New Schedule At S-E

For the past several weeks, a controversy has loomed over the extended school day, due to the free breakfast program initiated this school year. As an attempt to reach an equitable solution, Superintendent of Schools, Bill Mann has fabricated a schedule whereby the school day has been shortened by 16 minutes. This is essentially accomplished by shortening the time between the end of period and the tardy bell. The new schedule is reproduced below for your information.

8:00 A.M. - Teachers will continue to arrive at school.

Students will arrive at school between 8:10 and 8:20 each day. (It is very important that each bus arrive at school at least 10 minutes before the 8:10 a.m. bell.)

	1st Bell	2nd Bell	Period Ends
1st period	8:27	8:30	9:22
2nd period	9:25	9:27	10:20
3rd period	10:23	10:25	11:18
4th period	11:21	11:23	12:16
5th period	12:19	12:21	1:43
1st Lunch	12:21 -- 12:48
2nd Lunch	12:25 -- 12:52
3rd Lunch	12:28 -- 12:55
6th period	1:46	1:48	2:41
7th period	2:44	2:46	3:39
8th Bell	3:44		Dismiss 10 minutes

Students will leave promptly at 3:44 -- (This is 16 minutes earlier than previous time of 4:00 P.M.)

Bus: With buses arriving 10 minutes later and leaving 16 minutes earlier this will be a 26 minute shorter day for students.

Slew Loses 26-0

Bovina used the rain and some luck to defeat the Wolverines Friday. The Slew had a great opportunity early in the game after the opening kick off to Bovina. Byron Vaughn and Keith Clayton caused a fumble and Steve Monreal fell on it and the Crew had a great chance at Bovina's 21 yard line. After moving the ball to the 9 yard line and a 5 yard penalty on 4th down and 2 yard, the Crew were stopped short of making it.

Then the defense again held off with a couple of 15 yard penalties and Bovina got out of the hold. The Wolverines played great defense and stopped Bovinas strong running game to 112 yards of running yards and 38 yards of passing and no return yardage. The Wolverines had 3 goal line stands and were able to get 6 sacks.

A lack of traction caused the Slew their greatest difficulty offensively playing very well for the Slew were Byron Vaughn, Keith Clayton, Lexie Fennell, Rudy DeLeon, Steve Monreal, Jimmy Don Randolph, James Herriage, Johnny Samaniego, Melvin James, Elizar Ontiversis, Ricky Smith, David White, Kevin Riley, Rex Fennell, Mike McCarty, , Ricky Bosquez and Ramon Olvera.

Our kicking game was even better than last week with Mike McCarty doing the snapping and Biff Belew punting for a 37.2 avg. on 6 punts.

The offensive player of the week is Byron Vaughn, defensive players of the week, James Herriage and Byron Vaughn and Big Hit is Byron Vaughn.

Next game is at Hart Friday night and should be a good one. See you there. The kids deserve a pat on the back. They came back super after the Vega game.

Fennell) who is to marry them. Pete is nervous about performing his first wedding, and later gets the marriage ceremony hopelessly confused with a burial service! When hard-boiled step-aunt Hortense (Rosie Lawis) bounces in with her precious son Dillingham (Keith Clayton), things really start popping! Is there a bevy of weirdies wandering around the place? Oh, brother! There's Granny Karp (Lindsey Field), a hideous old crone, Bruno (Allen Moore), her shift-eyed brute of a grandson Herr Doktor Klaus Von Schlasher (Pat Fulfer) a balm brain surgeon who enjoys stuffing animal brains in human skulls, Rozika (Carrie Barden) part vampire part werewolf who spits and yowls, and lastly Arnold (Cary Sawyer) the box-constrictor boy who crawls in reptilian fashion.

The play ends in an exciting action-packed climax with a double-surprise twist that will leave the audience gasping with alarm and laughter. The play is directed by Roseanna Scobie. Sound effects are by John Chapman. Every senior gives you a special invitation to attend.

8th Grade Wins

The 8th grade followed in the footsteps of their little brothers, the 7th grade Thursday night when they proceeded to beat Bovina 34-12. The game was all offense and defense for S-E who put together several drives, several long runs and passes plus many superb plays on defense.

The first score came from Lorenzo Monreal with a run of 50 yards. This play was on the 1st series of downs. Lorenzo also had a run for TD from 90 yards away. When Hector Flores stopped a late drive by Bovina on the 3 yard line with an interception, 2 plays later Lorenzo ran 90 yards for the TD. Monreal also threw for a TD pass to Hector Flores for a 30 yard TD run by him. Flores also recovered 1 fumble early in the 1st half.

Power running back Danny DeLeon also had a fine night against Bovina bulling his way over, around, and through the defense for 2 scores of his own plus 1 ex pt. His runs were from 35 yards to 5 yards out.

The defense played well in the game also and even helped in the scoring column by scoring a safety against Bovina. Clifford James and Lorenzo Monreal were credited for the safety. The secondary again like the 7th graders had trouble for both scores of Bovina came from passes over the middle. Overall the defense had a fine night!

Joe Olvera again this week was denied a TD by a penalty that called his double reverse TD back from 30 yards out. Bobby Pyle had a good night at defense end. Anthony Loyal, Scott Baucum, Maurice Hood and Rocky Lunsford kept the middle defense line strong against the run. The 8th grade now stands at 3-0 in the District and 5-2-0 in regular season play. Next game will be Hart at home at 6:30. Come and enjoy the game.

7th Grade Wins

S-E young Slew Crew cruised past Bovina's 7th grade Thursday with a score of 40-20. The offense was a power house with several long break away runs of 50 yards or better. Bovina's defense was unable to stop the strong running game that the young crew put together.

On the first play from scrimmage after the kickoff, Felix Garcia took the ball from his 25 yard line and broke free from 2 tackles and raced 75 yards for a TD. Charles James came back with the ex. pt. This set the offense in gear for many more scores of the night. Felix scored 3 times with runs of 75 and 50 yards and one ex. pt. Charles James scored 4 times with runs of 10, 50, and 75 yards and an ex. pt. The 75 yard run came with a K.O. to Charles who eluded several tacklers found daylight and ran in for the score. Jeff Hamilton also scored with an opp. keep from 10 yards out, and also had several completions in the passing category, one for the ex. pt. to Felix.

The defense was not to be denied some of the glory. The defense held well most of the night, but had a little trouble in the secondary and this is where Bovina took advantage of S-E for their scores. S-E finally showed up the defense and intercepted and recovered fumbles on Bovina. Stephen DeGrate intercepted one pass and returned it for 20 yards to help set up another S-E score. The defense also stopped a scoring threat by Bovina in the 2nd half by knocking the ball loose on the 15 yard line and recovered the fumble. Felix Garcia and Jerry Fuentes recovered. It was a great game for the 7th grade and another District win. This brings the 7th grade to a 3-0 record in District and 5-2-1 overall for the season. Next game at home against Hart at 5:00. Come see the game.

Cotton Prices Lower

Prices High Plains cotton growers received were around $1.25 to $2.50 per bale lower the week ending November 3, according to Paul R. Dickson, Area director at USDA's Marketing Services Office in Lubbock.

Growers sold mixed lots of mostly grades 42 and better, staples 30-33, mikes 3.5-4.9 around 58.15 cents per pound. New crop lots of mostly grade 43, staples 30 and 31, mikes 3.5-4.9 brought about 54.30 cents per pound, Dickson said.

High Plains Marketing Services Offices graded 28,000 samples this week, bringing the season's total to 100,000. This compares with 727,000 graded by November 3 last year, according to USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service.

Predominant High Plains grades this week were grade 41 at 19 percent, grade 32 was nine percent, grade 42 accounted for 43 percent, and grade 52 was eight percent. Four percent were reduced one grade because of bark.

Staple lengths were mostly staple 31 at 21 percent, staple 32 was 34 percent and staple 33 accounted for 23 percent. Micronaire was mostly in the desirable 3.5-4.9 range at 84 percent of the total. Eight percent was higher and eight percent was lower.

IT'S A HOLD UP, it's also lots of laughs, suspense and terror for the audience during the Senior Class play next Tuesday night.

NEWS Of Education

Prepared by the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU), a national organization of public educators dedicated to expanded college opportunities and high standards of academic excellence.

Q. I'm thinking about going to college, but does a Bachelor of Arts degree still stand for high educational achievement?

A. Yes. Colleges are trying to expand opportunities for higher education while maintaining academic standards. A special AASCU task force established guidelines for more definitive standards of academic achievement and competencies necessary for a degree. Many state colleges and universities now are studying stricter qualifications for awarding baccalaureate degrees.

How Much Nitrogen? Any Phosphorous?

Dear Producer:

This year, consider using a QUALIFIED, UNBIASED consultant to provide you with a fertilizer recommendation for each individual field. For a proper recommendation, to be made the following information should be considered for each field:

- 78 Crop & Yield
- 78 Fertilizer Practices
- 79 Crop
- 79 Yield Intentions
- Complete Soil Analysis

I believe you need to fit an unbiased, professional recommendation of this type into your management system—considering the type of investment you have in fertilizer today.

S-E Math Program

Mrs. Jones is the Junior High Math teacher and her math aides are Carolyn Stephens and Patty Parish. They help grade papers and organize materials but their main responsibility is to help those students on an individual basis that are having difficulty with their math.

In the sixth grade classes, the students are learning how to divide by 2 and 3 digit divisors. The students also have to check their problems by multiplication.

In the 7D class, the students are learning all about geometry.

In the 7C class, the students are learning how to give change with the least amount of coins possible.

In the 8E section the students are learning all about decimals. The class is responsible for knowing how to write a decimal in words, how to write a decimal in numbers when they are given the word phrase and to write a decimal in expanded notation. Can you do this? .637-(6x.1) plus (3x.1) plus (7x.001).

In the 8F section, the students have just completed making geometrical drawings using only a compass and a straight edge. Some of the designs were very difficult. This week the students are learning how to find the area of such geometrical shapes as the triangle, square, rectangle and parallelogram.

The Migrant Math program is a program to help students that are migrants. A migrant is someone that had moved into our school district because their parents are working in their agriculture field or agriculture related field. The Migrant math program is composed of Mr. Raymond James, the Migrant math teacher and

Mrs. Patty Parish, the Migrant math aide. These two well qualified people help the students, are aided in the regular classroom by Mrs. Parish and some students are given an additional hour of math under the supervision of Mr. James.

The purpose of all this extra help is to bring up the students grade level in math to the grade the student is in.

The State Compensatory Math program is under the Title I program. This program is set up for an instructional aide Carolyn Stephens, to work in the regular classroom with any student that is 1 year or more below grade. The determination of the students being below grade level is made by a standardized achievement test. Mrs. Stephens works with small groups of students that need more individual help, to master the lesson that was presented to the entire class.

MRS. JONES and aid Carolyn Stephens work closely together in teaching Junior High Math.

MR. RAYMOND JAMES, Migrant Math Teacher and students.

INGENIOUS Ideas

The "Lost Wax" Process
Although mysterious sounding, the so-called "lost wax" method of producing intricate designs in gold jewelry is no mystery. It was developed by the ancient Egyptians in the third century B.C. and used also by the pre-Columbian Indians of South America. Today this process is used by modern designers to produce more than half of the karat gold jewelry made.

Here is how the venerable process works. First, a metal model is made of an original design, say a ring. The model is then used to make a rubber mold. From this mold multiple copies are made in wax. The wax is then affixed to a wax base and plaster of Paris is poured over it. After the plaster hardens, the mold is fired in an oven. In the oven the wax melts or is "lost," leaving a hollow mold. High-speed spinning in a centrifuge forces molten gold into every nook and cranny of the mold. The result is a perfect gold replica of the original design. The "lost wax" method enables jewelry manufacturers to produce intricate gold designs in multiples at a mere fraction of the time and cost necessary to make a single original piece of jewelry. And that is the whole ball of wax on "lost wax."

Dimmitt Locals

By Maxine Short

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon, October 21 for Jennie E. Staton, long-time Dimmitt resident, who passed away last Tuesday in Plains Memorial Hospital following a lengthy illness. Mrs. Staton came to Dimmitt in 1936 from Calhoun.

Last rites were held in the Lee Street Baptist Church by Rev. Ronnie Davis, pastor. Burial was in Castro Memorial Gardens under the directions of Dennis Funeral Home. Mrs. Staton is survived by her husband, H.V. Staton, two sisters, Lavella Sullivan and Davie Lay, both of Dimmitt; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers were C.L. (Shorty) Barlow, C.J. Johnson, Lester McDermitt, T.D. Clayborn, Roy Murphy and Billy Backleman.

Funeral services for Hugh E. Ritch, 87, a former Castro County resident, were conducted Monday, October 23 in the First United Methodist Church in Plainview by Dr. Marshall Dew of Abilene and Rev. Bill Cough, associate pastor of the Plainview church.

Burial was in Plainview Memorial Park Cemetery with Masonic graveside rites. Mr. Ritch was a member of Masonic orders for 65 years.

He came to Castro County in 1947 after retirement from the Southwest Drug Company in Amarillo, and farmed north of Dimmitt until he moved to Plainview in 1956.

Mr. Ritch was born April 13, 1901 in Homa, Georgia and married Myrtle Morris in Laguna Beach, California, July 31, 1921.

He is survived by his wife, Myrtle; one daughter, Mrs. Arthur B. Clark, who lives north of Dimmitt; two sons, Dr. Thomas Alden Ritch of Roswell, New Mexico and Dr. Hugh Lee Ritch of Clovis; three brothers, Dr. Allen T. Ritch of San Antonio, Percy D. Ritch of Nevada City, Calif. and Jerry Ritch of Oxnard, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. Jack Oliver of Pasadena, California and 9 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Monday morning for Fred Axe of Canyon, a long-time area resident, in the First Presbyterian Church at Hereford with Rev. George Belford, pastor, officiating. Burial followed in West Park Cemetery under the direction of Gilliland-Watson Funeral Home.

Born August 2, 1910, in Castro County, Mr. Axe spent most of his life as a farmer and rancher in the Dimmitt area.

He is survived by his wife, Thelma of Canyon and three brothers, Lynn of Vega, Anderson and Wilbur P. both of Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. Axe moved to Canyon in May of this year from Vinita, Oklahoma.

Another sign that summer is over, Daylight Saving Time will end at Midnight Saturday and all clocks and watches should be turned back one hour at bedtime to assure the correct time for waking up Sunday morning.

Actually, the official time to reset the clocks nationwide is at 1 a.m. Sunday, when the hands should be moved back to 12 midnight to get on Central Standard time again. The county has been cooperating on Daylight Savings Time since last spring.

Judge John Boyd of the 64th District Court said he hopes a November date can be set for a hearing on a change of venue motion for Loy D. and Louise Stone, charged in the shotgun death last Halloween of Roxanne Casas.

Attorneys for the Stones are asking the change of venue on grounds that a fair trial would not be possible in Castro County because of strong emotional feelings in the community.

Judge Boyd said the motion would be granted if it is proven that it would be impossible to select an impartial jury in Castro County. If the change-of-venue motion were granted, the trial would probably be held in an adjoining county.

Delay in holding the hearing on the motion has been due to the crowded docket in his court, Judge Boyd previously said.

After establishment of the new 242nd District Court which now shares in the case load here, Judge Boyd has been occupied in clearing out the backlog of cases in the 64th District Court to comply with provisions of the new Texas Speedy Trial Act. IME and Mrs. Stone, who own a farm north of Dimmitt, were charged with murder after Miss Casas, 15, of Dimmitt was killed and two others were injured by a shotgun blast fired into the pickup they and two other teenagers occupied. The Stones are free on $50,000 bond each.

Mrs. Mary Etta Cowan reached the magical age of 100 Sunday, October 22, and was honored with a big birthday party at South Hills Manor. Hosting the party were her sister, Mrs. L.A. Ashlock, 98; her nieces, Mrs. Leta Curtsinger, Mrs. Elsie Russell and Mrs. Marie Corneliuss; her great-niece, Wanda Slagle; and the staff of South Hills Manor. All residents of the Manor shared in the birthday cake and punch.

Regulations on operation of shooting preserves, as they apply to the pheasant hunting permits which the Dimmitt Kiwanis Club plans to handle this fall were explained by Texas Game Wardens Chuck Cosper of Hereford and Julius Stevens of Tulia Monday.

Cosper was the speaker for the club's luncheon and Stevens assisted him in answering questions of the members.

Hunting rights on land owned by the Bruegel family in this county have been assigned to the Kiwanis Club this year, and some other landowners have added to that acreage so the club will have large tracts on which to sell permits for hunting.

This project will be added to the hunters' breakfast which Kiwanians serve each year on the first day of the pheasant season to raise funds for community projects.

Cosper said a growing number of landowners in this area are selling permits for hunting on their land, as more and more hunters come to Castro County and adjoining counties each year.

He believes restriction of hunting privileges by the landowners will become more common in the future.

The person or club selling rights must have a license, he said, and must keep a record of hunting names, their hunting license numbers and number of birds killed.

He reminded Kiwanians that hunters under 17 years of age and over 65 may hunt without a license, and residents of the county in which they are hunting are also exempt. But an out-of-county hunter needs a license, even if he is hunting on his own land, the game warden warned.

Kiwanians heard a challenge from the Dimmitt Young Farmers to play a benefit softball game, and decided to inquire more about the details. Volunteers were listed to deliver meals-on-wheels this week.

Dr. Ron Easley, veterinarian, was welcomed as a new club member. Visitors included Doyle Wassom of the Texas Department of Highways and Transportation, and from Dimmitt High School's Key Club, Laura Lapins, Sue Rita King, Brad Murdock and Kelly Nelson.

The Key Clubbers reported their group had about 90 members at the high school track Sunday afternoon, running in the district Key Club Marathon for the mentally retarded and collected "nearly a thousand dollars" for the cause. The club is selling firewood to raise money for local projects.

Mr. and Mrs. Jose Efrain Gonzales of Dimmitt are the parents of a girl, Veronica. Born October 17, she weighed 5 pounds, 7 3/4 ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Nemecio Reyna III of Hereford are the parents of a boy, Tommy Edward. He was born October 11, weighing 7 pounds, 6 1/2 ounces.

Prior to the 1978 ginning season, Bruegel Brothers Gin in western Castro County has completed a program of remodeling and installing new machinery which gives it equipment to "gin more, faster and turn out a better grade of cotton," according to manager W.A. Armstrong.

The most modern gin machinery is now in place in their remodeled building, which is located five miles north of Tam-Anne, Armstrong said. The Bruegel Gin has operated there for about 10 years.

The cotton crop is ready for harvesting "as soon as we get a frost," Armstrong said, "and there is a lot of good cotton in this community so we are looking for a good season out here."

Johnny Nino of Dimmitt, the panhandle's district 13 year old champion in Punt, Pass and Kick, earned the fourth place trophy in regional competition Saturday in Oklahoma City. Sponsored by Stan

Byrnes Ford, Inc., of Dimmitt, he was accompanied to the regional contest by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Nino.

A "backing accident" occurred Monday when a 1975 Chevrolet Silverado pickup driven by Floyd Shugart, 58, struck a 1971 Mercury driven by Richard A. Catoe, 37. Police Chief Alan Newman said Shugart was backing his pickup in the traffic lane and struck Catoe while he was backing out of a legally parked position. Shugart was cited for illegal backing.

Mrs. A.H. Taylor reported several coffee tables had been taken from her rent house at 305 Northwest Third Street Friday. Police are investigating the theft.

Police also made four DWI arrests and filed two Marijuana possession charges during the week. All were first offense misdemeanors.

YACC

"If YACC hadn't been available, I'd probably still be wandering around Leesburg, Fla.," said Ricky Smith, 18. Ricky is like many other people his age, driven by lack of opportunity from their home towns to work in the nation's conservation problems.

They find they like it. "I like doing different jobs and seeing different things. I've made new friends and I like the staff and the way they work with me and the rest of the crew."

A big fringe benefit is working in the fresh air and sunlight in the nation's huge national forests.

Throughout the country, Ricky and his colleagues are building miles of trails, picking up tons of litter, fighting forest fires, planting trees, developing and repairing picnic tables and completing scores of other conservation tasks that wouldn't be done without them.

In the process they're learning about themselves and about working with others. They're also learning skills to help them get jobs when their conservation work is done.

PREPARING CAMP

Ricky is a member of the Young Adult Conservation Corps. It started business a year ago to ease unemployment among young people and to do conservation work on public lands. Nearly 10,000 people like Ricky have worked in the national forests during the first year, gaining experience and developing an appreciation for the outdoors and for conservation.

"The projects I like best are construction oriented," says Ricky. "I'm kind of proud of the carpentry and plumbing work I've done on buildings here in the forest. I really enjoy what we're doing to get Camp Ocala ready."

Ricky and his crewmembers are fixing up the camp to accommodate 190 young people just joining the corps, plus a professional staff of 45. Ricky is helping to install new electrical and water lines, replace windows and roofs, and repair and paint camp cabins and support structures.

The corps has members, like Ricky, who live at home and commute each day to their forest "offices" amid wildlife sounds and rustling leaves. But residential corps members, like those coming to Camp Ocala, live right in the forest. There are currently 8,200 nonresidential corps enrollees, plus 860 enrolled in residential camps. The number of residential enrollees will grow as more camps open throughout the United States.

The present corps is administered by federal agencies, among them the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Forest Service.

Most corps members earn $2.65 an hour, minus deductions for taxes and the like. Those who become assistant crew leaders earn more. Residential enrollees pay $3.00 a day for food and lodging.

QUALIFICATIONS

Young people such as Ricky learn about the corps through community services, the news media and state employment services. They apply for the work area nearest their home and must be unemployed, age 16 to 23, capable of doing the work, and be U.S. citizens, lawful permanent residents or lawfully admitted refugees or parolees.

Most enrollees seem to regret leaving the corps when their year is up but many learn skills that allow them to compete in the job market.

"I think this program's a good thing," said Terry Bell, an enrollee on the Cherokee National Forest in east Tennessee. "We've done a good job in this district and we haven't started a job yet that we didn't finish, even back in the cold weather."

LEARNING MANY SKILLS

Bell grew up in Tennessee, graduated from the nearby high school and trained as a welder. His job with the corps is his first. He's learning many different kinds of work "from general maintenance to planting trees."

Bell hopes that widening his skills, he increase his chances employment when his months with the corps end this fall.

The conservation organization is often thought of as a modern version of the Civilian Conservation Corps, highly regarded because of similar conservation work it did in the 1930s. However, enrollment in the Young Adult Conservation Corps is 98 percent female and takes on a greater variety of tasks than the 1930s corps did.

But for the young people around the nation who have too little to do, the program offers more than birdcalls, bracing and $2.65 an hour. "I like to look back at projects we've completed," said one corps member, "and be able to say, 'I had a part in that.'"

A responsible and caring babysitter is a boon to new parents. To assure the baby's and the mother's health and safety in their absence parents should follow certain guidelines.

• Leave and return on time. If you are unavoidably detained, call and notify your sitter.

• Post a list of important telephone numbers—neighbors, doctor, fire and police departments, a number where you can be reached—near the phone. • Give your sitter specific instructions related to bathing, feeding and bedtime. You can simplify feeding time and be sure that baby has a nutritious meal by having convenient Gerber baby foods on hand. • Don't ask your sitter to do housework or the laundry. The sitter's main and only responsibility should be caring for your child.
