each time, "just general conversation."

Whaley said he considered him sane, and identified letters received from the defendant after he had been removed to Huntsville.

NAVY LIMITATION CONFERENCE SEEN FOR WORLD POWERS EARLY NEXT YEAR

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Signs pointing toward the convocation before next spring of a preliminary naval limitation conference of world powers appear to Washington observers of international affairs to be multiplying.

Although official information on the subject is lacking, they draw their chief substance from analysis of pronouncements made this week by President Hoover and Prime Minister MacDonald and meagre comments in other quarters generally well acquainted with such matters.

Act Is Indication

One of the signs into which the clearest indication of such a conference is being read is the action of President Hoover in postponing construction of three cruisers which were to have been laid down this fall under the 15-cruiser program that became law last winter.

Under the terms of that law, he is given authority to postpone construction of the first five of the contemplated cruisers after June 30—the end of the current fiscal year—only in the event of an international agreement on naval limitation is worked out.

His manifest gratification over the early evidence that the Kellogg Briand treaty for reunciation of war is having the desired effect throughout the world also is regarded as deeply significant, and great importance also is attached to his announcement Tuesday of preparations, through a commission of general staff officers, to find a way to reduce the government's expenditures for maintenance of its army.

SIX BRITISH MARINES DIE IN EXPLOSION

ENTIRE TURRET BLOWN FROM SHIP'S DECK BY BLAST

The dead were all royal marines and included a captain, two sergeants, one corporal and two privates. Three others were in a critical condition.

Referring to the person he declared committed the crime for which he went to the chair, Grady said:

The negro praised the Hunt county sheriff and the Greenville chief of police and shook hands with them as he was being strapped to the chair. He asked the sheriff to look after his mother and said he hoped that officer always held his office.

As Grady walked to the death chamber Marshall Ratliff, condemned Cisco "Santa Claus bank bandit," again struck up, "When the Roll is Called up Yonder" on his portable phonograph.

(By Associated Press)

HOOKER, Okla., July 26.—The First National Bank of Hooker was robbed today of all its cash on hand estimated to be between $8,000 and $10,000, by five young bandits.

Fired upon by bank employes after they left the institution, the robbers drove on a state highway leading east through the Oklahoma panhandle; closely pursued by a posse. They turned south about 20 miles east of Hooker and distanced their pursuers.

C. E. Wilson, cashier, four other employes and about a dozen customers were in the bank when the unmasked robbers entered about 10 a. m. The bandits forced the customers to lie on the floor, and the employes were instructed to hand over the cash.

The robbers were described as being between 20 and 30 years old. One was dressed in overalls, and the others wore rough working clothes.

FLIER READY TO HOP OFF

WEATHER REPORT ONLY OBSTACLE TO TAKE OFF TO TOKYO

(By Associated Press)

TACOMA, Wash., July 26.—With plane and aviator ready, only a favorable weather report was needed to send Lieut. Harold Bromley winging his way across the Pacific to Tokyo, Japan.

The take off was "at least 24 hours distant," Lieutenant Bromley said last night after scanning an unfavorable weather report. A few score persons, however, remained at the Tacoma air field all night, on the chance the young aviator might attempt a surprise start.

In a trial flight yesterday Lieutenant Bromley flew over Seattle and Olympia, remaining aloft an hour and 16 minutes. "Fine as silk" was his description of the way the big plane performed, but he did learn the need for a change in his wireless atenna. When he lowered the wires the propeller blast blew them back and entangled them in the tail skid. A heavier weight will remedy this, he believes. Another defect discovered was a compass which was in error 30 degrees.

UNITED STATES BLAMED FOR LIQUOR SMUGGLING FROM CANADA

SOLUTION OF PROBLEM IS WITH STATES

CANADIAN MINISTER EXPLAINS BOOZE PROBLEM

(By Associated Press)

OTTAWA, Ont., July 26—Solution of the problem of liquor smuggled from Canada into the United States, in the opinion of W. D. Euler, minister of national revenue, rests entirely with the American government.

Declaring that virtually 100 per cent of the smuggling is by United States citizens in United States boats, he suggested in a statement published today that the most effective means of combating the situation would be adopted by the American government of clearance regulations for all boats leaving the United States shore.

Canada to Cooperate

If this were done, the Canadian government would be "quite ready to consider any further reasonable measure of cooperation."

"If Canadian citizens and Canadian boats engaged in the traffice," he said, "the Canadian government would be prepared to enact legislation dealing with the matter, but surely some responsibility for the actions of their own citizens rests with the government of the United States."

He pointed out that all vessels leaving Canadian ports carrying merchandise, including liquor, must obtain clearances and that clearance to liquor boats can not be refused except by act of parliament. He declared he opposed the enactment of such legislation as it would not stop the smuggling but merely tend to corrupt Canadians.

Is Impossible

He asserted recent special enforcement efforts by the United States government have resulted in a marked reduction in liquor running but asserted "it must be apparent to every intelligent person that it is not humanly possible to entirely prevent the flow of liquor to a dry neighbor whose territory lies adjacent for thousands of miles."

"We are quite willing to keep Canadians out of the business of running liquor to the United States," he concluded, "if the United States authorities will insist on clearances for their own boats to enable them to check and control their own people and the violation of the United States law they will probably have a very effective remedy. Moreover, in that event, the Canadian government is quite ready to consider any further reasonable measure of cooperation with them."

RIVERSIDES

The first choice of millions of motorists throughout America

YOU hear a lot of talk and read many statements nowadays, about how many millions of this or that tire have been sold... and why. These statements fail to point out, however, that a large percentage of all these tires are sold as "factory equipment" on popular makes of automobiles. In other words, the motorist himself has had very little to say about selecting the tire equipment of the new car he buys.

When these same motorists, however, have an opportunity to study tire quality and tire values for themselves, the story becomes somewhat different!...

Take, for example, the popularity of RIVERSIDES among car-owners. This famous tire was introduced to the American public 18 years ago. Since that time RIVERSIDES have been sold to many millions of motorists throughout America. A great majority of these tires have been sold on merit alone—without any high-pressure salesmanship. And they were bought on just three points: the splendid reputation of Montgomery Ward & Co.—the definite mileage guarantees under which RIVERSIDE Tires have always been sold—and the recommendation of millions of satisfied users.

Facts like these cannot be disputed or ignored. They explain why RIVERSIDE Tires occupy a place among the leaders of the industry—and it is because of these facts that we make the claim, and back it with our guarantees, that RIVERSIDES are THE EQUAL OF ANY TIRE MADE, regardless of price. This statement we are anxious to have you prove to your own satisfaction—on your own car—the next time you are in the market for tires.

In the matter of price, RIVERSIDES, of course, save you money. Compared with the five or six other leading makes of equal quality, for example, your savings on a RIVERSIDE range from about $2 per tire (on the 29 x 4.40 RIVERSIDE Balloon) to $5 to $10 on larger sizes. Surely such savings merit your most careful consideration... particularly in view of the fact that when you purchase a RIVERSIDE you are protected by definite guarantees of 16,000 and 30,000 miles of service! No other make of tire in America today, backed by an organization with the responsibility of Montgomery Ward & Co., is sold under such definite mileage guarantees.

Visit our store today and see these RIVERSIDES for yourself. Note their quality construction, low price, ironclad mileage guarantees... and buy on FACTS, not "talk."

CLARENCE SAUNDERS SOLE OWNER OF MY NAME

HUGE CATTLE SALE IS MADE IN SECTION

DEAL INVOLVES 2,100 HEAD; RANCH IS LEASED

A cattle sale and ranch lease involving a consideration of about $139,000 between H. T. Boyd of Lubbock, W. B. Elkin of Midland and the estate of Mrs. Carrie E. Slaughter was announced late yesterday.

The deal included the sale of 2,100 head of cattle, together with the leasing of the ranch, about 40,000 acres, for a perior of five years.

The property, known as the Scrape-Out ranch, is located in the southern part of Cochran county and is a portion of the C. C. Slaughter estate. Mr. Boyd, together with Mr. Elkin, is at the ranch at this time. Delivery of the cattle and the lands was made last week.

The new money is shorter than the old currency, but the wife reports she can stretch it just as far.

HUSBANDS AND WIVES ALL BROTHERS AND SISTERS

The Borns family and the Olson family of Iron Mountain, Mich., are just one big family now. There were four sons and one daughter in the Olson family and four daughters and one son in the Borns family—and now they are all paired off as husband and wife through the fifth inter-family marriage between Edwin Borns and Ethel Olson, inset. The series of marriages started in June, 1924, when Theodore Olson married Dora Borns. Either Dora was a good match maker, or else they were both so happy—well, anyway, standing here Theodore, Charles, Arcnic and Oliver Olson. Seated in front of them are their wives, Dora, Ruth, Amy and Effie.

Drive Being Made On Pests In State Capitol

AUSTIN, July 26 (AP).—Rats, cockroaches, mosquitoes and other vermin must find a hibernating place other than Texas capitol building.

The state health department today began a "health crusade" in the big granite structure.

Recently, during the legislative session, typhoid fever developed among legislators, members of their families and employes of the capitol. The legislators laid some of the blame on the capitol cold drink and lunch stand and passed a concurrent resolution ejecting it from the building.

DUBLIN (AP) — The influx of American tourists promises to exceed past records by 15 per cent. Steamship companies report heavy bookings until September. Several lines are docking at Galway which hopes to rival Cobh as a port for American vessels.

Marine Guard On Islands Withdrawn

WASHINGTON, July 26 (AP).—Marine corps headquarters today ordered the discontinuance of the marine garrison St. Croix, Virgin Islands, which has been maintained since the islands were purchased from Denmark in 1917.

The garrison consists of one officer and 28 enlisted men. It was removed because it was held that there was no further need for troops there.

TO REMOVE PUFFS UNDER EYES

By MABEL DUKE
For NEA Service

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

Nowhere does that apply so truly as in caring for one's beauty. Women often buy beauty preparations expecting results overnight, never realizing that the poor condition of the skin, hair or other feature is the result of weeks and months of improper care.

A marring trait to beauty which one should watch for and ward off is the condition of puffs and circles under the eyes. These disfiguring pockets and rings always look they are just as often caused by insufficient water in the system, lack of sleep or general ill health.

"The best way to prevent puffs and rings is to drink plenty of water, watch the diet and get sufficient sleep," says Betty Compson. "Those are just general health rules which apply to so many health problems, but the fact remains that a person who is perfectly healthy has beautiful skin.

"However, there some local treatments which will help correct these ugly lines, providing the cause for them is removed. If the dark circles have been present long, the circulation in the tissues is faulty and it is necessary to bring new blood to wash away the old.

"After washing the face, wring a cloth out in hot water and press under the eyes. After applying the cloth, three or four times, hang the head down and gently tap beneath the eyes with the finger tips. Be sure not to tap hard enough to break down the tissues. Finish with cold water and a mild astringent.

BETTY COMPSON

Living and Loving

BY MRS. VIRGINIA LEE

BY VIRGINIA LEE

Again and again I am asked if I think that marriage between people of different religions is safe. Whether such marriages are likely to be happy.

The answer is, of course, that it depends entirely on the couple. As a general thing, people of similar religious beliefs would be more congenial, and comradeship is the one thing that makes for happiness when the first flush of passion has passed. But it is not necessary for two people to think alike on every point to be congenial.

There is no doubt that religion can be a bitter bone of controversy in a home. So I would say to all young people contemplating matrimony who have this question to settle, don't marry unless you are sure you can always be tolerant and sympathetic with the other's beliefs, even when the children come, and do not insist that your faith is the only right one. Only so can marriage between people of different faiths be successful.

"DEAR VIRGINIA LEE: I have been going with a fellow several weeks and we have learned to love one another. Whenever he comes to see me we sit at home with my parents and our conversation is far from love. My parents object to me going with him because he is a Catholic. And his parents object to his going with me because I am a Protestant, but neither of us cares for religion. He is a good working boy. We are both out of high school and close to 20 years of age. Do you think our parents ought to criticise us for going together?

"Now, Virginia, please advise us. Shall we keep on going together or shall we stop?

"BROKEN HEARTED SWEETHEART."

Could either conscientiously give his faith up and join the church of the other? Or, are you sure you could go to your church and allow him to go to his without any criticism or slurring remarks? If you have children, could you decide together to which church they should go until such time as they were old enough to make their own choice? Religion may seem to matter little now, but it will loom bigger after the first flush of all engrossing love has passed and you settle down to live together, especially with two sets of parents-in-law pulling different ways. Better to give one another up now if you are not sure of your reactions to these things, than to marry and fight about them afterwards. It's up to you two and you alone."

"DEAR VIRGINIA LEE: I would like to know if boys will stick by a girl who is quiet, smiling and sympathetic, always ready to aid in solving problems, or if they like girls who are full of pep and don't give a 'kick' what they do? I have always been quite peppy, and since I have entered the business world it has made me quiet and more modest, and my friend has noticed it and wants to know why I'm not peppy any more. Do you think he will continue his love for me if I remain more quiet?

"Do you think a strong Catholic and a strong Protestant should marry? Will it cause trouble in their future home? Should the girl ask the man to give up his beliefs for her? QUIET SUE".

"P. S.—What is Lindbergh's belief, also his wife, Catholic or Protestant?"

I don't believe your boy friend will cease to love you just because you are a little quieter, Sue, dear. Especially if you are "smiling and sympathetic." And I expect that after you have been in business longer you will be just as peppy as ever. Such a difference in religion might make trouble and could only be overcome by both being very tolerant and agreeing about the children, if you had any. No man or woman has a right to ask another to give up his or her beliefs. In fact, I should say, it would be an impossibility anyway I believe the Lindberghs are both Protestants.

BROKEN HEARTED: I presume the boy friend just wants a change. Boys of that age generally go with one girl and then with another, especially when they're popular. There isn't much you can do, dear, and I wouldn't suspect the girl friend. You must just make up your mind that life is like that.

BUCK: Good gracious, my dear boy, an engaged man is surely permitted the privilege of a kiss or two. I don't think it could possibly count against either of you, even if such a sad thing as a separation should come about.

TEXAS FLIERS

they would stay up long enough to go beyond any total of hours the St. Louis Robin might reacr.

The city's reaction to the flight was illustrated yesterday, during a tense moment in a Texas League ball game here, the Billion Dollar City and the refueling ship, in contact, roared over the stadium. The pitcher forgot to deliver his ball, the catcher removed his mask to watch the refueling high above and the fans likewise craned necks.

The Houston fliers have entered into the spirit of friendly competition with the St. Louis Robin which is nearly 103 hours ahead of them.

"If the Missourians plan to stay up until we come down, they might as well have their winter clothes sent up to them," the birdmen said.

A breakfast request for hard boiled eggs and pork chops showed the aviators were not ailing.

Tenants of municipal houses in Aberdeen, Scotland, who intended taking summer boarders, recently had a shock when they received notice from the city chamberlain that they were prohibited from subletting or taking lodgers or boarders.

SETTLEMENT FOR SITE IS SOUGHT

Directors of the Lubbock Chamber of Commgrce discussed this morning with members of the city commission plans toward settlement of contract for purchase of the local municipal airport.

A special committee, appointed at a call meeting last Friday, which has been mediating toward settlement for the airport site, has been instructed to continue their work.

After deciding to purchase the site, located five miles north of Lubbock, the city commission was advised last week of a misunderstanding between Milt Jones, owner of the proposed site, and Frank Jones, local realtor, regarding a sales commission.

OFF FO RFISHING

WASHINGTON, July 26 (AP).—President Hoover, with a party of cabinet officials and army officers, left this afternoon for his fishing camp on the Rapidan river in Virginia Blue Ridge Mountains to spend the week-end.

Lightning may never strike twice in the same place, but two bolts during one storm demolished twin steepies of a Logansport, Ind., church.

Barred from citizenship on this ground she plans to carry her plea to higher courts. She was born in Alsace-Lorraine.

WORLD CROPS FACE UNFAVORABLE CONDITIONS

REPORTS ON AREAS SHOW RAIN NEEDS

CONDITIONS BELIEVED TO BE SPREADING OVER AREAS

By CECIL B. DICKSON
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

WASHINGTON, July 26 (AP).—Abnormal crop curtailing heat waves an drought conditions sweeping over many of the world's agricultural regions apparently are spreading into other sections which have been enjoying more favorable weather during the last few weeks.

As the usually hot, dry month of August approaches, reports received by government agricultural and weather officials indicate drought conditions and excessively hot weather predominating in Europe, England, Southern China, Australia, Argentina, Western Canada, and in northwestern spring wheat, Central and New England states.

Outlook Dark

The outlook for the United States as weather officials see it is for those abnormal conditions to cover other areas shortly with little relief through local thundershowers indicated. However, the general situation is believed not to have reached a stage where there is cause for great alarm, though it is feared that unless precipitation comes soon much harm may be done.

The week ending Wednesday, the bureau announced, "was the driest of the season so far" in this country. It said "precipitation was light with many stations reporting no rain for the entire week." States west of the Mississippi withstood new high maximum temperatures, ranging from two to six degrees above the previous high records.

"Rain is needed," the bureau went on, "especially in the northern and more northwestern sections where continued dryness ad high temperatures were very unfavorable to crops. Moisture is needed also in the interior of the Pacific Northwest.'

McCRAW CRACKS AT ARMY'S DICIPLINE

Dallas District Attorney Scores Captain For His Refusal To Take An Orphan Boy Into Ranks

(By Associated Press)

DALLAS, July 26.—Capt. Clifford W. Sands refusal to accept as a recruit in the United States army a 17-year-old boy, charged with theft here, whom District Attorney William McCraw had given "another chance" brought a spirited rejoinder today from the prosecutor.

McCraw, after releasing the orphan, had advised him to enter the service.

In a letter to the Captain late today the District Attorney, a former captain and machine gun lieutenant in France, said:

"Your communication reached me through the usual efficient army method—via the newspaper. Let me advise you that I had some doubts as to the efficacy of the army as a means of moulding character and your kind statement fully established my doubts.

"You will not be troubled with the application of this boy. I might say in passing that we in civil life also "owe an imperative duty" to our fellow citizens that precludes me from ever charging any one with being a thief until their guilt has been established by a jury. This even extends to orphan boys who sometimes take a bit of bread to eat.

"While I am sure from the tone of your letter that the welfare of an unfortunate boy does not concern you, I am happy to inform you that the story of the lad struck a chord of sympathy from a good man in Dallas and soon the boy will be at work learning a trade. So he wil lbe spared shining officers' boots and kitchen police."

CITY AWARDS PAVING WORK

THREE BLOCKS ON 19TH AND ONE ON 7TH TO BE PAVED

Two paving contracts to the Panhandle Construction company were let by the Lubbock city commission Thursday afternoon for paving of three blocks on Nineteenth street and one block on Seventh street.

An additional route of hard surface travel to the down town section will be opened with the paving of Ninteenth street.

Problem Serious

The problem of traffic on Avenue Q has long been the source of a serious problem to the commission and and with this additional paving traffic from the west will be enabled to continue on Ninteeth street to Avenue M or Texas avenue, the eliminating a great amount of dangerous congestion, Mayor Harley D. Woods pointed out.

Advertising of bids was also ordered by the commission for paving on Tenth street from Avenue Q to College avenue. The body is still anxious to pave Tenth street from Avenue Q to K but to date an insufficient number of property owners have signified their willingness to co-operate with the city in this section, it was said. However, Tenth street, from Avenue Q to College avenue, will be constructed, adding materially to the city's paving program.

LOCALS TO HAVE TOUGH TIME AHEAD

BATTLE IS EXPECTED IN TILT; LAMESA IS STILL IN PLAY

(Special To The Journal)

AMARILLO, July 26.—A battle of base hits and hurling mastery is expected in the first game of today's double header when the Lubbock Hubbers clash with the Hanson Post shock troops of the West Texas State Teachers college.

The Hubbers, conquerors of Quitaque and the Canyon crew, winner over Silverton earlier in the tournament, will start their contest at 1:30 while the Tactless Texans and the Borger Buddies tangle in the second encounter.

Wilson Here Thursday

Manager H. B. Wilson was in Lubbock yesterday, collecting several straggling players who were entered on the original entry list. The pitching choice for the Plainsmen lies between Ater and Fonken. Weathered is likely to start for the shock troops.

Wellington handed the Pampa Grays a 5-0 beating in the first game of yesterday's double attraction.

Jack Knight, who did not last the route against the Lubbock Hubbers, went the distance for the winners, allowing only four hits.

In the second game the Lamesa Loboes eliminated the Amarillo City league all-stars from the running in the tournament, defeating the twilight aggregation 3 to 0.

The Loboes have not yet hit their true stride and are likely to make things hot for the remainder of the meet.

The Tactless Texans and Borger Buddies tangle in the nightcap today.

Reigh Count Under Silks For Last Time

CHICAGO, July 26 (AP). — Reign Count, ruler of the American turf last year, will make his last appearance under silks tomorrow at Arlington Park. The 1928 Kentucky Derby winner, which recently returned from a campaign in England, will not be entered in a race, however, but will give an exhibition run as the feature of "Reign Count" day.

Jack Dempsey fought six times in 1919. He scored five one-round knockouts and in the sixth scrap stopped Jess Willard, the champion, in three erounds.

The first national amateur golf championship was won by C. B. Macdonald, Chicago golf club, in 1895.

RAILMEN WIN FROM C.-P'S

BETTIS IS HIT HARD IN THE SECOND FRAME; GAME TODAY

Bunching their hits off Lefty Pettis in the second inning, the Santa Fe club of the City League counted three times in their big frame Thursday evening at Merrill Park to down the Carpenter-Painters, 3 to 1.

Two successive hits and an infield error contributed to the scoring for the winners. Hallmark's single sent two tallies across the rubber after the first marker had been counted on Luenberger's infield out.

Bettis Scores

T. Bettis completed the circuit for the losers' only tally in the fourth after he had reached first on a free pass. A base hit and an error sent him around the paths.

Presley hurled effectively for the Railmen, holding the Tradesmen to a pair of bingles in the five-inning encounter.

Auto-Zarbers are scheduled to meet the Hardware nine today.

Manager Bill Hargrove of the Santa Fe aggregation announced yesterday that the Railroaders will meet Southland Sunday on the latter's diamond.

Houston To Witness Intersectional Play

HOUSTON, July 25 (AP).—Negotiations during the summer months have given Houston high school athletes an intersectional flavor and there are indications that more unusual tilts are brewing.

Paul Tyson will bring his Waco high school Tigers here Oct. 19 for a game with John Reagan of Houston which will add inter-district spice to the local gridiron diet. The last time Houston and Waco met, Waco won 124 to 0.

Coach Arnold Krichamer plans to take his basketball team on an extended tour during the Christmas holidays. Tentative plans call for contests at New Orleans, Kansas City, St. Louis and several towns in Indiana, the trip to be climaxed with the Munice, Ind., quintet. Munice counts that season lost when it does not produce a state championship five.

Brownsville, one of the strongest of the Rio Grande valley football teams, is casting about for a Houston opponent and it is probable that one of the local teams will snap up the offer before fall.

JAWN MAKES 3 WRONG GUESSES IN MEN; ALL FLASHING

By JAMES VESSELS
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, July 26 (AP).—Making mistakes is not the usual thing with John McGraw, one of the greats of baseball, but he has made three moves in recent years that are proving costly to him now.

He dropped Hack Wilson because he didn't like Hack's batting stance. He dropped Pat Malone because he rated Pat as a loafer. He dropped Burleigh Grimes because he thought Burleigh was through.

Losing Out

If manager John even had one of the three now he probably would be vastly better off so far as the 1929 pennant race is concerned. And that pennant race is what concerns the Little Napoleon who hasn't won a flag since 1924.

Here is what the three cast-offs are doing:

Wilson batted .343 for his first 71 games.

Grimes won 18 out of his first 16 games.

Malone won 13 of his first 17 games.

Pat Sent Home

Of course, back in 1922, McGraw had no way of knowing that Pat Malone was to become a contender for National league strikeout honors. That was the year Pat was with the Giants long enough to get transportation back to the bushes.

The Giant ban on Hack came after the husky one had put in three seasons in the metropolis. Wilson was sent along to Toledo in the American association. Joe McCarthy, then a manager in the same circuit, heard the nose Hack made with his big bat and saw to it that he was drafted by the Cubs. Hack rewarded the Bruins by batting .321, .318 and .313 for 1926, 1927 and 1928 and the homers he hit were plenty. He is hitting better than ever his year.

Grimes Through?

It's the Grimes case that hurts though. Burleigh after one year with the Giants during which he won 19 ball games was traded to Pittsburgh for Vic Aldridge. Vic did not improve the Giants' standing but Big Burleigh hustled along last year, his first in Pittsburgh, and won 25 games. He appears to be good for more than this year.

BUFFS ENTER TIE FOR TOP WITH SPUDS

REINHART SETS STEERS DOWN THURSDAY; SPUDS IDLE

By GAYLE TALBOT, Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Art Reinhart, late of the Cardinals, flipped the Houston Buffs into a tie with Wichita Falls for leadership of the Texas league yesterday when he set the Dallas Steers down with five hits and blanked them, 4 to 0, in the first of a two-game series at Buffalo stadium.

The weather man was an important ally to the Houston cause, rain sweeping away the middle game at Waco and causing the Spuds to stand idle. The same inactivity caused the cubs to drop into third place.

Indians Whip Cats

In the only other game played the convalescent San Antonio Indians made it two straight from the Panthers, 10 to 3, by pounding Whitworth and Haynes for three big rallies. Rain swept away the Shreveport opener at Beaumont.

With the Buffs acting up much as they did a year ago, It is apparent the split season meant more to Gene Bailey's aggregation than any club in the league. Had the derby not been divided the Bisons would be in seventh place, 12 games from the top, and even with their present strengthened line-up it is doubtful they could have made up that margin by mid-September. As it is, they be accounted an even choice along with the Spudders to reach the play-off.

Barnabe is Victim

Charlie Barnabe, league ace from a standpoint of wins and losses, was the victim of Buffalo bats yesterday. He failed to hold the fort in two innings, the first and fourth, and his sixteenth victory went glimmering. Both clubs fielded flawlessly.

Jim Chaillin, big Indian right hander, set the Cats down until the

NOT WORRIED

MANDELL STILL HAS 4 POUNDS TO WORK OFF IN WEEK

CHICAGO, July 26 (AP). — Sammy Mandell, above, who one week from tonight will battle Tony Canzoneri to retain his world light-weight championship, apparently is unworried over the fact that he still has nearly four pounds to work off to reach the division limit of 135 pounds.

Mandell fooled a number of fans who went to his camp at the Washington Park race track yesterday by indulging in a day of inactivity. Reports he had been injured were denied by the champion who said both he and his trainer, Barney Furey, were satisfied with his condition and he did not plan to scale more than a few ounces under the limit.

BRUINS SLAP GIANTS DOWN ON THIRD DAY

CARDS ADVANCING TO NEAR TOP; A'S LEAD BOOSTED

BY HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Much to the embarrassment of John McGraw, the New York Giants' current western tour to date has a constant source of satisfaction to the growling Cubs of Chicago, traditional foes of McGraw teams.

For the third straight day, the Cubs yesterday administered a beating to McGraw's punch-drunk Giants, 8 to 5, thereby increasing their lead over the second place Pittsburgh Pirates to one full game.

Putting Up Fight

In justice to the Giants, it might be said they put up a fight. They gave Larry Benton a two run lead in the second inning, then, after the Cubs had tied it up in the sixth, scored three more runs in the seventh and held a 5-4 advantage as the Cubs came to bat in the last half of the eighth.

Then the storm broke. Singles by Grimm and Pinch-hitter Hazen Cuyler brought another pinch-batsman, Gabby Hartnett to the plate. McGraw yanked Benton and sent Karl Hubbell to the mound. Gabby's sacrifice fly brought home the tying run. A walk, an error by Andy Cohen, an infield single by Rogers Hornsby and Hack Wilson's screeching double brought in three more runs and decided the game beyond a doubt.

Cards Advancing

The St. Louis Cardinals, now operating under personal guidance of Bill McKechnie, advanced to within three and a half games of the third place Giants by trouncing the Phillies for the third straight time, 10 to 3. Jess Haines held the Quakers to four hits.

THE TINYMITES

BY HAL COCHRAN

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The Tinymites soon climbed aboard, as on and on the engine roared. They found a nice flat place atop one of the little cars. "Oh gee," said Clowny, gazing 'round, "twould be real sport to lie right down upon the car at night time and look right up at the stars."

"Oh, stop your dreaming," Scouty cried. "We hopped this train to get a ride, and not to start star gazing. We had best all hang on tight. If this car swings around a bend and we lose hold, 'twill be the end. As long as we are careful, though, I'm sure we'll be all right."

The whistle then blew long and loud and frightened all the Tiny crowd. "My goodness," exclaimed Coppy, soot is falling over me. The smokestack smokes and puffs out black, and all of it comes floating back. Before we've finished riding, think how dirty we will be."

"Oh, don't start fussing," Scouty said. "The soot will never reach your head. Of course it may get on our clothes, but we can take a swim in some fine stream that we may find. A real good swim I wouldn't mind. Where'er I hit cold water it just makes me feel in trim."

Then, for a while, they all sat down and waved while passing through a town. "Perhaps this is the place we'll stop," said Clowny, with a sigh. "I thought that we would travel long, but now I guess that I was wrong." It wasn't long, however, till they found they'd whizzed on by.

Soon Scouty yelled, "We're swinging round a bend. Don't topple to the ground." And then they got a big surprise. Their ride was not in vain. They knew that there would soon be fun enough for every single one, 'cause they could tell by cars ahead, it was a circus train.

(The Tinymites meet the engineer in the next story.))

Thought For Today

All persons are not discreet enough to know how to take things by the right handle.—Cervantes.

Ultimate Victory

When a really new idea is let loose into the world the results are apt to be far-reaching and surprising.

It is just about ten years now since an ex-college president named Woodrow Wilson gave to a tired and confused race an idea of that kind.

He suggested that since the traditional method of handling international disputes had always led to war and disaster, something new be tried—that some sort of international authority be established through which the nations could work together for peace.

Suggested, perhaps, is not quite the word. Wilson demanded it; and because he demanded it vehemently and without tact; and because his idea got entangled with other matters that were not so worthy, his own country rejected him and crushed his idea under an avalanche of adverse votes, declaring that it would go back to something or other called "normalcy" and let his idea die forever.

That was a matter of ten years ago. How does the idea stand today?

At the present moment President Hoover and Prime Minister MacDonald are preparing for a conference on the reduction of navies.

There are many obstacles in their way. One of the chief ones is the sharp conflict between the traditional sea policies of America and Britain. Freedom of the seas is one of our watch-words, with England, on the other hand, the right to use the British navy to clamp an air-tight blockade on an enemy country has been for centuries a cardinal point of foreign policy.

Now it is obvious that this clash must be settled before America and Britain can agree on naval reduction. And it is interesting to see the form that this settlement is going to take.

MacDonald is said to be ready to offer this solution: Great Britain will accept the American principle of freedom of the seas and will agree not to put on a blockade under any circumstances except in a case where a nation would be declared an aggressor under the Kellogg pact and an international blockade would be ordered by some such body as the League of Nations.

It is hardly to be doubted that ultimate agreement will come along some such line as that. And—please notice—in such an agreement you have nothing on earth but the logical development of Woodrow Wilson's idea of international co-operation and authority.

Wilson was very badly beaten. He died disappointed. Seemingly his own country had rejected forever everything that he stood for.

But he had let a new idea into the world; and that idea is still working. Slowly, year by year, it is taking hold of the minds of men. And in the years to come it may be that Wilson's final defeat may come to look very much like victory.

The Return

The American buffalo or bison, nearly exterminated a few years ago by the uncontrolled activities of hunters and so-called "sportsmen," is coming back.

To be sure, the great plains of the west are not getting back the big herds they once had. But in Alaska and Canada colonies of bison, established in the open lands a few years ago by nature lovers, are multiplying and thriving. Northeast of Fairbanks, Alaska, a large herd is said to be in existence, while northwest Canada counts its bison by the thousand.

These, it must be understood, are buffalo living in the wild state, as distinct from those maintained on ranches and in parks.

Probably it will never be possible for the western United States to swarm again with bison as it once did; neither possible, nor altogether desirable. But no American who likes his country's colorful past can fail to be glad that in some places, at least, the animal is coming back.

THE PLAINSMAN Says

That Girl on Broadway says women may have the most sense but it takes a man to know enough to marry one.

* * *

The rapid expansion of the business district along Thirteenth street is one of the brightest examples of Lubbock's need for city planning and zoning. Before many moons traffic along that pitifully narrow thoroughfare is going to be too dense for safety. It is already too great for comfort.

* * *

Work has begun on the new home of the Rix Furniture company, on Thirteenth, between Avenues K and L. The Baker Furniture company, across the street and the Beacon Master Service station, another large concern, are already well established. Slowly but surely, with the aid of the Myrick building, Hemphill-Wells company and the present Rix store on Avenue J, Thirteenth is becoming one of our busiest streets and if present indications mean anything it will continue to grow busier. Yet there is not a man among us who will say that Thirteenth's width entitles it to the business prestige which it is taking. That's a fact.

Long years ago, when Lubbock was first laid out, there was little reason to forecast for this location a great city. Later, when steady and rapid growth struck Lubbock citizens were confronted with so many problems that some had to be slighted. Among the latter was the need of city planning and zoning which has now grown acute.

"We have waited this long—it won't hurt to wait a little longer" seems to be the attitude adopted by some people but there never was a belief more in error. Suppose, for instance, when Lubbock was first laid out, Thirteenth street had been made wider—90 feet from curb to curb, say. We wouldn't be faced with the problem now and would save money by it. For, just as sure as you're born, Thirteenth street will some day have to be widened and at a great cost.

* * *

City planning problems of tomorrow can be solved cheaply today while tomorrow they'll like come dear. For that reason the "We can wait a while longer" theory is false—and, incidentally—is "penny wise, pound foolish."

* * *

The Plainsman has made a sort of spasmodic study of zoning and city planning and that study has taught him to keep a weather eye open for problems of that type. As a result he can see a number of needs of the city at present and can forecast a number which will come up in the future—as sure as you are alive.

* * *

There's the budding suburban business sections at Main and Broadway on Avenue Q; Avenue Q and 16th street; Avenue Q and 19th street; west 19th street all the way between Avenue Q and College avenue; the "job" the streets where 19th traverses Avenue Q, the "jog" around the senior high school on Thirteenth which are a few of the problems already confronting the city and there are world's more of them. You can see them as you motor about the city, if you'll just keep your eyes open.

* * *

This business of city planning and zoning is not just the "idea of some crank." It is a pressing problem of modern city life in America. It is pulsating, beckoning—essential to growth and development and the sooner Lubbock gets started on its problems the better off it will be.

* * *

That Man on Avenue Q says some of these girls who can marry anybody they please wake up to find out they never please anybody.

Several weeks ago there was a revival of the "Community Chest" plan of organized charities in Lubbock. Just where the idea came from this time The Plainsman doesn't know but this column takes the credit for suggesting it in the first place.

* * *

There are a number of institutions in every city which are worthy of public financial support and Lubbock is no exception to this rule. But Lubbock has long since passed the stage where "passing the hat" is necessary or popular and the "Community Chest" plan, in which all worthy organizations are taken care of, is the only logical remedy.

* * *

The "Give Once and You Give to All" slogan of the Community Chest is not only popular with business executives and firms but is the most efficient method of handling a most important problem. It prevents "overlapping" of charitable institutions and provides a check upon all forms of publically supported institutions. In short, it is a cure-all for the ill of "please donate."

* * *

The Plainsman would like to see the Board of City Development adopt the Community Chest plan in Lubbock this year and enlist the aid of the Retail Merchants association in the project. Doubtless the move would prove pleasant and profitable to all of us.

The Corner Grocer's 'Physic Income,' If You Can Get What We Mean, Is What Keeps Him On The Job—Dutcher

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, July 25 (AP)—Why did your corner grocer enter the grocery business?

Why, for that matter, does any grocer enter the grocery business?

The Department of Commerce investigated that question in its recent survey of the grocery business in Louisville, Ky., and Dr. Wilbur C. Plummer, who supervised the survey, reports as follows:

"The incentives for entering this particular business seem to be strong.

"First, we were told by individuals that it means much more to them to be grocers than to be engaged in some other occupations which seem to them to carry less social standing. The economist might describe this situation by saying that, although the money income of the storekeeper is no greater than that of these other occupations—it may be even less—his psychic income is much greater.

"A second reason for entering the grocery business is to secure the family groceries at wholesale prices. This applies mainly to the 'hole-in-the-wall' places, but it constitutes a definite urge to some persons to start a store.

"A third reason given for opening up a grocery store is that it is thought to be an easy job.

"A fourth is that it enables the wife to be engaged in profitable employment in connection with her household duties."

There's a good story about Arthur Henderson, the new British foreign minister, which probably stands unduplicated in our own politics and diplomacy.

Back about 1917, Lloyd-George sent Henderson to what was then Russia's Petrograd to take over the British embassy from Sir Geroge Buchanan. This was during the brie Kerensky period.

When Henderson got to Petrograd and looked the situation over he decided that Buchanan was doing an excellent job. He decided, in fact, that it would be a mistake to replace him with a new ambassador.

So Henderson left Buchanan on the job and went back to London. Of course, the Kerensky government didn't last long and Sir George was soon out of a job, anyway, but Henderson hadn't foreseen that.

If and when Premier Ramsay MacDonald comes to Washington it is not supposed here that Henderson will accompany him. Presumably he will stay in London to handle the Foreign Office.

Postmaster General Walter F. Brown, the eminent expert in cookery and gastronomy, was recently reported to have a standing reward of $5000 to anyone who could find a string in one of his extraordinary welsh rarebits.

Comes a letter from Mr. Otis Perry of Columbus, as follows:

"Dear Sir: If it is not a joke I think I have won your $5000. You will find the string in stirring."

That is, Mr. Perry proposes to remove the third and fourth letters of the word "stirring." Mr. Perry does not win the $5000. He just gets honorable mention.

The latest argument of the Americans waging the lobby against increase in the duty on Cuban sugar is that Cuba has been losing a great deal of money by co-operating with us in enforcing the prohibition laws.

The Permanent Committee on U. S. Relations of the American Chamber of Commerce estimates that if Cuba had not signed "rum treaties" with us and observed them Cuban liquor dealers would be benefiting by an export business of five or six million dollars a year in liquor which would reach the United States. Hence, why damage freindly Cuba by boosting the sugar tariff?

Gilbert Swan

Going Places With Swan

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., July 26—If the Hollywood tourists go away without one peep at the stars, it is not the fault of Mme. Helene.

Mme. Helene has done her best over a period of years to give the star gazers a treat. In the process whereof, Mme. Helene has grown economically secure and has been able to add to her holdings a sumptuous tea garden out under the more solid stars.

As a go-between for the mere ticket buyers and the stellar figures, Mme. Helene has been 'a good act,' as they say in Manhattan.

If, for instance, Wallace Beery, Clara Bow, Buddy Rogers or Evelyn Brent wander over from the Paramount studio, just across the way, Mme. Helene does not send her servants about whispering in the ears of the customers. She's far too good a showman. No, she calls out to the nearest waitress, "Have you a seat for M'ss Brent?" That's the "tip-off!" Immediately the customers begin to get their money's worth.

And because the actors drift in and the tourists drift in after them Mme. Helene's has become one of the four or five show places of the film colony. No less a troubador than Carl Van Vechten has sung the praises of a certain chocolate cake which, of course, they "were just out of" the day I was there.

But no matter where you eat, whether it be in the studio lunch counters or the nearby tourists' cafes, the film colony chats chiefly of the Broadway invasion. The old timers of the silient drama stare about in frank amazement—and not a little concern—at the steadily growing crop of strange faces from Manhattan. The casts of a number of pictures now in production are entirely, or largely, made up of Broadway players. This circumstance has thrown many of the publicity and promotion departments into a sudden fever. These new names must suddenly be made nationally known to a public that knows little or nothing about them. Furthermore, in the present hectic state of the talkies no one is at all sure of survival.

On the other hand, pictures are being "shot" with a speed and economy the films have not known in some time. In several of the very active studios it is not uncommon to see three or four different sets crowded on a single stage. Problems in stage geometry are being worked out with interesting results. For the talkies require but a relatively few people on stage in an average scene and this scene can be tucked into a small corner.

The "extras" have suffered considerably because of audible pictures, I am told, and thousands are said to be on the verge of panic. Very few of the talkies made to date have needed more than a dozen or more extra players. The John Barrymore production, "Capt. Crack," was a lifesaver, so they tell me, since it needed a vast number of extras for a coronation scene and other shots. Taken all in all, however, a complete cast of a dozen performers has been sufficient, since dozens of the first pictures were adapted from stage productions. Those with chorus experience have had "the breaks"—but those old fellows who lived on their picturesque faces, and "type" people in general, have been generally out of luck. You'll see them sitting all about the entrance way of the studios, looking glumly into space.

The rapid improvement in microphone facilities is another interesting phase of the talkie situation which, by the way, changes over night. A few months ago a gun shot within ten feet of the mike would have wrecked the instrument. It was the custom to "wad" a revolver so that smoke would be emitted, and to fire another gun at a distant end of the building. Over at the MGM studio the other day I saw a bullet fired within a few feet of the recorder without disastrous results. Glass can now be smashed and the other loud sounds made, due to overnight recording improvements. MGM also had a portable mike, operated on a crane-like arrangement, which could follow any player around the room. The talkies are picking up rapidly!

Temperance Is Doing Well, Mayo Declares

MANCHESTER, Eng., July 26 (AP).—Dr. William Mayo of the Mayo clinic of Rochester, Minn., thinks the temperance movement is doing very well in the United States.

Speaking today at the annual breakfast of the National Temperance league he decalred:

Dallas Real Estate Board Opposes Law

DALLAS, July 2 (AP)—The Dallas real estate board decided today to lay seige for the modification of the new Texas title policy law which places title policy companies under supervision of the state insurance commission. The secretary was instructed to obtain, as the first step in the campaign, from member boards information about local facts on title policies.

Officials of the local board have asserted that the law will result in a general revision upward.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters M.D.
Author of "Diet and Health" and "Diet for Children"

PURE ICE CREAM IS FINE FOR GROWING CHILDREN; LET THEM EAT IT FREELY.

Hot or Cold, Children Must Eat—Ice Cream!

During the intense heat of the summer, there is a little lessening of the need for energy foods, in both children and adults. This is shown by the decrease in the appetite. The energy food needs are lessened because, first, there is a lessened inclination for active play or exercise and, second, with the surrounding air very warm, there is no stimulation for the body to produce extra heat to keep its normal temperature. BUT we mustn't lose sight of the fact that, hot or cold, a child needs a lot of food!

The foods which may be decreased during the hot weather are the foods which are eaten mainly to produce energy and heat—the starches, sugars and fats. The child's ments and protein are not reduced one iota from what they are during cold weather.

Not infrequently the child's disinclination to eat during hot weather is observed to such an extent that he loses weight and has his resistance undermined. There is one food that children won't object to eat freely of and that's ice cream. Now, here's where I make a million warm little friends. Give it to them, once a day, twice a day, three times a day, four times a day, if they want it. Always, of course, with the knowledge that it is pure, that is not eaten too rapidly and taken after they have had the other foods they need—their green vegetables and fruit and whole grain breads and cereals, a small amount of protein in eggs, cottage cheese or flesh foods. If you let them have goodly amounts of ice cream, then you can cut out some of their butter, and some of the plain cream, and as much milk as would be supplied by the ice cream. (Ice cream is a good way to get milk into those children who don't like it.)

Can the baby have ice cream, too? Yes! If it is at the age when it is having other foods besides its milk—at five or six months. In very tiny tastes, of course, so it is thoroughly warmed before it reaches the tummy. Of course you must be doubly sure of its purity! If you're not, make it yourself of pasteurized milk and cream.

Ice cream is one little grand food. For young and old, sick and well. Why? Because it is made of milk and cream (and, of course, sugar). We have long known that ice cream is an excellent food, but now comes some experimental work which indicates that it is even better than we thought. This work was conducted in the animal nutrition laboratory of the National Dairy company, in Forest Lake, Minn., and reported in the June number of the American Journal of Public Health.

The animals used were albino and piebald rats, and the ice cream used was standard commercial vanilla ice cream and was not manufactured especially for the experiment. One group of rats used as a "control" were ed the normal diet, without ice cream. Another group received liberal amounts of ice cream, even to the extent of one-third of the entire weight of the diet. The ice cream babies grew more normally, and gained in weight much more rapidly than those that hadn't received any of the ice cream.

Because of the heat, foods more readily spoil and become contaminated in the summer. This must be guarded against in all ways; care in buying and handling, plenty of ice, keeping away flies and other insects, etc.

As often as possible, let the children have their lunch in the open, under the trees or in some other shady place. This is usually so enjoyed that it stimulates the lagging appetites.

And let them have lots of pure ice cream.

Who's Who and Timely Views

EXPANSION IN BRANCH BANKING ADVOCATED

BY LOUIS T. McFADDEN, Congressman From Pennsylvania

(Louis T. McFadden was born at Troy, Pa., July 25, 1876. He was educated in the public schools of that city and a commercial college. Beginning as an office boy in the First National bank at Canton, Pa., at the age of 16, he gradually rose to the office of president in 1916. He was elected to congress in 1915 and has been re-elected every term since, from the 18th district. He is a republican.)

It is pretty generally known among those who have paid any sort of attention to banking conditions in the United States that the country banks are having a hard time to earn a living. There may not be a general agreement upon the cause of this difficulty, but the fact remains to challenge our attention.

LOUIS T. McFADDEN

This situation was well expressed by Craig B. Hazelwood, the president of the American Bankers association, in his arguments for the adoption of higher standards of banking by the banks outside of the reserve cities, based upon the operating experience of the larger city banks which no doubt represent the highest attainments we have reached in this country in the banking business:

I agree with Mr. Hazelwood that if the country banks were operating upon these standards, had modern operating methods, modern credit machinery and modern securities information, they would be in a much stronger position both with respect to their stockholders and with respect to the public safety. The question, however, may seriously be raised whether the country unit banks are in a position voluntarily to adopt these high standards. This brings up the question of efficient and expert bank management in all of its aspects and applications. It also brings up the question of the relationship of the country banks to the new economic postwar conditions about which we hear and see so much at the present time.

Without in any way committing myself to a definite program, or forecasting what the Banking and Currency committee may do, I may mention some of the policies which congress could adopt for the purpose of establishing and maintaining a single unified system of commercial banking in the United States:

Nation-wide branch banking powers could be given to the national banks.

National banks could berelieved o fall taxation by the state government since such taxation is now imposed solely by permission of congress. This permission could be withdrawn.

Under its constitutional power to regulate commerce between states, congress could limit the financing of transactions in interstate commerce to the national banks.

NAVAL DISARMAMENT SHOULD BE PUSHED, KELLOGG DECLARES

PEACE SEEN AS NATURAL DEVELOPMENT

FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE ELATED OVER WORLD ACTION

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Naval disarmament among the nations of the world is regarded by Frank B. Kellogg, former secretary of state, as a natural step to follow the general treaty for the renunciation of war and one which should be pushed forward by the naval powers.

Mr. Kellogg, whose name is linked with that of Foreign Minister Briand of France in the popular title of the treaty, came to Washington at the invitation of President Hoover and Secretary Stimson to witness the ceremony of the final proclamation of the pact for which he worked so strenuously while in office.

Expresses Appreciation

"At the outset," he told the Associated Press in an interview, "I want to express my full appreciation of the efforts of Foreign Minister Briand of France in the part which he played in cooperating in the final consummation of the effort toward the preservation of world peace.

"M. Briand first invited the peace effort in his message to the American people through the Associated Press on the occasion of the anniversary of America's entrance into the World War a little more than two years ago. Since that time, we have seen the pact accepted by nearly all of the nations of the world and I am entirely confident that it will be accepted by all of the nations."

Asked what he considered the most effective way of making the treaty a certain means of preserving peace, he pointed out that its value had been demonstrated in two major world disputes which have developed since it was signed in Paris last August. He remarked it had played a large part in leading toward an amicable settlement of the present breach between China and Russia and said he believed it also influenced the preservation of peace between Bolivia and Paraguay in their dispute last December over the Gran Chaco.

Clipping Reveals Trade Of Negro Girl For 10 Barrels Of Whiskey Between Former Governor Of Texas

Worth of a woman in those days was estimated by her culinary ability and not by her "It" qualities.

Also liquor was sold at 22 cents per gallon.

The following clipping from the county of St. Augustine, Texas, in 1932, property of James H. Goodman of Lubbock, tells of the trade and sale of a negro girl and 10 barrels of whiskey, between Oran M. Roberts, later governor of Texas, and another man, Abner Parther.

"The Republic of Texas,

"San Augustine county. Know all men by these presents; that I, Oran M. Roberts, for and in consideration of the sum of Ninety Dollars, do by these presents bargain and sell unto Abner Parther a certain negro girl about fifteen years of age, named Sarah, of dark complexion, warranted to be a slave for life, the same to have and to hold to himself and legal representatives. Provided, however, and upon this condition, that whereas the said Roberts purchased ten barrels of whiskey from said Parther at twenty-two cents per gallon amount in all to about ninety dollars, four of which have already been delivered and other six barrels to be hereafter delivered upon order of said Roberts for which whiskey said Roberts binds himself to pay on or before the fifteenth day of November next. Now if the said Roberts shall well and truly pay said Abner Parther for said whiskey at said time, this instrument shall henceforth and forever after be fully discharged, cancelled and of no effect. This the 15th day of September, 1842.

"Witness my hand and seal, the word Parther is interlined before sealing and delivering.

"(Signed) Oran M. Roberts (Seal).
Test, John Martin."

BETHLEHEM STEEL INCREASES RATE

NEW YORK, July 26 (AP).—Directors of the Bethlehem Steel corporation Thursday increased the quarterly dividend rate to $2.50 from $1 paid in the two preceding quarters and at the same time reported record peace time earnings.

Net income for the second quarter of the year totaled $11,766,473, compared to $9,045,590 in the preceding quarter and $4,529,328 in the second quarter of 1928. Profit, after deducting all charges and preferred dividends, was equal to $5.33 a share on the average number of common shares outstanding, in the second quarter, an additional 600,000 shares having been issued as of June 18, last. This compares with $4.05 a share on fewer shares in the first quarter and $1.57 in the second quarter of 1928.

President Eugene G. Grace, in announcing operations during the second quarter averaged 100.6 per cent of rated capacity, said no letup in steel demand was in prospect for the balance of the year.

HALE TO SEND 70 TO SHORT COURSE WORK

DELEGATION TO LEAVE SATURDAY ON TRAIN FROM SECTION

(Special to The Journal)

PLAINVIEW, July 26—Seventy Hale county farm people will attend the annual Farmers' Short Course at Texas A. and M. college leaving Plainview, Hale Center or Abernathy on Saturday in a special train with representatives from other counties in the Panhandle-Plains.

County Agent H. M. Milhollin and County Home Demonstration Agent Mrs. Julia Kelley will have a number of their club members with them. A great many of the people who will attend the annual course have won the trip's expenses because of distinguished work in some agricultural or home-making project during the past year.

Bank Pays Expenses

The First National bank of Plainview is paying one-half of the expenses of approximately twenty-five boys, girls and women. Miss Opal Wood, head of the Home Service department of the bank will attend. The Plainview National bank is sending the winner of the Living Room contest, Mrs. John McGarr, and is paying other expenses incidental to the trip. The Security State bank is assisting in sending still others who have won the trip. Half of the expenses of six club girls is being met by the chamber of commerce. The Stoneback community has arranged to contribute part of the expenses of a large delegation from that part of the county.

Dairy Specialist Visits On Plains

PLAINVIEW, July 26 (Special)—J. H. McClain, dairy specialist of the United States Department of Agriculture, spent two days this week in Hale and Swisher counties visiting dairy herds and inspecting other phases of the industry in this territory. McClain was accompanied by County Agent R. M. Milhollin, and District Extension Agent Sterling C. Evans. McClain expressed his wonder at the high degree of diversification that exists in this part of the Panhandle-Plains, saying that it approached the ideal of one-third cotton, one-third wheat, and one-third to other crops used in dairy farming closer than any other section of the Southwest. He went from Plainview to Brownwood.

ONE OF THE ORIGINAL BOOTLEGGERS ON WAY BACK TO PEN AFTER 25 YEARS

(By Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, July 26—Neal Jaco, who escaped from the federal penitentiary 28 years ago after serving 11 months of a two year sentence for selling whiskey to the Indians, was on his way back to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, Thursday night.

Jaco, one of the original bootleggers, had been living in Fort Worth for many years and from time to time had been handled by police here for minor offenses, including drunkenness. The elderly man, he is now 59, gave no indication to police of his whereabouts in 1901 and it was left to his wife to divulge the information.

Jaco and his wife separated a short time ago. The constable's office was called on to serve sequestration papers on the furniture. Mrs. Jaco, angry at her husband, told the two officers her husband was an escaped prisoner.

Information was given police today by a guard from the Leavenworth penitentiary that a guard was killed in the escape of prisoners 28 years ago and that when Jaco arrives in Kansas he will be questioned about that phase of his escape.

Thomas Gilliver, a cripple, crawled from his wheel chair to a boy of two in a canal at Donisthorpe, England, recently, and held the child while he sat up to his neck in water until his sister-in-law, Mrs. J. H. Gilliver, arrived and pulled them both out.

More than 13,000,000 pounds of rice grown in this country were eaten in Germany in three months of this year.

STOCKS OPEN ACTIVE TODAY

STEELS RISE; JUMP IN BROKERS' LOANS INFLUENCES

NEW YORK, July 26 (AP)—The stock market opened active and strong today, favorable earnings reports and dividend acting evidently affecting the influence of the jump of $95,000,000 in brokers' loans. Bethlehem Steel opened with a block of 20,000 shares at 122, up 3 points to a record price, in response to the $1.50 quarterly dividend. U. S. Steel and General Electric each mounted 2 points. American Telephone 1 1-2 and several of the rails, including Baltimore and Ohio, Pennsylvania and Southern Railway mounted nearly a point each. Columbia Graphophone was a soft spot, losing 2 points.

The unexpectedly favorable Bethlehem Steel quarterly report, coupled with the increase in the annual dividend from $4 to $6, apparently offset the rise of $95,000,000 in brokers' loans to a new high record as a market factor. Buying operations were vigorously resumed in a wide assortment of issues.

Steels Lead Shares

Steel shares continued in the vanguard. Bethlehem crossed 122 to a new high, and U. S. Steel common was marked up 2 1-2 points.

Coppers showed a firmer undertone on reports of a steady increase in foreign demand. American Smelting was marked up more than 2 points and Anaconda 1 in the first few minutes of trading.

American Telephone advanced to new high ground by moving up 3 1-2 points to 270. International Telephone hallied in sympathy.

Motors were mixed, resumption of the advance in Marmon being counter-acted by the renewed heaviness of General Motors. General Electric and National Cash Register were in brisk demand.

Case Threshing broke 5 points and Engineers Public Service, Canadian Pacific an Louisville & Nashville yielded a point or so.

Foreign exchanges opened firm with cables slightly higher at $4.85 1-4.

OIL NEWS NOTES

SAN ANGELO, July 26 (AP)—A second producing horizon in Pecos county's fourth oil pool, established June 16 by Taylor-Link Oil company's No. 1 University in the southwest corner of section 30, block 16, was found Wednesday when Taylor-Link's No. 2 University in the northwest corner of section 31, block 16, a south offset to the discovery well, came in.

The well, from 928-930 feet made an estimated 50 to 100 barrels in three 40 minute heads. The slush pit was full and some estimates had it 200 barrels. The oil is of 26.8 gravity.

ACTS LIKE IT WAS JUST MADE FOR HER

Lubbock Housewife Says She Feels One Hundred Per-Cent Better Since Taking Orgatone

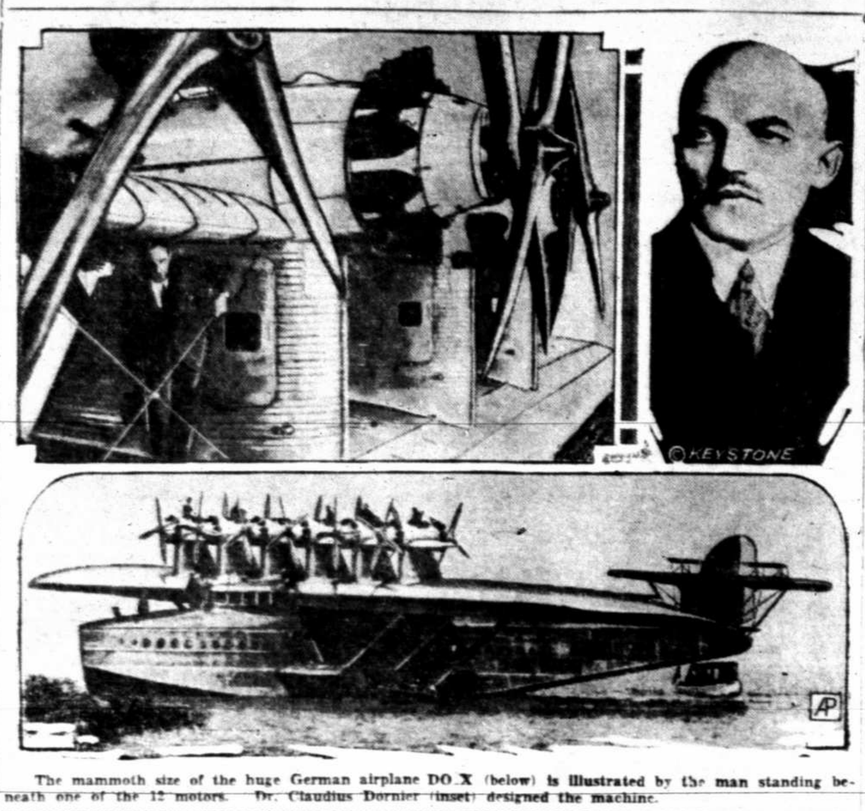

"This Orgatone acts just like it was made especially to fit my case," said Mrs. C. A. Walters of 1410 Texas Ave., Lubbock, Texas.

"The fact is I haven't seen a well day for the past two years," she continued, "and almost as soon as I started taking Orgatone it seemed to go right to the seat of my trouble, and anyone could see that I was getting better. My stomach gave me lots of trouble and everything I would eat would sour and cause bloating spells. I doubt have any appetite and I was weak, nervous and run down.

"I saw Orgatone so highly advertised that I decided to try it and it has certainly been the right medicine for me. I eat anything I want and it does not bother me at all. I'm not weak and run down as I was and am stronger in every way. I'm not bothered with constipation any more, and in fact I fell one hundred per cent better than I did before taking Orgatone. Orgatone has saved me from a lot of suffering that no other medicine or treatment was able to do and I am glad to give this statement and recommend it to my many friends."

Genuine Orgatone is not a so-called patent or secret remedy but a new scientific blie treatment containing no alcohol or other false stimulating drugs and is sold in Lubbock exclusively by the Bowen's Drug Store who are direct laboratory agents. (Adv.)

GERMAN "FLYING HOTEL" IS THE LARGEST AIRPLANE IN WORLD

The mammoth size of the huge German airplane DO X (below) is illustrated by the man standing beneath one of the 12 motors. Dr. Claudius Dornier (inset) designed the machine.

HUGE SHIP CAN CARRY 100 PASSENGERS EASILY

ALTENRHEIN, Switzerland, July 26 (AP)—Those who have been privileged to inspect the DO X, the latest product of the brains of Dr. Claudius Dornier, have come away with the impression that here at last is the airship of Jules Verne's dreams, the "Flying Hotel."

The DO X is a metal built flying boat, larger than the Graf Zeppelin, and three and one-half times as large as the Dorniel Superwhal with which Major Franco recently attempted to fly from Spain to the United States. It has three decks and accommodates 100 passengers easily. At a pinch it might hold 150.

Wings Spread 164 feet.

In fact it is the largest airplane in the world. It has a wing spread of 164 feet, and on the water it "draws" 4 feet, so that the propellers are 24 feet above the surface.

Twelve air-cooled Siemens-Jupiter motors, arranged tandem fashion on the upper surface of the wings, six in front and six behind, develop 6,300 h. p., insuring a traveling speed of 118 miles an hour, with a top speed of 156 miles at a flying radius of 1,860 miles.

Motors Independent

A unique feature is that the twelve motors run independently of one another, and progress is not in the least impeded, should three, or even four, fall out of action. Across the body is laid a little trackway for a running board on which engineers, lying prone, are quickly conveyed to shafts leading to each of the motors.

On the lower deck, 4,000 gallons of benzine, 1,500 kilos of oil, ballast, provisions, spares and tools are stored. This disposition of the fuel away from the motors, is said to reduce danger of fire to a minimum.

Cook By Electricity

The middle deck, 67 feet long, consists of a salon with sleeping cabins provisionally for 40 passengers, on both sides. Forward is a baggage compartment, while the cook's galley—all cooking is done by electricity—and the lavatories are aft.

Navigating officers and crew are housed on the upper deck, where is also the chart room, engine room and radio cabin.

The crew comprises a captain, two wireless operators, a navigation officer, four mechanics, a cook and a steward, 12 in all.

Contrasting with the flat bottomed Dornier-Wal type, the DO X has a keel shaped body which makes for safety on a rough sea. It has watertight bulkheads like a ship.

Seeking Name

The DO X, for which a better-sounding name presently will be found, also has a 4 h. p. motor on board to generate current for the setting in motion of the engines and for the pumping, lighting and radio plants.

Despite all these advantages, Dr. Dornier made it clear that this new flying boat was not constructed to cross the Atlantic. His purpose in building it, he said, was to transport with absolute safety 15 tons of cargo, say 100 passengers with their baggage, and reserve fuel over short distances of about 600 miles.

Transportation by air, he added, had not hitherto been a paying proposition but he intended to make it so. Two sister fliers already are under construction for Italian account. They weigh 25 tons each, or with crew and cargo about 51 tons.

COTTON OPENING IS FIRM TODAY

NEW ORLEANS, July 26 (AP)—The cotton market opened rather firm, owing to better cables than due, first trades showed gains of 8 to 12 points. The market continued to advance on reports of too much rain in in the Central and Eastern belts ad lack of precipitation in the Western belt. October traded up to 18.86, December to 19.03 and January to 19.06, or 18 to 21 points above yesterdays close.

At the end of the first hour the market was quieter and had eased off 6 to 8 points from the top.

The market turned easier on liberal week-end liquidation. October traded down to 18.66 and December to 18.82, or 21 to 22 points down from early highs. January eased off to 18.94 which was only 12 points down from the highs. Near midsession the market was somewhat steadier on cars of drought in Texas.

ADVANCE OF 4 TO 11 POINTS MADE IN N. Y.

NEW YORK, July 26 (AP)—Cotton opened steady at an advance of 4 to 11 points in response to the fairly steady showing of Liverpool, the failure of early reports to show rains in West Texas and continued reports of increasing weevil infestation or damage in the south. October sold up to 19.00 and January to 19.17 during early trading or about 15 to 20 points higher, but offerings increased. This caused reactions of 4 or 5 points rom the best but the market was quiet and steady at the end of the first half hour.

Realizing was absorbed on reactions of 5 to 10 points and the market held steady later on unfavorable crop advices from the southwest and renewed covering. At midday October was selling around 18.93 and January 19.12, with the general list showing net advantes of 11 to 15 points. According to report from Austin the state commissioner of agriculture estimated the Texas crop on the basis of conditions as of July 15, at 4,775,000 bales.

GRAINS ADVANCE ON MART TODAY and turned over the western portion of the field, and performed a few antics before climbing back to the usual cruising altitude of 2,000 to 2,500 feet.

Took On Light Load.

The plane took on a light load of sixty gallons of fuel this morning, indicating there would be two other refuelings before night. The Challenger engine of the Robin ceased its familiar "pop, pop," for a moment early today and alert watchers raised their heads expectantly. However, the sound started again, the interruption resulting merely from the action of the pilot in switching from one gasoline tank to the other.

The following telegram signed "Fairbault Citizens" was received today:

"Meet Pa and Ma Jackson, arriving by plane 2 p. m., Lambert. Notify Red."

The Jackson home is in Fairbault, Minn. The flier's wife had been trying for several days to persuade Jacksons parents to come to St. Louis. O'Brine's family is already here, keeping a constant vigil at the field.

Each hour they continue their aerial merry go round adds approximately $111 to the joint account of the fliers. Their daily compensation now is $2,673.

FIVE HUNDRED HOURS IS PAIR'S GOAL NOW

ST. LOUIS, July 26 (AP)—With "good flying" weather forecast for several days ahead, the "St. Louis Robin" had passed the three hundred hour figure and continued soaring on a recrod sustained flight today with 500 hours as the objective. It was the mark set by Dale "Red" Jackson, who with Forest O'Brine, are maneuvering the craft above Lambert-St. Louis field, to friends before he ascended on Saturday, July 13, nearly two weeks ago.

From the tone of the notes dropped by the airmen it was still a question of how long the engine would "run" and not a question of human endurance.

Concerned Over Texans

Jackson and O'Brine were concerned with the Houston endurance plane, the "Billion Dollar City," especially after the exchange of telegrams yesterday. The Robin had a 100 hour lead on the Texas plane, but "Red" and "Obie" expressed their idea of staying up until the "Billion Dollar City" descended.

Not A Fantasy

The 500-hour achievement is not a fantasy in the opinion of two motor experts. Arthur Nutt, designer of the motor, and Seth K. Prince, who installed it in the Robin. Nutt's faith was founded on test block operation of 500 hours with the throttle wide open while Prince "wouldn't be surprissed if it stays up 200 hours more. The valves probably will be the first thing to cease functioning. But it might be some little thing that no one ever gave a thought to, which will finally force it down."

Charles C. "Casey" Jones, president of the Curtiss Flying service, sent a message aloft yesterday in which he figured that Jackson and O'Brine have flown a distance equal to a prospective 17,000 mile commercial airline around the world, from New York to San Francisco, Honolulu, Tokyo, Constantinople, Madrid and return.

MINNESOTA TO TAKE SHORT AIR TRIPS

MINNEAPOLIS, July 26 (AP)—Trips to Mason City and Charles City, Iowa, were planned today to vary the monotony of the endurance refuelling record seeking flight in their monoplane, the Minnesota.

The fliers reported their motor was functioning perfectly and had been since their takeoff from Wold Chamberlain airport here at 6:40 p. m. Monday. Early today the Minnesota passed its eightieth hour in the air.

Can Wait Until '30

WASHINGTON, July 26 (AP)—Under President Hoover's interpretation of the 15 cruiser law, he is empowered to hold up the construction of any of the vessels authorized by that measure until June 30, 1931.

MEXICO CITY, July 26 (AP)—With his last 50 cents Isidro Martinez bought a lottery ticket that won 3,000 pesos (about $1,500), but on the day of the drawing he died.

The money was paid to the widow, who entrusted it to a medium on his statement that her husband's "spirit" had instructed that it be given to him for investment.

The medium made off with the prize, and Mrs. Martinez has placed the case in the hands of the police.

BROOKHART EXCLUDED

CHICAGO, July 26 (AP)—Senator Smith W. Brookhart, republican of Iowa, was excluded from the executive session of the federal farm board when it convened today for its first conference outside of Washington.

FIELDS WINS OVER DUNDEE

WELTERWEIGHT TITLE IN NEW HANDS DUE TO FOUL IN 2ND

BY CHARLES W. DUNKLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

DETROIT, July 26 (AP)—Jackie Fields, the Shiek of Chicago, ruled today as undisputed welterweight champion of the world.

Fields won the title last night, defeating Joe Dundee, the title holder, on a foul in the second round of the scheduled 15-round battle. Dundee knocked down twice in the second round, cut loose with a sweeping right hand punch that landed deep in the foul territory, a minute and 55 seconds after the round opened. Fields collapsed on the canvas, rolled over three time in an attempt to get near his corner, but was unable to regain his feet.

Dragged to Corner

Writhing in pain, Fields was dragged to his corner, but was suffering so intensely he was unable to get on his chair and fell into the resin. After physicians made an examination, the low blow was pronounced a foul, and Fields was awarded the fight and the championship.

Dundee was guilty of fouling after he had received $0,000 in advance for risking his title against the challenger. He was paid 10,000 at the time the match was made and got the remaining $40,000 before he entered the ring last night. Some of the skeptics advanced the opinion that Dundee fouled Fields when it was apparent he had no chance of winning, and possibly would have been knocked out before the finish of the second round or at least the next one.

Chin Was Target

The chin that absorbed Mickey Walker's punches, and the battering of Pete Latzo was an open target for Field's sharp crosses and left hooks. Dundee started to sag under Fields' wallops in the first round and broke completely in the second. A few seconds after the second round opened, Fields sent a crashing right to the chin that dropped Dundee to the floor for a count of nine. There was little strength left in his wobbly legs when he regained his feet. He staggered forward and ran into another right hand punch that landed on the peak of his chin. He went down again, this time for a count of seven. When he got up he fell into the ropes and then cut loose with a terrific right hand punch that landed low in the groin.

Dundee claims the blow was delivered unintentionally.

BARNES WINS FIRST ROUND

LONG JIM EMERGES IN CANADIAN OPEN WITH 66

BY BRIAN BELL,
Associated Press Sports Writer

KANAWAKI, Que., July 26 (AP)—The second round of the Canadian Open golf tournament today gave a big field of professional and amateur stars another opportunity to put the Kanawaki course in its place.

The players, foreign and domestic, expected to attend to this detail in the opening round, but the innocent appearing holes fought back and just seven competitors, two from Canada and five from the United States, could get around in par figures or better.

Barnes Leads Field

In contrast to suggestions that dozens would break 70 only a quarter could sing that key going into the second test. Led by Jim Barnes, the sage of New Rochelle, N. Y., with 66, the dominion was in second place, thanks to a 68 from Ernie Wakelam, English born pro resident at Brockville, Ont. These two brilliant scores gave Merrie England the honors o fthe day, for Barnes was born in Cornwall.

Tommy Armour, Canadian open champion in 1927, was tied with Billy Burke, New York state open champion, at 69.

The par players at 70 were Leo Diegel, the defending champion, the perennial Emmett French, and George Elder, Montreal pro.

George Von Elm showed the way for those who play for fun with 71 and Ross Somerville, Canada's amateur, had 73, the same count needed by Willia Lamb, the Canadian P. G. A. champion, and half a dozen others, including the British open champion, Walter Hagen.

MAJOR LEAGUES

under a 14 to 2 count and evened the series with two victories apiece. Lucas held the Braves to nine scat himself.

There were only two games in the American League, but in one of them the Athletics drove out 25 hits to crush Cleveland, 21 to 3, and extend their league lead to 10 1-2 games. Nine runs in the first inning decided the game and allowed Lefty Grove to win his 17th game without extending himself.

Fred Marberry weakened in the late innings, and the Chicago White Sox eked out a 3 to 1 victory over Washington in ten innings, the Senators got only six hits off Walsh, McKain and Weiland. Marberry was reached for nine.

FRANCE WINS SINGLES PLAY

U. S. HOPES BLASTED BY BOROTRA-COCHET VICTORIES

BY THOMAS T. TOPPING
Associated Press Staff Writer

ROLLAND GARROS STADIUM, PARIS, July 26 (AP)—France blasted America's tennis hopes today by sweeping both opening singles matches of the Davis Cup challenge round. Henri Cochet, French ace, crushed Big Bill Tilden in straight sets, 6-3, 6-1, 6-2, after Jean Borotra had vanquished George Lott, youthful American, 6-1, 3-6, 6-4, 7-5.

TEXAS LEAGUE

late innings, when he began to wobble and was relieved by Glaser. By that time, however, the tribe long since had put across sufficient runs to win.

Today's hostilities mark the close of the intersectional struggles, and at least two of the northern clubs will leave the lower end of the state without regrets. Shreveport and Wichita have done very well in the southland, both winning a majority, but it has been a tough trip for the Steers and Panthers. Including yesterday's games, Shreveport had managed to win six while losing three to southern opponents. Wichita had won fivge and lost three. Dallas had won four while losing six, and the Panthers had three wins against six defeats. A little quick addition reveals that it has been a drawn battle thus far, each section winning 18 and dropping a like number.

Goose Goslin was fined $100 for hitting a pitched ball when the bench signalled otherwise.

Leo Diegel defends both his Canadian open championship and professional golfer's championship this year.

The eastern league has barred the lively ball.
