WOLF AND CAT CLUB HAD A GOOD MEETING

The Kimble County Wolf and Cat Club Association met November 26, 1927, and completed their organization by electing officers and adopting By-Laws for the club. The following officers were elected: The executive committee is composed of C. H. Holland, president; Ed. Allen, E. H. Kothmann, Herbert Camel and Roy Blackburn, and H. W. Bierschwale, secretary.

There was a very enthusiastic meeting and between 75 and 100 members of the club were present. This organization is very commendable in the ranchmen of Kimble County. It is another step in the stride of progress that will put Kimble County on the map.

Most men are aware of the benefit of insurance. This organization is good insurance for the sheep and goat industry. We earnestly solicit and urge every ranchman of Kimble County to join this club as it is mutual protection for all ranchmen in this country.

Another step in progress we should look to is to try to stamp out flies, as a large percent of loss in the stock business is caused by screw-worms. In places where ranchmen have been trapping for flies the result has been gratifying, as statistics will show that the loss from worms has been greatly increased where traps are used. Let us try to work out some plan along this line for the benefit of the ranchmen.

I herewith submit three articles of our By-Laws, namely Fifth, Sixth and Seventh:

Fifth: "It shall be the duty of every member of this club, when anything comes to his knowledge that would indicate fraud on the part of anyone toward the club, to immediately report same to the Executive Committee who will be empowered to authorize the payment of any amount, not to exceed $500.00, for the prosecution and conviction of anyone so defrauding the club, said amount to be paid out of the club fund."

Sixth: "It shall be the duty of anyone on whose premises any wolf, cat or other predatory animal on which a bounty is paid by the club, to furnish a written order to the secretary, stating that such animal was caught or killed on his premises, and he believes the same to be done in good faith."

Seventh: "All parties catching or killing any predatory animal, on which a bounty is paid will be required to produce such animal, or is pelt, and make affidavit to same with O. K. of one of the Executive Committee before he can obtain bounty thereon from the secretary."

The bounty paid on predatory animals will be $100.00 on wolves, $15.00 on cats and $25 on wolf puppies from the first of March to the first of August, after which date they will be considered grown.

H. W. Bierschwale,
Secretary.

CAR OVERTURNS ON KERRVILLE ROAD

What might have proven a serious accident happened Tuesday of this week, 18 miles out on the Kerrville road when a large Buick sedan, occupied by a Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hendricks of Madison, Wisconsin, left the road and overturned, completely wrecking the car.

Mr. Hendricks, who was driving, stated that when approaching a curve, he met another car, forcing him into some loose gravel, causing him to lose control of his car. The car went into a deep ditch in a nose dive, finally settling on its side, a complete wreck.

The fact that both Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks were not killed will always remain a mystery.

Other than a few bruises, light skinned places and the loss of their nice car, they are no worse off from the accident.

The couple left Junction Wednesday for Kerrville, accompanied by Mr. Powell of the Powell Motor Co., where a new Buick sedan awaits them. They hope to be able to leave Junction before the week is over to complete their trip to California.

RANCHMAN'S HOTEL OF ROCKSPRINGS

On Thanksgiving day the new hotel at Rocksprings was opened to the public and over 100 diners were served in the dining hall, that was decorated with the season's colors. Many floral offerings were presented to the proprietor, Mrs. M. Woodriddle. Among them was a mammoth offering from Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Schreiner of Kerrville which was some three feet in diameter.

After dinner had been served, some 200 friends and guests assembled in the dining hall where an address was delivered by Rev. Elvin Bost, pastor of the Church of Christ of that city. Readings were given by Mrs. Willie Eden, Mrs. Street Gilmer and little Mabel Woodriddle. A special feature of the entertainment was a song by the Rev. Bost. Music was furnished by the local band of some 15 pieces.

The Ranchman Hotel in Rocksprings is not a new adventure by any means. It is only a new building, modern in every detail, and a credit to the town as well as to Mrs. Minnie Woodriddle, the present owner.

Its hospitality is well known throughout this part of the State for 25 years. Mrs. Woodriddle is a native of Edwards County, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Guthrie, who have for the last 35 years ranched on the South Llano.

POSTPONED DATE OF CHURCH DEDICATION

Owing to the inability of some of the speakers on the program to be here on the first Sunday in December, as was announced some weeks ago, the dedication services of the Christian Church has been postponed until the second Sunday, December 11th, at which time Rev. J. B. Holmes of Fort Worth will preach the dedication sermon at the 11 o'clock hour.

Special music has been arranged for at this service, and it is said that it will be quite impressive.

Pastor J. J. Ray will occupy the pulpit at the 3 o'clock hour in the afternoon, at which time he will likely give some facts and figures concerning this organization.

Rev. Patrick Henry of San Antonio will conduct the evening services at 7 o'clock. Some special music and songs have also been arranged for this service.

The public generally is invited to attend all or any of these services.

Office equipment is arriving for Mayor E. Holekamp as was noted Wednesday morning when a large box of filing equipment was received at the court house in Junction.

LARGE FUR SHIPMENTS GO OUT OF JUNCTION

Probably the largest purchase of furs ever made at any one time occurred here Tuesday morning when Dave Turner of the Standard Hide and Fur Company purchased 1110 pelts. The purchase represented an approximate outlay of $2,500.00 and consisted of furs of most every kind and description.

Dave states that he has purchased to date for this company nearly 2000 pelts.

The fur business is one that is given little attention by the people of our county and we do not stop to realize that it is a source through which a great many people are enabled to make a nice livelihood and that the field for their work in this county is especially good. We believe with prevailing prices that there will be purchased by our local people $20,000 of furs in this county for this year.

The Schreiner-Hodges Company is extensively engaged in the purchase of furs as well as the Standard Hide and Fur Company.

Some of our fool legislation was repealed last year relative to certain fur bearing animals, especially the fox, but we still have some legislation that should be repealed. We have a law which required the hunter of fur bearing animals to have a license and there is no distinction between a resident and non-resident hunter.

If the country school boy, who has no other method of making himself a little Christmas money, or to obtain funds for the purpose of buying some clothes for the winter, should happen to want to lay a line of traps to and from the school house, he is required under the law to have a license. We do not see any reason or equity in such a law and think it should be repealed and made to cover people who devote their entire time to trapping and who are non-resident if at all. Another view to take of the matter is the fact that perhaps there is no trapper who does not need every dollar which he can make and we do not see any particular reason why a man should be required to pay a license who is eradicating from our communities animals who prey on poultry and occasionally a lamb or kid.

We have too many laws and we believe it would be a good thing to send men to our State Legislature to bring the revocation of at least one-third of our present statutes. There are being too many bureaus and high-priced cars supported by licenses and taxation.

A great deal of interest is being aroused by the fact that Henry Ford finally announced he will have on display Friday of this week the new Ford.

PUBLIC SPECULATES AS TO NEW FORD

The fact that Henry Ford has made a success in the automobile business and that he has had a crop of probably the most efficient and highest salaried men working in his employ, has caused a great deal of speculation relative to this new car.

During the time that he has not been in the field with an automobile for sale, the General Motors Corporation, Dodge Brothers and several other manufacturers of automobiles have been very busy and the field of competition is much more pronounced than when the old model T Ford was issued and offered for sale.

Mrs. D. R. Simmons of Liberty Hill is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McWright.

AD. TOPPERWEIN GIVES MARKSMANSHIP EXHIBITION

All of the business firms of the town closed their places of business Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock and went over to the Taylor place to witness an exhibition of shooting by Mr. Ad Topperwein, reputed to be the world's best wing and fancy shot with rifle, pistol and shot gun.

Considering the severe weather that was blowing, a large crowd witnessed Mr. Topperwein in his various shooting exhibitions and there can be little question in the mind of anyone that if he is not the world's best shot, he is unquestionably among the best. Notwithstanding the high northwester that was sweeping across the field and the crowd that was milling around him and stirring up the dust, he performed some remarkable and apparently impossible feats with the pistol automatic rifle and shot gun.

We will not attempt to recount the entire program, but among his best exhibitions was the bursting of five eggs which he himself threw into the air before they touched the ground, hitting targets with pistols in front of him and behind him, at the same time, with the use of a mirror, pitching an egg into the air, turning a somersault, picking up a shot gun, and bursting it before it hit the ground, hitting some washers with a high powered rifle after they had been pitched into the air.

The program had been arranged through the courtesy of the Winchester Arms people working in co-operation with their local dealers, the Schreiner-Hodges Company and the Junction Hardware Company.

C. OF C. HELD ITS REG- ULAR MONTHLY LUNCHEON

The Kimble County Chamber of Commerce held its regular monthly luncheon and business meeting at the court house in Junction Saturday night, November 26.

There was a good attendance present and many topics of interest were discussed, primarily, ways and means of working out a plan for the macadamizing of the city streets, the installation of a white way and water system. A committee was appointed to confer with the business men on Main Street relative to a plan for beginning immediate work on the macadamizing of the main street of the city. It is believed that work will begin within sixty days on this project.

A committee was appointed and requested to report at the next regular meeting of the advisability of establishing a new white way or improving our present system.

The matter of a Fair Tax for Kimble County was given thorough consideration and a committee was appointed to report back to the next meeting whether it would be advisable to again present this issue to our people. There is no question but what this would be a fine move for Kimble County and that until some plan is devised by which our people can favorably exhibit their live stock, we are not keeping pace with our neighboring counties, who are doing such admirable work along these lines.

It was decided to have an annual banquet at the Fritz Hotel next Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock, at which time a committee appointed to audit the books will make a thorough report, and officers for the ensuing year will be elected. A large membership is expected at this meeting and a program will be rendered. Everyone is invited to attend.

The Junction band rendered several selections of good music for this meeting and will be present for the meeting Saturday night, December 3, at the Fritz Hotel.

HOW TO DO YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

Wife may say she wants a new door mat for "her" Christmas Gift—but don't be fooled, Mr. Man.

More man goes a Christmas shopping.

And mostly always, late, because that is the way of man.

And he frets, and he stewes, and he is embarrassed—and usually, he ends up by purchasing gifts with which he is not at all satisfied—and that he feels for a certainty will not create any great thrills in receiving.

There is one law in Christmas shopping—when the gifts are for Her—be it mother, wife, sister or sweetheart, that man should remember. It is this:

"Woman does not want you to be practical."

By that is meant she wants you to forget your responsibilities, your resources, your obligations, the practicability of the gift in relation to her other possessions.

In other words she wants "something nice." Something personal because she is still a little girl at heart—just like a man is a little boy grown up. The feminine is much more artistic and her vision so much greater for ideals that it is a task for man-mind to comprehend how to really and truly please and thrill her in his gift selection.

There is always the exception to the rule, even among men. And there are those who organize their Christmas shopping list and go out early to make their selections.

That of course—is the ONLY way.

Wife may tell you that she wants a new front door mat, as HER Christmas gift. She is honest—because she is trying to help you.

But that isn't what she wants at all.

What she really wants is a platinum wrist watch, a new fur coat, a diamond ring, a new sedan, a checking account of her VERY own, a lovely new hat, or, maybe a baby grand piano. For a certainty—it's a little bit more than anything you have thought you could afford.

You know your wife, don't you? You know of the unguarded wishes which are occasionally expressed—"wishes for the moon" you term them. But they are not. They are cravings of her very heart and if you would bring real joy and happiness to her on Christmas morning—you'll shut your eyes to "your common sense" and you will walk out and buy her just one article—that is beyond the wildest hope of her.

Therein also is the "key" to all your shopping. You give gifts to those you love. Love calls for sacrifice and he is happiest who knows that the gift which thrills is the gift that is just a little grander and a little more personal than was ever expected.

All things are relative. This man who goes a little beyond seemingly has plenty with which to afford such shopping. But when truth is known it is just as difficult for him as that man who obviously has a more strict limitation.

The point is—no man will or can overstep his position in life. The joy it will bring to woman's heart will never be known when man does his Christmas shopping as suggested above.

American markets are without doubt the greatest in the world. Prices are not high. We find in our stores the best merchandise to be had in the world. What was a luxury a few years ago may now be almost a necessity, due to great production developments, advertising—and a higher—much higher standard of living.

Woman's mind has mostly brought this about. She it was who first learned of these new and better things—she it was who desired them—and she it is who usually is first to have the vision and the courage to bring them into her home.

So Mister Man, loosen the strings on your purse just a wee—tiny bit. Cock the old fedora on your head and go out this week and select some real Christmas presents for your loved ones.

I hope—well I hope that HE reads this article.

Won't I shout "Merry Christmas"—and mean it?

Although it is unfortunate for the young people to get contagious diseases, in spite of all we can do they will fall in love.

FACTS WORTH KNOWING

People are learning to understand the value of liver in the diet as a source of vitamins and minerals, as well as of protein. In addition to plain fried liver, or liver and onions, there are numerous appetizing ways of cooking liver. Equal parts of ground ham and cooked liver seasoned with cream and with parsley chopped and served on toast make a good dish. Liver may also be cooked in a casserole with mushrooms or other vegetables. Chopped cooked liver is excellent for stuffing onions or other baked vegetables.

Jerusalem artichokes are similar in food value to potatoes. Since they grow somewhat irregular in shape, the easiest way to prepare them for the table is to boil or bake them in their skins and then pare them. Boiled Jerusalem artichokes can be served in cream or other well-seasoned sauces, dried, or baked in a sauce with grated cheese and buttered crumbs spread on top. Baked Jerusalem artichokes may be served in their skins, or scraped out and seasoned with butter, salt and pepper.

An explosion of the sun is said to be possible, but many will say that the moonshine is more likely to blow up.

The young people are urged to "get somewhere," and they seem to be getting there all right at a high rate of speed when you see them out on the automobile roads.

The parents who worry because their boys go in for football, should reflect that they know where these fellows are and what they are doing.

It is a difficult thing to learn how to make money, but no one has complained of any difficulty in losing it.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

Junction will get its first full description of the new line of Ford automobiles, tomorrow, Friday, December 2.

A public reception to be held by local dealers is part of the national introduction of the new Ford models. In thousands of communities all over the United States tomorrow this new line of moderate-priced light automobiles will be introduced to millions of people.

The doors of the showrooms are to be opened promptly at 8 a. m. and attendants will be on hand throughout the remainder of the day to explain the new and interesting features of the car which is expected to make a new chapter in automotive history.

The new Ford cars are said to be the product of several years of study and planning by Henry Ford and his engineers in the great Ford laboratories at Dearborn. Mr. Ford himself has announced that "there is nothing quite like the new Ford car" and has stated that it will prove just as great a pioneer in the present field of low price light cars of quality as the famous Model T was a pioneer in its field for more than nineteen years.

Among the visitors to the reception tomorrow will be many city officials, executives of business, civic and professional organizations and other leaders in the life of the community, who have been specially invited.

The performance of these new cars, it is said, will be startling when viewed in the light of automobile performance of the past.

Local dealers have been notified by Ford officials at Detroit that the factories throughout the country are now preparing to produce the new cars in numbers exceeding even the tremendous production records achieved in the manufacture of the Model T line.

Company officials at Detroit also repeated their early announcement that production of the new Ford line will not make the Model T line obsolete. The manufacture of new parts for Model T replacements will continue to be an important factor of the Ford plants as long as any of the Model T cars are still in operation, the local dealers were advised. Because of this policy, present owners of Model T Ford cars will be able to keep their cars in perfect order as long as those cars remain in commission.

Steady Licks Count Most

A Texan whose business calls him all over the State recently said: "I have been watching the growth of Texas for years and have found that the places that outline a building policy of some kind and stick to it closely have built right along, while those that hammer at one thing a few weeks and turn to something else before that is accomplished are little better off than they were twenty years ago." He is right in the conclusions drawn from his observations. Most places that are not dead enough for burial have had periods of intense activity along certain lines, but have either stopped efforts or turned to something else before accomplishing what they undertook. Look the State over and hardly an exception can be found. Cities, towns and communities that have been persistent in fixed and definite efforts are developing and growing. Those that have gone at things half-heartedly at times only to quit them and go at something else are at a standstill. There is too much vacillating, wasted effort.

With Individuals, Too

The observation just made applies to individuals as well as to groups of people. The wavering man or woman seldom amounts to much. It is true that most of us are liable to get a wrong start, to undertake something impractical, at least for a try, but having made a start at something that appears to be along right lines, the sensible thing is to stick to do it until it is thoroughly worked out. It is safe to say that more than ninety per cent of those who have succeeded in anything owe their success to their persistence more than to their outstanding abilities.

Texas Industries Active

The United States Department of Labor, in its report for October, says that the industrial plants of Texas are practically all running on full time, that building activities show only a seasonal decline, and that there is not any large supply of labor evident either in the crafts or with common labor. The textile mills are nearly all running day and night shifts, and are behind with orders.

Panhandle Dairy Show

It hasn't been many years since the easiest way to offend a cow owner in the Texas Panhandle was to offer to buy dairy products from him. Dairying was too small a business to interest him. Conditions have changed. Panhandle cattle breeders, and chambers of commerce in eight counties around Tulsa have made definite plans for an annual dairy show. An organization committee is at work and is composed of members from the thriving centers of Lubbock, Hale Center, Seminole, Tulsa, Canyon, Amarillo, Florida and Lamesa. D. F. Eaton, Lubbock county agent, called the meeting and was made president. It will not be many years now before dairying in Texas will be a larger business than the growing of beef cattle.

Pecan Trees on School Grounds

W. Goodrich Jones, the best known authority of Texas on trees, is city forester of Waco. Under his direction the school children of Waco have planted 15,000 pecans on the school grounds and will care for the trees. The nuts have been planted in pits and when they have sprouted will be replanted. Those not needed for the school grounds will be given to the children to be planted and cared for at their homes under the direction of Forester Jones. Every school community in Texas could profit by the idea. Why not appoint a teacher to serve as forester and bed the pecans now? Doubtless Mr. Jones needed instructions as to the best agricultural methods.

Another School Suggestion

Chambers of Commerce everywhere are looking for ways to cement friendship between their towns and the surrounding country. Brownwood recently had a "rural school day." Honor students from all the county schools—three from each—with three alternates and their teachers and parents who desired to accompany them, were guests for a day of the Chamber of Commerce. In groups of 20 each they visited and inspected the leading industries of the city under guidance of members of the Chamber of Commerce. They were then served a lunch by the business men, and afterward were taken as guests to a ball game. The visitors numbered over 500. All, including the Chamber of Commerce, were so pleased that an annual event of the kind is planned.

Paraker County Potatoes

Parker county, long noted for its fine melons, has grown potatoes on a large scale this year, and while the price is lower than usual, the growers are pleased with the returns. The auto-truck has made it possible to ship potatoes and other farm products quickly to all parts of the State, and most of the Parker County crop is being sent to West Texas.

Sheep and Goat Herds Grow

The increasing interest in sheep and goat raising in Texas is shown in the statement that in Hays county flocks of sheep have increased from 5,993 in 1925 to 16,840 in 1927, and that goat herds have increased from 8,891 in 1925 to 25,750 this year. The people are finding that when they are properly handled there is money to be made with sheep and goats.

Lampasas Turkeys

Lampasas had shipped before Thanksgiving day 24 cars of turkeys that netted the growers $192,000 and will ship 18 or 20 cars more before Christmas. The fall turkey crop bringing to growers about $350,000. A number of other Texas counties have found turkeys just as profitable.

Texas Grass Baskets

Beautiful baskets are being made from the stiff, native grasses of Hidalgo county under the direction of the county home demonstration agent. The work gives pleasing and fairly profitable employment. It is said that the native grasses in many parts of the State are adapted to basket making.

Broom Corn in Texas

The sandy land farms around Devine are producing profitable crops of broom corn. One farmer has sold more than $4,000 worth of the corn this year. It is a crop that does not have to be forced on the market, but that can be stored and held for satisfactory prices.

Profits in Peanuts

A Jasper county school boy has harvested 85 bushels of peanuts from a measured acre of sandy loam land, the crop being worth $170.00 at market prices. The land was fertilized and well worked, proving that it pays to do well what one undertakes.

FACTS ABOUT SALVATION ARMY AND ITS WORK

The Salvation Army is regarded by the vast majority of people as a great and grand organization doing a splendid service for a class of people that no one else in any large scale serves—and of course, this is true; but specifically what the Army is and does is not common knowledge. We will therefore answer some questions which, no doubt, arise in the minds of many regarding our organization. The Salvation Army was originally founded by Catherine and William Booth in 1865. The organization commenced its work in the United States in 1877. Its religious belief is similar to that of John Wesley.

Only officers (or pastors) are supported from public funds. The membership work for their living, pay for their uniforms, and give as they can afford to support the work. The present General is William Bramwell Booth, the son of the Founder, who died in 1912. The Salvation Army is absolutely non-sectarian in the application of its benefits. The needs of all creeds, all races, and those of no particular creed are the great consideration.

The Army operates 36 Maternity Homes and Hospitals in the United States. Our Maternity Home in San Antonio, which accommodates unfortunate girls from all over the State of Texas, gave refuge to 250 women and girls and babies last year. The institution of the Army are open to the unfortunate of your county.

Eighty-five per cent of the unfortunate who pass through the Army maternity homes are permanently reformed. Eight per cent of these girls come from small towns and rural communities, many being sent through County Advisory Boards. The girls are taught some self supporting occupation while in the home. Suitable employment is found for those ready to leave, and oversight maintained for three years afterward. The Home is always open to them when sick or out of employment.

The Salvation Army is considered a great charitable organization, but all its charitable enterprises, of whatever nature, have as their supreme object the bringing of a poor, weak, sinful humanity to a real conscious dependence upon the strength, the compassion, and the love of the omnipotent Saviour.

Our representative will be in your city in a few days and your kind co-operation and assistance in our Financial Appeal for this year will be greatly appreciated, and will help us carry on our work among those who are "down but not out."

Jack Dempsey thinks the boxing game should have a dictator—like Landis in baseball and Hayes in the movies. That's fair enough—and on the record President Calles has made in handling opposing factors in Mexico—we nominate him for the boxing job up here.

Among the contracts let were those to Walsh, Burney and Moore of San Antonio, the grading and drainage on 11 miles of highway No. 41 in Kerr county for $50,332, and Thomas Ratliff, Rogers, Texas, for the surface course and 18 miles of highway No. 41 in Real county for $48,982.

Other contracts amounting to approximately $500,000 were let on various road projects throughout the state—Kerrville Times. This contract is on the Rock-springs-Kerrville road.

NOXVILLE NOTES

Our community was saddened again last Wednesday when we heard the news of the death in Junction of John L. Little son of Mr. and Mrs. Walton Whitworth, aged two years and four months. The little one had been sick only about 36 hours when they rushed him to Junction for medical aid where he died about four hours later. Little John L. was just another precious jewel plucked by the hand of Divine to ornament His kingdom above. The bereaved parents and other relatives have our sincere sympathy and we pray that our Heavenly Father may assuage their grief and leave them only the cherished memory of their darling.

Boy Cottle was buying sheep in our vicinity this week. He bought a number of aged, sheared ewes from Dillard Stapp, paying $5.00 each for same and 100 aged ewes in the wool from Walton Whitworth for $6.00 each.

Fred Pierce and family were Kerrville visitors last week.

Seth and Fred Whetstone were transacting business in Kerrville Friday.

Paul Jones and wife were shopping in Kerrville Saturday.

E. G. Hassell and Bob Edwards of San Antonio are visiting A. T. Whetstone.

Mrs. A. T. Whetstone spent the week-end in San Antonio visiting her daughters, Misses Allyne and Alma.

Dillard Stapp and wife were Kerrville visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Taylor of Junction are visiting Mrs. Taylor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Whaley of the reservation community spent Sunday with Fred Whetstone and family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McCoy and Mrs. Frank Cowser and Mrs. Jim Baker of Junction were among the out of town people who attended the funeral of little John L. Whitworth Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Brown have had relatives visiting them from Mason this week. We have been unable to ascertain their names.

W. B. Blount bought a Ford truck from Paul Jones last week.

There are a good many hunters in our community this week.

We read with astonishment the article in the Junction Eagle this week in regard to the attitude the Fire Insurance Companies are taking toward our county seat. It would be splendid if those companies could find a fire-proof town and insure it, wouldn't it? Suppose Life Insurance Companies should withdraw all policies from persons in communities that were stricken with an epidemic? We who desire a sure thing would form insurance companies, wouldn't we?

George Parker who returned from San Antonio a week ago, is not doing so well this week. His many friends are sincerely wishing that he will take a turn for the better soon.

There will be no school on James River this week as most of the pupils are being vaccinated.

Dee Taylor is painting Alfred Elebracht's house for him this week.

"INSIDE" INFORMATION

Use cold water first on egg stains, then hot water and soap. If the yolk leaves a grease spot use carbon tetrachloride or some other grease solvent after sponging with cold water and allowing the stained place to dry.

The legs of children's rompers should not bind. The size of the band should be determined by measuring the child's leg 5 inches above the knee. A knitted band or cuff may be used if the bloused effect at the knee is desired.

The dasheen is a vegetable used in place of potato in southern climates where white potatoes cannot be kept for long stretches of time. Its flavor slightly resembles that of chestnuts. It can be boiled and prepared in any of the ways potatoes are good. As the texture is somewhat dry, it should be liberally seasoned with butter.

Scrappe is a good example of a food combination in which the incomplete protein of a cereal is supplemented by a little of the more nearly complete protein of meat. It is an old-fashioned Pennsylvania-German dish made by cooking corn meal with pork trimmings or lean pork. The U. S. Department of Agriculture will tell you how to make it.

Several times a year, or whenever waste water begins to run away slowly from your sink drain or from other fixtures, the pipe should be well flushed with boiling hot water to dissolve the grease. This should be followed with a strong solution of caustic soda or caustic potash (lye), and half an hour later the pipe should be flushed thoroughly with clear hot boiling water.

The noisy places about now are not the crowded towns where industrial operations are going on, but the secluded woodlands where the hunters are blazing away at the game.

P. T. A. NOTES

At the school house Monday November 28, 1927, the P. T. A. assembled in regular session. Though the business program was somewhat lengthy it was none the less interesting. Further investigations are to be made concerning the building of the rooms for athletics and for arts.

Mrs. Pepper's report on the P. T. A. book is ample evidence that you cannot afford to miss the opportunity of having one of these books in your own home or placing one in the home of a dear friend as a Christmas present. These are to be for sale at some of the local merchants, and on the street from the 17th of December until Christmas. They are books of nearly 200 pages of the favorite recipes of many of our favorite "best cooks."

Last but not least we enjoyed an extraordinarily beneficial report given by Mrs. Riley after having attended the P. T. A. conference at Austin. I can not tell you all you have missed. Come and see. Reporter.

The music is clear—true—real! It comes in over big distances—makes the evenings lively.

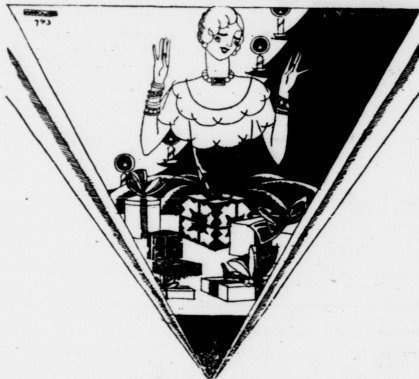

And the weather reports—the news and speeches—are clear. Radiola 20 gets the actual tone—gets it with a single turn of one control. It has a power tube for volume. It has five tubes, drawing small current, but made to do the same work as many more tubes. It runs inexpensively on dry batteries—gets the distant stations dependably—leads the field in performance among sets anywhere near its price!

Let us demonstrate it.
