Two Hedley Shooting Suspects Held By Borger Officers

WOUNDED MAN AND HIS BUDDY ARE QUIZZED

Donley County Officers Question Pair in Slaying Of Watchman

ONE MAY LOSE ARM

Story of Hijacking Doubted By Police Who Begin Investigation

BORGER, Texas, Jan. 1. (UP)—Oscar Jimmie Brown and Joe Dunwoody formerly of Panhandle are being held here tonight awaiting removal to Donley county in connection with the fatal shooting of J. H. Richey, night watchman, at Hedley Sunday night.

The two men virtually have admitted being in Hedley on the night of the shooting, officers said.

Brown is in a hospital where physicians are trying to save his right arm from amputation. He is suffering from gunshot wounds that shattered the bone in the upper arm.

When he was brought to the hospital Monday, Brown told a story of being hijacked by a man and woman and being left to die at the side of the road. Officers grew skeptical when he would not explain the circumstances of his rescue.

Sheriff M. W. Mosley and C. M. Peabody, deputy, of Clarendon arrived late today and after viewing the pair, the sheriff said he believed he is justified in holding the men in connection with the case.

With Ed Holloway, fingerprint expert, and H. L. Gaither, chief of police at Amarillo, and Chief John Crabtree of Borger, the Donley county officers quizzed Brown as he lay in bed, but he was too weak to say much.

Brown is said to be well known to police in Texas and Oklahoma oil field towns. He and Dunwoody are known to have been in Wink and Ranger, Texas, and Seminole, Maud and other Oklahoma towns.

Richey was shot to death Sunday night by three men attempting to loot a grocery store at Hedley.

Laredo-Mexico Line Uses Train Partly

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 1. (US)—Beginning today the Laredo-Mexico City air mail will be carried by plane only a part of the way. From Mexico City to Alvaro Obregon, formerly known as Empalme Gonzalez, on the national railways, the mail will be carried on the night train. It will then be transferred to the plane and taken to the border. The change is being made because flyers report that conditions over the high ranges they have to cross are very unfavorable, heavy clouds hanging over them continuously.

Pair Married in Air As New Year Dawned

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Jan. 1. (INS)—Robert Broadus, St. Petersburg business man, and Miss Polly Archer Barton, society girl, not only went up in an airplane to get married, but the nuptial knot was tied just as the new year dawned. A tri-motored monoplane took up the wedding party of 14 over St. Petersburg last night.

Timber Workers Out Of Job Following Fire

McLEARY, Wash., Jan. 1. (UP)—Hundreds of men, employes of Henry McLeary Timber company, today faced unemployment for at least four months following a $3,000,000 fire which destroyed the door manufacturing section of the company's plant here yesterday.

Plane Carries Passengers Over Sleepy Old Volcano

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 1 (US)—What is said to be a new altitude record was made here by Clifford McMillan, when he soared over the volcano Popocatepeti at a height of 19,500 feet above sea level with four passengers in the plane "Emilio Carranza," named after the Mexican goodwill flyer who lost his life last summer in New Jersey.

The record is claimed on the fact that four passengers were carried. While many other flyers have gone over old "Popo," including Colonel Lindbergh with a lady passenger, none of them is said to have risen as high as 3,000 feet over the crater.

QUESTION MARK FLIERS FEAST

Turkey and Ice Cream On Aviator's Menu

By MARJORIE DRISCOLL

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 1. (US)—Back and forth, back and forth between this city and San Diego, the army's Question Mark placidly shuttled tonight, pushing the hours behind her in an attempt to set a new world's endurance flight record. The plane took off at 7:27 this morning

In her cabin five men took turns at the controls, pumped gas, ate turkey and ice cream, smoked, read and slept—and hoped to continue to do so for several days to come before the wheels of the great plane again touched ground.

Refueled in Air

At sundown tonight, the plane had four times been re-fueled in flight, once at the starting point, Metropolitan airport, near here, and the other times over or near Rockwell field in San Diego.

The refuelings were all successful. Once a little trouble was experienced, when bumpy air three times jerked the gasoline hose from Major Spatz' hands. Each time he recovered it and the re-fueling was continued. The log, dropped at noon said:

"Everything O. K."

When the refueling plane alighted at San Diego at 3:55 p. m., after

Loaded Gun Found In City Jail Cell

A fully loaded .32 calibre revolver was found in the cell of a man arrested by the police Tuesday night in connection with the reported hijacking of Oscar Poupht, negro. The pistol was found by Officer Elmer Thornton after the man and a negro arrested with him had been twice searched.

After finding the gun, the officers searched an automobile in which the pair had been apprehended and found a box containing cartridges of the same make as those with which the gun was loaded. The man denied ownership of the pistol and the car, which bore a Kansas license.

Poupht reported he had been held up and robbed of $1.30 by two men. The negro being held said he had met his companion only a few minutes before they were arrested.

Chrysler Expects 1929 To Be Prosperous Year

NEW YORK, Jan. 1 (AP)—The year 1929 should be one of unprecedented prosperity in the opinion of Walter P. Chrysler, president and chairman of the Chrysler corporation, who bases his belief on the theory that the present rate of prosperity is in thorough keeping with modern speed, to which he says the automobile has contributed mightily.

Three Celebrants Killed As Train Hits Car

MINNESOTA CITY, Minn., Jan. 1. (INS)—Three New Year's eve celebrants were killed instantly and a fourth seriously injured when their car was struck by a train today. The four persons were en route home after attending a dance near here.

M'DONALD TO RETAIN COUNTY JUVENILE POST

Employes Reappointed At Secret Meeting of Commissioners

FITTS GIVEN OFFICE

Former Police Commissioner for City Named Traffic Head

Appointment of J. B. Fitts as county traffic officer to succeed H. L. White, continuance in office of J. A. McDonald, juvenile officers, renewal of the present 60 cent per day per head rate for feeding jail prisoners, and maintenance of the existing organization and salary scale in practically every other department of county government was determined upon in a secret session of county commissioners court Tuesday afternoon.

Doors Closed

Orders appointing Mr. Fitts, allotting the prisoners feeding fund, and approving the departmental personnels were entered after the doors had been unlocked following a two hour secret session. No formal order in the matter of the continued employment of Mr. McDonald was necessary, but it was learned that the court decided to let the appointment stand. Commissioners were quoted as expressing approval of his work, and it was understood that Judge John P. Marrs, new county judge, would not suggest a change.

Mr. McDonald was appointed in September after the office of juvenile officer, then held by J. T. Cabe, was declared vacant by the court. Petitions asking the reappointment of Mr. Cabe are in circulation over the county.

Members of the court refused to reveal the subjects of their discussion while the doors were closed. It was understood, however, that the question of the rate for feeding prisoners occupied a large part of the time and that the merits of the candidates for each of the appointive positions were under scrutiny.

J. B. Fitts, the newly appointed traffic officer, who serves also as headlight inspection supervisor, has been a resident of Wichita Falls for 18 years. In 1922-23 he served as police commissioner, and for the three preceeding years he acted as chairman of the board of equalization. He was for several years connected with the city tax collector's office. At the time of his appointment he was engaged in the real estate business. He will succeed H. L. White, who has been in the county's employ during the past two years. He was previously a deputy sheriff under Fred Smith, and before that time constable at Burkburnett.

Texas Rancher Trains Polo Ponies for Game

MENARD, Jan. 1. (AP)—Training of polo ponies has proven a profitable venture in the ranching business for J. E. Renfro, Menard stockman, and mounts have been disposed of as fast as they can be taught essentials of the game.

Nine ponies were sold this year at prices ranging from $300 to $1,000. Many others could have been sold if they were available, Renfro said.

Ponies are given one year of routine ranch work before they are groomed for service on the polo field.

Calcium Treatment Aids King George's Condition

LONDON, Jan. 1. (US)—The king has had a restful day and there is a slight improvement in his general condition. The administration of calcium based on a chemical examination of the blood, is producing beneficial results."

This bulletin, issued at 8:15 this evening somewhat relieved the feeling of depression that seemed to have spread over Buckingham palace and London generally in spite of the morning bulletin, which though not particularly favorable, did not appear to warrant the growing pessimism.

Ed Pryor Removed From Hospital To Cell In Wichita County Jail

Ed Pryor, who has been in the Wichita General hospital since Dec. 18 was removed to the county jail Tuesday pending his trial for burglary on Jan. 14.

Pryor's trial was reset for the second Monday in January after he was brought into the 30th district court room on a stretcher, suffering from injuries received in a fall from an automobile near Memphis, according to testimony offered before Judge P. A. Martin.

The case had been called several times and Judge E. G. Thorton had ordered a $1,500 bond forfeited before the defendant was brought into court. Judge Martin granted a postponement, and allowed the prisoner to be taken to the hospital after his appearance.

Deputy Sheriffs Charlie Gant and W. W. Belcher brought him to his cell in the jail Tuesday. He is under indictment on three counts in connection with the burglary of the Grand theater in Electra last summer.

Al Smith Turns State Reins To Franklin Roosevelt, Steps Out

ALBANY, Jan. 1. (US)—In a colorful ceremony in the old red and gold assembly chamber today, Al Smith turned the trusteeship of the state of New York over to Franklin D. Roosevelt, the 44th governor of the state.

Arm-in-arm the departing and incoming governors walked into the old, high-ceilinged auditorium from the speakers' room at the rear of the platform. The red and gold chamber was garlanded in laurel and tri-colored bunting and flags. This background was scintillated by the bright gowns of hundreds of women spectators and the resplendent uniforms of the Veteran Corps artillery of New York, the Old Guard of New York, and the Troy Citizens corps.

Soggy Day

Outside the capitol building, the scene was sombre, heavy skies casting down a soggy snowy mantle.

Governor Roosevelt combined conciliation and cooperation in his inaugural address. He promised to carry on with reforms inaugurated and fostered by Governor Smith and he departed from the usual tenor of inaugural addresses when he dwelt at length on the subject of water power.

He made it plain that he would insist "that there be no alienation of our possession of and title to our power sites and whatever method of distribution is adopted, there can be no possible legal thwarting of the protection of the people themselves from excessive profits on the part of anybody."

Governor Roosevelt also appealed to the newspapers of the state to devote more space to vital measures before the legislature, with a view of stimulating public interest and illuminating the public mind. Incidentally he asked the people of the state for help and criticism and the legislature for cooperation in meeting the state's needs.

Plea for Farmer

The new executive also made a plea, directed to the legislature, for aid for the farmer and for the cripples of the state. He also suggested tightened penal laws and judicial reforms and he predicted an "era of good feeling" during his administration.

"There is a period in our history," he said, "known in all our school books as the 'era of good feeling.' It is my hope that we stand on the threshold of another such era in this state. For my part I pledge that the business of the state will not be allowed to become involved in partisan politics and that I will not attempt to claim unfair advantages for my party or myself, for the accomplishment of those things on which we are all agreed."

As the oath of office was administered by Mr. Moses, a military firing squad under the capitol windows sent 17 shots into a misty sky, a band played the national anthem and Governor Smith introduced his successor.

Governor Smith's valedictory was a sketchy review of the state's progress since he came to Albany 25 years ago. It was also a happy felicitation to Governor Roosevelt.

RICH AVIATION FAN IS KILLED

Midland Oil Man Victim in Plane Crash

COLORADO, Texas, Jan. 1. (AP)—Sam Sloan, wealthy Midland oil man, was instantly killed here today when his airplane crashed at the Colorado Country club. Witnesses said that Sloan had circled the clubhouse several times at a very low altitude and had just waved at friends on the ground when the plane nosed dived, falling near the clubhouse.

Sloan was a wartime aviator and one of the leading air enthusiasts of this section, having been instrumental in obtaining airports at Midland and here. He once lived here.

Temple High Gymnasium Is Destroyed by Fire

TEMPLE, Texas, Jan. 1. (AP)—The Temple high school gymnasium, valued at $12,000, was destroyed by fire today. Spontaneous combustion was assigned as the cause. The building's floors were oiled yesterday and a number of oil soaked sweaters were said to have been piled in a corner. Approximately $3,000 worth of football and basketball equipment was lost. Insurance of $9,000 was carried.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1. (AP)—W. C. Durant today suggested the appointment of a congressional committee "to discover and inform the country and Mr. Hoover as to why the 18th amendment has not been satisfactorily enforced."

SUSPECT HELD FOR DEATH OF LITTLE CHILD

Girl Stolen Away by Man When She Runs Errand For Father

FIRST CLUE FAILS

Salt Lake City Police Are Baffled at Outset of Investigation

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Jan. 1. (UP)—Little June Nelson, 12, was attacked and slain by a degenerate kidnaper today.

Her body was recovered from a ditch filled with water on the outskirts of the city.

No more baffling or brutal crime ever challenged the Salt Lake police department.

George Perry, 57, twice paroled from the Utah penitentiary after conviction for similar degenerate attacks, was taken into custody for questioning.

Suspect Claims Alibi

He claimed an alibi, detectives announced, which in some parts was shaky.

June's little sister, Betty, 8, who claimed she had seen June's abductor, was sent for in an attempt to identify Perry.

Another clue which police had hoped would lead to the man who strangled June and threw her body into the ditch, collapsed at the outset of the investigation.

When the body was found, June's shoes and stockings were missing. In an abandoned automobile near by police found a pair of child's shoes. The machine belonged to a Magnus man. The shoes turned out not to be June's and he established an alibi.

Child Mistreated

An autopsy performed after the child's body was found disclosed the manner of death and the fact that the girl had been mistreated before being killed.

June and a younger sister, Betty, 5, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Nelson, left home Monday evening on an errand to a neighborhood store. Betty went home later and told her parents a man had "chased" them and that she had returned after seeing June enter the grocery store.

June's father searched the neighborhood all night and this morning. During the night he passed the ditch where the body was found. He said he was certain the body was not there Monday night. It apparently had been thrown from an automobile about daybreak, it was indicated.

Yale Ponders Too Much; Loses Gift

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 1. (UP)—Yale university has lost a gift of several million dollars because the trustees stopped too long to think it over.

This was revealed when the university issued a statement last night denying published reports that Edward S. Harkness, who will found an "honor college" at Harvard, had given the huge endowment to Harvard without first offering it to Yale, his alma mater.

The statement said Harkness first made the offer to Yale with a time limit on its acceptance. The trustees were unable to decide within the time set, the statement said.

Robert L. Sifford New Head of Laramie Road

Dillon First Governor Of New Mexico to Get Second Term

SANTA FE, N. M., Jan. 1. (AP)—Richard C. Dillon, sheepman, road and school builder, received his oath of office at 12 o'clock noon today as the first governor of New Mexico to succeed himself in office.

"Happy New Year to you all," were the first words of the governor after he had taken his oath. A wave of applause swept the hall of representatives as Governor Dillon arose to give his second inaugural address, which lasted exactly 11½ minutes.

APPENDICITIS HITS RICKARD

Promoting King Undergoes Operation at Miami

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 1. (UP)—George L. (Tex) Rickard, millionaire fight promoter, was operated upon for appendicitis here tonight. He was stricken today.

The promoter spent the day in bed with what was at first thought to be acuate indigestion. Decision to operate followed a conference of physicians late this afternoon.

Rickard became indisposed after dinner yesterday, and was forced to cancel a New Year's party at which he was to be the host.

Northcott Gives Full Confession

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 1. (AP)—County officials and defense attorneys assembled hurriedly at the county jail here tonight after Gordon Stewart Northcott, charged with the murder of four boys, told Captain William Bright of the sheriff's homicide squad that he was ready to make a full confession.

The alleged "murder farm" owner told reporters this afternoon that he expected to hang and that he would take several others to death with him. Mrs. Sarah Northcott, mother of Gordon, yesterday confessed in court to the murder of one of the four boys. She was sentenced to life imprisonment and today entered San Quentin prison.

Bribe Suspects Make $5,000 Bonds

TULSA, Jan. 1. (AP)—Henry Prudhomme, prohibition agent, and Mrs Iva Gillespie, both charged with conspiracy to collect a bribe from Frank (Chee Chee) De Mayo, convicted Kansas City bootlegger and alleged head of a liquor ring, were released today under $5,000 bonds. They are to face the charge in the United States district court at Joplin next month.

They were accused of receiving $250 from De Mayo in exchange for a promise not to appear as witnesses against him at a liquor trial in Kansas City.

Gotham's Dives All But Deserted by Habitues

NEW YORK, Jan. 1. (US)—Result of the recent police rejuvenation, crimes of violence during this new year holiday reached a low mark in police annals today.

Dives and other rendezvous of the underworld were reported to be practically deserted and arrests were few and the emergency corps of hospitals had a quiet day.

Nine persons were stabbed in New Year's brawls and two were beaten. Otherwise the prohibition raids were the only field of activity for the police.

Negro Held in Jail For 1914 Texas Murder

BELTON, Texas, Jan. 1. (AP)—Walter Mathews, negro, is in jail in Bartlesville, Okla., for a killing which occurred in Bartlett, 14 years ago. August Becker was killed in 1914 and Mathews was arrested and charged with the crime. He escaped from jail before going to trial. Sheriff John P. Bingham learned recently that Mathews was in Oklahoma and had police at Bartlesville arrest him. Bingham will go to Austin tomorrow to obtain extradition papers.

AVIS WOULD QUIZ ROBISON ON U. T. SALES

Thorough Airing of Tangle Looms in Legislature Meet Jan. 8

FAVOR LAW REPEAL

Other West Texas Leaders Urge Action to Save School Funds

An investigation by the legislature of the recent University of Texas oil land lease tangle, and particularly of the part played therein by State Land Commissioner J. T. Robison, would do much toward clarifying the present situation, and possibly could prevent future bungling, Rep. J. D. Avis Tuesday night told The Record News.

Mr. Avis added that such an investigation at present seems "the only thing to do."

Questions Suggested

His remark followed developments in the oil lease problem, which culminated Tuesday in the granting by Judge George Calhoun in 53rd district court at Austin of a temporary injunction restraining Robison from placing more than 50,000 acres of university oil lands on sale Wednesday. The injunction was asked by the state on behalf of the board of regents which alleged the institution would suffer loss of millions of dollars by the sale of the leases at present prices.

In a telegram Tuesday night, Bob Long, representative-elect from this district, who now is in Austin, said he favored removal of all control of university lands from the power of the land commissioner. He said he would favor a move to place entire control of these lands with the University of Texas board of regents.

Long declined to commit himself on the proposal by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to protect land holders in title suits involving vacancy strips and excess lands, saying he would like to investigate the matter further.

Opinions from several other representatives in Northwest Texas regarding the university lease problem, and the title dispute were received Tuesday night by wire by The Record News. Among them were the following:

J. H. Boggs, San Angelo: "I think it would be unwise to throw too much university oil land leases on the market just now. Yet I see no reason why the university should be perpetually permitted to refuse to comply with state laws whenever they want to violate them. Robison is right and should be upheld.

"I am inclined to believe the West Texas Chamber of Commerce proposal is correct."

Mr. Avis suggested one question which he recommended should be given particular attention should an investigation be called. This question was: "Why did Robison, in the end, hold back more than 50,000 acres of the lands and propose to offer them for sale on Jan. 2? Why didn't he postpone sale of all the lands at the same time?"

Mr. Avis, who leaves here Thursday to attend the coming session of the legislature, said he would favor wholeheartedly the repeal of the 1925 leasing law, under which the university lands were to be placed on sale. It was the terms of this law providing out-of-date prices for lands which subsequently became valuable oil producing

RACKETS WALK ON THIN ICE

One 'Industry' Has Prospect of Gloomy Year

CHICAGO, Jan. 1 (INS)—Chicago this year is to have the most thorough house cleaning of history, if promises made today are fulfilled.

The first gun to be fired in the cleanup program was fired by State's Attorney John Swanson who asked that a special grand jury be appointed to investigate wholesale graft and corruption within the city's political interests.

United States District Attorney George E. Q. Johnson agreed today to aid the state's attorney in every manner in his power with the federal grand jury and to co-operate in liquor enforcements.

While the county grand jury is ferreting out the alleged bribe takers and payroll padders, the federal grand jury will tackle the liquor racketeers.

Policemen in many districts are to be transferred within a few days, it was learned from reliable information. This latest shakeup is to inaugurate the new year proclamation of police commissioner William Russell that he will literally "clean up Chicago," do away with the beer flats, the eakeasies and make Chicago a sahara.

United States Senator Charles Deneen in Washington is believed to be the director general of the cleanup. It is understood he is endeavoring to get the help of two of the government's most able cleanup experts. One is a famed prosecutor whose identity has not been admitted. The other is Oliver Pagen, the U. S. attorney general's chief asisstant in drafting indictments. The latter has been gathering evidence for some time against an alleged north side police and bootlegger ring.

Texas Senator Highly Endorses Orgatone

Honorable J. D. Avis Says After Using Scientific Treatment He Got Wonderful Results

Without a doubt there is not a gentleman of the South that is better known or more well liked by his fellowmen than Senator J. D. Avis. Everywhere you go throughout the state of Texas and other southern states as well, everyone always has a good word for Senator Avis.

Senator Avis can be termed as one of the southern pioneers, having spent his early years battling the hardships that come with range riding on a large ranch. Sleeping outdoors with a saddle as a pillow and a blanket as your only cover brings out any weakness that a man might unknowingly have, but Senator Avis being a sturdy, strong and western gentleman never weakened under the many years of this hardship, but like thousands of other progressive American boys and girls, being so busy with regular routine of life, he abused his stomach with hurried meals and irregular hours. Thus he developed a very stubborn case of stomach trouble.

Senator Avis resides at 1318 Tenth street, Wichita Falls, Texas, and during an interview at his office in the First National bank building, he told one of the Orgatone representatives that he was strongly against publicity of any sort, but being a resident of Wichita Falls and also state senator of the Lone Star state, he felt that it was his duty to let the people of Wichita Falls as well as the people elsewhere know about the good that Orgatone did for him.

"I suffered for a long time with stomach trouble and bloating spells. Everything I ate would sour on my stomach and would cause me to feel very uncomfortable for hours. I was bilious and very nervous and restless. I had terrible headaches and always felt sluggish and didn't seem to have any life or pep at all. My condition seemed to get continually worse all the time and when I began to read so much about Orgatone I decided to try it. I saw where Fire Chief McClure endorsed Orgatone in the local paper and I began taking it.

"I am certainly glad that I bought it for it is giving me wonderful results in treating the above ailments. I am relieved of all of the gas formation, my food digests properly now, I feel much better during the day, my sluggishness seems to have left me and I am not troubled with those terrible headaches any more and my biliousness that used to bother me is a thing of the past.

"I do not hesitate in recommending Orgatone to my friends and I sincerely know if they will give Orgatone a fair trial that they will not be disappointed for the results from its use are wonderful. I have persuaded my wife to use it and she also thinks it is just fine and we both will continue taking it as long as it helps us as it is now doing. I hope that other people suffering as I did will read this and will profit by my experience."

Genuine Orgatone is not a so-called secret or patent remedy but a new scientific treatment containing no alcohol or other false stimulating drugs and is sold in Wichita Falls exclusively by the Allison's Drug store, 716 Indiana avenue, under the personal direction of a special Orgatone representative who is meeting the public daily and charges nothing to explain his theories on health and hygiene. Out-of-town customers are being supplied promptly by mail upon receipt of price, one bottle for $1.25 or six bottles for $6.25.—Adv.

5,291 Bales of Cotton Ginned At Burkburnett

BURKBURNETT, Texas, Jan. 1.—The two local gins at Burkburnett had received exactly 5,291 bales of cotton Tuesday at noon, including round and square bales. Both gins averaged about the same number of bales of ginning for the year of 1928. Gin owners report that about 250 bales more are expected to be received for this year's crop. The majority of cotton received at the gins this year was snapped, which proved to be more of an advantage to the crop owners. At the beginning of the year 1928 the cotton crops around Burkburnett appeared to be very poor but the condition at that time was largely increased before the end of the cotton season. The farmers around Burkburnett report that an excellent prospect is shown for the coming wheat season due to the proper climatic conditions.

WIFE SLAYER TALKS FREELY

Fort Worth Man Charged With Murder

FORT WORTH, Jan. 1. (AP)—Cliff Stevens Tuesday faced a murder charge in Justic Balch's court as a result of the slaying of his wife Monday afternoon. He talked freely of the slaying of the woman to whom he had been married for 15 years.

"I don't know why I did it," Stevens said, "she had sued me for divorce and I had not seen her since Thanksgiving day, but I had never asked her to go back to me."

Stevens, a farmer who formerly lived at Crowley and who for many years lived at Teague, said he bought a pistol Monday morning for $3. He stated that he purchased the pistol "for protection" and added that no threats had been made against him that day.

"I saw her seated in the automobile as I drove up," he continued, "our daughter, Joyce, aged 6, was seated by her. I said something to my wife and she did not reply. I then began firing. I think I shot her two or three times."

Southern Deliveries Start in Wednesday

NEW YORK, Jan. 1. NEW DIRECTORS ARE APPOINTED

Breckenridge C.-C. Heads For 1929 Named

Special to The Record News

BRECKENRIDGE, Texas, Jan. 1.—New directors for the Breckenridge Chamber of Commerce for 1929 are as follows: O. L. Alexander, C. H. Brown, Mayor C. H. Clark, M. E. Daniel, H. E. De Lane, J. D. Hall, C. K. Springfield, J. D. Sandefer, Eugene Thompson, A. Garland Adair, Otto Peters, L. C. Eastland, C. A. Davis, Tom Dyer, C. H. Fulwiler, Dr. W. B. Guinn, C. M. Bender, N. Winkler, H. C. Walker, W. H. Cook, J. F. Chastain, Porter Daniel and H. R. Post.

C. H. Brown, president the past year, will continue in that office until the second Tuesday in January when the new board will organize for the year ahead.

Secretary W. S. Cooper's resignation was effective Dec. 31. His successor has not yet been named.

It is expected that the major program of the organization in 1929 will be to put over an irrigation project. Several years ago the organization spent approximately $6,000 on a survey of what is known as the Clear Fork of the Brazos with a view to an irrigation project. It was reported that excellent water could be easily impounded to irrigate some 90,000 acres of land in Stephens, Shackelford and Throckmorton counties. Soil surveys were also favorable. The proposition will be placed before the body at its first meeting after organization.

Magnolia Well Hits Lime at 3620 Feet

Special to The Record News.

LAMESA, Texas, Jan. 1.—The Magnolia well, 18 miles southwest of here, is now to a depth of 3620 feet and in lime formation, according to information received here Monday. The Magnolia company is now busy erecting storage tanks to receive the expected oil. Leasing activity has increased decidedly since the erection of these tanks.

Million Enter U. S., Sailors in Majority

NEW YORK, Jan. 1. (US)—New York received 1,100,311 persons through the sea gate during the first 11 months of 1928, figures made public today by Commissioner of Immigration Day reveal.

Of citizens, 303,229 entered the port. Aliens to the number of 279,614 pere received, and there were 517,468 seamen.

For the fiscal period from July 1, 1927 to June 30, 1928, 314,000 citizens were cleared at Ellis Island on inbound ships from foreign ports, and 122,808 aliens were cleared. As the quota only provides for 164,000 aliens a year, the commissioner pointed out that these figures demonstrate that three-fourths of the nation's immigrants enter via the New York harbor.

GABOON VIPER BITES KEEPER

Assistant Sucks Venom From Man's Wound

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 1. (UP)—Physicians hoped today blood transfusions would save the life of Marlin Perkins, 24, curator of the reptile house at the St. Louis zoo, who was bitten by a poisonous snake here yesterday.

They said Perkins would have died almost instantly had not an assistant at the zoo endangered his own life by promptly sucking the venom from the wound.

The snake was a bagoon viper, one of the most poisonous of west African snakes.

Acid Stomach

Excess acid is the common cause of indigestion. It results in pain and sourness about two hours after eating. The quick corrective is an alkali which neutralizes acid. The best corrective is Phillips Milk of Magnesia. It has remained standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

One spoonful of Phillips Milk of Magnesia neutralizes instantly many times its volume in acid. It is harmless and tasteless and its action is quick. You will never rely on crude methods, never continue to suffer, when you learn how quickly, how pleasantly this premier method acts. Please let it show you—now.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 25c and 50c a bottle—any drugstore.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor, Charles H. Phillips, since 1875.—Adv.

INSURANCE MAN DIES IN DUEL

Adversary Wounded When Pair Shoot It Out

ATLANTA, Jan. 1. (AP)—A coroner's jury today returned a verdict that B. T. Wilkinson, insurance man who was shot and killed in a struggle with C. Graham Green, official of a mortgage firm in the latter's office here yesterday, was slain by Green and that the case was justified homicide.

Green, who was wounded, was found by the coroner's jury to have fired at Wilkinson in self defense.

"We, the jury, find that B. T. Wilkinson came to his death from wounds inflicted by C. Graham Green," said the verdict. "We further find that Green fired in self defense."

The shooting occurred when Wilkinson called on Green concerning an application he had submitted for a loan from the mortgage concern. In a statement to the police Green said that after Wilkinson had shot him he grappled with him for his pistol and that in the struggle his adversary turned the gun on himself.

Lone Star Hits New Oil Sand Near Breckenridge

Special to The Record News

BRECKENRIDGE, Texas, Jan. 1.—The R. A. Lisles No. 1, Lone Star Gas company deep oil test about 14 miles west and south of Breckenridge, has struck a new oil sand for that section at a depth around 3690 feet. Oil rose in the hole the latter part of the week and lacked only sufficient gas pressure to make a gusher, according to reports coming from the area.

The States Oil corporation of Eastland has a deep test about 17 miles south of Breckenridge and about three miles east of the Lone Star company's Lisles No. 1. It is down to a depth of approximately 3720 feet.

LOUBET IS 90

PARIS, Jan. 1. (UP)—Emile Loubet, president of France from 1899 to 1906, celebrated his 90th birthday at the home of his son, Paul, in Montelimar yesterday. Three other former presidents of the republic are still living. Premier Poincare and Alexander Millerand are still active in politics and former President Fallieres is engaged in the grape business near Bordeaux.

43 KILLED IN FIGHT

BENGHAZI, Barka, Tripoli, Jan 1. (UP)—A violent skirmish in which 43 men were killed was reported today from Shaabi, where Eritrean troops clashed with Senussite rebels. The rebels were defeated and pursued. They left 40 dead on the field. Three men in the Italian colored troops were killed and 10 wounded.

PEAK HIKERS REACH SUMMIT

Adaman Club Atop Pike's Peak for Celebration

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo Jan. 1. (INS)—Colorado Springs and the Adaman club have their own way of celebrating the coming of a new year, and despite the most unfavorable weather in six years, their plans were carried out atop Pikes Peak early today.

Members of the Adaman club started hiking to the top of the peak Sunday with provisions and fireworks strapped to their backs. They reached the summit late Monday afternoon. At midnight, they ushered in the new year with a display of fireworks.

One of the powerful flares that was sent out over the valley below was dedicated to the late Roald Amundsen who lost his life in attempting a rescue of the Arctic region. Amundsen was an honorary member of the club.

Despite a heavy fog that blanketed Monument valley, thousands of watchers who braved the cold winter streets of Colorado Springs were able to witness the fireworks display.

During 1927 production of crude petroleum in the United States was 901,129,000 barrels.

How Doctors Treat Colds and the Flu

To break up a cold overnight or to cut short an attack of grippe, influenza, sore throat or tonsilitis, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the purified and refined calomel compound tablet that gives you the effects of calomel and salts combined, without the unpleasant effects of either.

One or two Calotabs at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, work or pleasure. Next morning your cold has vanished, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please—no danger.

FLU

Is Now Epidemic!

Compared with 1918, this epidemic, so far, is mild; and yet, in spite of vastly increased capacity, the Vicks laboratories are once more operating night and day to meet the emergency demand for more and more Vicks VapoRub. Over 432,000 jars now being produced daily.

How Best To Use Vicks VapoRub

1. AS A PREVENTIVE

Several times a day, insert Vicks up the nostrils. Also melt a little night and morning in a bowl of boiling water and inhale the steaming medicated vapors. This helps to ward off germ-infection.

2. IF A COLD STARTS

If possible, go home and go to bed. Take a laxative and a hot lemonade. Apply hot wet towels over throat and chest until the skin is thoroughly reddened. Then rub vigorously with Vicks. Spread on thickly and cover with warm flannel. Leave the bed-covering loose, so that the vapors, released by the body-warmth, may be freely inhaled. At the same time, Vicks acts through the skin like a poultice.

Repeat this treatment every four hours, eat lightly, and stay in bed until the cold is broken. Complete rest helps the body throw off the cold more quickly.

3. AFTER A FLU ATTACK

Physicians advise that the chief danger in this epidemic is after influenza. Then, more than ever, colds attacking the weakened system may lead to bronchitis, sinus-trouble or pneumonia. This is especially true of children or old folks.

Heed even the slightest cold as a danger signal. Vicks is especially valuable here, because it is applied externally, and so can be used freely, as often as needed, without upsetting delicate digestions, as too much "dosing" is so apt to do.

'DRY' ROW GOES MERRILY FORTH

Both Sides to Use Strategy During 1929

By ALFRED P. RECK
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—The merry battle of the wets and drys—battle of millionaire arrayed against millionaire—holds forth great promises for the new year with no sign of a let down on either side.

All indications point to a struggle well worth watching from ringside seats with a golden stream of dollars pouring in and out of the prohibition and anti-prohibition headquarters.

Money Aplenty

Neither side is talking small change. The Anti-Saloon league, which operated its newly created educational bureau on a million dollar budget this year, declares there will be no decrease in funds nor activities in 1929. And it appears the dry cause will not lack the necessary dollars as long as the Standard Oil continues to pay dividends to John D. Rockefeller Jr., and the chain stores to S. S. Kresge.

The association against the prohibition amendment likewise has girded its loins for the fray and announced a $100,000 appropriation for research alone in 1929. On this side of the fence are such millionaires as Pierre S. Dupont, the Delaware capitalist; Gen. W. W. Atterbury, president of the Pennsylvania railroad; John J. Raskob, formerly of General Motors and more recently the campaign manager of Gov. Alfred E. Smith, and Edward S. Harkness, the multi-millionaire philanthropist of Boston.

Both Well Equipped

From the side lines it appears to be a question of maneuvers, strategy and dollars.

Both the pros and antis have the wisdom and the necessary wherewith-all.

The Anti-Saloon league will attempt to out-general the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment in 1929.

"We have changed our tactics to meet those of the association and we believe we can out-maneuver the wets in the coming year," one league official told the United Press.

President indications are that the greatest part of the wet-dry struggle next year will be devoted to propaganda and education of the public.

The league is now operating a well organized publicity and educational bureau under the leadership of Ernest H. Cherrington from a well-appointed suite of offices in a hotel resting in the shadow of the capitol dome.

The association is operating under the guidance of Henry H. Curran, one-time Republican candidate for mayor of New York and former immigration commissioner at Ellis Island. Curran promises to reveal to the public the results of the $100,000 research survey.

Alleged Killer's Infant Finds Permanent Home

CHICAGO, Jan. 1. (INS)—Betty Ann Zalis, five-weeks old infant of Mrs. Anna Zalis, declared insane after a murder trial in which it was alleged she murdered her first baby because it "cried too much," has found a permanent home.

A judge here ruled that the baby could accompany the mother to the Elgin state insane asylum, bringing forth a storm of protest which was ended only when the head of the institution declared he had no facilities for taking care of the infant.

Mrs. H. W. Hartough said today she would adopt the baby which has been cared for by an infant protective society.

Mexican Legate Named Minister of Commerce

MEXICO, Jan. 1. (INS)—Ramon Denegri, Mexican minister to Germany, today was named minister of commerce and labor in the Mexican cabinet, succeeding Jose Manuel Puig Cabaurane. He was formerly minister of agriculture and has also held the post as consul general for the Mexican government in New York.

Von Hindenburg Reveals Bitterness Of People Over Rhine Occupation

High German Officials Express Disapproval of "Foreign Yoke" Imposed on Fatherland

BERLIN, Jan. 1. (AP)—President Paul von Hindenburg and Chancellor Hermann Mueller made today's official new year reception the occasion for telling the diplomatic representatives of two score nations that the German people feel entitled to a full measure of liberty.

Chancellor Mueller used the term "foreign yoke" in referring to the occupied Rhineland provinces and the president said that his countrymen were "very bitter because a great part of their country still lacks the liberty which we claim through divine and human right."

High Officials Attend

The function at which these expressions were given was attended by the diplomatic corps, the federal cabinet, members of the reichstag and reichsrate, chiefs of the army and navy, heads of the Federal railways and the Reichsbank, and officers of the Prussian provincial government. The president exchanged felicitations with, and had a personal word for, each guest.

It was in replying to the formal greetings of the diplomatic corps that the president spoke of the bitter feeling in Germany. He also said:

"Germany hopes, despite grave disappointments, that the new year will witness restoration to us of full self determination. Ideals of peace and the progress of mankind can be thoroughly developed only by free peoples."

Efforts Pledged

The chancellor, addressing the president on behalf of the government, pledged unceasing work "until the Rhine, the Star and the Palatinate shall be liberated from the foreign yoke."

He said that the forthcoming study of reparations involved a question which was "decisively important" for Germany and he hoped that the negotiations would bring the nations involved in the world war nearer the complete liquidation of the costs of that conflict.

"Only after this tremendous problem has been solved," he said, "can an era of strained relations remaining from war be removed and an era of really trustful relations between ourselves and all our neighbors be made possible. Without this, the foundations of real peace can not be laid."

AT CROSSROADS

Absolute Equality or Intellectual Aristocracy of Man Looms

NEW YORK, Jan. 1. (UP)—Mankind is at a crossroads and either will proceed toward absolute equality among men or toward the establishment of a small group of intellectual aristocrats who will rule the world, in the opinion of Alfred J. Lotka, head of the statistical bureau of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company.

Lotka expressed that view in an address before the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

One fork of the crossroads will lead to a civilization where there will be a vast majority of workers of stunted mental growth, Lotka said.

The other road leads to "mass production, rightly conducted, which should yield us a surplus of leisure. What is needed is a better investment of our collective leisure."

Chicago's First Bomb Of New Year Hits Shop

CHICAGO, Jan. 1. (INS)—The first bomb of the new year in Chicago was hurled today at the "coffee shop" of Gus Fragis. Because of faulty construction the bomb exploded with only a puff and merely shattered the front window.

The attack was laid by police to labor trouble.

Girls Get More Mail Than Boys at T. C. U.

FORT WORTH, Jan. 1. (AP)—Although there are more boys enrolled in T. C. U. than girls, co-eds receive three times as much mail as their boy friends, according to Lloyd Gibson, T. C. U. postmaster. The larger part of the 900 or so letters received daily at the postoffice are for girl students.

"About 75 per cent of these seem to be pertaining to heart affairs, Gibson said. "Letters from A. and M. were greatly increased after our visit with the cadets. One girl set a record when she got 23 letters from A. and M. in one day."

About 40 daily newspapers come to T. C. U. and the postoffice receives an average of 50 parcels a day.

Trappers Cause Increase In Texas Land Values

SAN ANGELO, Texas, Jan. 1. (AP)—Lands in several West Texas counties have increased more than one-half in price due to activities of trappers engaged in the extermination of predatory animals, is the belief of C. R. Landon, director of predatory animal activities in Texas.

Eighty paid men are now engaged in the work as compared with 11 previously employed.

CHIC CHERIE — Latest Fashions

Of course, New Year's Eve was hectic and New Year's day was busy and we hesitate to tell you how late in the morning of the third day this is. We don't want you to think they are completely lazy. Added to other things these garments are no incentive to an outdoor life. Sue's pajama ensemble is of black and white satin with a tight little bodice and a three-quarter length coat. Dina's set of pajamas and coat is of flat crepe with the bottoms of the trousers, the edge of the coat and the hem of the jumper finished in points. Cherie's is of crepe trimmed with faggotting and made with a short blouse that has a normal waistline, blouses which are very new. Dina's is a nautical affair with flared trousers, a sailor collar and bow tie. Made of white and black crepe. Cherie's are frillier. Of pink silk crepe with Margot lace for a vest-front and to edge the bottoms of the trousers and adorn the belt. At least, the lace on the belt must be meant for adornment because did you ever see anything more fantastically useless than those pockets?

Cherie Says: "What with the new styles in sleeping garments there's no excuse for losing one's beauty sleep."

Whatever the calendar may say, this is the shortest day in the year. Also the day on which Cherie carries out her New Year's resolution to go to bed early. Both she and Dina display for your information, sleeping pajamas with tucked-in

Money Problem Is Most Potent Source of All Family Discord

Much of Wear and Tear of Family Discord Could Be Eliminated if Wife Were Given Regular Household and Personal Allowance and Taught How to Use It.

There is no other such potent source of domestic discord as the money question. In many households the husband and wife fight over every nickel like dogs over a bone, and family scraps come as cheaply as three for a quarter. Not religion, nor politics, nor infidelity, nor drink inspire as many conflicts, nor provoke as bitter criminations and recriminations as do the monthly bills.

Tune in on any anvil chorus where men are knocking matrimony and you will find that the burden of their lamentation is that their wives cost them more than they expected them to. Listen at the keyhole when women are holding a lodge of sorrow because marriage isn't what they thought it was going to be, and you will discover that their chief grievance is that they never have a nickel of their own and have to ask hubby even for carfare.

It is not strange that husbands and wives should quarrel over money, considering that human nature is what it is. It is hard for a man to see the money that he works so hard for going to the butcher and baker and candlestick maker instead of being spent on luxuries for himself. It is hard for the woman, who slaves for her family as no hireling would ever do, never to get one cent of the money she earns as her just wage. Also it is a nerve-racking experience for both parties to try to stretch a flivver income over limousine tastes and habits, so it is no wonder that the dollar mark is so often the sign of the family mixup.

Undoubtedly, if homes could be run on hot air, and if Paris frocks and imported hats and silk stockings grew on wives as feathers do on chickens, it would go a long way toward preserving a man's illusions about his wife. Likewise, it would enable a wife to continue to visualize her husband as the Prince Charming of her girlish dreams if she wasn't so often forced to see him as a tight-wad who apparently begrudged her her board and keep.

However, life is as it is. Even love's young dream has a pricetag attached to it. Rent and food and clothes and gasoline all have to be paid for, and this makes the money question one that husbands and wives have to consider at every turn. For no family can exist without money, and no family can be happy that is always quarreling over money.

Such being the case, it has always seemed to me that the most just way to settle the problem, and the way in which there would be the least friction, was for the husband to make the wife a definite allowance for the household and another for her own personal use.

It has seemed to me that this would eliminate the daily wifely chorus of "Gimme, gimme, gimme. Have you got? Can you let me have?" that turns millions of breakfast tables into a battleground and that gets on a man's nerves and starts the day off wrong with him.

It would save the wife from the humiliation of having continually to rattle her tincup and beg for a dime like a mendicant. It would establish her status as a working partner, entitled to her share of the money she helps make. Also, it would enable her to run her house and do her shopping more economically and intelligently, because she would know what capital she was working on, instead of guessing at what was a legitimate expenditure and what rank extravagance.

Naturally, there are two sides to the domestic financial question, and a very intelligent man explains to me the reason why many husbands find it impossible to give their wives allowances. He says it is because the wives regard the household allowance as just extra spending money, and they blow it in on foolishness instead of paying the bills with it.

That was this man's experience. He says that his wife went on a perfect orgy in beauty shops, among high priced perfumes and toilet goods, and that she was like a blessing direct from heaven to the specialty shops and tearooms and places of amusement and that there was simply nothing the children couldn't have while mamma had money in her pocket. Then when the first of the month rolled around papa had to pay all the living expense bills, as per usual.

This, according to my correspondent, has been the experience of many of his friends; and it is the reason they have to dole out money to their wives instead of giving them a lump sum. I do not doubt that this is true. There are women who have the buying mania just as there are men who have an uncontrollable mania for drink. There are women who are wasters and spenders by nature, and in whose hand every dollar will burn until it is spent. There are women who will always be lavish before they are honest, and when a man is unfortunate enough to marry one of these fools, he can only deal with her according to her folly.

It is a weakness in any man to permit his wife to enslave him to her extravagance, and it is cowardice for him to let her ruin him by throwing away the money that he makes.

After all, however, not many women are morons who have not sufficient intelligence to handle a little money. Witness the number of competent business women who are holding down good jobs. Take note of the fact that the average woman can get at least 20 per cent more out of a dollar when it comes to buying things than the average man.

I wonder how many of these men who complain that their wives cannot be trusted with an allowance have ever taken the trouble to try to teach them how to use money wisely and well?

How many bridegrooms ever sit down and help their wives budget their incomes and impress it on Sweetum's mind that if she spends $15 for kissproof lipstick and an adorable bunch of chiffon flowers that they don't eat that week. How many husbands ever make their wives feel that the prosperity of the firm of Benedick & Co. depends just as much upon the way the wife disburses the money as it does upon the husband's ability to make it?

Men are often prodigally generous to women about money, but they are seldom fair, and they are nowhere more unfair than in not teaching their wives and their daughters how to take care of money.

School and College News

Interest ran high in the classroom and on the campus Tuesday following the annual contest sponsored by the Coyote staff for the favorite section of the high school annual. The contest is to run for a period of three weeks, the voting Monday being for the prettiest girl and most popular boy. The names of the winners of the first ballot will be made known on Wednesday morning through the Wichitan, the high school and Junior college newspaper.

The handsomest boy and most popular boy will be the qualities voted upon in the next phase of the contest to be held next Monday, according to Miss Louise Kelley, sponsor of the Coyote. The week following next Monday the contest will close with the casting of the ballots for the most representative boy and girl.

Studies of the general requirements for graduation and college entrance were made during the 30-minutes Tuesday morning when mimeographed sheets of all requirements were distributed to the students as an aid in choosing their subjects for the next semester. No assembly program was held during the day as the entire time was devoted in making a careful study of course offered. All high school students will sign up for the courses desired next semester on Thursday, according to an announcement made Tuesday by Dean Rider.

Pieria Club Will Meet With Mrs. Hall

Members of the Pieria club will meet with Mrs. J. E. Hall, 2000 McGregor street, Wednesday afternoon when roll call will be answered with "My Favorite Painting." During the business session election of officers will be held.

HOOVER'S SHIP LOAFS ALONG

Mock White House Reception Is Staged

U. S. S. UTAH, Jan. 1. (AP)—Save for a mock White House reception New Year's day passed aboard this battleship, carrying President-elect Hoover, much as any other day during the cruise from Rio Janeiro toward Hampton Roads.

Mr. Hoover, Mrs. Hoover, and Ambassador Fletcher were in the receiving line on the upper deck at the "reception," and they as well as officers and passengers were much amused at costumes worn by those impersonating the justices of the supreme court, the diplomatic corps, the army, the navy, Tammany Hall, the W. C. T. U., the G. A. R., and Sandino, the Nicaraguan chief who has given the marines so much trouble.

The Utah rolled along at a little more than 15 knots with brisk trade winds kicking up a sea which gave her a decided but gradual rocking from side to side.

Late this afternoon the goodwill ship was due east of Porto Rico and 1,700 miles from Hampton Roads which will be reached at 8 a. m., Sunday unless stormy weather is encountered meanwhile.

O' These Women

By LEOLA ALLARD

NEW YORK, Jan. 1. (US)—Ladies with nice voices and an inward charm which shows in them, are to have their day, thanks to the radio.

And the affected ladies, with their beauty and personality darkened, and their affectations emphasized in their voice are piping over the radio and being hurriedly dialed out.

Folks stand for a great deal of affectation if they can look at a pretty face and some right smart clothes. But the "tweet tweets" will have to furnish pictures alongside if they hope to last in radio land.

Bobby Homes ran away from his father in Chicago to try to reach his mother, who was ill out in Iowa, and spend Christmas with her. He was little and his money didn't quite reach, so he got taken part way back when he again ran away and for all anyone knows, may have reached Iowa and mother by this time.

Any mother would suffer almost anything to find out she had inspired that kind of love in her son.

Women served as judges of election in Springfield, Ill., and were convicted of irregularities. Then they pleaded their sex as defense, saying women were not legally authorized to serve as election judges. If that isn't too feminine!

There are plenty of women who are prune politicians. No matter how young in the game they are full of such wrinkles.

A girl in Brooklyn bought a car which she said was no good, and as the company wouldn't take it back, she drove it around town decked with lemons and a sign that read "my $2,000 lemon."

If a woman can have her own way, the methods are often incidental.

A woman "down East" brought her husband to court. She was much the worse for wear and told the magistrate that this same husband had broken a whole set of dishes, hitting her with them, one at a time.

The husband went to jail.

It does sound as if there being so many dishes in a set, that by the time he reached the last cup and saucer, she might have been somewhere else.

Would you like to see the mothers of these pretty young cigaret girls in hotels and cafes? Lovely young things thrown right into the jaws of Broadway, to strut their charms.

A woman in Boston fired her cook last week because she took half a ham home to her family. She discharged the maid because she broke a glass lamp worth perhaps $15. She bought a silk dress and when it split in cleaning, she made the store give her a new one.

Then she spent the evening at a friend's house, smoked incessantly from 8 p. m. till 1 a. m., and dropped a lighted cigaret on a $500 rug, burning a hole clean through to the carpet underneath. And all she said was "It's too bad, I'm sorry."

Don't you love women with a fine sense of values?

A Chicago woman took her young husband to a masquerade ball, dressed in pink tights, a three cornered what-you-call-it, and a big safety pin, and his sparse hair curled in a big spit curl on his bald head. The fact that she wanted to do it didn't mean so much, but the fact that he let her proved that it happened in the good old U. S. A. Do you know of any other country where women are pets to that extent?

Few girls can understand why Florence Trumbull likes being "just plain folks," and doesn't want to be married in the White House. And that's why they don't marry the John Coolidges. But if they couldn't be married in the White House, many of them wouldn't care about getting a John Coolidge. And there you are!

Record News Daily Pattern Service

SLIM LINES TO SMARTNESS

Smartly translating the latest features in dress for the woman of larger proportions, Design 1270 effects the slim silhouette, yet manages to create graceful, feminine lines through the cascading collar and side skirt drape. There is a slight blousing at either side for further bust fullness.

Fashioned of black velvet or satin this distinctive frock would be charming if the collar, vestee and cuffs were made of beige satin. Equally lovely are combinations of brown and beige, blue and beige or two shades of green. Darker colors tend to slenderize the figure.

May be obtained only in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48.

Size 36 requires 3¼ yards 40 inch material and seven eighths yards of trimming.

This model is easy to make. No dressmaking experience is necessary. Each pattern comes to you with simple and exact instructions, including yardage for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

Patterns will be delivered upon receipt of fifteen cents (15c) in coin carefully wrapped. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, style number and size wanted.

Our latest fashion book will be sent upon receipt of ten cents (10c) in coin. Address all mail and order to Record News Pattern Department, 243 W. Seventeenth street, New York City.

Hoover Selections Not Made—Work

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1. (AP)—The growing speculations as to possible appointments by President-elect Hoover to the cabinet and other offices caused Chairman Work of the Republican national committee, to issue a formal statement tonight in which he declared that Mr. Hoover had named no one to advise him on nominations. Mr. Work's statement read:

"I regret the publicity given to conjectures attributed to officials of the party, that has been given to probable presidential appointees of the next administration.

"Those who know our next president best, thoroughly understood because of his very wide acquaintance and independent mind, that he needs no referee to advise on appointments, and that of a certainty, no one has been so designated. Certainly, no party official would publicly express his views or wishes as to presidential appointments, and not at all, unless requested to confidentially do so by the appointing power. There has been no basis at any time for any other assumption."

Daughter Fusses, Bandit Surrenders

CHICAGO, Jan. 1. (US)—Because his daughter complained when he brought home only $18 after a robbery, Louis Springborn surrendered to the authorities today and announced he was "through."

Springborn walked into police headquarters and announced that he was a robber. He added:

"I will not rob any more people because my family does not appreciate it. I always did it for my family, but when I got only $18 last night my daughter turned up her nose. So I want to confess these crimes, take my punishment and start the new year right."

He was locked up.

CAPITAL YAWNS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1. (US)—The national capital yawned its way through the most dismal New Year's day flop on record. It was, to speak briefly, all wet—figuratively, and atmospherically.

TEA AND COFFEE PLEASE MILLIONS

Sugar Also Adds to Their Flavor

Millions of adults enjoy the flavor of coffee and tea as a beverage, and yet there are some who, because they do not add sugar, miss a great part of the delicate taste that coffee and tea should have.

Why do these people leave sugar out of their coffee or tea? Perhaps some do not know what they miss. Perhaps others feel that they should not enjoy any drink so much. There are people, for example, who persist in taking cold baths when a warm or tepid bath would be much more beneficial. Do they feel that they are benefiting themselves by the hardship of a cold bath? Do people who leave sugar out of their coffee or tea feel that they are benefiting themselves by missing part of the enjoyment?

Just try sugar in your coffee and tea if you haven't yet learned how much it improves it. Learn to use the amount that just suits your taste. Sugar is the perfect flavor developed by Nature. It makes nearly all foods and beverages more delightful to the taste.

Coffee and tea are America's popular beverages. Sugar enables every cup to promote happiness by affording individual flavor. The Sugar Institute.

NEW INFLUENZA WAVE FEARED

Second Epidemic May Follow Present One

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1, (AP)—Probability that the crest of the first wave of the influenza epidemic has been reached in the West was seen today by public health officials who scanned reports for the week ending Dec. 29, but the hope was tempered by a warning that such a development only substantiated the belief that a second and more severe wave might follow.

Twenty-four states and New York City today reported 90,000 new cases, compared with approximately 168,000 cases in the same states during the previous week. Officials saw in these reports a probability that the wave has reached its peak in the West, and that prevalence in the entire country would be less for this week than for the preceding week.

Second Wave Feared

"This, however, would substantiate the belief that a second and more severe wave may follow this one later in the winter," health officials said, recalling that the more severe wave of the 1918 epidemic was preceded by a widespread outbreak in which cases were mild as they have been thus far in this epidemic.

Officials pointed out that among states reported today, decreases were, virtually without exception, in the West, while states east of the Mississippi river showed large increases. The increase in the East, however, has not balanced the decrease in the West so far.

Possibility that figures for the states not yet reported would bring last week's total up to or beyond that for the previous period was referred to by officials who also noted in Pennsylvania and New York, two of the most important eastern states, the disease is not reportable. Unofficial reports from Pennsylvania, they said, indicate influenza is prevalent and reports from New York City have shown that the disease has appeared there.

Accuracy Impaired

The possibility that the seasonal holidays might have interferred with reporting, making figures less accurate was suggested by officials who said today's reports would not interfere with plans of the public health service for a national conference on influenza, to be held here during this month.

The principal decreases shown, comparing reports for Dec. 29 and Dec. 22: Montana, from 4,031 to 623; Kansas, from 17,617 to 11,935; Wisconsin, from 14,724 to 4,698.

Statements showing largest increases this week, compared with the previous were: Michigan, from 5,777 to 10,690; West Virginia from 2,640 to 4,683; Alabama, 1,518 to 6,261; Louisiana, 121 to 2,343, and New Jersey, 219 to 584.

Other states reported today for the week ending Dec. 29 follow: Arkansas 2,830; Oregon, 2,007; Idaho, 34; Connecticut, 297; Florida, 541; Georgia, 6,123; Massachusetts, 221; Washington, 590; North Dakota, 1,844; Vermont, 292; Utah, 14; Illinois, 2,637; New Mexico, 2,005; Maryland, 1,048, and Maine, 211.

New York City reported 441 for the same week. Colorado, which was not reported the previous week, reported 2,468 cases for last week. Oregon reported 14 deaths from influenza.

SHIP WAR BY MAIL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1. (UP)—The shipping war between the United States and England took the aspect of an exchange of letters today when Chairman O'Connor, of the U. S. Shipping board, wrote to Sir Ashley Sparks, Cunard agent, denying that the President Roosevelt, now on the New York-Havana run, is a "fighting ship."

PLANE CONTRACTS LET

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1. (UP)—A $1,079,000 contract for airplane engines and parts was awarded today by the navy department to the Pratt-Whitney company of Hartford, Conn. The new contract calls for 136 air cooled engines of an advanced type.

HE SWEARS OFF

Burglar Resolves to Quit Profitless Business Of Looting

CHICAGO, Jan. 1. (INS)—A self-confessed robber made a new years' resolution here today, to-wit: "I will not rob any more persons."

Louis Sprinborn entered a police station and said he had robbed three women and one butcher shop.

"All I got was $18," he declared bitterly, "and when I took that home to my daughter and family they told me I was a poor robber and turned their noses up at it. I'm through."

TWO DEATHS IN SAN ANTONIO

Celebration Costs Lives Of Two Youths

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 1. (AP)—Two men were killed, one was probably fatally injured and nine other persons suffered less serious injuries as a result of New Year's eve celebration mishaps here.

A. H. Copenhaver, 24, a postal employe, was killed when his automobile turned over six miles north of San Antonio.

Domingo Carpio, 21, died from a wound thought to have been received when a bullet from his own pistol ricocheted from the ground and struck him in the right side. Carpio and a companion had been celebrating by firing their pistols in Carpio's front yard.

Gordon Brown, 22, suffered a fractured skull when his automobile collided with a street car.

Bob Underwood received a bullet wound in the neck, and eight other persons received more or less serious injuries in automobile crashes and from burns.

Childress County Women Industrious in Canning

Special to The Record News

CHILDRESS, Texas, Jan. 1.—More than 7,500 quarts of fruits and vegetables have been canned by the demonstration clubs of Childress county during the past 12 months.

Cooperative marketing was started during the year and the curb markets were profitable ways for the farm women to sell their products.

A representative from practically every club in the county was sent to the farmer's short course at A. & M. college, according to Miss Mary Sitton, county demonstration agent.

WAHL FUNERAL TODAY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1. (UP)—Funeral service for Major General Lutz Wahl, late adjutant general of the army, will be held Wednesday with burial in Arlington national cemetery, the war department announced today.

200 Revelers Hurt In Sun Metropolis

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 1. (AP)—One man died, two persons were shot and more than 200 revelers received injuries which sent them to the receiving hospital in this city's reception of the new year.

Eddie Bernal was killed when struck by a hit and run driver as he was crossing an intersection.

One man was shot in the foot and a woman was wounded when she came to the door of her home to watch a noisy procession pass. Neither was seriously hurt.

City Bans Gatherings During Flu Epidemic

LAUREL, Miss., Jan. 1. (AP)—All schools, churches, theaters and places of public gatherings were ordered closed this week on longer by Hardy R. Hays, director of the county health unit, as a precautionary measure against the spread of influenza. He reported the disease on the decline in Laurel and vicinity but advised against public assemblage for fear of spreading the malady.

COOLIDGES ON WAY HOMEWARD

Holiday Recreation On Georgia Isle Ends

SAPELO ISLAND, Ga., Jan. 1. (AP)—His mid-winter vacation on the Sea Islands of Georgia at an end, President Coolidge tonight was on his way back to the national capital.

New Year's day was spent quietly on Sapelo island, where the chief executive and Mrs. Coolidge were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Coffin. In preparation for an overnight railroad journey, the president decided not to attempt anything of a strenuous nature. The hunting trails were abandoned and the chief executive rested quietly at the Coffin home.

Late in the day, Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge, with their official party and their hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Coffin boarded the Coffin yacht, the Zapala, for the first stretch of the homeward journey, through the meandering marshland channels to St. Simons island and thence by automobile to Brunswick where the presidential special was drawn up awaiting the chief executive's arrival.

Mr. Coolidge frankly enjoyed his stay here and acknowledged his gratitude for the hospitality that had been accorded him. In the course of his six-day visit he hunted with success for pheasants, wild turkeys and quail and one morning was spent in a deer drive.

At odd moments, Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge have posed for Frank O. Salisbury, an English portrait painter who accompanied them to Georgia to picture the president for the New York Genealogical and Biographical society. The paintings are now completed so far as the sittings are concerned, but are being taken by the artist to his New York studio where the finishing touches are to be applied.

BELL BOY GUILTY

FLINT, Mich., Jan. 1. (UP)—Melvin Raskin, 28, a bell boy, pleaded guilty to manslaughter here today in connection with the killing of a young student in a fight over a girl, and paid a $400 fine which was imposed. Raskin admitted hitting Laurence Hutchins when the latter objected to remarks made by Raskin's younger brother to Anna Loviska.

One Minute Pulpit

Prepared by
DR. FLOYD ALLAN BASH
Pastor, First Christian Church

"Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." (Matthew 18: 20.) (Note two words "where" and "there.") Christ promises the blessing of His presence to those who keep His appointment with Him. His blessings are at the center of the gathering called "the church." God has a place of blessing for every individual. Until one is willing to go to that place it is needless to ask divine blessing. If one is not where God wants him, it matters little where one is.

"Other refuge have I none,
Hangs my helpless soul on Thee;
Leave, O leave me not alone,
Still support and comfort me;
All my trust on Thee is stayed, all my help from Thee I bring;
Cover my defenseless head with the shadow of Thy wing."

The Day Book of a New Yorker

By GRANT DIXON
(Copyright, 1928, by Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 1—The British film, "The Somme," heralded as the companion-piece of our own American "Big Parade" was being shown at the Cameo theater recently. With only scenes from the terrific battle fought during the World war as a basis, an excellent production was given, one which held the audience in its grip. And most unique was the fact that a so-called "story"—the big thing in most movie productions, was entirely eliminated. There was not plot. Nor was there one needed. To watch the English forces and their German adversaries, to whose tenacity and pluck due credit was given, was enough of a tale to tell. Sir Philip Gibbs, has written glowingly of the boys, "who fought, ate, slept and died in mud." And these words fully described the play. The battle of "The Somme" is re-enacted in part by veterans who went through the horrors of the real fight, a bit over a decade ago. One of the latter shows how he won the Victoria cross for bravery upon the battlefield. It all seemed very real. Especially one scene, wherein a German soldier lies dying among his wounded comrades. His pleas for a drink of water are pitiful. "Wasser"—"Wasser," he cried. Finally a buddy, standing guard at the opening of the dugout, where they are hidden, attempts to make a dash for a pool of stagnant water, some yards away. He crawls over the muddy ground, sliding his body, until he comes to the pool. There he dips a bucket into the mire and extracts some of the slimy mass to bring back to the dying man. Then a shot—and the samaritan is killed. Back in the dugout his pal still cries for water until death overtakes him.

The psychological effect upon the audience was startling. Parched throats seemed to be the order of the afternoon. Personally, I was glad to reach a water-fountain as soon after the performance as possible—a great tribute to the director who staged "The Somme."

Into a B. M. T. subway train there recently came an old lady, carrying a black suitcase, the latter literally plastered with labels, bearing the names of hotels in widely different parts of the world. "Hotel Regina—Venise," "Hotel Nord—Milan" "Grosherzorg zu Mecklenburg—Hamburg," "Vier Jahres-Zeiten—Munchen," "Hotel Adlon—Berlin"—these were some of those represented upon the bag. While the latter expressed adventure of a high sort, the lady carrying it appeared to be the extreme opposite in type—a sweet-faced, meek-appearing little person. A merry twinkle in her eye showed that she appreciated the paradox thus presented. The two chaps, seated across from her, did lots of wondering and the lady knew it. Finally she leaned across the aisle and with a delightful smile, whispered:

"I know what you are thinking. You are wondering whether I am a globe trotter. No, I'm not—I'm simply the victim of a scallawag nephew of mine who got hold of these stickers in some way and plastered them all over the only traveling bag which I possess."

Today in Texas History

JANUARY 1

1793—The Alamo mission was secularized when the Bishop of Monterey directed church records to be given to the curate of San Antonio.

1874—Jefferson in Marion county was the fourth largest town in the state and boasted 10,000 inhabitants.

1898—Death of Governor Lawrence Sullivan Ross at Bryan.

1899—Hon. H. Clay Pleasants and wife were visiting Cuero relatives.

1913—Earl B. Mayfield became railroad commissioner.

Waiting For Hoover

A DISPATCH from Washington indicates that the political gentry are experiencing sharp forms of chills and fever as they try to dope out the manner in which President-elect Hoover will distribute the many jobs that are his to offer.

Former presidents-elect, it seems, were politicians themselves and could be gauged more or less accurately. They would "listen to reason;" their sense of obligation to loyal workers could be counted on to insure a proper distribution of the plums. But Mr. Hoover isn't a politician—and the politicians are terribly afraid that some of them are going to get let down with a thump.

And somehow, the thought that that is exactly what may happen, fills us with an unholy glee.

Spain's Revival

IT might interest you to know that Spain is undergoing a cultural and industrial revival right now that may eventually restore it to a leading position among European nations. And oddly enough, America is in large part responsible.

American machinery and American commercial methods, gaining popularity in Spain every day, are working a transformation in the country. The old sluggish lethargy that dropped Spain to the rank of "second-class powers" is vanishing. Spain is becoming progressive.

It would be very strange if the United States, which killed the last trace of Spain's once mighty new world empire, should help bring Spain back to her former eminence among the peoples of Europe. But it may well happen.

Sleeper Buses

WHILE aviation enthusiasts continue to lay plans for transcontinental train service, the motorbus people are quietly going ahead and making the task of crossing the continent by bus much more pleasant and comfortable.

Sleeping-car buses are now coming into service on the long transcontinental run. Furthermore, the bus line operators report that business is picking up. For all the fact that the bus is noisier, bumpier and slower than the railroad train, it seems to be finding an increasing measure of public favor.

It is cheaper—and the American, despite a lot of loose talk about his love for luxuries, is a bargain hunter.

Just how much the growing airplane business is going to worry the railroad executives is doubtful; but it looks as if the interstate bus lines are going to provide plenty of it.

Our War With Japan

WE HAVEN'T heard quite so much in recent years about that American-Japanese war that was accepted as inevitable a short time ago. Somehow, the impression seems to be gaining that the Japanese sincerely want to be friendly.

A little dispatch from Tokio the other day told how the new mikado reviewed his fleet. In the line of 180 fighting ships were eight "capital ships"—battleships and battle cruisers armed with huge guns. They made a magnificent, warlike spectacle.

But in 1919 the late mikado reviewed his fleet, and there were 21 capital ships in line. All but eight have been scrapped under the Washington treaty. It does look as if Japan really meant her protestations of friendship. No nation with hostile designs would throw away 13 battleships.

The Chinese Market

AN ARTICLE in the current Magazine of Wall Street emphasizes the enormous potentialities of the Chinese market as a field for American exporters.

There are 400,000,000 people in China. The vast majority of these people, at present, use almost nothing that does not come from their own vicinity. But the new regime in China, seeking to rehabilitate the country, have great plans for raising its economic level. They are now projecting a $10,000,000 road building program, and hope it will be merely the first step in a general awakening.

It is easy to figure out the tremendous demand for goods that will come if these 400,000,000 Chinese are lifted even slightly in the economic scale. American industrialists who are prompt in cultivating the Chinese field stand to reap huge dividends a few years from now.

Herbert Kaufman's Daily Editorial

WHERE'S YOUR SPARE?

NECESSITY makes inventors of us all. When she can't turn a corner corner she turns a new trick.

The stifled tree twists to the sun. Thin-skinned nuts protect themselves with thorny burrs. And the stodgy, helpless porcupine had to develop barbed quills or willy-nilly answer the nearest dinner-bell.

Bottom-feeding fish take color from the slime, and those which haunt the reefs simulate the shades of coral.

Creatures that don't adjust themselves to circumstances disappear.

Which accounts for nest-building toads.

If snakes weren't striped or mottled in conformation with background, kites and eagles would long since have extirpated small serpents.

There's a reason for every variation of horn and antler, shape of tooth and tusk, and coloration of animals and birds.

The rhinoceros had the choice of thickening his pelt or sharpening his senses. His hearing and eyesight are so poor that any beast can jump him at leisure.

But all fangs break on his plate armor. So minor vulnerabilities don't bother him.

The price of survival is adaptability.

Man's structure, complexion and instincts alter with environment.

The negro's pigmentation is a tropical necessity. And the Eskimo's fat blanket a frost-shield.

Nature regularly corrects her plans to fit conditions.

So must you, or be caught napping by the shifts and drifts of economics.

Business is threatened by the efficiencies it does not anticipate.

And each craft has an automatic rival in the offing, preparing to invade the manual field and do the same work in less time and at less cost.

Opportunity hunters must carry extra cartridges.

The concern or individual without a side line in reserve, like the car without a spare tire, is out of the running at the first blowout.

Look around, and look ahead. Progress will get you if you don't watch out.

Trio Hunted After Woman Is Attacked

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 1. (UP)—Police of New Orleans and deputies of St. Bernard parish today were searching for three young men who, Mrs. Emmet Magee, 40, reported abducted and took her to an isolated spot in St. Bernard parish and attacked her.

She was later returned to a spot near her home and thrown from a stolen machine used by the kidnapers, she said. Mrs. Magee reported she was abducted while returning to her home last night after making a New Year's eve visit to friends.

Divorces Gain More Than Marriages in L. A.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 1. (UP)—Cupid made a poor showing here in 1928 compared to the divorce mill. Figures revealed today showed that while divorces increased 6 per cent over 1927, marriage licenses showed a gain of but 1 per cent.

Two Black Crows

MORAN AND MACK

MORAN—Well, slap my mouth, if it ain't Big Boy.
MACK—Well, fill my teeth, if it ain't Stoopid.
MORAN—Press my clothes, yo' is certainly beautiful since yo' stopped yo' bad habits.
MACK—Box my ears, yo' means OUR bad habits, don't you'?
MORAN—Salt my soup, I guess yo' is right. How come yo' got so GOOD?
MACK—Bein' bad is too much trubble.
MORAN—Well, crush my bunions, how does yo' figure THAT out?
MACK—If a man wants a drink he is got to WHISPER——
MORAN—That's right, Big Person.
MACK—An' if he wants to smoke a cigarette he is got to be BLIND-FOLDED.
MORAN—Yo' is correct TWICE in th' same place.
MACK—That ain't th' WORST of it.
MORAN—Don't hold nothin' back.
MACK—An' if he wants to stop stealin'—he is got to give up eatin' chicken too.

Differences Over Rights Of Bishop Cause Split

NEW YORK, Jan. 1. (UP)—Differences between Bishop William T. Manning and Dean Howard Candler Robbins of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine were the cause of the dean's resignation, it was learned today.

Dean Robbins presented his resignation to the board of trustees last Thursday, it was learned and Bishop Manning moved to accept it, but instead it was voted to reconsider it on Jan. 8.

Dean Robbins said his resignation was due to differences between Bishop Manning and himself in regard to his rights and privileges as dean of the cathedral.

New Billion Dollar Corporation in America

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 1. (UP)—The Trans-America corporation has been added to the growing list of billion dollar corporations in America.

Total security holdings of the Trans-America corporation of which the Bank of Italy and the Bancitaly corporation are among the important subsidiaries, aggregating $1,001,307,327.25, according to a statement issued last night by officials of the organization.

Capital stock was listed at $218,389,350, and the surplus at $874,750,400, the statement said.

U. S. to Resist Change In War Debt Payment

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1. (US)—The United States will resist any suggested revision of world war debts in connection with the discussion of reparations.

This was reiterated today following the announcement from Europe that S. Parker Gilbert, agent general for the reparations payments, was now on his way to the United States to confer with officials on the subject.

Reward Offered For Rescue of Canyon Pair

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1. (US)—The department of interior today notified Indians in the vicinity of Canyon Diablo and Tuba City, Ariz., that a reward of $1,000 has been offered for the rescue of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hyde, who were last seen two weeks ago when they set out from their home in Idaho to shoot the rapids of the Colorado river on a raft.

$3,678,974 Bet on Fall Races at New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 1.(UP)—A total of $3,678,974 was bet through the pari-mutuels at the Jefferson park race track during the fall meet which opened Thanksgiving day and closed yesterday, according to officials today.

Bride Wounded By Afghan Bullet

LONDON, Jan. 1. (UP)—Mrs. Carol Isaacson, the American bride who escaped by airplane from Kabul, Afghanistan, while the city was besieged by rebel tribes, was slightly wounded at the time and did not consider the mishap worth mentioning, the Peshawar Daily Mail correspondent said in a dispatch today.

Casually, Mrs. Isaacson—who is much more anxious about her husband whom she left behind in Kabul than about her wound—said her husband had written a letter from the Afghan capital asking about her wound.

The letter, Mrs. Isaacson said, "asks after my wound which is just healing after the rifle shot which I received during the first day's fighting when I was seeking shelter in the French legation. We drove away with the American stars and stripes as a mascot for our car, but this caused delay at the gates of the legation because the soldiers there were not aware of its meaning.

"The latest letter from my husband tells of a new bout of firing. He reports also a significant feature of the present situation in that the wearing of European clothes is completely finished and that Afghanistan is returning to its own national costume."

Architect and His Wife Face Charge

CHICAGO, Jan. 1. (INS)—Maj. Wilbert B. Ashby of Lake Bluff, suburb, prominent achitect, and his wife, Elizabeth, were taken to a police station here today, charged with having killed a policeman when their automobile struck him as he was directing traffic.

The machine, according to police, also struck another policeman, injuring him perhaps fatally, and seriously injured another man, as an aftermath of a new year's party.

The major, police declared, was under the influence of liquor while driving.

Policeman John Sacht was killed. Policeman John Barry was injured and Charles Donaldson was said to have been struck by the machine.

Strength Given To Poincare Command

PARIS, Jan. 1. (UP)—Morning newspapers expressed the opinion today that Premier Raymond Poincare was strongly entrenched in the French government.

Monday's events in the cabinet were pointed out as struts which strengthened Poincare's practically unassailable position of command. It was predicted freely that the premier and his government would weather the crisis which had arisen from the Gazete Du France scandals and from the self awarded parliamentary raise in pay.

Interpellations to be made Jan. 10 were not considered of sufficient strength to greatly embarrass the government where such strong reliance and insistence had been placed on Poincare's importance in the forthcoming reparations discussion.

The newspaper Le Matin said: "The cabinet situation which was previously confused, was clarified yesterday and the government has no need to fear the forthcoming interpellations."

"All danger is past and Poincare will remain in power," Le Matin said.

Bond Dealer Praises Effect of Hoover Trip

DALLAS, Jan. 1. (UP)—The Central and South American trip of President-elect Herbert Hoover has given tremendous impetus to American business that is seeking an outlet for investment, C. E. Calder of New York City, head of the foreign development department of the Electric Bond and Share company, said here today.

"The result of Hoover's trip will be felt immediately and will be followed by much development in South America through American capital," Calder said.

Mexico, he believes, is coming back. Calder said there is political uncertainty at present, but that is passing and Mexico soon will be safe for American investors.

TOO MUCH LEFT TO GOD, HE SAYS

Scientist Says Attention Deserved by Heredity

NEW YORK, Jan. 1. (US)—Leaving all matters concerning the heredity of coming generations to God is an error, Ralph E. Danforth of Chesterfield, Mass., avers in a paper discussed today by allied members of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Expressing surprise that popular conception has it that a eugenics program slights the value of life in family ties, and declaring in his paper that one of the chief objections to eugenics is that "God is taking care of that," Danforth declared:

"Family affection will be needed in future generations to bring us toward that perfection for which we earnestly aspire. Eugenics is making sure that one is worthy of being loved. Increasingly more intelligence is required in our choice of lovers. You cannot leave such consideration to God."

Danforth's paper then declares:

"We do not leave all our courting and lovemaking to God. If we lay all the results and consequences of our courting and lovemaking to God, in order to be consistent we should also let Him attend to the courting for us, with no co-operation whatever on our part. The use of at least the same amount of intelligence and forethought in courting as in the less important branches of activity (such as dressing and eating) is demanded by common sense and by love alike."

JARDINE OPPOSED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1. (UP)—A movement against the re-appointment of Secretary of Agriculture Jardine in the Hoover cabinet was started today by Rep. Rankin, Mississippi Democrat. He accused Senator Capper, Kansas Republican, of attempting to "impose" Jardine on the farmers for the next four years. Rankin's opposition was caused by the agriculture department cotton estimates.

TINY RAILROAD CASE WATCHED

Billions Involved in Decision of Court

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1. (UP)—The U. S. supreme court is opening the year in a big way by taking up a billion-dollar lawsuit, the O'Fallon railroad valuation case. Arguments will be heard, starting probably late Wednesday and continuing through the next two days, on this persistent effort of the railroads to overturn the interstate commerce commission's system of valuing rail property.

On this case involving a tiny railroad with only $265,000 at stake, hang billions of dollars of railroad men, shippers and the consumers—all of us—who ultimately pay the transportation charges on everything we eat, wear, and use. Several other factors complicate the case and make possible a decision by the supreme court without a ruling on valuation, if the court sees fit.

Stated simply, the valuation question is this: Did the interstate commerce commission do right in setting a valuation on the O'Fallon (as it has done on all other roads) on a consideration of how much it would cost to rebuild the road at 1914 prices which is approximately the same as original cost and also the value of lands and depreciation of property from 1914 to the time the valuation was made in 1921?

"From this accumulated information," says the commission, "we have formed our judgment as to the fair basic single-sum values, not by the use of any formula but after consideration of all relevant facts."

The railroads contend the commission should give weight to the reproduction cost of the road in 1921, when the valuation was made. Dollars didn't buy nearly as much in 1921, the nine-mile St. Louis and O'Fallon of East St. Louis, Ill., would have a value of $8,350,000 by its own figures instead of the $850,000 fixed by the commission. The roads' own valuations are uniformly greater than the commission's. The Southern Pacific recently claimed a value of more than double that set by the commission.

The importance of the question is in the fact that the law permits railroads to earn a "fair return" of 6 per cent on their valuation. Rates are now fixed on the commission's valuations, aggregating approximately 23 billion dollars and most roads earn less than 6 per cent. "Present reproduction cost" valuations if put fully into effect would increase the aggregate from 10 to 20 billions. If the rates went up proportionately, the added transportation bill would be from $800,000,000 to $1,200,000,000 a year—a drain upon national wealth which, according to the commission, would make railroad securities highly speculative instead of safe investments, wreck the entire system of railroad regulation, and possibly drive many roads into bankruptcy.

"Rose Marie," Arthur Hammerstein's famed musical production, will arrive in Wichita Falls with a large company Monday to play in the Memorial auditorium Monday night.

Fashioned more in the manner of an operetta than a musical comedy, "Rose Marie," which Arthur Hammerstein produced, is one of the more outstanding works of its kind staged in Manhattan or elsewhere in this country during the last decade. Collaborating in the making of it were Otto Harbach and Oscar Hammerstein 2nd, who wrote the book and the lyrics, and Rudolf Friml and Herbert Stothart, who composed the music. Their co-operation resulted in a work which is notable not only for a well developed story, but for its melodious contents.

In the novelty of the scene in which the action of "Rose Marie" begins, the piece differs from most creations of its kind. The movement starts in a frontier hotel in Saskatchewan and introduces characters who recall some of the dramas of the Canadian Northwest.

The heroine, whose name gives title to the work, is the most popular girl in her neighborhood. Among those with whom she is thrown into contact are Jim Kenyon, a bad man, in love with her. Edward Hawley, an Easterner; "Hard-Boiled Herman," the rascally partner of Kenyon; Lady Jane, the barmaid; Wanda, a jealous and treacherous Indian; village girls and youths and members of the mounted police. The action moves through a night scene in a snow covered valley to a lodge on the upper Kootenay.

Mr. Hammerstein provided inviting picturesque settings in a lavish manner and with such regard for novel effects as help to make the production vivid and beautiful.

Moreover, he assembled a company that did full justice to the romantic, humorous, melodramatic and musical contents of the piece. The principals in the performance here will be Virginia Fox, Paul Donah, Mira Nirska, Charles Meakins, Peggy Pates, Houston Richards, Daisy Gibson, Sano Marco Ross Gibson and Russell Griswold. A large chorus of boys and girls is active in the stage proceedings.

Month of January Holds King's Fate Says Old Almanac

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 1. (AP)—If King George of England survives his illness through January, the people of the British Empire will feel easy. But, until January, passes with the king still alive there will be general apprehension for fear of the worst.

This is the feeling which prevails in that country, John Walker, English electric engineer from Wyandermere, who is visiting here, said.

That the king cannot be considered "out of danger" until he lives through January is the opinion of many Englishmen who follow the prognostications of Old Moore's Almanac, Walker said.

The almanac's predictions are seldom wrong, many Englishmen believe, and its last issue forecasts mourning in the royal family during January, 1929, Walker explained. Hence, there is widespread apprehension in spite of favorable news which comes from King George's sick room.

VENUE CHANGE WILL BE ASKED

Ben C. Richards Jr. Due To Go to Trial Jan. 8

DALLAS, Jan. 1. (AP)—Ben C. Richards Jr., son of a former mayor of Waco and prominent in Texas fraternal circles, will ask a change of venue when he is called Jan. 8 to face two indictments charging forgery, his attorneys said today.

Indictments against Richards and A. A. Crabb were the outgrowth of an election bet between Richards and Central Texas farmers, according to evidence disclosed at the recent murder trial of V. Ray Adams, Bartlett, one of the participants in the wager. Adams shot and killed Orville L. Matthews, Dallas banker and stakeholder, after Matthews had paid the bet money to a mysterious Clyde R. Vest.

Ad Club Hears Talk On Budget Plans

An effort to bring into the Wichita Falls Advertising club new members who will study advertising plans and budgeting will feature the 1929 program of the club, according to speeches made by A. E. Kelly, president, and J. H. Allison, vice president of the Times Publishing company, before the regular weekly meeting of the club Tuesday noon at the Kemp hotel.

In his talk Mr. Allison emphasized the thought that a newspaper strives to handle advertising in such a way that the customer will feel that he bought the advertisement, rather than "giving" it to the paper, and got what he paid for. Explanation was given also of the service which a newspaper is prepared to give advertisers through art work and makeup plans.

C. C. Hudson, editor of the Iowa Park Herald, urged the study of advertising methods by advertisers and newspaper men together for the purpose of determining the best means of advertising, in order that both parties may derive the greatest possible benefit.

Permit Granted For New Cleaning Plant

A permit for the construction of a frame business house at Ninth street and Brook avenue for the Up-To-Date cleaners was granted Tuesday by George D. Fairtrace, city manager.

The request was made at the city council meeting Monday night and the council referred the matter to Mr. Fairtrace with power to act. The permission to build was granted with the provision that the building be placed on the established building line for the community.

Small Boys Blamed For Shooting Out City Light Globes

A personal appeal to parents to do all they can to co-operate with the city in stopping boys from shooting out the globes around the ornamental street lights was made Tuesday by George D. Fairtrace, city manager.

"Parents alone can stop this destructive prank playing by small boys with their Christmas air rifles," Mr. Fairtrace said. "A great many of these globes have been smashed since Christmas day, and the city has received many complaints. I believe that the mothers and fathers can help and I hope they will as these globes cost from $10 to $15 each when installed."

Last Rites Today For Judge's Son

AUSTIN, Jan. 1. (AP)—Last rites of the Episcopal church will be held Wednesday for James Robert Hamilton, Jr., 24, assistant county attorney of Travis county, who died early today.

He was the son of District Judge J. R. Hamilton, who went out of office yesterday, not running for re-election.

Young Hamilton and James Hart were winners of the high school debating championship some years ago, and Hamilton was a member of the Texas university debating team. He was also president of the Curtain club, dramatic organization, at the university, where he received his law degree in 1927.

Chaplain Beck Quits Legion

Rabbi Turns in Resignation To White

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 1. (AP)—The Pottsville "morning paper" will tomorrow carry an announcement by Rabbi Herman Beck of the local Oheb Zedek Reformed congregation that he was tendered his resignation as national chaplain of the American Legion to Vice National Commander Edward White.

Rabbi Beck, who was elected national chaplain at the American Legion convention in San Antonio last September, said he had asked White to place his resignation before the executive committee of the legion when it meets in Indianapolis on Jan. 14.

"When Commander White happened to be in Pottsville last Sunday," the rabbi's statement reads, "he visited me at my home and I took advantage of the opportunity to present my resignation to him.

"Without seeking any office I have successfully been post chaplain, state chaplain and national chaplain of the American Legion. This work makes many heavy demands upon me and my health has for some time not been of the best."

One Killed, Several Hit By Stray New Year Shots

CHICAGO, Jan. 1. (INS)—One man was killed, an 18-year-old girl was probably fatally wounded and four men suffered serious injuries as the result of stray bullets fired by New Years revelers in Chicago, a check late today revealed.

Anthony Caronti, 42, was killed as he was entering the doorway of his home. Revelers in an automobile were blamed for the shooting. Miss Sylvia Stanton, 18, was shot in the back as she stood in front of the window of her home.

Negro Thankful When Court Lops Term to 50 Years

DALLAS, Jan. 1. (UP)—"Judge, I do hope you have a happy New Year."

DeWitt McKinney, negro killer of four of his race, was talking. He had been called before Judge Grover Adams of the criminal district court to receive sentence of 200 years to the state penitentiary.

"DeWitt McKinney," Judge Adams said in a low tone, "have you any reason why you should not be sentenced?"

"Hope you have a happy New Year," replied McKinney.

"Thank you," said Judge Adams. "But have you anything to say? I am about to pronounce sentence."

"I say," said McKinney, "I wish you a happy New Year."

"You have four sentences of 50 years each pending against you," said Judge Adams. "I'm going to let these sentences run concurrently—that means you serve them all at once, instead of 200 years, you serve 50 years."

"Thank you, judge," said McKinney. "Thank you for them 150 years you took off my sentence."

GEORGIA TECH BEATS CALIFORNIA IN THRILLING GAME, 8 TO 7

BEAR'S 'BONER' AIDS TORNADO

Run for Wrong Goal Lets Southerners Score

PASADENA, Calif., Jan. 1. (AP)—Georgia Tech, Southern conference champion, snatched a spectacular game from California's Bears, 8 to 7 today in the twelfth annual Tournament of Roses game.

Nearly 70,000 persons, massed in this green turfed stadimum under the brilliant sunshine, saw the Golden Tornado swirl to an undefeated season with a safety and touchdown. A closing rally by California netted a touchdown in the last quarter and the closing gun saw the Bears starting another offensive in Tech territory.

Tech's first points, two on a safety, resulted from a freak play in which Roy Reigels, California captain-elect and center, scooped up a fumble and ran the wrong way. He came to within a foot of his own goal line before Benny Lom, a teammate, caught him and held him back.

Tech Scores Safety

On the next play, Lom's punt from behind his own goal line was blocked and Barr fell on the ball to give the visitors a lead.

With the score 2-0, at half time, Tech pushed over a touchdown in the third period. The long runs, a 30-yard dash by Mizell, halfback, and a 15-yard canter by Thomason, halfback, netted the points. The try for point by placekick failed.

A sharp aerial attack in the final quarter brought the Bears their touchdown. Lom passed 37 yards to Phillips to put the ball in scoring territory. Two short tosses followed for small gains and Lom again swished one for 10 yards to Phillips who caught the leather behind Tech's line. Barr converted the try for point with a placekick.

Tornado Plays Well

Tech's Tornado played heads up football throughout, seizing every opportunity to keep the Bears on the defensive. On the offensive, the visitors got the breaks but their backfield combination showed up much better than the California ball toters. Mizell, left half for Tech, was outstanding, with gains of from 5 to 25 yards throughout. Lom for the Bears was the punch that kept the Southern players at bay most of the time. Lineup:

GEORGIA TECH (8)	Position	CALIFORNIA (7)
Pund (c)	Center	Riegels
Drennon	Right Guard	Schwarz
Maree	Right Tackle	Bancroft
Waddey	Right End	Phillips (c)
Shulum	Quarter	Breckenridge
Thomason	Right Half	Barr
Lumpkin	Fullback	Schmidt

Score by periods—
Georgia Tech ..... 0 2 6 0—8
California ..... 0 0 0 7—7

Georgia Tech scoring, touchdown—Thomason; safety, Barr, California. California scoring, touchdown—Phillips; point from try after touchdown—Barr. Officials—Referee, Herbert Dana, Nebraska; umpire—H. A. Badenoch, Chicago; field judge—Bill Streit, Alabama Poly; head linesman—Tom Fitzpatrick, Utah.

Boxing and Mat Program Tonight

Popular Grapplers And Scrappers on Card

Battling Sturdivant, that lusty-socking youth who helped make an interesting ring bout here several days ago, is to go to the wars again tonight. Sturdivant will face Kid James in the six-round boxing feature of Alex Ross' athletic show at 821 Indiana avenue.

John Ellis and Lee Meyers, grapplers well known in this vicinity, will tangle in the main event, a finish mat match under New York commission rules.

Black Dummy will box four rounds with Sam Lee. A battle royal will complete the card.

The show starts at 8 o'clock.

Star Plays 7 Minutes; Costs Him Full Year

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Jan. 1. (AP)—Because Otto Pemmerening, Michigan's taciturn all-American tackle, played seven minutes in the first game of his sophomore year—and no more—he will not be eligible for the team next season.

After appearing less than a quarter in 1926, Pommerening went to the bench for the remainder of the season. Five other players substituted at tackle when the regulars were out that year. None of them ever became a regular.

Shields Yale Bound; Eli Net Fans Happy

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 1. (AP)—Tournament play has no attraction for Francis X. Shields, national junior champion, for the young New Yorker is preparing himself for Yale. He is studying at the Roxbury school at Cheshire, Conn.

Yale students who know their tennis are anticipating a golden era on the courts when Shields joins the Eli squad, now headed by Alexander (Sandy) Wiener, one of William Tilden's former proteges.

Malone Defeats Gibbs In Slow Bout at Reno

RENO, Nev., Jan. 1. (AP)—Jock Malone of St. Paul won a decision in 10 rounds of tame fighting with Jack Gibbs of Los Angeles on the top position of a New Year's card here today.

In a slashing six round preliminary Joe Martinez of Sacramento earned the decision over Phil Guerrero of Sparks, Nev.

DAILY DOPE

By LARRY DAILEY

IT'S TWO months before the diamond athletes hie themselves southward to start spring training. But your baseball enthusiast has started sizing up the teams for the coming pennant campaigns and much fuel will be fed to keep the stove hot before the tossers are unkinking their salary whips.

Wichita Falls fans are greatly concerned over the prospects for the Spudders. President J. Alvin Gardner has dismantled his 1928 second-place club, disposing of half that team since the season closed. But the Spudder prexy knows his way about in baseball as well or better than any of the moguls. While the 1928 club was being torn apart he was at the same time rebuilding for the future.

More alterations in the club personnel may ensue before Skipper Jeems Galloway assembles the boys out at Athletic park and tells 'em to be in bed early, and other admonitions that a boss hands out to the hirelings. But the team, with one or two additions, looks like a pennant contender at this writing.

THE HOUSTON champions doubtless will be formidable in their efforts to repeat. It is indicated that Pilot Pancho Snyder, who quit in a huff after the Buffs won the Dixie series, will again lead the Bayou City nine. But regardless of who is manager, Papa Branch Rickey is expected to provide the Houston club with players to adequately supplant those who have gone elsewhere this winter.

With Bill Hallahan, drat him; Carey Selph and Heinie Schuble advanced to major league clubs and other Buffs of 1928 disposed of, much rebuilding will be necessitated at Houston. But again, it is reiterated that the parent Cardinal club doubtless will see to it that the Buffs are formidable.

MR. JAKEY ATZ also has been hit by the rebuilding fever that seems to have struck the magnates of J. Doak Roberts' loop. Few of the Cat athletes who pastimed last year will wear Fort Worth regalia this season. But depend on Jake to have a hustling, dangerous club.

◇ ◇ ◇

THE DALLAS STEERS have won their annual pennant—in the winter. At that, it seems that the powers that be over at Dallas have assembled a likely-looking aggregation and if they will leave Milton Stock, the new manager, to his own devices, the Steers may cut no little ice in the flag race.

SAN ANTONIO will have a new manager and many new players. Shreveport, Waco and Beaumont also have figured in several winter deals. However, these four clubs need more strength before they are to be considered as particularly dangerous.

Del Pratt apparently has accomplished little toward strengthening the Cubs, though he doubtless will be given aid by the Chicago White Sox. Shreveport has much work to accomplish before it is to be figured as a first division contender. Beaumont plans a new ball park and it seems, in the light of activities by the Exporter bosses, that those perennial tailenders may be something more than a setup.

Kid Kaplan Victor Over Ritchie King

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 1. (UP)—Lou (Kid) Kaplan, Meriden, Conn., lightweight, who vacated the featherweight championship undefeated, outclassed Ritchie King of Philadelphia in the main bout of the New Year's card at the arena A. C. today.

Kaplan weighed 134¼ and King 133. Kaplan got the judge's decision at the end of the 10 rounds.

Johnny Erickson, New York bantam, was held to a draw in 10 rounds by Videl Gregorio of Spain. Gaston Lecadre, French lightweight champion, lost the judges' decision to Bucky Boyle of Allentown, Pa., in 10 rounds.

Bigelow, Dixie Slugger, Tours Majors—On Paper

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 1. (AP)—Ed. Bigelow, outfielder for the Birmingham club of the Southern association last year, who batted .393 for the season, is traveling widely—on paper.

The Washington Senators bought Bigelow and then traded him with four other players to the Boston Red Sox for Buddy Meyer, third baseman.

Bobby Reeves, former Georgia Tech infielder, also went from the Senators to the Sox, in the bargaining.

BASKET LEAGUE OPENS TUESDAY

Commercial Loop to Play Eight-Week Program

Play in the five-team Commercial Basketball league will be started next Tuesday night. This was decided last night at a meeting attended by league officials and team managers at Texas Electric Service company.

The schedule as accepted last night calls for eight weeks of play, with games every Tuesday night. Games also will be played Thursday nights the fourth and eighth weeks of the schedule, to leave the fifth and ninth weeks vacant. This is to permit the Wichita Falls representatives in the State Amateur federation to compete in that body's tournament.

Ramsey Is Honored

Commercial league games are to be played on the Junior college floor and will start at 7:30 o'clock.

Frank Ramsey was elected third vice-president at last night's conclave and George Blackerby, who was an efficient and popular official last season, was again named as referee.

Five Teams in Loop

The teams comprising the circuit are Featherston-Hawkins and Vague Insurance company, to play under the name of F-H-V; Texas Electrics, Hub Clothing company and Wichita Falls Junior college and high school.

Ratification of bylaws and rules with no drastic changes from the code governing the loop last year, also was a part of last night's business at the meeting, which was presided over by President Jim Jones. The schedule for the season follows:

Jan. 8.—F-H-V vs. Texas Electrics, Coyotes vs. Indians.
Jan. 15.—Texas Electric vs. Hub, F-H-V vs. Coyotes.
Jan. 22.—Hub vs. Indians, Texas Electric vs. Coyotes.
Jan. 29.—Indians vs. F-H-V, Hub vs. Coyotes.
Jan. 31.—Texas Electric vs. Indians, F-H-V vs. Hub.
Feb. 5.—Indians vs. Coyotes, F-H-V vs. Texas Electric.
Feb. 12.—Texas Electric vs. Hub, F-H-V vs. Coyotes.
Feb. 19.—Texas Electric vs. Coyotes, Hub vs. Indians.
Feb. 21.—Indians vs. F-H-V, Hub vs. Coyotes.
Feb. 26.—F-H-V vs. Hub, Texas Electric vs. Indians.

Bowling League To Open Tonight

12-Club City Loop Starts 11-Week Schedule

The City Bowling league will open its inaugural season tonight at the Spudder alleys. Twelve teams, six of which will bowl tonight, with the remaining fours engaging in their first matches tomorrow night, comprise the loop.

The instant and widespread popularity of bowling here since the opening of the Spudder alleys is reflected in interest in the start of the City league. Leading bowlers of Wichita Falls are on the rosters of the 12 teams and close and excellent exhibitions are forecast for the winter in the sport here.

The league will run for 11 weeks, with each team meeting the other once.

The schedules for opening nights of play, both starting at 7:30 o'clock:

Wednesday

Alleys 1 and 2, Continental Oil vs. Texas Electrics; alleys 3 and 4, First National bank vs. Panhandle refinery; alleys 5 and 6, Spudder alleys vs. Wichita Daily Times.

Stribling Floored But Wins by K. O.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 1. (AP)—Young Stribling tonight knocked out Jack League, Texas heavyweight, in the first round of their schedule 10-round bout here with a right cross to the jaw.

At the opening of the round League knocked Stribling down with a right to the chin.

Baer Facts

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—There is no doubt that the good will tours of 1928 will have an important slant on the affairs of 1929.

Lindbergh's hop to Central America was spangled with friendship and speckled with welcomes.

Mr. Hoover also did very well. But might have done even better if he had pasted goose feathers all over the Utah and made people thank it was a swanboat.

A good will ambassador on a battleboat is something like the four horsemen on ponies.

But, North and South America are now all tangled up in international understanding and our school children will continue to teeth on the Monroe Doctrine.

We had always thought that a good will ambassador was a diplomat without visible means of support.

But the good-willing has been so successful that from now on it looks like a permanent job.

Runyon Says Stribling-Sharkey Go Will Net Profit for Mr. Rickard

Gene Tunney Not Concerned, So Fight Will Be Success, Damon Points Out; Dempsey to Be Referee

By DAMON RUNYON
(Copyright, 1929, by Universal Service, Inc.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 1. (UP)—The king of the cane brakes, Willie Stribling, and the terrible Sharkey man of Boston will meet in the muss of Miama late in February—the 27th, to be exact—just as I warned you at a moment when the voluble agents of the terrible Sharkey man were shrieking dissent.

The muss of Miama will be under the kindly auspices of Mr. George Tex Rickard, and it will draw—mark my prediction—between $350,000 to $500,000, which will make it a paying project for Mr. Rickard.

I also predict that the muss of Miami will out-biddle the battle of the biddles at Madison Square garden last fight night, in the matter of Emerald Cut Diamonds, and how-dare-you expressions. I mean to say the muss of Miami will be a larger, and better social display, what with Palm Beach hard by trying to kill time.

The muss of Miami will be a success if only because Mr. James J. Tunney isn't concerned in it. The last time an optimistic promoter tried to put on a pretentious muss in Miami, he made the grievous error of nominating Mr. James J. Tunney, then called Gene, as a party thereto. The other party was the king of the cane brakes, Willie Stribling, although at that time Willie wasn't a king.

He Was Prince Then

He was merely Prince of the Altamaha, which is a swampland covering no vast amount of territory, and the prince confined himself largely to fighting a guy named Blackstock. In fact, even since becoming king of all the cane brakes, Willie still fights that guy named Blackstock whenever he comes upon him.

Well, of course, the E-flat muss of Miami was a bust from the moment the pale personality of Mr. James J. Tunney, then called Gene, shed its frosty glow over the turnstiles. That was in warm weather, too.

Under the influence of Mr. Tunney's now well known frigidity the clients got to shaking and shivering to such an extent that they had to take to their houses and start the grates going. They wouldn't come out to buy tickets. So the muss never came off.

Mr. Tunney returned north to freeze turnstiles elsewhere, and south to gradually extend his domain over the cane brakes from the Gulf to the Mason and Dixon line.

It may have been just as well for Mr. Tunney, and Willie, also, that the original muss of Miami didn't happen. It is quite conceivable that Mr. Tunney and the King of the Cane Brakes would have produced an exhibition of such caution as to cause the South to rise en masse and resume the civil war where it left off under the old apple tree.

Incentive for Action

As to the encounter between the King of the Cane Brakes and the Terrible Sharkey man in the new muss of Miami, I look for far more action than would have been possible under the original plan. The result this time means something to the winner. A match with Jack Dempsey, I think, and about $200,000. To say nothing of what will immediately accrue from the Miami matter.

The Old Manassa Mauler himself will be present at the ringside glaring at the young men as they struggle under the Florida sun. I am taking the word of the ardent Floridans for it that there will be a sun. There has been some chatter that Dempsey might indeed referee the muss of Miami, a rumor that seems to have some foundation in fact, because Dempsey is known to be working out daily with Jerry, the Greek, a former wrestler, practicing the art of breaking holds.

In fact, I wouldn't be at all surprised if Mr. James J. Tunney, formerly called Gene, is also present at the ringside. It is said that Mr. Tunney is now on his way to what he probably refers to as the states, and which must be quite odious to his memory as the haunt of these awful newspaper men and photographers who refused to grant him privacy even when he was issuing daily statements to the press demanding it.

True, he has been getting plenty of privacy lately. And, true, he would have wound up about the most private individual known to science if he had remained away from these shores. But now, it is reported, he is coming back where publicity abounds, to demand privacy, and Florida is calculated to appeal to him. He always liked Florida, even though Florida gave him the back of its neck the time he was to fight the King of the Cane Brakes.

Gene Will Fight Again

I cannot get away from the thought that Mr. Tunney will fight again. The fact that Mr. Tunney married a girl of great wealth means nothing. Mr. Tunney is the kind of hairpin, I firmly believe, who wants his own money. He can make another million just by devoting himself to a few calisthenics for a few days, and crawling into a ring.

But I will not argue the matter. After all, it is merely an opinion, and only time can determine whether I am right or wrong. We know the Manassa Man Mauler is going to try it again. That is one reason why he will be at the muss of Miami. I am inclined to think Dempsey would prefer Senor Oo-Scray Umbay, the Beesark of the Basque, to either the Terrible Sharkey man or the King of the Cane Brakes as his next opponent, but after all, his next opponent isn't going to matter to Dempsey. Because it will be his LAST opponent.

Some think Mr. Rickard is fostering and fomenting the muss of Miami to further the interests of Florida as a winter resort, to bring a little fresh money to the state. I disagree with that view. I think Mr. Rickard is promoting down there because he gets lonesome and wants company.

Mr. Rickard has a nice new bungalow on Miami Beach, and a big yacht, and several sets of golf tools, and everything calculated to make a man happy. But Mr. Rickard is not happy down there because the boxing writers do not bulge in on him every afternoon demanding an answer from him to the latest charges that he is an octopus of the sour science, and one thing and another.

Mr. Rickard sits on his porch listening to the sad sea waves, and never an accusation of sinister import reaches his ears, and never a boxing writer surges up to him for light chit-chat. So Mr. Rickard conceived the idea of the muss of Miami to get the boxing writers within range of his denials, and to tell them that he never "seed" anything like it.

Like what?

Like anything.

NORTHMEN COP BY 14-6 SCORE

King and Williams Star In Play of Texans

DALLAS, Jan. 1. (AP)—Two whirling devrishes answering to the names of "Battling Blue" Howell of Nebraska and Bob Mehrle of Missouri plunged and sidestepped in phantom fashion today to give a team of Big Six gridiron stars a 14 to 6 victory over a Southwest conference handpicked eleven while 10,000 spectators sat enthralled at this greatest exhibition of ball carrying seen on a Texas football field this year.

The game was staged for benefit of a children's hospital.

Darting through holes opened by a stalwart line, the Cornhusker and his aide wasted no time in smashing through a forward wall that the Southwest thought impregnable. In less than four minutes after the kickoff, Howell and Mehrle alternated at their relentless driving for the former to score a touchdown. Mehrle converted.

The Southwest squad braced momentarily but early in the second quarter Mehrle knifed through the line, eluded the secondary interference and sped 20 yards before he was brought down on the Southwest's 28-yard stripe. Behind perfect interference Howell plunged for a first down, then cracked the line for his second touchdown. Again Mehrle accounted for the extra point.

Southwest Scores

With these two backs on the sidelines, the Southwesterners resisted further forays into their territory and accounted for their lone touchdown shortly after the half.

King's punt rolled out of bounds on the Big Six team's eight-yard line and when Haskins attempted to kick, Bartlett, Texas Aggie captain, hurled his huge bulk at the kicker and partially blocked the punt. Trigg snatched up the ball three yards from the goal line and rolled across under a swarm of tacklers. Love's try was short.

All thrills of the contest, Dixie's last of a lengthy season, were not confined to the exploits of Big Six scoring aces. Late in the game, when Howell was chased out of bounds by Burgess, a crowd of several hundred swarmed on the field when the Southwest player apparently swung at his opponent. The game was delayed several minutes while police cleared the field.

Later, when Howell carried the ball to within eight yards of the goal line as the final gun sounded, several thousand persons again surged across the gridiron, believing a scramble for the ball as a souvenir was a fight.

Littlefield Denies Row

Coach Clyde Littlefield of the Southwest team denied this, however.

"Rammin' Rufus" King, captain of the Texas university Southwest conference championship team, bore the brunt of the losing team's attack in convincing manner. It was King's passing in the late stages of the game that saved the Texans from a worse defeat and when he failed at times to locate a receiver, the big back would carry the ball for substantial gains. Williams was a power in the losers' line. Lineup:

BIG SIX (14)	Position	SOUTHWEST (6)
Holm	Left Guard	Phillips
James	Center	Bartlett
McMullen	Right Guard	Baccus
Smith	Right Tackle	Cowley
Ashburn	Right End	Ford
Byars	Quarterback	King
Mehrle	Right Halfback	Love
Howell	Fullback	Hughes

Score by periods:
Big Six ..... 7 7 0 0—14
Southwest ..... 0 0 6 0— 6

Officials: Cochrane (Kalamazoo) referee; Meyers (Texas Christian university) umpire; Edmonds (Emporia) head linesman; Cawthon (Rice Institute) field judge.

Scoring: Touchdowns: Howell 2; Trigg. Points after touchdown: Mehrle 2. Love failed at try from placement.

SANGOR WINS FROM MORGAN

Joey Stages Comeback To Cop No-Decision Go

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 1 (US)—Joey Sangor, knocked out by a rank outsider, Armand Santiago, two weeks ago, staged one of the greatest comebacks in the history of the ring here today when he beat Tod Morgan, world's junior lightweight champion, decisively.

They fought the windup, a 10-rounder, of the Cream City Athletic club's show at the championship weight, 130 pounds. The Wisconsin law does not permit official decisions, otherwise Sangor would be the junior lightweight champion of the world.

Sangor won seven rounds, the second by a shade and the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and ninth by comfortable margin. Morgan took two rounds, the third and eighth and the first heat was even.

Champ Claims Foul

The Milwaukee battler gave Morgan a terrific beating in the fourth round and the champion tried to claim the fight on a foul. Sangor sunk a heavy left hook into Tod's body after staggering him with several righthand smashes on the chin, and the champion went down claiming a foul.

The blow was right on the line, a fair punch, however, and Walter Liginger, secretary of the commission ordered the champion to continue after Referee Walter Houlehen had halted the bout and permitted him to go to his corner. Morgan went to his corner on his own power and it was obvious that he had not been fouled.

The fact that he was able to resume fighting and put forth the effort he did in the rounds that followed proved that he was trying to get out of there.

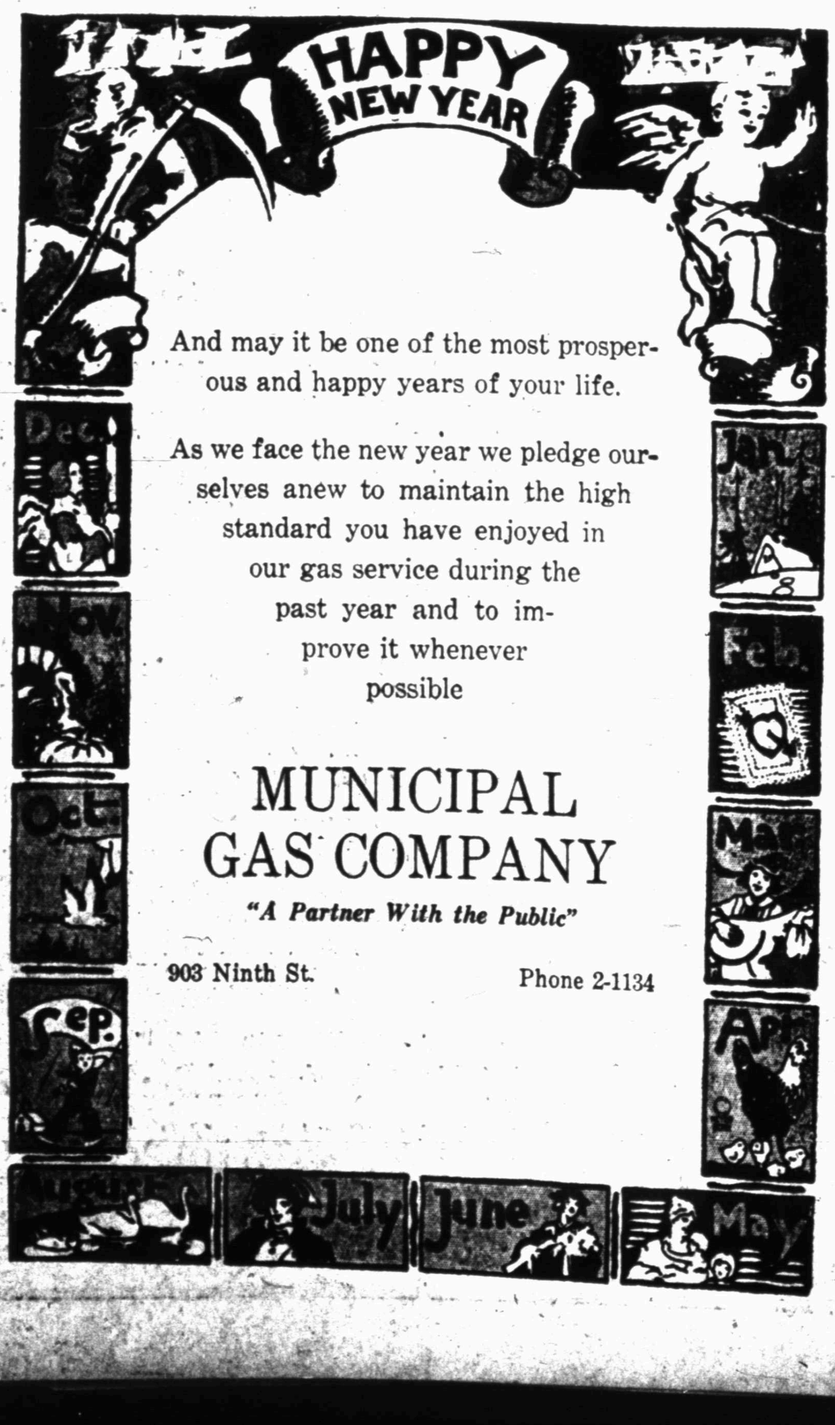

Sangor Is Staggered

Morgan staggered Sangor with a right hand shot to the jaw in the third round and again in the eighth, but was unable to follow up his advantages.

Sangor forced the milling all the way and during the closing two rounds Morgan was on his bicycle. Sangor had Morgan in distress repeatedly, but the champion held him off with his superior reach whenever he was in danger.

Approximately 7,600 spectators who paid in the neighborhood of $27,000, witnessed the show and they saw a great bout.

Commissioners Meet in Star Chamber Session

and assessor and clerk, the court Tuesday ordered the maintenance of the organization already in effect. Sheriff W. G. Bralley asked for another week in which to make his recommendations for appointments and salaries. He explained that the earnings of the office are $5,00 less and the expenses $1,000 more this year, and that he needs time to attempt to reach some means of cutting office expenses. His application will be received at the meeting Monday.

Reappointment of J. M. Isbell, county engineer, Dr. M. A. Beckman, county health officer, and I. N. Jernigan, superintendent of county institutions was a part of the routine business disposed of in the afternoon Tuesday.

A report from E. C. Wilson, justice of the peace from Electra, showing fees collected during December, was sent without action to the auditor for checking. The report reopened the question of the payment of the justice of the peace, the attorney general having ruled against the acceptance of fees. Judge Marrs said he would have to look into the question of whether the officer had the right to accept the fees, and of whether the county had the right to accept them.

Officers Take Oath

The question of the method of paying the treasurer's salary was also brought back into life. Without taking any official action it was the sense of the court that the salary should be paid monthly instead of yearly, and the question was referred for further action at the next meeting.

The ex-officio salary of the county judge was ordered at $200 a month.

The court spent all day Tuesday in the approval of bonds of all the county officers. After Judge Marrs had been officially qualified before Judge E. W. Nicholson, retiring county judge, the oath of office was administered by the new official to the department heads. Judge Marrs, Max Shumake, and Judge Irvin J. Vogel were the only new comers received into office.

Signs His "Thirty" "World's Greatest Copy Boy" Dies

CHICAGO, Jan. 1. (UP)—It's "30" for Jimmy Durkin, "the world's greatest copy boy."

"Thirty"—the copy symbol that indicates to newspapermen that the work is finished—was written on Jimmy's record by heart disease after 35 years of carrying copy in the editorial rooms of the Chicago Tribune.

The longest story in the Tribune this morning was devoted to Jimmy. It occupied the choice position on the first page and ran two and one-half columns long.

Jimmy, christened James Aloysius, was 49 years old and had bossed reporters and editors since 1895. Early Sunday he was stricken on his way home after "putting the paper to bed."

One of Jimmy's traditional duties was to release the reporters for the night with "all right there, gents, if you's clear," meaning they could go home if they had finished their work.

Jimmy had bossed many "Cubs" on the Tribune who later rose to national prominence in the newspaper field.

Race Gambling Cleanup Follows Pugh Confession

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 1. (AP)—A city-wide clean up of horse race bookmaker's establishments came today as an aftermath to the confession of David J. Pugh, former chief deputy state treasurer, that he stole $100,000 from state funds and used it to bet on races.

A maximum sentence of 20 years in the state prison was given to Pugh yesterday.

Bilbo Orders State Probe to Place Blame for Burning of Black Killer

ROME, Miss., Jan. 1. (UP)—Governor Bilbo today ordered a state investigation into the lynching of Charles Shepherd, negro convict, who was burned at the stake in a cotton field between Rome and Camp 11 Monday night.

Shepherd had been taken from a detachment of national guardsmen Monday afternoon after the negro's capture in the murder of J. D. Duvall, prison guard, and the abduction of Duvall's 18-year-old daughter, Ruth.

A mob took the prisoner to the cotton field, tied him to a stake around which wood was piled and soaked with gasoline. The pyre then was ignited.

J. R. Walters, jailer at Sumner, who witnessed the lynching, said that Shepherd had confessed to the murder of Duvall at the Parchman prison last Friday. Ruth Duvall told of being forced to flee in her night dress with the negro. After wandering 30 hours through the woods, she collapsed in front of a negro woman's cabin and told her story.

Shepherd was captured by Miss Laura Mae Keeler, 30, who found him in a cabin on her plantation. Posses had been hunting for the negro, aided by bloodhounds and airplanes.

Little Theater Organizers To Elect Leaders at Meeting Tonight

Officers and committee heads to direct the initial activities of the proposed Little Theater will be named at the mass meeting of supporters of the movement called for 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening at the Woman's Forum.

Leaders who are backing the plan of organizing a Little theater under the direction of a paid producer will present the outline of a tentative system of finance for the approval of the group. It was announced that tickets to the first performance will be sold to the public, and that no memberships are yet to be offered.

A suggested list of plays is also to be read for the action of the meeting Wednesday evening. Efforts to interest all groups and individuals in the movement, and especially to attract the attention of the men, will include the selection of a first play which appeal to the masculine element, it was intimated.

The mass meeting is being sponsored by the drama division of the Woman's Forum. Mrs. James P. Bowen will act as temporary chairman.

BOOTH FAMILY IS DIVIDED

Evangeline Denied Interview With Brother

LONDON, Jan. 1. (AP)—Evangeline Booth, commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, today received a letter from Mrs William Bramwell Booth saying that it would be impossible for the American leader to see the sick commander-in-chief of the army for the present, because it was feared he could not stand the excitement. Mrs. Booth expressed regret at having to deny her sister-in-law's request.

An official of Miss Booth's party also told The Associated Press that Commissioner Catherine Booth, daughter of the general, left the army's international headquarters last evening without attempting to see her aunt, although both were in the building at the time. It was stated that Commander Eva sent a note to her niece asking to see her, but the latter replied that it was impossible for her to do so at the moment. Later she departed without further communication.

This same official said that his chief could not obtain any definite information respecting the real condition of General Bramwell Booth at the international headquarters. He said the staff there seemed as much in the dark concerning the health of their commander-in-chief as was Miss Booth.

News Stand Dealers Silent on Libel Suit

MARION, Ohio, Jan. 1. (UP)—Three local news stand dealers named defendants in two $50,000 libel suits filed in Toledo yesterday by Nan Britton, author of "The President's Daughter," declined to discuss the suits today.

The men are G. A. Klunk, Charles J. Bever and Claybourne V. Hudson. The latter two operate a combination cigar store and news stand and with Klunk, according to Miss Britton, have been selling copies of "The Answer to a President's Daughter."

Solons Favor Oil Lease Action

districts, which originally caused the fight by the regents for postponement of the sales. It was intended that the sale be delayed until the coming legislature could repeal the statute.

Others Favor Repeal

Rep. Cecil Storey of Vernon told The Record News Tuesday night that he likewise would favor repeal of the law. Regarding Robison's action, however, Storey said Robison was justified in calling the sale of the lands if he had obeyed the leasing law "to the extent of advertising for bids only when there was a demand from prospective buyers," and if the remainder of the statutes involved were duly observed.

The state, in asking for the petition granted Tuesday, alleged that Robison had advertised for the sale of 103,000 acres of university land, including the cream of West Texas oil fields, nine days before any demand for its sale was filed by prospective bidders.

Rep. R. L. Kincaid of Crowell also gave The Record News an opinion. "Although I haven't kept up with the problem so closely," he said, "it seems that the lease law of 1925 should be repealed."

STOREY WOULD PROTECT INTERESTS OF LAND OWNERS

Special to The Record News.

VERNON, Texas, Jan. 1.—Action of State Land Commissioner J. T. Robison in calling for the sale of the University of Texas oil lands was "ministerial in so far as Robison was concerned, so long as the statutes in the particular case had been obeyed," Representative Cecil Storey said here today.

Under the leasing law of 1925, Mr. Storey said, the commissioner was called on to offer the leases for sale at the insistence of the prospective purchasers of the leases. "Now," Storey added, "if the law has been strictly followed by the land commissioner, and the advertisement for bids was issued only after a demand on the part of the future buyers, Robison's action was ministerial, and I don't see how he could have stopped the sale of the lands."

However, since the sale of the leases was stopped for him by a temporary injunction Tuesday, Mr. Storey said he was uncertain as to the outcome of the injunction when it is brought up for hearing.

Mr. Storey went so far as to say, nevertheless, that action should be taken in the next legislature to prevent such tangles in the future. This action, he said, should take the form of a repeal of the 1925 leasing law under which the university lands were offered for sale. Repeal of this law, he said, would stop "the floodgates of speculation on university lands."

Mr. Storey also gave an opinion on another problem involving West Texas oil lands, that of filing on vacancy strips and excess lands. In such cases, he said, settlers on the land should have a prior claim, and the legislature should take steps to guarantee such protection.

STATE ENJOINS SALE OF LEASES

AUSTIN, Jan. 1. (AP)—The state went into district court today and enjoined one of its agents, Land Commissioner J. T. Robison, from selling oil and mineral rights Wednesday to the highest bidders on nearly 80,000 acres of Texas university land in West Texas.

On petition of Attorney General Claude Pollard for the state, joined by the university board of regents, District Judge Calhoun issued a temporary injunction forbidding the sale, advertised for Wednesday by the commissioner.

Wait for Legislature

The effect of the order will be to keep the lands off the lease market until the legislature, meeting Jan. 8, can act on a bill proposed by the regents to give them full control of the university lands on the theory that the school thus could realize more nearly the true value of the acreage than under the present lease law.

Another probable result will be suits by bidders for court orders to compel the making of leases to them on allegations that they filed on the land legally and acquired prior rights to it.

No Demand, Is Claim

Opposing Robison's contention that he was merely abiding by the law in insisting on the Jan. 2 sale, the state's petition alleged that there was no specific demand for the acreage when the advertisements were prepared Nov. 10 and that there was no such demand until Nov. 19. The printed lists of the land offered were distributed Dec. 10.

The commissioner originally advertised 103,000 acres for sale Wednesday, but later postponed until Jan. 22, the sale of all except 49,980 acres after a conference at Dilley with Governor Moody who had threatened to call a special session of the legislature if such became necessary to keep the lands off the market. When Governor Moody returned from the conference and said a legislative session would not be called, he related that Robison said he would postpone sale of all except about 20 sections. This angle of the case was noted in the petition.

MRS. LILY DENTLEMAN

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning for Mrs. Lily Dentleman, 48, of Burkburnett, who died in a local hospital Tuesday morning. The services will be at Hines Funeral parlor in charge of the Nazarene church, and burial will be in Riverside cemetery.

Thornton and Kenley, Retiring From Office, Enter Law Firm Here

E. G. Thornton, former judge of the 30th district court, Tuesday made a third partner in the firm which, by his inclusion, became Kilgore, Rogers, and Thornton, attorney's at law.

Mr. Thornton's resignation was announced last Friday. He will be succeeded by Allan D. Montgomery, who is retiring from the same legal firm which his predecessor is joining his home in Archer City since his election as district judge, will move his household to Wichita Falls in the near future, it was announced Tuesday.

R. O. Kenley, retiring district attorney, is also resuming the general practice of law. He will be associated with his father, R. O. Kenley, Sr., in offices in the City National bank building.

Farmer Clears $10,000 On Grapefruit Orchard

McALLEN, Texas, Jan. 1. (AP)—A profit of $10,000 was realized this year on a five acre grapefruit orchard by R. W. Abbott, whose crop was sold on the unusually high opening market.

Cost of producing the yield was slightly less than $1,000, including taxes, irrigation, spraying, fertilization and marketing.

Abbott purchased the tract, he said at $1,800 an acre seven years ago. In 1924 his profit was $3,000, in 1925 $3,600, in 1926 $5,200, and in 1927 $3,000.

PARLEY UPSET BY BOLIVIANS

Representative Fails to Sign Border Protocol

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1. (UP)—Contrary to expectations representatives of Bolivia and Paraguay failed tonight to sign the proposed protocol providing for a settlement of the border conflict between the two countries.

The protocol could not be signed at the meeting called for that purpose at the Pan-American union because Dies de Medina, Bolivian minister to Washington, had not received the expected instructions from his government authorizing him to sign.

After the special committee on mediation of the inter-American conference was in session an hour, Secretary of State Kellogg, acting chairman of the committee, made public the following explanation of the failure to sign:

"It is believed that the substance of the protocol expresses agreements of the two governments. Presumably on account of today being a holiday, instructions from Bolivia were delayed and her representative has not felt authorized to sign."

The delay in signing is believed, however, to be temporary and it is thought instructions will probably be received by Wednesday which will permit the Bolivian representative to sign.

Immediately upon the receipt of this authorization to sign another meeting will be called for the formal signatures.

The funeral of Joe H. Morrison, young business man of Graham, who also was killed instantly when Curtin's plane fell, was held from the family residence in Graham Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services were conducted by Rev. J C. Hines, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Graham.

Funeral services for Miss Betty Clyce, daughter of Dr. Thomas Stone Clyce, president of Austin college at Sherman, who died Sunday night from injuries received in the crash, will be held at Sherman Wednesday afternoon.

Morrison, a member of the John E. Morrison Mecantile company at Graham was taken into membership in the Presbyterian church there about 14 years ago by Dr Gaines B. Hall, pastor of the First Southern Presbyterian church of Wichita Falls, who was for several years pastor of the Presbyterian church in Graham.

Question Mark Remains Aloft

successfully transferring seven five-gallon cans of oil, it brought down the first request from the flyers—a plea from Sergeant Hooe for some fur-lined boots.

Eat Like Kings

Just because the five men are in the air, they are not living on crackers and cheese.

Tonight they dined on soup, lamb chops, mashed potatoes, string beans, celery, ice cream, cake and coffee. At noon they had a turkey dinner, topped off with mince pie.

For breakfast they had scrambled eggs, bacon, coffee cake and coffee. They will get ice cream every day.

About 4 p. m., a "flying blackboard" piloted by Lieut. Roger Williams notified the Question Mark that the night weather was expected to be clear with light northwest winds.

The amount of gasoline delivered to the endurance plane was increased after the first successful re-fueling. Only 124 gallons were sent down the first time. The second re-fueling at San Diego transferred 250 gallons and in a second contact, cans of oil were sent down.

It was 1:05 p. m. when the Question Mark returned here on the first of her many round trips to San Diego. She was half an hour behind schedule, due to the fact that considerable time was lost early in the morning, hunting for a smooth air level for the first re-fueling.

With the big ships only 20 feet apart, one above the other, when re-fueling takes place, smooth air is a necessity. The Question Mark and the re-fueling plane eventually found such a spot just south of the airport.

Dean Robbins Quits His Exacting Duties

NEW YORK, Jan. 1. (US)—Finding the business affairs of an executive irksome dean Howard Chandler Robbins has resigned from office in the cathedral of St. John, the Divine.

In his letter of resignation Dean Robbins refers to "a fundamental difference of opinion between bishop and dean with respect to the rights and privileges of the latter," which indicates to those familiar with cathedral affairs that the board of trustees will accept the resignation at a meeting set for Jan. 8.

Bishop William T. Manning is ill and could not be seen today.

Police Fines For Year Total $41,634

'Billies' Extinct On Wichita Police Force

The fact that Wichita Falls has a police force without a single time-honored "night stick" or policeman's billy club, did not keep police from making 9,619 arrests, assessing fines totaling $41,634, or recovering and assisting in the recovery of 311 automobiles valued at $139,500, according to figures for 1928 released Tuesday by R. M. Hurst, police sergeant.

Of the total arrests only one half of one per cent, or 236, appealed their cases to the higher courts.

Traffic violations accounted for 60 per cent or 5,793 of those arrested.

Drunkenness ran second to traffic violations every month of the year, about 10 per cent of the total arrests being on "drunk" charges. There were 1,053 in this class.

Traffic violations were heaviest in June when 709 were arrested and lightest in April when only 291 offenders were charged. April also marked the month of more arrests for drinking than any other month with 120, while the drinkers were good in February and only 63 of them were charged.

The greatest number of arrests of all kinds was 1,123 in June, and the greatest amount assessed in fines was $4,925 in the same month.

Officer Fails to Receive New Order So Bandits Are Strung Up on Road

By GEORGE A. SCHREINER

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 1. (US)—The recent executive order of President Emilio Portes Gil, designed to put an end to all summary executions by the military, came a little too late to benefit three of the bandits that have made the automobile road to Puebla anything but safe. The order was published Christmas day and on Wednesday morning a military post, located near kilometer 91 on the highway strung up the three, leaving them swing there for much of a day as an example to others and a rather doubtful means of edification for the active traffic there is on the road. The executive order of the president and commander-in-chief of the army was still news to the commander of the small force that has been guarding the road at that point.

Though public opinion here is much in favor of the step taken by the president, one hears also some questioning of the act. Mexico has suffered so much from banditry in recent times that the bandit gentry have no friends. Some of these views, however, rest on the erroneous assumption that bandits are to be tried in the civil criminal courts, whose juries are notoriously averse to inflicting the death penalty. Bandits, however, will continue to be tried by military courts.

Wichitan Pays $50 For "Rudely Displaying A Pistol"

"Rudely displaying a pistol" cost one Wichita Falls citizen $50 early Tuesday morning, but what he lost in cash he made back in the satisfaction of knowing he had the doubtful honor of being the first man to be arrested here in 1929, according to the police.

While the advent of the new year was being celebrated in noisy fashion in all parts of the city, one man in front of the Kemp hotel had a celebration all his own.

He was arrested by Officers O. W. Wright, Elmer Thornton and M. A. Perdue for his antics with the gun.

THREE WAYS TO LOSE FAT

One is starvation, one abnormal exercise. The other is embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. The Marmola way is based on modern research. It has been used for 20 years—millions of boxes of it. The results are seen in almost every circle, in new beauty, new health and vitality.

A book in each box of Marmola gives the complete formula, also the reasons for results. Users know just how and why the changes come about, and why they are beneficial. Learn the facts. KELL RELEASES MILLS JAN. 3

Organization to Continue Unchanged, Says Scovell

Delivery Thursday of six Kell milling units into the control of General Mills, Inc., purchasers, will not in any way alter the operation of the plants as they are now organized, M. G. Scovell, secretary to Frank Kell, announced Tuesday.

The sale of the mills, completed on Dec. 18, goes into effect on Jan. 3, and the organizations at Wace, Amarillo, Vernon and Wichita Falls in Texas, and Perry and Oklahoma City in Oklahoma, are preparing to turn their books over to the buyers. The transfer of ownership will not make any difference within the offices or with the operating staff for the present at least, Mr. Scovell said. Work will go on exactly as if no change had been made. Each plant will continue to operate under the same name used under the Kell control.

T. C. Thatcher, now at the head of the Oklahoma organization, will be general manager of the Texas units bought by General Mills. He is completing the delivery of the Oklahoma properties at present and will not move his home to Wichita Falls immediately, Mr. Scovell said.

The sale involves the exchange of about one-half of the Kell milling interests. The plants have a daily milling capacity of 9,500 barrels and can provide storage for 3,500,000 bushels of grain. Mr. Kell, who has been at the head of the Wichita Mill and Elevator company since 1900, has announced that he will continue to take an active part in the milling business and grain markets of the Southwest.

Health And Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK McCOY

Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

Questions in regard to health and diet will be answered by Dr. McCoy who can be addressed in care of this paper

(Copyright, 1928, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Why Colds in Winter?

Why is it that most of the colds, influenzas and pneumonias occur during the months of December, January, and February? Many people believe that these illnesses occur because of the cooler weather, but scientists are now coming to the belief that the body is less resistant to these diseases when it is deprived of the normal amount of sunshine present during the summer months.

In many parts of the north only one-half to one-third of the amount of sunshine reaches the earth's surface in winter as in summer. In cities the amount reaching the earth is even less than this because of the thick curtain of smoke over-lying the industrial districts.

It is well known that the utlraviolet light, by reaching the skin, produces practically the same effect as vitamin D., which is present in many food substances. This lack of sunlight would not be a serious factor if the diet of the winter months were as well balanced as the diet of summer.

When the colder weather comes on, everyone develops an appetite for the heavy starchy foods, lackings in vitamins and alkaline elements, and these almost invariably form the principal part of every meal. This instinctive desire for the richer foods is made worse because most of the protective foods, such as the vegetables and fruits, are either unobtainable during the winter months or they are sold at such an exorbitant price that the buyer for the family does not feel that it is a good investment to purchase them.

During the cold months people spend very little time out of doors, preferring to stay within heated rooms where the air is none too fresh. You have probably noticed that your first serious cold of winter occurred immediately after the heating plant started its operations.

If you wish to guard against the disorders of winter, you should see to it that your diet contains a large amount of the protective vegetables and fruits, such as lettuce, spinach, carrots, oranges and grapefruit. Also, it would be well not to use too many of the starchy foods but to use a fair amount of the protein foods and a larger amount of the vegetable oils.

Even during the winter months it is possible to obtain sun-baths by exercising in the open in a bathing suit, or without clothes if you have sufficient privacy. There are several institutions where tubercular children play and have school in the snow during the winter months. Some of these are located in the snowy, sunny banks of the Alps in Switzerland and in the Adirondacks of the United States. In these institutions children play in the snow with only a loin cloth and do not catch cold. In fact, there have been many remarkable cures of tuberculosis and scurvy among these children. Of course, when they are inatctive and not playing, their bodies are kept warm by protective garments and furs.

Let these facts be an inspiration to all of us. Most of our sickness results from physical or mental inertia and we should take the proper precautions, not by leading an inactive existence in a stuffy hot room and eating rich foods, but by seeking the active life and eating a well balanced diet. One who understands and really carries out these suggestions, not to the extreme of being a "crank," but in moderation, should be no more troubled by sickness during the winter months than at any time of the year.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Body Odors

Question: Sensitive writes: "In your health column you would greatly assist the hygienic conditions of all concerned if you would drive home the question of personal cleanliness. There are often the foul odors from humans from lack of soap and water. I understand that the persons concerned do not detect his or her odor, therefore it is more difficult to overcome."

Answer: It is not always because of lack of soap and water but often form internal uncleanliness. Even if one's friends do not tell him they often sidestep, and many a sweetheart is lost in this way. Certain odors are associated with certain diseases, but a full cloth is the principal causes of all repulsive bodily odors. The body remedy is diet and intestinal cleanliness.

Wheat Bread or Rye

Question: U. J. asks: "Which is best, rye or wholewheat bread, or rice?"

Answer: Wholewheat bread is superior to any other kind of bread sold in the market. There are very few places in this country where you can secure pure rye bread. It is usually made by mixing a small amount of rye flour with a large amount of white flour. Rice is an excellent cereal but you should secure the whole or unpolished rice.

Vein on Nose

Question: Reader asks: "What can be done to an enlarged vein on the very tip of the nose, which has the aspect of a smudge?"

Asnwer: A dermatologist or plastic surgeon should be able to get rid of the large vein for you. These veins can be reduced through electrical treatments or destroyed entirely through burning with the electrical high frequency spark.

FRANK E. NICHOLSON

By FRED NIBLO

FRED NIBLO

Fred Niblo, the up-and-up movie director, answered the wail of the infant industry after a long and successful career on the stage, which included appearances in the theaters of every English speaking country in the world. It was Niblo who directed the biggest picture ever made, "Ben Hur."

"A man in search of a quiet holiday," so his favorite story goes, "set out in a small sailing boat, his only equipment consisting of provisions and a wireless sending set. He sailed serenely for several days, until at last he sighted one of those liners which resemble small towns rather than ships. The appearance of the little boat created excitement on board the liner.

"The captain was wondering whether it was a matter of going to the rescue, when the holiday maker moved to his wireless set and tapped out the message:

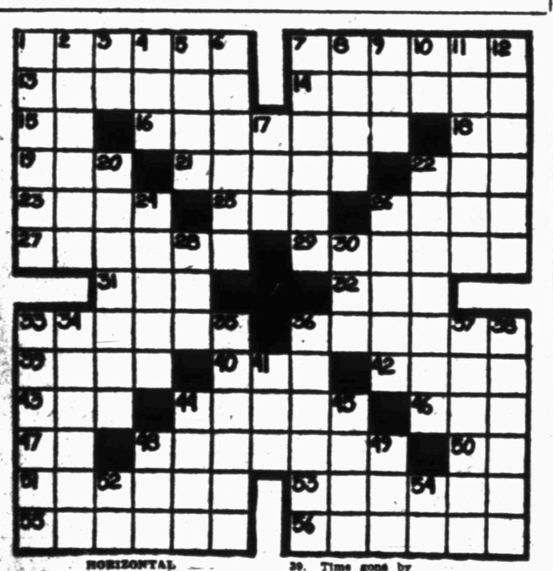

"'Is there anything I can do for you?'"

MISSION TESTS START FEB. 1

Crude Market Outlook Warrants Change of Date

Special to The Record News.

TULSA, Okla., Jan. 1.—The second crop of test wells in the Mission pool of Seminole field, which were to have been allowed to start up, preparatory to drilling, on Feb. 15, may be allowed to start on Feb. 1, unless the crude oil market warrants a further delay.

This was decided by operators in that area at a specially called meeting before Ray M. Collins, umpire for the Oklahoma Conservation commission.

Outlook Changes

When the delay of starting the second crop of wells—two to each 40 acres—from Jan. 1 to Feb. 15, was determined in November, the oil market looked more promising than it does today, Mr. Collins said. Since that time conditions have been changed.

In addition the prospects for the first crop of tests that began on Nov. 15, coming in producers, does not look as inviting as it once did, and should many of these be completed as failures, many operators will not start on the other two tests. Field reports show many of the 76 tests now under way in Mission pool are running low, indicating either a deepening of the producing horizons, or crooked holes. Operators are inclined to believe the latter story.

Kistler Would Drill

W. L. Kistler, independent operator, who owned the northeast of the southwest of 7-8-E, took a prominent part in the discussion. Since the plan to defer starting second wells from Jan. 1 to Feb. 15 was made he has sold a 50 per cent interest in his 40 acres to the Independent Oil and Gas company, and Mr. Kistler has been wanting to start the other two tests soon. He was induced to approve a deferring of the starting date until Feb. 1, and he also agreed to the Mission operators meeting again Feb. 10 to discuss the situation that may prevail then and see what action should then be taken, if any. Some of the operators favor delaying the second crop of wells until May or June.

Under the present agreement the 76 drilling wells in Mission pool may be completed and have a five-day testing on Feb. 15. Should they find the sand prior to that day they must shut in. Royalty owners have agreed to this policy.

PERFECTLY DRY

Payne and Eddleman have abandoned as a dry hole their No. 6 J. E. Parrish test located in S.P.R.R. survey, No. 2, abstract 1004 in the Wilmot area of Archer county.

IN THE OLD SWASTIKA

Madden and Hunt completed as a 30-barrel producer their No. 13 J. T. Richardson test, located in block 7, South Anderson ranch subdivision, in southwest Archer county. The sand was topped at 1306-1311 feet.

WICHITA COUNTY TEST

Bridwell and Mayfield made location for their No. 4 T. A. Womack test to be drilled 605 feet south, 150 feet west of the northeast corner of G.C.&S.F. survey, abstract 796, and east of the Panhandle-Hines-Pandem production in southwest Wichita county.

UNITED PRODUCERS-HODGES

The United Producers company has a derrick up and ready to start drilling on its No. 8 Hodges in H.& T.B.R.R. survey, abstract 139, in the new pool southwest of Iowa Park in Wichita county.

THE COUNTY OF COOKE

Bridwell and Grant No. 1 A. J. Dennis, located 1744 feet north, 150 feet west of the southeast corner of the J. Stump survey, in northwest Cooke county, is drilling at 680 feet.

CORRECT GEOLOGY

The Humble Oil and Refining company No. 1 Parker, located in section 990 T.E.L. survey, Woodson area of Throckmorton county, has been added to the list of that county's producers and is completed with a daily output via the pump of 75 barrels from the sand at 2888-93 feet.

ROCK CROSSING POOL

The Fain-McGaha interests completed their No. 25 well in section 24, block 4, H.&T.C.R.R. survey, Wagoner lands in Wilbarger county, with a daily production of 350 barrels from the sand at 2415-45 feet.

Seminole Puts Out 250,000,000 Barrels

TULSA, Okla., Jan. 1.—The Greater Seminole field is only two and a half years old and has produced a total of 254,421,613 barrels of oil. The field started with one small field and it has now seven fields making a total daily average of 282,500 barrels daily.

From discovery to Jan. 1, 1929, the pools have produced as follows:

Pools—	(Barrels)
Little River	29,916,228
Bowlegs	62,502,622
Earlsboro	70,591,365
Seminole City	72,560,268
Searight	18,002,733
Maud	696,729
Mission	59,774
Total	254,421,613

The production of the field for the month of December totaled 9,630,544 barrels as compared with 8,784,998 barrels produced during the month of November. There were 32 new wells added to the list.

Sunday's gauge of the field was 280,878 barrels from 1,312 wells, showing a loss of 4,649 barrels over Saturday's gauge, but the field revived somewhat Monday, having produced 284,076 barrels from 1,312 wells.

Oklahoma City Wells Getting New Attention

Special to The Record News

TULSA, Okla., Jan. 1.—With the discovery well of the Oklahoma City pool, the Indian Territory Illuminating Oil company and Foster Petroleum corporation's No. 1 Fee, in the center of the southeast of the southeast of 24-11-3w, drilling on at 6497 feet in brown lime, and making 5,735 barrels, interest is turning to the other wells in the pool.

The I. T. I. O.-Foster No. 1 Trosper, in the center of the northeast of the southwest of 13-11-3w, a mile north of the producer, had a second oil sand from 3901 to 3913 feet for a show of oil. The oil was revealed in a core.

Officials of the I. T. I. O.-Foster said Monday the well had made 110,456 barrels of 38.6 gravity oil since Dec. 4. They also said the oil was coming from what they thought was the Arbuckle limestone, topped at 6398 feet. This further upsets all the geological dope about the well.

Location Made for Gas Test Near Breckenridge

Special to The Record News

BRECKENRIDGE, Texas, Jan. 1.—The Phillips Petroleum company has made a location for a gas test about 17 miles east and south of this place, the test being in the Necessity community. It will be the F. J. Christie No. 1, center of the northeast 320 acres of section 27, block 6, T. & P. survey.

HEAVY HENS GAIN IN PRICE

One-Cent Advance Made On Local Market

Slight changes in prices on a number of items were marked up Tuesday by local buyers. Turnips and tops from Comanche moved up from 65 cents to $1.00. White grapes were added to the list of available fruits, listing at $2.00 per lug. It was predicted that the first strawberries from South Texas would reach this city next week.

Hens weighing more than five pounds increased in price from 19 to 20 cents per pound, those under that weight bringing 18 cents. No. 1 turkeys dropped from 24 to 20 cents.

Producers' Creamery prices dropped the quotation on No. 1 cream to 43 cents Tuesday, a decline of three cents.

With the number of milking cows being increased weekly by virtue of the purchase of additional stock and many cows coming fresh, an increase in milk deliveries has been noticed. During the last two weeks daily return of former patrons and increased yield from regular sources of supply has shown an increase of about 500 pounds of milk daily in deliveries to the Kraft Cheese company.

RATES CASE CHANGE ASKED

New York Merchants Seek Modification

NEW YORK, Jan. 1. (AP)—Modification of the findings of the interstate commerce commission in the southwestern rate cases decided some months ago is asked in a brief to be filed with the commission tomorrow on behalf of the Merchants' association of New York and the Shippers' conference of Greater New York.

The brief asserts that under the findings of the commission the rates from North Atlantic ports and Atlantic seaboard territory to gulf ports and to the southwest have been tied up so that no change can be made without the consent of all-rail lines irrespective of territory of origin or destination and that the effect will be to deprive eastern merchants of their business in the southwest.

Section 500 of the transportation act, which imposes on the commission the duty of fostering water as well as rail transportation is cited.

"Obviously," the brief says, "water transportation cannot be fostered if control of rates, which means, as everybody knows, control of the business of water carriers, is placed in the hands of the railroads."

In seeking a modification of the commission's finding relative to non-concurring tariffs, the brief says:

"There has always been hostility on the part of rail lines toward water competitors. If the commission throws control of the ocean and rail rates in the hands of the competitors of the ocean lines only one result can follow."

The brief advocates modification of findings 11, 12 and 27, asserting that unless this is done the regulated steamship lines cannot continue to prosper.

The superstition of lighting three cigarets from one match arose from the custom of having three lamps on church altars in Russia; it was considered unlucky to light these three lamps from one taper and the priests would not do so under any consideration.

Southeastern Haskell County Pool More Promising With Second Well

Superior's No. 2 Reynolds Flows Over Top of Derrick After Finding Rich Pay at 1742 Feet

Special to The Record News

ABILENE, Texas, Jan. 1.—Further evidence that an oil pool is due to be developed in Southeastern Haskell county was given early Tuesday morning when Superior Oil company's No. 2 Reynolds encountered pay in sand at 1,742 feet and flowed over the rig.

The operation was drilled through 11 feet of oil bearing sand Tuesday and is now bottomed at 1,753 feet, with some shale showing.

The No. 2 Reynolds is estimated to be good for 125 barrels a day production. It has some gas and the crude tests 26.9 gravity. This well is 400 feet west of the same owners' No. 1 Reynolds, the discovery well in that district, completed several months ago and now pumping at the rate of 50 barrels a day.

Additional testing of the pay strata in that area is due soon from Shaheen No. 1 Reynolds in the southeast quarter of section 3 E. T. R. R. survey, now at 1,790 feet with a fishing job. This test is due to reach the expected pay around 1,810 feet. The Superior's No. 2 Reynolds is located in the northeast corner of the Antonio Rodequis survey.

Texans to Attend Educational Meet

AUSTIN, Jan. 1. (AP)—A large delegation from Texas will attend the annual meeting of the educational association of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, in Chattanooga, Tenn., Jan. 8 and 9.

Dr. C. C. Selecman, president of the Southern Methodist university of Dallas, is first vice-president of the association. Dr. R. G. Boger, president of the Weatherford college, and Dr. E. R. Stanford, president of Westmoorland college, San Antonio, will lead discussion groups when problems of the junior college will be discussed. Rev. E. A. Hunter of Kingsville will be in charge of conference board of education groups.

Others from Texas who will attend include Dr. J. W. Hunt, McMurry college, Abilene; Dr. King Vivion, president of Southwestern university, Georgetown; Dr. H. Parnell Tells Realtors Of City's Needs

The year of 1929 with the Wichita Falls Real Estate board was given a happy introduction at the regular meeting of that body Tuesday noon at the Kemp when Roscoe Staton, chairman, presented flowers to each lady present, and cigars to the men.

J. D. Parnell, former state senator was the speaker of the day. He devoted his speech to a discussion of enterprises for which he urged the full support of all realtors and other local business men. Further improvement of the highway system, he said, will combine with Wichita Falls' geographic location in bringing a great development in the trade territory of this city.

Mr. Parnell stated that the presence of state maintained institutions in a city is a material aid, and cited the fact that thousands of people annually come here to visit friends and relatives in the Wichita Falls State hospital. These visitors, he said, spend on the average of $50 each in this city.

Agricultural experiment stations such as that at Iowa Park, the speaker said, are valuable agents in providing the relief which is being generally sought for the industry.

Train Whistles Called 'Nuisance'

AUSTIN, Jan. 1. (AP)—Sounding of locomotives and ringing of engine bells at grade crossings within limits of cities has moved executives of municipalities to seek legislation abating the "nuisance."

The matter will be discussed at a meeting of the Texas City Attorney's association in Austin on Jan. 4 and 5, according to City Manager Adam R. Johnson, with a view to obtaining an amendment by the 41st legislature to the state law requiring locomotives to sound their whistles and bells within 80 rods of any grade crossing.

The cities believe it is all right for locomotives to whistle and ring when outside the city limits, but the "city folks" want to invoke the rule of "local self government" in the matter, according to Johnson. They want the right to pass ordinances to regulate the whistling and ringing of bells if they care to or to turn them loose completely if they choose to do so. With the state law now requiring the whistling and ringing the cities are helpless to "abate" it if they decide it is a nuisance, he said.

Four Wichitans Attend Methodist Conference

Four Wichita Falls residents are in attendance at the missionary conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which meets Jan. 2-4, at the Municipal auditorium in Memphis, Tenn., it was learned from local church leaders Tuesday.

J. W. Thorne from the First Methodist, Rev. Patrick D. Moreland from the Grant Street Methodist, and Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Trevathan of the Floral Heights Methodist church, comprise this city's delegation to the convention.

Mr. Thorne and the Rev. Moreland left Wichita Falls, Dec. 26, it was said, stopping in Oklahoma City to attend the conference of Epworth league presidents from the entire organization of Southern Methodist churches.

According to Dr. S. S. McKenney, pastor of the First Methodist church here, the conference now in session in Memphis is one of the largest and most important in the history of the organization.
