Just as soon as the voter registration period ends on Jan. 31, the county tax office will begin selling motor vehicle license tags and state officials have warned that vehicle owners had best heed the state law that requires owners to register vehicles in the counties where they live.

Computerization of all vehicle registration in the Highway Department, being completed now, will make enforcement of this law by highway patrolmen much swifter than it has been in the past. If you are stopped by a patrolman for any reason, he can learn within minutes how your car is registered and whether the registration compares with your address.

The computerization also is expected to be a big help in criminal law enforcement work, since most criminals use automobiles in one way or another.

The expression "wait till next year" is not uncommon among backers of athletic teams in the midst of losing streaks. But there is a new wrinkle out at the University of Texas at Austin. They're saying "wait till 1970." And the Longhorns were not exactly patsies on the football field the past fall. But that is one reason that 1970 looms as a bountiful season. That is the year that a bunch of superb 1968 sophomores will be playing their senior, and third, season for the Horns. Also, it will hopefully be the first season for the Texas team to perform in an enlarged stadium. Plans have been approved for addition of a 14,800-seat deck on the west side of Memorial Stadium.

Darrell Royal has made arrangements to bring two West Coast powers, California and UCLA, to Austin to enliven the Texas intersectional slate for the 1970 season.

The decline in number of farms has figured in another shortage, according to the Ford Almanac, which reached this office this week. A survey of 800 business firms which are related to agriculture showed that 90 per cent of them were actively seeking employes with farm backgrounds, but there simply are not that many people available now who have actual farm-life experience.

NEW HEARINGS IN SECRET

Bucher Tells Of Red Torture Confessed To Spying

CORONADO, Calif. (AP) — The captain of the Pueblo says he confessed to spying after blood-chilling mental torture, and then tried to drown himself in a bucket of water.

Tears streaming, his voice breaking with anguish, Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher told a Navy court of inquiry Thursday that North Koreans finally broke him by threatening to shoot his crewmen one-by-one in front of him—and summoning the youngest sailor and saying they would start with him.

Bucher's account of the terror ended—at least for now—his public appearances. He goes before a closed session of the court today to give secret—classified—testimony, and will be followed, the Navy said, by Rear Adm. Frank L. Johnson, commander of U.S. naval forces in Japan at the time the Pueblo was seized. Bucher has said he radioed desperately for help as North Korean gunboats surrounded the intelligence ship, but it never arrived.

The Navy said Johnson would testify after closed-door accounts from one or more of three captains under his command in Japan when the Pueblo was seized off North Korea last year. Summaries of all secret sessions will be prepared, deleting all classified information, and made available to newsmen, a Navy spokesman said.

Open court sessions are scheduled to resume Wednesday.

After describing why he confessed, Bucher said Thursday, "sometime during the night I attempted to commit suicide by drowning myself in a bucket of water in my room but was unable to accomplish this."

"Mentally, I was quite disturbed," he said, partly because of the embarrassment he thought his confession caused the United States.

The typewritten confession said Bucher was a CIA agent, that his ship intruded into North Korean waters and that he was trying to put South Koreans ashore.

"And I realized," he said, "they (North Koreans) needed me alive more than anyone else in the crew for public appearances that I was afraid of and knew were coming."

The court warned Bucher Wednesday he may have violated regulations by surrendering the ship. Bucher got in his fourth day of testimony and has been unusually calm, sometimes tense, until he came to describing an interrogation before he confessed. As he talked he began trembling.

"They made me kneel on the floor," Bucher said. He said a North Korean he nicknamed Super Colonel, or "Super C," seemed desperate.

"'You have two minutes to decide to sign the confession or be shot'," Bucher said he was told. "I spent two minutes on the floor and I repeated over and over. . .(the skipper's voice broke and he paused) I love you, Rose, I love you, Rose."

His blonde wife Rose sobbed and rubbed her eyes at that point in his testimony.

TWO INJURED — Ricky Bob Morris, 21, 900 Twenty-sixth Street, and Mrs. Rupert (Virginia) Short, 58, 3001 Thirty-third Street, were injured when their cars collided in the 2500 block of Avenue S at 8:45 a.m. today. Mrs. Short was taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital for treatment of back and leg injuries. Her condition was described as satisfactory. Morris was released after receiving treatment for a cut lip and possible back injuries. Investigating City Police Patrolman Brad Gambrell said the youth turned north off of Twenty-sixth Street onto Avenue S. Damage to the 1953 Oldsmobile (upper left) operated by Morris was placed at $150, and damage to the other vehicle, a 1968 Model Pontiac, (upper right), was estimated at $1,500.00.

Eleven Snyder students will perform tomorrow in the All-Region Choir at Odessa.

The Texas Music Educators Association's All-Region Choir will present its performance at 8 p.m. in the Odessa Permain High School Auditorium. It will present selections to be used by the All-State Choir at the annual Texas Music Educators Association convention in San Antonio in February.

Students Withdraw In Paris

PARIS (AP) — Some 250 student rebels withdrew quietly during the night from France's newest university after police battled other rebellion students for five hours in the Latin Quarter of Paris.

Despite the crackdown in the capital, the riot police just watched at suburban Vincennes University, a leafy model campus where students took over the administration building and communications facilities. Window curtains were set on fire in one meeting room but the damage was not serious. The last holdouts withdrew quietly about 4 a.m.

The country's largest undergraduate group, UNEF, or the National Student Organization, appealed for students "to multiply the mass mobilization and occupy buildings or begin strikes according to the local situation.

Receives Purple Heart Fifty Years Later

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Julius Steinberg of Omaha has been presented two Purple Heart medals for wounds received 50 years ago.

He was gassed and wounded by an artillery shell while serving as a courier with the 6th Marine Regiment in the Belleau Woods campaign of World War I.

Steinberg, 79, said his son, the Rev. Willis H. Steinberg of Minneapolis, called the oversight to the attention of a Marine Corps researcher.

He said the award was delayed because the company records were blown up. He said this even delayed his discharge for several months.

Ship Adrift In Pacific

NEW YORK (AP) — The Coast Guard reported today that the passenger vessel Fairsea carrying 986 persons was adrift in the Pacific Ocean about 990 miles west of the Canal Zone after a fire disabled her engines.

The 13,432-ton vessel, a converted C3 merchant ship, was headed for Balboa, the Coast Guard said, but it was not immediately known where she was bound from.

No injuries were reported and the fire was out, according to reports received by the Coast Guard. The ship was said to be of Panamian registry and Liberian ownership.

Sea conditions in the area were reported calm and the ship was said to be riding easily. Rescue arrangements were being coordinated by the U.S. Air Force Rescue Center at Albrook, Canal Zone, the Coast Guard said.

Bitter Cold Knifes Deep Into Texas

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Some of the bitterest weather so far this season drove the mercury down close to zero in the Texas Panhandle today as a mass of polar air knifed all the way to the Upper Texas Coast.

The mercury skidded to 4 degrees above zero at Dalhart, 5 at Perryton and 8 at Amarillo before a frigid sunrise.

At that hour the forward edge of the arctic cold front looped from the upper coast region toward Laredo and back to the northwest, falling short of El Paso.

Meanwhile it was still sultry farther south, with dense fog along the coast and 50 to 75 miles inland in early morning but disappearing quickly as the chilled air arrived.

Deep in South Texas where some of the worst fogging occurred, a two-car crash at a farm road intersection eight miles north of Kingsville took four lives Thursday night. The collision killed Agnes Podest, Del la Marie Stasmey and Virginia Garza; all of Agua Dulce, and Lillie Malik of Robstown.

Flurries of snow drifted down across much of the Panhandle and dust blew over the South Plains late Thursday. There wasn't enough snow to stick and by early morning the dust-stirring winds subsided into knife-edged breezes.

Sharp chilling occurred behind the norther, with temperatures dipping to the freeze level or below over most of the state's northern half.

Temperatures started dropping in the coldest areas as the front pushed into Texas in the forenoon Thursday while it stayed almost stationary in the south. The top afternoon temperatures ranged from 14 degrees at Dalhart to 85 at Beeville and aredo, the warmest spots in the nation.

Arctic air was expected to envelop all but extreme West Texas by late today. Forecasts called for clear skies in all sections, still colder weather over the southern half of the state tonight and Saturday, and a little warming elsewhere.

In addition to the frigid marks in the Panhandle, early morning temperatures today included Plainview 12, Childress 14, Lubbock 15, Wichita Falls 16, Abilene, Sherman and Denison 19, Mineral Wells 20, Big Spring and Fort Worth 21, Dallas and Midland 22, San Angelo 25, Waco and Wink 27, Tyler 28 and Killeen and Texarkana 29.

Outside the freeze belt the predawn marks ranged up to 63 at Corpus Christi, 64 at Laredo, 65 at Alice, 68 at McAllen and 70 at Brownsville.

Hickel Confirmed For Cabinet Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration has easily won its first congressional test, gaining confirmation of Walter J. Hickel as secretary of interior over the opposition of nearly all the Senate Democratic leadership.

But indications were that Democrats in Congress will be watching the Alaska governor's every move after he is sworn in at the White House ceremonies today.

"Mr. Hickel is on notice from both ends of Pennsylvania Avenue," said Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield after Hickel was confirmed Thursday by a vote of 73 to 16.

"It will probably mean he will be a very good secretary of the interior," Mansfield added.

Mansfield, paired against confirmation, said the vote has no significance for the future and "we're very hopeful relations will be good."

Hickel, whose views on conservation and water pollution had stirred a storm of controversy, was the last of Nixon's Cabinet appointees to be approved. The others were sworn in Wednesday.

Also confirmed Thursday was multimillionaire California industrialist David R. Packard as deputy secretary of defense.

The vote was 82 to 1. Tennessee Democrat Albert Gore, declaring the nomination constitutes "a conflict of interest as plain as the nose on your face," cast the single "nay."

All 16 dissenting votes on the Hickel nomination were cast by Democrats. All Republicans either voted for the Alaska governor or stated support of him.

Czech Masses Mourn Hero

PRAGUE (AP) — Thousands of sobbing, wailing Czechoslovaks filed past the closed coffin of Jan Palach today.

The coffin of Palach, who set himself afire for the cause of freedom, rested alongside a statute of Jan Hus, who died at the stake in defense of truth in 1415.

Huge crowds gathered in narrow Zelezny Ulice, the Ironmongers' Street, to enter the main building of Charles University where the coffin rested. Members of the university faculty stood near the catafalque.

A youth opened a Bible and began reading, started sobbing uncontrollably and had to be helped away by companions. A roughly dressed old man sobbed and wrung his hat.

Small children knelt and placed flowers near the coffin, adding their tiny offerings to a profusion of floral wreaths.

The 21-year-old university student set fire to himself on Wenceslas Square Jan. 16, to protest the Soviet occupation of Czechoslovakia. He died three days later.

The coffin will be on view through Saturday morning. Then studnets planned a massive memorial observance in advance of private funeral services Saturday afternoon.

Student leaders said they expected 400,000 students in the capital for the ceremony. Prague Radio said the leaders told the worried interior ministry they could not guarantee there would be no incidents.

The students made public appeals for a calm, dignified memorial. They said any violence could "entirely destroy our hopes for socialism with a human face," the motto of the liberal reform wave which Soviet troops invaded the country to reverse.

The coffin rested on a five-foot-high, black-draped platform. The platform was beside the statue of the stern-faced religious reformer, reared back as if defending the book he holds in his hands.

The connection between the two Jans has been made repeatedly since Palach's death.

Behind the coffin was the national flag with black crepe attached to the top of the standard.

DEAR ABBY: At age 81, after having been a widower for many years, Dad married a shrewd little 73-year-old lady. She had dollar signs in her eyes when she married him.

After four months, Dad left her, saying, "Now I don't have to die to know what hell is like."

The problem: When Dad walked out on this lady, she said, "I am sick of you. Take what you want!" (The house and everything in it was Dad's.)

Two days later when we went to the house, we nearly fainted. The place had been stripped. She had taken everything, including carpeting, draperies, fixtures, stove, refrigerator, and she even uprooted some of the plants in the garden!

Now, Abby, you know Dad was not of sound mind when he told her to take what she wanted. What should we do? Don't suggest a lawyer. Dad IS a lawyer.

TWO DAUGHTERS

DEAR DAUGHTERS: Whether Dad was of "sound mind" or not when he told the grasping little chisler to "take what you want," she took him literally. Dad surely knows that doctors fall ill, consult other doctors, and lawyers with legal probems, consult other lawyers, so he should see a lawyer. But he'd better look for a furnished apartment in the meantime.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I know that when children are young they all "experiment" a little, but what do you think of four and five-year-olds playing "doctor"?

CONCERNED

DEAR CONCERNED: It's all right as long as they don't "operate."

DEAR ABBY: I've been married for 15 years and my biggest complaint is the same one I've had ever since I was a bride.

My husband "surprises" me with unexpected dinner guests. He doesn't even call to give me a few minutes notice, he just walks in with company at mealtime, and says, "Don't go to any extra trouble. Honey, they'll eat whatever we have." I could just wring his neck!

Sometimes I have skimpy leftovers and there is only enough for our family.

Naturally I'm stuck, and have to be a good scout, but I wish I could cure him of his stupid thoughtlessness.

COMPANY FOR SUPPER

DEAR COMPANY: If your husband has been "surprising" you with "unexpected" company for 15 years, it's time you expected it. Quit being a "good scout" and start being a "Girl Scout." (Be Prepared.)

McCollum Named To Baylor Board

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston oilman L. F. McCollum has been named chairman of the board of trustees of the new Baylor College of Medicine.

McCollum, chairman of the board of the Continental Oil Co., was elected Thursday at the board's first meeting. At the same time Dr. Michael E. DeBakey internationally - known heart surgeon, was given the new title of president and chief executive officer. He had been serving as vice president for medical affairs.

Herbert J. Frensley, president of Brown & Root Inc., was elected vice chairman of the board. A. Frank Smith, Houston attorney, was named secretary.

Baylor recently severed its formal ties with the Baptist General Convention of Texas and Baylor University and now operates as a private corporation.

McCollum called upon Baylor to double its current enrollment of 350 medical students in an effort to help eliminate what he described as a critical health manpower shortage in the nation.

He said Baylor has to be able to accept more students, to get more financial supports because of growing costs of medical education.

"Our immediate attention must now be focused on the urgent problems facing the medical school in restoring faculty strength to the high level needed to provide closer, more effective organizational liason with Baylor's affiliated hospitals," he said.

He urged Houstonians and Texans to become involved with the activities of the medical school saying "with divestment of its sectarian nature, Baylor College of Medicine became a community institution, and a responsibility."

6 Vandalism Cases Cleared

City Police have cleared six separate cases of vandalism involving five Snyder boys.

Chief of Police Stephen Clark said three of the boys, ages 11, 13 and 14, were involved in five of the offenses. The violations were committed Jan. 13 and 14 and they involved damage to Santa Fe Railway Co. signal lights, destruction of gas lamps in front of private residences and windows of private property and damage to windows of local business firms.

Two of the boys, age 12 and 14, were implicated in the destruction of 22 windows at a private home.

Officers obtained statements from the boys and turned them over the Juvenile Authorities.

Police Detective Sergeant Jerry Morris conducted the investigations that led to the solution of the offenses.

In other action yesterday, Morris and Chief Clark apprehended a soldier who has been reported as absent without official leave from his Army duty station at Ft. Dix, N. M. since Dec. 8. He is being held for military authorities.

Big Blaze In Pryor Burns Half Block

PRYOR, Okla. (AP) — Firemen from 10 communities battled icy winds and sub-freezing temperatures Tuesday night to combat a blaze which whipped through a half-block business area of downtown Pryor.

Six businesses—Avenue TV, the Mayes County Farm Bureau office, an Otasco store, a Skellgas office, an accountant's office and the Mule-Skin Brown Furniture Store — were destroyed by the flames.

There was no official estimate of damage.

Firemen, who brought the blaze under control within four hours, theorized the fire may have started from an exploding tube or faulty wiring in the television shop and spread to other stores.

The fire was reported shortly after 5 p.m. and within two hours had swept over a half block along Graham Avenue, Oklahoma Highway 20.

At one time, flames were shooting more than 100 feet into the sky and the shingled roof of a house more than 600 feet from the inferno was ignited by wind-blown cinders. The fire was quickly put out.

Fire fighting units from Catoosa, Jay, Locust Grove, Wagoner, Tulsa, Claremore, Chouteau, Owasso and Chelsea assisted the Pryor department in Battling the fire.

Spray from the nozzles of fire hoses formed icicles on power lines and the water froze as it dripped down the clothing of firemen.

By 9 p.m. firemen from the neighboring communities began rolling in their hoses, but the Pryor department remained to prevent the smouldering debris from rekindling.

A Pryor Chamber of Commerce banquet was canceled as many of those who planned to attend pitched in to help fight the blaze and remove merchandise from the stores.

It was the second major fire in the northeastern Oklahoma community in two weeks. A fire of undetermined origin destroyed Pryor High School on Jan. 12, causing $800,000 damage.

C. and Hector Del Toro, Hermleigh High School student, who is this year's winner.

Joe Wilson presented last year's winning oration for the club and told of his experiences as the winner. Hector Del Toro gave this year's winning speech, "Where Do I Go From Here?"

Rotarians approved membership applications for Loren Sullivan and Lester Victor. Student Rotarian of the month, Larry Wesson, was introduced by J. D. Smith. Jay Rogers presided at the meeting.

LBJ Ranch Bulls Shown

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Former President Lyndon B. Johnson has entered two LBJ Ranch bulls in the Alamo Hereford Club sale to be held at the upcoming San Antonio Livestock Show and Rodeo.

The two Hereford bulls will be among 85 cattle in the Feb. 10 sale.

The stock show will be held Feb. 7-16. It will be the annual attraction's 20th anniversary and will feature the first Hereford register of merit show, dedicated to Joe Freeman, veteran Hereford breeder and lifetime stock show board chairman.

Freeman is a friend of the former president.

A spokesman for the former president said Johnson's schedule is open and that there is no indication where he will be during the show period.

Favors Liquor By The Drink

HOUSTON (AP) — The new speaker of the Texas House of Representatives has reiterated support for liquor-by-the-drink laws in Texas.

"I think the people of our great state have spoken on this issue in a referendum," Gus Mutscher said Thursday at a civic club meeting.

"It will be given due consideration," he added. "I supported the referendum—I don't recall changing my position during my term in office.

He declined to predict what position Gov. Preston Smith would take on the liquor proposal.

"This is something I'd prefer to hear him pass on to the public," the Brenham legislator said.

Two Mishaps Are Reported Here

City Police investigated two motor vehicle mishaps yesterday, including one that involved a hit-and-run driver.

An unidentified motorist fled the scene after his vehicle struck the parked 1958 Model Chevrolet of Henry L. Woellert, 1902 Twenty-ninth Street. The incident occurred between 8 and 8:30 a.m. on the north parking lot at the high school.

A collision occurred at 10:30 a.m. on U. S. 180 at Avenue J. Damage to the 1968 Model Chevrolet of Dewey Denson, Route 1, Hermleigh, was placed at $80, and damage to the parked 1962 Model Ford of L. A. McClanahan was set at $35.

Finds Body By Chance

DALLAS (AP) — Patrolman H. L. Alford said he halted a car Thursday night to issue a ticket for faulty tail lights—and found the body of a woman on the seat beside the driver.

Police identified the woman as Mary Louise Collins of Dallas.

A radio check showed the motorist, who had alighted, also was wanted for two unpaid traffic tickets. Alford told the man, 42, he'd have to go to headquarters.

Then, as Alford walked toward the halted vehicle, its driver told him glumly, "Wait a minute, officer. You'll find a pistol in the middle of the front seat. Right beside the pistol is a woman's body. I shot her 30 or 40 minutes ago."

No reason was given for the shooting.

The man's name was withheld pending the filing of a formal charge in the slaying.

Laser To Battle Decay

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A painless ray from a laser beam may soon prevent tooth decay, a researcher says.

Dr. Fred M. Johnson of Electro-Optical Systems, a division of Xerox in Pasadena, Calif., said Thursday night such an instrument may be ready for dentists offices by 1971.

The technique, called laser glazing, relies on the pinpoint accuracy and near instantaneous heat of the narrow and intense laser light beam. When a special sodium chemical solution is applied to the teeth, the laser beam permanently fuses or seals the tooth's enamel outer covering, Johnson said.

The hardening of the enamel prevents food chemicals from entering and decaying the teeth, Johnson told the American Nuclear Society Branch in Las Vegas.

Saigon Ready For "A Lasting Peace"

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH
Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP)—South Vietnam's Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky returned today to supervise his government's delegation to the Vietnam peace talks and said the Saigon regime is "sincere and ready in the hope of achieving a just and lasting peace."

"Peace can be restored as soon as the Communists abandon their scheme of expansion by force," the Saigon leader told newsmen.

Ky and his attractive wife were welcome at Orly airport by ranking members of the U.S. and Saigon delegations, including the man Ky once told intimates he regarded as a father, Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge.

Ky was premier of South Vietnam at the time of Lodge's second four as ambassador in Saigon in 1967. The two were on the best of terms, with Lodge often counseling Ky. Lodge this week replaced W. Averell Harriman as chief of the U.S. delegation to the talks.

The South Vietnamese vice president will exercise over-all supervision of his delegation but will not sit at the conference table as a negotiator.

The first substantive meetings of the Vietnam talks open Saturday morning at the International Conference Center.

"I am happy with the progress," Ky said in his statement. "Once more I wish to affirm that the Republic of Vietnam is sincere and ready in the hope of achieving a just and lasting peace and of ending the war...

"I hope that the people on the other side will show the same good will. Peace can be restored as soon as the Communists abandon their scheme of expansion by force. The Vietnamese people fervently hope for peace—but they are absolutely opposed to Communist domination. We cannot be conquered by force. I wish good success to the talks."

Asked whether he was hopeful of the outcome, Ky said, "As an aviator I am always optimistic. Given the maximum chance and good will the talks in Paris will be successful."

He said the South Vietnamese government is planning to "assume full responsibility in the military field" and is studying plans to increase the government's forces in 1969 to replace foreign troops progressively.

The meeting Saturday will be the first attended by full delegations from the United States, North and South Vietnam and the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front.

By a tacit agreement there will be no discussion of an agenda. Instead of wasting time arguing what should be talked about first, each delegation will make a general policy statement, outling its views on how to end the war.

Annual Work Of County Home Demonstration Work

The County Extension Office in Scurry County is located at 120 East Highway and is the base of operation for the County Home Demonstration Agent.

In carrying out the work of this office the agent has had approximately 4000 consultations including telephone calls, office calls and home visits, approximately half of which were related to the work done with youth either in 4-H club or in special interest groups. Approximately 6000 letters and other pieces of mail have been sent and 42 radio programs have been prepared and presented. The agent has held 39 leader training meetings with a total attendance of 323 people, and has participated in 97 other meetings at which information was given.

Extension Service has done a study of the work done by Home Demonstration Agents and has determined 5 general but overlapping areas in which work is done to improve family living. The 5 areas are (1) Community and Resource Development, (2) Consumer Competence, (3) Family Health, (4) Family Housing and (5) Family Stability.

In the area of Community and Resource Development, one of the major activities has been that of developing community leadership. Approximately 40 officers of Home Demonstration Club and Council officers have had training in how to preside, write minutes, keep financial records and other duties of officers. They have also been trained and guided in how to work with others, how to organize activities and enlist help to carry them out. Sixteen members of standing committees of council plus other committees have received training in committee work and in planning.

Approximately 20 adults have received training as 4-H leaders. They have been assisted by a group of about 26 junior leaders who are older 4-H members interested in sharing what they have learned with younger 4-H'ers. These young people have attended special training events at which they have had training in parliamentary procedure, the duties of officers, how to work with others, decisions, making and what can be expected of younger 4-H members, at different ages, or stages of development.

Approximately 45 4-H club members have been trained as club officers and in how to carry out responsibilities.

Also in the area of Community and Resource Development, has been the citizenship project carried by the Snyder Sr. 4-H Club, and supported by some of the other clubs. The Fluvanna Jr. 4-H Club participated with the Snyder Sr. 4-H Club in sending materials to an Indian School in Arizona where an ex-Scurry County 4-H girl, Mary Ellen Ainsworth of Fluvanna Community, is now employed as a teacher. Miss Ainsworth wanted to teach her students some of the skills she learned in 4-H club. These two 4-H clubs are sending material and sewing equipment to help her. Other "good citizen" activities have also been included in the project.

Family Health is the area of work that includes food and nutrition. The Home Demonstration Clubs have been involved in an in-depth study of nutrition for a number of years. In recent years the clubs have studied Vitamin A, the B Vitamins, Vitamin C, and protein. In 1968 the Home Demonstration Clubs studied two minerals, calcium and phosphorus, in detail.

The Home Demonstration Clubs also had two other programs on foods done by leaders who were trained by the agent in how to give demonstrations as well as in the material to be presented.

4-H clubs throughout the county had 4-H units on food. There were 177 girls and 7 boys who completed projects in food. These projects included food preparation, canning and freezing foods, meal planning, food buying and a study of nutrition.

Approximately 35 4-H'ers entered the 4-H food show where each girl selected a food she liked to prepare that provided a complete serving of one of the 4 food groups. She then wrote a day's menus including her food, and planned a table setting for the meal in which her food was included. At the contest, she presents her food and place setting and answers questions about nutrition.

More than 50 4-Hers participated in the 4-H bake contest and bake sale, or exhibited products in the baked foods section of the County Fair.

Two demonstrations have been given in the County Welfare Office for recipients of donated foods: including helps on planning nutritious meals and using the donated foods in more interesting ways.

The agent has done programs on nutrition for 42 boys and girls in the 6th grade in Central Elementary School in Snyder. Studies have repeatedly shown that teenage girls are among the most poorly nourished people in the nation: teaching the importance of good nutrition to preteen youngsters is one method of combatting this problem.

The agent's radio program on KSNY at 1 p.m. each Saturday is another method used to reach more people in Scurry County with nutrition and food buying information.

Extension Service has available much information on consumer competence, an area of increasing importance as the number of things to buy, and the number of choices even for fulfilling ones need is growing constantly.

In clothing, the choices are many and should be influenced by the planned use, things already on hand, the care you plan to give, and other things. In 1968 there were 135 girls enrolled in clothing projects. The projects included use of the sewing machine, clothing construction, selection, care, buying, grooming and, for the approximately 55 who entered dress revue and some others, guidance in modeling, in how to stand, sit, walk, and carry accessories gracefully.

A clothing workshop has been held for people who want to learn to sew. Approximately 16 Negro women, 2 Latin American women and 2 Anglo women have been enrolled in this workshop. The group meets in the County Extension office in 2nd and 4th Monday nights and enrollment is limited by the space and facilities available.

Some members of the group have worked over a fairly long period of time and are now making most of their family's clothing, resulting in better clothing for less money and a considerable saving in money during a year.

Family housing has been an area of special emphasis in the Extension Program in Scurry County in 1968. Two series of meetings were planned, one to be held in the Lamar Jr. High Auditorium and on in Central Elementary Auditorium on buying a home. These series of meetings were not completed but a follow-up will be done in 1969.

Four programs on housing in Home Demonstration Clubs have been done, including the psychological aspects of adequate housing, planning storage for your family's needs, and antiqueing furniture.

Much work is being done on housing in the county. Both new houses and major remodeling jobs are being done in rural Scurry County as well as in Snyder. And many families are refinishing furniture. For the family whose furniture is not in matched suites, antiqueing is a fairly simple and inexpensive way of matching it up to the satisfaction of the owners. In 4-H clubs 24 members completed projects in room improvement. Some of these girls planned a color scheme, selected curtains, bedspreads or the fabric to make them, painted walls and woodwork, refinished furniture, improved storage and selected accessories. Others did only a few of these things.

Family stability is affected by all these other areas of work. No work specifically in the area of family stability was planned for 1968 but accomplishment in the other areas influence the stability of families today and in years to come. Children who grow up well fed, well dressed, and in attractive settings, and who learn how to live and work with others, to accept responsibility and to be concerned for others, are more likely to establish stable homes than children who miss these things.

Auchincloss Effect Is Muddled

A WORLD OF PROFIT. By Louis Auchincloss.

Auchincloss' fictional province is where old society, lawyers and money-makers play out their hollow lives amidst the fashionable accoutrements of modern life.

This time his story is about a light-blue-blood family, reduced in modern times to moderate wealth — and what happens when they get entangled with an upstart climber.

The family, named Shallcross, includes the aging father Eben, an old windbag who had been a lawyer; a gullible son named Martin; an elder daughter of beautiful iciness named Elly, who has made a fashionable but absurd marriage into a wealthy, smart circle; the younger daughter Sophie, a psychotic type who has had a sophomoric attachment to a literary scholar and fool.

The upstart is Jay Livingston (Jewish — he changed his named from Levermore). Jay had made money in real estate, then bought the seedy Shallcross mansion for an apartment development and finally turned his attention to the securities market.

It is a story of selfishness, money greed, snobbery and the sort of moral decadence that does not blink at law-dodging. In the end, the gamble of law-dodging backfires. But meanwhile, Jay has made a cynical pass at Sophie, and then has tried a siege to acquire Elly.

As a writer, Auchincloss is a contemporary affiliate of the Henry James - Edith Whaton school, and he retains that school's stilted, effete prose. His approach was effective in "Rector of Justin" and in "The Embezzler," as a matter of social comment, but in this volume the effect is muddled.

SUNDAY BRUNCH — Serve ham or sausages with country-style apple crisp and lots of "pour" cream. Good!

Country Apple Crisp And Cream

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Some cookbooks are like old friends. You get to know their authors — their likes and dislikes, enthusiasms and idiosyncrasies.

In this special class belongs "The Country Kitchen Cookbook" by Edward Harris Heth (McKay) with an introduction by Euell Gibbons of "Stalking the Wild Asparagus" fame.

The late Edward Heth originally wrote his book under the title of "The Wonderful World of Cooking" in 1956. We're glad it was reissued this year — and if you get to know the book, we think you will be too. The new title, "The Country Kitchen Cookbook," is most appropriate because the recipes in the book really do come from a country kitchen, and the book is full of anecdotes about country living in Southern Wisconsin. Euell Gibbons says "You needn't live in a country house on a hill to share Edward Harris Heth's joy in the changing seasons and his perfect understanding of the context of a meal as well as its content."

Among the delicious recipes in the book is one that a New York friend brought to our attention. She likes to entertain at noon on Sunday and she told us that Mr. Heth had a marvelous breakfast suggestion — Apple Crisp and Cream with ham or country sausages. When we tried the idea at our own house, all our tasters agreed.

EDWARD HARRIS HETH'S APPLE CRISP AND CREAM

Pare half a dozen tart, firm apples and cut each into 8 parts, removing core and seeds. Place the segments closely together in a buttered 8-by12-inch pan. Mix together 2 tablespoons granulated sugar and ¼ teaspoon cinnamon and sprinkle this over the apples. Now mix 1 cup flour with ¼ cup brown sugar, and rub into it with the fingertips ½ cup butter until it is a crumbly consistency. Spread this over the apples and pat firm. Bake in 450 degree oven for ½ hour or until the apples are tender. Eaten warm, either plain or with heavy cream, this is perfect with ham or sausages for breakfast. With hard sauce or sweetened whipped cream it becomes dessert.

A message to those Americans who don't happen to think the land of milk and honey is going all sour.

Our country is in a strange mood these days.

Uncertainty surrounds us.

So what can you do about it?

Well, first of all, maybe you should take a long, hard look at this country of ours. Maybe we should look at our healthy side as well as our ills.

And maybe, just maybe, you'll find we're not all that bad.

Sure we have our problems. And they're not going to go away if you just stand along the sidelines as a spectator.

But they might start to go away if you seriously want to do something for your country.

A U.S. Savings Bond is one way. Let's say you fork over $18.75 of your hard-earned cash. Through a Payroll Savings Plan where you work, or at your bank. That will give you a Bond that's worth $25.00 in just 7 years. If you did that every month you'd stash away quite a nest egg for yourself.

If they're lost, stolen, or destroyed, we replace 'em.

And so would your country.

Your country would be economically stronger to find remedies for some of the headaches we have. While it's preserving something called freedom.

Something that's hard to appreciate. Until you lose it.

Savings Bonds now have a new high interest rate of 4¼%. And buying them gives you the privilege of also buying the even higher interest 5% Freedom Shares in combination.

However you look at it, it simply makes a lot of sense to invest in your country.

After all, it's the only country you've got.

STRANGE BEDFELLOWS!

Few Financial Reports Tell Value Of Human Resources

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Corporate financial reports often detail precisely the value of financial and physical assets, but seldom if ever do they even attempt to assess the worth of a company's human resources.

Because of this, a tiny minority of business professors and accountants are beginning to insist that the net income statements of corporations not only are inadequate but may be misleading.

Dr. R. Lee Brummet, a certified public accountant and a professor at the University of Michigan, and now deeply involved in research on the problem, states it this way:

"High sales and profits can exist for a period during which there is an exodus of key people or when morale is deteriorating or when the organization may be going downhill in other ways."

The opposite effect can be hidden too. A company's executives may be spending, investing and building for the future and, because this is not measured statistically, be unable to prove it until many years later.

As an accountant, Brummet says, "I believe we cannot justify continuing to ignore so vital a matter as human resources and refuse to try to say whether they increase or decrease in value."

These resources include the value of a firm's human organization, the education and abilities and morale of employes, customer, shareholder and supplier loyalty, reputation in the financial and neighborhood communities.

The goal is to devise accounting tools to measures such assets.

Brummet concedes that a solution isn't coming in the next few years but maintains that a measurement of human resources will be generally accepted by accountants 10 or 20 years from now.

The research now under way, with the on-the-job cooperation of R.G. Barry Corp. of Columbus, Ohio, and a few other companies, seeks to place human resources under measurement techniques similar to those used to survey and record physical and financial resources.

"The problem," says Brummet, "is the extent to which we can succeed in getting reliable measures, because human resources have never been assessed in dollar terms."

A Junior Editors Quiz About LIES

QUESTION: Do lies hurt us, and if so, where?

* * *

ANSWER: Telling a lie may not cause you to break out in bright red spots; but it may very well cause you to be very much ashamed of yourself; it is going to hurt you, if not in a physical way. As you think about it, it will tend to lower yourself in your own eyes. You'll say to yourself, "So I'm Bill McCarthy, that little sneak who deserves a kick in the pants." How could anybody be happy thinking of himself like that? Just exactly where you're going to feel this sense of shame is not so easy to say. In our picture, this sinking sensation hits Bill first in his head, as he thinks about having told a lie. Then the feeling sinks down and socks him in the pit of the stomach.

None of us are perfect, so we all know more or less how Bill feels. Is there anything he can do to cure his illness? You bet there is — go to the teacher and tell the whole story, the real truth. What will the teacher do? It doesn't matter. Bill will have gotten back his self respect — he will like himself once more — he will feel strong and clean. In the old phrase he will have made a "clean breast of it."

What Can Men Admire About Ladies?

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Do men dislike women?

Many women feel they do.

"I know my husband loves me, because he voluntarily told me so himself once—20 years ago," said one wife. "But I have always wondered if he really liked me, too. I don't feel that most men actually are fond of women or enjoy their company.

"There must be something about us they resent. Perhaps it's a biological resentment, the fact that we are able to bear children and they can't."

Oh, dear no, lady. How wrong can the feminine intuition be? Men have enough trouble putting up with children after they are born; they have no hidden desire to bear them. This race-perpetuating chore they are happy enough to leave to womankind.

While men have no desire to be women and often distrust them in general, there are many things they secretly respect and admire about women—or even envy. They just rarely express them aloud.

What is it that men admire about their wives—or even about most Women?

Well, there are several qualities. Such as:

Man admires woman because she is generally less fickle and more steadfast in loyalty than he is.

Man admires woman because, while she is more vocal about petty annoyances, she usually can bear the great disasters and continuing ordeals of life with a silent unflinching courage that puts to shame his own yowls of self-pity about fate.

Man admires woman because she can find more happiness and excitement in small things than he can—a bit of chatty gossip, trading menus over the telephone, buying a new hat, the presence of fresh flowers in a living room vase, the soft glow of candlelight at dinner, even through the meal be warmed-over hash. What he grunts at, she exclaims over, for she has the great gift of brightening her world with tidbits of pleasure.

Man admires woman because of her endless quest for perfection. If there is to be a better or more gracious world, it will be her doing, not his. He is often willing to compromise and accept the second rate. She never is.

A woman, rich or poor, always has the desire to go through this world first class. If a thing isn't right, she tries to put it right.

Finally, man admires woman because, like Mt. Everest, she is there—ever inviting, ever challenging him to prove himself.

Why then, if men do admire women so much, don't they tell them so more often? The answer lies in simple male psychology.

If a man too often told a woman of his respect for her feminine strengths, it would seem to him like he'd be confessing his own masculine weaknesses. And what guy likes to do that?

Graham Is Sympathetic

CHICAGO (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham said Thursday he was sympathetic to some of the issues raised by dissatisfied students.

"They are asking, 'What is the purpose of my existence . . .' and a lot of it makes sense to me," he said.

Graham addressed the 25th anniversary celebration of Youth for Christ International.

Graham was the group's first fulltime preacher when the evangelistic organization for teen-agers was founded in Chicago in 1944.

He told the gathering that today's "young people are an untapped resource spiritually," and said that what the hippies seek is "an experience with God."

The evangelist charged that society has "created a great void and vacuum in American education," but expressed hope that "the pendulum is beginning to swing back."

In an earlier session of the group's mid-winter convention, three offices of the organization were re-elected. They are Samutl Wolgemuth, of Wheaton, Ill., president; Jarrell McCracken, of Waco, Tex.; vice president; and Jack Daniel, of Carol Stream, Ill., secretary. Charles Jones, of Harrisburg, Pa., was elected treasurer.

Rusty Happy About Trade

HOUSTON (AP) — Rusty Staub says he is very happy to be on the Montreal baseball club.

Staub, leading hitter for the Houston Astros, was traded this week to the new National League expansion club for outfielder Jesus Alou and first baseman Donn Clendenon.

Staub, who plays both first base and right field, was one of Houston's first big bonus players in 1961. He hit .291 last year and .333 in 1967.

"I had a pretty good idea I was going to be traded," he said at a Thursday news conference.

"I know the people I am going to be under and am willing and eager to play for their ball club,' he added. "I know there will be trials (with an expansion ball club). But with the people and the knowledge they have, maybe the trials won't be so bad."

Staub has had some problems with the Astros management, mostly about money. He held out a while last season before signing his contract which is believed to have put him in the $47,000 pay class.

Tiger, Wolf Affray Could Go Either Way

Another thrilling District 3-AAA basketball game is on tap tonight in the Scurry County Coliseum with Snyder's Tigers hosting Colorado City. Tipoff is set for 8 p.m. after the "B" contest that begins at 6:15 p.m.

Both teams sport 2-1 records in district. For the season, Snyder is 14-6 and Colorado City is 12-7. The Tigers have scored 195 points in the three loop affrays while giving up the same number to the opposition. The Wolves have tallied 171 while allowing 161.

Each team has met two common foes. Lamesa defeated Snyder 71-57 and clipped Colorado City 56-39. The Wolves shaded Sweetwater 65-60 while the Tigers thumped the same foe 73-65.

Coach Ned Underwood's Tigers, Brownfield's Cubs and Colorado City's Wolves all are tied for runnerup in the South Zone of District 3-AAA behind Lamesa. The Tors are 3-0, and they visit Brownfield tonight. So the four top teams will be striving to gain headway in the district race. The top two in each zone will meet in a district tournament.

Both Snyder and Colorado City will start three seniors. Jodi Williamson (5-8), Benny Ward (6-1) and Jerry January (6-1) are the upperclassmen for the Tigers. For Colorado City, the three seniors are Lyneal James (6-3), Randy Parker (6-3) and Johnny Matthews (6-2).

The other two starters for each team are juniors. Lee McNair, a 5-10 guard, and Jim Patrick, 6-2 center, will appear for Snyder while Robert Bender, 5-10 guard, and Willie Hopkins, 6-0 guard, will draw starting assignments for the Wolves. Bender was a regular last season along with James and Parker.

With senior Randy Rushing (6-2), juniors Wesley Bishop (6-0), Dennis Wolfe (6-3) and Dennis Carlton (6-3) and sophomore Bruce Almond (6-1), the Tigers have more expert depth than the Wolves. Bill Hood, a senior guard, probably will miss the action due to an ankle sprain. But the Wolves may have a slight edge in first team strength.

James, who plays center for Caddo Matthews' crew, is one of the top shooters in 3-AAA. The Tigers also know something about shooting. They started out strong this season, hitting 46 percent of their shots from the field. But their accuracy has been a little off since district play started. They are hitting at 40 per cent accuracy in district, which still is a respectable average. However, their foes have had uncanny luck, dunking in 46 per cent from the field in the three district games while the non-district opponents hit on only 38 per cent.

Four of tonight's starters for the Tigers are averaging more than 10 points per tilt in district play, led by Benny Ward with 18 points per game. January has slightly over 11 on the average while McNair and Williamson each are exactly 11 per outing.

Tonight's affray could develop into quite a shooting match if both teams are "on." It looks like a tossup. But if both teams are hitting at about the same clip, we expect the Tigers will win. They maintain their poise well under pressure, and they make few mistakes.

Coach Jerry McLeod listed probable starters for the Junior Varsity as follows: Glenn Rambin, Ronald Ward, Bid Cooper and Danny Farmer or Tony Breedlove.

Tickets can be purchased at the Coliseum at the rate of $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

SWC, Foes Are Even

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Southwest Conference split even in non-conference play Thursday night to push its mark against outside basketball foes to a respectable 39-32.

Baylor won its 10th game against two losses with a 103-57 spanking of Tarleton State while Rice took a 75-56 whipping from Georgia Tech.

The only game involving a SWC team tonight is at Fayetteville where Arkansas hosts Oklahoma City.

Baylor connected on a sizzling 56.3 per cent of its shots in defeating Tarleton State. Larry Gatewood, third leading season scorer in the SWC, played little more than a half but garnered 17 points. Tommy Bowman and Tom Freidman each had 15.

Steve Dean scored 25 points for the losing Plowboys of the Lone Star Conference.

Georgia Tech's stout man-to-man defense limited Rice to but 29 field goal attempts in the first half as Tech romped to a 35-23 lead. Rich Yunkus sank 25 points and grabbed 17 rebounds as Tech shot 47 per cent from the floor.

Little fiesty guard Greg Williams topped the Owls with 24 points. Rice is now 5-8 for the year.

Mavs Are In Trouble

HOUSTON (AP) — Although new owners of the Houston Mavericks of the American Basketball Association have said the team will be moved, ABA Commissioner George Mikan indicates it might remain in this city if attendance picks up.

A group of North Carolina businessmen, headed by Jim Garner, recently purchased the Mavericks' franchise. They announced last week the team will be moved, completely revamped and a new coach named to replace Jim Weaver.

"I just can't believe the fans in Houston won't support professional basketball,' Mikan said at a news conference Thursday.

"But we are willing to give it one more try. The votes will be counted between now and the end of the season. These men from North Carolina are sincere in their wish to keep the team here in Houston. We just hope the people of Houston feel they want to keep the team and want to support it."

White, Gray Win 7th Grade Tilts

Travis White whipped Travis Blue 50-35 and Lamar Gray nudged Lamar Red 33-30 in two 7th grade basketball contests held here yesterday.

The White took a 16-5 lead in the first period, but the Blue shaved the margin to 20-26 at halftime. Both teams scored seven points in the third period, but the White pulled away with a 17-point burst in the last stanza while holding the Blue to eight points.

Mickey Gonzalez and Widgeon Emerson sparked the White attack with 15 and 11 points respectively. Aaron Hartsfield led Blue scorers with 13 points.

The Gray - Red affray was close all the way. The Red led 7-5 after one period, but the Gray put together two fine performances in the middle two periods to lead, 26-19 going into the final period. The Red tied it up with less than a minute to play, but the Gray closed out strong to hold onto its lead.

Richard Gorman tallied 10 points for the Gray, and nine of his teammates contributed to the scoring. Jimmy Price also had 10 points for the Red.

TRAVIS WHITE (50) — Emerson 4-3-11; Miller 2-0-4; Brazziel 2-0-4; Gonzalz 7-1-15 Robinson 1-0-2; Watts 2-0-4; Harless 1-0-2; Mosier 3-2-8; totals 22-6-50.

New Reb Line Coach

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Charlie Lyles, head coach at Lancaster High School, has been named defensive line coach at the University of Texas at Arlington, it was announced Thursday.

Lyles replaced Charlie Qualls who resigned to return to the new North Mesquite High School.

JOE NAMATH STILL TALKS RETIREMENT

NEW YORK (AP) — Only Joe Namath could top Joe Namath when it comes to startling the pro football world, and Broadway Joe has in mind quite an encore for his Super Bowl triumph with the New York Jets.

Namath, pro football's golden boy at the tender age of 25, is talking about retiring. Don't laugh. Remember Sandy Koufax and Jimmy Brown?

Although he is the sport's No. 1 star with a bushel full of money and maybe more Super Bowls ahead of him, he listed some pretty good reasons for getting out now, while he still is on top.

"The legs are the main problem," he said, reffirming a simple off-hand comment Wednesday that he is considering the possibility of retiring.

And there have been several very attractive business and entertainment offers that followed his direction of the Jets to their stunning Super Bowl upset over the Baltimore Colts that made him the most attractive personality in sports.

Namath's retiring thoughts put a damper on any celebration Weeb Ewbank might have considered after signing a new contract earlier Thursday as coach and general manager of the Jets. There had been some speculation that the 61-year-old mentor might give up the coaching reigns, but that would have been nothing compared to any idea that Namath might retire.

Brown, Cleveland's great running back, shocked the sports world by retiring before the 1966 season for a movie career. Koufax, baseball's superstar, after pitching Los Angeles to the pennant in 1966, retired because of a painful elbow ailment.

"You have to make it while you're on top before you get destroyed," said Namath, who has been bothered by knee trouble in both legs since his college days at Alabama. He has undergone three operations on them and still plays in pain.

Gets Bonehead Prize

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Telephones jangled and there were the inevitable telegrams. Some folks even had the audacity to storm into his hospital room.

Such was the life for super oddsmaker Jimmy "The Greek" Snyder of Las Vegas after the New York Jets had whipped Baltimore 16-7 in the Super Bowl.

Snyder, who picked Baltimore of the National Football League by a whopping 17 points in his sports newsletter, has survived shot and shell with good grace.

"I'd do things differently if I had to do it over again," he smiles. "I'd make Baltimore 14 point favorites this time."

He had a ready explanation for the humbling defeat of the Colts by the American Football League champions.

"It was a combination of things. Baltimore didn't have the adrenalin flowing. Their quarterback also developed a lump in the throat. The Colts played well below par. New York played about like it usually does."

Snyder is in Dallas to receive the "Bonehead of the Year" award from the Dallas Bonehead Club for his pick of Baltimore. The Boneheads annually pick what they consider the biggest goof in the sporting world for an award of a large silver trophy topped by a nut.

"I certainly am receiving a lot of publicity out of the one I missed," Snyder laughed. "I guess nobody will remember I picked Nixon in the Presidential race."

The undaunted Snyder—just out of the hospital following an operation—said he even had people stomp into his hospital room, asking an explanation of what happened.

"I told them I had a 76 per cent batting average for the year and so what's wrong with that?" Snyder said.

Actually, Snyder had picked the Dallas Cowboys and the Jets to meet in the Super Bowl at Miami.

The two teams meet in Dallas in an exhibition game Sept. 6.

"I figure it will be the Cowboys by 12," said Snyder, coming out with an early line. "But I'll tell you what's wrong with the Cowboys. They've got to start developing some togetherness. That's their biggest problem."

Snyder's main avocation is public relations work. One of his accounts is billionaire Howard Hughes who hasn't been seen in public in 15 years.

"Have you ever seen Hughes?" Snyder was asked.

"No I have never seen nor spoke to him," Snyder replied.

"What are the odds on you ever getting to do either one?"

He just laughed and shook his head.

The New York Jets and Howard Hughes are still the big mysteries in Jimmy "The Greek" Snyder's life.

Cards, Panthers Split Two Games

HOBBS — The host Panthers split a couple of District 10-B basketball contests with Hermleigh's Cardinals here last night. The Hobbs girls won 42-35, but the boys lost 61-52.

The Hermleigh boys built a 20-11 lead in the opening period. As it happened, they needed the early cushion since the last three frames were fought on even terms.

Ronnie Helm and Tom Chorn again were the sparkplugs of the Cardinals, getting 24 and 21 points respectively. For Hobbs, Donnie Hale, Randy Williams and Lorin Pearce all hit in twin figures. Hale pushed in 15 points while Lorin and Randy each meshed 10.

Trailing four points going into the final period, the Hobbs girls rallied with 16 points while holding Hermleigh to five to turn the tide in their favor.

Doris Medrano ripped the cords for 16 points for the Panthers while Breanda Hull contributed 14 and Linda Martin added 10. For Hermleigh, Susan Peterson was the scoring leader with 16 points.

Hermleigh will host Highland next Tuesday.

HERMLEIGH GIRLS (35) — Adams 3-0-6; Pieper 2-3-7; Peterson 5-6-16; Wall 2-1-5; Adams 0-1-1; totals 12-11-35.

HOBBS GIRLS (42) — Hull 4-6-14; D. Medrano 6-4-16; Martin 5-0-10; R. Medrano 2-1-2; totals 15-10-42.

HERMLEIGH BOYS (61) — Chorn 8-5-21; Helm 12-0-24; Hess 2-2-6; Richburg 2-1-5; Ward 1-0-2; Roemisch 1-1-3; totals 26-9-61.

HOBBS BOYS (52) — Pearce 5-0-10; Williams 4-2-10; Gee 1-2-4; Hull 2-5-9; Hale 7-1-15; Dooley 2-0-4; totals 21-10-52.

Drake Gains On Tulsa

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Drake is still hot on the heels of Missouri Valley Conference basketball leader Tulsa, thanks to Willie Wise and some rugged rebounding power, but the going starts getting tougher for the Bulldogs.

Wise powered a second-half surge that carried Drake to a 93-76 victory over Bradley Thursday night at Des Moines. That gave the Bulldogs a 5-1 conference record, one game behind Tulsa's perfect 6-0 mark.

It was the only game involving Missouri Valley teams, but the action picks up considerably Saturday when Drake invades Louisville (4-2) in a regionally televised afternoon game, and North Texas State (3-2) is at Wichita (1-4), Bradley (2-3) at St. Louis (2-4) and Memphis State (0-6) at Cincinnati (2-3) at Night.

Tulsa goes to Southern Illinois for a non-conference test.

That Drake visit to Louisville could be the undoing of the Bulldogs. Louisville has not lost at home this season. If the Cardinals upset the Bulldogs, Tulsa will hold a two-game lead over the field in the all-important loss column.

Wise finished with 25 points for Drake Thursday night, notching the first 10 the Bulldogs got at the start of the second half as they were widening a 40-34 halftime buldge.

Drake could hit only 30 per cent of its shots in the first half but a 39-17 rebounding advantage the opening 20 minutes kept Bradley from doing anything about it.

Storm-Stricken Area Digging Out

By JAMES H. DOWNEY
sAsociated Press Writer

HAZLEHURST, Miss. (AP) — Massive clean-up operations began today in central Mississippi where tornadoes killed 29 persons as they carved a path of destruction across three counties.

The twisters, roaring in from the west Thursday morning, injured more than 150 persons and left approximately 300 homeless. Damage was estimated in the millions.

The first area struck was a predominantly Negro settlement just outside south Hazlehurst in Copiah County. The tornadoes then moved northeastward into rural areas of Simpson and Smith counties about 30 miles later.

Utility crews worked into the night Thursday to restore most of the electrical and telephone service.

The Hazlehurst hospital alone treated 128 persons. Many others were taken to hospitals in Jackson and Brookhaven.

About 200 homeless persons spent the night at an amergency center set up at the National Guard armory in Hazelhurst.

Governmental and private agencies quickly moved into the area to care for the hungry and the homeless.

"We are ready to feed, clothe and shelter all of them," said George Sheffield, central Mississippi Red Cross disaster chairman.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture in Atlanta and the state Welfare Department in Jackson volunteered to provide food where needed. Gov. John Bell Williams, on a tour of the stricken area, pledged state aid.

Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., announced in Washington the Small Business Administration would make three per cent loans available to business and residential areas. Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., urged the government to declare the region a federal disaster area.

Survivors said an overwhelming roar and ominous darkness proceded the tornado.

"It sounded like a train to me," said Lonnie Haynie. "When the lights went off we got on the floor and I got on top of my youngest child. The house was flattened over us."

"I knew what it was when I heard it," his wife Vera said. "Then the roof came down around us. When I opened my eyes I saw it was going up the hill. I was afraid it was coming down and I made my children stay down. It looked just like they show them on TV."

Nothing remained of the house of Jack Smith, a laundry employe, but the brick pillars. Mrs. Smiths body was found 100 yards away in a pasture.

Gladys Perkins of South Hazlehurst was standing in the ruins of her home when officers told her that her injured son had been reported dead in a Jackson hospital.

"Oh, Lord! Oh Lord! My child is gone!" she screamed. "Oh Lord! Oh Lord! Have mercy!"

She fell to the ground. Neighbors took her to the armory for treatment of her wounds and to be given food and shelter.

Weekend Revival At Avenue D Church

The Avenue D Baptist Church will conduct a weekend revival beginning tonight at 7 o'clock.

The lay speaker will be Carl Guinn. On Sunday, Grover Harris will speak at the morning worship service and Virgil Streety at the evening service. The public is invited to all services.
