Report: census drops

According to a report recently issued by the Census Bureau, the number of people in Mitchell County declined from 9,088 in April of 1980 to an estimated 8,800 in July of 1987, or by 3.2 percent.

The same report indicated that the nation's population increased from 226,545,805 in April of 1980 to an estimated 243,376,000 in July of 1987, or by 7.4 percent, while the population of Texas increased by 18 percent or from 14,229,191 in April of 1980 to an estimated 16,785,000 in July of 1987.

This would indicate that the population of Mitchell County had fallen by 3.3 percent from 9,100 in 1986. The national population increased by slightly less than 1.0 percent during that year while the population of Texas increased by .6 percent from 16,685,000 in 1986.

While the Census Bureau only makes a comprehensive count of the national population every 10 years, it issues periodic estimates that update these totals. These estimates are important for reasons beyond their statistical significance. A number of federal agencies base grant funding for localities upon these reports. Additionally, many national corporations take these reports into consideration when planning future activities.

To obtain preliminary population figures, the Census Bureau

Gomez attorney allegations denied

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following information was contained in an article in Sunday's Big Spring Herald and concerns the continuing saga of the Sammy Gomez case. Gomez was killed May 13, 1988 by Colorado City police as he was being arrested for questioning in a rape case.

An official with the Texas Attorney General's office and the Mitchell County district attorney strongly refuted recent allegations by a San Antonio civil rights attorney that a second grand jury hearing on the Sammy Gomez case in Colorado City would be a "circus" and a "charade".

Ruben Sandoval, the attorney representing the Gomez family, told a meeting of District 5 League of United Latin American Citizens members last week that Attorney General investigators have harassed witnesses in the case and that a fair and impartial hearing cannot be held in Colorado City.

But Ron Dusek, a spokesman for the Attorney General's office, said Sandoval's assertions were "just an attempt by the attorney to drum up publicity for himself."

"We have no reason to (harass witnesses)," Dusek said. "We're an outside entity coming in to take an objective look at this. We have absolutely no reason to do anything like that."

The grand jury meeting on the Gomez case was originally scheduled for Friday, but the Attorney General's office postponed the hearing, and it will likely be held in mid-June, according to Frank Conard, Mitchell County district attorney.

The grand jury that heard the case one week after Sammy Gomez was shot May 13, 1988 by Billy Ray Williamson, a part-time Colorado City police officer, voted not to indict the officer.

City officials have said Williamson shot Gomez - a suspect in a sexual assault case - because the 27-year-old attempted to attack him and Lt. Pat Taylor with a knife.

However, Sandoval and attorney John Garcia, state LULAC director, have alleged Colorado City police "summarily executed" Gomez and planted a throwdown knife at the scene of the shooting.

Gomez died from a bullet wound in the back of the head. He was also shot in the left side of his chest and in the back of the left shoulder.

A source close to the first grand jury which met before the autopsy was completed - told the Big Spring Herald "the term 'shot in the back' was never mentioned (by witnesses testifying during the hearing.)"

But Texas Ranger John Billings who conducted the initial investigation on the shooting contends grand jurors were told about the shot to the back of Gomez's head.

Asked what brought about the June grand jury hearing on the case, Dusek said: "A second grand jury is being held because the Attorney General's office has become involved - that in itself should say something."

"If we hadn't gotten involved this thing would have been long over," he added.

Dusek said no consideration was given to a change of venue because "this is not a court

Westbrook to graduate 9 Friday

Nine Westbrook High School seniors are scheduled to receive diplomas during commencement exercises Friday at 8:15 p.m. in the school auditorium.

The candidates for graduation are Guy Campbell, valedictorian; Marty Browne, salutatorian; Luis Ernesto Aminaga, Rhonda Kay Carter, Sara J. DeLoach, Michelle (Mikki) Elaine Ginkinger, David Allen Hines, Lisa Michelle Putman and Elizabeth Kristine Wright.

Campbell attained a four-year grade point of 96.310. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Campbell of Westbrook and Elizabeth English of Houston.

Browne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Browne of Colorado City, had an average of 94.600.

Former superintendent L.M. Dawson will be commencement speaker.

Loraine graduation set Saturday

Loraine High School's graduation exercises will be Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

Class valedictorian is Letisia Garcia. Bonnie Gay Herrington is salutatorian.

Other candidates for graduation are Joe Alvarez, Casey Cooper, trial - the grand jury in the county where an incident occurs should be the one that reviews the evidence."

"If a trial becomes necessary at some point in the future and if someone wants the trial to be held somewhere else, then they could file for a change of venue at that time."

In addition to the Attorney General's involvement in the case, the FBI announced in February that it also was investigating the shooting.

In an impassioned speech before about 90 LULAC members last week, Sandoval blasted the Attorney General's office, saying investigators were "harassing witnesses and putting words in their mouth."

Sandoval stood behind his allegations when contacted by the Herald Friday.

Two witnesses whom the civil rights attorney declined to identify said the investigators asked them of giving answers that were the result of coaching, Sandoval said. Investigators also badgered witnesses, saying that the attorney wanted to use the grand jury's ruling to support a civil lawsuit, he charged.

"What other lawsuit?" Sandoval asked. "I don't have another lawsuit."

Sandoval has previously told the Herald he was representing the Gomez family to ensure justice was upheld in the case.

In January, Sandoval said he "would not preclude civil action at this point," but added, "a monetary judgment is not salutary to solving the problem."

Because of the tactics of the investigators, Sandoval said he told the witnesses not to talk to the officials without a court reporter present.

The investigators refused the request, Sandoval said.

"The objectivity of this (investigation) was crap," he said.

"Dusek termed Sandoval's comments 'ridiculous; they're just not true,' he said.

"The people he asked us to interview - he told us they had new information, but some of them refused to talk to us and some of the people we tried to talk to said (Sandoval) told them not to talk to us."

"The others he wanted us to talk to did not have the type of information he said they would have."

As for Sandoval's request for a court reporter to be present during the interviews, Dusek said, "The investigators do not travel with a court reporter. No investigator anywhere travels with a court reporter..."

"This particular lawyer just does not know anything about how an investigation should be conducted, and if he does he's just trying to stir up publicity."

District Attorney Conard objected to Sandoval's stating that a fair hearing could not be held in Colorado City and if an indictment is issued Mitchell County prosecutors "are not going to want to convict" the officers involved in the incident.

"Mr. Sandoval is totally wrong," Conard said. "A person of any race can get a fair hearing in Colorado City."

"Other grand juries here have shown me the citizens on the grand jury try very hard to do the right thing. What the right thing is, they try to do it."

"(Sandoval) doesn't know me from Adam," Conard added. "He doesn't know what I'll do or say, or what I'll recommend. I will prosecute cases appropriately as they are presented."

makes use of federal tax data to determine the number of persons whose county of residence has changed. The Bureau uses data on Medicare enrollees as well as independent studies to estimate the population over 65 years of age. Additionally, the Census Bureau takes birth and death statistics to estimate natural (as opposed to migratory) net population changes. Other factors including resident students, military personnel and immigration from abroad are also taken into consideration in preparing interim population reports. These reports are estimates, but it is generally agreed that these are the most reliable population estimates available.

Information released in the current population report indicates that the population of Mitchell County is declining at a more rapid pace than it did from 1970 through 1977. During that period, the Census Bureau estimated that the county's population fell by 1.9 percent.

If the current rate of population change in Mitchell County continues through 1990, the population will have declined by 4.4 percent. However, there are so many factors that affect local population changes that it is highly unusual for the rate of change for a county's population to remain constant over a 10-year period. If the rate of population change in Mitchell County had continued as it did from 1970 through 1977 until 1980, the population would have fallen by 2.6 percent. In fact, the population of Mitchell County had increased slightly by 0.2 percent at the end of the decade.

In other business, the board agreed to purchase a blood gas analyzer to replace one no longer working for $13,875 and an X-ray film processor to replace one not working properly for $14,995 minus $3,000 trade-in.

Armstrong reported that the ambulance board is proceeding with plans to purchase a new ambulance and that the present two ambulances are in the process of being repaired. One ambulance has a problem with cooling and the other one has a problem with over heating. Armstrong said an ambulance will be rented or leased for standby until the new one is delivered. He said the cost of a new one will be about $30,000 and that money is on hand with which to purchase one.

White Sox break Colts, 9-6

The VFW Post 9178 White Sox, defending Junior Teenage League baseball champions, began their quest for a repeat title by downing the Colts 9-6 at A.W. Phillips Field Monday night. The Matlock Farm Supply Braves won the opening contest 14-3 over the Cubs.

Winning pitcher for the White Sox was Avan Ceballos who got relief from Gabriel Salazar. Doug Doch took the loss for the Colts with relief from Chris Majors.

The White Sox collected 10 hits to only three for the Colts. The White Sox committed four errors and the Colts five.

Ceballos, mixing in a few curves with a fast ball, struck out 14 Colts in four and one-third innings, walked six and gave up one earned hit. Koch, who relied on a curve, struck out 6, walked 6 and gave up five earned hits.

Ceballos retired the Colts in order to begin the game and then hit a triple to left/centerfield in the bottom of the first inning. Sox first baseman Salazar doubled to center to score Ceballos and catcher Artie Rivera. Shortstop Jesse Gonzalez singled up the middle to score Salazar. The runs gave the Sox a 3-0 lead.

The Colts made it 3-1 in the top of the second when shortstop Majors tripped to rightfield to score Koch.

Koch hit Ceballos with a pitch in the bottom of the second to score second baseman Jesse Espinoza. Leftfielder Tracy Lentz and third baseman Johnny Martinez stole home for other second inning runs to make it 6-1 for the Sox.

Martinez doubled for the Sox in the third and Gonzalez batted in Rivera with a fourth inning single to make it 7-1.

A Colts error gave Salazar a two-run double in the fifth-scoring Espinoza and Lentz for a 9-1 lead.

The Colts chased Ceballos off the mound during a five-run sixth that made the final count 9-6. Only Terry Simon hit the ball during the comeback to score two runs on an error. Majors and Simon stole home on errors for two other runs.

Please return wash pot

TO THE EDITOR: Recently someone went in my fenced-in backyard and borrowed my bean shaped wash pot without permission.

I am asking them to please return it without any questions asked, as I bought it in 1936 from a member of the family. It has a marking on it that I can identify. Also, it has a flat rim at the top with a piece broken out of it.

It has lots of sentimental value for me and my family. Over the years, lots of folks in and around Colorado City have eaten lots of fried fish that has been cooked in it.

Unfortunately the man that furnished the fish for these fish fries has passed away. Due to being unable to do much myself from broken leg first, then a complete knee replacement, I haven't asked around who might want to furnish fish for us to have a reunion fish fry. Sure there is someone who would. What a wonderful time that would be. Sure see a lot of old friends. Let me see this dream come true by the pot being returned soon. As they could have borrowed, only by asking for it.

FOCUS

by LIBBI GARNETT
County Extension Agent

Stacy Smith

National 4-H month is officially an October event, but for all that's happening in Mitchell County in May, our 4-H'ers are getting an early start.

1989 will be a banner year in opportunities for 4-H youth to learn that it is indeed a small world.

Stacy Smith is a first-year 4-H'er and is off to a great start. She competed in the 4-H foods project winning first place in county competition and second place at district.

This summer she and her family, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, sister Autumn and brother Brian will host an International 4-H Youth Exchange, (IFYE,) representative from Switzerland. Her name is Annemarie Zimmermann and she will be living with the Smith's June 29-July 17. She is 24 years old and is studying domestic science, the equivalent of the US Home Economics programs. She is interested in the American education systems, cotton, dairy, and fruit farming, foods, nutrition, and clothing. She is protestant and is from Bern, Switzerland.

Annemarie has already arrived in Texas and will rotate around the state with 4-H families for three months. She will then go to another state for three months with their 4-H families. In December she will return to Switzerland.

While we are enjoying Europe in our own backyard, Mitchell County will also be represented overseas.

Margie Oliver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Oliver of Loraine has been selected to represent Texas and the United States as an International Four-H Youth Exchange, (IFYE,) representative to Sweden.

Margie is a former Mitchell County 4-H'er and is currently a member of the Texas Tech Collegiate 4-H Club. While a member of 4-H here, Margie participated in foods and nutrition, clothing and leadership projects. She has worked in management and recruitment in the 4-H program at Tech and serves on the 4-H and Youth Committee of Lubbock County's Extension Program Council. Margie is a senior Home Economics Education major at Tech, and plans to pursue a career in the Extension Service upon graduation.

Through the IFYE programs, Margie will live with a number of 4-H families in Sweden. She will depart June 5 and return to the United States in December. She will be available for programs to civic groups as time permits before her return to school. Margie is being sponsored by Mitchell County 4-H clubs and Extension Homemakers.

Mitchell County is truly blessed to be so well-represented at home and abroad. One doesn't look very far to see the need for cross-cultural understanding in these troubled times. The mission of the IFYE program is "World Peace Through Understanding."

Congratulations and best wishes to these two families.

Meadows is host to homemakers

The North Loraine Homemakers met in the home of Mrs. Nina Meadows at 2 p.m. on May 17 for a regular meeting. Eleven members were present.

Mrs. Veida Gage, president, opened the meeting by leading the group in the club creed and prayer in unison. Margaret Braine brought the recreation.

The roll call was answered with "One thing my mother taught me". The secretary, treasurer and council delegate gave their reports.

During the business session Mrs. Gage appointed Margaret Braine and Jimmie Jacks to work on the history of the North Loraine Club.

Bertha Fay Snyder was elected as the nominee to be a potential delegate to the State Homemakers Convention in Corpus Christi in September.

Eva Wells brought the program on drying fruit and vegetables. She stated that drying food was one of the oldest methods in food preservation. The importance of selecting good quality fruit or vegetables was emphasized. She went through the preparation steps before the drying process. The different drying processes were explained. The oven, the dehydrator or the sun were methods she explained. She had a package of West Texas dates that she had dried to show. She also had printouts to give each member.

The hostess served refreshments to the following: Veida Gage, Margaret Braine, Elaine McMichael, Bessie Ann Vaughn, Billie Schroeder, Jimmie Jacks, Eva Wells, Darlene Hamrick, Bertha Fay Snyder and Effie Wheeler.

Hills receive
Amway honors

Lester and Bessie Hill of Loraine earned recognition from Amway Corporation in Ada, Michigan for reaching the level of Direct Distributor of the company's products.

In honor of their achievement, the Hills were awarded an expense-paid seminar at the network marketing company's world headquarters in Ada. The seminar allowed them to meet other new Direct Distributors from across the nation, tour Amway's corporate offices and manufacturing facilities, learn about the company's newest products and services, and obtain advice on how to make their distributorship more profitable.

The Hills became Direct Distributors through their sales and sponsoring success. This recogni-

Loraine Personals

...by Lois Phillips

Willie Taylor is in an Abilene Hospital recovering from surgery and of course Corcen is there with him. We hope he will soon be well again.

Ted Lefevre has moved to the nursing home. He needs to be waited on at this time and Lula is sick and can't do the job so they decided he would go down to the Home for a few weeks. We wish both of you the very best at this time and hope you are soon well again.

Bernice Hallmark has a birthday tomorrow. Happy birthday to you. Bernice is staying with her son and family in Sweetwater while she is ill. Sure hope she is feeling better.

Vada Preston is not doing as well as she was for a while so if you have time, send her a card and say a prayer for her. I am going to give you her address: Vada Preston Room 4116 Hendrick Memorial Hospital Abilene, Texas 79603

Aubrey and Dorothy Phillips of Odessa and their grandson, Britt Halcomb of Dallas visited Nannie Hallmark last week. Dorothy is Nannie's niece.

Lowell and Doris Alerson of Lubbock visited Thursday with her aunt Nannie Hallmark.

We lost our Mrs. Lillie Faulkenberry last week. She will be missed by a large family on both sides of the house, and also a large group of friends.

The youth department of the First Baptist Church had a booth at the Colorado City Mayfest last Saturday. They sold pies, cakes, Frito pies, and Cokes. I think they had a good day regardless of the heat. They are trying to make their own money for things they want to do and places they want to go. They are to be commended for this.

Summer baseball is now underway and how we wish it would cool off in the late afternoon. We expect our kids to do well this year and win. I feel sure they will. See you at Preston Field.

The First Baptist Church will have a guest speaker Sunday for both services I guess. I don't think I was told about the night service, but I think he will stay.

His name is Keith Post from Blytheville, Arkansas. His wife is also coming. Her name is Kathy. They were raised at Midland. He has training from Southwest Seminary at Fort Worth along with his other degree. He is 34 years old and has two children who will stop in Dallas to visit with grandparents, while mom and dad are in Loraine.

Irene Kidd is home from Austin where she had hip surgery. I have not talked to her yet, but I hope she is doing nicely.

The sons and daughters of the late J. W. Thompsons gathered last week in the home of Jay and Adele Thompson for a week's reunion. They enjoyed eating, sleeping and visiting for several days and nights. Also they found out they were not quite as "sharp" as they were when they were younger.

On Thursday they had dinner for the entire clan who could come. Also on Sunday they did the same. All the living Thompson kids were present except Ollie Galee of Colorado City and Dorothy Taylor of New Home, Arkansas. They were both ill and could not come.

Those here for the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Thompson and daughter Beverly of Sun City, Fla.; Linton Ray Webb, Almaz and daughters, Sheryl and Sheli Rae of Loraine; Mrs. Florence Thompson of Midland and Mrs. Lulene Minshaw of Odessa.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Monte Wilkes and daughter, Gayle of Midland and her friend Kelly Glover of Lubbock, Inez Webb of Loraine and Truman Nix and wife Mavis of Waco were there.

Truman and Mavis Nix went on to Andrews to visit his brother, Dennis and wife Lola Nix of Andrews. Dennis is a very sick man.

Jane Andrews had major surgery last week in San Angelo. Pete says she is doing nicely and will probably be home this week. Good luck, Jane.

I have a new report on little Janessa Lee. She will return to San Antonio this week for a checkup, then they will know where to go with her treatment. Janessa sends her love and thanks to all who sent her a card or letter. I will run her address again for you. Janessa Lee Box 113 Wilson, Texas 79381
