Four Men Arrested In Brown Shooting

SUSPECTS ARE QUESTIONED IN MURDER

LOCAL OFFICERS ARE PUSHING PROBE OF WOODROW DEATH

Four men have been arrested and are undergoing detailed questioning in connection with the shooting to death of Frank V. ("Leather Hat") Brown, 49, Monday night at Woodrow, 12 miles south of Lubbock. The four men were arrested Wednesday, the sheriff's department indicated.

The shooting occurred at the T. B. Hilton home. Hilton, a filling station operator; his wife; their 13-year-old son, Hubert, and Hilton's brother, Joe, said they were held up by three armed men who evidently intended to rob them. Brown, who had stopped in a car at the rear of the house and was talking to T. B. Hilton when the trio approached, evidently came in sight of the gunmen after they had driven the Hiltons into the house, the family said.

Funeral services for Brown, a pioneer stockman, were conducted at the Lubbock residence Wednesday morning. Burial was here.

State Asks Death For Ralph H. Alsup

McKINNEY, June 2 (AP)—In a swiftly moving trial, the state sought today to send Ralph Howard Alsup, 21, of Denton to the electric chair for robbery with firearms.

A jury was selected and testimony completed yesterday. Byron Douglas, Carl Patrick and Clint Starr, a deputy sheriff of Denton, were witnesses.

Douglas and Patrick were robbed in Celina June 20, while Starr arrested Alsup at Lake Dallas eight miles southeast of Denton.

SPEAKS TONIGHT

Pictured below is Lee Satterwhite, candidate for state railroad commissioner, of Odessa, who informed The Journal this morning he would arrive here at about 5 o'clock this afternoon and would "have some things to say in tonight's speech that should interest the taxpayers of Lubbock." Satterwhite will speak at 8:30 o'clock in the district criminal courtroom in the courthouse. He was a member of the Texas legislature 14 years and was speaker of the house of the 39th legislature.

BUSINESS MEN FLAY TAXES

GOVERNMENTAL COSTS RAPPED BY LEADERS AT CHICAGO MEET

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, June 2—Two thousand leaders in commerce, finance and agriculture from 21 states gathered here today to raise a united voice in protest against high local, state and federal taxes.

One of the chief aims of the assembly was passage of a resolution calling attention of congress and delegates to the national political conventions of both major parties here this month to the growth of the tax burden.

The Chicago Association of Commerce, sponsor of the meeting estimated the cost of government has risen out of all proportion to the national income from $2,000,000,000 in 1912 to $12,000,000,000 in 1931.

Increase Cited

The national income in 1912, association spokesmen said, was $33,000,000,000 and in 1931 it totaled $54,000,000,000 the proportion of the tax bill to income being only 6.1 per cent in 1912 and 22.2 per cent in 1931.

The delegates who crowded into a Loop hotel this morning to hear George W. Rossetter, president of the Chicago association, open the initial session, were authorized to act for thousands of taxpayers "back home" in states ranging from New York to California and from Wyoming to Florida.

Bomb Plot Foiled By Alderman's Son

CHICAGO, June 2 (AP)—A bomb plot directed at Bryan Hartnett, Democratic alderman of the 12th ward, was foiled last night by his 7-year-old son, Bryan, jr., when he doused the fuse with water and threw the missle into the street.

A moment later another bomb planted at the rear of the home of Michael Hartnett, the alderman's father and a retired police sergeant who lives next door, exploded so forcefully it jarred the neighborhood and caused $200 damage to the house.

JURY ACQUITS KENDALL IN AX MURDER

VERDICT REACHED ON FIRST BALLOT IN CONROE TRIAL

(By The Associated Press)

CONROE, June 2.—Durrell Kendall of Mississippi was acquitted by a jury here today of the murder of L. H. Brownlee, head of a small time itinerant minstrel show.

The verdict was returned on the first ballot.

Kendall, motion picture projectionist for the show, was accused of slaying both Brownlee and Martha Smith but was tried specifically for the murder of Brownlee.

Parrot Revealed Death

The bodies were discovered in the show tent at New Caney, Texas, Dec. 10 last, several days, presumably, after the killings, through the screams of a hungry parrot which led New Caney residents to go into the tent and investigate.

Special Prosecutor Z. L. Foreman yesterday brought a parrot into a room adjoining the courtroom and late in the day sought to have the bird brought into the courtroom itself. District Judge S. A. McCall refused permission. At the time, Foreman would not say whether it was the bird that saw the killings. When the trial was over today, however, he admitted it was not the same.

"I am mighty glad it came out that way," Kendall said after the verdict. "I think I got justice."

The prosecution made no announcement as to what disposition would be made of the case involving the slaying of Martha Smith.

The jury's refusal to consider long the circumstantial case in the Brownlee case, however, undoubtedly will be considered carefully before any attempt is made to bring Kendall to trial again.

BOARD DENIES WAGE PLEA

PETITION ASKING FOR FULL MAY SALARIES IN SCHOOLS FAILS

Denial by the board of trustees of the Lubbock independent school district of a petition of a group of teachers who asked that May salaries be paid in full, in view of the board's order of reductions as great as 14 per cent for 1932-33 came to light late Wednesday.

The teachers officially had not been informed of the action, taken Tuesday night, Dan Powers, one of a trio which presented the petition, said. M. E. Witt and Weldon Chapman were others with Powers.

Move Is Held Up

"There was a clause, in the agreement to permit a ten per cent reduction to be taken out of our May salaries, that if the balance of the salaries were not paid by July 1 the reduction would not be effective," Powers explained. "We probably will wait until July 1 before any move is made. Many high school teachers declined to accept vouchers for May until the question was settled."

The letter, signed by President J. T. Hutchinson of the board, which was to have been mailed to the teachers yesterday, read:

Letter Made Public

WILL SEEK TO OUST WALKER

SPEEDY PREPARATION OF REMOVAL CHARGE IS IN PROSPECT

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, June 2—Speedy preparation of removal charges against Mayor Jame J. Walker was in prospect today.

Samuel Seabury's investigation of the mayor's office, in which 14 months of tedisome inquiry reached a climax in a spectacular verbal duel between Seabury and the mayor, wound up late yesterday. Newspapers predicted ouster charges would be laid before Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt soon.

Effect Watched

Because Gov. Roosevelt is a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination and Mayor Walker is an adherent of Tammany Hall, the possible effects of the Walker case on the national political picture have come more and more to the fore.

Very different from the flaming battle between the mayor and Seabury was the set-to yesterday between the investigator and Dr. William H. Walker, the mayor's brother. A stout man who sat uncomfortably in the witness chair and bit his eye-glasses until they broke in two, Dr. Walker heard Seabury produce evidence to show his bank deposits in the last four years were $431,258.

To a question suggesting possible graft, he entered a denial. He acknowledged he split money with a group of doctors who received large fees from the city for treating injured employes but denied splitting city fees, except with one doctor. With this doctor, he said he had a joint bank account, in which both deposited, and the money was split "fifty-fifty."

Peak Of Flood Is Expected Tomorrow

YUMA, Ariz., June 2. (AP)—With the peak of the Colorado river flood due to reach here tomorrow night or early Saturday, hundreds of men worked today strengthening levees throughout the Imperial valley.

The river, now several miles in width, has reached the levees but so far there has been no seepage, irrigation district officials said. The river today was falling at Blythe, north of here. Although the river managed to break through two places in the levees near Blythe, slight damage was done before men were able to turn the waters back to the river bed.

MILLIONAIRE DENIES HIMSELF LUXURY BUT FEEDS HUNGRY SCHOOL CHILDREN

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, June 2.—A millionaire who denies himself the luxuries of life but who has furnished money for 97,411 meals for hundreds of poor Chicago school children protested today that his philanthropy was "nothing."

William E. Turner, 78-year-old bachelor who wears inexpensive, old-fashioned clothes, rides in a 1924 model automobile and takes a day coach when he goes to his winter home in Foley, Ala., because he "can't afford" a pullman, is the philanthropist.

"I'm not doing anything," he said. "I just told C. Edgar Johnson I would furnish the money. He's really handling the whole thing."

Johnson, who is assistant cashier of the First Union Trust and Savings bank, revealed that Mr. Turner had been feeding hundreds of pupils in eight north side elementary schools since last winter, and that he was "ready to keep it up as long as necessary."

As many as 3,982 meals a month have been served at a single school. Principals of each school have set aside one room as a lunchroom and order the food. The mothers of the children come to school early each school day to do the cooking.

Mr. Turner appeared to be embarrassed when asked about his generosity.

ARMY PLANES VISIT CITY

CABINET WILL BE SWORN IN IN GERMANY

LIST COMPLETED FOR NEW GOVERNMENT TO SUCCEED BRUENING

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, June 2.—President Paul Von Hindenburg summoned the new German cabinet headed by Count Franz Von Papen to meet at presidential palace late today to take the oath of office.

The formal swearing in of the new ministry was to be followed by its first session in the chancellory.

List Completed

The cabinet list, completed in skeleton yesterday, was filled in today with the acceptance of Baron Constantin Von Neurath, German ambassador to London, as foreign minister, Count Lutz Schwerin Von Krosigk as finance minister and Franz Guertner as minister of justice.

Dr. Karl Goerdeler, who served as "price dictator" under the former ministry and had been mentioned for minister of labor, declined to serve. The labor ministry was then taken over by Dr. Hermann Warmbold, who was selected as minister of economics yesterday. Dr. Warmbold will head both departments.

Count Von Krosigk previously was a sectional chief in the finance ministery and had been selected by Dr. Bruening as one of the members of the German delegation to the Lausanne conference on war debts and reparations.

He was a member of the German delegation to the seven-power conference in London in July, 1931. Previously he had won a name for himself in the narrower circle of the finance ministry, with which he became associated in 1920, by his work as head of the division charged with execution of the financial obligations resulting from the peace treaty.

PUSH SEARCH FOR MISSING CHILDREN

PERRYTON, June 2 (AP)—The search for two missing children of J. M. Cone, 41, who shot himself yesterday, centered today in the brushy Wolf creek area 30 miles southwest of Perryton.

The children, J. M. Cone, jr., 9, and Vernon Cone, 6, disappeared under strange circumstances Tuesday night. Relatives said they were taken from their home by their father.

Cone died at a hospital after being found in the garage at his home with two pistol bullet wounds in his chest. A coroner's verdict of suicide was returned.

Acting on a report that Cone had been seen with the children along Wolf creek Tuesday night, searchers concentrated their hunt there but failed to locate the children.

Frakes Advocates Sharp Tax Slash

DALLAS, June 2 (AP)—A sharp reduction in taxes was advocated here last night by C. A. Frakes of Port Arthur, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor.

He also indorsed an old age pension, declaring if he were elected he would seek passage of a pension bill vetoed last year by Gov. R. S. Sterling.

Burch Murder Case Is Given To Jury

CALDWELL, June 2 (AP)—A jury received the case of Mitt Burch, charged with murdering Joe Arcusso, a neighbor, late last night.

Arcusso was shot to death east of here in May, 1931, after an argument over property lines. The defense claimed Mrs. Burch killed Arcusso. It asked a suspended sentence in the event of conviction.

Friction Reaches High Pitch In Kiwanis Camp Prior To Rotary Battle

TEMPERAMENTAL MARCUS H. DUNCAN IS FIRED FROM TEAM BEFORE CLASH THIS AFTERNOON

BY COLLIER PARRIS
Journal Sports Editor

And another veteran bit the dust on the comeback trail—the trail that so many old timers try but which only a few ever survive. Jack Dempsey tried it—is still trying it. Jerry Travers is trying it. Grover Cleveland Alexander, pride of the W. C. T. U., tried it.

The latest failure along the long, long trail is Marcus Homer Duncan, who attempted a comeback to baseball via the Kiwanis route. He was handed his unconditional release this morning, a few hours before the scheduled season opener between the Kiwanians and the Rotarians, at Merrill Park this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock.

Every member of the Kiwanis squad foresaw the move. There had been friction in camp from the first, due to Duncan's temperamental nature, and he never could get along with Skipper Morgan. Some say the controversy dates back to the days when Duncan ruled Morgan with an iron hand when the

ROTARY MEMBERS TURN KIDNAPERS!

A kidnaping at noon today threatened to mar the Lubbock Rotary-Kiwanis ball game this afternoon but an hour or two later, all victims had been released without ransom. Members of the Kiwanis line-up were victims of the "outrage" committed by a "gang" of "unemployed Rotarians".

Dr. Jack M. Lewis, scheduled to catch this afternoon; W. C. Rylander, Del Morgan, manager of the "Ki" team, Dr. Fred W. Standefer and Judge Clark M. Mullican were seized by Rotarians J. M. Gordon, C. L. Miner, Dr. G. H. Ater, Etheridge Eagan, Overton Ribble, Sam Lightfoot, W. O. Daniels and Riley F. Hule, tied in chains and carried "somewhere". They reappeared at the Kiwanis luncheon today noon and other members of the Kiwanians retaliated by tieing up the abductors.

AGREEMENT ON BILL SOUGHT

CONGRESS IS IN HOME STRETCH IN EFFORT TO SOLVE PROBLEM

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 2—Congress swung today into the home stretch of the session, forging ahead fast on the tremendous task of balancing the national budget and reasserting to all the world the stability of the government.

Early this morning the conference work required to bring together the senate and the house on the $1,115,000,000 tax bill was undertaken in an atmosphere of supreme confidence. The expectation was that the present total yield of the bill would be kept intact and that the measure would be sent to the president for signature early next week.

Upon convening at noon, the senate faced the crucial test on the national economy program, whose $238,000,000 cut in government expenditures is required if the revenue bill is to meet expenditures of the next fiscal year.

The issue faced today first was that of reducing government salaries by a flat ten per cent. On this provision the bill depends for roughly half of its total. Despite the unanimous desire to economize, this burden on the not generally high-paid workers is under heavy fire.

Two Men Killed As Train Hits Truck

LOWELL, Ark., June 2. (AP)—Two men were killed and another was burned seriously in a collision of a Frisco passenger train and a truck loaded with gasoline at a crossing here early today. The truck exploded.

J. W. Thomas of Port Smith, train fireman, and Cecil Allen, 22, driver of the truck, were killed. Engineer Moore of Monette, Mo., was burned seriously.

Latest Attack On Proration Ended

HOUSTON, June 2. (AP)—The latest and broadest attack on proration in the East Texas oil field was ended today but the decision of a three-judge court that heard the case was at least a month away.

Hearing on a consolidated case brought by a number of oil operators to test the validity of the Texas state railroad commission's production restrictions in the field was completed late yesterday.

The court then allowed counsel for each side 15 days, or a total of 30 days, to file supplemental briefs.

CITIES TO ASK FEDERAL AID

MAYORS WILL DEMAND HELP FROM HOOVER AND CONGRESS

(By The Associated Press)

DETROIT, June 2—A program calling for federal aid of three types today bore the endorsement of some thirty mayors of major cities and preparations were going forward to present the demands to congress and to President Hoover.

The program grew out of a conference of mayors held here yesterday on invitation of Mayor Frank Murphy of Detroit. Another result of the gathering was a decision to form a permanent organization of municipal chief executives for the purpose of discussing common problems and presenting a united front.

Amendment Sought

The 32 mayors in the conference were unanimous in favoring a permanent organization and in asking that the Reconstructon Finance corporation act be amended to permit the corporation to extend aid to municipalities.

With only one dissenting vote on each proposal, the mayors also adopted resolutions favoring direct federal unemployment relief and a federa lbond issue of $5,000,000,000 for public works as a further aid to the jobless.

Seven mayors will present the program in Washington, the group being headed by Mayor Murphy and Mayor James M. Curley of Boston.

Murphy was asked to appoint a committee to work out plans for the permanent organization.

Thousands Of Vets To Invade Capital

(By The Associated Press)

The idea of going to Washington to demand in person payment of a soldiers bonus had spread largely over the east and south today.

There were already 1,500 of the veterans in Washington, and, having received word that hundreds more were either en route or about to start, authorities there were beginning to worry about how they were to be fed.

Dallas reported veterans were gathering all over the state for a march to Washington and at Fort Worth last night a group clambered aboard an eastbound train. Most of them, it was believed, were ejected. Others were reported gathering at Houston, Paris, Texarkana, El Paso, San Antonio and Amarillo.

Veterans from Chicago and Detroit were expected to join with Ohioans today at Toledo and more Chicagoans were traveling through Pennsylvania, the Pennsylvania railroad furnishing them transportation.

Between 200 and 250 were advancing northward from Louisiana and Florida, 200 expected to leave Johnson City, Tenn., late today, and 200 more planned to start from South Carolina Saturday. Another large group expected to leave Oklahoma today, between 300 and 500 started from Camden, N. J., yesterday, and in New York a group was being re-

TWENTY-THREE SHIPS LAND AT AIRPORT

SEVERAL HUNDRED SEE STUDENTS IN SPRING TRAINING FLIGHT

Lubbock municipal airport was the scene of U. S. army aviation activities this morning when twenty-three observation planes from the advanced air corps flying school at Kelly Field, San Antonio, stopped here on an annual spring graduating navigation flight. Eighteen students and three officers were in the group.

Several hundred Lubbock citizens witnessed landings and take-off of the students which required about three hours.

They left at intervals before noon for Carlsbad, N. M., where a short stop will be made en route to El Paso for a night stop. They will return to San Antonio on Friday.

The first planes began arriving shortly before 9 o'clock from Fort Sill, Oklahoma, where they spent Wednesday night after a flight from San Antonio Wednesday. The final plane arrived shortly after 11 o'clock. Departure was at intervals of ten minutes after planes

"You've got one of the best airports here of any in the southwest," Lt. H. A. Moore, instructor in the army air corps, here today in connection with the cadet training flight said this morning. "The landing field is perfect and that hangar why I noticed it as soon as I saw the town. It stood out just like a sore thumb." Lt. Moore flew from Kelly Field, San Antonio, this morning, arriving in advance of the student pilots from Fort Sill.

TOURIST CAMP AT SLATON ROBBED

Lubbock police and sheriff's departments last night were informed that two men who had held up and robbed a tourist camp at Slaton were en route to Lubbock in a Ford roadster with red wheels. Peace officers from here patroled the highway leading into Lubbock from Slaton but found no suspects.

Two men were reported to have held up Carl Self, an employe at the T. Williams tourist camp, beside state Highway No. 7 in northwest Slaton, and to have taken $12 to $15 about 9 o'clock.

Irish Senate May Oppose Oath Bill

DUBLIN, June 2. (AP)—The indication today was that a majority of the members of the Irish Free State senate are opposed to President Eamon De Valera's bill for abolishing the oath of allegiance to Great Britain.

The senate voted last night, 36 to 17, to adjourn debate on the bill, against protests of the supporters of the De Valera measure, which already has passed the dail eirann.

SUSPECT DIES EARLY TODAY AT STANTON

YOUNG MAN SOUGHT IN ATTEMPTED HOLDUP OF BANK KILLED

(By The Associated Press)

BIG SPRING, June 2.—Rather than submit to arrest for an attempted robbery of the First National bank of Stanton today, Clinton Hair, 30, shot and killed himself.

His death climaxed a ten-mile automobile chase in which he vainly tried to escape pursuing officers. As the car in which he rode came to a halt, he whipped out an automatic pistol and fired six times, one bullet penetrating his head.

He apparently made no effort to shoot at the car load of officers, who stopped on his left side. Three of his bullets tore through the top of his car and the two other wild shots punctured the right door as he toppled over dead.

In Rented Car

Checking back on Hair's venture, it was found he had rented an automobile at Big Spring, his home town, about 6:30 o'clock this morning. An hour later he walked into the bank at Stanton, 20 miles to the west.

John B. Lewis, assistant cashier, and George Davis, a customer, were the only persons in the building. Hair asked Lewis when Jim Thomas, the cashier, would be down. Lewis said he told him "pretty soon."

Lewis then went into the cage to file some checks. He said Hair suddenly walked to the cage window, drew a pistol and demanded that the vault be opened. Lewis told him it had a time lock and he couldn't open it that early.

Then Ed Woodard, who occupies an office in the rear end of the bank building, walked in, unaware of what was going on. Hair ordered him to raise his hands.

Cashier Escapes

Taking advantage of this diversion of Hair's attention Lewis ran out a side door of the bank and into a store. Hair started after him, and then changed his mind and ran to the car he had parked in front of the bank. He hurriedly drove out of town, heading for the ranch country to the south.

Sheriff Milt Yater, a deputy, Morris Zimmerman, and two other men took up the chase within five min-

BABY AT POST IS DROWNED

CHILD TUMBLES FROM DIVING PIER INTO TWO-DRAW LAKE

POST, June 2.—(Special)—A two-and-a-half-year-old baby, David Sam Morrow, tumbled off the men's diving pier at Two-Draw lake near here at 11:30 o'clock this morning and was drowned. About 35 minutes elapsed before Carter Thompson, a Post barber, recovered the body, which was underneath the pier.

The child, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morrow, caretakers of the lake facilities, was on the pier with an older brother, Charles Young Morrow, about 6 years old. The baby fell from the edge of the pier, Charles shouted to his mother, who was in the bathhouse, and fishermen were attracted to the spot.

Goes For Help

The father was at the house, about 150 yards from the bathhouse, and came to the pier. Unable to find the body of his child, he went for additional help, while the fishermen continued the search. The father had returned and 30 or more men had assembled there when Thompson, diving, found the body under the 12-foot-square pier.

Dr. A. C. Shurman and Dr. D. C. Williams of Post tried to revive the child by artificial respiratory methods.

In boats and on a pier about 150 yards from the spot into which the child had fallen, fishermen immediately attempted a rescue. No bathers were in the lake. The water into which the baby fell was 8 or 10 feet deep.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrow have been caretakers at the lake six or seven years.

BODY IDENTIFIED

NEW ORLEANS, June 2 (AP)—The body of a young man who shot and killed himself here last week has been identified by a relative as that of William W. Parish, jr., wealthy New Yorker who disappeared from his ranch at Las Cruces, N. M., two weeks ago.

HAZARDS IN PLAY

AS OUR CHILDREN are very precious to us an dtheir lives dear to them, we want to keep them living, with all the members of their body whole. Besides diseases, many hazards they must face, not the least of which they meet at play.

The average infant, beginning to toddle lives in an exceedingly dangerous world. Were he a grown-up soldier on a battlefield he would be safer than he is now, a child at home. There are the matches, the open fire, the enticing street with its death-dealing engines, the pans of scalding liquids in the kitchen, the perilous sharp things within his reach, and numerous other hazards all around the home. The wonder is that so many children escape with their lives, and that of those who do, so few are cripples.

Let us consider some of the less fixed hazards to the child. Someone leaves a razor blade, or butcher knife, or large pointed scissors within the toddler's reach, and along he comes and seizes it. We sense the danger and are wont to wrench the object from the child as soon as possible. We may succeed this time in saving him. Next time when he has such a perilous object he may, on seeing us approach, run with it or so manipulate the weapon as to hurt himself.

In case it is an open safety pin that he has seized, he may swallow it to keep it from our capture. We are wiser when we camly ask him to give the thing to us, taking time enough to persuade him, and assuring him satisfaction for co-operation. Always it is the future in which we need to be concerned.

Eager to climb, the child may have reached a height whose peril astounds us, when we shout or rush at him. By doing so we have increased his hazards many fold. Our task, though very difficult, at such times, is to control ourselves as to avoid fear or danger, but to lead him calmly to co-operate. Often such new dangers will arise. For them we need to prepare ourselves and to be more vigilant the while, and more careful to foresee and to forestall such hazards. We shall do well to encourage the child to climb where he will be relatively safe, and to make very clear to him where he must not climb.

It were well to keep all toy guns away from children. While school age children get a deal of valuable training at making toy guns, sling shots and bows and arrows, such playthings are very perilous. If such are permitted, limit their use solely to your supervision, preferably in your own basement.

Let the air-rifle be entirely taboo. Rarely is it the child with the gun who suffers, but an innocent onlooker. I wish parents would band together to outlaw this diabolical plaything. What can we give in exchange for an eye, particularly when it is the eye of your child or mine?

EDITOR'S NOTE: Two pamphlets by Dr. Myers may be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin, for each, and a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to Dr. Garry C. Myers, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1433 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Punishments and Rewards" and "Fear."

THE tin cans that were on parade a very dandy showing made. Of course they looked quite funny to the band of Tinymites.

The way they formed was quite a stunt. One type of cans was up in front. Then came another row of cans. Of all the crazy sights!

King Sardine Can soon shouted, "Hey! You've marched enough now, for one day." And then he loudly cried out, "Halt!" The cans all stood real still.

"Break rank," said Scouty. "Be at eases. Then come and meet us, if you please. We'll all be glad to know you, 'cause you've given us a thrill."

THE little tin cans seemed real glad to end the long parade they'd had. They rushed up to the Tinies and exclaimed, "Well, who are you?"

"We're Tinymites," we Coppy said. "About us you, no doubt have read. We travel 'round to see the sights. You've shown us something new."

One little can seemed full of fun. It said, "If you like what we've done, why don't you do some stunt for us? I think that's only fair."

"All right," said Scouty. "We will do the best thing that we know, for you. We're pretty good at tumbling. Watch us tumble in the air."

FOR bout a half an hour or so the Tinies put on quite a show. They climbed upon each other and did acrobatic tricks.

And then they heard a tin can cry, "Help! Help!" A dog went running by. The can was tied tight to its tail. My, what an awful fix.

"Hey! Catch the dog. Release the can" cried Windy. Then the Tinies ran until wee Scouty grabbed the dog and held him very tight.

The little can soon was untied. "Oh, thank you, Tinymites," it cried. "A youngster tied me to that dog, but now I am all right."

LINDBERGH PLUNGES INTO RESEARCH WORK IN ATTEMPT TO FORGET PAST

BY GARDNER BRIDGE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, June 2 (AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh has plunged into his research work with renewed vigor in an effort to put the past behind him.

He goes almost daily to an extensive laboratory reserved for his personal use in the Rockefeller institute for medical research, but exactly what he does there is hidden behind a barrier of secrecy.

Works On Apparatus

A few months ago it became known Colonel Lindbergh, then the happy father of a curly haired son, had been working on a centrifugal apparatus designed to separate serum from blood.

Observers, however, are disinclined to believe his whole attention is rivited on such a prosaic affair as a centrifuge. Curiosity has been whetted by instructions prohibiting employes from approaching the Lindbergh laboratory or attempting to engage the famous flier in conversation.

When Lindbergh sits among them for luncheon in the restaurant on the ground, he is not disturbed. None speak of the dire events which the colonel is trying to forget.

They have been cautioned, too, against talking abroad about the colonel's return to his laboratories, so that he may enter and leave without being subjected to the gaze of curious outsiders.

Dr. Simon Flexner, director of the institute, has only this to say:

"The institute is a big place. I have no way of knowing what is going on there all the time."

Other officials hold to the belief that "if a private individual wishes to come in here and do research work that is his affair; we will not say whether Colonel Lindbergh is here or not."

Has Lost Weight

Lindbergh, who was known as "Slim" long before his son was kidnaped, obviously has lost weight, but his countenance is cheerful as he eats his luncheon in the institute's restaurant.

There is much speculation as to the nature of his work. In connection with the serum experiment, it was recalled that Lindbergh's first association with the institute was when he flew to Quebec with some anti-pneumonia serum provided by it for the stricken Floyd Bennett. It is thought he might be interested in developing a serum to be carried on polar flight, but that is only one of the guesses.

BOY SCOUT FIELD MEET SET TODAY

D. T. Jennings, South Plains Area Boy Scout council executive headquarterd here, was to leave this afternoon for Lamesa to attend an annual two-day field meet and southern district court of honor.

Mr. Jennings will spend Saturday in Post and return to Lubbock Sunday. Scouts were to arrive this afternoon at Lamesa, and after camps have been set up, the boys will participate in flag ceremonies. Supper will be served and a camp fire program and court of honor will begin at 8:30 tonight.

Friday morning will be given to numerous athletic contests and games, and the field meet proper will begin at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. Streamers and banners will be awarded troops whose teams qualify in the several events.

WHAT! NO OYSTERS?

LOS ANGELES—D'ja ever eat oysters for breakfast? Well, according to Mrs. Harry F. Becker, her husband insisted on them one morning and she had to hurry out and get them. After she returned with the oysters he demanded catsup. Because there was no catsup in the house he hit her, she charged in a divorce suit here. Such an appetite and actions on the part of her husband caused Superior Judge Joseph L. Call to grant the divorce.

EVEN HIT MATCHES

READING, Pa.—Hard times hit the Berks county courthouse after half a century of prosperity. The county commissioners have ordered that no more matches shall be purchased by the county for free distribution to visitors at the courthouse.

Attendance Grows At Vacation Class

Attendance is growing at evening services in the Cumberland Presbyterian church, the pastor, Rev. O. N. Baucom, announced this morning. Rev. E. C. Comfort, Floydada, is teaching a course on Revelations in connection with the annual Daily Vacation Bible school that is in progress.

Rev. Comfort will use a chart in showing Christ opening seven seals that revealed the future. He is to talk, too, on the second coming of Christ.

Talks will continue each evening at 8:15 o'clock until June 10, with the exception of Saturday night.

The vacation school classes are conducted each morning. Boys in the school are contesting in "baseball" games in which Bible verses are used in place of balls.

EARLY-DAY TEXAS TRAIL DRIVER IS TAKEN BY DEATH

An early-day West Texas cattle-trail driver, Cabe Adams, was killed several months ago, presumably by Yaqui Indians in Sonora, Mexico, where he was ranching, according to a report received here by Charles C. Crenshaw of the law firm of Bledsoe, Crenshaw & Dupree.

Adams, who drove herds from the Pecos in the days when only a few scattered ranches were on the South Plains, was in Lubbock about a year ago as a witness in a trial that resurrected the legends and truths of a virgin cow-country.

Was Trial Witness

During the trial of the suit of Fred Spikes against the Capitol Reservation Syndicate last June, Adams, then well up in the 80's, was here for the entire trial as a witness. His deposition had been taken for use in the trial but it was decided to bring him here for the hearing. He was never placed on the stand.

"I think Cabe died as he would have wanted to," Mr. Crenshaw said. "He died with his boots on. He died as he had lived."

Have Few Details

Few details of the affair were received by the law firm. According to George Dupree, Adams was ranching in Sonora and had a lot of cattle. The Indians came to the ranch, killed the owner and made away with the stock. "Cabe was shot and left lying there on the ground," Dupree added.

Adams drove cattle along the West Texas trails for many years. He then went into New Mexico and ranched there, moving into the eastern part of the then territory about 30 to 35 years ago. Old time cattle men and ranchers knew Mr. Adams in the early days of this section and also the development of the cattle country east of the Pecos river in New Mexico.

The pioneer had gone some years ago to Sonora, Mexico, from the United States. When he was wanted as a witness in the suit here, it took investigators several months to locate him as old timers had lost track of him.

A memorial to the Hon. Elsie Mackay, who lost her life in an attempt to fly the Atlantic with Capt. Hinchliffe in March, 1928, was unveiled recently in Glenapp Church, Ayrshire, Scotland.

BEAUMONT'S WINNING STREAK HALTED AT FIFTEEN STRAIGHT

ATHLETICS TROUNCE YANKEES TWICE

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

Today is the day; 5:30 o'clock is the time. Merrill Park is the place. The Rotarians and the Kiwanians are the subjects. Baseball is the game. Four bits per each is the tuition. Your attendance appreciated. Ho hum.

There's really more to it than just that. The Cog-Wheel nine, which has been in alleged training quarters at Buffalo Springs under the more or less able management of Judge (Red Tie) Raley, has labored consistently in practice endeavors. Manager Delicate Del Morgan's Kiwanians have been reported from Shannon Park training camp as having learned the difference between a fungo and a wild pitch.

Since it fell our duty, we queried the potential managers for statements regarding the game. The quiet-mannered Raley person merely sealed his lips closer together and uttered not a sound. Voluptuous and loquacious Del could find no better words than his original statement: "I'm manager of the Kiwanians and I'm gonna pitch." So we went to the star second-baseman for the Rotarians for a statement regarding the team. Chas. Armour Guy, who learned his baseball by serving as third assistant to the first assistant scorekeeper for Tulsa in the Western league, said: "They're gonna maybe beatellouto'us but don't quote me as saying that. I don't know what the other Rotarians are gonna do, but I'm gonna knock one out of the park every time Del Morgan throws one my way. What I'm worrying about is how I'm going to bend over to snag grounders around second base, but you needn't say anything about that either." Naturally, we won't.

Except for half a dozen or so communications reminding us of exasperated creditors, yesterday's mail was rather nice. It brought letters from Swede McMurry, assistant Lubbock High mentor, and Crip Golightly, former Texas Tech assistant and basketball coach who is working and studying in New York. Swede is at Kerrville—after this week—directing a boys encampment. He wrote the letter from Whitewright and it runs somewhat as follows.

". . . . . On May 25, our wedding anniversary, Mrs. McMurry presented me with a future candidate for all-state honors, probably about 1950. His name is John W. III, but I will not allow that aristocratic name to bother him.

"He weighed 8 1-4 pounds. If he is big and dumb, I will make a fullback out of him; if he is smart, he will play center. However, he has a voice that bids fair to blossoming into the ravings of a quarterback . . . "

Blessings on thee, little man, and may you never get caught in the co-ed rush at Denton so your coach will go off and leave you. Also, may you be a better rabbit hunter than your Dad. A big hand to you, your mother and your papa.

We're half sore at Golightly for rubbing it in about getting to see the Yankees whirling along in their quest for an American League pennant, and his plans for the summer so we're not going to print his letter. Some of it wouldn't be at all interesting to our public (Lord bless him) anyway. Crip asks about all his friends here and wants to know if Pete Cawthon has taken up golf yet. Crip, it appears, has become quite adept with the sticks and part of his summer's work will consist of teaching golf lessons to members of the New York Boys club, with which he will be affiliated on an ocean and island trip. He has been attending Columbia University this season and at the same time instructing in the department of physical education.

We thought we were rid of him for at least a couple of weeks, but the fishing wasn't good around Cisco and Weldon Chapman turned up yesterday back at home. Immediately the Rotarians jumped on him and signed him up for the center field job this afternoon.

The Westerner mentor tells us that a slice in his pay check makes it compulsory for him to do a little work this summer. It's tough when coaches have to work during the summer. Chapman hopes to conduct a summer camp near Kerrville for boys of high school age this season, and he wants to line up some local boys for his camp. If you are a papa and have an unemployed youngster in your family and if you grow weary of his tearing up the radio and other furniture, you could do worse than get in touch with Chapman and hear his story. His camp will be one of the best in the section and the price is attractive. If we thought Dutchy and Pete could get along without us we'd be tempted to join the camp ourself.

SECOND PLACE STEERS ALSO DEFEATED

GALVESTON BUCS HOP ON EXPORTERS FOR 5-TO-0 VICTORY

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

There is an end to all things good or bad and Beaumont discovered that fact last night when a winning streak was halted at 15 straight. The Exporters could not prolong their victory parade any longer and lost a 5-to-0 affair to the Galveston Buccaneers.

But even in defeat, the Exporters did not lose ground in their mad stampede for the probable first half pennant. The second place Dallas Steers could not grasp opportunity, losing a 3-to-2 game to Longview. It left the Steers over six games behind.

Allows Four Hits

Carroll limited the Exporters to four hits in a fine mound feat. Galveston knocked Marrow from the mound and Halmin wasn't any great mystery.

Presnell of Longview and Fuhr of Dallas staged a mound battle at Dallas where these two clubs played their third straight extra-inning game. Tuesday night they played a 13 and 10 inning doubleheader. Last night it required ten innings for the Cannibals to defeat the Steers. Dallas played perfect ball behind the 7-hit pitching of Fuhr but Longview got the timely hits.

Tyler On Spree

Tyler went on a spree to defeat Fort Worth, 7 to 3. Pinch Hitter Ward drove across the winning run in the ninth inning. Three other runs were scored after this timely blow but they were not necessary. Estell went the route for the Panthers.

In the only day game, San Antonio mauled Houston, 7 to 1. The victory ended a ten-game losing streak for the Indians. Jack Mealey, newly acquired catcher, made his debut with San Antonio and doubled to drive in the Indian's first run.

Baton Rouge tightened its grip on the lead in the Cotton States league yesterday, winning another game while Pine Bluff lost.

Baton Rouge downed Jackson, 6 to 3, in the first of the new series and the initial game for the club under the Jackson banner. Long, Baton Rouge left fielder, got a homer and a triple to feature in the scoring. He and Atwood each batted in two runs.

Pine Bluff let Monroe get the jump on hitting and lost, 6 to 5. Besides hurling a good game of ball, Danforth batter in two Pine Bluff runs.

Port Arthur won 15 to 8 from El Dorado, using three pitchers to check the Lions while its own batters romped on White and Goodell. It was a free hitting game, the Texans having two big innings, scoring seven runs in the second frame and five in the sixth. There were home runs aplenty, Harper getting two and Nelson and Loewer one each for El Dorado while Smith and Le Meilleur got one each for the Texans. The latter batted in eight runs.

MACKMEN ARE FOUR GAMES FROM LEAD

SENATORS EASE INTO SECOND PLACE WITH WIN OVER BOSTON

BY GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Rival American league managers can sit back now and cease worrying about the Philadelphia Athletics.

All spring Joe McCarthy, Walter Johnson, Bucky Harris and the others have worn a troubled expression every time the A's were mentioned. Even when Connie Mack's club looked its worst the boys didn't like to discuss the subject.

They greatly feared it was all a mistake, that they would awaken some morning to find they had been dreaming. It was tough on their nervous systems. Therefore, their probable relief today to learn that everything was all right again, that the elephants were coming right along.

Down Yanks Twice

By knocking off the leading Yankees twice yesterday, 8 to 7 in 16 innings and 7 to 6, the Mackmen pushed into the middle of the flag fight and wrapped the first division up tighter than a drum. In fourth place, they were only four games back of the Yanks and one game behind the second-place Washington Senators, with the Detroit Tigers lodged between.

Washington eased into second place by virtue of a hard-won 2 to 1 verdict over Boston while Detroit was being rained out at St. Louis. Lloyd Brown registered his sixth win for the Senators when he blanked the Red Sox until the ninth inning.

The Chicago Cubs, facing a long road trip, saw their lead over the idle Boston Braves reduced to two games in the National league when they were whitewashed by Dizzy Dean of the Cardinals, 1 to 0. Dean, notified by Manager Gabby Street he was overdue with his bright, young promise, held the Cubs to five hits.

The Phillies rallied against Bill Walker to score three runs in the eighth, beat the Giants, 4 to 2, and send John McGraw's troupe tumbling into last place.

Dodgers Sign Yale Former Grid Star

NEW YORK, June 2 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers today announced the signing of Bruce Caldwell, former Yale football star and leading batsman of the Eastern league last year.

Caldwell, who batted .360 for New Haven last year and drove out 38 home runs, has been trying out with the Dodgers several days. He went in as a pinch hitter against the Boston Braves Sunday and singled home the winning run.

Caldwell is a first baseman.

"What happened to the HOT WATER?

POOR JUNIOR! After he had dutifully heated enough water for his bath, some one slipped into the bathroom for a shower and the water's cold again. What a cruel world it is! How can Junior tidy up for the boy scout meeting with soap and water that's cold and clammy? This is but another of the disappointments that must be endured in homes where some one tends fire to keep the water hot. Unluckily, it discourages children from developing the habit of cleanliness.

How It Feels

ONE of the most interesting things about the talented Amelia Earhart is the fact that she seems to be just about the first one of the transatlantic flyers to be really articulate.

The ocean has been flown before—so many times that the fame one gets by flying it nowadays can't be guaranteed to last longer than a fortnight or so. But none of the men who found their way across ever seemed to be able to tell us anything very definite about what a trip like that was like.

Lindbergh, most spectacular of them all, was also the least communicative. To be sure, he told all about his trip, explained just what sort of weather he hit, told how his motor functioned and gave a pretty fair objective account of things; but he left utterly unanswered the questions which we stay-at-homes are the most curious about, and nearly every other flyer has followed suit.

For the interesting thing about an ocean flight is not the story of the physical obstacles met and conquered; it is the story of what goes on in the heart and the brain of the pilot who is guiding the plane.

Most of us would find a 400-mile automobile trip an adventure, if we made it all alone. And there is, in the thought of that long dash through the darkness, over the empty ocean, something supremely impressive, fascinating, appalling. We know that the mere emotional pressure of the thing would be too much for us, and the one thing we have always wanted to know about these ocean flyers is chiefly, How on earth did they stand it, up there all alone?

Not one has ever told us anything very satisfactory about that part of it. Perhaps that is because flyers are the least introspective of human beings. They keep such things to themselves, because they don't know how to explain them.

But Amelia Earhart is less tongue-tied than the others; and she has told us, quite clearly, just how it feels to be over the Atlantic alone, at midnight, in a howling storm, with an ominous little defect or two developing in the plane's mechanism. We're grateful, we stay-at-homes. That's what we've always wondered about, but no other aviator was ever able to tell us.

Silly Proposal

THE silliest proposal of the season, quite clearly, is the bill introduced in Congress the other day to put the territory of Hawaii under military control, with rulership vested in a governor chosen either from the army's generals or the Navy's admirals.

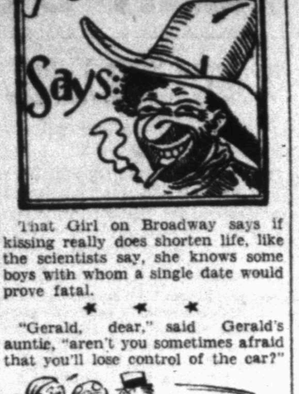

To anyone who has reviewed the tragic Massie case objectively, it is fairly apparent that a fundamental cause of the trouble there was the lamentable fact that civilians and military people do not get along well together when they are placed in close proximity. There is an age-old rivalry between the two groups, which probably dates 'way back to the days of Roman garrison towns in ancient Gaul. It seems to be inevitable.

Putting Hawaii under strict military control would intensify that rivalry many fold. A better way of making the islands question the value of their American citizenship could hardly be imagined.

Nicholas Murray Butler say the United States needs a third political party. Gosh, isn't it bad enough with two?

ABOUT a year ago The Plainsman was conversing with the representative of a large wholesale concern that sells many retail establishments in New Mexico and West Texas. Subject of the conversation was, of course, business conditions hither, thither and yon.

"How many firms do you have that are taking their cash discounts?" The Plainsman asked.

"Two", was the response, "just two."

A few days ago The Plainsman met the same man and asked the same question.

"I've got seven now—seven of them that haven't missed taking their discounts by paying up by the tenth of each month and it's mighty good business, too".

A representative of a large printers' supply house was in the office yesterday afternoon. He sells job stock, ink and what-not to commercial printers and small papers all over the Panhandle-Plains region and parts of Southwestern Oklahoma.

"How's business?" The Plainsman asked.

"Just fair", was the reply.

"How are your collections", was the second question and the salesman's face brightened.

"They're a darn sight better than they were last year", he said. "We've cut down the old ones who couldn't or wouldn't meet their obligations and we're not encouraging any new business of that type".

THESE two stories are symbolical of what is happening in the business world—what should have been happening prior to late, lamented 1929 when we all began to realize that there was still a premium to be paid on an honest day's labor.

The supply houses and the wholesale houses are paying more attention to their businesses; they're not gambling on their collections and pinning their all on high pressure salesmanship.

And the retailers who buy from these big houses are not succumbing to high pressure salesmanship, and they're sticking to their own jobs of running their businesses as they should be run.

Two or three years ago you could get the head of any business to go hunting, fishing or just plain loafing with you any time. He'd go to New York or Timbuckтoo, if you suggested it.

But that old boy wouldn't leave his job or business to go to Idalou with you now.

No sireee! He's sticking to his knitting and he's going to stick there until the time comes again when he doesn't have to dodge into an alley every time he sees Mr. Slaton, Mr. Arnett or Mr. Maedgen coming down the street!

AMERICAN business is not going to remain long in the slough of dispair. It never has. It is not logical to believe that a race of men as resourceful and as aggressive as ours—backed by the most wonderful natural wealth in the world—will stay in the dumps.

But American business isn't going to bounce out of its present difficulties automatically.

Its chieftains are going to pull it out by its bootstraps by sticking on the job, working at the job and by adding thought to their labors.

According to the Hagerstown, Md., Herald, if shoes and stockings have a few holes, that's poverty. If they are mostly holes, that's style!

All of which prompts The Plainsman to run the risk of incurring the displeasure of local shoe salesmen by opining this: the palm for the homeliest styles yet seen in shoes should go to the fellow who designed the footwear which reveals the wearer's toes.

Outside the realm of the profane, there aren't words sizzling enough to properly characterize and describe these new-fangled shoes that show a woman's mis-shapen pedal extremities—ofttimes too fat or too skinny and with curling nails—if you care for The Plainsman's opinion.

This is one time when "lousy" falls short of the mark—but that's about as close as we can get to it without having this edition barred from the mails.

"ALFALFA BILL" MURRAY, the big 'I' and 'Me' man of Oklahoma, is working a racket that Texas politicians might be interested in. Whenever he gets a pet idea that requires cash to put over—such as his 'Blue Valley Farmer' publication—he just calls on state employes to 'donate' to the fund.

Of course, it isn't compulsory, you understand, but the employes realize full well that unless they 'kick in' they're liable to get 'kicked out.'

Best thing about Alfalfa Bill's plan is that he not only includes all regular employes of the state, such as those in the highway department, clerks and this that and the other. He goes even farther and tells faculty members of state schools to 'come across'.

It's the same thing as if Governor Sterling were to write the Tech faculty members and tell them to donate to some fund or another to espouse his cause—which, to the Governor's credit, he does not do.

Washington Night Life, Of Which There Is Never Very Much, Expands When Night Sessions Are Held By Senate

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, June 2—Night life in the national capital, of which there is never very much in the metropolitan sense, expands when the Senate has evening sessions.

Dutcher

Thousands who can't spare time otherwise ascend Capitol Hill to observe the upper house doing its stuff under the bright lights. The night crowds lately have exceeded the day crowds and usually there are lines outside the the gallery doors still waiting to get in at recess.

For after-supper parties the Senate often take the place of a theater and beautiful evening dresses and dinner coats are frequently seen in the galleries.

There's always a prospect of more excitement at night. Tired and sore after long warm days, members are more likely to blow up. And some of them are more likely to have been drinking. Although, one observes, some of the most conspicuous senatorial drinkers of the last Congress are no longer here.

"Depression Divorces"

"Depression divorces" are no joke. The idea may sound like a funny newspaper story, but 30 or 40 women in the government service actually have visited the National Woman's Party headquarters in the last two or three weeks and declared their intention of getting legal separations from their husbands in case Congress provided its economy measure that when husband and wife work for the government one of them will be first considered for dismissal when employes must be fired. The theory is that a separation contract would exempt them.

The Woman's Party recently boycotted a railroad which began to fire married women from it clerical force as a matter of policy, after showering its president with telegrams from members over the country. A competing road hastened to assure the girls that it would adopt no such policy and meanwhile would be glad to get their business.

More Huey

More about Senator Huey Long: The Senate's "bad boy" moves around in the Senate like the baddest boy you ever saw. His movement is a combined slouch and swagger, the most distinctive feature of which is a swing of the hips.

He usually wears a light brown suit and a striped mauve tie. He goes vestless and his shirt protrudes from over what is no insignificant stomach but might be less obvious if he stood up straight.

The most dignified member of the Senate—and there are several competitors for that honor—is the exact antithesis of Huey Long. Huey has no competitor as the sloppiest—in manner, that is.

On the floor he is constantly in motion. He falls into his seat, wriggles there a moment, gets up, swaggers over and sits in some Republican member's seat, probably stopping for a whispered conference with someone en route. He may stay parked a few minutes at a time, but if he does he is constantly shifting his position, putting his fingers in his mouth or all over his face. Just brimming with nervous energy, our Huey!

What They Don't Know

Profundity of members of Congress on matters which they knew nothing whatever about is always edifying.

Congressman William H. Stafford of Wisconsin is a chronic objector to small bills and has saved his country much money in his time.

But when he tried to save money on Puerto Rican stamps and currency he failed completely for the reason that there aren't any. There was debate on the proposal to change the island's name from Porto Rico to Puerto Rico and Stafford said it would cost hundreds of thousands of dollars.

"Are we to put our government or theirs to the expense of changing dies for their postage stamps and currency?" demanded Stafford. Loeier of Missouri and Underhill of Massachusetts assured him that Puerto Rican stamps and currency need not be changed until the time when the dies and plates would be changed in the natural course of events.

The only important fact apparently wasn't known to anyone and went unmentioned: Puerto Rico uses U. S. stamps and U. S. currency exclusively.

KEEPING FIT

"WHAT CAN I do, while carrying my baby, to preserve my figure?"

Or, "What can I do to get my figure back now that my baby is born?"

These questions bother some women very much. And they should not be scorned. A good figure is the sign of good health and of virility, and far should it be from a mere male to regard this as a piece of vanity or foolishness.

In order to insure a good figure no special treatment need be undertaken nor any special exercises or massage. All that is needed is a little common sense and discretion about diet and general exercise. It may be said that most physicians do not want a woman to get very fat before the time of delivery. Such fat is very hard to lose afterwards, because the demands of a growing family are confining and tend to produce general bodily flabiness. The best time to prevent this is during the period of expectancy.

However, any woman must expect some changes in the figure after motherhood. It will hardly ever be exactly the same, and for most sensible people the female figure after the experience of motherhood is a more beautiful one than before. Who would prefer a thin, flat chested, flat hipped, boyish form, gangling creature, for the grand, full-bosomed, strong-limbed mother of the race? No one but a very young man—no one but the expectant father, in other words, so that is probably nature's way of working things out.

Clothes have something to do with the preservation of the figure during pregnancy. High-heeled shoes are dangerous, and tend to muscular strain and to limitation of exercise. The question of a corset is a matter of individual choice, and the decision should be left to the physician. Some women undoubtedly need a corset. Others may have strong abdominal walls and in these the corset tends to give too much support and weaken those muscles.

Regular daily exercises is to be encouraged in most instances. When there is a history of several premature births the physician may advise rest and even confinement to bed during most of the period of expectancy. But for most expectant mothers exercise to keep the weight normal and to keep the muscles strong is advisable.

This, combined with sensible diet—not overeating and not undereating—will keep the weight increase within proper bounds and this is the best guide to the preservation of a good figure.

QUESTIONS FROM READERS

Miss N. C.: "Several months ago you wrote an article on skin eruption caused by white gold when used on the frame of spectacles. Two years ago I changed glasses and the new pair had white gold frames with ear pieces. Following this an eruption occurred behind my ears. I changed glasses and had the eruption treated with light, to which I am very sensitive. The light gave me a burn and the eruption behind my ears has not healed up."

Answer: The eruption caused by white gold spectacle frames always heals promptly when the frames are changed to another material. I would suspect, therefore, in your case that the eruption you have is not white gold or nickel dermatitis.

Bootleg Radio

NEW YORK, June 2.—"Bootleg" broadcasts, such as shortwaved their unfair fictions during the recent tragic episodes of the Lindbergh baby murder mystery, have slight chance these days of escaping "the spot."

Governmental methods of air detection now trace, almost infallibly, the source; save in some rare instances where amateurs reach an extremely limited audience.

A few years back, however, impish pranks of would-be practical jokers kept the governmental agencies in a great lather. There was, for instance, the gent located somewhere in the vicinity of Flatbush or Long Island who delighted in sending out smoking car stories. On each appearance, he would change the wave length—the while his tales grew more and more off color and the authorities tore what remained of their fast-whitening hair.

When it appeared that his trail might have been picked up, he vanished from the ether and was never caught.

Getting Exclusive

AND here's a tip that should discourage a few of that army of would-be radio announcers recently flooding the big town; Pat Kelley, selector and supervisor of announcers over NBC, passes on word that out of 3000 aspirants only ten have been given as much as a chance.

The fellow who hopes to get so much as a swing at the ball must have a college education; a knowledge of music and composers; be able to speak one other language fluently; be a fair ad-libber, with a flair for the extemporaneous and possess "voice personality."

Why, you ask, do many announcers now on the air appear to lack several of these requirements? Well, maybe they were signed up in the good old days.

The Ubiquitous Banker

AND now Manhattan presents that unique and amusing scenario titled, "Bankers on Broadway!" The banks are in Hollywood up to their last efficiency expert; they have taken over hotels, swank apartments, office buildings and rent-houses.

The entire Shubert group went the way of all mortgages; Arthur Hammerstein lost his theater, the Hammerstein; Earl Carroll had to surrender; then came H. B. Harris, Hudson and the most recent to pass was Charles Dillingham's Globe Theater.

All of which is a gloomy picture, but the smiles arise from the aftermath. Brock Pemberton, for instance, had booked the Hudson for his new show, "Christopher Comes Across," which is described as a hotsy comedy of the goings on between Columbus and Isabella.

A banker's representative was sent in to watch rehearsals and the play was pronounced far too ribald for a conservative banking concern. Booking was crossed off and Pemberton must move.

The large laugh will come if the next Carroll show, booked for another bank-held playhouse, is pinched for immodesty.

Millions Go Begging

AT a time when a million dollars should look like at least a million dollars, refusal by Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne of Hollywood's offer of that sum causes more than a passing gasp. The one cinema adventure of the Lunt-Fontanne team proved unpleasant to them. They had been quoted as saying they "wouldn't go back for a million dollars." And they didn't. Theirs has been a neat income for years and they have been shrewd in their investments.

However, Katherine Cornell has turned down offers almost as large and just a couple of years ago, George Cohan wouldn't take a million. Now he goes out for something said to be considerably less.

Such is the psychology of Broadway billing that a street boothlack now hangs a sign: "Jimmy Collins shoe shine extraordinary!"

ARMY BALLOON SURE WINNER

TWO NEW UNOFFICIAL RECORDS ARE SET BY PAUL AND BISHOP

OMAHA, Neb., June 2 (AP)—Coaxing their big hydrogen bag through storm-assailed skies to establish two new unofficial records, Lieutenants Wilfrid J. Paul and John H. Bishop—Uncle Sam's "harmony twins"—today appeared certain winners of the 1932 national balloon champion[illegible]

Paul and [illegible], the latter a regular army sergeant competing as a reserve lieutenant, brought their Army No. 2 balloon down 13 miles north of Hatton, Saskatchewan, Canada, yesterday to win the national balloon race and gain possession of the Litchfield trophy. The victory also assured them a place on the United States team in the international race in Switzerland next September.

By reaching Hatton, 901 miles northwest of Omaha, the pair set, barring disqualification, a new distance record for balloons of 35,000 cubic feet capacity. They likewise shattered the existing endurance record for bags of that class.

The previous distance record was set in 1927 by S. A. U. Rassmussen at 571 miles when he flew from the Ford airport, Detroit, to Hookerton, N. C., in the same race the duration record, broken by Lieut. Paul and his aide, was established by E. J. Hill, and A. G. Schlosser. They stayed aloft 26 hours and 46 minutes. The Army bag's time in the air was estimated unofficially at 29 hours 15 minutes.

WAGE PETITION

school district on May 21, 1932, the matter of the petition of May 4, signed by a number of the teachers, asking that the board reconsider its action in accepting the voluntary reduction of 10 per cent in salaries, agreed to by all teachers of the school system, was considered, but owing to the financial difficulties confronting the school district at this time, it was decided that it would be impossible to grant your request.

"The board fully recognizes the fine spirit of cooperation which has always been exhibited by the teachers and regrets that the stringency of the times necessitates a reduction in salaries."

Funds Are Short

The school district at this time does not have funds with which to cash April and May vouchers given to the teachers, Schools Manager A. C. Jackson said Wednesday. Money owed to teachers and already borrowed totals about $47,000, Mr. Jackson said. The state owes the district about $40,000 in per capita allotments and a considerable sum of money is due in delinquent taxes.

It was the understanding of the teachers, Powers previously had pointed out, that the ten per cent cut was agreed to on the condition that the reduction was only for the current year and that the school's salary schedule was to be maintained. About 100 teachers signed the petition.

Lubbock Residents Will Attend Camp

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, June 2 (AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of 6 to 8 points on trade and commission house buying. June sold at 5.07.

The demand, however, was comparatively slow and subsequently prices lost most of the gains under local and foreign liquidation and prompted by further weakness in the stock market. Weather conditions were considered favorable as a whole and with no serious complaints relative to the progress of the new crop and continued unfavorable business conditions in general and very unsatisfactory reports from the textile trade, traders were very timid about taking an aggressive position on the buying side and seemed to prefer to await developments.

The July position advanced 7 points to 5.07 at the outset but later eased off to 5.01, or within 1 point of the previous close and only 2 points above the low level established yesterday. Liverpool cabled that the market there had been influenced by liquidation and covering as well as some reactionary buying and reported Manchester nervous with business disorganized.

The market rallied from the early lows on covering, spot house and Liverpool buying. There was less pressure to sell and when July sold off to 5.01 and December to 5.39, or within 1 point of yesterday's close, a better demand developed. July sold up to 5.17 and December to 5.56, or to net gains of about 15 to 17 points. At midday the market was within a point or two of the highest.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, June 2. (AP)—The cotton market had an active but steadier opening today. Liverpool cables were considerably better than due despite another failure of a cotton house there. First trades here showed gains of 8 to 10 points which was not a full response to the firmness of cables.

The market eased off after the start to 5.03 for July, 5.24 for October and 5.38 for December, down 5 to 7 points from the opening figures, due to weakness at the start in the stock market. Later in the first hour, however, the market rallied, recovering the loss on scalpers buying and price fixing.

Near the end of the first hour the market was steady and 9 to 10 points above yesterday's close.

The market was fairly active all morning, and prices continued to advance as the stock market rallied from its early weakness and the map indicated more rains in the belt than wanted. There was good buying by scalpers and more or less price fixing. July traded up to 5.21, October to 5.42 and December to 5.55, or 18 to 19 points up from the early lows and 20 to 21 points above yesterday's close. Near mid-session the market was steady and at the highs.

NEW ORLEANS OPEN

NEW ORLEANS, June 2. (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady: July 5.10; Oct. 5.30; Dec. 5.43; Jan. 5.47; Mar. 5.62-bid; May unquoted.

NEW YORK OPEN

NEW YORK, June 2. (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady: July 5.07; Oct. 5.34; Dec. 5.46; Jan. 5.53; Mar. 5.72; May 5.82.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, June 2 (AP)—After an early shower of selling orders, the clouds over the security markets suddenly lifted today and a rather active rally got under way, more than cancelling losses of 1 to 2 points.

Utilities, rails and a number of industrials plunged to new lows in the first hour, but selling quickly wore itself out and a substantial rally appeared. Stocks which turned early losses into net gains of 1 to 3 points included Santa Fe, Union Pacific, American Tobacco and Liggett & Myers, Lambert, American Can, Eastman Kodak, Borden and Allied Chemical.

United States Steel, after duplicating its 1932 low at 25 1-4, went forward for a net gain of a point or so. American Telephone broke over 2 points to a new low but more than recovered that loss. Westinghouse Electric and other stocks identified with the utility industry likewise showed a better tone.

utes. After a ten mile race they saw the fugitive turn into a fenced pasture, stopping to fasten the gate behind him.

The sheriff drove through the gate without pausing to open it and drew alongside Hair, who stopped the car he was in.

The pursuers said he looked directly at them and drew a pistol from a side pocket. Before they realized what he intended, there were shots and Hair fell dead.

Hair was the son of a retired banker who had lived in the Big Spring district since pioneer days.

Officers said Hair had been unemployed for several months. He formerly was employed as a truck driver for an oil company. He had lived in Big Spring practically all of his life.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, June 2 (AP)—New downturns in wheat prices early today paralleled setbacks of securities and accorded with favorable weather southwest and west. Further bankruptcies of cotton firms at Liverpool were cited as an additional bearish factor. Opening 1-4 to 5-8 lower, wheat afterward held near the initial range. Corn started unchanged to 1-4 up and subsequently tended to sag.

AIR CORPS VISIT

had been serviced with gas and oil and the cadets had been treated to coffee and sandwiches at the port hangar. The last plane was away shortly after 12:30.

Studying Navigation

Navigation is the principal object of the trip, said Lt. H. A. Moore, who directed landings and take-offs at the airport this morning. The lieutenant arrived here ahead of the other ships, having flown from San Antonio this morning.

Major D. G. Griggs, Lt. J. P. Haney and Capt. H. K. Ramey were other instructors in the flight, Lt. Haney leading the group and Capt. Ramey bringing up the rear to check possible forced landings and other trouble. No trouble of any nature was reported on the hop from Oklahoma this morning, all students reporting in on schedule.

All planes in the flight were Douglas 02 observation planes with the exception of one or two used by officers. Only one cadet was in each plane.

First Of A Series

The flight today is the first of a series of three to be made from San Antonio to the local airport this month. The second group of twenty fliers in fast pursuit ships is scheduled to land here on June 10 while another group of twenty planes is due here on June 17.

High praise for Lubbock's airport came from officers and cadets alike.

Landing activities were directed by Lt. Moore, Clint Breelove, airport manager, directed servicing of the ships. Mrs. Breedlove was in charge of serving the cadets refreshments.

CAUGHT AT LAST

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—For weeks had Charles Parrish, deputy sheriff, sought Will H. Lemley, Lewisburg, to serve a capias on him charging distilling. How Parrish finally found him is funny. Parrish, appearing in the civil court jury room, looked over the prospective jurors. Amongst them was Lemley! He was taken to the county jail and the jury was short one member.

Plans and specifications available at offices of Guy R. Johnston, resident engineer, Myrick building, Lubbock, Texas, and State Highway Department, Austin. Usual rights reserved.

NO ARREST IN AUTO CRASH

EPISCOPAL RECTOR IS SLIGHTLY HURT BY HIT-AND-RUN CAR

Police at noon reported no arrest had been made in connection with a hit-and-run automobile which hit Rev. Bradner J. Moore, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, as he was crossing Avenue Q near Sixteenth street at about 9:15 o'clock Wednesday night. The driver of the automobile did not stop, and companions of the minister said they could not read the rear license plate, as the tail light was not burning, police reported.

The Rev. Mr. Moore, treated at Lubbock sanitarium for minor injuries, said he would leave today as he had planned for Hollister, Mo., to attend a young peoples' encampment. He suffered bruises on his legs, lacerations on his right hand and bruises on his left hand, and a cut over his right eye. After emergency treatment, he returned to his home, at 1604 Avenue Q. The injured man was carried to the sanitarium in a Rix ambulance.

The minister, accompanied by Miss Helen Whitehouse, Episcopalian women's auxiliary field representative, and his son, Harry was crossing the street to the church when a car driven south on Avenue Q struck him in attempting to pass another machine. The other two were uninjured. The Rev. Mr. Moore was walking in the unpaved center parkway when he was struck, from his back.

ROTARY-KIWANIS

latter was the under dog at Lubbock High school, and that the release was a matter of personal grudge. Whatever the reason, Duncan will not appear in the Kiwanis lineup at 5:30 this afternoon.

Manager Morgan issued the following statement in regard to Duncan's dismissal:

"I've tried hard to get along with the veteran outfielder but he was too goshawful temperamental. I warned him to cut out the tempermental stuff, but he persisted in wearing that lousy purple skull cap with the long green tossel out on the practice field. So this morning I fired him. We're going to win the ball game, nevertheless, because I'm manager and I'm going to pitch."

This afternoon's game at Merrill Park finds the Rotarians and Kiwanians renewing an ancient and honorable hostility on the baseball field. Under the guise of playing for the benefit of the local Boy Scouts, the teams have succeeded in gaining much publicity through their training camp activities at Buffalo Springs and Shannon Park. They came home late yesterday. There was little celebration on the part of the natives.

Judge (Flash) Raley is manager of the Cog-Wheel nine and he will oppose Manager Morgan of the Kiwanians on the mound this afternoon, probably jerking himself in favor of somebody who can pitch. Morgan, who lays claim to baseball ability as a result of having watched the St. Louis Cardinals scrub team from the bench, may go all the way.

The belated arrival of Weldon Chapman, sensational outfielder of various horse and buggy leagues in and around Cisco, yesterday swelled the hopes of the Rotary outfit. The rest of the Cog-Wheel lineup probably will consist of Charles Guy, second base; Bennie Hilburn, left field; Riley Huie, catcher; Pete Cawthon, short stop; Don Mitchell, right field; Dr. Ater, third base; Daddy Dickinson, first base.

BONUS MARCH

cruited to start June 4.

A tented city is being arranged to house the thousands of veterans.

Press and private reports reaching Brigadier General Glassford, superintendent of police, indicated today that more than 5,000 now are en route or are about to start. They are coming from the four corners of the nation.

Glassford said the new arrivals would be taken to Anacostia park, some distance from the capitol, and housed in tents.

Efforts to learn how the movement started have been unsuccessful. Glassford said those now under way have been attracted by the publicity of free housing and the chance of a free ride.

Walter W. Waters, "commander-in-chief" of those now here, said the idea originated with a group in Oregon. He emphatically denied that communists or the workers Ex-Service Men's league, an affiliate of the communist organization, inspired it.

On the other hand, police say 200 known communists are in the city. One—Emanuel Levin, said the Ex-Service Men's league claims credit for starting the movement in 30 strategical points. The league is planning a mass demonstration here June 8.

Glassford has about $400 to feed the campers, now being fed at a cost of six cents a day each. They get two meals. The police superintendent appeared before a senate committee yesterday and asked for a federal appropriation of $75,000.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS PRESENT PROGRAM

Members of the Lubbock Kiwanis club heard a group of Camp Fire girls in a program at the club luncheon in Hotel Lubbock today noon only to have it interrupted by a "gang of Rotary kidnapers". Joe Baldridge and H. D. Woods were in charge of the program.

The girls were about half way through with their program when a group of Rotarians escorting members of the Kiwanis club in chains appeared in the banquet hall and created a slight disturbance which ended in the chaining up of several Rotarians.

Song and dance numbers were given by the girls. Betty Jean Jones gave a tap dance after which Maxine Odom and Doris Peaby of Slaton appeared in a duo tap dance number. They were accompanied by Mrs. Allen Farrell of Slaton. Betty Alice Gordon, Margaret Overton and Rose Mary Harlan gave a humorous magician's stunt.

Camp Fire girls appearing in the program besides those mentioned above were: Gwendolyn McKnight, Dorlene Abbott, Jean Cantelou, Frances Wilson, Kathleen Jennings, assistant guardian. Mrs. Charles Hackett and Miss Maurine Henderson directed the program. The girls were from the Minnehaha group.

Lt. H. A. Moore of Kelly Field, San Antonio, made a short talk, praising the Lubbock municipal airport and especially the efficiency in servicing planes here.

Two new members, H. F. Godeke and C. V. Bullen, were received into the club by E. L. Klett.

Out-of-town visitors at the luncheon were Lieutenant Moore and Edwin Hall of Plainview.

VERDICT IN BANK CASE INSTRUCTED

Instructed verdict in the case of F. A. Blackenbeckler, receiver for the Plainview National bank, against Joe Lee Ferguson, of Plainview, a brother of former Governor James Ferguson, was given by a jury in United States district court shortly after noon today.

The verdict is for $7,000 alleged due on a note made in June, 1930, to the old First National bank, Plainview, with interest from the filing of the suit in federal court January 12, this year. The verdict also found against the plaintiff in the matter of a note for $233.75, made at the same time.

Defendant Favored

Verdict for the defendant in his cross petition seeking recovery of ten notes or vendor's liens of a face value of $840 each, which the receiver found in the bank's private papers and not in the note case was also included under the instructions of Judge William H. Atwell presiding.

The receiver was the only witness for the plaintiff. He testified to finding of the ten vendor's liens in papers in the bank. The defendant also testified. After the close of testimony the jury was excused while attorneys argued motions for instructed verdicts. W. D. Girand of Lubbock and his son W. D., jr., represented the receiver, and C. S. Williams and W. W. Kirk, Plainview, represented Mr. Ferguson. The plaintiff had two witnesses who were not called and the defendant three not used.

Members of the jury were: W. H. Robinson, foreman; Sam Paul, John A. Stanley, L. B. Fawyer, Albert Basinger, T. B. Taylor, J. C. Fowler, C. F. Scott, J. M. Barnhart, J. A. Johnson, Stanley Doss and J. E. Bryson.

BLUM, Tex., June 2 (AP)—C. W. Hogan, 70, was found shot to death today at his home four miles south of here. A verdict of suicide was returned by a coroner. He was reported to have been despondent over ill health.

NEW BUILDING IS DEDICATED

BISHOP SEAMAN HERE FOR OPENING OF STUDENT HALL

Dedicating the Episcopal student center bearing his name to "the glory of God and the service of students," the Rt. Rev. E. Cecil Seaman, bishop of the Northwest Texas missionary diocese of the Protestant Episcopal church, was the principal speaker late Wednesday at ceremonies at the newly completed structure at Avenue Y and Sixteenth street.

Lubbock and Texas Technological college organizations also were represented by speakers.

Mrs. Carl Svensen, president of the woman's auxiliary of North Texas, expressed hope that persons benefitting by the building would live up to the ideals of the man for whom it was named. It was stressed that the place was not merely for use of Episcopalians, but for all Texas Technological college students.

Several Speakers

Bishop Seaman was accompanied here by Mrs. Seaman and their two children, Mary and Henry. The Rev. W. H. Martin, Big Spring rector, also attended.

Representatives speaking were: Dr. J. C. Granbery, Tech; Mrs. O. C. Corry and Inez Hensley, YWCA; Miss Helen Whitehouse, field representative of the woman's auxiliary, of New York City; Mrs. Svensen; W. W. Rix, Lubbock Episcopalian; Garland Smith, Tech student body; Jack Boyd and Glynne Coker, YMCA; Rev. Walter P. Jennings and the Rev. Jack M. Lewis, Lubbock ministers.

HIGHWAY ROUTING IS UP IN COURT

The Associated Press reported late Wednesday that litigation over routing of state highway No. 24 eastward from Lubbock had returned to the state supreme court.

A motion for rehearing in the suit of Mrs. W. G. Nairn et al against Robert Bean et al was submitted to the court, which previously had held for the defendants and authorized routing of No. 24 eastward on Broadway instead of north on Avenue H.

A motion for rehearing in the case of H. C. Burt vs. W. D. Benson also was submitted from Lubbock county.

Do you inhale?

Three little words that "upset the apple cart" in the cigarette trade

O. K. AMERICA
TUNE IN ON LUCKY STRIKE—60 modern minutes with the world's finest dance orchestras, and famous Lucky Strike event features, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N.B.C. networks.

Copr., 1932, The American Tobacco Co.

DO you inhale? Can any question be simpler? And yet—what a furore it has created! The cigarette trade feels that the public has been let in on a sacrosanct secret! "You've upset the apple cart," they say.

Why such anxiety? Certainly the public doesn't fear the question—for everybody inhales—knowingly or unknowingly ... every smoker breathes in some part of the smoke he or she draws out of a cigarette.

Do you inhale? Lucky Strike has dared to raise this vital question ... because certain impurities concealed in even the finest, mildest tobacco leaves are removed by Luckies' famous purifying process. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it!

Remember—more than 20,000 physicians, after Luckies had been furnished them for tests, basing their opinions on their smoking experience, stated that Luckies are less irritating to the throat than other cigarettes!

CAMERA DOESN'T LIE

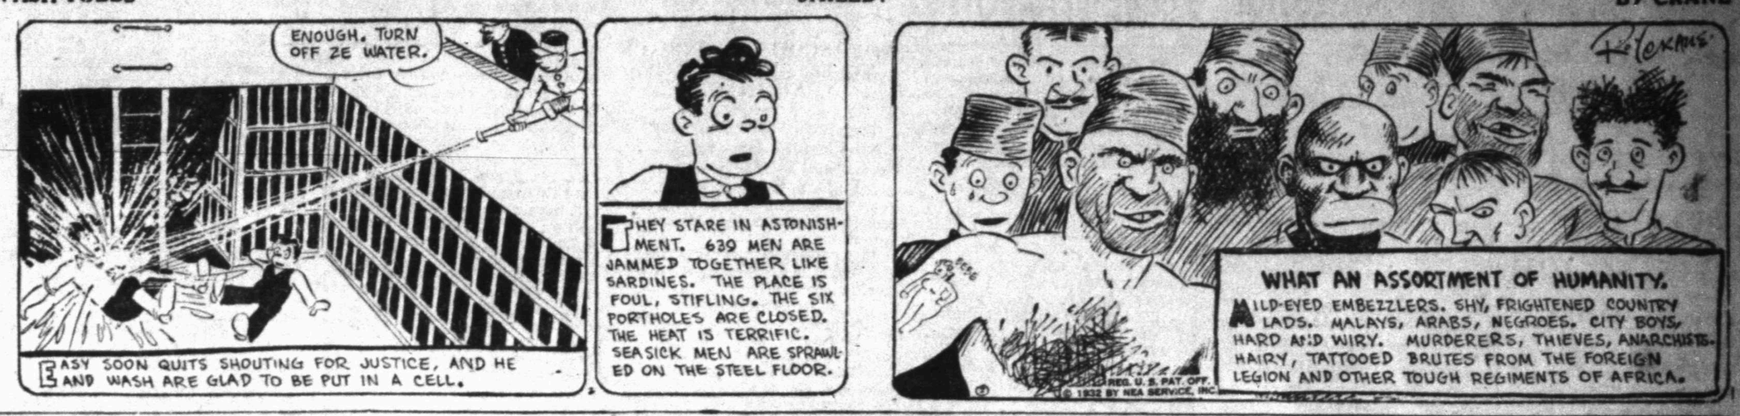

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—Municipal Judge Clifton Cameron was confronted with some evidence that couldn't lie if it wanted to. Mrs. Eloise Walton was the one who produced it. She was one of 12 persons arrested and hailed into court for disregarding a traffic stop sign. When asked if she plead guilty, she said no. "And why?" asked the prosecutor, "Because of these," she replied—and produced two photos which showed that the sign was so bent and twisted as to be illegible. She and the other defendants were freed.

TEMPERATURE AT HIGH FOR YEAR HERE WEDNESDAY

A temperature of 92 degrees, the maximum of the season, was registered Wednesday at the state experiment sub-station near Lubbock. Previously, the highest reading was 90 degrees. Wednesday's minimum was 62.

A monthly report by Don L. Jones, superintendent of the station, shows that May weather here was cooler than the average, there was less wind and evaporation, and greater humidity than usual, and precipitation exceeded the normal.

The colder ground temperatures interfered with proper germination of seeds, the superintendent said. He reported May rainfall was 2.37, as compared with the normal precipitation of 2.12. Rainfall for the first five months of this year totaled 6.27, or .42 of an inch more than normal for the period.

Maximum temperature was 90 degrees, and the minimum was 45. The mean relative humidity was 60.8 per cent. May windrun was 5,480 miles as compared with the normal of 6,495. Total evaporation was 6.526 inches.

Last month had 11 clear days, 13 partly cloudy and 7 cloudy.

SUMMER CAMP IS PLANNED

BOY SCOUT OUTING IS TO BE AT POST THIS YEAR IN JULY

The annual summer camp of South Plains Area council Boy Scouts will be held at Post from about July 17 through the 23d. Last year's encampment was with New Mexico scouts in the Sacramento mountains.

Plans are going forward rapidly and officials are looking to a successful camp.

To Shorten Camp

This year's camping session will be shortened from ten to seven days. It is believed that this will enable many scout leaders to attend the camp, who could not do so under the ten day plan. The camp fee, which will be lowered in proportion to the length of the camp, will be approximately seven dollars.

Troop leadership will be stressed strongly at the camp this summer. Every troop attending the camp will be expected to have their own adult leaders. Officials feel that the relationship between the scout leader and his boys will be greatly strengthened by a week in camp.

Because so many new boys have entered scouting on the South Plains since the last camp was held at Post, Scout headquarters has expressed a desire to have every boy in camp who can possibly attend.

The present camp staff, which will be added to at a later date, consists of Scout Executive Jennings, who will be Camp Director; Tom Everheart, who is a Senior Red Cross Life Saver and is connected with the City Swimming Pool at Lubbock, will have charge of water front activities; Dr. E. L. Reed, professor of Zoology and Botany at the Texas Technological college, who is an ardent lover of scouting, will have charge of all nature subjects at the camp; Jack Mickle, who will have charge of camp first aid activities Ernie Self will be cooking for the camp again. This will make Ernie's third year of cooking for the South Plains council.

The spring rains have put the Two-Draw Lake and the camp site in tip-top condition for the hundred or more boys who will attend the session.

On a farm at Rayleigh, England, 200,000 mice are being raised for scientific experiments, as many as 3,000 being shipped to different institutions in a single day.

Poultry Directors Are To Plan Show

LEVELLAND, June 2—(Special)—Officers and directors of the Texas Panhandle-Plains Poultry association have been advised by W. T. Magee, county agent and president of the association, of a meeting to be at Slaton, Tuesday, June 14, to decide on plans for the annual show.

Thirty men over the Plains country are directors of the organization. The coming show will be the third annual show. The group was formed two years ago and the first show held in Slaton in December, 1930. The second show was the same week in 1931.

LUBBOCK MAN HURT

Bruises and minor cuts were suffered Monday by J. G. Wilkerson, who said he lived in Lubbock, when an automobile he was driving collided with a moving cut of freight cars on the Santa Fe railway tracks at San Angelo. The car, a coupe, was damaged considerably.

Wester Reminds All Candidates To File

Again, J. K. Wester, Lubbock county Democratic executive committee chairman, has reminded that Monday, June 6, is the last day for district candidates to file applications for placing their names on the primary ballot.

Mr. Wester said a number fo candidates had not filed and unless they do by Monday, their names will not be placed on the ballot. He has the blanks in his office and will assist candidates in filling them out.

County candidates have until June 18 to file their names.

MOST TIRES have sled-runner ribs in the tread-center

GOODYEAR puts traction HERE where it belongs

If you know your SILENCE and SAFETY

UNLESS you're willing to pay your good money for a back number when you buy tires—here are two pictures of vital interest to you.

In these pictures you see the two types of treads used on all the tires offered for sale today.

At the left is the smooth center tread, politely called by the tire industry a "rib center."

At the right—the Goodyear All-Weather.

Look at the "rib center" tire and you see gripless sled-runners of rubber in the middle of the tread where the tire contacts the road.

Look at this new Goodyear and you see traction in the tread center—big husky blocks of rubber—keen-edged—deep-slotted at an angle which means grip and stop, no matter which way a car wants to slide.

Goodyear All-Weather Tread Tires give you the type of tread shown at the right—Goodyears provide the complete and sure-footed safety of traction in the center of the tread where it belongs.

But this year Goodyears give even more. They give you safety and silence both in the first noiseless non-skid tread, the new Silent All-Weather.

Prices Record-breakingly Low!

Never in Goodyear experience—never in all tire history—have the prices of Goodyear Tires been as low as they are today. Don't try to guess them by what you last paid for tires. They're 50% lower than they were five years ago—30% lower than in 1929. And your money today buys the handsomest, toughest, longest-wearing Goodyear All-Weather ever built. Think of that, and ask yourself: Why buy any second-choice tire when first-choice costs no more!

What with new cars becoming faster, more powerful every year, it's well to remember that brakes may stop the wheels, but only TIRES can stop the car—and those tires must have traction.

What with engines and bodies built quieter than ever before, it's worth while to watch the tires you buy, and make sure they roll without rumble or hum.

Millions of motorists have discovered the superior safety of the All-Weather Tread. That is one of the big reasons why more people ride on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind.

When you buy tires, get the newest and safest and best. All you need to do is ask yourself the simple question: "Why be satisfied with any second-choice tire when first-choice costs no more?"
