Ceremonies tonight...

WTC to graduate 145

One hundred and forty five students will be awarded associate degrees in commencement exercises Friday night at Western Texas College.

During the traditional outdoor ceremony in the WTC central courtyard, an additional 20 students will receive certificates of technology for completion of the cosmetology program.

Commencement will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Guest speaker for the WTC exercises will be Dr. Joe B. Rushing, chancellor of the Tarrant County Junior College District.

A native of Brown and Comanche Counties, he holds the bachelor of arts degree from Howard Payne University, the master of arts degree from East Texas State University and the Ph.D. from the University of Texas.

He began his teaching career in the mid-40s as a public school teacher and principal. In addition, he has held administrative posts at Wharton County Junior College, Howard Payne University, Broward Community College in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. and, in 1965, was named the founding president of Tarrant County Junior College District.

Rushing is to be introduced by Dr. Don Newbury, WTC president. Candidates for degrees will be presented by Dr. Harry Krenek, dean of instruction; and degrees and certificates will be awarded by Dr. Ben Brock, executive vice president.

W.A. (Bill) Jones, president of the board of trustees, will offer the welcome followed by the invocation from Rev. Robert Metzger, pastor of the First United Methodist Church.

Special music will be offered by Jane Womack, assistant professor of music; and the benediction will be given by Rev. Kendall Coffey, minister of the First Christian Church.

Regarding Snyder residents, some 41 will receive associate degrees plus nine to receive their certificates of technology in cosmetology.

Snyder students who will receive the associate in arts degree will be Maria Aguirre, Cyndra Banta, Charles Bethel, Patricia Blakely, Nixie Brewster, Leah Daves, James Dennis, Connie Essery, Cynthia Felan, Keith Hatfield, Jon Goodwin, Joan Holder, Judy Irwin, Cecile Kerley, Randall Martin, David Martinez, James McCaleb, Max McGuire, Rosario Peralez, Francoise Pointeau, John Michael Stephens, Nona Sutton, Mandy Turnbo and Gwendolyn Dawn Waller.

Ask Us

Q. — What happens if the Western Texas College graduation ceremony is rained out tonight?

A. — The fallback plan calls for commencement exercises to be divided and moved indoors. Graduates receiving an associate in arts degree will go to the Fine Arts Theatre. Those receiving an associate in applied science and cosmetology certification will go to the science lecture hall.

Jr. high festival Saturday

An estimated 1,300 junior high school-age band students from 27 area schools are to be in Snyder Saturday for the fourth annual Snyder Band Festival.

These numbers will comprise the largest festival ever scheduled in the four-year history of the event, some eight schools larger than the one conducted here last spring.

Bands to be represented range from Class A to Class AAAAA in size with concert performances slated in Worsham Auditorium "back-to-back" from 8 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. Saturday.

Each performance will have a 20-minute time limit. Other competitions scheduled include sightreading and solo and ensemble with locations throughout the high school to be used.

The only full band from Snyder to perform will be the seventh grade band, set for a 1 p.m. performance.

In the solo and ensemble contests, some 1,000 entries are expected.

Judges for the concert performances will be Tommy Fry of McMurry College in Abilene and Fred Hardin of Lubbock Monterey High School.

For the sightreading contest, the judge will be Warren Thaxton of Abilene High School.

In the solo and ensemble events, judges will include Brent Hardegree, WTC music director; Becky Hardegree and Chrystal Franklin of Snyder; Anna Whitlock, Andy Sealy, Cathy and Gary Lewis, all of the Texas Tech music department; Jim Harvey of Andrews Middle School; Jamie Shipp of Colorado City High School; and Byron Morgan, Idalou High School.

Proclamation today honors one-act

Friday has been declared "One-Act Play Day" in Snyder to honor the Class AAAA state championship production of "Romeo and Juliet."

Mayor Pro-Tem Truett Bryan met with Jerry Worsham, SHS theatre instructor, and student cast members of the play Wednesday to designate the special day.

The principal event Friday will be the first of three hometown performances of the award winning show at 8 p.m. in Worsham Auditorium at SHS.

In addition to Friday's offering, performances of the 40-minute version of the classic are scheduled for both Saturday and Monday.

Admission for each show will be $3 for adults (junior high age and older) and $2 for elementary students.

Friday's declaration is to recognize the SHS theatre program for winning the school's 10th state championship in UIL one-act play competition and bringing state and national attention to Snyder.

Specific achievements during the past 17 years cited in the proclamation include winning more state titles than any other school in the history of the University Interscholastic League as well as giving many students the opportunity to learn through "cooperation, group effort and competition."

The city also cites the program for providing consistent high quality theatre for Snyder audiences as well as representing Snyder in performances in New Orleans, New York, Chicago and San Francisco.

Over the past 15 years, student actors at SHS have captured 75 individual acting awards at the annual state contests. The 1985 cast and crew set a school record by winning 30 individual awards enroute to the milestone 10th state championhip.

Term revoked

A Snyder man now faces a five-year term in the Texas Department of Corrections after having a previously granted probationary term revoked this week in 132nd District Court.

Probation officers sought revocation of the term granted Tommy Ray Hull in December, 1984 due to an arrest for driving while intoxicated in April of this year.

Hull had originally been given the probated term in exchange for a guilty plea to a charge of burglary with intent to commit theft brought against him in November, 1984.

Walk-a-thon

The second annual SCOOP walk-a-thon will be held from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday beginning at the Trinity United Methodist Church parking lot.

The planned route is five miles long and proceeds will benefit Friendship Home, a local home for abused and/or neglected teenage girls.

The walk-a-thon is divided into two age groups: under 12 and 12 and over.

The grand prize of both age groups will be a black and white portable television donated by TG&Y.

Weather

Snyder Temperatures: High Thursday, 87 degrees; low, 48 degrees; reading at 7 a.m. Friday, 65 degrees; no precipitation; total precipitation for 1985 to date, 9.34 inches.

Snyder area forecast: [illegible] a 20 percent chance of thunderstorms mainly during the evening. Lows near 70. Wind south 5 to 15 mph. Saturday decreasing cloudiness, but very warm again. Highs mid 90s. Wind south 10 to 20 mph.

Drug-related charges filed following search

Three local men were jailed in connection with possession of a controlled substance charges after police here executed a search warrant at a south Snyder apartment Thursday night.

According to District Attorney Ernie Armstrong, the evidence against the trio seized at the time of the arrest includes a quantity of marijuana and another substance thought to be an illegal drug.

As of Friday morning, this material had been sent to the Department of Public Safety Lab for confirmation of its makeup.

The amount of marijuana seized was thought to be a misdemeanor amount

Suspects now charged are Faustino Galvan, age 23; Jesus Costillo, Jr., age 28; and Barry Don Farquahar, age 23.

Farquahar lists his address as 206 33rd St. while both Galvan and Costillo list 4503 College Ave., Apt. 3.

The three were jailed at 12:25 a.m. Friday after investigators executed the warrant on the Galvan-Costillo residence.

By noon Friday, Galvan and Farquahar had been released from custody after posting bonds of $1,500 each.

Costillo remained in custody but was expected to post a $1,500 bond later in the day.

Anti-gun control...

Bill wins tentative approval

AUSTIN (AP) — A self-proclaimed law-and-order senator has won tentative approval of a bill that would "make clear" that the Legislature, and not local communities, should determine whether Texans can own guns.

Sen. J.E. "Buster" Brown said his bill was filed as a result of what "has happened in other states, where cities have passed ordinances that prohibit ownership of guns."

"I think that's contrary to the Texas attitude," Brown told reporters Thursday. "This bill would make sure that if that's ever going to happen in Texas, it would have to happen right here in the Legislature."

Brown's proposal was tentatively approved 20-11 but senators balked at final passage Thursday.

Brown, R-Lake Jackson, said "several senators indicated they would vote for final passage but wanted to look at it again" before sending the measure to the House.

Senators questioned whether Brown's bill would override zoning ordinances and would leave cities at the mercy of rioters, and several amendments were added.

One by Sen. Hugh Parmer, D-Fort Worth, spells out that cities can regulate "possession and use" of guns in emergencies "to protect the public safety."

Parmer mentioned "riots, insurrections, teen-age gang violence, racial violence," and added, "I don't want to take away any city's ability to regulate emergencies."

"We're putting police and public safety officers in even graver danger during riots or social upheaval" without a provision to control guns in emergencies, Parmer said.

An amendment by Sen. Bob McFarland, R-Arlington, would authorize cities to prohibit the discharge of firearms within city limits and would regulate "the use of property under its zoning authority."

Yet another amendment, by Sen. Bob Glasgow, D-Stephenville, deleted a provision that any municipal ordinance now in effect that conflicts with the bill would be void.

Without his amendment, Glasgow said, if some "right-wing crazy" was locked up for shooting dogs, "the case would be gone."

"I want cities to have the authority to regulate who shoots guns in residential areas," said Glasgow.

A motion to table Glasgow's amendment failed 15-16, and the amendment was approved 18-13.

Brown said he knew of no Texas city ordinance banning the ownership of guns, but members of sportsmen's clubs had testified "they had heard councils discuss the possibility of doing it."

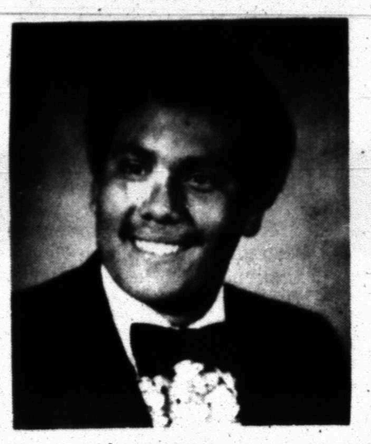

Brown was asked at an impromptu news conference: "A city could not pass an ordinance telling you to come down and register your weapon unless the Legislature acted?"

"That's correct," he replied.

"We only hit directly upon that subject that if a city passed an ordinance that said no one in this town can own a gun, that would be invalid," he said.

Hermleigh names two top students

Honor students have been named at Hermeigh High School. They are valedictorian Carrie Turner Dunnam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Turner, and salutatorian Marcos Fuentes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Fuentes, Sr.

Dunnam was in journalism two years; annual staff three years; one-act play honorable mention one year; class secretary her sophomore and junior years; senior class treasurer.

Fuentes participated in football, two years; basketball four years; basketball hero his senior year; golf one year; FFA, four years; FFA president his senior year; drama club one year; one-act play crew two years; annual staff, one year; Mr. HHS senior year; class favorite senior year; senior class vice-president.

Senior Citizens Center to purchase phone system

A new telephone system for the Senior Citizens Center was approved at the Wednesday meeting of the center's advisory council.

The system will cost $3,077 and is expected to pay for itself in about three to four years from fees presently paid for leased equipment. The money for the system will come from memorial gifts, which are reserved for adding tangible equipment for the center.

Proceeds from Saturday's May Day fund raiser totaled $28,743, Gloria Shaw, center director, reported. This is an increase of $1,291 over the 1984 May Day.

"We are thrilled with the success of May Day and with the support we continue to receive from our community," Mrs. Shaw told the council members.

Mrs. Shaw reported on the Conference on Aging she recently attended in Dallas. Trends in needs of older Americans were discussed in one session and she told the council members about some of these predictions. Next year's conference will be held in Odessa, she added, and she urged that council members plan to attend.

Your Birthday

May 11, 1985

An ambitious objective that you have been secretly harboring has an excellent chance of being realized in the year ahead. Don't give up your dreams under any condition.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Today your pride and ego may be extremely vulnerable. Make it a point not to take yourself too seriously. Are you going with the right person who can make you happy? The Matchmaker wheel can help you answer the question. Send $2 to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) There's a chance that the frustrations you encounter today will be of your own making. Think your moves through so that you aren't painted into a corner.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) An influential contact who is usually rather helpful will resent being imposed upon today. Try not to burden others with your demands.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Strive to be flexible when dealing with others today. If you take an unyielding position, you may cross swords with someone more stubborn than yourself.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Guard against tendencies today to make undesirable tasks even more unpleasant than they need be. There's no reason to punish yourself.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Usually you're not a demanding or possessive person, but today you might step out of character and create incidents that can be avoided.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) If there are domestic rumbles at home today, do not involve outsiders. You could put a pal in an embarrassing position where he has to take sides.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Be extremely tactful when dealing with coworkers today. If you come on as too strong or bossy, it may provoke something unpleasant.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Usually you're very adept at getting proper mileage out of the dollars you spend, but today could be an exception where you deflate your own purchasing power.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Matters that you and your mate disagree on should not be aired in the presence of others today. Each could look bad by saying things he shouldn't.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) A positive attitude is imperative today. If your outlook is negative, it will lead you to take a course of action that will produce undesirable results.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) This is one of those days where friends could make unreasonable demands on you. Be careful that you don't impulsively get yourself into something expensive.

Dr. Gott

Peter Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT — My 30-year-old son, never married, is gay. I only found out this past week. Is there any help for him to go straight?

DEAR READER — Few issues seem to upset parents more than the sexual preferences of their children. I am sure that you felt devastated when you learned your son is homosexual. I am equally certain that you cannot appreciate the turmoil he has experienced for years. Perhaps since he no longer has to deceive you, your love for each other will have a chance to grow.

Some gay people honestly want to change their sexual orientations and become straight. In such cases, psychological treatment can be useful. However, many homosexuals believe they were born gay and wish to maintain their particular lifestyles, despite the very real health risks of some sex relations. I believe your wish for your son's heterosexuality will have very little influence on him.

Rather than blaming him and increasing his feelings of isolation, you will probably achieve greater happiness by accepting him. After all, he is your son and needs your love and approval no less because he is gay. At 30, he has to make his own choices and must accept responsibility for them. In the final analysis, none of us has the power to change other people; we can only change ourselves.

I advise you to open lines of communication with your son, accept him as a whole person and try to be nonjudgmental. It's OK for you to disapprove of his actions; however, if you deprecate him as a person, you will build artificial walls in the place of compassion, understanding and warmth.

DEAR DR. GOTT — My husband, 75, has a heart condition, and is on quite a bit of medication — Lasix, Lanoxin, Slow-K, Nitro-Bid patch, Desyrl and Ecotrin. At times he has a severe back pain between the shoulderblades and takes a Tylenol with codeine, which helps. Now all of a sudden he has shingles.

DEAR READER — Shingles, medically known as herpes zoster, is a virus infection of the nerves of sensation. The virus particles cause painful blistering of the skin that overlays the sequential distribution of the nerves.

Although shingles is common in healthy individuals, it can reflect serious underlying conditions like cancer or an immune deficiency. Your doctor would be the best judge of what further testing your husband might require.

Shingles is not ordinarily related to the types of medicines your husband is taking, nor did he "do" anything to bring on the infection.

Cortisone pills are often effective in reducing the severe neuralgia (nerve pain) that may accompany shingles and persist for months after the rash has cleared. One word of caution: Where shingles involves parts of the face near the eyes, patients should obtain immediate consultation with an eye specialist. The herpes virus may cause severe corneal damage if the eye is not treated promptly.

Uncomplicated shingles usually lasts two to three weeks. During that time it can be contagious for infants. Ordinarily, the infection will not recur.

DEAR DR. GOTT — I have rheumatoid arthritis and have taken gold shots once a month since 1982. I'm much better, but my tongue tends to feel as if I've drunk something too hot. It stays a bit irritated toward the tip. My doctor doesn't offer enough information, nor does he offer a solution. I've had this for several months. My tongue is slightly red in that area.

DEAR READER — You have described an inflammation of the tongue called glossitis. This can result from a variety of causes, most of which are not serious.

However, you are taking gold shots, and gold can reduce your white blood count. A low white blood count will make your body more susceptible to infection. Therefore, I suggest you ask your doctor to order a complete blood count (CBC) to make sure there is no disruption of the blood cells. If the count is normal, local treatment with an anesthetic mouthwash (like Cepacol) may make your tongue feel better.

Remember to ask your doctor if your sore tongue might reflect an allergy to gold. If you have developed an allergy, the gold shots should be discontinued.

Imagination used for recital theme

Bethel Studio of Music presented a recital Saturday, May 4 in the chapel of the First Baptist Church. The theme for this year's recital was "Make Believe".

The stage setting was fashioned for an imaginary cruse aboard the S.S. Leilani. Palm trees, yellow, red, and white gladiolos and an assortment of green plants decorated the deck. Tables were covered with white cloths and featured individual centerpieces of blue flower voltive cups complete with burning candles.

Committee moves recipe deadline

Jean Everett, chairman of the Scurry County Sesquicentennial Cookbook Committee, has announced that the deadline for accepting recipes for the upcoming cookbook has been extended until June 1.

"We hope to have the cookbook ready for sale in time for the July 4, 1986 celebrations," said Mrs. Everett.

Anyone wishing to contribute recipes for this venture are asked to send them to Mrs. Everett, Route 3 Box 18, Snyder, Texas 79549.

Preserving food discussed at meet

The Bright Ideas Extension Homemakers met in regular session Tuesday, May 7 in the Texas Electric Reddy Room with Beth Murphy, chairwoman, presiding.

Kathy Roberts, county extension agent, was the guest speaker. Her topic involved food preservation and she discussed canning fruits, vegetables and jellies using both the hot and the cold pack method.

Members brought personal items to be donated to the NOAH Project.

During the business meeting, the club discussed a family get together which will be held in June and a dinner which is scheduled for July. The proceeds from the dinner will be donated to NOAH. Officers will also be elected at that meeting and all members are encouraged to attend.

*Artificial, 4-6 high-card points

Opening lead: ♠K

The location of honors and tenaces is concealed from the opponents, and the opening lead comes up to strength, not through it.

There are times when the stronger hand does end up as dummy, usually because artificial bids have been used or because Jacoby transfer bids after no-trump are not used by the partnership. Today's deal contains an ironic twist, since declarer succeeded only because the powerhouse was in dummy.

With nine winning tricks in his hand, North opened the bidding with two clubs; strong and artificial. South's two-heart response, also artificial, showed 4-6 points and made South the declarer in six hearts.

When declarer ducked the opening lead of the spade king, West made the "safe" exit of a club to dummy's ace. Declarer now cashed the club king and spade ace, and ruffed a spade in his hand. He then ruffed a club in dummy, establishing the suit. After drawing trumps, he returned to his hand with the diamond ace and claimed.

Note what happens if North opens with a strong two-heart bid, and South gets to be dummy. Should East lead a spade, it becomes easy to lead a trump when declarer holds up his ace. A trump lead or diamond lead defeats the slam since it removes a vital second entry to South's long clubs.

Rock-crushing dummy

We have long been teaching that it's right more often than not for strength to be concentrated in declarer's hand rather than in the dummy. There are good reasons for this rule:

Heroin was first marketed in 1898 as a cough and diarrhea remedy and falsely hailed as a morphine substitute less likely to cause addiction.

LIGHT SUPPER
Sweet & Sour Pork Balls
Bean Sprouts & Rice
Fruit & Tea

SOYA SPROUTS

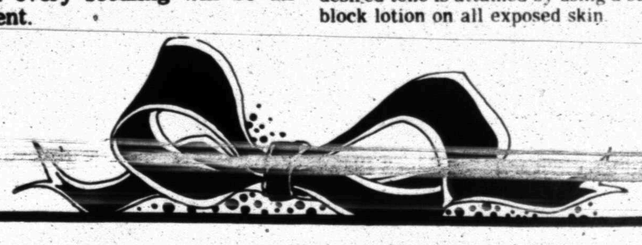

1 pound fresh mung bean sprouts
4 tablespoons vegetable oil
3 scallions, thinly sliced
1 teaspoon soy sauce
Salt to taste

Rinse sprouts in cold water several times. In a large skillet heat oil; add sprouts and stirfry for ½ minute. Add scallion and stir-fry another ½ minute. Add soy sauce and salt and stir-fry again for about 2 minutes or until sprouts are softened but still have crunchy texture. Makes 4 servings.

Sun tanning extras

It takes more than suntan lotion to build a tan. Moisturizing is needed. Unless the lotion includes it, add a moisture lotion to treat dryness.

Tanning can be controlled after the desired tone is attained by using a sun block lotion on all exposed skin.

President Richard M. Nixon arrived in Peking Feb. 21, 1972, for an eight-day visit to China. His unprecedented action in visiting the Communist country was hailed as a landmark move toward communications between the United States and China. The visit ended with a joint communique pledging that both powers would work for a "normalization of relations."

Thompson to battle pain, Class 4A best

By BILL McCLELLAN
SDN Sports Editor

Karlene Thompson. She's only a junior at Snyder High School, but already she's a headline performer. All-district volleyball, basketball and track.

Today, she's at the Class 4A State Track and Field Meet in Austin competing in the triple jump.

She was to jump at 1 o'clock.

Joining her in Austin today is Kyle Freeman, who was to compete in the discus at 2 and the shot put at 7 p.m.

It's was with mixed feelings that she and Snyder High School girl's track coach Patty Grimmett left Snyder on Thursday. On the plus side, this was Thompson's second trip to the state meet. She knew what to expect. On the negative side, she was hobbled by an inflamed left ankle. It was the foot she jumps off of. Doctors have told her that competing in the state meet should not cause injury to the ankle. The only question was then, how much would the nagging pain affect her when the competition began.

"I haven't worked out on it at all," said Thompson. "The doctor tells me that by tomorrow (Friday) I ought to be able to jump on it. It's not a fracture or anything like that. It's just that I've used it so much."

But she believed the moment would overcome the pain.

"I'm not going to worry about it once we get started. I know this, I'm not getting seventh place again," she grinned, referring to her 1984 finish. "I'm going to try for first place, of course. But really I think I should probably finish about third. It will be close."

Thompson's best jump this season has been a 38-1. The distance ranks fourth among the Class 4A qualifiers who are in Austin. The best was a 40-7 by Jasper's Diane Wills. Next came Cynthia Cooke of Carter Riverside with a 38-4½, followed by Cathy Rhodes of Terrell with a 38-2.

Cooke is the defending champion. She jumped 40-2¾ last year at state. Wills was third with a 38-1¼.

Realistically, Thompson was not concerned with where she might place.

"I just want to get my fartherest jump," she said. "That's what I'll be trying to do."

With the ankle problem, Thompson may have put all her energy into her early jumps. That might have been to her advantage, however.

"My first jump is usually my best. It has been all season. I usually try my hardest then," said Thompson.

She thought she had a good chance, despite the ankle.

"Last year I was scared. This year I think I can do a lot better. I've kind of got the feeling of being at the state meet and I think I'll be more comfortable this year," she said.

"Last year I was scared. This year I think I can do a lot better."

WTC announces tourney winners

Sixty students participated in the third annual Student Racquetball Tournament held recently at Western Texas College, Lee Burke, Health and Physical Education Director, said.

Winners in the women's beginning bracket were Heidi Matteson, first; Joyce Cook, second; and Margaret Beaver, consolation.

In the women's intermediate bracket, first place went to Renvy Evans, second to Melinda Barnes and consolation to Susan Neves.

Winners in the men's beginning bracket were Melvin Boatman, first; David Stewart, second; and Jeff May, consolation.

This culminated intramural activities for the 1984-85 school year, Burke said.

"Intramural sports are an integral portion of a student's life at WTC," Burke commented. "The program provides supervised sports and activities for any WTC student who would like to continue their interest in activity outside of regular athletics. The WTC intramural program has seen a tremendous growth in the last three years."

8-9 YEAR-OLD LEAGUE
GIANTS 20, METS 19

The Giants improved their record to 1-1 by edging the Mets in 8-9 Year-Old League play this week. Brett Kennedy cracked a triple, a double and two singles for the winners, who also got a double and three singles from Marc Sparlin.

Others hitting for the Giants were Michael Hess, four singles; Brian Spence, a triple and a single; Neal Canon and Jeffrey Armstrong, two singles each; and John Clinkenbeard, Lionel Aviles and Clinton Garcia, one single each.

Rudy Alaniz hit a triple and three singles for the Mets, now 0-2. Also hitting were Jeremy Alarcon, two triples; Daniel Sanders, three singles; Bradley Overcash and Tyson Cromeens, two singles each; Nathan Zalman, a double; and Kyle Strickland, Kyle Lewis and Tommy Fisk, one single each.

LITTLE LEAGUE
INDIANS 7, BRAVES 6

The Little League Indians, backed by the two-hit, 16 strikeout pitching of Terry Stephens, handed the Braves their first loss of the season this week. Stephens provided a double and a single to aid his cause, and got a home run and a single from John Wright. Also hitting were Terry White whith three singles, Eric Braziel with a double and Andy Garza with a single. The Indians are 2-0-1 this season.

Richard Morris and pitcher Jody Tararez got the Braves' only hits, a single apiece.

GIANTS 20, YANKEES 0

The Little League Giants kept their undefeated season record intact this week by punching the Yankees. Michael Torres took WP honors and also slammed a home run and a triple. Michael Jackson added a triple and a single, while Gilbert Hernandez slapped a double and a single. Also hitting for the winners were Blair Williams with a triple, Sam Cain with a double and Scott Rodgers with a single.

No hits were listed for the Yankees. Darin Sparlin took the loss.

Mancini plans retirement

NEW YORK (AP) - Ray "Boom Boom" Mancini, who held the World Boxing Association lightweight title for two years and made millions of dollars in a 5½-year pro career, says he is retiring from boxing.

"I don't want to train anymore," Mancini, 24, told the New York Daily News. "I don't want to get banged around at this stage of the game. I have used boxing. Don't worry, I'm not going to let boxing use me."

Mancini, who won the lightweight title on May 8, 1982 with a first-round knockout of Arturo Frias, was a favorite of boxing fans who liked his straight-ahead, aggressive style. He recently was the subject of a television movie, "Ray Mancini, the Heart of a Champion."

He held the championship until he was knocked out by Livingstone Bramble last June 1, a bout that caused him to be hospitalized because of the punishment he took. He also took hundreds of punches in losing, by decision, a rematch to Bramble on Feb. 25.

Mitchell explains bare spots on college golf course greens

The bare spots which are plaguing golfers on the Western Texas College Golf Course greens are the result of an infestation of an undesirable grass that has hit many golf courses in this area and steps are being taken to alleviate the situation, Bill Mitchell, superintendent, said.

The undesirable grass is Poa Annua (Annual Bluegrass), Mitchell said, and it has also struck other area golf courses that are over five years old.

Poa is the pale green grass that appears during the winter months on the greens, causing them to be bumpy, Mitchell explained. It got a start when severe cold temperatures experienced in the past two winters caused a severe setback to the bentgrass. Poa partially dies out during the hottest part of the year.

"Most of the dead spots that we experience in the summer are actually patches of Poa dying out," Mitchell said. "Poa is difficult to control and almost impossible to eliminate.

"We have been working for two years with the manufacturer of a chemical which has promise for Poa control. The product was applied to 9, 1, 2, 3 and 4 greens in March. It killed large areas of Poa in these heavily infested greens, and it will take a while for the greens to completely heal.

"If we had not treated the Poa, many of the patches would have died in the heat of the summer, leaving bare spots at a time when bentgrass will not spread at all. It was deemed better to kill it during the spring when the bentgrass would spread some."

A representative of the United States Golf Association's greens section endorsed this method of Poa control during his visit to the course last spring.

Though recovery is slow, the greens are recovering and will continue to receive intensive care until recovery is complete, Mitchell added.

"We regret the temporary inconvenience to golfers, but the problem of Poa Auuna encroachment had to be dealt with. There is no question that it will be beneficial to the quality of the greens."

A meeting of persons interested in discussing the situation has been set for 5:30 p.m. Tuesday in the pro shop. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

Junior high...

Hermleigh names top three students

They are Daniel Ramey, valedictorian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ramey; Mark Kuss, salutatorian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kuss; and Beverly Sandefur, historian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Sandefur.

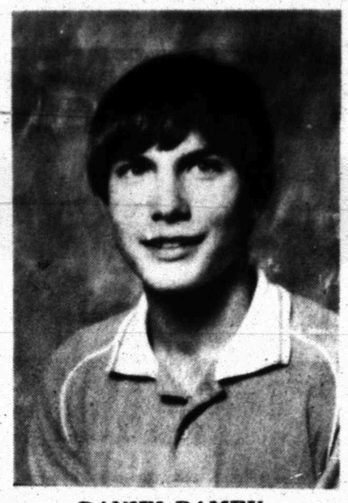

Ramey had a GPA of 98.43; Kuss, 95.99 and Sandefur, 93.00.

Honors for Ramey include playing on the 8th grade football team which was district co-champs and the basketball team which was district tri-champs.

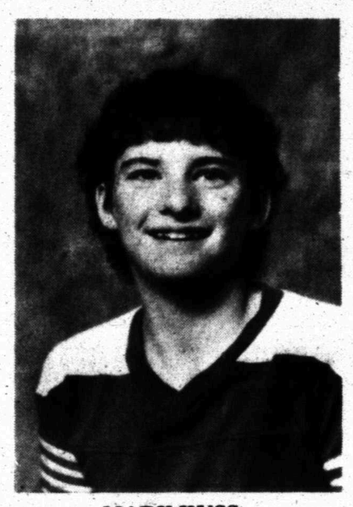

He also served as 7th grade class president.

Kuss also was a member of the 8th grade championship football and basketball teams. He was 6th grade class treasurer and 7th grade vice-president.

Sandefur participated in basketball and track and was 6th grade class president; 7th grade class secretary and 8th grade vice-president.

Dow Chemical U.S.A. has announced that Grazon ET has been labeled for control of mesquite and associated species on rangeland and permanent grass pastures. The active ingredient in Grazon ET is triclopyr. It is formulated as an ester. The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station has conducted considerable research on use of triclopyr for mesquite control. Most of the research has been done in the western one-half of Texas. Research results have shown that triclopyr provides control of mesquite equivalent to the control provided by 2,4,5-T. When triclopyr is mixed with picloram, the control is equivalent to the 2.4.5-T:picloram mixture.

Because most of the research data available are from the western one-half of the state, Dow Chemical will sell Grazon ET primarily in the northwestern area of the state. If ranchers in other areas of the state wish to purchase Grazon ET for control of mesquite, they can buy the herbicide. However, Dow salesmen will inform them that limited data is available to show the effectiveness of Grazon ET to control mesquite in their area of the state.

Grazon ET is labeled for foliar broadcast treatment using aerial or ground equipment and for high-volumn leaf-steam treatment of individual plants using ground equipment. One-half pound (1 pint) of Grazon ET per acre should be used in the western part of the state. When aerially applied, the herbicide should be applied in a volume of 2:4 gallons oil-in-water emulsion per acre (1 pint to 1 gallon diesel fuel oil and water to make 2-4 gallons per acre). For ground application the volume is 20-25 gallons oil-in-water emulsion (½-1 gallon diesel fuel oil and water to make 20-25 gallons per acre). A higher percentage control of mesquite will be obtained by applying a 1:1 mixture of Grazon ET and picloram (GrazonPC). In the western part of the state this would be ¼ pound (½ pint) of Grazon ET + ¼ pound (1 pint) of Grazon PC per acre applied in the same volume of carrier discussed above. If pricklypear control is desired, the mixture should be ¼ pound (½ pint) Grazon ET + ½ pound (2 pints) of Grazon PC per acre.

Limited data indicate that ½ pound (1 pint) of Grazon ET + ½ pound (2 pints) of Grazon PC provides control of mesquite equivalent to ½ pound of 2,4,5-T + ½ pound of picloram in the southeastern area of the state. Several research and demonstration plots utilizing Grazon ET will be established this spring to provide more data for this area of the state.

For high-volume leaf-stem treatment of individual mesquite plants, use 3 quarts of Grazon ET in water to make 100 gallons of spray mixture. Add a surfactant. Grazon ET may be tank mixed with 2,4-D, Grazon P+D)a 1:4 mixture of picloram and 2,4-D) or Grazon PC. A mixture of 1 quart (1 pound) of Grazon ET, 2 quarts (1 pound) of Grazon ET, 2 quarts (1 pound) of Grazon PC, surfactant and water to make 100 gallons will provide good control of mesquite.

Grazon ET is a general pesticide. Therefore, an applicator's certification is not required to purchase and apply the herbicide.

Grazon ET will be available by May 1.

St. John's Vestry schedules meeting

The Bishop's Committee (Vestry) of St. John's Episcopal Church is scheduled to meet at 7 p.m. on Wednesday at the parish hall.

Representatives of the Women's Guild and Altar Guild are also asked to attend.

The primary item of business will be final preparations for the special Rogation Days Communion Service, to be held at the Towle Park Pavilion on Sunday, May 19.

St. John's will be hosting the congregations of St. Stephens Church in Sweetwater and All Saints Church in Colorado City.

The Rev. Marshall Mason of Midland will officiate. The service will be followed by a covered dish luncheon at the pavilion.

This Sunday the Rev. Malcolm Slayter will officiate at Holy Communion services for St. John's at 11 a.m. This service will be the traditional form, in which many of the congregational responses are sung or chanted to musical accompaniment.

Lubbock pastor appearance slated

Dr. John Adams, pastor of Central Baptist Church in Lubbock, will be the evangelist during revival services May 12-15 at Morningside Baptist Church.

Sunday night services will begin at 7 p.m. The revival continues through Wednesday. Services Monday through Wednesday being at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Adams, a native of Mississippi, has a bachelor of arts degree and his master of education degree from Texas Tech University. He also holds the master of divinity and doctor of ministry degrees.

He has pastored the Lubbock church since 1981.

Reagan ends European trip

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — President Reagan ended his symbol-laden, four-nation trek through Europe today declaring "mission accomplished," and said the United States must consider whether to continue observing a nuclear arms agreement with the Soviet Union.

Reagan, questioned about continued compliance with the unratified SALT agreement with the Soviet Union, said: "There's considerable evidence now that that has been rather one-sided. If it has been, then there's no need for us to continue."

"We have tried on what seemed to be a verbal agreement between ourselves and the Soviet Union for some time that even though we have not ratified that treaty ... that we would both seek to abide by the terms," Reagan said.

Speaking to reporters before departing, Reagan said the United States will make a decision "down the road" on whether to continue observing the strategic arms limitation agreement.

When a decision is made, he said, "we'll do it openly and with full knowledge of the Soviet Union."

Reagan held a departure news conference in front of Queluz Palace. He stood outside on a bright, cloudless day with the palace's manicured gardens behind him.

The president viewed some of the palace's horses before boarding Air Force One for the trip back to Washington.

"We're leaving today with our Atlantic ties strengthened and we're returning home mission accomplished," he said.

"It's been a long, historic and thoroughly worthwhile trip," Reagan said.

Answering questions, Reagan noted his invitation to meet with Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev and said Gorbachev's recent tough talk hasn't changed his mind about a meeting.

"I think there'd be a lot to talk about and I just happen to believe it's time we started talking to each other and not about each other," he said. As for Gorbachev's harsh talk, he said, "What's new about that?"

Ask The Preacher

"...about women preachers"

By Randall Gray

It is not at all uncommon to find women in pulpits across our country. The question is, "Is it right? Is it scriptural?"

In a word, "No."

The Bible is so clear on this point that one really needs help to misunderstand. Consider three passages of scripture on this topic. Please remember, we are not talking about opinion, we are talking about what the Bible says.

1. In Titus 2:15, the great apostle Paul tells his preachers to speak, exhort and rebuke "with all authority." This is a preacher's authority, encouraged by apostolic command, but,

2. In I Timothy 2:12, the same great apostle gives another apostolic command. He says, "I do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man; she must be silent." This denies a preacher's authority (mentioned above) to a woman.

3. In I Cor. 14:33-34, Paul says, "As in all the congregations of the saints, women should remain silent in the churches. They are not allowed to speak, but must be in submission, as the Law says."

This last passage does not forbid women to sing, it forbids speaking out in a "non-submissive" manner, thus it excludes women from preaching.

Thanks for all the cards, letters and phone calls. Please address your questions to: Ask the Preacher, and state competitions are the most ever won by the cast of a single production.

Heading the list of 1985 individual award winners were leading players Dana Parham (Juliet) and Brad Vincent (Romeo).

Both were cited for outstanding individual performances at every level of competition.

Parham ultimately won the prestigious Samuel French Award for the most outstanding performance in Class AAAA at the state meet and Vincent won the state best actor award for Class AAAA.

Also winning individual honors at the state meet were Chelle Krueger and Patrick Malone.

Krueger was named to the state all-star cast for her portrayal of Juliet's nurse while Malone was named to the state honorable mention all-star cast for his performance as Tybalt.

Other members of the 1985 state championship cast to be featured in the weekend performances are:

—Karl Menges in the dual role of Sampson and Friar Laurence.

—John Hamlett in the role of Mercutio.

—Jamie Cofer playing Benvolio.

—Kyle Hawes as the Prince of Verona.

—Penny Noble as Lady Capulet.

—Lance Aldridge as Lord Capulet.

—Shannon Lunsford as Lady Montague.

—Tony Pineda who plays both Paris and Lord Montague.

—Monique Miller, Missy McIntire and Kristin Walton cast as ladies in waiting.

Alternate players in the production are Bryan Norris, Charlie McCormick, Lisa Kimmel and Cindi Tolbert.

Alternate Norris — stepping in for Tony Pineda who was ill prior to the regional competiton — won honors also as an understudy by claiming honorable mention to the regional all-star cast for his one contest performance.

Technical crew members of the award winning production are Sue Smylie, Richard Lack and Galen Price.

A son preceded him in death.

He is survived by two daughters, a son, four other sisters, and a brother.

Suit is filed to remove cars

MEDFORD, Ore. (AP) — There's one train that's impossible to miss. It's sitting in Ed Krahel's mother's backyard.

And that's a sore subject in the city of Ashland.

The city filed suit Thursday asking a judge to order the train collector to remove the four railroad cars to a more suitable location.

Actually, the city feels it's being generous. A compromise rejected by Krahel would have allowed him to keep two cars if he got rid of the other two.

The suit seeks an injunction forcing Krahel to remove all the railroad cars and restore the yard to its original condition, barring him from ever putting any more rolling stock on the property owned by his mother.

Acting on complaints from his neighbors, the City Council voted April 2 that Krahel's two cabooses, boxcar and flatcar didn't conform to the restrictions of a single-family residential zone and must be removed.

However, the council held off filing the lawsuit, giving Krahel time to consider a compromise offer.

Krahel did not return a telephone call to his home for comment on the lawsuit.

Minor injuries in a.m. wreck

Three traffic accidents, one called major by police, were reported in Snyder Thursday.

According to accident reports, Donna LeeAnn Pierce of 4102 Ave. U sustained minor injuries when the 1980 Buick she was driving was in collision with a 1967 Chevrolet driven by Sherman Craig Bailey of Rt. 1, Snyder.

Reports indicate she did not require medical treatment for her injuries.

The accident occurred on Towle Park Road at 12:17 p.m.

The day's first minor accident was reported at 11:02 a.m. on the Varsity Square Shopping Center parking lot.

Involved in it was a 1982 Oldsmobile driven by Bonnie Mae Head of Arah Rt., Snyder which was in collision with a parked 1980 Mercury owned by Feleciano Garcia Canales of Rt. 3, Snyder.

Thursday's last accident was logged at 3:52 p.m. at the intersection of 37th St. and College Ave.

Involved in it were a 1984 GMC driven by Gregory Donald Hoyt of 700 East 37th St. and a 1981 Kennworth tractor-trailer rig driven by Sollie Ray Morris of Abilene.

Berry's World

Heroin was first marketed in 1898 as a cough and diarrhea remedy and falsely hailed as a morphine substitute less likely to cause addiction.

Gas Station 'Peepholes' Make This Woman Squawk

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1985 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: When I was a 16-year-old girl, I discovered a semi-concealed peephole in the wall of a ladies rest room at a gasoline station. The hole had been strategically drilled at a level that would afford the "viewer" on the other side of the wall a pretty good peep show.

Since then I have examined the walls of hundreds of gas station rest rooms and have found a surprising number of peepholes!

I think gas station owners who are aware of this disgusting invasion of privacy should be held accountable by law. What agency should I contact to put a stop to this? And if I can't do anything to stop it, perhaps a letter in your column will alert women to the fact that they may be inadvertently the "star" of some creep's peep show.

DISGUSTED IN CALIFORNIA

DEAR DISGUSTED: Write to the consumer relations department of the oil company that owns (or leases) the gas station.

And until some action is taken to ensure privacy, men as well as women should be on the lookout for such peepholes. (A view is possible from either side of the wall.) P.S. An instant remedy: Stuff the hole with a wad of toilet tissue. Here's looking at you, lechers!

* * *

DEAR ABBY: You often advise people to talk to counselors, but let me ask you something: Can counselors help people decide whether to have children or not?

I've seen two counselors about this problem, and they were no help at all. They've seen so many kids with problems that their stock answer is: "When in doubt—don't."

I could be happy with or without kids, but my husband loves kids and he would make a wonderful father. I like kids, too, but they walk all over me; I've never been able to exercise authority over anyone. Even 2-year-olds push me around.

I told this to one counselor, and he said, "If you had a kid, by the time he was 10, he'd be kicking your rear end."

What do you think, Abby? Should I take a chance and leave all the disciplining to my husband?

WEAK IN WATERLOO, IOWA

DEAR WEAK: No. Kids who have a "wait 'til your father comes home" kind of mother usually grow up hating their fathers and walking all over their mothers.

Don't take on parenthood until you've had a course in parenting and feel equal to the task. It's an 18-year commitment (minimum).

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I have had this friend for many years. We go out together—her husband and mine—and we even take trips together. I guess you could call us "young senior citizens."

"Molly" is a lady of good breeding and good manners, but she does something that is rude, crude and downright uncalled for. No matter if we're dining at someone's home or at a dinner at a restaurant, after she has finished her meal, Molly takes a tissue out of her purse and blows her nose at the table. And I mean she has a real blow-out! She does this every time without fail.

I asked her, after one of these "blowouts," if she had sinus trouble. She just said "No." (I guess she didn't get the hint because she still does it.)

I truly like Molly. She's kind-hearted and a wonderful friend, but this one habit drives me (and my husband) up a wall.

If you print this, you will have me for a friend for life.

ABSOLUTELY ANONYMOUS

DEAR ANONYMOUS: Hello, friend.

Rebecca Musick earns two honors

Rebecca Musick, a senior accounting major at Lubbock Christian College, was recognized recently at the annual awards program by receiving two distinguished awards.

Jim Jenkins, president of the Lubbock chapter of National Association of Accountants, presented her a $550 scholarship and a year's membership to the chapter meetings. This scholarship is one of four given to accounting majors at LCC and Texas Tech.

Musick also received the senior achievement award for the senior maintaining the highest cumulative grade point on a 4.0 scale. Her GPA is currently 4.0

Employed in the office of John M. Cassell, CPA, in the Texas Commerce Bank Building in Lubbock, Musick is a 1982 graduate of Snyder High School. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Musick of Snyder.

Appeals court considers Merkt case

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals panel has heard a plea to reverse the conviction of Stacey Lynn Merkt, a halfway house worker facing a six-month prison sentence for transporting illegal aliens into the United States.

There was no indication when a ruling would be issued by the three-judge panel, which heard arguments from Ms. Merkt's lawyers on Thrusday.

Ms. Merkt, a 30-year-old volunteer at the church-supported Casa Oscar Romero in San Benito, near Harlingen, has said that she considers helping illegal aliens into this country to be her religious obligation.

She was recently sentenced to six months in prison, plus a separate 90-day sentence for breaking probation on a similar conviction nine months earlier.

In a friend-of-the-court brief, the National Council of Churches and five other church organizations said Ms. Merkt was only following her religious beliefs, and the case set up "a confrontation between secular authority and religious obligation."

"Stacey Merkt, in assisting these Salvadoran refugees, was living her religious principles," the brief said.

Dennis Riordan, a San Francisco lawyer for Ms. Merkt, spent most of his argument on a claim that she "had a sincere belief" that the two aliens had a legal right to wade the Rio Grande River and enter the U.S., and therefore she had no intent to commit a crime.

Her intent, he said, was to assist them in filing for political asylum.

"There is no crime unless she transported them for the specific purpose of bringing them in illegally," he added.

Riordan said Ms. Merkt did not take the two San Salvador citizens to the Immigration and Naturalization Service center in Harlingen, though she passed by it, because she wanted to take them to the INS center in San Antonio, where the director was considered much more sympathetic.

Henry VIII and Anne of Cleeves were married in 1540.
