Three packs of bloodhounds were put on the trail of the fugitives soon after the break was reported, but prison officials here were advised the men apparently had outdistanced the dogs. The warden here immediately ordered that a pack of dogs be sent from Turn to Page 5, Column 4, Please.

BANDIT GETS HAUL IN CITY

CONTINENTAL STATION IS ROBBED OF $83 LAST NIGHT

While the street hummed with traffic and pedestrians passed with a few yards, a masked bandit hid up and robbed the Continental station, 1602 Broadway, of $83 in cash last night about 8:30 o'clock.

Checks totalling $76.25, which were ignored by the bandit, were taken.

Used a Gun
The man, walked quickly into the station, shot a gun into the back of the Continental station, and ordered "put 'em up." The man was then ordered into a hall closet at the back of the station and was told to stay there for a few minutes without making a sound.

Lamb had several dollars in change on his person, together with a valuable watch. These were not taken by the robber.

The station proprietor, ordered by the robber to turn his back immediately, did not obtain a close description of the offender. A short message revealed the man to be a large and tall and wearing a light handkerchief over the lower portion of his face. He was not wearing an automobile and made his escape by the front door.

Clements, president of the local Rotary club, Al Hill, editor of the South Plains Farmer, and met Reeves, publicity director of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, were guests today of the Lamesa luncheon club at Lamesa. PAPA'S VOICE IS REAL REASON

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Mama's hand may rock the cradle, but papa's voice calms the child, providing his voice is not a squeaky tenor.

Base voices, and not too harmonious, sing the best lullabies, according to Dr. John J. B. Morgan, psychologist at Northwestern university, who has been investigating responses of infants to various tones.

Pure tones are best, he found, and those of low frequency are less disturbing to infants than others.

PANTAGES ON STAND TODAY IN OWN TRIAL

THEATER MAGNATE UP AS SURPRISE MOVE BY DEFENSE

(By Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 22.—Alexander Pantages, theater multimillionaire, took the witness stand in his own defense shortly after resumption today of his trial on a statutory charge.

The debonair, immaculately dressed Pantages climbed into the chair after a brief direct examination of his son, Rodney Pantages.

Surprise Move
It was a surprise move, for it had been anticipated the son would occupy the stand for some time, especially after his accusation that a state witness, Jay Sheridan, had attempted to extort money from his father.

The state, for the moment, apparently did not fear the testimony, and when the witness was dismissed the defense called the 54-year old theater magnate for examination.

It was his first appearance as a witness.

Rodney, first member of the family to appear in the trial proceedings, testified Sheridan had threatened to "go to the district attorney" if he was not paid $300. Sheridan is a San Diego, Calif., hotel man and ex-convict.

The youth testified he told Sheridan "you can go to the district attorney, or go to hell."

Calhoun Trying His First Burger Case

STINNETT, Oct. 22 (AP)—Trying his first case in district court here, Clem Calhoun, appointed prosecutor for Hutchinson county to succeed John A. Holmes, slain Sept. 13, has secured a 99-year penitentiary sentence for Clarence French, negro, who pleaded guilty to the slaying here last summer of another negro.

Only one position, that of a constable for French, remained to be filled to complete Hutchinson county's official family changes in which were effected after martial law was declared last month.

FIGHT UP IN AMERICAN BAR MEETING OVER COMMERCIALIZED LAW SCHOOLS

(By Associated Press)
MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 22 (AP)—A bitter controversy, involving the requirements for admission to the bar, raged before the education section of the American Bar Association meeting here today.

Militant delegates asserted the legal education section was trying to strangle night law schools by advocating at least two years college training for lawyers and making such training prerequisite to bar admission.

Attendance at the sixth annual Avalanche-Journal cooking school was increased Tuesday afternoon when approximately 550 women gathered at the Uptown Dance Palace for the second of Mrs. Myra Oliver Dougan's lectures and demonstrations in the art of cooking.

FLEAGLE ON TRIAL TODAY

BANDIT GANG LEADER UP; TOWN AROUSED OVER RUMORS

(By Associated Press)
LAMAR, Colo., Oct. 22.—Ralph Fiegle, leader of the Lamar bandit gang, today faced trial for a slaying for which two of his companions in the Lamar bank robbery of May 23, 1928, were condemned to death yesterday.

At the same time, Lamar became increasingly agitated over possibilities of a jail break, or a lynching. Another report that three automobiles loaded of armed men were lurking about the town was received by a truck driver who said he saw the cars and men. The same band stopped a farmer Sunday night and queried him regarding the strength of the Lamar jail.

Royston and Abner yesterday were sentenced to hang the week of Feb. 15, 1930. They accepted the sentences without remark after the judge had asked them if they had anything to say. The two had been found guilty of first degree murder and the death penalty fixed by the jury. The judge had only to fix the day.

Bank Messenger Is Held On Theft Count

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 22 (AP)—A 20 year old bank messenger, Harold Cagood, charged with embezzlement of $26,207.72 in checks, trade acceptances and cash from the Columbia National bank today was arrested here by police who said he admitted the theft.

Shook Is Granted Change Of Venue

WICHITA FALLS, Oct. 22 (AP)—Tom Shook, who faces half a dozen indictments, including two for murder, has won his fight for a change of venue in the first trial on charges of robbery with firearms.

After 10 of the 23 veniremen examined yesterday had admitted prejudice, and defense lawyers had pointed out Shook's troubles had widespread publicity, Judge Vincent Stine transferred the case to Graham in Young county.

The trial at Graham probably will be held in December.

AMERICAN IS MOST LIKELY TO HEAD BANK

J. E. REYNOLDS OR M. A. TRAYLOR MENTIONED AS PRESIDENT

(By Associated Press)
BADEN-BADEN, Germany, Oct. 22.—Jackson E. Reynolds and Melvin A. Traylor, American delegates to the conference on the bank for international settlements have been suggested as possible presidents for the new bank, but both are understood to have declined the honor.

The correspondent today is in a position to reveal details showing how the bank's statutes were shaped with the idea that an American president not only will head the new institution, but also will have vast powers virtually enabling him to make or unmake it.

Foreigners Not Satisfied
After failure to launch the candidacies of a Frenchman and an Italian, the European delegates felt they could never agree on a non-American for president. They also wanted the president's powers to be limited by a number of vice-presidents with whom he would have to share responsibility.

After listening to various arguments, Mr. Traylor declared no institution could run with divided responsibility and no American would think of accepting the presidency if his hands were tied. The next five years, he said, would make or unmake the bank and hence the organizers must find the best man available and then give him power to go ahead full steam. The American was seconded by the Japanese, and when the question came to a vote his viewpoint was carried unanimously.

LIONS PROPOSE PARKS FOR CITY

The Lubbock Lions club at noon luncheon today at Cor Cafeteria voted approval of a proposal for a Lions park in this city and the park committee was instructed to continue its campaign toward securing a suitable site.

C. E. Gough, chairman of the park committee, outlined plans for the park and asked for suggestions from any one who might aid in obtaining a location. Any property owner of the city who would lease or donate a site is asked to get in touch with the park committee of the club.

Harley Sadler, West Texas show man, and trio of his show personnel, entertained the clubmen with a series of piano, banjo and song numbers. Other than Mr. Sadler, the entertainers were L. A. Wicker, accordion; Tommy Thompson, banjo, and C. E. Childers, guitar.

Art Acord Charged Following Attack

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 22 (AP)—Art Acord, film cowboy, and two women, one of whom said she was Mrs. Acord, were at liberty under bond here today after arraignment on a charge of assaulting a taxicab driver. A charge of liquor possession also was filed against Acord.

Acord and his companions were taken into custody after the cab driver, Milton Moore, reported the film man beat him when he asked for his fare. The second woman in the case gave her name as Marion Morrell. All three pleaded not guilty.

Corporation Head Killed In Plunge

CHICAGO, Oct. 22 (AP)—Quincy V. Young, manager of the Container Corporation of America, either leaped or fell to his death today from the ninth floor of the Conway building. He fell in an alley and was killed instantly. Young was married and the father of three children.

W. F. DITEMAN TAKES OFF SECRETLY FOR LONDON TODAY

HARBOR GRACE, N. F., Oct. 22.—Without a word of warning as to his intentions, Aviator W. F. Diteman, of Billings, Montana, hopped off here today for London, England. His destination did not become known until after his departure, when a letter to airport officials was opened.

Diteman came here three weeks ago ostensibly to look up the family records of Sir France Drake. The take off was at 12:15 p. m. local time. Good weather prevailed. His plane, the Golden Hind, is a low winged monoplane.

The airman carried only 165 gallons of gasoline when he took off. The letter said he intended to head out over Cape St. Francis and set his course straight for London.

FLIER SAID HE WAS TO STUDY ESTATE

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP)—W. F. Diteman flew from New York to St. John, New Brunswick, early this month, saying he intended to search family records in Carleton county in connection with an estate in which he was interested. At the time nothing was known of his intentions for a trans-Atlantic flight.

PLANE NOT DESIGNED FOR LONG FLIGHTS

MARSHALL, Mo., Oct. 22 (AP)—The Barling, low wing monoplane in which W. F. Diteman today took off on a Transatlantic flight was not designed for such a long cruise.

Russell Nicholas, of the Nicholas Beasley aircraft company, builders of the little ship, said today. He was surprised to learn Diteman had attempted the hazardous ocean crossing in the plane.

FLIER KNOWN MORE AS A COWMAN AT HOME

BILLINGS, Mont., Oct. 22 (AP)—W. F. Diteman, who hopped off to St. John, New Brunswick, today for London, is better known here as a cattleman than as an airplane pilot. He is a licensed pilot and has been flying for some time. He is 40 years old.

Within the past month, Diteman flew to Winnipeg and Calgary, and has not returned here. His wife and two children are believed to be in the city but could not be located. Diteman came here two years ago from Missoula, Montana, and ranches in southeastern Montana and Wyoming.

LOCAL RADIO CONTESTANTS WILL BE HEARD OVER WFAA THURSDAY NIGHT

When the voices of North Texas participants in the National Radio contest are broadcast to a state-wide audience over Station WFAA at Dallas next Thursday night, Lubbock will be represented by Miss Mary Gene Owen, contralto, and Claire P. Jeffers, tenor.

Those chosen to represent Lubbock were selected at a local audition two weeks ago. Mrs. T. J. Beck, of this city, is chairman of the local arrangements.

The young man and woman singing tonight, however, in the state-wide contest will represent this section of the

MARKET GOES UP ON FARM BOARD MOVE

PROPOSAL IS ALSO BIG INFLUENCE TO RISE IN BOTH MARTS

(By Associated Press)
NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 22.—The Farm board's statement that cotton prices were too low and its proposal to lead to cotton cooperatives for the orderly marketing of the crop influenced a higher opening in the local cotton market today.

Initial trades showed advances of from $1 to $1.50 a bale. Active trading buying and covering stimulated by the board's announcement accounted for the rise in values. Although the market decided a few points towards the end of the first hour the undertone continued firm.

NEW YORK PRICE ADVANCES $1.50

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP)—Cotton for December and January delivery advanced more than $1.50 for a bale at the opening of the New York market today.

The rise was attributed to a statement of the federal farm board yesterday to the effect that prevailing cotton prices were too low and that the board proposed to lend as much as $100,000,000 to enable growers to hold back the crop.

UTILITIES TO FORM MERGER

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Plans for inclusion of the properties of the United Public Service company into the Middle West Utilities system were announced today by the Middle West Utilities company, one of the local utilities.

The United Public Service company supplies utility service to 24 communities through integrated groups of electric, gas and ice manufacturing plants. The company's territory embraces parts of Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Arkansas, Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee and Alabama, most of which are already served in part by properties of the middle west utilities system.

Martin J. Insull, president of the Middle West Utilities company, has been elected president of the United Public Service company.

FOUNTAIN CITY, Wis., Oct. 22 (AP)—Bandits today held up the First State bank of Fountain City and fled with between $2,000 and $3,000 in cash.

Workman Is Injured By Gravel Bucket

L. Sanders, 30, who was serving in the military, was injured today when a bucket of gravel fell three stories from the Hilton hotel structure and hit him on the head. He is reported recovering satisfactorily at the West Texas hospital this afternoon.

An X-ray picture late yesterday showed no fractures, and examinations today revealed no internal complications.

An employee of Lydick Roofing company, Sanders was engaged in construction work on the new building. He was bending over when the bucket of gravel struck him. He was rendered unconscious by the impact.

State-wide contest will represent this section of the state at the district audition which will also be held in Dallas next month.

"North Texas listeners may play a deciding part in the selection of the state's winners," said Mrs. Beck. "Since the votes of the radio audience will count 60 points in the selection of the winners, against 40 points allowed the jury of musical authorities who will co-operate in judging. All the contestants are between 18 and 25 years of age and have never been heard professionally as singers."

BASE FIELD IS PLANNED IN LUBBOCK

A base field for the Southern Air transport company is being planned in Lubbock by Bill Burson of Amarillo, district sales representative of the company, who is conferring with city officials and business men in this city today.

AIR TRANSPORT FIRM WANTS LOCATION HERE SOON

"We are planning to establish a flying service and school in this city," said Mr. Burson. "Such a service will give Lubbock connections with the leading air terminals of the nation. Our passenger and mail service would connect with the eastern, western and northern lines at Amarillo."

Studied City Closely
"Our proposals in this respect," he continued, "have followed a close study of the potentialities in this city. Frequent use of air service by Lubbock citizens has revealed the air-mindedness existing here."

"We will be necessarily delayed in our plans due to the fact that the municipal airport is not yet prepared for safety."

Mr. Burson, in the event that his plans materialize, will move to Lubbock as manager of the service here.

"There is a great future for Lubbock in the field of aviation, in my opinion," he expressed. "Advantageously located as the center of a great territory now in a vast development, and with such a large and varied population, Lubbock has a bright future."

Those who are attending the session are the following: Clifford B. Jones, Spurr, chairman of board of directors; R. A. Underwood, Plainview; E. C. Alderman, J. E. Plamby, Fort Worth; Dr. C. G. Conners, McKinney; Mrs. P. N. Drake, Corsicana; Roscoe Wilson, Lubbock; Dr. Horn and W. P. Gaston, secretary of the board.

Watt C. Hedrick, of Fort Worth, architect, is also attending the meeting.

ADVERTISING IS TO BE CONTINUED

The advertising committee of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, representing the national publicity campaign for Lubbock and the South Plains under the name of South Plains, Inc., agreed this morning in session to continue its advertising program on the plan inaugurated there last year.

"A check up of the campaign to date reveals that the results obtained are not only excellent but surprisingly satisfactory," said R. J. Murray, chairman of the committee. "Realities and land owners report larger sales for this time of the year than those recorded during any single previous year, due to the great number of prospects brought to the South Plains through the campaign."

A schedule adopted by the committee, to be used during the next two or three months, follows: Three 140-line display ads in Capper's Farmer; one full page and two half pages in Progressive Farmer; and one page and two half pages in the Oklahoma Farmer-Stockman.

Hope waning, death seemed imminent early this afternoon for Mrs. O. L. Slaton, wife of the president of the First National bank of this city who is in a precarious condition at the Methodist hospital in Dallas, as result of an accident late yesterday near Grand Prairie in which five automobiles were piled up in a tangled mass.

Recent information as to her condition was received this afternoon by her sister, Miss Della Wilkinson, 1201 17th street.

Miss Ruth Slaton, 23, her daughter, sustained fractures of her pelvis and collar bone and is reported to be seriously hurt, although physicians say she will recover.

Sen Slightly Hurt
O. L. Slaton, Jr., her son, sustained minor bruises and lacerations. The three were removed to the Methodist hospital.

Mr. Slaton left immediately for Dallas late yesterday, upon receiving information of the mishap. The accident is said to have occurred in a heavy fast traffic, when one car tried to pass another and met a third coming from the opposite direction. Before traffic could stop, five cars had hit, or been hit.

Others injured in the crash were Mrs. I. J. Miller, of Dallas, who received severe bruises, and a negro woman, whose name was said to be Lucile Cavaniagh, of Fort Worth. The latter sustained a broken collar bone.

"Due to shortage of appropriations the directors are outlining plans today for securing additional funds to meet the college's immediate needs," said Dr. Horn. "We have not yet arrived upon a definite plan as yet."

NEW AIR LINE IS PROPOSED

TRANSCONTINENTAL AIR SERVICE PLANNED BY 2 FIRMS

(By Associated Press)
KANSAS CITY, Oct. 22 (AP)—The Kansas City Star today said a meeting of officials of the Universal Aviation Corporation and the Western Air Express would be held here soon to make final decision on a proposed transcontinental air passenger service from New York to Los Angeles.

Under proposed plans passengers would leave New York early in the morning, flying to Kansas City, where an all night stop would be made. The trip would be made on Universal planes. It is understood that several 20-passenger Fokker airplanes have been contracted for by the Universal Company and would be placed in this service.

Los Western Planes
From Kansas City the passengers would fly direct to Los Angeles, using planes of the Western Air Express. This company now has a down to dusk service between these points.

Flying toward the east the same down to dusk service plan would be followed, with the same overnight stop-over at Kansas City. The Universal Corporation now participates in a Transcontinental

COMPROMISE ENDS VALLEY LAND SUIT

LAREDO, Oct. 22 (AP)—Compromise has ended the suit of Albert Handy, seeking to recover 2,300 acres of land in Hidalgo county, lost by his grandfather, against the Alamo Land and Sugar company, Laredo attorneys interested in the case announced today, terms of the settlement were not announced.

Handy, and other heirs of Thomas Handy, deceased, sought to recover equity in lands lost through foreclosure years ago. The plaintiffs allege that their grandfather was of unsound mind when he mortgaged the lands in 1883 after his return from an insane asylum to which he was committed in 1880. They further alleged that he was returned to the asylum after executing the mortgage.

After the foreclosure the land, which was valued at more than half a million dollars, was sold in small tracts, mostly to citrus growers who made many improvements.

England's largest zoo, covering 150 acres, is to be opened at Blackpool.

TILLIE TO STAY

Siege Still On At New York; To Stay Till June

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP)—The siege of 429 West 23rd street with Mrs. Tillie Hart as the besieged, was still in progress today.

Last night, after her landlords had obtained a court order directing her to pay up $600 back rent or move within five days, Mrs. Hart said:

"There's one thing in the world I can't do, and that's raise $600. I'm going away from here."

But today, surveying the surrounding terrain, at present just a lot of big holes in the ground where there is going to be built a big apartment hotel as soon as she gets out of the way, she changed her mind. She went back to her original determination to remain until her lease expires next June, let packing crews come as they will. She's looking for the $600.

"I am not going to move," she said doggedly. "It's matter of principle."

The house she occupies once was owned by Clement Moore, who wrote "It was the night before Christmas."

Local Woman Sees Sooner Pair Here

Mrs. W. B. Willis, 614 Avenue L, reported to the Daily Journal yesterday that she recently gave breakfast to two boys whose descriptions resemble those of Lewis Pope and Robert Penny, following a message appearing in Sunday's Avalanche-Journal in which parents sought the runaway boys.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Pope, of Lone Wolf, Okla., parents of Lewis, sought aid of the Daily Journal in search for their 15-year-old son.

"The two boys went north of this city," said Mrs. Willis. "They knocked at the rear door of our residence and asked for breakfast. They were intelligent and honest looking youngsters."

Mail Pilot Jumps To Safety With Bag

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 22 (AP)—Tucking his mail bag under his arm Harry Sievers, pilot of the Pittsburgh-Cleveland air mail route, leaped in his parachute 1,000 feet to safety as his plane crashed in a field near Beaver Falls, today.

Sievers was flying from Pittsburgh to Cleveland, when his motors stopped. Seizing the only bag of mail, he leaped. The plane was demolished. Sievers took the mail to the postoffice in Beaver Falls, and arrangements were made to transfer it to another plane.

CONTROVERSY SETTLED

"SHINE ON, SHINE ON, MR. MOON"

Harvest Moon Spreads Spell Of Romance And Beauty Over South Plains; Why Not Take A Look Tonight?

When the veil that surrounds our workday universe is torn the harvest moon in all its re-quieting softness sends its sheen of light impartially to lover of romance and lover of art.

Its ineffable beauty gave generously last night to the South Plains that which throbs in the breast of an artist and that which the canvas can hardly portray.

Fields of fleecy white were spread like magic carpets under the spell of yearning moonlight. Golden stacks of feed were pitched like tents from which had vanished the legendary red men.

Back of the glory of that moon are profound secrets. October's trappings—her scarlet pennons, her mystic fields are nothing but symbols. It stands for things that we can only dream of. Behind these stretch all the tragedy, all the heartbreak, all the magnificence and all the splendor of life—ordinary human life, which is a mystery and a potent, a defeat and a triumph, a failure and a dazzling success.

Such is autumn, at most wistful, most beautiful and most revealing strife. Young men visualize the possible; old men reminisce over the past.

As the opalescent maze of turbulent clouds broke for periodic floods of soft light, one could almost peer through the opening from reality into the world of dreamland.

If you are obsessed with trouble or joy seek the healing and exultant power of the moon tonight. Only an artist can approach near the true conception of the harvest moon's glory.

ACCIDENT TOLL IN STATE HEAVY

AUSTIN, Oct. 22 (AP)—Forty-two persons were killed and 231 injured in accidents in Texas during the week of October 7, the weekly report of the Texas Council of Safety, issued today, disclosed.

That brought the state accident death total for the year to 1,977 and the injury total to 8,438. During the same period last year 1,432 persons were accidentally killed and 6,278 injured.

Automobiles exacted the heaviest toll during the first week of this month. Nineteen persons were killed and 157 injured in automobile accidents.

Increase Shown In Valuations In Hale

PLAINVIEW, Oct. 22 (Special)—The assessed valuation of Hale county on the current tax rolls are $19,242,908, which is an increase of $1,349,238, slightly under nine per cent over 1928. Last year the valuations were $14,163,670.

The major increase is seen in the resident rolls, which this year total $13,627,720, an increase of $1,126,019. Property assessed on the non-resident rolls this year is $2,556,120, a decrease of $219,980. This decrease in non-resident assessments is due largely to the fact that much city as well as rural property has been brought from non-residents by residents of the county.

Government railways in Norway are being electrified.

The Cow is off the Track! AN ANCIENT PREJUDICE HAS BEEN REMOVED

Railroads have safely passed those danger signals of prejudice which caused folks to look upon them with fear. Holding aloft the semaphore of progress AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE cleared the track and, today, millions travel in ease and security.

"toasting did it"—

Gone is that ancient prejudice against cigarettes—Progress has been made. We removed the prejudice against cigarettes when we removed harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from the tobaccos.

YEARS ago, when cigarettes were made without the aid of modern science, there originated that ancient prejudice against all cigarettes. That criticism is no longer justified. LUCKY STRIKE, the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the choicest tobacco, properly aged and skillfully blended—"It's Toasted."

"TOASTING," the most modern step in cigarette manufacture, removes from LUCKY STRIKE harmful irritants which are present in cigarettes manufactured in the old-fashioned way.

Everyone knows that heat purifies, and so "TOASTING"—LUCKY STRIKE'S extra secret process—removes harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from LUCKIES which in the old-fashioned manufacture of cigarettes cause throat irritation and coughing. Thus "TOASTING" has destroyed that ancient prejudice against cigarette smoking by men and by women.

"It's Toasted"—the phrase that describes the extra "toasting" process applied in the manufacture of Lucky Strike Cigarettes. The finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—are scientifically subjected to penetrating heat at minimum, 260°—maximum, 300°, Fahrenheit. The exact, expert regulation of such high temperatures removes impurities. More than a slogan, "It's Toasted" is recognized by millions as the most modern step in cigarette manufacture.

YOUNG MISS FAVORS BLUE AND RED

BY JULIA BLANSHARD
NEA Service Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Little Miss Spade-Twelve must look her very young self this winter, or she is not chic.

Therefore, the best juvenile fashions in frocks, coats and hats are those that emphasize fine fabrics, excellent tailoring and colors that become fresh young ladies, rather than a great elaboration of styles, or fancy touches.

Sturdy, smooth, deep pile fabrics give a softness to the outer garments for the little Miss. The eggible theme offers innumerable cute coat and hat sets of the same material. These are practical, insure a well-dressed look and eliminate the "shopping around" for a hat for little Sue or Dona.

Red-Blue Combinations Are Smart

The classic school-room colors of red and blue combinations offered some smart outfits at a children's fashion show recently. Greens, from light medium to a green almost a billiard, were offered for the little lady with golden curls. Some reds, many browns, blues from navy to Alice, tans and lavender all were shown.

Such fabrics as polar shag, camel's hair, pilot weave and chambray were the favorite. Hats made of these were unusually soft and becoming to round-checked little faces.

For we tots, there are trim double-breasted coats of the shaggy wools, with notched collars, big-roomy pockets for little hands and colored belts of suede. The softer and smoother fabrics make more of detail and fine seamings, rounded or pointed yokes, stitchings on the back and fronts, individually styled pockets and strapped fastenings are the order.

Dressier Coats Make Use of Fur
Dressier coats use beaver, nutria, ermine, squirrel and other furs for collars and cuffs. Round collars, shawl collars, cape collars and bow tie collars are used. While many coats are belted, some flare in cute manner from the yoke.

The hats that top these coats repeat a beret theme, though the ways this can be modified are numerous and wonderful. Some simulate tam-o'-shanters of Mother's girlhood, others take a poke shape. Little stitched, cuff-like brims flared back from the face in some, copying the style for adults.

Fur pompons, little ribbon bows, little nosegays of felt flowers and small feather fancies introduce a dash of color into children's hats this fall. But among the better class of merchandise, the simple trimming is by all means the preferred one.

HIGHEST TRIBUTE IS PAID TO THOMAS A. EDISON

INVENTOR HONOR GUEST AT GIANT PARTY LAST NIGHT

(By Associated Press)
DEARBORN, Mich., Oct. 22.—Having put behind him one of the most thrilling days of his life, Thomas A. Edison was resting at "Fairlane," the country estate of Henry Ford today, preparing to return to his home in East Orange, N. J.

When he leaves, he will carry with him the memory of a tribute voiced not only on behalf of the nation by President Hoover, but literally from the far corners of the earth. It was a tribute paid in the presence last night of some 600 notable guests invited by Henry Ford to join in honoring Edison on the fiftieth anniversary of his perfection of the incandescent light bulb as its general setting the early American village Ford has constructed on his Dearborn property.

Given Honor Place
To Edison, given the seat of honor at the speakers' table despite the presence of the President of the United States—an honor rarely accorded a citizen—it was an hour of supreme happiness. He spoke in a breaking voice at times, thanking the president and the nation for his tribute and declaring that if he had helped mankind he was content.

Messages of congratulation to Mr. Edison were read from the Prince of Wales, President Von Hindenburg of Germany and Commander Richard Evelyn Byrd, from "Little America."
President Hoover, moved by the enthusiasm with which the celebrated inventor was acclaimed the world over, frequently interpolated in his brief address tributes to the genius of Mr. Edison.

Nation Has Opportunity
"This is the auspicious opportunity for the nation to pay Thomas A. Edison that tribute and that honor which lies in every heart," he said at the outset. He declared that Edison had done far more than discover the electric lamp; he had

Millions More Each Year Turn To Famous External Method of Treating Colds

Each year more and more mothers turn to Vicks VapoRub, the modern external treatment for colds, because it is just rubbed on and cannot upset children's stomachs, as "dosing" is so apt to do.

Originally designed and first used largely for children's colds, this better external method gradually spread as one enthusiastic mother told another. Years of actual use also proved it equally effective for the colds of grown-ups. Today the whole trend of medical practice is away from needless "dosing" and Vicks—a household word in America—is used in more than 60 countries abroad.

The ever-growing demand for Vicks is shown in its familiar slogan, expressing the number of jars used yearly. First announced when Vicks reached "17 Million Jars Yearly"—later raised to "21 Million"—the figures are again being changed, as there are now "Over 26 Million Jars Used Yearly." Adv.

discovered the method of invention by which highly equipped, definitely organized laboratory research was necessary to success.
Previously, Mr. Edison had re-invented the first steps in the invention of the incandescent lamp in the original laboratory and before the President and Mrs. Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Ford, Mrs. Edison and a few others.

gan is to include in her demonstration both pies and breads. The pies are to include a peach pie, of which "there is none other like," according to the famous lecturer. In addition she is to prepare a tropical gingerbread, together with quick and yeast breads.

Much interest was shown during the first two sessions of the school, and the attendance is expected to increase with each day of the school. Printed recipes are passed to the audience each session. In order that the women may watch the demonstration and spend all of their time in taking notes on the various amounts of foods used in the preparation of the dishes, Mrs. Douglas has announced that all of the women are requested to bring papers to the lectures as some dish prepared during the lecture will be passed to the audience each day.

EX-WIVES COST MILLIONAIRE PLENTY; OVER $2,000,000 IS ACCOUNTED FOR BY GORDON C. THORNE ON EX-MATES

BY FRANK J. CIPRIANI
Central Press Staff Writer

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—What price alimony!

The price is plenty, because alimony is undoubtedly the costliest one-sided institution in the country. Consider the case of Gordon C. Thorne, millionaire grandson of the founder of a well-known mail-order house, who is on the road to a substantial depletion of his fortune via the alimony route.

Figure Stagger
Thorne has contributed approximately $400,000 to the support of his ex-wives. If these figures are staggering, here's an item that's flat-tening. Thorne has paid approximately $2,000,000 for his matrimonial ventures! The estimates are those of George L. Schein, his attorney. They include marriage, support, divorce, court fees, lawyers and alimony.

Thirteen years ago the young millionaire took his first wife, Virginia Milner. He lost her via divorce five years later, and promised her $750 monthly alimony as long as she lived and remained single.

Wife No. 2, Helen Maginnis, beautiful Polaris star, came along in 1922 and departed in 1925, $100,000 richer. Thorne waited a year before he let Ann Alden Clore to the altar. She divorced him last November, winning $30,000 alimony, payable in $2,000 installments. Both she and the ex-Polaris girl have since remarried. Seven months ago Thorne again became a husband, this time to Mrs. Marian Bolz, and their marriage is apparently permanent.

Every now and then Ex-Wife No. 1 and Ex-Wife No. 3 hail Thorne into court for an alimony accounting. Recently his mother took steps to protect his $2,000,000 trust fund against the inroads of alimony. Oh, well, it probably could be worse. Ex-wives in Cook county and Chicago are entitled to only 33 1/3 per cent of a man's income.

TWO CONVICTS ARE UNSUCCESSFUL

HUNTSVILLE, Oct. 22 (AP).—Two convicts were back in the penitentiary here today after a bold, but brief, break for liberty.

H. H. Jansen and Jim R. Young, who were working on the publication of the convict's welfare league at a print shop outside the penitentiary walls slugged and dangerously wounded their guard, John Burnett, seized his gun and ran through the streets of the town.

They drove a small car and started for Houston, but were overtaken by a car from the prison. One of them tried to use the gun they had taken from the guard without success. The two then surrendered.

DIDN'T WORK

Air No Good Now, Anyway; Plus Four Not Like Balloons

CHICAGO, Oct. 22 (AP).—James Meers has made the startling discovery that golf knickers may look like a balloon.

Meers, who is 66, put on a pair of plus-fours and went out with the boys yesterday. The conversation turned to aviation and Meers had an idea. Intimate the knickers, he figured that the wearer would float through space or upon the surface of waters.

With his companions he adjourned to a filling station, and the plus-fours were pumped full of air. The boys then went to the roof of a small building on the Chicago river bank and Meers jumped.

Police pulled him out. "It's very strange," said Meers, wringing the water from the trousers. "Probably it's the bum air one gets at the filling station nowadays."

ROUTS BURGLAR

Eight-Year-Old Throws Clock At Man; He Runs

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 22 (AP).—The bravery of Alice Morales, 8, as well as her excellent throwing ability, routed a burglar from the home of her mother, Mrs. Ida Morales, about 5 o'clock this morning, after he had obtained jewelry valued at $340.

Miss Margarite Morales, Alice's sister, was awakened by noise in the rear of the house and saw a man standing, a dresser drawer. She awakened her mother who obtained a revolver and started toward the man.

Just as she was about to shoot, the man knocked the gun from her hand and struck her a blow on the head which rendered her unconscious. At this point, Alice arose and threw an alarm clock at the burglar's head. The clock struck its mark and the burglar ran from the house.

MATADORS TRAINING HARD FOR T.C.U. GAME; ATTACK TO VARY

WESTERNERS DEVELOPING DEFENSE FOR AMARILLO CONTEST

SQUAD WORKS ON PLAYS FOR BETTER DRIVE

EFFORTS DIRECTED TO STOP FLEET BACKS OF CHRISTIANS

Following a light limbering up session Monday afternoon the Texas Tech Matadors from their headquarters in Lubbock, Tex., today began intensive training for their all-important battle of the college gridiron Saturday with the title-bound Horned Frogs from Texas Christian University.

With the freshman football forces comprising T. C. U. play the varsity gridmen will get their first glimpse of the style of attack they will meet this week when the Purple Frogs make their first visit to Lubbock.

In an effort to hold their own with the Fleet of Leland and the crushing drive of Grubbs and Green, Tech coaches are likely to throw a similar style of attack against the Frogs and the result will be a wide-open warfare featuring strong punks and fast-stepping backs.

Reports from the T. C. U. camp indicate Coach Schmidt is taking no chances of allowing the Frogs to undergo a let-down following their hard battle with the Aggies. The Frogs, however, follow the motto of "Every game is a hard game."

Tech's scoreless tie with the McMurry Indians has raised Matador stock from the comparative score basis. Prior to their scoreless battle with the Matadors the Red-skins had gained an even break with Howard Payne, who on a previous date had played the Southern Methodist University Mustangs to a 13-13 deadlock.

A T. C. U. squad of 36 gridmen will leave Fort Worth Thursday night and arrive in Lubbock Friday afternoon in time to take a workout on the local grid. Coach Schmidt's charges are in excellent condition, and promise to put their best foot forward in the game here Saturday.

May Take To Air The success of Tech's aerial attack under the unfavorable conditions at Abilene last week lends further proof to the belief that the Matadors will take to the air stronger than ever against the Frogs. Coach Higginbotham has at least three accurate passers and a host of capable receivers. This combination is likely to give the invaders a well-known "fit" in the overcast game.

Local fans may expect to see in action Saturday two of the fastest backs in the west. Cy Leland, former Lubbock High school athlete who has been dubbed "Football's Fastest Human" will have no picnic in out-stripping Ransom Walker, the speedy Matador halfback. Walker was not allowed to get into the McMurry tussle and is certain to reach the peak of condition for this week's contest. Tech's "galloping gazelle" will have plenty of help in staying alongside Leland. Harold O'Brien, Dick Green, Charley Woodridge and J. D. Walker will be able to hold their own with the fastest of the T. C. U. back.

Although they are hoped to lose to the Southwest Conference eleven, the Matadors are out this week to perfect an offense that will outscore the Christians and not to hold the Frogs. Members of the squad are firm in their belief that in a hard-fought battle they will be able to use the "saw" and give native and all the surprise of the season.

Joe McGinnity Near Death With Tumor

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP)—Death apparently was near today for Joe McGinnity, famed "iron man" of the National League a quarter century ago.

The 56-year-old pitcher, whose baseball career spanned 32 years, was dying at his home in Brooklyn. Physicians said there was virtually no hope for his recovery. McGinnity failed to return after an operation Aug. 27 for removal of a tumor. A second tumor has developed, and in view of the old pitcher's weakened condition surgeons declined another operation immediately.

Accident Is Fatal To Walter Lerian

BALTIMORE, Oct. 22 (AP)—Walter Lerian, Philadelphia National League catcher, died today of injuries received when a motor truck hit him on a sidewalk.

John Mooney, former sand lot baseball player, gave a push of blood for a transfusion operation. Lerian was struck yesterday afternoon. Police said Charles Lloyd, driver of the truck, averted to avoid a collision with another machine and ran onto the sidewalk crushing Lerian against a building.

Lloyd was arrested, as well as August Meyers, driver of the machine which Lloyd was avoiding. Both were released on their own recognizance.

Horned Frogs eleven on the Tech gridiron Saturday afternoon, the players below will be on the sidelines ready to go in when a first choice player is injured or brought out by the mentor. Several of the men below have figured prominently in the Frogs' victories this season and will more than likely be given a chance for action here.

TECH FROSH MEET NMMI

POWERFUL ELEVEN TO FACE FISH SQUAD ON SATURDAY

Texas Tech's freshman football eleven will get its first test of the year Saturday when Coach Rhodes Ingerton escorts the most likely looking prospects of his football army to Rowell N. M. to battle the Cadets from N. M. M. I.

With more than a month of serious training behind them, the fresh freshmen have begun to reach playing condition and a smooth working offensive is the result. The Frosh will be facing the outstanding contenders for the inter-collegiate championship of New Mexico Saturday when they invade the barracks of the soldiers. Last week the Cadets, coached by a brilliant attack to down the University of New Mexico, 25 to 26.

Led by the Foley brothers, the Institute broncos overcame all odds and firmly established themselves in the front rank of state contenders. Saturday's game will mean much to members of the frosh squad who are seeking recognition for future service on the varsity eleven. A promising horde of candidates have been working faithfully under the tutelage of Coach Ingerton and from the ranks of the first year squad, the Matador eleven is certain to get a number of valuable additions. The Placers will leave here early Friday in order to reach Rowell in time for a light workout that afternoon.

SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE GRID NOTES

New Variety of Piskin Specialist—Pass Interceptor—Shows Up In Aggie-Frog Game; Births In Quandary

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer A new variety of piskin specialist—a pass interceptor—was employed with telling effect by Coach Francis Schmidt of the Texas Christian Horned Frogs in Saturday's ruckus at Fort Worth. With about a minute of play, the Aggies cut loose with a passing attack that had the Frogs cowering and threatened to tie the score. Two long heaves carried the oval into T. C. U. territory, and it was evident Captain Mills of the Aggie was going to throw another. Out from the Frogs beech sprinted Paul Snow, a substitute for the dynamic, but badly worn, Howard Grubbs. He didn't stay out there long, just one play, but he probably saved a game. Mills' next peg came down in a group of scrambling players, and Snow, leaping high, took it on his finger tip. That done, he trotted off the field.

Accounts of Saturday's three games would indicate the all-conference pickers will not have much difficulty in filling several berths on the mythical eleven. Dexter Shelley, Texas halfback, practically assured himself a place by his brilliant performance against the Oklahoma Sooners. Another member of the same team, Captain Gordy Brown, played such a superb tackle against the Sooners as to leave little doubt of his repeating for the honor accorded him last year. T. C. U. in its victory over the Aggies advanced two candidates who scarcely can be overlooked. They were Howard Grubbs, quarterback, and Brumfield, guard. Both are outstanding stars. Jake Wilson, Baylor's sterling field general, was almost the whole show in the Bears' victory over Arkansas. Bothy Koch, the Bruins' all-conference guard of last year, gave a smashing performance as warning he intends to repeat. The two outstanding ends for the day were Wear Schoonover, Arkansas' six-foot-two pass snatcher, and "Big Un" Rose of the Longhorns. Those who witnessed the Arkansas-Baylor duel declare Schoonover ranks with the best wingmen in conference history.

In picking an all-conference quarterback this year the critics will be faced with much the same problem as two seasons ago, when Jerry Mann and Joe Hunt commanded the spotlight. This year it looks as if they will have to choose between another pair of brilliant performers, Grubbs and Wilson. It would be difficult to convince the Horned Frogs there is nothing in a color scheme. The "purple" eleven has worn white jerseys in its last seven games and has won that many victories. After abandoning their old jerseys in the middle of last season, the Frogs defeated the Aggies, Rice and S. M. U. and have won their first four starts this year. The Christians will continue to wear white until they are defeated. Wireless service has just been established between Australia and Fiji Islands.

SPUR-SLATON GAME FEATURE

CLOSE BATTLE LOOKED FOR FRIDAY BETWEEN TWO ELEVEN

(Special To The Journal) Slaton, Oct. 22—Official interest in the Slaton-Spur football game, to be played here Friday afternoon, took definite form Monday when Mayor W. G. Reese sent a special invitation to Mayor Hogan and the Spur city commissioners to attend the game here. Also, the Slaton Chamber of Commerce has invited W. S. Patrick, secretary of the Spur Chamber, and the president of that body to attend the game as guests of the Slaton Chamber. It was announced by officers of the local organization.

SPUR TO HAVE BIG DELEGATION AT GAME

SPUR, Oct. 22 (Special)—Coach Taylor has just returned from Fort Worth with the Spur Bulldogs, and the boys are delighted over having had the opportunity of seeing the Aggies and T. C. U. in action. The Bulldogs will invade Slaton territory next Friday, and many of the Spur fans will be on the sidelines with all the help that a side liner can give, as this game will mean much as to who wins in the district. Neither Slaton nor Spur have thus far been defeated. Spur has one open date, November 22, and Coach Taylor is anxious to book that date with some club.

RIVALS WILL PRESENT BIG GRID BATTLES

FOOTBALL FEAST WILL BE LOADED SATURDAY OVER NATION

By HERBERT W. BAKER Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP)—A half dozen intercollegiate games provide the sauce for the east's football feast on Saturday, but traditional rivalries furnish the real backbone of the menu.

On a day when such games as Army-Yale, Dartmouth-Harvard, Navy-Princeton and Syracuse-Brown are available to tempt Mr. John Football Fan, only the Carnegie Tech-Notre Dame fray, among intercollegiate battles, can offer much competition.

Boast Victories Carnegie Tech can boast of two successive victories over Knute Rockne's Ramblers from South Bend, but it appears three in a row is a bit too much to expect. Carnegie, without Howard Harper calling the plays, does not seem so formidable as the aggression that crushed Notre Dame, 27 to 7, last fall. And Rockne's team, with Carideo, Elder, Brill and others, is much improved over last year.

Other intercollegiate games bring together New York university and Butler of Indianapolis; Marquette of Milwaukee and Holy Cross; Duke and Villanova; Kenyon of Ohio and Harvard, all in the east, and West Virginia and the Oklahoma Aggies at Stillwater, Okla.

None of these, however, can hope to divert much attention from the big domestic spectacles. Army's tie game with Harvard last week served only to confirm what previously had been something more than a slight suspicion—namely that to beat the cadets one must stop Cagle. There seems to exist considerable doubt whether Yale can do either.

Marsters Runs Wild Dartmouth, with Marsters running wild, looked invincible against Columbia, but it remains to be seen whether even "Special Delivery" Al can get past a fine Harvard line. Beaten by Brown and Cornell on successive Saturdays, Princeton hopes to get going at the expense of Navy, but these same hopes seem to lack any logical foundation. Navy has been beaten only by Notre Dame and revealed a powerful offensive against Duke.

Syracuse, highest scoring team in the country, will be favored over Brown, although the bruins have showed they are not to be taken lightly despite an early defeat by Springfield and another beating by Yale.

Penn. State expects all sorts of trouble from Lafayette, although Herb McCracken's Leopards are not nearly so dangerous as they were a couple of seasons back. Two undefeated teams, Davis and Elkins and Fordham are to meet at the Polo grounds and another, Williams, probably will suffer its first reverse at the hands of Columbia.

Business Men Will Honor Waggoners

PORT WORTH, Oct. 22 (AP)—W. T. Waggoner and his sons, who like to see the bangtails run so well they are building a modern racing plant at Arlington Downs with their own money, so that a race meeting may be held there this fall, were to be honored today by approximately 1,600 business men of Fort Worth and Dallas.

Several exhibition races were to be run while the business men enjoyed a barbecue dinner in the grandstand of the track, on the Three D stock farm.

Snyder And Roscoe Tangle Up Friday

SNYDER, Oct. 22 (Special)—Coming out of the Big Spring Steers battle Saturday with but few reported injuries, the Snyder Tigers are working behind closed gates all week in preparation for the most crucial game of their schedule, Friday when they play Roscoe on their grounds. Both Roscoe and Snyder have each won their only two conference games played thus far. While the Snyder team will be the underdogs in this yearly battle, owing to the game being played on the dusty gridiron of their opponents when they are used to a sodded field, Coach "Red" Moore is taking no chances with any possible injuries before the tilt.

The entire school will go to Roscoe, including the pep squad of 63 members and the high school band.

One-Legged Man Gets Leg Broken

PORT WORTH, Oct. 22 (AP)—The perils faced by a one-legged man who wants to become a professional wrestler were brought to light last night when William Perry, 45, one-legged carnival feller, had his leg broken by a professional wrestler in a bout at a carnival. It was Perry's stump leg that got broken. Perry told the ambulance driver that he was just a little too tough for, but was not otherwise discouraged.

Railways in China, which were badly crippled during the military activities, are slowly returning to normal.

GOLF TOUR IS UNDER WAY

PROFESSIONALS START OUT ON JOURNEY FOR PRIZES

NEW YORK, Oct. 22—A golf tour of the west and south, which includes the Professional Golfers' association championship at Los Angeles in December and ends with the north and south open at Pinehurst late in March, is getting underway.

The vanguard of professionals, composed of Bill Melhorn, Craig Wood, and Bill Burke, leaves here tomorrow to take part in the $4,000 Oklahoma City open this week-end. Al and Abe Espinosa, Tommy Armour, Ed Dudley, Joe Kirkwood and Dan Williams are expected to join them at Oklahoma City. Walter Hens and Horton Smith, who are playing exhibitions on the Pacific coast, are to enter the caravan at Portland, Ore.

The grand tour of professional golf this year takes the players as far west as Honolulu and South to Mexico for the Agua Caliente Open which boasts the richest purse in golf, $25,000, before they swing back to Florida in February. Prize money for the 19 tournaments totals close to $125,000.

More than a dozen pros from the metropolitan district, including Johnny Farrell, Gene Sarazen, Bobby Cruikshank, and John Golden, will take part in the tour as well as many from other parts of the country.

Japan expects to send nearly 5,000 silk handkerchiefs to the United States this year.

LINE GETTING ATTENTION ON BEST ATTACK

OLTON TEAM HERE ON FRIDAY FOR LIGHT PRACTICE TILT

Apparently more satisfied with the showing of their backs to date, Lubbock High school coaches started work in earnest Monday afternoon on the development of a strong forward wall to cope with the powerful Amarillo line stalwarts on November 2 when the Westerners invade the Sandy stronghold for the crucial battle of the 1929 season.

Thoroughly rested from their scrap with the Electra Tigers here last week, the Westerners were off to a flying start yesterday, with the linemen gaining most of the attention. The Westerner forward wall showed a marked improvement in last week's encounter, but Coach Friska has unusual respect for the prowess of the Amarillo front line defense, and the result yesterday was intensive work on the Westerner forwards. Even at this stage of the season's campaign, the regular linemen for the local high school eleven have not been selected.

Up to date, the procedure has been more on the order of experimentation in an effort to find the most effective combination. Big Greer Prizzell at tackle, Yancy Price and Bob Rich at ends are the only line candidates who are fairly certain of their positions. The starting guard combination Friday of Griggs and James proved effective as did Welch and Abbott who were seen in action.

Williams, Foster and Brawley are the leading candidates for the other tackle post. The first named started the Electra tilt and gave a good account of himself, but has no cinch for the job. Joe Leaverton and Bob Crawford are the centers and both are inviolable cogs in the Westerner forward wall.

Friday the Olton football eleven will meet the Westerners on the college field in a practice affair for the locals, coming on the order of a tuning-up fray prior to the invasion of Amarillo on the following week-end. The Lamb county aggregation stacks up alongside the leading Class B teams in this section and is backed by a splendid record during last season.

Coach Tillman Carter's forces are likely to give the locals an interesting battle and the Westerners are certainly expecting no set-up.

Royal Engagement Announced Soon

ROME, Oct. 22 (AP)—The engagement of Crown Prince Humbert of Italy to Princess Marie Jose of Belgium will be formally announced October 24, on the anniversary of the marriage of the Prince's royal father and mother.

The engagement, the date of which was made known today, brings to fruition a romance begun in Florence 12 years ago, when Humbert was thirteen and Marie Jose eleven. The princess was then a student at the Institute of the Holy Annunziata near Florence, where King Albert had sent her during the German occupation of Belgium. The prince visited Florence at that time and met Marie Jose.

CROSBYTON HAS FINE CHURCHES

CROSBYTON, Oct. 22 (Special)—In just a few weeks the city of Crosbyton can boast of probably the finest set of churches of any town its size in Texas. The First Baptist congregation expects to hold services in their new $20,000 brick church building before the month is over. Work is progressing rapidly on the new $23,000 Methodist brick church, and the congregation expects to worship in it about the middle of December.

The Calvary Baptist church has within the past year completed a handsome new stucco church and parsonage. The First Presbyterian church is housed in a nice, quiet rock building which constitutes one of the landmarks of the city. The Church of Christ and the Primitive Baptists also have nice church buildings. Crosbyton is proud of her churches, which proclaim to the world that a majority of the citizenship of this little city is religious minded.

Crosbyton Youths Seek Scholarship

CROSBYTON, Oct. 22 (Special)—Hugh Quinn Buck, son of J. A. Buck of Crosbyton, a student in Texas Christian university has been chosen by the cabinet of that university as candidate for the Rhodes scholarship from Texas.

Buck was informed of the choice of candidates this week following a meeting of the cabinet. Weir McDermaid also of Crosbyton was the second candidate for the scholarship. The Rhodes scholarship is for $2,100 a year and entitles one to study abroad. Competition with other schools of the state will be necessary before the final selection will be made.

Houston School Is Emptied In Minute

HOUSTON, Oct. 22 (AP)—The Harrisburg Elementary school building was emptied of its 800 small pupils in 60 seconds today when the stage in the school auditorium on the second floor caught fire.

O. W. Bogard, principal, was almost overcome by smoke while trying to extinguish the flames with a hand extinguisher.

A short in the electric wiring was thought to have set fire to curtains of the stage. The flames spread to the walls and ceiling, which were damaged about $1,000.

Shooting

A workman in the town of Santander, Spain, awoke the other night with a toothache. He placed the floor for a while, earned in elegant Spanish and did the other things that toothache victims do, but all was futile. So, at last, he got out his revolver, stuck it into his mouth and shot the offending
tooth to kingdom come—incidentally inflicting a grievous wound in his cheek.

The reporter who wrote the cable
dispatch describing this incident remarked that this Spaniard had more courage than most sufferers with toothache. And that is a statement with which we would like to take issue.

A toothache is bad enough; the sufferer will do anything. How many of us have not, at times, reached the stage where we would gladly use
a revolver on the offending member? Many or most of us, beyond a doubt.

There are two malades that lift
a man beyond himself: toothache
and seasickness. The Spaniard's action is perfectly understandable.

Just Angry

A psychiatrist who testified in the recent trial of young Earle Peacock,
who was convicted of murdering his wife, made one of the most interesting and sensible remarks we have yet
heard from a psychiatrist on the witness stand.

Peacock was setting up the "explanatory" racket for a defense
and it was pointed out to this psychiatrist that once, regarding a radio
set, Peacock had become so enraged
that he smashed the set all to pieces. This, it was asserted, proved that he was emotionally unstable
and not responsible for the murder of his wife. But the psychiatrist said:

"That was not a symptom of emotional instability. It was anger. It could have been cured by a spanking."

We do wish that a little common ordinary house sense like that could be injected into a few more of our murder trials. It is refreshing.

A Poor Excuse

Harry Sinclair attempts to defend his recent plea for release from the federal jail at Washington by pointing out that he was not to be freed, not on the grounds of ill-health, but on the grounds that the jury-shadowing of which he was convicted is not really a crime.

Somewhat this excuse fails to move us greatly. To Harry Sinclair's high-priced lawyers jury-shadowing may not seem criminal; but to the great body of American citizens it is pre-tremely obvious that it was simply part of an attempt to save the multimillionaire of sin from prison by fair means or foul.

Legal hair-splitting doesn't exonerate it. Sinclair, on trial for a serious crime, tried to influence the jury in a way not provided for in the legal machinery of the courts.
He got caught at it, and got sent to jail. The excuse is not for the jury-shadowing, but for the attempt to save any reason why he shouldn't serve out his term.

Communism

If the leaders of the North Carolina mob that have been clanking
the textile strikers are really trying to promote the cause of Communism and social unrest in this country they are doing a magnificent job, and should receive the instant
congratulations of Moscow.

If, on the other hand, they are trying to establish a new order of political and economic order, they are fearful bunglers and should be called off the job without delay.

You can think as you please about the rights and wrongs of the Carolina textile strike. Certainly there are no reasons for the killing of the strike leaders and the killing of a defenseless woman there is no shadow of a defense.

THE PLAINSMAN

Says

(Special to The Journal)

EL PASO, Oct. 22.—That Girl on Broadway, remembering that "travel broadens one," intends to go on a diet while here. She's afraid the trip down and back will add to her avertures.

Well, folks, The Plainsman has only been here a couple of hours
at this writing—long enough to change his shirt—but he can see that El Paso is ready for the W. T. C. C. convention—and how! It is rumored that Ciudad Juarez, just across the border, is making preparations for a gala occasion but thus far the writer hasn't had an opportunity to view the situation first hand.

Nobody but an old country boy
can get the biggest thrill possible
out of eating on a dining car. Tripping across the desert between Sierra Blanca and El Paso this morning, The Plainsman got one of the biggest kicks of the year—looking out the window at nothing at all
and eating "food that costs too much. There's something about the security of it, though, that makes it enjoyable and we don't suppose the new will ever wear off until we get rich and travel around in a private train and all that sort of thing.

The Plainsman has done quite a bit of traveling but most of it has been done in two ways—one with somebody after him, and the other in a side-door pullman. If you know what we mean!

El Paso is going to be all dressed up in its Sunday best for the big convention. Part of the decorations are already up and decorations are busy with the work. Despite the fact that this border watering-place has a convention every day or so the W. T. C. C. meeting is one which is attracting a great deal of attention by virtue of the fact that it is more or less a "home"
gathering, and because it will bring more people here than any other meeting this year thus far.

That Man on Avenue Q said just before leaving for Juarez, that being in El Paso reminds him of being on the Tech campus. You just can't get along unless you know
some Spanish.

All of which reminds this column
that the ambitious Tech clubs who are looking for hard names for people in Lubbock to understand and pronounce the set all in El Paso a veritable mecca. Why there are signs on stores down here that nobody could guess—words that would even put the Campfire girls
to shame and that's no foolin'!

Anybody who can find any worse
words than the Tech hands on the clubs and what-not, and the Campfire girls choose for their lodges, or whatever they are, ought to be put in the Smithsonian Institution.

"Se hablan Espanol", for instance, is a very popular phrase
heard here and even the best stores in El Paso and El Paso have some dandies—have it all over the windows. In case
there are no Spanish teachers
handy the phrase signifies that the folks within can "spik Spanish" so the boys can feel perfectly free to come in and spend some of their dough.

Over in Juarez there is a big cabaret and bar known as "The Big Kid's Palace" and boasts "The Longest Bar in the World." They're telling a story about the place that is just pass along to you.

It seems that there were two gentlemen from the states, in characteristic American pose, standing at the bar. One turned to the other
after careful deliberation, he said:
"Sissy, pardner, didn't you and me
meet in Noo Awlins last July?"

The other thought a moment and then replied:
"Nope. Not you and me. I ain't never been in Noo Awlins."

"Neither have I," he must have been
two other fellows.

The Plainsman always takes an opportunity to visit El Paso and has been here on a number of occasions before. But this time, in spite of the fact that the W. T. C. C. was "Big Up El"
from down Fort Worth way, it's just like Ewing Freeland told the Plainsman in Lubbock
the other day. "We never have failed to play a good game against T. C. U." was "Big Up El" idea, and I don't see any reason
for it to be any different
this year!"

You folks have always heard a lot about pretty black-eyed beauties and all that sort of thing. Well, you can take it from The Plainsman
that the American red-heads are good enough for him—or the blondes
and brunettes, either, for that matter. You find a fair looking job
among the foreign born folks down
this way every once in awhile but don't kid yourself about them having any more of a beauty market. No sir! These buxom gals from the land of sunshine and revolutions,
as a class, aren't anything to be prized.

Down on South El Paso street,
which is just as typically Mexican as Juarez will ever be,
there are signs and signs reading "Abarrotes." The Plainsman got to figuring that that bird
"Abarrotes" was pretty much

Senator Sheppard's Plan To Send The Customer To Jail May Start Biggest Pro-Law Fight Of All, Dutcher Says

By RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Unless
the dry organizations develop cool
feet, which they seldom do, Senator Sheppard's bill to brand the buyers of liquor as equally guilty
with the sellers probably will turn out to be the issue in the most important prohibition fight for several years.

The bill is made a law there will be virtually nothing left for the drys to ask for in the way of legislation exempting measures so extreme that no one has previously considered them advisable to press.
The drys experimented with heavier penalties when they put over the Jones law, but hardly anyone argues that the "five and ten" has had any particular effect on the enforcement situation.

It may not pass
There is some chance that the Sheppard bill will be allowed to die
a quiet death. It does not appear to represent the considered program
of the dry organizations, though it has the approval of Bishop Cannon,
who is the strongest individual figure among them. Some of the most important dry leaders are going cautiously explaining that they desire
first to determine the possible legal obstacles to a law covering liquor buyers, which may indicate that they desire first to observe the general reaction toward the measure.

In this connection it is interesting to note that some of the strongest drys in congress are opposed to the bill. Although a few of those who have already declared against it may change their minds under Anti-Saloon league pressure, a vote
in either house is likely to roll up
the largest "wet" minority vote since the passage of the Volstead act.

The effect of such a law is the most important point for everyone concerned to think about and there are views diametrically opposed.

Some drys believe that millions of Americans would stop patronizing
bootleggers, unwilling to join a class
at least recognized as criminal by the statutes.

Others fear that it would have no
such effect and that, on the contrary, it would tend to stiffen resistance to the prohibition laws by automatically creating the largest class of lawbreakers with which the government ever had to deal.

"Legal experts of the prohibition bureau say that while such a law might result in more convictions, its principal effect would be as a method of moral suasion. Some of them are convinced that it would result in a large
reduction of the amount of liquor consumed and that it would tend importantly to make abstinence "respectable."

Both the drys and the prohibition
enforcers are emphatic in the contention that the purchase of liquor as guilty as the vendor.
The difference," says Pussfoot Johnson, "is the difference between the innate and the frequenter of a disorderly house."

But in the past the drys haven't felt that a law covering purchasers
was worth fighting for. Wayne B.
Wheeler and his companions decided to let it ride when they framed the Volstead act and passed it. The act provides that no one shall buy
liquor without obtaining a permit,
and of course the permits are unobtainable. The act doesn't make the provision stick by applying any penalty.

GILBERT SWAN

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The title of

tablished before a "bigger and better" building is announced.

I have watched this race for the skies grow into an elimination contest. I had just become accustomed to watching the Chrysler building soaring to a height of 808 feet, which is 18 feet beyond the record of the Woolworth, when along came the announcement that the City Bank and Farmers Trust, which is to build on the old site of the Waldorf-Astoria, would climb to 925 feet, making all others look meager and stunted in growth.

Now there comes an ordinary minority announcement that this will be a mere strapping when A. E.
Lefcourt starts at 49th and Broadway on a puny little 80-story building which will rise to a height of 1,050 feet. The present occupant of this space comes under the headline "landmark" since it was built in 1908 and has the rare old age of 21 years to its credit. It will cost a mere thirty millions, or thereabouts.

Consideration of such gargantuan
competition causes even a hard-boiled New Yorker to breathe rapidly. Up in the Adirondacks, a 1,000 foot hill is considered something of a mountain, and is thus catalogued in the summer folders—
though a westerner must laugh up his sleeve at such a claim.

But what causes the shivers to start creeping is not so much the height of the forecasted building,
but the inevitable problems in congestion they will create.

I have no way of knowing how many people will occupy a 1,050 foot building, or a 925 foot building.
Much smaller skyscrapers boast that three or four thousand people pass
through their doors daily.

How will the people who occupy these new places find transit to and from their homes? Again, the narrow streets have never been widened
to accommodate the growth of traffic, which must inevitably follow.
With congestion already at its peak,
how can the materials be handled
without further complicating matters?

Sooner or later Manhattan is going to have to face a few such problems—and even I may get up on a Connecticut farm before it's through.

No season is complete without
some new item named Peggy Joyce,
that smart little barber's daughter
from Virginia. And the latest connects her name with that of one Lord Furness, quite a noble Britisher who has been seen here and there with her about the Riviera
and way points.

In the event anyone has lost count
on her husbands—everyone. I take it, has forgotten her last ten light
episodes—there were Everett Archer, Earlhoun Hopkins, Jr., Phil-brick Hopkins, James Stanley Joyce
and Count Godtha Morner.

What, only five of them!

Just by way of passing mention—
the swankier girls on Fifth avenue
are wearing leather and leather beds from Paris. Gent's winter suits run deep gray and half a dozen barbers who majored in hair bobbing are looking around for jobs
as barbers again.

Californian Makes New Glider Record

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Oct. 22 (AP).
W. H. Bowles of this city today set a new American glider record by remaining in the air a fraction over one hour and 21 minutes. He was officially timed by officials representing the American Aeronautical association, the American Glider association and the International association, who certified his record.

The greater part of Bowles' record breaking flight was made over the ocean beyond Point Loma. He exceeded 750 feet in altitude. The previous record was 15 minutes.

There are two kinds of colleges
in America, a noted educator says.
Undoubtedly. Those who wish they had fired the coach last fall, and those who wish they hadn't.

you don't dot your "i's" you're not

you're not right on the dot.

EASY TO QUIT TOBACCO IF IT'S DONE ABRUPTLY

Quitting Tobacco Is Easy, Says Who?
Dear Doctor: You will, perhaps,
be interested in hearing the results
I had by following your article on the Tobacco Habit, and Cure. I have "cigared" at the rate of about a package
day for almost 15 years. Being strong and vigorous, I have never felt any bad effects; but
the influence on
the young is bad,
and it is a nervous, nasty habit.
Your cure seemed
so intrinsically
sensible—Quit.
Quit abruptly!—
that I thought I would take it on. I haven't smoked now for over two weeks; I have been able to stop easily. There has been some craving, especially after some nervous excitement and eating,
but not craving which I could not immediately suppress. I had never really tried before to stop; I had come to think that although I should I could not. But under your prescription it is really easy. I trust that you will develop the idea of this cure in the newspapers by an article of some kind soon, for cigarette smoking is getting to be quite a little curse in this country.

There are many cigarette smokers, who, like me, are disgusted with the habit, who want to quit, but again, like me, didn't know how. One of the things which so disgusted me
was that every day, no matter how well and shallowly, was continuously taking a "pull" on the "pull." I didn't like my classification with them, but had determined to endure the martyrdom of stopping some day, anticipating a torture like that of the inquisition. If tobacco is really that there is no such martyrdom or torture, many would stop at once.
I've stopped, thanks to your advice to quit abruptly. Pass the word along, my dear doctor, in a very public way. Gratefully. A. J.

I'm sure the report of your personal experience and success, A. J.

RAPID PROGRESS IN PROTECTION OF CHILDREN'S HEALTH CITED

BY RAY LYMAN WILBUR, Secretary of the Interior (Ray Lyman Wilbur was born at Boonesboro, Ia., April 13, 1875. He is a graduate of Stanford university and holds honorary degrees from several universities.
From 1909 to 1909 he was assistant professor in physiology at Stanford university, and professor of medicine there from 1909 to 1916, being dean of the school for five years. In 1916 he was made president of Stanford. He held that post until appointed secretary of the Interior by President Hoover last spring. In 1917 he was chief of the conservation division, U. S. Food Administration in Washington. He is a member of various societies and medical organizations.)

The past generation has done more to advance the protection of children's health than the 1,000 years preceding it.

The physician and the dentist in their daily work
care for individuals but in that
care there may be a large measure of public service or disservice.
If they fail to recognize the early
manifestations of contagious disease others become promptly involved. If they fail to care adequately for conditions that could be relieved upon
the rest of us falls
the trouble and expense of dealing with the sick and incapacitated. As social beings organized in civilized societies we all take part in paying the general bills for ill health. There is no possible isolation of the modern home. Into it must come people, food, insects and bacteria.

Naturally with our love for children and our knowledge that in them and in them alone lies the future destiny of our country we turn to their problems in the hope that they can be spared many of the miseries we have undergone
and have cleaner, more wholesome
and healthier lives.

We cannot be so sure about their mental well-being in this period of speed, noise, worry, and intensive mental training. It is a long biological jump we are attempting, to live in a huddle instead of in the open field. It is because of the opportunity to apply in a larger and more practical manner the knowledge we have of the child and its problems that President Hoover
called the White House conference
on the care and protection of children.

The planning committee has chosen the heads of various committees and the work will soon be

Mont Pelee Has Its Third Disturbance

FORT-DE-FRANCE, Martinique, Oct. 22 (AP).—After a day of calm on Mont Pelee yesterday, a third eruption, stronger than the two preceding ones, occurred today. The director of the volcano observatory announced:—Gas and ashes were thrown out and flashes of light lasted for ten minutes. Intermittent rumbling and bursts of white steam accompanied the eruption. The activity occurred on that part of the cone which dominates the lava flows of the disastrous 1902 and 1903 eruptions. The village of Precheur already has been evacuated and most of its inhabitants came to Fort-De-France recently.

ARMY POSTS FACING DOOM

UNITS MAY BE PUT IN FOUR BIG POSTS IN NEW PROPOSAL

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Recent reports that all of the many army posts scattered throughout the country were to be abandoned and army units concentrated in four big posts, have failed of confirmation at the war department.

Some years ago members of congress advanced the concentration proposal and it was said at that time many army officers were in favor of the move but no action ever was taken. It was the belief in Washington that a general abandonment of posts would be considered vigorously in congress by members from districts in which the posts were located.

This talk took place before President Hoover's decision to inquire into army expenditures. The president's action, however, has given rise to the abandonment reports again but so far the war department has not recommended that course.

Today a report was received in Washington that Post D. A. Russell at Cheyenne, Wyo., was to be abandoned as a result of the presidential survey. The war department knew nothing of the source of the report and it was denied in congress by Senators Warren and Kendrick, and Representative Carter, all from Wyoming.

REVIEW OF THE WEEK'S FOREIGN NEWS

By The Associated Press

BY SAVINGTON CRAMPTON
Cable Editor, The Associated Press

With the acceptance of France Italy and Japan in hand, the five-power naval conference towards which the conversations of President Hoover and Prime Minister MacDonald have been working, because a living pact in international politics last week, and diplomats settled down to preliminary work.

France and Italy began maneuvering for an advantageous position before the conference opened, and Italy invited France to discuss a Franco-Italian understanding on the lines of the Anglo-American conference understanding.

Views Important Factor
As France and Italy are the two chief Mediterranean powers and have identical views on the value of submarines and the independence of disarmament in all branches of warfare, land, air and naval, their meeting will be an important factor in the lineup at the London conference. France has agreed to hold exchanges with Italy, not by a formal conference, but through the regular diplomatic channels.

In proposing the exchanges, Italy, as in the past, insisted on naval parity with France, but gave the problem a new aspect by offering to make the tonnage as low as France wished.

In the far east, Chinese politics went into convulsions after a week of surprise, revolts and raids.

China Has Problem
It is difficult to disentangle the relations of the parties to the new conflict in China, perhaps most easily understood as a revolt of certain military chiefs and left-wing elements of the Kuomintang against the Nanking regime of President Chiang Kai-Shek.

The positions of Marshal Feng Yu-Hsiang and Governor Yen Shi-Shan of Shensi province complicated the situation.

Actual hostilities began in Honan province between Feng's Kuomintang soldiers and the nationalists, with the Kuomintang supported in its drive for Hankow from the north by the march of the revolting "Ironsides" division from the south.

Canton Wavering
There were minor revolts against the nationalists in Shantung and Kwantung. Canton was apparently wavering in its loyalty, and the hard-fighting Kwangsi leaders seemed ready to leap at Nanking on the first favorable occasion.

The balance of power lies with the northern war-lords Feng, Yen and Governor Chang Hsueh-Liang of Manchuria; but nothing is less certain than which way they will swing it.

Russia made a strong punitive raid into Manchuria, rebellion against Nanking, and a break between the Manchurian authorities and their Russian supporters; would at once modify the Manchurian dispute over the Chinese Eastern railway and leave Russia in a strong position.

The Australian labor party, profiting by the prestige of the British labor government, won a decisive victory over the nationalists in the general elections. Premier Bruce losing his seat, James Henry Scullin, labor leader, will head the new federal government.

New Leader Reigning
Afghanistan, gateway to India, found herself under the rule of her third king within little more than a year. Nadir, Khan after defeating the usurper, Habibullah, who deposed Amanullah, was elected king of Kabul.

The experts who are devising the bank for international settlements at Baden-Baden continued their work with a growing conviction of its difficulty. The death of former Premier Delacroix of Belgium, one of the Belgian delegates, brought out the first hints of any serious political negotiations behind the actual discussion of the bank's statutes.

Radio License Rule Is Declared Void

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 (AP)—A move by the city government of Sault Ste Marie, Michigan, to license radio sets was described at the offices of the federal radio commission today as legally unenforceable.

The ordinance, which provides for collection of an annual license of $1 a set and employment of a city radio inspector, has just been declared effective and was brought unofficially to the attention of the commission. So far as is known here no formal protest against it has been initiated.

Hungary has only 1,400 taxicabs.

Selection Of Site Will Be Delayed

DALLAS, Oct. 22 (AP)—Selection of a site for a state psychopathic hospital is being held up pending submission by Dallas of a description of advantages of the location submitted by the city. R. B. Walhall, chairman of the state board of control, said today while in Dallas, Galveston has already filed a brief with the board. Appropriation for the hospital has been made.

DILLON URGES COOPERATION

N. MEXICO GOVERNOR STRESSES NEED FOR STATE'S WORK

(Special To The Avalanche)
DALLAS, Oct. 22.—Increased cooperation between New Mexico and Texas was urged here Monday by Governor R. C. Dillon of New Mexico in an address before the Dallas Agricultural club.

Governor Dillon reached Dallas by airplane Sunday to attend the State Fair of Texas now in progress. The governor and his party returned by air this afternoon, taking off for Clovis about 2 p. m.

"Texas and New Mexico have many things to work for in common," Governor Dillon said, "such as highway building, agricultural development, livestock and oil resources, and the development and the proper use of our rivers. It is only when we look at the map that we see a line drawn between the two states."

Dr. H. L. Kent of the New Mexico Agricultural college, Dr. R. F. Milton, the governor's personal representative at the New Mexico exhibit here were accompanied. All but Howard accompanied him on the return trip.

CHESHER REPORTS CATTLE AS SLOW

Reporting cattle of the South Plains in splendid condition, Len Chesher, inspector for the Texas Southwestern Cattle Raisers association, said last night that trading throughout the area has been exceedingly slow.

"Cattle are in the best condition I have seen for years, but the demand seems to have dropped to the minimum," said Mr. Chesher.

A little trading has been recorded recently. Fred Snyder and Ad Edins have purchased the Armstrong ranch in Gaines county from Walter Hightower, together with several hundred head of cattle. Consideration was not stated. The ranch included about 40 sections.

Whaley and Lewis recently purchased 1200 cows from Fred Snyder at $45 per head.

Boyd and Edkins sold 1000 head of calves to Fred Snyder, price not named.

P. H. Adams of Roswell purchased 50 cows and calves from J. O. Boyd.

THE TINYMITES

BY HAL COCHRAN

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The Tinymites stood down on the ground and watched the shoes go sailing round. They hoped the little Weeones would be rescued from the tree. It all depended on the shoe, 'cause there was naught that they could do. "Oh, goodness me," said Spouty. "I'm as nervous as can be."

The old woodpecker's pecking fast. I do not think that tree will last much longer. Hey there, little shoe, please get the Weeones quick. Or bump that bird with all your might and put the pesky thing to flight. If you can save the Weeones from disaster, 'twill be slick."

Then one Weeone began to call. "Hey, Tinymites, we're about to fall. The bird has almost finished with his tree-trunk pecking task. Please hold the tree so it won't drop, or we'll take a sudden flop. Do anything to save us. That is all we Weeones ask."

"Have patience. Don't give up just yet," cried Copper. "You can safely bet that we will try and rescue you. Just hang on to the tree. Before it falls and breaks in two, the wooden shoe will come to you. Then, if you'll climb aboard it, you'll be safe as safe can be."

Just then the wooden shoe swooped near. The Weeones all began to cheer. They finally reached and caught it and to hold it still they tried. Of course this wasn't done with ease. The shoe kept bobbing on the breeze. But in about two minutes, every Weeone was inside.

The Tinymites took up the cheer and Spouty shouted, "Come down here." And then the little wooden shoe made straightway for the ground. Just then the big tree cracked and creaked, and off the big woodpecker sneaked. He'd sent the monstrous tree stump falling, with an awful sound.

(The Tinymites and Weeones celebrate in the next story.)

COURT REFUSES TO REVIEW CASES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 (AP)—The Supreme Court today declined to review cases brought by the Texas Power and Light company and the Texas Electric Service company asking an injunction against Fairbanks, Morse and company from "interfering" with their business in Seymour, Commerce and other towns in Texas.

The complaint in each case was that the company had "induced repudiation and breach of valid contracts" between the utilities companies and their customers in order to sell power plants and equipment to the cities.

Answering the complaints, the company asserted the lower court was correct in that it held the solicitation of business to be had after the lawful termination of existing contracts was not actionable.

Crude Oil Prices Cut In California

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22 (AP)—Drastic price cuts for crude oil faced the great California industry today when it became known the Shell Oil company would follow the action of the Standard Oil of California in marking down bids roughly fifty per cent.

Now prices, which vary in accordance with gravity of the oils, brought cuts of 50 to 75 cents a barrel at Signal Hill, Santa Fe Springs and Seal Beach. Santa Fe Springs cuts ranged between 70 and 76 cents, Seal Beach 50 and 51 cents and Signal Hill 50 and 51 cents.

"Fussy" About Coffee? Then Try Mountain Coffees from Central America

Twice the richness... twice the flavor
...never "thin" ...or "flat"...

MOUNTAIN Coffee from Central America! To people who know and appreciate good coffee we do not attempt to tell how good it is. We simply say, drink it 3 times and then if you are willing to go back to ordinary coffee, we will pay the cost.

Its flavor comes from coffees grown in the fertile volcanic soil of Central America. A region that experts agree produces the tangiest flavor and the richest body of probably any known coffees today.

A Remarkable Difference

Ordinarily you note little difference in taste when you change from one brand of coffee to another. That is because 70% of all coffee sold in the United States today (regardless of brand names) is of one common type grown in the same general region. So-called "blending" and special roasting processes (in spite of advertising talk) can not change its flavor. For roasting coffee merely brings out whatever flavor Nature has already put in.

It is a different type of coffee that makes the flavor of Folger's Coffee what it is. You will note this difference the instant you break the seal of the vacuum can. There is a rush of rich fragrance from the full-flavored mountain coffee. In making this coffee you don't have to "coax" the flavor out. It makes a clear amber cup that's rich beyond comparison—never "thin" or tasteless.

An Interesting Test

Get a pound of Folger's Coffee from your grocer today. Drink it tomorrow morning. The next morning drink the coffee you have been using. The third morning drink Folger's again. Then decide which you like best. If, for any reason, you do not choose Folger's your grocer will gladly refund the full purchase price. We will pay him. That's fair, isn't it? You risk nothing—so why not order Folger's now for the test?
