Locals Win Six Behind Golf Champ Peden

Championship crown of Colorado Country Club 25ers' Golf Tournament went west to Kermit with veteran Roy Peden, who put together 36-35-37 for a four-stroke triumph with 108 in Sunday final.

But Colorado City and Loraine golfers also shot their way to a big chunk of success on the difficult 9-hole course, winning six flights and earning runner-up honors in four.

It was one of the most successful tournaments in years for Colorado City with 112 players in close competition. In fact, five slatted death playoffs were required before champions and runner-up were decided in five flights.

Twenty-one cities were presented in the two-day tournament. Sweetwater sent the largest contingent of out-of-towners with 21, just seven less than Colorado City-Loraine's local delegation. Ten came from Big Spring.

Carl Beard, an Odessa high coach, was runner-up to Peden for the championship by winning playoff with Leonard Perry of Sweetwater after the pair had tied in Sunday's 27 hole final with 114.

Ted Gross of Big Spring won championship flight consolation with 71 (37-30), three strokes ahead of Colorado City's George Powell, who was more busy as tournament director than as a challenger for the championship he had won in previous years.

Colorado City's Don Benson with 116 (37-40-39) won first flight championship. Two former C-City residents, Adam Ramos of Big Spring and schoolman Joe Burchard of Austin tied with 118 behind Benson, and Ramos won the runner-up honors in a playoff with Burchard.

John Pickering of Snyder with 75 (37-38) won first flight consolation. Pat Gerald of Sweetwater beat a fellow townsman, Gary Alston, in the playoff for runner-up after both had scored 78.

Danny Fisher, another Colorado City golfer, won second flight championship with a one-stroke triumph over Ken Wiggington of Cleburne. It was a strong last nine finish which won

Junior Teen White Sox Becoming Untouchable

Tim Stancel tapped his pitching ability Monday evening to lead the White Sox to another Junior Teen League victory, dropping the Braves 6-3.

Stancel allowed three hits while striking out 13 in six innings. He walked only three.

For the White Sox, it was the eighth win in nine starts. The Braves found themselves vying for the cellar again with three wins, six losses.

The Braves could not blame their lack of success on batting performance. They out-hit their opponents 6-5, including three doubles by Wayne Banks, Robert Benson, and Jackie Lydia. Losing pitcher Cary May singled twice.

After a tie in the second frame, the White Sox didn't regain the lead until the fourth. Two scores from Steve Vest's home run in the sixth inning added assurance to the White Sox win.

Lions Dump Colts

The Colts suffered their fourth straight defeat Monday night, losing 9-5 to the Lions.

The Lions jumped to an early 5-1 lead and held the margin throughout the game.

Lion outfielder Marvin Cox and Colt catcher Glenn Chalker were top slugger of the game, each making three hits.

Randy Wright relieved winning pitcher Randy Hoyle in the top of the sixth. Ruben Nollan, Carlton Oglesby, and Jerel Lynch batted for the Colts.

"Hi, Grandad!"

A Long Distance call is a big occasion for Susan. She likes to talk and Grandad happens to be one of her favorite people.

Making sure her call goes through with the same speed and clarity as that of our most important business customer is one of the things we like best about the telephone business. It's a challenge. One we gladly accept.

Sending little voices on big trips is another way we're trying to make your every "hello" a real good buy.

Bowling Team Places Sixth in WIBC

Mrs. Lovine Colson of Colorado City and Mrs. Martha Emerson of Loraine were part of a make-up bowling team at a recent Woman's International Bowling Congress, Inc. tournament in San Antonio.

Make-up teams for the tourney were put together by WIBC officials and included bowlers from cities not sending complete teams to the tournament.

Mrs. Colson and Mrs. Emerson joined three other bowlers to place sixth in the tournament and win $300 for the team, known as Team No. Eight.

More than 2490 teams, mostly composed of women who bowl together once or twice each week, were entered in the tournament.

In the group were Mrs. Colson, Mrs. Emerson, Mrs. Ellen Wosatka of Matuchen, N. J., Roberta Reider of Edison, N. J. and Mrs. Mary Cross of Hugoton, Kan.

Team members are making plans to travel in the 1969 championship tournament of Mrs. Emerson.

One of the many books recently received at Mitchell County Public Library is "The New Year" by Pearl S. Buck.

The book, along with others, has been catalogued by library staff and ready for distribution to library patrons.

"The New Year" is about Christopher Winters, Philadelphia lawyer and leading candidate for the governorship, who one morning received a letter from Korea.

Twelve years ago, after a three-day honeymoon with Laura, he had been shipped to Korea and had fallen in love with Sonya. The letter could scandalize and ruin his career. It was Laura who finally persuaded him toward the right course.

Another book, "The Survivor", written by Anne Edwards sketches the story of Luanne Woodrow who tried to remember the hour when six members of her family had been poisoned; obvious-to stay confused.

With her help of Hans Aldik she began to find out more about her family and her alarming brother, Irish, but what she found out only frightened her even more.

Already bought by 20th Century Fox, this suspense story will have a preliminary ad budget of $30,000 with pre-pub printings of 25,000.

CONVERSATION CORNER

HEARD an old expression the other morning, not heard much any more.

It was used by Betsy Palmer in one of those brief radio interludes she shares with Bill Cullen.

She was talking about the need for showing love and she came up with the old expression "The married look."

Remembering when there was a time that getting the married look was dreaded like the black plague, this listener got tickled.

That just goes to show you that given time even the most starry-eyed rebel can change—and accept the married look along with gray in the hair and a number of superfluous pounds on the figga.

THE MARRIED LOOK is an insidious thing. It sneaks up on people. Fight it if you will, you're still sure to wind up with it unless you choose to live in single cussedness all your life.

What is the married look? Well it's a couple dining out together in absolute silence beyond "Please pass the salt."

The married look is two couples out riding with the men in front and the wives sharing the back seat.

The married look is a man asleep in front of the TV and a woman polishing her nails.

The married look is the sports page propped up opposite the front page all during Sunday breakfast.

WHEN a woman opens doors for herself, gets out of the car before the man does, and he lets her—they've got the married look.

When she translates his one-syllable message such as "Um" and he knows what her dirty look means, they've got the married look.

When he asks "New dress?" about the tenth time she wears one, they're most likely afflicted with the married look.

WHEN the time comes that she could paint her nose purple and he might or might not notice...

When he couldn't tell you how many years they've been married to save his neck from hanging...

When both use given names more often than "Baby" or "Darlin'" or "Honey"...

When they no longer fight at the drop of a hat over such trivial things as money...

When they never, ever, for any reason, so much as think to mention the word separation any more...

When neither would believe anything the other did to be small, mean or low because of a thing known as mutual trust...

Why then, they've got the married look—even if they don't spend hours and hours just looking at each other any more.

SEEN LATELYS include the F.D. Wimmers, Jr. lunching together...

Dewey and Vickie Turner and their little red-head Bridget of the many curls...

Blanche Wilson, artist wife of Frank, dropped in with her newest picture, an Indian chief done in three dimensions. Blanche is just home from studying with an art teacher in Amarillo.

Lora Lady has returned from a vacation visit with daughter Josephine in Wichita, Kansas.

HEAR TELL Weems Dykes, First Christian pastor, and Jim Bob Holman attended a youth church camp at Lake Brownwood, Sunday evening through Friday noon.

That Brooks and Dean Teague, son Andy and daughter Susan, have been to Irving for a visit. The Teagues will teach their next term.

FAMILIAR FACES here and there places belonged to Buddy Hertenberger of the Highway Patrol...

Pete Warren, office drop-in... Della Fox (Mrs. Wilfred) who has acquired a daughter through marriage of son Freddy.

Franice (Mrs. George) Witten was on the downtown scene. So was Lily Bennett of Lorraine.

If you're counting on a new VW, you can stop at $1797

In fact, when it comes to money, a VW will save you a lot of counting after you buy it, too. On gas bills. (It gets about 27 mpg.) On tires. (They average 40,000 miles.) It hardly ever needs oil between changes. And, since the engine is air-cooled you never have to dish out for anti-freeze. So if you don't like to count, buy it figures.

Extra Effort —

You have to be doggone industrious to patrol our town all night, then go to school during day.

Our city's night police force has been doing this in recent months when they had opportunity — upgrading their police knowledge in special law enforcement schools in other towns.

Police are not known for being over paid, yet they serve us a hundred different ways around the clock.

And, when they do their job — then, on their own, make this extra effort to improve themselves and our police program, I'm for letting 'em know we appreciate and salute their effort.

In mills and factories across the country, they never stop working. By night as well as by day, the wheels of commerce grind out the goods we need as a nation.

It's a twenty-four hour job, this business of production, and it's a vital job — to you, your family, your town, our whole country. Like most vital jobs, it can't be stopped.

Faith is a vital job, too. It isn't simply something that God gives you, free of charge, on Christmas and at Easter. You have to work for real faith. You have to earn it. You have to keep at it.

Fortunately, to help you gain and sustain this vital faith, you have the Church to guide you. Start attending every Sunday and then absorb the wonders of God's teachings.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Please go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The Church For All All For The Church

DAY

In mills and factories across the country, they never stop working. By night as well as by day, the wheels of commerce grind out the goods we need as a nation.

It's a twenty-four hour job, this business of production, and it's a vital job — to you, your family, your town, our whole country. Like most vital jobs, it can't be stopped.

Faith is a vital job, too. It isn't simply something that God gives you, free of charge, on Christmas and at Easter. You have to work for real faith. You have to earn it. You have to keep at it.

Fortunately, to help you gain and sustain this vital faith, you have the Church to guide you. Start attending every Sunday and then absorb the wonders of God's teachings.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the spiritual factor in earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four good reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake; (2) For his children's sake; (3) For the sake of his community and nation; (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
