Spider perches on prey...

Too much for bull snake...

HOW 'BIG' IS A BLACK WIDOW? 'BIG' ENOUGH TO KILL SNAKE!

Employees of the Wilcox Oil Co. and reporters from The News, along with Photographer Irl Smith of Pampa, this past week saw a struggle to the death between a Black Widow spider and a 12 1/2-inch Bull Snake.

The small-scale drama was more interesting in view of the fact that Life Magazine recently carried a full-page picture of an 8-inch snake that became entangled in a spider's web.

The Black Widow can be seen on the back of the snake, which has been squirming to wrest free of the web entangled about his tail.

Witnesses saw the spider run up the web several times, and then back to the snake. Each time the snake was seen to quiver, as if in pain.

The second picture was taken the next day about noon, the snake having been found dead Tuesday morning. The executioner was on the scene, and when the snake was disentangled from the web by witnesses, Mr. Spider stayed at a distance, but he was still there.

The snake was swollen about its middle, where the spider is seen located in the upper picture. The wonder of the entrapment is in the fact that the snake could not writhe free. The foremost question is: How was the snake caught?

Life's snake got away, ours didn't. The upper picture was taken last Monday at noon, a short time after the Bull Snake was discovered in the spider's web. It was discovered in the pump station house at Wilcox Oil Company's property eight miles south of Pampa.

Grocery Wizard's Comeback Key

Fabulous Clarence Saunders Hopes 'Keedoozle' Spells Third Fortune; Hist First Was the 'Piggy Wiggly'

By CLARK PORTEOUS
MEMPHIS (NEA)— Clarence Saunders, white-haired wizard of the self-service grocery business, hopes the keys of his new "Keedoozle" store will open the doors to his third fortune.

Twice already Saunders has become a multi-millionaire through chain groceries, and lost his fortunes. Now he has started a mechanical self-service store, something like a gigantic pin-ball machine, even to having little lights which flash on.

The first "Keedoozle," which opened in a Quonset building here a few weeks ago, drew hundreds of housewives in addition to numerous husbands and even some bachelors.

Saunders, 67-year-old native of Virginia, who started out as a 4-a-week grocery clerk, thus began his attempt to become a multi-millionaire for a third time.

It was 33 years ago when Saunders thought up a crazy name—Piggy Wiggly—and the revolutionary idea of having customers wait on themselves. He completely changed the retail grocery business, soon had his new stores lost a fortune when he battled Wall Street and he still says they changed the rules on him, or he would have won that titanic financial struggle.

IN HIS Memphis "Keedoozle" grocery, Clarence Saunders shows a customer how to press a button for whatever she wants. FINAL SHOPPING list is perforated tape she holds.

He came back with the Clarence Saunders (Sole Owner of My Name) Stores and made another fortune only to lose out again. Then for 13 years, nothing much was heard of him until he worked to perfect his automatic store idea, and spent a million dollars experimenting. He tried two experimental stores before the war, but his idea wasn't ready, so during the war, he made ammunition boxes and wooden toys.

Now he says he will make a bigger fortune than ever before. "I can't miss this time," he says. "Keedoozle works fine."

Many shoppers who bought groceries at from 10 to 15 percent cheaper than at rival stores were inclined to agree with him.

Already he is making plans to expand his Memphis "Keedoozle" into a "Keedoozle Village," with an automatic restaurant, a super store selling fresh meat, vegetables and fruit (his present store handles only non-perishables) and a landscaped garden with a lake in it for the benefit of his "Keedoozle" customers.

He has already sold franchises for "Keedoozle" stores in San Diego, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Cleveland, Buffalo, Washington, Baltimore, Richmond, St. Louis, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, and says the chain will be all over the nation within a year.

Here's how "Keedoozle" (the Saunders abbreviation of "Key Does All") works: A customer enters the store, obtains the key, and shops among glass sample cases. Say she wants a small can of diamond rattlesnake meat for $1.15. It has a letter "R" and the price on the case. She sticks her key into a red receptacle, pushes a button, marked "R" and the article and price is written in perforated code on an adding machine roll in her key. She goes thru the same procedure for other items. Each time she punches a key to "buy" something, a red, green or amber light flashes on part of the decorative effect.

Finally, her shopping complete without having touched an article, she goes to the cashier's stand. Her bill is totaled, she pays up, and the perforated tape from her key is sent back by conveyor to a man behind the scenes. He runs the strip thru a "translator," which, by electricity, causes the groceries indicated by code holes in the strip to come down shutters.

Each order of groceries comes down into a big wooden tray. Clerks put them into big bags which travel to the customer on a conveyor. The store is geared to handle five customers a minute and Saunders expects to average $2000 and hour. He buys in carload lots, expects to mark up his goods from one-half to three cents an article over manufacturers' cost, no matter what the cost. That he would mark up a $5 item no more than three cents.

Says Saunders: "Let other stores squirm."

Brownsville Field Endorsed for Mexico

WASHINGTON (AP)— Examiner Paul N. Pfeiffer recommended to the Civil Aeronautics Board that it permit Aero Transportes, a Mexican airline, to use the Brownsville, Tex., airport for one year, instead of the field at Matamoros, Mex.

The airline told the board that the Matamoros airport is unsafe. Pfeiffer reported 31 percent of the stock of Aero Transportes is owned by Samuel Markel of Richmond, Va.

Take Off Ugly Fat With Grape Fruit Juice Recipe

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yours. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your drugist and ask for four ounces of Liquid Baracetate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grape-fruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back slender curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bulk disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Mexico Doubles Production of Cattle Vaccine

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Production of foot and mouth disease vaccine is being doubled, says the U. S. Mexico commission fighting the livestock disease. The commission reported that Mexico, already the world leader in making vaccine, will produce one million doses a month with a new addition at the San Jacinto laboratory and opening of a new slaughterhouse at Ixtapalapa.

Commissioners reported that Mexico did not start producing vaccine until May, 1948 but in five months has increased production from 9000 to 800,000 doses a month.

Frank Phillips Reopens Personal Curiosity Shop

CURIO—Uncle Frank's curiosity shop, the Woolaroc Museum, contains a $10,000 diamond-mounted saddle and check for $5 million dollars.

By JOANNE MILLIGAN, NEA Special Correspondent
BARTLESVILLE, Okla. (NEA)—Uncle Frank's curiosity shop is open for business again. He won't sell anything, but the customers are flocking in just to look.

The "shop" is the re-opened Woolaroc Museum, located on a 3400-acre ranch in the heart of the Oklahoma Osage hills, and Uncle Frank is millionaire oilman Frank Phillips.

Woolaroc sounds like an Indian name. Actually it is short for woods, lakes and rocks.

Phillips throws the estate open to the public free on certain days of the week.

The museum, built in 1929, recently closed for alterations. Now re-opened, it features a new lecture hall and a pipe organ which wafts music to the ears of spectators as they wander through seven curio-stuffed rooms.

The "world's finest saddle," a $10,000 horse accessory studded with 166 diamonds, 120 sapphires, 17 rubies, four garnets and 15 pounds of sterling and gold mountings, is on display.

In a glass case reposes the only privately owned dinosaur egg in the world, guaranteed to be 95 million years old. It was contributed by explorer Roy Chapman Andrews.

Also on exhibit are "a few of the highlights in Mr. Phillips' financial career," consisting of cancelled checks. One of these represents the staggering sum of $38,575,833.33; another made out to Phillips for $2 cents—his salary for 10 months of 1945 as chairman of the board of an oil company.

A rare Stradivarius violin, the gift of violinist Dave Rubinoff, is displayed near a tea caddy made from the fur of a koala bear.

Phillips is an honorary Osage Eagle Chief. He was adopted by the tribe in 1930 and given the tongue-twisting name of Wa-h-

Public Invited To Openhouse of Schneider Motel

The public is invited to attend an openhouse of the Schneider Motel from 2-5 p. m. today, L. L. Speer, manager of the Schneider Motel, said yesterday.

The motel across from the Schneider Hotel, was started in April and will be officially opened today, Speer continued.

There are 20 units, which are numbered from 600-620, excluding the number 613. Three of the rooms have twin beds and the rest have double beds. Each room is equipped with a lamp, desk, dresser, chair, picture, rug and gas heater. Each room also has a combination bath and shower. Telephones, provided for the rooms, are connected with the Shah - She - Hulah-Ki-He-Kah. His wife was named Wa-Ko-Do-He.

Now Phillips tells visitors to notice his "ancestors" at the front of the museum, and points to a mosaic mural in color on the doorway which shows dancing Indians, representing the five culture eras of Indians in the United States. The figures are seven feet, three inches high.

Outside the museum, more than 2,000 wild animals, including buffalo, deer, elk, gnu, yak, tahr and audads graze on the ranch. Twelve lakes are stocked with game fish.

Indian tepees and chuck wagons are placed about the grounds and the animals and birds wander so freely that one tourist complained that a peacock wouldn't let him in his car. The bird was admiring its reflection in the automobile finish.

Postoffice Plans Two Anniversary Stamp Issues

At least two additional commemorative postage stamps will arrive at the Pampa Postoffice during October, W. B. Weathered, postmaster, said.

Volunteer Firemen and Indian Centennial commemorative stamps will be released Oct. 4 and 15, respectively.

The Volunteer Firemen stamp, special delivery size, will be first issued from the Dover, Del., postoffice in honor of volunteer firemen. Printed in red, the central design of the stamp depicts a portrait of Peter Stuyvesant with the name and wording, "Organizer of the First Volunteer Firemen in America." In a single line across the top appears, "500th Anniversary Volunteer Firemen," while at the bottom appears, "Unselfish Public Service. Courage. Duty."

The Indian Centennial stamp will be issued through the Muskogee, Okla., postoffice to mark the 100th anniversary of the settlement of the Five Civilized Indian Tribes in Oklahoma.

Also a special delivery size, the stamp will be printed in brown, hotel switchboard. The exterior of the building is brick and the inside walls of each room are painted green with white ceilings. Venetian blinds have been provided for every window.

Tom Claterbaugh was the building superintendent for the contractor, Pope and Anderson Construction Company. Sub-contractors include plumbing, Lane Sales Company; electrical work, Brooks Electric; and painting, Lawrence and Redman.

Corpus Christi Man Heads Producers

McAllen, Tex. (AP)—The Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association was headed by Guy I. Warren of Corpus Christi.

The association inducted Warren at a meeting here. The group spent most of the three-hour session discussing measuring and pricing oil at the well.

The central design is an outline map of the state of Oklahoma on which is printed, "Indian Centennial Cherokee Chickasaw Choctaw Muscogee Seminola."

Stamp collectors desiring first-day cancellations of these stamps may send a limited number of addressed envelopes to the postmasters at the towns where the stamps are first issued.

For the benefit of collectors desiring stamps of selected quality for philatelic use, the stamps may be obtained at the Philatelic Agency, Postoffice Department, Washington, 25, D. C., on and after Oct. 5 and 18.

Zale's sell more Diamonds than any other Jeweler in the Southwest

"Even the blind can see the value in a

Zale DIAMOND"

We're quoting a customer who walked into our store the other day... a lady who was totally blind. She asked one of our salesmen to pick out a large diamond ring for her, and (in her own words)... "even though I can't see, I know that I can trust Zale's to give me the finest diamond for my money."

And you can depend upon Zale's doing just that!

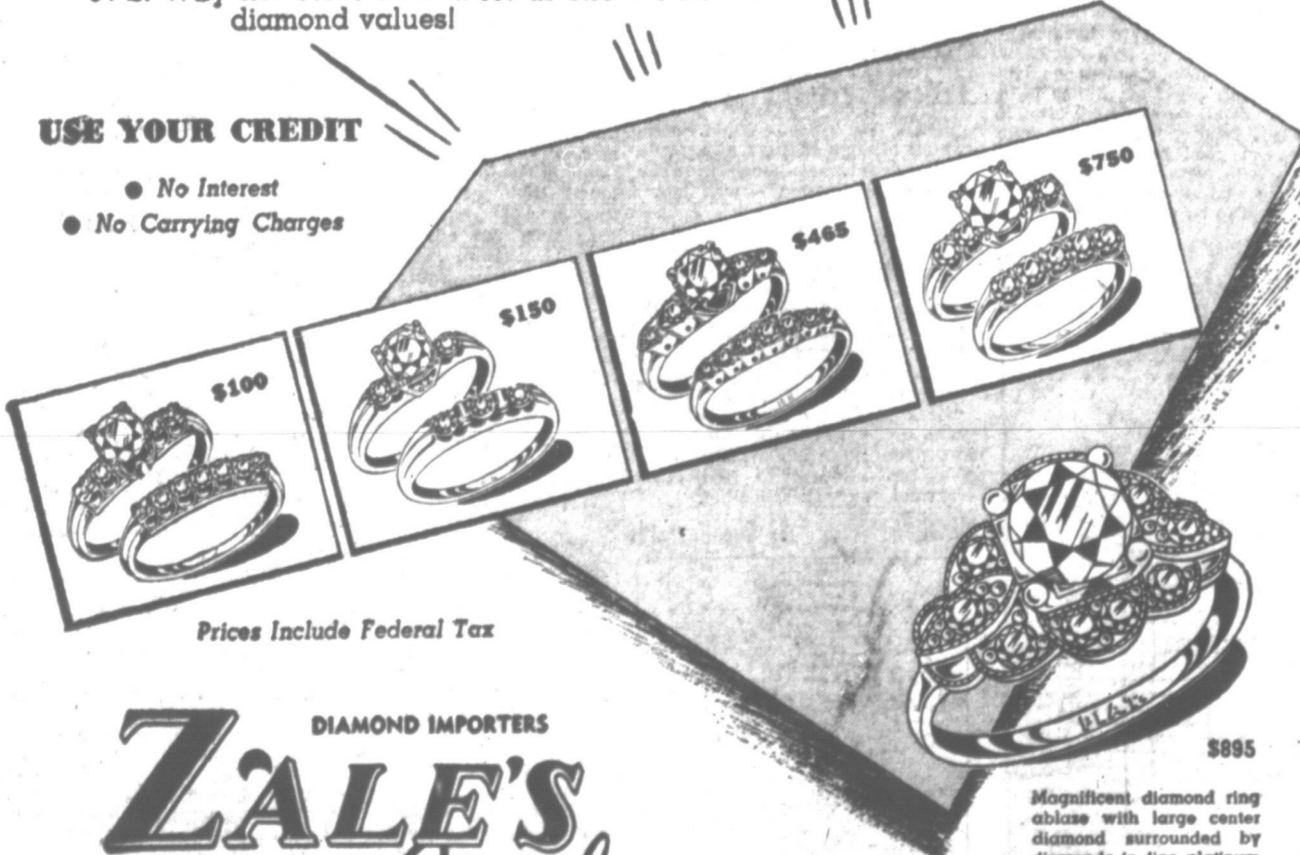

We admit we were pleased, not just because of the five-hundred-dollar sale, but because of the confidence this customer has in Zale's.

We've spent over 24 years giving our customers the best diamond buys, and we're proud of our reputation as THE place to buy diamonds.

IF STOMACH BALKS DUE TO GAS AND BLOAT

Help Get Food Digested to Relieve Yourself of This Nervous Distress

Do you feel all puffed-up and miserable after every meal, taste sour, bitter food? If so, here is how you may get blessed relief in helping your stomach do the job—it should be doing—in the digestion of its food.

Everytime food enters the stomach, a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with overdoses of soda and other alkalisers to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Animals Cause Pilot Less Trouble Than Diplomats

NEW YORK —(NEA)—It isn't that Capt. Paul Milnar of Elmont, N. Y., distrusts his fellow men. He just thinks animals cause less trouble than diplomats.

During World War II, Milnar was an Air Transport Command pilot. He went from flying inanimate materiel to the 503rd "Brass Hat" Squadron. This was an aggregation of crack specially-trained fliers who flew "Vipers"—very important persons.

Milnar flew the King of Iraq, Gen. Henry Maitland (Jumbo) Wilson, British Mediterranean Commander who was almost an airplane load by himself; Gen. De Gaulle, Harold Ickes, scads of congressmen—and Molotov.

Now he's a senior captain of a Seaboard & Western Airlines DC-4, flying diversified cargo between New York, Europe, the Persian Gulf and the Far East. Among the diversifications which have surrounded Milnar in the airplanes are dogs, cats, horses, mice, rams, hares and hunting falcons.

PILOT—Capt. Paul Milnar and passenger; he might carry an elephant next.

"They're less trouble," says Milnar, tersely.

He also has flown cobra skins, but the cobras were taken out before he took off.

The dogs and cats were Army of Occupation pets from Germany. It is believed that only an American GI would put up the money to fly a 100-pound dog from Frankfurt to save it getting a cold aboard ship. Some of the dogs were redeployed before their owners, no question of points being involved.

The horses were racing thoroughbreds and breeders from France, Switzerland and Italy, one from the late Benito Mussolini's stable. The rams and hares were also for breeding purposes, and the falcons for people who like to imitate Henry VIII.

Milnar never did find out what the mice were for. But he hasn't time to worry about them. He just overheard the sales department discussing the possibility of flying two small elephants and a rhinoceros from somewhere east of Suez.

X-1 Rocket Hits Speed Near 1,000

NEW YORK —(AP)—An official inkling was given by the United States that its X-1 rocket-driven research plane apparently has hurtled through the air between 800 and 1,000 an hour.

Air Secretary Symington gave a hint of the speed attained by the knife-winged little plane in an Air Force Association speech. Enumerating achievements by the Air Force during the last year, he mentioned "an airplane flying hundreds of miles faster than the speed of sound, which is 760 miles per hour at sea level."

This is all he had to say on that matter, but it was the first official suggestion of the speeds being reached by the "flying research laboratory."

The original design called for the X-1 to reach a speed of 1,107 miles an hour at 40,000 feet altitude and 1,700 miles an hour at 80,000 feet.

Hitched beneath a B-29, the X-1 is carried aloft and then released when 25,000 feet or higher up.

The pilot has about enough fuel for two and one half minutes at top speed, then glides down between 300 and 400 miles an hour and lands at a speed of 160 miles an hour.

So far as is known, there are only two X-1 type planes in operation by the government, one by the Air Force and the other by the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics.

Five other X-1 models are on order and a new and drastically different design, the X-4 is awaiting trial flight.

Men's Worsteds in Business Drop

NEW YORK — The hungary rush for men's suits is definitely over, Business Week reports.

"Men's worsteds mills last week stood face to face with their first postwar crisis," the magazine says. "Normally, goods are made up for fall sale at the tag end of the summer season. But this year business has slowed down to a walk."

It was noted that this is the first actual faltering of a business which has been kept at a high pressure since before the war.

20,000 Watch Veteran Pilot Die in Crash

ROCHESTER, N.H. —(AP)— An Air Force captain—married only two weeks ago—crashed to death in flames when his F84 Thunderjet took fire while 10,000 persons looked on at Rochester Fairgrounds Friday.

Dow Field officers at Bangor, Me., identified the victim as Capt. John Fairchild, 26, of Rochester, Mich.

Spectators said Fairchild tried to bail out but his open parachute became entangled in the falling plane. The craft crashed in nearby woods and started a minor forest fire.

Fairchild was a veteran of 95 missions in the Mediterranean theatre during World War II.

Army Changes Name

MEXICO CITY —(AP)— The army is changing its title from "National Army" to "Mexican Army."

President Miguel Aleman signed a decree altering the army's name which was adopted in revolution days when all the little forces of individual leaders were reorganized into a "national" army.

New Members Installed in Kiwanis Club

Three new members were formally installed in the Kiwanis Club Friday, and one other person received preliminary installation. Formally installed were Howard Vineyard, Kenneth Meaders and Clinton Evans. Receiving preliminary installation was J. Lee Farmer.

Harlan Yoder and Bob Miller were re-installed to membership after a period of inactivity. L. N. Atchison and Joe Gordon, members, made brief talks on finance and attendance, respectively.

E. O. Wedgeworth, Lions Club member and guest of the club, led the group in singing in the absence of the regular leader, K. C. Watkins.

Cancer as Death Cause Now 2nd

AUSTIN — (AP) — Cancer, as a cause of death in Texas, has jumped from fifth to second place in 20 years, the State Health Department reported.

Heart disease has remained the state's No. 1 killer.

The 10 leading causes of death last year, in descending order, were listed as heart disease, cancer, accidents, apoplexy, nephritis, pneumonia (and influenza), tuberculosis, premature birth, dysentery (and diarrhea), diabetes mellitus.

The 20-year comparison shows tuberculosis has dropped from second to seventh place and pneumonia from third to sixth. Accidents advanced from eighth to third place. Heart disease, apoplexy, nephritis and dysentery have all remained in about their same relative positions.

Arthritis Gave Grandma Moses New Start at 72

EAGLE BRIDGE, N. Y.—(NEA)

Arthritis turned Grandma Moses into what competent art critics describe as the dean of contemporary American primitives.

Grandma—more formally Mrs. Anna Mary Robertson Moses, widow of the late Thomas S.—was 88 on Sept. 7. She has been painting only since she was 72. She has been recognized as an artist only since she was about 72. Yet today her name and fame are known all over the country.

Tourists by the hundreds beat a path to her door. Because she is so old, and tires so easily, her son and other relatives have had to turn themselves into a virtual palace guard to keep the crowds away.

All this because arthritis made her so lame she couldn't comfortably do housework any more.

Born on a farm in upstate New York, Grandma Moses has spent her life in hard work with few moments for recreation, amusement and private hobbies. One of a family of 10 children, she started helping her mother at an early age and, when only 14, she left home to work and care for an elderly couple. Following her marriage at the age of 27 to Thomas S. Moses, a Virginia farmer, her days and years were spent in rearing her own family of 10 children.

After 18 years in the Old Dominion, Mrs. Moses returned to New York where she now lives on an upstate farm run by her youngest son Hugh and his wife Dorothy. Here part of the load of farm work to which she was accustomed was lifted from her shoulders. But she still kept busy sewing and cleaning, cooking and making preserves and picking berries in the summertime.

At 76, however, spells of arthritis began to make strenuous work too painful, and Grandma Moses had to give up most of her jobs around the house. It was then that she felt the need for an outlet for her unspent energy and her still active imagination.

So Grandma took up painting. What followed is an amazing success story. Only this time it is a frail old lady who, after a lifetime of humble privacy, stepped into the public limelight almost overnight.

It was virtually by accident. Her pictures, which she had been either giving away or displaying in a village drugstore, were taken to New York by friends and exhibited in a one-man show. They were an almost immediate hit.

Today, museums and private collections all over the country own her works and a "genuine Moses" is highly valued by collectors.

The appeal of Grandma Moses' works seems to lie in their simplicity. And this at a time when the emphasis in art is on the abstract and psychological.

Mrs. Moses' naive and forceful paintings of landscapes have gained the following of art lovers who, after trying to see the beauty and deep meaning of many a modern work of art, have said, "We do not understand."

As would be suspected from her typical landscapes and straightforward works, Grandma Moses is not a sophisticate. She has grown old gracefully.

With her gray hair piled on top of her oval-shaped head and tied in neat knots, plain rimless glasses with straight thin ear pieces resting on her long, straight nose, which adds grace to her wrinkled face, Grandma looks the typical octogenarian.

Her wardrobe consists chiefly of gingham and calicos, and she prefers to wear gaily flowered aprons over them. While painting she is never without her sweater-type shawl.

Watching her go about on the hillside on which her house is built, the observer feels that Grandma is a part of the nature that surrounds her. She continually stoops to pick tiny flowers or flick away a dead leaf. Then again she will stop and point out

Van Johnson Still Looking For Pictures

By BOB THOMAS HOLLYWOOD —(AP)— Van Johnson finds his first loanout picture "stimulating" and he's looking for more.

Now doing "Mother Was a Freshman," his first film away from the home base of MGM, the carrot-topped actor is dropping hints that he'd like to perform in a remake of "A Man's Castle," which Columbia owns. "Of course, it would be hard to top Spencer Tracy," he adds cautiously.

Van has been dieting and he looks great. "I've stopped worrying," he grins. "I let the guys in the front office get the ulcers; they're paid for it."

John Wayne will argue with anyone who says film acting is a pushover. He did "Three Godfathers" in the heat of Death Valley and is now battling an octopus underwater in "Wake of the Red Witch." Next comes "She Wore a Yellow Ribbon" in Monument Valley. Three-quarters of the picture will be a cavalry march.

Robert Cummings reports that to her visitor the far-away hills she has so often painted. For Grandma Moses, life began at 72.

he owns the rights to his life story and intends to make a picture of it. Wonder whom he'll cast in the role. Joan Crawford is saying—yet again—that there'll be no more men in her life.

Zachary Scott reports he has Anne Baxter lined up for his "Cattle Baron" project, which he plans to film in Texas next year. He'd like to acquire some Texan money to back the picture.

Bing Crosby is barnstorming the coast playing benefits with his air show. He recorded the program in Vancouver this week and will follow with Spokane Sept. 29 and San Francisco Oct. 9. He'll be back Oct. 11 to start "Diamond in the Haystack" with Ann Blyth and Barry Fitzgerald.

Capitulation Review: "Let's Live a Little" (Eagle-Lion) is one of the better comedies in the new bumper crop. Thanks to the comic talents of Robert Cummings and some fine bits of business, it provides many merry moments. The plot: a frenetic ad executive encounters a lady doctor, author of a "Restful Living" book. Hedy Lamarr is the medic and she contributes her two expressions. Which, of course, are not bad.

The Pentecostal Holiness Church, 311 N. Zimmers, has land cleared at 1600 W. Alcock and blueprints prepared for a $30,000 church building, but lack of cement is delaying the ground-breaking, Luther Reed, pastor of the church, said yesterday.

The new all-glass store front now being installed at Levine's Dry Goods store, Cuyler and Foster, will be finished in about two weeks, depending on delivery of materials now in transit, Leo Urashen, manager of the store, said yesterday.

In addition to providing more roomy show windows, the new front will give more room inside the store, Urashen said. And moving the inside stair from the side of the store to the center will allow easier access to and from the basement floor.

Construction began last week on a drive-in theater being built for the Griffith Theaters, operators of the Crown, Rex, and La-Nora theaters. The new theater, with planned capacity for more than 400 automobiles, is being built just south of town on the Lefora Highway across from the Southern Club. The projection tower is well under way and work has just started on the parking apron.

The company hopes to have this theater, and another being built in Borger, open in time for this season, an officer of the company said yesterday. The theater here, reputed to be the better of the two, will cost near $75,000, it was reported.

The new Osborne and Graham Implement Company building is nearing completion on E. Brown next to the Radcliff Supply Company. The office and show rooms are finished, but shop equipment is being installed now, and it will be about six weeks before the building is fully finished. The 60 by 60 foot building was started two months ago.

Just a block west, on the corner of S. Cuyler and Brown, the Assembly of God Church is finishing its addition that will allow for a Sunday School attendance of between 800 and 1,000. The new building will contain 23 rooms and four assembly halls, the Rev. H. H. Woods, pastor of the church, said yesterday. All the work of construction, except that of a hired overseer, is being done by members of the congregation. The building, started about five months ago, is expected to be finished next March.

A fireproof tile and stucco store building is being built for Jerry Boston next to his present grocery

Firetruck, Fire - Which Is First

It is not generally debated which comes first—the firetruck or the fire. However, Hall Enloe, Friday afternoon, proved the firetruck can precede the fire.

Shortly after noon, Hall's young son, Morton, decided he just had to have a firetruck. So father and son went to downtown Pampa to purchase a firetruck.

After buying the toy, Hall and Morton, still downtown, were breaking it in when a real fire whistle was sounded. Three of the local firetrucks were called at 2:45 p. m. to 705 N. Wells, the Enloe home.

Heavy damage to the house occurred in the Enloes' absence. A double window was broken and smoke and water damage to the inside of the house and to the furniture had taken place.

It was estimated that the total damage to the house will be approximately $400.

Fruit Market Reports Breakin

Window pryers Friday night broke open the west window of Skinner Fruit and Vegetable Market, 711 W. Foster, and got away with a varying quantity of fruit.

While inside the building the thieves sampled some of their intended loot, one of them partially ate an apple and neatly deposited the remainder back in the crate. Evidence of other fruit eaten by the burglars was found strewn around the outside.

Taken from the store were two watermelons, one stalk of bananas, one bushel of pears, and some apples.

All the United States executive departments were set up by Acts of Congress, the oldest being State, War, and Treasury, which were established in 1789.

at 216 N. Ward. He expects to move his store into his new 40 by 70 foot building about the first of the year, he said.

It will probably be mid-winter before the Kewanee Oil Company can begin to erect its district offices on S. Hobart at the edge of town, an officer of the company said yesterday. The property is fenced and house sites for living quarters for office personnel have been staked out, but construction plans are indefinite.

Ground was cleared this week for another drive-in, a hamburger stand to be erected at W. Kingsmill and Hobart.

DEWEY

(Continued from Page 1) proceeding toward Oklahoma City where he will deliver a major speech Tuesday. In it, he is expected to reply to Dewey's statements that Communist influences have seeped into the administration.

Dewey had no speechmaking scheduled for today. His campaign train was scheduled to leave the San Francisco Bay area in mid-afternoon for the Pacific Northwest, with his next major effort in Portland, Ore.

The weekend's political activities swirled over all the nation.

J. Strom Thurmond, the States' Rights Democratic presidential nominee, declared at Madisonville, Ky., yesterday that "the radicals, the subversives and the Reds" are in complete control of the machinery of the National Democratic Party. Thurmond, who is Governor of South Carolina, also told his audience that "I'd rather be right than president in this age of political expediency."

Henry A. Wallace, the Progressive Party's candidate, flew to St. Louis for another speech yesterday after assailing both the old-line parties bitterly at Youngstown, Ohio.

"The old parties give you your choice of bankers," he told an estimated 1300 listeners at Youngstown. "If you want Chase National, vote Republican. If you want Dillon Read, vote Democrat. If you want peace and security, vote Progressive!"

Vice-presidential candidates were active, too.

Sen. Alben Barkley of the Democrats declared at Atlantic City that the National Association of Manufacturers had spent $3 million for advertising "to break down the strength of labor organizations and destroy controls on the cost of living."

Republican Earl Warren told Detroiters that President Truman and the Democratic members of Congress have been "at loggerheads" on labor legislation.

Progressive Glen Taylor, speaking at Bethlehem, Pa., Friday night, called the Marshall Plan "the biggest fake and the biggest steal in history."

WEST (Continued from Page 1) plan had not been carried out. It was announced that the Security Council would meet on Tuesday to clean up Hyderabad's complaint against India, consider a Swiss request for participation in the International Court of Justice, and take up Bulgaria's repeat request for admission to the U.N.

Mauldin, who, as a third-order Cardinal, was ranked as one of the nation's leading professional league tackles, also played basketball and track at the University of Texas.

In Friday night's game, he had played most of the first half. However, he did not start the second half, having complained of not feeling well. Later, however, he expressed a willingness to reenter the game and played the last two minutes.

He is survived by his wife, Helen, and their son, Daniel, 5; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Mauldin, Amarillo; three brothers, Emmitt, Amarillo, G. R., Denver, and B. E., Long Beach, Calif.; three sisters, including Mrs. Buckingham, Mrs. J. K. Leard, Tulsa, and Mrs. E. L. Davis, Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Leard are enroute to Pampa to be with Mrs. Buckingham until after the rites, which will be held at Amarillo.

Mauldin was a lieutenant in the Air Corps. He flew 50 missions without losing a man. He was stationed variously in Germany, India, and Italy.

Workers Strike; Demand 60 Pct. More in Pesos

MEXICO CITY—(AP)—Most of Mexico's woolen mills were closed Saturday by a strike.

About 4,000 workers in 48 plants of this city and five states struck Friday to support a demand for a 60 percent increase in wages.

The wool industry is protected by tariff and prices are too high for much export but factory owners' protest costs are such they have abandoned some lines. They also contend President Miguel Aleman's demand for a temporary halt in increases is essential to prevent further inflation.

They insist a blanket labor contract still is effective and that the strike, therefore, is illegal.

By law, the Department of Labor may either sanction the strike or declare it illegal in which case workers lose their rights to pay, retroactive to the start of the strike.

IRISHMEN MAUL WILDCATS 47-0

SHAMROCK —(Special)— The Shamrock Irishmen rolled over the Canadian Wildcats, 47 to 0, at Denver Field here Friday night. The visiting eleven never penetrated beyond the Irish 30-yard line.

Shamrock scored three times in the first quarter. The first paydirt came after a sustained drive from the kickoff. Bryan Cross, fullback, took the ball around end. Oliver McLemore, right half, took credit for the extra point.

The second drive started when Cross returned the ball for a 25-yard gain, then McLemore went around the Canadian end for the score. He also converted.

The third score was set up by Right Tackle Ray Zeigler, who recovered a Canadian fumble on the Canadian 38. Jimmy Green passed to Wayne Martin when Close ran the ball around end. McLemore extraded.

In the second quarter Shamrock recovered another Wildcat fumble on the Irish 45. Close, on the next play, went through the center of the line to run the ball 55 yards for the tally. McLemore again made good the conversion.

After an exchange of punts in the third quarter, McLemore, with the support of his teammates, went to paydirt in a distance of 45 yards. His extra try was blocked this time.

Late in the third, Canadian lost the ball on downs on the Shamrock 45. On the next play Green passed to Martin on the Canadian 25, and Martin scores. McLemore made good the extra point.

In the fourth quarter, Hammil recovered a Canadian fumble on the Canadian 23; and then, by a series of gains, Quarterback Carroll Valentine took the ball over from the 8. McLemore's kick was wide.

John Farnsworth, right halfback, and Bill Gray, quarterback, were outstanding in the Canadian offensive.

White Deer, Tulia Fight to 20-20 Tie

WHITE DEER —(Special)— The White Deer Bucks and the Tulia Hornets battled to a 20-20 tie here Friday night in a non-conference game.

In the first few minutes of play, Thomas, Tulia left end, recovered a Buck fumble. Howard Morris, fullback, and Jack Ramsey left half, ran up two first downs, and Ramsey went around right end to score, then kicked the extra point.

The Bucks in turn marched straight through for their first counter, with Hoyt Taylor, Bucks' fullback, carrying the ball over. His try for point failed, but a Hornet penalty gave the Bucks another chance and Teddy Harvey, left halfback, went across to tie the score 7-7.

In the second quarter, taking the ball on their own 15, the Bucks racked up seven first downs before a fumble recovered by Earl Butler, the Hornets' right tackle, stopped their march. Tulia was unable to move forward, but kicked out to the Bucks' 20-yard line, from where the Bucks again started a drive that brought them three more first downs before the half ended, 7 to 7.

Tulia came back with renewed force and Morris and Ramsey quickly marked up four first downs. Ramsey went through the right side to score again, but this conversion failed.

On the first play after the quarterback, and, on the third down, Paul Griffith, Tulia's quarterback, on a sneak play, ran up the Hornets' third tally and Ramsey converted to make the score 20-7.

H. Buchanan, Harvey, and Taylor combined to give the Bucks three more first downs, and Harvey ran 12 yards for another score, but Taylor's attempted pounce through the line failed, leaving the count 20-13.

Midway in the final period, a series of passes from Buchanan to Merle Kramer, White Deer right end, put the ball into scoring position, and Taylor carried it over. Harvey ran the point that tied the score at 20-20.

In first downs, the Bucks were out in front with 19 to the Hornets' seven. The Bucks attempted nine passes, completing six for 76 yards; and the Hornets tried three, completing one for seven yards.

Griffith Paces Tigers to 19-0 Win Over Clarendon Broncs

McLEAN —(Special)— Sparked by the climactic running of Johnny Griffith, the McLean Tigers trounced the Clarendon Broncs, 19-0 in Clarendon Friday night.

The Tigers, by virtue of the triumph, remained in the ranks of the undefeated in Class A competition. Their victory string was increased to four.

They hold a 24-0 win over Groom, a 19-6 victory over Hereford, and a 19-0 thumping of Panshandle the previous Friday night.

The Tigers drew first blood Friday night in the opening quarter when Griffith scored from the eight-yard stripe. Johnny Hayne's attempted conversion failed.

The Tiger lead was stretched to 13 points in the second quarter when Griffith again plowed over, this time from the five-yard line. L. M. Watson added the extra point.

Also in this period, the Broncs gave the winners their biggest scare when they drove to the Tiger 15, but there the McLean line held and took over on downs.

The evening's scoring was completed in the third period when Watson drove over from the two, but missed his try for extra point.

The Tigers showed potential polish in winning the fracas, and proved that they are a definite threat for the District 2-A crown.

On the Fence about selective service?

decide now... VOLUNTEER!

Throughout the great Southwest today there are thousands of young men just like you who are undecided about whether to enlist now or wait and take their chances with Selective Service. There are several good reasons why it is to your advantage to volunteer now.

You can still volunteer for a standard three year enlistment in the Regular Army or Air Force and choose the branch of service you want... select the unit you will serve with.

If you are qualified, you may enlist for Officers' Candidate School, or for Aviation Cadet training.

In addition to the regular three year enlistment, there are two new voluntary enlistment opportunities now available to young men between 18 and 26. They are outlined at the right.

Men 19 to 26

You may volunteer for 21 months in the Regular Army if you are able to meet mental and physical enlistment standards, and are willing to serve after discharge in the Enlisted Reserve Corps.

18 Year Olds!

You may volunteer for 12 months in the Army of the United States or for the Air Force of the United States if you can meet mental and physical enlistment standards, and are willing to serve after discharge in a reserve component of the armed forces.

Top o' Texas Club Organized By A&M Students

A "Top o' Texas A&M Club" is being organized at Texas A&M College, The Battalion, college newspaper, reported last week.

The club will be made up of students from Pampa, Borger, and Panhandle, or from any town in Gray, Carson, or Hutchinson counties.

Organizers of the club say that the old Panhandle Club on the campus was too large and covered too much area, making close cooperation among the members difficult.

The new club, covering a triangular area of 24 miles, will be a more efficient organization, they say.

A meeting to organize and elect officers was to have been held the latter part of last week, the paper stated.

Meeting to Hear Protests Against Gulf Drilling

GALVESTON —(AP)— A public hearing will be held here Oct. 5 on protests against proposed drilling of oil wells in the Gulf of Mexico.

Col. B. L. Robinson, Galveston district Army engineer, said it was called because of protests from navigation interests.

Standard Oil and Gas Co. of Houston is planning to drill for oil wells in eight areas offshore from Galveston.

Robinson said the hearing was called to consider a fairway in the Gulf of Mexico for vessels departing from or headed for the Galveston entrance channel, which connects Galveston, Houston and Texas City with open water.

Protests against Standard's application for a blanket drilling permit were filed by the American Merchant Marine Institute and the Atlantic Refining Co. of Port Arthur, which operates tankers in this area.

Farmer Pestered Since Crochet Entry Wins

DORSEYVILLE, Pa. —(AP)— Farmer Erwin Prager, 59, has hardly had a moment's peace since his crocheted tablecloth won first prize from 36 women at the Allegheny County Fair.

Women in all parts of the country call him from the tractor to the telephone at all hours for advice. Prager took up the art after an illness four years ago, and a daughter suggested crocheting to pass the time.

ME AND THE CHIEF—I'm painting a picture of a bustling metropolis... and I'm like the Navy chief who was standing on the left end of a long line of men while having their picture made. Asid, then as the camera moved, he turned and faced to the opposite end of the line and had his picture taken once again... I want in on everything. That's because of who I am. (I'll sign my name at the end of this. So just stay with us.)

PAMPA PANORAMA—Saw Elise Donaldson having a wonderful time at the fair on the merry-go-round... Billie Osborne did a wonderful job in making plans for the events of the past four days; and she was ably assisted by Mrs. Carl Anderson and Irvin Cole. ... Everyone is awaiting the time when this will become a super-annual event... The Jeepster is here! and is J. C. McWilliams (cigar-smoking) proud of it. He made the surprising remark that "I wish I had a thousand of 'em." ... for all those who like shows, it would be a good idea to see the "Unconquered" (woman) at the LaN... we're glad to hear that Jimmie Parker is getting along all right at the Plainview Clinic, following his recent attack of polio. Inasmuch as Mom and Dad were out at the game Friday night, I'll bet he gets a play-by-play description of the goings-on.

TRIVIA—Well, it won't be long until Junior can blame cigaret stains on black walnuts... prices have caused so much talk about meat it's a shame we can't eat our words... you know, getting nowhere makes a person sick of letting well enough alone.

SAME DIFFERENCE—As I look over the prices we pay for groceries and things, I sometimes think back to the good old days when a quart of milk could be had, bacteria and all, for five cents; twenty-five cents would buy all the steak our family cared to eat at one sitting; and for five cents I could get enough candy to make me ill—not just slightly ill, but very ill... But considering prices and incomes then and now it probably costs about the same. That is, it costs about what one earns or otherwise receives, and so it did then. Same difference.

THE YARN AGE (that is, the age just before the Atomic Age)—Missed my favorite uncle down in Donley County the other day. His topic of conversation besides his row crop was his good friend "Yarn Spinnin'" Bill Harris. In his opinion, there was no one in the Pampa who could spin a yarn as old Bill could, and his aim while I was there was to have me meet this Donley Co. character. I came almost near it, but the whole incident had a peculiar twist. Uncle Ben and I were in the pasture when Donley Co. Bill rode by in a cloud of Panhandle dust. Uncle B. hollered to Donley Co. B. "Ho, There Bill," says he, "stop for a minute and spin us a yarn." Old Bill, bent on his mission, didn't even pause, but answered back to Uncle Ben: "Haven't got time, Ben... Old Amer Cross just died." He rode on up the road. This was an untimely shock to Uncle B., for, as he said, there wasn't a better or heartier citizen in the whole country than old Amer Cross. We rushed to the house to tell Aunt Marjorie. While I bathed the children and dressed them in their Sunday best, Aunt Mammie whipped up some custard pies and Uncle Ben watered and fed the stock. In short order we were all in the Ford and headed for the Cross house. We raced up the road and turned into the Cross yard, adjusting proper expression on our faces. As we all filed out the car and mounted the front steps, Mrs. Cross stormed out the door, checking to her children behind her. In her hands she held an immense chocolate cake. Amer Cross rounded the corner of the house intent on a serious mission. We all met on the front porch with expressions of condolence and mourning... we, with our custard pies... they, with their chocolate cake... it was quite evident that Donley Co. B. had spun his yarn.

I SPY—I saw handsome Jack Morgan leaving for San Angelo—in a hurry!... there's no doubt that the busiest dad in town, and standing it well, is Ben Gull; and he has his own particular brand of psychology... Jean Duencel was high score lady bowler last Tuesday night—good bowling, Jean... Elmer Francis are spending the weekend in Lubbock... my vote for a gal chuck full of personality is Colleen Chisholm... the Dan Estes, Frank Patis and a huge bunch of Jaycees and wives are off to a day at Lake McClellan (today) for a barbecue. (Now, boys, be sure to keep an eye on the nickelodeon this time!) Harvey and Sybil Longren left for a few days in Abilene and on to Chicago for a few weeks... charming and efficient Inez French is leaving The Texas Company to work for Cabot... and, speaking of Cabot, we understand that Joyce Warner received a nice promotion... and it's wedding bells in the Thanksgiving Month for Margie Gayler and John Schwind. (Congratulations!)... Jack Nimmo seen all over town soliloquizing ambitious people for a course in speech salesmanship... saw Re Givens up and around looking very spry after recent operation... hint to the women: ask Bill Crowson about cooking a complete meal in one hour... he surprised Mrs. Crowson the other night with roast, potatoes, carrots, and all the other accessories—and it took just one hour! Give us a tip, Bill—was it a Presto? Dan McGrew's a welcome visitor back in town... he will stay for a few days and then on to visit relatives at Beaumont. Thence, to McDonald, Tenn., where he gets his mail regularly... it's sorta like "old times" to see him back in town... Saw Sally Pepin enroute to the dog clinic to see about her pooch "Geronimo," victim of a recent accident... Hats off to Mr. Wilkerson and Mr. Doggett who help the little folks across the streets at the schools; and even the children love them... Heard that a group of civic-minded people gathered the other day to work out plans for Christmas activities.

THAT REMINDS ME:
Christmas comes but once a year,
But once a year
I have been here
One more year...

PAMPAN ENTERS A RECIPE IN MAGAZINE CONTEST AND WINS SAME -- YEAR LATER

Ever enter a contest or send in one of your favorite recipes hoping to win a prize for it? Well, one Pampa woman, at least, did just that and succeeded. She is Mrs. J. E. Junell, 629 N. Sumner. Mrs. Junell's recipe for hamburger spina was submitted to the Better Homes and Gardens' Round Table of Endorsed Recipes and will appear in the October issue of that magazine. Of the hundreds of recipes submitted each month, only ten are chosen for the Tasting Test Kitchen, so the recipe, a meat server, must really have something. Mrs. Junell was somewhat surprised at learning of her success as it had been a year since the recipe was submitted but each recipe is taste-tested and the process takes that long. The thrill of winning a contest was not entirely new to Mrs. Junell, since she once won a Doris Dodson dress for finishing the last line of a jingle. She also received word from the Southern Family Journal that one of her household hints is on file. Maybe you've guessed by now (how could you have?) that one of her hobbies is entering household contests, though she doesn't enter the larger national contests. Writing poetry is another interest of this versatile woman. Mrs. Junell has a cookbook library, so should never run out of recipes to submit, nor ideas for cooking. Those women who can never think of a new way to prepare potatoes would do well to look into one of Mrs. Junell's pamphlets which contains 250 ways to fix potatoes. Another similar pamphlet does the same for hamburger. She is a homemaker at heart since she likes to cook and experiment with new recipes. She has a program for trying one new recipe a day, in order to keep out of the old rut of cooking the same thing day in and day out. When not busy with a cook book, she is busy with a needle, covering a chair or making curtains. The success came to Pampa a little over a year ago from Dahlart, though they are originally from East Texas. They have bought their own home in Pampa and are planning to stay, they like the place so much. The recipe she submitted follows: HAMBURGER SPINA
1-4 cup chopped onion
2 tablespoons chopped green pepper
1-3 cup chopped celery
1 pound ground beef
3-4 teaspoon salt
Pepper
2 tablespoons enriched flour
1 tablespoon meat extract
1-2 cup water
Cook onion in hot fat until golden. Add green pepper, celery, ground beef, salt, and pepper. Cook slightly. Sprinkle with flour; mix well. Stir meat extract into water. Add to meat mix: Cook until thick, stirring occasionally. Cool. Spread on biscuit dough. Roll; seal. Cut 1-inch slices. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees) about 30 minutes, until golden brown. Makes 12. Serve with Mushroom Sauce: Stir 1-2 cup milk into 1-10 1-2-cup 11-ounce can condensed mushroom soup. Heat.

Army Chapel Is Scene of Harkins-Stone Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Allen Stone

Miss Kay Harkins, daughter of Mrs. May Harkins, 121 W. Tynge, became the bride of Mr. Jack Allen Stone, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stone, 811 E. Scott, in an evening ceremony at the Salvation Army Chapel, Sept. 16. The Rev. Elmer Barrett of the Gospel Mission read the single-ring ceremony before an altar banked with palms and gladioli. Mrs. Betty Wylie sang "I Love You Truly" and was accompanied by Mrs. Pauline Watson who also played the bridal march. The candles were lit by Miss Tommie Harkins, sister of the bride, and Miss Jewelline Stone, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Harkins was attired in white linen and Miss Stone in black crepe. Mrs. Junior D. Ellis was matron of honor. She wore a black crepe dress with a lace yoke and black accessories, and a gardenia corsage. Mr. Ellis was best man. The bride wore a brown tullea street-length dress, with gardenia corsage. She carried a white Bible topped with pink rose buds and white streamers. After the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of Major Bernice Lyons of the Salvation Army. Lt. Audrey Burns served punch and the three-tiered wedding cake from a lace-covered table. Mrs. Harkins wore a crepe dress with white accessories and Mrs. Stone, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gray silk pin-check dress with white accessories. Both wore gardenia corsages. Mrs. Stone attended Pampa High School and has been employed at Caldwell's Drive Inn. Mr. Stone attended Pampa High School and is now employed by Cargyle Drilling Contractors. They are making their home at 218 N. Starkweather. The Young People's Bible Class of the Salvation Army gave the couple a post-nuptial shower in the Salvation Army Chapel. About 20 attended.

Birthday Party Held For Nine-Year-Olds

Lonnie Nichols, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nichols, 1010 E. Francis, and Wilma Dunivh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Dunivh, 914 Twiford, celebrated their ninth birth anniversary with a party at the Nichols home, Thursday evening. The Young People's Bible Class of the Salvation Army gave the couple a post-nuptial shower in the Salvation Army Chapel. About 20 attended. Attending the party were Donna Forsha, Robert and Sylvia Grider, Ann Hollingshead, Clifford Anderson, Emily Sue Alexander, Jack and H. A. Hanks, Sam Anderson, Donald Lewis, Billy Mohon, Mary and Marie Guthrie, Bill Stone, Bobby Randolph, Leonard and Joy Simpson, Robert Malone, Mrs. Stone, mother of the bridegroom, Bobby and Myra E. A. Puffy.

46 Attend AAUW Membership Tea

Forty-six members and guests registered at the AAUW membership tea held in the City Club Room Tuesday evening. Hostesses for the tea were Misses Perry, Galt, Sam Irwin, John I. Bradley and Misses Jamie Eaton and Lillian Mullinax. Social vice president is Miss Alma Wilson.

The room was decorated with cut flowers. Miss Carmelita Dunaway played soft music during the tea hour. After the tea, Miss Ines Clubb presided at the short business meeting.

She spoke of the two-fold purpose of AAUW. It was organized so university women might continue to study and have both local and national interests. The second purpose is social, she said.

It was decided that the next meeting would be a covered-dish supper.

Get-Acquainted Party Held at Hopkins P-TA

Hopkins P-TA held its first meeting of the new school year in the Community Hall Tuesday evening.

It featured a "get-acquainted" party and several games were played during the recreation period.

After the opening songs were sung, Mr. Huey Laycock led the prayer.

After the minutes, the group heard a report on City Council and the treasury. It was then decided to hold "Fun, Food and Frolic" night Oct. 29.

Room awards went to the third, fourth and seventh grades.

The speed of farm haulage has been increased from seven to 40 miles an hour through use of anti-friction bearings.

Mann P-TA Holds First Meet

One-hundred and ten persons attended the initial meeting of the Horace Mann P-TA, held in the school auditorium Thursday afternoon.

During the business meeting it was announced that the membership drive is now under way under the chairmanship of Mrs. Ross Byars. Announcement also was made that there is still a need for more Girl Scout leaders and that a school of instruction will be held at the Scout House Sept. 28 and 30 for any interested person who would like to become a Girl Scout Leader.

Mrs. Rufe J. Jordan discussed "Aims and Guidance of P-TA," and brought out the point that it is the duty of parents to lend their support interest and ideas to help the teacher fulfill her obligation as a teacher.

Above all, get acquainted with your teacher and have her into your home, then lend all aid to her in her work, Mrs. Jordan said.

The devotional was given by Mrs. Tom Duvall, and a get-acquainted game was directed by Mrs. R. W. Tucker.

A social hour followed the meeting and refreshments were served by the executive committee.

★ WE, THE WOMEN BY RUTH MILLETT

Signs of a happy marriage: Their kidding of each other is good-naturedly received. It isn't just a coverup for criticism. Their friends find them as enjoyable as a couple as they are singly.

From choice they spend at least half of their evenings at home. They are always vitally interested in some project that concerns them both.

They seem to really enjoy their children.

Each puts the other in a good light.

They can see humor in trying situations.

They are courteous to each other in small ways.

They can disagree without either being unpleasant.

"SOME DAY" PLANNERS

They like to talk about things they have done together and things they want to do "some day."

They are not apologetic about their home or their possessions. If what they have is good enough for them, it is good enough for others.

They don't "dear" and "darling" each other continually. Because they're happy it never occurs to them to try to make people think they are.

She doesn't run down men and he isn't contemptuous of women. When one talks the other listens.

When they smile at each other it is a very pleasant sight.

The Atlantic is saltier in the region of the Sargasso Sea than in its Arctic areas.

First Baptist Women Are to Hold Social

The women of the First Baptist Church will hold their annual social at 2:30 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 30, in the basement of the church.

All women of the church are invited and urged to attend, and a special invitation goes to those who have joined the church in the last year.

The theme of the social will be "An Old Time Musical Review." More than 70 people are taking part in the program, which is under the direction of Mrs. Louis Tarpley. Working with her on the program are Mrs. Owen Johnson and Mrs. Lee Newsome.

On the reception committee are Mrs. E. L. Anderson, Mrs. J. H. Tucker, Mrs. T. B. Solomon, Mrs. Lester Brown and Mrs. R. L. Edmondson.

The registration committee includes Mrs. J. A. Meek, Mrs. Homer Scherer and Mrs. Tom Duvall.

Mrs. Henshaw Gives Talk on Hawaii

At the Wednesday meeting of the WSCB, McCullough Methodist Church, Mrs. Edgar Henshaw spoke on Hawaii and the surrounding islands. After discussing the leper colony, she displayed fabrics, vases and purses that were made from leaves by the natives.

The meeting, held in the home of Mrs. E. H. Martin, was one of the scheduled meetings for the group. Mrs. John McFall was in charge of a short business session and Mrs. Coyle Ford, study leader, reviewed the book "On Our Own Door Step."

Attending were Misses A. N. Rogers, Max Frost, E. P. Pettit, K. I. Autry, W. S. Runyon, E. L. Robertson, Helen Monkes, Claude Vernon, Carl C. Deckman, Ben Warren, E. N. Franklin and Miss Adie Martin.

The refreshment committee. All class social chairmen are expected to attend.

Education Club Holds First Meet

Parent Education Club held its first meeting of the club year with a coffee in the home of Mrs. L. N. Aichison, 300 W. Harvester, Tuesday morning.

Mrs. N. Dudley Steele, president, was in charge of the business meeting and welcomed two former members, Mrs. Atchison and Mrs. Julian Key, back into the club.

Roll call was answered by each member on something new her child had learned during the summer. Club members presented a spirited discussion on current events concerning children.

Vacancies Filled in Women's Group

LEFORS (Special)—The Women's Society of Christian Service filled four vacancies when they met Tuesday at the Lefors Methodist Church.

Those named for the vacancies were Mrs. M. F. Tibbitts, vice president; Mrs. R. H. Campbell, secretary of Christian Social Relations Committee; Mrs. W. R. Combs, secretary of supplies; and Mrs. G. L. Stafford, secretary of literature and publications.

Members were asked to bring articles to fill a box for missions at the next meeting, on Tuesday. Quarterly reports will be filled out at that meeting, on Tuesday.

Mrs. W. C. Breining gave the devotional and short talks on "World Council of Churches" were given by Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. L. R. Spence. Attending were Mrs. Dan Johnson, N. C. Jordan, B. C. Johnson, W. T. Cole, and N. C. Cotton and those already mentioned.

1,000 Mexicans A Day Sign for Cotton Harvest

MONTERREY, Mexico — (AP) —

Cotton pickers for Arkansas, Missouri and Mississippi are going out of here at the rate of 1,000 a day. That many braceros (workers) were placed under contract yesterday by the Mexican recruiting office and United States employers.

who came here to get men. Walter Herby, U.S. employment service representative, said there are plenty of braceros in sight and he hopes shortly to get recruiting increased to 1,500 daily. The three states asked for 20,000 to 25,000 Mexican authorities said they doubted if quite that many will be available.

Finance Grows Teeth

HOUSTON — (AP) — Harris County's new meat inspection ordinance grew a couple of teeth. One amendment makes it illegal to possess or transport more than five pounds of meat on Houston streets between 8 p. m. and 5 a. m.

The other provides that meat delivery trucks must be marked with the name of the company in letters at least five inches high and the word "meat delivery" at least three inches high. If the trucks carry horse meat they must be marked "horse meat delivery."

Dr. W. J. Williamson, chief city veterinarian, admitted that it would be illegal for a housewife to take home a 10-pound ham after dark. He added, however, "We don't mean, of course, to enforce anything that rigid because we just want a weapon to block hauling of horse meat in the night hours."

Red Output Called 'Niagara of Sewage'

LONDON — (AP) — Lord Vansittart, conservative former foreign secretary, coined a phrase today for the output of the Moscow radio and the Russian press. "A Niagara of sewage," he called it in a House of Lords debate.

Plastic Used in Every Room Now

Easy-to-care-for plastics can save hours of drudgery for the busy housewife. Why not take advantage of these modern developments that science has provided to give you more leisure time to spend with the family? Drudgery is out of date, and a happy family is one in which the homemaker is relaxed and cheerful.

Tablecloths and curtains of plastics are old friends in the kitchen, but did you know that there are smart designs for use throughout the entire house? Velon plastic is now available in a dull, taffeta-like texture, which makes it especially attractive for draperies, dressing table skirts, and even bedspreads. A damp cloth is all that is needed to keep Velon fabrics fresh and new-looking, and there is never need to worry about stains or stubborn soil.

Old-Fashioned Barber Charges Old-Time Price

MARIETTA, O. — (AP) — There still is one town in the United States where you can get a haircut for 15 cents and a shave for 10.

It is nearby Lowell, a community of 1,000 residents where William Ray has been in business with an old-fashioned wooden chair for 58 years. He's the town's only barber.

Asked why he still was charging only 15 cents while barbers in this town were getting $1, Ray explained:

"I just haven't had time to raise my prices. My business keeps me too busy."

Ray, working every day except Sunday from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m., clips an average of 300 heads a week.

Wallace had no such escort on previous trips including the recent Southern tour where he was splashed with flying eggs.

Straw Hat Prank Leads to Stabbing

WICHITA FALLS, — (AP) — A summer's end prank — smashing straw hats — led to the stabbing of a foundry employe here and an assault with intent to murder charge against one of his co-workers.

Alvin W. Goff, 31, was stabbed in the head with an ice pick. Doctors said he would recover.

Nelson Hopson, 26, was charged with assault with intent to murder and released on $1,500 bond.

Assistant District Attorney Clyde C. Filmore said the men fought after some straw hats were smashed earlier this week.

THE SHOE WITH THE BEAUTIFUL FIT

Average Life Span Is Now 66 1-2 Years

NEW YORK, N. Y. — The average length of life of American wage-earners and their families reached an all-time high of 66 1-2 years in 1947, according to Dr. Louis I. Dublin, second vice president and statistician of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. This figure is for the company's industrial policyholders, who constitute a large cross-section of the entire industrial population. The 1947 record represents a gain of one year over 1946, a decade, and of more than 10 years in the past two decades. Since 1911-12, when the average length of life was 46.6 years, practically 20 years have been added to the life expectancy of the group. The progressive improvement in longevity is attributed largely to the advances in medical science, especially the widespread use of the sulfa drugs and penicillin, and progress in surgery and obstetrics, and to the achievements in sanitary science and public health education. Also considered an important factor in bringing about the improvement are the benefits which the American wage-earners and their families have received from the long-term rise in their standard of living.

It is safe to keep canned food in the can it comes in, if it is kept cool and covered, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

57 Texans Enroll At Oklahoma School

SHAWNEE, Okla. — Texas placed second in the number of out-of-state students enrolled in Oklahoma Baptist University, with a total of 57, according to Dean L. E. Solomon, registrar. A total number of 288 out-of-state students was reached at OBU this semester, with representatives from twenty-seven states, three foreign countries (England, Cuba, and China) and the District of Columbia.

Twenty-Three Notices of Intent To Drill Filed With Commission

Twenty-three notices of intent to drill were filed at the local Oil and Gas Office of the State Railroad Commission during the past week, officials reported yesterday. The same report lists three wells to be deepened in Hutchinson County. Hutchinson County, with filings on eight new locations, led in new activity. INTENTION TO DRILL. Carson County—H. E. Schwartz, Byron No. 7, I & GN Survey, 330' feet from S and 1650 feet from E lines SW-4 Sec. 188, Blk. 3, 7 miles W of Pampa. Gray County—Cities Service Oil Company, Noel No. 9, I & GN Survey, 330 feet from S and 1320 oil in a 24 hour test. Top of pay 3035 feet. Total depth 3155 feet.

Just in case you've been wondering about current wells of interest here's a little information. . . . The Phillips Carruth well is now around 10,970 feet and still going down. . . . The Sinclair-Lippis is reportedly at a depth of around 3,231 feet. The Gulf-Porter in Lipscomb County is reportedly around 3,780. . . . and the Helms-No. 1, Brown is rumored to have a good show of oil at a depth of 2,714 feet. They also reported a show of oil at 2,518 feet.

oil industry, we recommend the report made by R. S. McFarland, vice president and general manager, Mid-Continent Division, Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware, in Dallas recently. . . . He cited from a study just completed by the Oil Industry Information Committee that the known volume of crude oil underground in the United States has reached nine hundred billion gallons. Besides crude oil, he said, the known reserve of condensates, natural gasoline, and other liquefied petroleum gases total more than 130 billion gallons. . . . He was extremely optimistic about the underground reserves, due largely to the improvement of recovery methods. According to his report the average recovery rate today is nearly 80 percent as compared to the 20 percent recovery possible a few decades ago. . . . His report also stressed the fact that these figures of underground reserves were based only on oil known to exist through test drilling and did not include partially developed fields, nor further possible increase in recoverables from wells formerly considered exhausted. Geologists estimate that there are over two trillion more gallons of oil to be discovered and proved in the United States.

The oil industry is trying to add . . . faster than you can subtract

1. Scientists study the tiny shells and other fossils brought up by drillers from the depths of the wells which they are drilling. A close study of these fossils tells them the age of rocks in which the bit is drilling, and enables them to suggest to production men how close they are to possible oil-bearing rocks.

So far we've kept up with you. You're subtracting oil from available supplies at the rate of two billion barrels a year, and the industry is supplying your demand. Never before have you needed as much oil as you're asking for today—for fuel, for industry, for transportation. And never before has the oil industry supplied you with so much oil.

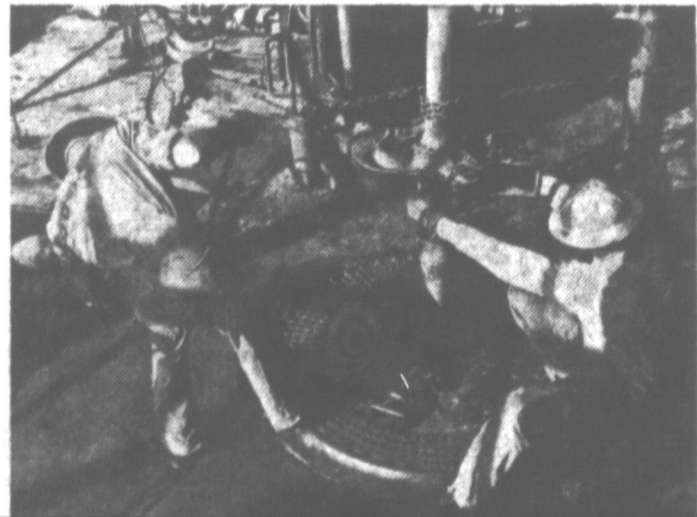

To continue to supply you, the oil industry probably will drill 40,000 wells in 1948. Of this number, about 7,000 will be wildcat wells, drilled in an effort to find more oil for your increasing needs. Of these wildcats, about 85% probably will be dry holes; the others will discover new sources of oil production, will add to the oil you're subtracting in larger quantities every day.

Only an efficient industry, using every possible scientific advantage, could so well meet the challenge of today's record demand for oil. The oil industry is doing everything that possibly can be done to add oil faster than you can subtract it; everything that can be done to find more oil, produce more oil, transport more oil, refine more oil.

You can help this effort by making your personal demands for petroleum products reasonable and by cooperating with programs designed to conserve oil products.

2. Physicists devised this complex apparatus. It duplicates, for scientific purposes, the conditions in the oil-bearing rocks of a developed oil field. From a study of these, the engineers can tell approximately how much oil can be produced, how rapidly it should be produced to secure the maximum amount of oil, even how close the wells should be to each other.

3. To find oil, you have to drill a well. In the first six months of 1948, Humble drilled 59 exploratory wells to discover 17 new producing areas. Even more exploratory wells will be drilled in the last half of this year, including several on submerged lands in the Gulf of Mexico.

Tales of Manhattan: Story Of Two Taxicab Drivers-

By JAMES MARLOW WASHINGTON (AP)—This is a story of two cab drivers in New York. They're about the same age, maybe 40. Let's call them LaGuardia and Airport one night this week, got into a cab, and told the driver the address, 10 minutes away. He swung out past the other cabs and looked over his shoulder and said: "This is the last time I ever pick up anybody at the airport. I got this every time I stop at the airport." "I said 'Get what?'" "This kind of load," he said. "A 60-cent trip. The other drivers get good loads." He put on speed and his temper picked up. He said "I'm telling you this happens to me every time. Sometimes I think I got a curse on me." "That's too bad," I said. "Too bad? I work six, seven days a week. For what? For dimes. I'm working for the boss, not for me. That's why I'm ridin' with the meter down right now." He was the meter was down. On this trip he kept the 60 cents. On the next trip maybe he'd put the meter up and let the boss get a little. "Six and seven days a week," I said. "You don't get much time with your family." "I hardly never see them," he said. "I got a wife. I got kids. I never see them." The next day, going back to the airport, I got another cab. This time the ride was a little longer. The driver had a little more to talk. A car zipped out from the curb and almost clipped us. The other driver yelled. My driver didn't say anything. I told him "The guy wants to whip you." "People get excited," the cab driver said. "I don't want any fights." "Why not?" "I had all the fights I wanted when I was a kid. I was raised down on the East Side. No more fights." "I figured that one out when I was maybe 21. I figured something else out, too. I figured if I ever had a family I was going to live someplace else where it was peace and quiet." He said he has a family now, a wife and son, 36 years old, and they're all living out on Long Island. "Does your kid have any fights out there?" I said. "No. He never hit anybody in his life." "He's a Junior in high school. Last year he got the highest marks any body ever got in that school in second year." "How do you get along?" "Fine," he said. "I told him a long time ago: 'Look, that
