CHILD IS BURNED AT IOWA PARK

PUBLICITY AND NON-TEACHING BRANCHES OF INSTRUCTIONS ARE OMITTED FROM APPROPRIATION

AUSTIN, Aug. 23.—At a meeting of the free conference committee on the educational appropriation bill last night, approximately $75,000 for each of the next two years was cut from the bill, it was learned from one of the members this morning. This amount was sliced off by cutting out the appropriations for various departments in state educational institutions, such as publicity and other non-teaching branches.

The meeting and its results were supposed to have been kept secret until the bill is brought up for consideration but it leaked out through one of the members.

This reduction was made after members of the People's club, favoring reductions, had informed the nonferenre committee that the report would be accepted by the People's club if these departments were abolished.

SENATE BILL PROVIDES FOR CUT IN HOSPITAL FUND

AUSTIN, Aug. 23.—A bill was introduced in the senate today by Senator Baugh of Runnels, cutting $250,000 from the appropriation of $1,500,000 for the American legion hospital at Kerrville and making $750,000 available for the first, and $500,000 for the second year. Senator Burkett of Eastland introduced a bill on the same subject but leaving the appropriation as it is, but making available $750,000 for the first and $750,000 for the second year.

In the senate a resolution offered by Senator Dudley of El Paso was adopted providing for the appointment of a committee of five senators to make an inspection of the Davis mountains in Jeff Davis county and the Palodure canyon, with a view of considering the establishment of a state park.

Senator Clark of Fayette introduced a bill in the senate proposing the repeal of the act of the regular session of the 37th legislature making an appropriation of $1,350,000 for the acquisition of 135 acres of land adjacent to the campus of the university for use of that institution.

Report of the free conference on the educational appropriation bill was taken up for consideration in both branches of the legislature at 2:30 this afternoon. Further cuts in the budget of the University of Texas amounting to approximately $50,000 were made. These are the cuts agreed to by the committee last night.

HOUSE BILL PROPOSES TO STOP LAND PURCHASES

AUSTIN, Aug. 23.—A bill proposing to stop the purchasing of additional lands for the University of Texas was introduced in the house by Representative King today. He claims that by stopping such purchasing now that $700,000 of the $1,300,000 appropriated for that purpose will be saved and that sufficient lands have been already purchased under this act for expansion of the university.

After Governor Neff vetoed the concurrent resolution of the first called session providing for a committee to investigate the feasibility of establishing a state park in the Davis mountains, the house passed a simple resolution providing for this committee. The senate also passed a similar resolution. The governor has no power over simple resolutions.

Speaker Thomas appointed Representatives Hall, Williams of McLennan, Seagler, Shearer and John Davis as the committee to investigate the feasibility of establishing a state park in the Davis mountains. This committee is the same as in the resolution vetoed by Governor Neff.

After the defeat of his resolution Representative Hardin gained the floor on a point of personal privilege and again attacked the governor. He said among other things that the governor has "assumed an air of patronizing superiority and is playing to the political galleries." He also charged that the governor's message relating to the state's conditions were inconsistent. Governer Neff occupied a seat in the rear of the house during the speech.

Under suspension of the constitutional rule the house passed finally the representative redistricting bill. The bill provides for 150 representatives, the constitutional limit. There are 142 representatives.

PANAMA'S REPLY TO HUGHES' LATEST NOTE IS BEING CONSIDERED

TROOPS HELD IN READINESS TO RESIST OCCUPATION BY COSTA RICA.

SECRETARY'S NOTE IS THE LAST WORD ON BOUNDARY

Comment Is Made by the Leading Newspaper of the Panama Republic.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—Panama will not resist the occupation of the disputed territory of Coto by Costa Rica the American minister at Panama today cabled the state department he had been informed by the Panaman minister of foreign affairs.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—The American state department in a note forwarded to Panama yesterday emphatically stated that the United States would not permit any hostilities growing out of the occupation of the Cato region by Costa Rica.

The American note, it developed today, was in response to a communication from the Panama government, indicating that if Costa Rica should attempt to reoccupy the disputed territory force would be used in resisting unless the United States made it clear that the American government would prevent. The American reply reiterated that the White award must be respected.

PANAMA CABINET CONSIDERS REPLY OF SECRETARY HUGHES

By Associated Press.

PANAMA, Aug. 23.—Panama's reply to the latest note from the secretary of state, Charles E. Hughes, in which Panama was told that disputed territory along the Costa Rica frontier of this country would be placed under the jurisdiction of Costa Rica, has been considered by the Panama cabinet and possibly will be delivered on Wednesday.

Although it is generally reported that armed forces have already been ordered to advance on Coto, in the disputed area, with a view to opposing possible Costa Rican occupation of that district, the most recent official information here indicates that troops have been dispatched only to Divid, a town some distance from the boundary. It is said they have been instructed to hold themselves in readiness there to march toward Coto. The Panaman government, it is understood, will await further advices from Washington before taking any decided steps.

In an editorial commenting on the situation, the Star and Herald, the leading newspaper of the republic, says:

"Secretary Hughes' note constitutes the last word in our boundary affair with Costa Rica and we believe it opportune to consider and comment upon it. In the first place, we want to declare that the motives of our government in working out this difficult question could not have been more patriotic nor more active. It has presented notes which were thoroughly studied, well supported by documents and excellently argued. It has fallen to our lot that the decision of the mediator accepted by our government was against us. Are we to consider on that account that the United States is our enemy and that she has attempted in some manner or other to decide the controversy against us without having sufficient grounds for such action?

"This seems to us ridiculously absurd. The United States has been and is a most loyal friend of our nation."

SEBASTIAN, SPAIN, Aug. 23.—An American sailor of the steamer Cook was killed and another wounded here last night following an altercation with a watchman.

GRANITE CITY, ILL., Aug. 23.—More than 24 hours of questioning failed to shake Arthur Dorman, 38 years old, a farm hand, in his insistence that he had not killed his wife.

FORM ANOTHER LINK IN CHAIN OF EVIDENCE AGAINST SWINDLERS

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—Begging the return of at least a little of the millions—to be exact, $2,500,000—alleged to have been obtained from him by John W. Worthington, Charles W. French and their associates, a letter from Z. W. Davis, a director of the Winton Automobile company of Cleveland, forms the latest link in the evidence being woven about a band of alleged swindlers now under federal indictment.

The letter was intercepted by government officials. It was addressed to French at a Chicago loop hotel, where a suite maintained by French was raided yesterday. Federal officials recovered securities valued at a million dollars in the raid.

THREE NEGROES ARE RESCUED FROM MOB

JEFFERSONVILLE, IND., Aug. 23.—Officers from Sullivan, Ind., reached the Indiana state reformatory here early today with three negro prisoners whom they rescued from a mob at Sullivan last night. The prisoners were charged with attempting to assault three white women.

SENATE AND HOUSE UNDER PRESSURE TO EARN 30-DAY RECESS

BOTH BRANCHES HOLD SESSION MONDAY NIGHT TO ENACT BILLS.

SHIPPING BOARD BILL IS BEFORE THE SENATE

House Takes Up Conference Report On The Anti-Beer Measure Tuesday Morning.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—The senate and house resumed today their consideration of business under high pressure in the expectation of declaring a thirty days' recess late tomorrow. Both were in session last night, the house until it had passed the administration railroad funding bill and the senate until 11:15 when it had reached a point where it was ready to take a final vote upon reconvening today on the shipping board deficiency bill carrying $48,500,000.

The senate debate last night was devoted in part to a vigorous discussion of President Harding's appearance before it last month to oppose passage at that time of the soldiers' bonus bill. The discussion was started by Senator LaFollette, republican, Wisconsin, who charged the president with executive interference with the legislative branch of the government, and was participated in by a dozen others, the president being both attacked and defended for his course.

The senate in addition to the shipping bill, today was expected to vote on an appropriation of $200,000 for expenses on the disarmament conference and on a proposal to instruct the American delegates to demand open sessions.

The house today was to take up the conference report of the anti-beer bill with the expectation of leaders that it would be adopted, although there was no indication of what course the senate would subsequently take in the matter, in view of its previous insistence on the Stanley amendment relating to search and seizure under the Volstead act. When this report is disposed of the house is to take up the conference on the Capper Tincher bill regulating trading in grain futures.

GOMPERS TO DELIVER THE KEYNOTE SPEECH

Campaign to Increase Membership Will Be Inaugurated On Labor Day.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23. — Samuel Gompers, president of the American federation of labor, will deliver the keynote speech for a campaign to increase the membership of the federation to 5,000,000 in an address to be delivered at Baltimore on Labor day, it was stated today at labor headquarters. Other plans in the official Labor day program of the federation include a speech by Secretary Frank Morrison at Louisville, Ky.

At Boston the Central labor union plans a parade in which the building and metal council will join.

Cleveland unions have arranged for a mass meeting at which W. D. Mahon, president of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employes, will speak. In Philadelphia there will be an athletic meet under the auspices of the Central labor union and a parade.

Chicago has arranged for a three-day celebration, at which William Jennings Bryan, Rabbi Judah Magnes and Senator Joseph I. France of Maryland are expected to be among the speakers.

PREPARING GUIDE FOR THE AMERICAN LABOR MOVEMENT

ATLANTIC CITY, Aug. 23.—The executive council of the American federation of labor today started work on drafting a policy to serve as a "guide for the labor movement of America." A thorough and scientific investigation of the entire field of modern industry will be ordered, it is stated.

"No investigators or students have undertaken a more fundamental inquiry or inquiry of greater meaning," said Samuel Gompers, president of the federation.

"It is obvious that no part of our industrial life is without its bearing upon the question of wages, and that in turn the question of wages has its bearing upon every phase of industry and every other question involved in industry."

A report on an investigation to determine if organized labor is getting a "square deal" in school text books is expected shortly.

While the council has taken a survey of the unemployment situation and discussed wage reductions, it is stated that no action had been taken.

TREATY OF PEACE NOW AWAITS SIGNATURE OF GERMAN GOVERNMENT

BERLIN, Aug. 23.—Final instructions relative to the treaty of peace between the United States and Germany have been received from Secretary of State Charles E. Hughes by Ellis Loring Dresel, United States commissioner here, and the treaty now awaits the signature of the German government. It is expected the document will be signed in the next few days at a special meeting of the cabinet which will be attended by President Ebert.

Editorial comments have been wholly non-committal, but they have concurred in expressing satisfaction over the prospect of early resumption of friendly relations with the last of the nations which were either active belligerents or with which diplomatic intercourse was interrupted.

RECALLS AMENDMENT FOR OPEN SESSIONS DISARMAMENT MEET

ACTION TAKEN BY SENATOR HARRISON WHEN SENATOR LODGE OBJECTS.

CONSIDERABLE DISCUSSION DEVELOPS IN THE SENATE

Massachusetts Senator Urged That Amendment Would Be Offensive To Allies.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—Because of the opposition of Senator Lodge, one of the delegates to the disarmament conference, Senator Harrison, democrat, Mississippi, today withdrew his amendment directing the American delegation to demand open session.

This announcement was made unexpectedly by Senator Harrison, at the moment the senate was about ready to vote on his proposal, included as a part of a bill appropriating $200,000 for expenses of the conferences.

Senator Harrison declared, however, that he would bring up the question again in a separate resolution and hoped that Senator Lodge would see fit to support it.

"In opposing my amendment," said Senator Harrison, "I suppose Senator Lodge is merely expressing the views of President Harding, and I do not desire to embarrass him at this time."

Characterizing the Versailles treaty as "the greatest menace to the world today," Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, declared the first step toward its negotiation was secrecy. He argued for open sessions.

"Could the deal of Shantung have been put up except for closed doors," Senator Borah asked, "Woodrow Wilson went to Europe with a code and a new set of principles, but one by one they were discarded, and instead of an American treaty we got an European treaty grounded on imperialism."

SENATOR HARRISON URGES PUBLIC HEARINGS TO BE HELD

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—Demand by the United States for open sessions of the disarmament conference could not be construed as an insult to the representatives of foreign nations, Senator Harrison, democrat, Mississippi, declared in the senate today. He proposed in a bill that the American delegates use every effort to prevent secret deliberations.

Referring to the secrecy at Versailles, the Mississippi senator said the Far Eastern questions to be taken up here in November related to Shantung, Yap, the open door in China, and, possibly the Japanese alien land problem, all of which, he added, have been discussed openly in the senate for five years.

Senator Lodge, in opposing the Harrison amendment, declared it was "wholly out of place and futile bad manners" and that he would not be "guilty of this incivility toward the great nations invited here to participate in the conference."

Senator Watson, democrat, Georgia, opposed public sessions of the conference, contending that "in the very nature of things some negotiations must be conducted in private." He added that grand and petit juries meet in secret and that the books of the Bible, the writing of the constitution and the declaration of independence and the selection of George Washington as commander-in-chief were all done behind closed doors.

Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, declared that since the question had been brought up, failure of the senate to record its view for publicity would be construed by the world to mean that "we are opposed to open conferences."

"If the United States does not lead in this fight for publicity," said Senator Borah, "we can't hope for much. I am not seeking to check up on our delegates, but publicity is absolutely essential to any sane and sound conclusion."

Senator Lodge told the senate he objected to the proposal, that five nations sending representatives to Washington "in the utmost good faith to discuss two of the most important questions before the world," should be met on arrival with a senate resolution anticipating any action they might take regarding conference procedure.

The framers of the constitution had made secret treaties impossible, Senator Lodge said, by requiring senate action. But when it came to procedure by which treaties are negotiated, Senator Lodge said, "we enter a more difficult ground."

SINN FEIN MEETING SHARES IN INTEREST WITH PARLIAMENT

LEADERS DIVIDE THEIR ACTIVITIES BETWEEN THE TWO SESSIONS.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE HAS BEEN UNDER BAN

Some Apprehension Felt Lest Crown Forces Interfere With Gathering.

By Associated Press.

DUBLIN, Aug. 23.—The dail eireann today considered the proposed reply of its president and his ministry to the offer of Premier Lloyd George of an Irish peace settlement, it was announced in an official communique this afternoon. The dail adjourned until Thursday, the statement added, when it will again sit privately.

DUBLIN, Aug. 23.—Members of the Irish republican parliament, gathered here to frame the reply of that body to the British government's offer of dominion status for Ireland, divided their activities today between the secret sessions of the parliament and a meeting of the executive committee of the sinn fein. The meetings of the two bodies were held in the Mansion House and it was believed both would concern themselves with the attitude taken by the Irish republicans toward the terms laid down by Prime Minister Lloyd George as the basis of a settlement of the Irish controversy.

Meetings of the sinn fein executive committee were placed under the ban long ago by the British government, and so far as known the proscription was never lifted. When it was announced the committee would meet there was some apprehension lest crown forces would interfere in the gathering, but up until this morning no intimation had been given that British authorities in Ireland frowned on the proposed assembly.

Considerable speculation was caused here last night by the delivery of a message to Mr. de Valera by Monsignor Edward Mulhern, bishop of Dromore. It was asserted the message had not come from Cardinal Logue, head of the Catholic church in Ireland, but there was no further information relative to the origin of the message, except it came from "highest authority." It was the subject of protracted consultations by the sinn fein leaders shortly after dail eireann was confirmed. It was declared in some quarters that the clergy was urging such action by the parliament that would preclude resumption of warfare between the republican forces and the British soldiery or constabulary.

Two sessions of the parliament were held yesterday and while the details of them were withheld, it was understood that the deputies asked Eamonn de Valera, head of the republican movement, and his colleagues for explanations of various phases of the situation. It was indicated that no extended addresses were made, with the exception of speeches by Mr. de Valera, or other men high in the councils of the provisional government. These addresses, it was declared, were made only in response to questions by deputies. Actual framing of the Irish answer that will be sent to London was apparently postponed.

Sir James Craig, premier of Ulster, planned to meet his cabinet at Belfast today and it was believed probable that relations between Belfast and Dublin would be considered.

CONTRASTS DEALINGS WITH TWO SECTION OF IRELAND

By Associated Press.

DUBLIN, Aug. 22.—The Irish Bulletin last night printed a long argument contrasting the British government's dealings with northeast Ulster and the remainder of Ireland.

"Compulsory free trade," says the Bulletin, "is imposed between Ireland and Great Britain. There is no such obligation between Ulster and Ireland, but there are proposals involving a customs barrier between them. This is the traditional British policy of using Ulster as the bridgehead for maintaining English military rule in Ireland."

The Bulletin said it declined to believe that the speeches in parliament last week of Premier Lloyd George and Foreign Secretary Curzon constituted the government's last word. It added that the Irish people do not desire a renewal of the warfare, but that they will face a renewal without hesitation in order to preserve their national honor.

INSURANCE COMES HIGH ON DUBLIN NEWSPAPER

By Associated Press.

DUBLIN, Aug. 23.—Insurance underwriters of Dublin yesterday asked and were paid three pounds sterling per hundred pounds to insure the plant of a Dublin newspaper in sympathy with the sinn fein against riot or other civil commotion for three months. This is five times as much as would be paid ordinarily and is taken here to show how divided is the best local opinion on the question of a renewal of the strife in England.

QUARANTINE ON SHIPPING PENS IN A NUMBER OF COUNTIES

FORT WORTH, Aug. 23.—Due to a reported anthrax outbreak among livestock in Delta, Fannin, Fraklin, Hunt, Hopkins, Lamar, Red River and Titus counties, the state sanitary livestock commission today placed a quarantine on shipping pens in those counties.

SEARCHING HOTEL RUINS FOR BODIES

MACON, GA., Aug. 23.—City and county prisoners were set to work today to search the ruins of the Brown House, where 12 persons are believed to have lost their lives in a fire that destroyed the building yesterday. The list of known dead still stands at four.

HOME OF CHESTER ZINK DESTROYED AND MOTHER SEVERELY BURNED IN AN EFFORT RESCUE THE LITTLE ONE

Special to The Times.

IOWA PARK, TEXAS, Aug. 23.—The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester W. Zink was burned to death here shortly after noon Tuesday when a fire of unknown origin broke out in the family residence and completely destroyed it.

Mrs. Zink was asleep with the baby when the fire broke out and when she awoke it had gained considerable headway. She rushed to the phone with the baby in her arms to call for assistance and failing to rouse any one she became excited and left the baby in the house while she went outside. She was unable to find any assistance outside and when she went back after the baby, she was unable to reach it. She was badly burned about the arms and hands, but her condition is not considered serious.

The residence, which was in the southeast corner of the town, one block from Main street, was the second built on the same location by Mr. Zink which has been destroyed within the last year and a half. The first one was destroyed before he moved into it, but this one, which was valued at about $5,000, had been occupied for some time.

Mr. Zink is one of the old residents of Iowa Park and is connected with the Walker Consolidated Petroleum company. Mrs. Zink is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McGlaske).

TWO VESSELS ARE REPORTED AGROUND IN SEVERE STORM

By Associated Press.

CHANGHAI, Aug. 23.—Two steamers, the French liner Cordillere, and the British steamer Glaucus, are aground on the bar of the Yang-Tse river after the worst storm in many years. The vessels are in no immediate danger, but a second storm is predicted.

SEED SHORTAGE IS A HANDICAP IN RUSSIA

Partial Repetition Next Year of This Year's Crop Failure Appears Inevitable.

RIGA, Aug. 23.—At least a partial repetition next summer of this years crop failure in the Volga region appears inevitable, according to official bolshevik advices and independent dispatches from Moscow. The Russian peasants are said to be doing their utmost to furnish a seed supply for the stricken provinces, but with only a few weeks remaining before the latest possible date for sowing, an extremely small proportion of the seed grain needed has been gathered in Russia and the foreign grain which has been ordered is slow in coming.

The collection of the natural tax and the return of seed loans up to August 19 produced altogether 1,067,000 poods (about 640,000 bushels) while for the Volga region alone there was needed 9,000,000 poods of grain," says a radio dispatch from Moscow. "Time does not wait, and our stride is too slow."

Another radio dispatch says that two consignments of seed rye, totaling 1,700,000 poods, already have been received and distributed among the districts of the Samara government, allaying the panic and curtailing the migration of peasants. The source of this supply is not explained.

The total natural tax collected for the first 19 days of August appears to have been only one-quarter of one per cent of the estimated 276,000,000 poods the natural tax was expected to yield this year.

Foreign deliveries are so delayed, says a Moscow dispatch to the Letvian telegraph agency, that they will not aid the famine stricken governments, so far as planting is concerned, but the seed grain will be good for consumption.

Some of the more radical writers in the Moscow newspapers charge that foreign aid is only make-believe and that at the same time France is arming Rumania and Poland for a new attack on Russia.

WORKERS ARE WEAKENED THROUGH LACK OF FOOD

LONDON, Aug. 23.—Efforts of employed workers in Russia to help the famine sufferers are hindered by the fact that they themselves are weakened through lack of proper food, says a Moscow dispatch to the Daily Herald. Famine now is paralyzing the strong and weak alike, it adds, and many men for whom employment is available are too enfebled to do anything requiring physical exertion. It is estimated by the Herald's Moscow correspondent that the workers in the suburbs of the larger towns are receiving only 30 per cent of the allotted rations.

Operations of the Volga river fleet, the chief means of carrying food to the famine areas, is continued with the greatest difficulty because the crews are half starved. In the Kazan region many have been without bread since June, and the correspondent says dock workers are without food for three or four consecutive days.

In Samara the people are eating the grass that escaped the scorching drouth, and acorns are regarded as a luxury.

EUROPEAN ORGANIZATIONS TO MAKE AN INVESTIGATION

RIGA, Aug. 23.—Dr. Fridjof Nansen, Mr. Garvin and Mr. Lodge left Riga for Moscow last night. They will make investigations on behalf of the various European organizations interested in famine relief work in Russia.

DIRIGIBLE PURCHASED FROM GREAT BRITAIN MAKING TRIAL TRIP

INTENDED AS FINAL TEST BEFORE START ACROSS THE ATLANTIC.

GLIDES UPWARD INTO A CLEAR MORNING SKY

Next Step Will Be Training Crew Preparatory to Hop Off For United States.

HOWDEN, ENGLAND, Aug. 23.—The giant dirigible ZR-2 purchased by the United States from Great Britain, which began a trial trip at 7:10 o'clock this morning, was still in the air at eight o'clock this evening. It is expected it will land in Pulham tonight.

By Associated Press.

HOWDEN, ENG., Aug. 23.—The dirigible ZR-2, purchased from Great Britain by the United States, commenced a trial trip at 7:10 o'clock this morning. British and American aerial officers were in charge of the giant balloon which will start on its flight across the Atlantic to America as soon as practicable.

It was intended that today's flight would be the final test of the great airship before Commander Louis H. Maxfield of the United States navy and his crew formally took charge of the craft. The ship's control car contained Commander Maxfield, Brigadier General S. M. Maitland, the British air marshal, and Colonel Campbell, who supervised the work of designing the dirigible. Distributed through the vast interior of the balloon were five other American officers, seven engineers and four riggers, in addition to the regular British crew.

Three hundred men carefully guided the craft from the hangar where it had been awaiting suitable weather. Members of the crew took their posts, General Maitland clambered up the ladder and disappeared amidships, and then came the ringing of signal bells and the responding sputter of the ship's six powerful motors.

The commander of the ground party megaphoned the order, "Cast off," and the 700 foot long silvery gas bag glided upward into the clear morning sky.

General Maitland said he intended maneuvering the ship over the North sea where she could show what ability she possessed in combatting the wind, and then to make a southward swing to Pulham, where he expected to tie the ZR-2 to her mooring mast at 10 o'clock tonight.

Members of Legion Take a Side Trip to 'My Old Shell Hole'

By Associated Press.

RHEIMS, FRANCE, Aug. 23.—Many members of the American Legion delegation left the main party on the trip over the battlefield after the ceremony at Verdun yesterday to visit "my old shell hole" in the Argonne. The Americans on the trip passed through Montfaucon and Romagne on their way to Rheims.

At the Romagne cemetery, where several thousand Americans are buried, the legioners held a special service. School children from Verdun and the countryside brought flowers.

One group, headed by Franklin D'Oiler, first national commander of the American Legion, accompanied Marshal Foch to Alorcy, where the American Legion service was read over the grave of the marshal's son. Another group went to Decourt, where a son of former Premier Viviani is buried.

SEEKS TO CONVINCE PROSECUTOR HE DID NOT MURDER PRIEST

REDWOOD CITY, CAL., Aug. 23.—William A. Hightower, charged with having murdered Father Patrick E. Heslin, was closeted for an hour and a half last night with District Attorney Franklin Swart, and sought to convince the prosecutor that he was incapable of a crime so brutal as the murder of the Catholic priest.

A poet and philosopher such as he, Hightower argued, could not be guilty of such a crime.

Hightower made numerous admissions, Swart said, but he declined to make known their nature. When informed that Attorney William F. Herron had filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus for his release, Hightower exclaimed:

"I don't want the help of any of those people. I'll get money for my defense and I'll choose my own attorney."

Hightower practically has abandoned his original alibi, Mr. Swart said, and had admitted that he had been mistaken about riding in an automobile with Doris Shirley on the night of August 2, when Father Heslin was taken from his home and held for ransom.

RANGERS NO LONGER KEPT ON DUTY HERE, REMOVAL ORDERED

STATE OFFICERS LEAVE AFTER 11 MONTHS OF WORK IN THIS COUNTY.

MANY ARRESTS MADE DURING SOJOURN HERE

Two Remaining Members of Force Are Transferred to Fort Worth Headquarters.

For the past eleven months Wichita county has enjoyed the presence of Texas state rangers, but the county will soon be without them.

Sergeant Walter McCormick and Ranger M. T. Gonzaullas, who have been stationed here practically all the time since the first of October, 1920, have received traveling orders from Captain R. W. Aldrich at Austin to proceed at once to Company B headquarters at Fort Worth for permanent duty with full equipment.

The order states that the men should report not later than Wednesday. Ranger Gonzaullas has made preparations to go and will leave Tuesday evening. Sergeant McCormick, however, has wired Captain Aldrich that due to illness in his family he would not be able to report for several days. His leave was granted.

Last fall when this county seemed to be in the grip of a crime wave Captain Aldrich with four Texas rangers suddenly appeared at the court house. Several more state officers arrived shortly afterward. Sergeant McCormick and Ranger Gonzaullas were two of the company.

Although it required several months' time to entirely control the situation in the county, a change was noted immediately after the state officers began their work. The good that was accomplished was commented upon by grand juries and public officials.

All of the company of rangers were later transferred out of the county to other points in the state and only the two men were permitted to remain.

Both McCormick and Gonzaullas have proven themselves to be efficient, daring and non-fearing officers, and although they made arrests throughout the county and made it a place uncomfortable for all law violators, they will leave for other points with the good will of nearly every resident of Wichita county following them.

Raise Question of Wife's Liability in Suit for Alimony

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 23.—The question whether gaining the vote makes women liable to pay alimony is being considered by Judge Jelley of the Hennepin county district court in connection with a suit brought by Benjamin Liss against his wife, Minnie Liss, for support and alimony. This is the first time the issue has been raised, said the judge, at least in Minnesota.

Liss, a peddler, and his wife accumulated considerable property. He was stricken with paralysis two years ago. He says his wife sold their common property and refused to support him from the proceeds. Without the income from the money thus obtained he says he must become a public charge. The judge took the case under advisement yesterday.

FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE IN NELSON WHITNEY CASE

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Mrs. Marguerite Linwood Palmer Whitney today was granted a final decree of divorce from Nelson M. Whitney of New Orleans, formerly southern golf champion.

The plaintiff was awarded alimony of $400 a month. The custody of two children was divided between her and their paternal grandmother, Mrs. Sara E. Whitney of New Orleans.

Testimony involving one Gertrude Noble of New Orleans figured in the case. Justice Cohalan remarked that early in the trial he had the impression that there had been collusion, but had satisfied himself there had been none.

FOUR NEW COUNTERFEIT FEDERAL RESERVE NOTES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—The treasury in a single announcement today warned of the circulation of four new counterfeit federal reserve notes.

The counterfeits include a $50 note on the New York federal reserve bank, a $20 note on the Chicago bank, a $10 note on the Kansas City bank and a $5 note on the Chicago bank.

The first two were said to be distinguished by blue instead of green backs and the latter two by the poor quality of the paper.

ENGLAND TO GIVE UP HER WAR DIRIGIBLES

LONDON, Aug. 23.—Influential aeronautical experts are working to prevent the scheduled doom of the airship on August 18.

Unless by that time the dirigible has received a reprieve from the government, $200,000,000 in material and experience will have been scrapped, and Great Britain will be without an airship.

The air ministry has announced that on August 18 the personnel of the gasbag section will be demobilized and the dirigibles themselves be disposed of.

Already the "Blimps"—the non-rigid ships that did such great work during the war—have been sold for next to nothing. They have been utilized finally as covers for hayricks.

The air force now owns the R-33, which has been doing a great deal of flying over London; the R-36, which recently was damaged in an accident and is not to be repaired; the L-71, an ex-German ship, and the P-80, nearly completed, but on which work has been halted. There is in addition the R-38, built for the United States.

Advocates of the airship are trying to insure a government appropriation that will permit tests to prove whether airships may be used for passenger traffic to connect more closely the world-wide links of the British Empire—Canada, South Africa, India, Australia, New Zealand.

Experts argue that with the airships now available, it could be ascertained definitely whether the dirigible is capable of revolutionizing long-distance traffic.

Effort is being made to interest the Dominion premiers from the standpoint of empire communication; and to air ministry officials it is being suggested that the airship branch cannot be abandoned without weakening the whole air transport organization.

CLARA SMITH HAMON WEDS IN LOS ANGELES NEWS IS A SURPRISE

ANNOUNCEMENT TELEGRAPHED TO SISTER AT WILSON, OKLAHOMA.

MARRIES DIRECTOR OF HER WORK IN PICTURES

Understood That Couple Will Make Their Home in Los Angeles For Present.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 23.—Clara Smith Hamon, who was acquitted in Ardmore, Okla., several months ago when tried for the murder of Jake L. Hamon, was married here late Monday to John W. Gorman, a motion picture director. After obtaining license to marry, the couple drove to the residence of the Rev. Howard Fagan, pastor of the Wilshire boulevard Christian church, who performed the ceremony.

Mr. Gorman announced he and his wife would make their home here. Mrs. Gorman has been engaged since last April in making a film under his direction.

MESSAGE TO SISTER TELLS OF MARRIAGE TO DIRECTOR

ARDMORE, OKLA., Aug. 23.—Clara Smith Hamon was married in Los Angeles at 4:30 p. m. Monday to John Gorman, according to a telegram received last evening by her sister, Mrs. V. D. Walling at Wilson, Okla.

Mrs. Hamon several months ago was acquitted on a charge of murder in connection with the death of Jake L. Hamon, republican national committeeman from Oklahoma, who died as the result of a pistol wound.

Mrs. Hamon fled from Ardmore to Mexico following the shooting. Later she went to El Paso, where she was placed under technical arrest in connection with the shooting and brought back for trial. On the witness stand Mrs. Hamon admitted having shot Hamon, but said she did it after she had been attacked by him.

Mrs. Hamon was the wife of a nephew of Jake L. Hamon. Her maiden name was Clara Smith. Mrs. Jake L. Hamon, a widow of the national committeeman is no longer a resident of Ardmore and is now said to be living in the east.

Message to Sister.

The message to Mrs. Walling gave no details of the wedding, but said:

"Married John Gorman 4:30 p. m. wonderful man and good—Clara."

The marriage of Clara Smith Hamon to her moving picture director, John W. Gorman of Los Angeles, came as a surprise to her sister, Mrs. V. W. Walling of Wilson, Okla. Only once in a letter did Clara refer to Gorman, then casually mentioning that he was director of her company, which was formed in Fort Worth, Texas, some five months ago, and which started filming the picture portraying her life during the latter part of May.

That a love affair might be the outcome of the picture and the director was hardly thought of, according to Mrs. Walling. Following the trial Clara has shown little interest in men and their affairs, Mrs. Walling said, and it was thought that she would devote her time after the making of the picture to missionary work.

Following her trial in Ardmore in March, she made the statement to newspaper correspondents that she would never marry despite the fact she said she had received hundreds of proposals of marriage, in person, by letter and by telegrams from all sections of the country.

BIG OIL OPERATORS LEAVE ON WEDNESDAY FOR TRIP TO MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 23.—Official announcement that a party of American oil men would leave New York on Wednesday for the purpose of conferring with Mexican government officials was made here last night. Men high in government circles appeared to be gratified over the fact and expressed belief that an adjustment of the difficulties between American oil companies and the Mexican government might be effected as a result of direct conferences.

President Obregon asked for his opinion respecting the Americans' decision to come to Mexico City, answered:

"I believe this is the first step they have taken over the shortest road."

The American will be Walter C. Teagle, president of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey; Edward L. Doheny of the Mexican Petroleum company; J. W. Vandyke, head of the Atlantic Refining company; H. F. Sinclair, president of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil company, and Amos L. Beatty, president of the Texas company.

Hundred Thousand Dollars In Gold Is Found in Baggage

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—One hundred thousand dollars in gold coin of the United States found in the baggage of Felice Haddad, a wealthy Venezuelean, who arrived yesterday on the steamship Caracas from Venezuela, was temporarily taken possession of by customs inspectors pending an investigation.

Several inspectors expressed doubt whether the visitor was required to enter the gold in his declaraton, while others said they recalled a similar case a score of years ago when a quantity of gold was confiscated and the action of the inspectors declared legal by the courts. They also pointed out that Venezuela has an export embargo against taking gold from the country, although they could not say what effect such a law would have on its entry into the United States.

LAND DISARMAMENT UNLIKELY IN EUROPE, A DREAM OF FUTURE

LONDON, Aug. 23.—Elimination of armaments as an immediate palliative for the crushing taxation of England, America and Japan may become an actuality as a result of the Washington conference, but disarmament still remains a dream for the far-distant future.

That is the well-considered verdict of unlimited number of opinionated officials and statesmen in London, expressed since Harding's momentous communication was received in Downing street.

Aside from league of nation's enthusiasts, disarmament interests chiefly only the big three—England, United States and Japan. The "little three dozen," together with France, Germany and Russia, are either indifferent or have exactly contrary views on beating their swords into ploughshares.

Germany, at present, has no considerable amount of war material to discard and, thanks to the Versailles treaty, probably will not find herself engaged in the profitless work of making instruments of war for years to come.

Russia is beyond the pale, yet may be counted as a potential power in the not far distant future, if her leaders decide to pursue warlike aims.

France, so far as naval limitations is concerned, will smilingly approve whatever decisions the big three interested in the Pacific take. Her interests at present are chiefly centered in mid-Europe and the middle east. Military disarmament is an absurd impossibility to her, so long as the Germans live across the Rhine.

For Czecho-Slovakia, Poland, Greece and all other host that signed Versailles and the league covenant, disarmament is a thing devoutly to be hoped for, but never to be secured. It is a subject for the spellbinders to wax eloquent about on league platforms.

As the previously quoted statesmen point out, until Lithuania gets Vilna; until Poland gets Silesia; until Bulgaria gets an Aegean outlet; until Greece gets Smyrna; until Russia has a hand in controlling the Bosphoros, ad infinitum, there will be international disputes to settle. And Europe has learned that the negotiator backed up with a standing army, well equipped, easily hammers his argument home against his unarmed opponent.

But military armaments, it is pointed out, are not in the center of the picture now. It is naval armaments, officialdom declares, that causes the heavy drain on the national exchequers. The parties concerned in the Washington conference have as their ultimate objective the lessening of national burdens rather than the elimination of future wars, critics, as well as protagonists say. And this objective, they are equally certain, will be in some measure accomplished.

OPENING DAY AT FAIR WILL BE "VERNON DAY"

VERNON, TEXAS, Aug. 23.—The first day of the Wilbarger county fair, August 31, will be designated as "Vernon Day." Local citizens will be expected to observe the occasion as fully as possible. Merchants will be asked to close their places of business, and the occasion will be made a holiday.

Arrangements for the fair show that fifty-three horses have been contracted for, and represent some of the fastest stock in this section. They will come from Oklahoma, Kansas and Texas. There will be three or four races each day and a variety of relays. The horses coming will include an Indian horse that recently raced a piney on the Waggoner ranch near here for a purse of $2,000. The race was won by the Waggoner pony.

An automobile and tractor show will be held in connection with the fair. Local firms are prearing to exhibit their cars to the best advantage, and the displays promise a great amount of competition.

EASTLAND CITIZENS REPORTED SEEKING NEW RAILROAD LINE

Rumors of a proposition for extending the Wichita Falls & Southern to points beyond Jimkurn, not now reached by any railroad, were current in local railroad circles Tuesday, coincident with the visit here of Cyrus S. Beach and H. P. Brelsford, two prominent citizens of Eastland.

Neither of the visitors had anything to give out regarding the purpose of their visit. The so-called Ringling railroad now extends from Eastland to Breckenridge.

Algiers Largely A Disappointment To the Traveler

ALGIERS, Aug. 23.—Florence Ziegfeld and Morris Gest have taken the charm from the far-famed dancing girl of Tunis, Biskra, and Algiers. The real article is not a bit like those you see along Broadway.

Little girls, with listless faces and tired feet, mechanically dancing the couchee-couchee are succeeded on the floor by fat, faded women. Somehow there is nothing exciting in seeing the dance du ventre performed in a calico dress.

But in Algiers there is Fatima, youthful, beautiful, fascinating, who went to Paris and had the city at her feet. "You must see Fatima," says the guide, "and only fifty francs to see her dance, because it is out of season." Later the discovery is made that the city is full of Fatimas, all fifteen years old, all beautiful, and each held Paris captive.

Despite all the stories floating to America about the emancipation movement in the harems, the Arab woman knows her place, and keeps it. Her place is with some other woman; never in public with her husband; and if she does not belong to a hill or desert tribe, nothing of her face is visible but a pair of dark shining eyes.

In Algiers there is considerable complaint of her high cost of living, because a divorce which formerly cost five francs since the war costs twenty-five francs. It takes twenty-four hours to get one.

Most cities in North Africa are built upon a hill or a mountain, a construction decided upon early in the Christian era as the most effective way to repel neighboring enemies. The result now is that a visitor arriving at the railroad station is not necessarily in the town. That may be forty minutes up a mountain. The easiest way to see Algiers is to go up to the top in a tram and then to walk down through the crooked, narrow streets.

Tunis offers many attractions, but two great disappointments. One of them is the ancient city of Carthage, which is only a few miles away, but consists largely of memories. However, no native will admit that it is not about the finest ruins in the world.

The second disappointment is the section of the Arab city of Tunis, known as the "nasara." People come from as far as Capetown and Alaska to take a look at these emporiums, only to find that their stocks can be duplicated in any five and ten cent store.

Reed Is Censured For His Remarks Scoring Volstead

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—By a vote of 181 to 3 the house today adopted a resolution censuring Senator Reed, democrat, Missouri, for his speech last week in the senate during which he made references to Representative Volstead, republican, Minnesota, author of the prohibition act.

The resolution, offered by Representative Newton, republican, Minnesota, declared Senator Reed's remarks were "improper, unparliamentary and a reflection on the character of a member of the house." They constituted, the resolution continued, a breach of privilege and were calculated to create unfriendly relations between the house and senate.

The resolution requested the senate to take action, which house members said meant expunging of the senator's remarks from the Congressional Record.

The resolution was adopted without roll call, democrats joining with republicans in voting for it. There was practically no debate. Representative Dyer, Missouri, and Smith, Idaho, both republicans, contended the resolution should refer specifically to the remarks Mr. Newton considered objectionable.

JAPAN INTERESTED IN EFFORT OF SEMINOFF

Causes Japanese Command to Alter Plans For Operations in Siberia.

PEKING, Aug. 23.—Copies of official telegrams sent by General Tachibana of the Japanese expeditionary force in Vladivostok, to his superiors in Tokyo, indicate to some extent the interest felt in the effort of Semienoff to reestablish himself in Siberia, and in the fortunes of Baron Unger-Sternberg of Mongolia. Opposition by the consular corps of Vladivostok to Semienoff's return to power, coupled with antagonism to him in the Japanese army itself, has created a situation which the Japanese commander declares has forced an "attitude of conciliation" toward the Far Eastern republic, and has caused the Japanese command to alter its plans for operations in Siberia.

Both telegrams were dated June 20. The first, addressed to General Oulkhara, Tokyo, is as follows:

"In view of Seo's (a Japanese officer on Semienoff's staff) reports in regard to continuance of negotiations between the Merkuloff government and Ataman Semienoff, I am taking an attitude of 'expectation.' I have informed Seo that my attitude would change as soon as the Mongolian group opens general activities and shows some actual results in the Transbaikalia region. The present situation, I believe, is due to the underground work of some of the extreme radical parties supported by the whole personnel of the Vladivostok consuls. They are entirely ignorant of the real Russian question and are being led by the American representative who has adopted an irreconcilable attitude toward our influence in the Far East. I have commenced negotiations to counteract this movement with several of the non-socialist groups and expect to find a peaceful way out of the present situation which is very precarious to the budget question for the Siberian expeditionary force."

The second dispatch, sent by General Tachibana to General Sudzuki, Tokyo, four hours later on the same day, follows:

"From all my reports to the supreme military council you may judge whether the situation is truly abnormal so far as our expeditionary corps is concerned. Among our own forces a group has formed which is opposed to Ataman Semienoff and is supporting the opposition in the army and among the people. Their position is strengthened by the consular corps whose members have adopted a hostile attitude toward Semienoff.

"The general situation now tends to force us back to an attitude of conciliation with regard to the Far Eastern republic which annuls the plan worked out. The position in which we find the Mongolian army, so small in numbers that it is out of all proportion to the area of territory occupied and to the military operations on three fronts, naturally delays the solution of the Semienoff problem.

"The appropriation as assigned by the budget, confirmed by the supreme military council, to support the Semienoff units, is exhausted. This condition I ascribe to the frequent changes made in our program and the hesitating attitude adopted by the military council as to putting an end to non-interference in Russian domestic affairs. The delay in making a decision may bring very undesirable consequences. The situation of our army demands an immediate clearing up in regard to the Russian question. Knowing your point of view I request you to use your influence in the matter."

UNIVERSITY CLUB'S MEMBERS ARE TOLD ALL ABOUT HAREMS

An interesting and humorous account of some of his experiences in Egypt, India and the Dardanelles, while in the service of the English army, was given the members of the University club at the weekly luncheon in the Kemp hotel Tuesday by Capt. R. F. Healy. It was Captain Healy's second talk before the club and, according to the members present Tuesday, it will not be his last.

By special request he gave a detailed description of the Egyptian harems and the characteristics of the inmates. He then took the members on a trip through the principal cities of India, touching upon the various castes, religions and habits of the Indians, bringing out particularly the fact that the Indians are not such savages as people on this continent would believe, but that, on the other hand, they are a most cultured race.

At the conclusion of his talk on India he intimated that he would be glad to tell the members of the club about the evacuation of the Dardanelles at some future date, but the members would not let him get away and insisted that he continue.

He explained in detail how the English soldiers had landed, the terrible experiences that they suffered during the eight months they were fighting the Turks, and how they all escaped unnoticed from the small peninsula.

Vocal solos by Vaughn Ray, accompanied by Miss Anette Walsh, were well received and one of the bright features of the entertainment was the musical program given by Baxter's orchestra.

MANY ONE DOLLAR BILLS ARE RAISED AT CORPUS CHRISTI

CORPUS CHRISTI, TEXAS, Aug. 23.—At least 100 one-dollar federal reserve bank notes, raised to $10 denominations, have been passed here during the cotton season and local bankers have enlisted the aid of county and federal officers in a search for the counterfeiters.

The alterations have been made by clipping the numerals from stage or advertising $10 notes and pasting them over the figures in each corner of the reserve notes. The written "one" in the body of each note had been clumsily scratched with a lead pencil and partially erased. The forgery is at once apparent if the note is held up to the light but will easily pass in an ordinarily darkened store or office.

3 COMMISSIONERS VISIT CRUSHED STONE QUARRY AT CHICO THIS WEEK

County Commissioners L. L. Kuntz, Lee Prescott and J. F. Jackson returned Tuesday afternoon from Chico, where they visited the quarry from which the crushed stone comes. The commissioners report that there is a vast amount of rock to be had there and that the quality is beyond reproach.

Some new drills were being installed while the commissioners were there and one of the three stated that in his mind it was a doubtful question whether the company would be able to supply the county will all the stone that was needed.

At 9 o'clock Tuesday morning the commissioners stated four cars had been loaded and the shovels then were right up next to the drills. In their opinion there was only a sufficient amount of rock shot to keep the crusher going until 2 o'clock in the crusher going until 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

County officials were engaged Tuesday afternoon in an effort to unravel another diamond mystery.

A certain young man had his wife's diamond ring in his possession and delivered it to a lady at the rooming house who stated that she was sure her sweetheart would buy it for her. All this transpired at the dinner table.

The following morning the owner of the ring asked her whether she had sold it and she stated that she had given it to the proprietor of the rooming house to hand back to him as her sweetheart did not care to buy the stone.

The proprietor then told the owner the story that he had put the ring in his pocket, but that shortly afterward he discovered a hole in said pocket and said ring was gone.

Wounded twenty-eight times and cited seven times for valor, according to his own story, he was finally reported killed and the war department so notified his mother, Mrs. Sarah Bressler, 1810 Carroll avenue, St. Louis, Mo. JUBILEE'S PARDNER

by Judd Mortimer Lewis

Illustrations by Eduiss

I dreampt last night that the school house got after me and chased me and Jubilee away out past Rocky river and then it was going to catch me and I jumped in the lake and started to swim acrosst and the school house could swim and it was coming after me and Mrs. Degiun was leaning out of the upstairs window and I was swimming as hard as I could and Jubilee was swimming as hard as he could, and it got right close up to us and I reached out and gave it a kick and kicked Jubilee out of bed. That is a sign that school is going to start next month. I guess Jubilee wondered what was the matter, and my father come to the stair door and hollered what was the matter and if anybody had fell out of bed.

When me and Jubilee got over to the vacant lot this morning we all axed Red what he got and he said what did we suppose he got. I don't suppose, I know. I have got it lots of times in the same place myself. Dough Britches did not get licked. I guess it is a good thing to have a big brother that gets blamed for everything. We started to go out to the river, but on the way out we went in a place to see how the concords was and the ones on the sunny sides of the rows were ripe, and we got our hats full of them, and walked out to the road again and no one come to chase us. I bet if I had that many grapes I would watch them.

I thought I would go home with mine and let my mother make me a grape pie, but on the way home I happened to think that she would ast me where I got them, so I sot down by the side of the street to eat them and the first thing I knew Youniss was setting right by the side of me, and I looked around and found that I was setting right in front of her house. Her mother was not at home. My mother says that she is not ever at home. So then we went in and sot on her porch and et them. Then we went in and looked in their ice box to see if there was anything to eat and there wasn't, so Youniss said she would make me some rattlebelly pop, which is made out of vinegar and water and sugar and ice and just before you drink it you put a teaspoon full of soda in it which makes it fuzz and you have to drink it before it stops fussing.

We pulled some boards off of Younisses father's shed and got his saw and hammer and was going to make a sody stand out in front and Youniss was going to make rattlebelly pop and I was going to sell it to whoever went past, and we would have made a lot of money, but her mother come and got mad and said for me and Jubilee to run along home and she would tend to Youniss.

Me and Jubilee went out in the road and stayed there to show her she was not the boss of us. I do not think she done anything to Youniss, because we did not hear her holler. There ought to be a law against hitting a little girl—but I guess that would be too soft for girls like Maggie that got fascinated on her leg and needs it once in a while. Me and Jubilee sot up till my mother and ant started to sing.

Dark blue crepe de chine is indeed youthful when made with long, generously flaring sleeves and slim side panels that flutter gracefully with every step one takes. If one is oval-faced and petite, the pretty rounded neck may be retained, while a fairly low square neck finish is apt to be more becoming to a rounder face.

Note the slight fullness added to the bodice just below the shoulders, and the set-in belt. These are dominating features in new crepe frocks, carried over from the styles which prevailed during the summer.

This season some of the most important designers in Paris are stressing crepes almost to the exclusion of all other materials, but they include the various weaves, such as crepe de chine, canton and the heavier types. But few houses show satin. Only a few more elaborate models have been displayed in lustre weaves, and these were designed for the matron.

FREE A 10-Shave Tube of Palmolive Shaving Cream
At the Stores listed below

1,000 Men Were Asked
"What is your conception of the ideal shaving cream?"

For many years we have been making the ideal toilet soap. We blended palm and olive oils—the balmy cosmetics of age-old fame. And millions of people have adopted this Palmolive Soap.

Six years ago we started to embody this blend in a shaving cream. And the first step was to ask a thousand men the virtues they wanted in it.

These were their requirements:

First, a quick shave

Nine-tenths of these men wanted quick shaves, above all. They did not like long brushing, finger rubbing, hot towels and delay.

So a cream was made which acts in one minute. Within that time the average beard absorbs 15% of water. And that is enough. This result is due to almost instant oil removal—the oil that coats the beard.

Next, liberal lather

Next, they wanted liberal lather. And they wanted a little of the soap to go far.

So we developed a cream which multiplies itself 250 times in lather. A bit on the brush—only one-half gram—suffices for a shave. A single tube of Palmolive Shaving Cream serves for 152 shaves.

Lather that remains

Then they wanted a lather which maintains itself without drying on the face.

So we perfected a lather which maintains its creamy fullness for ten minutes. That is ample time. This lather does not need replacement.

A soothing soap

They wanted a soothing shaving cream. They wanted a lubricated razor, no irritation, a pleasant after-effect.

The best way ever known to those ends is the blend of palm and olive oils. The lather is a lotion in itself.

130 creams were made

We are experts in soap making. But it took us 18 months to attain this ideal shaving cream. 130 formulas were made up and tested. Thus step by step these supremacies were attained, and the best shaving cream in existence.

SETTLING UP.

The allied debt refunding plan has finally been agreed upon by the senate finance committee and reported favorably to the senate. The main item in the plan is that the refunding arrangements with our debtor allies must be completed within five years. The obligations and interest of our allies approximate eleven billion dollars, there having been paid on account something less than a half billion dollars.

A great din has been created up and down the land to the effect that our allies should be made to pay up and to pay up promptly. But this is quite out of place. You cannot get blood out of a turnip, at least it has never been done, nor can you make any headway by demanding that a man who is an economic and paralyzed wreck pay his debts contracted while he was both drunk and temporarily insane.

Patience is required on all sides at this time. If the banks of this country were to act upon the principle so many persons advocate of demanding our allies pay up promptly there would be practically nothing left of the economic structure of this nation.

The business of this country is now being done on credit as never before. To take judgments against a man who has no property will not get the individual or institution holding the notes, anywhere. The exchange rate of our allies and the price of all commodities are too low to force the debtors to liquidate at this time. No good can come out of such procedure; much harm would certainly follow it. None of our allies, with the exception of Russia, has repudiated a debt in the past few centuries.

We have only their past record to go on. If we demand payment now, if we insist that the little money they now have be paid to us instead of being used to bring about normal industrial conditions in their own countries, then we will be carrying a part of the cost of this sacrifice for the next generation or two.

Little sane sentiment is demanding that they pay up promptly; there is no one but feels they should eventually meet their obligations. We cannot hope to have sound prosperity in this country until the world at large is enjoying sound prosperity. Our foreign business, at the normal rate, is what brings us our profits. If we merely trade within the boundaries of this country, with our own citizens, we have not added very much to our national wealth. The only gain which comes is that which comes out of the ground, whether it be crops or minerals. We must carry on foreign commerce if we are to make economic headway. We cannot appreciably develop that foreign commerce until our allies have started the wheels of their industries.

No man would be so shortsighted as to force an individual who had lost most of his family and goods by pestilence and fire, to sell what little remained and apply it on his debts. The man of common sense would help his debtor accumulate other property so that he could at an earlier period meet his obligations at one hundred cents on the dollar. This would be especially true if the debtor had previously meet all his obligations.

That is the shape the United States and her debtor allies are in. The allies must pay, but if we are sensible to the present and the future we will give them a reasonable period to make readjustments and then care for their obligations.

SIMONDS VIEWS ON THE COMING CONFERENCE.

Simonds, the writer on international affairs, believes a clash between the United States and Japan is inevitable. He believes that the coming disarmament conference may postpone such a clash but that it may not prevent it. The United States has important interests in the Pacific, Simonds points out. Its policy is for the open door in China. All Japanese policy is against this.

Simonds does not believe that an agreement to disarm will prevent war. He evidently believes that idealism has no place in the face of stern facts. He thinks the peace made at Paris is a failure and it is evident that he believes the United States ought to have gone to that conference with her trading clothes on rather than with the purpose of attempting to put in effect the hopes and aspirations of the American people for a league of nations to end wars.

Simonds is an astute observer. He may be right. It may be best for the United States to exercise some of its Yankee characteristics in the coming conference and to drive a keen bargain with Japan and with Great Britain and the others. But there are still many in this country who still hold to ideals that they believe can be put into international practice.

CURRENT COMMENT

Labor Board's Latest Decision.
(Dallas News.)

Both the railroads and their employes get some morsels sweet to their contrary tastes out of the labor board's formulation of principles that are to govern working agreements in the future. This is to say that it accepted some and rejected others of the contentions made on both sides of this controversy. For this reason, its judgment is apt to be called a compromise, and, as a consequence, regarded as one that sacrifices justice to the cause of expedience. But its decision is not necessarily a compromise in that repugnant sense. It is entirely possible, and in fact highly probable, that in a controversy which has grown up in the way this one has there are valid contentions on both sides. Maybe the labor board has picked these out with a discriminating sense of justice and embodied them in its decision, in which case it would not be subject to the criticism that is nevertheless likely to be heard.

Of the principles set forth in this decision, only that which awards time and a half for overtime is specifically mentioned in the press dispatch. Of all the contentions made by the employes, this was perhaps the one on which they were most insistent. One can readily understand why it should be. If avoidable overtime is not to be penalized—and it is only avoidable overtime for which the bonus pay is required—the eight-hour day would be apt to become a nullity. The eight-hour day lacks very much of having the large and unqualified sanction which labor leaders would invest it with. There are employments and circumstances which make eight hours less than a fair day's work, just as there are employments and circumstances which make eight hours more than a fair day's work. But as a general proposition, subject to such modifications of circumstance, there can be no doubt that there are sound social reasons for limiting the work-day of craft labor. By requiring time and a half for overtime, the railroads are put under an inducement which will make them responsible to that sound social ideal.

Of the other awards made by the labor board, the dispatches give only suggestions. It is specifically said, though, that "the railroads won important modifications of seven of the most important working rules granted shopmen during federal administration of the railroads, part of which were enjoyed by employes before government control." It was the vice of those rules, as well as of some which the unions had succeeded in foisting on the railroads before the government took control of them, that they required the railroads to employ more labor than was necessary to do the work needing to be done, and that, also, they required the railroads to pay the wages of skilled labor to unskilled labor. There can be no doubt that in these ways all labor became inflated during the war, and it has become notorious that railroad labor was infected to a degree that was scandalous. Railroad employes not only got large increases of wages, but at the same time got remission from a considerable part of the work they had been accustomed to do, and that they could do without doing more than might reasonably be expected. More pay for less work was the effect wrought by the working agreements which the labor leaders extorted during the time of government control. As a result the cost of operation has been made exorbitant by the profiteering of labor. It transpires that the remarkable success Henry Ford has had in operating the small road that has come under his control is attributable almost entirely to a reduction of 40 per cent in the number of men employed, which reduction was made possible by an abrogation of the working agreements which obtained until he came into control of that line.

That the railroads of the country can effect any such economy as this is not to be imagined. But that it is possible to abolish thousands of jobs which labor leaders and politicians have created, and this without either impairing efficiency of operation or making any unreasonable demand on the strength and time of the employes they retain, there can be little doubt. Whether the decision the labor board has just made affords full opportunity to accomplish that urgent reform can not be determined in the light of the little information the press dispatches give. Its decision will get popular approbation in the degree that it presents that opportunity. The country is quite willing, and even insistent, that railway employes be well paid. It can not tolerate working agreements which require the railroads to employ more men than they need. The country can not support the railroads both as carriers and eleemosynary institutions and it is evident that under the duress put upon them by labor leaders and politicians they have come to be eleemosynary institutions in no very extravagant sense.

Shortage of Houses.
(Fort Worth Record.)

Four million persons in the United States are inadequately housed, and the shortage of houses in America is easily 1,250,000, according to John Ihdier, manager of the civic development department of the national chamber of commerce. He says that between 350,000 and 400,000 family dwellings were constructed each year for a number of years prior to the world war, and it is well known that during the war construction of houses was almost at a standstill with the exception of what building was done by the government. As a result, this country was far behind in its regular building program when the war came to an end, and the situation has not been much improved since then because many persons who wish to build homes have deferred operations until prices become more stable.

"It is estimated that there were built only about 75,000 houses in the United States in 1919," says Mr. Ihlder. "The number erected during 1920 was probably even smaller than that figure. While it is true there are many houses for sale, these are nearly all occupied by tenants. The number of houses for rent in most communities is practically nil and the majority of these houses are not suitable for the needs of the average wage earner. A man with an income of $5,000 a year or more doesn't have as much trouble getting desirable quarters as the wage earner who can not afford to pay high rents. The wage earner and those earning small salaries are the ones who are hit hardest by the housing shortage. It is for these folks that decent homes must be built," Mr. Ihlder says further:

"Meanwhile they, as well as many with larger incomes, are doubling up or taking in lodgers. Increased rents, too, have caused many families to share their quarters with outsiders, so we have the anomaly of a block or an apartment house containing a larger number of people than it ever did in the past, yet with an occasional house or apartment vacant because those needing better quarters can't afford to pay any higher rents. This overcrowding of rooms is viewed with anxiety by the public health officials who realize how infectious diseases spread under such conditions."

The northern Ojibwa Indians based their names on days of the week.

HUMANISMS
Inner Lights on Lives and Whims of Personages in the Public Eye.

By WILLIAM ATHERTON DU PUY

I met a man in Peacock Alley, here in Washington, which is a prominent promenade in a fashionable hotel, where Sultana Fatima showed off the jewel in her nose and lots of famous folk frolic, and he said to me:

"Dupy, here's a Humanism for you."

And he said he was going down the street and he ran into Senator Ashurst, of Arizona, and he says, says he:

"Hullo."

And the senator says:

"Hullo."

And he says to the senator:

"Whacher doing to pass the time away this hot weather?"

And the senator says:

"Playing golf."

And he says to the senator:

"I suppose you are pretty good. How many does it take you to go around?"

"Oh, I don't know," said the senator. "Fifty, or a hundred, or maybe a hundred and fifty. I am very fond of golf. I may be styled an enthusiast. But I never keep track of the strokes. I just play for the love of the game."

John Roscoe Davis was a man past fifty, for two decades an employe of the government, a law clerk of the bureau of pensions at $1400 a year.

Then the war came. Davis was too old for military service, but he watched many younger men about him give up their work for a uniform. In the government the need of lawyers increased. Davis had gone to night school, and had long been admitted to practice. He was transferred to the bureau of internal revenue at $1400 a year—Davis, who, long before, had given up the hope of promotion.

There was much doing in internal revenue and Davis was given important work. He made good. A splendid legal mind had been buried through those decades. Soon he was getting $2400 a year, then $3000, then $4000, finally $6000. It all happened in two years. Today Davis is assistant solicitor of the bureau of internal revenue, that agency with an income of $6,000,000,000 a year, the biggest business organization in all the world.

All of which might be used is a text from which to preach a sermon of hope to the pigeonholers and of admonition to big chiefs to examine stock on hand before buying in the market.

I was talking of books with Samuel M. Shortridge, of California, one of the classical students of the upper house.

He said that he had taken an examination to teach school before he was eighteen and would have made the highest mark if he had not forgotten the "s" in "viscid."

Then he went to teach in a little village named Rutherford and in it dwelt a judge who had been the first chief justice of Iowa and who was afterward the first chief justice of California. And this splendid gentleman led him into his library and gave him a key to it, and the reading of the following four years, during which he taught school, was the most valuable thing that ever came into his life.

And I told him of living in an isolated community in Arizona and of starting at the age of ten with two pioneer farmers to drive hogs thirty miles overland. And one of these farmers was named Bill Smith. And Bill Smith had never gone to school nor seen an elephant.

And these two farmers got into a contest quoting the classics. And Smith recited "The Lady of the Lake" and Pendegrast retorted with the "Rape of the Lock." Smith came back with "Locksley Hall," and Pendegrast rendered "Othello," to which Smith retorted with "Hamlet." For ten hours the battle went on and neither hesitated for a moment and neither even repeated himself.

And Senator Shortridge agreed with me that I had probably known the best classic students I would meet in a lifetime here on the pig trail to Maricopa.

Accomplished Care.

All things grow lovely in a little while,
The brush of memory paints a canvas fair;
The dead face through the ages wears a smile,
And glorious becomes accomplished care.

There's nothing ugly that can live for long,
There's nothing constant in the realm of pain;
Right always comes to take the place of wrong,
Who suffers much shall find the greater gain.

Life has a kindly way, despite its tears
And all the burdens which its children bear;
It crowns with beauty all the troubled years
And soothes the hurts and makes their memory fair.

Be brave when days are bitter with despair,
Be true when you are made to suffer wrong;
Life's greatest joy is an accomplished care,
There's nothing ugly that can live for long.

THE HISTORY OF
YOUR NAME
By PHILIP FRANCIS NOWLAN

McDOUGALL.

Variations — M(a)cDougal, M(a)cDougald.
Racial Origin—Scottish and Irish.
Source—A given name.

There are many who hold there is a difference between names which begin with "Mc" and those which begin with "Mac," and that the proper pronunciation of them are "mic" and "mac," respectively. Such is not the case. "Mc" and "Mac" are the same, and the proper pronunciation of both is "mac." The prefixes both mean the same thing—"descendant of."

The only difference that does exist is due to the rather general modern custom among the Irish of abbreviating "Mac" to "Mc" in the spelling. So there is an inference, though not an infallible one, that the family which spells its name with a "Mc" is Irish, and the one that uses "Mac" is Scottish.

The family name of McDougall, in various forms, probably is more common in Scotland than in Ireland, but it is far from being a rarity in the latter country.

It is, of course, a Celtic name, and like virtually all the family names which have developed under purely Gaelic influences, without interferences of Anglo-Saxon or Norman influences, is derived from a given name. Unlike other races, the Gaels never took their graphical location or personal characteristics. It is true, however, that the bulk of their given names, from which the family names were developed, were so founded on words denoting some personal peculiarity or attribute.

The given name Dugald, from which the various forms of McDougall originated, falls within this classification. It means "dark stranger."

Tomorrow—Chambers.

LIFE'S DARKEST MOMENT

Strange Story of Court of Justice In the Northland

OTTAWA, Aug. 23.—A strange story of the court of justice in the Canadian northland, which resulted in the summary execution of an Eskimo by strangulation, has been brought here by the royal Canadian mounted police.

The victim of the unwritten law, one Ahkak, was himself a murderer, police said, and adjudged by his fellow villagers in Konghormuet, an Eskimo colony on Prince Albert sound, as dangerous to the community.

In the summer of 1919, the report reads, Ahkak murdered Agluetuk. Shortly after Ahkak made a hunting pact with Olepsekak by which they were to share fortune and the wife of the former. In March, 1920, when the hunters returned to their base, the Eskimaux of Konghermuet, both men and women, found Ahkak. Seemingly aware of their intent, Ahkak told them of a deer skin line outside his hut which would serve their purpose.

It was with this line that Ahkak was duly strangled, and two Eskimos, Kaashovi and Amokuka, charged with being chief actors in the drama, were arrested last March by Corp. E. H. Cornelius and Constable J. Brockie of the mounted police. They will be held in Herschel Island over the winter and will be brought out for trial next spring.

Brace of Errors Pave Way for Spudders' Win Over Buffs in the Ninth

HOUSTON, Aug. 23.—A bit of luck combined with some airtight fielding, invincible hurling by "Rube" Marshall, and timely hitting by Danny Clark enabled the Spudders to nose out the Buffs in the ninth inning of yesterday's fracas by the count of 2 to 1, and maintain their game and a half lead over the Panthers. Both Marshall and Pearson twirled sterling ball, but a brace of errors by the latter's comrades in the final chapter turned the tide in favor of the Spudders.

Both slabsters were practically invincible with men on the bags. A walk to Tanner, followed by a long triple to the right pasture by Danny Clark gave the Spudders first blood in the opening canto, but the Buffs came back in the next round and knotted the count on an infield hit by Blades and a double by George Whiteman. It was nip and tuck from this point on, and the two clubs might have been battling yet were it not for a couple of bobbles by the Buff infield in the ninth.

In this chapter Tex McDonald drew a life as a starter when Blades kicked his bounder. Clark followed with another timely smash a safe poke to center this time—but Tex was too ambitious and was thrown out by Whiteman trying to make third on the drive. Danny kept his head up, however, and romped to second while Tex was being retired. Bishoff sent Baggan into deep left for his drive and Danny was held at second. Griggs then bit to Darringer, who had ample time to get him at first, but he threw the ball away and Clark scampered all the way from second across the plate with the winning counter.

Marshall grew better as the game progressed and the Buffs never had a chance to knot the count again in the ninth. The Spudders had passed up a beautiful chance to score earlier in the game when Clark led off with a double, but the next four men were unable to advance him even one notch, although Griggs beat out an infield hit. The detailed sobre:

First Inning.

WICHITA FALLS: McElwee hit the first ball pitched to Blades and was thrown out at first. Tanner walked on four straight balls. McDonald flew out to Elffert. Tanner stole second and kept on to third when Griffith threw to center field. Clark tripled to right, scoring Tanner. Bischoff grounded out, Bailey to Bottomly. One run, one hit, one error.

HOUSTON: Before the Buffs could bat, the game was called for 45 minutes on account of rain. Tex McDonald prevented them from scoring by a lightening unassisted double play. Baggan doubled to left. Darringer sacrificed him to third. McDonald to Bottomly. Bailey lined to McDonald who stepped on the bag, doubling Baggan. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Second Inning.

WICHITA FALLS: Griggs skied to Baggan. Works was thrown out at first by Darringer. Kitchens walked. Marshall grounded out to Bottomly. No runs, no hits, no errors.

HOUSTON: Blades beat out an infield hit to McDonald. Whiteman, who has been the Spudder nemesis ever since they hit Houston, doubled to deep left, scoring Blades. Elffert popped to Clark. Bottomly skied to Griggs. Griffith walked. Pearson lined to Bischoff. No run, two hits, no errors.

Third Inning.

WICHITA FALLS: McElwee singled center and went to second on Tanner's sacrifice to Bottomly, unassisted. "Mac" took another snooze, however, as he did yesterday, and was caught napping off second. McDonald flew out to Baggan. No runs, one hit, no errors.

HOUSTON: Baggan grounded to Works and was an easy out. Darringer went out swinging. Bailey singled to left, but was forced at second by Blades, Tanner to Clark. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Fourth Inning.

WICHITA FALLS: Clark grounded out, Darringer to Bottomly. Bischoff fouled out to Bottomly. Griggs was thrown out at first by Darringer. No runs, no hits, no errors.

HOUSTON: Whiteman flew out to Griggs. Elffert beat out a slow roller to Clark. Bottomly lined to Bischoff. Griffith singled to right, sending Elffert to third, and he then stole second. Pearson was thrown out by Clark. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Fifth Inning.

WICHITA FALLS: Works and Kitchens popped to Blades. Marshall had two strikes called on him and then swung at the third. No runs, no hits, no errors.

HOUSTON: Baggan was thrown out by McDonald. Marshall tossed out Darringer. Tanner and Works disposed of Bailey. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Sixth Inning.

WICHITA FALLS: McElwee flew out to Baggan. Tanner went out swinging. McDonald skied to Baggan on the first ball. No runs, no hits, no errors.

HOUSTON: Marshall threw just four balls in this inning. Blades popped to Clark on the first. Whiteman was thrown out by McDonald on the third and Elffert lined to McElwee on the fourth. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Seventh Inning.

WICHITA FALLS: Clark started this frame off with a double but never got beyond second. Bischoff fouled out to Griffith. Griggs beat out an infield hit to Blades, but Clark couldn't get away from the bag. Works flew out to center. Kitchens took a perfect third strike. No runs, two hits, no errors.

HOUSTON: Bottomly went out at first, unassisted. Griffith lined the first ball pitched to Griggs for an out. Pearson went out swinging. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Eighth Inning.

WICHITA FALLS: Marshall popped to Blades. McElwee took three cuts and sat down. Tanner popped to Bottomly.

HOUSTON: Baggan singled to left. Darringer sacrificed him to second. McDonald to Works. Bailey fouled out to Kitchens. Blades went out on strikes. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Ninth Inning.

WICHITA FALLS: McDonald was safe on Blades fumble. Clark singled to center and McDonald was thrown out at third, Whiteman to Bailey. Clark went to second on the throw. Bischoff flew out to Baggan in deep left. Griggs hit to Darringer who threw wild to first. Clark scoring. Works flew out to Whiteman. One run, one hit, two errors.

HOUSTON: Whiteman popped to Tanner. Elffert went out swinging. Bottomly flew out to Bischoff. No runs, no hits, no errors.

JOHNNY WALKER NOW ABLE TO LEAVE THE HOSPITAL

SUZANNE GOING TO SEE HER FIRST BASEBALL GAME

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen planned to see a baseball game today, for the first time, the contest between the Giants and the Cardinals at the Polo Grounds.

"The fame of your Babe Ruth is well-known to us," she said. "We have heard a great deal of other noted players such as Speaker and Cobb and Hornsby."

GASSERS 8, BEARS 7

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, Aug. 23.—By winning yesterday's game 8 to 7 Shreveport broke even with the locals on the series. San Antonio's ninth inning rally, in which Henry's home run with two men on bases figured largely, fell one short of tying the score. Jackson was credited with a home run in the ninth inning when he drove a hard one over Connolly's head, the ball rolling under the club house. Ewoldt scored a head of him.

American Amateur Trapshooting Title Decided Today

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—Today's events in the Grand American handicap, trapshooting classic of the year, now in progress at the South Shore Country club, were featured by the American amateur championship at single targets.

This contest is looked upon by many shots to be of greater importance than the Grand American because it is only the state champions or runners-up. The winner is looked upon as the champion of champions.

While the amateur event is in progress the American professional championship at single targets is to be held. Both events are scheduled for the afternoon. This morning's competition in the American amateur championship at double targets was resumed. The professional championship at double targets was also started this morning. In both events contestants were shooting at fifty pairs.

Following these matches, the Lake Michigan special, a 100-target event, 16 yards rise, is scheduled. This is to be followed by the final of the East vs. West team shoot and the junior title to be decided at noon.

INDIANS AND YANKS OPEN 3-GAME SERIES

Third Time This Year League Leaders Have Met When a Game or Two Would Change Race.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 23.—The New York Yankees and the Cleveland Indians open a three-game series here today, the last of the season between the two teams on the local grounds. The world's champions were leading their eastern rivals by a game and a half. It was the third time this year they have met so closely bunched in the league standing that a game or two could change the lead.

Previous to today, New York had won nine of the fifteen games played with the Indians this season. However, they were more effective during the first two series, when they won five out of eight games with scores of 46 and Cleveland's 40. Of the last seven games played, Cleveland has won three, scoring 44 runs against New York's 40.

Gibbons Will Soon Tip Scales at 200 Pounds or Better

ST. PAUL, MINN., Aug. 22.—Tom Gibbons, for years a light heavyweight boxer, rapidly is collecting the poundage which will carry him out of that division into the heavyweight class.

For more than a month Tom has been at his summer home at Osakis, in the heart of the Minnesota lake region, where he has been putting on weight, now tipping the scales at 191½ pounds in light clothing. He declares that is only a matter of a short time when he will be in the 200 pound class, and will be able to fight at about that weight, without slowing up.

The added weight has not come as the result of a lazy life, usually followed by those who spend their vacation days in Osakis district. Tom has been doing from ten to fifteen miles daily through the woods in addition to many fishing trips for bass and pike. Although several power boats are at the boxer's disposal he has declined to use them, making the trips to the fishing grounds in a row-boat for which he furnishes power himself.

It will be necessary for Gibbons to do three or four weeks hard training for his coming match with Georges Carpentier, which is to be boxed some time in the winter. The articles for the match call for 175 pounds. Gibbons feels that it will not be difficult for him to take off the necessary pounds and still be as strong as he has shown himself in recent bouts.

Until a year ago Gibbons boxed his way through most of his matches, cutting his opponent and keeping out of harm's way himself, without making an effort to clutter up the record book with a number of knockouts. Beginning last spring, after the followers of gymnasium boxing had come forth with the announcement that Tom had developed a knockout punch, which was delivered with as much force as that of any boxer, Gibbons began a public demonstration of his newly acquired ability. He went through the list of lightweights and heavyweights, missing only a few of the best, who, according to his manager declined action, for various reasons, and scored eleven straight knockouts, including among his victims Willie Meehan, who holds two decisions over Jack Dempsey.

Gibbons intends to stay at his summer home until the middle of September when he will begin active training.

EAST VS. WEST MATCH PLAY IS CALLED OFF

18-Hole Tilt Between American And Foreign-Born Professionals Substituted.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 23.—The proposed match play between players representing the east and west, which was to have been inaugurated in the western open golf tournament at the Oakwood club today, has been changed to an 18-hole tilt between American and foreign born professionals. The change in the program was occasioned by the inability of the eastern leaders to muster a team of sufficient numbers because several players were unable to arrive in time.

Tommy Kerrigan, Siwanoy professional, who was to have piloted the eastern team, will captain the Americans. On his list are Mike Brady of Detroit, George McLean, Grassy Sprain Emmett French, Youngstown, Walter Hagen, Walter Melhorn, Gene Sarazen, George Bowden, Alfred Hackbrath, Tom McNamara, Emil Loeffler, Bill Trovinger, Frank Adams and Charlie Lorms.

Jock Hutchison will captain the Anglo-Scottish brigade. A tentative lineup of his team included Laurie and Aleck Ayton, Charlie Mayo, Willie MacFarland, Harry Hampton, Alec Ross, Paddy Boyle, Tom Boyd, Willie Ogg, Wilfred Reid, Alex Cunningham, Phil Gaudin and Willie Hunter.

The match will be played this afternoon. Cups have been offered as prizes by the Oakwood club.

SPORT SHOTS by Paul W. Barkin

The boys actually had a game handed them.

It was evident that one club was going to kick the game to the other after it was half over. Both hurlers were going like a million dollars and growing stronger every minute. The team that erred first was bound to lose.

Danny Clark seems to have acquired the knack of driving 'em into safe territory again. Ever since he tried to bat to left field, the ball failed to go safe. But he's been whaling the apple in his old time form lately.

That the Buffs didn't take the long end of the series is in no way due to George Whiteman's work. The Buff pilot has been poison to the Salmites all year. At Athletic Park he didn't do much terrific hitting but he rounded many a spudder of extra base hits, especially Tex McDonald. In Houston it has been just the reverse. In the five games just played there, the Buffs scored 13 runs and 9 of those were driven in by Whiteman. Three others were sent over by Bottomly.

No answer has been received from Red Josefson yet. He must still be holding out. It's too bad Salm couldn't have landed Harper, the Little Rock outfielder. Throw a log that will pound the apple with any of them. He's just such a man that Waller needs.

The Lows should find the Expositors rather soft pickins after their touch battles with the Bears and Battalions. Wait until Danny and Tex start plugging away at that short tight field battrie. The Exporters claim that they never have got Clark out yet in that park.

The Stockers have no less than seven postponed games to be played out yet while they are on the road.

Walter's employers are now enjoying the same lead over the Panthers that the Indians are enjoying over the Yankees. But there's this difference, in our humble opinion—the Spudders will hold theirs or will be at the top when the curtain is rung down while the Indians won't. We liked the Yankees before the season opened—and we like 'em just as much as ever today.

A few more defeats for the Giants while the Pirates are winning and they won't even have a mathematical chance to win. Here's the way Jesse Burkett, one of the numerous Giant coaches, sums up the showing of the New Yorkers. "There are just two reasons why the Giants are not up there right now and why they won't be up there at the finish, if they don't get up. They are a lack of championship pitching and not enough consistency in the offensive department. The pitchers who did show that they had the right kind of stuff had to be overworked for the birds who hadn't shown enough to start regularly. And that kept all the whole leaning works out. On the offense, the boys have hit like fools maybe they followed it right up the next day, too, but they've gone into some unexpected hitting slumps—practically the whole crew, just at the times when the slumps hurt most."

Regret has been expressed all over the country at Donie Bush's transfer to the Senators, not so much at the transfer but because it indicates that the great shortstop has stopped. But Donie has simply learned the lesson that every ball player must learn sooner or later—"You're only up there for so long." That's the story. It is hard to see a fellow who has been one of the best starting to slip, but they all do and the usually go fast once they start. He may do better in another club, but even so, it's only a question of time before he'll be out of there for good. The young fellow just breaking in can do worse than step and think for a minute or two when he hears that a chap like Donie Bush is about all done.

Texans High In Grand American Handicap Event

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—Exceptional shooting was indicated in the Grand American handicap, feature of the trapshoot world, which opened today at the Southern Shore country club, by exceptional scores made early in the first event, the South Shore introductory, which called for one hundred targets sixteen yard rise.

—J. F. Woodward of Houston, Texas, 1920 state champion and Guy H. Ford of Indianapolis, champion of the Hoosier state, turned in perfect scores when the latter's squad had shot their strongest. J. S. Day of San Antonio, Texas, finished with a score of 99.

COTTON MARKET.

New York Cotton.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23—The cotton market showed increased strength and activity at the opening today. Liverpool made a very firm showing while continued hot weather was reported in the southwest and reports of a firmer spot basis in the south were followed by a good trade demand for near months but first prices were 14 to 17 points higher in consequence with all active months, making new high ground for the movement. This attracted a good deal of profit taking, but the early offerings were soon taken; active months sold 20 to 28 points net higher with October 13.82 and December 14.20. Private cables attributed the advance in Liverpool to covering by shorts and an increased trade demand.

Rumors that a southern authority made the condition of the crop only at 5 and indicated yield 7,100,000 bales, stimulated early buying but at 14.27 for December, or 50 to 55 points net higher, the market met increased realizing. This caused reactions of some 10 to 12 points on the most active but the undertone continued steady around noon. The report of a local authority made the condition 52.7 and the indicated crop 7,470,000 bales, compared with the official estimate of 52.5% at the end of July.

Realizing sales were absorbed on the midday reaction of 10 to 12 points and the mid-afternoon market was very strong on renewed Wall street buying and covering promoted by the detailed weather reports, showing higher temperatures in the southwest. December sold around 14.25, or about 33 points net higher shortly after 2 o'clock.

New Orleans Cotton.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 23—Much better cables than due, continued unfavorable accounts from many sections of the cotton region and a private bureau report on condition of 52.7 per cent of normal put the price of cotton strongly higher today. In the first hour of business the active months rose 28 to 43 points, October being the strongest position and advancing to 13.58.

Another private bureau report on condition of 51.5 per cent o fnormal, indicating a crop of 7,100,000 bales, held the market steady for a while, but at levels of 31 to 42 points up, much realizing came from the long side and at 11 o'clock prices were 7 to 12 points down from highest with October at 12.49.

Cotton closed steady at a net advance of 31 to 36 points.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23—Wheat opened 1c higher today, advanced to a full cent over the last close and then eased off. Initial prices were 1 1-2 to 1 1-4 for September and $1.18 to $1.18¼ for December. Trade was light after some scattered general buying, especially in September. There was some moderate buying in December. Country offer-offerings were reported light and export demand slow with advices that England was requesting re-offers at lowest prices. A rally at the end of the first hour carried prices back to around the opening figures.

The market became erratic later and prices fluctuated, mainly on local trading, on a range of around 2c. The close was well above yesterday's finish with September $1.17¾ to $1.18 and December $1.19 to $1.19¼.

Corn generally followed wheat, starting ¼ to ⅜c higher, with September 53⅜ to 53¾ and December 54¼ to 54⅝c. The market was heavy, the early recession being in the neighborhood of a cent under the opening and the subsequent recovery being slow.

The market averaged generally lower, but there was enough support to raise the lowest prices to within a fraction of yesterday's finish at the close. Final prices were 53⅜ to 53½c for September and 53⅜ to ⅝ for December.

Oats, opening ⅛c to ¼c higher, lost only fractions and then went back to yesterday's final figures. First trade made September 34¼c to 34½c and December 37⅛c to 37½c.

Provisions were slow and generally unchanged.

LIVESTOCK.

Fort Worth Livestock.

FORT WORTH, Aug. 23—Although the demand for cattle has decreased greatly, receipts this week are exceeding the average. Today's supply was 3,000 had of cattle and 2,500 calves. Out of 3,500 head of cattle here yesterday, packers bought only 836 head. Two weeks ago, when receipts were smaller, packers bought around 2,000 head daily. This accounts for the near demoralized state of the beef steer trade. Calves were active at strong prices, good light stock bringing $5.25 with a string of heavies going at $5.25. Steers were 15c to 25c lower. Cows and yearlings were steady to 15c lower.

Hogs sold lower today, but the local decline probably was less than elsewhere. Four loads went at a cut of not over 15c, but packers bought at a 15c to 25c decline. The shipper top was $9 while packers stopped at $8.90. Bulk sales ranged from $8.75 to $9. Receipts were limited to 1,500 head.

The sheep and lambs market was steady, the count falling for 1,200 head. Fairly good wethers brought $4.50.

Cattle—Beeves $2.75@8.25, stockers $2.50@4.75, cows $2.00@4.00, canners $1.00@2.00, heifers $3.00@4.50, bulls $2.00@3.75, calves $1.00@5.75, yearlings $3.00@6.00.

Hogs—Receipts, 9,500; open slow, later more active, mostly 25c to 40c lower, spots off more, lights to packers $8.80, to shippers $8.75, bulk $7.60@8.75, stocker pigs $9.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Prospects of an early settlement of the Mexican oil situation strengthened that group at the opening of today's stock market. Mexican Petroleum made an initial gain of 1¾ points, this soon being extended to 3 points. General Asphalt, Houston and Texas company also improved. Famous Players rose 2¼ points on declaration of the regular dividend and Baldwin, Studebaker and Tobacco Products also made irregular advances. Heavy features included American Tobacco.

The market turned strong at midday when support was given to leaders of the oil, equipment and motor group. Mexican Petroleum showed a 4-point gain and General Asphalt, Studebaker, Harvester, Pullman, General Electric, Baldwin and U. S. Rubber were 1 to 2 points over yesterday's close.

The market duplicated its performance of yesterday in the last hour, when rails were under pressure. Coppers, tobaccos, leathers and rubbers also yielded. The closing was heavy. Sales approximated 500,000 shares.

Recommends That Town be Burned to Check the Cholera

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 23.—The Svenska Dagbladet prints an unconfirmed report today from its Helsingfors correspondent that the soviet commissary in Astrakhan, on an island in the Volga, has informed the soviet government that the town is so full of filth and in such a terrible condition that it would be useless to try to fight the cholera plague there by disinfection, and that he recommends the drastic measure of burning the town.

The soviet commissary, the report says, proposes that the inhabitants of Astrakhan should be sent to Siberia.

(Latest available figures give the population of Astrakhan as about 113,000.)

ROBY GETS FIRST BALE OF 1921 COTTON CROP

ROBY, TEXAS, Aug. 23.—The first bale of cotton to be ginned at Roby of the 1921 crop was brought in Monday by M. B. Farley of east of town and ginned by the Planters Gin company. The bale graded a number three and was bought by Mr. Etter, manager of the gin, for 12 cents. There was also a premium made up among the business men of the town.

The outlook for a bumper cotton crop is not so good as it was ten days ago, as cotton is beginning to suffer from the continued hot weather and the boll worms are still working some.

Ship Arrives With Three Members of The Crew in Irons

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—The steamship Alliance arrived today from Cristobal with three mutinous firemen in irons and 22 marines transferred to the steamship at sea from the battleship Connecticut, on guard because of a rebellious spirit exhibited by other firemen.

Fearing for the safety of 124 passengers, many of whom were women and children, Caotain Jams Stone got in touch with the battleship by wireless last Friday and summoned aid.

The Alliance left Cristobal August 12. Captain Stone said that as the result of continual quarrels he ordered three firemen put in irons on charge of mutiny.

The rest of the firemen made such threats that the engineers went armed and were afraid to sleep.

COUNCIL TO BORROW ENOUGH MONEY FOR CURRENT EXPENSES

MAYOR AUTHORIZED TO CONTRACT LOAN UNTIL TAX MONEY COMES IN.

TELEPHONE COMPANY CITED TO APPEAR FOR HEARING

Council Acts on Petition From Residents of Scotland Addition Asking For Service.

Less than an hour was required Monday night for the city council to dispose of what little business came up for attention and after three or four routine matters had been acted on the meeting was adjourned.

Authorization for borrowing money to meet expenses until taxes are paid was the most important action of the meeting.

A petition was presented by W. L. Neal, residing in Scotland addition, requesting that the council use its power to force the telephone company to install service north of the river. Mr. Neal appeared with the same petition last Monday night and was told to take the matter up with the telephone authorities. He presented his case as instructed but was unable to make any headway in the matter, the company officials, he said, refusing to consider such an improvement at the present time.

After some discussion it was moved and seconded that the telephone company be ordered to appear before the council at its next meeting and show cause as to why it could not extend service into Scotland addition as requested.

The petition held by Mr. Neal was signed with a number of names, all representing property holders in the Scotland section, who are anxious for the extension of the telephone service.

The North Texas Gas company also came up for attention when A. J. Markey, 115 Lee street, complained to the councilmen that his gas bills had been exorbitant of late. He submitted a bill of $10 for the month of July with the information that he used but one small stove, which, he believed, was not capable of consuming $10 worth of gas in a single month.

His chief complaint was that the gas company refused to consider negotiations with him in regard to a fair settlement of the matter. He was advised to wait until next month's bill was presented, several of the councilmen being of the opinion that an error had been responsible for the excessive charge and that the next bill would be correspondingly low. Should next month's charges be high he was told to return and the council would investigate further into the matter.

A motion was passed whereby the mayor was authorized to borrow funds not exceeding $200,000 to tide the city over its present financial shortage. A total of $50,000 is needed at present and this sum will be borrowed immediately, according to City Attorney Mann, while other amounts may be taken as they are needed. The loans will be contracted for only until tax payments fall due.

Permission was given W. W. Medford to erect a gasoline filling station at the corner of Missouri and Jefferson streets, the work to be done under the usual supervision.

No property owners appeared to protest the paying of Fillmore street between Avenues F and G, with the result that this hearing was closed and the ordinance placed on its first reading.

J. A. Moore came before the council to investigate the cause of his being refused permission by Fire Chief McClure to move a wooden building into the fire limits. He wished to open a meat market, he said, but McClure had ordered him not to use the timber structure which he had planned. On being informed that an ordinance prohibited the use of all such buildings within the city fire limits he agreed to abide by the ruling.

Adjournment was then taken.

ONLY SLIGHT DELAY EXPECTED IN COUNTY ROAD CONSTRUCTION

Although it was necessary to close down the special road work Monday evening due to lack of material, County Auditor W. W. Murphy stated Tuesday that the stone quarry at Chico had sent out eight cars Saturday and eleven Monday.

It is believed that the eight cars shipped Saturday will be on hand by Wednesday morning so that the crews engaged in laying concrete can go back to work some time Wednesday morning.

The stone quarry officials have put all available help to work at the quarry and have secured more drills in order that the output can be increased daily. It is stated that if the plans of the quarry company are carried out that Wichita county will secure more than a sufficient amount of stone to keep the work going constantly.

COUNTY AUDITOR MURPHY IS GIVEN 2 WEEKS' VACATION

The three district judges Monday afternoon granted County Auditor W. W. Murphy a two weeks' leave of absence to be taken whenever he desired to go. Mr. Murphy stated Tuesday that he did not intend to leave his office for a vacation until the road work was back in running order and assurance given that there would be no further delay in the supply of materials.

ANTI-ALCOHOLIC CONGRESS CONVENES IN SWITZERLAND

By Associated Press.

LAUSANNE, SWITZERLAND, Aug. 23.—President Schulthess of Switzerland, opening the anti-alcoholic congress here yesterday, declared alcohol was in the first rank of "obstacles hindering world pacification." He pointed a despondent picture of Europe's economic situation, saying it was due largely to alcoholism.

Dr. R. Hercod, one of the Swiss delegates, and secretary of the International Temperance bureau, addressing the American delegation especially, said that the congress was not essentially for prohibition but for moderation.

It should be remembered, he added, that the Swiss government had a monopoly on alcohol and that the budget was being greatly aided by it. The Americans did not agree with the views of Dr. Hercod.

There were 400 delegates representing 29 countries at the congress.

NEW PAVING DAMAGED BY CITY EMPLOYE WHO RUNS OVER IT WITH TRACTOR

The new bitulithic paving at Ninth and Taylor streets was badly cut up early Tuesday morning when a heavy caterpillar tractor driven by a street department employe ran over it. The machine came from the north on Taylor, ran off the dirt road, across the car tracks to the south side of the street and then turned west onto the concrete paving which extends from Taylor on out to the end of Ninth.

The heavy treads cut deep into the surface, the point where the sharp turn was made being scarred up especially bad.

According to reports to the police department, who made an investigation of the affair at the request of Street Commissioner Curlee, the driver of the tractor "didn't know he was on the paving."
