Keeping tab on our neighbors:

Kim Pease of the Rotan Advance and Roby Star-Record reports that a "very close family member" called him up early last Saturday morning and urged him to vote in the Republican primary and cast his vote for Ronald Reagan.

However, Pease said he was more interested in voting in the contested Democratic Primary races than in trying to help Reagan out-poll President Ford for the Republican nomination for the presidency.

In counties where there were few contested local races on the Democratic Party ballot, however, there is evidence of much "switching" to the Republican primary. And those who tend to discount this vote should remember that the same thing happened in the general election in 1972 and it can happen again—there was a lot of switching in 49 states.

Jim Cornish of the Post Dispatch says the Bicentennial is going to produce a lot of bell ringing there.

"Not only will this community join other Bicentennial communities across the land in a united bell ringing at 1 p.m. Sunday, July 4," said Cornish. "The ministerial association is contemplating a planned 12-hour 'bell ringing' in which a lot of folks could help make a new call for freedom ring.

"The bell to be used for the occasion is what is believed to be the only church bell left in town—that of the First United Methodist Church."

We wonder if there is a church bell left in Snyder. The bells were used in earlier days for many purposes. Primarily they alerted people to approaching worship services in the churches. But they also were used at other times to sound alarms, to "ring out the old and ring in the near year" and provide various signals for the community.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Friday, May 7, the 128th day of 1976. There are 238 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1945, at the end of World War II in Europe, the Germans signed unconditional surrender terms at General Dwight D. Eisenhower's temporary headquarters at Rheims, France.

On this date:

In 1789, the first presidential inaugural ball was held in New York in honor of President and Mrs. George Washington.

In 1833, the German composer, Johannes Brahms, was born.

In 1915, the British liner, Lusitania, was torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine off Ireland with a loss of more than 1,100 lives.

In 1939, the military and political alliance known as the Rome-Berlin Axis was announced by Germany and Italy.

In 1943, Allied Forces in World War II won a major victory in North Africa as Tunis and Bizerte were liberated.

In 1960, Moscow announced that an American pilot shot down over the Soviet Union, Francis Gary Powers, would be put on trial as a spy.

Ten years ago: President Lyndon B. Johnson proposed a treaty with the Soviet Union and other space powers out-lawing military activity on the moon and denying anyone lunar sovereignty.

Five years ago: The United States removed all controls on the use of dollars in U.S. transactions with mainland China.

One year ago: Two West German ships trapped in the Suez Canal since the 1967 Arab-Israel War were freed and steamed into Ford Said, Egypt under their own power.

Bicentennial footnote: Two hundred years ago today, the colonial revolutionary committee in Pennsylvania urged people to sell their lead clock weights and other lead for six pence per pound, to be converted into musket balls."

RESCUE WORKERS PROBE RUINS FOR SURVIVORS

Quake Toll May Reach 300

VENICE, Italy (AP) — Rescue workers dug frantically today for possible survivors in the earthquake ruins of dozens of towns and villages in northeast Italy and it was feared the death toll would reach at least 300.

Art treasures apparently escaped damage, however, in the massive shock Thursday night that was felt in half of Italy and at least six other countries, causing panic among millions. There were no reports of casualties or major damage outside Italy or in major Italian cities.

At midday today, national police headquarters in Rome reported 243 bodies recovered in 19 towns, with scores feared trapped under the wreckage of leveled buildings. More than 1,000 persons were injured, a number of them seriously.

A U.S. Army base in Vicenza sent out six helicopters to shuttle the injured to hospitals and to ferry medicine and water.

The worst quake in the last 10 years in Europe and Asia Minor was in eastern Turkey in 1966 when 2,529 were killed. More than 17,000 died in Guatemala in a quake last February.

Thursday night's quake rocked an area from Venice to the Yugoslav border in the east to Milan in the west and tremors were felt as far south as Naples, as well as in sections of Yugoslavia, Austria, Czechoslovakia, West Germany, The Netherlands and Belgium. Hundreds of Belgians fled from high-rise apartment houses.

Floods in November 1966 heavily damaged Florence's art patrimony and accelerated the decay of churches and other buildings in Venice.

But after an intensive check of buildings in the lagoon city today by the Venice fire department, a city official reported that not one church or historic monument "suffered the least bit of damage."

The 325-foot bell-tower in St. Mark's Square swayed during the shocks, but a careful inspection by the specially trained fire squad showed no damage.

The tower, built originally in 889 and rebuilt in 1514, fell without warning in 1902, to be rebuilt again in 1912.

The most important of the hundreds of churches and monuments in Venice have had small mirrors imbedded on the end of long pipes in their walls and foundations. By shining lights down the pipes' it was found today that not a single mirror had broken, indicating there had been no shifting in the structures.

Panel Eyes Power Problem

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The State Public Utilities Commission has scheduled a special meeting for today to discuss a problem that has thrown a monkey wrench in the delicate power interconnection between all power companies operating in the state.

The problem started when two power companies, Central Power and Light of Corpus Christi and West Texas Utilities Co. of Abilene began selling power across state lines to Oklahoma customers.

Utility commission member Alan Erwin said that action could bring the Texas power companies tied to the two companies into federal, rather than state, regulations.

As a result the other companies interconnected with Central Power and Light and West Texas Utilities pulled themselves out of the power system.

Erwin said that a lack of a comprehensive, integrated intereconnected system could jeopardize some Texas power operations in emergency situations.

Company officials said the service to residential consumers would not be affected.

But the lack of power interconnection can affect some sensitive communication equipment between areas supplied by different companies.

Central Power and Light and West Texas Utilities filed a suit in U.S. District Court in Dallas earlier this week seeking reinstatement of interconnections with other companies.

The two companies are owned by Central and Southwest Corporation of Wilmington, Del.

S. B. Phillips Jr., president of Central and Southwest, said the severance of interconnections was a violation of Texas and U.S. law.

In addition to the suit, CP&L and WTU were joined by Public Service Co. of Oklahoma and Southwestern Electric Power Co. in a petition to the Federal Power Commission asking for an investigation of the situation.

The four companies maintain that they can save their customers $2.3 billion over 20 years if they are allowed to interconnect with other companies in the Southwest pool, which is an organization of electrical utilities operating together in Oklahoma, Louisiana and Arkansas.

Colleges Aid Plan Proposed

AUSTIN (AP) — Higher Education Commissioner Kenneth Ashworth today recommended a series of laws and constitutional amendments that would eliminate most of the general revenue drain for college construction and remodeling.

Ashworth testified before the education committee of the "Hobby Commission" on state government economy.

Depending on the school, construction and repair money comes from a variety of sources—direct legislative appropriations from general revenue; bonds issued against an earmarked state property tax; bonds backed by the income to the Permanent University Fund; tuition; and building use fees charged to students.

Ashworth recommended:

—Broadening the use of the Permanent University Fund and earmarked property tax bonds to pay for repairs and remodeling of existing buildings.

—Inclusion of all state colleges and universities under the two bond programs. Six are now covered by neither.

—Establishment of sinking funds "for academic enrichment" to receive state property tax revenues that a school does not need for bond retirement.

"In this way an academic endowment could be created instead of constructing buildings which might not be needed," Ashworth said.

—A new law prohibiting future use of student fees to retire building bonds without prior approval by the legislature or an agency designated by it.

—Phasing out the use of tuition income to finance construction.

Ashworth said that over the past 10 years the legislature has had to appropriate $1.7 million for operating expenses that normally would have been financed by the tuition income colleges have plowed into buildings.

"In effect, the state is retiring the tuition revenue bonds by putting state revenue in the right pockets of the schools to make up for the tuition money the schools are paying out of their left pockets to retire the bonds," he said.

Ashworth said the state's college building boom of the past decade or so has left the state with a mammoth debt bearing $2 billion in interest alone.

In Thursday's testimony, Dr. Kenneth Walker, president of Navarro College in Corsicana, said unexpected enrollment increases will force the junior colleges to ask the legislature for $20 million in emergency funds next January. He said the junior college's "contingency fund" will run short by at least that amount.

The junior college contingency fund is appropriated by the legislature to help the schools meet unexpected enrollment increases and the added costs higher enrollments generate.

"In the case of Navarro, we are going to have to go to the bank and borrow $360,000 because contingency funds are not available to meet cost increases of the magnitude we have," Walker said.

Walker was invited by subcommitte chairman Harry Provence of Waco to testify because of his school's success in cost cutting.

By abolishing auto registration, the school paper, the yearbook and courses in drama, journalism and offset printing, Walker said the college saved $50,000.

"This enabled the board of trustees to reduce the local tax rate two cents," he said.

ENDS FIVE MONTHS OF DECLINE

Jobless Rate Holds Steady

By ROBERT A. DOBKIN
AP Labor Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's unemployment rate held steady in April at 7.5 per cent, ending five straight months of decline, the government said today.

The leveling off of the jobless rate indicated further improvement will be more difficult in the months ahead.

A bright spot in the job report was that total employment jumped by another 700,000 in April to a new high of 87.4 million, a sign of strong business growth.

However, because the number of Americans finding work nearly offset the big increase in job seekers last month, the jobless rate was unchanged. In April, another 720,000 went looking for work, raising the size of the civilian labor force to 94.4 million.

Despite the growth in jobs, the number of unemployed totaled about 7 million last month, the Labor Department said. Although this was substantially below the recession peak of 8.3 million in May 1975, joblessness remains very high by postwar standards.

Both the unemployment rate and inflation have improved dramatically since last October, but administration officials have repeatedly warned that dramatic gains could not be sustained.

The administration has forecast an inflation rate of about 6 per cent this year with the jobless rate falling to about 7 per cent or below by December.

The big increase in employment last month occurred mostly among men in blue-collar jobs, the government said. This was in contrast to earlier months when most of the growth occurred among women.

The jobless rate for adult males edged down from 5.6 to 5.4 per cent in April. It had been as high as 7.2 per cent at the height of the recession.

Jobless rates for most other worker groups showed little change last month, with the rate for adult women holding steady at 7.3 per cent; the teenage rate edging up from 19.1 to 19.2 per cent; the rate for household heads, regarded as the family breadwinner, slipping from 5 to 4.8 per cent. For whites, the jobless rate edged down from 6.8 to 6.7 per cent while the rate for blacks and other minorities rose from 12.5 to 13 per cent.

The average length of unemployment continued to decline last month, as those jobless for 15 weeks or more fell by 260,000 to 2 million.

In addition to the 7 million unemployed, another 3.2 million Americans were working part-time because they were unable to find full time jobs.

Since dropping to its recession-low in March, 1975, total employment has risen by nearly 3.3 million, an average gain of about a quarter-million a month.

During this time, adult male employment grew by 1.4 million but was still some 150,000 below the pre-recession peak level. At the same time, employment among adult women exceeded its 1974 peak by nearly 1 million.

The Labor Department said 70 per cent of the 172 industries surveyed showed job gains last month, with the bulk of the increase in the service-producing sector. Employment in manufacturing rose by 100,000 in April, with the increases mostly in the electrical equipment, transportation equipment and primary metals industries.

The average work week declined two-tenths of an hour in April to 36 hours, largely because of a drop in overtime hours resulting from the Easter and Passover holidays during the survey week.

Average hourly earnings for production workers were $4.76 in April, a one cent increase from March and a rise of 30 cents over the year.

Lightning Hits Tank Battery

Lightning stuck an oilfield tank battery this morning 12 miles south of Snyder as thunderstorm activity prowled the south part of Scurry County.

The tank battery, located on the Jackson P. Ellis lease, was hit by a lightning bolt at about 8:20 a.m. Ellis said that some 240 barrels of oil was destroyed.

Cool weather prevailed over the area this morning as clouds moved in again. There was no rainfall in Snyder, but heavy showers fell in the thunderstorms to the south, it was reported.

Military Foreign Aid Bill Vetoed

By FRANCES LEWINE
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford today vetoed a $4 billion military foreign aid authorization bill, saying it contained unprecedented and unconstitutional restrictions that would obstruct his ability to conduct foreign policy.

Ford said the legislation was an attempt by Congress "to become a virtual co-administer" in foreign affairs decisions. Some provisions of the law violate the constitutional separation of powers between the executive and the legislatives branches of government, Ford said.

The legislation imposes broad new congressional controls on foreign arms sales. It also allows congressional veto of proposed foreign aid grants and credits to countries engaging in discrimination against American contractors on racial or religious grounds or engaging in violations of human rights of their own citizens.

In a lengthy message to Congress, the President cited "a number of unwise restrictions," including ceilings on arms sales, the requirement that countries receiving aid meet international human rights standards, possible removal of trade restrictions on North and South Vietnam and the termination of grant military aid after fiscal 1977.

The bill was passed 215 to 185 in the House and 51 to 35 in the Senate. Both margins were less than the two-thirds majority needed to override a veto.

"In disproving this bill," Ford said, "I act as any President would and must, to retain the ability to function as the foreign policy leader and spokesman of the nation. In world affairs today, America can have only one foreign policy. Moreover, that foreign policy must be certain, clear and consistent.

Two Texans Die In Flood Waters

By The Associated Press

Heavy rains in Central and South Texas killed at least two persons and turned 20-minute drives to work in San Antonio today into three-hour nightmares.

A sheriff's department spokesman in Blanco County west of Austin said Gladys Moon Sinclair, 57, and her granddaughter, Nona Sproles, 12, both of Johnson City, were killed when flood waters swept their car into Miller Creek Thursday night.

Another of Mrs. Sinclair's granddaughters, Pam Sproles, 10, was sucked out of the car by the powerful waters and washed downstream east of Johnson City, the spokesman said. A search was launched for the girl.

A third granddaughter, Gladys, 13, managed to escape from the vehicle and walk a mile to alert passing motorists to her family's plight, the spokesman said.

In San Antonio, rains falling at the rate of an inch an hour since 5 a.m. stranded motorists driving to work on Interstate 10, which was covered in numerous low spots by swirling water.

A caterer took advantage of a one-hour stoppage of traffic on the interstate to open his van and sell coffee to commuters trying hopelessly to get to work on time.

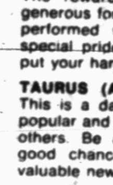

The hardest hit areas in San Antonio were in the north and northwest sections of the city where motorists were rescued from their flooded vehicles by firemen and policemen.

There was an unverified report of a body floating in a swollen San Antonio creek.

In Austin, torrential rains also created minor flooding along some creeks and streets. At least one street was closed when flood waters rolled over a low bridge.

Mighty thunderstorms, often loaded with hail, handed much of the state a new pounding.

Britain Moving Up As Producer

HOUSTON (AP) — Clarence E.H. Tuck, an undersecretary for the United Kingdom Department of Energy, says Great Britain hopes to become one of the top 10 oil producing nations in the 1980s with North Sea production of from 1.9 to 2.8 million barrels per day.

Tuck, who spoke at the final session of the eighth annual Offshore Conference, a four-day technical meeting here, said Thursday the North Sea is now providing Britain with about one-fifth of its oil requirements.

He said the government expects to reach oil self-sufficiency in 1980 when production reaches 95 to 115 million tons.

Tuck said North Sea oil production this year will be worth about $1.6 billion to Britain's balance of payments.

"Next year's production of 35 to 45 million tons could give a saving of around $2.2 billion on the visible trade balance," Tuck said.

Derrick, a parked 1971 Chevrolet owned by Joe Carrasco, and a parked 1973 Plymouth owned by A.D. Groseclose. No one was injured and no wrecker was called. Only minor damages were reported.

J.H. Whitehurst reported the theft of a car tire from his residence in the 1800 block of Avenue E. The tire is believed to have been stolen sometime between May 3 and May 6. Value of the tire is estimated at $35.

Jo Ellen Kubena and a companion were travelling in a pickup truck in the south-bound lane in the 4500 block of College Avenue when one of the occupants in a car passing them reportedly threw a rock which broke the windshield of the pickup. Miss Kubena was driving. The car left the scene of the incident and city police are continuing their investigation. No one was reported injured.

Army Denied Bid On Ft. Hood Expansion

GATESVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Oh, there is joy in Gatesville today.

The mighty U.S. Army has struck out in its bid to annex 59,300 acres of Central Texas farm and ranch land to Ft. Hood.

Landowners were notified Thursday afternoon by U.S. Sen. John Tower's office that the Senate Subcommittee on Military Construction had just voted to deny the Army's request to spend $36.5 million to buy the land. A similar House subcommittee had earlier voted not to recommend expansion after hearings in Texas.

Tower, from Texas, is the ranking Republican on the subcommittee. He recommended denial of the request after conducting hearings on it in Texas.

Landowners in the area to be acquired had protested vigorously the Army's plans.

The Army said it needed the land as a maneuver area for the 1st Armored Cavalry Division and the 2nd Armored Division, based at Ft. Hood.

A Pentagon spokesman in Washington, when asked if the Army would try again next year, said, "We cannot tell at this point whether we will request the authority and funds for a land acquisition next year or not. We will have to reassess the matter.'

Tower said in a statement: "I am not satisfied that the Army is managing the 217,000 acres it now controls at Ft. Hood in the best possible manner. Nor am I satisfied that the Army has given full and complete study to available alternatives to the acquisition of additional land."

Dawson Cooper, president of Our Land-Our Lives, group of land owners organized to fight the proposed acquisition, presided over a meeting of the members Thursday at the National Bank in Gatesville to celebrate the announcement.

Karen Kindler, property owner in the acquisition area, said: "My little girl, Lori, will really get to grow up as a country girl after all."

Gene Clark, another landowner said: "The decision restored my faith in the American way. This is a good demonstration of the manner in which some of our politicians refuse to bow under to fat cat politics."

Landowners had been fighting the Army's proposed acquisition for about a year.

Businessmen in nearby Killeen and Temple favored the Army's side.

E.H. Rhode of Copperas Cove, who headed the pro-Army "Our Lives, Our Country" committee, would only say he was disappointed in the subcommittee's decision.

Family Stricken with Mate-swapping

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1976 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd. Inc.

DEAR ABBY: I can't believe this is happening to me. My daughter is 28 and my son is 30. They are both married, but no children, thank God.

My son's wife and my daughter's husband fell in love, and they are divorcing their mates to marry each other!

In an effort to save our son's marriage, my husband had a heart-to-heart talk with our son's mother-in-law (who is a nice-looking divorcee), and now my husband is involved with this woman to the point of asking me for a legal separation until he can get his head straight!

Abby, this is like a bad dream. My lawyer says that my husband will come to his senses, so I shouldn't be too hasty with the divorce, but I don't want a man who doesn't want me.

Our children are young and can make other lives for themselves, although my daughter is so heartbroken she is in therapy. Neither my daughter nor son had a clue as to what was going on between their mates.

Please tell me, is divorce contagious?

DIZZY FROM DIVORCES

DEAR DIZZY: Divorce is not contagious, but some people who have only considered it fleetingly have gathered courage from friends and relatives who actually go through with it. Every divorce doesn't represent a failure. Some, believe it or not, are "victories."

DEAR ABBY: I laughed when I read the letter from the doctor's wife who complained because the neighbors called her husband in the middle of the night to run over and treat their kids for some minor ailment. (They all had regular doctors, but they called "Dr. Dave" instead because he was so handy.)

Abby, the way to put a stop to that is to send out bills for an "emergency call." Believe me, they'll think twice before calling Dr. Dave again.

When my husband was a young, struggling attorney, people used to corner him at social gatherings and pump him for free legal advice. He even had people calling him at all hours of the night asking for legal advice. We put a stop to that when he started to send them bills for "consultations."

LAWYER'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: That prescription must work. It was recommended by several doctors.

DEAR ABBY: Recently my boyfriend moved in with me. While arranging his belongings, I came across his divorce papers. Being inquisitive, I read them and found out that he has three children by his ex-wife instead of two, as he said.

Also, he told me that he was 35, and according to his divorce papers, he is 44. (I am 22.)

I really care for him and think we can have a good life together, but finding out these things the way I did has me terribly upset.

Should I just keep quiet about it and let him tell me in his own good time? Or should I tell him I know?

TROUBLED

DEAR TROUBLED: Tell him you know. But don't count too heavily on building a "good life" together. The foundation is weak.

DEAR ABBY: I read in your column that some crazy people down south are trying to pass a law to put diapers on horses.

Well, I own a horse, and I think the idea is stupid.

Horses have a right to relieve themselves. At least they fertilize the grass. Automobiles pollute. Take your pick.

Presents Piano Recital

Piano students of Mrs. Kenny Kornegay were presented in a piano recital on April 12 in her home. Guests for the event were parents of the students and Mrs. Wayne Bethel. Students were Kathy Paden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jammie Paden; Shilla Browning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ray Browning; Ken Kitching, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kitching; and Dana Speegle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Speegle.

Kathy Paden played "Prayer," by S.B. Marsh; "On Top of Old Smoky," arranged by Georges Bermont; and "Row Brother Row." by Dorothy Blake, a duet accompanied by Melanie Kornegay.

Shilla played "Swaying Pines," by Garrow; "Calcutta," by Paul Vance; and "When The Saints Go Marching In," a spiritual played as a duet with her teacher.

Ken played "Trailing Moon Vines," by Dorothy Blake, a duet accompanied by his teacher; "At The Trading Post," by Glover; and "Midnight Express," by Kent.

Dana played "Night Rider," by Glover; "Camptown Races," by Stephen Foster; and "Oh, My Darling Clementine," a folk song, a duet accompanied by Melanie Kornegay.

Melanie is a student teacher of Mrs. Wayne Bethel.

Opening lead — J ♥

By Oswald & James Jacoby

Here is another hand to separate the men from the boys. Not that it represents anything of real importance. South is in a nice, comfortable three notrump contract and is sure of 10 tricks come Hell or high water.

He wins the heart lead in dummy and is going to lead a club at trick two. The ordinary, careless player leads a low one and plays an honor after East plays low. West shows out and now our careless player will only collect three club tricks.

The careful player will lead the queen of clubs first. He will have noted that if West holds all five clubs there will be no way to get four tricks there, but that if East holds all five this queen play will make it possible to finesse twice against the nine-eight.

These little differences don't mean anything most of the time, but they do distinguish the really good players from the others

Ask the Jacobys

Here is a tough question from Carolina. You hold: ♠ x ♥ A K Q x x ♦ J x x ♣ Q x x x.

Your partner opens one diamond. There is a one spade overcall and you bid two hearts. Your partner bids two notrump. What do you bid now?

We just raise our partner to three notrump. Our second choice is three diamonds and third choice three hearts.

Calcium won't cure arthritis

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I have been advised by friends to take bone meal as a preventative and a cure for arthritis. It is from a health food store and contains mostly Vitamin D and calcium and bone marrow. One friend in her 70s broke her hip and was dancing four months later. She had taken bone meal for 15 years. Is there really any value in this medicine for arthritis and brittle bones? Is so much calcium harmful?

DEAR READER — Perhaps the problem is in your definition of arthritis. Certainly I recommend a high calcium intake for women who have osteoporosis, the problem of dissovling bone tissue that leads to collapses of vertebrae and increased tendency for fractures. This is a common problem, particularly in small Anglo Saxon women past the menopause. Calcium deficiency will increase the likelihood of having this problem five times over a persons getting adequate amounts of calcium, specifically the amount found in one quart of milk a day.

The combination of calcium and Vitamin D is helpful in treating osteoporosis. Some people use this in conjunction with female hormones and sometimes in conjunction with fluoride. The fluoride strengthens the bones in the skeleton just as it strengthens the formation of the teeth, particularly in their early development.

Having said that, let me emphatically state that taking calcium will not cure degenerative arthritis or osteoarthritis as it is commonly called. That is an entirely different process and as we view it now is essentially a wear and tear disease. That's why it affects the weight bearing joints such as the hips and knees.

Arthritis spurs develop around degenerated vertebrae or joints. These are not formed because of excess calcium at all. The bone is first destroyed and the spur is formed by an imperfect attempt of the bone to regenerate itself. The spurs and deformed bone structures may cause pressure on nerves passing out of the spine from the spinal cord. This can cause pain and other symptoms. True overgrowth of bone tissue is rare. Almost always there must first be bone degeneration.

For more information about degenerative arthritis send 50 cents for The Health Letter, number 4-10, Osteoarthritis: Degenerative or Wear and Tear Arthritis. Send a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for mailing. Address your letter to me in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

Finally, I'd like to say that there is a general misconception about all the harm that can be done by taking a reasonably large amount of calcium in your diet. The simple truth is that the digestive tract is a remarkable filter. Individuals who have too much calcium in the food they ingest simply won't be able to absorb enough to cause any damage to the body.

The normal person is supposed to stay in calcium balance. That literally means that he eliminates the same amount of calcium from the body as he takes in. This statement applies only to adults of course. In the growing stages or in the mending stage of a broken bone the body needs to retain excess calcium for either growth or repair.

Nursing Home Patients Presented List Of Rights

Concerned that nurses know and meet a patient's right for quality nursing care services, members of the Texas Nurses Association adopted a "Statement of Consumer's Rights to Nursing Health Care" at its 65th annual convention in San Antonio, April 8.

The statement, proposed by TNA's Council on Practice, identifies the major areas of nursing health care about which the public has a right to be knowledgeable.

The statement reads: "Every consumer of nursing health care has the right to:

"1. Competent nursing care

2. Be treated with courtesy by all nursing personnel.

3. Be informed of the plan of nursing care.

4. Actively participate in decisions affecting his-her nursing care.

5. Refuse nursing care.

"6. Expect that those providing nursing care are qualified and competent.

7. Be made aware of the qualifications-and capabilities of the health team members providing nursing care.

8. Expect that family rights be considered.

9. Expect that nursing personnel adhere to the professional code of ethics and standards of practice.

10. Expect continuity of nursing care appropriate to his-her health-illness needs."

Consumers representing a cross section of ages, economic and ethnic backgrounds, were surveyed on what were their expectations of nursing care. At the time their reactions and suggestions to a proposed statement outlining consumers' rights were also collected. Using the expectations, criticisms, and suggestions given by consumers, the TNA Council on Practice drafted the statement adopted by the TNA membership at the nursing organization's convention.

The Texas Nurses Association, organized and incorporated in 1907, is a multipurpose organization for and on behalf of Texas RNs to foster high standards of nursing practice, to promote the professional and educational advancement of nurses and to promote the welfare of nurses so that all people may have better nursing care.

Mark Hayes Steals Glory

By MIKE COCHRAN
Associated Press Writer

DALLAS (AP) — "I'm sorry," said Byron Nelson.

"Anything you can do about it?" asked Jack Nicklaus.

"No," replied Nelson.

"It was just one of those things," sighed Nicklaus.

"You have a great attitude," said Nelson, adding with a smile: "Besides being a helluva golfer."

The brief exchange Thursday involved a mysterious mishap that cost Nicklaus a two shot penalty and left him five strokes behind the leader after the first round of the $200,000 Byron Nelson Golf Classic.

Mark Hayes, a non-winner, stole the glory and Nicklaus got the gaff as he set out in quest of his third Nelson title and the $40,000 top prize.

While Hayes was capturing a one-shot lead over three veteran challengers, Nicklaus was trying to shake off his first penalty ever for carrying too many clubs in his bag.

Hayes, often a title contender but not yet a champion in four years on the tour, forged a five-under-par 66 and moved into the second round today with a stroke edge over Forrest Fezler, Don Bies and Marty Fleckman.

A stroke back was a quintet that included John Schlee, Dave Eichelberger, Eddie Pearce, Bob Smith and Tom Kite. Within easy striking distance at 69 was a group headed by Lee Trevino, Tony Jacklin and Don January.

Defending champion Tom Watson, Masters Champ Ray Floyd, two-time tour winner Ben Crenshaw and veteran Tom Weiskopf topped the 70 shooters while it was Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer among the 71 group.

"I guess I will have to go back to school and learn to count," said Nicklaus, who, after a few irate moments, seemed to accept the penalty without undue distress.

The club which mysteriously surfaced in his bag belonged to David Graham and was a pitching wedge which Nicklaus said he examined on the practice tee, then laid down across a bucket of balls to keep the grip from getting wet.

"I counted my clubs on the first tee as I always do, and so did my caddy ...," Nicklaus said. "I don't know how it got in there. It might have slipped under a head cover, someone might have slipped it in my bag after I had counted my clubs ..."

Nicklaus wasted little time making up the two shots, collecting birdies at Nos. 2 and 3 en route to his 71: "I had a 69 plus David's wedge."

Other than Hayes, who snared five birdies and no bogeys, most everyone had special difficulties of one sort or another, not the least of whom was Trevino.

"I'm three under going into No. 7 (his 16th hole) and I faded my tee shot into the water," he groused. "I just went to sleep. Dead Asleep." It was a double bogey snooze.

Fezler could have parred the 18th for a 66 and a share of the lead but his tee shot caught a tree, his second the grandstand, his third rolled 20 feet by the cup and he missed the par putt.

Smith charged onto the soggy, sunswept course with an eagle at the first hole, No. 10 for him, and shot a sparkling five-under 31 on the back side. He dipped to six under with a birdie on his 11th hole and then "the wheel came off" with five holes to play. He got bogeys on three of the five and saved par on one of them with a 45 foot putt.

Lurking happily in the background was Watson, who said: "This is kinda the way I started last year ... not with a bang, but a 72 ... I like my chances after a 70. I'm four shots out at this point but I'm starting to get my confidence."

Celtics Defeat Cavaliers

BOSTON (AP) — The mighty Boston Celtics are off and running in the National Basketball Association's Eastern Conference championship playoff, and there's no doubt Cleveland's upstart Cavaliers have their work cut out.

The Celtics built a whopping 16-point lead in the first half, withstood a furious Cleveland comeback for a 77-77 tie after three periods and then exploded in the final quarter for a 111-99 victory Thursday night in the best-of-seven series opener.

The third game of the Western Conference final playoffs will be played tonight at Phoenix with the Suns and the Golden State Warriors tied at 1-1 in their best-of-seven series.

"We played well for about three quarters of the game," Boston Coach Tommy Heinsohn said. "In the third period we just played putridly. We let 'em back in the ball game, but we won and that's the big thing."

"Not one thing plagued us more than another — unless it was the guys running around in the green and white uniforms," Cleveland Coach Bill Fitch said. "Without (injured) Jim Chones, we definitely are a different basketball team.

"But I didn't think we were going to fall dead. I honestly thought we could win. We had our chance and didn't get the job done. Fortunately, it's a seven-game series.

"We'll get together tomorrow (today), do some shooting and go over the films. We won't try to make any major changes. We'll just try to do our own things better in the next game Sunday."

Chones suffered a broken toe in practice Tuesday and is sidelined for the series. He watched from the bench, his right foot in a cast, while veteran Nate Thurmond was forced to play 39 minutes. Thurmond grabbed 16 rebounds, but scored only nine points.

Thurmond also held Boston center Dave Cowens to 14 points. However, forwards John Havlicek and Paul Silas scored 26 and 21 points, respectively, and Jo Jo White hit for 20 from the backcourt position.

"You don't break our spirit easily," said Dick Snyder after matching Cleveland teammate Campy Russell's 21-point production. "Nobody will quit. We'll just have to work harder Sunday."

Tornadoes' Rally Stops Tigers 6-5

The Snyder High School baseball team blew a 5-run lead as the host Lamesa Golden Tornadoes staged a late rally to win a District 3-AAA contest, 6-5.

Snyder had tallied three runs in the 1st inning and single runs in each of the 2nd and 5th frames to take a 5-0 lead. Lamesa rallied with five runs in the bottom of the 5th to tie it up, then scored the winning run in the 6th frame.

Gary Greenlee started on the mound for Snyder, but gave way in relief to Ricky Beard in the 5th. Garza went the distance for Lamesa and was the winning pitcher.

Dray Sikes singled to leadoff the game for Snyder and advanced on a fielder's choice with Bobby Doe reaching first safely. Tracey Witherspoon got on on a throwing error with Sikes scoring on the same play. Alvin Ollison socked a double, driving in Doe and Witherspoon.

In the 2nd, Kyle Sikes singled, was sacrificed to second and scored on a single by Doe.

Snyder's last run in the 5th resulted from a single by Kelly Ragland combined with two errors.

Lamesa got its five runs in the 5th on singles by Delgado, Arrendondo, Herman Martinez, and Hughes combined with two errors. Martinez was credited with two rbi's, and Hughes had one.

The Tigers almost tied it up in the 7th following singles by Bobby Doe and Tracey Witherspoon, but Garza bore down and struck out a batter and caused another one to fly out to left field to end the threat.

Strike Won't Affect Race

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Whatever effects the rubber-workers' strike will have on the passenger car market, it won't affect the tires to be used at this year's Indy 500.

The manufacturer that passes out the tires in exchange for advertising privileges said Thursday that its Indianapolis warehouse is bulging with 1,400 race tires expected to be consumed by the race.

Yankees Complete Sweep

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

Two heads, the saying goes, are better than one; and Ed Figueroa and Mickey Rivers proved it when they came up against Bobby Bonds Thursday night.

That trio was involved in one of last winter's big baseball trades, with Figueroa and Rivers coming East and Bonds going West. Rivers tripled and singled twice, scored two runs and stole two bases to lead a nine-hit New York attack in support of Figueroa, who combined with Sparky Lyle on a six-hitter as the Yankees beat California 4-2 and completed a three-game sweep of the Angels.

Minnesota at Detroit, the only other scheduled American League game, was rained out.

In the National League, the New York Mets downed the Cincinnati Reds 4-2, the Pittsburgh Pirates blanked the San Francisco Giants 3-0, the St. Louis Cardinals nipped the Atlanta Braves 5-4 and the San Diego Padres beat the Montreal Expos 4-1. The Los Angeles-Chicago game was postponed while Philadelphia and Houston were not scheduled.

"I wanted to make sure everybody knew the Yankees made the right trade," said Figueroa, who allowed four hits and struck out eight in 72-3 innings. "I was happy to beat them. Rivers and I discussed it earlier today and Mickey told me, 'You pitch as good as you can and I'll hit as good as I can.'"

Rivers singled on the first pitch of the game from Gary Ross, stole second and scored on Roy White's single. Then he started a decisive three-run uprising in the eighth with a triple, a line drive which right fielder Bonds misjudged.

At bat, Bonds flied out, grounded out fruitlessly with a runner at third and one out, struck out with two mates aboard and then walked and scored in the eighth.

Stockton Upsets Ramirez

DALLAS (AP) — The World Champion of Tennis version of sudden death put Mexican Davis Cup hero Raul Ramirez on the rack and America's Dick Stockton in a little bit of heaven Thursday night.

Stockton, who had failed in four previous meetings against the scrappy Ramirez, outlasted the former Southern California star 6-3, 7-6, and 7-6 in two tingling tie-breakers to advance into tonight's semifinals against Argentina's dynamic Guillermo Vilas.

Vilas outclassed Bob Lutz of the United States 5-7, 6-1, 6-1, and 6-2 in Thursday night's other quarterfinal.

Sweden's Bjorn Borg and little giant killing Harold Solomon, who knocked off defending champion Arthur Ashe, tangle tonight in the second half of a doubleheader to determine Sunday's finalists in the chase for a $50,000 first place prize.

"I know I surprised some folks by beating Raul," said Stockton. "I had never beaten him before and, in fact, I hadn't even won a set from him until a few weeks ago. I hit some volleys out there tonight that nobody could believe."

The lanky Stockton, who led Trinity University to a national title and has been a member of the U.S. Davis Cup team, won the second set on a 7-5 tie-breaker.

Ramirez fought off five match points in the 12th game to hold service in the third set but Stockton took tie-breaker 7-3 thanks to a double fault by Ramirez on match point.

The normally reserved Stockton jumped for joy and leaped the net in an unusual display of emotion.

"This is the biggest thing that has ever happened to me," said Stockton. "I know I'll have to serve and volley well against Vilas because that's the only way you can play him. My ground strokes aren't as good as his."

Ramirez said, "That was the best Stockton has ever played against me. He really played well. I started out slowly and never could get untracked. It was tough losing those tie-breakers, real tough."

Vilas admitted he had to battle his nerves to settle down against Lutz.

7th Grade Girls Play

The Cubs thrashed the Cats, 26-12, and the Tigers flailed the Kittens, 28-18, in girls 7th grade basketball action here yesterday.

Cindy Clayton sparked the Cubs with 12 points while Pam Gray tallied eight for the Cats.

Sherry Warren tallied 12 points for the Tigers while Becky Pierce scored 10 for the Kittens.

Little League Opener Set

The Snyder Little League will hold opening ceremonies for the 1976 season at 6 p.m. today in the Little League field in Towle Memorial Park.

Players, coaches and managers will be introduced starting at 6. The White Sox and the Indians will play the first game of the season starting at 7 o'clock, and will be followed by the Cubs vs. the Cardinals at 8:30.

Netters Play For Charity

Tennis season never ends for those who want to help themselves and others. Several Snyder tennis players will participate in the American Heart Association Tennis Tournament in Abilene this week-end, along with players from the Abilene schools, Sweetwater, Colorado City, Brownwood, Coleman, Clyde and Baird. These players will pay their own entry fees and furnish their own transportation, and the money from entry fees goes to the Heart Association. Twenty-seven teams have entered this first annual tournament sponsored by the Heart Association, and it is hoped that the tournament will grow into a state and national affair.

Players from Snyder will leave the high school tennis courts Saturday morning at 6 o'clock and will include John Melott, Jeff Wesson, Scott Marler, Davey Brown, Melvin Wallace, Kim Harlin, Donna McGee, Belinda Scott, Lori Wafer, Dayton Robertson, Shawn Ragland, Robert Bartlett, Connie Weber, Donny Morrell, Roger Overton, Lynn Edmondson, and Danny Ronquille.

Transportation will be furnished by the Scurry County Boys' Club, Dave Harlin, Jr., Gene McGee, Maurice Scott, and Don Wafer.

Qualifying Tournament Is Slated

On May 15 at 9 a.m. at Lee High School in Midland, the West Zone will hold a Maureen Connolly Brinker qualifying tennis tournament for girls who want to attend the state training session. This session will be held in Ft. Worth at TCU, June 28 through July 2. To be sent to nationals, a player must attend the state training session.

Two girls in each age division, 12s, 14s, 16s and 18s advance to the session from the West zone.

The tournament will have a feed-in consolation format. Using tournament data, a ladder will be formed in each age group. Once the ladder is established, any girl not able to play the qualifying may challenge on to the ladder. Challenges may be played until June 18.

Entries and or entry fee of $2 should be sent to Yvonne Garton, West zone chairman, 2903 Douglas, Midland, 79701 before May 12. Please state age, birthdate and USTA number.

WHAT QUALIFICATIONS DO YOU HAVE?

This story, which conveys a moral, is about a church seeking a new minister. One day the pulpit committee received this letter:

"Gentlemen: Understanding that you need a preacher, I would like to apply for the position. I have many qualifications that I think you would appreciate. I have been blessed to preach with power and have had some success as a writer.

"Some say that I am a good organizer. I have been a leader in most places I have gone. Some folks, however, have some things against me. I am over 50 years of age. I have never preached in one place more than three years at a time. In some places I have left town after my work caused riots and disturbances. I have to admit that I have been in jail three or four times, but not because of my wrong-doing.

"My health is not good though I get a good bit done. I have had to work at my trade in order to pay my way. The churches I have preached at have been small though located in several large cities.

"I have not gotten along too well with the religious leaders in different towns where I have preached and I am sure they would not recommend me. In fact, some of them have threatened me, taking me to court, and even attacked me physically.

"I am not good at keeping records. I have even been known to forget those whom I have baptized. However, if you can use me, I will do my best for you, even if I have to work for my support."

The congregation found the application an insult to their fine, upstanding members. One of them did ask the preacher's name. The elder replied, "The Apostle Paul."
