130,000 Workers Facing Loss Of Jobs In Threatened Strikes On Railroads

(By The Associated Press)

Three of the nation's railroads were threatened with strikes today, making possible the idling of more than 130,000 rail and steel workers.

Some 30,000 workers are set to quit their jobs on the Missouri Pacific railroad at 3 p.m. (EST) tomorrow. Union officials, who rejected an arbitration proposal yesterday, went ahead with strike plans in the dispute over some 282 unsettled claims involving about $5,000,000.

In Pittsburgh, rail brotherhood officials have called strikes on two inter-plant connection carriers which serve scores of plants, principally in the steel industry. One walkout is set for Saturday and the second for next Tuesday. The work stoppages on the lines would make idle some 100,000 steelworkers.

Wages are not involved in any of the rail disputes.

In Washington, Frank Douglas, member of the mediation board, said the board has "given up entirely" in its efforts to avert the strike against the Missouri Pacific line. The road reported in St. Louis that it had stopped accepting freight that cannot be delivered before the strike deadline. Similar restrictions also woud be placed on passenger, mail, baggage and express services, the railroad said.

Four rail unions are involved in the dispute. They are the locomotive engineers, enginemen and firemen, railroad trainmen and railway conductors. In Cleveland yesterday brotherhood spokesmen said they had decided to make "no change whatsoever" in their

Romance Revealed

Sonja Henie Will Be Wed

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (AP)—Sonja Henie, blonde skating star, and Winthrop Gardiner, jr., socialite and aviation executive, plan to be married a week from today.

It will be the second marriage for Miss Henie, and the fourth for Gardiner.

Reports Of Romance

There had been recent reports of a romance between the two. A few days ago, Gardiner took Miss Henie up in a monoplane for a short flying visit to his home at East Hampton, Long Island.

Announcement of the wedding plans was made yesterday by a public relations firm.

Miss Henie, whose skating skill won her a movie career, has recently been promoting ice shows. She captured the Olympic figure skating championship three times and held the world's figure skating championship for 10 succes-

School Classes Are Forced To Suspend Work

6:30 Alarm Sounds; Tahoka Sends Aid In Battling Blaze

By EDWARD WELSH
Journal Staff Writer

O'DONNELL, Sept. 8.—An early morning fire completely gutted the second story and the auditorium of O'Donnell High school here today and seriously damaged the rest of the building. Only the library, study hall and gymnasium addition escaped the flames.

The damage was estimated at from $75,000 to $100,000 by Fire Chief F. M. Jones and School Superintendent S. F. Johnson.

High school classes have been suspended for an indefinite period.

The fire is believed to have started about 6:30 this morning. It was originally attributed to lightning or defective wiring. It is not known who turned in the alarm.

"When the alarm rang shortly after 6:30 there was a severe electrical storm in progress," Chief Jones stated. The chief made this statement at 9:15 only a few minutes after the blaze was extinguished.

Seventeen of the 20-man volunteer fire fighting force answered the alarm within a few minutes, Chief Jones said. When they arrived at the scene with the pumper truck the entire interior of the auditorium was in flames. The blaze was spreading rapidly to the class rooms on the second floor and racing along the corridors.

Many Aid Firemen

Hundreds of townspeople gathered to watch the blaze and many pitched in to aid the firemen.

Equipment was dispatched from Tahoka and arrived after the blaze was under control but in time to give a final blow to the flames.

The firemen ran out their entire supply of hose, some 1,600 feet, and connected it to two hydrants. Many of the men who fought the flames on the roof said it looked as though the fire might have been caused by a "direct lightning hit."

The O'Donnell high school, which was erected in 1926, was renovated and redecorated this

Crop Of 14,943,000 Bales Predicted; Rigid Controls In '50 Are Indicated

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8—The Agriculture department today forecast this year's cotton crop at 14,943,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight.

This estimate is 138,000 bales more than the 14,805,000 bales predicted a month ago.

It compares with 14,868,000 bales produced last year and with a ten-year (1938-47) average of 11,306,000 bales.

In an accompanying report, the Census Bureau said 1,247,443 bales of the 1949 crop had been ginned prior to Sept. 1. This compared with 1,444,355 bales ginned to the same date last year.

The indicated crop is considerably larger than expected market demands. If it is borne out by the harvest, the government probably would impose rigid controls on next year's crop in a move to prevent a price-depressing surplus.

Controls might include both acreage planting allotments and marketing quotas. The latter would have to be approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting in a referendum. No decision on a 1950 control program is expected, however, before early October.

If proposed, quotas probably would be a reserve of more than 5,000,000 bales from previous crops.

The department reported the indicated yield of cotton per acre at 276.9 pounds, compared with 313.1 pounds last year and 254 for the ten-year average.

The condition of the crop as of Sept. 1 was reported at 74 per cent of normal compared with 82 per cent a year ago and 71 per cent

"Peace Congress" Cheers Rabid Attacks On "Yankees"

U.S. Blamed For War Perils

(By The United Press)

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 8—Speakers at the leftist continental 'peace congress' concentrated an oratorical attack on the United States today, alleging that it had "imperialist war plans" against the Soviet union.

The 700 delegates also cheered blasts at the "warmongering" American press, segregation of negroes and the Catholic excommunication of Communists.

Brazilian Congressman Pedro Basmar said "Yankee imperialism" had taken the world to the "crossroads of war." He said the U. S. had put Brazil "under the direct fire of U. S. imperialism" by using American "spies and technicians."

"Our ruling classes follow the same dream of the Nazis," Bomar shouted in a speech last night, "and in turn follow the ruling classes of the United States." He said the Brazilian armed forces were "under the control of Yankee generals."

"The Brazilian people will not fight the Soviet union," he said.

Dr. Jose A. Lanauze Rolon, of Puerto Rico, said the U. S. was attempting to convert Puerto Rico "into a military stronghold with no regard for the rights of the Puerto Rican people."

Lydon Henry, the only United States speaker, vice president of the International Fur Union of the United States and Canada, charged that negroes are segregated "Hitler style" in the United States.

The congress press committee urged Latin Americans to throw out foreign news agencies and set up a Latin American news service to 'bring the truth to South and Central America."

Enrique Martinez, editor of the Mexico City leftist El Popular, said the "press in Latin America is 95 per cent war-monger, and is controlled by the United States' through the three major wire services.

More Showers Are Predicted

Plane Delayed In Landing At Airport

By BILL CLARK
Journal Staff Writer

A driving downpour accompanying a cold front dumped heavy rain on the South Plains early this morning, and cloudy conditions with intermittent showers were forecast for this afternoon, tonight and Friday.

Wind-driven rain was measured at 1.22 inches this morning at the Weather bureau station at Municipal airport, bringing the total for the month to 1.64 inches and for the year to 24.32 inches.

Plane Circles City

The rain in Lubbock began at 12:07 o'clock this morning and continued steadily until 4:15 o'clock. Low-lying cloud banks continued through mid-morning.

A Pioneer airliner southbound from Amarillo was forced to circle over Lubbock for 50 minutes this morning before it was cleared to land at 8:25 a. m.

Capt. Vurtis Voelkel, of Houston, pilot of the plane, said the low-hanging cloud bank responsible was an unusual occurrence for this time of year.

The Weather bureau estimated the cloud height at 500 feet. The ceiling for commercial airliners at Municipal airport is 600 feet although at other West Texas towns, including Abilene and San Angelo, the ceiling is only 400 feet because the weather stations are closer to the runways.

New System To Aid

Capt. Voelkel said a new instrument landing system now being installed at Municipal airport would have permitted the plane to land on schedule under this morning's conditions.

Meanwhile, as the weather station forecast continued rain and cooler conditions Friday, reports of general rain of one-half inch to an inch and a half were received from nearly all the South Plains section.

At Matador, Mayor Douglas Meador, publisher of the Matador Tribune, said .80 inch was received in a rain that began about midnight with squalls and lightning, then settled down to a drizzle that continued until daylight. The .80, added to .20 that fell Wednesday

Noted German Composer Dies

GARMISCH PARTENKIRCHEN, Germany, Sept. 8 (AP)—Richard Strauss, one of the world's greatest composers, died today. He was 85.

His genius ran the gamut of musical expression from simple songs and chamber music to symphonic poems, symphonies and operas. "Der Rosenkavelier" and his impressionistic opera "Salome" are among his most popular works.

He was a musical prodigy at the age of four and began composing when he was six. At 12 his opus No. 1, a "Festmarsch" for orchestra was before the public.

Works Widely Known

Impressionistic expressions in tone form which Strauss composed in middle life were the subject of critical debate. He lived to see many of his innovations become almost commonplace musical devices.

His tone poems, "Til Eulenspiegel," "Don Quixote," and "Don Juan" are popular with symphonic audiences throughout the world. He composed "Salome" in 1904 and produced the opera "Elektra" three years later. Both works were widely known in America.

"Tod Und Verklaerung," (death and transfiguration) a tone poem written in 1889 is regarded by many critics as one of his greatest works.

Woman Killed In Car Crash

LAMESA, Sept. 8. (Special)—One person was killed and two others injured seriously at 7:20 a. m. today when two cars collided on a slick pavement about 12 miles north of Lamesa on the Lubbock Highway.

Killed instantly was Mrs. Gene McAllister, 36, wife of a Lamesa meat locker owner, who was riding in a 1949 Cadillac driven by Mrs. Glen Cope, about 30, of Lamesa.

Car Skids To Left

State police said the Cadillac skidded to the left side of the highway while headed toward Lubbock and was smashed on the right front side by a south-bound 1948 Buick convertible driven by George Carey Brown, 33, of San Antonio.

Brown and Mrs. Cope were taken to the Lamesa General hospital, where attendants said Brown was the more seriously injured of the two. Mrs. Cope was reported to be suffering severe shock and body bruises.

Mrs. McAllister is survived by her husband, her mother, Mrs. R. I. Hill, and a sister, Mrs. Henry Wilkins, all of Lamesa.

Her husband's nephew, George Tom McAllister, 23, was killed in an automobile accident here Aug. 27.

Two-Year-Old Child Hit By Auto Here

Patricia Ann Scruggs, 2½-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Scruggs of 708½ Thirteenth, narrowly escaped serious injuries at 11:50 o'clock this morning when she was struck by an automobile in 700-block Thirteenth.

According to accounts of police and the child's mother, the child darted into the street from between two angle-parked automobiles.

She was struck by a car driven slowly by Ralph Fowler, 45, of Crosbyton. Fowler took her immediately to Lubbock Memorial hospital, where she was treated for slight head injuries and released to her mother.

Patrolman Bob Atkinson of the Lubbock police investigated.

"I'm sure Mr. Fowler couldn't help it." Mrs. Scruggs said. "We are just so thankful that it wasn't more s[illegible]."

Hurricane In Atlantic Misses Bermuda; Other Land Areas May Be Out Of Path

(By The Associated Press)

A large and severe hurricane edged past Bermuda today while a Mexican hurricane brought storm warnings along the Southern California coast.

The center of the Atlantic hurricane passed east of the British-owned resort colony, 600 miles off the Carolina coast. The hurricane, fourth of the season, was first reported north of Puerto Rico last Sunday. It is not expected to threaten land areas unless it radically changes course.

The Mexican hurricane, with 100 miles an hour winds, was expected to be centered about 20 miles south of San Diego by midnight tonight. The weather bureau forecast heavy squalls and rough seas along the Southern California coast today. The hurricane, off Baja California, was moving northwestward about 13 miles an hour from its center about 70 miles west of Cedros island.

INDUSTRY LEADERS OPTIMISTIC

Huge Peacetime Buying Spree Is Forecast For Yule Season

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Associated Press Staff Writer

The Christmas shopping season will see the biggest peacetime spree in years.

That's the opinion of leaders of the jewelry and assorted gifts industries—wholesalers and retailers.

They're in Dallas this week in full strength. Thirty-five hundred buyers from retail stores in 10 states of the South and Southwest are looking over the lines of 1,700 manufacturers.

Exhibits Overflowing

Exhibits run through two downtown hotels and overflow into two floors of a big office building.

Buttonhole just any representative—wholesaler or retailer—and you find him bursting with optimism.

"No doubt about it," H. W. (Wes) Johnson, president of Allied Exhibitors, Inc., said, "the Christmas season will be a real whopper. Retail stores are buying with marvelous enthusiasm. All talk of a recession has gone out the window, in my opinion."

The Allied Exhibitors are staging one week-long show, their 18th, and the Southwestern Merchandise Exhibitors, Inc., is giving its 26th Dallas gift show.

Buyers Are Choosy

Fred Sands, of Kansas City, who is directing the latter, said: "Conditions have changed tremendously since the first of the year and I am most enthusiastic. Buying at shows early this year was comparatively slow. Now, retail stores are really taking on the goods. But buyers are choosy and can afford to be. Products are far better and more varied than at any time since before the war."

Johnson of Los Angeles, said the Allied show is displaying the lines of 1,500 manufactures.

"Business has been off," said he. "Retailers had been over-

Boston School Students Get Awards For "Good Manners"

(By The Associated Press)

BOSTON, Sept. 8.—Maybe the kids in your school would be good mannered, too, if there was $100,000 in it.

That's the sum to reward polite boys and girls in the Roxbury district as Boston's public schools opened today.

It came from Samuel Gross Davis who died in Roxbury at 91 in 1932.

He was born in Brunswick, Maine, and came as a youth to Boston where he rolled up a tidy fortune in the fish business.

His will directed the $100,000 be used to give annual "cash prizes of $4 or multiples of $5 to scholars in each class of every public school in Roxbury for good manners."

The Boston school committee was a little worried about the bequest at first.

Some members said Roxbury youngsters might grow up with the wrong idea if they were taught to expect $5 for every soft answer.

Others quoted the old gag about kids being "good for nothing."

But they finally accepted the good manners money.

Boston school officials figured $26,000 already has been handed out to 4,300 Roxbury children.

Davis also set up two similar good manners funds.

Brunswick, Maine, got $5,000 for the purpose and little Mashpee on Cape Cod, $50,000.

Group Will Probe British Fund Use

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—The three-power conference on the British financial crisis today set up a special committee to go into Britain's request for more freedom in spending ECA dollars outside the United States.

It was learned that Britain has told the United States that unless changes are made in present Marshall plan operations they will have to spend several hundred million more dollars out of their dwindling reserves.

The decision of the American, British and Canadian cabinet ministers to make a special study of the whole question of the use of ECA funds was one of four decisions made today.

Three Problems Studied

Special groups were also assigned to work on the following three problems:

1. Commodities and stockpiling: Britain has told the United States on this point that a speed-up in the use of American funds for stockpiling strategic materials such as rubber and tin would assist the British government in increasing its dollar earnings. Those materials are produced in areas which do their trading in the British pound sterling.

2. Customs procedure: Both Britain and Canada have repeatedly complained to the American government that its customs procedures are so cumbersome and old-fashioned that foreign exporters are discouraged from trying to get goods into this country for sale here, and that American buyers are discouraged from seeking foreign goods. A solution to this problem, from the British viewpoint, would have the same effect as a solution to the stockpiling problem—that is it would fit into

Two Are Dead After Shooting

HOUSTON, Sept. 8. (U.P.)—A 35-year-old engineer shot and killed his young estranged wife early today, and then fatally wounded himself by firing once at his head.

Detectives found Mrs. Melvin Stebbins, 25, dead in bed when they were summoned to the apartment by a neighbor. She had been shot once in the neck and once near the right eye.

Woman Is Found

Mrs. Stebbins was sprawled across the bed, clad in a nightgown. Beside her, gasping, was Stebbins, fully clothed. He had been shot once in the lower right temple and died three hours later in a hospital without regaining consciousness.

A neighbor, Robert Craig, summoned police when he was awakened by two shots around 1 a. m. As he rushed to a telephone, he heard the third shot.

Detectives broke in a locked door to enter the Stebbins apartment. A .38 caliber revolver was on the floor of the bedroom.

Patients Grab For Benefits In Britain

(EDITOR'S NOTE: L. R. Blanchard is general executive editor of the 21 metropolitan papers—mostly in the East—in the Gannett chain. As one of the nation's most widely known and respected editors, Mr. Blanchard has often traveled the world for his papers, informing himself, first-hand, on what is going on. Recently he went to England to look at Socialism and the series of articles he wrote while on the trip are highly revealing. Because some politicians urge that the U. S. follow England in experimenting with Socialism, The Journal asked—and received—permission of the Gannett papers and Mr. Blanchard to present the series in Texas. We consider Mr. Blanchard's articles to be most significant, especially since Britain, largely supported by American tax dollars will seek from us next month more aid to be used in carrying on socialistic aims.)

By L. R. BLANCHARD
Executive Editor, Gannett Newspapers

LONDON—Britain's new health service is in many respects an extension of practices long in vogue.

Doctors formerly had "panels" of patients whose bills were paid by the government. There were also members of clubs formerly who paid sums like a nickel a week for a kind of medical insurance.

Doctors today say the "panel" patients are their best clients. Medical attention is not a novelty to them. But the newcomers who were too poor, or too reckless to join the clubs, are overrunning the "surgeries" and grabbing for every possible benefit.

One doctor has a partner. The two are assisted by a young man recently out of school. The three of them have 10,000 patients. For each of these they receive $3.20 a year. In return they must see the patients on demand.

Doctors Make Calls

Office hours, plus regular calls on patients, keep them busy for 10 to 15 hours a day. The younger man has a little the worst of it, because the night calls fall to him.

Some private practice still exists. Most patients, however, find it best to take advantage of "free" care, since they are forced anyway to pay their weekly tax of about $1.

Pride plays a part in the private practice. Some persons dislike the idea of taking a place in the inevitable queue. They also feel that the public doctor cannot give them detailed attentions. In this they are right. Even the doctors admit that the hurried, assembly-line processions of patients must be kept moving.

Our three doctors serve a working class area. They are fortunate that much of their territory consists of closely-packed city areas. The density of population provides enough patients to make the office pay.

DOCTORS can buy autos when others cannot; they also have access to more gasoline. The ordinary car owner is allowed only gas enough for about 90 miles of driving in a month.

One way in which the doctors suffer is that their income is largely a matter of record. They will admit privately that in the bad old days when some patients paid cash, not all income was reported. In some instances it must have been a fairly comfortable amount, because the men admit wryly that they miss that old freedom.

Under the new order in Britain doctors have to rush their work. Usually there is a hurried examination of old wounds, a quick dressing, or a temperature reading and a stethoscope. To speed matters, hypodermics are left in the home where some member of the family can be trusted with sterilizing. So with bandages and with drugs. Doctors are learning to utilize every minute.

A Picnic For Dentists

So far the dentist and optician are the big money earners. The opticians are flooded with orders for "free" glasses.

The dentist's earnings are governed purely by the number of hours he cares to work. The bad dentist does as well as the good dentist, because the government pays a set fee for various operations. If the good dentist is painstaking, he probably will fall behind his less scrupulous colleague.

Here are some dental fees:
Filling a front tooth, $5.
Filling a back tooth, $5.50.
Gold inlay, $16.25 and up, depending on amount of gold.
Gold crown, $17.50 to $36.50.
Extracting impacted tooth, $30.25.
Routine examination, $2.

Prices are based on those current when the law was framed. They are intended to encourage preservation of teeth, rather than extraction and replacement.

Mrs. Roosevelt Is Visitor In Georgia

ATLANTA, Sept. 8 (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, here for a speech before a group of church women, returned yesterday to Warm Springs, Ga., where her husband died in his beloved little White House.

The former first lady will speak in Atlanta tonight on "the declaration of human rights and the community" before a southwide conference of church women. The conference is sponsored by the southern regional council, composed of business, professional, labor and church people of both races in 13 southern states.

The visit to Warm Springs was Mrs. Roosevelt's first since the late president died there April 12, 1945. The little white house, nestled in the rolling hills of west-central Georgia, was Roosevelt's favorite hideaway from officialdom.

Georgia has made the simple little cottage a national shrine. After an hour's inspection, Mrs. Roosevelt praised the manner in which it has been preesrved.

Mrs. Roosevelt also visited the Warm Springs infantile paralysis foundation, to which her crippled husband brought national recognition.

He has won the highest honor open to the 5,600 agents of New York Life in all 48 States, Canada, Alaska and Hawaii. He is President of the 1949 Nylic Top Club—the honor group of New York Life agents who have rendered outstanding service during the year.

In attaining the Presidency of the Top Club, Smokey was top man in the Company's entire field force. Through his efforts 335 policyholders took out $3,084,472 (face amount) of life insurance protection in the New York Life during the 12-month period ended June 30, 1949. This includes no group insurance, as New York Life confines its business to individual policies.

At 33, Smokey is the third youngest man to become President of the Top Club since it was originated 51 years ago. Smokey became an agent of New York Life in 1946 after serving in World War II as a Lieutenant in the Marine Air Corps. He "came home" to Texas early in 1948 when New York Life resumed doing a life insurance business in the State.

We salute and congratulate Smokey for his accomplishments as a career life underwriter. To us his record symbolizes the vast opportunities in the great State of Texas.

ERRAND OF MERCY TO FAR EAST

Tokyo Rose Claims Red Tape Prevented Escape From Japan

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8 (AP) —Picture a young American girl in the strange country of Japan, unable to read the language and unable to return home after the war started.

That was the self portrait begun yesterday by Mrs. Iva Toguri D'Aquino before federal jurors trying her for treason as "Tokyo Rose."

The 33-year-old American of Japanese descent testified it was an errand of mercy that took her to Japan before the war and red tape that kept her there against her will.

Dressed in a tailored suit she has worn through most of the nine weeks of trial, the slight defendant calmly told a chapter of her life story up to the beginning of her wartime experiences.

Illness In Family

The government charges her with treasonable broadcasts over radio Tokyo designed to lower Allied troop morale. Her testimony is expected to reach the broadcasting phase today.

Illness of her mother's sister took Mrs. D'Aquino to Japan shortly before the war, she testified. Iva's mother also was ill and had asked her to go, the witness said. Her mother died during the war at a U. S. relocation center.

The Los Angeles-born girl, a graduate of the University of California at Los Angeles, got a certificate of identification; in her haste she didn't wait for a passport to go to Japan.

This is her story of her visit:

In Japan in November, 1941, she become worried about Japanese-American relations and telephoned her father about going home. He told her U. S. papers indicated no serious trouble but to do as she wished.

Not Sure War On

She tried to get aboard the Tatsu Maru, last ship out of Japan before the war but couldn't get the papers she needed in time.

Not understanding much Japanese, she wasn't sure the war had broken out until two days after it started.

Then Japanese police arrived. Through an interpreter she asked them to "interne me."

The police said, "we don't go that far. After all, you are only a woman. We will let you stay out a little bit."

Thereafter the police told her numerous times it would be convenient if she renounced her American citizenship.

"I told them I was born and raised in the United States.... My father raised me to become a United States citizen and I could never become a Japanese."

In September, 1942, she found out the Gripsholm was sailing with evacuees but didn't have funds for passage. She tried in vain to contact her parents in the Gila River, Ariz., relocation center for money.

Defense Attorney Wayne Collins introduced documents to show Mrs. D'Aquino had tried to leave Japan before the war and tried to get aboard the Gripsholm.

Teacher Victim Of Anti-School Fever

BALTIMORE, Sept. 8. (AP)—Miss Laura J. Cairnes had spent 42 years in the public school system—25 years as principal of Eastern high school.

Just before classes started for another year yesterday, Miss Cairnes, who is in her 60's, resigned.

Her reason for the sudden move:

"I just decided at the end of summer vacation that I didn't want to go back to school. It's a feeling, I think, that's common to the human mind."

Jails Near Mexican Border Overflowing

EL PASO, Sept. 8 (U.P.) — Jails here and at Las Cruces and Deming, N. M., were overflowing with Mexican "wetbacks" today.

Grover C. Wilmoth, El Paso district director of the U. S. Border patrol, described the situation as "nothing unusual." He said it happens every year at cotton picking time when laborers swim the Rio Grande to avoid red tape involved in regular employment centers.

Rumors In Rioting New York Area Are Denied By Leaders

PEEKSKILL, N. Y., Sept. 8 (AP) —Community leaders strove today to dispel what they called "unfounded rumors" circulating in the lower Hudson river valley region, tense after two outbreaks of anti-leftist violence.

At the same time, war veteran students living in Shanks village south of here planned a rally Saturday to protest the widescale disorders and stonings following Paul Robeson's concert last Sunday.

They invited the left-wing negro singer to attend.

The Peekskill Chamber of Commerce, meeting last night, adopted a resolution terming false a rumor that some "people and their homes were in danger because of their race, color or creed."

The chamber meeting was held with heads of four veterans organizations.

Vets Stage Protests

Fourteen veterans posts had staged a protest parade at Robeson's concert, preceding the violence and stonings that occurred later when concert-goers started home.

The chamber also branded as unfounded "accusations made against certain merchants," most of them Jewish, that their stores would be boycotted on grounds they had sold concert tickets or attended the Robeson performance.

"None of these merchants participated in either Robeson affair," the resolution said.

This referred to a scheduled Robeson concert Aug. 27, which was prevented by mass rioting, and to last Sunday's concert, which ended with the stoning attacks. Both outdoor gatherings were in an area a few miles from here.

HYMN WRITER DIES

DALLAS, Sept. 8 (AP)—Charles B. Davis, 84, Baptist hymn writer before he lost his sight 35 years ago, died here yesterday.

PRAGUE, Sept. 8. (AP)—A purge in the management of Czechoslovakia's nationalized industry, which has already removed at least 16 factory managers or assistant managers, was disclosed today by the economic weekly Hospodar. Reasons were not stated.

Single Ring Service Takes Place Wednesday Night

The marriage of Miss Ray Louise Wilson and Henry Louis Ware of Houston was solemnized Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock at First Presbyterian church before a candlelighted background of ivy. Dr. J. M. Lewis performed a single ring ceremony.

A program of organ music offered by Mrs. R. C. Douglas, jr., included "Romance," "Gabet D'Amour" and "Traumerei." The organist accompanied Mrs. Robert R. Click as she sang "All For You" and "I Love Thee."

The bride, daughter of Vaughn E. Wilson of 1920 Seventeenth, was given in marriage by her father. Her gown of satin was fashioned with a dropped net yoke bordered with seed pearls and a ruffled bertha of heirloom lace. The fitted bodice, which came to a point in the front and back, was attached to a gathered skirt which swept into a chapel length train. Her fitted sleeves extended into points over the hands and her veil of imported French illusion was caught by a halo embossed with seed pearls. As an ornament, she wore an antique gold necklace which had belonged to her grandmother, and on her white Bible, she carried a white orchid showered with white satin ribbon.

In Wedgewood Blue

Miss Tinker Miller, maid of honor, was gowned in wedgewood blue satin styled with a full gored skirt, fitted bodice and cap sleeves. She wore a matching braided halo and carried a muff covered with roses.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Bill Smith and Miss Verdia Beth Edler of Midland and Lubbock, were dressed in palomino satin fashioned after Miss Miller's dress. They had matching halos and carried muffs adorned with roses.

Dr. John C. Dickson of San Antonio served as best man and Raymond D. Richards of Vermillion, S. D., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Earl Hutcherson were ushers. Groomsmen were Ben Wilson and Jim Wilson, brothers of the bride.

Judy Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Lewis, wore a white organdy dress and served as flower girl.

A reception was given in the church's Fellowship hall after the ceremony. Mrs. Mary W. Doak assisted in receiving guests. Those in the houseparty were Mesdames G. W. Parkhill, Rem Thomson, O. W. Ribble, Harold Munn, H. D. Woods, Ted Vernon, Gladys Sims, Marshall Lewis, A. W. Young, Al O'Brien, M. L. Hogan, and Misses Bettye Thomson, Marjorie Ann Sims, Mary Ruth Sims, Sarah Lewis and Lianne Lewis. The bride's table featured a wedding cake and an arrangement of rainbow colored asters.

Among out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Richards and daughter, Patti, of Vermillion, S.D., Mrs. Stephen H. Ware, jr., of Houston, Mrs. Lucille Spreen Wilson of Austin and Dr. John C. Dickson of San Antonio.

On Maryland Trip

For a wedding trip to Maryland, the bride is wearing a navy blue faille suit with a Peter Pan collar and rhinestone button trim. Her accessories are navy blue and white and she's wearing an orchid corsage. The couple will return to their home in Houston by way of Washington, D. C., North Carolina and South Carolina.

Mrs. Ware has a pre-med degree from the University of Texas and she has been employed at the Jefferson Davis Laboratories in Houston since March, 1948. Mr. Ware, son of Mrs. Stephen H. Ware of Houston, is employed in the engineering department of Mosher Steel company in Houston. He attended Iowa State college at Ames and received a degree in architectural engineering from the University of Texas in 1948. He was a member of Theta Xi fraternity.

Wedding Service Read In Maple Community

Rev. C. A. Norcross performed a double ring wedding ceremony for Miss Bonnie Jean Garvin and J. W. Flinn in the Maple community Sunday. Following the ceremony, wedding cake and luncheon were served to 37 relatives and friends.

The bride is a graduate of Maple High school and attended West Texas hospital School of Nursing and Texas Technological college. For the past several months she has been office nurse at the Amherst hospital. Mr. Flinn is a graduate of Clovis, N. M., High school and is a Navy veteran. Since his discharge in April, he has been employed as laboratory and x-ray technician at the Amherst hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Flinn will attend college in Fort Worth.

Trying To Save Funds For Marriage, Young Man Is Frustrated By Fiancee's Spending

DEAR Mary Haworth: I am a young man 23, trying to save money for marriage some day, but I am the victim of a carefree, clothes-spending girl friend.

Ruth is 22 and we love each other a great deal. We see each other very often and go out together several times a week; but every place we go, and in fact almost everyone we see, starts Ruth on the subject of wearing apparel, particularly that of women.

I have been bored many times in her company because of this, and I try to encourage her to save money as I have been doing, so that some day we will have a bankroll with which to start housekeeping; but she seems indifferent to my point of view.

Ruth gets dissatisfied after wearing her new outfits for a few months; then starts on an escending curve of desire to replenish her wardrobe. If she continues to insist on this repetitive spending for clothes I can foresee an unhappy married life for that reason alone. Is there any way you can help me to counteract this tendency, so that she will become more interested in saving than spending?

IS WOMAN'S SPIRIT AFFECTED BY LOOKS?

DEAR J. B.: Once I heard a woman say with serious conviction, "A woman's appearance is all she has—," from the security angle, she meant. She was justifying, with simple sincerity from her viewpoint, a substantial outlay on handsome new clothes, including a fine fur coat, in the wake of financial crash in 1929—using her husband's dwindling cash (or credit) to do so.

In her opinion, she was (in effect) preparing for a victory drive through adverse circumstances beginning to dawn; for she said that her idea, in refurbishing her wardrobe in the teeth of the storm, was to "hold" her husband, keep his chin up and make a good impression sartorially on their associates for his sake.

I must say that I felt her "winner philosophy" was astoundingly hollow; and though I have never seen her since, I have sometimes wondered how well her tactics served her pursuit of social security and personal happiness. Possibly there was a grain of sense and a lot of frightened confusion in her attitude.

During the late war much was heard of the importance of lipstick to women's morale in the thick of danger—"the red badge of courage," someone called it—and beautiful hose were reputed to accelerate feminine spunk (in youngish women) in much the same way. So perhaps there is a significant link between body and adornment and dauntless spirit in the average life-loving woman; but it seems Ruth lacks the know-how of spending money to best effect.

TAKES SEVEN YEARS TO BUILD A WARDROBE

BUYING new outfits every few months primarily for the sake of change isnt the smart approach to memorable chic, as Vogue magazine sensibly stresses in its "Mrs. Exeter" articles which appear from time to time. Ruth's pastime of blowing small salary on faddish garb very likely adds up to a distressing hodge-podge of sleazy merchandise.

One authority on women's dress insists that it takes about seven years' canny investment in a "personalized" scheme of dress to develop a flexible modest first-class wardrobe that can face any situation and do credit to the wearer's looks, taste and money-sense. This means that a woman must make certain colors, lines and fabrics her style-choice and stick to them in building a backlog, regardless of what others wear.

Also she must buy good materials and workmanship in major items such as a coat, suit or furs, that will wear well and look well for years and hold their own when teamed up with new "finds" seasons later—and this takes brain, patience and foresighted saving, on small income.

However, to conclude: If Ruth doesn't revise her spending habits to your satisfaction in the near future, you'd better give mutually serious consideration to living without each other, because harmony in marriage very largely depends on seeing eye-to-eye about money management.

How To Play Canasta: 6

Use Two Decks, Four Jokers For Four-Handed Canasta

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY
Written For NEA Service

THE laws of four-handed Canasta call for two regular decks of 52 cards each, plus four jokers.

In cutting for partners and seats, the ace ranks high and the deuce low. If a player draws a joker, he put it to one side and draws another card.

The player on the right of the dealer shuffles, but the dealer also may shuffle the pack. The player on the right of the dealer must cut the cards. Tables are arranged as in bridge, by selection of partners or by cutting for partners.

The cards are dealt to each player one at a time. After each player has received 11 cards, the deck is placed on the table, preferably in a box or tray, and becomes the stock pile. The top card of the stock pile is turned over and placed in another box or tray, and this pile is referred to as the pack, or discard pile.

IF the up-card is a joker, deuce or red trey, it is removed from the box or tray and slid under the edge of the box or tray so that it is visible to all players, and again the top card of the stock pile is turned face up and put in the other box or tray.

If another joker, deuce or red trey is turned up, the next card from the stock pile is turned up to cover it, and this process is continued until some card other than a joker, deuce or red trey is turned up.

The joker, deuce or red trey that has been slid under the edge of the box containing the pack signifies that the pack is frozen.

The ordinary rules applying to bridge and other card games for dealing hold true in Canasta. After the deal has been completed, play is ready to start.

The play consists of three parts: one, the draw; two, the meld (optional); three, the discard.

WHEN it is a player's first turn to play, the first thing he must do is to remove the red treys from his hand and place them face upon the table. He is entitled to another card from the stock pile fo reach red trey he puts on the table.

If one of the cards he draws from the stock pile is a red trey, he must put that on the table and draw another card, so that at the start of the play he has 11 cards in his hand without any red treys.

The player at the left of the dealer begins the play by drawing the top card of the stock pile or the up-card. If the up-card of the pack is a black trey, even though you have two more black theys in your hand, you are required to draw from the stock pile.

TOMORROW: More on four-handed play.

Plans For Visit To Paris Are Cancelled

DOVER, England, Sept. 8 (AP) Shirley May France and her party today cancelled plans to visit Paris before returning home to Somerset, Mass.

The party will arrive in London by train early tomorrow afternoon.

The pretty 17-year-old high school girl who failed by six miles in her first attempt to swim the English channel will board a plane for the United States Monday. She will be accompanied by her father, J. Walter France, and her coach, Harry Boudakian. Her chaperone, Mary Lou Walsh, and two other members of the party will fly back Sunday.

France said plans to go to Paris had to be discarded because of uncertainty over plane reservations.

Shirley was in good spirits again this morning. She romped on the hotel lawn with a pet dog, Nipper. Later she busied herself reading more messages of congratulations and sympathy which have poured in since she was pulled out of the water Tuesday after 10½ hours.

Southern California Heat Wave Continues

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 8 (AP) — Southern California's heat wave will continue today, the weather man says, but it probably won't be as bad as yesterday's 103-degree sizzler.

He predicts that the thermometer will hover near the 100 degree mark for the third straight day with no relief until Friday, at least.

The hurricance off the coast of Baja California helped start the whole sultry business. It is swirling hot border currents while a high pressure area over Nevada is pushing hot desert blasts.

Yesterday's scorcher set an all time high in two suburban communities. North Hollywood recorded 108.5 degrees and Glendale 108. Los Angeles' 103 was the hottest in 10 years.

Two deaths were attributed directly to the heat.

Most of Southern California had temperatures above 100, but, oddly, the heavily populated coastal sector was the worst hit. In the imperial valley, where it sometimes reaches 120, it was a comfortable 103 yesterday.

Japan is boosting its radio receiver output.

Feeding The Family kept Mama broke!—till she learned to save $4 to $10 a month, serving delicious "meaty" meals with Skinner's macaroni, spaghetti, and pure egg noodles instead of costly meat dishes. Of course, she'd tried macaroni meals before—but the family didn't go for them!

"Then I tried Skinner's," says Mama. "It's the deluxe macaroni—so good that thousands love it, just boiled with salt and butter. Now my family asks for two Skinner one-dish dinners a week—and I save enough on groceries so now I can get a nice new dress now and then."

More Nice Things For You. If food bills keep you broke, try giving your family Skinner's. Don't ruin your good recipes with cheap macaroni or spaghetti, when Skinner's can turn them into family favorites! Southern women know: Skinner's macaroni is the best macaroni money can buy!

Road Meeting Will Be Staged In City

A county wide meeting regarding a better rural roads program will be held in the Lubbock district court room the second floor at 7:30 p. m., Sept. 12, County Judge Walter Davies announced Wednesday.

The meeting, one of a series being held in the area, is to organize a Lubbock county unit of the Texas Rural Roads association. It will operate under the association's expanded program calling for state natural resources taxes dedicated only to permanent improvements in Texas.

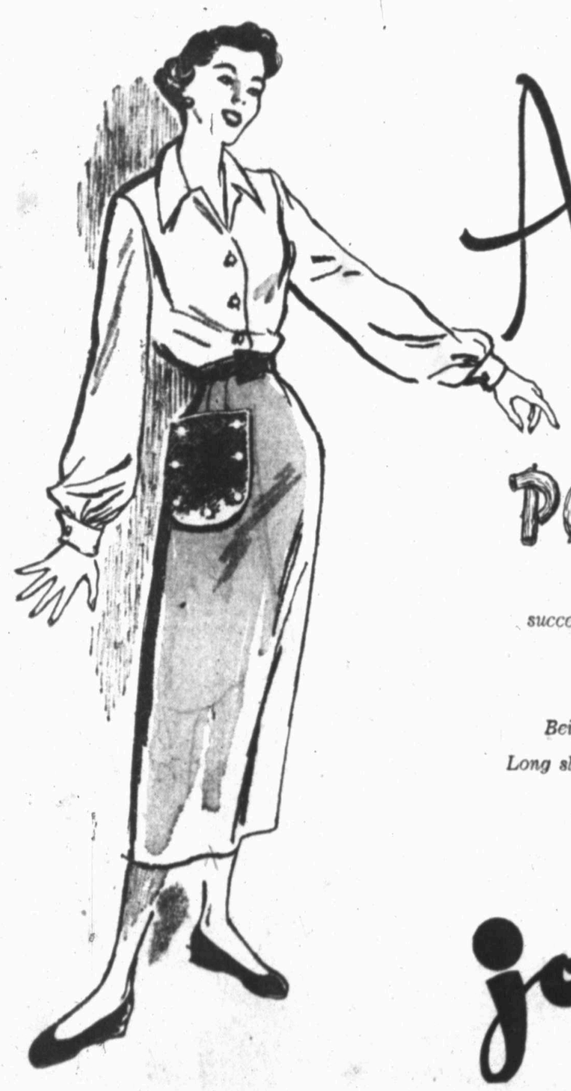

J. I. McGregor, of Temple, vice-president and chairman of the state association, will discuss in detail the purposes and proposed plans of the new program at the meeting.

Jim Cantrell, Collin county banker and president of the group, explained that the state's natural resources, by a fair severance tax, should finance a continuing program of permanent improvements, including rural roads.

The meeting next Monday, to which the public is invited, was arranged by Judge Davies and W. C. Foote, of Petersburg, a district director of the road association. Another state director, County Judge Otha F. Dent of Lamb county and Foote have arranged eight such meetings in this area within the next two weeks.

The schedule of county meetings next week include the Lubbock meeting Monday night in the District court room, one at Floydada High school auditorium on Wednesday night and a meeting in the District court room Thursday night in Crosbyton.

Yankees Shade Boston Red Sox, 5-2

Cardinals Nose Out Chicago; Brooklyn Drops Braves, 5-4

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Smoky Joe Page is the man of the hour for the embattled New York Yankees.

Hero in 1947, but a failure in 1948, the strong-armed fireman from the bullpen is a leading candidate for the most valuable player in the American league.

Page never was better than he was last night as he struck out four of the five men he faced in the Yanks' important 5-2 victory over Boston.

Called to the rescue of Allie Reynolds after Bobby Doerr tripled with the potential tying run in the eighth, Page blazed his fast ball past the Red Sox in a sizzling performance that dampened their pennant hopes.

Sox Must Win

Now 2½ games behind the Yanks, who never have been out of first place since opening day, the Sox must win the final two games of the Yankee stadium series to remain within striking distance.

Boston took an early lead on Reynolds' wildness, but the Yanks struck back to go ahead, 3-2, on Bill Johnson's second triple and a costly error by Vern Stephens before Page appeared on the scene.

After Doerr tripled to put the tying run on third, Manager Casey Stengel waved in Page. Al Zarilla he retired on one pitch. Then he fanned Billy Goodman to end the inning.

Bobby Brown's homer following Phil Rizzuto's bunt single made it 5-2 in the ninth, but Page never let up. He wiffed Birdie Tebbetts, pinch hitter Matt Batts and Dom DiMaggio to end the game.

It's a discouraging uphill struggle now for Boston which sends Ellis Kinder out to oppose Eddie Lopat in today's game. The Sox are five down on the all-important losing side. They have only 19 to play as compared to 24 for the Yanks.

Rain knocked out the Cleveland-Detroit and Philadelphia-Washington games, but the Chicago White Sox scampered home with a 7-1 triumph over the St. Louis Browns. Bill Wight stumped the Brownies with a four-hitter.

Cards Shade Chicago

In the national league St. Louis came from behind to shade Chicago, 3-2, after Brooklyn nosed out Boston, 5-4. The Cards still lead by one full game.

Four sharp singles in the last of the ninth pulled the Cards out of a loss that would have left them only two percentage points ahead of the Brooks. Glenn Nelson, who hit a homer in the fifth started the winning surge. Solly Hemus, Nippy Jones and Marty Marion followed his lead to give Howie Pollet win No. 18.

Violence flared in Flatbush as Eddie Stanky of the Braves and Spider Jorgensen of the Dodgers squared off in a fist fight that involved members of both clubs. After both were ejected, Eddie Miksis replaced Jorgensen. He came through with the game-winning blow, a two-run homer in the seventh inning, his first of the year.

Stanky apparently spiked Jorgensen accidentally while pivoting for a double play in the fifth. Both players went down and there was a wild flurry before order was restored.

Jack Banta, striking out five en route to his eighth win, gave way to Joe Hatten when the Braves threatened in the ninth. Hatten ended the game with one pitch to pinch hitter Mickey Livingston.

Kenny Raffensberger of Cincinnati nailed down his 15th victory with his first home run in subduing Pittsburgh, 5-2.

Bowling Results

The first night of bowling in Ladies Commercial league was unreeled last night, and two teams managed three wins each.

Since some of the teams do not have sponsors as yet, letters were used to designate them.

Winning its first three games was Lubbock Tailoring and team Number 7. Lubbock Tailoring was paced by Gail Tyson with a 188—452 series. Helen Priebe was high for team Number 6 with a 410 three-game series.

Number 7 won rather handily from Number 8, with Rozanne Haley, Irene Daniels and Louise Riordan registering three-game totals well over 400. The Number 8 high was Judy Burns' 134—385.

Flo Christensen posted the night's high in pacing Southwestern Public Service to two games over Number 3. She splintered pins for a 185—506 series. Billy Slover rolled 179—486 for the losers.

Hemphill-Wells managed two games from Russell-Hardin, and then lost the third by two pins. High for Russell-Hardin was Polly Buckner, and she ran up a 175—487 series. Maxine Buckner rolled 170—467.

For Hemphill-Wells Artie Reed was high with 187—495, and Nora Lee McCassland had 180—460.

San Angelo Gains Spot In Playoffs

(By The Associated Press)

R. L. Shelton, a limited service player but no youngster when it comes to hardball chunking, last night pitched San Angelo into the Longhorn league's Shaughnessy playoff.

Shelton spaced nine hits to Ballinger as his mates won a 12-4 decision.

The victory cinched a spot in the playoff for the Colts. Ballinger had retained a mathematical chance at the post-season party.

FIRST 1949 GAME SELECTIONS

Odessa Favored In Feature Grid Tilt

By ED FITE
United Press Sports Writer

Although a scattering of games in Classes A and B broke the ice on the 1949 Texas schoolboy football last week end, the big spash comes this week end with the "big boys" in Class AA and City conference swinging into action.

Two games tonight will usher in the first big week with Austin invading San Antonio against Jefferson High and El Paso Austin High meeting its Catholic rival, Cathedral High.

Forty games will be played tomorrow night, one Saturday afternoon and three Saturday night to round out a 46-game card.

Top Game At Odessa

Top game will pit Port Arthur, last year's No. 1 team until it was upset by Waco in the semi-finals, against Odessa, always a strong contender, in the latter city Saturday night. Both teams are well regarded as title prospects this season.

Other top-flight games will send Breckenridge to Abilene, San Angelo to Denison, Marshall to Shreveport against Fair Park High, Alice to Corpus Christi and Kerrville to San Antonio against Brackenridge.

Dallas Woodrow Wilson takes to international fare by meeting Mexico City Polytechnic in Mexico City Saturday afternoon.

With little facts to back up our reasoning, here's the way the week's games look from here, by districts:

Pampa Is Favored

1 Pampa over North Dallas, Big Spring over Plainview.

2—Memphis over Quanah.

3—Lamesa over Levelland, Brownfield over Pecos, Odessa over Port Arthur.

4—El Paso Austin over Cathedral, El Paso Bowie over Carlsbad, N. M., El Paso High over Roswell, N. M., Ysleta over Midland.

5—Abilene over Breckenridge, Brownwood over Electra, Sweetwater over Vernon.

6—Nocona over Cisco, Fort Worth Paschal over Weatherford.

7—San Angelo over Denison.

8—Denton over Graham, Gainesville over Grand Prairie, Paris over Sulphur Springs.

Marshall Is Picked

9—Marshall over Shreveport Fair park, Longview over Lufkin, Kilgore over Port Neches, Dallas Sunset over Tyler.

10—Nacogdoches over Dallas Jesuit, Palestine over Athens, Conroe over Houston Sam Houston, Henderson over Jacksonville.

12—Pasadena over Houston St. Thomas, Beaumont South Park over Texas City.

13—Waxahachie over Stephenville, Dallas Crozier Tech over Ennis, Mineral Wells and Hillsboro to tie.

14—San Antonio Jefferson over Austin, San Antonio Brackenridge over Kerrville, Alice over Corpus Christi, Victoria over El Campo.

15—Robstown over San Antonio Burbank

16—San Benito over Kingsville, Edinburg over Pharr-San Juan-Alamo, Harlingen over San Antonio Harlandale, Mission over McAllen, Brownsville over Weslaco.

City conference—New Baunfels over San Antonio Alamo Heights, Dallas Woodrow Wilson over Mexico City Poly, San Antonio Tech over Texas Military Institute, San Antonio Edison over San Antonio Lanier.

Raiders Hold Final Drills

Practice sessions this afternoon and tomorrow are all that remain before the 8 p. m. encounter Saturday between Texas Tech and Abilene Christian college at Jones Stadium.

Reports from the Red Raider camp indicate that a hustling group of boys are trying to make the starting team, but that team has not been announced yet.

A few injuries have cropped up. Duck Thompson has a broken bone in his foot, and it is not known how long he will be out. Bud Conley is crippled with a separation in the metatorsal arch of his foot, and John Andrews' shoulder has not responded to treatment. He may miss the Saturday game.

Morley Jennings, Tech athletic director, announced that reserved seat tickets not picked up by 6 p.m. Friday will be placed on general sale. They may be secured at the Tech athletic office in Jones stadium.

Tickets for the Saturday's game for Tech students may be bought for $1.20 each, with the seats on the East side of the field. Since school has not opened the athletic activity books will not have been issued.

Emphasis in the first week of practice has been largely on offense, and a hard scrimmage undergone Tuesday showed the value of the drills.

Tech will be pointing to the September 17 encounter with the University of Texas in Austin.

Kilgore, Gladewater Take Playoff Lead

(By The Associated Press)

Kilgore and Gladewater jumped into the lead in the East Texas league's Shaughnessy playoff.

Fourth place Kilgore last night walloped regular season winner Longview, 9-3, in the first game of this series and Gladewater edged Paris, 6-5.

Gerald (Red) Fahr fanned 12 Longview batters and gave up but five hits.

A. P. Cross, Kilgore third baseman, slapped out a single, double and a grand slam home run to account for six runs.

Lew Morton homored for Longview in the seventh with one mate on.

Pitcher Vic Stryska won his own ball game for Gladewater, driving home Ken Smith in the eighth.

Paris touched Stryska for seven hits while the Bears got to Bill Walker for ten.

Vernon Washington homered for Gladewater in the second.

Tonight, Gladewater plays at Paris and Longview at Kilgore.

Scoreboard Fund Is Raised At Program

SEMINOLE, Sept. 8. — Rain threatened to break up the outdoor appearance of a variety show here last night sponsored by the Booster club, but after moving to the high school auditorium the rains quit and the show went on as scheduled in Ted Edwards stadium.

A crowd of 1,500 to 2,000 persons was entertained by the presentation which included a half-hour program brought to Seminole by Cotton Clover of Odessa. It consisted of a tap dancer, two female vocalists and the usual line of jokes.

The Notables Quartet of Lubbock—Tiny Jones, Dick Richards, J. Ray Dickey, and Jib Black—presented one of the highlights of the show with several well-received songs. Lew Lewellen of Seminole played several numbers on the piano and accompanied himself while he sang.

From the sale of tickets and concessions, the Booster club realized enough to pay for the $2,400 scoreboard, one of the most modern and beautiful scoreboards in West Texas.

The scoreboard was presented by W. E. Cox, outgoing club president, to school Superintendent Ted E. Edwards.

Lamesa Beats Dukes, 12-4

(By The Associated Press)

Lamesa set the pace Wednesday in the West Texas-New Mexico baseball league Shaughnessy playoff.

The Texas club trimmed Albuquerque, 12 to 4, in the first go-round of the playoff. It was the only game played. A scheduled Abilene-at-Amarillo tilt was postponed because of rain.

A heavy rain drenched the Amarillo field. The teams meet tonight and Friday and move to Abilene for a three-day stand.

Shone To Hurl

Albuquerque meets Lamesa again tonight at Albuquerque with Frank Shone due to face either Fred Dial or Jack Guiterrez on the mound.

Lamesa combined nine bases on balls, two errors and 11 singles for its win over Albuquerque in the playoff opener. All but one of the Lobo players who walked crossed the plate to sore. Eulis Rosson, who has beaten Albuquerque three times in five tries this year, held the losers to 10 scattered blows to win his 10th game of the year. He struck out ten and walked none.

Captains For Tussle Named

Announcement of the Lubbock co-captains for the Westerner-Childress Bobcat football game here Sept. 16 was made Wednesday by Head Coach Pat Pattison.

Tackles Joe Brock and Douglas Ross were named to share the honor for the season's opener. Both are big boys, Ross a 195-pounder and Brock an even 200. Last year Ross was a letterman at fullback, and he is making a good showing in the line.

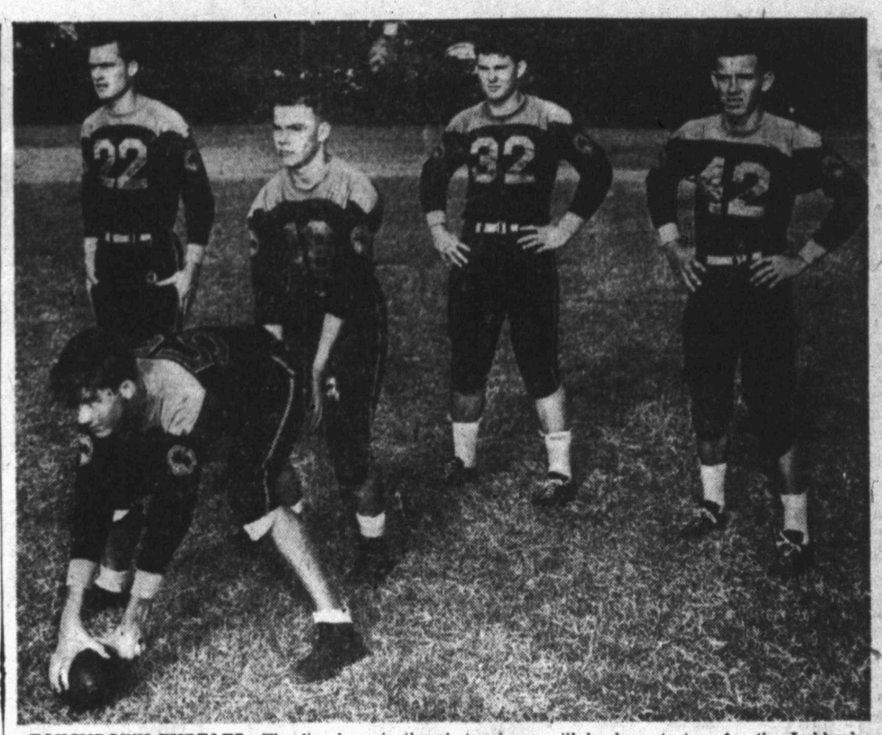

Passing Drills Stressed

Practice yesterday began with passing drills for the backs and individual work by the ends and linemen under the direction of Coaches Fred Taylor and Bill Floyd.

After a dummy scrimmage in which all backs participated on new plays and old ones alike, the squad went through a stiff scrimmage.

Good running was featured by Fullback Malcolm Young and Halfback Wayne Stroud. The two boys turned in some flashy performances and proved elusive and hard to tackle.

Passing was stressed, with Bobby Brown and Morris Turner hitting their targets consistently. The Westerners have tall, rangy ends in Garnet Reeves, Billy Wright, Bobby Day, Dean White, Jerry Van Pelt, Lyndell Ross and Wayne Noland, and the passing offensive may be one of the bright spots in the Lubbock T-attack this fall.

TOUCHDOWN THREATS—The five boys in the photo above will be key starters for the Lubbock High Cowhand eleven Saturday when the Hub City gridders open their 1949 football schedule against the Plainview High "B" team at Plainview. Starring in the Cowhand leather-lugging department will be Right Half Cecil Austin (22), Quarterback Charles Brewer (16), Fullback James Sides (32), and Left Half Paul Hanson (45). Over the ball is Center Dale Clark. (Staff Photo by Al Williams).

Lubbock Cowhands To Clash With Plainview "B" Saturday

Heavy rains Wednesday night and early this afternoon forced postponement of the Lubbock High Cowhand-Plainview "B" football game, which had been scheduled tonight at Plainview, uhtil 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at Bulldog field in Plainview, officials announced.

The clash, opening tilt of the season for both teams, was postponed by Plainview school officials after an inspection of the gridiron showed that the field would be too muddy for play. Since Plainview High's varsity plays Friday, it was necessary to reschedule the "B" encounter for Saturday afternoon.

Odds favor the Lubbock team in the opener because of the number of boys on the squad and the depth in each position. Cowhand Coaches Freddie Brown and Pat Ferris have not been too optimistic about the contest.

A light workout in game uniforms was held for the Cowhands Wednesday, and passing was one of the main points stressed. Faking and handoffs from the T-formation are still a bit off, but the boys have come a long way since the middle of August. With more practice, timing on the fast plays is expected to become sharper.

A large number of Cowhands are expected to see action in the game, however, with many replacements used in the line and backfield.

Only one district game, Lamesa, is on the schedule before the meeting with Odessa on Oct. 1, and the coaches will try to give the better boys game experience before then.

In the starting backfield Sides has shown up well for his power and drive, and he has a very able substitute in Johnny Tatum. Brewer has done well passing and handling the ball, and Hanson and Austin have shown speed and aggressiveness in carrying the ball. Likely substitutes at halfback are Bo Sexton, Dwayne Rampy and Charles Hodges.

Texas Is Rated As "Dark Horse" Team

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

AUSTIN, Sept. 8—The University of Texas got sore last January 1 when called a "third rate" team and knocked Georgia's block off in the Orange Bowl.

Today Longhorn adherents, particularly the coaches, are welcoming that designation. In fact, headman Blair Cherry says that's ranking Texas too high in the Southwest conference race. "I wouldn't be surprised if we lost four or five games," he declares.

Has Sophomore Team

It isn't that Cherry is pessimistic; he's just facing the uncertainty of a sophomore team. The critics are as puzzled as he is when it comes to weighing the squad's possible strength.

The fact remains that of a roster of 44, 25 are sophomores and that they'll be furnishing one starting end and the reserve strength at five of the seven positions in the line, also one of the backfield posts.

Texas has some fine sophomore prospects and two advantages. The team won't be under pressure since it is not rated, even in the most optimistic quarters, as higher than third.

Another thing Cherry welcomes with open arms is a hot fight going on for the important quarterback job in his T formation. It's a three-way battle and Cherry refuses to evaluate the chances of the trio — Bobby Coy Lee, Paul Campbell and Bill Allen.

The best observation, however, is that Lee is going to win the job. He's an excellent runner, a fine punter and above all has leadership qualities that appear to fit into Cherry's requirements.

The Texas backfield should be as good as any in the league. It has everything it takes. The line is the question mark, mainly because of the loss of such tackles as George Petrovich and Ed Kelley.

The Longhorns will have blinding speed, as usual. Particularly is this true at left halfback where Billy Pyle and Perry Samuels return.

Townsend May Start

It also will have the power running of one of the prized sophomores of the year—Byron Townsend, the Odessa great.

Townsend does little else and is below average on defense but he promises many yards carrying the ball.

Randall Clay, who has developed an elusiveness to go with his hard running, and Bubba Shands, junior letterman, are at right halfback. Fullback is Ray Borneman, one of the top ground-gainers of the conference last season, backed by sophomores June Davis and Reed Quinn and Newell Kane, who was a squadman in 1946 and has just returned to the University. Kane is a fine punter.

Paul Williams, big sophomore, has nailed down the right-end spot where there's not a single letterman. Ray Stone, who missed much of last season because of a broken leg, and junior letterman Ben Procter are back at left end.

Cherry has two lettermen at tackles but there the resemblance to veteran play ends. They are Gene Vykukal and Ken Jackson.

Center is no problem with junior letterman Dick Rowan back along with Al Miller, who also will be seeking his second varsity numeral.

Junior Squads Show Increase

If numbers mean anything, the three Lubbock Junior High schools should be "loaded" this year in football. A rough count Wednesday showed more than 250 boys suited out at the various schools.

O. L. Slaton has the highest number of grid hopefuls, with 117 being issued uniforms, and the first days have been largely consumed running through the fundamentals of the game. Drills on the field have included sprinting and running through offensive and defensive assignments.

Carrol Thompson Junior High school reported 74 suits issued, with more suits needed to take care of those who want to play football. It was 6:30 p.m. Wednesday before the last boy received his equipment, leaving little time fo. practice.

Approximately 70 boys were working out at J. T. Hutchinson, with the emphasis on fundamentals. Tackling and blocking came in for a large share of attention.

It is probable that three squads at each school will be organized for games this year, with ninth, eighth and seventh graders playing on separate teams.

VOLS WIN PENNANT

MOBILE, Ala., Sept. 8. (AP)—For the second straight year, the Nashville Vols are champions of the Southern association. They won the 1949 pennant last night.

Mrs. T. E. Patterson Golf Meet Champion

LEVELLAND, Sept. 8. (Special)—Mrs. T. E. Patterson of Lubbock took golfing honors with a score of 92 here yesterday in the South Plains Women's Golf association tournament, edging out two other Lubbock women for first place.

Mrs. Patterson was tops among the 70 women who entered from five clubs in the association. Tied at 93 were Mrs. John Markham and Mrs. George Soash, both of Lubbock. Eight other winners named were Mesdames Hiram Parks, Brownfield; Neal Whitmore, Levelland; Rusty Marse, Plainview; Lucien Morehead, Plainview; Fred Baldwin, Brownfield; Herb Schroeder, Lubbock; and E. B. Herriage, Lubbock.

The golfing was done on the Levelland Country club golf course. Clubs represented were Levelland, Lubbock Country club, Meadowbrook of Lubbock, Plainview and Brownfield. Lamesa was not represented.

Cats Trounce Eagles, 14-1

(By The Associated Press)

Oilman Dick Burnett's dream of buying a 1949 Texas league winner is long gone and it looks like Dallas' chance for a spot in the Shaughnessy playoff is going.

The Eagles dropped a wild, 1-14, decision to Fort Worth last night as Pete Lewis sparked Shreveport to a 3-2 victory over Houston.

In other games, San Antonio clubbed Beaumont, 8-2, and Tulsa downed Oklahoma City, 4-2.

Billy Loes set Dallas down with four hits and Manager Bobby Goff used six pitchers trying to stop Fort Worth's rampage. Four Dallas players were chased by the umpires.

Lewis smashed a home run after two were out in the ninth inning to break up a good pitching battle between Jack Creel of Houston and Hank Wyse.

Les Burge hit a homer for the Sports to account for their first two runs and Larry Miggins' circuit clout gave Houston a tally.

Oklahoma City dropped within one game of fourth place when Joe Adcock's 18th home run of the season brought in three runs.

O'Neal Will Battle Henderson Tuesday

Preparations for the fight card at Sled Allen's arena next Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. are progressing satisfactorily, and Jeep O'Neal, Oklahoma City, will meet Bill Henderson of Levelland and Texas Tech in the 10-round main event.

The last appearance made by Henderson was in Lamesa Tuesday night, and he won a decision over Triniday Perez, his 23rd professional triumph in 25 starts.

Between the Lines by Joe Kelly

Don't look now, but there are some unheralded, unheard of players at Texas Tech who may well shove some of last year's starters donw the line. For instance, George Worrell has been making impressive strides in the short number of sessions so far and has the coaches sitting up and taking notice. George, not a large man by any strength of the imagination, generally always is good for a yard or two when it counts the most. He's a fullback, but not in the classic lines with which fullbacks generally are endowed. He's a quiet, inoffensive looking young player that you'd pass by on your first glance. You would, that is, until you saw him hammer his way through a rugged Raider line and make it look easy.

He's one of the surprise weapons in the Raider camp. Another one is Bill Barbee of Littlefield. Barbee has turned in some of the finest running to be seen so far this fall. He's a hard runner, but he also is shifty and hard to knock down. Both Worrell and Barbee showed up well in the spring, but coaches didn't bank too heavily on their developing, for it's a lot different in the fall. But Barbee has lived up to hopes. With each day's work, he's making more and more of a berth for himself. Keep your eyes on these two promising backs. You probably will hear a lot from them this fall. And, off the record, when they first reported, neither was placed on scholarship because they didn't look like good candidates. That should serve as an inspiration to a lot of boys.

If you think that just because the Hubber season is over that baseball is forgotten, you're mistaken. Of course we have the West Texas-New Mexico League playoffs, with Lamesa playing a prominent part. But we also have the Oil Belt League playoffs and there probably is more interest on the South Plains in these than there is in the WT-NM loop struggle. Sundown's Roughnecks, not given much more than a passing thought throughout most of the season, kept playing steady ball. All of a sudden, without warning, Sundown took over first place. More important, they held it and the Shaughnessy playoffs will open in that city. While Denver City and Seagraves were grabbing the headlines, Sundown moved along steadily and quietly to take command. They're apt to have slambang baseball in the playoffs and there should be capacity crowds to watch them.

If Boston doesn't beat out the Yankees for first place in the American league, you can score a large assist to the Cleveland Indians, who still have a chance. According to a piece by Ed McAuley in The Sporting News, the Indians have won 14 games from the Red Sox this season while losing only six. They have four left to go and two of them are in Fenway Park at Boston. Obviously, if Boston had gained an even split in the 20 games, they'd be in first place today. Add to that the fact that the Yanks have a big margin over Boston in their games so far this year (and also Cleveland), you have a pretty good idea of why the New Yorkers are in first place still. Add to that the new pennant-winning theory that the team in first place on Labor Day will wind up in first place, providing it wins its doubleheaders, and the Yanks and Cards look like shoo-ins—Maybe.

University of Houston has added a new coach to the staff as the Cougars attempt to build and build more and more toward a major power. Robert E. Evans, former Texas star has been added to the staff to assist Coach Clyde Lee and three other coaches. Evans graduated from Texas in 1939 after winning two letters in baseball and playing football. He coached at three high schools and was physical education instructor for the Navy during World War II. He was known more for his baseball ability than anything else, being signed to a White Sox contract and playing for Longview in the East Texas League and Waterloo, Ia., in the Three-Eye League. It's definitely another step toward moving up the ladder for Houston.

Jack Noyes, Tech graduate now coaching at Amherst, writes that it's a far cry from the days when he announced over the public address system at the Hubber games this year. Without attempting to alibi, he says that conditions are making it tough for the Amherst coaches. Several of the boys on the squad have to work two or three hours before reporting for practice in the morning, work again in the afternoon and then report for night practice. It takes a lot of man to stand that rough a grind, but Jack says that the spirit on the squad is high and that observers shouldn't sell them short, even though they won only one game last year and this year's squad is green. Jack adds that the coaches enjoy not being named dark horse or favorites!

University of New Mexico is looking forward to the best year since Berl Huffman has been on the job there. The squad this year is the youngest in point of years (meaning by class) that has been on the field in a long time. There are only eight seniors on the squad. Coaches think that this may handicap the Lobos a little, but they point to the wealth of sophomore and junior talent available without batting an eye. For one thing, they can look forward to developing the team for 1950, when they travel, among other trips, back to West Point, N. Y., to test Army. The Lobos are deepest at the guard positions, but have a general depth in all positions .They may be one of the toughest teams in the Lobo fold in a long, long while.

Funk Defeats Pat O'Dowdy

Dory Funk won a referee's decision over Pat O'Dowdy last night at Sled Allen's arena to welcome the O'Dowdy back rather rudely from his trip in the East.

Funk went to work on O'Dowdy in the first fall, and finally managed to subdue the Big Spring mauler after 11 minutes with a whirling toehold. O'Dowdy came back in four minutes to capture the second fall with a hammerlock and arm stomp, and in the third fall his unorthodox methods cost him the match.

Before the opening bell O'Dowdy took Funk by surprise, but he was not able to get in much damage before separated. After about five minutes of fierce grappling Funk was thrown out of the ring, and when O'Dowdy would not let him back in Referee Glenn Detton awarded the match to Funk.

Gorilla Pogi and Bob Cummings demonstrated some real fireworks in their semi-finals match, and the action was thick and fast all the way.

Pogi won the first fall in 11 minutes with a cat toehold, lost the second to Cummings in five minutes by the same hold, and then was caught with a body flip and pin by Cummings in the third and deciding set-to.

The opener was a battle between Billy Sandow and Vic Weber, and it went 20 minutes to a draw. The match was a crowd pleaser and offered plenty of excitement.

Blue-Beamers Defeat Stamford Nine, 3-1

GREELEY, Colo., Sept. 8 (Spc.) Lubbock's Bluebonnet-Sunbeamers advanced in the National Softball Congress tournament here Wednesday night by chalking up an easy 3-1 triumph over the Stamford nine.

The Beamers went ahead in the first inning, when Roy Butler singled and came home on G. W. Warden's triple, then clinched the win in the sixth on Jim Joe Reigor's home run with Butler on base.

Kenny Scott held the Stamford crew to one run on a single safety.

The Lubbock team is scheduled to play again at 9:30 o'clock Friday night.

In other tourney games Wednesday night the El Paso team nosed out the Toronto, Canada, nine in a 20-inning contest and Phoenix, Ariz., took a 16-frame thriller from Taft, Calif.

SWC Gridders Hold Scrimmage Drills

(By The Associated Press)

Southwest conference coaches are playing cagy.

Football practice started one week ago and not a moan has come out of the seven mentors. And with the first game next week!

Most of the squads have been content to get fundamentals, timing and plays down pat. Some have mixed a few scrimmages into the two-a-day practice diet.

Arkansas, for instance, just yesterday found out it would get its first scrimmage practice Saturday. Coach John Barnhill has been taking it easy with his five full squads.

At the University of Texas, the usual crop of early season hurts has sidelined three sophomore backs.

Byron Townsend, left halfback from Odessa is nursing a bruised shoulder. June Davis of Denton, linebacker, has a charley horse and Reed Quinn of Austin, an all-state back in high school, has a sore hand.

The Longhorns have a game scrimmage Saturday.

Texas Christian university has some casualties, but Coach Leo (Dutch) Meyer isn't looking blue.

Jack Archer, wingback, is bothered with sore leg muscles. Guards Harold Kilman and Dick Lowe, Tackle Hubert Eoff, End Wayne Rogers and Back Billy Murphy and Charley Jackson also have minor ailments.

Defending champion Southern Methodist university worked on passing and had a brief line scrimmage in yesterday's workouts.

A. and M. is expected to be in tip top shape for its opener against Villanova Sept. 17.

Baylor ran through offensive plays yesterday, while Rice's gridders had a really easy time. They posed for pictures.

Ecuador will mechanize rice growing.

HOUSING COST IN CITIES CHECKED

Home Builders Claim Prices Likely To Stay Put For Year

(By The United Press)

The price of a new home will stay about the same for the next year and may go slightly higher, contractors across the nation predicted today.

Their consensus was obtained by United Press in a spot check of building costs in 22 widely scattered cities.

Few home builders saw much prospect for lower prices.

The average price of a five-room frame house in a middle-class residential neighborhood in the 22 cities was estimated roughly at $9,090, not including the lot.

Chicago Highest

Highest building costs were found in Chicago and Louisville, Ky., where contractors said an average five-room frame residence would cost about $12,000.

In Oklahoma City, contractors said the same house would cost about $6,800, the lowest price uncovered in the survey.

Most contractors cited high wages in the construction industry, higher freight rates and few substantial cuts in material prices to support their belief that prices for homes will not drop.

In some cities, contractors predicted even higher prices because of local slum clearance and government housing projects. These, they said, would increase the demand for materials and boost their cost.

At Dallas, Texas, contractor W. James Mitchell said labor costs should remain stable, but that projected government subsidizing of homes for servicemen would create a scarcity of building materials and raise their prices.

Comparative Prices Given

In several cities, including Dallas, Salt Lake City and Los Angeles, contractors reported that construction crews have stepped up their efficiency, keeping prices from going any higher.

Some contractors believed that stiffer competition might cut costs slightly.

At Omaha, Neb., contractor Jack Blodgett said prices would drop "some" if builders would "adopt new ideas and cut a few corners."

Blodgett said rough lumber is "a little cheaper, but it doesn't affect the overall cost much."

The average price of a five-room frame house, not counting the lot, was estimated in the various cities as follows:

Chicago and Louisville, $12,000; Minneapolis and Madison, Wis., $11,000; Milwaukee, $10,200; New York and Des Moines, Iowa, $10,000; Springfield, Ill., $9,750; Omaha $9,500; Miami, $9,000; Indianapolis and Kansas City, Mo., $8,800; Washington, Salt Lake City and Seattle, $8,500; Columbus, Ohio, $8,250; San Francisco bay area, $8,100 (higher in San Francisco proper); Dallas and St. Louis $7,500; Los Angeles, $7,200; Atlanta, Ga., $7,090, and Oklahoma City, $6,800.

Money Parley

the request of Sir Stafford Cripps that the United States open greater markets to British goods.

3. Overseas investments: British and Canadian conferees are reported to have taken the position that the United States must find new ways to put dollars to work by encouraging heavier American investments in foreign countries.

The announcement of the work at today's session was made by Secretary of the Treasury Snyder, the chief American delegate, in a news conference.

Snyder said that Paul Hoffman, the ECA administrator, and Averell Harriman, the ECA ambassador in western Europe, considerably broadened the subject of Britain's dollar earnings at this morning's session to include the problem of dollar earnings of all the ECA countries.

Cripps has not specified how the United States might go about enlarging its markets for British goods.

Presumably he has in mind drastic tariff reduction as a long range step by the United States to help Britain earn the dollars that are necessary to enable it to pay its own way in the world again.

Daily MARKETS

Stock Market

ADVANCE IS STALLED

NEW YORK, Sept. 8 (AP)—An early advance in the stock market stalled in late trading today.

At the final bell price changes were thoroughly scrambled. Many morning gains were either trimmed or converted into small losses. Few prices moved more than a point up or down.

The morning demand, which started to peter out around mid-session, apparently represented a spillover from yesterday.

Higher prices were paid most of the day for U. S. Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, Goodrich, Zenith, Philco, Consolidated Edison, Dow Chemical, Union Pacific, Barnsdall Oil, and U. S. Gypsum.

Wobbly spots included Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck, General Electric, and Johns-Manville.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Sept. 8 (AP)—Cotton futures declined rapidly today following publication of the Sept. 1 cotton crop estimate. Trading was heavy and prices at times were down as much as $1.75 a bale.

Commission houses sold and a considerable amount of pressure came from New Orleans. The government crop estimate indicated production as of Sept. 1 at 14,943,000 bales or 138,000 bales above the Aug. 1 government report.

Futures closed 80 cents to $1.55 lower than the previous close.

"Now," he added happily, "business is getting better all the time and buying at this show is more brisk than I ever dreamed it would be."

Variety Of Products

Buyers from jewelry, hardware, furniture, department and specialty stores are attending the two shows.

Products run the gamut from jewelry, ceramics and bed lamps to luggage.

The exhibits reflect greatly increased imports from Germany and Japan.

Jerry Jokl of Dallas, who wholesales jewelry cases and designs stores displays, a veteran of 17 years in the business, said:

"The Southwest is the bright spot for the jewelry and gifts industry. I feel certain jewelry stores of the Southwest will have a bigger year than last.

"Quality has improved, prices have gone down. It is a buyer's market, whether the buyer is a retailer store representative or a member of the buying public.

"And the whole tone of this business has improved. During the war years it was easy to sell—but a salesman couldn't conscientiously put his heart into selling. The goods didn't have the quality or the variety.

"Now, we've got both again—and we all feel a devil of a lot bet-and .70 Monday, brought the week's total to 1.70 inches.

Lamesa received .47 inch in a downpour that began at 3:30 a. m. and continued through midmorning as a light drizzle, said officials of Radio station KPET, which maintains government weather gauging equipment.

Floydada Gets Inch

At Floydada, County Agent Bob Gibson estimated the fall at one inch. The storm there began at midnight and lasted until daylight. Floydada also received half an inch Wednesday afternoon.

J. W. O. Alldredge, county clerk at Plains, said Yoakum county apparently missed the early-morning rain. The area recevied an eighth of an inch Wednesday afternoon, but none had been recorded this morning.

Mrs. M. O. Hood at Abernathy said .44 inch which fell early this morning added to .80 which fell earlier this week bringing the week's total to 1.24.

W. B. Smith, editor of the Olton Enterprise at Olton, said rainfall in the early morning measured .71 inch. It was cloudy and there was heavy overcast late this morning.

Will Help Cotton

The general rainfall will help the dry-land South Plains cotton tremendously, in the opinion of K. N. Clapp, Anderson, Clayton & Co. representative here and longtime crop observer. He saw the possibility of some hurt to cotton already in wet condition.

However, it appeared that the benefits to dry land cotton would far outweigh the possible hurt to irrigated and dryland cotton having sufficient moisture.

W. H. Curry, editor of the Crosbyton Review, said that town received .91, but east of Blanco canyon toward McAdoo it was reported that rains totaled an inch and a half.

Eddie Irwin of the Morton Tribune staff at Morton said only a light shower was received in the early morning at Morton.

Heaviest rain reported to the Dallas weather bureau was 2.65 inches at Sherman, in North Texas.

Texarkana in northeast Texas had 1.78 inches during the 24-hour period ending at 6:30 a. m. today.

Other rainfall reports included Roanoke, north of Fort Worth, 1.35 inches; Dimmitt 1.48; Dumas 1.47; Panhandle 1.79; Borger .85; Claude 1.38; Hereford .67; Clarendon .98; Childress .59; Amarillo .47 and Shamrock .65.

Man Is Arrested In California Slaying

PECOS, Sept. 8 (AP) — A man taken off a freight train here last night is being held for Los Angeles authorities who have charged him with murder in the death of his wife, Sheriff Charles Fitzgerald, jr., said today.

The man is Arthur Garcia, 27, California-born Latin American. The sheriff said his wife, Lucy Garcia, was knifed to death last April 15 at their home in Los Angeles.

Fitzgerald quoted Garcia as saying he didn't intend to kill his wife and intended only to "mark her up" because she had been "running around." Garcia said his hand slipped and "you know the rest," the sheriff stated.

Garcia waived extradition. He was arrested last night by Riley Barlow of the Border Patrol at Toyah who found Garcia on an east-bound Texas and Pacific freight train. Barlow said Garcia first claimed he had entered the United States illegally from Mexico, but the patrolman found the man's Army discharge papers on his person.

Garcia told officers he had served five years in San Quentin penitentiary on an armed robbery charge. He said he has one child, a baby only a few months old.

O'Donnell Fire

past summer. The building with its addition was valued at $225,000. Smoke and water damage was evident in all parts of the building even though the flames were prevented from spreading to the entire structure.

"There is no possibility of holding classes in the school until it has been completely overhauled," Superintendent Johnson said.

"We are planning to start high school classes next Monday in three of our local churches," Johnson continued. "I'm really sick over this holocaust and while we are getting to work right away the students are bound to miss a lot of their class work."

More than 225 students and 14 teachers have been affected by the fire, Principal M. D. Conger said.

Firemen Are Praised

The volunteer fire force was praised for their work in fighting the blaze and in keeping the loss from being complete. O. G. Smith, jr., of the O'Donnell Index-Press, said the men did a first-class job with a minimum of equipment.

Johnson said he was trying to contact Butler and Brasher, Lubbock architects, to get a survey and estimate on the cost of rebuilding the school. "I'm sure we can't get it ready anytime this school year but we want to get started as quickly as possible."

It was not immediately determined how much of the loss would be covered by insurance.

Rail Strikes

strike plans.

The strike calls in Pittsburgh by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen stemmed from disputes involving technical interpretation of various rules.

The walkout of about 600 trainmen of the Monongahela connecting railroad is set for 3 p. m. Saturday and the one calling out 1,200 brakemen and conductors on the Union line is scheduled for 6:30 a. m. EST) Tuesday. The Union road is the inter-plant line between all mills of U. S. Steel corporation subsidiaries in the Pittsburgh district. The Monongahela line serves Jones & Laughlin Steel corporation plants in Pittsburgh and nearby Aliquippa.

Intervention of a presidential fact-finding board would avert the walkout against the Monongahela connecting line. A board, however, has passed on the Union road's dispute. The brotherhood has rejected the board's recommendations.

New Escape Law Is Applied At Amarillo

AMARILLO, Sept. 8. (U.P.)—District Attorney Lloyd King has applied the new Texas escape law for the first time in Potter county history.

He filed an escape charge against John Dillon, a trusty who fled last Sunday while on a weed-cutting detail at the Tri-State fairgrounds.

Dillon was taken into custody yesterday morning. Officers found him hiding in the rear of an automobile. The driver, James Farris, was under indictment already for burglary. A new charge, carrying a pistol, was lodged against him. Authorities said the gun was one stolen from an Amarillo policeman.

The new escape law, which was passed by the 51st legislature, went into effect last April. It provides a penalty of two to five years.

Testimony In Fowler Case Is Completed

Testimony was completed and attorneys were ready to begin arguments at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the county court jury trial of B. F. (Lefty) Fowler, 34, on a charge of possession of whisky and gin for purpose of sale.

The complaint was based on Fowler's arrest on Aug. 18 in Lubbock. Two of three previous convictions on liquor law violations were dropped by the county attorney's office because of confusion in records of the cases in the county clerk's office.

The maximum penalty for Fowler, if convicted would be a $200 fine.

Fowler is represented by Buck McNeil and Clifford W. Brown of the Lubbock law firm of Burks and McNeil. Prosecution is being conducted by Travis Shelton and Dudley Brummett, assistant county attorneys.

School Segregation In New Jersey Ended After Protest

MT. HOLLY, N. J., Sept. 8 (AP)—Abandonment of the all-Negro Samuel Aaron elementary school in the face of a boycott by angry mothers has brought a 23-year-old segregation policy to an end.

The Mt. Holly school board took the action last night and announced that the negro pupils will be absorbed in two other schools in the area.

Six Pupils Appear

Only six pupils showed up yesterday at Samuel Aaron for the beginning of the new term. The rest, all negroes, were kept away by some 60 parents to protest segregation of children and teachers in local public schools.

Officials of the Seventh Ward Inter-Racial association are spearheading the anti-segregation drive. They said parents who tried to register children at the Samuel Miller elementary school were told by school officials they had been instructed not to sign up negro children.

School board President William E. Karg said in a statement last night that negro children will be taken into the Brainerd-Buttonwood and Samuel Miller schools "to avoid any possible criticism in causing an issue on the subject."

The segregation policy had been in effect in this South Jersey community since the Samuel Aaron school was built in 1926.

Families Of Skunks Under Man's Home Multiplying Faster Than Desirable

TEANECK, N. J., Sept. 8 (AP)—This story makes plenty of scents—to the Warren Westphals of 21 State St., anyway.

It seems that whole families of skunks have moved in under their house.

Not one or two, but dozens.

And Westphal can't poison them. The state fish and game commission says so. It's too dangerous.

He can't smell them out. An expert at the Bronx zoo says so. No smell is strong enough to repel them.

All Westphal can do is trap them as he has been doing for the past week.

He has trapped four in seven days, but the clan seems to multiply at a faster rate.

Bring on more traps, Westphal says. He's just begun to fight.

Houses are hard to find these days.

Delegates Of Paralyzed Veterans Of U. S. Open Annual Convention In New York City

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (AP)—There are tables in the conference room, but few chairs. The delegates don't need them. They have brought their own chairs—wheel chairs.

Fourteen of them are here for the annual convention of the Paralyzed Veterans of America. They represent 1,600 members.

Session Is Opened

Opening the session yesterday in the hotel New Yorker, President Bernard E. Shufelt told delegates that "we must stop looking to Washington for bigger and better bonuses, and go to work."

Paralyzed veterans, he said, can take their rightful place on the American scene only by their own "sweat and effort."

It is the first time that the organization has held its convention outside a veterans hospital.

Drive Own Cars

Some of the delegates, like Miles Nevin, a student, and Verdell Foard, a metal crafts worker, both delegates of the Memphis, Tenn., chapter, drove to New York in specially adapted automobiles.

The longest trip was made by Pat Grissom, of Van Nuys, Calif., who came by plane.

A message from President Truman, read to the convention which lasts through Sunday, said:

"The heroic battle you are waging to assume your full responsibility to society is an inspiration to the nation."

Paul Robeson Burned In Effigy By Group Of Robed Klansmen

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 8 (AP)—Paul Robeson, the negro singer, was burned in effigy last night by a small group of robed but unmasked Klansmen.

It was the first public demonstration by the Klan in the Birmingham district since 18 men were indicted on flogging and related charges here several weeks ago.

A dummy bearing a placard, "welcome Paul Robeson," was strung from one arm of a 20-foot cross. Another dummy with a large question mark pinned on it was hung from the other arm. .

E. E. Campbell, exalted cyclops of the Robert E. Lee klavern, told reporters the burning of the cross and dummies symbolized the welcome Robeson would receive if he came to Birmingham.

He said the other dummy represented "Communist elements which are trying to sneak into the south."

The cross was burned atop a hill several hundred yards north of the city limits by about 15 white-robed men.

Emergency Drive For Polio Funds Launched

IT DID HAPPEN—Leon Gillman, 18, never thought of polio striking him, but it did. He was stricken Sept. 19, 1948. He arose from bed, felt badly and returned to bed. On arising the second time, he could not stand. He has shown considerable improvement since that time, but still uses a wheel chair much of the time. He can walk with braces. He was in critical condition after he was stricken, being paralyzed in most of his body. He was treated two weeks at Plainview, then spent about nine months in Hendrick Memorial hospital in Abilene. Use of his muscles is returning slowly. He has learned to play a guitar while ill. He thinks work of the infantile paralysis foundation, which has paid cost of braces, crutches and wheel chair and treatment, is "wonderful." He had never paid particular attention to the organization before he was stricken. "I didn't think anything like that would ever happen to me, but it did," he said. Leon is son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gillman, 316 Hub Homes.

Lubbock Will Aid Campaign

NEW YORK, Sept. 8 (AP)—With the United States in the grip of one of the most severe polio epidemics in its history, an emergency drive opened today for funds to cope with an expected total of 40,000 cases.

This is nearly double the number reported so far.

The U. S. Postoffice department is working with the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis in the week-long emergency drive, with the goal set at $14,500,000.

About Out Of Funds

Announcing the appeal over the Columbia Broadcasting system last night, foundation President Basil O'Connor said the agency has just about run out of funds to care for victims of the disease.

He said all signs are that the epidemic is just about half over, although the public health service in Washington reported a downturn in incidence of the disease for the second successive week.

With all states but Illinois reporting, the week ended Sept. 3 had 2,915 cases. Officials said that after the Illinois figure is in, the total still probably will be less than the 3,214 new cases reported for the week ended Aug. 31.

So far, the largest number of new cases reported was in the week ended Aug. 24, when 3,422 were stricken.

Is First Appeal

This is the first time the foundation has ever called for contributions in addition to those obtained in its annual "March of Dimes" campaign.

O'Connor said the foundation funds now are being spent at the rate of $100,000 a day to fight the epidemic, and at this rate, there is only enough money to last about 11 more days.

In the emergency fund drive, arrangements have been made for the Postoffice department to deliver contributions addressed only to "Polio" in care of any local postoffice in the country.

Assistant Postmaster General V. C. Burke directed postmasters throughout the country to "cooperate in every possible way in this worthy project."

Load Is Heaviest

O'Connor said that so far this year, 20,513 cases of the disease have been reported across the nation—the largest toll ever recorded in the first eight months.

The public health service in Washington put the figure to date at 23,458.

O'Connor predicted the total will climb to 40,000 by Christmas, far above the all-time high of 30,000 cases in 1916's record epidemic.

The foundation has sent out $5,662,164 in epidemic aid so far this year, O'Connor said, and on-

BIG ATTENDANCE IS EXPECTED

4-H Feeder Short Course To Be Staged At Tech Saturday

Texas Technological college's Agriculture division will be host Saturday to the Fourth Annual 4-H Feeder Short Course, which is expected to draw an attendance of between 200 and 300 4-H boys from over the South Plains area. The Texas Extension Service is cooperating in staging the day's program.

Following the assembly and registration, the boys will be taken on a tour of the campus and the college farm. The boys will bring sandwiches for a lunch at noon.

The afternoon program will be given over to sectional meetings with the boys broken up into groups to be given a thorough course in the branch of feeding they are interested in the most.

The section meetings will be conducted from 1 to 4 p.m.

Dean Stangel, Wm. T. Piper, beef cattle herdsmen, and Extension Service specialists, will be instructors in beef cattle with county agricultural agents, Calvin Holcomb, Tulia; Raymond King, Dimmitt; J. K. Adams, Muleshoe; and L. H. McElroy, Seminole, as section leaders.

Demonstrations will include: selecting calves and culling the cow herd; beef cattle equipment in use at the college; controlling parasites; a planned fattening program for the South Plains; and setting up a show exhibit.

In the poultry section, instructor will be H. L. Matthews, associate professor of animal husbandry at Tech; and Joe Jones, Lubbock; and James Murphrey, Seminole, section leaders.

Dual Producer For Gaines Is Assured

The first dual-producer for the Flanagan field of central-south Gaines county, has been assured at Magnolia Petroleum company No. 1 Flanagan, a one-location east flanker to the discovery of that producing area.

Magnolia No. 1 Flanagan was recently showed as a flowing producer from the Devonian. It has now shown for commercial production from the Clear Fork of the Permian through casing perforation at 7,228-50 feet.

Well Kicks Off

Operator pulled the swab one time on those perforations and the well kicked off and flowed out 20 barrels of load oil in one hour and 15 minutes, and then flowed 152 barrels of new oil in five and three-quarter hours, through a one-half inch tubing choke.

The choke was then reduced to a one-quarter inch opening and the Clear Fork interval flowed 182 barrels of new oil in 14 hours, gas-oil ratio was 743-1. Corrected gravity was 38.2. Operator is continuing to flow to test and complete from the upper pay.

The Devonian section at 10,345-382 feet, flowed 90 barrels of load oil and 509 barrels of new oil in 27 hours through a one-half inch choke, through casing perforations.

The exploration drilled to a bottom of 12,225 feet in the Ellenburger. That zone made some oil and some water, and was plugged off.

Location is 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from west lines of section 9, block A-23, psl survey, about ten miles south of Seminole.

Shows Of Production

Shows of possible production from a lower Permian section have been encountered in central-south Gaines county at Samedan Oil Corporation and Anderson Brothers No. 1-E-A Andrews.

This project is in the northwest side of the Robertson field where the production is from the middle Permian above 7,200 feet. It is 660 feet from north and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 19, block A-24, psl survey.

A drillstem test was run at 8,945-95 feet. The tool was open two hours, recovery was 450 feet of drilling mud, of which the top 50 feet and the bottom 116 feet was cut with oil. There were no signs of formation water.

Another drillstem test was taken at 8,997-9,070 feet. The tester was open two hours. Recovery was 90 feet of drilling mud, 480 feet of heavily oil cut mud, 150 feet of clean oil, 360 feet of oil cut salt water, and 270 feet of salt water.

The zone at 9,100-71 feet was tested for two hours. Recovery was 2,790 feet of salty, sulphur water. There were no signs of oil or gas.

The project is now making hole below 9,377 feet in lime.

It showed for possible production in the horizon at 7,095-7,185 feet. Contract calls for the prospector to continue to 12,500 feet to explore into the Ellenburger.

Producer Completed

Sinclair Oil & Gas Company has completed one new producer from the Ellenburger in the Shafter Lake field of north-central Andrews county and staked locations for two new explorations to explore the same zone in that

Legality Of Trying Girl, 17, Pondered

BRADY, Sept. 8. (U.P.)—Sofia Anargeros Peterson sat in her jail cell and read the New Testament today, as officers pondered the legality of trying her for murder and possibly sending her to the electric chair.

District Attorney Ralston P. Haun received a copy yesterday of her birth certificate from authorities in Somerville, Mass., her home town. The document showed her to be only 17—a juvenile under Texas laws.

Haun declined comment on the apparent setback, saying only that "we are going to do all we can to administer justice properly. . ."

A McCulloch county grand jury recently refused to indict the alleged hitch-hike slayer of Brady realtor Lewis Patterson, presumably because of her age.

But officials were studying an appeals court ruling in a similar case, and it was believed the precedent would allow Mrs. Peterson to be indicted and brought to trial after she passes her 18th birthday Dec. 11.

Hilton Plans For Expansion

Hilton hotel officials are "definitely considering" building additional rooms onto their present building here, Connie Hilton, jr., said in Lubbock Wednesday night.

The hotelman said plans are still "quite tentative" thus far, but gave strong indication additional rooms will be added here by the Hilton chain.

Survey Is Underway

The younger Hilton arrived here Tuesday night in connection with a survey currently underway by dietician Mrs. Ann Hoke for the local hotel.

"We will have a better, tastier, more well-rounded, and more appetizing menu when the survey is complete," the younger Hilton declared. The dietician was employed by the hotel chain for the specific purpose of bettering dining room menus. She has already completed such work in Albuquerque and El Paso.

Hilton revealed that S. Ellison, vice president of the company, which has hotels scattered across the nation, will be in Lubbock in about a month in connection with the possibility of adding rooms onto the hotel. He said he could not say as yet what the final decision in the matter will be.

Second Visit Here

The hotel official spent the day Wednesday dove hunting, but will settle down to work today. He said he will probably be here about a week and a half in connection with the menu survey.

Speculation over the possibility Hilton might add rooms here was stimulated some time ago when a chamber of commerce survey to determine whether the city could use more hotel space was underway. The survey has since been completed, showing Lubbock has the same hotel space it had when only about half its present size.

This is the younger Hilton's second visit to Lubbock this year. He was here some six months ago on a routine check-up of the hotel. He said Wednesday he was in the Navy with two men from Lubbock, whom he wished would "call me up."

Madras, India, censors recently cut four Indian films, deleting scenes of "excessive love-making brutality and vulgar dancing."

THE QUESTION

Can you tell a person's economic status by the clothes he wears?

THE ANSWERS

MISS EVA MAINES, Avinger addition: "Not always, because some people aren't careful in their dressing. Some know how to dress well on moderate means. Some who are well-off give the impression that they don't have anything."

ERNEST L. TARKENTON, 2517 Thirty-fifth, drilling contractor: "I think you can. People who have money try to show it. Those who don't have money try to dress as if they have it, but make a poor showing. Of course, there are some you just can't tell about. Some people just know better how to choose their clothes."

MISS PHYLLIS ATNIP, 3402 twenty-seventh, bookkeeper at T.-N.M.&O coaches: "I should think you could to a certain extent. People who work to earn a living dress conservatively, while people who don't have to work usually dress for pleasure or fashion."

DOLPH COLLINS, 618 Ave. K, seismograph shooter for Republic Exploration Co.: "I can't always tell. Some of the best dressed people are store clerks, and I wouldn't think that they would be too well financially situated. Some of the richest people don't go in for fine clothes. This is especially true in West Texas."

J. W. ADDINGTON, 2115 Fourteenth, retired: "No, I can't. In a lot of cases it will work all right and in others it won't. One will be dressed up and you'll think he's worth a million when he isn't. Another will come along commonly dressed and he will be worth a million."

MRS E. G. ELKINS, route 3, housewife: "No, I can't. Those who do not have the money just can't dress up, but some people who have money don't dress up either."

First Hale County Cotton Bale Ginned

HALE CENTER, Sept. 8 (Special)—Melvin Hicks ginned the first bale of Hale county cotton here Wednesday off land owned by J. B. Marion and Clarence Young, Lubbock cotton buyers.

The bale weighed 476 pounds, with 700 pounds of cottonseed. Elmo Caudle, manager of the new Caudle gin here and ginner of the bale, bid 35 cents per pound for it.

A cash premium of $100 had already been made up for Hicks by local merchants today, with another $100 expected to be added tomorrow. Hicks lives five miles west and one and one-half miles south of here. This is his first year in Hale county, having moved here from Sherman county last winter.

Bidding was still open on the bale, but no formal auction is to be held, as is the custom in Hale county. Oddly enough, the bale is the third to be ginned in this county this fall. However, the one ginned at Petersburg earlier was harvested in Floyd county and another, ginned at Abernathy, was picked in Lubbock county.

Hicks planted his cotton the last day of April and got a stand despite heavy rains. Of the $100 pot made up for him today, $25 was donated by each of the Lions and the merchants' clubs.

SLOGAN CLAIMED NO WAY TO WIN

Republicans Think "Statism" Good Word To Defeat Demos

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (AP)—Republicans are picking up the word "statism" as the party's unofficial battle-cry against the Democrats' "fair deal" program.

Some Republicans want their party to make the fight against "statism"—or a social welfare state—the basic issue in all major elections. They charge that what President Truman calls his "fair deal" program is leading the country toward greater and greater state control over every man, woman and child.

Republican Floor Leader Wherry of Nebraska has asked GOP policy makers to take an official party stand on this issue.

"We've got to fight statism, the social welfare government, of whatever you wish to call it," Wherry told a reporter. "Government economy and opposition to statism are two issues every Republican can agree on."

Demos Hoot At Idea

Other Republicans agreed with Wherry. But Democratic leaders hooted at the idea that "statism" can be made a political campaign issue.

President Truman in a speech last Monday called the cry of "statism" one of several "trumped up slogans" fostered by those who would frighten people in higher income groups.

Democratic Leader Lucas of Illinois said: "It's just another slogan. The Republicans originate a new one every campaign. But they can't win on a slogan. The people want something constructive as we have given them."

Charges of "statism"—generally hurled as an epithet at the Democratic administration—are creeping more and more into public speeches by prominent people.

James F. Byrnes, former Democratic secretary of state, first used the word last spring when he warned against the growing power of the federal government.

Others Chime In

Republicans greefully picked up the word in attacking the Democratic administration.

Recently Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, now president of Columbia university, lashed out against "statism" in a speech which some Democrats thought sounded very much like Republican political talk.

And only yesterday Senator Dulles (R-NY) said the threat of statism will be the major issue in the New York senatorial campaign this fall. Dulles is expected to receive the Republican nomination to oppose former Governor Herbert Lehman, the likely Democratic choice.

"The trend to statism needs to be stopped now and here," Dulles said in announcing he would accept the Republican nomination if it is offered to him. Senator Capehart (R-Ind) said there is no doubt in his mind that statism is the basic issue between the two political parties.

As generally refined by Republicans, statism describes a government which is reaching out for more power over the lives of the people.

Lucas said no one has lost any liberties under the Democratic program. "In fact," he added, "the great benefits have brought more happiness and contentment."

Senator Thomas (D-Utah) said a catch-phrase isn't likely to be very effective in ousting Democrats from the government. "The country isn't in danger of statism as long as the federal government has its checks and balances," he observed.

But Senator Ives (R-NY) one of a Republican group of self-styled Senate liberals, said he agreed with Dulles that statism is a threat to the country under Democratic control.

"I regard it as a fundamental issue," Ives said.

Dewey Worried

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, the 1944 and 1948 Republican presidential nominee, joined in the rising GOP chorus against "statism" with a demand that the government get "off the backs of our farmers."

Dewey spoke last night at Syracuse, N. Y., at a farm dinner sponsored by the Syracuse Chamber of Commerce in connection with the current New York state fair.

"Every step we take toward statism of the old world brings the day much closer when we too shall become a food deficient area," Dewey said.

He said he was worried by what he termed increasing government interference with individuals because "the more we have the more it becomes accepted."

Woman Is Granted Divorce, Tavern

CHICAGO, Sept. 8. (AP)—Mrs. Josephine Hocher, 37, was granted a divorce in superior court yesterday from Walter Hocher, 40, and became his landlord.

In lieu of alimony, Mrs. Hocher received title to property which includes a tavern Hocher has been operating and an apartment above it.

Mrs. Hocher agreed to give Hocher a 10-year lease on the tavern at $80 a month rental.

In her suit she charged her husband with habitual drunkenness.

The body, sent overland from California, will arrive here Thursday night.

Williams Funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

FREED FROM HOSPITAL

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (AP)—Paul Makashuk, who remained sealed in a tiny Brooklyn closet for 10 years, has been released from a mental hospital and is now helping in his father's Brooklyn store, Pilgrim state hospital officials said yesterday.

Crazed Man Captured After Wild Shooting

POINT COMFORT, Quebec, Sept. 8 (AP)—A crazed man armed with a shotgun, who terrorized this tiny village for 24 hours, shooting at neighbors and passing motorists, was captured by police late yesterday.

Police said Nicholas Perrier of this backwoods village, 45 miles north of Ottawa, shot at his son when the boy tried to interfere with him and forced his wife to help him chop down telephone poles to prevent a call to police.

No one was injured in Perrier's wild shooting spree, which began after an argument with neighbors.

Runaway Car Kills California Woman

ARCADIA, Calif., Sept. 8 (AP) — A driverless, runaway car ran down and killed an 84-year-old crippled woman yesterday as she sat in a wheel-chair in her front yard.

Sheriffs deputies identified the victim of the freak accident as Mrs. Mary Maes. For several hours the car had been parked in a driveway in front of the woman's house, officers said. Suddenly it slipped its brakes, moved down the driveway and hurtled into the yard, striking Mrs. Maes head on.

Waco Blanks Wichita Falls Spudders, 1-0

(By The Associated Press)

An unearned run in the seventh inning enabled Waco to blank Wichita Falls, 1-0, last night and take the opening game of this Big State league Shaughnessy playoff series.

Austin and Texarkana's first game was postponed because of rain. They'll try to open again tonight at Texarkana.

Bill Pierro, Waco's league strikeout leader, fanned eight, gave up only four hits and was a contributing factor in producing the game's only tally.

Johnny McKeown beat out a bunt in the seventh and Ray Feraco did the same. With two away and two on, Pierro came to bat.

He slammed the second pitch off Spudder hurler Ed Cole's foot. The ball bounced over second. Second Baseman Pat McNair picked it up, but his throw to force Feraco was bad and McKeown scored from second.

The two teams play in Wichita Falls again tonight.

Four watchdogs slept while the home of Sir Henry Samman at Cottingham, England, was robbed of $4,000 worth of silver and rugs.

Do You Really Want to Take Off That Ugly Fat?

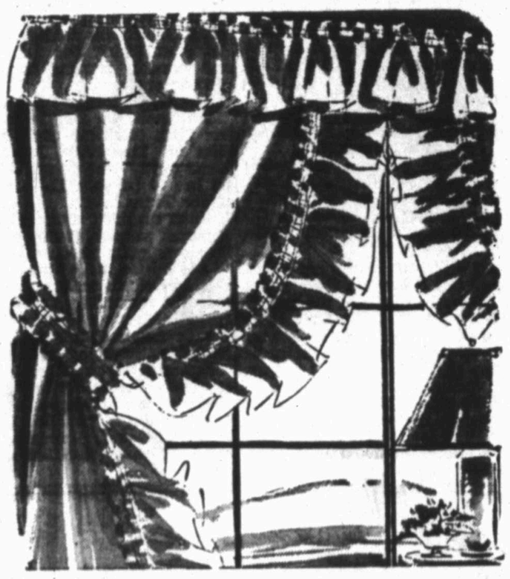

Recently there has been a number of new reducing preparations on the market, some of them based on the diet and vitamin "plan." It is obvious that vitamins will not reduce the body weight, so one must depend on diet to reduce. But it is also obvious that one cannot go on a strenuous diet over a protracted period, and any weight lost will be restored if the former eating habits are gone back to.

So what to do? Well, here is a tip to you "overweight gals" who want to fight "the Battle of the Bulges" in a different way. Ask any well stocked Texas druggist for four ounces of Barcentrate. Mix with 12 ounces of grapefruit juice and take two tablespoonsful twice a day.

This preparation contains nothing harmful and the makers agree to refund your money on the very first bottle if it does not show you the way to lose ugly fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves.

Barcentrate is low in cost and is not based on the diet and vitamin "plan." You need never know a hungry moment while reducing with Barcentrate.

TENSION MOUNTING IN CONTEST

Miss America Hopefuls Start Second Round Of Appearances

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 8. (AP) — Hopeful, hard-working Miss America contestants face a busy time of it today in preparation for the second round of preliminary contests.

The 52 beauties culled from the cream of the nation's crop begin their day at 9:45 a. m., when they leave their hotels for a breakfast conference with contest judges.

They must get the sleep out of their eyes and be on their toes—breakfast-time is when the judges form opinions of personality qualities of the gorgeous gals. Personality is one of the four considerations in selecting finalists for the Saturday night showdown.

At 12:30 p. m. the girls report to Convention hall for an arduous rehearsal of tonight's second preliminary in the bathing suit, talent, and eveng gown divisions.

After an hour or two of this, the chaperones—one for each contestant—pick up their charges at Convention hall. Their afternoons are free for sightseeing or resting. But no dates. Contest rules don't allow it.

Next on the agenda comes dinner, and the tension begins to mount. Tonight may be the night, each of the beauties hopes, that will bring her the points to make her a finalist.

The rewards are great. Miss America of 1949 will get a $5,000 scholarship. The retiring Miss America, Bebe Shopp of Hopkins, Minn., reportedly picked up an additional $50,000 in personal appearances during the last year. Another $20,000 in scholarships goes to the runners-up.

By 8 p. m. the girls have returned to Convention hall with their hearts pounding. They must wait half an hour for the show to begin.

Then, in one of three groups, each girl crosses her fingers and hopes she is the most devastating in an evening gown, most deliciously curvaceous in a bathing suit, or most talented in singing, acting, or entertaining.

In the first preliminary last night, Miss Arizona and Miss California tied for first place in the bathing suit division. They are Jacque Mercer, 18, of Litchfield, Ariz., and 19-year-old Jone Ann Pederson of Santa Rosa, Calif.

The two girls nudged out 18 other entries in the bathing suit class.

Sultry violin renditions of gypsy airs won hands down in the talent division for Gloria Yvonne Burkhart, 19, Miss Minnesota. The retiring queen, Bebe Shopp, presented Gloria with the golden trophy. Both were classmates at West high school in Minneapolis.

Judges announced no winner in the evening gown poise division. However, contestants will get point credits in this class toward the final scoring.

When the winners in tonight's preliminary are announced late at night, the long day comes to an end for the girls. Their chaperones will take them to their hotels for much-needed sleep.

Tomorrow is another day and another preliminary.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills. Adv

One Man Is Injured In Perryton Flames

PERRYTON, Sept. 8. (AP)—One man was injured when a spectacular fire destroyed the Gulf Oil Co. bulk station here yesterday afternoon.

Perry Durham, 45, of Borger, driver of a gasoline truck, received burns about his face, right leg and right arm.

Harry Nail, owner of the bulk plant, estimated losses at about $10,000.

Wheat in the 150,000 bushel Ellis Grain Co. elevator nearby may have been damaged. The elevator caught fire briefly when a south wind carried flames in that direction. The flames were quickly extinguished.

Durham said he had just finished filling three large storage tanks with 18,00 gallons of gasoline and had turned a switch to shut off the pump when the fire broke out.

CHILD HURT FATALLY

HASKELL, Sept. 8. (AP)—Alta Mae Roberts, age 6, of Haskell, was injured fatally late yesterday when she was hit by an automobile.

German Party Rivalry Keen

BONN, Germany, Sept. 8 (AP)—Only 24 hours after it got down to business, west Germany's parliament appeared to be off to a stormy start.

The deep antagonism between parties which was revealed in the August election campaign flared again during yesterday's opening ceremonies.

The first session gave little indication that the 402 members of the bundestag (lower house) would work in unison in the task of rebuilding Germany.

"I hope to keep the debates on a dignified plane, but it may be a difficult task," Dr. Erich Koehler, president of the bundestag, said.

Rivalry Still Strong

Rivalry between the Conservative Christian Democratic party (CDU) and the leftist Social Democrats (SPD) appeared as strong as ever.

A socialist proposal for a moment of silence in memory of German socialists who lost their lives opposing Hitler drew a complaint from right-wingers that their own sacrifices were being overlooked.

Socialist condemnation of "emergency" legislation that paved the way for Hitler's rise, gave the Communists a cue:

"There are deputies sitting here who voted for that law," shouted Max Reimann, west German Red leader.

An unexpected rift developed between the CDU and its twin Christian Socialist union (CSU), the later group accusing the CDU of reneging on its support of Dr. Hans Ehard, CSU chairman, for president of the bundesrat (upper house).

Instead, CDU votes helped to award the presidency to Karl Arnold, CDU minister president of the Ruhr state of North Rhine-Westphalia.

New Home For Less Than $6,300 Set

NEW ALBANY, Ind., Sept. 8. (AP)—Gunnison Homes, Inc., a subsidiary of the United States Steel Corp., has plans for a pre-fabricated plywood house intended to cost less than $6,300, including land.

An announcement last night said the basementless four-room house is designed to take advantage of 95 percent FHA mortgage insurance, limited to houses appraised at $6,300 or less. It said the house might be sold for $350 down and about $37 a month, including taxes and insurance.

The house plans include kitchen cabinets, double sink, automatic water heater and forced-air heating with oil or gas.

Attempt On Life Of Envoy Discounted

MILAN, Italy, Sept. 8. (AP)—Police today wrote off a tip that an attempt would be made on the life of U. S. Ambassador James C. Dunn as the work of a prankster.

The hunt for a would-be assassin, named in a letter received by Rome police, has been called off, officers said.

Cuba's latest oil well, brought in on the Jarahueca field, is flowing 900 barrels a day, Havana reports.

DALLAS YOUTH IS HOSPITALIZED

Ship With Body Of Debutante Killed In Fall Reaches Port

BOSTON, Sept. 8 (AP)—A stairway fall which brought death to a young Texas debutante and serious injury to a young man companion dimmed the usual homecoming gaiety of the liner Excalibur.

The American Export line steamship arrived last night with the body of Miss Adrienne Atwell, 20, of Dallas, and injured Robert M. Willard, 21, also of Dallas.

Willard, who suffered a possible fractured skull and an injury to the left eye, was taken to Peter Bent Brigham hospital. He was reported in "fair condition.' His name was not placed on the danger list.

Parents On Trip

Miss Atwell—a granddaughter of Federal Judge William M. Atwell—and Willard suffered head injuries in a fall down a nine-foot stairway between the boat and promenade decks early last Saturday.

The girl died of a fractured skull early Tuesday despite efforts of three doctors aboard the Excalibur and an Army Neurosurgeon who was rushed to the liner.

Her parents, Atty. and Mrs. Webster Atwell, who were returning with their daughter and a party of college friends from a Mediterranean cruise, planned to disembark today and fly to Dallas with the body.

A company official quoted Capt. Samuel N. Groves of Brooklyn, N. Y., master of the Excalibur, as saying Miss Atwell and Willard fell from an unknown cause while ascending the stairway between decks.

Accident Unexplainable

Witnesses said they were walking nearly side by side about halfway up the two and a half foot wide stairway when they toppled backward and landed on the promenade deck.

Capt. Groves reported the sea was "fairly calm" at the time.

Miss Atwell's father said the accident was "most inexplicable since the sea was only moderately rough and the stairs were those generally used by all the passengers."

The girl was almost unconscious and her companion semi-conscious when they were removed to the ship's hospital by the Excalibur's physician, Dr. S. Robert Small of Los Angeles.

A radio message asking for oxygen brought the Army hospital ship, Comfort. Lt. Col. John Luppins, a neuro-surgeon, joined two physician-passengers, Drs. David R. Telson of Brooklyn, and Dr. Stuart T. Ross of Passaic, N. J., in helping Dr. Small.

Mrs. Atwell, her daughter and seven other college friends sailed from New York June 28 and toured Mediterranean ports and Italy.

Atty. Atwell and Willard joined the party at Marseille for the return voyage.

The Excalibur, carrying 117 passengers, arrived in Boston about 16½ hours ahead of schedule after being ordered to increase her speed because of Willard's injury.

The liner will continue on to New York after dropping off some 30 persons here.

New Guinea natives now get radio lessons in pidgin English.

NEW YORK SENATE RACE WARMS UP

Dulles Almost Certain To Be Nominated, GOP Leader Says

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8 (AP) — Senator Dulles (R-NY) said today he has given no thought to the type of campaign he will wage this fall for New York's short-term Senate seat.

"First," laughed Dulles when queried by a reporter, "I've got to be nominated."

But Senator Ives (R-NY) told reporters there is no question that Dulles will be nominated by the New York State Republican committee on Sept. 15.

Dulles said yesterday he would "gladly accept."

"He is the only candidate," Ives said, "and he will be nominated."

Ives said he is so certain that he'd be willing to bet that Dulles will be the only candidate up for consideration by the G. O. P.

Lehman Democratic Opponent

Dulles, asked whether he plans to make many speeches in New York City, said "I don't know."

"First of all," he said, "I must be nominated and then I must obtain a campaign manager who will map out my speaking program."

Dulles will be contesting for the unexpired Senate term left vacant by the resignation of ailing Robert F. Wagner, a Democrat. The term expires Jan. 3, 1951.

Dulles' almost certain Democratic opponent in the special election will be a former New York governer, Herbert H. Lehman. Lehman announced several days ago his willingness to accept the Democratic nomination.

Long Term In 1951

Immediately after Dulles told a news conference that he would accept the Republican nomination, speculation began as to whether he might aspire for the full six-year term beginning in 1951 in the event he is successful against Lehman.

Dulles, in recent conversations with reporters, has indicated—strongly—that he has no desire to remain in the Senate for such an extended period.

He is known to feel that he thinks he can be of greater service elsewhere.

However, it was recalled that at the time Gov. Thomas E. Dewey named him to succeed Wagner, Dulles said that he neither desired nor expected to be a condidate in next November's special election for the short term.

Defeated First Time

Constant urgings by Senate and New York state Republican leaders, however, resulted in Dulles announcing his availability. Presumably, similar urgings might cause him to think differently when the time comes to elect a candidate for the full term in November, 1950.

Lehman, Dulles' probable Democratic opponent, will be running for the Senate a second time. The first time, three years ago, he was defeated by Ives.

Lehman has long been known to aspire to the Senate as the climax to his political career. He was elected governor of New York after the late Franklin D. Roosevelt left the executive mansion in Albany to become president. Previously, Lehman had served as lieutenant-governor under Roosevelt.

He continued as governor for four terms and then, in the final month of his last term, resigned to become head of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation administration.

12-Year-Old Girl And Band Leader Are Honeymooning

RUSSELLVILLE, Ala., Sept. 8 (AP)—A stage struck 12-year-old girl and the hillbilly bandleader she married are honeymooning here with parental wishes for happiness.

The rapid fire romance began several weeks ago when Shirley Elizabeth Stokes wrote William I. Davis, hillbilly maestro, that she wanted a job with his "Franklin County Play Boys."

The 22-year-old bandleader gave Shirley Elizabeth the job and it wasn't long before the two were in love.

Parents Change Mind

On August 27, five days before Shirley Elizabeth was 12 years old, the couple went to Iuka, Miss., and were married.

"I asked her mother for permission for us to get married, but she said 'no,' and we went to Iuka," the young bridegroom explained.

"Shirley Elizabeth misstated her age, and we were married by a minister there."

Later on, Davis said, the parents of his child bride relented and "wished us happiness."

Reclamation Office At McAllen To Close

McALLEN, Sept. 8. (AP)—Plans have been announced for the closing of the Reclamation bureau office here.

Howard Robbins, regional director from Amarillo, said most of the personnel will go to the Austin office. John Thompson, chief of the local office, is being transferred to an unannounced office.

The office recently completed a report on the proposed gravity canal off the Falcom dam. Robbins said that recent informal polls showed that water users favored the canal by votes of about 5,000 to 4,000.

Critics of the project have said that the 5 to 4 vote is not enough to influence Congress to finance the $126,000,000 canal.

"The project is only as dormant as the people of the valley want it to be," Robbins said. "The bureau will return when the valley wants it to."

field at about 12,000 feet.

The company completed its No. 3-153 University as a natural flowing producer from the Ellenburger for an initial 24-hour production of 1,091.49 barrels of 41.3-gravity oil through a three-quarter inch tubing choke. Gas-oil ratio of the new petroleum was 280-1. There was no formation water.

Flowing tubing pressure was 80 pounds.

The production came from open-hole section between the seven-inch oil string cemented at 11,812 feet and the total depth at 11,825 feet. Top of the pay was at 11,570 feet.

This new well is 555 feet from south and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 13, block 13, University survey.

Sinclair is to start drilling in the near future on two other projects in the Shafter Lake field, with rotary tools.

Its No. 11-154 University will be located 555 feet from south and 2,089.95 feet from west lines of the north half of section 24, block 13, University survey. That makes it two miles west of Shafter lake.

The drillsite of the other venture, Sinclair No. 12-154 University, is 765 feet from north and 2,089.95 feet from west lines of the north half of section 24, block B, University survey and two miles west of Shafter Lake.

Locations Are Staked

Standard Oil Company of Texas has staked locations for two new oil explorations on the north side of the North Snyder field of north-central Scurry county, both of which are to drill to 6,900 feet to test for production from the Canyon lime reef.

The company's No. 8-9, Jessie W. Brown is to be 680 feet from north and east lines of the south half of section 449, block 97, H&TC survey and 10 miles north of Snyder.

Standard No. 1-8 Jessie W. Brown will be located 680 feet from south and 1,980 feet from east lines of the north half of section 449, block 97, H&TC survey. That makes it 11 miles north of Snyder.

Drilling is to get underway soon with rotary tools.

To Start Drilling

Humble Oil & Refining Company is to start drilling immediately at its No. 2-B Walker Hudleston which is to be a one-location stepout on the southeast side of the Sharon Ridge-Canyon field in southwest Scurry county.

Contracted depth of this venture is 6,800 feet with rotary tools.

It is 660 feet from north and 1,836 feet from west lines of section 161, block 97, H&TC survey, and 13 miles southwest of Snyder.

Well Is Completed

The Pure Oil Company has completed its No. 2 W. H. Adams as a new flowing producer in the North Snyder field of north-central Scurry county from the Canyon reef lime zone.

Flowing natural through a one-inch tubing choke, it made an initial daily potential of 744 barrels of new oil. Gravity of the oil was 43 degrees and the gas oil ratio was 794-1. There was no water.

Flowing casing pressure was 25 pounds and the flowing tubing pressure was 100 pounds.

The production was from section between the 7-inch oil string cemented at 6,648 feet and the total depth at 6,842 feet. Top of the pay was 6,555 feet.

This new oil well is 665 feet from west and 467 feet from south lines of the lease in section 33, block 98, H&TC survey.

Polio Funds

ly has $1,150,000 left.

O'Connor said that both the severe epidemic this year, and the carry-over costs of the large number stricken in 1948 had caused the depletion in foundation funds.

The final 1948 total was 27,000.

O'Connor said:

"On the black and white epidemic chart we keep at national headquarters, the stark black line representing 20,000 afflicted young Americans ought to start steadily downhill any day now.

"Cause for rejoicing? Yes—but unfortunately that's not the whole story. For by the time an epidemic peak is reached only about half the total number of cases for the year have been reported."

ONE WEEK DRIVE OPENS HERE TODAY

Lubbock county will participate in a national one-week emergency polio epidemic drive to raise funds for care of patients stricken in the worst epidemic in history of the United States, officials of Lubbock county chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis announced Wednesday.

The drive will open today.

Although Lubbock county has not experienced polio in epidemic proportions, it has aided 30 new polio patients and five who previously had been patients during the last year.

It has received more than five times as much from the national foundation in the last year as it sent to the foundation in that period. The chapter has received $26,571.67 from the foundation in the year, while it submitted only $5,276.41 following its March of Dimes campaign early this year.

Announcement of plans for the local drive were made following notices to O. L. Byrd, chairman of the Lubbock county chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, showing extent of the emergency.

Marvin Hilburn, jr., president of Lubbock Exchange club, will be campaign chairman.

There will be no personal solicitation of money in the county. Contributions will be received by mail and may be addressed to Box 700, Lubbock, Tex., which is mailing address of the Lubbock county chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Quad Married In Secrecy Is Mother

ABERDEEN, S. D., Sept. 8. (AP)—Jean, one of the famed Schense quadruplets of South Dakota, is married and the mother of an 18-day-old daughter, Deborah.

Until it was confirmed last night by a relative, Jean's marriage to Harold Schlosser, Frederick, S. D., farm youth, was a secret. Presently separated from her mate, Mrs. Schlosser is living at the home of her father, Fred Schense, in northern Brown county.

Jean's brothers, Jay and James, are still on the farm but planning to attend business school after fall work is over. Joan, the fourth quad, is attending a Minneapolis beauty school on a scholarship she received on her 18th birthday, last Jan. 13.

STALIN, WALLACE ON OTHER SIDE

Czech Papers Offered Prizes For Denouncing United States

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Sept. 8 (AP)—Czech newsmen disclosed today their editors are offering citations for the best stories denouncing the United States, lauding Russia, or praising Henry Wallace.

The competition apparently is being run in connection with "Czechoslovak Press" day now being observed here.

The day is being celebrated under such slogans as "socialism (i.e. communism) is truth itself."

Motto Echoed

This motto, proclaimed by the Communist weekly, Svet Prace, is being echoed in similar forms by other papers.

Editorials hailing press day observed that a "great change" had come over Czech papers, especially since February, 1948, when the Communists seized control of the government.

Czech reporters said their editorial chiefs have arranged competitions for writers which granted honorable mention on the office bulletin boards for the best stories of the week which:

1: Denounced the United States and "plots of capitalist imperialists."

2. Praised Henry Wallace and "other progressive elements fighting for peace in the United States."

3. Praised Prime Minister Stalin and the Soviet Union and the socialistic development in Russia and other "people's democracies."

Analyses Important

Commenting on Czech press day Svet Prace said:

"All empty sensationalism and loquacity of newspaper phrases are disappearing. Instead of mere embroidery upon the news of press agencies, attention in newspapers is given to well-considered analyses and exposition. The press more and more becomes the instrument of ideological reeducation of the masses, the organizer or socialistic construction. . . .

"So that our newspapermen may really fulfill their tasks with full responsibility, they must first learn that they must know Marx-Lenin teachings and rid themselves of the influences of reactionary ideology which bourgeois education has drilled into them.

"Any criticism must of course be constructive . . ." the paper declared, "the socialistic newspapermen must be truthful."

El Salvador's Government is urging private capitalists to finance the building of 1,500 housing units at a cost of $1,800,000 within a year.

Chinese Reds' Drive Slackens

CANTON, Sept. 8 (AP)—The Nationalists today pictured the war situation in South China as looking up for them. Acting President Li Tsung-jen even talked of a general counteroffensive against the Communists.

Official reports said the Red drive westward from Jucheng, 170 miles north of Canton, toward the Canton-Hankow railway had slackened. They predicted the Reds would retreat from their effort to sever the railway and cut off Canton from the major Nationalist South China defense force based on Hengyang, 265 miles north of Canton.

Reds Take Chunk

A National defense ministry spokesman said a Red assault on Chungnan near the boundary of Kwangtunt and Kiangsi provinces did not endanger Kwangtung, Caton's province. Chungnan (not shown on detailed maps) is 135 miles north-northeast of Canton.

The spokesman said only small Communist forces were involved and the Nationalists in the area were "quite capable of holding their own."

The Nationalists also described the situation in eastern Kwangtung as much improved. They said they hoped to restore highway communication between Canton and Swatow, Kwangtung seaport 220 miles east-northeast.

Communist irregulars last week took a big chunk of northeastern and eastern Kwangtung. They threatened Swatow last Thursday by capturing Puning, 30 miles to the west.

British Accused

Acting President Li in a Canton speech yesterday called for purging defeatists. He said:

"I hope we shall be able to launch a general counteroffensive in the not distant future."

Press reports said Nationalist warships had signalled a British man o'war to leave Chinese territorial waters near blockaded Shanghai. China recently formally protested that British warships were violating China's sovereignty by operating inside territorial waters.

In Hong Kong yesterday, Kiu Kwang-Kai, high nationalist naval officer, accused British warships of escorting merchantmen through the blockade of Shanghai and other Communist ports. This was denied flatly by a British government spokesman at Hong Kong.

Dispatches from Chungking, designated as the next Nationalist refugee capital if Canton falls, said 1,700 dead had been counted in a fire which destroyed the banking and downtown waterfront area there last weekend.

London grocers have introduced a ration system of their own: only two pounds of potatoes to a family.

AS THE result of a recent "incident," in which a couple of Latin-American students at Texas Tech were refused service in a local cafe, Jay Harris, night-side skipper of The Avalanche-Journal, decided to find out, once and for all, the real and general attitude of Lubbock business houses toward Spanish-speaking people.

He directed one of our young reporters — a recent midwestern college graduate, himself—to get a couple of the Tech Latinos and make a test tour in various business places downtown.

The young reporter and his two Latin-American companions spent most of an afternoon "browsing around"—and did not run into a single rebuff from business people, or their employes. Instead, found exceptional courtesy despite the fact that the three were not buying anything except an occassional cup of coffee, but were "just looking."

Into cafes and stores the three went, with the Latin students conversing voluably in Spanish, so there could be no mistake about their origin.

In one store, a clerk stepped up, grinned, and began speaking to the students in their native tongue.

In nearly every place visited they were invited to "come back again." In most places, when they said they were "just looking around," clerks said, "Fine. Help yourself — and let me know if you need anything."

PECULIARLY, the only raised eyebrows came from a few patrons in one cafe and a couple of stores, who plainly showed their surprise, or distaste, over Latins being present.

In one other cafe, the proprietor introduced himself to the kids, business being slack at the moment. When the three left, he invited them back. "We're always glad to have Tech students," he said.

The two Latin students, who prefer to remain anonymous in this connection, said they were not at all surprised over pleasant treatment.

Aside from an occasional incident, they said, "We've always been well-treated in Lubbock and our treatment today did not come as a surprise."

If the experiment proved nothing else, it proved that unpleasant "incidents" in Lubbock are the rare exception and not the rule—something which should always be remembered, but rarely is when an "incident" arises.

Probably the most highly publicized "incident" — which occurred a couple of years ago — is a case in point. There were all kinds of hullabaloo raised over a couple's being refused service at a very ordinary, undistinguished short-order cafe, but nothing reported to Mexican State department about the same couple's being served, without question, at what generally is considered to be Lubbock's most well appointed downtown eating place.

"Incidents" may continue to crop up from time to time, but when they do all should accept them for what they are: very unusual occurrences.

EARLY in the Summer, when Mr. and Mrs. George Dupree took off a month to browse around in New England, they spent some time in Boston. One day they rolled up to a traffic signal and stopped when the light went red.

Alongside them, a moment later, another car came to a stop. The driver smiled, and called over to them:

"I see you're strangers to Boston. May I direct you anywhere?"

Mr. and Mrs. Dupree didn't need any directions at the moment, but they thought it was mighty nice of the guy to offer to be helpful.

And having something like that happen in Boston, of all places, is really unusual.

Mr. Dupree thinks, and we agree, that we of Lubbock might offer help to tourists here whenever the opportunity presents itself.

"Did you ever offer any assistance to the driver of a Massachusetts, or a Michigan car you happened to see in Lubbock?" he asked us, and we admitted we never have. "Neither have I," Mr. Dupree said, "but you can bet I will in the future."

BY DREW PEARSON: GENERAL BRADLEY SCORES TRUMAN'S BACKING OF HARRY VAUGHAN

Navy Brass Lobbies At Convention Against Orders

WASHINGTON. — Kindly Gen. Omar Bradley, top chief of staff, was attending a cocktail party given by Mrs. Louise Heiberg, ex-wife of Gen. Douglas MacArthur. General Bradley is discreet and not especially talkative, but as an officer jealous of the prestige of the Army, certain developments at a Senate hearing had got under his skin.

PEARSON

For, despite the amazing Senate investigation disclosures, President Truman had made a statement just before the Heiberg party vigorously defending the chief subject of the Senate probe—Sen. Harry Vaughan.

"You see this left arm," said the chief staff to one of the guests, as he arrived. "It served me all during the war and I don't know what I'd do without it. But I'd have given it gladly if the President hadn't made that statement defending Vaughan."

NOTE — Though General Vaughan has violated Army regulation 600-10, that no officer can raise political funds, there is nothing the Army can do to discipline him. The President, as commander-in-chief, would fire anyone who raised a finger against his old crony.

Pontiff Orders Peace

Members of the Catholic hierarchy intimate that it was his holiness Pope Pius XII who ordered Cardinal Spellman to make peace with Mrs. Roosevelt. They also indicate that Spellman, once the pope's favorite and in line to become papal secretary, may have lost that privileged position to Cardinal Stritch of Chicago, a more liberal prelate and a friend of the Roosevelt family.

In addition to the vatican, Ed Flynn, Irish boss of the Bronx, emphatically demanded that Cardinal Spellman make peace with the former first lady. Flynn, who knew Spellman long before he became cardinal, was brief and to the point.

"If you don't patch up this fight with Mrs. Roosevelt," he told Spellman, "we won't be able to elect a Catholic to any office in New York state for the next 30 years."

Flynn had in mind the long-time alliance between Jewish and Catholic voters in New York, which has voted Democratic ever since the early days of Roosevelt. This alliance, responsible for Democratic victories during the past 16 years, was seriously threatened by Catholic opposition to ex-Governor Lehman and his candidacy for the Senate.

Cardinal Spellman himself was credited with spearheading the Lehman opposition because the ex-governor last year served on a committee of protest against banning "The Nation" from New York public school libraries.

"THE NATION," was banned because it carried a series of articles by Paul Blanshard, prior to publication in book form, critical of the church. Lehman, on the other hand, argued that since New York public schools are attended by Protestants and Jews as well as Catholics, their reading material should not be fixed by Catholics alone. Lehman felt that the church had every right to set the reading material in its own parochial schools, but not in public schools supported by the taxpayers.

Cardinal Spellman, however, vigorously disagreed and wrote the ex-governor a sharp personal letter. And later Lehman received word from Catholic leaders that if he ran for the Senate this fall, he would have organized Catholic opposition.

Mrs. FDR Breaks Opposition

All this was one reason for Ed Flynn's blunt warning to Cardinal Spellman that he would have to make peace with Mrs. Roosevelt.

Actually, Mrs. Roosevelt had no idea that the cardinal was coming to see her in the country. And, contrary to all reports, the parochial-school issue was not discussed. The cardinal talked about the late president, plus various non-church matters.

Finally Mrs. Roosevelt brought up the question of Governor Lehman and expressed the opinion that it would be in the best interest of all the people if he were to become a candidate for the Senate. She also mentioned the cardinal's reported opposition.

The cardinal then said that when he got back to New Nork he would be happy to make it emphatically clear that he was not opposed to Lehman. He further said he would issue instructions throughout his domain that there should be no church opposition to the benign exgovernor of New York.

The meeting ended on a most happy and cordinal note.

IT'S NOT supposed to be known but the Navy went over the head of Secretary of Defense Johnson at the American Legion convention, and brazenly lobbied for Legion support of the super airline carrier. The Navy's case was presented to a Legion subcommittee by two brass hats, Vice Adm. Calvin Durgin and Capt. Joseph Kane, who claimed to be official Navy spokesmen but admitted they hadn't cleared their material with either the joint chiefs of staff, the secretary of defense or even the secretary of the Navy.

Admiral Durgin introduced Captain Kane who, he said would "explain the mistakes we are making in our defense policy." Kane charged bluntly that Secretary of Defense Johnson's orders, cancelling the super-carrier, were "based on faulty reasoning."

NOTE — This performance by two high Navy officers was in direct violation of orders. For the same offense, an enlisted man would have been sent to the brig.

New York Mayor Is Reported Escorting Woman From Texas

THE REMARKABLE DeMARCOS—The DeMarco Sisters, who will open at the Paramount, on Broadway, are a living manifestation of tremendous triumph over obstacles of adversity. The five girls, now ranging from 16 to 24 years of age, were born in Rome, N. Y., children of an Italian immigrant father. He became invalided and died before they attained real success. They had moved to a cheap flat near Coney Island and here they set out to support the family with their natural talents for harmonizing. But they were too young, and repeatedly the Children's Society ran them off the boards. They played private clubs, which paid poorly. The family was dispossessed. The courageous kids found John O'Connor, who had long managed Fred Waring. He heard them and had faith in them. He signed them to a five-year contract. On the strength of that, they floated a $2,500 Morris plan loan. O'Connor got them on the Fred Allen radio show and they became national favorites. Now they are headliners at the Crossroads and have commitments for records and offers for television. Their first platter will be "It's Okay" and "Jeemie." They have the season booked for personal appearances. In the profession they are known as "singers' singers," and it's all spontaneous, natural, inborn, rather than coached and trained.

There has been quite a bit in print from time to time about the "divorcee and model" whom Mayor Bill O'Dwyer has escorted to theaters and ball-games, Joyce Simpson. I was curious about her, so I did some checking. She is not a model. She is a style and fabrics consultant for Stern's department store and is now on a tour of Paris, Brussels and Rome in that capacity. She has been married, but, before she had ever met O'Dwyer, she had the union annulled by Roman Catholic procedure. She is from Texas, descendant of pre-Revolutionary American settlers. The Mayor, of course, has never commented on public references concerning his private life.

TOM CHAMALES, who was a political power in Chicago in the heyday of "Hinky Dink" Kenna and "Bathhouse John" Coughlin, who ran the Savoy Hotel and one of the first cabarets on wicked S. Wabash Avenue and a pleasure garden on the North Side, has retired and is far from that hectic environment. He bought the Hotel Commercial, in Yakima, Wash., which his son is operating. He must find it pretty quiet there after those roaring wide-open years on one of the swiftest block of its time. He should write a book. He could, too, for he is intelligent and wise.

Somehow, a few nights ago, I got a yen for something I hadn't seen, tasted, or even heard of in years—seltzer. I told my maid to get some. She reported that no one seemed to sell it. One young grocery clerk didn't know what it was, had never heard of it. Seltzer — the fizz-water that shot out when you pressed the lever on the contraption back of the attached metal nozzle — must not die. It is an institution. Whole generations knew no other mixer" before the bottled table-waters were plugged into popularity. Teetotalers who had to take a sociable drink called for seltzer-and-lemon or milk-and-seltzer. Thousands of comedians used the bottles for never-failing laughs, dousing each other; it held its own as a rival of the slapstick, the cream pie and the inflated bladder . . . Well, I wanted seltzer. So my maid finally found some. It was all new to her. The first squeeze, and the stuff spurted, foamed, overflowed the tumbler. She took a long swig, smacked her lips, and said: "Hmmm. Tastes like water with little skid-chains on it!"

A NEW Parisian method of applying makeup, which magnifies the eyes tremendously, making them the focal point of what Coty's vice president Jean Despres calls the "maquillage," is on the way to revolutionizing present-day usage in cosmetics. It is still experimental in Paris, but specialists predict it will sweep the world and make obsolete the accent-on-the-mouth beautification which became the vogue after Joan Crawford adopted it, 15 years ago. Mr. Depres describes it as a new technique of applying fine brush-lines and eye-shadow in several colors, "somewhat reminiscent of the effect you see in Egyptian drawings of eyes, but not so stagey and obvious."

The Masquers, a Hollywood club of theatrical men, finally did what actors always itched to do—set out to produce plays. Ever since thespians have been hired to play parts, they have squawked against the stupidity and cupidity of commercial producers and talked big about how such things should be done. The club put on "The Front Page," "Accent on Youth," and "John Loves Mary." That washed the project up with a heavy loss. The big-money film hams who had sighed over the deterioration of the legitimate stage, when it came to appearing thereon found they couldn't afford it. The ones who could afford it didn't draw. With every presentation there were squabbles as to choice of plays, casting, directing, scenery, about everything. Temperament overruled judgment.

and would have been helped no little by some friendly native if one had appeared. What has happened to us elsewhere happens to other travelers here in Lubbock.

We might even work up a national reputation for Lubbock by offering to direct out-of-state travelers whenever we run up alongside of them here.

MOST citizens, and especially those who hold membership in some church, will be interested to know that a recent census of religious bodies in the U. S. shows church membership has passed the 80 million mark.

This figure constitutes 54.9 per cent of the estimated total population of the nation and reveals a church membership gain of 3.1 per cent for 1948—the year covered by the census—over 1947.

Incidentally, 1947 showed a 2.3 per cent gain over 1946.

These religious census figures were gathered and compiled by the Baptist church in the South and appear in full in the Southern Baptist Handbook, published in Nashville.

Among other things, the census shows:

Forty-eight major Protestant groups, with a membership of over 50,000 each, report a total membership of 46,665,747, as compared with 45,031,194 at the conclusion of the previous census. The Roman Catholic church reported 26,075,697 in the recent census — which figure includes children — but that church's gain over the past year was not included in the summary received by The Avalanche-Journal.

The Baptist Handbook, edited by Porter Routh, shows that there are 25,261,923 persons enrolled in U. S. Sunday schools; that the total number of congregations in the U. S. is 265,845.

TAKING the Baptist Handbook's figure of 54.9 per cent of the U. S. population holding church membership, an interesting comparison is that of the approximate church membership in Lubbock.

Through a quick, off-the-elbow survey of well-informed Lubbock pastors, we find these approximations:

On the basis of 70,000 population (covering all segments of Greater Lubbock readily accessible to churches) there are approximately 45,500 church members, giving this city a church membership percentage of 65 per cent— or more than 10 per cent greater than the national average of 54.9. That's probably a pretty close figure and, if anything, it is on the conservative side. All six pastors contacted commented (1) that Lubbock is well above the U. S. average in both church attendance and church membership; and (2) a careful national survey likely would show this city pretty close to the top in both departments; and (3) the 65 per cent church membership figure for Lubbock is more likely to be low, than it is to be high.

It must be realized, of course, that all church members residing in Lubbock are not members of congregations here. Some belong elsewhere. That is the case in any city—it's what is called by some pastors, "riding on a pass."

But even so, the figures indicate that pastors and church members, alike and over the years, have done a superior job in building and keeping church membership well above the national level.

Ambidextrous

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

ONE OF the greatest faults of wives, I'm convinced from the letters they write me, is making mountains out of molehills.

One wife couldn't sound more bitter about her husband if he beat her. What are his faults? Well, he hasn't cleaned the basement in six months. She has asked him at least 10 times to pound out the crumpled lid on the garbage can—and it's still crumpled. And there are one or two more complaints, no more serious.

MILLETT

Another is disgusted with her husband daily because he tosses his clothes about the bedroom and throws his used towel on the bathroom floor.

And so the letters go. For every wife who complains about some serious fault in her husband's character there are dozens who complain about minor irritations.

The trouble is, such wives don't see that they are minor. They take a small fault and "harp" on it until they lose all sight of its actual seriousness.

They become so determined to nag until the negligent husband gives in, they don't even look for any other solution.

TRY DIFFERENT TACTICS

THE WIFE whose husband won't clean up the basement might get it cleaned in a hurry if one evening she said, "Let's go down and clean up the basement" instead of "Are you EVER going to get that basement cleaned?" Or she could probably hire someone to do it for the price of an evening at the movies.

The wife who gets disgusted every time she has to pick up after her husband in the morning might try timing herself at the job. If it took less than five minutes a day of her time—which it probably does—she'd feel a little silly letting it get her down, wouldn't she?

No woman who has a reasonably good husband ought to let herself become a nagger or fault-finder, simply because he slips up in a few ways.

As soon as a woman starts making mountains out of molehills she starts to make both herself and her husband unhappy. The thing to do isn't to wish a man were different or try to talk him into being so, but to look for a simple, easy solution to the irritations his minor faults provoke.

It's hard to change a man's habits—but it's usually pretty simple to keep from letting them become irritating.

EDIT JOURNAL—Try and Stou

WHEN James Gordon Bennett was publishing the New York Herald, his staff knew how strongly he disapproved of barwling by any of his employes. A man who worked on the presses was understandably apprehensive, therefore, when he arrived one morning with a magnificent black eye, not to mention minor scratches and bruises. In a moment of inspiration, however, he smeared his entire face with printer's ink, and contrived to bump squarely into the boss in the city room.

Bennett beamed when he saw him and ordered, "Double that man's salary! It's obvious he's doing more work than anybody else!"

Today's Journal Editorial

GOOD NEWS FOR EATERS!

There's good news in a recent Department of Agriculture report for those who like their turkey on Thanksgiving, Christmas and practically any other time.

The department announces farmers of the U. S. are raising 41,107,000 of the big birds this year, or 29 per cent more than last year, with the Texas production placed at 4,225,000 as compared with 3,018,000 in 1948.

Furthermore, feed prices are reported considerably cheaper than last year which, with the increased supply, promises to ease the strain on the pocketbooks of those who serve the traditional dinner — another reason for Thanksgiving for those who wait until then, as many won't if prices are right, to feast on turkey and trimmings.

Baldness Not Major Tragedy, "Cueball" Columnist Asserts

NEW YORK, Sept. 8 — I don't know how you feel about the American Medical Assn., but the boys have rendered me such aid and comfort that I am forced to send them a valentine, out of season though it be.

RUARK

Your correspondent is one of those lads whose fur-piece is slipping badly. Each year the forehead slides up another inch. Each year the sun beats more painfully on the bald spot on the back of the head. About the only place the hair still grows profusely is on the nape of the neck. This created, for a time, a sense of panic and certain frantic efforts to preserve whatever fluff was non-eroded from the skull.

There were the usual ointments and unguents, and, Lord save us all, at one time there was even a brief experiment with garlic, on the advice of some lady who recommended that a spud of that halitoxic herb rubbed on the scalp would frighten the hair into regrowth. No more, though, bub. The AMA has forever delivered me from dull care about hair.

No Treatment Known

A committee has announced that there is just nothing you can do about being bald, and furthermore, nobody even knows what causes dandruff. Committee says "neither massage, mechanical devices, hormones, vitamins or any other treatment will regenerate hair lost in ordinary baldness."

The committee says that self-designated scalp specialists, or trichologists, are merely whistling Dixie when they issue prescriptions for the regrowth of dear, departed tresses, which pleases me no end. I used to worry so hard about not buying all the suggested nostrums that I'm convinced the fretting shoved my hairline back another inch.

Now that I know there's nothing I can do to repopulate my pate with lush locks, I suddenly have an entirely new feeling about hair, or the lack of it. Who needs it? What's so special about hair?

MILLIONS of men shave it off their faces daily, and people allow it to flourish thereon are subject to shrill cries of "beaver!" when they stride the public streets. Ladies shave it from their legs. Undue hair on the manly chest is regarded as unseemly, by some. Among the lower orders of modern man, such as the Australian aboriginal, the hair sprouts so profusely on the beetling brow that the abbo seems to be peering through a saltbush. Gorillas are hairy. Whoever saw a bald gorilla?

Among our ladies fair, the smooth, pink skin of the face is greatly admired, and millions are spent, annually, to keep that skin soft, glowing and blemish-free. I see nothing unbeautiful about a full, glowing head of skin on a man. This is a sparkling adornment which can be placed in perfect array by a single swipe of the wash cloth. It does not ruffle in the wind, collects neither dandruff nor burrs, and needs no shampoo to keep it tidy.

A small baby is admired by all, when he is as bald as an egg, and nobdy knocks his baldness or attempts to trick him out in a toupee. Many great lovers have been bald. Roberto Rosselini is on his last third of hairful head, and he got Ingrid Bergman. Charles Boyer is as shiny up top as a heliograph in full sunlight. Who needs hair to be fascinating?

Appearance Is Defended

I imagine a bald dame would be regarded as chic, if the bald ladies went to as much trouble to promote baldness as is spent on selling the girls a fresh deck of outlandish wardrobe every spring and fall. The shape of the average head is not unpleasant. It is sometimes round, sometimes squarge and sometimes pointed, but what is wrong with spheres, plateaus, squares and peaks? When they put it into paintings and furniture it gets by as modern design.

I see no reason why the guys with a primeval thatch growing clean down to their eyebrows should sneer at us fellows with the high, intellectual foreheads, the nicely tanned or nicely pink or nicely freckled scalps. A man with hair can buy no more coffee for his dime than a man without. Hair has no bearing on the strength of the arm, the capacity to handle six dry martinis, or the credit rating in Dunn & Bradstreet.

Enough, I say, of this inferiority complex about becoming bald. To anything other than a female chimpanzee, us cueballs are probably the prettiest men alive.

Tension Heightened In Senate Debate On U. S. Trade Policy

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (AP)—The Senate headed today into the second round of a bitter partisan debate over trade policies.

The tension was heightened by the British-Canadian American conferences over Britain's dollar crisis and foreign trade problems, now going on here.

The British dilemma, referred to frequently yesterday as the Senate opened debate on the controversial reciprocal trade agreements act, was expected to figure prominently throughout the Senate scrap.

Approved By House

Senator Millikin (R-Colo), ranking GOP member of the Senate finance committee and chief proponent of the so-called "peril point" requirements, planned to speak for several hours today.

The bill, already approved by the House, would extend the President's power to adjust tariffs by agreements with other countries to June 12, 1951, but drop out the peril point provisions inserted in the one-year extension voted by the GOP-controlled 80th Congress. This act expired last June 12.

The peril point provision, which is the heart of the dispute, would require the President to report to Congress whenever, in a trade agreement, he authorized a tariff below the rate which the Tariff commission considers safe for American business.

Vandenberg Against Change

Millikin contended that his amendment is intended to safeguard American producers and workers. He denied it would prevent cheap foreign goods from entering the U. S. market as fair competition.

Senator George (D-Ga), chairman of the finance committee, condemned the provision as wholly unnecessary and harmful.

The whole peril point idea, he contended, "is heavily slanted toward protectionism."

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich), GOP foreign policy spokesman, backed up George's stand. He said "one argument that ought to be permanently retired" is that anyone who votes for any change in the administration bill is ineligible to stand as an advocate of international cooperation.

Other Arguments Given

Earlier, Senator Robertson (D-Va) argued for reciprocal trade as necessary to keep western Europe out of communism.

He called the peril point provision a disguised attempt to repeal the trade agreements act. George, in talking to reporters, took a similar position, saying that in his opinion some Republicans really want to destroy the act.

George told the Senate that without reciprocal trade, Britain's dollar crisis would have come sooner and been more serious.

Millikin said it would be a "tragedy beyond measure if the United States and Great Britain ceased to be friendly neighbors." But he added it also would be a tragedy if the United States tried to make itself responsible for the troubles of the British and attempted to do more than it can afford.

Fire Disaster In Wisconsin

BELOIT, Wis., Sept. 8 (AP)—Flames raged through an ice cream freezer manufacturing plant here tonight, causing damage estimated by a company official at $600,000.

Firemen still were battling the blaze at midnight in one of three plants of the Tekni-Craft Corp., T. A. Strayer, managing partner in the firm who made the damage estimate, said the assembly line, shipping room and tool and die shop were completely ruined.

Firemen were trying to save the office and machine room in the two-story brick building half a dozen blocks from Beloit's downtown area.

Strayer said the blaze broke out at 10 p. m. when an automatic gas water heater exploded in the assembly department.

British shipyards recently reported orders for 147 tankers on hand.
